SAN FRANCISCO HAS $200,000 DAYLIGHT

One Entire Block in Factory District Goes Up in Smoke. With Valuable Merchandise

BUILDINGS MOSTLY TEMPORARY STRUCTURES

Quick Work of Fire Department Prevents Repetition of Conflagration Attending Earthquake—Origin Not Known

San Francisco, Dec. 26.—A fire today destroyed nearly the entire block bounded by Mission, Jessie, Forst and Second streets. Several factories and stores were burned, incurring a loss that will amount to more than $200,000.

Most of the buildings destroyed were only temporary structures, so the loss was principally in stock carried by the firms. The Revere Rubber company suffered heavily. The factory of Mangum & Otter, dealers in tiles and mantels, was totally destroyed. Wooden & Little, implement dealers, the Eccles Smith company and Justin, Caire and Co., both hardware concerns, lost buildings and stocks.

The quick work of the fire department saved a large section of the factory district, which was threatened.

ECCLESIASTICAL COURT SITS IN PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Dec. 26.—Rev. Dr. William Shaffer, the presiding elder of the west district of Philadelphia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, was placed on trial today before an ecclesiastical court of nine ministers on the charge of conduct unbecoming to a minister. The trial is secret.

An anonymous letter, which a former landlady of Dr. Shaffer declares she found in a newspaper basket in his room, figures prominently in the case. It is charged that the letter was sent to Shaffer by Mrs. Martha J. Diechler, the postmistress of Morantown, Pa. The defense claims the letter is a forgery. The contents have not been made public.

MOHLER DENIES SALT LAKE CITY STORY

Omaha, Dec. 26.—President and General Manager A. L. Mohler, of the Union Pacific railroad today denied positively the statement published at Salt Lake City that he was to leave the Union Pacific to become general manager of the Southern Pacific.

BRYAN'S DAUGHTER TO VOTE FOR PAPA

RUTH BRYAN LEAVITT.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 26.—Democratic women of Denver may add a spice of the dramatic to the next democratic national convention by sending Ruth Bryan Leavitt as a delegate. The first step was taken several months ago when she was elected president of the Jane Jefferson club, an organization of democratic women.

Bryan is still an idol in Colorado, and the belief is general here that she alone will figure in the nomination. If Mrs. Leavitt is sent as a delegate the women will insist upon her sounding a few silvery notes in his behalf in a speech seconding his nomination. She lives in a cottage here with her artist husband.

LAWSON SAYS POLICY OF NEW PARTY WILL BE AGAINST SYSTEM

Third Term Will Be Forced On Roosevelt—430,000 Correspondents Have Engaged In Fight

MINNESOTA GOVERNOR THE RUNNING MATE

Lawyers Begin Work on Legal Plan of Bi-Partisan Ticket—Large Majority of Voters in Favor of President—"Square Deal" Must Continue

New York, Dec. 26.—Thos. W. Lawson says that President Roosevelt has agreed to head a new party of which Gov. Johnson, of Minnesota, will be a candidate for the vice presidency. The policy of the party will be against "frenzied finance," and the system. Mr. Lawson's lawyers are at work now on the plan to be followed in the legal organization of the new party.

Candidates Can't Get Away. In his formal announcement Mr. Lawson avoids any direct statement that his chosen candidates—President Roosevelt and Gov. Johnson—have acquiesced in his political program, but by suggestion it was made clear that at the white house conference of Tuesday morning the Lawson political plan was placed before the president.

"It matters not a whit to me," said Mr. Lawson, "whether President Roosevelt approves of the new party or not, whether he consents to run as its presidential candidate or openly refuses to do so."

"He will be our candidate just the same, and by the vote of the people will be compelled to complete the job he has commenced, the rescue of the country from the wholesale thieves of Wall street."

Mr. Lawson claims to have an organization in every state of the Union. His state leaders have already been selected and their work, he asserts, is already under way. He has as yet selected no name for his party, not even a party emblem.

Mr. Lawson's Pronouncement. In his formal statement, which will be officially promulgated today, Mr. Lawson says in part:

"Since the panic President Roosevelt has awakened to a realization that if he leaves his policies half way established he will, as he should go into history as an unworthy bungler."

"With class arraigned against class, with the whole people awakened to their wrongs, unable to right them, with the whole people realizing that they are to be swept again into the unmerciful maw of the system, the whole people will realize that they have been allowed to wallow in their former degradation."

"President Roosevelt now realizes that if, at the coming elections, the system is placed in the white house, the people when they realize it will do something, and President Roosevelt realizes that that something will be something momentous."

"I say President Roosevelt realizes this because he is not a fool, and if he is not a fool he must realize it."

"When the crisis was on President Roosevelt was suddenly, and with diabolical ingenuity surrounded—completely surrounded."

"He was compelled to allow moves, and to make the move himself, which made it possible for the system to show now that the republican and democratic candidates will be satisfactory to it."

"I personally know the system will be so satisfied with the nomination made by either party that it will draw either or both parties through the campaign to any extent necessary, regardless of who the candidates may be, provided Theodore Roosevelt is not one of them."

"I personally know the system will furnish willingly all money and other backing to elect William Jennings Bryan, or his opponent, whoever he may be, provided he is not Theodore Roosevelt, and that the money thus willingly, eagerly furnished, will be the money of the same men who furnished $5,000,000 in 1896 to steal the presidency from Mr. Bryan."

"I personally know that the system know William Jennings Bryan to be what we all know him to be—a clean, honest, unpurchasable, God-fearing, country loving American. In other words, they know him to be a white man. Nevertheless, they are satisfied to put him in the white house because they believe that they can discredit him at the very beginning by showing the world his helplessness in handling and controlling a situation which has almost stumped President Roosevelt to handle and control."

and which embraces over 430,000 correspondents in every part of the country, and these 430,000 the very cream of America's intelligence, affords me an opportunity to get at the real thoughts of the people) I unqualifiedly say:

"First. That but for the third-term tradition and Theodore Roosevelt's promise to bow to it, he would be today the choice of nine-tenths of the American people for another presidential term."

"Second. That President Roosevelt would be only too willing and anxious to accept another term that he might finish the work he has begun and thereby go into history as a builder up, not a puller down."

"Third. That President Roosevelt is so surrounded by circumstances and by the system's trickery, that he cannot in justice to the people and to his own manhood move head or hand, directly or indirectly, to secure for himself another term."

"Fourth. That if Theodore Roosevelt is not given another term there will come to the people soon after the inauguration of his successor such dissatisfaction with his successor's work compared with that of President Roosevelt, which will be fresh in the people's minds, such anger at the realization that they are harnessed by the system for another four years, such wrath at the knowledge of the dastardly way which President Roosevelt has been surrounded, that there will sweep over this country a tornado which will leave in its wake appalling disaster."

"This means that President Roosevelt must be compelled, in spite of himself, to be his own successor. There is but one way that this can be brought about without wronging President Roosevelt, and to this end I herewith pledge my undivided efforts and my fortune from now until the election of President Roosevelt's successor by the electoral college."

"Let the republicans nominate whom they may, the democrats too, but from the publication of this document let every well-wisher of his country do all in his power to bring the American people to the polls on the third of November, 1908, to vote for Theodore Roosevelt, not the republican, and Gov. John A. Johnson, not the democrat, but American citizens, both for the offices of president and vice president."

Long before the republican and democratic conventions have been held, I will have in every state, and in every city and large town, an earnest representative of the great organization ever created in America. The campaign will be as simple as effective—the education of the American people up to election day to the necessity, the compelling necessity, for the re-election of Theodore Roosevelt, and the election of John A. Johnson, upon a platform which will read: "The doctrines which Theodore Roosevelt preached, the principles for which he has battled all his life. We all know what they are."

"The campaign will be for the equal opportunity for each to share in the infinite prosperity of his country; equal security to each in the fruit of his labors; punishment of those who have seized upon themselves the product of the people's industry and the restitution of this vast aggregate of wealth to those who created it and to whom it rightfully belongs to the people."

"The party which will brand these fundamentals into American policy may be radical or national, or patriotic, but its platform is the square deal for all, and its candidate will be Theodore Roosevelt."

Mr. Roosevelt's Attitude. "In closing this appeal to all God-fearing, country-loving Americans I would say:

"It should matter nothing to the American people what attitude President Roosevelt takes toward the republican and democratic parties, or what his personal likes and dislikes, wishes or intentions, should weigh a feather with us. When he started his great work for the people he enlisted as the people's general to carry it out. He has now no more right to bring in to play his personal desires than has Admiral Evans a right to desert his fleet in a gale off Cape Horn."

"When Theodore Roosevelt asked the American people to follow him over the mountains, and they followed him he has no moral right to leave them half way between the sun-capped peaks to which they cannot mount without his guidance and the yawning gulf below where lurk the ambushed savages. If he should leave them there, while they can never cross to get to the former abiding place but with his protection and assistance, he should be held responsible for the deaths of the people who followed him."

"If he objects they should point him to the tables of the ancients: 'Self-protection is the first law of nature' and sternly by him lead on, and if the system, which will ruin the people, is settled conditions, and that the surest way to settle the future now is to make evident to all now that President Roosevelt is to succeed himself. During the next election it will be made so clear that all will see that President Roosevelt is to succeed himself."

"As soon as this fact is recognized, not only by Americans but by Europeans, the people will adjust themselves to policies about which there can be no uncertainty and the first part of the American people to so adjust themselves will be the first to throw up its fight against President Roosevelt and his policies for one thing the system never does—combat the inevitable."

"No honest student of American affairs shall say that the one thing now most desired by the American people is settled conditions, and that the surest way to settle the future now is to make evident to all now that President Roosevelt is to succeed himself. During the next election it will be made so clear that all will see that President Roosevelt is to succeed himself."

"As soon as this fact is recognized, not only by Americans but by Europeans, the people will adjust themselves to policies about which there can be no uncertainty and the first part of the American people to so adjust themselves will be the first to throw up its fight against President Roosevelt and his policies for one thing the system never does—combat the inevitable."

ONCE RICH MR. HYDE NOW CHARGE OF POOR FARM

Spent $250,000 on Ponies in Ten Years—Awakes a Pauper

SHUNNED BY THOSE WHO ENJOYED HIS MONEY

New York, Dec. 26.—Stewart Hyde, grandson of the late Isaac Hyde, a millionaire leather merchant, is an inmate of the Hempstead poor farm. He ate his Christmas dinner there. Unless some unexpected fortune befalls him he will live on the bounty of the town, which knew him so many years as a glided youth, for many weeks to come.

Subject in his misery, deserted by his former friends, his lot the harder because of contrast, the young man wanders about the acres of the poor farm, lost. He has nothing in common with the other inmates. Many of them gravitate to each other as to a common center. They are expected fortune befalls him he will live on the bounty of the town, which knew him so many years as a glided youth, for many weeks to come.

Hyde applied for admission on Wednesday and was taken in by the superintendent, who recognized him and knew his career. In something less than ten years the youth had squandered a fortune of a quarter of a million dollars. He felt heir to $100,000 in cash at the death of his father, and other relatives added to the purse from time to time. He had an ambition to own a string of trotting horses, and it was his luck to be beaten out at the wire. He lost almost all he had at horse racing and took to "beating" the races with the small funds left. The bookmakers cleaned him out last summer.

Friends were amazed to learn that he descended to the sphere of a stable boy to earn a living. Last summer a valuable horse was stolen from Belmont park, and he fell under suspicion, but was not prosecuted. The owners, knowing his relatives, were willing to let the affair go as a piece of "carelessness."

KILLED WHILE CELEBRATING XMAS

Los Angeles, Dec. 26.—Hugh McCullough of Long Beach, was instantly killed, another man fatally and two others seriously injured early today, when fast going electric car on the Pacific Electric struck a wagon containing four men at Anaheim road crossing near Wilmington. The men in the wagon were returning home from Long Beach after a Christmas trip.

LOS ANGELES CHAIN GANG GOES ON STRIKE

Los Angeles, Dec. 26.—About one hundred prisoners on the city chain gang went on a strike today, refusing to do grading work. Ten of them were locked in dark cells and put on a diet of bread and water. The remainder went to work. The prisoners complained of treatment received from the police.

CUT-OFF TOWNS WILL GET DAILY MAIL AFTER JAN. 15

Order Received From Post Office Department by Delegate Andrews.

QUICK RESPONSE TO LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS

Washington, D. C., Dec. 26.—Specialist—W. H. Andrews, delegate to congress, visited the postoffice department today as the result of a number of letters he received from New Mexico towns along the Eastern Railway of New Mexico known as the Bolen cut-off.

Officials of the department stated that mails will be carried regularly over the cut-off after January 15, 1908.

Mr. Andrews has received several hundred letters and telegrams from the many residents along the new line asking him to use his influence in securing a mail service for them over the cut off. The postoffice department said that the matter had been under consideration and that a mail service would be started early in the year.

JURY WILL WEIGH EVIDENCE OF TRIAL

Boise, Dec. 26.—Judge Wood today denied the motions of the defense in the Pettibone trial that a verdict of acquittal be advised by the court for want of sufficient evidence in corroboration of Orchard's confession.

WILLIAM BURGESS SUFFERS BROKEN LEG

William Burgess, a clerk in B. Ruppel's drug store, while on his way home last night at 9 o'clock fell on the sidewalk at West Central avenue and Sixth street and broke his right leg. Officer Babbitt and A. Fleischler, who saw Burgess fall, went to his assistance and took him to his home, 113 North Sixth street. Dr. P. G. Cornish was called and set the fracture.

CITY PUMPING STATION WILL COST $2,160

City Engineer Gladding is preparing plans for the new pumping station on lower Second street to be used with the old sewer system when the Rio Grande is high and the old system is useless, the water and sewage backing up in the conduits to the center of the city.

The new station will be four hundred feet from the river and will raise the sewage 8 1/2 feet, dumping it into a flume, which will convey it to the river. A pit seven feet deep will be excavated for the pumps, which will be run by motor.

Alderman Harrison, chairman of the sewer committee, is in correspondence with several firms about securing the pumps and motor. City Engineer Gladding estimates that the new pumping station will cost the city $2,160.

BIGOTRY OF NAVAL OFFICERS CAUSE OF TROUBLE AGAIN

Orders From President Roosevelt Creates Bitter Strife Between Line and Staff.

ADMIRAL BRONSON WOULD NOT TAKE MESSAGE

Congress May Be Called Upon to Thrash Matters Out—Charge of Insubordination May Cause Bronson Some Embarrassment

Washington, Dec. 26.—Not since the day preceding the passage of the personnel law of ten years ago has the feeling between the line and staff of the navy been so acute as it is today as a result of the refusal of Admiral Bronson to transmit orders from his superior officer, the president of the United States in the assigning of a naval surgeon to the command of vessels in the navy.

In the case of the personnel act it was Mr. Roosevelt, then assistant secretary of the navy, who acted as pacifier, bringing the two warring factions together in support of the legislation.

In the present instance, however, the efforts of the president to reconcile the surgeons and line officers has failed and it is probable that the whole controversy will be thrashed out on its merits in congress.

HUSBAND SHOTS WIFE; SONS GRAPPLE HIM

Dedham, Mass., Dec. 26.—"Not guilty" was the plea entered by Dr. Walter Raleigh Amesbury, of Hyde park today, when formally charged in court with the murder of his wife, a teacher of music at Roxbury college, Salem, Va., yesterday at Hyde park.

Amesbury who had been estranged from his wife called upon her yesterday and begged her to live with him. She refused and he shot her. Two grown sons grappled with their father, bound him and held him for the police.

WAVE OF CRIME SWEEPS OVER NEW YORK

New York, Dec. 26.—A dozen murders and as many more tragic deaths from accidents marked Christmas in New York. Although the six criminal courts are in operation the city cannot keep pace with the wave of crime, which has swept over it during the last year.

The criminal calendar today carries 1271 cases. A year ago there were but 541 on the docket, and the Tombs over crowded with prisoners awaiting trial.

DENVER CANDIDATE FOR CONVENTION HONORS

Washington, Dec. 26.—Basing their claims for the honor upon the fact that Denver was named for his father-in-law, congressmen are booming Matthew R. Denver, congressman from the sixth Ohio district, for the chairman of the democratic national convention, which is to be held in Denver.

Congressman Denver is serving his first term from a district which is normally heavily republican. He is 28 years old, resembles La Follette, with four additional inches of stature and nearly 100 pounds added, and in private life is a banker and farmer. He has been prominent in Ohio demography for a decade.

The congressman's father, Gen. J. W. Denver, was governor of Kansas in 1858, when Denver was first incorporated, and the infant metropolis of the mountains, settled by mining men, was named in his honor, the Colorado region having been a part of Kansas.

REAL ESTATE BROKER COMMITS SUICIDE

New York, Dec. 26.—Hundreds of waiting passengers at the Fourteenth street subway station were thrown into a panic today, when Ernest G. Stedman, a lawyer 61 years old jumped in front of a moving train and was killed.

Stedman was vice president and a director of the J. C. Lyons Building and Operating company, which receivers were recently appointed. The valuation of over $7,000,000 is placed upon the real estate held by the Lyons company.

MAGDALENA COUPLE MARRIED HERE

M. C. Medley, a well to do stock raiser of Magdalena, and Miss May Field, also of Magdalena, were married yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the residence of Rev. J. C. Rollins, pastor of the Methodist church, at 215 West 10th avenue.

Tuesday Medley arranged with Probate Clerk A. E. Walker to secure his marriage license Christmas day when his bride arrived in the city. Miss Field, who had been visiting in southern California, returned yesterday morning.

Medley and his bride went to Probate Clerk Walker's residence and secured the license and were married shortly afterward by Rev. Rollins. They left for Magdalena, where they will make their home.

DENVER STREET CARS COLLIDE

Denver, Dec. 26.—Seventeen persons were injured, none fatally, however, in a head-on collision between two street cars early today at the corner of West Twenty-Ninth avenue and Decatur street. One car should have taken the siding but failed to do so.

NEW YORK FACES BUILDING TRADES STRIKE

New York, Dec. 26.—A widespread building strike in this city is possible. The carpenters' union has refused to accept a cut from $5 to $4.50 a day and if the 18,000 members of the carpenters' union strike, other building trades are expected to stop work in sympathy.

INDIANS THINK ADAMS' WHOLE THING

They Always Tell Him Their Troubles--This Red
Had Ideas

Phoenix, Dec. 25.—The Indians in the central part of Arizona seem to think that Deputy Sheriff Jeff Adams is the president of the United States having the power of life and death over all his subjects. Whenever anything happens in which an Indian is concerned he comes to see Mr. Adams about it or writes to him. Those who have not the pleasure of his acquaintance go to those who have and procure testimonials directed to him.

Jim Kate, an Indian, a few days ago brought a wildcat skin to town and in order to provide against a contingency that the supervisors might not pay him for it he procured from his friend Charles Dickens another resident of the reservation, a letter to Mr. Adams in relation to the pet and all the circumstances surrounding the demise of the wildcat. In the concoction of the letter he put himself a part of the time in the place of Mr. Kate and a part of the time he remained in his own proper person. The chirography and autography are excellent better than that of ninety nine white men out of one hundred, though the composition is word as follows:

"Mr. Adams, I kill this wildcat about seven days ago on the reservation. This wildcat kill two of my chickens to and near my camp, about 400 yards from my camp. Mr. Adams, this man you know him very well. His name is Jim Kate. He is a very nice man and want me to write this write for him and he say he don't understand English. Mr. Adams please help him out and do something for him, same as before. Remember he bring one wildcat skin last month.

"Yours truly
"CHARLES DICKENS"

AN OPEN LETTER

From Col. R. E. Twitchell

"East Las Vegas, N. M., Dec. 16, 1907.

"Col. D. K. B. Sellers,
"Albuquerque, New Mexico.

"Dear Col. Sellers: In answer to your favor of the 12th relative to my opinion of the 'Ward & Shropshire' ranch subdivision, I have this to say: In company with Col. Hopewell and Dr. G. W. Harrison of your city, I drove over and through this property last week, Wednesday, on my visit to Las Cruces in matter of the holding of the 16th National Irrigation Congress at Albuquerque next year. I have been familiar with this particular piece of property for upwards of twenty years and I consider it an extremely well located subdivision, lying as it does about one mile due north of Las Cruces on the main county road to Dona Ana. So far as the soil and water rights to this property are concerned, I wish to add that there is no finer soil in the Mesilla Valley or in New Mexico for that matter. Every portion of the land is susceptible of irrigation, possessing paid up water rights under the Dona Ana irrigation ditch and being signed up and under the United States government diverting dam in the Rio Grande.

"As to the prices asked by the company owning the property, I consider them very reasonable, taking into consideration the location of the land, its qualities and its proximity to the city of Las Cruces.

"Yours truly,

"R. E. TWITCHELL."

RAILROAD DEPARTMENT

SHOULD HAVE STOPPED HIS TRAIN

Missouri Judge Says Dark
Switch Lamp Should Have Been Taken as Sign

St. Louis, Dec. 26.—"It is a matter of common notoriety that a very large per cent of the frightful disasters carrying death and destruction in their wake on the railroads of the country," said Judge Phillips of the United States court of appeals in a decision Tuesday, "is attributable to the inattention of those in charge of the operation of the trains to explicit rules and orders of the managing officers. Such disasters will not be lessened by awarding large damages to those whose inattention to such rules of the master contribute to the misfortune."

The decision denies a rehearing in the matter of the decision of the court in September, reversing the action of the lower court in granting a $15,000 verdict to Henson Collier against the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway. Collier was a fireman on the "Katy" river which was wrecked at Lewis station, Henry county, Mo., on September 23, 1904. The circuit court of appeals reversed the judgment on the ground that Collier should have interpreted the absence of a switch light as a signal to stop, under the rules of the company. Judge Sanborn concurs with Judge Phillips in denying the application for a rehearing, while Judge Hook dissents.

SANTA FE LIMITED

WRECKED AT HILTON
A most remarkable accident occurred near Hilton, Tuesday when Santa Fe passenger train No. 4, the California limited, was wrecked as the result of a broken rail.

The engine and mail car passed over the rails in safety, but all the other cars were derailed, some of the coaches being thrown crosswise of the track. It was a miracle that none of the passengers were killed. A brakeman was the only one injured. The wreck blocked traffic eight hours.

TRAINMEN WERE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR WRECK

Washington, Dec. 26.—A verdict of not guilty was returned by the jury in the case of Engineer Hildebrand Conductor Hoffmeier, Fireman McClellan and Brakeman Rudder, the Clellan and Brakeman Rudder, the manslaughter in connection with the wreck at Terra Cotta, D. C., on the Baltimore & Ohio, December 30, 1906, in which 43 persons were killed and upwards of three score injured.

Laying steel is in progress on the Cameo cut-off, on which road work was resumed last week, says the Clovis News. The rails are now laid about five miles from Clovis, leaving a distance of about five miles more to be completed, and at the rate of about half a mile a day it will be a question of only a few weeks until the road is completed and the Pecos Valley trains make connection with Amarillo-Albuquerque trains at Clovis instead of Texico. When this is completed the track from Cameo to Texico will be taken up.

WALSH'S AUDITOR ADMITS JUGGLING

Tells How $5,250,000 in Debts Were Carried On His Books as Assets.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—The methods of bookkeeping employed in the John R. Walsh banks and railroads were today the subject of further exposition in the trial of the banker. The government compelled A. F. Williams, auditor of the Southern Indiana railroad, to admit that prior to the entry of items which were converted into seeming assets when they were liabilities Williams received instructions from C. F. Weinland, son-in-law of F. M. Blount, vice president of the Chicago National bank. Part of the liabilities omitted in the published statements of Walsh roads were $1,713,738 in first mortgage bonds. Other items not properly entered were $526,932, $226,935, $87,50 and $25,000. The total liabilities not appearing on the books as such are said to have aggregated $5,250,000. This sum was entered as having been spent in improving the Southern Indiana railway, but was in reality, it is said, to have been withdrawn and used for Walsh's private purposes.

Williams informed the court Weinland has been a physical wreck from nervous prostration for the past two years.

Judge Anderson today refused a request to dismiss the court for Christmas. The jury will eat dinner at a hotel. Court will remain in session New Year's day.

PARALYTIC STROKE CAUSED HEMAN'S DEATH

Col. Theo. W. Heman, a prominent citizen and real estate man of this city died at 9 o'clock, p. m. on last Saturday, the 14th inst., from a paralytic stroke which came on at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, says the Tucuman News. The funeral services conducted from the Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, were under the auspices of the order of Elks and the Grand Army of the Republic, except the church ceremonies which were conducted by Rev. Warner H. Du Bose, Presbyterian pastor.

The remains were met at the door of the church by the minister in charge of the services and with the opening words of Scripture of the Presbyterian funeral service, the remains were conducted before the altar. The casket was draped with the flag on which was placed a beautiful wreath of flowers from Kearney Post No. 10, G. A. R., of which Col. Heman was a loved and respected member. Following the reading and invocation Miss Preston and Mrs. Neils rendered a beautiful duet; then the solemn and inspiring words of the XC Psalm were read. "Lord, thou has been our dwelling place in all generations.

MICHIGAN IS FOR TAFT, SAYS WARNER

Detroit, Dec. 26.—Gov. Warner today declared himself unqualifiedly for Secretary Taft for president, issuing a signed statement to that effect. It is as follows:

"I am for Mr. Taft for president at this time. The next six months may bring developments which might make a material change in point of view necessary, but nothing of that kind is anticipated. "I believe that not only the people of Michigan, but the people of the entire country, are for Taft, because they believe that he is the man to carry out the policies of President Roosevelt, policies which alone can enable the American nation to hold its present high position among the powers of the world. "Mr. Taft has stood by the president, when men who would be expected to stand by the executive have faltered and wavered in line of their duty. Mr. Taft has always been found by the side of the president."

WHAT DROVE SAM HOUSTON TO TEXAS

Told By Friend of the Family
—A Love Affair Was the Cause.

Austin, Texas, Dec. 26.—The mystery of that chapter in Gen. Sam Houston's life which caused him to suddenly resign as governor of the state of Tennessee and go into the wilds of the west, where he joined the Cherokee Indians, leaving behind a bride of three months, has been an ever fruitful subject of discussion among the people who are familiar with the life of that strange man, who did so much in later years to win for Texas her independence.

That there was a romance behind his mysterious withdrawal from civilization is well known, and many have been the surmises as to the details. Thomas Boyers, an aged resident of Gallatin, Tenn., who was a friend of both Houston and his bride, has just thrown light on the romance. In an interview today he said:

"In the life of the celebrated Sam Houston, which is as romantic as any in the annals of fiction, there is no event of deeper interest than his first marriage."

"In every man's history there is a time when woman's influence is the determining force that makes or mars it. And in the life of Houston his meeting with Miss Allen and his subsequent marriage with her, is the influence that turned the whole course of after-events. At first the change brought the lawyer and statesman to the condition of a barbarian, living in forest wilds, but finally the liberty-loving barbarian became the patriot who devoted his best energies to obtaining the freedom of Texas and the upbuilding of this great state."

"Marriage Cause of Flight.
"From facts in my own memory, and others obtained from contemporaries now long dead, I believe that this marriage and the mysterious separation that followed, is easily explained by a simple analysis of the physical and spiritual natures of Houston and his bride rather than the wild rumors and exaggerations current at the time it occurred."

"Gen. Houston, as I remember him, was a man powerfully built, wonderful in animal strength and vitality, and of an ardent and romantic temperament, reveling in the ideal. He idolized his wife extravagantly; to him, she was the fairest woman that ever the sun shone on. He gave her admiration and devotion, and expected the same from her."

"Their courtship reads like an old romance. There was a stately house three miles from Gallatin, Tenn., on the bluffs of the Cumberland river. Here lived John Allen, an old fashioned country gentleman, whose only daughter was at once the delight and despair of the young cavaliers. Beautiful and queenly, the lady was not purer nor more cold than this stately lady. She was a Greek in her repose, perfect in feature and figure, but with a spiritual something that the Greeks never possessed."

"All Are Turned Away.
"The wooers came from far to woo. She listened to them patiently; said 'no' gently but decidedly, and then turned away unmoved in their entreaties, never even looking around as they galloped off. She was well educated, and her conversation, like herself, was at once sensible, graceful and dignified."

"In her train was one who never spoke of his love, feeling that his visit was hopeless. And him she loved, as she confessed to one of her bridesmaids on the eve of her wedding. Who the unknown suitor was, why he never spoke, there are only wild conjectures; his name never passed her lips."

"Meanwhile Houston came to Gallatin—Houston, the soldier, friend and comrade of Gen. Andrew Jackson; Houston the governor, and always Houston the cavalier, booted and spurred, the glass of fashion and the mold of form."

"Surely there was never a lover whose honors clustered as thick around him, no wonder the unknown suitor hung back when such a suitor entered the list. He wooed and won and wedded the beautiful Miss Allen in January, 1829."

"One of the bridesmaids, who died only a few years ago, described to me all the details of the wedding. For weeks before she said, the bride was in a state of melancholy, openly acknowledging that she accorded to the governor's suit only at her parents' solicitation. But it was not until the wedding day came, and they were decking her in her bridal finery, that she confessed that, although many had addressed her, the one whom she loved had never spoken, yet she knew he loved her."

"It was too late then, for soon there was a cluster of hoofs, and the governor and his cavalcade of friends came galloping up on gayly caparisoned horses, with spurs jingling. The governor, the bridesmaid told me, was faultlessly arrayed in a magnificent suit of black, over which was thrown a voluminous Spanish cloak, lined with scarlet. Shortly afterward the marriage ceremony was performed."

"The governor took his bride to the capital and there the honeymoon was passed amid great festivities. The citizens of every rank vied in attention to the distinguished couple; never before had the executive mansion been so graced."

"Part at Manor House.
"After three months of what was to outward appearance a happy honeymoon, the bride went home on a visit. The governor followed in a few days and there at the manor house, where they were married, husband and wife parted forever. What passed no one knows, as the lips of both were ever afterwards sealed on the subject."

"Gov. Houston returned to Nashville and sent his resignation as governor to his old comrade, Gen. William Hall, speaker of the senate, who succeeded him. After resigning, he went into the forest, and, forsaking civilization, lived with his old friends the Cherokee Indians. The nation was startled to learn that in a day the governor of a flourishing commonwealth had been transformed into an Indian brave."

"Eliza stands acquitted by me," Gen. Houston said, in a letter to a friend. "I received her as a virtuous and chaste wife, and as such I pray God I may ever regard her; and I trust I ever shall. She was cold to me, and I thought did not love me."

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault.

This obscure nerve—the Cordic or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful palpitating suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds, strengthens, it offers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

Educating Women

President Thomas, of Bryn Mawr College, in her address at the recent quarter-centennial meeting of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, held in Boston, gave some amusing reminiscences, showing how great a change has taken place in public opinion as regards the education of women. Dr. Thomas said that when she went to study in Germany, after graduating from Cornell, her mother's friends never mentioned her name. "I was thought to be as much of a disgrace to my family as if I had eloped with the coachman. Now women who have been to college are as plentiful as blackberries on summer hedges. The president of Harvard college, when he visited Bryn Mawr a year after its opening, and found that our students were governing themselves and going away for a night or for a week-end, if they saw fit, said to me: 'If this continues, I will give you two years to close Bryn Mawr college.' From that time to this, Bryn Mawr college students have had free and unrestricted self-government, and have proved that women of the age of our mothers when we were born are old enough to govern themselves. Student self-government is now working well in eleven colleges where women study and is, I believe, destined to spread to all other colleges for women."

No Charges

A Washington special yesterday announced that there were no charges against Governor Curry in the senate nor elsewhere.

It is hoped that this is true and that this territory will not receive further unjust criticism in Washington.

Governor Curry has conducted a manly, clean administration of public affairs and has acquitted himself with honor in a number of trying positions since he assumed the reins of government.

Governor Curry is popular with the larger number of our people and he is doing all that he can to encourage harmony among all factions and honesty and ability are the requisites for appointment under him.

There is little doubt that had an attempt been made to disparage the governor in Washington, he would have had the support not only of the public papers of the territory but also of the better class of democratic papers. Governor Curry should be promptly endorsed by congress that he may be in better position to continue the work he has so well begun.

No one has to believe this if he doesn't want to. It is from an exchange: Did any one ever suspect the fact that a Bible is almost a necessity in a newspaper office? For months it will not be used, and then comes a day when one of the reporters wants it, and wants it badly. About a week ago there was a call for the Dispatch family Bible. It had disappeared. It was an old Bible—a very seedy-looking volume, with many of its leaves loose and torn, and the rest all trying to get loose. The office was turned upside down—even the artist and the photographer were accused of having purloined it. It was finally found—down in the back of the composing room. How it got there on one knew, but it had evidently seen more hard treatment and the most of those leaves which had been trying to get loose accomplished their purpose. It's a homely looking old book—the Dispatch Bible—but it's a "chuck" full of good things as a real spick and span one right out of a book store, and there was real rejoicing among the heathen reporters when it was found again.

El Paso Herald: The Pecos valley pledges $3,500 toward the expenses of the National Irrigation congress at Albuquerque, and applies for 5,000 feet of floor space for its exhibit. The way New Mexico is getting together on this undertaking is good to see. The congress will mark the beginning of a new era for New Mexico, for such splendid co-operation can have no equal in any other state. New Mexico will be one, as never before. For which, thank George Curry more than any or all other persons and influences. New Mexico was ready for a change of heart, but not everybody could have touched the right key at the right time.

Thomas W. Lawson says he will start a new party, which will be led by President Roosevelt. The general supposition is, however, that the president has had his hands full leading one of the great parties already formed, and Mr. Lawson will probably find it better to get Bryan to lead the new organization as he is just now out of a job.

LOOKING FOR A GOOD TIME?

There are about as many conceptions as to what constitutes a "good time" as there are individuals, but there is one place in New Mexico, not very far from Albuquerque, where 99 out of every 100 people find what they are looking for. That place is the Valley Ranch, at Pecos, New Mexico. Fresh country produce in abundance, horses to ride or drive, dogs, guns, traps, tackle, all at your disposal. The finest hunting and fishing in the territory. You can live in a house, a cabin or a tent, and come and go as you please. You'll find plenty of company there, agreeable and refined, if you are sociably inclined, a favorite resort for ladies. Conditions ideal for recuperating, reading, hunting or loafing. You CAN'T SPEND MORE THAN NINE DOLLARS A WEEK ANY WAY YOU FIX IT. Inquire at The Citizen Office for further particulars, or address The Valley Ranch.

After firing the fatal shot Dorame threw away his pistol and scabbard and when Lieutenant Kennedy arrived on the scene of the killing a few minutes later he found Dorame lying leaning against a building gaily surveying the body of his victim in the street.

Dorame was taken into custody but insisted that he was innocent. After a few hours he broke down and made a confession to Chief McMillin, which was read before the coroner's jury this afternoon. The jury immediately found that Lobato came to his death from a pistol shot fired by Dorame.

Eye witnesses say that vile epithets were exchanged by the men after which Dorame quickly drew his pistol and fired at Lobato at a short distance. The bullet penetrated just below the right eye and crashed through the brain, killing him instantly.

The trouble is said to have started at a dance in Atresco Saturday night. "I was told that Dorame went to the dance with two women and that the dancers, not desiring their company, told them to leave," said Officer Joe Salazar. Dorame, it is said, was forcibly ejected from the hall.

Dorame, in his confession to Chief McMillin, tells of the dance, but says nothing about the women. "Last Saturday night myself and Salvador Anures, my brother-in-law, went into Francisco Gavaldone's house and bought a gallon of wine and then went to a dance in Atresco," says Dorame in his confession.

"Let's go in," he said. I said, "no let's go home. I went in and my brother-in-law stayed out. As soon as I went in they began beating me. The first man that struck me was Jose Trujillo. Then Francisco Gavaldone and Pablo Armijo lifted me up; one took hold of my legs and the other my head."

"They held me while others beat me. When my wife and sister-in-law saw them taking me away they said, 'let him alone. I went home.' 'Christmas I was in company with two men. I do not know their names. This man, I think his name is Faustina, came in and took me by the collar and kicked me. A few minutes later he went outside."

"As he went out he said, 'That—' is the cause of the whole thing. I said don't treat me that way. He said, 'I will treat you—like you that way,' and then I shot him with a 38-calibre pistol and threw the pistol in the street and the scabbard elsewhere."

Lobato's body was taken to Bordere's morgue in an ambulance. Justice of the Peace Craig and a coroner's jury composed of H. F. Davis, Charles Shelke, L. I. Ewing, E. Crockett, John Hart and Ed Quigley held an inquest over the body this afternoon.

Lobato was employed as a boiler-maker's helper in the Santa Fe shops and lived with his family in Atresco. Dorame was employed in the Clarkville coal yards and lived with his family on south Second street.

Lobato, who was known to Dorame as Faustina, is said to have been one of the party who ejected Dorame from the Hall at the dance in Atresco.

Dorame is having his preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Craig this afternoon. Saloon Man Resorts Charges. A. A. Shenale, proprietor of the Eight-spot saloon, presents the statements made by the Morning Journal in the following letter to the Citizen:

Editor of the Citizen—I notice in the Morning Journal an item headed, "Murdered by Whiskey."

It should have read, "Another Murder Caused by Frail Women," for such, I understand from the best authority, was the cause. I deny emphatically that the quarrel between the two men originated in my saloon—that they had any words or trouble on my premises or that they were drinking at my bar. I also deny the imputation that I am running a dive or that I ever did run one.

If a few of the so-called reformers of our city would turn a little more attention to the reforming of their own sex and exert some of their latent energy in an endeavor to lift these poor women out of the slough of degeneracy into which they have fallen, and lend a helping hand to some that are on the road instead of worrying so much about the liquor business, they would confer a favor that would be appreciated by the majority of Albuquerqueans.

A. A. SHENALE, Proprietor Eight-spot saloon.

NEW MEXICO BANKS IN GOOD CONDITION SAYS SAFFORD

Traveling Auditor Returns From Official Visit to Counties of New Mexico--Heavy Snow in Quay

Charles V. Safford of Santa Fe, traveling auditor, arrived in Albuquerque today from a trip through New Mexico on official business.

Mr. Safford inspected the banks, county treasurers' offices and other institutions connected with financial business in the counties of Torrance, Guadalupe, Otero and Quay. He said that Quay county had already collected ninety per cent of its taxes for the first half of the year. "I found conditions good everywhere I went," said Mr. Safford. "The collection of taxes was up to standard in all cases and the banks and other financial institutions are in better shape right now than for months. The towns in the counties visited appeared prosperous; the merchants said their Christmas trade was a record breaker and conditions generally were very pleasing."

In Quay county and as far east as the Texas line, eight inches of snow has fallen and the many homesteaders in that locality are assured of plenty of moisture for their next year's crops. "The conditions of the banks and the conditions of the banks than anything else," said Mr. Safford, and New Mexico will pass through the recent flurry without the least embarrassment to any of her financial institutions in my estimation. The territory has never been in a more prosperous condition than during the past year. I see nothing to prevent another such year either in financial or trade conditions in the southwest."

Mr. Safford will leave tomorrow for Santa Fe to be present at a meeting of the board of equalization which will convene the second week in January. While at Alamogordo, Otero county, Mr. Safford visited the institute for the blind.

"I was never more surprised in my life," said Mr. Safford, "than at the progress being made by those afflicted students there. They play the piano, sing, read many kinds of literature, do mechanical work, such as manufacturing brooms, etc., and in fact they can do most anything a person with good eyes could do, except see."

"Otero county is very proud of the institution. Its citizens support the school on every occasion in every undertaking for its good. They have donated bricks, built a railway switch to the school, improved its grounds, donated it fine lands and have made it one of the finest monuments in the southwest as an educational institution. I have been instructed to write a report on the school which I shall place in the hands of the governor soon."

"While I have been visiting other points in New Mexico," continued Mr. Safford, "I have appointed myself a committee of one to boost the irrigation congress a little. I think the congress will be the finest thing this territory can have as an advertisement and I will do all I can where ever I go, to help the good cause along."

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION MAY WANT ACT REPEALED

When the board of equalization convenes at Santa Fe early in January it is understood, action will be taken by the members towards securing the passage of a bill by congress to repeal a congressional act of some fifteen years ago, in which the Santa Fe Pacific division can be assessed more than $175 per mile, irrespective of its valuation, as is now the case.

A congressional act, this line of railroad can not be assessed beyond the specified amount regardless of its assessable valuation and it is understood the matter will be brought to the attention of the board for adjustment.

The only manner in which the matter can be adjusted is for the congressional act to be repealed.

The average per mile for other assessable railroad property, similar to the Santa Fe Pacific is about $225. With the Santa Fe Pacific assessed at $175 per mile, other roads object to a larger assessment.

The articles taken were six rings, three silver watches, two filigree ornaments, eight silver bracelets and four pairs of filigree ear rings. The plate glass broken was valued at $60.

A waiter in the Sturges restaurant and a commercial traveler in the lobby of the Alvarado heard of the crash of the glass but the burglar disappeared before the two arrived at the store. The police reached the store a few minutes later.

BASKET BALL GAME
FRIDAY NIGHT

The basket ball teams from the U. S. Indian school and the University of New Mexico will meet in their first game of the season at the Casino Friday night. Both teams have been practicing hard and an interesting game is expected.

It will be the Indian school five's first appearance of the season. E. H. Colegrover, the disciplinarian at the school, is coaching the Indian team. Several of this year's foot ball players are in the basket ball team.

The game between the girls' basket ball five of the Indian school and the Varsity girls' team, which was to have been played at the Casino Friday night also, was called off by the Indians, because they had been unable to practice for the contest.

The line-up for the game tomorrow night will be:
Varsity—Gallies, forward; Cornlieb, forward; Bronson, center; Lemke, guard; K. Heald, center.
Indian School—Cooley, forward; Denny, forward; Spencer, guard; Deller, guard; Yama, center.
Umpire—Ralph Tischer.
Timekeeper—Lee.

Clever acting by a cast of thirteen well modulated voices, with smart costumes and glistening scenery were features of the two performances of "Haffies, the Amateur Cracksmen," seen at the Elks' theater yesterday. ## INDIAN SCHOOL CHILDREN GIVE CHRISTMAS CANTATA

Show Splendid Training and
Some Talent for Singing and Acting

The pupils of the Albuquerque Indian school, numbering three hundred, gave their Christmas entertainment last evening. Those present completely filled the assembly hall, where the entertainment took place.

The decorations consisted of Christmas bells, evergreen, plants and flags, and the hall was prettily draped with crepe paper of the typical Christmas colors, red and green. The stage was a large life like white ship with the name, "The Jolly Rover," in large black letters on one side.

The entertainment itself was the Christmas cantata, "Around the World With Santa Claus," the trip taking place on the Jolly Rover. The first number on the program was a selection by the orchestra. The orchestra consisted of six pieces, all students of the school. The selections showed careful and persistent training and proved the musical ability of those in charge.

The audience was then introduced to the captain of The Jolly Rover, and ten Jolly tars in typical uniform, who upon saluting their captain gave a drill. The ship embarked from Albuquerque on a trip around the world.

A song, "Merry Christmas," by the chorus, comprising nine girls and five boys, followed, after which the crew gave another short drill, followed by another song by the chorus. The performance was very operatic indeed.

In a short time the ship dropped anchor just off the coast of Siberia, where the news was received that Santa Claus would soon join them. Nine sailors, all in costume, sang "Oh Who Are so Merry as We," when they drew anchor, and sailed for the shores of China. Just before they reached China, the orchestra rendered "Silverheels," a true Indian piece.

During their short stay at China, five small Chinamen, three girls and two boys in brilliant Chinese costumes, came aboard and sang a Chinese song in their native tongue for the benefit of the crew. Santa Claus then appeared on deck, and after addressing the captain, graciously received four small fairies, dressed in green with large white wings, who pleased the whole audience by a song "Fairies by the Sea," and after a short dialogue with Santa Claus withdrew.

After a pleasing selection by the chorus the ship reached the Holy Land where four small shepherds, in typical shepherd's costume, came aboard. Addressing Santa Claus they presented him with a shepherd's crook as a token of their good will. Four little girls dressed in white and ranging in age from six to nine years, came forward and sang a Christmas song, followed by a solo by another little miss with a particularly sweet voice, who gave the song with a composure that would have done credit to a much older person.

When the Port of Spain was reached, the captain cautioned every sailor to remain aboard and under no condition to go ashore. In case any one disobeyed this command they were to "Remember the Maine." However, four Spaniards, two girls and two boys, each in costume came aboard and at the request of the captain, gave a graceful Spanish dance.

Upon reaching the Bay of Biscay, the chorus sang, "Across the Bonnie Bay of Biscay." Santa then appeared and with the captain received three brownies who requested, by means of a clever little song to be taken with them on their trip around the world. At Santa's request their desire was granted and they immediately became part of the crew.

The City of Corinth was reached, the last stop to be made before New York. Ireland eleven Irish guards in white kilts, green waists and carrying green flags, came aboard and after rendering a short song, gave a drill to show their esteem for the Jolly Rover. They then launched out onto the Atlantic, homeward bound, after which in perfect time with the march rendered by the orchestra the whole cast, numbering forty in all, gave a final intricate drill, the brownies in the lead and the Jolly tars bringing up the rear. Each line bowed up to the front of the stage in a final review and the chorus then sang, "Sail On, O Christmas Ship."

The finale was a cornet duet, the ever popular and appropriate "Star Spangled Banner."

RUTHLESS MURDER OF DEER SHOULD BE STOPPED

Indians Kill Animals by Hundreds Merely for Their Hides

"I counted twenty-two deer in a field of alfalfa near the ranch one morning last fall and it was nothing to see a half dozen in the field any morning early in the hunting season but none are to be found anywhere now. The Indians have killed them all."

This was the statement of Edward Farr, of the Z. Bar B. ranch, located 50 miles west of Magdalena in western Socorro county this morning. Mr. Farr is in the city on business.

He says that it is a shame the way the Indians have been allowed to slaughter the game. He estimated that Indians had killed 500 deer in the immediate vicinity of his ranch during the past few months.

"There was a band of reds in every canyon all winter long," continued Mr. Farr, "and they slaughtered deer right and left. All are armed with the best of rifles and are good shots. Camping on the trail of the game all the time, they make big kills. They shoot the animals merely for the skins in many instances. In other instances they take the skin and the saddle and leave the rest for the coyotes. Unless the government takes some action to stop this ruthless murder of the deer another season the residents of the country will take upon themselves the job of punishing the renegades."

MEXICO ABSORBS MUCH FOREIGN CAPITAL

Investments During the First Year of Monetary Reform Were $86,500,000.

City of Mexico, Dec. 26.—The department of Fomento of the Mexican government has issued a bulletin showing that during the first year of Mexico's monetary reform, by which the country was placed on a gold basis, approximately $86,500,000 was invested here by the United States, France, England and Germany.

The investments were as follows: In banks $57,000,000; mortgages, $2,000,000; industries, $9,000,000; mines $7,500,000; real estate, $2,500,000; railroads $5,000,000. By far the greater part of the $86,500,000 came from the United States. This heavy investment was during the fiscal year 1906-07, and it is estimated that during 1906-7 nearly double the investment of foreign capital was made as is shown for the first year.

Country is Prosperous.
"The possibility of such an amount of capital should be attributed to the prosperous condition of the political economy in Mexico," continues the bulletin, "which has endured for more than a quarter of a century under the government of the great president, Porfirio Diaz. The metallic reserve in the exchequer of July 19, 1906, amounted to $23,359,142. This amount is in excess of the great investments that are made in public interest."

The production of gold during the last fiscal year amounted to $56,414,444, which is 9 1/2 per cent more than in the year before. Mexico now occupies the sixth place in the production of gold, and in view of the mines recently opened it is to be supposed that the production will be increased considerably during the current fiscal year.

Silver Production Decreases.
"The production of silver has diminished some $3,500,000, and has given 158,000,000 ounces against 171,000,000 ounces for the preceding year. The minister of finance, Jose Yves Limantour, attributes this decrease to the fact that the companies have moderated the production as they considered the quotations of silver pernicious to the production of this metal."

"Concerning the production of copper, Mexico occupies the second place. The increase in the production of copper is noticeable, and when all the mines are running to full capacity they will equal the production of copper in the United States."

"Besides the gold, silver and copper mines, there exist in Mexico, some very fine lead and zinc mines in the mountainous northern part of the republic. During the last fiscal year the exportation of these metals together with copper, has produced $27,000,000 of revenue."

New Mexico Bills In Congress

REFERENCE TO MINING

A bill to amend section twenty-three hundred and twenty-four of the revised statutes of the United States relating to mining claims.

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, that the provisions of section numbered twenty-three hundred and twenty-four of the revised statutes of the United States, which requires that on each claim located after the tenth day of May, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, and until after patent has been issued thereon, not less than one hundred dollars' worth of labor each year, be suspended for the year nineteen hundred and seven, so that no mining claim which has been regularly located and recorded as required by the local laws and mining regulations shall be subject to forfeiture for nonperformance of the annual assessment work for the year nineteen hundred and seven; Provided, that the claimant or claimants of any mining location, in order to secure the benefit of this act, shall cause to be recorded in the office where the location notice or certificate is filed, on or before December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and seven, a notice that he or they in good faith intend to hold and work said claim.

Sec. 2. That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Winsted, Conn., Dec. 26.—By means of four small pulleys, an alarm clock, two weights and a few yards of cord, Joseph McLean, of South Manchester, is enabled to sleep later mornings and to dress in a warm room. The contrivance is connected with the furnace in the cellar in such a way that when the alarm clock goes off at 4 o'clock the furnace door closes and the draughts open.

He Fought at Gettysburg.
David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weakness. Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c.

RED FEATHER ON NEW YEAR'S NIGHT

"Red Feather," the romantic comic opera in two acts by Reginald De Koven, with libretto by Charles Klein, of "Music Master" and "Lion and the Mouse" fame, and lyrics by Charles Emerson Cook, will be presented at the Elks' opera house New Year's night.

The scenery, costumes and special effects cost Florenz Ziegfeld about $12,000, therefore its splendor is unquestioned. Joe M. Gates has furnished a strong company, with the well known prima donna, Cheridah Simpson, at the head of it, and a big and attractive chorus behind her. The tremendous vogue that the opera has attained however is said to be due, in a large measure, to the musical score, which is in Mr. DeKoven's familiar and most pleasing vein. The soprano music is full of brilliant bits of melody and evidently of an ambitious character. Throughout the score there are effective choruses, of distinctly musical value, original, tuneful, well orchestrated and ingenious. Mr. Kiehn has told his story well. The comic element is very inspiring and mirth provoking. Mr. Cook's lyrics are clever and graceful and said to blend nicely with their musical settings. The story of the opera has to do with mismanaged affairs in the kingdom of Romanca, where an unpopular crown prince is deposed by the countess Von Draga, as Red Feather, chief of a band of conspirators, and Captain Traversa is elected to his place. The piece is divided into two acts, the events of the first taking place in the streets of the town of Romanca and those of the second act, within the castle of the countess.

BUSTER BROWN ON MONDAY NIGHT

It is a great cast that will be seen in Outcault's famous cartoon comedy "Buster Brown" when it is presented at the Elks' opera house on Monday night, Dec. 30. It includes Master Rice, the imitable "Buster," "Jack" Bell who is second to none in animal parts will be the "Tige," Nellie V. Nichols as "Susie," petite Lella Ganina as "Mary Jane" and other favorites. A chorus of forty singers and dancers will appear to advantage in the ensembles.

"Buster Brown" as a play would not be complete without the march of the "Bobby Burns Brigade" which has always been a feature of the performance. This is of course retained and is now more intricate than before. Music and specialties form quite a part of this year's production. Of the latter the most prominent is the Hughes Musical Trio, vaudeville headliners.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.

Rev. James A. Lewis, Pastor Milaca, Minn., M. C. Church. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by all druggists.

When you need a good reliable remedy try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for rheumatism or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by all druggists.

OI SAY, 'E'S ME BLOOMIN' TREATY BROTHER

BORN--AN IDEA

ABOUT THE RAREST THING THAT EVER HAPPENS IN THIS OLD WORLD OF OURS, IS THE BIRTH OF A NEW IDEA, AND THE FORTUNATE POSSESSOR OF A FINE LARGE ONE IS WORTH MORE TO HIMSELF AND MORE TO THE WORLD THAN THE SANTA FE RAILROAD.

PSYCHOLOGISTS, WHO MAKE A BUSINESS OF SORTING OUT IDEAS AND SPYING INTO THE WAYS THEY ARE BORN, SAY THAT AFTER YOU PASS THE AGE OF ABOUT TWENTY, YOUR IDEA-BEARING DAYS ARE ETERNALLY OVER. IF YOU ARE STILL ON THE TENDER SIDE OF THIS AGE--AND ARE WISE--YOU MAY WISH TO READ THIS STATEMENT AGAIN.

NOW THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN CARRIES IDEAS IN STOCK, WHERE THEY CAME FROM AND WHO THEIR PARENTS ARE, IS NEITHER HERE NOR THERE. SOME OF THEM RUN ALONG THE LINES OF BUSINESS BUILDING AND TRADE GETTING. THESE IDEAS WILL BE SOLD, LEASED OR RENTED TO THE PUBLIC, FOR CASH OR ON THE INSTALLMENT PLAN.

THEY KEEP A YOUNG FELLOW AROUND THE OFFICE, PAY HIM EVERY WEEK, TO DO NOTHING BUT LOOK AFTER THE ADVERTISING. THERE IS NOTHING HE LIKES BETTER THAN TO HAVE SOME ONE COME IN AND SAY: "THERE I WANT TO SPEND $50.00 EVERY MONTH IN ADVERTISING. I WISH YOU WOULD TAKE THE WHOLE THING OFF MY HANDS, AND RUN IT AS YOU THINK BEST. I HAVE OTHER MATTERS TO CARE FOR, AND YOU PROBABLY KNOW MORE ABOUT IT THAN I, ANYWAY."

A NUMBER OF ALBUQUERQUE BUSINESS MEN HAVE ALREADY MADE SUCH ARRANGEMENTS--MORE ARE DOING IT EVERY DAY. ONE WISE MERCHANT, WHO ATTEMPTS TO DRAW A LINE DIVIDING THE PATRONAGE HE RECEIVES FROM ADVERTISING, FROM THAT COMING THROUGH OTHER CHANNELS, INFORMED US ONLY YESTERDAY THAT HIS ADVERTISEMENT IN THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN DURING THE TWO MONTHS IT HAS RUN, HAS NETTED HIM SUFFICIENT TO PAY FOR THE ADVERTISEMENT FOR SIX MONTHS. ANY ADVERTISEMENT THAT PAYS FOR ITSELF IN DIRECT IMMEDIATE RETURNS, IS A GOOD INVESTMENT, BECAUSE YOU GET YOUR MONEY BACK, AND THE EXTENDED PUBLICITY TO BOOT. BUT WHEN RESULTS ARE SUCH AS THIS MAN EXPERIENCED YOU ARE GETTING LITTLE LESS THAN A GOLD MINE.

THE FIRST MAN IN THE ADVERTISING FIELD REAPS THE FINEST OF THE WHEAT, THE LATE-COMERS GLEAN THE STUBBLES. DUKE, THE TOBACCO KING, IN CONVERSATION WITH THE WRITER ONCE SAID: "I BEGAN LIFE ON A STONE PATCH, WITH A WIFE, A BLIND MULE AND TEN DOLLARS. I AM NOW WORTH THIRTY TWO MILLION DOLLARS, BUT I HAVE SPENT FORTY MILLION IN ADVERTISING." PROBABLY NO MAN IN ALBUQUERQUE HAS HAD A MORE MODEST BEGINNING THAN MR. DUKE, AND THERE IS NO REASON WHY ANY MAN WITH EQUAL BUSINESS ABILITY, AND POSSESSED OF THE SAME BUSINESS FORESIGHT, SHOULD NOT SUCCEED AS WELL. IF THERE IS, STATE IT TO YOURSELF, AND BE CONSOLID. IT IS AN OLD SAW, BUT A KEEN CUTTER, THAT SAYS: "IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE."

GRACEFUL HATS

A lovely hat in scoop fashion is made of deep blue velvet. The full, beret crown is edged with a wreath of cream-colored lilies and a large, black egret sweeps back from the left side.

A Hard Debt to Pay.
"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry hacking cough quit before the first bottle used, and two more bottles made a complete cure. Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

CATTLE RECEIPTS LIGHT; MARKET STEADY

Price of Sheep Declines. Regardless of Small Supply.

Kansas City, Dec. 26.—Total cattle supplies were light last week, although a fair representation of Colorado, New Mexico and Panhandle offerings were included. The market held steady on steers, beef grades from the range country selling at $3.50 to $4.35, but cows and heifers suffered a loss of 25 to 35 cents. Top Colorado cows sold at $3.50 to $3.60, medium grade cows $3.50 to $3.65, heavy calves 25 to 50 cents lower for the week at $3.25 to $4.00, range bulls $2.25 to $2.75, stockers $2.00 to $2.50, feeders from Colorado $3.65 to $4.20, stockers and feeders sold lower up to Thursday last week, but many buyers appeared late in the week, and everything was cleaned up with closing prices. The range country loss. The run today is only 2500 here, and small at all points, as usual during the holiday week, but nobody expected quite such a light supply today. Prices are 15 to 25 cents higher on both steers and cows.

Mutton receipts have been light, but prices declined 20 to 30 cents last week, altogether due to outside influences. Market for the meat is bad and lower prices prevail at Chicago and Buffalo. Local prices have been running as high as at Chicago, and buyers forced concessions late last week in view of these conditions. Run is 4500 today, market strong to 10 higher, lambs today at $5.65 to $5.90, some light yearlings at $4.90, stockers and feeders at $3.25. Heavy supplies of poultry and game, incident to the holidays, seem to have affected the mutton market more than it has other live stock this year.

The Comanche smelter company at Silver City has been placed in the hands of a receiver, appointed by Judge Parker. H. E. Gilmer, who has been superintendent of the company, is temporary receiver, but it is thought that a permanent receiver will be selected by the creditors. It is said that the company is quite heavily involved.

Appendicitis.
Is due in a large measure to abuse of the bowels, by employing drastic purgatives. To avoid all danger, use only Dr. King's New Life Pills, the safe, gentle cleansers and invigorators. Guaranteed to cure headache, biliousness, malaria and jaundice, at all drug stores. 25c.

Miss Hannah Bonem, of San Marcial, will attend the wedding of her cousin, Miss Marian Sanders, at Trinidad, Colo., January 2.

AUCTION

Owing to Illness

I was compelled to postpone the mammoth auction sale of groceries at C. N. Brighams opposite the First National Bank. There are thousands of dollars worth of high grade groceries, including over 150 full cases that have never been opened; such as full chests of best Teas, Coffees, Syrups and Canned Goods; besides fixtures, horses and Wagons that must be sold and positively will be sold to the highest bidder for cash.

The sale re-opened this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and will continue afternoons and evenings until everything is sold. This is your chance to get full values at half price. Be on hand and judge for yourself as to the above statement.

BERNALILLO COUNTY
TEACHERS OFF FOR SANTA FE

Seventy-five teachers from the Albuquerque and Bernalillo county schools left this morning for Santa Fe to attend the annual meeting of the New Mexico Educational association and to do their utmost toward securing the next convention of the association for Albuquerque.

The teachers may not be able to bring the convention here for irrigation congress week, as the association has always held its annual meeting holiday week when it was most convenient for the teachers to attend.

A. H. Stroup, superintendent of Bernalillo county schools, and J. A. Miller, principal of the Albuquerque high school, will address the convention tomorrow on educational subjects. W. D. Sterling, superintendent of the city schools, will speak Friday.

President R. R. Larkin, superintendent of the Las Vegas schools, will deliver his annual message at the session of the association tonight following an address by Governor Geo. Curry.

PERSONAL Paragraphs

The Clayton Citizen is one of New Mexico's enterprising weekly papers to celebrate Christmas by issuing a finely illustrated and highly colored number.

The Brotherhood of St. Paul will meet Friday night in the First Methodist church. An interesting paper will be read by Dr. M. K. Wylder and discussed by the members of the brotherhood.

Mrs. H. B. Ray, secretary of the Non-Sectarian Benevolent association, has announced the receipt by the association of the generous annual contribution for the maintenance of its work from their Albuquerque Elks' lodge, for which the association desires to express its thanks.

E. Lawrence Walker, advance agent for Chas. B. Hanford, the Shakespearean actor, is in the city paving a way for the coming of the Hanford company, which is to appear at the Elks' theater January 7, presenting Anthony and Cleopatra. Mr. Hanford's company this year is composed of twenty-nine people, all well known in Shakespearean art, and carries a car load of scenery. Mr. Hanford's production this year is entirely new as far as scenery and costumes are concerned.

Call for gunny sacks, all sizes; wagon will call for them. Phone 16, E. W. Fee, 602-604 South First St.

"FABIOLA" AT ST.
MARY'S TOMORROW NIGHT

The Ignatian Dramatic club, composed of young men and women of the Immaculate Conception parish, will present "Fabiola," a four act drama at St. Mary's hall tomorrow night. The club has spent nearly three months rehearsing the drama under the direction of Prof. J. H. Crum.

The scene is laid in Rome in the early days of the Christian era when Christianity was in its infancy and worship of false divinities reigned supreme; when refusal to offer incense to the gods of the Romans meant death in a horrible manner. A large number of tickets have been sold and a packed house is expected.

The reason we do so much ROUGH DRY work is because we do it right and at the price you cannot afford to have it done at home.

FOR CHRISTMAS

WE HAVE made it the inviolate rule of our business, and have laid it upon our honor, to offer for sale only such things as are unequivocally the best—in most cases, regardless of price. Many articles, such as table silver, fine hand-painted china, and cut glass, can be secured of us at about half what you pay dealers that carry it as a side line. Suggestive of what we have:

Fine Haviland China in sets or odd pieces, hand painted China, semi-porcelain dinner sets, cut glass, vases, ornamental lamps, Roger Bros. table silver, carving sets, chafing dishes, after-dinner tea sets, fine shaving sets, cutlery, scissors, guns, revolvers, all kinds of mechanics' tools in sets.
