On Jan. 12, the government news agency Notimex reported that the National Livestock Federation (Confederacion Nacional Ganadera, CNG) has become a majority partner in Central Industrial de Abastos, the largest meat warehouse and distribution center in Mexico. The cold storage facility, located in Mexico City, stores meat from throughout the country. CNG president Cesar Gonzalez Quiroga said more than 1.5 million CNG members contributed a total of 25 million nuevo pesos (US$8.01 million) for the organization to purchase its stake of the facility. Several other members of the private sector are contributing the balance of 35 million nuevo pesos (US$11.21 million) for the purchase. (Source: Notimex, 01/12/93)
