Panama: U.S. Soldier Killed In Accident

by Deborah Tyroler

Category/Department: General

Published: Wednesday, February 8, 1989

On Feb. 4, a spokesperson for the US Southern Command said that a US Army sergeant was killed on Feb. 3 during a jungle training exercise at Fort Hood, located on Panama's Atlantic coast. The soldier, who had arrived in Panama only three days before, was apparently accidentally killed by a hunter in the area. (Basic data from Xinhua, 02/04/89)
