Published: Tuesday, February 14, 1989

On Feb. 10, in his weekly radio message, President Jose Sarney asserted that a reduction of foreign debt service payments is absolutely necessary to achieve development and political stability. According to Sarney, reducing the debt burden could be obtained via negotiations without confrontation. Brazil's foreign debt totals $114.9 billion. (Basic data from AFP, 02/10/89)
