SANTA FE, - NEW MEX

The consideration of the Montana election case was resumed in the senate, and as no senator sought the floor the yeas and nays were ordered on the first reading. The yeas were 41 and the nays were taken 19. The senate was then adjourned. The speaker suggested if a senator would care to speak he would make the closing argument in support of the committee's report. Morgan said that after hearing the senator from New York he might feel himself required to say something. Evans then proceeded to state in detail the facts and circumstances in the Montana election and to discuss the powers of the senate in the voting board, on which he said there were no powers imposed by the statute in words, but that he means, he said, "its powers are unlimited within the sense that belongs to the phrase to which it was applied."

SATURDAY SALAD.

"When the sunbeams break in sprays among the daffodils and crocuses,
When the merry birds lift up their heads to sing,
When the life is not any place on earth to hold a man who grieves,
When the merry birds lift up their heads to sing,
Then it's spring!
When the dandelions blossom and the grass begins to grow,
And you greet the kisses that the zephyrs fling,
When the rainbow ends for which we vainly strive,
When it's spring!
Then it's spring!"

Miss Theresa Schulte, the accomplished daughter of Prof. Schulte, has been sojourning in the City of Mexico for several months, and a private letter from Mr. B. F. Combs announces that he and Miss Schulte have become engaged and will be married at no distant day. Mr. Combs is formerly of San Diego, and is one of the rising young business men in the Mexican capital.

At the meeting of the ladies to consider the improvement of the plaza, held this afternoon, it was decided to accept Capt. Gray's kind offer of the use of his hall, and give a promenade concert and supper on Monday evening next, April 14, at 8 o'clock. It is proposed to use the money raised to purchase iron benches for the plaza. These cost about $5 each. If forty can be purchased not only the comfort of those attending the daily concerts will be increased, but the appearance of the plaza itself will be greatly improved. At our citizens should attend, for they have never before been called upon to work for an object of such universal interest.

Speaking of the departure of Mr. Camilo Padilla from Washington to Santa Fe, the Washington City Craftsman says: "Mr. Padilla, though quite a young man, is a ripe Spanish scholar, having been a close student of Spanish literature, and of considerable attainments in the English tongue. Seven or eight months ago he delivered an address on Spanish literature before the Spanish-American society of New York, which was highly commended, and he has been a large contributor to the Spanish press during his sojourn in Washington. He has many warm friends here who, while very sorry to lose his presence in our midst, rejoice at the prospects of advancement which his new fields of labor open before him."

VETERANS MUSTERED OUT.

Resolutions in Memory of the Grand Army Men Who Have Gone Before.

The Santa Fe delegates to the G. A. R. encampment got home yesterday and last night, each one singing the praises of the city's hospitality. Among the resolutions adopted were the following relating to deceased members:

Whereas, In the providence of God the following named comrades have been called from us during the past year by death, viz: William J. Gill, Kearney post, No. 10, Deming; Linsey Henson, Slough post, No. 6, Socorro; Louis Hommel, Thomas post, No. 1, Las Vegas; J. W. Thomas, G. K. Warren post, No. 5, Albuquerque; H. S. Willey, G. K. Warren post, No. 5, Albuquerque; Robert H. Stapleton, Slough post, No. 6, Socorro; William P. McClure, M-Kee post, No. 7, Silver City; Peter Burdick, Phil. Sheridan post, No. 14, Las Cruces; John H. Mills, Slough post, No. 6, Socorro, and department commander, therefore be it

Resolved, 1st, That in the death of the above named comrades the respective posts of which they were members have lost some most worthy comrades, and the communities in which they lived some most valuable citizens.

2d, That while we bow in humble submission to the orders of our department commander, we recognize the fact that our ranks are rapidly diminishing, and that soon the old soldiers will live only in the memory of a grateful people.

3d, That we extend to the bereaved and sorrowing friends of these comrades a soldier's sympathy, and commend them to the merciful care of the One Great Comforter of the bereaved and disconsolate.

4th, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the nearest relatives of the deceased.

THOMAS HARWOOD,
N. M. LANE,
E. S. STOVER,
Committee.

Whereas, In the providence of the Great Commander of all the visible and invisible forces of the universe, our highly esteemed and much loved comrade, John H. Mills, a member of Slough Post, No. 6, G. A. R., and commander of the department of New Mexico, has been removed by the inscrutable hand of death; and

Whereas, A feeling of inexhaustible sorrow, like a deep wave, has rolled over us, the depths of which can hardly be sounded only by those whose souls have been stirred to deeds of patriotism and moved by the inscrutable hand of death; and

Resolved, 1st, That while we sincerely mourn the death of our comrade and commander, John H. Mills, we bow in humble submission to the mandates of Him whose orders must be obeyed.

2d, That, like patriots tried and true, we renew our devotion to those undying principles which underlie our order.

3d, That in the death of Comrade Mills our department has lost a devoted commander, and the community at large an earnest, worthy and patriotic citizen.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

Sample Parker's free lunch to-night.

Everything that is nice at Parker's Sunday dinner.

Ice cream and chicken for dinner at Parker's to-morrow.

Go to the plaza improvement promenade concert at Gray's opera house on Monday night.

White winged peace has settled over the Spanish-American newspaper controversy. 'Tis best.

Among the guests at the Exchange are F. H. Dudley, of Winchester, Ky., and Smith H. Simpson, of Faos.

The ladies' meeting this afternoon was a success. The promenade concert on Monday night will also be a success.

Rare salads and a rare time at the plaza improvement promenade concert on Monday night. Go and take your friends.

The Palace hotel patrons have been feasting on strawberries and cream all this week. Thirty-odd guests took dinner there yesterday.

Ten new wooden benches were placed in the plaza to-day at a cost of $1 each. They went into service with the scheme of putting in iron ones later on.

Capt. James M. Culver, a pioneer newspaper man and now a successful dealer in printers' supplies, Denver, is in the city to-day. He should come oftener and stay longer.

Thus far the sum of $2,275 has been paid the artesian well contractors. There are several subscribers to stock who are yet delinquent. In order that the work shall proceed these must get to the front at once and pay up.

At the Palace: Chas. Frankenthal, New York; John Lewisohn, San Pedro; W. H. Constable, St. Joe; J. M. Culver, Denver; D. W. Turner, Kansas City; George Buford, St. Joe; A. Forbes, wife and child, Chicago; S. T. Lindsey, St. Louis; F. Michelbacher, St. Joe; G. H. Miller and wife, St. Paul; E. S. Black, Denver.

The university work is prospering. Much interest was manifested at the rhetorical exercises yesterday afternoon in the chapel. The program was made up of singing, reading, essays and speaking the latter being varied by exercises in English, German and Spanish. Prof. J. M. Crow, of Iowa, also made a short address. The public are invited to the university every alternate Friday p. m.

Mr. Herman Clausen, formerly well known as a good hotel man in Albuquerque and Santa Fe, has leased the Terrace at the Fischer brewery, including the bowling alleys, shooting galleries and everything pertaining to the retail business. Besides a complete stock of the finest wines and liquors, he has ordered from the east a large assortment of imported delicacies, which will be served to his patrons in the best of style as cool lunches under the cool shade of the weeping willow and fragrant locust.

If all the business men and property holders in Santa Fe would contribute a small amount of money to improve the condition of the plaza, this most popular pleasure resort could truly be made "a place of beauty and a joy forever," and the amount expended in this way would never be missed. Perhaps the mercantile world will assist the ladies in their endeavor to raise funds for the improvement. They have a preliminary meeting at the residence of Mrs. Prince this afternoon to consider the plan of entertainment to be given for the purpose.

DASHES ON THE DIAMOND.

Some Using of a New Nature as to What the Old as of the New Boys are Doing.

Pinos Altos has an organized club and proposes to champion the southwest.

If Adolphus Hill would practice he would be the star pitcher of the territory.

Bob Pender, who played a good second for Vegas, is now pitching for Galveston.

Hoolihan puts up a fine game at third for the soldiers and moves like a ball player.

The Rodenstein brothers, of the Fort Marcy team, form a battery which, for every day work, is hard to beat.

The Fort Marcy club has challenged Albuquerque for a match game, but the challenge was "laid on the table."

Osborne is playing center for Wheeling; Mackey is in Denver, disengaged; Hoffmann was last heard of heading for Texas.

Favour's back never recovered from the Decoration day strain and he is now living in retirement at his Wisconsin home.

There will be a game of ball on the old Santa Fe grounds between the juvenile Fowell and Cienfuegos nines to-morrow at 1 p. m.

Both Fudger and Goodenough have quit playing. The former is playing short for Stockton and the latter in the field for Sacramento.

Tip O'Neill is playing left field and lining out two baggers with great regularity for the champion Oakland. Tip will hold his own anywhere.

Van Vleet, of the Fort Marcy's, is suffering with a strained arm and is playing first. Klein fills his place at short and is putting up a brilliant game.

Daniels, of the Brothers' College nine, has a quick and steady out, and, when he uses to advantage. With a little more experience he will be a first rate pitcher.

Buchan, the hard hitting little third baseman of the Las Vegas team, and Lookabaugh, who twirled for Santa Fe, are both on the San Francisco team of the California league.

Albuquerque's former catcher, Jack Newman, is now with the Brooklyn National League team. As a batter Jack will hold his end down with even that team of sluggers.

Old Man Dallas was played as a substitute by Stockton in a late game and took all the honors of the game. Dallas is surely rejuvenated and may yet be seen making his lightning double plays and right field hits.

Albuquerque's Base Ball association had a meeting Thursday, and a number of interesting resolutions were adopted. A committee was appointed to raise money with which to build a grand stand and purchase a player's outfit.

Our old captain, Belden Hill, is making a brilliant name with Washington. In their first game against the Rochester Hill had four hits out of four times at bat, one of these a triple. The Washingtonians say he will make the best third baseman the Senators ever had.

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS.

Street Sprinkling, Gas and Plaza Streets—Charges Against the Police—Board of Trade.

There was more interest than usual manifested in yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Board of Trade. A letter was received from Gov. Prince regretting his absence and suggesting the appointment of several committees to consider the cost of internal improvements, for meeting the cost of which he agreed to contribute one-tenth of the sum necessary, as the Palace hotel has also agreed to do.

Incidentally the letter touched upon incorporation of the city, and the subject was discussed with no inconsiderable enthusiasm; in fact it was apparent that the continued agitation of the question is serving to make new friends for it continually.

The subject of securing settees, of sprinkling the plaza thoroughfares and adjacent streets, and of lighting the street lamps in the main part of the city were over and fully talked about, and a committee of one was named to gather facts as to the cost of these things and report at the next meeting. These committees are: On street lights, E. L. Bartlett; on sprinkling, John Gray; on plaza improvements, Solomon Spiegelberg.

Mr. Geo. W. Knaebel came before the board and called attention to the very unsatisfactory police regulations existing here at present. He cited numerous cases of petty crimes, among others the attempt to burglarize his office safe on the night of the 7th inst. over and said that he had no instance has the chief of police or any of his subordinates made any endeavor to ferret out the criminals. The sheriff had been requested to act, but that official declined, saying it was the duty of the chief of police.

Mr. Knaebel merely desired to say that he felt that the Board of Trade was fairly representing the tax payers of the town to the end that they might know how such matters are neglected. Several gentlemen present made remarks severely criticizing the authorities for such a conduct, and the secretary was instructed to address a formal letter to the board of commissioners calling upon that body to investigate the charges and take steps, if found correct, to better the police regulations.

"Capt. Wilson" interviewed.

The Detroit Free Press publishes a long article on New Mexico and the statehood question, purporting to be an interview with "Capt. Arthur B. Wilson, a prominent Santa Fe cattle owner and mining expert."

In the article is presented a very bright picture of New Mexico, and a statement of the state of the territory, all of which is very well and good, but a half must be called when the statement is made that the Republicans are endeavoring to give this statehood business a backset. "The captain" is quoted as saying: "We may not be officially recognized as a state at the present writing, but we think an awful lot of ourselves, all the same. Our copper, gold, iron, manganese and scores of other varieties of mines are among the richest in the world, our cattle feed upon more than a thousand Grampian hills—not to mention Grampian valleys—and our cities and towns are booming all along the line."

Who is this Capt. Arthur B. Wilson? Echo answers—who?
