WASHINGTON NOTES.
GENERAL McCOOK ASSIGNED.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Gen. McCook will be assigned to the department of Arizona with headquarters at Santa Fe, N. M.

COULDN'T AGREE.
After struggling with the arid land amendment for three hours the conference committee failed to agree and the matter will be reported back for further instructions.

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT
The A., T. & S. F. Called to Correct its Freight Rates—A Board of Trade Victory.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The inter-state commerce commission announced its decision yesterday in the case of San Bernardino board of trade against the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe, and others, in favor of the complainants. The complaint alleged the railroad company charged more on certain specified commodities from Missouri river points, St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Detroit and New York to San Bernardino, Cal., than for a longer distance over the same line to Los Angeles. The lines decided are briefly stated as follows:

Where complaint alleged that a greater charge in aggregate for transportation of like kind property is made for shorter than for longer distances over same line in same direction, shorter being included in longer, and no commission or failure to challenge or disapprove schedules so filed can have the effect of making lawful, rates which are unreasonable.

FEDERAL ELECTION BILL.

Some of the Changes which the Senate will Make in the Measure.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Among the changes which the senate committee made in the substitute for the Lodge election bill which was reported to the senate to-day are the following: "All references to the revised statutes which it was claimed provide for the presence of troops at the polls was stricken out. The house to house canvass provided for in the house bill was stricken out, and a proviso for drawing juries by commissioners was also added.

The penal offenses were simplified and made misdemeanors instead of felonies.

Punishments were modified. The highest punishment being three years imprisonment and a fine of $1,000 as against imprisonment for five years and a fine of $100 in the house bill.

The judges of the circuit courts before whom applications were to be made for the appointment of supervisors are authorized to appoint any supervisors any persons he may see fit not having confidence in the selection of a list furnished by the chief supervisor.

In cases where ballots are cast in the wrong box they are not to be counted unless the tally sheets show the votes for congress do not equal the number of names on the poll list, then enough of such votes so wrongly cast shall be added to the tally sheet to make the total equal to the whole number of votes shown to be cast.

When the election officers refuse to administer an oath on applying therefor it is provided in the bill that supervisors shall administer the oath. But no effort shall be made to have votes thus refused cast, the object being merely to preserve the testimony of application and refusal.

BUYING BULLION.

Secretary Windom Says He'll Do the Square Thing—Points to the New Law.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—There has been criticism expressed by some of the silver men at the regulations adopted by the secretary of the treasury for the purchase of silver under the new law of congress. Two points have been cited as tending to show that the administration does not propose to execute the law in the interest of silver. One is the reservation of the right "to reject any or all bids" and also to accept any portion of the amount offered, instead of the whole. Another is the clause limiting the "delivery on purchases to ten days after the acceptance of an offer." Secretary Windom's attention was called to the criticism on these clauses and he replied:

"The new silver law will be executed in the utmost good faith by this department, and in the spirit in which it was enacted. I have a kindly feeling for the silver interests, and I hope to see silver silver go up in price, as such a condition will be beneficial to the whole country. "As to the two clauses to which you draw my attention, I will say this: I do not propose to allow any job to be put upon the government in the matter of the purchase of silver. The silver bill requires me to purchase 4,500,000 ounces of silver per month if offered at its actual market value. Who is to determine that market price? Clearly the law imposes this discretion upon the secretary of the treasury. If the government did not have the right to reject any bid the secretary would be compelled to purchase silver at the owners' price. But the discretion is lodged in the secretary to decide what is the market price.

"So, also, if he did not have the right to accept a portion of an offer, one person might tender the whole amount which the secretary is authorized by law to purchase. "As to the limit of time, ten days, in which the sellers must deliver the silver if accepted, it is to prevent speculation in futures. It limits the offers to bona fide owners of silver, otherwise they could sell for future delivery and import it from abroad. This is in the interest of American producers of silver. So in fact these two clauses of the regulations are aids to the secretary in carrying out the spirit and terms of the law. As a matter of fact there is no change in these two clauses from the former regulations on the subject.

SANTA FE'S MINES.

To the Editor of the New Mexican.

SAN PEDRO, Aug. 8.—This carbonate camp has been so elaborately written up that I confine myself to a few words only in unvarnished English.

The main feature of the carbonate camp is the ore chute first discovered in the Lucky mine. The trend of this ore chute has been from west to east, until 2,000 feet has been reached by tunnel nearly to the boundary of the Lincoln.

Due east of the Lincoln is the Anaconda, where an ore body has been reached by shaft at 240 feet, evidence of the ore body being continuous and showing that a fault, or "horse" was not encountered in the Lincoln. The mineral trend varies in the aggregate only one degree from east. While the ore bodies at Aspen, Colo., are larger the formation is similar; surface indications prove the Lincoln-Lucky ore body to extend 600 feet eastward from the Lucky discovery shaft within 1,500 feet of Conger's San Lazaro mine. In this 1,500 feet the ore body, galena, gold and copper will dip from 300 to 400 feet, which capital will in the future prove up one of New Mexico's bonanzas.

To reach carbonate ores in San Pedro district no deep mining has been resorted to as yet. Where a continuous ore body for 1,500 feet can be reached by shaft at an expense of $2,000, when the ore has a value of $40 to $60 per ton, capital receives a big interest on its venture, provided good judgment with economical management is pursued, precisely as a prudent merchant and a shrewd banker manages large interests. The fault here is not a want of profitable mines, as the absence of miners who can discover mineral and development it into a mine, then capital.

The Delgado Mine.

The Delgado Consolidated Mining company filed a charter to-day with the secretary of the territory. The incorporators are Eugenio Romero, Henry Yates, Thos. B. Catron, Frank P. White, Andrew D. Clarke, Mariano S. Otero, Richard Lund. The capital stock is $200,000, the par value of each share being $10.

The principal place of business is Santa Fe.

This company is organized to operate the old Delgado mine, near Golden. This mine has been worked for the past fifteen years and has yielded thousands of dollars in gold. The pay streak is three feet in width and the ore runs from $10 to $1,000 to the ton. The officers of this new company are A. D. Clarke, president; M. S. Otero, vice president; secretary and treasurer, A. D. Lasier.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Lincoln-Lucky Consolidated Mining company will be held at Albuquerque on Wednesday afternoon, August 13, for the transaction of such business as may lawfully come before the meeting. The notice is published in the Citizen, over the signature of H. J. Emerson, secretary of the company. One of the objects of the meeting is probably to take steps for the acquisition of other mines in close proximity to the Lincoln-Lucky property.

THE RIFLE COMPETITION.

Skillful Firing at Bayard—Phenomenal Work by Fort Marcy's Representative.

To the Editor of the New Mexican.

FORT BAYARD, N. M., Aug. 8.—The skirmish firing for to-day was the best on record.

Sergeant Gleason, of Fort Marcy, made the phenomenal score of 144 in one run out of a possible 160, and pulled up to second place on the team. The fight for the first gold medal is between the three top men in the appended table.

To-morrow finishes the match. The weather has been very favorable, and should it continue good to-morrow the score will surpass any ever put up in a department competition.

The score now stands as follows:

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." MRS. ELIA A. GORE, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 9.

Constitutional Convention Call.

LOS ALAMOS, N. M., June 15, 1890.
In pursuance of the authority conferred by a resolution of the constitutional convention assembled in Santa Fe, N. M., in September, 1889, I hereby call a meeting of said convention to be held at the territorial capital in Santa Fe, N. M., on the 18th day of August, 1890, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. J. FRANCISCO CHAVEZ, President of the Const'l. Con.

During the Democratic administration, from 1885 to 1889, the expenses of the territorial prison amounted to $52,000 per annum. During the first year under a Republican regime, from March 4, 1889, to March 4, 1890, the expenses, with the same number of prisoners, were $29,000. It is plain to any person who can read and understand that the management under the Democratic administration was dishonest, and the management under a Republican administration is honest. That is all.

During three and a half years of the Ross boodle administration of the territorial penitentiary there was received from the labor of convicts and the feeding of United States prisoners the sum of $7,500. During the first twelve months of the present Republican administration from March 4, 1889, to March 4, 1890, (there being about the same number of prisoners in the institution year per year, from 1885 to 1890) there was received the amount of $8,000, from the same source. Facts are facts and these facts mean that the present administration of the territorial prison is honest and economical and efficient, and that the Democratic administration under ex-Gov. Ross was dishonest, extravagant and inefficient.

The people of New Mexico must not forget that under the Ross boodle administration, from 1885 to 1889, when this territory was cursed with corrupt judges and dishonest federal and territorial court officials, the cost of running the courts was $100,000 per year; the people must not forget that, owing to wise and beneficial legislation passed by a Republican legislature over the veto of that boodle governor, put into office by Grover Cleveland, and owing to a just and honest administration of the courts, the entire expense of their administration for the first twelve months of the present Republican regime, amounted to only $60,000, in which sum there is included an estimate of a deficiency in the pay of jurors, etc., of about $10,000; this means that under the Democratic administration the people of New Mexico were systematically and constantly robbed by corrupt judges and dishonest court officials.

NOWHERE in New Mexico has a determined attempt been made to find water that has resulted in failure. The fact is water is abundant here if it is sought for. The stockmen are admonished to take the hint and sink tubular wells before another summer comes around.

LATE reports from Kansas are to the effect that the long drought has been broken, and while the recent general rains have come too late to do much good for the corn crops, still other crops, including grass, will average fairly. This will in all probability re-encourage the demand for New Mexico cattle.

A COUNTRY where cyclones never light and lightning seldom strikes, such as New Mexico, is a good place in which to dwell. One is reminded of this when reading that since January last, in various parts of the central west and east, north and south, 1,100 people have been killed by wind storms and lightning.

THE New York Tribune, which appears to be the organ of the so-called Indian Rights' association, is working like a beaver to prevent the removal of the southern Utes from southern Colorado. Thus far the Tribune has about as completely pulled the wool over the eyes of congress as Major Powell ever did, which leads the Pueblo Chieftain to make this pertinent observation: "The last Tribune Indian philanthropist who visited Colorado was poor old Father Meeker, who was murdered by the Utes, his body horribly mutilated and dragged around the agency grounds by a chain around his neck. Since that time Tribune philanthropy toward the Utes is just as great, but it is exercised at long range."

SENATOR CHARLES H. VAN WYCK, of Nebraska, "a lawyer by profession and a farmer in politics," has been nominated by the Farmers' Alliance of that state for congress. That cooks the farmers' political goose in Nebraska. They have caught another sore-headed politician, an out-and-out crank this time and defeat will be their portion.

THE Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company can scarcely expect to command a fair share of New Mexico business as long as it adheres to the policy which has characterized it in southern Colorado and New Mexico for the past twelve years. The service is wretched, passengers and shippers are loud in their complaints against such treatment and the attention of the present management is respectfully called to the necessity of an immediate change. The business will justify it; let's have it.

It looks somewhat like the good old times of yore to find it announced in the dispatches from Boston that the Santa Fe road has declared a dividend of 2 1/2 cents "out of the road's earnings," payable September 1 on income bonds. The excellent management of this mammoth concern has certainly surprised every body, east and west, in its success during the past nine months. It is also pleasant to note that that part of the road lying within New Mexico has contributed not a little toward its general prosperity.

OUR esteemed contemporary, the Optic, calls upon the NEW MEXICAN to know why the land court bill is not being supported by this newspaper. An answer seems hardly necessary. If the Optic will take time to look through the files of the NEW MEXICAN it will find its question fully answered. There is not another paper in this wide territory, that has supported that measure as well, as energetically and as constantly as the NEW MEXICAN. The NEW MEXICAN is assured from Washington that the chances for the passage of the bill at the present session of congress are very good.

OUR friends, the enemy, are looking about for a loop hole; they have come to the conclusion that there are a great many patriotic and honest Democrats, who will vote for the constitution, no matter what the commands and frantic appeals of the bosses. We should not be at all surprised, should the Democratic territorial convention, to be held on the 3d of September next, endorse the constitution. This will surely be the case, if the rank and file of the Democracy have anything to say. Of course, if the bosses, hoodlums and ringsters control, it may be different. We shall see.

THE FREE TRADERS' ASSERTION.

IN 1846 a Democratic administration and congress passed a law establishing a tariff for revenue only. This was kept in force till 1851. Under that tariff, in 1853 and 1854, for instance, the price of pig iron was $36 per ton. In 1861 a Republican administration and a Republican congress adopted a protective tariff. Since the adoption of the protective tariff the price of pig iron has been reduced just about one half. In 1888 the price of that most necessary staple was $18.88 per ton and in 1889 $17.75 per ton. That is what a protective policy has done for the reduction in the price of pig iron. Hundreds of other instances, as beneficial to the country and to the consumer, could be given daily. The free trader's assertion, that low duties or free trade cheapens manufactured articles, is not carried out by the facts.

DEMOCRATIC DOINGS IN SAN MIGUEL COUNTY.

THE so-called White Cap movement in San Miguel county was instituted by the Democratic bosses, for no other purpose than to gain votes. The outrages and lawless proceedings and loss of property and insecurity to life and property, that have existed in that county during the past few months, are directly traceable to the evil machinations and wicked agitation of the Democratic leaders. They propose to use the White Cap movement for the purpose of gaining votes and having themselves and their henchmen elected to office. It is to be hoped, that the decent and law abiding people of that county, and they are in the majority, will so vote at the coming election as to foil the wicked and harmful plans of these men, who care only for self interest, self aggrandizement and power, no matter how obtained, and will bury them so deep socially, politically and in business, that they will not be able to rear their heads for a generation to come. It will not do to scotch these poisonous snakes, they must be utterly annihilated, and the good and honest tax payers, property owners and citizens of San Miguel county can do it, if they choose to assert themselves and exert themselves.

THE SIEGE OF SANTA FE

By the Insurgent Indians of the Pueblos in the Year 1880.

Specialty prepared for the New Mexican BY PROF. F. A. GANDELLER, Member American Archaeological Institute.

The Pecos, the most southerly stock of Pueblo Indians of New Mexico, had not participated in the outbreak. A considerable number of their stock at Alamogordo, and at Socorro. At the former place the fugitives halted and there, on the 20th of August, they were joined by Sebastian de Herrera and Fernando de Chavez who, having escaped from the massacre at Taos, they witnessed from the timbered heights in the east, the engagements on Friday and Saturday and thence, avoiding carefully the pueblo of Pecos, struck the Rio Grande at Alamogordo. Their descriptions

OF EVENTS AT SANTA FE convinced the lieutenant general that his chief hope of holding out. So he again declared his intention of leaving all non-combatants at Socorro and going north to open communication with Otermin. Again he was overruled, and again it was the family of Mendoza and Don Pedro Duran y Chavez who opposed him, and finally compelled even the abandonment of Socorro. In all probability the opposition was in the right, for the twenty or twenty-five men would HAVE PERISHED AT THE HANDS of the enemy without ever reaching their destination, and in that case the women and children were left at the mercy of the Indians, for while the Spaniards were at Pecos (as the pueblo of Socorro was called) a runner from the north secretly entered the village with a pressing message to its inhabitants to rid themselves of their guests and join the rebels also. Nevertheless, Garcia did only partially yield. He suffered the bulk of the people to proceed onward as far as Fray Cristobal in the Jornada del Muerto where, close to a watering place, they felt comparatively safe. He, with five men, turned back to meet the governor, of whose return he had meanwhile been informed through Indians.

BOTH MET AT THE NUTRIOS, nearly opposite the present town of Elen, and Otermin, incensed at what he regarded as treason on the part of his subordinate, put him under arrest. It was easy for Garcia to establish, beyond all doubt, that he had been prevented from coming to the assistance of the governor, through the refusal of the others to obey. The march was then resumed toward Socorro. While they were moving along and had already passed Alamogordo, a cloud of dust was noticed, which rapidly approached from the south. It was the escort commanded by the Maestro de Campo Pedro de Leyba. The convoy had safely reached El Paso del Norte on the 25th of August, with the convoy came that MOST ENERGETIC MONK, Fray Francisco de Ayala. He forthwith dispatched Leyba with whatever supplies could be conveniently transported on pack animals, while he remained at El Paso loading the carts of the convoy with provisions, among the few Spaniards, gathering food from the valley of Casas Grandes, appealing to the governor of New Mexico for men and ammunition.

By October the survivors from New Mexico were safely quartered near El Paso del Norte. THEIR NUMBER, ALL TOLD, was 1,946. Nearly one half of them were Indians. A number of the Pecos of Alamogordo and Socorro had joined the Spaniards voluntarily. Several hundred of Mexican Indians, servants, were also included, so that 1,000 may be safely regarded, as the number of the Spaniards who escaped from the massacres and engagements of August, 1880. On these facts, established by official documents in our possession, we base our statement that the Spanish population of New Mexico up to 1880, barely numbered 1,300 souls.

IT SEEMS ALMOST INCREDIBLE that the pueblo Indians, with their great superiority of numbers, their armament, and the quantity of horses at their command, made no effort to impede the retreat of Otermin. From the muster-roll it appears, that among the crowd with which he effected his escape from New Mexico, there were only 155 able-bodied men, seventy of whom were completely unarmed. Still it ought not to surprise us. The uprising had no central head, no organization beyond that of each tribe and a vague leagueship, such as the Pueblos were accustomed to from in olden times.

THE NORTHERN PUEBLOS, obeyed the counsels of Pope, Chato, Zaca, Nicolas Tonya, Francisco Tanjete. The Pecos and Tanos had their leaders and recognized none of those previously mentioned. The Queres were controlled by Catite and the Ojitas, the Jemez and the Tiguas by chiefs of their own. So it came, that while the uprising was a preconcerted and simultaneous movement, the operations against Otermin were very loosely conducted. He was supposed to defeat the Tanos, Pecos, Teguas, and Taos at Santa Fe. To inflict such damage upon them, that they were also to leave him alone. The Queres at Santo Domingo had set a trap for the Spaniards; it was discovered in time

AND THE INDIANS DAFFLED. The Queres afterward, reinforced by the Jemez, waited for Otermin at the Angostura, but they ventured not to attack a body of men who had defeated northern kindred and escaped the snare laid by them at Santo Domingo. At Santa Fe the Tiguas confidently expected to meet a dispirited and famished remnant. As soon as they found out, however, that the Spaniards were able to face them, they immediately withdrew. After all the Pueblos had gained their point, they had forced the whites to evacuate New Mexico and thus made it possible for themselves to return to the customs of their ancestors. Later on we shall cast a glance at the years that followed upon Otermin's retreat, and at the condition of the Pueblo Indians while living after the fashion of the "good old times" again.

THAT ARMY ORDER.

Something Further as to What Means the Transfer of Department Headquarters.

Influential Officers Who are Coming to Santa Fe—Social and Business Benefits—New Quarters.

The announcement in these columns yesterday that the military headquarters of the department of Arizona had been ordered by the war department transferred from Los Angeles to Santa Fe, rather took the town by storm. Generally speaking, it came in the nature of a delightful surprise, but there were a few quiet workers who could safely say, "I told you so," as for months they have been cautiously pulling the wires to bring about this change.

INFLUENTIAL ARMY OFFICERS both in this department and at Washington have also done their best in this particular, simply because it long since became apparent that the good of the service demanded the removal of the headquarters from so isolated, out-of-the-way a place as Los Angeles. In selecting a new location the war department was governed by those considerations which the friends of Santa Fe have from time to time so forcibly and persistently laid before it.

THREE YEARS AGO the NEW MEXICAN began the agitation of this question, and it has repeatedly kept before the powers that be the advantages of this city. The board of trade also took the matter up and through a committee prepared an elaborate report accompanied by maps, statistical data, distance tables, etc., in fact, making a strong plea for this city and showing most favorably the advantages of the government reservation here for something better than a mere post; speaking also of Santa Fe's climatic advantages, pure water, immunity from contagious disease, its transportation facilities, location as to the forage producing sections of southern Colorado and New Mexico, and especially referring to the city's impregnable position with reference to the Mexican frontier, munitions of war, and supplies being subject to greater safety here than at any other point in the southwest outside of San Antonio, Texas. This STRONG COLLECTION OF FACTS was very promptly pigeon-holed by Mr. Cleveland's secretary of war, Mr. Endicott, and for a time the ardor of Santa Fe's friends was dampened, but when the present administration came in and Sec. Proctor assumed control, with Gen. Schofield at his right hand, these efforts in Santa Fe's behalf were earnestly but very quietly renewed, and the result is known in the glad tidings that flashed over the wires yesterday.

EFFECT OF THE ORDER. The transfer of department headquarters to Santa Fe means a great deal for the commercial, social and, incidentally, the political advancement of this city. It means the coming here of from 100 to 150 persons with their families, who will make their homes here, and, as all are bright active men of business, commanding good salaries from the government, it means that henceforth Uncle Sam will disperse among our people from $15,000 to $20,000 per month. By this order probably not less than TWENTY MILITARY OFFICERS and their families will be added to those already stationed here, and there will be fifty or sixty clerks to come, most of whom also are men of families.

The personal staff of the commanding officer, Brigadier General McCook, is not yet known, but among those officers whom this order brings here are such as Major W. J. Volkmar, assistant adjutant general and chief signal officer; Lieut. Col. R. H. Hall, inspector general; Capt. H. K. Key, judge advocate; Major A. S. Kimball, chief quartermaster, and his assistant, Capt. D. D. Wheeler; Major W. A. Elderkin, chief commissary of subsistence; Col. J. R. Smith, medical director; Major J. P. Willard, chief paymaster, and a number of others.

TELEGRAPHED FOR DETAILS.

The full details of the order relating to this transfer have not yet reached here from Washington, but will arrive some time to-morrow or to-morrow, several citizens having telegraphed for them. It is said, however, that early next month will witness these changes. It is possible that Gen. McCook and Major Kimball may arrive next week in order to see what improvements will be necessary in order to accommodate the new comers.

Possibly one or two of the officers now here will be transferred to other posts, but as a rule army people seem to think the present force, including the regimental headquarters, will be kept here, and of course the band will remain, for Gen. McCook is noted as an officer who insists that a band shall always be attached to his command.

The NEW MEXICAN is hard at work daily and weekly doing good for this city. It should receive liberal advertising patronage. The public spirited merchant advertisers in the NEW MEXICAN. There are several merchants in this town who do nothing at all toward the general good; in fact, they are a drawback to the city. People should not patronize that crowd. TOLD YOU SO!

Direct Tide-Water Connection Assured by the Charter of the "Pecos Northern" Railroad.

Incorporation Papers Filed To-day—J. J. Hagerman and H. C. Lowe in the Deal—It Means Business.

Articles of incorporation for the Pecos Northern Railroad company were filed today in the office of the territorial secretary.

The incorporators are James J. Hagerman, Thomas H. Edsall, Charles J. Noble and Percy Hagerman, of Colorado Springs, Colo.; and S. M. Folsom and John A. Lee, of Albuquerque, N. M.

The capital stock of the company is $3,000,000, $200,000 of which has been actually subscribed and paid into the hands of Henry C. Lowe, of Colorado Springs, who has been selected treasurer of the corporation.

Article II of the articles of incorporation sets forth that the purpose of the corporation is for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating a railroad and telegraph line from Roswell, Chavez county, at a point of connection with the Pecos Valley Railroad company, and running thence in a northerly and north-westerly direction to a point of connection with the railroad line of the A. T. & S. F. R. R. company in Bernalillo county, the estimated length of such line being 200 miles.

The articles also note that this company may "aid any other railroad company, as far as it is lawfully do so, in the construction of its railroad, within or without the territory, for the purpose of forming a connection thereof with the road of this company."

This is significant, in view of the fact that Mr. Hagerman and Mr. Lowe, as mentioned above, are intimately associated with the Colorado Midland and the Rock Island roads. Mr. Hagerman is president of the Pecos Valley Railroad company now building from the Texas & Pacific line up the valley to Roswell, and is also at the head of the Pecos valley's great irrigation system.

The line toward the northwest has not been definitely located as yet, but the Cerrillos coal fields and Tijeras canon at San Pedro is evidently its destination. The road will be built to give northern and central New Mexico a direct outlet to gulf tide water via the Pecos valley.
