Telegraphic Tidings

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—McKinley reported back the bill with the amendments, with recommendations that they be non-concurred in. Referred to the committee of the whole.
McKinley then offered a resolution from the committee on rules, but before it could be read, Enloe rose and offered the following:
"Resolved, That the clerk of the house be directed to communicate to the senate the fact that the republicans and democrats of the house have agreed to the amendments of Robert P. Kennedy, delivered in the house September 3, reflecting upon the character and integrity of the senate as a body."
McKinley raised the point of order that this did not present such a question of privilege as would take him (McKinley) from the floor. At the suggestion of the speaker, Enloe withdrew his resolution for the present, and McKinley reported a resolution for immediate consideration of the tariff bill in the house.
After two hours of general debate it was resolved that it shall be in order to give non-concurrence in the senate amendments in the gross, and agree to the committee of conference asked for by the senate, and the house shall without further delay or motion, proceed to vote on said motion. The previous question on the resolution was ordered. Yeas 116, nays 71.
Blount, of Georgia, protested against the resolutions, contending that it was a parody on deliberation.
McMillan, of Tennessee, also opposed the resolution, and criticised the committee on rules for reporting it. The majority in the caucus were determined not only that the minority should be throttled, but that the "Famous Knight" should be throttled.
The resolution was adopted; yeas, 114; nays, 72.

The White Metal.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The amount of silver offered to the treasury department today was 500,000 ounces. The amount purchased was 250,000 ounces at $1.157 and $1.157.

The Eugene Cowles shooting.
MONTREAL, Sept. 15.—The celebrated case of C. C. Hale, of Cleveland, Ohio, for shooting and wounding his brother-in-law, Eugene Cowles, was called on today. The jury found him guilty and was fined $500, which he paid, and the case ended.

WHITE OAKS COAL.
A Carries on out gives some valuable points on the great resources of that section.

To the Editor of the New Mexican.

WHITE OAKS, N. M., Sept. 13, 1890.—Your attention to the interests of all portions of New Mexico is worthy of all praise. Had the journalism of New Mexico been in general as broad and up building as in the policy of the New Mexican we should not now be with but a beggarly 152,000 of population. The people of Lincoln county especially appreciate your intelligent advocacy of their best interests. That the Pecos Northern railway should come up the Hondo and Bonito valleys, to and through the White Oaks country is unquestionable, if prospects of future and growing business weigh more than small present economies in construction. Such a line will demand say $3,000,000 more than a shorter line which can be cheaply built at the expense however, of leaving all the resources of the country far to one side, and with them all chances for local traffic.
Here at White Oaks we have not only soft coals, however, we have the best coking coals in New Mexico, and abundance of semi-anthracite. Now little is really known of this section is illustrated by the ignorance of the progress of the White Oaks mining district. In this little district, ninety miles away from railway and as little known to the outside world as "darkest Africa," is the deep-seated mining in the territory. We have four shafts deeper than any others in New Mexico; one of them has just reached the depth of 1,000 feet. At that depth the famous North Homestead has ore richer and wider than at any point above. Had this occurred anywhere else than in New Mexico, it would have created wild excitement, and would have drawn in people from a dozen different states. Here it has excited attention, and, in fact, is unknown a mile away from the mine. The resources of this part of New Mexico are greater than any one unfamiliar with the country would believe.
VERITAS.

NEWS FROM DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS

The Trials, Tribulations, Sorrows and Delights of Chairman Childers in the Distribution of Boodle.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE NEW MEXICAN.
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 16, 1890.—Democratic headquarters is busy, very busy; so busy to the amount of $3,000 has arrived from my friend Joseph and now the distribution of it goes bravely on; still it is a very hard job. In this connection I overheard the following conversation this morning between Chairman Childers and a prominent Democrat: "Well," said the chairman, "we have got $3,000 out of Joseph, shiver his timbers, and he says we shall have another $2,000, but that is all; so we must make the best of it; but what in thunder can we do with this money?" "Now," continued he, "that scrub, Albright, wants a clean $1,000 now and a $1,000 ten days before election, or he'll bolt; to be sure he is not worth a dollar, and we know it, but the blamed fellow has got us foul, you know our record will not stand much newspaper notoriety, and the fellow cares only for boodle, so I presume we will have to give him a thousand anyhow and may he suffer in hades for it, as I am sure he will; and now, here is poor old Ross wants a whack at the boodle, he wants only $1,000 altogether, and I presume, as the old devil is hard up, we must give him something, what do you think about it?" "Of course," said the address prominent Democrat with whom the chairman was consulting, "give him something, but — him, why does he not call on Ashenfelter or on Jackson or some of the fellows who made money under him while he was governor; what an old chump he is anyway." A dozen fellows grew rich under his administration, and he gets the blame and none of the swag." "Well," said the chairman, "no use crying over spilled milk; wish we had to do it over again, but as we can't, what will we give him, he ought to have more than Albright you know, but then we can't afford it." "Why, if we give him $300, said the other fellow, and it was so decided.
"Well, those robbers up in Santa Fe," said the address prominent Democrat to the chairman, "I see want $1,500, else they are gone, they say; they swear, axes can not be coaxed out of them; they pay $500 and 'e' say, to make 'e' say, they are having a hard time of it anyhow, that a whole lot of fellows have to be paid constantly to be kept quiet in the Faustina Ortiz murder case, and that a cool thirty prop. whom they asked in previous cases they will not come along with money." "By the way," said the chairman, "I am not in favor of giving them a red cent, this is our fight now. Let's hope they will get it, and then our crowd, (the Albuquerque-Denning crowd) will be on top, besides, I have got it in for some of 'em," said he, "and this is a good time to pay them off." "No, that will not do," said the other man, who is no quite as hot and impetuous as the chairman, "let's help them some, although, we do not like to; we can give it to Santa Fe in the neck, if we carry the legislature, and if we do, the Lord have mercy on their miserable souls; capital, yes, we will give them the capital, but not at Santa Fe, but in the mean time, send them something to make them believe we wish them well; besides, truly, they are in a bad fix up there, they can't get average decent people to run on their ticket, and from some of the letters you get, their county ticket will be composed all of fellows on the make, and who are not tax payers and are not property holders or have everything in their wives' name; now you know that is bad, and we must help them with boodle." Yes, "agreed the chairman." "I guess we will have to give them something, well, say five hundred, although it is just like drawing teeth to me." After some more discussion, the other applications or boodle amounting so far to $18,000 were laid over for further consideration. The biggest application is from the White Caps at Las Vegas and the People's party gang. The White Caps want $10,000, clean, solid cash, and where is it to come from? It was suggested that an attempt be made to bleed Mr. Felipe Chavez, at Belen, but not much confidence was expressed, that the bleeding process in that instance would be successful.
Mr. Ireneo Chavez, of San Mateo, will likely be employed to do the Spanish work for the committee, translating, writing Spanish letters, etc.
The committee will put up some kind of a job on the Republicans if they can do it, although they will be careful, having, during the past few months, become somewhat imbued with a wholesome respect for the law.
More anon. STATEHOOD DEMOCRAT.

Visiting The Old Home.

If you have in mind a trip to the old homestead, and have decided to go via Chicago, remember that the Santa Fe route runs three through trains between Kansas City and Chicago, (two at night and one in the morning); so that if ticket limits permit, a little time can be spent at Kansas City without being obliged to wait twenty-four hours for the next train east.
