Traders have lately been busy preparing the park for the fair. The stalls are being put up and the decorations are being arranged. The casino is being prepared for exhibits and the horse track is being worked out.

The first sign of activity, indicative of the coming fair, to strike a visitor at the park yesterday, was a sign putting up a signpost around the track. The signpost was a tall pole with a sign on it that read "Fair Grounds".

THE FIRST STATE FAIR

We extend through the columns of the Morning Journal greetings and an invitation to each and every one to call at our music store.

We will take great pleasure in showing you the most complete line of Pianos and Player Pianos ever displayed in New Mexico.

Our Prices and Terms afford values and accommodations that will enable you to determine that Fair Week is the time and 206 West Gold Avenue the place to buy your Piano.

We refer you to over two thousand satisfied customers. These people are our staunchest supporters—our best advertisers. They speak from experience. They know it is worth something to buy a Piano from a house that has been permanently located and made good for over thirteen years.
