MONDAY, NOVEMBER 24.

A little less public scandal in the administration of affairs in this county is seriously and badly needed. Is it to be had?

Is the late news from Wall street can be relied on, our prediction of a gigantic southwestern railway combine seems to be verified.

Thus in all reality a great country, the justness of the peace, no matter how little they know, or how cheap they are, set themselves up as pretty big men.

No, they would not steal a red hot stove, but when it comes to ballot boxes and election returns, that do not contain a majority for the Democratic ticket, they are not quite as conscientious.

A very large and energetic opposition to Cleveland a presidential boom is developing throughout the county. There is a nice little row brewing over the next presidential candidate for his party, and it promises to be a bitter one to the end.

The latest piece of Democratic claptrap comes from a Bourbon postmaster, in the alfalfa regions. He announces that notwithstanding the increased price of postage stamps under the McKinley bill, they will be sold by him at the same old rate for a short time.

It now looks as if the leaders and bosses of the Democratic executive committee intend taking advantage of the ballot box steal in this county to get away with the lower house of the legislative assembly, are they too good to do it? They may be, but hardly.

SENATOR INGALLS has been looking over the senatorial field in Kansas and he finds that he is only nine votes short on a re-election. Kansas has a direct interest in the brilliant career this statesman has had at Washington and it looks very much as if he were going to be sent back to the senate.

It turns out that the principal in the recent California massacre was no other than a vicious American tramp, the Indians having nothing to do with it. California can't keep all the military headquarters in the west if many such blunders as this is made by her sensational newspaper correspondent.

THERE are no public schools in operation in this city and county; this shameful state of affairs was brought about by the Democratic maladministration of affairs; should the ballot box thieves succeed and steal the county government and keep in power, then there will be no schools open in this city and county for the coming two years; what a cheering prospect that!

Almost daily for the past two weeks the country has been assured that there was no danger of an Indian outbreak in the northwest. The fact, however, that all troops in the department of the Platte are under marching orders, and the further fact that the commanding officers in the departments of Texas, Arizona and California have received directions to hold their forces in readiness for prompt action, would seem to indicate that the settlers in Dakota and adjacent states may well desert their homes and congregate for protection in the larger towns. There are thousands of Indians now along the upper Missouri who are well equipped for war, thanks to the generous treatment received at the hands of the government, and they are maddened by a religious frenzy that will inspire them to fight as never before, should the battle once open. The situation is a very serious one.

THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Chairman Childers, of the territorial Democratic central committee, states the council will stand seven Republicans to five Democrats, and the assembly nine Republicans to fifteen Democrats. According to Mr. Childers' calculation, the Democrats will have in joint session a majority of four.—Albuquerque Citizen.

The following are the legally and honestly elected members of the council and house: Council—Pedro L. Jaramillo, Juan Santibayan, T. B. Catron, Pedro Peres, E. S. Stover, J. Frank Chavez and J. A. Anicheta, seven Republicans; T. B. Mills, C. Vigil, two Peoples' ticket. Democrats—Narciso Valdez, Matias Contreras and G. A. Richardson, three.

House: Alexander Read, Pedro Sanchez, John H. Young, J. B. Mayo, R. M. Read, Melquiades Chavez, Frank Hubbel, J. D. Gutierrez, Gregorio N. Otero, Filomeno Peres, Jose Baca y Barcia, 11 Republicans; Pablo Herrera, Nestor Montoya, Felix Garcia, Pablo Aragon, 4 Peoples party; W. C. McDonald, A. B. Fall, Wm. Burns, Canuto Torres, W. Z. George, Louis B. E. Paulin, J. H. Walker, L. S. Garcia, E. E. Sanchez, 9 Democrats.

Mr. Childers is one of the Democratic leaders who desires to take advantage of the ballot box steal in this county for the purpose of stealing the legislative assembly, the people ought to know it. Is he as chairman of the Democratic central committee in favor of the approval of this steal?

THE SITUATION IN SANTA FE COUNTY.

The situation in this county can be summed up in a very few words; on November the 4th last there was an election held; the entire machinery, election and county, was in the hands of the Democratic leaders; a majority of the Republican candidates was fairly and honestly elected, in fact about or nearly so the entire Republican ticket was so elected; in order then to undo the will of the people the returns and ballot box from the precinct of Galisteo, which gave a heavy and honest Republican majority, were stolen from the custody of the Democratic county clerk and the Democratic board of county commissioners by the Democratic gang; the fact that the great majority of the Republican ticket was duly and honestly elected is not disputed even by the ballot box thieves, their advisers, abettors and aiders; the Democratic bosses and lawyers here then banded together in order to swindle the honestly elected candidates out of their just rights and to take advantage of the steal of the ballot box and returns; they advanced all kinds of worthless and dishonest legal quibbles to obstruct justice, right and honesty; they talk violence; endeavor to incite the passions of the ignorant; threaten the lives of good citizens and use all and every possible dishonest means for the attainment of their purpose; will this course be successful or will it not?

In the mean time a great deal of harm is being done to the honest and law abiding citizens here by this lawless and dishonest gang. If the law and the courts can not protect a citizen in his just rights and if this lawless gang is to rule and overawe the courts, it had best be known, and as far as this paper is concerned, it will make it known. In the light of recent events it must be acknowledged, that it was a rather good thing that the state constitution was voted down, for surely there are a good many people in the territory, who have a very wrong idea of the true duties of good citizenship, and among them are, on top, the Democratic leaders and bosses in Santa Fe County.

Create the Office of County Surveyor. A popular appeal is made for the coming legislative assembly to create the office of county surveyor.—Cerrillos Rustler.

The Attempt to Disfranchise the People. The attempt on the part of Dr. Sloan and Martinez to disfranchise voters and controvert the will of the people of Santa Fe county as expressed by the ballot, will meet with just condemnation from all honest and honorable citizens.—Cerrillos Rustler.

Just So, And So.

The action of the Democratic board of county commissioners of Santa Fe county setting as a canvassing board, has kept his honor, Edward P. Seeds' hands full for the past week, keeping them from disfranchising a large part of Santa Fe county by their fraudulent acts.—Socorro Chieftain.

A Game of Hide and Seek.

The board of county commissioners have a hard time managing the affairs of Santa Fe county. When Judge Seeds handed down his decision to the effect that they must canvass the late election returns, Dr. Sloan was hunting antelope down on the southern plains, Commissioner Willis appeared ready to obey the order of the court, but Martinez seemed inclined to "hide out." Very much the same game of "hide and seek" was played by the board in the beginning of the bond refunding matter. Just who is master of ceremonies, it is not had to guess.—Cerrillos Rustler.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE 1891.

The Tribune and the Farmer. The Tribune will devote much space during 1891 to the tariff as it affects the farmer and the mechanic. Mr. Russell G. Horr, of Michigan, has been added to the Tribune's staff of tariff writers. He will through the columns of the Tribune, devote himself to this task, and will invite and answer questions upon subjects which perplex the American Farmer and Mechanic. He will also, so far as other duties will allow, attend Farmers' Institutes and agricultural gatherings the coming winter and spring, and wherever the presence of Mr. Horr at Farmers' Institutes, etc., are invited to communicate promptly with The Tribune.

Young Men who wish to Succeed. Many a man feels the lack of early direction of his energies and early inculcation of the maxims which promote the formation of character and success in after life. Every such man would gladly see the young men of to-day better guided in youth than he was. The Tribune has secured the following series of valuable articles, which will appear in this paper only.

What Shall I Do? By S. S. Packard, President of Packard's Business College. Suggestions for the Boys on the Farm who are Ambitious. By the Hon. J. H. Briggs, of Iowa, one of the best of the National Grange. Education without the Help of a College. By President C. A. Adams, of Cornell University. A Continuation of "How to Win Fortune." By Andrew Carnegie whose remarkable article of last spring was so full of encouragement to poor men.

Multiplicity of Paying Occupations in the United States. By the Hon. Carroll B. Wright, commissioner of the Department of Labor. A Talk with American Boys. By P. T. Hornum, of Bridgeport, Conn., the great American showman, temperance lecturer, traveler and writer.

Examples in the History of our own Country. By A. S. Welch, the gallant soldier of Gettysburg and Pennsylvania and college president.

Importance of Good Manners. The views of Ward McAllister. A College Education good for all; what is best for those who can not get it. By President William Pepper, University of Pennsylvania.

The Tribune will print from week to week, well considered answers to any questions which young men or women, in any part of the country, may ask.

Vital Topics of the Day. Present Needs and Future Scope of American Agriculture. By the Hon. Jeremiah Frank. Proper Function of the Minority in Legislation. By the Hon. Julius C. Burrows, Kansas.

Village Improvement Associations, their practicability in rural districts, with the views of certain Model villages. By the Hon. B. G. Northrop, of Clinton, Conn. Principle in Politics and the Virtue of Courage. By the Hon. James S. Clarkson, of Iowa.

Influences of the Labor Movement upon Human Progress. By Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. America's Suburban and Rural Homes. By George Faller, of New York.

Ministers of the United States. By Prof. Daniel C. Russell, of the U. S. Geological Survey and explorer of Alaska.

Other Features. During 1891 the Tribune will print a valuable series of articles, written by its own traveling correspondents, on the various United States, with explanations of a large number of model farms.

A special correspondent, a practical farmer, is now in France, visiting the farms and farm-buildings of that thrifty of the agricultural countries of the world. He will report on the dairy, grain, stock and other branches of French farming in illustrated articles.

Women's Relief Corps, will contribute a column of notes and news to the Tribune's G. A. R. page every week. Admirable letters of travel in the southern states, illustrated with pictures, will be printed, describing the south as it exists today.

All the regular features will be varied by frequent illustrated articles on home decorations, fashions and other subjects of intense interest to women. Written principally for people with little money.

Mrs. Bayard Taylor, the widow of Bayard Taylor, will write articles on cooking, she is a remarkable housekeeper, with a scientific as well as practical knowledge of her subject. Besides, the great chess champion of the world, will supply a column a week on the greatest and purest of all the games of the home.

Foreign letters, good stories, the news of the day, the best of market reports, book reviews and literary news, witty jokes, etc. The Tribune is printed in large type and broad columns, and is the easiest paper read in the country.

Premiums. Premium List for 1891, containing a mass of new and useful articles, will be sent to any applicant, free.

Prizes for Large Clubs. Club readers are invited to write to this office for the Tribune's new terms to agents. Subscriptions. The Weekly, $1 a year; free for the rest of 1891. Semi-Weekly, $2; free for the rest of 1891. Daily, $3. Sunday Tribune, $2. Tribune Monthly, $2. Sample copies free. THE TRIBUNE, New York.

TROOPS ON THE MOVE.

The 6th Cavalry going North—Gen. Mc Cook still in the City—Tales of Early Adventure on the Frontier.

Brigadier General McCook is still a guest at the Palace, and seems to be enjoying his visit here among his pioneer friends of years ago, though duty and not pleasure is the cause of his remaining longer than was originally contemplated. The 6th Cavalry having been ordered from this department to the department of the Platte, probably to take the place of those troops just sent into the Sioux country, Gen. McCook has kept the wires hot this forenoon giving instructions for the transfer of the eight troops of this regiment now in New Mexico, and is also in telegraphic communication with Messrs. A. A. Robinson and D. E. Johnson, general managers of the A. T. & S. F. and A. & P. railroads, relative to the transportation of the troops to Nebraska. It is probable that nearly the entire week will be consumed in getting the troops under way. The order for removal is the most important one that has been received in this department for several years, and affects Col. E. A. Carr, command at Fort Wingate, band and troops A. C. E. H. and K. also troop D. Fort Stanton, under command of Major Allen, and Capt. West's troop G. at Fort Union under command of Lieut. Col. Morrow. There is also a troop of the old cavalry at Fort Lewis, but whether or not this is to go to the Platte is not known, that post not being in this department.

Gen. McCook will get these troops well under way for moving before he leaves Santa Fe. He has ordered that a company of infantry proceed at once from Whipple barracks, A. T., to Wingate to remain there until the newarrison for that post can be arranged.

Gen. McCook has thus far personally inspected every post under his command, save Union, and he goes to the latter from Santa Fe in a few days. This inspection is made with a view to securing personal knowledge of the equipment at each post and its facilities for accommodating the army, new assignments that are long expected, to take place under Gen. McCook's order.

The general was yesterday called upon by a number of friends at the Palace hotel, and he entertained them for several hours, relating his personal experiences on the frontier, when he was a lieutenant stationed at Santa Fe, thirty-seven years ago. Besides being an extremely genial gentleman, a charming conversationalist and a typical soldier in all that the term implies, he is a man possessing a remarkable memory. The names of men and places that figured in the early days of New Mexico seem as familiar to him as if the stirring and thrilling scenes the general speaks of had taken place only a few days ago. Gen. McCook made special inquiry yesterday for his friend, Col. Manuel Chavez, father of Hon. Amado Chavez. This gallant native soldier, now gathered to his long rest, was in command of the New Mexico militia, scouts when in 1834 Gen. McCook took part in one of the most memorable Indian campaigns in the history of the country. The American forces were pitted against the Jicarilla Apaches, now the most quiet and peaceable in the land. The tribe then numbered 1,500 people and it required a seven months campaign to subdue them. Gen. McCook relates many tales of splendid adventures attending his experiences in those days, and he speaks only words of praise for the late Col. Manuel Chavez. On one occasion, he says, the troops followed the Indians so closely that they never halted nor slept for seven days and nights, and before the soldiers of those days got through with the tribe their numbers had been reduced from 1,500 to less than 100 souls.

If ever written, Gen. McCook's frontier experiences will make a most thrilling and entertaining volume.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

The confidential prospects of the American Underground Mining Exhibit company, organized by Col. E. F. Browne, formerly of Santa Fe, for the purpose of putting in a great feature at the world's fair, has been received here. The capital stock is $1,000,000. It is figured that 40 per cent of the 25,000,000 people will visit this attraction at 50 cents per capita. In other words, the gate receipts are expected to exceed $4,000,000. The funeral obsequies of the late W. C. Hart took place at Cerrillos yesterday afternoon, all the people of the village turning out to pay their respects to one very generally esteemed by all. The religious ceremonies were conducted by Father Bush of the M. E. church.

Ireland's Scotch colly dog again distinguished himself on Saturday night, going out on the street and finding an $8 money order which Mr. Ireland had lost between the express office and his store. Three teams are turning under the mellow earth on the Probst tract preparatory to setting out that orchard of 1,500 trees for Messrs. Webber and Papa.

The Electric Light plant at the Fischer Brewing company's works was in full blast last night and made a splendid showing.

Gas Regien, of Denver, has executed some very artistic stone carvings for the pillars in the Catron block.

The World Enriched.
 The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will contribute to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

THE CASE OF THE SHERIFF.

The Rule to Show Cause Why He Should Not Be Punished for Contempt Under Argument.

District Judge Seeds' rule on Sheriff Chavez to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt in failing to execute the order of the court and confine Commissioners Sloan and Martinez in the county jail, because of their refusal to obey the order of the court in canvassing the election returns, is in progress of hearing before Judge Seeds today. The sheriff is represented by Downs and Laughlin, who take the ground that the sheriff has not disobeyed any "lawful" order of the court, "they" ordering that Judge Seeds has no power in vacation to punish for contempt, and that if he did, and the sheriff has violated the order of the court, the most the court can do is to fine him $250. Messrs. Knaebel and Clancy for the people have presented some very able points to show the absolute and unquestioned power of Judge Seeds to punish for contempt in the premises by enforcing punishment for contempt, in vacation, and hold that not only the commissioners are liable under the law for contempt in this case, but that the three sitting justices of the peace who interfered with the court's prerogative, as well as the attorneys who counseled and advised the same are not free from blame in the eyes of the law.

The following demand was presented at the county clerk's office on Saturday, but has not yet been complied with:

TERRITORY OF NEW MEXICO,
 Office of the Secretary,
 Santa Fe, Nov. 21, 1890.
 Gentlemen: Acting under section 1149, Compiled Laws of New Mexico, 1884, I send the bearer, Horace R. Thomas, my special messenger, to bring to the office of the secretary of New Mexico, the election returns of Santa Fe county, as contemplated by section 1145 of said Compiled Laws, of the general election which was held on November 4, 1890.
 You are requested to deliver to Mr. Thomas, without delay, the certificate or extract and the poll books designated by said section 1145. Very respectfully,
 E. M. THOMAS,
 Secretary of New Mexico.

THAT ATTEMPTED STEAL.

What the Democratic Leaders at Albuquerque Think of It—Their Advice to the Local Bosses.

Special Correspondence of the New Mexican.
 ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 22, 1890.

The Democratic politicians here are very much amused over the situation in Santa Fe county and it looks as if under-handly they will try to take advantage of it for the organization of the legislature. It must be acknowledged, however, that they talk but one way. Field said the other day in the court room in a conversation concerning the action of the county commissioners and justices of the peace in the contempt proceeding, that every man who had ought to do with the case, ought to be severely punished for contempt of court; a lawyer, who had the slightest idea about law, knew well enough that the statute under which the justices pretended to act, was utterly worthless and the court has full and ample power to punish and also to see that its orders were carried out; I am informed that last Monday telegrams were received by Childers, Ferguson and others from Santa Fe, asking them to come up to your town and aid in getting away with the court, but that the request was politely declined, as it was not deemed advisable by the parties who received the dispatches to mix up openly in the disgraceful and in any capacity as adviser, in fact, it is the opinion here of everybody, whose opinion is worth anything at all, both Republicans and Democrats, and especially the members of the bar, that every man, connected with the granting of the writ of habeas corpus by their high-toned majesties, the justices of the peace, in any capacity as adviser, attorney, sheriff, justice of the peace, or anything else, should be severely punished. They all think that there has been too much trifling on the part of these people, and that this sort of business is too unlawful and harmful in every direction to be discussed, or even mentioned, and openly the Democratic lawyers here condemn the action of the Santa Fe Democratic lawyers and bosses and say they will have nothing to do with it; they advised them, they say, to count the Galisteo certificate, and not to get themselves placed in the position of benefiting by a steal; consider their subsequent actions dishonest and an injury to the Democratic party, and will not be mixed up with them.

I was told by a Democrat to-day that Sullenberger, defeated candidate for council from Rio Arriba county, was thinking of bringing a contest against P. I. Jaramillo, who was elected by 170 majority; that he had been advised against it here, but that some fellows up in Santa Fe and Rio Arriba county insist on it, first in order to get some of Sullenberger's money and secondly to make a two-third's majority by putting Jaramillo out, after Catron and Santistevan are put out.

It does appear from their talk that the Democratic leaders here are more honest and decent than the Santa Fe Democratic leaders and bosses and do not care to be placed in the position of approving the stealing of ballot boxes and trying to take advantage of the steals openly and above board, as their political brethren in Santa Fe are doing.

Matrimonial.

The marriage of Miss Julia M. Fischer and Mr. H. W. Clausen took place at the Presbyterian church last evening at 5 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Wm. Rosestengle of the Lutheran church. The bride appeared lovely in a rich robe of white silk and entourage, wearing a superb wedding veil, and carrying in her fair hands a huge bouquet of white roses and carnations. The attendants were Mr. A. J. Fischer and Miss Hilgert, Mr. C. M. Creamer and Miss Schlichter. The church was crowded with the friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony a bridal party repaired to the home of Mr. C. F. A. Fischer, the bride's father, where a company of more intimate friends assembled at 7 o'clock and partook of a grand wedding supper. The festivities lasted until 11 o'clock and proved highly enjoyable for all participants. Happy responses to appropriate toasts were given by Prof. E. Bandelier, Mr. Franz, Dr. Symington, Mr. Schumann, Mr. G. D. Koch and Mr. C. F. A. Fischer, the latter appearing in a specially genial mood over the choice his daughter had made in selecting a husband, and well may he be, for Mr. Clausen is a man of sterling worth, industrious, well-to-do in life, and possessing splendid business qualifications. This fair bride is a charming lady and has a multitude of admirers to congratulate her upon this happy occasion.

Let There be Light.

Prof. J. Aronson, the practical optician who visited Santa Fe last week begs to announce his second visit to our city on the 28th instant, and that he will remain two days.

The readers of the New Mexican who are in need of optical aid should consult the professor as his work has proved a success all throughout the neighborhood, and he promises to all his patrons to supply them with the necessary lenses in the future. He carries a record of all cases wherein he has fitted glasses; refers to City National Bank, Austin, Texas, and American Loan Protective association of Minneapolis, Minn. All who wish to consult him at their residence or office will please leave a card at the Palace hotel.

The cattle "Dutch" outfit shipped from Folsom to South Omaha, Neb., last week brought $2.80 per hundred, and averaged 1,052 pounds, netting them about $22. This was not so bad for a trial shipment.

Sheriff O. S. Gibson, of Winfield, Kas., arrived at Albuquerque Saturday night with the proper requisition papers for Mrs. Tillie McClung. The woman was held at Deming and the sheriff will take her back to Kansas.

The executive committee of the Northern association held a meeting at Springer last Saturday and levied an assessment of 1 cent per head on all horses and cattle owned by members for the purpose of paying salaries of inspectors.

A large body of ore which is said to run about 25 per cent lead has been struck in the Surprise mine, Cook's Peak district. It is white and runs through the hard like fine shot. Col. Fitzgerald pronounces it silicate of lead. There are thousands of tons in sight, it forming the bottom of an extensive cave.

Chloride note: Last Wednesday evening the citizens of this place assembled at the Chloride hotel to further discuss and to make arrangements for the reunion of the old timers of the Black range. The object of the meeting was to temporarily organize a local old timers' club, which was done by appointing J. P. Blain chairman, Sam Michaelis secretary, Dr. E. P. Blinn, secretary and Jas. Dalgligh treasurer.

An average of perhaps sixty souls a week outfit at Deming, for emigration to Mexico. Many of these are Mormon colonists who go to Diaz or Juarez, but not a few are independent immigrants. They come from all directions, centering at Deming, by rail and wagon. So great has been the rush during the past week that the supply of wagons on sale in town was completely exhausted, and a considerable portion of a carload of "Bains" which luckily arrived, was sold by Lindauer, Wormser & Co., at the depot, before unloading and setting up.
