CARNEGIE AND HILL TO ATTEND CONFERENCE AT WASHINGTON

Hard Headed Business Men Will Take Active Part With Government.

WILL MAKE REPORT TO THE PRESIDENT

Conservation Will be the Topic of Session to be Held at National Capital During Latter Part of Next Week.

Washington, Dec. 3.—Andrew Carnegie and James J. Hill will both take part in the joint conservation conference which opens here Dec. 8, when the national conservation commission with the assistance of the governors of the states and its other co-operators will get under way the most important part of its work so far, the report to the president, due the first of this year. These two leaders in the industrial world were prominent figures in the conference of governors at the White House last May, which was the immediate cause of the creation of the national conservation commission. The iron master's speech at that time on the mineral resources of the country was the first on the three days' program after President Roosevelt's opening speech, and the railroad organizer began the second day's session with a discussion of the land resources of the United States, which has been more quoted than perhaps any other single address at that conference. When the national conservation commission was formed both were made members.

The participation of these two hard-headed and practical men in the conservation work will be of even greater value than it was at the White House session because the time has come now for the preparation of a definite and workable program of action to meet the situation that was partially disclosed at the White House meeting and has been made more clear by the researches of the national conservation commission since then.

The attendance of the joint conservation conference will be composed of men who have been active participants in the work for conservation since the White House conference. About half the governors have definitely said that they will be present and the others will send representatives of their states. These governors or their representatives will be accompanied by the members of the state conservation commissions which have been named during the summer and fall. In addition to these there will be present the special conservation committees which have been formed by twenty-five or more national organizations.

CONGRESS MUST TAKE QUICK ACTION ON STATEHOOD

Delegates Say That If Nothing Is Done This Winter Will Urge Extra Session

ROOSEVELT HAS PROMISED SUPPORT

Sentiment at National Capital Favors Admission of New Mexico by Andrews Bill This Winter.

Washington, Dec. 5.—"If the statehood bill drawn up by Delegate Andrews does not pass Congress during the short session of Congress, then I shall send a special message asking that the Andrews bill be considered at an extra session."

This statement was made by President-elect Taft to Governor Curry when the latter visited Mr. Taft at Hot Springs, and shows that the subject of statehood for New Mexico will not be lost sight of during the press of other business before Congress.

President Roosevelt informed Governor Curry that he favored the Andrews statehood bill, and favors the most liberal statehood bill for New Mexico. With the support of the retiring president and the incoming one, the statehood bill will undoubtedly receive the attention of Congress this winter.

That it will be passed before Congress adjourns after the short session is the opinion prevailing here, because of the outspoken sentiment in favor of it and because of the work being done by Delegate Andrews, Governor Curry and others for it.

At it now stands, some of the most powerful influence in both House and Senate will be directed in its favor and from all indications President Roosevelt will have his oft expressed wish—to sign a bill admitting New Mexico to statehood—before he retires from the presidency. But whether he does or not, the bill cannot be lost sight of now, and with Mr. Taft to call it to the attention of Congress there is little doubt that New Mexico will be a state before many months.

WILL TRY EAGLE ON MURDER CHARGE

Navajo Indian Will Face Jury in District Court Tuesday.

Dick Eagle, the Navajo Indian who is charged with the murder of a tribesman near Bluewater, will be tried next Tuesday, according to the setting of cases this morning. Monday will be taken up with civil matters.

The case of the territory versus Eagle is one of the most important cases left on the criminal docket. The prosecution will endeavor to show, it is believed, that Eagle shot the man because he refused to take a drink with him. This is denied by the defendant. Frank H. Moore and Herbert F. Reynolds have been appointed by the court to defend Eagle.

NOTED JOCKEY IS DEAD.
San Francisco, Dec. 5.—"Clem" Jenkins, who several seasons ago was recognized as one of the leading jockeys of the world, is dead at a local hospital, from an attack of appendicitis. He was 34 years old and had ridden for several crowned heads, including King Edward and Emperor William.

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE IN SESSION

Washington, Dec. 5.—The work of the ways and means committee of the House, which is charged with gathering data on the tariff and reporting on the advisability of reforming the present tariff law, has concluded its work and its report will be ready for Congress when the national body of lawmakers meets next week. For weeks past the committee has listened to a mass of testimony and the demands of industries in all parts of the country, and out of this testimony will formulate plans for a new law.

REPULSED LOVER KILLS FAMILY AND STEALS THE GIRL

Ordered Away by the Father. He Uses Ax on Four Members of Garcia Family.

SEVENTEEN YEAR OLD GIRL IS NOW MISSING

Trinidad, Colo., Dec. 5.—Cosmos Garcia, his wife and son, Torrelvia, age 25, and Miss Luz Gurrule, an aged lady who made her home with the Garcia family, were murdered in the Garcia cabin, 35 miles northwest of here, in an isolated part of the country. Their heads were split open with an ax, which was later found, covered with blood.

Maggie Garcia, the 17-year-old daughter of the family, is missing, and Francisco Martinez, who is suspected of the murder, cannot be found. Martinez, representing himself to be a wealthy sheep owner of New Mexico, came to the Garcia ranch two weeks ago. He made violent love to Maggie, and she repulsed him as did her parents, who ordered him away from the place.

Garcia was last seen Wednesday, and the condition of the bodies indicates that the murders were committed that day. Whether the girl has been abducted or murdered is not yet known.

NAT NELSON DESIRES POSITION OF MAYOR

Chicago, Dec. 5.—The secret is out. Battling Nelson, lightweight champion pugilist, wants to be mayor of Hegewisch, and in a naive little speech to some of his familiars he told why.

"One man's ambitions run one way and others in another," said the man who would be mayor. "When I saw a kid my idea of a gentleman was a fellow in a shiny lid and frock coat that sold my old man life insurance. We must be independent of Chicago. I always had an itch to wear a silk tie, and if I'm elected mayor of Hegewisch I'll support the dignity of the place by wearing one all the time."

"I want a town that men can live in who haven't had the sporting blood stuffed out of 'em by laws that were made for crooks and three-card men. If I'm elected mayor I propose to dress like a gentleman and act like one. I won't behave like a preacher in public and live like a crook in private."

GERMAN ADMIRALTY TO BUILD SUBMARINES

Berlin, Dec. 5.—The German admiralty has determined to go into the building of submarine craft with a type of vessel that is the result of three years' experience at Kiel.

In addition to $2,500,000 in the budget of 1909 for this purpose, it is said $3,750,000 will be asked for in 1910. Orders have been placed at Danzig for six submarines to be completed as soon as possible.

HOLLAND GOVERNMENT DENIES REPORT OF BLOCKADE

Cruise of Warships Was Not Meant as Demonstration Against Castro.

LOOK TO THE U. S. FOR MORAL SUPPORT

The Hague, Dec. 5.—The government declines to identify the procession of three Dutch warships along the coast of Venezuela as a naval demonstration and asserts that this maneuver was only for the purpose of peace cruises.

Officials today pointed out that anything in the nature of a blockade must be duly notified to the powers before it can be undertaken. They say that no such notification has been sent nor has the necessary notice been given to Parliament of any proposed warlike movement.

The government has received no official notice concerning the statement that four American warships are expected at Curaçao in January, but it is thought here now that the presidential election in the United States possibly may lead Holland more effective assistance than the moral support already promised.

GERMANY REFUSES JAPANESE ALLIANCE

No Truth in Report That Two Countries Would Agree, Says Berlin.

Berlin, Dec. 5.—The report that Germany and Japan are about to conclude an agreement concerning China, on terms similar to the American-Japanese understanding, is without foundation. It was said at the foreign office today that neither country had taken steps looking toward such negotiations and that it is improbable anything of the kind would occur at least in the near future, as Germany had no intention of submitting to such a proposal.

LA JUNTA BANKER MUST GO TO PRISON

Supreme Court Refuses to Interfere in His Case.

Denver, Dec. 5.—John E. Golding, a La Junta banker who was sentenced to the penitentiary for wrecking his bank, will serve his term. The supreme court this morning denied his application for a writ which would set aside the sentence.

In addition to $2,500,000 in the budget of 1909 for this purpose, it is said $3,750,000 will be asked for in 1910. Orders have been placed at Danzig for six submarines to be completed as soon as possible.

CRUISER YANKEE SUNK AFTER REMOVAL FROM ROCK Ill Fated Vessel Went Down in Deep Water, But Crew Was Rescued.

WAS CULMINATION OF DISASTROUS TRIP

New Bedford, Dec. 5.—The United States cruiser, Yankee, which was floated yesterday after having been grounded on a reef at the west entrance of Buzzard Bay for several days, was sunk today off Penikese Island. The members of the crew were safely landed.

The sinking of the Yankee was the culmination of an unfortunate cruise from Newport to the neighborhood of Martha's Vineyard to attend the submarine flotilla in their fall maneuvers. While on the way from Cuttyhunk to Newport for coal the Yankee struck Spindle Rock at the west entrance to Buzzard Bay, during a thick fog, September 23. After persistent efforts of the government, John Arbuckle, New York sugar refiner, believing that he could float the vessel with compressed air, offered his services and after long and difficult efforts the Yankee was floated yesterday.

Will Try to Raise Her.
Washington, Dec. 5.—Official advice from Commander Marsh, in command of the Yankee, today notified the navy department of the sinking of the vessel after it had been raised.

After floating," he said, "the ship had a list to starboard, which increased until the compressor room and fire room were flooded. The ship listed steadily and sank deeper. I was on deck, all hands were sent away on tugs and we had no casualties. The ship settled in forty-two feet of water and the wrecking company will remove operation at once."

CLEARING HOUSE BANKS. NEW YORK, DEC. 5.—The statement of clearing house banks for the week shows the banks hold $20,171,775 more than the requirements of the 25 per cent reserve rule. This is a decrease of $7,958,875 in the proportionate cash reserve as compared with last week.

MUST USE TELEGRAPH TO REPORT ACCIDENTS.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 5.—An unusual order in regard to the reporting of railroad wrecks and accidents to the commission has been passed by the state corporation commission.

All railroads and street railways are required to report by telegraph all accidents, both those resulting in loss of life or limb or serious injury to passengers or employees, and those involving property damage.

CHANGES MADE IN TURKISH CABINET.

Constantinople, Dec. 5.—The rearrangement of the new cabinet offices includes the appointment of Hilmi Pasha as minister of the interior. Hilmi Pasha, who has been governor of Macedonia, is regarded as a future grand vizier. Tewfik Pasha, a distinguished lawyer and member of the Young Turk committee, has been appointed minister of justice.

ADMIRAL J. B. COUGHLAN DIES SUDDENLY IN NEW YORK

He was Apparently in Good Health Yesterday and was Ill Only a Few Minutes.

HAD MANY FRIENDS IN NAVY CIRCLES

He Fought With Dewey at Manila and was Called on to Explain an Alleged Insult to German Kaiser.

New York, Dec. 5.—Rear Admiral Joseph B. Coughlan, who served a long term in the United States navy and was commandant of the New York navy yard from 1904 to 1907, is dead at his home in New Rochelle. He died suddenly at 7:30 o'clock this morning.

The death of Admiral Coughlan was entirely unexpected. He was living with his wife at the home of Charles Chamberlain, a former New York newspaper man, in the Sutton Manor residence section of New Rochelle, while waiting for his new home in that city to be made ready for occupancy. This admiral was seen about the streets of New Rochelle yesterday and appeared as well as usual.

He Ruffled Germany.
Washington, Dec. 5.—Sincere regret is expressed on all sides at the sudden death of Admiral Coughlan. Fearless, kindly, and a good story teller, he had hosts of warm friends both among the officers and outside the service. Admiral Dewey expressed himself shocked at the news of the admiral's death. Coughlan was with Dewey in the battle of Manila Bay, in command of the Raleigh, and was later promoted for his work in that battle.

It was after the battle was called on for an explanation of his recital of the poem, "Hock der Kaiser," which ruffled the German authorities. The admiral explained that he meant no disrespect to the German emperor, and the matter was dropped. Admiral Coughlan was a native of Kentucky, where he was born in 1844.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST THE CITY

Relatives Sue for $25,000 on Account of the Death of Narciso Ruiz.

The city of Albuquerque was named as the defendant in a suit for $25,000 filed this morning by the law firm of Chaves & Sedillo, appearing for Narciso Ruiz, administrator of the estate of Adolfo Ruiz, who it is alleged, died September 6 last, as a result of injuries received the night of September 3 in a fall at the bridge maintained by the city at the corner of Copper avenue and Edith street. Ruiz was 21 years of age, and the plaintiff alleges that his death was a great loss to the relatives.

According to the complaint, Ruiz was riding on Edith street and fell into the ditch or hole beneath the bridge over Copper avenue. Copper avenue at that place is an arroyo. His skull was fractured and he received many and very serious and mortal injuries. He lingered three days and died. The complaint maintains that the bridge is wholly inadequate and dangerous.

POLICE SEARCHING FOR "LORD" RUSSELL

"Lady" Russell Asks Chicago Detectives to Find Her Husband.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—The disappearance of a man whose name has been given to the police as Lord Russell of Bridgeport, England, was made public today when detectives admitted that a private search of two weeks had been unsuccessful.

Russell was reported missing a fortnight ago by "Lady Russell," when her husband failed to return to his hotel in this city, and at her request the matter was kept secret. Russell is said to have been in the United States a year, inspecting his timber interests. At the British consulate it was said that the records show no record of Lord Russell of Bridgeport.

RECEIVER DISCHARGED.

Pittsburg, Dec. 5.—The receivers for the Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing company and the Securities Investment company were discharged in the United States circuit court this afternoon by Judge James S. Young.

OUR HABIT OF WASTE MUST BE STOPPED SAYS TAFT

President-elect Sends Message to Miners in Congress at Pittsburg.

PUBLIC CONSCIENCE HAS BEEN AWAKENED

The Movement Must be Guided Wisely and Carried to Success. If Resources Are to be Conserved.

Pittsburg, Dec. 5.—When the fourth and last day's session of the eleventh annual convention of the American Mining congress opened here today it was apparent that all unfinished business would be cleared up by this afternoon. A feature of the session this morning was a telegram from President-elect Taft, which said:

"I am glad of the opportunity to express my interest in the important work which the American Mining congress is doing in behalf of the mining industry, and I desire to encourage and to co-operate in this work in every way."

"The mining industry of this country, which is second only to the agricultural industry in its contribution to the national wealth, which furnishes more than 66 per cent of the total freight of the country, and which employs more than a million men in its difficult and dangerous tasks, deserves all the assistance this government can give it."

"No country is so rich in those resources which make for great and permanent wealth as the United States. But this condition of affairs has helped to develop a national habit of waste in the use of the forests, soil, minerals and other resources."

"Fortunately, however, the public conscience is awakening to both the loss of life and the waste of materials in all our industries and we must see to it that our movement is guided wisely and carried forward to success."

SAYS CHICAGO GIRL HAS NEW MEXICO MINI

Records Fail to Show Substantial Base for Claim.

A dispatch from Chicago, Ill., to the Denver Republican has the following to say:
Through the death of her grandfather, L. J. Turney of Albuquerque, N. M., Miss Mamie Turney, a society girl of Evanston, is now the owner of a rich silver mine in New Mexico. Miss Turney is an orphan. Since her parents died eight years ago she has been living at the home of Thomas P. Smith, of Evanston.

Miss Turney today received the legal documents which make her the owner of one of the richest mineral properties in the southwest. Accompanied by five boy friends, members of wealthy Evanston families, Miss Turney will depart for New Mexico tomorrow night after a farewell dinner at the young woman's home.

Miss Turney's father was interested in mines, as was her grandfather. The records of the local undertaking establishments were examined and no such man has ever died in this city. The oldest mining men of the city do not remember such a man as L. J. Turney, and it is believed that there was such a man he lived and died at Silver City or some other city of the territory. The most valuable silver properties of the territory are located near Silver City, in Grant county, Lake Valley in Sierra county and Coehiti, Santa Fe county, and it may be that L. J. Turney lived at one of these places.

BRIDGE PARTY IS A LOTTERY.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—Bridge parties, when prizes are offered are lotteries, according to the ruling the United States postoffice department has given in a dispatch to the Tribune from Hartford, Conn. The dispatch says:

"According to a decision received from the postoffice department at Washington, it is illegal to send invitations through the mail to bridge parties or to any party where prizes are given."

"A Hartford man had been reading in the papers about card parties at which prizes were awarded and where money had been won and lost at bridge.

STATEHOOD FOR NEW MEXICO

We favor the immediate admission of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona as separate states in the Union.—Republican National Platform.

Is it Education

"J. Allen White, one of the youngest men graduates in recent years from Yale, jumped off West Rock yesterday, crashed from overstudy. Three other men in his class have met death in falling off either west or east rock."

This interesting bit of news, comes from New Haven in recent press dispatches. It serves to throw a new light on the modern methods of education.

J. Allen White, above referred to, was one of the brightest members of the Yale class of 1907 and had more prizes and scholarships to his credit than any member of his class.

The young man was trained to that point commonly known as "finely educated." In other words his brain was packed with everything one of the greatest schools in the country could inculcate. There was little in mathematics, no matter how deep, in science and letters in which he was not thoroughly trained.

Yet, after spending thousands of dollars in securing an education, in fitting himself so far as book learning goes, for a life's work, he suddenly gave way and in despair sprang from West Rock to his death—a suicide.

No one can condemn education, for education has brought the human race from barbarism to civilization. But there is a grave question as to the sort of civilization produced by so-called modern methods of education as demonstrated in the big colleges and universities of the world. Some of the civilization of today is much more of a barbarism than existed during the dark ages. There is not a far cry from the college man who hurled himself to death back to the man who fought his next friend with a war club.

All men who have studied and crammed in colleges, do not commit suicide, but neither did all men in barbaric times, fight with clubs.

It would appear that the one thing most sorely needed in modern education, is the teaching of right living.

The Yale man who destroyed his own existence, had no idea of life. Finely educated as he was, he was absolutely a savage and a barbarian. In so far as knowing what life meant to him and to the world and what was best in his human existence.

He dissipated in study as other men dissipate in wine and debauchery. He starved his brain in one direction and destroyed it in another by placing upon it a load it could not carry.

He was a mental suicide long before he took the fatal leap.

Education is not only good—it is a necessity in this age of the world. But there is moderation in all things and the sooner some of the higher educational institutions begin to realize it, the sooner will modern education be put upon a proper plane.

Give a man all the knowledge that Solomon was supposed to have and add to that all that the world has since accumulated but if he does not know what life is for and how best to live to obtain the full fruits of his existence, he is on a par with the man who clothed his loins in the skin of wild beasts and fought his brother with a club.

Education is civilization only when it has a proper balance wheel.

Three suicides from one class of one of the biggest colleges in the country is in itself quite startling. Perhaps it would be more so, if the world knew how many mental suicides from the same class, were sent out to face life without knowing what it meant.

Regarding Statehood

The message received by Mr. Luna from Governor Curry, as the former was leaving for Washington to join the statehood delegation, is good news to the people of the Southwest.

"Everything looks good for statehood," said the governor, and added that he was going to confer with President-elect Taft.

Every word that has come from Washington indicates that this territory will be admitted to the Union without delay and that as soon as the law can be placed in effect, New Mexico will be a state.

Regarding the coming of statehood, it is significant to note already, that in Albuquerque and no doubt in many other sections of New Mexico, men with money are already in the field buying up real estate. In this city alone, over $50,000 worth of property changed hands in one week and heavy sales have been recorded every week since the day of election.

The coming of statehood will undoubtedly result in one of the most unprecedented periods of business activity this territory has ever known.

"I only hope," said an Albuquerque real estate broker, "that it will not result in a regular old-fashioned boom, because a boom would injure a new state, but I must admit that under present conditions, the outlook was never better, particularly in the field of buying up good real estate. I look for business activity which will smash a few records but even under present conditions, there is no reason to complain."

The old adage of "make hay while the sun shines," applies aptly to the present instance. Real estate values in Albuquerque will never decrease. In all events they will gradually increase and in the event of statehood from the short session of Congress, the man who owns good real estate today, can buy an automobile next spring if he likes.

A florist who sells blooms to the people of New York city, recently gave out a remarkable interview which is as follows: "My patrons are rich and prominent men. Suppose now it was made public that one of them had been sending flowers to women other than his wife? This would immediately stop patrons sending flowers for fear they might be exposed. No, it is better to lose a little money." Judging from the fact that the man can sell flowers in New York city and make a living at it, he must understand his business. At all events, his remarks are somewhat of a reflection upon the class of patrons to which he caters. As an offset, it would be good to hear some florist, retort with an interview, telling about the money he makes selling blossoms to charitable inclined, well to do, people, for use in the wards and sick rooms of the big city's many hospitals. That there are such people and many of them, no one need dispute, but probably they pay their bills—for flowers and other purchases.

This has drifted in from Clay county, Kansas. Recently the teacher at Otter school asked her class of little ones, in whom she was trying to instill a small knowledge of the history of the country, "who was the first president of the United States?" "George Washington," was the prompt reply in chorus. "Was there ever a campaign when Washington ran for president, and who ran against him?" she asked. For a time all was silent, then one little girl piped up: "Didn't Bryan run against Washington?"

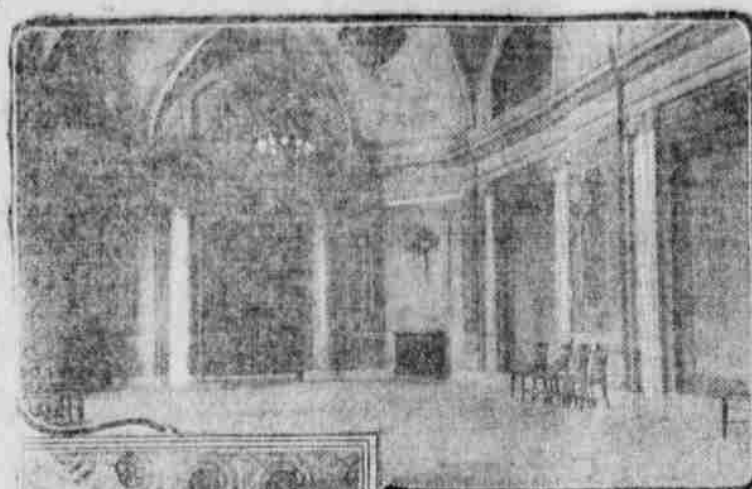

The man who is always telling you the very latest jokes of the season doesn't make such a hit if he gets them from the same funny paper you read every Sunday.

Kansas City has an orator who recently got a dollar a word, for making a speech. He talked back to the judge and it cost him just five.

It is better to be known by the company you avoid than by the company you keep. At least, you can make no mistake.

No matter which way the election might have gone, the watchmakers would not have put on additional hands.

IN THIS DEPOT PRESIDENTS CAN DODGE THE CROWDS

PRESIDENTIAL WAITING ROOM IN NEW UNION DEPOT AT WASHINGTON.

Washington, Dec. 5.—To secure privacy for the president in the new union depot has cost millions of dollars. The government appropriated $6,000,000 toward the cost of the magnificent pile, but the railroads are taxing all incoming freight six cents a hundred to "pay for the station."

By the president's entrance, the president, in leaving or returning to the capital, may escape the crowds. President Roosevelt will leave Washington through this entrance, and President Taft will use it when he comes to take up his duties.

The presidential waiting room is finished in the finest marble, with gold and green decorations.

DAILY SHORT STORIES

UNMASKED.

(By C. A. Wilson.)

Reynolds to this late day doesn't know what freakish turn of mind led him to disguise as a typical tramp to attend the masquerade at Belmont's. The trick ever afterwards amazed his sedate soul when he thought of it. Moreover, he had communed with himself upon the subject of Sybil Mergon. Her winsome innocence had seemed too artless. Tonight he had determined that when the unmasking came, there should be an unmasking of hearts between them. Almost unconsciously he was aware that his love was fully reciprocated.

Two blocks from the Mergon home, Reynolds paid the cabby and started across the muddy street. An instant later there was a warning. "Honk! honk!" a big grey touring car skidded around the corner and before he could step aside there was a dull impact, a rattle of machinery, and the big car had come to a full stop a few feet away from the motionless figure in the gutter.

Reynolds made an effort to rise, and sunk back with a groan. The chauffeur made a motion to alight from the car. Then came a voice from the depths of the cushions: "What are you thinking of, Charles? Can you cause war by attacking a tramp? It is nobody but one of those detestable tramps. The police will take care of him."

Reynolds had heard that same milky voice tremble like the strings of an Aeolian harp as she had expressed deepest sympathy for a poor, unfortunate beggar while he was by her side; he had heard it rising musically in response to some of his own brief sermonizing on the duty of the rich, but now the clear tones smote upon his ear with a jarring, discordant note he had never before thought could be contained in a human voice.

"Come, Charles, those horrid police will be here in a moment and we are late now," again commanded the voice in the car.

A moment later the big car chugged away up the street and shortly afterwards an unconscious bundle of rags was lifted into the police ambulance. At the hospital it was found that nothing more serious than a sprained ankle and a contusion on the head had been sustained.

Sybil Mergon has never ceased wondering why Harry Reynolds dropped so suddenly from her circle of admirers. She remembered positively of having sent him an invitation to the masquerade three months before and a withered bunch of roses bearing his note of acceptance still remained locked up with other mementos of the only man she had ever loved. A newspaper clipping dated two days after the Belmont masquerade lay before her on her desk. It read: "Among the departures today for Europe is listed Harry Reynolds, steamer Agnes."

We have never yet seen such a business, but if one does exist, our advice is to sell it before it gets too poor to give away.

But if there is yet hope we suggest a tonic of liberal advertising.

Some Reasons Why

The C

Because The Citizen is a home paper. It is either delivered by carrier at the house or is carried home by the business man when his day's work is done and it STAYS THERE. A morning paper is usually carried down town by the head of the family and hurriedly read.

I

The Citizen is not read hurriedly, but thoroughly, so that all advertisements receive their share of attention. It presents the store news a little ahead, giving the prospective purchaser time to plan a shopping tour for the next morning.

T

Wise advertisers patronize The Citizen because they know their advertisements are seen and read at the homes in the evening, and if they are offering something worthy of attention, their ad has accomplished its mission.

I

The Citizen has never given premiums to subscribers, but is subscribed to and paid for on its news merits, showing that its subscribers have money with which to buy what they want from legitimate merchants. These are the people The Citizen invites to your store.

Z

The Citizen employs a man whose business it is to look after your advertising wants. He will write your copy if you wish. If not, he will see that your ads are "set up" to look their best and he will attend to them from day to day.

E

Are you advertising in The Citizen? Your competitors are, and are profiting by it. Do you think conservative business men are spending money where they are not getting results? Get in the swim and watch your business grow.

CRYSTAL THEATER MAKES MANY CHANGES

Popular Show House Will Be Greatly Improved When Reopened for The Season.

W. C. Robertson, who has been sent here by the Colorado Film Exchange company, said this morning that the people of Albuquerque will no longer be able to cry "fire trap," when referring to the Crystal theater. Mr. Robertson has had a force of men at work for over a week remodeling the Gold avenue play house and the job is not done yet. The entrance has been changed entirely. The lantern cage is still located at the top and front of the house above the entrance but it is doubly protected by wood and iron magazines, and the new Motograph machine is equipped so that in case there should be a fire only eighteen inches of film can burn. The interior of the building has been given a new dress and the stiff backed chairs which formerly filled the place will be succeeded by opera chairs. These chairs have been ordered from Chicago and will be here within a week.

The Colorado Film Exchange company is one of the largest amusement companies doing business in the west. While it has been doing an extensive film exchange business for years, it was only recently that the purchase of playhouses was started. The Crystal is the second house the company has taken over in New Mexico. The first one is at Raton. The company buys pictures outright, thus giving its house the exclusive right on many productions.

Mr. Robertson said that a show of an hour will be put on at the Crystal and there will not be a moment of darkness during that time. The pictures will be of a variety to suit every class, sensational, comic and dramatic. There will be an illustrated song by a man and a spot light effect song, in which the pictures fade from one to another, sung by a woman.

The day before the house reopens, Mr. Robertson will invite the public, especially the ladies, to inspect it for the purpose of assuring them that it will be absolutely safe from fire.

AUCTION SALE BRINGS OUT MANY BIDDERS

Rosenfield Is Selling Goods Cheap Every Afternoon This Week.

L. G. Rosenfield, the Central avenue pawn broker, is unloading $20,000 worth of new goods at an auction, the like of which has never before taken place in Albuquerque. Mr. Rosenfield said in the beginning that he was going to make a cleaning up and fifteen minutes spent in the store yesterday afternoon convinced the reporter that the little mining expert must want what he said. Some excellent values are being handed to the bidders at very low figures. For instance, a full set of silverware, half a dozen knives, half a dozen forks, half a dozen teaspoons and the same number of tablespoons, sugar shell and all the little pieces that go with a set was sold for $6.50. A man bid $2 after the auctioneer had said "sold," but the bid came too late.

The auction began the middle of the week and will continue until after Christmas if interest keeps up. The store has been filled every afternoon so far and the sales have been large regardless of the fact that some of the goods offered were bid for slowly.

This is the first sale of the kind ever held in Albuquerque, but strange to say, the native people have taken very kindly to the custom. Natives were among the most spirited bidders yesterday. Mr. Rosenfield has instructed the auctioneers to sell any article any one should ask to have put up. This has proven a popular move. The purchasers like it. Mr. Rosenfield, however, is sorry that he spoke. He is only protected against this custom by the fact of the ruling that no article will be sold unless there is a second bid on it. The stock is probably the largest in the city of the kind.

The articles range from a shagreen to a jewelry among the unneeded jewels and a large variety of jewelry among the new. The auction presents a splendid opportunity for one to lay in a supply of Christmas presents.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.
The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care can not be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

Hair Dresser and Chiropractor.
Mrs. Bambini, at her parlors opposite the Alvarado and next door to Sturges' Cafe, is prepared to give thorough scalp treatment, do hair dressing, treat corns, bunions and ingrown nails. She gives massage treatment and manicure. Mrs. Bambini's own preparation of complexion cream builds up the skin and improves the complexion, and is guaranteed not to be injurious. She also prepares hair tonic that cures and prevents dandruff and hair falling out; restores life to dead hair; removes moles, warts and skin eruptions. CANADIAN ROAD AFTER THE TRADE

Will try to get all Oriental Business and has a Good Chance for Success.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—The Canadian Pacific railroad is making a strenuous effort to capture the lion's share of the export traffic from the states to the Orient and with every prospect of success. This road has filed a new export and import tariff with the interstate commerce commission, which became effective yesterday and which practically maintains the old schedule of rates.

All other transcontinental lines recently filed tariffs which principally were made up of the domestic rates to the Pacific coast plus the ocean rates from there to China, Japan and the Philippines. This action was taken by the majority of the transcontinental roads because of a decision by the commission that the inland proportions of the Oriental freight rates must be shown in the tariffs. The railroads objected to this because they feared the effect upon their domestic business if the shippers generally knew what low inland proportional rates were being applied to the Oriental export and import traffic. They therefore practically decided to go out of this traffic and permit it to drift back to the Suez canal route, from which they had taken a large share by extremely low rates.

The Canadian Pacific officials refused to be frightened by the requirement to publish their inland proportions, believing that the domestic shippers all know full well that such rates were being made and also believing that they could be justified upon the ground of a patriotic endeavor to build up a trade in the far east. The Canadian officials, likewise, do not believe that the commission will take any account of the export rates when determining the reasonableness of domestic rates.

The Canadian Pacific tariff discloses the fact that the company has applied the domestic rates to the Pacific coast to the Oriental traffic. The are as natural as the fruits from which they are made.

rate on agricultural implements, for example, to the Pacific coast is $1.35 per 100 pounds. This is also made the rate to the Orient and the railroad accepts 81 cents as its proportion of the through rate. This means that the railroad carries agricultural implements to the coast for domestic use for $1.35 and for Oriental use for 81 cents. Likewise the through and domestic rate on beer is $1.10, while the railroad accepts 66 cents on the export business; the through and domestic rate on canned goods, including meats, is 99 cents, and the railroad accepts 54 cents on the export trade; the through and domestic rate on machinery is $1.50, and the railroad accepts 90 cents on the export trade; the condensed milk rate is 85 cents, of which the railroad accepts 51 cents; the rate on packing house products is $1.85, and the railroad accepts 80 cents for export; the rate on fertilizer is 60 cents, and the railroad accepts 36 cents on the export trade.

MANY SHEEP GRAZE ON SAWTOOTH RESERVE

Government Allows Additional Number to That Forest This Year.

Washington, Dec. 5.—A misunderstanding, which officers of the forest service consider very regrettable, has arisen in the state of Idaho in regard to the number of sheep to be grazed on the Sawtooth national forest during the season of 1909, and it has taken several long telegrams between Governor Gooding and Clifford Pinckney to explain matters.

Last year the total number allowed was 245,000, of which but 221,000 sheep were actually grazed on this forest. The allotment for the present season was 335,000, or 13,000 more than actually grazed last year. In anticipation of demand for ranges from new owners, a sliding scale was prepared and the superintendent was instructed to reduce the large owners on the basis of this scale in order to provide range for new applicants and other persons entitled to share in its use who did not use it last season. The publication of this sliding scale has been accepted by Governor Gooding as an indication that a reduction has been made in the total number of sheep allowed.

In his last telegram Governor Gooding concludes by asking: "Have the sheepmen of Idaho, from their figures, not a right to believe it is your intention to destroy their industry?"

Answering this, the forester says that "The 10,000 limit does not mean that large permits will be reduced to that number but simply prevented increases by purchase beyond 10,000. If Idaho sheepmen object to protection of small owners in this way I take issue with them."

"The forest service has worked consistently and effectively for the permanent prosperity of sheep industry throughout the west by enforcement of regulations necessary to protect range and rights of others. Where reductions are necessary for these purposes they will be made. Idaho sheepmen have no justification whatever for assumption that unnecessary reductions will be made or that forest service is attempting to destroy their industry."

There has been no further exchange of views on the subject between the wool growers and officers of the forest service. Meanwhile, the sheepmen of Idaho will go ahead and graze 335,000 head of sheep on Sawtooth national forest, 13,000 more than they grazed last year and incidentally enjoy the same prosperity that has been theirs in past seasons.

PROPOSAL BY MASONSHave Neither Accepted Nor Rejected the Proposition to Buy Temple.The Odd Fellows failed last night to agree on the proposition of buying the Masonic temple on North Third street. The proposition was not turned down, neither was it accepted.
A large number of the Odd Fellows considered the price asked by the Masons too high. While the price has not been made public it is believed to be between $18,000 and $20-000, probably the latter figure.The property includes a forty-two foot front on Third street, 100 feet deep, next the alley, covered by a two-story brick building. It is believed that whether or not the Odd Fellows buy depends on the condition of the building. Should they buy, they would desire to add another story and there is a question whether the present walls will stand a third story. It is believed that a committee was appointed at last night's meeting to make a thorough investigation of the property.
However, the local lodge of Odd Fellows are not going to be much longer without a building of its own.
If the Masonic temple is not purchased a building will be erected on the lots owned by the lodge at the corner of Lead avenue and South Second street within the next two years.CARLSBAD PROJECT

MEMORIAL SERVICES

TOMORROW AFTERNOON

The Elks Invite the Public to Attend Annual Services for Departed Brothers.

The annual Elks' memorial services, which will be held at the opera house tomorrow afternoon, promise to be the most largely attended of the kind ever held in this city. An excellent program has been arranged of the best talent of the city, who have kindly donated their services for tomorrow afternoon. As usual the members of the lodge will assemble in the lodge room at 2:30 where after a short session, they will form in marching order and descend to the opera house. There a section has been reserved for their exclusive use. To these exercises the public is cordially invited.

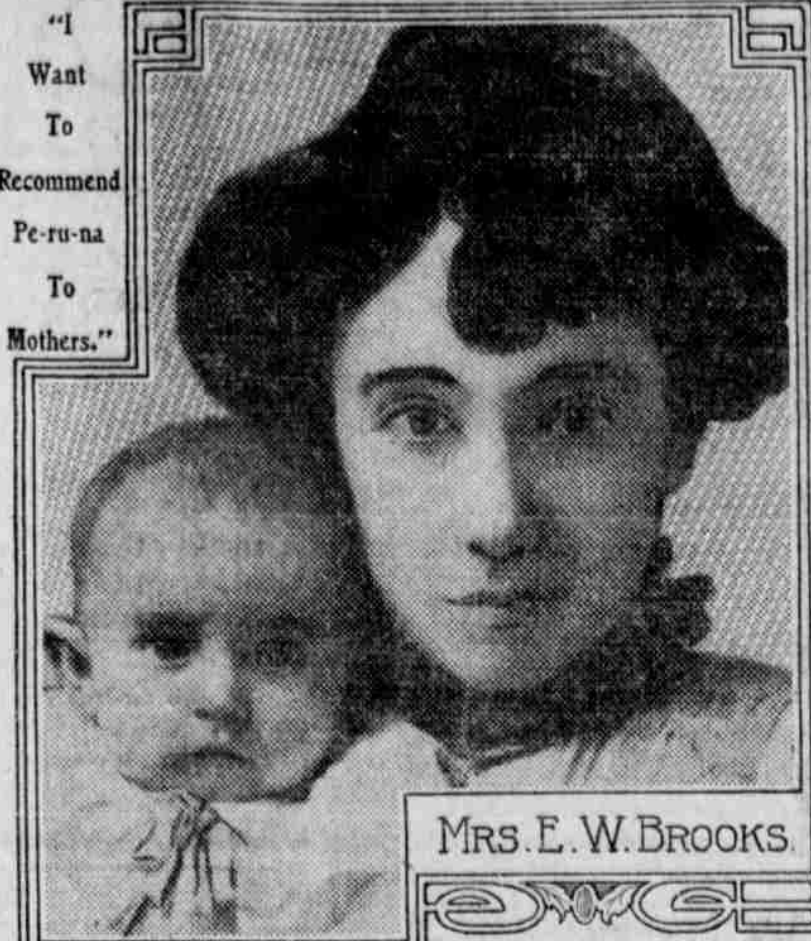

Owing to the inability of the exalted ruler, L. C. Bennett, and the treasurer, C. A. Hawks, to participate in the services on account of sickness, their places will be taken by Dr. G. S. McLandress and H. E. Fox, while Dr. McLandress' place will be filled by Frank McKee.

The musical program has been placed in the hands of Prof. John L. Gibbs, and Miss Claude Albright. Miss Reynolds and Mrs. Collins will sing, with appropriate music by the Gibbs' orchestra.

The rapid increase in our business is due to good work and fair treatment of our patrons. Hubbs Laundry.

A CHARMING YOUNG MOTHER SAYS:

"I Want To Recommend Peruna To Mothers."

MRS. E. W. BROOKS

Weak, Exhausted, Peruna Gave New Life.

Mrs. E. W. Brooks, 5115 S. Steele St., South Tacoma, Wash., writes: "I want to recommend Peruna to mothers. When my little girl came, I felt very weak and exhausted, and it seemed that I could not regain my strength."

"My mother bought me a bottle of Peruna, after I had tried several other much advertised remedies without relief. I had little faith, as I was very weak, but within a week after I had commenced taking Peruna I was like a different woman."

"New life and vitality seemed to come each day until in a few weeks I was in fine health and a happy woman. Thanks to your splendid medicine, I have enjoyed good health for several years. I always keep Peruna on hand, as a few doses will set me right when I am feeling badly."

He pronounced him well and for a few weeks he was not troubled, but since that time the discharge from his ears was almost constant and very offensive.

"Finally I began giving him Peruna and Lacupia, and after he had taken two bottles of the Lacupia he was entirely cured."

"I cannot praise Lacupia and Peruna enough."

MANY APPOINTMENTS MADE IN THE SHOPS

Wholesale Promotions Follow Visit of Superintendent Bean Yesterday.

A large number of local shop employees had rung mailed on their leaders yesterday by S. L. Bean, superintendent of machinery on the coast lines. There is probably no official on the Santa Fe who likes to court the friendship of the men under him or likes to create a sentiment in them to work more than Mr. Bean. Any time an employee shows that he deserves promotion it is usually forthcoming. If Mr. Bean has the say.

The recent promotion of William Dage to master mechanic with supervision over all machine shops between Albuquerque and Seligman, was primarily the cause of the wholesale promotions of yesterday. When Mr. Dage went up, so did Mr. George, who now has the title of superintendent of shops, and Mr. George's vacancy called for other promotions. The shakeup also cost the Santa Fe an increase in the pay roll.

S. E. Violeth, who was chief clerk to Mr. George, has been sent to Point Richmond; G. P. Clark, formerly record clerk, has been made chief clerk to Mr. Dage.

Chas. Spahr, formerly chief timekeeper, has been advanced to be record clerk. John J. Tierney, successor of Frank Bradley, distribution clerk who has taken the position of stock clerk, vacated by Mr. Tierney, Harry Aspinwall has been appointed chief clerk under superintendent of shops W. A. George. Clarence Wiley, bonus accountant, has been advanced to head bonus clerk.

Mr. Bean, superintendent of machinery, accompanied by Clarence A. Earls, motor power accountant, and G. S. Smith, Mr. Bean's stenographer, left last night for their headquarters in Los Angeles.

LAMB SHIPMENTS WILL BE HEAVY

More Than 75,000 Are Scheduled to Pass Through Albuquerque Soon.

More than 75,000 lambs will be shipped through Albuquerque to various markets and feed yards in Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado between now and December 15. Buyers are busy now throughout the territory and competition is somewhat keener than usual because of a shortage in the lamb crop.

A big part of the shipments from here will come from Valencia, Socorro and McKinley counties and many lambs will be driven through to Albuquerque and shipped from here. Trailblazers are expected from the western part of the state and Arizona and the local yards will be busy for the next month.

WALLACE WANTS BIG PURSE FOR FIGHTING

The Athletic Club May Be Able to Get Colored Boys Together Despite Difference in Weight.

Major B. Ruppe of the army board received a letter yesterday from the manager of Harry Wallace, the Las Vegas boxer, who proposes to enter a fifteen-round endurance contest with Will Pettus, the Albuquerque colored boxer, before the Albuquerque Athletic club. It is feared that the two colored men can not get together. Wallace is twenty-five pounds lighter than Pettus and wants more money for the contest than the club in its present condition can afford to pay. However, there is yet hope of the match being brought about and some good sport is in store for the summer of December 19. The membership of the club is growing rapidly.

The Las Vegas Optic has the following to say about the proposed Wallace-Pettus go:

"Harry Wallace and Will Pettus were matched this morning to go fifteen rounds before the Albuquerque Athletic club at Albuquerque on the night of December 19. Pettus outweighs Wallace by fully twenty-five pounds but Wallace held him to a ten-round draw two weeks ago at Madrid, Wallace is in fine shape and by his cleverness despite the weight handicap, should bring home the bacon."

NEW FILM SERVICE AT COLOMBO THEATER

Program This Evening and Tomorrow Will Be Longer Than Usual.

Owing to the change of service at the Colombo theater, beginning tonight, the program this evening and Sunday evening will contain five thousand feet of film instead of the usual three thousand. This will be due to the fact that two films which represent the old service will be used in addition to the three sets of pictures which already have arrived and will be the first of the new service.

The new program which will be seen for the first time this evening, is interesting as well as amusing. Some of the pictures which will be seen are "The Fortune Hunters," "Contagious Nervous," "Twisting," "The Runaway Mother-in-Law," "How the Paid Butted In," and "The Stage Struck Daughter." These pictures represent five thousand feet of fun.

SOCIETY

The Ladies' Aid society of the Lead Avenue Methodist church held its regular meeting at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Miss Mary Teller of 1092 North Second street returned the first part of the week from a few weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Denver.

Mrs. Bowdich of 695 South Broadway, entertained the members of the D. of H. Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was devoted to social features and the election of officers.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Lutheran church met Wednesday afternoon of this week in the church parlors. The meeting was largely attended and regular monthly business and social features discussed.

A large number of members and friends were entertained by Anna council, Degree of Fochontas, Thursday evening. After the business meeting, the evening was devoted to dancing and cards.

Mrs. Solomon Benjamin of 415 North Eleventh street, is at New Orleans, visiting relatives, and will be gone several weeks. She will be joined later by Mr. Benjamin and they will visit the principal points of interest in the southern states.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. met yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Lucy Reed, 223 West Marquette avenue. The meeting was largely attended and matters of special interest taken up. Refreshments were served.

One of the pleasantest social affairs of the coming week will be the basketball game between the girls of the University of New Mexico and the Las Vegas girls' team. The informal dance following the game is always made a feature.

The Epworth League of the Lead Avenue Methodist church entertained last evening at a social in the church parlors. The guests included members and their friends, who were entertained with several social features, following which refreshments were served.

Secretary and Mrs. Nathan Jaffa and son, Master Benarthur, were guests Thursday and Friday of the week at the home of Mrs. Bessie Jaffa of 712 West Copper avenue. They left last evening for their home at Santa Fe. Secretary Jaffa delivered an address at the armory dedication services Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Herndon and children, who have for several years past made their home at 623 West Copper avenue, left Monday evening of this week for Raton, N. M. Mr. and Mrs. Herndon will make their home at Raton, where the former has extensive lumber interests. Mrs. Herndon has always taken an active part in Albuquerque social circles, and will be missed.

Commercial Club Party—One of the pleasant social features scheduled for the week beginning December 7, is the informal dancing party at which the Albuquerque Commercial club will entertain next Wednesday evening. The party will be a slight variation from those given this season and will be informal in every detail. The music will be furnished by the Cavanaugh orchestra and refreshments will be served at midnight.

The students of the University of New Mexico entertained last Tuesday evening at a rally, complimentary to the members of the University football team. The affair was very informal and was held on the University campus. An excellent program was given, features of which were addresses by Mr. Walter Allen, Mr. Lawrence Lee and Prof. Conwell, and several especially clever vaudeville stunts. Over sixty guests were present. The evening at the conclusion of the program was devoted to dancing, and later, refreshments were served.

Bridge Club—The ladies of the Gold Avenue bridge club were delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon of this week at the pleasant home of Mrs. A. Borders of 609 West Gold avenue. About fifteen guests were entertained at bridge in which first prize was won by Mrs. Thomas N. Wilkerson, and consolation prize by Mrs. Carns. Delicious refreshments were served. The members of the club present were: Mrs. Maynard, Mrs. Carns, Mrs. E. B. Booth, Mrs. Frank Stortz, Mrs. Forbes and Mrs. E. H. Briggs. The guests of the club were: Mrs. Charles A. Frank, Mrs. Thomas N. Wilkerson, Mrs. E. R. Stran, Mrs. Owen, Mrs. Mensch, Mrs. Joseph Friedburg and Miss Bessie Chapman.

Woman's Club—The program which was to have been given Friday of last week at the Woman's club, but was postponed, was given yesterday. The program was in charge of the literature department, and in the absence of the regular leader, Mrs. Wilson, was led by Mrs. Medler. The roll call was answered by "Famous Pioneers," and was followed by an excellent paper, "Spanish and Mexican Rule," by Mrs. B. H. Ives. Miss Davis gave an interesting reading. The feature of the program, however, was a debate, "Should New Mexico Be Admitted to Statehood." The affirmative was taken by Mrs. George Albright and the negative by Mrs. Frank Moore. The question was handled intelligently, and the arguments set forth were spirited and interesting. The debate met with favor and will probably be made a regular feature of the program in the future.

Bazaar—Arrangements are being completed for the bazaar Friday, December 12, to be given by the Albuquerque Woman's club. The affair promises to be one of the pleasant social features of that week. Much interest is centered in the net booth, which will be conducted by Mrs. B. B. Hirsch, who has had charge of the art class connected with the club this year. Each member of the class has donated her third piece of work and water color pictures and hand painted china will be on sale. The candy booth will be prettily decorated and will be placed in charge of Mrs. Long and Mrs. Rose. Mrs. Chavez and Miss Lela Armijo will have charge of the fancy work booth, and the table of home cooking will be conducted by Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. Anson. An excellent musical program will feature strongly the numbers of which are not yet known. Appropriate refreshments will be served.

The continued success of Mrs. Louis Hilda's afternoons at home, which are held the second and fourth Saturdays of each month, is decided, although not surprising, because of the social triumphs which have always characterized Mrs. Hilda's entertainments. Her handsome home at 701 West Copper avenue, is thronged with guests at each "at home," and features of entertainment are arranged as far ahead as February, 1909. The afternoons are not devoted to social features alone, but a program of musical and literary numbers is given.

For next Saturday, December 12, an especially interesting feature is planned. Miss Nancy Hewitt will speak on "The Devil," and "The Servant in the House," two of the latest successes on the American stage. An informal discussion of the plays will follow the address. Mrs. Roy McDonald will sing a German and a French song.

For Saturday, December 26, Miss Menaul, the accomplished musician, will give a "Chopin" afternoon. Miss Menaul will entertain with several instrumental solos of Chopin's, and the remainder of the afternoon will be devoted to a discussion of the great composer and his works.

Reception—Quite the most elaborate and enjoyable event of the winter's social calendar was the reception given this afternoon at the handsome home of Mrs. M. E. Hickey, of 115 North Water street. Mrs. Hickey was assisted in her duties as hostess by Miss Ethel Hickey, Miss Nancy Hewitt and Miss Nell Wetter. During the receiving hours, from 2 until 6 o'clock, the handsomely arranged rooms were thronged with a brilliant assemblage of guests, over one hundred and seventy invitations having been issued.

The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Frank H. Moore and Mrs. D. A. Bittner.

The rooms presented an artistic decoration of Christmas greens, mountain pine and holly. The Christmas thought was further suggested in clever little favors, presented to each guest.

Mrs. P. G. Cornish, Mrs. George S. Klock, Mrs. A. B. McMillen, Mrs. W. H. Barney and Mrs. W. G. Hope, assisted by Miss Bessie Baldridge, Mrs. Mary Menaul, Miss Blanche Perkins and Miss Elida Smith, presided in the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served.

Every appointment of the afternoon, while elaborate, was in perfect taste, and in keeping with the occasion. The reception was the prettiest of the year.

W. C. T. U. Bazaar—One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the bazaar given in the Sunday school rooms of the Presbyterian church last Monday evening by the Women's Christian Temperance Union. The principal features of the evening were the handsomely arranged booths and the musical program. A fish pond featured with the younger people. The booths were arranged according to the days of the week, and washing, ironing, mending, etc., "in process," made a big hit. The program was as follows:

1. Piano Solo.....Mr. Green
2. Violin Solo.....Miss Lorna Lester
3. Vocal Solo.....Miss Hughes

A NEW COLLIER LAUNCHED TODAY

United States Navy Yard at Mare Island Completes Ship in Record Time.

San Francisco, Dec. 5.—The launching of the United States ship Prometheus today marks a new era in navy yard ship building. Contrary to expectations the construction of the vessel at the Mare Island navy yard has been very rapid. The structural material was received about the middle of September, 1907, and work actually began on the first of October. The keel was laid October 18, and less than fourteen months have elapsed between the laying of the keel and the launching. All machinery and piping are installed and all the furnitures and miscellaneous work are finished, so that, with the exception of the installation of the masts, the vessel insofar as the work coming under the bureau of construction and repair is concerned, is completed. The main propelling machinery, however, will delay final completion of the vessel and on this account it is not expected that she will be ready for service prior to September, 1909.

The principal dimensions are as follows:

Length over all, 485 feet, 9 inches; length between perpendiculars, 450 feet; breadth, moulded, 60 feet; depth, moulded, 36 feet, 6 inches; cargo capacity, tons, 6,000; displacement, 12,500 tons on a draft of 26 feet; speed, 16 knots.

launt and entertaining plot. The doubting wife and truthful husband, who tells but one little falsehood, and other characters and incidents so true to life are well portrayed by James B. Delcher's associate company of players selected with the utmost of care for their respective roles. As is well known the situations in the play are extremely ludicrous and follow one another in such startling rapidity that the audience is thankful that the curtain drops between each act, for no other reason than that a breathing spell between the continual laughs is afforded thereby.

DEFICIT MIGHT ADD MORE TO TAXES

Government may Have to Adopt Plan in Order to Secure Revenues Needed.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 5.—What about the revenues?

This is the question which Representative Jas. A. Tawney, chairman of the House committee on appropriations, has brought to town.

Has the country reached the limit of revenues to be secured by the indirect taxation of a tariff law? Will the revision of the tariff produce any increase in the current revenues? Will it produce a decrease? How about the present deficit of $47,000,000 and the prospective deficit which the country will face, according to Mr. Tawney, at the end of the fiscal year of June 30, 1909—an amount estimated at $125,000,000?

A chronic deficit is as bad as a chronic surplus. There is no trouble about Uncle Sam's credit. He can always borrow all the money needed. But it is not considered good policy to be floating bonds for current expenses. Good financing means that current revenues should meet current expenses.

But this is not all of the problem. Expenses are increasing with new legislation. If Mr. Tawney follows in Mr. Roosevelt's footsteps he will recommend numerous lines of legislation which involve increased expenditures of public money. Inland waterways, Appalachian forest reserves, agricultural education in the primary school, federal aid for country roads, conservation of the natural resources and many other topics which figure in presidential messages suggest more money. But the United States is now spending annually a little over a billion of dollars. This is outside of the money which is going for the Panama canal.

Has the country reached the period when direct taxation must be resorted to? There is nothing necessarily wrong about direct taxation, but it is commonly regarded as a little more obnoxious and not quite so convenient as the disguised tax which one pays in the extra price of a lump of sugar, the increased cost of your green peas and the added dollar or two which you put into a bottle of beer and sherry.

Direct taxation means either an increase of the internal revenue duties such as are levied on whisky, tobacco and snuff, or it means stamp taxes.

HEAVY SNOW FALLS IN EASTERN STATES

From Chicago to Pittsburg Storm Is Raging Today and Wires Are Crippled.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—Winter's first onslaught on wire service in the east was met today when wet snow, accompanied in some places by high wind, demoralized the telegraph service between Chicago and Pittsburg. Linemen were ordered out all along the line to make repairs as fast as possible. In other directions from Chicago, conditions are reported normal.

Heavy Snow in Ohio. Cleveland, Dec. 5.—A furious snow storm which set in early today throughout Northern Ohio, continues unabated. The ground already being covered to a depth of several inches. The snow is very heavy and wet and is causing serious delay in telegraph service, and in some cases is delaying trains.

IT IS A LITERARY OF DYSPEPSIA IS BARBERSHOP FLEET NOW EASILY OVERCOME

Navy Department Announces Stops to be Made by Various Vessels.

Rid Yourself of the Dread of Indigestion or an Upset Stomach by Taking Diapiesin.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Final plans have been made by the navy department for the dispatch of the fleet on its homeward voyage from Manila to Hampton Roads. According to the itinerary, the battleships will arrive at Colombo, Ceylon, December 14. After coaling at Colombo, the fleet will proceed direct to Suez, where it is due to arrive on January 5. The officers and men will spend the Christmas and New Year holidays at Suez, but provision has been made for a proper celebration on board all the vessels, and so far as possible all the delicacies of the season will be provided. Owing to the climate, however, it will probably seem little like Christmas to the tars.

The fleet will pass the canal and coast as expeditiously as possible at Port Said. Then the fleet will divide and the different ships go to the following Mediterranean ports.

The Connecticut and the Vermont will arrive at Villefranche January 14 and leave January 27.

The Minnesota and the Kansas will arrive at Marseilles January 14 and leave January 27.

The Georgia, the Nebraska and the Kentucky will arrive at Genoa January 15 and leave January 27.

The Rhode Island and the New Jersey will arrive at Leghorn January 15 and leave January 27.

The Louisiana and the Virginia will arrive at Malta January 15 and leave January 19, arriving at Algiers January 22 and leaving January 30.

The Ohio and the Missouri will arrive at Athens January 13 and leave January 25.

The Wisconsin, the Illinois and the Kearsarge will arrive at Naples January 17 and leave January 27.

The first division, consisting of the Connecticut, the Kansas, the Vermont and the Minnesota, will arrive at Sicily on bay January 31. They will coal there and leave February 3, arriving at Gibraltar the same day. The second, third and fourth divisions will arrive at Negro bay February 1, coal and leave February 6 to join the first division.

The fleet will then steam to Hampton Roads, where it is due to arrive February 21.

The dates of the arrival at the Mediterranean points may vary a day or two; but the standard speed of ten knots an hour, which makes for economical cruising, will be maintained. The fleet hopes there will be no extensive postponing on this trip.

Many wives of naval officers will meet the fleet in the Mediterranean, in addition to those who will follow the fleet home.

SAYS SPEAKER CANNON WILL WIN

Representative Mann Interviews Congressmen on Subject of Next Speaker.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Having received 125 replies from 216 Republicans elected to the House in the next Congress, Representative James R. Mann of Illinois smiles when he is told of the opposition to the re-election of Joseph G. Cannon as speaker in the Sixty-first Congress. There are some, especially new members, who do not commit themselves beyond saying that they want to be with the next administration, but there are many outright declarations for Mr. Cannon, and enough favorable comment comes from those who are not so positive as to give assurance that there is no chance of defeating "Uncle Joe."

Mr. Mann sent out letters of inquiry recently to all of the incoming members and has been receiving from fifteen to twenty replies a day. To date he says that the friends of Mr. Cannon feel justified in claiming the practically solid support of New England, New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, North Carolina, Michigan, Illinois, South Dakota and Missouri. The Kansas delegation is divided and the Iowa delegation will be for Representative Walter I. Smith if his name is presented and Cannon would be counted for Burton. Only one member replied that he would oppose Cannon.

The talk of effective opposition to Mr. Cannon's re-election, however, is dying out, and press dispatches from Hot Springs, Va., are of a different trend from what they have been regarding a difference between Mr. Taff and Mr. Cannon, which has been more imaginary than real.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when the inflammation is on the drumhead, there is a complete deafness. Hearing can be restored and the tube restored to its normal condition. Hearing can be destroyed forever—nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that cannot be cured by local Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. P. C. CHENEY, & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

CITIZEN WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of a case of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will take Diapiesin after eating.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), biliousness, heartburn, water brash, pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapiesin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. Each triangle will digest all the food you can eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour.

Get a large 50-cent case of Papa's Diapiesin from your druggist and start taking today and by tomorrow you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery and every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

THIS WAS A BLOODY YEAR IN FOOTBALL

Fourteen Killed and 135 Seriously Injured. While Many Were Slightly Hurt.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—Now that the 1908 football season is over the premier college sport has an appalling record of killed and maimed players. There were 14 deaths directly due to football and 135 players seriously injured. Among the latter are not included the scores of broken fingers badly lacerated faces, teeth knocked out and other minor injuries. The oft repeated defense of the game made by the enthusiasts, that it is the boys, the poorly trained athletic club players, or the novice, and not the trained college gladiator, that is the sufferer, is disputed by the figures. Classifying the victims into the college, high school and athletic clubs, the tables show that six of the thirteen slain were university students. Of these five were members of the "regular" teams and one was a member of the second team, which is supposed to have the same physical supervision as the "regulars."

The list of seriously injured also gives a strong argument against this plea of the college football experts. There it is shown that sixty-five college players were seriously hurt, as against forty-nine high school players and twenty of all others. The open play game, brought about by the ten-year rule and other innovations supposed to lessen the lessen the perils of the gridiron, seems to be a failure as far as any great saving of life and limb is concerned. There was a falling off of eight in the list of dead between 1905 and 1906, the year the rules were first enforced, but the last two seasons have shown increases over the 1906 list.

The number of seriously injured for 1908 has climbed near the record for the last four years. The greatest number of seriously wounded in any of these years was 137 in 1905. The wounded this year already total 135.

FROM COLONEL WATTERSON

The attraction at the Elks' theater December 14th, will be "The Clansman." For more than three years past the press of the entire country has published more about this play than has probably ever been written before about any other drama. The play does its own advertising. The appeal of "The Clansman" is so great that nothing can stop its full tide of success. Even those who do not agree with its sentiments are compelled to acknowledge its tremendous power. The Louisville Courier Journal had a neat little comment on the attitude of some papers that are not published in the south: "Some of the eastern papers have seen fit to say caustic and scurrilous things about 'The Clansman.' May it not be true that Mr. Dixon's play gets under the hide and stings?"

A Dangerous Appendicitis. Is the removal of the appendix by a surgeon. No one who takes Dr. King's New Life Pills is ever subjected to this frightful ordeal. They work so quietly you don't feel them. They cure constipation, headache, biliousness and malaria. 25c at all druggists.

PIANO SHOW

Learnard & Lindemann's

Attracts Piano Buyers

The people of Albuquerque are talking about the fine display of pianos to be seen at Learnard & Lindemann's, 206 West Gold avenue, and by the interest shown it is evident that this year many homes will be gladdened by the addition of a piano, and why should this not be so? Did you ever stop to think what music means to the home? And particularly to the children? And do you, Mr. Busy Man, know what music in the home will do towards helping you to forget the work and possibly the worry that often remains with the most evenly tempered mind when evening comes? Let us tell you, there is nothing in the whole world that helps more to lay aside the cares of the day than music, and particularly so when it is music rendered in your own home by those you love best. Learnard & Lindemann are in position to make it possible for you to buy a piano now. Their stock is complete and owing to the confidence and good will of the manufacturers with whom they have for years had business relations, they are enabled to always meet, and in the majority of cases, offer better values than other houses. Do you know of any better guarantee that Learnard & Lindemann will give you value received in the purchase of a piano than the fact that since their first piano sale in New Mexico in the early part of the year 1906 to Bernalillo county's well known clerk, Mr. A. E. Walker, that their list of satisfied customers is now in the hundreds? Surely that means something. If these facts appeal to you, call and select your piano for Christmas delivery from Learnard & Lindemann's piano show.

You Cannot Depend Absolutely UPON YOUR MEMORY

The chances are that four or five months after you pay a bill, you forget about it. Suppose that same bill should be presented to you—possibly you could remember about paying it; but nine out of every dozen bills you pay, you forget about in six months. Some you could not recall after six weeks. Pay all bills by check—file your checks. Six years afterward you can turn to the checks, if necessary, and produce indisputable evidence for every bill paid.

We will be pleased to explain other advantages of the checking account to you.
