LET CONFIDENCE BE RESTORED SAYS UNTERMYER IN PUBLIC SPEECH

Attorney for Pujo Committee Declares There Should Be an End to Further Harrying of Corporations.

RECOMMENDS AMNESTY FOR PAST OFFENSES

Laws Providing Against Future Abuses Should Be Placed Upon Statute Books and Rigidly Enforced.

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 28.—The time has come, in the opinion of Samuel Untermyer, who was chief counsel for the Pujo committee investigating the money trust, to restore confidence in the industries of the United States, including the railroads. How this could be accomplished he outlined in a speech tonight before the economic club here.

"A halt should be called," he said, "upon further governmental investigations into the past crimes in the dealing of corporations, the state being wiped clean and the work of re-framing and strengthening the laws to make impossible repetitions of previous offenses should be begun with a general amnesty to past offenders, not yet apprehended.

"The currency bill, now pending in the senate, should be passed. "Give the railroads living rates, or they will perish while we are re-framing the laws under which they are heretofore living."

"Abolish fiscal ascendancy, so-called, voting trusts and interlocking directorates."

"Make it a criminal offense for any officer or director of a corporation to borrow from or make a profit off his corporation."

"Prohibit national banks and interstate corporations from having interlocking directorates in potentially competing corporations."

"Destroy holding companies."

"Give minority stockholders representation in the directorates of their corporations."

"Place railroad reorganizations under the control of the interstate commerce commission and the courts."

"Compel the incorporation of stock exchanges so that the books of their members may be subject to governmental inspection."

"Enforce complete publicity of all corporate transactions, and especially require the fullest disclosure of all profits of bankers, brokers and middlemen in marketing securities sold to the public."

"Limit the directors of national banks and interstate public service corporations to nine."

"Supplement the anti-trust law by constituting a federal industrial commission to which the courts would turn over dissolutions of corporations that have been declared unlawful."

"Give to this commission power to approve agreements between competitors regulating prices and output for a limited term and to the extent necessary to protect them against ruinous competition, but under conditions that will fully safeguard the public."

"Mr. Untermyer spoke on 'How to Restore Confidence.' There had been a sudden and alarming cessation in business activity all over the country, he said, and the consensus of opinion was that it had not been due to changes in the tariff. Primarily, he thought, it was due to uneasiness emanating from disclosures of 'rottenness in corporate management,' from pending and impending legislation affecting the financial system and the trusts, and to the inability of railroads to secure rates which would permit them to maintain their properties and give fair returns on investment."

"I think we should call a halt upon further governmental investigation into the past crimes in the dealing of corporations. By pursuing the subject further we would doubtless learn of innumerable more instances not yet uncovered, but the evidence would be cumulative only."

"Let us wipe the slate and begin the work of so reforming and strengthening our laws that there can be no repetition of the past without the certainty of prompt detection and punishment."

Regarding the pending currency bill, Mr. Untermyer said he differed from all plans now before the senate with respect to the methods of dealing with subscriptions to the stock of the Federal Reserve.

"The passage into law of any of these methods, he feared, might lead to conversion of national banks into state banks and consequent disruption of the national banking system. In this connection, Mr. Untermyer reiterated the suggestions made by him before the senate committee last September concerning this phase of the bill."

Sought-for Man Found in Trinidad.

CANADIAN PREMIERS IN NATIONAL CAPITAL

Washington, Nov. 28.—Washington had as guests of honor today, Premier Robert L. Borden of Canada, and Mrs. Borden, who spent the day and evening in the capital on their way home after a month's stay at Hot Springs, Va. The visitors went directly to the British embassy upon their arrival and soon afterward Secretary Bryan called to escort the premier to the White House to meet the president.

Later Mr. Borden was given a club luncheon by Secretary Lane, of the interior department, an old personal friend. Tonight Secretary and Mrs. Bryan gave a dinner at their home in honor of the premier and Mrs. Borden, and Sir William Tyrrell, private secretary to the British foreign minister.

REAL ESTATE COMPANY BECOMES BANKRUPT

New York, Nov. 28.—The New York Real Estate Security company, with large realty holdings of office buildings and apartment houses, was forced into bankruptcy today by creditors with claims for balances due on the purchase of bonds. The assets, consisting of equities in mortgaged real estate and rent due, are stated in the bankruptcy petition to approximate $100,000. The company financed its real estate holdings through the sale of six per cent bonds throughout the country. Attorneys for the concern said that its embarrassment was only temporary.

The value of the property against which the company's bonds have been issued is said to total between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000, and, according to counsel, the proceedings against the company were instituted as a friendly action to protect the bondholders. The concern is capitalized at $3,500,000.

CASHED COUPONS OF JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER'S

New York, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Evelyn Rutherford, the young bride who clipped coupons from a batch of John D. Rockefeller's bonds and cashed them to the amount of $2,400, was given a suspended sentence today, after pleading guilty to grand larceny. She was instructed to report once a week for five years to probation officers, and to lead a life of honesty, on penalty of several years imprisonment.

Mrs. Rutherford obtained possession of the coupons while employed as a clerk in the offices of the Southern Pacific Railroad company. After her arrest she made restitution of the full amount.

VERDICT OF GUILTY IS FOUND AGAINST PRIEST HANISH

Jury Holds Text Book of Sun Cult Is Too Rank to Be Transmitted Interstate By Express Companies.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Otto H. Zar, publisher of the "Sun," a religious publication, and leader of the Mazdaznan cult of sun worshippers, said to number about 14,000 in different cities, was found guilty by a federal jury here today of sending objectionable literature by express in violation of the interstate commerce laws. He may be sentenced to five years' imprisonment, to pay a fine of $5,000, or both.

The verdict brands as unfit for circulation, the textbook of the cult. The book was read to the jury and almost no other evidence was offered by either side. The book prescribed sun baths and herbs remedies, but its striking feature and that objected to by the government was a frank and lengthy treatise on sex relations.

"This is a day of informal discussions of sex problems," said Judge Mack, in his charge to the jury. "There is a freedom in these matters now that never has been countenanced before. If you find that the lessons in this book are intended to discuss serious problems in a serious manner, and if you find that the book is not intended for general circulation, you are to find the defendant not guilty."

The jury was out three hours.

Hanish was trapped by Dana Angier, a postal inspector, who wrote from Brookfield, Mo., asking for a copy of the text book of the cult, giving the fictitious name of "Julia B. Gardner." Hanish sent the book by express to avoid conflict with postal regulations.

Burning of incense, songs to Mazdaznan and alleged Persian hymns by persons supposed to be members of the cult were features of the trial and kept court bailiffs busy suppressing such demonstrations in court and the corridor outside. Well dressed women were prominent among the cult devotees and held their places throughout the trial, though Judge Mack suggested that all retire during the reading.

Hanish is at liberty under bonds of $10,000. Motions will be heard and sentence pronounced by Judge Mack on his return from New York next week. The verdict was read by Judge Carpenter.

GOD ALONE GAVE HER A CENTURY OF LIFE

Newark, N. J., Nov. 28.—On her one hundredth birthday today, Mrs. Margaret Kidney received from Irving Fisher, professor of political economy at Yale university, a letter asking her to inform him as to what habits and circumstances she attributed to her longevity.

"How foolish he is," exclaimed Mrs. Kidney. "I'm not responsible for living so long. It is God who has made me live so long."

Mrs. Kidney prepared yesterday, with the aid of her sister, Mrs. Annie Garabrant, 87 years old, a Thanksgiving dinner for relatives and other friends.

FUGITIVE LAW AGAIN ACTIVE IN MEXICO

Mexico City, Nov. 28.—What was at first supposed to be a street battle between the police and three robbers occurred early this morning in the center of the city. About fifty shots were fired and one of the robbers was killed. A policeman was shot in the head.

Witnesses of the shooting were greatly alarmed, fearing an uprising or an attack by bandits. A report became current, however, that the alleged robbers were conspirators against the government who were made the victims of the "fugitive law." There is no confirmation of this, but the man who was killed was apparently without weapons.

STEFFANSEN BOAT IS SMASHED IN ARCTIC ICE

Power Schooner, Belonging to Explorer's Expedition, Is Ground to Pieces With Loss of Food and Instruments.

Nome, Alaska, Nov. 28.—The power schooner Mary Sachs, one of the boats of Vilhjalmur Stefansson's Canadian Arctic exploration expedition, has been wrecked in the ice off the Arctic coast of Alaska. News of the loss of the Mary Sachs was received here today in a letter from Peter Barnard, captain of the vessel.

The ice crushed the vessel into small bits and all the provisions and scientific instruments aboard were lost.

The letter gives no details of the mishap. As nothing is said of any injury to the men on the Mary Sachs, it is believed all are safe, as they could easily make their way over the ice to shore, where they could obtain shelter with the natives.

No word was received concerning the Karluk and the Alaska.

SMASHED BOAT WAS IN CHARGE OF DR. ANDERSON

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 28.—The auxiliary boat, Mary Sachs, was purchased at Nome by Vilhjalmur Stefansson for the use of the southern party of the Canadian expedition, which also has the power schooner Alaska. Dr. R. M. Anderson, commanding the southern party, is aboard the Alaska, and Kenneth Chipman, the Canadian geologist, was placed in command of the Mary Sachs.

The last reports received of the expedition were carried by messenger to Circle City, Alaska, arriving there November 19. The messenger reported of the Mary Sachs and the Alaska ice bound at Collinson Point, Alaska, 190 miles west of the international boundary.

The Mary Sachs was a gasoline schooner of 350 tons gross register. She carried a crew of three men and was built at Benicia, Cal., in 1898.

The southern party was to have made a scientific exploration of Victoria Island and Banksland, while Stefansson, on the Karluk, explored the unmapped region in Behuford Sea.

HARRY THAW PRESENTS ANSWER TO PETITION

Concord, N. H., Nov. 28.—Harry K. Thaw filed in the United States district court today, his answer to the petition of the state of New York that Sheriff Holman A. Drew be made custodian of the Matteawan fugitive with authority to deliver him to the New York officials under the extradition warrant issued by Governor Feltner Action on the warrant was stayed by habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Thaw.

Thaw set forth that custody under the extradition warrant would be illegal and oppressive because, based upon an unconstitutional statute and an order of commitment without trial, in effect, he declares, it is worse than sentence to penal servitude in that it excludes the possibility of executive clemency and pardon.

Rebel Official Again on Border

Nogales, Sonora, Mex., Nov. 28.—Francisco Escudero, minister of foreign relations in the constitutional cabinet, arrived here tonight from Hermosillo. Escudero, who took a leading part in the recent conferences between William Bayard Hale, personal representative of President Wilson, and General Venustiano Carranza and his cabinet, would offer an explanation of his return to the border.

NO OCCASION FOR RESTRICTION OF CREDITS, SAYS MR. M'ADOO

Currency Bill, When Passed, Not to Work Hardship on Banks, Declares Secretary of Treasury in Statement.

GOVERNMENT MONEY TO BE USED FREELY

Time for Returning Funds Deposited to Aid Crop Movement May Be Extended for Thirty Days.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Secretary McAdoo issued a statement tonight declaring that banks throughout the country, reported to be restricting credits in order to meet the provisions of the expected currency law, are making a mistake. He announced that the resources in the treasury would be at the disposal of the banks to aid them in complying with the new law when it is put on the statute books.

The statement in part said: "The secretary expressed the conviction that the new law would impose no hardship on the banks and that the transfers of capital and reserves to the proposed federal reserve banks would be accomplished with little or no inconvenience to the banks and to general business. The secretary said that the treasury had large available resources at its command and that he should not hesitate to use them to aid the banks to comply with the new law, and that, in his opinion, the banks could with perfect safety proceed with the granting of accommodations to their customers in the normal and usual way. The secretary said he did not, of course, assume to advise the banks—he only wished them and the business public to know that there was no ground for apprehension; that the attitude of the treasury department was to be helpful, and he thought it could be. If any banks were laboring under the impression that the new law would necessitate or occasion a restriction of credits, they were controlled by error, as no such thing would result. The secretary stated that up to date the banks had called upon the treasury for only $14,861,000 for crop moving purposes; that these deposits were to be returned under the arrangements in four installments beginning December 15 and ending March 1.

The secretary said he would consider favorably, and upon his merits, the application of any national bank holding crop moving deposits for a postponement, for thirty days, of the time for beginning repayments, so that payments might commence on the fifteenth of January, 1914, instead of on the fifteenth of December next, as now provided.

NAVAJOS PACIFIED; EIGHT RENEGADES SURRENDER

Recalcitrant Indians in Northwestern New Mexico Capitulate Promptly, After Conference With General Scott.

Durango, Colo., Nov. 28.—The rebellion of the two-witch men of the Navajo tribe at the Shiprock Indian agency on the Navajo reservation, which took head in an armed encampment on Beautiful mountain two weeks ago, ended tonight.

A Ta-A-Yana, chief medicine man, with seven other renegades for whom warrants were issued by the district federal court, charging bigamy, assault and larceny, surrendered tonight to Superintendent W. T. Shelton of the Shiprock agency, at the Coaldeas trading post, after Gen. Hugh L. Scott had visited the camp of the renegades on Beautiful mountain and talked with the band through an Indian interpreter.

The medicine man and his companions brought with them to the trading post the promise that their followers on Beautiful mountain would surrender in the morning.

Man-Eating Tigris at Large

Epernay, France, Nov. 28.—The countryside is living in terror of a tigris, which escaped from an enclosure when a cinematograph tiger hunt was in progress Wednesday and dashed into the forest. A number of forest guards and policemen and a few amateur hunters have endeavored to track the animal but without success. The tigris has occasionally been seen by terror-stricken peasants but so far it is not known to have killed any one.

JUDGE LANDIS GETS $2,500 FOR MOTHER

Chicago, Nov. 28.—The inquiry of Judge Landis, of the United States district court, as to "why a soldier's life is worth only $750," was answered today.

The judge's curiosity was aroused by a settlement of the Mobile & Ohio Railroad Co. with Mrs. Mary Pank, for the death of her son, a soldier, in a wreck, for $750, less $250 attorneys fees.

Judge Landis appointed new attorneys for Mrs. Pank and when the case was called today, a settlement out of court for $2,500 was announced. Judge Landis said this was satisfactory.

HUSBAND WHO SLEW WIFE IS MURDERED

Moffett, Okla., Nov. 28.—That Ed Jones, after shooting and killing his wife in his home early today, was murdered by an unknown person, was the verdict returned by a coroner's jury.

Jones shot his wife in the presence of his eleven children. The children fled to the home of a neighbor and gave the alarm. When neighbors reached the scene Jones was found dead with two bullet wounds in his head. Physicians testified at the inquest that bullets had penetrated Jones' head from opposite directions, and that either bullet would have caused instant death, thus precluding a theory of suicide.

SUFFRAGISTS NOW GATHERING IN WASHINGTON

Women Arrange for Convention to Further Movement to Secure Ballot by Constitutional Amendment.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Suffragists from every state are flocking to the capital for a mammoth convention which will open tomorrow and continue a week.

Visits to President Wilson, hearings before the congressional committee on constitutional amendments to enfranchise women, addresses by senators and representatives and such leaders of the cause of suffrage as Miss Jane Addams, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, Senator Helen Ring Robinson of Colorado, Mrs. Medill McCormick, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Ella S. Stewart and Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCullough, will feature a week of meetings. Such organizations as the National American Woman's Suffrage association, the National College Women's Suffrage association, the Congressional Union, the Woman's Political Union of New York, and the Men's League for suffrage will be represented.

Fresh from victory in Illinois, the suffragists will conduct a celebration of their triumph and urge congress, by amendment of the constitution, to extend the ballot to women voters in all the states.

Although the formal meetings of the convention will not open until Monday, the college women's association and the National American Woman's Suffrage association will have a joint session tomorrow and plans will be perfected for the opening of the suffrage school which will open under the auspices of the congressional union on December 7, immediately after the close of the convention.

Lectures morning, afternoon and evening will be given suffrage workers for the advancement of their cause. The "art of lobbying" will be expounded in six lectures by Mrs. Sherman K. Booth, who was a worker in winning the Illinois victory. Automobile campaigns, street meetings "how to reach the man voter," "suffrage as it affects the home," and other subjects will be treated.

Mrs. Robert LaFollette will lecture on how to reach the rural voter in a suffrage campaign. The lecturing, however, will not be confined to women. Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, Senator Chamberlain, Representative Victor Murdock, progressive party leader of the house; Assistant Secretary Post, of the department of labor, and many other men of public life will address the workers.

Next week's convention, however, promises to deal with the internal affairs of the organizations, plans for filling the war chest, new campaigns, and making of converts. It probably will be the most important suffrage gathering ever held in the capital. Suffragist leaders chose this time for the rally because they felt the convening of congress and President Wilson's delivery of his first annual message was a psychological moment for a concentrated strike for their cause.

Cashier M. Clay Dies

Paris, Ky., Nov. 28.—Cashier M. Clay, president of the Kentucky constitutional convention of 1892, one time candidate for governor of that state and prominently known throughout the south, died here early today. He was a graduate of Yale and was 70 years old.

Slide at Panama Chokes Channel

Panama, Nov. 28.—The Curancha slide developed a fresh movement downward today nearly closing the channel which has been maintained through the slide for the last six weeks.

AMMUNITION SEIZED BY CUSTOMS OFFICIALS

New York, Nov. 28.—Ten thousand rounds of rifle and revolver ammunition were seized by customs inspectors this afternoon aboard the steamer Seminole, lying at her pier here. The Seminole is to sail tomorrow for Haiti and San Domingo. The confiscated ammunition was hidden in many different parts of the vessel. The Seminole's officers said they did not know of its presence.

The raid on the Seminole was made by order of Nelson A. Henry, surveyor of the port, after the ship's manifest was taken. This record failed to state that the ammunition was on board, in violation of the custom law and also of the passenger law, as the Seminole is a passenger-carrying vessel.

Some of the ammunition, valued in all at $2,500, was found under the coal in the bunkers and some in the hold in the unused donkey engines and in the mauling-covered ventilators. In the coal were discovered six automatic revolvers of latest design, worth $50 each.

The customs authorities began an investigation to find the persons responsible for the shipment and for whom it was designed. The ammunition was taken to New Jersey to be destroyed, and the revolvers to the customs house.

LEGAL FIGHT OVER C. G. GATES' RESIDENCE

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 28.—A legal fight to determine the legal residence of the late Charles G. Gates, and which state, Minnesota or Texas, shall collect the inheritance tax from Mr. Gates' estate, was begun in the Hennipin county probate court today.

William J. Stevenson, assistant state attorney general, filed a petition to probate the estate, declaring that Mr. Gates' home was in Minneapolis. Later Attorney Frank T. Corstien, representing Mrs. Gates and other heirs, filed a copy of the will and a petition with the court. Both Mr. Corstien and the state's actions will be heard January 8.

Mrs. Gates' petition declared that her husband's legal residence was at Port Arthur, Texas. The heirs estimate of the Minnesota portion of the estate is $500,000.

Chicago Women War on Egg Prices

Chicago, Nov. 28.—With the members of ninety-six women's clubs in Chicago organized to force the price of eggs down to 32 cents, the butter and egg board took action today. They asked that a committee of women meet a committee of the board tomorrow, and this the housewives agreed to. The commission men declared that the law of supply and demand will prevent the price of eggs from dropping to the point set by the women.

GOVERNMENT SEEKS TO RECOVER BIG LAND GRANT

Southern Pacific Is Alleged to Hold, as Non-Mineral Bearing, Tract Worth Millions of Dollars.

San Francisco, Nov. 28.—Testimony intended to show that the Southern Pacific company owns the Associated Oil company and through it has been attempting to control $18,000,000 worth of oil lands in the Elk Hills district of California, by misrepresentation, was taken today before a special examiner appointed by the United States district court.

A resolution spread on the minutes of the Associated Oil company's board of directors in 1912, providing that as fast as oil wells were opened in the land which the company had leased in that district, they should be capped, was brought into evidence.

The testimony being taken is for use in the suit of the United States government against the Southern Pacific, the Kern Trading & Oil Co., the Central Trust company, the Equitable Trust company of New York, and certain individual holders of trust deeds to land in the Elk Hills district. The land comprises ten odd numbered sections, contained in a government grant to the railroad in early days, and the government is suing to cancel the patents on the ground that the land is mineral-bearing.

The railroad company holds in this suit that the land is non-mineral. The present testimony is to show that the same company, through its subsidiary, the Associated Oil company, is asking the government, under its mineral land rule, to give it control of the even-numbered sections in the same district as mineral land, but at the same time by capping the wells, is in effect withholding evidence.

P. G. Williams, secretary of the Associated Oil company, was on the witness stand today and through him it was shown that a majority of the companies stock is held by the large stockholders of the Southern Pacific.

Mexican Bandit Hiding in Mine

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 28.—Sheriff Andrew Smith said he was confident tonight that Ralph Lopez, the Mexican bandit, was hiding in the Utah Apex mine, near Hingham, but so far none of the officers have seen him and there is some doubt expressed here that the man, said to be in the mine, is Lopez.

MEXICAN GENERAL SUICIDES AFTER CAPTURE OF VICTORIA

Federal Captain Distributes Cigarettes to Firing Squad Before He Is Executed by Rebel Captors.

NO INFORMATION AT HUERTA HEADQUARTERS

American Embassy Is Assured That Nephew of Late President Madero Will Not Be Executed.

Mexico City, Nov. 28.—Like General Jose Gonzalez Salas, after the battle of Rellano in March, 1912, General Antonio Rabago, military governor of the state of Tamaulipas, killed himself after losing Victoria, the capital. The suicide of General Rabago is not admitted by the government, but the news is contained in a private telegram to his relatives here who do not question its authority.

General Rabago, as military governor, was responsible for the garroting when Victoria was attacked by the rebels on November 17.

It was not until this morning that the newspapers of the Mexican capital published any intimation that Victoria had been taken. Rabago was credited with having evacuated the city.

The private message fails to give details of his death.

Among the incidents connected with the capture of Victoria by the rebels one is related of the execution of Captain Tomas Gomez. He was told that his life would be spared if he swore to the government. He refused and was given an hour for meditation.

When the hour had elapsed and his guards had come for him he asked to be taken before the man who had ordered his execution. He embraced the military judge, assuring him that he cherished no resentment and then marched to the place designated for his death.

There he distributed among the firing squad all but one of a package of cigarettes. This he lighted himself and signalled the officer in command to give the order to fire.

The government still pretends to have the most meagre information regarding the fighting south of Juarez. This reserve is characteristic with regard to the military operations throughout the republic. That Tampico is seriously menaced by the rebels is indicated by private advices which say that they are moving southward from Victoria, and today cut the railroad forty miles north of Tampico, wrecking at that point a train of twenty odd tank cars.

According to late dispatches, the managers of the branches of the London and Mexico, and the National banks at Tampico have been instructed to close their establishments and remove the archives to Progreso. The branch of the Bank of London and Mexico at Monterrey, has been closed for several days. Industrial concerns in the interior of the republic are in a serious condition owing to their inability to get from Tampico the coal, coke and oil stored there.

Reports from the north continue to indicate increasing rebel strength south of Matamoros. Since the dynamiting of a troop train yesterday no effort has been made to resume traffic, the railway men refusing to take out the trains.

It is reported that after dynamiting the train the rebels attacked the troops, who numbered about 130 or 140 women and children belonging to the soldiers, killing every one of them. This report has not been confirmed.

The chamber of deputies approved tonight the committee report on the $3,000,000 peso interior loan issued for by the late President Madero, which was not acted upon by congress. It is said that certain foreign governments are willing to accept payment of their indemnities in these bonds and it is regarded as probable that more will be authorized and printed.

The American embassy has obtained from high government officials assurance that Manuel Madero, uncle of the late president, who started tonight under guard for Vera Cruz, would reach there in safety.

Madero is one of a group brought from Monterrey on a charge of sedition. He has been held in the penitentiary and was ordered transferred to Vera Cruz, presumably for incarceration in San Juan de los Rios prison. Relatives learned of the order late today, and fearing he might be shot while on the way, appealed to the American embassy.

An official of the embassy telephoned to two members of the cabinet and to Enrique Zepeda, a nephew of President Huerta who was recently released from the penitentiary, where he had been held until an investigation could be made of his killing and burning of Gabriel Hernandez at Orizaba prison while governor of the federal district. These three officials communicated with the president's office and then notified the embassy that Madero's release was assured.

CARRANZA STICKS WHITE PINS IN MEXICAN MAP

Hermosillo, Sonora, Nov. 28.—Sticking white pins, which represent the towns held by the constitutionalists,
into a map of Mexico, is the latest occupation of General Carranza, a possible time in which the bearded insurgent chief takes as much delight as a small boy with a puzzle picture.

Within a fortnight white pins have made their appearance at the data
representing the state capitals, Victoria, in Tamaulipas, and Culiacan, in Sinaloa, while black pins denoting federal occupancy, have been stuck
from Juarez, Carranza has shiny white pins ready for Chihuahua and for Guaymas and Matamoros, ports on the west coast.

When these last pins have been stuck into the map, there will be no
black pins left in four of the border and coast states of northwestern Mexico. They compose the largest area of any four states in the republic.
Eight hundred Yaqui Indian troops arrived here today from Sinaloa and were permitted to go to their homes in Sonora for a brief visit. Their places in the south were taken by an equal number of Mayo Indians. At headquarters it was said the movement had no connection with the current campaign.

explain the purpose of the society for prevention of useless giving. Mrs.
William H. Taft, who was Katherine Wilkins, and other women have joined to sell the organization's official badge in the capital and further the movement.

the strike at the General Electric thousand employees walked out Tuesday. After a five hours conference, company officials and workers' representatives failed to reach a definite agreement, but announcement was made that "the outlook is favorable."

Miner's Work Hard

and toiling underground tires nature. Shut off from sunshine and fresh air, the vital forces weaken and rheumatism or other sickness follows.

Scott's Emulsion is a miner's greatest help. It contains pure cod liver oil which makes the blood rich and pure to nourish
the body—hypophosphites as a tonic and a nerve-builder and wholesome glycerine to act as a healer and curative.

DEMURRER UPHELD FURTHER DELAYS IN CONFUCIANISM NOT IN $10,000 SUIT CURRENCY BILL DANGEROUS TO FILED BY INDIAN PROBABLE MISSION WORK

Charles Kie of Gallup Loses
Case in United States Court Against Sheriff Roberts and Senator Gregory Page.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL
Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 28.—Judge William H. Pope has sustained the demurrer of Sheriff Roberts and Gregory Page, of Gallup, to the complaint of Charles Kie, a Pueblo Indian, who asked $10,000 damages for being restrained from casting
a ballot at an election for town treasurer in the Cashion City and $5,000 additional for being thrown into jail and beaten, as he asserted. Kie demanded the right to vote under the treaty of Gadsden Hills. He set up that he had been duly registered. In fact, that he had voted in previous elections and had not been molested. However, since then the United States supreme court, in the federal case, recently decided, has laid down a new precedent.

Judge Pope in his opinion declared
"that as the action is one for damages for preventing plaintiff from voting, I am of opinion that the complaint states no cause for action,
insofar as it is for damages for false arrest and imprisonment and other indignities offered, it involves no federal right and is not within the jurisdiction of this court. The demurrer will accordingly be sustained."

While the case has been dismissed,
the plaintiff has saved exceptions and it is believed it will be taken up to the appellate court. In fact, it may be made another test case involving the rights of citizens of the Pueblo Indians. One fact brought out in the present case is that Kie had paid no taxes.

STRONG LEGAL FIGHT TO BE MADE FOR DR. W. B. CRAIG

Physician Charged With Killing Woman Doctor Must Stand Trial for Alleged Manslaughter.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE
Birmingham, Ind., Nov. 28.—Impossible for local forces lived up today
and tomorrow in the preliminary skirmish
of the trial of Dr. William B. Craig, of Indianapolis, for the murder of Dr.
Helena Kappa. His indictment was returned through preliminary charges
by the defense and five on demand of the prosecution.

Significance was attached by some
to the question asked by Henry Spann at counsel for the defense:
"Would you have any faith in evidence obtained through spiritualism?"
The invariable answer was "No."
It seemed certain tonight that Henry C. Webster, the private detective who worked up the case on behalf of the Indianapolis council of women, would be the principal witness for the prosecution.

Dr. Craig remained at liberty tonight under $10,000 bond he furnished when he was arrested. He returned to Indianapolis on an evening train.

Germans to Probe Tobacco Trust.
Berlin, Nov. 28.—Dr. Joseph Hirschfeld, a social democratic member of parliament, today asked the government whether it had decided to investigate the relations of the Anglo-American tobacco trust with the German cigarette industry. Dr. Max Richter, under-secretary for the interior, replied that a commission of inquiry was to be appointed and members of parliament might attend its sittings.

Bryan Makes Speech to Printers.
Washington, Nov. 28.—Secretary
Bryan told government printing office employees today at their Thanksgiving services, that the thanks of the nation at this season should not be only to God but to those whose labor in the past made Americans to enjoy their political privileges, their religious ideals and their educational advantages. He declared such thanks as Americans as they need to whom they are due no longer are in cash, should take the concrete form of a duty to society.

Measure Before Senate Democrats Likely to Be Agreed to Practically as Presented By Owen.

Washington, Nov. 28.—(Continued) encountered by the senate democrats
in their consideration of the administration currency bill in conference today, threatened to extend the meeting over into next week. Practically no material amendments were made in the draft, as presented by Chairman
Owen and the five administrative democrats of the banking and currency committee.

Arrangements were made today for the opening of the regular session of congress on Monday. It was arranged to have the president read his regular message to congress at a session Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock.

While progress was slow today, the leaders were satisfied that the Owen draft of the bill finally would be adopted with but few changes. The question of funding the demerits to support the conference bill, as a jury measure, has not yet been taken up,
but it is expected that a funding resolution will be presented after the bill has been considered.

The democratic conference tonight defeated a proposal to broaden the redemption features of the new currency
bill so that the proposed treasury
note would be redeemable at the United States treasury in lawful money.

The banking and currency committee had recommended that the final redemption be limited strictly to gold and after a lengthy debate tonight
this position was upheld by the conference. The bill as now agreed to permits a note to be redeemable in either gold or "lawful money," at the regional banks, but in gold only at the treasury.

A change was agreed to in the form of the green bill which would make the new treasury notes acceptable for the payment of interest duties. This was suggested by the committee, that drafted the bill on the ground that the currency resolute furnished an certain method of securing gold in time of need for the use of the treasury.

Rapid progress was made on the bill tonight and democratic senators confidently predicted the conference
would be able to complete its work
by tomorrow night.

CARTER GLASS REPLIES TO CRITICISMS OF VANDERLIP

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Carter Glass, chairman of the house committee on banking, defended tonight the Overland currency bill before an audience composed largely of the men who recently heard Frank A. Vanderlip, of the National City bank of New York, condemn the bill. Mr. Glass spoke at the annual dinner of the Chicago Association of Commerce.

Mr. Glass called "absurd" the characterization of the proposed federal reserve notes as fiat money.
In addition to the other securities
he said, the notes would have backing of "the responsibility and the credit of a nation of 80,000,000 people."

"Mr. Vanderlip objects to the government responsibility which has been superseded," said Mr. Glass, and so do many other bankers and financial experts, but Mr. Vanderlip is the only one of them who has ventured the grotesque opinion that the guarantee of these notes by the United States lessens their security.

"In addition to the incomparable security of these federal reserve notes,
the house bill provides a method of controlling inflation that makes the system sound to the very roots, and a great backbone and security to the country is trifling with a great problem
and affronting the intelligence of the American people."

Mr. Glass also declared that the currency commission of the American Bankers' association submitted in its original draft of recommendations, while the bill was in the course of construction, the following suggestion
for a note issue:
"The issue of federal reserve notes
is hereby authorized which shall impose on their face to be obligations of the United States."

"If the house bill provides for fiat money, so does the suggested provision of these great practical bankers," said Mr. Glass.

LOSS CAUSED BY FOYE ESTIMATED AT $40,000

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE
New York, Nov. 28.—Wrote of attachment in recovery property of James R. Foye, the $100,000 worth of property, which having been seized and hypothecated approximately $250,000 worth of General Electric stock, were seized today by the management of the Harrison National bank and an uphold bond where Foye had been in the habit of stopping.

Up to date there has been recovered $142,000 of the money realized by Foye on this stock. The total loss due to his alleged speculations, it is believed, will approximate $40,000. Foye is in the Penitentiary held without bail.

Williams Resort to Old Tactics.
London, Nov. 28.—Militant suffragettes are returning to their old tactics. One of them fastened herself to a chair in Caxton hall tonight with a chain and padlock, from which point of vantage she shrieked "votes for women." The Right Hon. Joseph Albert Paine, M. P., for the Rotherham division of York, was forced to suspend his speech for several minutes while the stewards endeavored to remove the suffragette. They were forced to smash the chain before this could be done.

Christians Oppose Adoption of State Religion in China Only for Harm Which Would Result to Republic.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE
New York, Nov. 28.—The American board of foreign missions is not alarmed at the effort to make Confucianism the state religion of China,
according to a statement today by the Rev. Dr. Woodruff Halsey, secretary of the home department. Cable dispatches yesterday from Peking told of an anti-Confucianism meeting, attended by American missionaries, at which a league was formed to oppose the adoption of a state religion by the republic.

"We are opposing the move for the good of China herself, rather than because we believe it hampers the work of our missionaries here," Dr.
Halsey said. "As a matter of fact we do not believe it will hamper their work. It would be a backward step, however, in the progress of China, for it would permit the spread and unscrupulous to mix religion with business and politics. It would tend to release China to the plans of Mexico."

Two years ago an attempt was made to make Christianity the state religion. We opposed that effort just as vigorously as we are opposing the present effort on behalf of Confucianism. President Yuan chi Kai said to H. H. Louie, president of Peking university, "I am not a Christian, I am a follower of Confucius, but only Christian ethics can save China. Our morality is not sufficient for the work."

"The tendency to establish a state religion is of course, indicative of a crisis in religious matters in China,
but it will be a crisis in the internal affairs of the republic only, and will not be a crisis in our work. We believe that will go on as usual."

BONAR LAW DEFIES GOVERNMENT TO SEIZE CARSON

Unionist Insists That Irish Home Rule Question Should Be Again Referred to Voters of British Isles.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE
Dublin, Nov. 28.—Mr. Bonar Law addressed an immense meeting tonight in the Theatre Royal and also an overflowing meeting. He argued that the attitude of Ulster alone justified
the demand for an appeal to the country. He challenged the government if they believed they had moral right behind them, to arrest Sir Edward Carson and suppress the armed movement in Ulster.

The streets tonight were crowded.
Students marched in procession and smashed windows in buildings. Some shots were fired and one woman was wounded. The police were kept busy stopping various affairs.

This Man's Blood

Was purified and perfect health restored by that wonderful bloodpurifying and health-giving medicine, HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Mr. W. A. Caldwell, of Litchfield, Conn., writes that he had "boils a plenty and then some," one large carbuncle that would show 12 places of discharge; salt rheum on both forearms, which were literally a scab
from scratching and with a very itching sensation. He says he took a "six-bottle course of Hood's Sarsaparilla," since which he has not had a single boil, nor eruption on his arms. He says: "You can use this if you wish—it is true."

If you suffer in any way from impure blood, boils or humors, do as
Mr. Caldwell did—take Hood's Sarsaparilla. If you write him for further particulars of his case be sure to enclose stamp for reply.

NO ALARMING NEWS RECEIVED FROM OIL FIELDS

Secretary Bryan Remains in Washington to Keep Tab on Affairs in Mexico While President Is Absent.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE
Washington, Nov. 28.—Secretary
Bryan said tonight that no official communication had been received since from Rear Admiral Fletcher or John Lind, the special American envoy to Mexico, relating to conditions in the oil fields near Tampico. The fact that no report had been received since the able from Admiral Fletcher relating to conditions in the vicinity of Tuxtepec, several days ago, was regarded in official circles as an assurance that there was no immediate cause for alarm.

When President Wilson left Washington for New York at noon, the secretary of state remained to receive official dispatches on conditions in the republican-born republic. The only developments concerned the activity of the relief forces reported to be advancing toward Tampico from Victoria.

Secretary Daniels issued an order today directing the fourth division of the Atlantic fleet, now in the Mediterranean, to proceed to the east coast of Mexico. The ships to make the trip are the Connecticut, Kansas and Ohio, ordered to replace the Louisiana, Michigan and New Hampshire,
now in Mexican waters. The division will leave the Mediterranean December 1, and should arrive off Vera Cruz about two weeks later. Rear Admiral Badger, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, will direct this maneuver.

VILLA BEGINS MOVEMENT AGAINST CHIHUAHUA CITY

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 28.—The movement of General Francisco Villa's troops to the south to attack the federal stronghold at Chihuahua was began today when nearly 1,000 men under General Rosendo Hernandez departed from Juarez. They accompanyed a work train which is being used to repair the railroad line which has been destroyed in places below Juarez
by the federals when they retreated southward after the Tierra Blanca battle.

Another troop train is being loaded
in Juarez tonight and will probably depart for the south early tomorrow morning. General Villa will leave tomorrow with the remainder of his troops, going towards Chihuahua.

Rebel leaders believe that they will have a fight with the federals at Villa Ahumada, 35 miles south of Juarez,
as the federal troops which were defeated at Tierra Blanca are marooned
there.

HUNGER PACES PEOPLE NOW IN CITY OF VICTORIA

Brownsville, Tex., Nov. 28.—Imminent danger of starvation for residents of Victoria, capital of the Mexican state of Tamaulipas, has caused all remaining Americans in that vicinity, including five families
and several single persons, to decide to leave for the United States. An American chauffeur, returning from Victoria today, said the Americans were to start for Matamoros and Brownsville in a wagon train today.
Several women missionaries have joined United States Consul Johnson
at Matamoros, to furnish their automobile transportation from Victoria to Matamoros. Victoria is cut off from all points and there is no chance to obtain provisions.

The chauffeur said today that after capturing Victoria, November 19, the constitutionalists burned the state capital and razed the penitentiary,
after liberating all prisoners, but destroyed deliberately no other property in the city. The Mexican National railroad bridge over the San Marcos river was partly destroyed.

LONDON NATIONAL REVIEW PRAISES MEXICAN POLICY

London, Nov. 28.—The National Review, which is usually hostile to America, says of the Mexican question that the proximity of Mexico to the United States is the most important of the outstanding elementary facts to be taken into consideration and promising "an utterly far-reaching and irreversible idea that Mexico is a suitable field for a spirited British policy."

The Review adds:
"It is quite useless to attack or abuse the United States for pursuing a policy which would undoubtedly be

HIGH SCHOOL AND MENAUL WILL PLAY TODAY

In First Game of Season Presbyterians and A. H. S. Players Fought to Tie; Both Expected Decisive Victory.

The high school and Menaul football teams will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Association park field in the deciding game of the city championship series. The University of New Mexico, of course, downed the high school by an overwhelming score, but owing to its weight the varsity team is not looked upon by teams in the prep school class as a contender. This will not be the Presbyterians' first encounter with the high school this season. In their first game the score was 6 to 6, and the return game was scheduled for today in the hope that the question of superiority between the teams would be settled.

Cough Peas of the Presbyterians and Cough Benson of the high school both declared last night that they were confident of victory.

WINSLOW WINNER IN DOUBLE BASKET BALL BILL

Both Boys and Girls Teams of Arizona City's High School Score Victories in Matches With Williams.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL
Winslow, Ariz., Nov. 28.—In a lively double bill of basketball between the teams of the Winslow high school and those of the Williams high school Thursday afternoon the Winslow players won decisive victories. Both boys' and girls' teams of each school participated, and the matches were witnessed by an enthusiastic crowd of more than 300 spectators, who cheered the local students to victory.

In the game between the girls, which was played first, Misses Wilma Mahoney and Jessie Butler played forwards for Winslow, Miss Clara Allen center, and Misses Rose Down and Ella Dade guards. For Williams, Misses Edna Deion and Garnet Field played forwards, Miss Irene Swedin center, and Miss Marie Miller and Nethel Swedin guards.

Both teams showed excellent training and skill, combined with a fine spirit of determination to win. At the end of the first half the score stood 12 to 6 in favor of Winslow, the final score of the game being 41 to 9.

The game between the boys' teams began at 4:25, after the conclusion of the girls' game, and was more evenly contested, though in this game also the superiority of the Winslow team was clearly demonstrated. The score of the boys' game was 25 to 16 in favor of Winslow. The lineup in this game was as follows: For Winslow, Samson and Morley, forwards; Parke, center; Wright and McLean, guards; For Williams, Klock and Montgomery, forwards; Ross, center; Reed and Campbell, guards. Prof. Youngblood, of Williams, officiated as referee and Mr. Gray, of Winslow, as umpire in both games, and gave entire satisfaction.

The visiting teams were the recipients of many social attentions while in the city, being taken on auto parties during the forenoon and a banquet being given in their honor at night. Return games between the teams of the two schools have been arranged for December 13 in Williams.

At a mass meeting of business men of Winslow held in the Elks' building Wednesday evening the organization of a commercial club was perfected by the election of J. F. Mahoney president and J. C. Tehan secretary. It is the object of the new body to boost Winslow and advertise its advantages to the world in every way possible. A board of directors composed of fifteen prominent business men was selected. The charter membership of the club numbers more than sixty.

SOUTHWEST CHAMPIONS IN GRIDIRON PASTIME PASS THROUGH CITY

The victorious football eleven representing the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, passed through Albuquerque last night on their way back home from Roswell, where they settled all doubt as to the plucky supremacy of the southwest by defeating the cadets of the New Mexico Military Institute on turkey day by the decisive score of 19 to 7.

The Mesilla Park boys spent several hours here between trains, and spent the time walking about the city unnumbered muscles, tired from the long ride over from Roswell. An occasional college yell let people know they were in town, but there was nothing in the conduct of the boys to which the strictest teacher might take exception.

The champions of the southwest wear their honor modestly, as better real champions. They are naturally elated at coming through the season with clean slate, but they admit frankly that they have had a hard campaign and that the "breaks of the game" helped some in placing the laurel wreath upon their collective brows. They were high in their praise of the game fight put up by the university team, and state that they felt that the battle for the "championship" was won by them when they defeated the Albuquerque contingent.

The Aggies left at midnight for their home ball-yard, where they will be received by an enthusiastic delegation from the student body.

JOE TINKER ANXIOUS FOR BERTH WITH CUBS

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Chicago, Nov. 28.—Joe Tinker, decorated manager of the Cincinnati team, called on Manager Evers, of the Chicago Nationals today, and after a conference, said he knew of no place he would rather play than in Chicago. No terms were discussed by the men and until President Murphy, of the Chicago club, returns from Europe, no negotiations between the local organization and the Cincinnati club regarding the transfer of Tinker can be made.

Pitcher Loses Hand in Shredder.
Grand Forks, Ind., Nov. 28.—El Cates, pitcher of the Indianapolis federal league team, lost his pitching hand in a corn shredder today. The accident happened on the farm of Cates' uncle near here. Cates was one of the mainstays of the Indianapolis club last season.

MATTY'S SECOND SEASON WITHOUT A HIT BATTER

Peer of Veteran Twirlers is One of Steadiest Pitchers in Major League Baseball; Has Wonderful Record.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
New York, Nov. 28.—The final chapter of 1913 football history will be completed tomorrow with the playing of the annual Army-Navy football game at the Polo Grounds in this city. In honor of the occasion New York, which has not been the scene of a gridiron classic in more than a decade, has taken on the combined aspect of a military encampment and a college campus. As if to refute the charge that he thinks but of and in dollars, the busy inhabitant of commercial canyons has cast aside business cares and is taking tonight a weird jargon consisting of equal parts of football, military and naval vernacular.

Strange as the situation is to the average New Yorker, he appears to like the rule of host to the soldiers and sailors and the thousands of adherents who are gathering for the battle between the gridiron teams of the two United States academies. The sight of straight-backed, broad-shouldered cadets in gray and the rival middles in dark blue causes him to involuntarily square away and fall into the long swinging stride of the youth who hopes in late years to see his name linked with the title of either admiral or general.

As if to emphasize his pride in the presence of Uncle Sam's embryo army and navy officers he has decked his city with a display of academy colors and American flags to an extent not witnessed since the victorious return of Admiral Dewey and his fleet from the battle of Manila. From Battery to Harlem, Broadway and its hundreds of intersecting streets are a-flutter with the black, gold and gray of the Army and the blue and gold of the Navy. While residential sections have confined their decorative efforts to pennants and flags, commercial genius has seized upon the occasion for elaborate display.

Middy and cadet, represented by uniformed and buttoned adherents have heretofore been unfamiliar to New Yorkers' eyes except as they passed through the city on their way to Princeton or Philadelphia for the yearly academy encounter. Now that city and citizen are given an opportunity to demonstrate just what New York has to offer as the site and scene for such a football classic the determination to make it an annual feature is evidenced. The largest sport stadium in America and several hundred hotels await the thousands gathering for the game.

That accommodation on a large scale is needed is shown by the advance guard which is sweeping into the city from every point of the compass. Aside from the thousand and more cadets and middles who will tomorrow form the cheering squads, the crowd is a magnet for thousands of Army and Navy officers, American and foreign diplomatic personages, governmental department chiefs and the political and social clans of Washington and other cities of the country. Special boxes have been reserved for President Wilson, his family and members of his cabinet. His presence would add the final touch of official representation to the game.

Considered from both point of number and personality the gathering of spectators will be the most representative that has ever witnessed the Army-Navy football game. More than 45,000 seats have been provided in the Brush stadium, and every corner was sold weeks ago. Applications and accompanying checks for over 30,000 seats have been returned unaltered owing to the inability of the management to find another foot of seating space in the vast enclosure. Although extra boxes and stand additions were made, the capacity falls far short of the demand, and it is estimated that fully 80,000 persons would have witnessed the game were it possible to accommodate that many.

So great is the demand for seats tonight that the spectator who has two or three in his possession is already promising himself a winter vacation. That the game, aside from its spectacular features and attendant gathering of notables, will result in a contest abounding in brilliant football play and strategy is the opinion of those who have followed the gridiron career of the two eleven during the present season. Although the Navy team is a slight favorite owing to its impressive list of victories to date, the Army is not without its backers who are willing to wager that, like Yale, the soldiers in their final stand of the year will be far more formidable than generally believed.

It is on this ability to arise to the occasion that the supporters of the cadets are counting on the game tomorrow, for judged by their season's records the odds of 10 to 7 offered by unsatisfied football followers appear to be justified. The Middies have developed this season one of the heaviest yet fastest teams of recent years and have moved down all but one team during the eight preceding Army contests. In the opening game of the schedule the powerful University of Pittsburgh eleven succeeded in holding the Navy to a no-score tie. The Middies followed this inauspicious opening by rolling up double figure scores on the succeeding seven teams and are generally credited with having one of the best eleven that ever represented the Naval Academy.

Although the cadets will follow the usual custom of waging even with the soldiers of the chances of their team tomorrow it is generally conceded that the Army record this autumn does not warrant such generosity on the part of the average football follower. The West Point team has played erratic football all season, winning games from strong opponents by one-sided scores only to lapse a week later against eleven of similar caliber. The soldiers just escaped defeat by Colgate and Tufts and were completely outplayed by Notre Dame. Early this month the combination appeared to find itself and ran up scores over the half-century mark in games with Albright and Villanova.

What may be expected in the way of a close, hard-fought contest is indicated in a general way by the results of preceding games of the series. Since the eleven of the two academies first met in 1899 seventeen games have been played of which the Navy has won nine and the Army seven, with one tie. In those seventeen games the Army has scored 125 points to the Navy's 136. The largest score of the series was made by the Army team of 1905 when it defeated the sailors 49 to 6. The smallest score victories were those of the Navy in 1910 and 1911, when a single field goal gave the middies a 3-point margin over the soldiers.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL
Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 28.—Adjutant General Herring is making a special effort to muster in another militia company in Albuquerque. He knows that splendid material exists in the Duke City for a crack company that would take a high rank socially and also in a military way, assuming a relative rank in the state such as is enjoyed by the Cleveland Grays in Ohio or the famous regiments or companies of other states.

In Santa Fe, Captain H. Vera Royle has secured enough pledges to form a crack company and the respective recruits will meet in the armory next Tuesday evening and will be addressed by Col. E. C. Abbott and other regimental officers. It is planned to make this company a social factor in the Capital City and also to give young men of high character the advantages and benefits of an athletic organization.

ANNAPOLIS MEETS WEST POINT TODAY IN NEW YORK

Great Football Game Expected Between Army and Navy Eleven for Honors of 1913 Season.

COMBINE FORMED LITERARY NIGHT STRIKE LEADER IS MAYOR SHANK HAD TO BOOST PRICE OF SCORED SEVERELY UNDER ARREST IN TO RESIGN FROM POTATO CROP BY PROFESSOR COLORADO POSITION

Secretary of Ireland's Board of Agriculture Pleads for Free Admission of Spuds From Other Countries.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Washington, Nov. 28.—A new phase of the cost of living problem was brought to the attention of the department of agriculture today. T. E. Gill, secretary of the Irish board of agriculture, told Secretary Houston that speculators in the large cities of the United States were actively buying up this year's short American potato crop and planning to hold out for high prices, counting upon the existing guarantee against potatoes from many foreign countries to aid them in their undertaking.

Mr. Gill is here to urge the removal of the embargo on potatoes from his country and has received private advice and various sources on the potato situation in America. Secretary Houston and the federal horticultural board held a conference after Mr. Gill's statement, but no action was announced. Representative McKellar, of Tennessee, author of a pending bill to prohibit the keeping of products in cold storage for more than ninety days, was in conference today with department of justice officials over the department's investigation of the storage of eggs, poultry and dairy products. It is said that a preliminary inquiry has revealed the fact that 55 per cent of the present egg supply, held in storage, is in the hands of the great meat packers of the country.

National Council of Teachers Listens to Address on Tendencies to Destroy Harmony in Writing and Speaking.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Chicago, Nov. 28.—(Byline) Writing and speaking, under a new attack here today before the National Council of Teachers of English. Perceval Chubb, of St. Louis, Mo., delivered an address charging that in destroying the harmonies of speech as well as of song, Americans are the chief sinners. It was declared by Mr. Chubb that the worst enemies of the folk culture of the old world, were being killed down by us "to the uniform vulgarities of our national culture—the culture of our slums and our great white ways."

Delegates to the council, more than 400 in number, who were present from thirty states, were chiefly men, but there were many women, including half a dozen black-headed men. "Movies" also were attacked by Mr. Chubb. He said they formed one of the direct influences that have tended to put linguistic eloquence into cold storage. He urged a return to the senses—the use of all the senses. Culture, he said, was becoming increasingly eye-minded and he urged the development of ear-mindedness, making auditory sensitiveness and responsiveness the touchstone of good sense, so that in the place of the blight of literary bookishness, there might be substituted a reliance on the auditory sense and judgment instead of the premeditation of the pen—in short, the democratization of art of letters.

FARMER PLACED ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Clinton, Mo., Nov. 28.—Tilly O. Puckett, a farmer, was placed on trial in the district court here today on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the death of his mother, Mrs. Susan M. Makinson. Puckett's home burned September 28, last. When the ruins were cleared away the charred body of Mrs. Makinson was found. An autopsy showed the woman's skull had been fractured. Two empty rifle cartridges were found near the body. Testifying before a coroner's jury, Puckett said he shot his mother after mistaking her for a burglar.

WAR DEPARTMENT IS AFTER DATA FOR NEW SOUTHWESTERN POST

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 28.—The war department has asked the United States geological survey office in the capital to compile for it estimates of the flow of the San Francisco river in Socorro county, New Mexico, and Greenlee county, Arizona. The entire force, except District Engineer Gray, who is in Denver with Mrs. Gray until after New Year, is at work on this task, after finishing the seepage map for the Rio Grande drainage area in New Mexico. For what purpose the war department desires these figures is not known, but presumably to locate an adequate water supply for a military camp or fort to be located in the southeast, convenient to the Mexican border. It is also suggested that the military engineers may be assigned the task of constructing irrigation enterprises after the Panama canal is completed and some of the machinery there is available for such work in the southwest.

DIZZY, HEADACHY, SICK, 'CASCARETS'

Gently Cleanse Your Liver and Stagnant Bowels While You Sleep.

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache. Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, indigestible food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels. A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.

Remedy as Bad as the Disease. "On the seventh of February I contracted a severe cold followed by a cough and final loss of voice. I tried many remedies none of which did me any good. I then went to my family doctor and he swabbed my throat five or six times with some horrible stuff. I think it was beneficial but the remedy was as bad as the disease. At last the thought struck me—why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and this morning my voice is fairly good and is gradually growing better." writes H. C. Clay, publisher of The Reporter, Rapid City, Manitoba. For sale by all dealers.

Military Authorities in Complete Control and Companies Are Permitted to Import Labor Into Field.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Trinidad, Colo., Nov. 28.—Louis T. Koss, the alleged leader of the band of strikers, which for several days carried on a guerrilla warfare in Berland and Hastings, was placed under military arrest late this afternoon and is being held incommunicado pending investigation by the military commission, which will convene tomorrow morning.

Mike Livada, a mine union organizer, and Tom Perrett, another well known union leader, were also placed under arrest and are being held under military guard. Nearly two hundred revolvers and rifles were seized tonight by the military authorities in a local pawnshop. The weapons are said to have been pawned recently by strikers.

OPERATORS NOT SATISFIED WITH TERMS FOR PEACE

Denver, Nov. 28.—Indications tonight were that the strike settlement proposed by Secretary of Labor Wilson and endorsed by Governor Ammons will not be accepted. The operators, it is stated, have given an indication that the terms of the proposition are not satisfactory to them and they miners representatives insist upon absolute recognition of the United Mine Workers of America as the controlling factor in any settlement agreement.

Governor Ammons has despaired of affecting a peaceable settlement of the coal strike, and has ordered the state militia, through Adjutant General Chase, to see that all who wish right employment in mine property are given ample protection. As a result, it was reported from Trinidad tonight, many applicants appeared at the coal mine offices today and were set to work under protection of the militia. It is said that miners from outside the state can be used by the operators so long as they are advised they are entering a strike field.

Union officials here are as pessimistic as Governor Ammons, concerning the possibilities of a peaceable conclusion to the strike, but reiterate their determination to fight to the end. Mine operators take the stand that so far as the United Mine Workers of America as a union is concerned it has lost the strike, and now all that remains is for the operators to secure sufficient men to resume normal operation of the coal mines. Union officials, however, insist that few if any of the strikers returned to work today.

RAPID PROGRESS ON SANTA FE-TAOS ROAD SURVEY BEING MADE

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 28.—Road Engineer Fred Bogie returned today from the Santa Fe-Taos road survey and will leave for the camp of Engineer J. P. Monty again tomorrow. The survey has reached within twenty-five miles of Taos, and from Changuilla is following an entire new line up the Rio Grande to the mouth of Pueblo Creek and thence along Pueblo creek to Taos, avoiding the heavy sands of the present road. From Santa Fe the survey follows the road to Pologate, Santa Cruz, San Juan, Velarde and Embudo quite closely, although at Velarde in order to avoid the many ditches and swamp lands it skirts the foot-hills. At Woody, periodical rock slides make trouble and in Embudo canyon the precipitous rocks will make the necessary widening of the road quite expensive, but when completed it will be the most picturesque road in New Mexico and part of the 40-mile circle drive from Hato to Santa Fe via Taos pass. The road follows quite closely the log made by Road Commissioner Arthur Seligman and is to be constructed by the state in conjunction with Santa Fe, Rio Arriba and Taos counties.

COUNTY PRISONERS THANK SHERIFF FOR THANKSGIVING DINNER

There are worse places than the Bernillo county jail to spend Thanksgiving day. This evidently was the sentiment of thirty inmates who found something to be thankful for when the dinner, ordered by Sheriff Jesus Romero, was served in the jail dining hall on Thanksgiving.

To show that they appreciated the "feed," the prisoners sent the following letter to the Journal:

County Jail, Nov. 27, 1913.
To the Journal:
Would you kindly take up a small space to let the public know that our sheriff served a fine dinner to us Thanksgiving day. It was something fine. Here is the bill-of-fare: Sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes, turkey, gravy, roast beef, roast pork, cranberry sauce, apples, nuts, candy, peach pie and cigars.

Failure to Enforce the Law Against Strikers Led to Preparation for Bringing Impeachment Proceedings.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 28.—Samuel Lewis Shank, resigned as mayor of Indianapolis this afternoon. The resignation is the result of labor troubles in the city and a threat of impeachment proceedings by a committee of business men unless further orders were averted. Harry R. Wellace, city controller, succeeded to the mayor's chair.

Shank tendered his resignation after he had conferred with a number of union labor officials regarding an impending strike of teamsters, who told him there was little hope of averting the strike. Mayor Shank announced Wednesday that he would resign if the threatened strike could not be stopped. Shank was waited on by a committee of business men Tuesday night and was informed that impeachment proceedings against him were being prepared and would be filed today if the impending teamsters' strike could not be averted.

Mayor Shank's attitude during the recent street car strike, when he let it be known that he did not wish policemen to join on the extra-manned day strikers' pickets, caused the resignation of Superintendent of Police Martin J. Hyland and President William B. Davis of the board of public safety.

More Militia Wanted at Calumet. Calumet, Mich., Nov. 28.—George H. Nicholas, special prosecutor of Houghton county, will go to Lansing tomorrow to carry the request of the supervisors of Keweenaw county to Governor Perrie that he increase the military force in the copper mine strike zone. An attempt today to wreck the home of a deputy sheriff at Ahmeek, was frustrated by the timely discovery of a burning fuse attached to three sticks of dynamite.

"How do you make such delicious muffins? Mine are always so dry. And if I make the batter thin they fall. How do you do it?"

"I make them about as you do, only I use K C Baking Powder. Mine always turn out well, so it must be the baking powder."

It is the baking powder. To make muffins, cakes and pastry rich and moist, yet light and feathery, a modern double acting baking powder must be used—one that will give off leavening gas in the oven as well as in the mixing bowl.

KC BAKING POWDER

is really a blend of two baking powders, one of which starts to raise as soon as moisture is added. The other is inactive until heat is applied. This sustains the raise until your muffins, biscuits or cake is done.

K C Baking Powder costs less than the old fashioned quick acting kinds, yet you need use no more and it is superior to them in every way.

Try a can at our risk and be convinced.

DELAY SECURED IN IMPORTANT LITIGATION BY POSTAL COMPANY

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 28.—The impact of the Postal Telegraph & Cable Co. vs. The Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Co., assumed a new phase today when the plaintiff or petitioner moved before the state corporation commissioner. In consequence, the hearing of the last set for December 2, has been continued in January 28. The Postal company has asked permission to take depositions in New York but the Mountain States company objected. The state corporation today ruled in favor of permitting the Postal company to take the depositions and to submit them.

The great popularity of the clean, pure, healthful WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT is causing unscrupulous persons to wrap rank imitations that are not even real chewing gum so they resemble genuine WRIGLEY'S. The better class of stores will not try to fool you with these imitations. They will be offered to you principally by street fakirs, peddlers and the candy departments of some 5 and 10 cent stores. These rank imitations cost dealers one cent a package or even less and are sold to careless people for almost any price. If you want Wrigley's look before you buy. Get what you pay for. We are inserting the above caution solely to protect our customers, who are constantly writing us that they have been deceived by imitations which they purchased thinking they were Wrigley's.

LOZIER The Greatest Among Sixes

Six years ago in its first year on the market, the Lozier Six won the right to be called the leading six-cylinder car in America.

Year after year, on the track, in city service, in country touring the Lozier kept its place of supremacy; not only kept the leadership but continually drew further and further away from the field.

Today the Lozier at $3250 is a value without a parallel.

Purchasers and dealers who make a study of motor car values say there is not a car comparable with the Lozier sold at within a thousand dollars of the price.

There are purchasers waiting all the time, so, if you want your Lozier for Fall delivery, better place your order now.

Dr. Wm. Sedgwick Saunders, Medical Officer of Health of the City of London, Eng., was good enough to say that a long and universal experience has proved a cream of tartar powder the most efficient, safe and economical, making food which could not be deleterious to the most delicate stomach.

In England the sale of baking powder containing alum is absolutely prohibited.

THE BLINDNESS OF VIRTUE, PROBLEM PLAY OF NOTE

Powerful Indictment Against Modern Fashion of Bringing Up Children in Ignorance of Impulses of Life.

Written on a theme that is absolutely crying for discussion, "The Blindness of Virtue," will be presented in this city at the Elks theater next Monday night.

"The Blindness of Virtue" is understood to be a strong, gripping, vital drama founded on a subject that is now being debated in every home throughout the more civilized and enlightened world. It is understood to be a powerful indictment against the modern fashion of bringing up children in ignorance of certain problems and impulses of life which will crop from them. It is a play to quote from the London Daily Chronicle, "That every father and mother should see."

The drama, during its well-written four acts, driven home the knowledge of an existing domestic condition in a manner that stuns its auditors and by sheer force of its dramatic strength compels attention and arouses interest. The play casts a great light upon conditions of the modern home and although veiled by its brilliant com-

BLUE AND DISCOURAGED

Mrs. Hamilton Tells How She Finally Found Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Warren, Ind.—"I was bothered terribly with female weakness, I had pains and was not regular, my head ached all the time, I had bearing down pains and my back hurt me the biggest part of the time, I was dizzy and had weak feelings when I would stoop over, it hurt me to walk any distance and I felt blue and discouraged."

"I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now in good health. If it had not been for that medicine I would have been in my grave a long time ago."—Mrs. ARTIE E. HAMILTON, R.P.D. No. 6, Warren, Ind.

Another Case.
Esmond, R.I.—"I write to tell you how much good your medicine has done me and to let other women know that there is help for them. I suffered with bearing down pains, headache, was irregular and felt blue and depressed all the time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and commenced to gain in a short time and I am a well woman today. I am on my feet from early morning until late at night running a boarding house and do all my own work. I hope that many suffering women will try your medicine. It makes happier wives and mothers."—Mrs. ANNA HANSEN, Esmond, Rhode Island.

edy it grips attention in its dramatic situations.

The relation of the mother to daughter and of father to son are presented in a new light on the stage and the play is declared to be a tremendous indictment of the custom of parents permitting their children to grow up in ignorance of certain impulses, a knowledge of which they should have for their own protection.

"The Blindness of Virtue" tells the story of a daughter of a rector of a small parish near London. A young man who has been sent down from Eton and Oxford and regarded with despair of his father, is sent to study with the vicar as a final resort. The daughter of the vicar and the young man fall in love with each other. The girl not understanding her emotions can see no harm in following her impulses, being of pure mind, and that she goes to the young man's room in her wrapper at the dead of night to talk to him, does not convey to her that she is committing an impropriety. The young man on the other hand knows and when he hears the vicar about to enter his room, he sends the girl in a closet to protect her, where she is found by her father. He is accused by the vicar falsely. Later the vicar and his wife realize that it was not their daughter's fault but that she was warned their daughter of life's problems and to have protected her.

CONDEMNATION OF LAND FOR HUGE LAKE SOUGHT

Petitions, Marking Important
Step in Construction of Elephant Butte Reclamation Project, Taken in Court.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 28.—Two petitions marking an important step in the building of the Elephant Butte reclamation project were filed today in the federal court by Assistant United States Attorney E. C. Wade, Jr. for the United States, against about a hundred and fifty land and property owners on ground to be submerged by the lake that will be formed by the great dam that is being thrown across the Rio Grande at the Elephant Buttes in Sierra County.

Among the defendants is Archbishop J. R. Phelan, individually and as a trustee for the Catholic church, insisting that churches and church property and entire settlements are to be at the bottom of the lake that is to be formed. The principal church property to be condemned is located at Cantarelos.

The titles of the cases are: United States vs. Laurence Birner et al. and United States vs. Antonio Jose Anaya et al. The petitions cover many printed pages with minute descriptions of the property.

It is likely that in the course of procedure, the court will appoint viewers to appraise the property sought to be condemned. A number of the property owners live at Palo Alto, Calif., and others in Baltimore, Md., that interest in the petitions aside from their tremendous local import, reaches from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

TEST TAX CASE IS ARGUED IN STATE SUPREME COURT

Formidable Array of Lawyers Appears Before New Mexico's Highest Tribunal to Submit Important Suits.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 28.—The important tax test case of the South Springs Land and Cattle company vs. the State Board of Equalization was argued today before the supreme court and upon its decision may depend whether the county assessors will extend upon their tax rolls the raises ordered by the board of equalization. The question argued is whether the board of equalization has the power to order district assessors by classes and whether its duties are merely confined to equalizing the aggregate returns of the twenty-six counties and the exercise of only such powers as are specifically assigned to it by statute.

Ad. Gen. Frank W. Clancy and Attorney Ira Grimshaw of his office appeared for the state and former Attorney General J. M. Harvey of Roswell, Charles A. Spence and Judge E. H. Wright for the petitioner. H. S. Bowman was present on behalf of the Santa Fe Merchants' association. A number of alleged inequalities of assessment were brought out and the injustice of raising indiscriminately the returns of the property owner who has made a just return in order to reach the property owner who has made an inadequate return was dwelt upon, although the contest summed down to one of jurisdiction and construction of the meaning of the words "adjust and equalize" as employed in the statute.

Tomorrow the Benham disbarment case will be argued and on Monday the state supreme court will hear a number of cases, among them four water company cases from New Mexico, and the contest of Mrs. J. P. Victory, appointed by Governor McDonald to the office of state librarian, still held by Mrs. Louis Chaves de Arriola. The case of Jacobo Chaves against the state auditor is also set for a hearing.

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES-- RESINOL CURED

Atlanta, Ga., April 24, 1913.—"When I received the samples of Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment my face was covered with pimples which defied other creams, soaps and cosmetics. They were a source of constant humiliation to me, coming in contact with many strangers as I do as a business woman.

"By the time I had finished a cake of Resinol Soap and half a jar of Resinol Ointment, my skin was soft as velvet, and as smooth. My friends were stunned, and everyone asked me what I had done. When I told them, I think they hardly believed it, for the transformation was simply wonderful.

"Since then I have been using Resinol Soap and shall never be without it again, for I have learned the delicate of a clear, soft, beautiful complexion that may be attained by its constant use." (Signed) Miss E. P. Gooding, 284 South Pryor St.

ROOSEVELT FACES MANY PERILS ON PRESENT TRIP

Bishop Kinsolving of Southern Brazil Says Vast Territory to Be Explored Is Inhabited By Savages.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Washington, Nov. 28.—That the great inland trip through the center of South America that is now to be undertaken by Colonel Roosevelt and his party, in the interest of science, will yield a "richer" harvest in increased knowledge by the world than his African journey, and that it is also a more difficult and dangerous nature, is the opinion advanced by Rt. Rev. Dr. Lucien Lee Kinsolving, bishop of southern Brazil, at Rio Grand Sul, capital of the southernmost of the United States of Brazil. Dr. Kinsolving is visiting in Washington, and, in an interview, spoke of the vast territory to be traversed and touched upon some of the dangers of such a tremendous trip.

"It is hard to realize the length of such a journey, and the vast variety of country to be passed through," said Bishop Kinsolving. "Nearly the whole length of the South American continent must be passed over, as you can readily realize if you look at the map in connection with the verbal outline of the trip.

"Colonel Roosevelt and his party, which is to be a large one, and which, owing to the absolutely wild state of the interior, must proceed almost entirely by waterways, is to start on or about December 15, from Buenos Aires, in Argentina. It will be accompanied by representatives of the National Geographic Society, by experienced white guides and by native guides and crews and many others, either hired for the occasion or anxious to go along in the interests of geography, zoology, botany and other sciences. They intend to proceed up the La Plata to its large branch, the Parana, and up that stream past Asuncion, the capital of Paraguay, into the wild back district of Brazil, a state named Mato Grosso, or, translated, "big woods" or "wild woods." No one really knows much about this section. It is a wilderness of thousands of square miles, filled with jungle you can hardly hack your way through, and estimated to contain a million Indians.

"The party is to proceed as far as possible up the Parana waters and portage over to the nearest northward-flowing tributary of the Amazon. Once arrived at that main stream, which will in all probability, be a thousand or so miles from its mouth, they will then ascend one of its branches that flows south and repeat the portage over to the most available branch of the Orinoco. They will descend this stream and the main river and emerge at the northern end of South America on the Caribbean sea. That is, they will if all goes well with them."

"Do you think the chances are that all will not go well with them, or that ex-President Roosevelt may lose his life?"

"I would hardly say that," replied Bishop Kinsolving. "But it's a pretty big undertaking, and one beset by dangers that are, to a great extent, unknown. No one really knows what is to be found there. Travel in this region is too infrequent to give any data for generalizations. One party might get through swimmingly, and another easily might all die of disease or be killed by natives. The Indians are savages—not turbulent ones, perhaps, but savages none the less. There may be bee-eater flies at those headwaters. As I said, no one really knows. But counting only the dangers that are known to exist, there are plenty to make it appear a grave undertaking."

"I have heard it said by people who should know that the African trip, both from a standpoint of danger and of severity, was simple compared to this one that he now contemplates. This may be an exaggeration, of course. But remember that this country has no trails or roads whatever; the waterways are the only roads; and to the waterways you must stick. And the amount of information on them that is available is certainly slender. Africa, wild as it is, is full of trails that have been used, some of them for centuries. I once heard the Bishop of Uganda say that the trail to the coast might be said to be paved with the skulls of bearers who had died on the road in years past."

"The more that is learned of this interior country of Brazil the less safe and attractive it appears. That insect life and other things are well attended. I have heard myself from returned explorers of the swarms of mosquitoes and other pests, and a country that abounds in insect life is not apt to be very pleasant or healthy. But I should say that, on the whole, the fact that so little is known of the region is the greatest danger preparation for known hazards is half such a trip."

"Would you call this a hunting trip?"

"Not nearly so much as the African journey. In the first place, there is not such a variety of big game, nor such opportunity to get shots as the more open country of Africa affords. Colonel Roosevelt, of course, I am given to understand, expects and hopes to bring out with him specimens of the animal life, and these will probably include jaguars, tigers and other good-sized animals. But I do not imagine that the zoological side of the trip will be given any more importance than the botanical, or geographical, or ethnological. The party intends to contribute as much as it possibly can to the world's general knowledge. And it will, too, if it has good luck."

JUDGE POPE WILL NOT SPEAK HERE DECEMBER 7

United States District Judge
Forced to Cancel Invitation to Deliver Elks Memorial Address.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 28.—Judge W. H. Pope finds himself compelled to cancel the engagement to speak at the Elks' memorial services at Albuquerque on December 7, because of the necessity of his leaving for St. Louis on December 4, to sit on the circuit court of appeals. Mrs. Pope and her sister, Miss Callie Hull, will accompany him.

Judge Pope will return in time to hold court with jury at Roswell on February 9, sitting for about ten days. He will then go to Las Cruces to hold a term of court there without jury. It is the first time that federal court convenes in Las Cruces and arrangements are being made to receive the court worthily and to extend to it special hospitality. A banquet is to be given to the federal court officials. Judge E. L. Medley, who has just fitted up fine chambers in the new float of black, will turn those over to the federal court for its sessions, including the law library and adjoining rooms. Something like a thousand dollars has been expended for the furniture in these rooms.

United States Attorney Summers Burkhardt today received a large consignment of up-to-date filing and book cases and other furniture for his offices in the federal building so that they are the most elegant and completely equipped law offices in the state.

Tomorrow the motion of J. T. Fay, former postmaster at Farmington, San Juan county, for a new trial will come up in federal court. Fay was convicted of defrauding the internal revenue service of $3,500 revenue.

Notice of a motion for retrial has also been given in the case of Manuel Montes of Las Vegas vs. the A. T. & S. F. Railway company for $1,000 damages for injuries to plaintiff's foot. Elmer E. Studley of Baton appears for plaintiff and Col. R. E. Twitchell for the railroad company.

DISTRICT ATTORNEYS TO RECEIVE THEIR SALARIES

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 28.—The district attorneys at least will not fall short of their salaries this quarter for Treasurer O. N. Marron today received the following sums to be placed to their credit: Union county, eighth district, $249.27; Eddy county, fifth district, $250; Valencia county, seventh district, $227.50; Otero county, third district, $274; Chaves county, $212.50, while for the same protection fund $114.32 was received.

J. W. Johnson of the state engineer's department, left in the state automobile today for Galisteo to inspect the work of the Midland Bridge company, which is building a steel and concrete bridge across the Galisteo at Galisteo. The main span of the bridge is to be eighty feet. The Galisteo is a treacherous river which makes the bridging of the stream and its quick-sands a difficult task.

HUSBAND SPENT EVERYTHING

In an Effort to Bring Wife's Troubles to End, and Finally Succeeds.

Myra, Ky.—Mrs. Sarah Branham, of this town, gives out the following statement for publication: "I am 37 years of age, and suffered untold agony with womanly troubles for 11 years. For 7 years, I was all run down, and was told that I could not live. My husband spent everything he had, but I got only temporary relief. A merchant recommended Cardui, the woman's tonic, to my husband, and he got me 3 bottles at one time. I began taking it, and before the first bottle was gone, I began to feel better."

I took all of the 5 bottles, and I am today as sound and well as any woman, and fat and hearty."

Such testimony as the above, which is given unaltered, speaks for itself. Can't you see, lady reader, that you are doing yourself, your family, your friends, an injustice by not, at least, trying Cardui, if you suffer from any of the many ailments so common to women?

Cardui is composed of pure, harmless, vegetable ingredients, which act in a gentle, natural way on the weak and country organs, helping build them back to permanent strength and health.

Cardui has helped thousands of other women. Why not you?

THE ZELAYA CASE.

The senate of General Jose B. Zelaya, one time despot of Nicaragua and guilty of ordering the summary execution of two Americans, by representatives of this government on request of the Nicaraguan authorities, may have in it an element of justice.

Secretary of State Knox sent a peppy letter to Zelaya, immediately after the murder of Groce and Cannon, announcing that the United States would hold him personally accountable. It was one of those declarations, made now and then by our state department, for which there is no warrant in law, but which work, nevertheless, Mr. Knox was just as powerful to punish Zelaya personally as Mr. Bryan was powerless to call Mexican officials to a "definite accounting" for outrages against the person or the property of Americans.

Knox's threat sent Zelaya scurrying out of Nicaragua. The warning sent to Mexico caused a marked cessation of outrages against Americans by both rebel and federal chieftains. But it is a puzzle as to how either threat could have been made good. Of course, with authority of congress, military expeditions could have been sent into these countries and the offenders might have been hunted down and tried by court martial. But it is doubtful if there was serious purpose to resort to such measure.

But Zelaya came into the United States and the Nicaraguan government asked for his detention pending the arrival of requisition papers. The charges against him is murder, that the United States will not return a refugee charged with political offenses and the claim now is set up that Zelaya's crimes were political ones, and application has been made for his release under a writ of habeas corpus.

If the United States should return Zelaya to Nicaragua, there is little doubt that he would be promptly executed, not because he had used his power to have men murdered, but because the present Nicaraguan government is afraid of him. But this government is bound by the civil laws. It differs not how much we would like to hear of Zelaya being returned to Nicaragua and backed against a blank wall in front of an efficient firing squad, he will have an impartial hearing in our courts and will not be turned over to the Nicaraguan authorities unless the showing warrants it. The fact that he murdered two Americans cannot be taken into consideration.

The difference between English and Latin governments is that the people of English descent have laws which they respect, regardless of the provocation to disregard them. In Mexico and Central America, the law is the whim of the man with a gun.

A GRIEVANCE TALKING.

Henry Lane Wilson is on the lecture platform. It has happened that every time he opens his mouth in public he furnishes an additional justification for his removal, by President Wilson, from the Mexican embassy.

The former ambassador to Mexico in a lecture delivered in Washington City, last Sunday, said:
"The final result of the present Mexican policy will be to involve this country in a responsibility for the kind of rule existing in all countries between the Rio Grande and the canal."

Referring to the above statement, the New York World has the following comment:
"It is not the president's precise purpose, he has written and spoken many times in vain. The canal itself is no more a fact than the determination of this administration to safeguard it against foreign aggression and domestic disorder."

"There will be no safety for the canal while conditions between the Rio Grande and the isthmus are such as to invite conspiracies on the part of big business, revolutions and usurpations by cut-throats financed by big business, and possible intervention on the part of European governments that co-operate with big business."

"Instead of being a dreamer, an idealist and a theorist advancing a scholastic and impracticable morality, the president is plainly and simply, but very powerfully, emphasizing the idea that government by concessionaires and government by desperadoes parading themselves as dictators are not to be tolerated on this continent. There has been no shirking of responsibility on his part."

"We may readily admit that this policy involves a moral idea, and that for the moment it is supported only by moral emotion; but, like every other correct idea, it has force behind it and it will prevail."

The trouble about Henry Lane Wilson is that he has grievance. From the beginning, his policies in Mexico were not in harmony with the views of the Wilson administration. He had an idea that he was entitled to control this government to his way of thinking. Because he failed to so impress the president, he has developed into a scold. That he is making his scolding pay is a compliment to his financial ability rather than to his judgment of the fitness of things.

Mr. Joseph H. Choate, not long ago one of the ambassadors of the United States, at a chamber of commerce dinner in New York, voiced the sentiment of the American people when he said that it was the duty of every citizen to stand by the president in this crisis.

UNPLEASANT BUT NECESSARY.
The reform crusade has gone to a limit that is producing protest from unwilling victims of it. Relative to the proposition to move the headquarters of the American branch of the World Purify Congress from La Crosse, Wis., to Minneapolis, the Minneapolis Journal says:

"They are talking about moving the American headquarters of the World Purify Federation from La Crosse to Minneapolis. Minneapolis is hospitable, but unorthodox. La Crosse is a quiet place to accumulate storage for the annual burst of publicity. If they want a bigger place, why not Chicago?"

"We can hold our noses and stand it for a week, after training in cheap magazine reading and unceasing theater going. We can even affect to like it, though it is an acquired taste, like olives. But our much enduring courtesy should be compensated with fresh, sweet air to breathe the rest of the year."

Reformers are necessary, doubtless, but they are not pleasant. The matters with which they deal are not pleasant. We fully understand the feeling of the editor of the Minneapolis Journal when he heads his protest with, "Good Lord, Deliver Us."

But reforms are necessary and reformers are necessary, just as sewers are necessary to the health of a city. But they are not nice for daily companionship.

THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

The speech of Viscount Haldane, lord high chancellor of England, at the Thanksgiving dinner of the American society in London, in which he, speaking officially for the British government, in a measure, endorsed the Monroe Doctrine, will be received with gratification by the American people.

The Monroe Doctrine, by which this nation assumes to be the paramount influence in the western hemisphere, has never received formal recognition by any European country.

Continental Europe has been hostile to it. England has acquiesced in it, but with poor grace in the Venezuelan affair which called for one of the strongest pronouncements on the subject and a threat of force by Secretary of State Olney during the second administration of President Cleveland.

The French press has expressed uniform hostility ever since the army of Marshal Bazaine was compelled to quit Mexico, thus leaving the Emperor Maximilian to his fate.

While the utterance of the English lord high chancellor cannot be regarded as official recognition of the Monroe Doctrine, it is a friendly expression, and may be regarded as indicative of the feeling of the British government on that subject.

Fair ribbons for men are becoming a fad in Europe. Which reminds us that if Governor McDonald were to decide to join the ultra fashionables he would have to paste the ribbons on instead of tying them in his ash-burn locks.

Huerta says in case of war with the United States he will first besiege and capture St. Louis. On receipt of this news, the stock of the biggest brewing company in the world slumped several points.

The American "immortals" decided to hit women. The literary women so harried are just about as immortal as the American "immortals."

The parcels post shows more than thirty million dollars profits. By December 25, this sum will be appreciably swelled.

Justice Hughes probably believes that a justiceship of the United States supreme court in the hand is worth several presidencies in the bush.

The Washington Post thinks "dollar diplomacy" may be all right, but it doesn't believe in diplomacy marked down to thirty cents.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Washington, Nov. 28.—Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, caused a mild sensation today at a luncheon attended by all the Latin-American diplomats in Washington by announcing he would vote for "Justice to Colombia from the United States" if he ever had an opportunity to cast a deciding vote in the controversy between this country and the South American country brought about by the separation from Panama. As soon as Senator Chamberlain sat down, Ambassador Daguena, of Brazil, dean of the Latin American corps, suggested that the party break up and in silence this was done.

This episode took place at a luncheon given by John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American union. In addition to the Latin-American ministers, soldiers, folk, of the state department, Rear W. Long, chief of the Latin-American division, and a few personal friends, were present.

Ambassador Daguena and Senor Calvo, of Costa Rica, spoke in a happy vein, praising Mr. Barrett and his work. Right Rev. Charles W. Curry, bishop of Matanzas, Cuba, declared that the time ought to be near when the United States would not monopolize the term America but when it should be applied alike to all countries on the western hemisphere.

"The Americas for Americans" was the keynote of Senator Chamberlain's address. He declared that the countries of North and South America should unite to keep out the "pest" to the west of us, and to preserve the civilization and the ideals now possessed by countries of the western hemisphere.

HUERTA CALLS FOR BANKS TO AID RAILWAYS

Interest Payment Due and Assistance Must Be Forthcoming, Though Foreclosure Would Be Difficult.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Mexico City, Nov. 28.—Provisional President Huerta summoned the managers of the Bank of Mexico and Mexico and the National bank before him this afternoon and explained to them the necessity of their financial assistance to meet the obligation of the National Railways on December 1. Interest payment on the railways, due December 1, aggregates $10,000,000 pesos gold. It was to raise this amount and the interest payments maturing January 1, that E. N. Brown, president of the National Railways, went to New York recently.

The gross earnings of the railways since December, 1912, show a decrease of practically 13,000,000 pesos gold. Losses on fixed charges and on property, track and equipment aggregate many millions additional.

Failure to meet the payments in December would, it is claimed, give the right of foreclosure, but as such action would have to be brought in a Mexican court, because the company is a Mexican corporation, the difficulties to be encountered are obvious.

GALLUP MAN MAKES RECORD SNAKE KILLING

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)

Gallup, N. M., Nov. 28.—D. P. Dugan, father of City Clerk P. J. Dugan, is working at Tuba, Arizona, digging coal for the government. On his arrival there he went to living in a cabin that had not been occupied for some time by man. However, he found it well inhabited by large and small rattlers. The first day there he was busy ousting the serpents, and when the last ray of sunlight fell he had succeeded in disposing of forty-eight of them. Then he rested and slept. The following morning he found several more of them that had come in during the night. The following day he continued the extermination of the venomous serpents and in all killed ninety-six in and around the cabin.

With the arrival yesterday morning of the last car of steel from the Colorado Fuel &amp; Iron company, all that J. N. Gladding, city engineer, wants to finish the exterior of the city hall is several weeks of fair weather.

Work on the hall has been delayed for more than a month. This was due to the inability of the Colorado Fuel &amp; Iron company to supply reinforcement rods. The steel arrived yesterday morning and unloading was begun at once. All the steel now is on the ground, but the concrete mixer will not be started until next Monday.

The engineer hopes to complete the walls and roof of the building before cold weather sets in. The roof is to be made of concrete. With all material on the site, however, work will progress rapidly.

Santa Fe section foremen are to be taught Spanish by a new correspondence school method, for the management has a theory that a little of the melodious language of old Castile will assist the foremen in "speeding up" the "bumbers" who do most of the section work in the southwest.

As a beginning, little booklets containing over 100 words ordinarily used in trucking or construction work, with their equivalents in parallel columns, are being distributed to the section foremen. In case of doubtful pronunciation, or where need of more effective words can be shown, a letter to the engineering department is guaranteed to secure results for the foremen.

LOVER OF FLOWERS

Miss Erin Lacy, one of the principals of "The Girl From Mamma's," which is the attraction at Elks theater tonight, is a devoted lover of flowers. Miss Lacy has asked the leading botanists of the country this question hundreds of times:

"Are the wild flowers becoming extinct? Will there come a day when it will be impossible to gather, even at the outskirts of cities, the wild flowers we loved so when we were children?" Miss Lacy contends there are but few spots left where wild flowers still hold summer revel. The absolute disappearance of many a delicate favorite that used to greet her in childhood days has made them but a memory of the past. There was a time when our forefathers laughed and ridiculed the idea of the extinction of the buffalo and other animals, now about as extinct as the wild flower will be but a few years hence.

The following are suggestions given by Miss Lacy for gathering wild flowers:
They should never be gathered near the walk or driveway, for there they give most pleasure and are least exposed to injury.

As little as possible of the leaf or leaf-stem should be taken away with the flower, and underground roots should not be disturbed.

Rare or unusual flowers should not be gathered except for scientific purposes.

Miss Lacy is a warm personal friend and great admirer of Luther Burbank, the great biologist and horticulturist of Santa Rosa, California, who has done more to awaken an interest in the beauties of the wild flower than any man of this generation, and awaits with deep interest her visit to California and a trip to Santa Rosa to see the wonderful progress made each year by Mr. Burbank of the famous "Burbank Garden."

NEGRO GROCER REPORTS HIS STORE WAS ROBBED

G. N. Bryant, a negro grocer, who owns a store at 1501 South Second street, yesterday morning reported to the police that his place had been entered by burglars who got $40 in money and canned goods worth $15. The burglary was committed Thursday night, but Bryant did not discover the fact until he opened his store yesterday morning.

The money was hidden in a trunk, which the burglars rifled. Papers it contained, were scattered over the floor. The intruders evidently had a skeleton key. The doors and windows were locked and there was no sign that they had used force to get into the store.

Make This and Try It for CoughsThis Home-Made Remedy has no Equal for Prompt Results.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup, make a teaspoonful every one, two or three times a day.

This simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually conquers an ordinary cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup and bronchitis. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps and a cough.

This makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in quinine and other natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this plan. Making cough syrup with Pinex and sugar syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful mixture has never been equaled.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

BUY OUR SHOES!*They Are Stylish!

No matter whether you select the most extreme models or buy some more conservative styles, they have the snap and finish that stamps them strictly up-to-date.

They Fit!

Snug around the ankle and over the instep to hold the foot in place, close under the arch to give the proper support, roomy across the toes without any surplus leather to form unsightly wrinkles.

They Wear!

Solid throughout and put together in a workmanlike way. That's the reason they hold their shape and last so long.
