STATEHOOD FROM SHORT SESSION SEEMS NOW CERTAIN

Solomon Luna and Governor Curry Both Say Conditions Were Never More Favorable.

BILL THROUGH HOUSE DURING JANUARY

Mr. Luna Witness Before Tariff Commission—Says Indications Are That Duty on Wool Will Remain as at Present.

"Everything indicates that New Mexico will be admitted to the Union at the present short session of Congress. I have taken part in many statehood campaigns, but I have never seen our chances better than at present."

This was the statement made today by Hon. Solomon Luna, Republican national committeeman, and well known sheep raiser, who reached Albuquerque on the limited. He was accompanied by Mrs. Luna, who will remain with him in Albuquerque until after the holidays.

Mr. Luna has been in Washington attending the hearings of the tariff revision committee before which he was an important witness on the question of wool production.

Governor Curry was a passenger on the same train, but left it at Lamy and went to the capital.

To a Citizen reporter Mr. Luna said: "I do not make the positive statement that we will receive statehood from the short session of Congress, but I feel that our chances for it are excellent—in fact, better than they have ever been."

"President Roosevelt is very earnest in his desire to secure our admission and said to several members of our delegation that he hoped to have the pleasure of signing our statehood bill before he left office. He said also that he believed without doubt, that his desire would be fulfilled."

"There is a majority in both branches of Congress in favor of our immediate admission and there does not appear to be any organized attempt to frustrate the passage of the statehood bill. Practically all of the senators and representatives with whom he talked, favored the bill and are prepared to vote for it any time it comes before them. The present bill is a very liberal one but most of the congressmen say that we are entitled to a liberal bill and that they will favor it. The president also told me that he favored a liberal statehood bill for this territory and that he would do what he could to see that we received one. I feel that we have every reason to be encouraged and that our admission to the Union is at hand."

Relative to the reduction of tariff on wool, which some revisionists have advocated, Mr. Luna said:

"I was before the committee as a witness for several hours and was closely questioned regarding the cost of production. I made the point, which I believe to be correct, that the increase in the cost of production of wool during the past ten years, more than offsets the tariff schedule as it stands at present. I answered many questions along this line. Sheep raisers and wool dealers from all over the country, are taking an active interest in the protection of the industry. In my estimation, there will be no change in the tariff on wool. I do not believe it will be reduced nor advanced materially."

Mr. Luna will remain here until after the holidays, visiting friends and relatives and attending to personal business.

GOV. CURRY HAS OPERATION.

Surgeons in Chicago Treat His Throat—Confined to Bed for Few Days—Statehood Situation Looks Good.

Santa Fe, Dec. 24.—Governor Curry reached his home here today from an official trip to Washington. He is confined to his bed as the result of an operation which was performed on his throat by surgeons in Chicago. He will not be able to be about for several days, but he is receiving all callers and attending to official duties. The operation was not of a serious nature.

"I am very well pleased at the statehood outlook," said the governor to a Citizen correspondent a few hours after reaching home. "I have assurance that the statehood bill will pass the House some time next month after which it will go to the Senate. We all hope that it will be given speedy attention there and everything indicates that such will be the case. Appearances indicate that we will secure statehood from this session of Congress as the president says he will sign the bill as soon as it comes before him. He is very anxious to do so before his term expires. I enjoyed my trip very much, although I was busy. I expect to be at the executive office in a few days."

ST. LOUIS MAN IS MENTIONED FOR PLACE IN TAFT CABINET

PERCY NAGLE, OF ST. LOUIS.

Washington, Dec. 24.—The two men mentioned most prominently for the portfolio of attorney general in Taft's cabinet are George W. Wickersham of New York, a member of the law firm of Strong and Cadwalader, and Percy Nagle of St. Louis. The name of Frank B. Kellogg, who has been the government's special attorney in prosecuting corporations, notably the Standard Oil case and the Harriman investigation, was mentioned at one time for the position, but the opposition of the big business interests of the country to Kellogg has made his chances less promising. There is no question of the ability of any one of the three for the position.

MINNESOTA WINS CASE AGAINST ROADS

State Supreme Court Upholds Increase of Taxes on Two Railroads.

St. Paul, Dec. 24.—The state won a double victory today when the supreme court of the state announced its decision in both the Chicago Great Western and Great Northern railway tax cases. The court upheld the validity of the increase in taxes of railroad gross earnings from 3 to 4 per cent, which the roads attacked as unconstitutional. The Great Northern case nominally involved $120,737 for the 1905 taxes. The Great Western case involved about $25,000. The amount at stake for the state, however, is more than $150,000 a year if the decision is sustained by the United States supreme court.

NEW YORK FIREMEN SAVED MANY LIVES

One Man Was Killed and Two People Seriously Injured in a Tenement Fire.

New York, Dec. 24.—One man was killed and a man and two women seriously burned, while the lives of many others were saved only by prompt and heroic work of firemen and the tenants themselves in a fire that wrecked the five-story apartment house at 122 West 127th street early today. Daniel Prizell, an Englishman who lived on the top floor, was burned to death.

David Mullin, a fireman, was badly burned while saving the life of Mrs. Looker. This was one of the most spectacular incidents of the fire. He rushed up a ladder to the fifth floor, where Mrs. Looker stood in a window. She was about to jump, but obeyed his command to stay where she was, and was reaching out to meet him when she fainted and fell backwards into the blazing room.

Mullin plunged headlong after her and when he found her the night clothes she wore were ablaze. Mullin beat out the flames with his bare hands, wrapped the woman in his coat and carried her half way down the ladder where his companions waited. The woman was badly burned.

WOMAN IS WANTED ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Oklahoma City, Dec. 24.—Marjorie Barton, who is under arrest at La Junta, Colo., is wanted as a witness in connection with the murder at Shattuck, Okla., eighteen months ago of Edward Nelson, who was believed to be a Chicago traveling man. A man named Lee was arrested at Trinidad, Dec. 12 charged with the murder and he was indicted by a grand jury recently, following the examination of Bonnie McCombs, Homeland of Shattuck. Nothing is known here as to the identity of Nelson. Before the indictment was returned, Lee and the Barton woman left Shattuck and officers have since searched for them.

WILL HUNT FOR MORE PITTSBURG GRAFTERS

Others Who Are Said to Be Implicated Will Be Investigated by Voters.

Pittsburg, Dec. 24.—While the graft scandal in Pittsburg has been halted in so far as making additional arrests is concerned, it is intimated and believed that this is only temporary. Apparently both prosecution and defense, officially and unofficially known, are getting "second wind" following the sensational developments of the past few days. It is said that the efforts of the investigators will now be directed toward others implicated in the alleged corruption, as the councilmen and two former bankers who were arrested Monday night, have been held for the court.

FILING OF SUIT REVIVES OLD CASE

E. A. Hubbell Sues Ex-Treasurer Armitage for Money Collected in 1905.

E. A. Hubbell, through his attorneys, T. R. Catron of Santa Fe, and E. W. Dobson of this city, brought suit today against Justo R. Armitage, ex-treasurer and ex-officio collector of Bernalillo county, to recover $13,650, alleged to have been the money collected by the plaintiff as emoluments of the said office. The suit revives the troublesome days of Bernalillo county officials during the year 1905, when M. A. Otero, then governor of New Mexico, removed several of them from office.

The plaintiff in the case was elected to the office of treasurer and ex-officio collector November, 1904, October 1905, he was removed from office and the defendant appointed to the place. Judge Abbott decided against Hubbell, and the decision was reversed by the supreme court, which placed Hubbell in charge of the office in January, 1907, a few days before the term of office expired.

Hubbell set forth in his complaint that the defendant was unlawfully in charge of the said office and unlawfully collected the emoluments thereof, alleged to have amounted to $13,650. The complaint has attached to it a draft of the decision of the supreme court which says that the governor "shall take care that the laws of the territory are faithfully executed" to mean that the governor has power to remove an officer.

CASTELLANE CHILDREN MAY BE PUT IN SCHOOL

Paris, Dec. 24.—The court before which the suit of Count Boni de Castellane for the transfer of his three children from the charge of their mother, Princess de Sagan, to the care of the Marquise de Castellane, has been conducted, is now considering the advisability of ordering the children placed in a high school, where they shall remain for a stated period.

CASTRO IN STATEMENT RELINQUISHES THE PRESIDENCY

Says He Will Not Interfere in N. W. Government's Wish to Settle Troubles.

VENEZUELA AGENT STARTS FOR EUROPE

He Will Open Negotiations Between His Country and France and Holland to Settle All Disputes.

Berlin, Dec. 24.—President Cipriano Castro, who has refused so far to credit the report of an uprising against him in Venezuela, today gave to the Associated Press a statement which amounts to a virtual abandonment of his claims to the presidency of Venezuela. The statement follows: "After taking cognizance of everything printed in the newspapers from Venezuela I doubt the attitude ascribed to the present government at Caracas. But I will have more to say on this subject when I am in better health and when I have full knowledge of what has occurred. In any event I shall place no difficulties in the way of the present administration of Venezuela in settling pending controversies with foreign governments, even if this should involve my withdrawal from activity in the affairs of the nation."

Castro will remain two weeks longer in the private sanatorium of Dr. Israel. He will give up no information concerning his future plans.

WILL SETTLE TROUBLE

The Hague, Dec. 24.—The foreign office has been advised that Jose de Paul, until recently the Venezuelan minister of foreign affairs, has left La Guayra for the city of The Hague on a special mission from the new Venezuelan government to open negotiations for the settlement of existing disputes between Venezuela and France and Holland.

BROKERS ARE SUSPENDED

New York, Dec. 24.—W. H. Martin and Thomas W. Moorhead, members of the firm of Marshall, Spader and company, were suspended from the New York Stock exchange today for three years. The suspension, it is understood, is the result of an investigation into the dealings of Marshall, Spader and company with the failed firm of Coster, Knapp and company, which was announced on the exchange. The suspended members are charged with "doing business inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade."

The firm is widely known as a commission house and a statement issued by the firm says: "The governing committee has disciplined the firm by denying us the privileges of the exchange for a period of three years on the charge of violating the rules. The action has nothing to do with our financial standing. No fraud is charged. No one suffered a loss." In addition to the stock exchange the firm holds memberships in the produce and cotton exchanges.

IMMENSE DIVIDENDS WILL BE DISTRIBUTED

Various Companies Will Give Out Enormous Sums During Next Few Weeks.

New York, Dec. 24.—The first month of the new year will be marked by the payment of enormous dividends and interest disbursements on stock and bonds of banks, trust companies, railroads, industrial and other corporations of New York city. It is said that the total distribution during the month will exceed $210,000,000, an increase of approximately $17,000,000 over the disbursements of January last. The increase is attributed generally to the enormous amount of securities issued during the past year.

THE ROBBERIES GOT AWAY

Wichita, Kan., Dec. 24.—Two charges of nitro-glycerine were exploded against the vault of the Union state bank early this morning and the explosions aroused the citizens of the town. A number of men ran quickly to the bank and as they approached three robbers ran from the bank, mounted horses and escaped amid a fusillade of shots. No one was hurt and no money was taken.

WRECK CAUSED ANXIETY

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 24.—The derailing of two freight cars on the Philadelphia and Reading road near Pennington early today gave rise to the report of a serious wreck and great loss of life. No one was injured but the report was circulated all over the east and inquiries came from many points.

ABANDONED BY PRINCE SHE SINGS IN CAFES

THE PRINCESS DE BROGLIE.

Paris, Dec. 24.—One more international romance went to final smash when the princess de Broglie brought suit for divorce a few days ago.

She was Mrs. S. B. Veit of Chicago, a famous beauty and a divorcee, when the prince married her in April of 1906. Before her first marriage she was Estelle Alexander of Albuquerque. She charges her husband with desertion.

The family of the Prince de Broglie is very wealthy, and his marriage to the American was bitterly opposed. His allowance was cut off after the marriage and he went on the stage to earn a living. Recently his family offered to forgive him and provide handsomely for his support, provided he would abandon his wife. This, the princess charges, he promptly did, and is now living in luxury.

There is one child, a daughter, and to support herself and the little girl the princess is now singing in Paris cafes.

FEDERATION OFFICERS PROPOSE TO FIGHT TO THE LAST

They Will Not Submit to Court Decision Until Every Effort Is Exhausted.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL WILL DISCUSS ACTION

Meeting is to be Held at Washington Next Month to Consider Plans—Cases May be Prolonged Until Fall.

Washington, Dec. 24.—The whole question of sentencing for contempt of court of Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, by Justice Wrigg, of the supreme court of the District of Columbia yesterday, will be thrashed over at a meeting of the executive council of the Federation in this city January 11. This meeting, which is not a regularly scheduled one, will be notable undoubtedly because of the vital issues affecting labor, which are involved in the decision of the court. Resolutions sustaining the action of the leaders of the big organization will be submitted for action.

President Gompers was not at his office this morning. Morrison, however, was at the federation headquarters. He said that it is the plan of the officials to do nothing until after the holidays.

"It seems," he said, "that in the District of Columbia, there is no limit to the sentence that can be imposed for contempt of court. In a great many states there is a limit. In New York, for instance, six months is the maximum."

"We propose to exhaust every means to maintain the right of free speech and free press. I believe the question taken by the federation is right and that the citizens of the country will ratify the action of the federation officials in this matter. I believe that they are willing to grant to trades unions the same rights and privileges that are being accorded in Great Britain, as provided for by a trades dispute act adopted there two years ago."

It is not likely that arguments on the appeal will be heard in the court of appeals for the District of Columbia before March and perhaps not then. Should the case be taken to the supreme court it cannot be heard there before the fall term, which begins next October.

Many telegrams have reached the White House from labor leaders all over the country, protesting against the sentence of Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison. The president has turned them over to Attorney General Bonaparte and he and Bonaparte will read all the testimony in the case and will then decide what action, if any, will be taken.

CABMAN ADMITS HE LIED IN HAINS CASE

Justice, However, Refused to Commit Him for Perjury at Request of Defense.

Flushing, L. I., Dec. 24.—A sensational incident punctuated the trial of Thornton J. Hains today when Lawyer John F. McIntyre, for the defense, asked the court to commit Martin Skura, a cab driver who took the stand as the first witness today. After he had given his direct testimony, in which he said that Thornton Hains asked him to drive behind the stage in which Mrs. Anis was riding, and that one of the brothers said, "We've got him now," he was subjected to long cross examination by McIntyre. The lawyer asked him if he had not signed a statement prepared by counsel for the defense in which he stated there was no conversation in the cab and that Anis' name was never mentioned.

A New Force

History since time began, has been more concerned with recording the doings of men than of women. It has given to men, the largest share of its attention as a class, while women have only been recorded in its pages, as individuals.

An editorial in a recent New York World, calls attention to the new force which is being injected into the present era, by the prominent part women are playing in history making, in every branch and in every occupation of civilization.

In this country, we have become so accustomed to the so-called modern woman, as to know no other, but in many parts of the world, woman has remained in much the same category as she did in the middle ages.

This is particularly true of Asia, to which the World refers, in selecting its editorial text.

In the report of the popular rejoicing over the opening of the Turkish Parliament we read that on the route of the Sultan's journey to Stamboul "all the windows and most of the roofs were bright with the faces of Turkish women who, for this occasion at least, dispensed with the veil."

The yeast of the woman's revolution, to which the World recently referred, is working in Turkey. The revolution is social as well as political, concerning both men and women, and that the women realized this has been manifest throughout its development.

The women were actual factors in the working out of revolutionary plans. In their retreats, safe from the Sultan's spies, they were the message bearers of the insurgent leaders. In the outbursts of joy when the Sultan proclaimed the constitution, women joined with men, casting aside the veil, the symbol of slavish submission, and reveling in a new sense of freedom. Women are writing for the press. Schools for girls are being reorganized. Women's clubs have been formed. The first play to be produced in the new theater at Constantinople is Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar," translated into Turkish by a girl.

Thus the woman's movement, sweeping with irresistible force throughout the civilized world, rolls into Turkey, the last resort in Europe of unmitigated despotism. In Russia women have exceptional social, legal and professional privileges and from the beginning of the revolutionary propaganda have been leaders. The movement for suffrage in America, starting with the Women's Suffrage convention in 1848, is now pressing for full political rights in every part of this country. In Great Britain women are hammering at the door of Parliament.

Beginning in Continental Europe with the Letteverein for the industrial betterment of women, the movement has expanded until it has gained equal legal rights in nearly all European countries. Women are admitted to most European universities and to nearly all the occupations. We have limited suffrage in many European nations and full suffrage in several. The onward march reaches the antipodes in Australia, where women have equal suffrage; touches the Arctic Circle in Finland, where nineteen women occupy seats in Parliament, and is now invading Asia through the main gateway, Constantinople.

Suppose that, like most other struggles for wider rights and liberties, this battle also is won at all points—what next? What influence will the full co-operation of woman with man have on society? What will be its ultimate result?

Famous Libel Suits

Discussing the possibility of a libel suit growing out of the controversy between Mr. Roosevelt and the New York World, the Boston Globe reviews the history of world-prominent libel suits of the past and reaches the conclusion that they have proven more or less effective. The Globe says:

If President Roosevelt should bring action in the courts against certain newspapers, he would add another to the long list of celebrated cases in which noted personages have been plaintiffs. Napoleon sued a London newspaper whose editor was a French refugee, and got a verdict, too. For calling the Prince of Wales, afterward George IV., "a fat donkey," the publishers of the London Examiner, who were Leigh Hunt and his brother, went to jail for two years, while their friends paid a fine of 500 pounds for them.

If it were the year 1798, the president could proceed under the provisions of the alien and sedition laws, just as the authorities of that time proceeded against the editor of the Vermont Journal, who, for freely speaking his mind about President John Adams, was sentenced to four months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $1,000.

Suits growing out of the publication of libelous matter during presidential or other campaigns have not been common, although General Butler once sued a Boston newspaper for certain comments on his public record, and James G. Blaine, in the campaign of 1884, had a suit entered against an Indiana publisher. When the campaign was ended the suit was withdrawn, on the ground that the plaintiff feared he could not obtain justice in the Hoosier courts.

President Cleveland had more cause than any other of our public men, Jefferson and Jackson alone excepted, for action against the press. He showed great forbearance and dignity by refraining. The provocation he received no doubt justified the wrath he showed in a letter written on the subject in 1885. His denunciation was, however, too sweeping, for even in the days of darkest calumny, no man had ever more staunch newspaper supporters than he.

President Roosevelt, unlike Mr. Cleveland, refuses to suffer in silence. He hits back with a vigor which would signify he had no intention of engaging in a law suit. If he should sue, it is not unlikely court or jury would say his castigation of the defendants ought to reduce damages materially.

Judging from the Memphis, Mo., Democrat, love is still as blind as ever: One of our budding young gallants called on a maiden a few nights ago and valiantly offered to brave the darkness of the back yard to bring a bucket of water. He reached the yard, set the bucket down and turned a crank vigorously for several minutes. His efforts met with failure and he returned to the house with the statement that the pump was out of fix. On inspection it was found that he had set the bucket down by a wash tub and had been busy turning the clothes wringer.

The following choice collection of English is from the Grady Record: Each back from Texico brings some settler coming back to his homestead. Every one of them are overflowing with enthusiasm for this country. Many left in the middle of the dry weather when things looked pretty bad and are overjoyed to find good crops grown on the fields they abandoned. Many come back with their summer's earnings which they will spend on putting in next year's crop.

A New York woman has asked for a divorce on the grounds that her husband has never been able to earn over six dollars a week and has not been able to secure steady employment at that. Let us not here, discuss the question of race suicide.

A Chicago banker says a business man should have the moral courage to go broke if necessary. Perhaps it would be more fitting to say that he should have the moral courage not to make other people go broke unless it is necessary.

The manner in which the Sultan of Turkey opened the first parliament to that country recently, reminds one strongly of the way a small boy cuts the switch which his father later uses on him in the family woodshed.

"I was married in 1903," remarked an Albuquerque woman, recently. "I knew that," replied her friend. "I recognized the style of the dress you are wearing." Yet the community tolerates her husband.

HOMESTEADERS MAY LOSE LANDS

Property on which Coal Deposits Are Found Cannot Be Given Final Titles

Washington, Dec. 24.—Thousands of settlers on western public lands will have trouble in completing their claims in the United States general land office. Many of them, through no fault or neglect of their own, will lose their farms entirely, together with the improvements they have made on them. The reason for this situation is found in the recent classification by the government geologists of large areas of public lands as coal lands. Lands which contain deposits of coal and which are classified as coal lands, under the law, cannot be entered as homesteads. Settlers occupying such land, having not completed their titles, will be denied final patents.

This surprising information is contained in a paper submitted to the national conservation commission by Timothy J. Butler of Kansas of the land division of the general land office. Mr. Butler's paper, which has the approval of Commissioner Denney of the land office, will be made a part of the inventory of the national resources of the country, which is to be included in a report to be sent to the president early in January by the conservation commission.

Mr. Butler explains that under the present law it is not necessary that the coal deposit on public lands be of sufficient quantity and of merchantable quality to render the land more valuable for coal than for other purposes in order to make it not subject to entry under the homestead or other agricultural laws. But he says if the land contains a deposit of coal possessing a commercial value, it is sufficient to prevent agricultural entry.

At the present time there are pending before the general land office, according to Mr. Butler, approximately 5,000 homestead entries in support of which final proof has been submitted and which embrace lands that have been classified by the geological survey as coal lands. It is estimated that there is an equal number of homestead entries where proof has not been made which will come under the coal land classification.

Mr. Butler said: "While the issuance of patents protects the interests of the individual in his improvement upon the land, his right to the use of the land and the coal it contains, unless fraud is shown, still the fact remains that the government has divested itself of all title to or interest in or control over the valuable deposits of coal which underlie the patented land. In neither of these instances can the settler be charged with an actual knowledge of the coal character of the lands which he has selected. There are no outward appearances upon the land or in the immediate vicinity which would charge one not a geologist or without considerable knowledge of geological formation with the knowledge of the presence of coal upon such lands.

"The settlers have gone upon the land innocently, without intention of violating the law, in pursuance of the natural home-making instincts, and after having performed all that the government requires of them under the homestead law, the government has found itself unable to protect them in their rights to their improvements and to the use of the surface of the land, as there is no provision of law whereby a title to the surface of the land may be granted without granting title to all that lies beneath the surface.

"When the government parts with title to the land as the law now stands the private parties may conduct their operations in such manner as they see fit, even to exhausting the deposit. They may operate their mines in such manner as to take out only the heart of the vein, while large quantities of coal possessing utility are either permitted to remain in the ground or waste upon the dump at the mine opening.

"It is a fact of common knowledge that under present conditions this great natural resource is simply a subject of speculation, dependent upon the present exigency of opportunity for financial gain and with no concern for the future."

Some Reasons Why

The C

Because The Citizen is a home paper. It is either delivered by carrier at the house or is carried home by the business man when his day's work is done and it STAYS THERE. A morning paper is usually carried down town by the head of the family and hurriedly read.

The Citizen is not read hurriedly, but thoroughly so that all advertisements receive their share of attention. It presents the store news a little ahead, giving the prospective purchaser time to plan a shopping tour for the next morning.

Wise advertisers patronize The Citizen because they know their advertisements are seen and read at the homes in the evening, and if they are offering something worthy of attention, their ad has accomplished its mission.

The Citizen has never given premiums to subscribers but is subscribed to and paid for on its news merits, showing that its subscribers have money with which to buy what they want from legitimate merchants. These are the people The Citizen invites to your store.

Z

The Citizen employs a man whose business it is to look after your advertising wants. He will write your copy if you wish. If not, he will see that your ads are "set up" to look their best and he will attend to them from day to day.

Are you advertising in The Citizen? Your competitors are, and are profiting by it. Do you think conservative business men are spending money where they are not getting results? Get in the swim and watch your business grow.

FORMER RESIDENT'S WIFE KILLS SELF

Mrs. Searles Killed Her Husband and Blew Out Her Brains as He Watched.

Albuquerque friends of J. W. Searles, better known as "Jimmy Searles," a former resident of this city, have learned of the tragic suicide of Mrs. Searles, which occurred at Grand Rapids, Michigan. The story of the suicide is told in a dispatch from the latter place. "Jimmy" Searles was a resident of Albuquerque fifteen years ago, being at one time clerk of the old San Felipe hotel. The dispatch of the suicide is as follows:

Grand Rapids, Mich., Dec. 20.—"Well, Jim, how do you like the looks of this?" said Mrs. Myrtle Searles to her husband at 2 o'clock this morning. Arrived only in nightclothes she was sitting on the foot of the bed from which he had just arisen, driven by sleeplessness to take a smoke. Pointed at her head was an automatic revolver.

Before the husband could move there was a flash, a report and a bullet had crashed through the woman's brain, killing her almost instantly.

Mrs. Searles was 32 years old, four times married and said to have been a neurotic. She was divorced from her first husband, Harry Crawford, at Rochester, Mich., and also from the second, Supt. Harter of the Detroit United Railways. Her third husband was Bret Gordon, a wealthy Virginia plantation owner, who was divorced by his first wife, Gordon died and left a big estate. Husband No. 4, J. W. Searles, is a mining expert, owns mines in Arizona and Nevada and is worth $250,000. He was a widower when married to the woman and eighteen years her senior. He has one child and she leaves one by Crawford.

Mrs. Searles had enjoyed the advantages of culture, had possessed much native talent as an artist, was given to equestrianism, and had the luxuries which wealth procures.

She had been in several sanitariums and a nerve specialist had been treating her for several weeks. Last night she discharged a trained nurse who had been attending her and seemed in good health and spirits. Her physician saw her and said she seemed well.

The family were to have entertained friends today and the husband had brought jewels from a safety deposit vault for his wife's adornment.

LEITER'S AGENT FACES TWO WOMEN

Both Filed Suits for Divorce, Following His Marriage to Younger Woman.

Chicago, Dec. 24.—Hugh Crabbe, former confidential agent for Joseph Leiter, a millionaire coal operator, is trying to settle two suits for breach of promise, involving $50,000, as a result of his marriage to Miss Miriam Pain. A $25,000 breach of promise suit, filed by Miss Marian Mattes, against Mr. Crabbe, is on the December court calendar. It is said he attempted to settle the case out of court several days ago.

On November 14, 1907, Miss Anna Murray, a domestic brought a similar suit, asserting that on July 7 of that year Crabbe had asked her to become his wife. Samuel K. Markham, attorney for Miss Mattes, says that her suit has not been dropped. He declares he is prepared to go ahead with the trial.

Miss Mattes said she had no intention of having the suit withdrawn, and that it would be fought out in court. According to the bill filed in her suit, Mr. Crabbe promised to marry her on April 1 of this year.

IDLE MEN WORRY GERMAN OFFICIALS

The Unemployed in Kaiser's Realm
Are Assuming Large Proportions.

Berlin, Dec. 24.—Both the city officials of Berlin and the Prussian state authorities are trying to find ways and means of dealing with the problem of the unemployed, which is assuming alarming proportions. More than 40,000 men and women are out of work in Berlin, according to the count just completed. Six weeks ago the number of unemployed was estimated at 40,000, and the growth of the army of involuntary idlers promises to continue. There is apparently no prospect of an early improvement in the situation, which is attributable primarily to unfavorable business conditions and general suspension of work in the building trades.

Mayor Kirschner of Berlin, Minister of Commerce Delbrueck and Minister of Railways Breitenbach, who is the largest employer of labor in Prussia, are trying to devise plans for the amelioration of the distress which must become more acute as the winter advances.

RACE PROBLEM WORRYING ENGLAND

There is Much Concern Over the State of Affairs Since India Broke Loose.

London, Dec. 24.—The race problem in the United States always has been viewed by Englishmen with good natured superciliousness. They did not take it seriously at all, putting down the considerable agitation over it to an American habit of exaggeration. But now that Britain has a race problem of her own, she talks about it all day and dreams of it at night.

The most pessimistic American never predicted that the race problem would rock the American republic. The prediction is heard every day over here that the future of the empire is endangered by the British race problem, or rather, race problems, for there is not one but several. There is one race problem in India, another in South Africa and still a third in New Zealand. The Indian problem is the worst because it is just now most acute. Its ramifications extend to the most exclusive London drawing rooms. East Indian students of rank who have come to England to complete their education complain that they are not always shown social consideration, are not treated as equals by persons in England whose rank is no higher than their own. The government recognizes that this is true, but realizes its helplessness. Several of the "high brow" newspapers have taken the matter up and are urging British gentility to avoid social discrimination. There is no reason to regard a man as a social inferior, they declare, merely because his skin is several degrees darker than yours. But first as the government may and preach as may the editors, the age old fact of radical antagonism is there and is not going to be offset by any such thing as political considerations.

And the Indian student in England is setting about to force social equality in very much the same way the American negro who demands social equality has done—by showing his unworthiness of it. At a recent meeting at which students were specially invited guests they bowed and hissed the king's name, and instances have not been lacking of late in which they have made themselves offensive to English ladies. Australia has been lectured and South Africa scolded because they are not willing to admit East Indians and other orientals on terms of equality with the white man. And the very great folks who have been doing the lecturing and the scolding have been arousing undying hatred in the breasts of Indian students by treating them as social inferiors. It is the ignorant coolie Australia and South Africa insist upon barring. It is the best culture and refinement of India that the London smart set has offended, many of them capable of tracing their ancestry back to the days when England was a vassal of Rome. The governing class of England is amazed that the colonists should insist on keeping out the riff-raff of India, but hold back their skirts for fear of contaminating contact with the best India has to offer in the way of culture and refinement. They are very willing to send the "thin red line" to the outposts of the empire to bear the white man's burden, but they don't want the burden packed home to their London drawing rooms.

The British press showed a great deal of interest in the recent presidential election in the United States and gave almost as much space to it as they did to the woman's suffrage movement, though, of course, the American campaign could not be allowed to crowd out the essays or "letter to the editor." After the cable told that Taft had been elected the subject was allowed to drop while the editors mullied the matter over in their minds. Just lately they have been coming forth with their serious editorial comment.

On the whole there is evident appreciation of the result, but through the "leaders" there runs a minor note of surprise that the Americans showed themselves capable of selecting so excellent a man as their chief magistrate. Try as they may, British editors are not quite equal to concealing their amazement that each presidential election doesn't smother the American republic to smithereens. They see revolutions following presidential elections in the little Latin American republics, and they are unable to see how the United States escapes them.

They have just discovered a fresh peril in the fact that President Roosevelt took a very active interest in the election of his successor. It is all right this time, they agree, because Mr. Taft is such an excellent man but they hope for the sake of the United States, about whose capacity for self-government they are so sceptical, that the precedent will not be followed by future executives; and on this subject quite a number of preachments have been uttered in that patronizing, fatherly tone the British press habitually assumes when discussing American domestic affairs.

Had the "rough house" methods which English women adopted in their campaign for the elective franchise been resorted to by American women engaged in any like crusade, British horror would have been boundless and limitless. And, it must be confessed there has been generous praise of the firm stand American statesmen have taken on the subject, as compared to the vacillating, week-kneed policy of the present British ministry. In fact the opposition press lays the whole blame for what it terms a mishap on English womanhood at the door of Mr. Asquith and his advisers, who, instead of coming out boldly and telling the women no, avoided them and the issue by using the back doors for their goings and their comings.

Capt. E. C. T. Troubridge, the new junior lord of the admiralty, is the possessor of a silver hero medal, though the extreme modesty of the gentleman does not admit of his wearing it among his other decorations on occasions of ceremony. Some years ago when Captain Troubridge was still a lieutenant, a signalman fell overboard from a torpedo boat going at full speed in Suda bay. Lieutenant Troubridge went overboard after him and saved the man's life, though both were nearly drowned before the vessel could be stopped and a boat lowered. Among his other honors Capt. Troubridge is a grand officer of the Imperial Japanese Order of the Rising Sun, the decoration being conferred upon him because he was with the Japanese fleet during the operations off Port Arthur during the war with Russia.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, whose will has recently been probated though the late prime minister died in April, left an estate valued at something over a quarter of a million dollars. The figures proved something of a surprise to those who knew something of the late statesman's affairs, as it was believed his wealth was several times the amount disclosed. The estimate of his wealth undoubtedly was based on the scale of his expenditures, and the explanation is that after attaining political leadership he not only lived up his income but made serious inroads on the principal of his fortune in order to meet his social and political obligations. Although Sir Henry could not be said to have been impoverished, it must be remembered that the period of his political leadership was comparatively brief. The instance furnished another proof however that it is much more impossible for a poor man to attain political eminence in Great Britain than in the United States. Until Sir Henry came into office with the Liberal victory of three years ago his public services had been mainly rendered without compensation, and his expenses were enormous.

JUDGE WM. D. LEE, PIONEER OF NEW MEXICO, IS DEAD

Mr. D. Lee

Having just passed his 79th birthday, Judge William D. Lee, jurist, patriot, pioneer and the friend of all who knew him, and one of the earliest settlers of Albuquerque, died yesterday at Ocean Park, Cal., of a general breakdown, accompanying old age. The end came at 4:15 o'clock in the afternoon and was not unexpected. The wife and four members of the family were present at his death bed.

The news of Judge Lee's death caused general mourning in Albuquerque, especially among those of the men and women who helped build the city.

The announcement came in a telegram to Lawrence Lee, a grandson.
At first it was supposed that the body would either be brought here or taken to Lafayette, Ind., for burial, but a telegram today said that interment was made in Ocean Park cemetery this afternoon.

Judge Lee had been making his home in Ocean Park about two years, having gone there in the hope that the lower altitude and mild climate would be of benefit to both he and his wife. The announcement that he was seriously ill was received last Saturday by Harry F. Lee, Mr. Lee's son, accompanied by Mrs. Lee, left for Ocean Park Saturday, sorely hoping that they would reach their father before death. On receiving news that his children were coming,

Judge Lee is said to have strengthened sufficient to stay the end until their arrival. Of five children belonging to the family, four reached his bedside in time for farewell greetings.

The children present were Harry F.
Lee and Fred W. Lee of this city;
Frank E. Lee of Imperial, Cal., and Rosa L. Hunt, a daughter, living at Ocean Park. Another son, Victor H.
Lee, a business man of Baton, was unable to go to Ocean Park. There was another daughter born to Judge and Mrs. Lee, Miss Margaret Lee, who died in this city the year 1900,
and was buried at Lafayette, Ind.

Judge Lee, at the time of departing from New Mexico for California, was the oldest member of the grand lodges of Masonry.

Judge Lee was born in Indiana, on November 8, 1830. His father was Dr. Henry D. Lee, a native of Lebanon county, Ohio, and his mother before her marriage was Harriet E.
Gordon, a native of Virginia.

Judge Lee was directly related to the famous Lee family of Virginia, whose most distinguished son was General Robert E. Lee of the Confederacy.

Judge Lee was educated at De-Pauw university, Greencastle, Ind., and received his legal education immediately afterward in the law school of the Indiana State university. He graduated from this school in 1852. Prior to this he had read law in the office of Hon. "Dick" Thompson, afterward secretary of the navy and the Hayes administration.

Judge Lee began the practice of his profession in 1852 in Jasper county, Indiana, but soon removed to Lafayette where he rapidly attained success and became states attorney for the Twelfth judicial circuit. In 1863
Judge Lee volunteered for service and became captain of Company E, 125th Indiana volunteers. He served in the Army of the Cumberland, participated in the battle of Nashville

during the attack by General Wheeler and was with his command protecting the railroads when General
Sherman made his march to the sea.
After the war he returned to the practice of law at Lafayette, where he continued to reside until 1876, when he came to Las Vegas, N. M., to enter a partnership in the law with L. C.
Fort. Judge Lee prospered in his profession and continued in Las Vegas until 1889, when President Harrison appointed him judge of the Second New Mexico district. He served on the bench until 1894, making his headquarters and home in this city.

Judge Lee was married in 1855 to Miss Naomi Reeves, who was also a native of Indiana. Seven children were born to them. May 16, 1905, Judge and Mrs. Lee celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Judge Lee was a member of the Bernalillo county Bar association and Judge Abbott today appointed the following committee to draft resolutions in memory of the late jurist:
District Attorney Clancy N. B. Field;
T. N. Wilkerson, E. W. Dohson, H. B.
Ferguson. Judge Abbott suspended court during the day out of respect to the deceased.

BRITISH WAR SHIP
IS SENT TO CANTON
Honk Kong Dec. 24.—It is feared that the anti-foreign movement at Canton, originally caused by the death of a coolie on the steamer Fal-shan, who is alleged to have been brutally killed by a Portuguese watchman on the vessel, will culminate in outbreaks against all foreigners. So serious is the situation regarded that the British torpedo boat destroyer Hart has been sent to Canton.

PRESENTS GIVEN TO PROF. MILLER

Retiring Principal of the High School the Recipient of Masonic Emblem and Handsome Chair.

Yesterday, marking the last day of his service as principal of the Central High school, Professor J. A. Miller was the recipient of a handsome Masonic watch fob, the gift of the pupils of the school. With a few well chosen words, the presentation was made by Miss Evelyn Everett, who spoke in behalf of the donors and in response to the generous offering, Prof. Miller replied, saying that words could not express his appreciation of the gift which he had the honor of receiving. His assurance that it would be ever kept as a remembrance of the days when he occupied the position as principal of the high school was greeted with much applause.

Later in the afternoon Mr. Miller was also presented with an office chair, the gift of the teachers of the Central High school, presentation of which was made by Superintendent W. D. Sterling. In appreciation of the thoughtfulness of the teachers over whom he had supervision, Mr. Miller again responded with a short speech, thanking the donors for the kindness and assuring them that their gift would ever occupy a conspicuous place in his new law office.

Though the retirement of Prof. Miller was not to have taken effect until February 1, the arrival of J. V. Clarke of Green Castle, Ind., who will succeed John Milne as principal of the third ward school, will enable Mr. Milne to succeed Prof. Miller at the beginning of the term following the Christmas holidays, which will be on Monday, January 4th.

The retirement of Prof. J. A. Miller is much regretted by the entire school system, both teachers and students, and the best wishes of all his acquaintances go with him for a successful future in his newly chosen profession, the practice of law in this city, the partner of Judge George Craig.

NEW DESK CABINET FOR THE ALVARADO

Images of Clerks, Done in Bronze, Will Adorn Front of New Furniture.

A new onyx desk cabinet trimmed in silver and set with diamonds, adorns the front office counter at the Alvarado. These cabinets have been changed every two years since the hotel was built but of the several that have come and gone, the one installed yesterday to remain the next two years is the finest yet.

The front corners of the cabinet are large polished blocks of Vermont onyx upon which it is contemplated will be set bronze images of the day and night clerks of the house. The name of the clerk will be attached to each image and all that arriving guests have to do to learn the name of the man behind the counter is to compare the statue with the clerk on duty. The scheme is one of the most novel yet presented. It is believed that it will work with great success.

The diamond set in the cabinet is sunk deep into the advertisement of H. Yanow, the pawnbroker, which occupies a very conspicuous place in the front.

Our work is RIGHT in every department. Hubbs Laundry Co.

HEAVYWEIGHTS WILL WRESTLE TONIGHT

Local Man Meets Chicagoan at Athletic Club, But Not Under Auspices of Club.

John Ritchie, recently of Chicago, and Simon Deschler, a local blacksmith, will be the principals in a wrestling match held at the Albuquerque Athletic club quarters in the armory tonight. The match is not being held under the auspices of the club as announced in the morning paper. The club has nothing to do with it, and the club's membership cards will not be recognized at the door. The match is being held by the two principals and Prof. Kennedy to raise money for the two men engaged. Thirty-five per cent of the gate receipts will be claimed by the club and used in defraying part of the expenses of the late smoker, of which there was a big deficit.

Both Ritchie and Deschler are big strong men and should make a spirited wrestling match.

The next event held by the club will be the boxing bout between Kennedy and Pettus, as a principal attraction, and a 10-round endurance glove contest between Walker and Lavigne as a preliminary. This will be a big show.

ANCIENT ROME SHOWN IN PICTURES

Film at the Colombo Tonight Depicts Scenes of the Time When Nero Ruled.

"The Roman Idyl" one of the finest moving pictures turned out by the Crofford Film Exchange company of St. Louis, will be the feature at the Colombo theater tonight. The scenes of this beautifully colored picture are laid in ancient Rome, where we see the pretty Plevian going to the well to get water, and is met by the noble young Marcus, who makes love to her. Another young woman named Patricia is desperately in love with Marcus and when she sees him with Plevian she becomes insanely jealous and vows vengeance. Marcus accompanies Plevian as far as her home and when he leaves her he meets Patricia, who drops a flower, and he, in his gallant way stoops and picks it up and hands it to her. She ignores him and casts the flower to the ground again. He becomes enraged and at that instant Plevian comes along and he joins her. Patricia makes an insulting remark to the young lovers, and as Plevian turns to remonstrate with her, Patricia raises her hand to strike her, but is stopped by one of her own slaves, whom she has flogged afterwards for interfering. When the young lovers go on the way, the slave turns to Patricia and vows to get even with her for having him punished. The film winds up with a number of very exciting climaxes.

Tomorrow afternoon patrons of the place will witness a moving picture production of the Merchant of Venice along with a number of very entertaining comic pictures.

POSTOFFICE CLERKS HAVE TIME TO REST

The Past Few Days Have Been Busy
Ours, But the Rush Is About Over Now.

There was a lull in the rush at the postoffice today, but there was still plenty doing for the tired clerks on duty. For more than a week the entire force has been working from 5 o'clock in the morning until 7 o'clock in the evening, and the pace has been terrible. Tomorrow the money order, register and general delivery windows will be open from 10 o'clock until 12. The money order and registry departments will do delivery business only. The carrier windows will be open at the same hours. Nearly 6,000 packages were registered during the six days ending yesterday, for outgoing mail.

CLOSE OF GREAT GOLD PRIZE CONTEST

Exciting Finish of C. and A.
Co.'s Prize Contest for School Children.

Excitement in large bunches has been the order all day at the C. & A. Coffee Co.'s store at 107 South Second street. The cash prize contest closes at 6 o'clock today and all the stored up enthusiasm and excitement of the scores of boys and girls who have remained in the race to the end seems to have broken out at the finish, noisy boys and breathless little girls have been running in and out all day, bringing in orders and asking numberless questions of the clerks as to their individual chances of winning one of the cash prizes.

The coffee men did not believe that such interest could be aroused in a contest of this kind among the school children, but they miscalculated the energy of the Albuquerque youngsters and it is needless to say that the result has been very gratifying.

As the contest does not close until 6 o'clock, two hours after The Citizen goes to press, it is not possible for us to give the result, but the complete list will be printed tomorrow with the names of the money-prize winners in black letters.

At this hour the list below looks like a pretty good forecast of the finish. The first six have held their positions in or near the first division since the start, but if the claims of several of those farther down in the list are made good there may be some new names among the top-notchers when 6 o'clock comes around.

the Young and Old.

The churches of the city will hold special Christmas services tonight and tomorrow. NAVY TO BUILD GIANT WARSHIP

If Plans Are Carried Out It Will Be the Largest Battleship Ever Constructed.

Washington, Dec. 24.—The navy department is considering the desirability of constructing monster battle-ships, bigger than anything yet built or even designed elsewhere. One plan presented by the naval board on construction calls for eight fourteen-inch guns and displacement of 25,000 tons. In the fourteen-inch gun ship, the thickness of the turret, side and barbette, armor will be greater than in the twelve-inch gun ship, giving better protection than the latter will enjoy. Two designs have been prepared for a fourteen-inch gun ship.

There have long been serious differences among naval experts regarding the advisability of using bigger guns than twelve-inch, on account of the probability that the discharge of bigger guns would seriously rock the ship. Moreover, it is known that under some conditions the eight-inch guns, for instance, are more effective than ten-inch. The navy department is pretty well committed to the all-big-gun-ship plan and Congress may consider it favorably when the matter is properly presented. The speed of the new ships is intended to be from 24 1-4 to 26 1-2 knots under trial conditions.

Muscular Pains Cured. "During the summer of 1903 I was troubled with muscular pains in the instep of my foot," says Mr. S. Pedlar, of Toronto, Ont. "At times it was so painful I could hardly walk. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was recommended to me, so I tried it and was completely cured by one small bottle. I have since recommended it to several of my friends, all of whom speak highly of it." For sale by all druggists.

ARIZONA BAD MAN KILLED IN NEVADA

Brother of a Cattle Thief Shot
Former Outlaw Who Had Turned Deputy Sheriff.

Bisbee, Ariz., Dec. 24.—The following letter, addressed to the Bisbee Review, is confirmatory of the death of the notorious Billy Stiles:
Haverford, Ariz., Dec. 9, 1908.
Esteemed Daily Review.
Gentlemen—This is to notify you that Deputy Sheriff William Larkin, who was killed by Bert at Kings River, in Humboldt county, Nevada, was my husband, William Larkin Stiles. Yours very respectfully, MRS. WM. L. STILES.

Billy Stiles has perished as he lived, violently. If a report bearing the brand of authenticity may be trusted.
According to the account Stiles was living in Nevada under an assumed name when his end came. He also held a deputy sheriff's commission. He had been instrumental in the arrest of a cattle rustler, who, resisting arrest, was killed by the sheriff. The brother of the rustler vowed bloody vengeance and swore he would take the life of Stiles when opportunity offered. It was not long until chance gave him the occasion he desired. Stiles, having business in the country, came to a ranch house where he decided to camp. He started to put his horse in the stable when he was killed by a bullet from a gun in the hands of the owner of the place. Stiles died liberally had walked into the yard of the dead rustler's brother and turned his unsuspecting back to the man who had forsworn the life of the one-time bad man of Arizona.
Stiles was one of the salient features of one of the most dramatic chapters in Cochise county's history. Several years ago he participated with Bert Alvord, Bravo Juan and Three-fingered Jack in the hold-up and robbery of a train at Cochise station. Soon after he turned state's evidence and caused the arrest and imprisonment of his accomplices. With the vaccination that was his predominant trait he decided to rescue the man he had betrayed, and going to the Tombstone county jail during the noon hour when the deputy and all the officers except Jailer George Bravin were at lunch, he grabbed a rifle from among several in the office, and stuck its muzzle against the stomach of Bravin with the demand that the latter deliver the keys of the jail.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness cured by our Catarrh Cure, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists.

ROOSEVELT WILL TAKE MANY GUNS

The President to Have Complete Equipment for Hunting in Africa.

Washington, Dec. 24.—Were any one else except the president of the United States piling up such masses of war material at this time, there might be room for the suspicion that another Central American outbreak was brewing.

Thousands of cartridges and stands of arms and hunting knives are being stocked up in anticipation of the jungle war. It is now possible to summarize with fair accuracy the equipment of this rally into the dark continent.

The hunting knife, for instance, is a trusty blade, measuring from tip to guard, seven inches. When Roosevelt shoots with small irons instead of large, it will be the voice of the reserved arbiter of our own border land—the Colt's 45—that speaks.

Mr. Roosevelt will take into Africa four American-made rifles, two American-made shotguns, a brace of long-barreled Colt's six-shooters, and a couple of American hunting knives. Several thousand rounds of cartridges weighing some hundreds of pounds, will complete the arsenal.

The most destructive gun to be carried by the president has been made to his order at Springfield, Mass., a Winchester repeating rifle, model of 1895, .405 caliber, weighing eight and one-half pounds. This rifle has a 44-inch round barrel and carries four cartridges in the magazine, plus one in the breach. It shoots a 209-grain steel jacket bullet or slug, more properly speaking, whose velocity in discharge is 2,150 feet a second and which penetrates forty-eight seven-eighths inch pine boards. The repeating capacity of the rifle is two or three shots a second, from the shoulder with aim, or twenty-five shots a minute single loading. Incidentally, nothing but smokeless powder "goes" on this trip.

The second rifle ordered by the president is known as the No. 30 government rimless cartridge type, using a 220-grain bullet. It is said to be of much higher power than the 303 model and of lower range, being especially adapted to the slaughter of very big game at 500 to 1,000 yards.

An extra light rifle of the 1886 model, using a 45-70 government cartridge and peculiarly effective at from fifty to seventy-five yards, is the description of the third gun ordered by Mr. Roosevelt. The caliber is the favorite .405 and the gun is similar to that which the president used in his days of western hunting. The fourth rifle turned out to the president's order is a model 1894 caliber .400, effective up to 300 yards, specially designed for the killing of moderate sized game. A 170-grain bullet is used. Mr. Roosevelt did a lot of shooting with a rifle of this sort in his Colorado Hunts.

All the ammunition to be taken into Africa by the president has been made especially for him at New Haven, Conn., where his guns have been tested by experts. A plentiful supply of preservatives for the curing of skins and hides will be an important item of the Roosevelt equipment. Edmund Heller, the youthful assistant curator of the museum of vertebrate zoology of the University of California, will have charge of the linerant bureau of skins and will be responsible for its arrival in Washington intact.

Good Cough Medicine for Children
The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sure reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

Hair Dresser and Chiropodist.
Mrs. Bambini, at her parlor opposite the Alvarado and next door to Sturges' cafe, is prepared to give thorough scalp treatment, do hair dressing, treat corns, bunions and ingrown nails. She gives massage treatment and manicuring. Mrs. Bambini's own preparation of complexion cream builds up the skin and improves the complexion, and is guaranteed not to be injurious. She also prepares hair tonic and cures and prevents dandruff and hair falling out, restores life to dead hair, removes moles, warts and superfluous hair. For any blemish of the face, call and consult Mrs. Bambini.

For That Dull Feeling After Eating
I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating—David Freeman, Kempt, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at any drug store and see what a splendid medicine it is.

THERE MUST BE SOMETHING IN IT.

For the past six months I have given my Royal $65.00 Typewriter severe and constant use, and it delivers the goods every time. I have used nearly all the "standard" $100.00
Typewriters, including the Remington, Underwood, Smith Premier, Fox, and others and in my opinion the Royal $65.00 machine has more real merit than any one of the whole bunch. The Royal for me every time.
