CLAUS SPECKELS DEAD AFTER LIFE OF ACT

California Millionaire Succumbs to Attack of Pneumonia After Short Illness.

MADE A FORTUNE REFINING SUGAR

He Was the Pioneer of the Industry on Pacific Coast and His Family Has Been Active in the State for Years.

San Francisco, Dec. 26.—Claus Speckels, the famous sugar millionaire, died at his home in this city early this morning, death resulting from pneumonia. Speckels recently returned from New York, suffering from a cold, which later developed into pneumonia. He was not thought seriously ill.

CARNEGIE BACKING PITTSBURG CLEANING

The Steel Magnate Has Put Up the Money for Prosecution of Grafters.

Pittsburg, Dec. 26.—It is said that Andrew Carnegie has put up about $150,000 in order to clean Pittsburg morally, following the municipal bribery scandal. The story told in the fashionable Duquesne club and the Pittsburg club is that the same man who told President Roosevelt of conditions in Pittsburg went to Carnegie with the story. The result, according to rumor, is that he authorized the expenditure of $150,000 for detective work, etc. It is said that he takes the same stand Claus Speckels did in cleaning up San Francisco.

FEAR LAKE WILL DRY UP

Chicago, Dec. 26.—Attorneys and engineers representing the United States government and the sanitary district have been in conference at the federal building in an attempt to reach an agreement with regard to the government's suit to enjoin the sanitary district's proposed scheme to divert the flow of the Calumet river and double the amount of water taken daily from Lake Michigan. The problem to be determined is whether the diverting of the flow of the Calumet river and consequent taking of an additional 5,000 cubic feet of water per second from Lake Michigan will lower the level of the lake so as to render useless for large vessels the harbors on the lake which the government has constructed.

PICK WORK FOR ROOT

Washington, D. C., Dec. 26.—Secretary Root to a reasonable certainty will be made a member of the committee on foreign relations when he comes to the Senate as the successor of Senator Platt of New York. In the event of the failure of Senator Foraker to be re-elected there will be a vacancy on the committee, but if the Ohio senator should come back, it is thought likely that some member of the committee would retire, taking a place on another committee of equal rank, and make a place for the present secretary of state. Ordinarily a new senator has to content himself with unimportant committee appointments. Exceptions to this rule occur very rarely, unless the member happens to have been a cabinet member with a record of unusual efficiency in one of the executive departments.

WANT SPECIAL SESSION CALLED TO REVISE THE TARIFF

Leaders of Congress Will Urge Taft to Get Busy Immediately After March 4.

HOUSE COMMITTEE WILL HAVE BILL READY

No Time Will Be Lost in Further Sessions of the Committee - Taft and Cannon in Accord on Work to be Done.

Washington, Dec. 26.—If the leaders of Congress in both parties are able to bring sufficient influence to bear upon President-elect Taft, a special session to revise the tariff will be called immediately after the inauguration. The purpose will be to cut the special session as short as possible and secure adjournment before the extremely hot weather sets in. It is expected that the House ways and means committee will have the tariff bill ready to report when the special session meets and no time will be lost in further committee meetings.

Word is reaching this city from all parts of the country that nothing has done so much to clear the business sky as the meeting of Mr. Taft and Speaker Cannon, and their consequent agreement regarding the character of tariff revision desirable at this time. Letters are pouring into Washington from merchants, manufacturers, shippers, railroad men and men representing various other lines of activity, and they are all to one effect. The business world rejoices over the meeting between these two leaders of the Republican party and their frank and manly agreement and expressions of mutual confidence.

FRENCH WILL ASK GOMEZ TO MAKE GOOD

The Government to Wait Until Venezuela Develops Attitude of the Future.

Paris, Dec. 26.—The French government is maintaining a waiting attitude in the matter of political developments in Venezuela. If the government of Gomez endures it will be recognized. France is anxious to settle diplomatic difficulties with Venezuela and if Senator Paulo, who is now on his way to France, commissioned by the present government to effect a settlement of Venezuela's difficulties with various powers, can show proper credentials he will be received. The government is gratified with the downfall of Castro and is of the opinion that he has been eliminated from Venezuelan affairs. The impression prevails here that Castro will never return to South America.

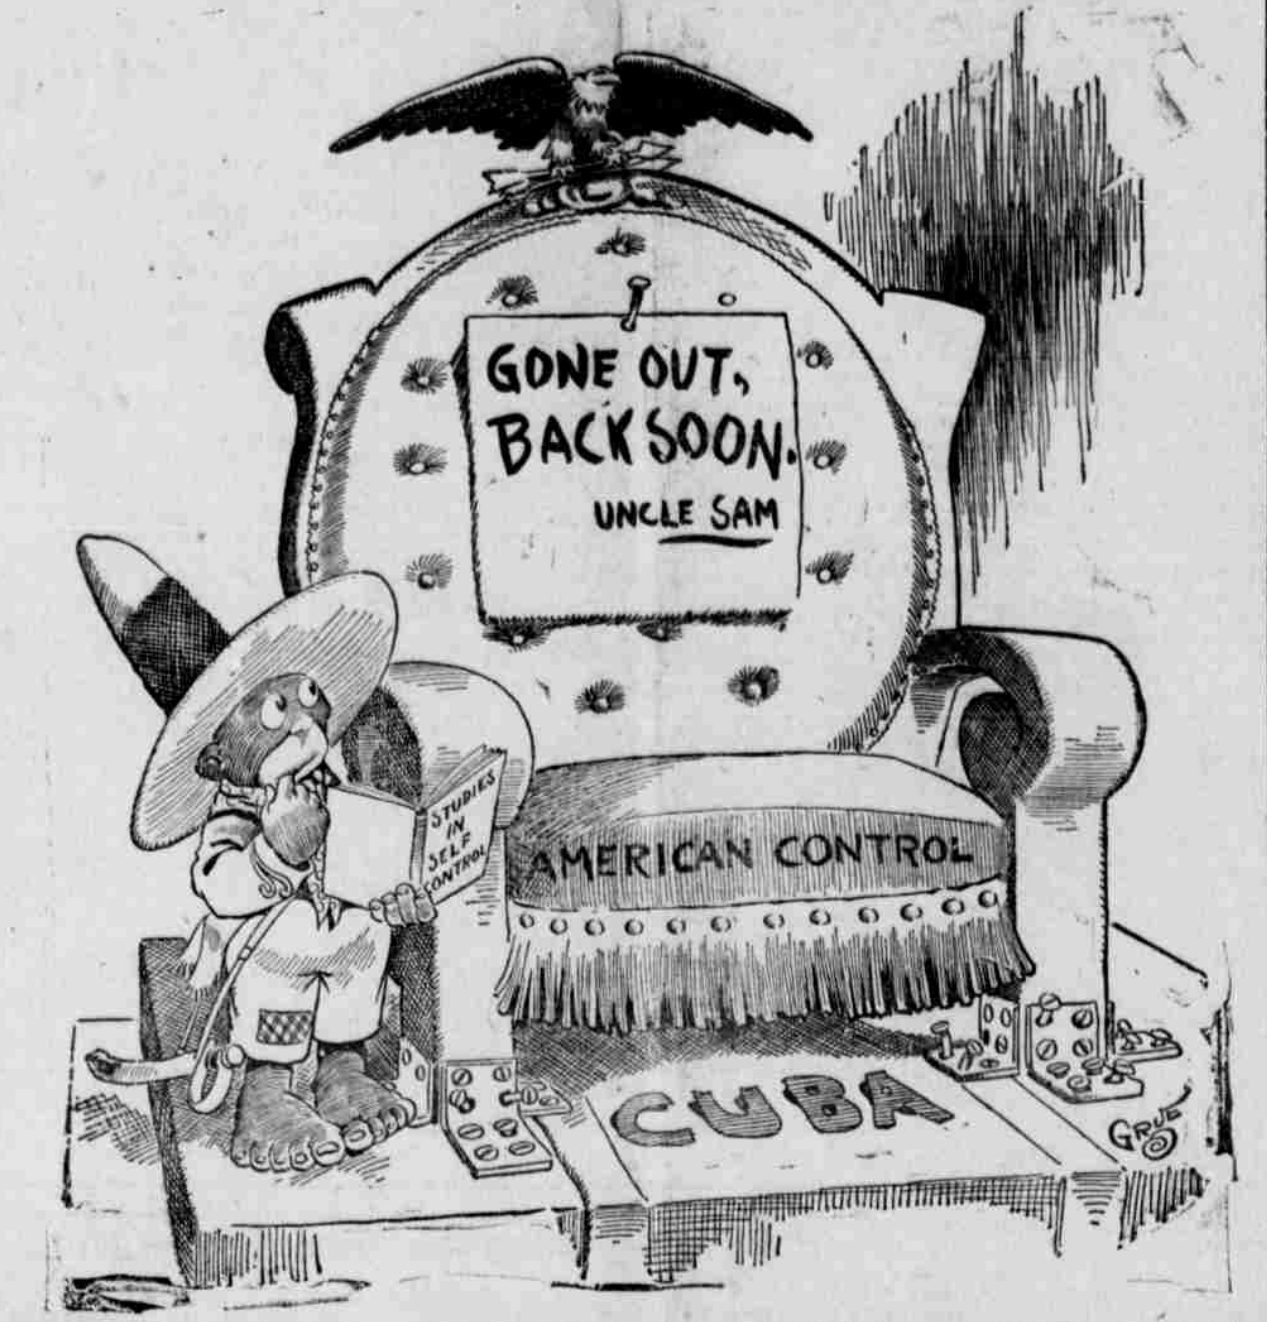

DEMOCRATS DON'T LIKE JAPANESE AGREEMENT

Washington, D. C., Dec. 26.—Democratic senators have not abandoned their efforts to secure more light on the American-Japanese entente in relation to the future of China. This is indicated by statements made by Senators Bacon and Money, minority members of the committee on foreign relations, that they are not satisfied with Secretary Root's suggestion to the effect that the understanding is not of binding force upon either government. The fact that the Republican members of the committee are unanimous in support of the position assumed by Secretary Root is likely to cause the Democratic senators to bring the subject before the Senate.

HIS WOODEN LEG FOOLED ONLOOKERS

Amateur Santa Claus Was Run Over By a Street Car, But Quickly Revived.

New York, Dec. 26.—William Mahoney, a Staten Island teamster, played a Christmas joke on a large number of people who saw him struck down by a trolley car on Brooklyn bridge Christmas eve. Mahoney was on his way to the home of friends in Brooklyn to act as Santa Claus. Near the Manhattan side he slipped and fell under a passing trolley car. Toys were scattered to the wind and spectators who rushed to his aid noted that one of his legs was swinging limply from the knee, apparently all but severed. A hurry call was sent for an ambulance, before it arrived Mahoney arose and announced that the severed member was wood. He hastily secured a pair of crutches and blithely proceeded on his journey, arriving at friend's house in time to appear as a crippled Santa Claus.

TRIED TO PULL BEARD OF THE PRESIDENT OF FRANCE

A Walter Attacked Fallieres But Was Overpowered by Officers Who Followed.

ACT NOT IMPORTANT SAYS PARIS PAPERS

It Was Merely a Fantastic Method of Insulting the President - Press Suggests That Government Take Action.

Paris, Dec. 26.—The entire press, with the exception of reactionary newspapers, consider the attack yesterday in the streets of Paris on President Fallieres by an unemployed waiter named Mattis, who said that he only tried to pull the president's beard, as a fantastic act without political importance. "If the cause of the Bourbons and Bonapartists was not as dead as doornails such a pitiful exhibition of impotent fury would completely discredit them," voices the general opinion.

Nevertheless, some Republican organs express the opinion that the government should do something to put an end to the campaign persistently conducted by a small group of militant royalists, aided by clerical organizations, with the object of keeping public opinion inflamed. Recent disorders at the Academy of Medicine, while originating from a genuine dissatisfaction with the new system of examination, is attributed largely to this same royalist and clerical agitation, which some time ago brought about the resignation of Prof. Thalamas, whose offense consisted in writing the history of Joan of Arc to prove that the stories of her dying inspiration were mere legends devoid of any historic foundation.

The mental caliber of Mattis, who attacked the president yesterday is illustrated by the fact that he was swindled a few weeks ago by a matrimonial advertisement. He gave up his entire savings of $1,200 under the impression that he was going to marry a woman of great wealth.

The attack on the president was made while he was taking a morning stroll near Rue de l'Etoile in company with M. Ramondin, his secretary, and Col. Lasson, military attaché at the Elyse palace. Mattis had been lying in wait and as the president approached, he jumped on him from behind and threw his arms about Fallieres' neck in an effort to grasp his beard.

RUSSIAN OFFICIALS KILLED IN REVOLUTION

They Were Shot by Agitators Who Had Entrenched Themselves in Suburban Home.

Moscow, Dec. 26.—Baron Cotte, chief of the secret police, was killed and Colonel Muraski wounded in a fierce encounter today with revolutionists who were entrenched in a suburban villa. During the fight several policemen were killed and others wounded. Troops were summoned to aid the policemen and a regular battle followed.

Artillery finally had to be brought to bombard the villa before the revolutionists could be subdued. The occurrence is the most serious since the uprising of December, 1905. The police were fired upon when they approached the house, having heard of a meeting of revolutionists there. This was unexpected and the police withdrew. Infantry was sent for but the second attack was beaten off after a desperate fight and not until the artillery was brought up was the trouble ended. The loss of the revolutionists is unknown, but it is doubtless heavy.

Hartford, Conn., Dec. 26.—Samuel Rodinsky was shot and fatally wounded on the door step of his home early today and the assailant escaped. On the ground near by was found a black mask, black cap and black-jack. Two shots were fired, one bullet going through Rodinsky's temple. The victim kept a dry goods store and saloon after the hours of Representatives for several years. He was followed home after he closed his store at midnight, believing that he carried the day's receipts in his pockets.

RATES ON LIVE STOCK HAVE BEEN REDUCED BY SANTA FE

Road Announces Changes in Schedule From Several Points to This City.

SHIPPERS' PROTEST BROUGHT RESULTS

Action of Road Is Taken, It Is Believed, as Result of Meeting With Officials at Commercial Club Recently.

E. L. Medier, president of the Albuquerque Commercial club, is in receipt of a letter from H. S. Van Slyck, live-stock agent for the Santa Fe at El Paso, bearing information that the Santa Fe had made a marked reduction in rates on live stock from Kansas and New Mexico points, and El Paso, Texas, to Albuquerque. The letter is of such tenor as to indicate that the reduction was made as a result of the protest made at the recent mass meeting held at the Commercial club, where Frank Wilson called the attention of several Santa Fe freight traffic officials to discriminations being made against Albuquerque shippers. The reductions will save Albuquerque consumers of meat many thousands of dollars annually.

Mr. Van Slyck's letter follows:

Dear Sir:—Referring to your request for restoration of rates to Albuquerque on hogs and beef cattle from various points where advances resulted from the publication of a new mileage scale for New Mexico, it has been decided to extend the application of the new mileage scale to Kansas-New Mexico, which will result in not only reducing the present rates on hogs and cattle to Albuquerque from west-ern Kansas points, but will make the rates on hogs $22.60 to $23.70 per 56-foot car lower than you have been paying for so many years. The new rates will be 43 cents per 100 pounds on hogs, Sylvia and Partridge, Kan., to Albuquerque; 44 cents from Hutchinson, Kan., 45 cents from Dodge City, Kan., 46 cents from Garden City, Kan., 47 cents from Hays, Kan., 48 cents from Lawrence, Kan., 49 cents from Topeka, Kan., 50 cents from Emporia, Kan., 51 cents from Great Bend, Kan., 52 cents from Herington, Kan., 53 cents from Juntura, ## Pulling His Beard

How typical of dear France ways it is, that a crazed man who wished to offer insults to the president of France, merely sprang upon his back, and reaching hurriedly around, gave his moustache a yank.

The man was quickly seized by officers and handcuffed. A search for weapons revealed the fact that he was unarmed. There has been an awful slump in the picturesque methods of taking vengeance in France.

There was a time when the French fought duels with deadly effect, over the slightest of matters. A French duel is occasionally pulled off now, but it is just about as exciting as a burro race in a sand storm.

There was a time when assassination and murder were common enough in France and they are still found to some extent, although the attack on the French president yesterday, indicates that they are growing unpopular.

In explanation of his act, the assailant of the French president explained to the police that he was merely seized with a desire to humiliate the president by pulling his beard.

It is indeed an encouraging sign of advancement when assassination gives place to such a gentle successor. Every crowned head of Europe and several uncrowned heads, may well profit by the experience of the president of the French republic. Beards—especially of the kind that the French president affects—should at once become popular. If we must have assaults on rulers by disgruntled citizens, it will be well to adopt the French method of beard pulling.

The new fad is recommended to darkest Russia and even to little Venezuela, as much better than the old form of sword and pistol carbine.

No wearer of a hirsute adornment exactly likes to have some rude person unceremoniously pull his goatee, but as an alternative to a sudden shot or knife stab in the back it is almost a pleasure and daresay, the good president of the French republic is today rejoicing at his good fortune and preparing to make a New Year's resolution, never to shave again—never, never, nevaire!

The President's Pay

Congress now has a proposal to increase the presidential pay from $50,000 to $100,000 a year. In other days the presidential salary was large enough, but with the growing demands of the time in which we live there is small chance for the chief executive to retire from office with enough money to pay his railroad fare home.

The president of the United States is hedged about by circumstances such after the manner in which divinity doth hedge a king. Owing to the activity of some anarchists it is not possible for him to go from Washington to Indianapolis in a day coach or even an ordinary sleeper. He must have his special train, or, at least, a private car. Because of the voluminous correspondence which has resulted from the invention of the typewriter and the growing feeling in the breast of every citizen that he must write to the president once in a while, the first gentleman in the country must carry with him his secretaries. These secretaries cannot be transported about the country without cost. They eat and sleep and have their own notions about remuneration.

Then, back in Washington the president has certain social obligations of an international character. It devolves upon him to feed the diplomats at state intervals. These diplomats have been in the habit of eating and drinking costly foods and wines. The president very properly cannot allow his own country to get a reputation for stinginess. It will be seen, therefore, that the presidential table costs a great deal of money. Receptions and dinners cannot be conducted without due regard to the conventions that concern clothing and unadorned and unadorned serve for the presidential guests at a state reception. Mr. Roosevelt cannot very well sit at the center of his table in a pepper-and-salt suit; nor is it good form for the ladies to appear in shirt waists.

Long ago when certain newspapers yelled because Congress had appropriated an unheard of sum for the maintenance of the government, Speaker Thomas Brackett Reed of Maine, put an end to the discussion by asserting that this was a billion dollar country. And so it is. If a steel corporation finds it possible to pay $100,000 to one of its officers who possesses the skill necessary to run the enterprise, the people of this country can afford to pay the same sum, and even a greater one, to their general manager in the White House.

The Carlsbad Current is of the opinion that Carlsbad is the easiest place in the Southwest for grafters and voices its disgust as follows: The town of Carlsbad must be "easy," for it has been infested with more confidence sharks and grafters in the past six months than any other town in the world of its size ever was in the same time. First, a horse doctor came along last winter with about a hundred pounds of instruments but he only grafted around a short time before he got in jail. After this, or along in the spring an outfit purchased a large quantity of tax sale lands, much of which was worthless and unloaded it on unsuspecting public at a high price, thus swindling the purchasers and damaging the sale of lands that are more than worth the money paid for them. After this a grafting "horse doctor" came along and swindled almost every man he struck, though he is so illiterate as to be unable to spell the commonest words properly or write his own name so it can be read. Then a grafter came along and sold some forty of our shrewdest citizens some eighty pewter razors at $1 each. But this poor fellow had his legs both off at the knees and was an honest, respectable Irish gentleman compared to the grafter real estate company or the so-called veterinary surgeons. Now that these grafts have been worked about to the limit, it is time for something new to interest the people of the Lower Valley and the town of Carlsbad.

Daughters of millionaires recently appeared in a chorus of comic opera in New York city, given for the benefit of the smart set. There is nothing unusual in such a stunt. Many of the wives of the sons of millionaires, formerly made a living in the same way.

Vice President Gomez of Venezuela has set up another government. It appears that Venezuela has little trouble in setting up governments, but often finds it difficult to maintain them for any length of time.

Now that Christmas is over the statistical crank comes to the front with the statement that the American people distributed over two hundred million gifts this year at a cost of over one hundred million dollars.

The title of an address delivered by Mr. Bryan in Pennsylvania this week was "A Battle Over—The War Between." This sounds better than "Three Licks He Gained—The Fun Just Starting."

With that sixty million dollars still in reserve, Cipriano Castro, late of Venezuela, will not be seriously inconvenienced by the fact that the banks have withdrawn their letters of credit.

Congress may be so large as to be unwieldy, but one thing is comforting, not all its members can get mad at the same time and at the same president.

The Christmas tide is here once more through this world of sin and sorrow, but wait until the bills come in, you'll feel far worse tomorrow.

The perfect weather, warm and sunny, which prevailed in Albuquerque yesterday, was one of the chief delights of a most pleasant day.

In this country we elect a president but in Venezuela they "revolute" him into office.

Don't forget that you must register today if you expect to vote on the bond issue.

JOHNSON WHIPS MR. BURNS AT SYDNEY

Texas Negro Hastily Defeated Heavyweight Champion After Fourteen Rounds.

Sydney, N. S. W., Dec. 26.—Jack Johnson, the big negro from Galveston, Texas, is the world's heavyweight champion pugilist. He won the title today in the big arena at Rushcutters Bay from Tommy Burns, the French-Canadian, who had held it since James J. Jeffries relinquished it and after a chase of Burns that led half way around the world.

The end came in the fourteenth round, when the police, seeing Burns tottering and unable to defend himself from the savage blows of his opponent, mercifully stopped the fight. Previously it had been arranged that if the police interfered a decision should be rendered on points, and referee McIntosh declared the black man a winner for all through the fight he had shown himself Burns' master in every style of fighting.

Burns, in an interview after he had gone to his dressing room, said: "I did the best I could and fought hard. Johnson was too big and his reach was too great."

Johnson appeared fresh after the fight, while Burns' eyes were badly puffed and his mouth swollen to twice its normal size. He fought a game battle and showed indomitable pluck but he was no match for the big Texas brawler.

Twice only in the annals of pugilism had a colored man been permitted to fight for the title emblematic of the world's heavyweight pugilist. Peter Jackson tried it with John L. Sullivan, but Sullivan would not consent to a go. After James J. Jeffries took the scalp of Bob Fitzsimmons he took on Hank Griffin at Los Angeles, but the colored man was easy for him and never had a chance to win the honor. He was knocked out in four rounds. Jeffries then drew the color line, and several years later retired.

Johnson had tried to get on a fight with him, but without avail.

Then Tommy Burns, or Noah Bruns, as his name really is, took up the mantle of Jeffries. Since then, and until today Johnson has endeavored to get him into the ring, declaring that he was Burns' master.

The fight was for a purse of $35,000, of which Burns received $20,000 and Johnson $15,000. The ring was a 24-foot one, and was pitched in the center of a big arena, built especially for the purpose at Rushcutters Bay. The bout was to have been for twenty rounds.

The day dawned overcast and cool. Thousands of persons from all parts of the country were attracted to the scene of the fight, and many reached there Christmas night and slept in the open. They came by street cars, automobiles, carriages and on horseback, and at 10 o'clock this morning one hour before the fight was scheduled to start, every seat was occupied. The price of seats ranged from $2.50 to $25.

The crowd was estimated at between $18,000 and $20,000 persons. It kept perfect order throughout. A brass band enlivened the holiday throng.

Before the contestants entered the ring Bill Squires, who thrice has been defeated by Burns, challenged the winner.

Burns weighed in at 188 pounds and Johnson at 192.

The betting was 7 to 4 on Burns at the start, but it veered after a few rounds to 2 to 1 on Johnson.

The spectators conceded that Johnson's victory was due to his superior knowledge of the fighting game, and his unruffled demeanor, while being taunted by the champion.

DAILY SHORT STORIES

LOVE ON THE SEINE.

By Abraham R. Groh.

The large Autiel, as it lay in the Seine looked like other barges—big, clumsy, black. One would not have suspected that love dwelt in its ugly hulk.

But it is a well known fact that the little god is indifferent whether he lives in a cottage or in a palace. Indeed, one of his favorite shrines was in the Autiel within the bosom of Pierre.

What mattered it to him that his master had said he was the best bargeman he ever had? What mattered anything as long as he despaired of winning Susette for his wife? Susette was the most beautiful of the fair daughters of France. At least so Pierre thought. He had seen her first on the barge which her father owned and which he had worked up and down the river as long as Pierre's memory extended. Pierre had known her as a child. But when she had suddenly oozed into beautiful womanhood and Pierre knew he loved her.

Now, Pierre had a goodly supply of humility which, theologians say, is a first virtue. Pierre had so much that he surveyed Susette and then himself and decided his love was absolutely in vain. He a mere bargeman, marry Susette, the beautiful daughter of the owner of a barge. Would a condorner marry the president's daughter?

And so honest Pierre had set to work to crush the poison which surged like an angry sea within him. He worked the harder; he clattered the louder in his wooden shoes; he tried to whistle at his work as though the wound which the little god had made with an arrow shot right through his blue blouse could be healed by such superficial means.

Pierre came out from his bunk in the stern of the Autiel one fine morning when the sun was rising over France in all the beauty of a French summer day. He had awakened and felt coming over him the old longing for that which he knew he could not have, beautiful Susette. Then he had jumped out of bed, put on his clothes, wound his red sash around his waist and hurried up the ladder to the deck of the Autiel.

The little god of love is a determined fellow. It may be that he "viewed with alarm" Pierre's brave effort at self conquest and had come back to see the "affair" through. However, this may be, the fact remains that Pierre's eyes fell upon the barge of the father of Susette not ten meters away and going in the same direction as the Autiel. And there in the stern hanging clothes upon a line and singing as she worked, was Susette.

It may have been late or it may have been accident that Susette turned at that very moment and her innocent dark eyes met the eyes of Pierre. Her look of surprise changed to one of pleasure. Then the roses flew into her cheeks and her eyes fell to the ground. Still Pierre gazed as though entranced.

The barges were now nearly side by side. In Pierre's mind arose something which changed him from an humble bargeman to a determined man. He measured the distance between the boats with his eye, then ran and leaped it. A moment later he held the hand of Susette in his and was gazing at her who still was too much moved to raise her eyes from the ground.

Susette had always lived on the barge. She was not mistress of any arts of deception and when Pierre stammered,

"Do you love me, Susette?" She answered simply,

"Yes."

The two barges moved on up the river and seemed to smile and nudge each other shyly, casting an eye now and then at two young people who stood in the stern of one with faces transformed and forgetful of all the world except only that world which had suddenly been created for them.

Some Reasons Why

The C

Because The Citizen is a home paper. It is either delivered by carrier at the house or is carried home by the business man when his day's work is done and it STAYS THERE. A morning paper is usually carried down town by the head of the family and hurriedly read.

The Citizen is not read hurriedly, but thoroughly so that all advertisements receive their share of attention. It presents the store news a little ahead, giving the prospective purchaser time to plan a shopping tour for the next morning.

Wise advertisers patronize The Citizen because they know their advertisements are seen and read at the homes in the evening, and if they are offering something worthy of attention, their ad has accomplished its mission.

The Citizen has never given premiums to subscribers but is subscribed to and paid for on its news merits, showing that its subscribers have money with which to buy what they want from legitimate merchants. These are the people The Citizen invites to your store.

The Citizen employs a man whose business it is to look after your advertising wants. He will write your copy if you wish. If not, he will see that your ads are "set up" to look their best and he will attend to them from day to day.

Are you advertising in The Citizen? Your competitors are, and are profiting by it. Do you think conservative business men are spending money where they are not getting results? Get in the swim and watch your business grow.

MANY NEW BILLS TO IMPROVE ROADS

Congress the Subject Under Consideration and May Take Some Action.

Washington, Dec. 25.—If bills in Congress are shadows of coming events, the time may not be far distant when the national government will be engaged in road building in every state in the country. Some thirty bills relating to the matter were introduced during the last session. All were referred to committees and buried in committee rooms. Some have got as far as consideration on the floor, but the discussion of the post-office appropriations and the appropriations for the department of agriculture gave opportunity for speeches on the subject.

Some of the bills introduced called for the distribution of the present treasury surplus among the states exclusively for the purpose of building roads. Others called for the creation of a bureau of public highways and for national aid in road construction or for state and national co-operation. There were calls for a national highways commission, for federal loans to states for specific appropriations, and Mr. Cockran of New York proposed an automobile highway from coast to coast, about four-fifths of the proposed route in the districts to the south, an indication that state rights are forgotten when money is wanted from the federal treasury.

There is no question that good roads in all parts of the country would represent a saving of hundreds of millions of dollars to the American people. There are more than 2,000,000 miles of roads in the United States, and less than 8 per cent of the total is in the class known as "improved roads," that is, treated with macadam, gravel, sand and clay and other material. A large percentage, perhaps as much as 50 per cent, of all the products of the country is hauled by wagon for a longer or a shorter distance. Investigation has shown that the average haul over wagon roads is eight miles and that the average cost is 25 cents a ton mile. It is asserted that good roads would reduce this cost to 19 cents a ton mile. The saving on corn alone is estimated at $12,700,000 a year, on wheat $10,250,000, and on cotton $5,000,000.

The enormous economy of good roads is so obvious that argument of the matter is superfluous, but it would cost about $1,000,000,000 to macadamize our entire system. This, however, is not proposed. There are cheaper but still effective systems, known as sand clay roads and burnt clay roads, the cost of which is from $100 to $300 a mile. The appeal to the central government is made mainly on the ground that the communities most in need of good roads are least able to pay for them. New York, with its large population of well-to-do people, can afford the $50,000,000 which has been voted by that state for highway improvement. The expense of constructing anything like an adequate system in most of the states of the south and west would reduce their inhabitants to beggary. The natural desire for an improvement of their economic condition and a realization of their inability to pay for what they want brings into the field the National Grange, with a membership of more than a million farmers, and the Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union, with demands that their representatives in Congress insist upon federal appropriations.

The little end of the wedge in this matter appears in connection with the rural free delivery system of the postal service. These routes now cover more than 925,000 miles of dirt roads and carriers make their rounds over them every week day. Some routes have been abandoned because of the impassability of the roads. The supreme court has clearly declared the power of the federal government to construct interstate highways, and the Congress is empowered by the constitution "to establish post offices and post roads." Here is the opening for the farmers' campaign for national highways, the power of Congress to construct interstate roads and to establish post roads. The quality of the post road is not specified, but it may be assumed that the farmer has the same right to demand the quick delivery which is possible only over a good road that the business community has a demand for fast mail trains and frequent delivery by city carriers.

It may or may not be several years before this question comes to a focus in Washington, but the matter is before the country with a strong backing in the rural districts. It is probable that the movement will gather force from year to year, and it is by no means beyond the bounds of possibility that an early day will see the federal government building roads in all parts of the country. The American farmer is a patient citizen, but he is a persistent individual when he goes on the trail of a federal appropriation.

TEACHERS WILL CONVEENE HERE MONDAY FOR THREE DAY SESSION

DR. GEO. EDGAR VINCENT.

Teachers from all over New Mexico are arriving today for the Twenty-third annual session of the New Mexico Educational association, which begins its three day session Monday afternoon. Both in attendance and in the program of events, this session of the association promises to outdo all former meetings. At least 500 teachers are expected to be in attendance during the three days, and the program provides for the discussion of endless school questions, contests, and addresses which will keep the teachers busy from the time they arrive.

The session begins Monday afternoon and the following is the program to be carried out on the first day:

- Monday, December 28, 2 p. m.
Council meeting, high school Assembly hall.
The following subjects are announced for discussion:
1. District school superintendents and their qualifications.
2. Organization of school districts.
3. Consolidation of schools.
4. Compulsory education.
5. Improved plan of special taxation for school purposes.
6. Legal voters on tax levy and at school elections.
Monday Afternoon, December 28.
Sight seeing.
An opportunity will be given for visiting educators to take a trip about the city, stopping at the university to see the new, old, Pueblo architecture, the government Indian school and the extensive plant of the American Lumber company.

Monday, December 28, 8 p. m.
New Mexico inter-scholastic oratorical contest, at Elks' opera house. The following high schools will be represented in this contest: Albuquerque, East Las Vegas, Santa Fe, Raton, Gallup, Deming, Roswell and Alamogordo.

In the higher institutions division will be represented: The University of New Mexico, Normal school of Silver City and the A. and M. college, Las Cruces.

A gold and a silver medal will be awarded as first and second prizes in both the high school division and the higher institutions division. The music on this occasion will be furnished by the Wagner and the Apollo quartet of East Las Vegas high school.

The judges on delivery will be chosen from visiting members of the association who are in no way directly interested in any of the competing schools.

While the judges are making their decision a beautiful flower drill will be given by Albuquerque high school pupils and announcement will be made of the winner of the Twitchell New Mexico statehood essay prize.

Dr. Vincent's Lectures.

The two lectures by Dr. George Edgar Vincent of the University of Chicago, and of the Chautauqua Institution, are two of the best features of the program. Dr. Vincent will lecture at the Elks' theater Tuesday night on "Education and Efficiency," and Wednesday night at the theater on "The Mind of the Mob."

Securing Dr. Vincent necessitated considerable expense but those in charge of the program feel justified in having him here. His reputation as a speaker, as a thinker and a scholar are borne out by his reception on the lecture platform throughout the United States and it is doubtful if a more acceptable speaker could have been secured for the program. A short biography of Dr. Vincent follows: He was born at Rockford, Ill., in 1864.

He prepared for college at Plainfield, N. J., high school and Pingree's academy, Ellaboth, N. J.; graduated from Yale in class of 1885; editorial work, 1885-7; traveled in Europe and Orient, 1886-7; literary editor Chautauqua Press, 1886; principal of instruction, Chautauqua Institution, 1888-1907; president of Chautauqua Institution 1907; fellow in sociology, University of Chicago, 1892-4; assistant, 1894-5; instructor 1895-6; doctor of philosophy 1896; assistant professor 1897; associate professor 1900; professor 1904; dean of arts, literature and science, 1907; lectured in university extension division of the University of Chicago, 1892-1905.

His public lecture work includes a number of addresses made on University extension courses, popular addresses before clubs, more than 100 commencement addresses, summer school and assembly lectures and lyceum lectures.

RAW MATERIAL AND FINISHED PRODUCT.

A feature of the National Stock Show at Denver which opens on January 18, will be the Grain and Forage Exhibit. It may seem odd at first blush to exhibit grain, grasses and roots at a stock show, but it does not seem strange when it is remembered that these products constitute the raw material and the live stock the finished product. Any Lump in Woman's Breast is Cancer.

Of all diseases of the human body a lump in a woman's breast is the most frightful. Hon. T. N. Christmas Celebrations Last Night

Had Unusual Features to Please Big Crowd.

Before a church crowded to the doors with members and friends of the congregation the St. Paul's Lutheran church held its annual Christmas services last night, including a program rendered in a most creditable manner by the children of the Sunday school of the church. A miniature mountain in the side of which was formed a cave, occupied one end of the church and with the natural colorings, mountain shrubbery and candles served as the only illumination in the room, the effect was most pleasing. After the program the children marched through the cave where three small brownies passed out presents to each one. The following program was rendered:

MASHIE PAU WELL FOR ALL HIS FUN

He Was Fined $75, Spent the Night in Jail, Was Kissed by a Crowd, and at by Policemen and Taken on the Nose.

Manuel Campos, who was arrested yesterday by Officer Guayana on complaint of two women who said that he was flirting with them, was sentenced to pay a fine of $75 and costs by Judge McClellan this morning. The fine and ultimate capture of Campos by the officer was a very exciting event. Campos had followed the women to the corner of Central and Second street, forcing his attentions. On Central avenue the women saw the officer and complained. As soon as Campos saw the officer start toward him, he took to his heels. Down Second street he went as fast as his feet could carry him. The officer was close behind and in the rear came a crowd of highly excited spectators. Campos turned down the alley between Central and Gold, with Guayana a close second. Reaching the alley Campos put on more steam and was gaining on the officer when the latter pulled his trusty revolver and took a shot in the air. The fugitive took the hint and stopped, but showed fight when Guayana came up to him and was not taken into custody until after his spirit was subdued with a crack on the end of the nose.

SHE PAID THE DUTY.
Chicago, Dec. 25.—Upon paying in to court $82,411, in addition to the $70,499.18 she has already paid the government, Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne obtained possession of the oil painting and tapestries which the government seized last July when Mrs. Chadbourne smuggled the goods from England.

"This is the end of the Chadbourne Gardner case," said District Attorney Sims. "More than $150,000 has been paid, and I am of the opinion that the ends of justice have been satisfied and will so report to the attorney general. There will be no criminal prosecution."

No attempt to fight the case was made by Mrs. Chadbourne, who confessed judgment.

IRELAND TO SEE POPE.
Rome, Dec. 25.—Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, Minn., who has been here several days, has not yet had an audience with the pope, but he says that as he is not here on any special mission he has not been in a hurry. His audience, he says, will concern only the affairs of his diocese, and therefore, will not be of any interest to the general public. The archbishop admits that the reports in the press to the effect that he will be made a cardinal are untrue and that in no case has he given out any interview on this or any other subject whatever. Some observers here, however, find significance in the fact that he has paid many visits to cardinals and lay friends in Rome who are in high favor at the Vatican.

I never placed my much faith in patent medicines, but I can say I have derived more benefit from Doan's Kidney Pills than from any other remedy. Several years ago I began to notice indications of kidney complaint and my condition reached the state where I was an almost constant sufferer from pain in my back and trouble of an alarming nature caused with the kidney secretions. On one occasion the kidney secretion stopped altogether and I had to have a physician draw it from me. At that time I was employed as a locomotive engineer and had to give up this work, as the jar of the engine made the pain in my back beyond endurance. I suffered from pain across my loins and in both sides over my hips that I would have to sit down in a chair and lean my back against something to support it. At night after I would retire I would not sleep any more than an hour before the pain would awaken me. About three months ago I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a supply in a short time every difficulty was corrected and I have no trouble at all with my back and kidneys now. On occasions without number I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills, and whatever I can say for them will always afford me pleasure."

RESUME OPERATIONS IN MINING DISTRICTS

Active Work Will Be in Progress at Coyote and Hell Canyons in the Spring.

The indications are that the spring will bring more active operations in the Coyote and Hell canyon mining districts, twenty miles east of the city in the Manzano mountains, than ever before. Owners of almost every property in the district contemplate extensive development work as soon as the winter breaks and the weather becomes mild.

The incentive for this renewed activity is said to be the building of the Albuquerque Eastern, which is now assured. The road will run within five miles of Coyote canyon and eight miles of Hell canyon. The reduction of this will bring about in the expense of getting the ore on the cars will assure the profitable working of some of the best developed properties and encourages owners of good prospects to push development. There is no longer any doubt about there being paying ore in the Manzano and Sanua mountains, especially in the Coyote and Hell canyon districts.

Some of the assays brought in from the Alvarado and Highland Mary Groups would cause great excitement in Colorado or Arizona. These properties have been developed to a considerable extent and make a very promising showing. The Pittsburgh and Philadelphia people who have purchased the Highland Mary Group who did considerable work last year, have an engineer on the ground now and it is believed that they will resume operations again on a more extensive scale when the weather gets better.

Lou Graham, with an outfit, left this morning for Coyote canyon to look over property adjoining the Highland Mary group, with a view to beginning work in the spring.

A deal is pending on the McKinley property in the Hell canyon district, which, if consummated, will place the property under operations which will mean much to Albuquerque in the way of furnishing supplies for the miners. It is safe to prophesy that Hell canyon will be the scene of a live mining camp before the middle of next summer.

NATIVE FOUND DEAD IN SANTA FE YARDS

Apparently He Fell Down From Weakness and Was Unable to Get Up Again.

Last night when the downtown hotels and cafes were thronged with merrymakers, enjoying the luxuries of life and the festive spirit reigned supreme, down on Barillas road between the tracks in the lower Santa Fe yards and the Rio Grande Topito Martinez gave up life's struggle with no other covering than the sky.

His frozen body was found this morning by a Santa Fe switchman, cold in death. The coroner was notified and taken to Barillas for an inquest. A fresh scar on the side of the head at first gave rise to the possibility that he met a violent death either by being struck by the care or foul play. These theories were dispelled by an investigation.

The indications are that the man had fallen from weakness at the place where his body was found. There were some bricks lying on the ground by the body and it is believed that he struck his head in falling.

Martinez lives and owns considerable property in the vicinity of Martintown. Relatives, who last saw him alive yesterday afternoon, say that he was drinking hard and it is presumed that he got lost and wandered into a small pond where he fell and was unable to extricate himself from the mud and died from severe cold and exposure.

INVENTOR'S DREAM AT COLOMBO THEATER

The dream of an inventor would be a very appropriate name for a new film that will be seen at the Colombo theater tonight. The picture shows the interior of a modern hotel, in which everything is done by electricity. A couple enter and after registering, the clerk touches a button and away goes the baggage onto the elevator, which stops at the proper floor and the grips enter the room without the aid of anyone. They open and place all their contents in their proper places and the room is ready when the guests enter. By touching a button the man gets a brush up, has his shoes shined, and is shaved without the aid of a human hand. The woman then is seated on a chair, her hair is combed and done up and her outer garments removed. When she wants to write a letter, the desk comes over and the letter is written and addressed without any assistance on her part. Finally they see the penalty for all the latest improvements, for something goes wrong with the electric plant in the cellar and mixes the whole place up. We see all the furnishings start to turn in all directions and the unfortunate guests find themselves in a great mix-up. They manage to get to the door, are tumbled over and rolled across the street till out of the reach of the magnetic force, where they pick up their belongings and hurry home, vowing never to enter another electric hotel. The second picture will be "Some Dangerous Members of Boston's Menagerie."

MARINES TO THE ISLANDS.

Washington, Dec. 26.—The marines which have been ordered removed from the warships by the president will be sent to our outlying possessions, according to information received today. The first assignment of them to this duty will be to Honolulu, where 400 will be sent early in January on the Buffalo. They will be picked up at various places and will sail from San Francisco under command of Major C. G. Long, now stationed in this city. There being no barracks to accommodate this force at Honolulu, the men will spend the winter in tents.

It is understood that the marines will be retained in the navy and many officers believe that they will in time be restored to ship duty. The matter has been taken up by Congress and some action on the matter, independent of the president, is not unlikely.

ALBUQUERQUE BEST SAYS DR. BELDEN

He Returns From a Trip About the Country and Will Reside Here Again.

After an absence of two months, during which he traveled over a large part of Mexico and visited all the leading cities of Arizona, Dr. William Belden, the veterinarian, has returned to Albuquerque, his first love, to make his home. The doctor said this morning that he had seen a lot of country and visited a large number of cities but he found no country like New Mexico and no city as good as Albuquerque.

What Dr. Belden has to say about the cities of Arizona would not be considered very complimentary were it said about Albuquerque. He said that all of them were very dead in a business way, indicating that a country that has to depend on the mining industry must fluctuate with the mining industry. He said that many Arizona mines are practically shut down. He was in Bisbee recently and the people there feared a strike of the miners. The foreigners shipped in there recently have been organized by the unions and threaten to strike if the mine owners do not recognize the union. The merchants of Bisbee are discouraged because the imported miners send so much of their money away. He said that it was estimated that close to $100,000 was sent out of the country from Bisbee almost every day at the mines. Douglas and Tucson were both very quiet.

Dr. Belden said that he talked statehood with a large number of Arizona people and all felt that they should be admitted. However, the doctor said that he did not believe Arizona was self supporting. Business conditions there all depend on the mines and mining was so uncertain. The doctor will hang out his shingle now and be contented.

GREETING TO OUR STRANGERS

There is no loneliness so great as to be a stranger in a strange land at holiday time. When every man who has lived here for several years or more is momentarily exchanging holiday greetings with his many acquaintances—when every woman is deeply intent on administering holiday cheer to all the household—when every child's eyes are alight with joy—the stranger is indeed apart from it all. Did you ever experience it or think what it would mean to you? If you were exiled in Albuquerque away from the old home and the old folks, taking the New Mexico sunshine for ill health—would the day seem a merry one to you? There is no time in the year so full of memories—so hard to live alone.

This is not written for those strangers, but only a reminder for ourselves that our chance of giving happiness to many others lies close to our doors—that the homelick, the lonely and the sick are all about us, and that a smile or a call of "Happy New Year" costs nothing and means much.

Call at my office, stranger, and get acquainted with me. Make it your office and feel at home.
D. K. B. SELLERS,
204 Gold avenue.

Before buying call and see our list of residences. Prices $350 to $5,000. Vacant lots for sale. John Borradaile, corner Third and Gold.

BIG CROWDS SEE PROGRAMS AT CRYSTAL

Defect in Machine Caused Delay But the Audience Waited Until Repairs Could Be Made.

A "bug" was placed in the mechanism of the moving picture machine at the Crystal theater last evening during the dinner hour, while all the employees were away and so injured the machine that it required 30 minutes to repair the break.

"A nice Christmas present, I don't think," said Manager Robertson this morning. "Looked for a few minutes like the day's business was a net loss. We found the obstacle early, however, and were able to continue after a little wait, thanks to the patience of the spectators."

THE MIND OF THE MOB.

Dr. Geo. E. Vincent, of the University of Chicago, will lecture on "The Mind of the Mob," at Elks' Opera house, Wednesday evening, December 30. Dr. Vincent has delivered this lecture in many of the large cities with great success. Read what the Pueblo (Colorado) Journal says of the lecturer:

"Dr. Vincent is unique on the lecture platform, and his scintillations of wit combined with his profundity of thought, alternately convulsed his auditors or set them to pondering upon old thoughts earnestly expressed, or new thoughts in a new guise, so new as to make them doubly impressive."

If you haven't the time to exercise regularly, Dr. Vincent's will prevent constipation. They induce a mild, easy, healthful action of the bowels without gripping. Ask your druggist for them, 25c.

A small dinner party at the Alvarado last evening was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wade and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Johnson.

A small dinner party was given to a few friends by Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Gursel last evening, the party being at the Alvarado hotel.

The Woodmen of the World will give a ball in the new armory December 31. Music will be furnished by the Cavanagh orchestra.

J. B. Roberts, who is visiting in this city from Denver, Colo., entertained a small party of friends at dinner at the Alvarado hotel last evening.

Mrs. Don Rankin of 709 N. Fourth street, will entertain from 2 until 6 o'clock New Year's afternoon, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Herbert Rankin of Lawrence, Kan.

Miss Frances D. Johnson of Parkersburg, W. Va., who has been the guest of her brother, Mr. E. Dana Johnson, left yesterday for Pasadena, Cal., where she will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay A. Hubbs entertained a few friends at dinner last night at the Alvarado hotel. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hodgins, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brogan, Miss Jean Hubbs, Mr. John Brogan.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman accompanied by their son, Clarence, and Miss E. L. Merrill, of Greeley, Colo., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Zirkhut of 410 East Central avenue for the past few days. The party left Tuesday evening for the Grand Canyon and Southern California.

The Crusade Day, observed by the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. David Stewart, 307 East Coal avenue. Mrs. D. Stewart and Mrs. Morse and others gave their experience during the crusade. Refreshments were served and the meeting was a very interesting one.

Invitations have been received by many friends in this city announcing the marriage of Rabbi J. H. Kaplan, formerly of the Temple Albert, and Miss Adele Hoffman of Selma, Ala. The wedding will take place in Selma on January 12, at the Temple Mishkan.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grunfeld have as their guests, Mr. James E. Spiegelberg and bride of New York city. Mrs. Spiegelberg was Miss Desauer, daughter of Judge Desauer, of New York city. Mr. Spiegelberg is well known in this city. The elder Mr. Spiegelberg and Mr. Grunfeld's father were in business together in Albuquerque years ago.

This afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Ifield, 701 West Copper was held the semi-monthly salon. Miss Mary Menaul gave the clography of "Chopin." Miss Menaul also rendered several of his compositions among which were: a waltz, ballad and polonaise. Light refreshments were served and the afternoon proved to be interesting as well as beneficial.

A dinner party was given at the Alvarado last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grunfeld in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spiegelberg of New York City who are spending a few weeks in this city. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grunfeld, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spiegelberg and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ifield.

Miss Madonna Rankin of 709 North Fourth street will entertain in honor of her sister, Mrs. Juanita, who has been attending college, and Mrs. Herbert Rankin, who is a guest, New Year's night. L. Stern, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grunfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ifield, and Mrs. Albert Grunfeld.

What promises to be a new departure in the way of social affairs for this season will be the bal poudre, which will be given on the evening of December 30th at Castle Hunning, the hosts being Mr. and Mrs. Arno Hunning and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owen. The castle will be beautifully decorated for the occasion and as the name of the affair suggests, the ladies attending will be attired in white gowns and with powdered hair. The large halls of the castle will be thrown open to a crowd of merry makers, and the affair promises to be one of the most unique as well as beautiful held in this city for some time past. The hosts and hostesses will receive, attired in costumes befitting the occasion.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Edgar Bass, 737 South Edith street, last Monday, when Miss Buelah Bass of this city and Mr. Wm. Wynn Meredith of Louisiana, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. McClain of the Methodist church, South. Only a few friends and the relatives witnessed the ceremony. The newly married couple will be at home to their friends after January 15, at 737 South Edith street.

The wedding of Mr. L. Kennedy of Lawrence, Kan., and Miss Grace Gertrude Creel of this city, occurred at the home of the bride's parents, 218 South High street, Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Shaw of the Baptist church, which was witnessed by the relatives and a few intimate friends. A dinner party followed the ceremony. Those present were: Misses Beale, Creel, Nan Creel, Mary Hilton, Folk, Hazel Zirkhut, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hyrie, Mr. Roy Cook and Ed Dellestia.

Open house was held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Weinman of 710 West Copper avenue, in honor of the birthdays of their daughter, Miss Annette, aged 11 years, and her grandfather, Mr. Sussman Weinman, aged 73 years. The spacious drawing room, where the guests were received, was beautifully festooned with holly and red ribbon. Refreshments were served during the afternoon. Mrs. Seymour Lewinson presiding at the table. Many friends called during the afternoon to pay their respects to Mr. Lewinson and Miss Annette.

A birthday was the occasion of a dinner party given last night by Manager Smithers, of the Alvarado, to a few friends. Mr. Smithers was born on a Christmas morn but nobody knows how long ago. He won't tell. A feature of the dinner given by him last night was a monstrous fruit cake, but instead of denoting the number of years he has seen the candles formed a question mark. The cake was a rich fruit cake and every member of the party who ate heartily of it dreamed last night that Mr. Smithers had lived a long, long time.

Following the reception tendered their many friends in their luxurious bachelor quarters at 705 North Fifth street, yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, fourteen members of the forestry service repaired to the Alvarado hotel where a banquet was served. The table around which the diners gathered, was tastefully decorated with holly, carnations and evergreen while in the center, standing on a base formed of cotton, was a Christmas tree, illuminated and decorated with tinsel and candy canes. Toasts were given and songs were sung. The following were present:

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Weinman entertained twenty-five friends at seven o'clock dinner last Sunday evening at their beautiful home on West Copper avenue. An elaborate feast was spread on a long table, which occupied both the dining room and drawing room, and the decorations of red with red carnations artistically placed around the large table, made a beautiful effect. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grunfeld, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Stern, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Neustadt, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Grunfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Noa Ifield, Mrs. B. Jaffa, Mrs. Max Schuster, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ifield, Mrs. B. Spitz, Dr. C. N. Chapman, Mrs. Albert Grunfeld, Mr. Herman Sweltzer, Mr. Walter Jaffa, Mr. Benj. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ifield, Mr. and Mrs. Max Schuster, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grunfeld, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. D. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Arno Hunning, Mrs. Beale Jaffa, Mr. and Mrs. David Weinman, Miss Julia Nusbaum and Miss Minnie Holtzman. Cards will be played and refreshments will be served.

The wedding of Mr. E. Dana Johnson and Miss Anna Grace Nichols took place in the First Presbyterian church Sunday at 5:30 o'clock p. m. Rev. Hugh A. Cooper performed the ceremony and Mr. Schwentker presided at the organ. The service was witnessed by only a few friends of the young people. The bride was attended by Miss Francis Johnson, sister of the groom, while Mr. Johnson was accompanied by Mr. H. B. Henling.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Nichols of Indiana, Pa., and has been a resident of Albuquerque for the past six years. Mr. Johnson came to Albuquerque about six years ago from Parkersburg, W. Va., where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Johnson, now reside. He has been a member of the editorial staff of the Morning Journal ever since he arrived in this city, and he is one of the best known writers of the Southwest. The young couple will be at home to their friends at 507 West Twelfth street, after January 1, 1909.

The Sodality of St. John's Episcopal church will entertain at a fancy mask ball Wednesday evening, December 30, in the Elks' ball room. #### THEATER FOR CHILDREN.

New York, Dec. 26.—Details of a theater in New York designed exclusively for the entertainment of children are soon to be announced, according to L. Frank Baum, playwright and author of fairy tales. It is hoped to open the edifice by October 1 next.

"We have $1,500,000 capital subscribed," said Mr. Baum. "All of this with the exception of $150,000 is New York capital. Mr. Carter Harrison of Chicago is interested, as well as society women in New York."

"The plan is to have an octagonal theater with seats in the form of the old pews which will seat about 1,400. On week days there will be 4 o'clock matinees. On Fridays, Saturdays and holidays there will be evening performances and morning matinees at 11 o'clock in addition to the afternoon performances. It is planned to set aside Monday for the free patronage of orphan asylums and similar institutions."

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Good Cough Medicine for Children The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

WOULD REDUCE TARIFF ON LUMBER

Members Serve Notice That Price Must Go Lower in New Schedule.

Washington, Dec. 26.—Nearly forty members of Congress from the great middle west section of the country have served concerted informal notice on the ways and means committee of the house, and on the speaker also, that they will not vote for any tariff bill which does not provide for the removal of the $2 duty on rough lumber.

This action, which has been taken quietly, because of a desire not to sensationalize the situation, it is believed was all that was necessary to insure the removal of the lumber duty.

The forty Republican members referred to, in justification of their course, state that the one paramount issue in their district has to do with the lumber duty, and that they are each solemnly pledged to bring about its removal. For them to vote for a tariff bill containing a lumber duty, no matter even if a small one, would be for them to vote themselves into retirement.

The speaker and the committee on ways and means will be quick to see the political importance of the situation, and if they have not previously favored free lumber, it is safe to say they will favor it from this time forward.

In fairness to the speaker and the committee, however, it may be said that there is nothing of record here which indicates they will favor the retention of the lumber duty. Such signs as there are point directly to the probability that they will favor its removal. When the lumber schedule was being considered by the ways and means committee, several weeks ago, the only member of the committee who stood up for the duty was Representative Fordney of Michigan.

It is generally conceded in both houses of Congress that the new tariff bill will be more scientifically drawn than any which has preceded it. This concession comes from the low tariff Democrats, as well as from the high and low tariff Republicans.

The ways and means committee has gone about the matter in a way that has absolutely hushed all criticism in this city, among those who are the best informed regarding what is going on, and while there is still a good deal of the old-fashioned stereotyped objection outside the city, it is precisely the opposite of the truth.

dicted that even this will cease as the true situation becomes known.

There has been much said about the failure of the consumers to appear before the committee hearings. People saying this are not familiar with the tariff history of the country. If familiar with it, they would know that at no time, since protection became an issue, have the consumers ever appeared before a ways and means committee preparatory to the drafting of a tariff bill.

In the very nature of the case, being unorganized, and their interest individually being very small, they cannot appear. All talk about their failure to appear now, however, and the sinister conclusions drawn from that failure, are utterly beside the mark.

The consumers will be represented now, as they ever have been in the past, by the members of Congress, more particularly by the members of the House of Representatives, who are close to the voters, and peculiarly susceptible to public opinion. The action already taken by the forty middle west Republicans, regarding the lumber duty, is but one illustration of how the representatives of the people will stand for the people's interests when the tariff bill is brought up for passage.

Membership on the ways and means committee is never changed, except where there are removals due to death or failure of re-election. The men now members of the committee who have been re-elected to the sixty-first Congress will be members of it next spring, when the tariff special session is held, and they will introduce the identical bill which they well be considering and preparing during the winter months preceding.

This has been the rule from the beginning, when the tariff has been revised at a special session of Congress. The ways and means committee is keeping a voluminous card index of all matters relating to the tariff. All the hearings are being classified and sorted and filed away by subjects, so as to be available on a moment's notice at any time. Several expert clerks are busy all the time classifying the voluminous testimony for card index purposes, and it is said that when the committee gets ready to begin the work of drafting a tariff bill it will have the testimony in more convenient form than ever before in the history of tariff bills.

AN EFFECTIVE SUGAR BEET MEN INDIGESTION REMEDY HAVE NOTHING TO FEAR

How to Relieve Indigestion in Five Minutes and Cure Stomach Trouble Forever.

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep a case of Diapiesin in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and regulate a sour stomach five minutes after.

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will readily see why they digest indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and prevent at once such miseries as belching of gas, eructations of sour undigested food, nausea, headaches, dizziness, constipation and other stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from indigestion with the common every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that there is no something else wrong, or believe there is a case of nervousness, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach or cancer.

This is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, gas and stomach poison, which will purely in the entire digestive tract and intestines, and besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapiesin.

One candy-like Triangule, taken after eating, will promptly digest all your food, the same as a strong, healthy stomach would do it.

Conception church, as it has been each year, and later at the high mass. It was also sung in several of the other churches in the city.

This Christmas hymn was probably sung in two-thirds of all the churches of the world at some time during the day. It has been so sung for centuries and is probably the most familiar hymn in the world, to all races and in all tongues.

This naive and beautiful Latin anthem is more ancient than its history—and goes back six or seven centuries. Saint Bonaventura, an Italian monk of the thirteenth century, who died in Lyons, France, in 1274, is credited with the authorship of the beginning:

Adeste fideles,
Laeti triumphantes,
Venite in Bethlehem.
Natum videte, Regem angelorum.

Venite adoremus,
Venite adoremus,
Venite adoremus Dominum.

Oh, come all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
Oh, come ye, oh, come ye to Bethlehem.
See the new-born Saviour, king of all the angels.

Oh, come let us adore Him,
Oh, come let us adore Him,
Oh, come let us adore Him, Christ our Lord.

Saint Bonaventura was a Franciscan scholastic philosopher, and was surnamed "Doctor Seraphicus." His preserved writings are of a dogmatic or didactic nature exclusively, and this hymn is not to be found among them. Doubtless it is to be referred to the seraphic side of his genius and temperament. Its classic Latin cadences are of such lyric felicity that one cannot help but believe they were written to the noble and touching melody on whose wings they have floated to our time. Surely this is not too fantastic a suggestion, when it is remembered that the original Greek music of the Delphic hymn to Apollo is preserved intact, and that certain familiar phrases of the Gregorian chant, used today in the Roman mass, are identical with Hebrew historians as the same which were sung in Solomon's temple many centuries before the time of Christ.

The hymn "Adeste Fideles" is not known to have been used in England earlier than the seventeenth century. The musical setting, as we have it in modern notation is ascribed by Novello to one John Reading, who was organist at Winchester Cathedral from 1675 to 1681, and later at Winchester college. Its real origin is lost in the mists of an antiquity which probably far antedates the middle ages, and the Latin verses to which it has been inseparably wedded.

Word-language reaches but the one people or race to whom it is directly addressed. But the language of music is universal—it is "understood of the people" instantly all the wide world over—it needs not to be written in Chinese Latin nor translated into many tongues—it is caught up from the heart and echoes on forever. That is why the "Adeste Fideles" has become the Christmas hymn of all the world.

NO SHORTAGE IN CLERK'S OFFICE

Expert Accountant, After Lengthy Examination, Makes Report in Bergere Case.

Santa Fe, Dec. 26.—A. H. Brodhead, the accountant who has just completed a thorough examination of the books and accounts in the office of the clerk of the district here, under the administration of A. M. Bergere, has made a report in which he shows that instead of a large shortage, as was alleged by a government accountant some time ago, there is only an apparent discrepancy of less than $200, and possibly no discrepancy at all, after all credits have been passed upon. Mr. Bergere brought suit for an accounting of the affairs of his office, after an expert had reported that a large discrepancy existed. The examination made by Mr. Brodhead under order of the court, shows that while the system of bookkeeping used in the office was not modern, there was no shortage of consequence and fully vindicated Mr. Bergere of any such charges.

INVENTS NEW BULLET TO DESTROY BALLOONS.

Berlin, Dec. 26.—A Gottingen gunsmith has invented an expanding bullet adapted for the destruction of dirigible balloons. The bullet can be fired from the regular infantry rifle. The expansion of the bullet is much less pronounced and occurs with far less resistance than that of the dum-dum bullet, the use of which created so much criticism during the Boer war. With this new projectile the expansion is so quick and widespread that the hole torn in a gas bag is wide and ragged, and the object of destroying the balloon is accomplished more readily.
