DANBURY HATTERS CASE AFFIRMED BY U. S. COURT OF APPEALS

Verdict Gives Manufacturer Judgment Amounting to $272,000 for Damages
Resulting From Boycott.

LABOR ORGANIZATION MADE RESPONSIBLE

Judge Cox Holds Combination in Restraint of Trade and in Violation of Interstate Commerce Law.

New York, Dec. 18.—The United States court of appeals today decided the famous Danbury hatters case in favor of D. E. Lowe, the plaintiff, and against the United Hatters of North America. The court affirmed a judgment in favor of Mr. Lowe and against the hatters organization, for $272,129.

With interest and costs, judgment now amounts to $272,000. At the first trial, held in 1909, the plaintiff obtained a judgment for $252,240.

Sustaining the second judgment, Judge Cox declared that it was no longer debatable "that the anti-trust act is applicable to such combinations as are alleged in the complaint," and that the act made no distinction between classes of combinations of individuals.

The court held that it had been clearly established that the plaintiffs were engaged in an interstate business and that the defendants are members of a trade union and affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, "one of the objects of the latter organization being to assist its members in any 'justifiable boycott' and with financial help in the event of a strike or lockout."

It was shown at the trial that in March, 1901, the United Hatters had conspired to intimidate the factory of the plaintiff, and that Mr. Lowe had been informed by the union officials that the hatters "would resort to the usual methods" in case their plan should meet with opposition. On July 5, 1901, the plaintiffs' employees were directed to go on a strike, and it is claimed that almost immediately a boycott was established. The plaintiff asserts that this measure "converted a profit of $27,000 in 1901 into losses ranging from $17,000 in 1902 to $2,800 in 1904."

Judge Cox said in conclusion of his findings:

"No one disputes the proposition that labor unions are lawful. All must admit that they are not only lawful, but highly beneficial when honestly and fairly conducted, but like all other combinations, irrespective of their object and purpose, they must obey the law."

CASE BEFORE FEDERAL COURT FOR MORE THAN TEN YEARS

Danbury, Conn., Dec. 18.—The so-called "Danbury Hatters" case has been before the courts for more than ten years. Once it was before the United States supreme court. Of the 40 original defendants, more than thirty have since died and two have gone insane. The American Federation of Labor supported the hatters, and prominent labor officials, including Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, gave testimony at some of the trials.

A walkout of union hatters employed by D. E. Lowe & Co. in 1901 was the beginning of the case. The factory up to that time and since has been conducted on a non-union basis. In 1902, D. E. Lowe & Co. brought suit against Martin Lawler and 239 other members of the hatters' union, alleging a boycott that was in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, in that interstate commerce was restrained. The company alleged that its business had been seriously injured by the boycott and claimed $250,000 damages.

Soon after the suit was brought, the American Federation of Labor decided to stand behind the defendants and to reimburse them against any loss. The Anti-Boycott Society of America supported the plaintiffs, so the litigation in reality developed into a legal battle between these two organizations.

After many delays, the case was assigned for trial in the United States district court but was not then tried, being taken to the supreme court of the United States for an interpretation. In February, 1908, the supreme court handed down a decision in effect that the allegations constituted a violation of the Sherman law. The trial started in October, 1909, before the United States district court at Hartford. After a trial of twenty-seven weeks, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiffs of $74,000. Judge Platt, now deceased, awarded triple damages, in accordance with the Sherman law, so that with costs the total amount was $224,340.

The verdict was set aside by the court of appeals and a new trial ordered. Judge Martin, of Vermont, heard the second trial in the United States district court at Hartford, and on October 11, 1912, the jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff of

COMPLAINTS TO BE INVESTIGATED BY GOVERNOR

Union Delegates March in a
Body to Colorado State
House and Present Grievances to Chief Executive.

Denver, Dec. 18.—After having provided for the appointment of a special committee to aid Governor Ammons in his investigation of the charges made against certain members of the state militia by strikers, the special committee of the allied trade unions of Colorado adjourned tonight. The convention had been called to devise ways and means of giving aid to the striking coal miners of the United Mine Workers of America, and the executive board of the Colorado State Federation of Labor was given blanket authority to handle the situation as seemed best to it, even to the calling of a state-wide strike.

As a result of today's march upon the state capital by the union delegates and sympathizers who protested to Governor Ammons against the action of the militia in the strike zone, the committee to make charges against the militia officers and to produce the proof of the unions' allegations, will be appointed probably tomorrow. Authorization of this committee was given just before adjournment and because of the lateness of the hour the chairman did not make the appointment at the meeting.

TWO MEN ARRESTED ON TRAIN-WRECKING CHARGE

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 18.—Detectives arrested two men here today whom they suspected of causing the wreck of the New England express at Wickliffe, last Friday night, on which President A. H. Smith, of the New York Central line, was a passenger. The officers also say the attempted wreck of the St. Louis express, at Lyndale, last Saturday afternoon, and the attack on John Kassarow, a Big Four detective, last night, were also committed by a gang of which the men arrested were members.

The prisoners refused to give their names.

MANY CRITICISMS ARE UNJUST TO COURTS

Chief Justice Cullen Resents
Attacks by Former Presidents
Roosevelt and Taft as Unwarranted by Facts.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 18.—Criticism of courts made by former Presidents Taft and Roosevelt, were termed "unjustified" tonight by Chief Justice Edgar M. Cullen, of the New York state court of appeals. "The justice will retire in January under the age law. His remarks were made at a banquet given him by the Albany county bar association.

Technicities, red tape and imperfect jury systems, he declared, were responsible for many alleged miscarriages of justice for which the bench was held responsible. In this connection, he called attention to the Shaw case, saying the whole responsibility for the miscarriage of justice in this case was due to the action of the jury.

Judge Cullen declared he was favorable to the appointment rather than to the election of a judge.

"Criticism of the courts have been greatly fostered by the public addresses of the two living ex-presidents of this country, both of whom I have the honor of knowing and both of whom, in their personal characters, I highly respect," he declared. "I resent their criticisms, not because I believe courts more than any other human institution should be exempt from criticism, but because I think in both cases their criticisms are unjustified."

WIFE OF MURDERED CHINAMAN ON TRIAL

Chicago, Dec. 18.—A jury to try the white wife of Charlie Sing, a Chinese, for his murder, was completed in Judge McDonald's court here today.

Friends and countrymen of the deceased were conspicuous in the court room. They were particularly interested in the appearance of the defendant, who was garbed in black, a color contrasting sharply with her ashen hair.

Mrs. Sing was found, apparently unconscious by the side of her husband, who was stabbed to death in his home. The room was in disorder and Mrs. Sing told the police that men who were strangers to her, made the attack.

No Permit Trust Discovered.

Washington, Dec. 18.—There is no permit trust and the price of the permit is largely determined by the size of crops in the United States and Spain, according to investigators of the department of justice who have concluded an inquiry into the subject.

Two Bodies Yet in Vulcan Mine.

New Castle, Colo., Dec. 18.—The Vulcan mine, in which thirty-seven miners were killed by a gas and dust explosion Tuesday morning, still retains the bodies of Roy McLean and Norman Murphy.

MONOPOLY IS ONLY QUESTION IN CASE

London, Dec. 18.—The question involved in the government's suit to dissolve the United Shoe Machinery company is simply one of monopoly and not whether the alleged monopoly is oppressive, according to Judge Putnam, who is presiding at the trial with Judges Taft and Ivory.

The defense has endeavored to show that the clauses in the contracts operated to the advantage of the shoe manufacturer and that the system was beneficial rather than oppressive as the government contended.

"Where a party had a monopoly might operate it in a benevolent manner today and tomorrow in an oppressive manner," said Judge Putnam. "There is nothing in the law which permits one person to compel another to do what is to the other person's advantage."

CARABAO INCIDENT IN PRESIDENT'S HANDS

Washington, Dec. 18.—Investigation of the Carabao incident, the administration's Philippine policy at the recent annual dinner of the Military Order of Carabao will result in some action by the president.

Secretary Garrison said Secretary Daniels joined today in framing a report to President Wilson upon the incidents of the dinner and afterward, Secretary Garrison discussed the subject with the president.

Later it was announced some action would be taken, "emanating from the White House." In the meantime, neither of the secretaries will discuss the incident.

SUFFRAGISTS NAME LOBBY COMMITTEE

New York, Dec. 18.—The National American Woman Suffrage association announced tonight that at the last meeting of the officers it was voted to ask the following women to be members of the congressional committee of the National association for the coming year.

Miss Lucy Burns, of Brooklyn, chairman; Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, of New York; Miss Allen Page of Morristown, N. J.; Mrs. Debra Breckinridge, of Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. Medill McCormick, of Chicago, and Mrs. Charles Beard, of New York.

It was explained that Miss Burns had announced that while she would remain a member of the committee she did not feel able to retain the chairmanship, and that Mrs. Catt will be unable to serve as a member because of a pressure of other work in the woman's suffrage cause. The officers of the association, therefore, will choose shortly a chairman and a member to take the place of Mrs. Catt.

RUN CONTINUES ON CENTRAL BANK OF MEXICO

Regarded as Certain That President Huerta Will Make
Notes Legal Tender
Throughout Republic.

Mexico City, Dec. 18.—The representatives of the banks again met at the finance department today to work out their plan to save the Central bank and its dependencies in the states. There is little doubt that their plan will be adopted and that President Huerta will issue a decree making state bank notes legal tender throughout the country.

Long lines of note-holders formed in front of the Central bank today, but orderly paying and the exchange of only 20 per cent of the notes handed in, again served to prolong the hopes of those who have thinned their pockets in the past.

The acute financial situation is not greater than that of the military situation, although no news of important field operations has been received. The rebels in all quarters are holding their own and it is regarded as probable that those now concentrated at Victoria will soon move southward against Tampico. Advances up to his neck tonight indicated that Tampico has been free from attack for several days. No rebels were in sight at that hour. The government stores of ammunition in the capital, it is understood, have been dangerously reduced and failure to receive a commitment from Japan is said to be causing concern at the palace.

SUFFRAGETTES TRY TO BLOW UP JAIL IN LONDON

Prison Where Militants Have Been Incarcerated Is Shaken
but Not Seriously Damaged by Explosion.

London, Dec. 18.—An attempt, attributed to the suffragettes, was made tonight to blow up part of the south-east wall of Holloway jail by the explosion of two bombs. The bombs are believed to have been secreted in the garden of a house adjoining the jail. The part of the wall attacked was near the cells in which suffragettes are usually confined.

Miss Rachel Peace, sentenced to eighteen months for arson, is the only suffragette at present in the jail. It is alleged that she has been subjected to forcible feeding, and at recent militant meetings angry references were made to her treatment, coupled with threats of revenge.

The explosion did no damage to the jail but the surrounding high wall, where it abuts from the garden was badly damaged that it must be rebuilt.

No arrests have been made and apparently there are no clues to the culprits, but it is said that the neighboring houses have been occupied recently by Mrs. Patti, an ardent militant, and has been utilized as a rendezvous for suffragettes to signal to the inmates of the prison.

The force of the explosion shattered some of the windows in the neighborhood.

WASHINGTON LOOKS COMPLACENTLY ON DEVELOPMENTS

Stringency of Money in Mexico
City Regarded as Favorable to Early Settlement of Conditions in Republic.

Washington, Dec. 18.—State department officials expressed the opinion today that conditions in Mexico were "more favorable." No information was given as to the nature of the changes in the situation regarded as indicating improvement. Much interest is expressed here in the condition of the finances of Mexico as indicated by the reports of heavy withdrawal of funds from various banks and the proposals by bankers providing for a decree making state bank notes legal tender throughout the republic, a guarantee fund raised by state banks, and government guarantee of bank notes.

The opinion was expressed here that the Huerta government now might receive financial support from large land and mine owners of northern Mexico who hitherto have allied themselves with none of the contending factions. It is thought these men might ally themselves with Huerta as a result of the confiscation of some of their property by General Villa, the constitutionalist leader.

MEXICAN FAMILIES COMPELLED TO PAY VILLA

Rebel Commander Collects
From One Thousand to Five Thousand Dollars From Refugees at Chihuahua.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 18.—More refugees who arrived at the border today reported that before Gen. Francisco Villa, the rebel leader, allowed the train to start from Chihuahua, Mexico, he exacted from the Mexican families sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. The refugees were mostly Americans and wealthy Mexican families who had closed their places of business since the rebel occupation of the city.

They said General Villa permitted those who had money to board the train, but as it was about to leave he personally appeared and ordered assessments. One Mexican merchant said he got off the train to avoid paying $5,000, but later decided to pay the demand rather than remain in Chihuahua. The Americans said they had been permitted to go unimpeded. The only business transacted in Chihuahua at present is that pertaining to the confiscation of property by the rebels, according to the refugees.

George C. Carruthers, United States consular agent at Torreon, who is on a special mission to see Villa, conferred with some of the refugees. It is understood Mr. Carruthers was to talk personally with Villa in regard to recent events in Chihuahua. Rebel headquarters at Juarez had advised today that the federal troops, now at Ojinaga on the border opposite Presidio, Texas, would attempt soon to interrupt communication between Juarez and Chihuahua. The rebels were convinced that any move by General Carruthers' federal forces would be to cut Villa off from the border. Word came from Ojinaga that the federal forces were carrying several months' provisions across the United States border.

VILLA DECLARES HE WILL PROTECT ALL FOREIGNERS

Chihuahua, Mexico, Dec. 18.—General Francisco Villa, the rebel military chief, issued a notice from the state capital today that he would guarantee the rights of all foreigners and all Mexicans who have given no support to the Huerta government. He provided for the severest penalties should any of his soldiers attempt to loot stores or violate the rights of non-combatants.

General Villa wished it to be known that he was in every way in accord with the wishes of the United States, that the persons and property of foreigners would be respected. At the same time he said it would be his policy both in Chihuahua and during his campaign southward to deal sympathetically with all people who lend aid to General Huerta. He asserted that the revolution had progressed to a point where its success and the downfall of the Huerta government was assured.

"It has been necessary to deal promptly and perhaps harshly with certain elements which have attempted to block the progress of the revolution," said General Villa, "particularly in reference to the Spaniards, whom it was necessary to expel. This has brought about great hardships in the future the policy and the determination of those who are leading the revolt against Huerta will be clearly understood. General Carranza and myself are in complete accord."

A wireless station is being installed.

OPERATORS DELIVER WARNING TO STRIKERS

Cyrenet, Mich., Dec. 18.—The mining companies in the copper strike district today decided to give the men until the first of the year to return to work. After that date, the vacancies will be filled with outside men. It was announced that the strikers were limited by the operators would have expired tomorrow.

A series of mass meetings have been arranged to appeal to the strikers to give up the struggle. At meetings held today only few strikers attended, opposition mass meetings by the unions attracting larger crowds.

Frederick, Tex., Dec. 18.—An exchange of shots between Mexican and American soldiers on the American side of the line two miles west of Frederick, resulted in the death today of Louis Orcego, a federal regular from the army of General Merced.

The Mexicans fired the first shot. Orcego, who lived several hours, admitted after being shot, that he and his companion had crossed to the American side with a note and that when they were halted by the American sentries, they fired.

As soon as the shooting across the border became known at United States army headquarters, a warning was sent to the federal commander that the shooting must not be repeated.

According to eye-witnesses, the American soldiers on duty near where the shooting took place, were informed that federal soldiers were hiding in a hut 300 yards from the river, on the American side.

The Americans went toward the hut to investigate. Two Mexicans rushed from the hut and started running toward the river. The patrol called to them to halt. The only answer was a shot from a rifle of one of the fleeing Mexicans. Then the Americans returned the fire and one federal dropped. The other, continued firing as he ran.

THIEVES MAKE HAUL FROM FREIGHT CARS

St. Louis, Dec. 18.—After driving off the train crew which surprised them at work, four thieves early this morning escaped with $10,000 worth of goods taken from freight cars in the yards of the Vandallia railroad, in East St. Louis, Ill.

Several wagons were used to cart away the plunder, which consisted of automobile tires and accessories and men's furnishings goods.

The thieves were discovered at work by James Spencer, foreman of the Terminal Railroad association. At the point of a revolver he was driven back to a switching engine and the engineer ordered to "move on." A mile from the scene of the robbery the engine stopped and Spencer telephoned the police. When they arrived at the railroad yards the thieves were gone.

FREIGHT DERAILED TO SAVE PASSENGER

July 18, Dec. 18.—Automatic derailment apparatus saved a Chicago-bound express train from a head-on crash into a runaway freight train near here today on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad. Airbrakes on the freight train, which was composed of coal cars, failed to work and the train got beyond control. After it had passed the second stop signal the derailment switch automatically was opened and the runaway freight was shot into the ditch in time to let the passenger train by.

The freight engine was overturned and the engineer and fireman were buried beneath tons of coal. A rescue crew dug them out. They were only slightly injured.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 18.—Exploration of certain payments made by the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad to newspapermen and former legislators, was sought at a hearing before the state public service commission today.

George H. Sargent, a newspaper reporter, testified that he received money from the railroad in return for a weekly letter which he mailed to newspapers in small towns.

John A. Alarby, who described himself as a "legislative messenger," said he had received $750 a year for "following legislation."

Information regarding card games, alleged to have been conducted by employees of the New Haven company at a hotel at which members of the legislature were said to have been allowed to win large sums of money, was sought from Henry E. Bowden, another "messenger." Bowden declined to answer questions on the ground the answers might incriminate him.

WOMAN FURNISHES AID FOR ALLEGED MURDERER

Man Accused of Killing Mrs. Caroline C. Turner Has Lawyer Provided for His Defense.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE.
Tomb River, N. J., Dec. 18.—Society people of the Lakewood colony were interested spectators in the supreme court tonight at the trial of Joseph Moriarty, alias William J. Leelan, a stenographer, whose defense on the charge of murdering Mrs. Caroline C. Turner, in 1911, is being supported by Mrs. Jasper Lynch, who, having been in the prisoner's innocence, has employed counsel to argue his case. The prosecution had concluded its case tonight. No one saw Mrs. Turner killed. Two physicians testified today that death was due to suffocation, not to blow from a club, as the authorities believed at the time. Moriarty's defense, it is understood, will be that a party of automobilists killed Mrs. Turner and carried her body into the woods, where it was discovered. Testimony was introduced today to show that Moriarty quarreled with his wife on the night of the murder, fled from the home to avoid the police and that investigators of Mrs. Turner's death found near Moriarty's home the lid of a cardboard box which the woman had carried, containing needle work. The cover of the box was found at a spot where the prisoner is alleged to have told witnesses that he had killed the woman.

RAILROAD INDICTED ON REBATING CHARGE

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE.

RAILROAD MEN HELD UP BY MASKED BANDITS

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE.
Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 18.—On a charge of rebating brought by the interstate commerce commission, the Wichita Falls & Northwestern railroad, recently acquired by the Missouri, Kansas & Texas, has been indicted in the federal court, according to W. H. Howard, assistant United States attorney, who was here today presenting the case to a grand jury at Lawton. It is charged that the Wichita Falls & Northwestern agreed to furnish a place on its track at Lawton for the unloading of material for public works there and having no place of its own, rented ground for the purpose. Officials of the government, it is said, looked upon the alleged payment of rental money as a rebate.

WOOD'S ASSIGNMENT IS NOT DETERMINED

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE.
Washington, Dec. 18.—The four-year detail of Major General Leonard Wood, as commander-in-chief of staff of the army, will expire on April 22, next. As Secretary Garrison already has announced that General Wood will relinquish the office there has been some speculation at the department as to what assignment General Wood will receive. It has been suggested in some quarters that the command of the department of the east, from which Major General Barry will be relieved next March would be an assignment for the retiring chief of staff in keeping with his present high position.

It was noted by army officers that the orders issued today recognized the increased importance of the artillery districts of the country, to which for the first time general officers are to be assigned. Brigadier General Vesper going to the Pacific coast, and Brigadier General Bailey to the north Atlantic district.

MACKAY DISAGREES WITH POSTMASTER GENERAL

President of Postal Telegraph-Cable Company Does Not Believe Government Ownership Would Succeed Financially.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)
New York, Dec. 18.—Charles H. Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, being asked today what he thought of Postmaster General Burleson's recommendation that the government take over the telephone and telegraph lines, said: "The postmaster general is mistaken in his idea that telephone companies are subject to the post road act of congress of 1886. The supreme court of the United States in the Richmond case (174 U. S. 761) held that they are not. "In denouncing the telegraph business as being monopolistic in its nature, he is also mistaken. If there ever has been more continuous, keen, even bitter competition than that between the Postal and Western Union, I will be pleased to know when and where."

"The money question, however, is the main question, since $500,000,000 would not be a look-in. The Bell Telephone company alone would demand more than that. Then there are the thousands of independent telephone companies and farm lines scattered all over the country. The entire bill, including telegraph lines, would be about $2,500,000,000, which is about two-thirds of the national debt at the close of the civil war, when many intelligent men despaired of the solvency of the republic."

"Nor is that the worst, for, judging from past experience, that vast sum would not be entirely lost, because under government management, the operating expenses, year by year, would exceed the income."

"One of the worst complications that would arise, would be in regard to the contracts between the telegraph company and the railroads. England

CHAVEZ ASKS FOR MILWAUKEE STAGES BOUT HERE NEW YEAR'S DAY WOLGAST-WHITE BATTLE TONIGHT

Trinidad Boy, Through Manager A. Ross, Wires Mark
Levy for Contest With Some Good Boxer.

Through his new manager, A. Ross, of Denver, Benito Chavez, of Trinidad, yesterday wired Mark Levy, director of the New Mexico Athletic club, asking for a bout here with some good boxer on New Year's day. The manager of Chavez, in his message stated that his boy had no doubt for that day and would like to fight in Albuquerque if arrangements for a contest could be made. Director Levy will decide today whether or not he can use Chavez.

It is certain that the Trinidad boy, who started on his climb up the ladder towards the bantamweight championship in this city, would prove a big card here, where he is popular. Since his break with Louis Newman, Chavez seems to have lost out with the Denver boxing promoters, for after his recent battle in Denver, with Jimmy Fox, of San Francisco, Fox was rematched with another contest boxer, Chavez being refused a return match, it is said.

NO REDEMPTION OF RIVERS THROUGH BEATING CROSS

Boxing Critics Declare Mexican Lightweight Is Neither Better Nor Worse as Result of Recent Victory.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL
Los Angeles, Dec. 18.—A great deal of chatter about the "redemption of Joe Rivers" is now heard in fight circles. As a matter of fact, there has been no special redemption of the Mexican since his recent victory over Louch Cross. He is neither better nor worse than he has always been.

Joe could murder any lightweight in the ring if his courage were always on the job and his condition was right. In this case he had no fear and his condition was wonderful.

From the day he went into training Abdul, his Turk trainer, had both eaten and slept with him; in fact, the Mexican was never out of Abdul's sight from the minute the training camp was established until he stepped into the ring to fight Cross.

His surveillance of Rivers was made rather easy for the reason that Joe insists upon having someone sleep with him. It is a fact that the Mexican is literally afraid of the dark.

A fact never before confessed is that the Mexican has a bad nose, a relic of a punch in his pork and bean days. In order to get him in as fine condition as possible for the Cross fight his manager took him to a physician with the intention of having his nose repaired. The medical man recommended against it. He said that were Joe's nose operated upon the first hard blow would make his condition worse than ever. His condition was otherwise so splendid, however, that he did not suffer in any way for wind during the fight.

Rivers is anxious to get another chance at Willie Ritchie. He feels that he could beat the champion. Whether his conclusions are just or unjust, Rivers blames a lot of his defeat by Ritchie upon the San Francisco men who acted as his seconds. He says they didn't understand him.

WELSH FORCED TO FIGHT TO ESCAPE STARVATION

Interesting Career of English
Lightweight Champion Who Meets Johnny Dundee at
New Orleans on January 1.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)
New Orleans, Dec. 18.—Freddie Welsh, English lightweight champion, who battles Johnny Dundee, of New York, American championship aspirant, on New Year's day in this city, is one of the picturesque members of the fight fraternity. Nothing was further from his thoughts than becoming a professional until he was down and out completely.

He had at his home, Pontypriid, Wales, done a little amateur boxing, but he never imagined that he had enough "stuff" to hold his own as a pro. He came to this country about eight years ago with some very shabby clothes, rings on his fingers and a couple of medals he had won as an amateur, and was a pretty classy young man. The story goes that he slept so sound after getting ashore that everything he had was stolen from a waterfront hotel, and the best the owner of the place could do for the little Briton was to rustle up a pair of overalls and a very ancient shirt. With this outfit, Welsh started out to make his fortune, and as he has amassed a goodly share of coin and safely stowed it away, it can be said that he went from overalls to riches.

Tugged in his overalls the little Welshman started out to make a living. He got a job at a New York gym, and his ability to box and wrestle brought him in $6 per week at the start. Gradually he improved in his boxing and finally decided to start out as a real pro and get something while the getting was good. He figured in several no-decision bouts in Philadelphia and elsewhere, and while he showed ability, he did not start any fires in the ring.

During the early part of 1907 he campaigned in Wales and England. He won all his fights in that campaign except one he had with Jim Driscoll, which he lost on points. Welsh's success abroad attracted promoters in this country, and they made flattering offers for him to return.

He accepted, and shortly after that his fight began to shine. It was not until Welsh met Paddy McFarland, however, that he became a national celebrity.

The three close arguments between the pair naturally has left grounds for a dispute that undoubtedly will be fought out at some later date. Incidentally, he took on Abe Attell in a ten-round catchweight affair, and in this contest Welsh showed speed and science of a high order.

Welsh's only setback was a twenty-round decision gained over him by Matt Wells at London, early this year. Welsh has claimed that he was entitled to a draw with Wells, and he cites the fact that Wells was more nearly a welter than he was a lightweight when they clashed. The English title went to the winner.

AGED ROSWELL MAN CONVICTED OF ASSAULT

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)

Harbert, aged 65, formerly one of the most respected citizens of this city, was convicted yesterday on a charge of criminal assault upon Winifred Bonham, thirteen years old. ### DANNY MATTHEWS CINCINNATI TEAM STOPS GAGE IN FIFTH ROUND TO HAVE HERZOG FOR MANAGER

Flagstaff Lumberjack Makes
Short Work of Arizona
Lightweight in Scheduled
20-Round Go at Prescott.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Prescott, Ariz., Dec. 18.—In a bout that was scheduled to go twenty rounds, and which was for the bantamweight championship of Arizona, Danny Matthews, of Flagstaff, Ariz., a lumberjack, tonight stopped Frankie Gage, of Tucson, in the fifth round. Gage quit, claiming he had broken the thumb of his right hand in the second round. Referee Harlett thereupon declared Matthews the winner.

Gage started out in whirlwind fashion, but Matthews exhibited unusual coolness under the onslaught of the Tucson boxer and before the round was a minute old, Matthews had Gage on the defensive. From that time on it was Matthews' fight.

The much talked of cleverness of Gage was never in evidence. Matthews used a vicious right hook and left jab effectively and with the exception of the second round, which was even, had Gage apparently at his mercy.

Matthews drew blood from Gage's nose in the second round and Gage recrocated in the third. The result of the fight was a distinct surprise to the large crowd of fans, since Gage ruled a two to one favorite over the Flagstaff boy. However the short end was eagerly sought by many of Matthews' friends.

Matthews, who is said to be a corner, following tonight's battle, that he was open to meet any lightweight in the world at 125 pounds. It is said negotiations are now on with Denver promoters for the matching of Matthews with Stanley Young.

LAS VEGAS BOWLERS MAY COME HERE TO MEET JUNK'S SELECTS

A strong effort is being made by W. C. Jungbluth, manager of the crick, Junk's Selects, bowling champions of Albuquerque, to bring the team of the Las Vegas Elks to this city for a match on the local alleys. Mr. Jungbluth is in correspondence with the Meadow City bowlers, and is hopeful that a battle between the two teams may be arranged for the near future.

In the recent match between the Junks and the Elks, played by telephone, the former team won a decisive victory. Such matches, however, are always unsatisfactory, as there can be no satisfactory test with two teams playing on different alleys and under different conditions. For that reason it is hoped that arrangements can be made for a contest between the best teams of the two cities playing on the same alleys. There is no doubt that such an exhibition would draw a big crowd to the Drummer alleys.

If satisfactory arrangements can be made with the Las Vegas team, Manager Jungbluth plans to bring the Beaton team here on the same night to play the second team of the Junks.

KANSAS NO LONGER A CYCLONE STATE

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADERS WIRE)
Topeka, Kan., Dec. 18.—Kansas no longer is a "cyclone state," declared E. S. Lewis, state insurance commissioner, today, in refusing to permit tornado insurance companies to raise their rates.

Mr. Lewis cited the report of the observer of the United States weather bureau who is quoted as saying: "Of all the great disasters attributed to tornadoes in various parts of the United States not one occurred in Kansas. It has been computed that for any specific area of one mile square, the probability of being visited by a tornado is less than one-sixteenth of one per cent per century."

PUBLIC EYE FOCUSED ON CANDIDATES FOR 'ROUND THE WORLD TOUR HONORS WHOSE NAMES APPEAR IN SUNDAY'S LIST

Two More Days to Join the Starters in the Race to Girdle the Globe; Send in Your Name and Tell Your Friends to Save Their Cash Slips.

Who will head the list of candidates Sunday morning? This is the question which most vitally concerns a large number of young women who have identified their intention of becoming candidates in the Morning Journal's Round the World and Tropical Tour campaign. The public eye will be focused on the first list and YOUR name should be included in that list if you would reap the greatest amount of benefit at the beginning of the campaign when every moment's time is worth hours at the close. If you have not yet sent in your application, do so at once, so you will have an even start with your competitors.

The first list of merchants whose cash slips will be honored for points will be published Sunday morning, also. Watch for it and tell your friends to save ALL their cash slips. Even after the list is published do not throw away any of them. The first list of merchants' names will be complete and new names will probably be added daily. The cash slips which are now in hand may be good for points a week from now. Save them ALL and in stores where cash slips are not used on every cash sale, ASK FOR THEM. These stores have been supplied with special cash slips to be given on every cash purchase and YOUR friends are entitled to them. Ask for them in every instance where a cash purchase is made.

With the announcement of the first list of candidates on Sunday morning the Morning Journal's Round the World and Tropical Tour campaign will start in earnest. Already many of the candidates have started an active campaign for subscriptions and when the announcement is made Sunday morning some surprises may be sprung with regard to the leaders.

While Sunday's list will include probably a large number of names which have been sent in by friends not all of these will actively participate in the campaign till the final undoubtedly many of them will withdraw later. As it will be almost impossible to determine from the first list of candidates how long they are going to be the most active of the more formidable opponents.

Every candidate has an equal chance. The early start of course is desirable from the candidate's viewpoint, but unquestionably there will be some whose names will not be included in the first list who later may develop into active campaigners.

Nominations Still Open.
The publication of the first list does not mean that nominations have closed. Names will be added from time to time throughout the campaign. Nominations will be accepted at any time without cost or obligation on the part of anyone. But those who have their names in by Sunday morning will have the advantage of appearing first in the list of the fact that they are in the campaign to win. They will have the advantage of winning the cream from the field, while those who enter later will have to be content with what is left.

YOU have two days in which to get your name in Sunday morning's announcement. It will be advantageous to you in various ways to be represented in the list. If your name is included in the list without your knowledge you will know that some friend has nominated you and has a personal interest in your success. Do not allow a sense of false pride to make you untrue to the confidence imposed in you by your friends. Start your campaign immediately and show them that you are worthy of the trust they have placed in you.

Start Your Campaign NOW.
Right now is the proper time to start your campaign. Do not wait for the list of candidates. Begin now letting your friends know that you are a candidate and wish to win and get them to save their support for you. You will have that much advantage over those who will not be represented in the first list of who

FEDERAL COURT TO CONSIDER SPECIAL CASE TODAY

Secrecy Shrouds Pending Prospective Suit to Be Presented by James R. Garfield at Santa Fe.

(SPECIAL DESPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Santa Fe, Dec. 18.—Considerable speculation was being indulged in here tonight as to what the special adjourned term of the United States district court, called for tomorrow in this city, with Judge John H. Coffey, of the western district of Oklahoma, with headquarters at Guthrie, presiding, would take up for consideration.

It is known that James R. Garfield, former secretary of the interior, and a prominent attorney of Cleveland, O., who arrived here late tonight, is to present a matter before the court for consideration and prospective action, but the nature of the case could not be determined.

Mr. Garfield, when asked about the matter tonight, declined to make any statement, and attorneys with whom he conferred on arrival here, likewise exhibited a sphinx-like silence.

'UNCLE JOE' POSES AS PROPHET OF DEEP GLOOM

Former Republican Speaker Says Democrats Are Like Doctor Who Threw Patients Into Fits.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)
Washington, Dec. 18.—"Uncle Joe" Cannon came to town this week and began to howl calamity. He has been signs of an approaching public on the Wabash.

"Business has fallen off from 20 to 40 per cent in the last twelve months," said Mr. Cannon. "There is not a gut-edge stock listed on the market, either railroad or industrial, that has not shrank in value."

"The present administration came into power pledged to reverse the lever. All business, big and little, was going ahead when the administration began. President Wilson reversed the lever. The democratic congress reversed the revenue policy of the government. These reversals have slackened business so that it has almost stopped in places."

"Our democratic friends recognize that their tariff law has not improved business conditions and they are now pushing through a currency bill by caucus pressure on the theory that it will relieve the embarrassment caused by the Underwood tariff. They are preparing to revise the Sherman anti-trust law as a means of clearing away the embarrassment that may follow the enactment of their currency bill."

"I suppose they will have some other remedy for the failure of their new anti-trust laws and will finally follow the policy of the old doctor who, not knowing what ailed his patient, concluded to throw him into fits because he was strong on fits. The democrats have almost thrown the 'patient' into fits now."

Mr. Cannon was asked if he had come here to help the republican national committee to get together for a united pull. He said:

"I am not a member of the committee. These gentlemen may plan together to get together from now until June, 1914, but the rank and file of the old protective phylax are already together and they are not asking for any new political nostrum. It is only the man who has money to throw away who has new diseases and looks for new remedies."

"A rich man may have neuritis, but a poor man has only rheumatism. He can't afford to have neuritis. Well, the people now find that they have the old-fashioned rheumatism in their business conditions and they are ready to go back to the old remedy which has been effective in cases of business rheumatism in the past."

"Judging from present sentiment the republicans will be satisfied with a simple platform promising a return to protection and prosperity."

Representative Mann, the republican house leader, also attempted to throw a damper on the democratic legislative program by asserting in a speech that the business of the country is in a bad condition, owing to the passage of the tariff bill. He opined that "the celebrated and world-wide advertised Underwood tariff has not reduced the cost of living as was promised."

GENERAL TERRAZAS MAY SEEK REFUGE IN LOS ANGELES

Multi-Millionaire Land Baron of Mexico Fears for Safety of Family, Who Are Held Prisoners by Villa.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL)
El Paso, Tex., Dec. 18.—When General Luis Terrazas, the multi-millionaire land baron of Chihuahua, who fled to El Paso when the rebels under General Venustiano Carranza started marching on the capital city, was shown a statement from the rebel commander yesterday, in which the constitutionalist commander stated that he had confiscated the property, cattle and personal effects of the Terrazas family, the bent and gray-haired figure shook with emotion. He was asked what his plans for the future were and through an interpreter said that until his affairs in Mexico could be straightened out he had no idea of what he would do, but that he and his family may go to their Los Angeles home. For the present he will make this city his place of residence.

Since General Terrazas fled from his palatial home in Chihuahua to seek protection of the American side of the Rio Grande he has acted greatly. It is not the worry of losing his vast possessions that is causing mental anguish to him, but the uncertainty of the safety of his wife, son and daughters, who are being held prisoners in the city by General Villa. Loss of sleep and the strain of the ordeal through which he has passed has broken down the aged man.

His apartment on the third floor of a local hotel is guarded by many of his friends who fled with him to Chihuahua when Villa started southward. He seldom leaves his room and often has his meals sent to him.

Alberto Terrazas is with his father and the son stands as sentinel before the door of the apartments. He is conducting the affairs of his father. Like his father, Alberto Terrazas declines to talk concerning the Chihuahua situation. He states that they hardly believe that Villa intends taking all their belongings, but his one thought is for his sisters, brother and mother, who are in the city of Chihuahua.

He states that he hopes to be able to join the family within a short time. The mother, son and daughters will come to El Paso just as soon as General Villa allows them the privilege to leave. Although General Terrazas declined to talk on the subject it is understood that he intends sending a messenger to Chihuahua on the next train that leaves Juarez, to confer with General Villa regarding the ransom that is being asked by the rebel commander for the freedom of the Terrazas family. It is believed that he will pay the $500,000 asked for the release of his son, Luis Terrazas II, and that Villa will then allow the family to depart for El Paso.

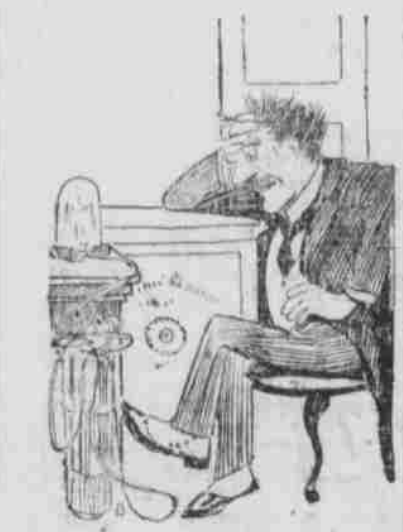

It is understood that General Terrazas has deposited in American banks and invested in property in this country something like five millions of dollars. Much of this money is invested and on deposit in Los Angeles, where he some time ago had constructed a magnificent home.

CHILDERS LIBRARY SOLD BY ORDER OF COURT

One of Largest and Most Valuable Collections of Law Books in New Mexico Goes Under Hammer of Auctioneer.

The law library of the late William H. Childers, one of the largest and most valuable collections of its kind in New Mexico, was sold at auction yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock on the steps of the postoffice building, to satisfy a judgment in favor of Thomas N. Wilkerson, an attorney of this city. The auction was conducted by Judge M. E. Hickey, the referee appointed by the court, and was attended by a large crowd of attorneys and book lovers who conducted a spirited bidding.

By far the greater part of the library was sold to Mr. Wilkerson, himself, only a few scattered volumes being purchased by other parties. The amount realized from the auction was not sufficient to cover the lien to satisfy which the books were sold, and a deficiency judgment will be taken for the remainder when the sale is confirmed by the district court.

The Childers library, which had been laboriously collected during the lifetime of its owner, was known by lawyers all over New Mexico. It comprised several thousand volumes and represented a fortune in money value. Since the death of Mr. Childers, the title to the collection has been in litigation, the case going through all the courts. The sale yesterday was in pursuance of a decree recently rendered by the New Mexico supreme court in Mr. Wilkerson's favor.

Among the books contained in the collection sold by Referee Hickey were three volumes of inestimable value to attorneys and others interested in New Mexico land titles. They are the reports of the private land grant court specially appointed to pass on grants in this state, and contain a complete history of every land grant in New Mexico. No provision was made by law for printing the decisions of this court, and the three volumes contained in the Childers collection were published at great expense to private parties.

These three books were owned jointly by Mr. Childers and Colonel E. W. Doherty, of this city. So highly were they valued that they were kept in a private vault instead of a bookcase. The half interest held in them by the Childers estate was purchased yesterday by Mr. Wilkerson for $150. They are the only volumes in existence containing these reports, and if they should be destroyed could not be duplicated at any price.

I can still be found at 402 North First street, with the best quality of coal and wood in the city. Phone 912. Hugh Trotter, Coal and Wood.

CENTRAL RAILROAD CONFERENCE TO END TONIGHT

Herbert Green, Chicago Capitalist, Says He Will Make Statement of Result of Negotiations at That Time.

The conference in progress here for two days, between Herbert Green, a Chicago financier, and others interested in the New Mexico Central railroad, is expected to bear tangible results by tonight. Mr. Green said at the close of yesterday's session that he believed he would be able to give a statement to newspapers tonight. Regarding yesterday's conference he had nothing to say.

A development in the negotiations yesterday was the admission of residents of Roswell and Farmington, who hope for extensions of the New Mexico Central to those towns, into the meeting. They were reticent as to whether Mr. Green and his associates had given them any definite assurance of extension.

CROWDS PACK THEATER TO SEE FAMOUS PICTURE

Unprecedented crowds greeted the big production of "The Last Days of Pompeii," the six-reel dramatization of Bulwer-Lytton's famous novel that is having a two-days' run at the Crystal theater. At both matinee and night shows yesterday the house was packed and many were unable to gain admittance.

Today is the last opportunity that Albuquerque people will have to view this great production. With characteristic liberality, the management has made no advance of prices, though great additional expense has been incurred in putting on so big a feature. Those who can do so would do well to attend the matinee performance, as the greatest crush for seats at this season is always at night.

BACA LAND GRANT TITLE VESTED IN 3 AMERICANS

United States Court of Appeals Decides Litigation Involving Ownership of Vast Tract in Arizona.

PHOENIX, ARIZ., Dec. 18.—Ownership of a part of what is known as the Baca land grant, consisting of about 500,000 acres in southern Arizona, is declared by an opinion handed down in Washington by Associate Justice Robb, in the court of appeals, to be vested in C. C. Watts and Dabney C. T. Davis, of West Virginia, and James W. Vroom, of New York. Under the ruling, which affirmed the judgment of the district supreme court, they are entitled to a tract of land valued at more than $1,000,000.

The litigation was based on an old Mexican land grant to Luis Maria Baca in 1847. Baca, prior to the Mexican war, was driven from his land by Apache Indians and the Mexican government gave the property to another. In 1845, when the United States took over the territory as the result of the war with Mexico, there existed two claims to the site of Las Vegas, N. M. The cession treaty required the United States government to respect the Mexican land grants, and in 1849 the heirs of Baca, having surrendered their claims to the Las Vegas site, were given, through congress, lands of equal area in what is now Arizona.

The tract affected by the recent decision has been under litigation for fifty years, and is likely to continue for a while, as the department of the interior, which has been contesting the claim, is to carry the case to the United States supreme court. The claimants of the land were represented by former Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas, Attorney Herbert Noble and Attorney G. H. Breckinridge of New York. Assistant Attorney General C. E. Wright represents the interior department.

FOR NERVOUSNESS

Nervousness comes from nerve exhaustion, an unhealthy condition of the nerves of some part of the body, usually caused by lack of nerve nourishment. If you are nervous, you need a nerve food—something to tone and strengthen your nerves. Recall Olive Oil Emulsion is the ideal nerve tonic, a real medicine for the nerves, a real builder of strength and health for the blood and every part of the system. It is not a stimulant. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs, as many so-called "nervine" do that stupefy your heart and muscles for a short time after taking, only to leave you weaker and worse off than before. It is a real medicine, containing ingredients necessary to overcome your weakness and nervousness, and give you strength and life and health to every part. It may not make you feel better the first day, because the nerve and tissue foods it contains need time to get into the blood before the good work of rebuilding can begin. But it will make you feel better and less nervous before you have taken anywhere near as much of it as you have of other things that did you nothing but harm. If it does not—if it fails to satisfy you in every way, we want you to tell us so and get your money back. You who are weak and run-down, and you who are apparently well now, but are liable to suffer from various cold weather ailments, use Recall Olive Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. For the tired-out, run-down, nervous, emaciated or debilitated—the convalescing—growing children—aged people—it is a sensible aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health.

Recall Olive Oil Emulsion—King of the celebrated Recall Remedies—is for freedom from sickness of you and your family. Pleasant tasting—unlike the cod liver oil preparations—you'll be as enthusiastic about it as we are when you have noted its strengthening, invigorating, building-up, disease-preventing effects. If it does not help you, your money will be given back to you without argument. Sold in this community only at our store—The Recall Store—one of more than 7,000 leading drug stores in the United States, Canada and Great Britain—Butt's, Inc., Drugists, Albuquerque, N. M.

RECLAMATION WORK IN WEST SHOWING GOOD RESULTS

Director H. F. Newell, After Tour of Nine States, Including New Mexico, Is Optimistic.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The director of the reclamation service, F. H. Newell, has just returned to Washington after an extended tour of investigation of the big engineering works of the government in Montana, Washington, Idaho, Oregon, California, Utah, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico.

"With excellent crops and good prices the settlers on our projects are rounding out the year in a very cheerful frame of mind," said Mr. Newell. "Farmers and merchants report more real money in circulation than in previous years, old debts are being cancelled and credit is more readily obtained. Paradoxical as it may seem, the prosperity of 1913 has been accompanied by a general lowering in land prices. Most land values in the irrigated west were unduly advanced during the past five years until they reached a point where the west no longer continued to attract the people of moderate means.

"Future development of the agricultural lands of the arid west is to be accomplished by a more intelligent effort to secure settlers who will cultivate the soil rather than speculate on the advance in land prices.

"There is a better appreciation today of the real difficulties incident to cultivating a desert farm and also of the fact that the west still offers opportunities to men of moderate means as well as to men without ready money but of average intelligence and frugality who are willing to work hard. Actual failures on the government projects are relatively few in number and at the present time it would appear that a fairly permanent class of settlers are now established on the farms. There is a marked change also in the attitude of the public toward government activities in reclamation. In former years unfavorable comparisons were drawn concerning the cost of federal work, but in the light of the financial difficulties which have been encountered by private enterprise and of the failure of many of those to furnish a dependable water supply, the wisdom of the government's larger outlay is no longer questioned.

"The confidence in the future of these irrigated lands is based upon the excellent crop returns for 1913. The average value per acre of products grown on the new government farms is almost exactly the same as the average for the products grown on irrigated farms under older systems. There is everywhere in the west urgent request for more rapid extension of federal activity, and several of the western states have made special appropriations for co-operation with the reclamation service."

PEOPLE HEED ADVICE TO MAIL CHRISTMAS PACKAGES EARLY

Albuquerque people are heeding the postoffice department's injunction to mail their packages, containing Christmas presents, early, according to Postmaster R. W. Hopkins. He bases his belief upon the number of stamps sold this year.

The postoffice here has handled all parcels without delay. Not a single parcel mailed here has remained in the office overnight so far this "rush" season and with the assistance of an extra clerk the postoffice probably will be able to handle mails expeditiously until after Christmas.

CALAMITY HOWLERS SHARPLY REBUKED BY SPEAKER OF HOUSE

Champ Clark Replies to Statements by Republicans That Business Is Depressed.

CHARGES EFFORT TO BRING ON HARD TIMES

Senator Root, Representative Mann, Chairman Hilles and Others Scored in Caustic Speech

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE
Washington, Dec. 18.—Speaker Clark left his chair in the house today to challenge the patriotism of "calamity howlers" republicans after Minority Leader Mann had made a speech picturing the country in the throes of business and industrial depression as a result of democratic tariff legislation.

"As the greatest calamity howlers in America," the speaker presented Senator Root, of New York, former Speaker Cannon, Chairman Hilles, of the republican national committee, former Governor Hadley, of Missouri, and Representative Mann.

Utterly denying the new tariff law, Mr. Clark declared that if there had been any hold-up in business it was simply because prudence was being exercised. He said the wish was the father of the thought with the republican leaders and suggested that it was strange that no one else had seen signs of falling prices.

"These men," continued Speaker Clark, "propose to get into the newspapers every day, statements that the country is going to the dogs and business is going to the deuce, and people that never thought of a panic will begin to study about it. To all thinking men this will be considered a monstrous and unparalleled performance."

Representative Mann had painted a gloomy picture of the country under the democratic tariff and the threat of political control of banking and currency.

"Throughout the country today," he said, "wherever men are congregating there is that quiet discussion going on now which, when cold weather strikes the country, will end in a war of the deal statements on the democratic side of the aisle. Men with wives and children, willing to work, who were at work three months ago are now seeking the opportunity. The president could do much today towards reviving confidence if he would. The democratic side of this house could do much, but they are turning the famous policies which they have talked about on the stump so many years. We are not justified in keeping silence on the situation."

Speaker Clark said there were two people whom he never talked to but always questioned—James J. Hill, the railroad builder, and Rev. Dr. John T. N. Johnson, of Kansas City, a Baptist preacher who had some money to make three or four million dollars.

He said Hill told him that he did not think there would be any panic in this country. Dr. Johnson, he added, told him the currency bill would prevent all the money from drifting into New York city and break up gambling on the New York stock exchange as far as human ingenuity could control it. The speaker said next Monday or Tuesday the house would pass the currency bill.

"Unless there is some contrary fellow here," he added, "we may pass it Saturday night and after it becomes a law the country will blossom like the rose."

HUGE groups of sculpture will reveal the plastic art in the very highest stage of its development at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. The sculptures are here shown at work on colossal figures of negro warriors bearing baskets of fruit. The figures will be part of the group, "The Nations of the East," which will crown the triumphal Arch of the Rising Sun in the Court of the Sun and Stars. The "Nations of the East" will be of typically Oriental character. On the opposite side of the Court of the Sun and Stars the huge Arch of the Setting Sun, of similar proportions, will depict the spirit of the West. This illustration shows the sculptors enlarging models by A. Stirling Calder.

Representative Mann suggested that what the country needs now is not so much money as orders for business. Speaker Clark retorted that the country was having plenty of orders and that in his district the latest cement plant in the country was working 2,800 men on three shifts of eight hours each.

PRESIDENT PLANS A VACATION DOWN IN DIXIE

A Rest of Three Weeks Is to Be Taken After Almost Continuous Labor of Twelve Months.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Washington, Dec. 18.—President Wilson will take a three weeks' vacation immediately after he signs the currency bill, which is expected to do on Monday or Tuesday. Where he will go has not yet been announced, though it is said he and his family will select a quiet spot on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico near New Orleans. It will be the longest absence of the president from the capital since he was inaugurated.

The president has been suffering from an attack of grippe for nearly two weeks, but the announcement of his intended vacation was made some time before he became ill. His physician had advised a halt in the president's labors which have been continued without any material interruption for practically a year. As president-elect Mr. Wilson returned from a month's vacation in the Bermuda last December and in the succeeding three months was under the double strain of his official duties as governor of New Jersey and preparation for the presidency.

Since taking office he has been in Washington, almost constantly being occupied with the tariff, the currency, the Mexican question, among other pressing administrative affairs.

Inasmuch as the president intends to be away until about January 12, the diplomatic reception planned for January 6, will be postponed to the following week and the dates in the entire social schedule of state dinners and receptions at the White House.

House for the winter season will be reduced.

The president was well enough today to take a long automobile ride and on his return helped plant an American elm in front of the White House. He was handed a spade, decorated in red, white and blue bunting, by his aide, Colonel W. W. Harris, superintendent of grounds and buildings. The president shovelled vigorously and as if he enjoyed the exercise. A crowd looked on. In a recent storm the elm planted by President Hayes was destroyed and its place is taken by the "Wilson elm."

EMPLOYEES OF SHOE COMPANY LOCKED OUT

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Portsmouth, N. H., Dec. 18.—The Excelsior Shoe company closed down its plant here tonight, throwing more than 1,000 persons out of employment for an indefinite period. Officials of the company stated the action was taken out of sympathy for the Seely Shoe company, which has been troubled by a strike among its employees for the last two weeks. Strike leaders declare 1,200 employees of the latter company are on strike, demanding that a few discharged employees be reinstated.

It was said tonight that other shoe companies may follow the step taken by the Excelsior company. Members of the United Shoe Workers of America are in charge of the strike, which has been sanctioned by all local labor unions.

EVIDENCE TENDS TO PROVE INSANITY OF SCHMIDT

Priest Charged With Murder of Anna Aumuller Acted Queer in Germany and Was Regarded as Unbalanced.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
New York, Dec. 18.—Hans Schmidt's strange behavior here and in Germany was described by witnesses for the defense today, at his trial for murder. Schmidt's attorneys are attempting to prove that he was insane when he killed Anna Aumuller and had been insane for many years before.

These were some of his acts the witnesses told about.

When a priest in Germany he often went about his duties bare legged and clad only in his cassock.

A clerical friend in Munich found him one day naked in the bath tub playing the violin.

While serving as a priest at St. Boniface's church, New York, he performed baptisms contrary to rule and did not hesitate to follow his own ritual.

Back as some of the evidence related Schmidt, one witness declared that he never turned away a beggar. "The poor devils may need it," he used to say when friends remonstrated with him for indiscriminate almsgiving.

The defense presented a statement made by an examiner in lunacy for the royal superior court of Munich, Germany, who said that Schmidt was insane when he was arrested in Germany for forgery.

HOLLAND AGREES TO BRYAN'S PLAN TO AVERT WAR

Treaty Is Signed Under Which Questions, Not Settled by Diplomacy, Shall Be Investigated for a Year.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Washington, Dec. 18.—Secretary Bryan and Minister Van Rappard, Netherlands minister, today signed a treaty providing that any question between the United States and the Netherlands which cannot be settled by diplomacy shall be submitted for investigation to an international commission of five members. The period of investigation is fixed at one year, although it may be shortened.

This is the first treaty between the United States and a European nation based upon Secretary Bryan's peace plan. Similar treaties have been negotiated with five Central American nations and it is planned to sign one with the Dominican republic tomorrow.

The American-Netherlands convention embodies generally the principles of Secretary Bryan's plan to bring to an end warfare between the nations of the world, but it differs in some details from similar pacts already signed. There is no provision in it for the maintenance of status quo as to military and naval preparations during the period of investigation. Mr. Bryan pointed out today, however, that he considered this feature non-essential, acceptance of the principle of investigation being the key-note of the plan.

In negotiating the treaty, Secretary Bryan made a slight concession to the Netherlands in the matter of the appointment of the fifth member of the permanent international commission to be chosen by common agreement between the two governments. It being understood that this member shall not be a citizen of either country. The previous treaties do not make this limitation as to citizenship of the fifth member. Four members are to be chosen on the plan of the similar commissions provided for in the other treaties, that is, one from each country to be selected by the respective governments and one to be chosen by each government from some third country.

The treaty, like the others, is to run for five years and thereafter remain in force until twelve months after one of the high contracting parties has given notice of an intention to terminate it.

The international commission must be appointed within six months after the exchange of the ratifications. While none of the peace treaties has been ratified by the senate as yet, Secretary Bryan said this was due to the press of business. He said he expected to encounter no difficulty when the pacts were reached in the upper house.

CONTRIBUTION OF $50,000 DEMANDED

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
New York, Dec. 18.—The alleged attempt of a politician to extort $50,000 from Anthony C. Douglas, a tunnel contractor, as compensation for obtaining him a contract on the construction of the Croton aqueduct, was the subject of further investigation today by the grand jury.

Charles Strauss, chairman of the board of water supply, which had charge of the letting of the contracts, declared he had never been approached by the politician in question in relation to the contract, and District Attorney Whitman is convinced that the integrity of the board of water supply cannot be impugned.

The evidence tends to show, it is said, that the politician made false representations to Douglas that he was able to control the awarding of the contract.

The jury adjourned until next Tuesday.

ARCTIC EXPLORERS LABOR UNIONS WILL RETURN SAFELY FROM NORTH WITHDRAW FUNDS FROM BANKS

Party Belonging to Schooner Frozen in Ice Pack Reach Seattle After Walking Long Distance in Polar Zone.

Between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 Is to Be Taken Out of Indianapolis Financial Institutions.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE)
Seattle, Wash., Dec. 18.—Captain Louis Lane, of the power schooner Polar Bear, which is frozen in the Arctic ocean near Flaxman Island, arrived from Valdez by steamer today, accompanied by Elton Draper, of Boston, son of ex-Governor Draper, of Massachusetts. Dunbar Lockwood, also of Boston, and Will T. Hudson, a newspaper photographer.

The men walked from the Arctic shore to Circle City, Fairbanks and Valdez, 2,000 miles.

George Sibly and John Heard, government of Boston, and Samuel Mixer, W. Sprague Brooks and Joseph Dixon, scientific collectors, remained on the vessel. The hunters and scientists have had a wonderful season for big game. They might have come out with the Lane party, but they preferred to remain and obtain polar bear and musk ox.

Captain H. D. Pedersen, commander of the schooner Elvira, which was crushed by the Arctic ice, and who walked from the Arctic ocean to Valdez, also arrived from the north today.

The travelers had no further news of Stefansson's ship Karuk, but that called by Stefansson himself, who is ashore and making his way to Hershel Island. The prevailing opinion in the north, according to Captain Lane and Pedersen, is that Captain Berghel and the men on the Karuk are in peril because of the fragile build of their ship which, at last accounts, was drifting in the ice pack.

The money is divided among a number of institutions and it is said the withdrawal will not seriously affect any one bank. A statement issued today by the officers who attended the meeting, sets forth that action was decided on because "we have reason to believe said monies are being used by the merchants, manufacturers and team owners of Indianapolis, to destroy and crush the working people."

The statement was signed by the officers of the barbers, carpenters, bricklayers and plasterers, bookbinders and teamsters' unions.

It was stated at the large late today the movement for the withdrawal of the labor funds had been anticipated and preparations had been made to meet the demands.

WHY MEXICANS HATE SPANIARDS.

While Villa's conduct in Chihuahua City was not that of a scholar and a gentleman, because he is neither, it appears from official reports that he was not guilty of all the outrages charged against him. In fact, there is nothing to indicate that he mis-treated anyone, except the Spaniards, and entered the British vice consulate and seized Luis Terrazas, Jr., whom he is holding for a five hundred thousand dollar ransom. But there has been no official confirmation of that report.

The constitutionalists hate the Spaniards. The reason given by Villa for seizing their property and ordering them out of the country on pain of death is that they have been in sympathy with Huerta. But there is a deeper reason. The Spaniards are thirty merchants and have become rich by trade, crowding out the Mexican business men. Then they have an idea that they are of better blood than the Mexican, and are unafraid enough to let that feeling be known to the people among whom they live.

It is for much the same reason that the Englishman is cordially hated in all non-English-speaking countries where he is a tourist or a business man. He goes on the streets with an air of owning both sides of it, and is ready to tell the natives how little they understand things generally. The American traveler also has his faults in that direction. He is more adaptable than the Englishman, but more noisy in pointing out the superiority of his country over all others. The people of the other countries are not endeared by such things.

The Spaniards in all Latin-American countries have the unfortunate of posing as a sort of superior person by birth and breeding. The result is that he is tolerated but not loved. Hence, when the constitutionalists have seized territory, they have made their animosity toward the Spaniards known by robbery and other forms of persecution.

THE COLORADO UNIONS.

The labor unions of Colorado are threatening to circulate a recall petition unless Governor Ammons discharges Adjutant General Chase, recalls the state militia from the strike zone and turns the military prisoners over to the civil authorities.

Prior to bringing the militia into the Trinidad district, and immediately following, there was a perfect riot of crime. Men were killed ruthlessly, non-union miners were seized and imprisoned in union headquarters, women who were enroute to join their husbands at the mines were seized and maltreated at the tent colonies, property was destroyed, a reign of terror existed.

Unions have done much for labor conditions, but only when the conduct of strikers was such as to command the support of public opinion. On all other occasions, where violence has been the resort, prestige has been lost. The confessions of Harry Orchard and of Otis McManis, the latter of which was followed by the pleading guilty of the McNamara brothers, did much toward placing certain of the labor organizations outside the pale of approving public opinion.

This country believes in law and order. Contests that have to be won by other means always lose because, after all, public opinion controls in the United States. Public opinion will sustain the position reluctantly taken by Governor Ammons. Had he refused to take all the means in his power to preserve order in the strike zone, the people of Colorado should have recoiled him, and doubtless would have done so.

SECRETARY DANIELS.

Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels made a speech in New York which adds nothing to his reputation, which is that of a fairly successful editor of a small newspaper. At the beginning of the Wilson administration, the talking was done largely by the vice president and the secretary of commerce. Suddenly they ceased to prattle and have been forgotten almost, which is a relief to the country. It is suspected that the president put the soft pedal on them.

Aside from Mr. Bryan's lecturing, which has added nothing to his reputation, whatever it may have done for his bank account, other cabinet members have done little speech-making. Secretary of Labor Wilson addressed a convention of "labor union men," which was a bit damaging to his standing, such as he had, and decidedly embarrassing to the administration. McAdoo, Garrison, Houston, McPherson, Hurst and Lane have been silent men for the most part. McAdoo, Hurst and Lane are recognized as the strong men of the cabinet—fairly strong men in a decidedly weak cabinet.

New Mr. Daniels breaks down. His speech in advocacy of progressivism and his criticism of the remarks made by former President Taft regarding the "hygiene" of the reform movement were of the amateurish sort. There was nothing later about what Mr. Daniels had to say, nothing to commend his speech as an expression of the views of the administration. The way he said it was a thousand miles, and then some, from the manner in which Woodrow Wilson would have voiced the same thought.

It is to be hoped that President Wilson will ask Mr. Daniels to put the soft pedal on, for the president is really giving a marvellously efficient administration when we consider the material he has to work with.

SANTO DOMINGO'S TROUBLE.

Santo Domingo has just held an election in which there was perfect order and every voter was permitted to cast his ballot as he chose. President Wilson had an American commission on the ground for the purpose of observing the elections, because we have a sort of protectorate over the country and took measures recently to bring a civil war to an end.

Our Dominican protectorate is financial only, for the safeguarding of revenues and national debts. By a convention, the American minister is a sort of overlord. After the funds have been appropriated for the interest and sinking fund, the next call is for the revenues up to a million and a half dollars to be expended under the direction of the American minister for public improvements.

But Minister Sullivan is one of Mr. Bryan's diplomatic freaks. He is a relative of the late lamented Tim and entitled himself to a foreign post by campaigning to the state of Maine in 1908, for Mr. Bryan when the latter was democratic candidate for the presidency. Mr. Bryan says he didn't know that fact when he recommended Mr. Sullivan for the Dominican post.

Mr. Sullivan is now under charges. It is said that he has been interfering with the collection of revenues, in the hands of an American customs agent, and that a cousin of the minister has become interested in some of the internal improvements under the minister's direction. The minister insists that his cousin came to Santo Domingo without invitation and had acted on his own responsibility. All of which may be true. Relatives of public officers have a habit of butting in where they are not wanted. Such was the case of Abner McKinley, brother of President McKinley, and Brother Charlie Taft was the cause of considerable embarrassment to President Taft. Also, there were criticisms of the activities of Douglas Robinson, brother-in-law of President Roosevelt.

Not regardless of the little embarrassments caused by Minister Sullivan, the administration has decided to see to it that no more revolutions occur in Santo Domingo and that fair elections are held there, all of which is commendable.

But it is safe to say that the Dominicans are quite as capable of managing their own affairs as are the Filipinos. We are tightening our grip on Santo Domingo and loosening it on the Philippines.

It is again reported that Menelik, emperor of Abyssinia, is dead. For the past ten years, at short intervals, the report of the death of the old negro has trickled into public print. Evidently somebody in Abyssinia is interested in having him out of the way.

Billy Sunday has made a great success of the advertisement of his name. Now comes Congressman Sabath, of Illinois, who is bidding on his name for a bit of notoriety.

It is reported that somebody down in Mexico knocked General Genovio de la O's fin off.

So far as it has gone, December makes September look like thirty days.

NEW MEXICO WILL HAVE SPLENDID BUILDING

Exposition Commission Goes to San Diego, Accompanied by Architect, and Will Let Contract for Structure.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL

San Diego, N. M., Dec. 18.—With plans and specifications for the New Mexico building at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Diego completed to the minutest detail, Architect I. H. Rapp has joined the members and secretary of the New Mexico commission on a trip to San Diego, where bids will be asked and the contract awarded for the structure, which in many respects will be the most noteworthy of all the state buildings at the exposition. Although the building will have approximately 15,000 feet of floor space, the members of the commission are confident that it can be erected within $15,000.

The building will be typical on that point the exposition, and especially its chairman, Col. Ralph C. Twitchell, have insisted. In its architecture it will recall the hereditary days of the Spanish conquest and the Franciscan monastery, and will hark back even to prehistoric days. In outline it will follow the grand old mission church at Acosma, which withstood the vicissitudes of the Pueblo revolution of 1680. In its embellishment and portion it will recall the front of the cathedral church at the pueblo of Cochiti.

The structure is to rise on a commanding site in Balboa park, and it can be stated as certain that none of the other buildings of the exposition will be pictured and described in magazines and newspapers to the ends of the earth to a greater extent than that in which the New Mexico exhibit will be housed.

A deep basin, with a granite portico above it, will mark the entrance to the cathedral-like structure. The vestibule, into which every visitor will step—and it is estimated that there will be some seven million visitors—will serve as a public room, where each county and each board of trade may have a desk from which to distribute literature.

To the left will be the grand auditorium, with a gallery on which the latest improved moving picture machine will be placed. Each day and each hour of the day there will be lectures featuring the resources, the attractions, the beauties and the glory of the Sunshine state. These will be illustrated by the moving pictures. There will also be feature films illustrating the educational advantages of New Mexico, the work in the coal mines, in the irrigated fields, on the cattle ranges and in the sheep camps. Pictures of historic pageants, enacted by school children, will also be shown. There will be a gallery of governors, with large and artistic portraits of executives of the state from digger, cowboy, all paintings, engravings and photographs which have been laboriously collected by Colonel Twitchell.

To the right, upon entering the massive church, which will give the impression of a symmetrical monument, will be the grand exhibition hall, in the shape of a T, the bar of the T being in part separated from the main room. Here New Mexico will exhibit its products and also its amenities. Here it will give graphic evidence that it is the best state in the union, whether from the standpoint of natural resources, industrial possibilities, picturesque climate, human interest or grandeur.

There will be offices and rest and comfort rooms. In the auditorium will be placed the splendid mural paintings depicting the life and works of Francis de Assisi, the patron saint of New Mexico, from the brush of the artist, Donald Beauregard, the pictures being the gift of Hon. Frank Springer.

A joy to the eye will be the patio, with its fountain, its tropical vegetation, its roofed cloister, enclosing it on all sides, its cooling doves and its airy recalling Castle and Granada.

A roof garden from which will be had a charming view of San Diego bay, on which will play the breezes from the ocean and where refreshments will be served, will complete the ensemble—a portion of New Mexico.

ico and Spain transplanted to San Diego.

Noteworthy among the larger exhibits will be fine models of landmarks on the Santa Fe system, which are now under construction under the supervision of Colonel Twitchell. There will be a display of native handicrafts by Pueblo and Navajo Indians, who will weave blankets, make pottery and manufacture baskets and silverware. These will add a dash of color and human interest to the daily scenes in and about the building.

New Mexico expects to make the finest archaeological and historical exhibit of any of the states, and in art and culture it will set a high standard that will redound to its credit.

The commission expects to organize a New Mexico society at San Diego, similar to that organized at Los Angeles a few months ago, for there are several hundred former New Mexicans who are now residents of San Diego and who stand ready to make the New Mexico exhibit a grand success.

While the state has appropriated only $30,000, the gift of Hon. Frank Springer adds $10,000 to that sum. The Santa Fe railway, the School of American Archaeology, the public schools, the higher institutions of learning, the progressive counties, cities, boards of trade, merchants, manufacturers and other public-spirited citizens are all contributing to make New Mexico's part in the exposition one to which every patriotic citizen will point with pride, representing a money value, as far as a money value can be placed upon it, a sum in excess of $100,000.

Progress at Elephant Butte Dam

(By E. H. BALDWIN, Construction Engineer).

In accordance with the program indicated in preceding report on the Elephant Butte dam, masonry work was temporarily suspended on December 1, and all available forces concentrated in excavating for foundations or in quarry development.

The placing of masonry continued through November without special incident, the rate of progress being about the same as during the previous month. When concreting was suspended, the block being worked was, at downstream side, had reached the level of the river bottom, while the upstream side was several feet lower. This difference in elevation of the two sides of the dam is intentional, the top being carried on a downward slope of about 5 per cent towards the reservoir, for the purpose of providing a suitable bond with the succeeding layer. The total masonry thus far placed amounts to 80,200 cubic yards, or about 17 1/2 per cent of the entire quantity in the completed dam.

With the suspension of masonry work a temporary reorganization of forces was made. The quarry gang was divided, about half going to the excavation, the balance remaining in quarry for development work. All new men and those that could be spared from other work were put on excavation. This work is being carried in three shifts, of about the same proportions, the total being about 225 men. Practically the only difference in the shifts is that on the second, or day shift, teams are being used to excavate sand, gravel and shale from east abutment. It is planned to use them on this work during the balance of this month, by which time the remaining excavation will be mainly rock, and the teams will have to be used elsewhere.

A considerable area of new foundation has been prepared, and concreting will be resumed during the latter part of the week. This area adjoins the block just abandoned, and extends for 200 feet along downstream toe, but does not include the cut-off trench nor central portion adjacent to it, which will be excavated while balance is being concreted.

On account of caving banks and sliding rocks the channeling machine had to be removed from trench and troublesome rock excavated. The rock adjacent to this trench looked very good when first removed, its surface was hard and waterworn, but upon testing, was found to be much shattered and loose beneath, consequently it is being excavated to a depth of from fifteen to twenty feet, at which depth excellent rock is being found.

With the exception of the team work mentioned above, the excavation is being handled with derricks and cableways. Two derricks have been moved to the edge of the block of masonry, where they command a large area of excavation, and will be of considerable value in placing masonry. Three more derricks are located at suitable places in the bottom, while a sixth is operating at east abutment. The skips are hauled by the derricks, passed to the cableways, by which they are transported to the lower railroad, dumped into cars, and returned empty to the derricks for reloading. The excavation, which is mainly rock and much of it hard trimming, picking, barring and wedging, is being taken out at the rate of about 550 cubic yards per day.

Work in the quarry consists mainly in removing muck, of waste material, breaking and storing crusher rock, and drilling for future blasts.

The drilling for grouting holes was commenced December 4. For grouting purposes six-inch pipes were built in the dam, starting at bottom of cut-off trench, placed about ten feet apart, and in a line parallel with the axis of the dam; these pipes were extended up to the concrete was placed. These holes are now being extended down into the bed of the rock some fifty feet, by means of a Davis-Calk core drill, which gives similar results to a diamond drill, but its initial cost and operation is much cheaper, while the results are at least equally good. The cutting is done by means of chisel shot continually revolving beneath the hollow cylindrical bits, and giving a core similar to that obtained with a diamond drill. Grouting will probably not be done until the holes are all drilled.

The crushing and mixing plants are being put in condition for maximum output, and minor defects that could

Dietetic Value of Beer

From a German Medical Opinion

The intoxicating action of beer is very much less than that of wine and whiskey; and as it gradually tends to suppress the use of the latter, it accomplishes a high mission in the history of civilization. The intoxicating action of the small quantity of alcohol (in beer) is neutralized by the carbonic acid and the malt extract. Hops in small quantities stimulates the appetite and promotes evacuation, (or acts as a laxative.) Beer is very nutritious when consumed with meat, cheese and bread and it is greatly undervalued as promoting health and robustness.

PRICE MOVEMENT MIXED IN SALES ON EXCHANGE

Markets Decline in Early Session but Take Upward Turn Later, Showing Decided Gains on Certain Stocks.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER)

New York, Dec. 18.—Price movements today were mixed and in the end only slight changes were registered in the general run of prominent shares, although there were wide movements in isolated cases. The day's tendency was downward, but the market soon recovered and ended with a gain of 1 to 2 points above the low figures. As the session neared its end a reaction set in, with the average close to yesterday's final range. Canadian Pacific was weak, dropping 1/2 point to 25, selling below par for the first time in years.

The early tone was influenced by selling for foreign exchange. London was credited with disposing of 30,000 shares. Canadian Pacific was offered freely by Paris and Berlin, as well as London.

The readiness with which the market absorbed offerings prevented an extended decline and induced traders to give up attempts to hammer the list.

The postmaster general's recommendation in his annual report of government ownership for telephone and telegraph lines, exerted only temporary influence on American Telephone, which soon recovered from a sharp decline.

Bonds were irregular, with a downward tendency. Leading general 4s were essentially heavy, dropping 3/8. Total sales, par value, $1,620,000.

United States 2s declined 1/4, and the 1s coupon advanced 1/8 on call.

SANTA FE PLANNING EXCLUSIVE MAIL TRAIN IS RUMOR

Speed War for Postal Contracts Results in Conference Looking Toward Record-Breaking Service.

The general officials of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe railway in Topeka have been notified of a conference of Uncle Sam's postoffice officials concerning the installation of a fast all-mail train from Kansas City to Los Angeles. In an attempt to improve the transportation of the United States mails it is believed that the Santa Fe will operate an exclusive fast train from the Missouri river, thereby cutting down materially the time from the Atlantic to the Pacific. East of Kansas City it has been proposed that a mail train be operated from New York by the way of Fort Wayne over the Pennsylvania and thence by the Wabash direct to Kansas City. In this manner it is believed that mail could be sent from New York to Kansas City in thirty hours.

At this time the Rock Island has the mail contracts to Los Angeles and southern California from Kansas City. The Union Pacific has a big contract to San Francisco along the northern route. If the Santa Fe will give the government an all-mail train of excess speed, it is hinted by postoffice officials in conference at Washington that the Santa Fe will be given the prize.

The fight for the eastern mail has caused an eruption in transcontinental schedules and every effort is being made by the government to furnish better service, both to and from the Pacific coast.

CITY TREASURER GETS TWO CHECKS FROM COUNTY TREASURER

The balance in the city treasury yesterday was increased $2,772.77, when City Treasurer William Kleke received a check for that amount from County Treasurer Mike Mandell. The city treasurer received another check from the county official—$4,244 for school purposes—which he turned over to the board of education.

Of the city's share, only $1,862 is available for current expenses. The remainder of the check received by Mr. Kleke will be distributed among specific funds, principally for the payment of interest on bonds.

This money became available through the payment by the First National and State National banks of their taxes for 1912, following judgment rendered recently by Judge Reynolds of the district court, directing the county treasurer to accept from the banks the amount of taxes they originally tendered him.

JUDGE EXPECTED TO DECIDE PETERS CASE TODAY

Attorneys Representing Two Women Who Claim Boy Argue Habeas Corpus Proceedings for Nearly 5 Hours

Whether Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Focks will leave for France, Mo., accompanied by Wallace Peters, Mrs. Focks' son, or alone, Judge H. F. Reynolds, of the district court, is expected to decide today—or tomorrow, at the latest.

Judge Reynolds, from 10 o'clock yesterday morning until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with only an intermission at noon, heard the arguments of attorneys representing the mother and foster mother of the 19-year-old boy. The lawyers submitted briefs and closed their arguments, but the court did not announce then what decision he would make.

Mr. and Mrs. Focks came here December 7, to begin the legal battle for the boy, who, according to Mrs. Focks, was kidnapped from her home at Crane eight years ago, and Judge Reynolds probably will render his decision soon, so as not to lengthen their stay here unnecessarily.

ORDER ALLOWING APPEAL IN RACA CASE GRANTED

Judge Reynolds yesterday issued an order permitting the appealing of the case of Elfraga Raca, attorney, against the city of Albuquerque, to the state supreme court. The motion for the appeal was filed by the plaintiff.

In his suit, Mr. Raca asked judgment for $5,000 for personal injuries and damages to a buggy, sustained, it is alleged, when a fire truck collided with his vehicle, in 1908.

SPECIAL PRIZES ARE TO BE AWARDED AT POULTRY EXHIBITION

The committee in charge of the premium show for the forthcoming poultry show has collected several dozen handsome special prizes, donated for the most part by Albuquerque merchants, and these, together with medals and other prizes, are to be awarded to exhibitors in the show. Every indication points to the largest and most successful show ever held. Entries are coming in very fast and the extent of the exhibits bids fair to exceed the expectations of the most optimistic of those promoting the show, which will be held next week.

MAN COMMITTED BY JUSTICE RELEASED BY DISTRICT JUDGE

Equipped Montoya yesterday was released from the county jail upon a writ of habeas corpus granted by Judge H. F. Reynolds, of the district court. The writ is returnable at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Montoya was sent to jail by Justice Gaspar Garcia because he refused to pay the costs of peace proceedings, according to his petition for the writ. Montoya was placed under $100 bond to keep peace as a result of a family quarrel and furnished that amount, it is said. Then the justice ordered him to pay the costs of the proceeding contrary to statutory provision, according to his petition.

DON'T LET YOUR HAIR SPOIL YOUR GOOD LOOKS

Take the right care of your hair, and instead of spoiling your good looks, it will improve them. You can't beautify your hair with barrettes, ribbons and such things. Kneik-Kneik makes homely hair look even worse, because the contrast shows off its ugliness to greater effect.

If you want beautiful hair—soft, silky, lustrous and glossy—use Harmony Hair Beautifier, a dainty, liquid hair dressing. Use it also if you want your hair to go into place—in wavy, graceful fashion—more easily, and stay where you put it. It overcomes the unpleasant, oily odor with a delightful rose fragrance. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. Contains no oil; will not change color of hair; nor darken gray hair.

To keep hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made.—Rexall, Inc., Drugists, Albuquerque, N. M.

Wanted—Trap drummer and violinist. Apply Orpheum Theater, afterwards.

CAUGHT TRYING TO SHIP CARTRIDGES ACROSS BORDER

United States Attorney's Office Here Informed of Arrest of Eugene La Couture by Troopers at Columbus.

The United States district attorney's office here yesterday received notification of the arrest of Eugene La Couture, a Frenchman, at Columbus, N. M., charged with violation of the neutrality laws.

The arrest was made by troopers of the Thirtieth United States cavalry, under command of Colonel Charles A. P. Hatfield, when they discovered that a box which LaCouture was attempting to transport across the Mexican border contained ammunition, according to information sent to United States District Attorney Summers Burkhart.

LaCouture is reported to have said the box was loaded with tools, but the soldiers were suspicious, and opened it. Inside the box they found tools, as the Frenchman said they would—and also 2,000 rounds of rifle cartridges, so the district attorney was informed.

LaCouture will be arraigned December 19, before United States Commissioner B. Y. McKee, at Deming.

REV. S. E. ALLISON MARRIES COUPLE WHO CAME HERE TO WED

A romance dating back some years, when the two were childhood sweethearts, had its climax in Albuquerque yesterday afternoon, when Rev. S. E. Allison, pastor of the Central Avenue Methodist church, united in marriage Miss Bees Cox, of Paris, Ark., and Robert G. Wilson, of San Bernardino, Calif. The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left several hours after the wedding for San Bernardino, where they will make their home.

Mr. Wilson, who is employed as a civil engineer by the Santa Fe coast line, and his bride, met here by appointment, she making the trip from her home in Arkansas, while he came on from California. They had not met in five years.

JEWISH HOLIDAY TO BEGIN TUESDAY OF NEXT WEEK

Feast of Dedication Marks Eight Days of Rejoicing by Hebrews Throughout Civilized World.

One of the most interesting days in the Jewish calendar begins this year Tuesday evening, December 23, and lasts for eight days. It is known as Chanukkah, the Feast of Dedication, and though not observed by special services in the temple, it is eagerly looked forward to by the children of the Jewish household, for it has in large measure come to be a children's festival.

The historical background of the celebration is found in the fact that in the year 165 B. C. Judas Maccabeus, one of the few martial heroes in Jewish history, dedicated to the service of one God, the Temple of Jerusalem after its pollution by Antiochus Epiphanes, who had set up in place of God's altar, a shrine to his heathen gods. Just three years after this pollution, on the twenty-fifth day of the month of Kileav, the Temple was reclaimed and rededicated to the service of God.

Around the festival cluster many beautiful legends which have helped to shape the character of the celebration. One such legend is to the effect that when the Temple was rededicated only a single cruse of oil was found unspoiled, but through the miraculous intervention of God, this oil proved to be sufficient for eight successive nights, and until other oil fitted for the service might be prepared. For this reason, to this day Jews light candles in their homes in celebration of Chanukkah for eight successive nights, one on the first night, two on the second and so on.

The Feast of Chanukkah is a time for rejoicing not only on the part of the children, but as well on the part of the poor, who are always liberally remembered.

BLANKETS MISSED AFTER DEPARTURE OF STRANGE VISITOR

J. E. Hill, who lives six miles south of here, yesterday reported to Chief Thomas McMillin that a visitor, who had been at his home several days, disappeared some time Wednesday night when his family was asleep. Yesterday morning Hill missed two blankets.

Hill believed the man was an Australian. He knew that his guest's given name was Steve, but what his surname was, he did not know. He gave Chief McMillin a description of his late guest.

THE SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS' HERE DECEMBER 25

Harold Bell Wright's Novel, Which Holds Record for Sales of American Fiction, to Be Holiday Attraction.

"The Shepherd of the Hills," the dramatization of Harold Bell Wright's novel, which holds the record for the largest sales of any American work of fiction, which has been made by Mr. Wright, with the assistance of Khury W. Reynolds, will be seen at the Elks theater, matinee and night, Thursday, December 25.

The scenes of the play are laid among the Ozark mountains of Missouri. It is a story of the hills and the simple life, yet it has plenty of excitement and an air of mystery that will hold the audience from beginning to end.

The story has to do with the father of an artist, who, tired of city life, goes into the Ozarks for peace and quietude. He learns of a grievous sin committed by his son, whom he mourns as dead. The son has visited the hills some years before, when he fell in love with a simple country girl. He painted her picture and when he went back to the city, deserting the girl, he earned fame because of the canvas. The girl, deserted and heart-broken, dies leaving behind her a half-witted son.

It is to the home of this dead and wronged girl that the father of the artist comes, and here he is employed to watch the sheep. He grows to love the country and its people, and he and the half-witted boy, Peter, become friends. Then there is a love story running through the play that adds to its attractiveness.

There are several characters whose quaint humor is a decided novelty. Taken as a whole, the play promises to prove a refreshing change from the general run of dramatic attractions this season.

Messrs. Gaskill and McVitty, the producers, are said to have given the play an elaborate mounting, the mountains of the Ozark affording an opportunity for some fine examples of the scenic painter's art. The cost has been selected for their peculiar fitness for each style.
