On May 30, the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front (FMLN) offered to participate in peace talks with the new government. Alfredo Cristiani of the Nationalist Republican Alliance (ARENA) will be sworn in June 1. In a statement, the FMLN said it was prepared to end the sabotage of power supplies, to drop plans for a transport blockade and to stop attacks on government officials, US facilities and the families of politicians and military officials in exchange for the release of jailed union leaders and for the killers of Archbishop Oscar Romero to be arraigned. Romero was shot dead in San Salvador in 1980. (Basic data from DPA, 05/30/89)
