On May 25 Honduran President Jose Azcona Hoyo told reporters that Central American presidents will meet in the first half of June in Tegucigalpa. Principal agenda items at the summit, he said, will be the plan to demobilize, repatriate and relocate the Nicaraguan contra army, and the deployment of the UN peacekeeping teams in Central America. Azcona asserted that Honduras is strongly committed to resolving the regional crisis. He added, "We want to have the problem of the contras behind us as soon as possible." The president reiterated his government's demand that Nicaragua withdraw its suit before the World Court. (Basic data from Xinhua, 05/26/89)
