The Itata to go to San Diego.
WASHINGTON, June 5, 1891.—The Itata and her cargo will be sent to San Diego under convoy of a United States man of war and under the command of an American naval officer. On her arrival in San Diego harbor, libel proceedings will be instituted by the department of justice and the case will be tried in the United States courts.

The Dying Premier.
OTTAWA, Ont., June 5.—Sir John Macdonald still retains consciousness, but his heart's action is becoming more enfeebled. Dr. George Ross arrived from Montreal this afternoon. He is a specialist on heart trouble, and has been summoned to Ottawa at the request of the patient's family.

Toronto, June 5.—Dr. Powell has just issued a bulletin dated Earncliffe, 7:05 p. m.
"Sir John Macdonald became unconscious at 4 p. m., and his end is fast approaching."

The Chilean War.
WASHINGTON, June 5.—South American mails received by the Bureau of American Republics are full of interesting details of the Chilean civil war. The new Chilean congress, convened by Balmaceda, which is now in session and in which Balmaceda's friends claim all but two provinces, is represented as having placed absolute power in his hands. It has authorized him, pending the pacification of the country, to arrest and transport persons at will; to augment the land and sea forces; to expend the public revenues without regard to the estimates; to procure money by pledging the credit of the state, rendering an account to congress and to suspend the right of meeting and the liberty of the press. The United States Minister Patrick Egan and all the members of the diplomatic corps attended the opening of Balmaceda's congress, except the German and Italian ministers. Famine prices were said to be prevailing at Iquique, and meat was selling at 70 cents a pound, potatoes at $20 a bag and flour at $30 a bag.

CONDENSED NEWS.
Lieutenant Perry and his party of Arctic explorers will start on their expedition to-day.

German immigration to America for the first quarter of 1891 was 41,692, the largest on record.

The trial of Sir William Gordon Cumming now going on at London, has been adjourned till Monday next.

Dr. Benson J. Lossing, the well-known historian, died at his home near Poughkeepsie, N. Y., yesterday of heart failure.

At the annual meeting of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, held at Chicago yesterday, the old officers were all re-elected.

The treasury department has purchased $20,000 ounces of silver at 97.4 cents to 97.9 cents per ounce. The offers were $44,000 ounces.

Narciso Laroque was hanged yesterday at Loring, Ont., for the rape and murder of two little girls there on October 7 last. He made no confession.

It is claimed that 150 families are starving in North St. Louis, Mo. Business in that section of the city is at a standstill, and the laborers are clamoring for bread.

The president has reduced the six years' sentence of Robt. Sigel, son of Gen. Sigel, to two years and nine months, and directs that a pardon be issued to young Sigel then.

The case of Sylvester Stockbridge of Baltimore against the Richmond & Dan-Railroad company, on trial in the Chicago court for a week, was concluded Thursday by a verdict for the plaintiff for $60,000.

The convention of the People's party of Iowa at Des Moines has nominated a complete state ticket, as follows: Governor, A. J. Westfall; Lieutenant Governor, Walter Scott; Superintendent of Schools, C. W. Beas; Railroad Commissioner, D. F. Rogers; Judge of the Supreme Court, T. F. Willis.

In the Illinois House, the World's fair bill, which had been passed by the senate, appropriating $1,000,000 for the state exhibit, was acted upon. Efforts to reduce the bill to $500,000 or $600,000, were defeated, but at last a motion, fixed the amount at $750,000, was just carried by ignoring a Republican's vote against it. A great row occurred over the matter.

DIED.
At 8:30 Friday morning, June 5, 1891, Clara, beloved wife of Andrew Kopp, aged 37 years. The funeral will take place at 1 p. m. Sunday, June 7, 1891, from the family residence, north of the narrow gauge railroad depot. Relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral.

The Cattle Trade at Clayton.
Col. Henry Milne, of Roswell, one of the most extensive and successful cattle raisers in the territory, writes the New Mexican from Clayton as follows: Am here trying to sell a bunch of steers and hope to do so as soon as they arrive, which will be in a few days. Prices are fair, but buyers slow to take hold. Think they will come to it, however soon. Steers are being held at $10.50, $15.50 and $20, 1s, 2s and 3s, and some sales are being made at these figures, the class and condition of the cattle make a difference of from $1.50 to $2 per head.
J. H. Riley is here, as happy, energetic and busy as usual, getting off the cattle he has purchased for Mr. Dole. Very truly yours,
H. MILNE.

CASES AGAINST DIST. ATTY. WILLIAMS.

Believed to Have Been Found on Technicalities Only.

The grand jury at Socorro has been engaged for several days past in investigating charges against W. S. Williams, district attorney for the 5th judicial district. He is charged with malfeasance in office in that in one instance he accepted a fee of $500 from the Socorro county commissioners for prosecuting a suit against Sheriff Robinson, and in another case is alleged to have taken a similar fee for a suit against Sierra county to recover money due Socorro growing out of the division of the latter county. The grand jury has brought in two indictments against District Attorney Williams on account of the above charges. Mr. Catron has been retained to defend him.—New Mexican.

The Reporter does not know the exact language of the records, but from interviews with Chairman Montoya, and Mr. Jones, of the board, is led to believe that the above statement is incorrect. The money was appropriated to enable the district attorney to secure assistant counsel in two cases involving in the aggregate $14,000, and to pay the other expense of said suits. It is a disputed question as to whether the board of county commissioners have the authority to employ legal services beyond those furnished by the district attorney appointed by the governor, or not. It may take a decision of the supreme court to determine that question, but the Reporter does not believe that any court will deny to the board the inherent right to protect the interests of the county even in the face of a statute. If the court does, it is certainly contrary to sound public policy, and opens the door for the wholesale robbery of the counties. The grand jury in Grant county recommends that the district attorney in certain cases, and spare no expenses in doing so.—San Marcial Reporter.

Resolution of Respect.
At a meeting of Aslan lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F., held at Santa Fe, N. M., on the 29th day of May, 1891, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved that, Whereas it has pleased God the Almighty to call from our midst the beloved and venerable member of our order, the Rev. Thomas J. Glynn, in the prime of his life, and while devoting his life to the elevation of mankind in general, and the advancement of the interests of this order in special, be it Resolved therefore, That by his taking away from us we suffer a loss, which we from the depths of our hearts deeply regret. While we greatly cherish the memory of his presence amongst us, in body as well as in mind, his death was, although not an unexpected one, an occurrence which fills our hearts with sorrow and regret.

Resolved furthermore, That these resolutions be published as an expression of our esteem and love for the deceased brother in the Daily Bulletin of Albuquerque, N. M., and the New Mexican of Santa Fe, N. M., and that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the lodge in Albuquerque, N. M., in which the deceased brother was a member.

Also 145 acres but three miles from city, also Building Lots, singly or in block—locations unsurpassed. Also the AZTEC SPRING PROPERTY, consisting of 160 acres of land abounding in coal and all the precious metals; upon this tract is located the celebrated Aztec Springs, whose health giving qualities are second to none in the country. This last mentioned property is adjacent to the city and amidst the grandest scenery of the Santa Fe section of the Rocky Mountains.

All this Property can and will be sold at bargains—

Get on board and don't get left! Success is our Pilot!

HEALTHFUL EXERCISE.
Only a few months ago these romping, rosy-cheeked lasses were puny, delicate, pale, sickly girls. By the aid of Dr. Pierce's World's Great Remedy, they have become robust, plump, hale, hearty,
strong young women.
"Favorite Prescription" is an invigorating,
restorative tonic and as a regulator and producer of functional action at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, it is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is carefully compounded, by an experienced and skilled physician, and adapted to women's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. It imparts strength to the whole system. For overwork, "nervousness," "run-down," debilitated
teeth, milky discharges, neurasthenia,
"shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers,
and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest carter's boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturer,
that it will give satisfaction, every case,
or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been faithfully carried out for many years.

READABLE PARAGRAPHS.
Country Ba-hall.
From the Klant.
"Jim Johnson on deck" the teller calls,
And Jimmy steps to the plate;
He takes a hitch in his overalls
And the jays are all elate.
The first base spits on his hard right hand.
The pitcher frowns in his box,
As the dandiest player in any land
Stands up in his well-darned socks.
"Bang!" "Run hard!" It's a splendid race,
And the fence and farm-fields rock
As Jimmy in passing second base
Sheds a well-worn woolen sock;
He drops the other as round he goes—
It's a victory worthy won:
To watch the glint of his twinkling toes,
As he hollars, "Tally one."

Why endure it daily, nightly, what well nigh sick, hourly. They do who are tortured by chronic rheumatism. The remedy, b. t. a. n. c., pure, safe and prompt is at hand. Were the evidence in behalf of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters collected, it would be found to team with well authenticated proofs that the medicine is both a preventive and a remedy in this malady of varying degrees and ever present danger. To forestall its chronic state is the dictate of prudence.
Renounce dangerous medication. For more effective, more certain, more certain, more certain,

The following item, clipped from the information well worth remembering.

"Mr. John Roth, of this city, who met

Job Printing.
More and more others are hereby reminded that the New Mexican is pre-printing now going out of town should come to the New Mexican office. There is no better excuse for sending out of chants should consider these things. The New Mexican is acknowledged the lead-of the people will enable us to keep it so

Hon. W. V. Lucas, ex-estate auditor of Iowa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family and have no

it. Persons afflicted by a cough or cold will find it a friend." There is no danger from whooping cough when this remedy is freely given. Fifty cent bottles for sale by C. M. Creamer.

Advice to Mothers.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button."
It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gum, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Personal.

Disinterested Testimony.
Rev. Mr. W. Wharton, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Montgomery, Ala., writes:
"I have seen Swift's Specific used, and have known many cases of the worst form of blood disease which have been cured by it. I know the proprietors to be gentlemen of the highest type, and of the utmost reliability. I recommend it as a great blood remedy unequalled by anything that I know of."

HISTORICAL.
Santa Fe, the city of the Holy Faith of St. Francis, is the capital of New Mexico, trade center, sanitary and archeological seat.
An Indian pueblo had existed on the site previous to the 15th century. Its name was O-ga-phe, but it had been abandoned long before Coronado's time. The Spanish town of Santa Fe was founded in 1680, it is therefore the second oldest European settlement still extant in the United States. In 1846 came the first venturesome American trader—the forerunner of the great line of merchants who have made traffic over the Santa Fe world-wide in its celebrity.

THE CLIMATE.
of New Mexico is considered the finest on the continent. The high altitude insures dryness and purity (especially adapted to the permanent cure of pulmonary complaints, as hundreds will be witness), and by traveling from point to point almost any desired temperature may be enjoyed. The altitude of some of the principal points in Santa Fe is as follows: Santa Fe, 7,047; Castillo, 7,774; Tierra Amarilla, 7,485; Gri-rieta, 7,587; Taos, 6,950; Las Vegas, 6,452; Cimarron, 6,489; Bernalillo, 5,704; Albuquerque, 4,918; Socorro, 4,535; Las Cruces,
3,844; Silver City, 5,040; Ft. Stanton, 5,800.
The mean temperature at the government station at Santa Fe, for the years named was as follows: 1874, 48.9 degree; 1875, 48.6
degree; 1876, 48.1; 1877, 48.3; 1878, 48.7; 1879, 50.6; 1880, 46.6; which shows an extraordinary uniformity. For tubercular diseases the death rate in New Mexico is the lowest in the union, the ratio being as follows: New England, 25; Minnesota, 14;
Southern States, 8; and New Mexico, 3.

DISTANCES.
Santa Fe is distant from Kansas City 890
miles; from Denver 338 miles; from Trinidad, 216 miles; from Albuquerque, 85
miles; from Denning, 310; from El Paso, 340 miles; from Los Angeles, 1,032 miles;
from San Francisco, 1,281 miles.

ELEVATIONS.
The base of the monument in the grand plaza is, according to latest corrected measurements, 7,019.5 feet above the level of the sea; Bald mountain, toward the northwest, and at the extreme northern end of the Santa Fe mountains, is 12,061 feet above sea level; Lake Peak, to the right (where the Santa Fe river has its source), is 12,409 feet high; the divide (Teague road) 7,471;
Aguila Fria, 6,480; Cieneguilla, (west) 6,025;
La Bajada, 5,514; mouth of Santa Fe creek (north of Pena Blanca), 5,225; Sand-mountains (high point), 10,698; Old Placers, 6,801; Los Cerrillos mountain (south), 5,584 feet in height.

POINTS OF INTEREST.
There are some forty various points of more or less historic interest in and about the ancient city.
The adobe palace stands on the spot where the old Spanish palace had been erected shortly after 1680. That ancient structure was destroyed in 1880, and the present one was constructed between 1897 and 1910.
The chapel of San Miguel was built between 1636 and 1680. In the latter years the Indians destroyed it. Fully restored in 1880, it is now a fine example of the architecture of the old Spanish church in Santa Fe.
It still remains the oldest church in use in New Mexico.

The walls of the old cathedral date in part from 1622; but the edifice proper is from the past century.
Other points of interest to the tourist are:
The Historical Society's rooms; the "Garcia" military quarters; chapel and convent of Our Lady of the Rosary; the church museum at the new cathedral, the archbishop's garden; church of Our Lady of Guadalupe with its rare old works of art;
the soldiers' monument, monument to the Pioneer Path-Finder, Kit Carson, erected by the G. A. R. of New Mexico; St. Vincent's hospital, conducted by the Sisters of Charity, and the Orphan's industrial school; the Indian training school; Loreto Academy and the chapel of Our Lady of Light.

The sight-seer here may also take a vehicle
and enjoy a day's outing with both pleasure and profit. The various spots of interest to be visited are: Tenique pueblo, taking in the divide en route; Monument rock, up in picturesque Santa Fe; the Aztec mountain springs; San Juan pueblo; Agua Fria village; the turquoise mines; place of the as-sination of Governor Perez; San Rdefonso pueblo, or the ancient cliff dwellers, beyond
the Rio Grande.

THE CITY OF SANTA FE
is making a steady momentum growth; has now a population of 8,000, and has every assurance of becoming a beautiful modern city. Her people are liberal and enterprising, and stand ready to foster and encourage any legitimate undertaking having for its object the building up of and improvement of the place. Among the present needs of Santa Fe, and for which liberal bonuses in cash or lands could undoubtedly be secured,
may be mentioned a cannery factory, wool scouring plant and a tannery. Skilled labor of all kinds is in demand at good wages. The cost of living is reasonable, and real property, both inside and suburban, is readily advancing in value.

Incorporation Notes.

J. D. Allan is spoken of for alderman of the second ward. An excellent idea. If anybody wants any political fight in the coming city election, all right; let her go, Gallagher.

Respectable Democrats with the interest of the community at heart, are in favor of a non-partisan union city ticket.

Geo. W. Knaebel declines to become a candidate for mayor and it is too bad, indeed, that such should be the case.

The county boodle gang is acting to get its claws into the city treasury; should they succeed it will be poor Santa Fe indeed.

N. B. Laughlin and C. M. Creamer insist that a straight Democratic city ticket must be put up at the coming city election.

One of the first things the new city government will have to do will be to have the streets kept clean. Absolutely necessary in every respect.

Between J. H. Sloan's desire to be mayor and C. M. Creamer's intention to canvass the vote, city incorporation may find itself in the soup and in a hot tureen of it at that.

Santa Fe voted Thursday to incorporate. The proportion of voters in favor of incorporation was unexpectedly large, perhaps 800 voters being cast in favor to 100 against.—Raton Courier.

M. F. Sens, son of Major J. D. Sens and present deputy county clerk of Valencia county, writes to the New Mexican: "Allow me to congratulate you and all in the incorporation victory. May my old home continue progressing more and more."

The New Mexican is crowing over the result of the late election in favor of incorporation. A full-grown, healthy-looking game-cock is represented at the head of its columns with mouth agape, and so truly realistic that one can almost hear his clarion call, vote-for-incorporation. Santa Fe has awakened from her lethargy, and let us hope will soon assume the prominence which in her position as capital of New Mexico justly belongs to her.—Silver City Enterprise.

Flower Day at the Penitentiary.

Several years ago, a young lady named Jennie Cassidy, for thirty years an invalid and confined to her room, in pondering over what she might do for the happiness of others, and realizing that flowers had done to brighten her weary hours, devised the plan of having flowers carried annually to jails and penitentiaries. It was first started at her city in Ohio, and has now become one of the forty departments of work carried on by the ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The custom is fast gaining the world; wherever prisoners are kept confined, on the first Sunday of June a bunch of flowers in which is bound a text of scripture, is presented to each inmate. Appropriate exercises are conducted at the flower service. It will be held next Sunday at the penitentiary here at 1 p. m. All interested and the public generally are invited and will be welcome.

Owing to the lateness of the season, flowers are scarce, and persons having some which they can spare will confer a great favor by sending them to the old school building, Presbyterian mission house, on Sunday morning.

Santa Fe Can Not Live on Age Alone.

THE OLDEST AND THE NEWEST CITY. Santa Fe ever since it became a part of this Republic, some forty-three years ago, has claimed to be the oldest city within its territory. She has scorned and ridiculed the pretensions of St. Augustine, Fla., to a higher degree of venerability. She celebrated her attainment to a third of a thousand years of age a half a decade or so ago. Age is commonly not a desirable or great attainment. It is not an achievement of genius or strength. It comes to all through just waiting, and it generally comes all too fast.

But then there is a sort of satisfaction in being the superlative in something, even if it be only age. When people are compelled to relinquish all pretensions to youth, they begin to aspire to be the oldest in some sort of a crowd or pursuit. So Santa Fe glories in her reputation of age. She shows her little, old church, with its crumbling walls, the oldest in the country, with more pride than Denver exhibits her newest and most magnificent house of worship. She indicates to travelers her ancient palace with more gratification than Washington points the new capitol, completed only within recent years.

But in a legal sense Santa Fe is the newest city in the Union. During all these years of her boasting of age, she has been only the oldest settlement or village in the country. While, of course, she will not take off any years from her age, she must admit a little of her dignity. Thus is presented a new specimen of the strange contrasts in the old new land south of Arkansas.—Denver Sun.

A SCROFULOUS BOY.

Running Sores Covered His Body and Head—Bones Affected—Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

When 6 months old, the left hand of our little scrofulous boy began to swell, and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after became a running sore, soon others formed.

He then had two of them. His blood became more and more impure, it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the under lip, which was very offensive. His head was soiled with scab, discharging a great deal.

His condition at 22 months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than a year old, of consumption, of course, he could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the CUTICURA REMEDIES, using all freely.

One sore after another healed, a bony matter forcing its way out of these five deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out, then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations I preserved. After taking a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. Mrs. E. S. DRIGGS.
