In a statement issued June 8, Costa Rican Foreign Minister Rodrigo Madrigal said his government will not authorize the return of its ambassador to Panama before resolution of the Panamanian political crisis. On June 6, foreign ministers of Organization of American States member-nations adopted a resolution mandating an extension until July 16 for a four-member OAS mission to mediate a peaceful transfer of power by September. Madrigal described the resolution as regrettable, but that Costa Rica would not act unilaterally or outside the structure and intent of the OAS decision. (Basic data from Xinhua, 06/09/89)
