Foreign Ministry spokesperson David Silva Narvaez told reporters on June 16 that Spanish citizen Eliselda Nogue Claveri died under "strange circumstances" on the previous weekend. Nogue Claveri had been working in the La Segovia cooperative in Esteli, 149 km. north of Managua. Narvaez said, "Nogue Claveri left Esteli on the weekend for Puerto Cabezas (400 km. northeast of the capital) to visit a friend and was found dead in that city in strange circumstances." Police are conducting an investigation, and the Foreign Ministry is proceeding with all necessary measures for transporting the corpse to Spain. (Basic data from Notimex, 06/16/89)
