BURST DOES DAMAGE

West Virginia Rivers Rise
Rapidly and Sweep
Away Houses.

MILLIONS FEET OF TIMBER

Fleeing People Wade From Houses and Seek Safety on Mountain Tops.

LOSS OF LIFE NOT CONFIRMED

Weston, W. Va., Jan. 24.—A heavy wind and rainstorm, resembling a cloudburst, passed over the southeastern portion of this state yesterday,
flooding Cherry, Holly and Elk rivers,
and carrying away bridges, houses and
many millions of feet of valuable timber.

In Richwood the water rose five feet in the houses. The water came up suddenly, so that men, women and children had to wade waist deep
out of their homes to the mountain top.

Over twelve miles of the Holly
River & Addition railroad were washed away between Herit Junction and Webster Springs.

The report of fifteen lives lost has not been confirmed. The total money loss from the floods will run into millions of dollars.

BROTHERHOOD OF RAILWAY

TRAINMEN IN CONFERENCE.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 24.—The conference between General Manager
Thomas Fitzgerald and the general committee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen which was arranged some time ago, will open here this afternoon. It is understood that the trainmen this year have but few complaints to make and the conference, which may last several days,
will therefore not be very exciting. It is understood that the trainmen will
ask for a slight readjustment of wages,
by which it is thought some of them
will be more justly compensated, and this, with possible changes in some of the rules governing the service of the trainmen, are the only matters of importance scheduled to come up at this meeting.

ANOTHER GOVERNOR WITH A PROMINENT "LID"

The newly inaugurated governor of Ohio, John M. Pattison, has attracted national attention by announcing that there will be a tight "lid" in Ohio during his term. He says that all laws against the saloons and vice
must be enforced by officials all over the state.

The order means that gambling
must be abolished wherever it exists
and that saloons must close every midnight and all day on Sundays.

This hits the city of Cincinnati particularly hard, because there saloons
have had a free rein.

MAY SUCCEED PRESIDENT HARPER

Chicago, Jan. 24.—Among the names
of possible successors to the late President Harper of Chicago University, is that of President W. H. P.
Faulstich, of Brown University, who is pastor of Rockefeller's church in New York City.

SOUTHERN KENNEL CLUB

GIVES SHOW AT MEMPHIS.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 24.—The first annual bench show of the Southern Kennel club opens here today. It will be conducted under the rules of the American Kennel club and will be an annual institution. More than 500 dogs are exhibited in the show and many of them have won first prizes
at some of the most important exhibitions in this country. The Southern Kennel club has succeeded in establishing a regular circuit of bench
shows in the south and after the show
in this city it will make the circuit
to Atlanta, Louisville and Nashville.
Many prominent dog fanciers are here and will attend the big banquet
which will be given at the Gayoso
hotel this evening.

RUSSIAN JEWS PROMISED

FURTHER CONCESSIONS.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.—Further concessions, it was announced today,
have been granted to the Jews in the government of Russia, where they enjoy the right of domicile by the addition of 133 places in country districts,
where they will be permitted to reside without hindrance.

NO AMENDMENT TO ISLE

OF PINES TREATY.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—The
senate committee on foreign relations today voted to report the treaty with Cuba, ceding the Isle of Pines to that republic. The treaty was not amended.

MOROCCAN CONFERENCE

ACCEPTS COMMITTEE REPORT.

Algiers, Jan. 24.—The Moroccan conference at its session today accepted all articles of the report of the committee on contraband and arms,
and passed to the consideration of economic questions.

GRANT-POTTER NUPTIALS

CELEBRATED TODAY.

New York, Jan. 24.—Miss Grace
Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Potter, and Stuart Colquhoun
Grant, son of the late Colonel Grant of Dinard, were married here today
in the Church of the Heavenly Rest.
Several hundred friends of the two families were present at the wedding.

PUT HER THERE, PAR, FOR JOINT STATEHOOD IS A GO

On Test Vote Upon the Rule to Limit Debate to Three O'Clock Tomorrow Afternoon, the Organization Had
Majority of 27, the Vote Standing 192 to 165.

ASSURES PASSAGE BY THE HOUSE--RULE IN FULL--SPECIMEN OF SPEECHES

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—
The statehood resolution was today adopted, the vote being 192
to 165.

Special to The Evening Citizen.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24, 2:35
p. m.—The rule and the previous question on the statehood bill just carried by a vote of 27 majority. This insures the passage of the joint statehood bill in the house.

Special to The Evening Citizen.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24, 2:32 p.
m.—The rule vote was as follows:
Ayes—192.
Nays—165.

RULE IN FULL, AS THE

HOUSE ADOPTED IT.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—Following is the statehood rule, which the house committee on rules agreed to today, and on which the test of strength
in the statehood fight was made in the house:

Resolved, That immediately upon
adoption of this order, and daily thereafter, immediately on approval of journal, so long as the bill hereinafter referred to shall be pending in committee of the whole of the house on state of union, on an equal footing
with original states, and to enable the people of Oklahoma and of the Indian Territory to form a constitution and state government and be admitted into the union on an equal footing with original states, and to enable the people of New Mexico and Arizona to form a constitution and state government and be admitted
into the union on an equal footing
with original states; that after said
bill shall have been referred, general
debate shall continue until Thursday
next, at 3 o'clock p. m., and at that hour, or if general debate shall be concluded before that hour, immediately upon conclusion of said general
debate, the committee of the whole house on state of union shall rise and report the bill to the house, whereupon, immediately, without debate, intervening motion or appeal, a vote
shall be taken on the bill to its final passage; provided, further, that general leave to print remarks on the bill
is hereby granted for six legislative days after Thursday, the 25th day of January, next.

FIGHT WAS SHORT

BUT VERY DRAMATIC.

Washington, Jan. 24.—With a rule
prepared allowing general debate on the statehood bill until 3 o'clock tomorrow and with an unusually full attendance of members and crowded galleries, the statehood fight opened in the house today with tension at a high pitch.

Dalzell presented the rule which had been agreed upon by the rules committee. When it had been read, Dalzell after consultation with Williams,

minority leader, asked unanimous consent that debate for one and a half hours be allowed on the rule. This was agreed to and Dalzell explained
the first terms of the statehood bill.
He then stated that if the rule should be adopted, the vote on the bill would be had tomorrow.

Williams stated that the rule in question denied to the house the right to vote on the question of admitting
any of the four territories separately.
He was, he said, holding a whip over the house, compelling it to agree to admit Arizona and New Mexico as one state.

SOME SPECIMENS OF

THE SPEECHES MADE.

Special to The Citizen.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, republican, following
the privileged report of the committee,
explained that the rule could be debated for one and a half hours, but at 3 o'clock Thursday, the bill will be voted on.

Dalzell stated the case and spoke in its favor. Williams, of Mississippi, democrat, spoke against it. Mondell,
of Wyoming, republican, spoke ten minutes against it. Grosvenor, of Ohio, spoke ten minutes for it. Payne, of New York, republican, opposed admission of New Mexico and Arizona, because the new state would offset the two senators from New York. Bede, of Minnesota, republican, said: "Why does the gentleman refer to New York's senators when everybody else is trying to forget them?" This was followed by one minute of uproar.

Van Patten was confirmed today as receiver of the Las Cruces land office.

SAME OLD GAGS

HEARD OFTEN LATELY.

Washington, Jan. 24.—3:55 p. m.—
Williams yielded ten minutes to Mon-dell of Wyoming, one of the republican insurgents, who expressed the hope that the demand for the previous question would be voted down. Mondell denied that the bill was a republican party measure, and said that every man, woman and child in New Mexico opposed being joined to Arizona. There was a large number in the house, too,
if their hands were not tied, would vote
against joining these two territories.
He characterized the proposed rule
as a violation of party platform.

The reply to Mondell was made by Grosvenor of Ohio, who maintained
that the joint statehood bill is a republican measure. The president is for it and the house in caucus had endorsed it. That it was a party question, he said, would be recognized in the next half hour, when the vote on the rule would be taken. When Grosvenor concluded, Williams protested
with great warmth against Grosvenor's
efforts to make this a partisan question. The question of the permanent welfare of the people of the two territories should never be a partisan question. Opposition to the rule was made by Adams, of Wisconsin, republican insurgent. Appealing for the rights of the people of the great state of New York,

Payne, of New York, who followed,
protested against the equal representation in the senate from the territories. Should the "providence of God,"
he said, "infect the country with democratic rule, we should have such legislation."

J. Adam Bede, of Minnesota, who followed, began, "If we have a democratic rule, it won't be providence of God; it will be a mistake of the republican leaders." (Laughter.) "Why,"
he continued, "Mr. Payne speaks about the New York senators, while most of the people are trying to forget them."
It was several minutes before the vigorous efforts of Speaker Cannon availed against the shouts of laughter and applause.

"The gentleman from Minnesota," warned the speaker, "does know, or is ought to know that his remark is against the rules of the house and
against all parliamentary usage."

"I only intended my reference in the kindest spirit," remarked Bede, who proceeded. "He was tired, he said of the treatment accorded the west, generally designated the 'wild and woolly
west.' It reminded him of the daughter of an old Kentucky colonel who said she was 27 years old before she knew that 'dam Yankee' was not one word. 'It was unusual,' he said, 'when they went to whip us into line to use
the name of the 'great president' but when the president is opposing something the east wants, he is the 'bronco statesman.'"

"Why," he continued, "you say they have not got enough 'folks'—newcomers, I suppose, to fill the place of the old ones."

Reverting to early days in New England, Bede convulsed the house
again by declaring that the Pilgrim fathers would have landed there had
they not been assisted. (Laughter.)
Tanner took the floor and briefly explained that in bowing to the leaders of the house in supporting the rule he did it against his own judgment.

Jones, of Washington, professed more love for Speaker Cannon than any man in the country, and also his regard for the president, but he absolutely refused to go against his conscience and follow them in this matter. He had supported the present opposition to the rule, and since he had visited Arizona and after seeing the splendid civilization there, he should not vote now to destroy it.

Smith, delegate from Arizona, who spoke three minutes, seemed somewhat depressed. The action of Congressman Taylor in taking the floor against them, he said, was the most
"unkindest cut of all."

De Almond, of Missouri and Kahn,
of California, spoke against the rule,
when four and one-half minutes was yielded to Babcock, of Wisconsin, the leader of the "insurgents." He had,
he said, always opposed joint statehood. He considered that joining Arizona and New Mexico was a crime.

COTTON GROWERS HOLD WHIP HAND ON PRICES

New York, Jan. 24.—For the first time in history the American cotton growers are in the fortunate position
to dictate to the spinners and cotton goods manufacturers. The spinners
and manufacturers, realizing this fact,
decided to ask the cotton producers
to meet them in conference for the purpose of arranging some compromise regarding the price of cotton.
In accordance with this decision representatives of the New England, the Manchester, England, and the American Association of Southern Cotton Spinners met the representatives of the Southern Cotton Association in conference in this city. President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton association, is here and will attend
the conference, which may last several days.

The situation is rather peculiar.

When the Southern Cotton association met in September of last year, it

fixed the minimum price at 11 cents a pound. The bears and spinners, taking advantage of the immediate needs
of the southern farmers and cotton planters, drove the price down to 9.50.
As it is now, even if the rest of the crop should be sold at 15 cents, the general average would not be far to the farmers. But, now, the cotton growers have the bears and spinners at their mercy. The spot situation is absolutely dominated by the men who produced the cotton and this in the face of the fact that at the beginning of the season they were confronted with the prospect of a fourteen million bale crop. The spinners are making more now on 12 cent cotton than they ever did on 5 cent cotton. The mills would not suffer, it is said, even if the balance of the crop should be sold at 15 cents a pound. There were 5,000,000 new spindles in the south
last year.

REMARKABLE RECORD IN CAPT. ROSE'S CASE

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—The war department has received the remarkable record in the case of Captain Robert W. Rose, of the Twenty-first infantry, who was tried in San Francisco before a military court for alleged insubordination and was sentenced to be reprimanded. The part of the record which is most interesting is the copy of the correspondence
in which Captain Rose indulged in with his senior officers. He was at the time of his alleged offense a patient under treatment at the Army
General Hospital in San Francisco, and he addressed the military secretary
of the department headquarters on one occasion, asking that if he were confronted with any charges, would he

be "proceeded against in a lawful and dignified manner," adding: "The treatment I am receiving here is not only unusual and unmilitary, but it is cruel
and unnecessary as I am not sick.
My health is being confined by the confinement and torture. If I cannot secure relief from the military authorities I must, perforce, appeal to civil as my health demands it." At another time he referred to the hospital
and its surroundings as constituting
"a novel situation, as it is my first term of confinement under the medical department, General Funston, who passed on the case thought the court did not do full justice to the findings as expressed in the sentence.

INDIAN COMMISSION MAKES FINAL REPORT

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—The
final report of the commission of the five civilized Indian tribes in Indian territory, covering the fiscal year 1905, when the existence of the commission officially ended, has been submitted to the secretary of the interior.
The report says that the commission
was accomplished the purpose for which it was created, though such things as final allotment of lands to the Chickasaw and Choctaw and Mississippi Choctaws and allotment
of some cause must go on for a considerable time.

The commission has negotiated the

agreements necessary to the dissolution of the tribal governments and the transfer of land titles from the tribes

as communities to the individual Indians. The commission experienced great difficulty in making the rolls
absolutely correct, owing to the peculiarities of Indian nomenclature, married names, etc. The Choctaw and Chickasaw nations had 66,517 applicants for enrollment; Cherokee,
46,464; Creek, 20,110, and Seminole,
3,171. Out of this total of 135,963 Indians 89,295 men enrolled or identified themselves, 32,522 refused or disclaimed,
and 13,155 applications are still unsettled. Out of the total 19,525,974 acres of land
up to June 30, 1905, there were allo-
tated 12,754,247 acres.

SHIP BUILDERS DISCUSS

NEW NAVAL PLANS.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—The
leading ship builders of the country
have been in Washington, following normal joint communications in regard to matters which by them are deemed necessary in the form of contraindication by the navy department to cover the construction of naval vessels. For some time it has been felt by the constructors that the exactions
of the department were too severe and that too much was left for general disposition and so expressed as to give the department an unfair advantage in the discussions arising under the contract. It is proposed to have the primary question as to impose
greater restrictions upon both parties
to the contract and to modify the penalties as to new attachments or over-
weights in vessels of war.

LIQUOR DEALERS GIVE

EXPENSIVE SOCIAL FUNCTION.

New York, Jan. 24.—This evening
the annual ball of the Liquor Dealers
association will be held at Madison Square Garden. These balls, although not by any means costume affairs,
have grown to be among the most attractive affairs of the kind in the city
and annually attract an enormous crowd to Madison Square Garden. For the ball tonight the most extensive preparations have been made and it promises to surpass all former balls
in brilliancy. Among the special features of the affair will be a number of fountains spouting real champagne
and other wines. There will be two military bands, which will play alternately, thus making the music continuous throughout the evening and night.

AWFUL LOSS OF HUMAN LIFE

Of 94 Passengers and 60
Crew Twenty-One
Able to

GET TO LAND FROM SHIP

Steamer Struck Reef in Fog

and Big Wind

and

RESCUE WAS NOT POSSIBLE

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 24.—The steamer Valencia, Captain Johnson, of the Pacific Coast Steamship company,
with ninety-four passengers aboard,
and a crew of sixty, was wrecked to
the eastward of Cape Beale, on the Vancouver Island coast, in the early morning of Tuesday, with a heavy loss of life.

The survivors, who have reached Cape Beale, are a boatswain and five seamen, sent to secure assistance in one of the steamer's boats. They report that at least fifty drowned alongside the steamer when the boats, loaded with women and children, smashed against the steamer's side, soon after being lowered.

When they left over 100 persons were huddled on the deck of the steamer, which was then partly submerged, with the sea washing over the main deck. The heavy sea threatened to break up the wreck.

Unless several steamers which have been hurried to the assistance of the Valencia, can arrive in time to save those who remain on deck, it is doubtful if any will reach the shore,
for landing in such a place is extremely difficult, even if possible.

The vessel left San Francisco Saturday, and had thick heavy weather
all the way, preventing the taking of observations. The captain sailed by dead reckoning and struck a reef. The vessel began to fill with ninety-four passengers and a crew of sixty on board.

Little Hope Remains.

The heavy fog is deterring the rescue work at the scene of the wreck
of the Valencia, which yesterday morning went ashore with ninety-four
passengers and a crew of sixty on board. The weather is very thick, with tremendously heavy sea, though the wind has died down. Lineman Logan, who left for the scene of the wreck by land train, has not returned and it cannot be ascertained
whether the steamer survived the southwest gale which, when the last person left the wreck yesterday afternoon, threatened to break up the vessel. Fully 100 people were still aboard
the Valencia yesterday and no information has since reached the shore.

ONLY TWENTY-ONE SAVED

OF HUNDRED FIFTY-FOUR.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 24.—A message
just received from Cape Beale says:
"We only know of fifteen survivors.
Nine are ashore fifteen miles from here and six are here. Two men are expected here by land. The steamer were unable to reach the wreck during the night."

SCIENCE EXTENDING

AMONG DAIRYMEN.

Anderson, Ind., Jan. 24.—The sixteenth annual meeting of the Indiana
State Dairy association opened here
today with a large attendance, representing every part of the state. Many prominent representatives of this important industry are here and some
will deliver addresses before the convention. At this convention particular attention will be given to the problems of the milk producer. One of the interesting features of the meeting will be a cow judging demonstration by experts. The development of the field work and the educational butter experiment station have been of great value
to the dairymen of this state and have greatly increased the interest of the farmers and dairymen in a more scientific method in dairy work.

OHIO DAIRYMEN IN

SESSION AT DAYTON.

Dayton, O., Jan. 24.—The annual meeting of the Ohio State Dairymen's association opened here today with headquarters at the Algonquin hotel.
In connection with the convention an exhibition of supplies, machinery and products for and of dairies is held in the annex to the hotel. One of the interesting features will be that the judging will be done publicly during the convention. The scores will make the tests and according to the results
obtained announce the awards, giving the reasons for making the awards
in each case. One of the principal speakers of the convention will be former Governor W. D. Hoard of Wisconsin, who arrived here this morning and will remain here during the three days of the convention.

LOOKING AFTER THE

LONG NEGLECTED TREES.

Burlington, Vt., Jan. 24.—The forestry problem, which is beginning to confront every one of the eastern states in a rather serious manner,
will be the principal subject of discussion at the annual meeting of the Vermont State Forestry association, which opened here today. The attendance is unusually large and a number of prominent experts, among them several from other states, will deliver addresses and read papers on matters pertaining to the care and preservation of forests.

RIVAL CHINESE FACTION

FIGHT IN NEW YORK.

New York, Jan. 24.—War broke out in the streets of Chinatown today between two rival Chinese factions, the Hio Sings and On Fongs. Two Calnans were killed during the shooting
and a third one was mortally wounded
while another one was badly injured.
The police have arrested several of the participants.

MANY MATTERS OF INTEREST TO ALL

Lumber Dealers Discuss Decreasing Areas of Lumber Supply Timber.

CHLOROFORM OSLER TALKS

How Weather Conditions Affect the Industries of Different Sections.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 24.—The first convention of the Northern Pine Manufacturing association opened here yesterday. The new organization, which has not yet been permanently organized, is the result of a merger of the Mississippi Valley Lumbermen's association and the Wisconsin State Lumbermen's association. The two associations have always been closely connected in the past and during the past few years there had been a growing sentiment in favor of consolidating the two associations, whose interests were so closely allied. The matter was discussed in both organizations and committees were appointed to bring about the merger. The latter was effected at a meeting in Milwaukee in the early part of December and the present convention is the first joint convention of the consolidated associations. The new association will permanently organize and elect its officers for the ensuing year. It is probable that the headquarters of the new organization will be established in this city. The new organization includes nearly all the prominent white and Norway pine lumbermen and manufacturers of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and Iowa.

Southwestern Dealers. Kansas City, Kan., Jan. 24.—Nearly 1,500 lumbermen from Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory are gathered here to attend the annual convention of the Southwestern Lumbermen's association, which opened yesterday morning and will last three days. The association is composed of retail lumber dealers of the states and territories named and has a number of wholesale lumber dealers on its honorary membership list. The wholesale lumber dealers of this city have made extensive preparations for the entertainment of the visiting lumbermen and they will undoubtedly have a busy time. The fact that the Order of the Hoosier composed of exclusively of lumbermen is holding its convention here at the same time, will add considerably to the enjoyment of the visiting members. About 150 candidates will be initiated during the convention. After the adjournment of the convention the members will take a trip to Cuba.

OSLER TO LECTURE ON TUBERCULOSIS. Baltimore, Md., Jan. 24.—Dr. Osler, a professor at Oxford, England, now on a lecture tour, will deliver an address this evening before the Maryland Association for the Prevention and Relief of Tuberculosis. It is expected that a number of members of the state legislature will attend the meeting to obtain information in regard to the proposition of establishing a state tuberculosis hospital.

PENCIL PUSHERS MEET IN KENTUCKY CAPITAL. Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 24.—The Kentucky Press Association is holding its annual midwinter meeting in this city. The opening session was devoted to routine business. There will be another business session this afternoon and in the evening a meeting will be held at which the members of the association will be addressed by A. V. Ford of Louisville and Colonel George Harvey, editor of Harper's Weekly, of New York.

UNDERBILT THE TRUST ON TOBACCO FOR NAVY. Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—For the first time in several years the navy department has this year been able to award its contracts for tobacco for the next fiscal year to a concern not identified with the so-called tobacco trust. Hitherto the prices of rival bidders have been such that the award of the contract had to be made to a firm believed to have been connected with the trust. Last year the contract was not awarded to the firm whose samples were considered the best because the price demanded was too high, but this year the firm offering the best samples, offered them at 25 cents a pound, which is considered a very reasonable price.

THOUSANDS OF OTHERS BUT UNMENTIONED ONES. Newport, R. I., Jan. 24.—Baby Vanderbilt, also known as Miss Cathleen Vanderbilt, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, had two candles upon her birthday cake, which occupied a prominent place on the table at luncheon. Little Cathleen was two years old yesterday, and formed the center of attention in and around Sandy Point, the magnificent country place of the Vanderbilts. Wagons loaded of flowers and presents for the little miss arrived from all directions and even the employees and working people connected with the Sandy Point establishment did not neglect to send a token of their kind feelings for the little girl. Quite unconscious of her own importance Miss Cathleen graciously received the homage of her parents, grandparents and other relatives and enjoyed the good things which came to her, like any child, less fortunately situated.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing Nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics, grime, weaken, dispirit, while DeWitt's Little Nephew's Pills simply expel all purged matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. W. H. How, Houston, Tex., says: "For years I have used Little Nephew's Pills in my family. No better pill can be used for constipation." Sold by all druggists.

MERCHANT TAILORING

My merchant tailoring shop is upstairs over No. 209 West Railroad Avenue, where I solicit the patronage of the public. All work guaranteed first class, as I have had fifteen years' experience in the business. Suits made to order, clothes cleaned, pressed and repaired. The specific I use will not injure the cloth. Ladies' garments also cleaned and waiting skirts made to order. Give me a trial.

The Commercial Club.

In the memorial address by the Albuquerque Commercial club to congress regarding the statehood matter, the membership of the organization was represented at 200. This means that Las Vegas has a numerically stronger club than Albuquerque. However, the entrance fee to the Albuquerque club for a voting member is $50, and the dues are $1.00 a month. Financially, therefore, the Albuquerque organization is, probably, stronger, although it appears likely that the expense keeps out a great many desirable members.

The Las Vegas Commercial club has every promise of further growth and of increasing usefulness in the community. The organization has already in hand, in connection with the county commissioners, the matter of the repair of the Mora road. It is keeping in close touch with the government reservoir and with the sanitation projects. It is just now engaged in preparing a club directory, which shall include the names and businesses of its members, and a write-up of the city and county, for distribution among thousands who are making inquiries concerning this section.

The club has adopted a policy of standing by its members under all possible circumstances, of trying to advance their business and individual interests, as well as to contribute to their social pleasure.

The club directorate has defined its policy towards the public. While the organization exists for the purpose of benefiting and building up Las Vegas, it is felt that this work must be accomplished, as far as possible, through the membership. In order to make the club as strong and as much of an aid to the community as it should be it must include all the important business interests. If all these interests can be working in and through this organization a great deal of good is bound to result. And the Las Vegas club has almost achieved that desired end. The business men of weight in the community who do not belong to the Commercial club are very few, and it is likely that these will all come in within a short time.—Las Vegas Optic.

Statehood Talk.

As showing how little the big dailies of the country know about the merits and actual conditions of the statehood question, or else how little they care to tell the people the truth about it, the Washington Post the other day had this to say:

"It was pointed out yesterday that the house leaders in Washington do not understand the strong public sentiment behind these insurgents. In the case of the Missouri delegation, it was stated that the St. Louis Globe-Democrat and the Kansas City Journal, the only big republican newspapers in Missouri, were zealous in their opposition to the admission of New Mexico and Arizona as a single state, and that they represented the sentiment of the people, not only of Missouri, but Kansas as well."

Now here is the latest utterance of the Globe-Democrat on the subject, taken from its issue of day before yesterday. If some other of the great dailies were only as "zealous in their opposition" to the admission of the two territories as one state the friends of jointure would be glad. But here is the way the Globe-Democrat shows its "zealous opposition":

"Consolidation is the proper course, and this seems to be the time to make it. The people of Arizona and New Mexico, who care nothing for the interests of the politicians, ought to exert themselves in this exigency. Statehood would be an advantage to the mass of the residents of both territories, as it is to all communities in their situation, and joint statehood is the only kind which has the faintest chance of passage in this congress. In any case, the bill in its present shape, is likely to pass the house in a few days. It will have a hard fight in the senate, but it will probably go through that body also in the shape in which the house passes it. And there is a strong probability that the people of Arizona-New Mexico will accept admission under those terms."

The Oro Grande Times.

Once upon a time there was a man who joined the church and contended he ought to pray every night before retiring. This he did till the weather got cold; but not to be remiss in his duties, he scolded the Lord's prayer from a New Testament and pasted it upon the head of his bed. Then, when he nightly tucked the covering about his shivering shoulders, he would nod toward the pasted prayer and say: "Lord, them's my sentiments."

The Citizen has received a copy of Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Oro Grande Times, and the following from the New Mexican exactly expresses its sentiments:

"And all they come! This time it is the Oro Grande Times. It is getting to be difficult to keep track of the newspapers in New Mexico and the New Mexican's exchange list has been growing at an amazing rate the past few years. The Oro Grande Times is published at Jarilla Junction, Otero county, upon the site of what is to be the town of Oro Grande. The town site has been laid out at the junction of the El Paso & Southern railroad and the branch railroad to the mining camp of Jarilla; the preliminary arrangements have been made for the erection of a large smelter and the work has been begun on a pipe line to bring water from the Sacramento mountains to Oro Grande, or as the post-office department less euphonically calls it, Jarilla Junction. The day is gone by when the average newspaper looked as if it had been printed with stove-pipe rollers and was edited by the printer's devil. The Oro Grande Times looks as if it had just stepped out of a handbox. Its articles are well written, it is set from new type, and is well made up, having every appearance of prosperity. For the present it will be published weekly. May it live long and see Oro Grande grow to be a rival of El Paso, Texas."

The Citizen congratulates Governor Hagerman upon the favorable circumstances under which he enters upon his administration. The country at large and the territory of New Mexico as well, is enjoying an unprecedented prosperity. Hopefulness is in the air; and with hopefulness and abundant money, enterprises will of necessity multiply and flourish. Then, too, which goes a long way, the new governor is welcomed with open arms and cordial speech by the entire people of New Mexico. Not having to any considerable extent, been in public affairs in the territory, he enters upon his duties not only without supporters to reward or opponents to punish, but apparently with the best of wishes from the people of every section of New Mexico and the adherents of all political parties. As far as the horizon of the future may now be scanned, a bounding breeze and rockless sea await his gubernatorial cruise. The Citizen certainly wishes him success and that every pleasant augur of the future may be more than realized.

At present our foreign trade movement is exceedingly satisfactory, the excess of exports over imports for the month of December amounting to $98,500,000, compared with only $18,000,000 excess the same month last year. It was the largest December on record for both imports and exports, the total imports during the month being $101,000,000 and the total exports amounting to almost $199,000,000. A year ago the imports for December were $50,000,000 and the exports $15,000,000. This enormous increase of $149,000,000 in exports is an extremely satisfactory feature.

Secretary Taft charges Harriman's steamship line with embarrassing the canal commission by neglecting freight on the isthmus. The suggestion that a few mail contracts be pulled from under the Southern Pacific looks rather legitimate.

Good of Jointure

As to Education

By Dr. Thomas Harwood.

Is there not something noble in the thought of building or helping to build states?

There is probably no thought so ennobling to the old soldier of our late war with the south as that he helped to hold the succeeding states in the union and thus preserved this great republic in one great and undivided government. Especially is this the case now that our government has become the admiration of the world in its mediation and arbitration of the nations. If this be true, may the time not come when those who are wisely and honestly trying to build the territories into states, will also be honored?

They may be condemned now by many, but so has it always been. The writer of this article had the honor as an humble citizen of the state of Minnesota to cast his vote for its admission into the union. The argument against the admission of Minnesota was about the same as now against New Mexico and other territories being admitted, viz.: higher taxes, the inferiority of the people, and lack of sufficient population, but how soon Minnesota, being admitted, outgrew all these objections.

But it is single statehood you want, is it not? Yes, I would prefer single statehood for New Mexico, but it is evident we cannot get single statehood at present, and perhaps not for a quarter of a century yet, and can we afford to stay out in the cold and wait longer? That is now the question and the all-absorbing question. We are hungry for statehood. Would it not be better to accept a "half loaf" than no bread at all? We are tired of territorial government. We all know that is not the condition best suited for the development of the country and its people. But after all, is it not the name, New Mexico, you hate to lose? And is not that a mere sentiment? Yes, I admit there is much sentiment in it. And is not sentiment the spice of life? The name of New Mexico, with its more than three hundred years of historic association and romance and heroism and thirty-six years of actual residence of the writer, has something in it that is more than sentiment. It is an endearing reality. But after all, would we not better surrender and submit to the inevitable and accept statehood in any honorable way we can get it?

I once heard an ex-governor of Arizona say: "The best thing the Lord ever did for man was to put him to sleep, take a rib and make a woman for him. And so the best thing the government has ever done for the country was to put New Mexico to sleep and take a rib from it and make Arizona." And so may we not carry the figure a little farther and suggest that the consummation of the Lord's great work was in uniting them together and making one of them? But if Arizona could be as modest as Mother Eve was and not steal our name from us we would like it better, but let us have statehood anyhow. If we have to be called Arizona and not New Mexico and can't help ourselves, let it go, statehood at any price, and I base my main argument in favor of statehood on the supposition that we can have better endowments for our common schools and if this be true, would we be justifiable in depriving the rising race of the educational advantages that a great state, like Texas, for example, would give us? Texas has honored herself for all time to come in her elaborate provisions to educate her children. Note her permanent school funds as given by the superintendent of public instruction in his last report: Cash, uninvested, $158,851; interest-bearing notes, $10,878,524; land notes, $20,105,840; leased lands, $8,889,482; total, $40,032,797.

In addition to the above forty million dollars now producing income, the permanent income, the permanent school fund holds upwards of nine million acres of unleased lands now unproductive of income, but having great possibilities for the future.

Now, why could not New Mexico and Arizona, united into one great state, lay its plans for some such noble showing as the above?

With such a vast endowment for public schools, who could estimate the educational advantages arising therefrom to our children in the coming generation? Who dare let sentiment or prejudice or anything else deprive our children of such a blessing?

Take El Paso, one of our neighboring frontier cities. That city paid out last year $115,242.95. The total expenditures for nine of our best towns in New Mexico was only $117,120. Only about two thousand dollars more than one of Texas' frontier cities. Why is all this? It is because El Paso is in a great state and that state has made rich provisions for her schools. Cannot New Mexico and Arizona, united into one great state, do the same?

The bill before congress asking that New Mexico and Arizona be united into one state promises 24,000,000 acres of land for public buildings, institutions of learning and common schools. Of course the common schools will get the greater part of that. In addition to the above the bill provides for a gift of $5,000,000 for public schools. For this last we are indebted to Mr. Rodey, our ex-delegate to congress. With all his usual modesty he pushed his way through the door, by the door-keeper, and begged Senator Beveridge, chairman of the committee on territories, for ten minutes to explain a matter that he had not been able to explain before. The senator replied: "We are in secret session and must not be disturbed." Mr. Rodey replied: "I know it, sir, but I must be allowed time to explain an important matter." The committee cut him down from ten to five minutes, but Mr. Rodey's "chin music" for five minutes beginning $10,000,000 brings into the new state $5,000,000, that is to say, a million dollars for each minute. We think it safe to say that few men ever made money as fast as that. But it was not for himself, but for us provided we accept joint statehood.

The writer of this article has lived in New Mexico long enough to see the illiteracy of the territory reduced from 85 per cent to almost 25 per cent, for which all the educators of New Mexico ought to feel proud. And if the territory has made such rapid progress on the lines of education with limited resources at its command, what might we not hope to be with the above named endowments?

Wonderful Effect

of Magical Number

A Wilkesbarre man, through threat of divorce, secured from his wife a signed pledge "to keep quiet and not disturb him in his sleep, or when he is awake, and annoy him by incurring or starting law suits while in an angry mood. And further, I swear that I will love and obey my husband and cherish his home for a period of 99 years."

It was the threat of divorce did it—so the dispatches say. But no one who knows human nature, and particularly woman nature, will for an instant believe it. The lover finds it easy to secure any conceivable vows and promises from his sweetheart. She will graciously flood him with them, as spring froshets flood the grass. But after she has been his wife long enough to have worn off the glamour, it is different.

The husband who by threats or any other means can extract a pledge from his wife is a distinguished diplomat and exceedingly rare. The Wilkesbarre man is in this class. Note his wife's pledge carefully and see that it ends with the magical figures "99," which no woman ever yet had the power to resist. Had the husband demanded a pledge for 20 years he would have been told to go to. Had he made it 100 she would have called him crazy. In either case his threat of divorce would have been laughed to scorn. But this husband had not lived with a woman for many years without learning a woman's weakness. He put the figures at 99, and her bargain counter made the rest. The artfulness of this man and his knowledge of woman nature give him rank as a diplomat of the highest order. Only on a bargain counter basis could a wife be induced to promise to be a paragon for almost a century.

HOOGLIGAN SHOW WAS VERY UNSATISFACTORY

DREW A FAIR SIZED AUDIENCE AT ELKS' THEATER LAST EVENING, NEVERTHELESS.

"Hooigan's Troubles" were aired before the footlights at the Elks' opera house last evening. A fair sized audience witnessed the "airing," and are not very well pleased with themselves as a result. Hooigan, W. A. Mack, who assumed the role of Walter Wilkie, there is no person in the cast who has the license to be posing as an actress or actor. There was nothing to "Happy Hooigan," except a very much overdone makeup. Two or three girls with squeaky voices, vainly tried to sing on two or three occasions, and there was little to their clogging to elicit applause. The plot was a conglomeration of everything, with a large hunk of nothing stirred in. The dancing of the Mahoney Brothers and the work of Mr. Mack were the only redeeming features of a very bad show produced by a very bad company.

SCOTS WILL BANQUET TOMORROW NIGHT

The "Hoot Mon" banquet tomorrow night, to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of Robt. Burns, will be a hummer. The tickets are going like hot cakes and all are looking forward to the time of their lives.

A splendid entertainment program has been arranged, and every one who knows a good story, can sing a song, make a speech befitting the occasion, or dance, is requested to come prepared.

The fact that Dr. Pearce is to act as toastmaster makes it a foregone conclusion that a most enjoyable and successful evening will be passed.

The various "Macs" will discuss important topics relative to their respective clans, and those who have heard these discussions on previous occasions say that they alone are worth the price of the ticket, which has been fixed at $2, including wines and cigars.

FRANKLIN-HUSTON ORPHEUM SHOW

The Franklin-Huston Orpheum Show which is the attraction at the Elks opera house Saturday night, Jan. 27, is composed of the best talent from the Orpheum theaters and leading vaudeville houses. Among those appearing are the Sigumoto troupe of Japs, (five in number) the Mikado's favorites, and the highest salaried net of its kind in the world. Windecker, the magician; Frank Hilton, the comedian; De Long Sisters, singers and dancers; Springers and their wonderful electrical dance, and a host of others, making in all one of the strongest shows on the road.

The program is new, novel and neat, so all in all, it looks as if the reports concerning the strength of this company are true.

OLE OLSEN HERE TUESDAY, JANUARY 30

Mr. Ben Hendricks, the favorite Swedish dialect comedian and Northland singer, comes to the Elks' opera house Tuesday, January 30. He will present his everlasting play, "Ole Olson." The story of "Ole" unfolds a plot of intrigue, love and comedy situations. The play is a clean, refined, gentle type, and in the role of "Ole" Mr. Hendricks finds a character entirely suited to his peculiar style and one which affords him ample opportunity to display his superior ability as a vocalist and a comedian, and his interpretation of the young Swedish emigrant is the best work which the talented star has ever done. Mr. Hendricks' songs always have a strange sweetness. May be it is in the way in which they are rendered and maybe it is the melody, but nevertheless, it is there, and the audience we are sure will not be slow to attest their appreciation. This son of Mr. Hendricks will sing six new songs which have become very popular.

"OLE OLSON."

"UNDER THE OLD APPLE TREE."

Wm. Gray, the handsome manager and advance agent for Ole Olson, is in the city, and this afternoon made arrangements with Manager Mahony for his company to appear at Elks' opera house on Tuesday night, January 30. Mr. Gray says Ole Olson is funnier than ever this season; many of the songs are brand new, and one song, entitled, "Under the Old Apple Tree," and sung by a quartette of two boys and two girls, takes the audience by storm. Besides these new features, Ole Olson guarantees to please the public from the moment the curtain goes up until it drops on the last act.

United States Marshal C. M. Fox, and Deputy W. R. Forbes, separated to the city this morning the former from Denning and the latter from Silver City. They were seen south on official business.

DR. T. B. KEYES
IN ALBUQUERQUE*Prominent Chicago Physician
and His Cure For Tuberculosis.*TELLS HOW CURE IS MADE

Dr. Thomas Bassett Keyes, of Chicago, a recognized authority on the cure of consumption by feeding the patient with subcutaneous injections of oil and its digestion by the white globules of the blood, arrived in Albuquerque yesterday and will probably make his headquarters here.

Dr. Keyes was the chairman of the first organization committee of the American congress of tuberculosis, and one of the vice presidents of the International Congress of Tuberculosis at St. Louis in 1904.

To a reporter for The Evening Citizen, Dr. Keyes said:

"By the method of treatment which I employ, I believe that consumption can be absolutely cured.

"Tuberculosis is a disease of malnutrition, and while the presence of the germ confirms the diagnosis, before the germ can grow it must find a suitable soil, there must exist a pre-tubercular condition. It is estimated that we all breathe in a great many of these germs, but that they cannot grow in a healthy, well-nourished individual. People who have consumption do not eat fats, oils and cream in sufficient quantities. The first requisite in an attempt to cure tuberculosis is to feed the patient with a diet of fats, oils and cream, and the most successful sanitariums have adopted a process of food forcing, using the fats of meats, butter and cream as the principal foods to be relied upon to effect a cure, each article of diet being selected for its fat producing and its strengthening properties.

"To maintain nutrition has long been considered the prime requisite of cure, and an increase of weight is an indication that nutrition is overcoming the disease, and as weight increases there comes strength, and the passing away of the other distressing symptoms, such as the products of the disease, expectoration of mucus, fever and finally cough.

"I will now give my results in the cure of tuberculosis by the subcutaneous injection of oil. The oil which I have selected in the treatment of my cases has been olive oil of a very high grade, thoroughly sterilized, using olive oil in preference to other oils on account of its being non-irritating and very readily accepted by the system. The point selected for the injection has been over the shoulder blades, injecting one day over one shoulder and the next day over the other, excepting when a large amount of oil is used, when it is necessary to inject over both. There is very little pain connected with the injection and the patient is hardly possible to find where the injection was made. By being careful in my technique of cleanliness and sterilization, so far, no infection has taken place and consequently no soreness, though I believe the non-infectious character of the oil is gradually increasing the dose to the full tolerance of the patient, which varies with the individual and the stage of the disease. Those who are poorly nourished will sometimes assimilate large quantities of oil. In this manner I have treated nine consecutive cases successfully, and within twenty-four hours after each treatment there is a remarkable benefit from all the symptoms, such as diminished morning cough, night sweats, increased strength, and finally gain in weight. Some of the very worst cases of tuberculosis have under this plan of treatment have gained each day, and I believe have been thoroughly cured. The syringe which I use is an aspirating syringe, reversing the piston with a thumb screw, it requiring considerable pressure to force the oil under the skin.

"By injecting oil thus it is absorbed and assimilated by the blood cells, and there is a great increase in their numbers. Thus all of the indications for the cure of tuberculosis is met. It overcomes the disease through increased phagocytosis, and thus the active cells destroy the disease. Nutrition is re-established. The time required to overcome all symptoms is remarkably short, and one will be greatly surprised at the benefits which come with the treatment. Physicians should use great care in the amount of oil given, for too large doses, if long continued, might result in fatty degeneration of certain organs, but with the disease tuberculosis is not so apt to occur, as tuberculosis and fatty degeneration are antagonistic. I have based the claims of this treatment as a cure for tuberculosis from my experience and clinical evidence and from my conviction. I give my results this early, believing that the cure of tuberculosis is solved and that by so doing many lives will be saved. Of course, to the above treatment should be added all that has been found useful in the treatment of tuberculosis, principally of which is a forced diet of articles selected for their nutrition, such as meat, fats, butter and cream, out door life and hygiene.

"I hope and trust that physicians will at once take up this method of cure, and I respectfully request that those doing so will communicate their results to me, as by broader knowledge much good may come."

MORTUARY

Mrs. Wilhelmine Schneider, aged 23 years, passed away this morning at her residence in this city from tuberculosis, from which she had been suffering for some time. She came to Albuquerque some six weeks ago for the benefit of her health, but the dread disease had made such inroads into her constitution that recovery was impossible. She leaves a husband and one child, two years old, to mourn her untimely end. The remains will be shipped to Bridgeport, Conn., her former home, tomorrow, for interment. The grief-stricken husband and child accompanying the remains.

MRS. NORRIS HAS LOST VALUABLES*Believes Her Former Husband Took Smyrna Rug and Gave It Away.*SHE LODGES A COMPLAINT

Mrs. M. E. Norris, who conducts a rooming house at 524 John street, complains that she has been robbed of a number of valuable household articles, among them being a Smyrna rug, a sewing machine and various household articles.

Mrs. Norris informs the police department that E. K. Norris was the only person who ever had access to the place where the rugs were stored, and she has reason to believe that he took the missing rug.

Mrs. Norris states that a Smyrna rug at present on the parlor floor of a family by the name of Monroe, who reside on South Second street, resembles according to a description furnished her, the missing property. Her reason for reaching this conclusion is enhanced by the fact that E. K. Norris is stopping at the Monroe house.

E. K. Norris was the husband of Mrs. M. E. Norris until she was legally divorced.

The missing rug and ten others the woman claims she purchased in Chicago for about $200. She stored them away until wanted. The other day she discovered that but ten rugs remained and that the largest and best one of them had disappeared.

"I do not care so much about the machine and kitchen utensils, but I do want my rug," said Mrs. Norris. She was provided with a search warrant and an officer sent along for the purpose of ascertaining whether the rug at the Monroe house was in reality her property.

ARE WEDDED IN SAN FRANCISCOMRS. DOROTHY BOWMAN MOORE
WEDS LUIS OLIVER FULLEN, OF CARLSBAD, N. M.

After more than three years of widowhood, in which the bereavement was effected through the courts, Mrs. Dorothy Bowman Moore, daughter of the Rev. W. C. Bowman of this city, was married to Luis Oliver Fullen, an attorney of Carlsbad, N. M., and editor of a paper in that town, says the Los Angeles Examiner.

The dispatch does not enter into the romance of the affair, but the participation of "Minnie" Bowman, as she is and will be known here until her old friends are no more, bespeaks its interest.

Ten years ago Minnie Bowman was accounted one of the most beautiful young women in southern California. She had a stunning figure, wavy hair and golden hair.

About five years ago she married "Ted" Moore, one of the owners of the Yellow Aster mine. Fate seemed to have a romance up his sleeve at the time, for Mrs. Moore, who was just after the opera troupe with which she traveled was stranded in Texas. A year later Mrs. Moore was heard from in New York, where it was related at that time, she attempted to drown her husband. A divorce followed and Mrs. Dorothy Moore, as she came to call herself, traveled extensively. Not long ago she moved to San Francisco and adopted a child. She had apartments at the Charleston.

The wedding ceremony was performed in Trinity church by the Rev. J. W. Clappett. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Charles Francis Baird, of Los Angeles, who wore an imported gown of gray embroidered satin, with just a touch of lace. The bride wore cream colored rose-point lace over tulle, with a large hat of point lace and ostrich plumes.

After the ceremony there was a reception in the bride's apartments, where American Beauty roses were used in profusion. The bride and groom were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother and sisters, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Baird.

A MORAL WAVESWEEPS SILVER BELL.

The lid is on Silver Bell. Wearied of having the name of being the toughest town in Pima county and of being designated the "town where hell breaks loose every day," Silver Bell has taken it upon itself to have a general cleaning up, says the Tucson Citizen. The moral wave which is sweeping over the prosperous camp has been coming on for some time. It is not the result of explosive ministries preaching from the pulpit against vice. The agitation for the betterment of the morals of the camp has been on for some time. The first decisive step to be taken was the arrest of three women who were charged with conducting houses of ill fame. They were tried before Justice Doan, found guilty, and sentenced to twenty-five days in the county jail. They were brought in last evening and put in jail.

CUSTOMS INSPECTORWIRES FOR ASSISTANCE.

Customs Inspector A. B. Putnam, of El Paso, had quite a time getting Angel Morales, a smuggler, to Deming for trial. Last night, at Las Cruces, where he intended giving his prisoner a hearing before Judge A. E. Chaffee, he ran across four Chinamen on the train who were without certificates of citizenship. He took them in charge. Arriving at Las Cruces, he found Judge Chaffee was in a hospital at El Paso and that it would be necessary to take his five prisoners to Deming for a hearing. Not caring to take chances with so many prisoners, he wired United States Marshal Pomeroy here for assistance, and Deputy Marshal Cooper was sent to his rescue.

Between the two of them they managed to land their prisoners safely behind the bars at Deming where they will be given a hearing. Deputy Cooper is expected to return to the city tomorrow.

WILL FURNISH
FINANCIAL AID*C. B. Allaire, of San Antonio, Interested in Corn Growing Contest.*LETTER TO PROFESSOR STROUP

County Superintendent Stroup's plan of having a corn raising contest among pupils in the Bernalillo county schools is meeting with much encouragement from the public. C. B. Allaire, of the firm of Allaire, Miera & Co., of San Antonio, N. M., in a letter to Prof. Stroup, says:

"I see by last evening's Citizen that you are encouraging the boys in your country districts to engage in a corn raising contest. It is a splendid idea, and if I can help in any way to make it a complete success, I will be glad to do what I can. I would like to offer a few suggestions, if there is no objection on your part. By this mail I am sending you a photograph of two corn cobs that were grown here last season, showing the importance of using good seed. The small cob shelled 87.5 per cent of grain. The large cob less than 50 per cent. The grain on the small cob also weighed more than the grain on the large cob, due to the greater length of the kernels on the smaller one. This contest should be an object lesson, not only to the boys engaged in it, but also to their parents and neighbors. In order to make it fair, every boy should be supplied with an equal quantity of seed from the same lot. The seed should be the very best obtainable, and I think it would help matters if the boys securing the best results could win money prizes. I will gladly contribute $15 for five prizes of $3, $4, $3 and $2, respectively. It would also help if each boy could be furnished with printed instructions in Spanish and English, telling him how to manage his crop and the reasons why good seed, good soil, good cultivation and a long growing season produce the best results. I have on hand about 100 pounds of grain grown last season and selected from stalks bearing two good ears each. If each boy got eight ounces of it you would have enough for 200 boys. This seed has the advantage of being partly acclimated. I intended to use it the coming season, but will have enough from other sources."

THE ESTANCIA POETIS CRITICIZED*AND HE COMES AGAIN TO HIS OWN DEFENSE IN THE EVEN-ING CITIZEN.*Special Correspondence.

Estancia, N. M., Jan. 23.—Your correspondent criticizes the following and makes subjected comments:

Saturday's Citizen contained a special correspondence written from Estancia, consisting of four items and some poetry. Each one of the four items contained at least one error, and the poetry—well, the less said the better. We want The Citizen to know that we don't all write poetry over here in the valley.—Estancia News, January 19.

In the above production in which the critical editor in one place and in use quotation marks, in another fails to close a sentence with a period, in another omitted a comma, and in another abbreviated a word without the use of an apostrophe, and still in another place divided a syllable, and in fact only failed to commit more errors because there were no more places for errors—the Estancia News evidently refers to the fact that the poor devil (printer's devil) that set up the Estancia correspondence's last piece, and a locality, peculiar to printers at Xmas time, of seeing double, and hence added various letters to some of the words, making them appear rather full. Now, the News is a temperance man and can't stand for that, and suffers sundry aches and pains like unto the aches of a boy in green apple time. So Mr. Editor, don't let the "devil" play the devil with the correspondence and the News man's moral dinner basket. The News man found some words misspelled also in the poetry, as he kindly calls it. Won't he have the cramps if he should see this?

The Misfortunes of Lovely Miss Keight.

A fair girl of two hundred pounds weight.

Went with Johnny to the pond for a skeight;

But Miss Keight broke through,

And so what did she do?

But share the same shivering feight.

And as Johnny left her at the feight,

With much chattering, he said, Dear Keight;

"For the dry land you're nice,

But for fun on the ice,

I prefer a blained slight lighter weight."

And now, it is sad to relate,

That this maid did not long hesitate,

But returned him his rings,

And letters and things,

And their warm love was brought into feight.

And now, I've writ another rhyme,

Heaven shield me, if you show it;

Least, please, Spockman sling some alms,

At this poor paper poet.

JOHN HAYNES TALLIEDCLOSELY WITH MURDERER*It was fortunate for John Haynes, a*negro arrested last night, that he had*no impediment of speech, else he*would now be incarcerated in a cell in*the city prison with the charge of*murder tacked against his name.

Haynes was arrested last night by Assistant Chief Kennedy on suspicion of being the man wanted for a murder committed last Friday in Pueblo, Colo. He talked with the detective sent out in every way except that there was no impediment in his speech. His height, color and arrangement of clothes and looks were identical with the accused murderer now making his way, it is believed, toward Old Mexico. Haynes was released this afternoon.

WEDDINGSYoung-Powers.

Last evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. John Clegdon, 21 West Railroad avenue, Mrs. Lydia S. Powers and Mr. Samuel W. Young, residents of Bland, were united in marriage. Rev. Hugh A. Cooper, of the Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony. Only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. Mrs. Powers is well known in this city, while Mr. Young, a mining man, has recently taken up his residence here, coming from Bland, where he was a justice of the peace for years. The happy couple will reside in Albuquerque.

Weber-Parish.

Last evening at 7:30 in the office of Justice George Craig, Miss Marie Parish and Mr. H. B. Weber, both of this city, were united in marriage. Justice Craig officiating. Only a few friends of the contracting parties were present.

Tomorrow's Event.

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Witzel, at 518 North Santa Fe street, Miss Minnie Landrum, sister of Mrs. Witzel, and Harry Bragaw, nephew of John Bragaw, a wealthy cattleman of Grant county, will be united in marriage. Mr. Witzel, traveling representative for the Leup Brewing company, has returned to the city and will remain over for the wedding. Only the intimate friends of the family and contracting parties will be present. After the ceremony has been performed a wedding supper will be served.

Options on 48 lots in the new Grant tract have been filed with the Survey Investment company, and it begins to look as though there would be no lots for sale on the 1st of February except those covered by options. The parties holding option No. 1 have already been offered $25 for their option alone.

A BIG BUSINESS
CHANGE AT SOCORRO*The Mercantile Establishment
of Price Bros. Passes to Lowenstein Bros.*NEW BANK FOR SOCORRO.

The Citizen has received information that the proposed change in the Socorro firm of Price Brothers & Company, has about been consummated. Mr. Joseph Price sells his interests in the wholesale and retail mercantile establishment to Messrs. Morris and Lee Lowenstein, but takes over the banking interests of the existing firm. The mercantile house, under the name of Lowenstein Brothers, will continue in the wholesale and retail business of dry goods, clothing, carpets, boots and shoes, groceries, hardware, jewelry, etc. The banking interest will continue the same as now, under Mr. Price, until the bank has been incorporated, the building remodeled and the fixtures put in, which will probably be about April 1. The bank, The Citizen understands, has not yet selected its name, but will be incorporated as a state institution.

Mr. Joseph Price is one of the very best known business men in New Mexico, having established his business twenty-five years ago in Socorro, and during the entire quarter of a century having most successfully conducted a rapidly expanding field of sale and retail mercantile business. For eight years a banking business has been conducted in connection with the mercantile interests. In the three lines of commercial activity, Mr. Price has not only been successful in which is difficult and much more desirable—he has established a reputation for fair and honorable dealing which is not only without a flaw, but is as wide extended as the boundaries of his commercial transactions. That his conclusion to confine his efforts to the rapidly expanding field of banking for Socorro, will result in vast benefit to the Gem city and to the entire portion of New Mexico tributary thereto, does not admit of even a moment's doubt. The Citizen has known and highly respected Mr. Price for many years, and fully appreciates his decision to confine his efforts to banking, for which his mercantile ability, long experience, wide acquaintance, and well established probability give him so eminent a qualification.

That the Messrs. Lowenstein will do well in the business with which they have so long been connected, and to the success of which they have so largely contributed, goes without saying, and The Citizen certainly wishes them the very largest measure of prosperity.

CHURCH, CLUB AND
SOCIAL GATHERINGS*Elks' meeting tonight at 7:30*o'clock. Smoker after the meeting.*All local and visiting Elks invited*and expected to attend.

The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church will hold their regular tea at the residence of Mrs. W. A. McCluskey, 407 North Fifth street, Thursday afternoon. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The dance tonight at the Commercial club rooms will be the regulation affair, the "Kilbies" dance, having been postponed for two weeks, owing to the illness of several members and the inability of other members to be present.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold their regular meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. A. W. Hayden, 219 North Walter street. All members of the society are cordially requested to be present.

The Anona Council No. 1, Degree of Pocatones, Independent Order of Red Men, will hold their regular meeting Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock sharp. All members are requested to be present. After the business part of the meeting has been transacted, there will be an entertainment, consisting of a musical program, dancing and refreshments, to which the public is extended a cordial invitation to be present.

MINE PRODUCES ALL KINDS OF COMMON AND PRECIOUS ORES*AT MAGDALENA, ACCORDING TO ITS OWNERS, WHO WERE IN AL-BUQUERQUE LAST NIGHT.

"We have a mine at Magdalena that produces any old kind of ore you want," said P. E. Johnson, of Colorado Springs, Colo., who, in company with E. S. Timmins, of the same city, was a visitor in Albuquerque yesterday, and last night. Both men are old-timers at the mining game, and were in the Cripple Creek district in the early days. They were en route to Magdalena, where they are interested in some mining properties, and it was in conversation concerning one of these mines that Mr. Johnson spoke as above.

"The assays," continued Mr. Johnson, "show gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, and sometimes other metals. I never heard of. However, we feel that we have a good property and are going to develop it thoroughly. Mr. Arkell, of Aspen, is associated with us."

Both gentlemen left last night for Magdalena, where they will make arrangements for installing some new machinery in their mines.

MISS ALICE'S WEDDING KEEPS THE ROOSEVELTS BUSY ALWAYS ASK FOR

Washington, Jan. 23.—Miss Alice Roosevelt will be compelled to eat two dinners each night and divide her evenings into several portions, if she accepts all the hospitality which is extended. Since the announcement of her engagement, she has suggested that post-nuptial entertainment was preferable to a whirl during a season which is trying to any bride-elect, but her friends have not taken the hint.

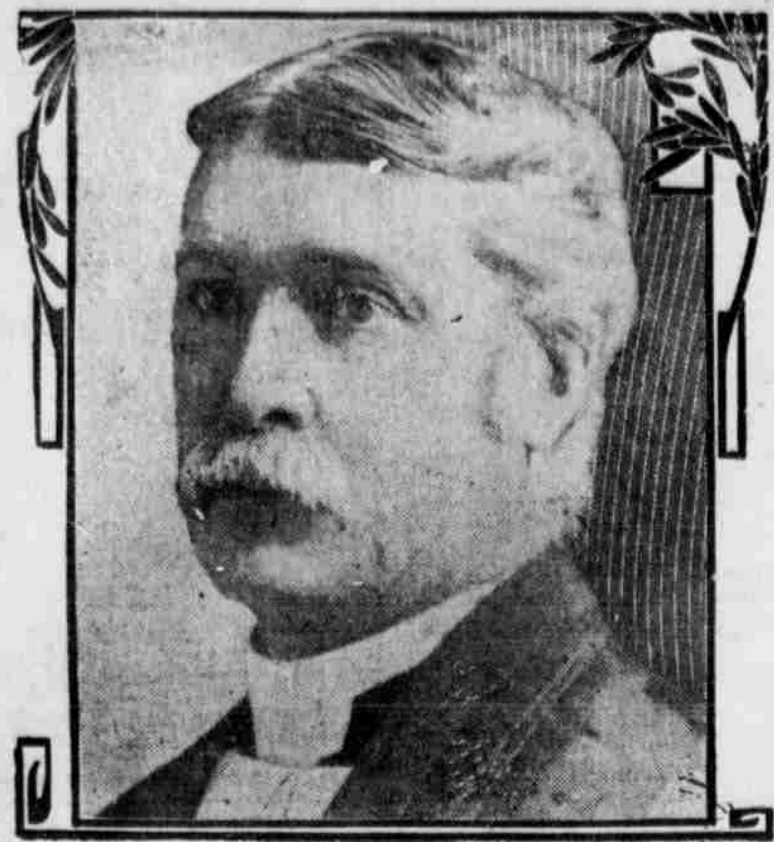

Preparations for the wedding take all the time of the feminine contingent at the White House. Getting ready for the list is a problem which the women folk have to solve. It has been estimated that invitations, cards to the reception and the announcement cards which will be dispatched all over the civilized world will make a grand total of 10,000. These cards the president has ordered must be engraved at his own expense and they must be addressed by clerks specially engaged.

VISCOMT CHAS. DE CHAMBRUN.
Viscount de Chambrun, brother-in-law of Nicholas Longworth, will act as best man at his wedding.

for the purpose. Not any of this work will be performed at the executive offices by the clerks who are paid by the government.

Those who know say that not less than 200 will witness the nuptial service. These will include the family of Miss Roosevelt and Mr. Longworth and the close friends and the highest officials of the government. As to the reception, it is stated that if the president pays the slightest regard to official status, not less than 1,000 will drink to the health of the "American princess." The guests in the aggregate are estimated to reach 1,500.

THE RT. REV. HENRY Y. SATTERLEE.
Bishop Henry Y. Satterlee, of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Washington, will perform the marriage ceremony at the wedding of Alice Roosevelt and Congressman Nicholas Longworth at the White House on February 17.

dent pays the slightest regard to official status, not less than 1,000 will drink to the health of the "American princess." The guests in the aggregate are estimated to reach 1,500.

The breakfast is to be served in the state dining room and the finest caterers in New York have been retained. The delicacies will be brought from the ends of the earth. Already dainties are arriving at the White House from ambitious merchants who will like an occasion to advertise their wares.

A Chinese merchant of San Francisco sent some specially fine conserves ginger with the hope that Miss Roosevelt would eat some on her wedding morning. It did not seem a particularly appropriate gift and Mr. Longworth at least does not wish any ginger interjected into the proceedings, but Miss Roosevelt sent a letter of acknowledgement and the gift is fully recorded.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rt. Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, bishop of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Washington.

The president's daughter will be attended only by her younger sister. She could not select six or eight from her score of friends as bridesmaids without offending others, so all her chums will have places of honor at the breakfast. These will include the five young matrons for whom she acted as maid of honor—Mrs. Theodore Robinson, Mrs. George C. Lee, of Boston; Mrs. Prouty, of Albany; and Mrs. "Bobbie" Goebel, of Philadelphia—and about twenty young girls from different parts of the country.

The best man will be Viscount Charles de Chambrun, brother-in-law of Nicholas Longworth.

MOST ANYTHING

GETTING TONY IN TOMBSTONE.
Every symptom points to a tendency to spread on style in Tombstone. Among other instances in this direction the boys bought a pair of beautiful barber pole suspenders and presented them to the amiable dispenser who shoves the amber extract of cheerfulness over the mahogany of the Parlor saloon. He promptly donned the innovation, but claimed that he felt like he had a rail fence on each shoulder. Then, when they became overburdened, he would unbutton them and permit them to dangle in front, but he finally got them down fine enough to go to church in.

Several old timers, conspicuous court attendants from the other end of the county, have fallen into the habit of wearing boiled shirts, and it looks as if sky-blue overalls might be discarded as a full dress costume. Getting powerful tony in town nowadays—Tombstone (Ariz.) Prospector.

PICKED UP AT THE HOTELS.
"Mrs. Gannery has such a lovely collection of spoons."

"Yes, her husband is a commercial traveler, you know, and she frequently makes trips with him."

HITTING A MAN FOR MONEY.

"Dis beats me," said Blind Baggage Mike, as he read from a piece of paper he had found at the water tank. "Here's a fellow who killed himself 'cause he was out of work."

"Well," said Walker Pike, "de cusses always claim dat anybody dat 'dis 'self is insane. Dat proves it."

PATRONS OF ROY POSTOFFICE KICKING

Patrons of the Roy postoffice have been much annoyed by the dilapidated condition in which they often receive their mail, says the Springfield Stockman. Often packages are burst, wrappers torn off, etc. The cause for this lies in the fact that it is so often handled before arriving at its destination. One mail bag is provided by the government in which to carry the mail on the Roy-Springfield route. Hence at Taylor and Stanz the contents are gone over to sort out mail for these points, and receives that much unnecessary handling. Roy receives at least eight-tenths of all the mail on the route and is entitled to a separate bag. This would not only save the mail but would also facilitate the distribution at the intermediate points.

A BURGLAR DOES NOT OBJECT TO JAIL LIFE

Antonio Pino was taken before Judge Smith a few days ago on a complaint sworn by Mr. C. C. Miller, charging him with burglary and grand larceny, says the Hillsboro Advocate. Pino robbed Mr. Miller's cabin on the Saco and got away with over $20 worth of property, the most of which was recovered. When arrested he was wearing some of Mr. Miller's clothes. Mr. Pino said he did not wish bail as he had an idea that he was going to be a free man, and he was bound over to the next grand jury. Pino is about 20 years old and served a ninety day sentence some two years ago for robbing C. H. Ladilla's cabin in the Cuchillo Mountains.

Mainspring of Life

No One Can Be Strong With a Weak Stomach—J. H. O'Reilly Co. Tell How it May Be Strengthened.

The stomach is the mainspring of life. When it is strong and acts perfectly, then the whole system is right, assimilation is perfect, and body and brain are thoroughly nourished.

Mi-o-na is a pleasant remedy to use, and benefit is seen from almost the first day's treatment. It restores the torpid glands and stimulates the natural digestive operations. It checks fermentation, stops germ growth, soothes inflammation, and cures all troubles, such as headaches, backaches, rheumatic pains, furred tongue, sleeplessness, nervousness, and general debility, which are caused by imperfect digestion.

It is the only remedy that is so uniformly successful in the cure of stomach diseases that J. H. O'Reilly Co. are willing to give a guarantee with every 50 cent box of Mi-o-na tablets that the remedy will cost nothing unless it cures. They have so much faith in the Mi-o-na that they are willing to take all the risk.

STEAMER SUNK BUT CREW ALL SAVED.

Boston, Jan. 23.—The loss of the steamer Trojan, of the Boston & Philadelphia line, in collision with the steamer Nacooche in Vineyard sound, last Sunday, was reported by the Nacooche, which arrived here today, having on board the crew of the Trojan. The accident occurred in a fog.

A Modern Miracle.

"Truly a miracle seemed the recovery of Mrs. Mollie Holt of this place," writes J. O. R. Hooper, Woodford, Tenn., "she was so wasted by coughing up phlegm from her lungs. Doctors declared her end so near that the family had watched by her bedside for forty-eight hours; when, at my request, Dr. King's New Discovery was given her, with the astonishing result that improvement began, and continued until she finally completely recovered, and is a healthy woman today." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 at all druggists. Trial bottle free.

MARKET LETTER

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 22.—The extraordinary supply of 54,000 cattle arrived last week, but the market averaged nearly steady for the week. The yards were well cleaned up every day, the number held over from last week being 274 head less than held over at the end of the previous week. Traders say packers' buying was never as heavy at this season before. The run today is 3,000 head, but buyers were eager for them, and market is strong to 10c higher on all kinds. Consumptive demand is phenomenal, and prices will no doubt make further gains within the next few weeks, as receipts can scarcely hold up to present volume, while the demand is likely to keep up. Choice fed steers sold at $5.90 today, highest price since December 16. A number of shipments from the west were here last week. Hay fed Colorado steers sold at $3.90 to $4.10; cows, $3.00 to $3.55; heifers at $3.55. Idaho and Utah fed steers, $3.70 to $3.85; New Mexico stockers, $3.40; high bred panhandle yearlings, $4.20; canners, $2.25 to $2.75; bulls, 2.85 to $3.15; stags, $3.35. In the corn belt the call is for well bred heavy feeders, which are so scarce that quotations showing range of bulk of stockers and feeders, $3.50 to $4.15, does not give a true idea of prices on this class, which sell up to $4.60. The market is 10c higher today on all kinds, and everything points to continued strength.

Two many sheep at all points last week broke prices 20 to 50 cents. 47,000 head were received here, but trade was lively each day, and the supply handled cleanly, without accumulation or congestion. Mild and springlike weather throughout the eastern half of the continent for the last ten days has also been against heavy consumption. Weather conditions have changed in the last 48 hours, and the moderate supply of 7,000 head today met a strong inquiry, prices 10 to 15c higher. Some Arkansas valley lambs, 77 lb., sold today at $7.35; bulk of pretty good lambs, $7.00 to $7.10; top yearlings, today, $6.25; some 98 lb. wethers, $5.75; and 103 lb. ewes at $5.25. As in the cattle trade, demand from mutton consumers is enormous, and prices quickly advance when receipts diminish. Some partly finished ewes sold to feeders last week at $4.25 to $4.50, and lambs in similar condition at $6.40.

STOCK SALES

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 19.—Following were some sales of Colorado and western cattle at Kansas City this week:

J. E. Hanson, Hotchkiss, Colo., 134 stockers, 818 pounds, $4.10; 27 heifers, 852 pounds, $3.80; 52 cows, 1065 pounds, $3.60; 28 cows, 975 pounds, $3.

Adam Thomas, Montrose, Colo., 91 killers, 1130 pounds, $4; 30 feeders, 998 pounds, $3.55; 137 stockers, 691 pounds, $3.35.

William Auckland, Olney, Colo., 82 heifers, 289 pounds, $3.55; 17 stockers, 639 pounds, $3.90; 25 canners, 738 pounds, $2.15; 69 calves, 298 pounds, $3.75.

A. H. Ridgely, Soda Springs, Idaho, 231 feeders, 1018 pounds, $3.85; 25 feeders, 1029 pounds, $3.

G. W. Newmyer, Monte Vista, Colo., 17 stockers, 677 pounds, $3.55; 10 cows, 815 pounds, $3.10; 10 yearlings, 456 pounds, $3.75.

L. S. Poad, Thatcher, Idaho, 88 killers, 1086 pounds, $3.75; 5 cows, 1023 pounds, $3; 2 bulls, 1540 pounds, $2.65.

Carroll, Ridgeway, Colo., 17 cows, 1154 pounds, $3.55.

W. H. Jones, Deming, N. M., 268 steers 779 pounds, $3.40.

SHEEP.

Following were some sales of western sheep and lambs at Kansas City for the week:

Monday, January 15.

H. K. Eberly, Ponca City, Okla., 540 lambs, 71 pounds, $7.15.

M. A. Rogers, Valley Center, Kan.,

560 lambs, 65 pounds, $7.05.

Letherman & L. Lamar, Colo., 441 sheep and yearlings, 88 pounds, $5.90.

FAVORITISM IN RAILROAD RATES

What is so useful as a can opener? Hardly anything. Every body needs one. Some people don't need it as much as others. A small one will do for Gallup, N. M., and Ash Fork, A. T. folks. But the native son needs a whopper. Why is this thus? Here is the answer: You can send canned goods from Chicago to San Francisco at 95 cents per cwt. Gallup and Ash Fork, only two-thirds as far, pay $1.83 and $1.85, respectively. Therefore a little can opener will do for them. The railroads will see to it that the Navajo pays dearly for his cove oyster deliuch.

RAILROAD NOTES

Train No. 8 was 2 hours and 40 minutes late today.

Engineer Jack Briscoe, of Winslow, has recovered from his recent accident, has been visiting friends in Gallup the past few days.

Arthur Williams, of Flagstaff, is a new arrival in Winslow, and has accepted a position with the Santa Fe railroad company.

George Crouch, agent at Suwanee for the Santa Fe, left last night for his post of duty after spending the day with friends in the metropolis.

Trains Nos. 7 and 9 were four hours late this morning owing to a wreck near Trinidad, the particulars of which could not be learned at the local Santa Fe office.

Officer Parish, who polices the Las Vegas yards of the Santa Fe, arrested two vagrants yesterday morning who gave their names as Ed Miller and Fred Swain. They both received short jail sentences.

Mrs. M. A. McIntyre, mother-in-law of R. J. Arey, who is connected with the water service of the Santa Fe, has returned to her home in Williams after an enjoyable visit with friends at Winslow.

F. M. Clough, superintendent of bridges and building on the Rio Grande division of the Santa Fe, returned to San Marcial today after twenty-four hours spent in Albuquerque on company business.

One of the Pullman cars on No. 2 broke a brake beam on the other side of Raton, and it was replaced with a new one during the twenty-five minute stop in Las Vegas, by hard work on the part of the trip track gang.

The Winslow Mail says: John Brennan, a popular young man in society circles of Albuquerque, and who has been in the employ of the Santa Fe as a stenographer in the stores department at the home in Williams in this city, will accept a position in the office of Superintendent E. J. Gibson.

Yesterday the local division, No. 339, Order of Railway Conductors, donated $20 to the Non-Sectarian Benevolent society, to be used by that organization in their work of charity. The benevolent society has made an appeal to every railway order in the city and all are responding. The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, No. 570, voted $25 to the society, and several other lodges in the city are donating in a liberal manner.

J. K. Hartline, a machinist for the Santa Fe at Gallup, was brought to the Santa Fe Pacific hospital in this city last night suffering from a severe attack of malignant typhoid fever. Hartline, who has been ill for some time, was improving when he suffered a relapse and at present is in a serious condition, with the chances of recovery somewhat against him. He was accompanied to this city by a Gallup physician.

Trainmaster J. Kinnucan, of the third district of the Albuquerque division, with headquarters at Winslow, Ariz., has been promoted to the position of superintendent of terminals at Point Richmond, Cal. J. D. McCully, who has been filling the position of chief operator, has been assigned to fill the position made vacant by the promotion of Kinnucan, and W. H. Smith, of the dispatcher's office, has been promoted to chief dispatcher.

TUCUMCARI WANTS AN EXPERIMENTAL STATION

SCANDAL FACTORY AGAINST PRESIDENT OPENS BUSINESS

RAILROADS HAVE ALL SORTS OF SCHEMES HATCHED UP TO OBSCURE THE RATE SITUATION AND DISCREDIT ROOSEVELT WITH THE PEOPLE—SOME THAT ARE ALREADY GOING ARE EXPLAINED.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Will the United States senate succeed in its present endeavor to "can" President Roosevelt?

That is the question which is interesting the average congressman more than any problem of state or politics. Some think yes; some think no. Time will tell.

"Canning" is what it is popularly called. Sometimes it is phrased otherwise. It is said, for instance, that the president is to be "trimmed," that he is to be "plucked" and that he is to be "put on ice." But the gentlemen on the hill seem to prefer the word "can."

What does it mean? Simply that there is to be a systematic campaign to discredit Mr. Roosevelt. And this by the leaders of his own party.

The reason? Railway rate legislation.

At the beginning of the new year the railway interests and their friends in the senate changed their plans. General order No. 1 closed all the propaganda bureaus. They were declared failures. They have fed the newspapers with railway "dope" all summer and fall, and failed to win public sentiment.

General order No. 2 was for war to the knife, and the knife to the hilt. This is the senate. To h— with the house!

Consequence: The various rate bills (including the Dilliver bill) are tied up hard and fast in Elkins committee; the Elkins committee has ceased its daily sessions; the Elkins committee has suppressed the Newcomb-Adams report and digests of last spring's hearings; all other possible legislation has been put ahead of the rate matter.

The plan of the senate opposition is to oppose and discredit President Roosevelt in every known way. The chief object is to discredit him. It has been determined that the president's strongest hold is the confidence which he commands in the minds of the people. The thing to do first, then, is to shake that confidence.

For this purpose a series of "scandals" have been arranged. The first on the boards is the Panama canal. The investigation of salaries, contracts, appointments, accomplishments and the whole affair will be prolonged indefinitely, and the worst possible light will be put on every administration act.

Next after Panama will come the Philippines. A great mass of matter is being prepared for a "Philippine investigation."

The Santo Domingo treaty and the actions of the administration in that affair are expected to afford a fine heap of fuel. In the meantime every possible annoyance which can be invented or discovered will be directed against the White House. Personal appointments will not be confirmed (see case of John Bucklin Bishop, appointed canal commissioner; also Frankland Lane, of California, appointed member interstate commerce commission. Both cases hung up indefinitely).

Diligent efforts are being made to manipulate the press. Some of the newspaper correspondents have been persuaded that they have a grudge owing to an alleged endeavor on the part of White House authorities to "suppress news" and to "dictate to" special writers.

All the hue and cry over the so-called Morris incident is a part of the campaign to discredit President Roosevelt. Cranks are removed from the White House every day. It is an unfortunate phase of public life, but it is a phase that the glare of the presidential office attracts cranks as a candle flame attracts moths. They come fluttering into it and they singe their wings. Stern measures are absolutely essential to the safety of the president.

No one thought of making a national affair of the case of Mrs. Morris until the secret forces of the mighty senate were set in operation. The kick-up of Jesse Overstreet and the reported resignation of Chairman Babcock from the congressional campaign committee, are part of the same game. Babcock has been a heavy speculator in the stock market lately, and this alliance with the Wall street influences which are back of the railway campaign, Overstreet does not count for much one way or another.

President Roosevelt has done his best to avoid a rupture with the senate. He wants legislation, not a fight. A break with the senate will put an end to any hope for legislation. The senate leaders are hoping that their campaign will drive him to an open break.

CUTS THE RED TAPE AND SAVES A TRAIN

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 24.—Signing another man's name without authority generally results in trouble, but in the case of D. B. McDermott, telegraph operator at Peoria Junction, Ind., it promises to prove a stepping stone to promotion.

McDermott attached his superior officer's signature to an important telegram, nervously wired it as O. K. and waited for results. The chief result was that a train load of people was saved from a probable death. And instead of condemnation, which he fully expected, letters and telegrams of praise arrived from superiors on the great Pennsylvania railroad.

"I am not seeking for glory. I simply did my duty," said McDermott, when asked about it. "A cloudburst west of Logansport caused a washout and a bad wreck to a freight on the westbound track. While we were all looking after this the operator at Gebhart, the first back station west of Peoria Junction, on the east-bound track, called me and said water was running over the track just east of there. He being a new man, I wired him to stop No. 40, the east-bound passenger train, and notify them to run slow and look out for the washout."

"The operator refused. He said he must have a message before he would stop the train. There was only a moment to decide what I could do. I knew 40 was due there then and that the dispatcher was busy on the train wire. So I wired Gebhart the necessary order and signed 'J. W. C.', our superintendent's initials.

"No. 40 got the orders and about one mile down grade from Gebhart found a washout 66 to 80 feet long and about three feet deep. Had the train struck that place at her usual gait of 50 miles an hour, nobody can tell what might have happened."

DAY AND WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday. Warmer tonight.
Sun rise, 7:07; set, 5:17; length, 10:10. Alaska treaty was signed this day 1903, when the United States lost to Canada quite a stretch of land in the far northwest. The new moon should be visible a little while after sunset tomorrow. The day of sunlight is lengthening only two minutes a day this week, the sun rising each day one minute earlier and setting one minute later than it did the day before. The day has been bright, calm and very pleasant.

L. M. Payne, of San Marcial, was in the metropolis today on Santa Fe railway company business.

Miss Ora Wagoner has returned from a visit with friends and relatives in Los Angeles, Cal. and Gold Roads, Ariz.

Mrs. W. E. Olson, wife of the carpenter, left last night for El Paso, where she will visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Charles Foster, recently of Joplin, Mo., is a late arrival in the city, where she and her husband will reside.

K. C. Gunn, the well known merchant of Laguna, has arrived in the city and will remain several days transacting business.

Frank Ackerman was yesterday appointed administrator of the estate of the late Edward T. Heffron, to act without bond.

F. G. Bartlett, a prominent merchant of Socorro arrived in the city today and will remain over night transacting business.

J. B. Nipp, Jr., and wife, yesterday conveyed to Dr. J. A. Henry, ranch property in Los Ranchos de Albuquerque, consideration $175.

W. A. Fleming Jones, an attorney of Las Cruces, arrived in the city yesterday for a brief business visit, and will return home today.

Mrs. P. P. Simmons and family and Mrs. Keyes, all of Belen, were in the city yesterday on a shopping expedition, returning last night.

Leucadia Herrera, 16 years old, of San Rafael, and Pascualon Chaves, 19 years old, of Atrisco, were today granted a license to marry.

J. B. Dye, president of the Crescent Lumber company, who visited the company's place of business at Deming, has returned to this city.

Mrs. James Grunsfeld and son, who have been visiting relatives in San Diego, Cal., for the past six weeks, returned home yesterday morning.

A. W. Cleland of Denver, is in the city to spend a few days with old friends. Mr. Cleland is the owner of some valuable real estate in this city.

John Belknap, of Ketter, interested in the American Lumber company, arrived in the city today on delayed No. 2, and will remain several days on business.

News received from Mrs. John Prestel, who was called to El Dorado Springs, Mo., by the illness of her father, states that the old gentleman is improving.

Local and visiting Elks are urged to attend the meeting tonight. After the transaction of lodge matters, there will be a smoker and of course that means plenty of fun.

Colonel and Mrs. John Borradaile, who attend the Governor Hageman inauguration, reception and ball, returned to the city last night from Santa Fe. They had a fine time.

Ben Dignee, foreman of The Citizen composing room, who was at Santa Fe on business and incidentally to shake hands with the new governor, returned to the city last night.

J. G. Fitch, the attorney, accompanied by his wife, were in the city last night for a short time, en route to their home in Socorro from Santa Fe, where they had been to attend the inaugural ceremonies.

An alleged prize fighter, claiming Albuquerque as his home, and named "Kid" Stevens, showed up at Winslow the other day, where he had a go with "Kid" Brahm, the alleged "Pride of Pittsburg." After the contest it is understood that a dance took place, in which it is assumed, everybody had a high old time.

Colonel W. S. Hopewell, with Mrs. Hopewell and two children, who spent the past few days at the Hopewell ranch in Sierra county, returned to the city this morning. Mr. Hopewell says the cattle ranges of southern New Mexico are in fine condition, and in consequence the cattle are really now in prime condition for the markets.

E. L. Carpenter, formerly general manager of the Dawson Mines company, was a visitor in Albuquerque yesterday, en route to El Paso, from where he will continue on to Los Angeles. Mr. Carpenter has been succeeded as general manager of the coal fields by W. P. Thompson, former manager of the Utah Coal and Fuel company, with headquarters at Salt Lake City.

Robert C. Reid, son of J. M. Reid, county school superintendent of Chaves county, is in Indianapolis, Ind., where this evening he will be united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Humann. The prospective groom, at present is the right of way attorney for the Santa Fe cut-off from Belen to Tuleco. He is a brother of Captain W. C. Reid, a well known attorney of Roswell.

Charles E. Mason, publisher and editor of the Roswell Daily Record, is in the city and was a pleasant caller at the office of The Evening Citizen. Mr. Mason attended the inauguration, reception and ball to Governor Hageman, at Santa Fe, and came here last night to spend today in the metropolis of New Mexico. The gentleman will return to Roswell tonight, via Trinidad and Amarillo.

Pablo Abella, one of the prominent Indian general merchants of the village of Isleta, was in the city today, interviewing local wholesale merchants. He called at The Evening Citizen office this afternoon and stated that Indian farmers of his town are making big preparations for early farming, while others are strengthening embankments to counteract any damage from the usual springs rises of the Rio Grande.

Joshua Reynolds, president of the First National bank, is in the city from Las Vegas. Today Mr. Reynolds was in conference with J. W. McQuade, the contractor and carpenter, who recently secured the contract to erect for Mr. Reynolds a three-story brick store and office building on the old Highland hotel site. The building will cost about $30,000. Mr. McQuade has already commenced excavation and rock work.

This afternoon, on South Broadway, just beyond the railroad, a very bad runaway took place. A. W. Fletcher, who had been to town on business, was on his way to his home at the Patterson ranch, driving a team of horses, when the pole of the wagon became loose and dropped to the ground. This scared the horses and they ran away, with the result that the hind legs of one of the animals were broken. The horse was put out of its suffering by an officer shooting it.

Women's dress slippers, low, medium or high heels; one, three or four straps, in patent kid or victrolite. They are stylish and fit splendidly. Prices range from $1.25 to $3. C. May's shoe store, 314 West Railroad avenue.

BIGGEST CHAIN IN THE WORLD

"The cable parted!" Not unrequently these words explain a leading cause of disaster to some good ship and its navigators. It is scarcely likely, however, that the chain pictured will ever part, as the tests made of its enormous powers of resistance

THE HUGE CUNARD CABLE.

were remarkable in their facility to injure the three links, submitted to be tested to the "point of destruction."

The links were sent to Lloyd's proving house at Netherthorpe, England, by the firm which is making the cable for the Cunard Steamship company. The tension employed to destroy the links was 370 tons, the full power of the testing machine, but no sign of fracture or defect of any kind could be found.

When completed the cable will be used for a quadruple-screw turbine-driven express steamer now in process of construction.

GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND ENTERTAINS LEGISLATORS

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 24.—Extensive preparations have been made at the executive mansion for the reception to the members of the state legislature which Governor and Mrs. Warfield will give this evening. Mrs. Warfield will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. Oswald Tilgham, wife of the secretary of state; Mrs. Clinton L. Riggs, wife of the adjutant general; Mrs. Joseph B. Seth, wife of the president of the senate; Mrs. Carlisle D. Benson, wife of the speaker of the house and a number of other ladies who are personal friends of Mrs. Warfield.

STRIVING TO MAKE HIS TRIBE MARRY LEGALLY

PABLO ABEITA SECURES CERTIFICATES FROM PROBATE COURT TO FACILITATE WORK.

Pablo Abeita, of Isleta, secretary to the governor of the Pueblo Indians, is striving diligently toward making his fellowmen see the advisability of marrying in accordance to the laws of the white man. Just a few weeks ago Pablo brought a Pueblo Indian couple to the probate court in this city when the first legal license to marry within the memory of Probate Clerk Summers was secured.

Today Pablo Abeita accompanied Predicanda Lucero, a pretty Pueblo girl of 17 years and her prospective husband, Pedro Jolola, 28 years old, to this city, where a license to marry was issued them. Both were from Isleta.

The inconvenience of coming to Albuquerque each time a permit is wanted has a tendency to discourage many of the Indians contemplating marriage, but Pablo Abeita overcame this obstacle today by securing a number of certificates from the deputy clerk. In the future when any of his tribe wish to be married, Pablo will simply take the interested parties before a notary of the county of Isleta, have the certificate filled out by him and then send it to probate court here, where the license will be issued just the same as though the parties came to this city.

SISTER FIDELIS ORDERED TO SANTA FE

Sister Fidelis, who has been assisting at St. Joseph's hospital, received instructions from the mother superior at Cincinnati, Ohio, to report for duty at the St. Vincent hospital at Santa Fe, and in response to the orders this good Sister will leave Albuquerque tomorrow morning for the territorial capital. Sister Fidelis stated this morning that she did not know how to interpret the instructions of the mother superior, whether it is a permanent transfer to the hospital at Santa Fe or merely a temporary one of a few weeks. Sister Fidelis has many warm friends here—she is one of God's noble women, and while she has in her called by the mother superior, it is the wish of all here and especially those who know her, that she will soon be ordered back to St. Joseph's hospital to do good.
