

Venezuelan Medical Doctors Stage 12-hour Strike

by John Neagle

Category/Department: General

Published: Thursday, June 15, 1989

On June 13, some 35,000 medical doctors employed by the Venezuelan Social Security Institute staged a 12-hour walk-out in an effort to obtain higher salaries. IVSS president Francisco Martinez said the doctors are demanding the establishment of a collective contract that would include increased health budgets at all levels. (Basic data from Xinhua, 06/14/89)

-- End --