OUR TELEPHONES:
Automobile 183. Colorado 15.SIX SHOOTER ROARED
SHORTHORN FLEDACTOR FRIEND OF MAYOR DAVID
S. ROSE GIVEN A TOUCH OF HIGH LIFE IN TUCSON.

Frederick Wyatt, short-horn and tenderfoot, actor and member of the troupe appearing in "Dora Thorne," native of Milwaukee, intimate acquaintance of Mayor D. S. Rose and William F. Kirk, the humorist, had an experience last evening which he will never forget, says the Tucson Citizen. He is no longer tender. He is thoroughly initiated, and a pair of thirteen-inch guns would not scare him now.

Like the humorist, Kirk, who was initiated here more than a year ago into the mysteries of western life, Wyatt arrived in this city fully expecting to see every citizen wearing a pair of pistols, a sombrero and a flashy handkerchief about the neck. Mayor Rose told the glib young man weird tales about the shooting men play in the Old Pueblo and had so frightened the actor that he asked to be allowed to go direct to the coast and await the company there. The manager refused flatly and with trembling knees Wyatt stepped off the train here yesterday. He found peace and quiet and had a good time composing when the play ended last night.

Then just as Wyatt was thinking of a fine sleep he would soon be enjoying, was frightened out of seven years' growth by hearing a terrific racket just outside his dressing room door. He opened the door and saw two of the house employees, Electrician Johnson and Frank Pollock, apparently engaged in a quarrel. Words soon gave way to six shooters. In a twinkling powder was being burned and Wyatt, deathly pale, fled from the stage shouting "murder" in a voice that could be heard for several blocks. He returned ten minutes later to investigate the casualties. He found all the stage hands and the members of his company awaiting him. He was heartily congratulated for his bravery.

DARING ATTEMPT TO STEAL CATTLEFROM THE PASTURES OF CATTLE
RAISER ON THE RED RIVER.

One of the most daring attempts at cattle stealing ever made in New Mexico was made by unknown parties on Monday, March 5, says the Tucson Citizen. A bunch of twenty-eight beef steers disappeared from the pasture of Alex Wersonick on Red river, a few miles south of this city. Monday Mr. Wersonick and son, Alex, went to the pasture after some beef cattle to butcher and when they arrived, there were no cattle to butcher. They began to make a careful search, and decided that the cattle were stolen. Mr. Wersonick came to town to notify Sheriff Littrell, and Alex Wersonick, Jr., still continued searching. After awhile he discovered the trail of the cattle, which he followed, going up a steep mountain for about a mile. After reaching the top, he discovered a rider, who, apparently, was guarding the cattle. When the thief discovered Mr. Wersonick, he made good time in getting away over the rocks and hills. Wersonick having no gun, was unable to capture the thief. The cattle, after being released, started on a run back to the pasture.

GOLD BULLION COMPANY

HAULING HEAVY MACHINERY FOR TREATING GOLD DIRT TO ITS MINING CLAIMS.

F. C. Buell of San Pedro, who is in charge of the property of the Santa Fe Gold and Copper company, at that point, and who is foreman of the present United States grand jury, at Santa Fe, talked to a representative of the New Mexican on the operations of the Gold Bullion Mining company, and said:

"Colonel J. A. Wood, manager of the Gold Bullion Mining company, operating in the placer fields near Golden, in the southern part of Santa Fe county, is now receiving a large quantity of fine machinery. There are about ten car loads of this machinery, which is being handled by the Santa Fe Central railway, via Stanley station. Some pieces of the plant are very heavy, one piece weighing nine tons, other single pieces weighing from five to six tons.

"Charles Closson of Santa Fe has the contract for hauling the machinery from Stanley station to Golden. It is doubtful if the plant will be in place and ready for operation inside of sixty days, but undoubtedly it will be ready at that time or thereabouts. This is an important enterprise, and will add materially to the prosperity of southern Santa Fe county. It will give employment to a large number of men and those who are best informed in mining matters predict that it will be a money making proposition. The company controls a large area of placer grounds and will take water from four wells to carry on the operations.

"The machinery now being received by Colonel Wood for his company is a separator built upon plans and specifications furnished by Colonel Wood to the Marion Machinery company, of Marion, O. While an elaborate affair, it is believed by experts that it will prove successful in handling the gold placer dirt in the extensive placer grounds owned by the company.

"The hauling is a very difficult undertaking but is being satisfactorily done by Contractor Closson."

FELL FROM BOX CARS AND BROKE AN ARM.

Last Saturday, while playing on some box cars near the ice house, Earl Poisson fell and broke his right arm just above the wrist, says the Williams News. He says that he has learned a lesson and will not play there again. This should also be a warning to the boys who daily board the passenger trains and ride. It will only be a question of time until some of them are severely injured or killed.

FOREST RESERVES ARE COSTLY

ONE THOUSAND RANGERS WILL BE EMPLOYED ON FIRST RE-SERVE BY JULY 1.

The following is an extract from a speech delivered in Washington, D. C., by Hon. Gifford Pinchot, United States forester, department of agriculture, after his return from attending the Stockmen's association at Denver, Colo.:

"Before July 1," said Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot, "I expect to have 1,000 rangers at work in the government forest reserves. There are nearly 700 rangers employed at present, and I think the number can soon be increased, owing to the rapidly with which money is accruing in the treasury through the grazing regulations that were recently imposed. Stockmen are paying in money at the rate of almost $300,000 a day for the privilege of grazing their herds in forest reservations."

Forester Pinchot then went on to say that he would soon announce an examination of candidates for the position of forest reserve ranger, and said that the larger the number that would apply the better it would please him. The duties of forest ranger are to look out for forest fires and see that timber is not cut or taken away. A ranger draws a salary of $75 per month to begin, and furnishes his own outfit.

"Will these men be required to know something about the high art of forestry?" was asked.

"No," said Mr. Pinchot. "I would rather a man would know the art of saddling a pack animal and maintaining himself in the mountains than anything else. The fine points of forestry will follow in proper time. One thing I must have understood, and that is that no cripples or weak persons need apply, for they will not be taken into the service."

Forester Pinchot spoke with gratification of the cordial manner in which he was received by the stockmen of the west at the recent convention in Denver. He said he thought their points of difference in regard to the imposition of tax for grazing herds in forest reserves had all been settled, and that the forestry bureau would have the hearty support of cattle men and sheep men from now on. A large amount of money has already been collected from stockmen since the grazing regulations went into effect. After a sufficient number of rangers have been placed in the field, the money will be used in constructing trails through forest reserves.

KILLING OF SERGEANT

JOHN McJENKINS.
Word has been received at Helix, Ariz., of the killing of Sergeant John McJenkins at Fort Apache last Sunday evening, says the Argus, and after shooting McJenkins the assassin, Sergeant Louis Loden, remarked: "You brought it on yourself, Mac," and then turned the gun on himself and put a bullet through his own head. McJenkins was instantly killed. Loden is still alive, but has regained consciousness since, and only a few moments since he committed the deed. At the time of the killing, there were no words passed between the two men, but in the past they had had trouble and McJenkins ranked Loden, and it seems, was always giving him the worst of everything. A note written in a book found on Loden's body read: "I am on my way to kill my worst enemy."

Faulty Digestion

Causes Physical and Mental Breakdown—J. H. O'Reilly & Co. Guarantee that Mi-o-na Will Strengthen the Stomach.

Few people realize the intimate relation between the mind and the stomach. Worry and excessive mental work react on the digestive system, while on the other hand the greatest cause of nerve and brain impoverishment is a weak or faulty digestion.

Just as soon as you find that your food is not properly digested, that you taste it after eating, that the tongue is furred, the breath heavy, the appetite poor, the head occasionally dull and aching, begin the use of Mi-o-na.

It is a guaranteed cure for all diseases of the stomach, excepting cancer. It is not a patent medicine, and its formula is furnished to physicians, druggists, and all intelligent people who may desire it. Mi-o-na differs from any other remedy on the market, both in its lasting effects and in the manner in which it is sold, that is, on a guarantee that it will cost nothing unless it cures.

Ask J. H. O'Reilly & Co. to show you the guarantee they give with every fifty-cent box of Mi-o-na.

DEMING ENJOYS A STEADY GROWTH

Boarding Houses Full and
New Cottages Bespoken
Before Completed.

NEW WATER PLANT COMPLETED

Special Correspondence.
Deming, N. M., March 8.—The steady and constantly increasing improvement in Deming is becoming more and more apparent to the naked eye of late. New cottages, which have gradually and almost imperceptibly been filling up the vacant lots around town, are now springing up in such numbers as to force themselves on the notice of even the transient visitor; the yards and small orchards about town are improved, also necessarily of gradual growth, and are beginning to show decided evidence of the time and care spent on them, and the new water works, which promise the long desired and greatly needed facilities for both house and garden, has set up its permanent advertisement, that all who run may read, in the way of its seventy-five foot stand-pipe, which can be seen for miles out of town.

Ralph Ely is putting in his forty acres just outside of town, in farm products of all kinds, and three miles west of the city J. A. Garr has bought 320 acres and is starting in, with practical methods, and good material, for building up a still larger farming tract. Between them, we are all confidently expecting to see proven the long mooted statement that Deming land, with proper treatment and sufficient water, can produce as fine fruit and vegetables as any imported from California.

New people, business men as well as health seekers from all over the country, are pouring into town, and accommodations for our new citizens are all too limited. The boarding houses are full and there is need and demand for more, and as for cottages, the new buildings are spoken for long before they are finished.

A DIVORCE COMES AFTER MANY YEARS

A PHOENIX MAN IN A KIND OF ENOCH ARDEN AFFAIR.

A divorce suit with an unusual story back of it was tried in district court yesterday at Phoenix, says the Republican. It was the case of Solomon W. Basham against Elizabeth Basham. The suit was brought on the ground of desertion of eighteen years standing. The separation of the couple took place in Pueblo, Colo., in 1888. The plaintiff, in his testimony, said that there was another man in the case and the house and he gave his wife her choice. He had some property there, but he left that with her. His wealth when he walked away consisted of the clothes he wore and his blanket.

After wandering about the country he came to Phoenix twelve years ago and built himself a home which he desired to protect by means of this divorce proceedings. He said that he saw his wife four years ago in Denver. He called upon her for the purpose of seeing his two children, who were yet living at home. He was sitting in the house talking to his wife, who pointed to a man outside the house and said he was her husband and that her name was Perkins.

She said that she had heard that Basham had gone to Washington and having heard that he was dead she remarried.

The plaintiff started to leave the house and met Perkins, who invited him to stop and make a visit. He did so, remaining two weeks. The divorce was granted and it was adjudged that his home belongs to him. He is a highly esteemed resident of this city and is active in religious work.

BLOODY FIGHT IN WICKENBURG.
Wickenburg, Ariz., March 7.—A bloody duel between two Mexicans, as a result of which one of the participants is in a hospital at Prescott, where the other is in Maricopa county jail, Pascual Encinas is the man in custody, but the wounded man's name is not known here.

The two, after drinking liquor, began to quarrel and each called the other vile names. Thereupon, Encinas drew his knife and thrust it into the breast of his antagonist. The latter also drew a knife, but his assailant was too quick for him. The blade penetrated the lung and the wound is expected to prove fatal. If so, Encinas will be charged with murder.

Most election places will be under martial rule.

Leading legislative topic will be finances.

One bill places heavy taxes on salaries of corporation officials.

Vast foreign loan to be sanctioned.

Parliament will be asked to act strongly against violence of property rights.

Early steps to be taken against Poles and other dependent peoples.

Bill prepared gives peasants right to buy realty holdings on easy payments.

The Jersey City team has the largest baseball park in the world, but not the largest attendance by any means.

"Mexican Pete" Everett, an old-time heavyweight, is out with an announcement that he wants to get in the game again. Why does he say again?

Old Cy Young is taking the baths at Hot Springs and is said to be as young and frisky as Young Cy Young, or any of the other Cy Youngs of the vintage of '95.

Christy Mathewson has been press agent for his younger brother, and that he is a success is shown in the trial Johnny McGraw is to give the younger Mathewson as a pitcher.

Manager Griffith still has hopes of luring Dave Fultz from his Wall Street law office, but Fultz persists that his baseball days are over. He did not accompany the team south on its training trip.

Young Corbett is in 'Frisco, and practically broke. He is known as a piker at the race tracks and now plunks down $1 and $2 bets. In his flush days he thought nothing of betting $1,000 on a race. He is studying a system on "how to be happy, though broke."

"Buttons" Briggs, one of the four men traded by Chicago to Brooklyn for Sheppard, refuses to sign with the Superbas and says he will turn out unless his pay check is materially boosted. Maloney and McCarthy, two of the other men who figured in the deal, are also hanging back waiting for more money.

Tom O'Rourke's fine Tuxedo club, just outside of Philadelphia, where it was announced twenty-round bouts would be pulled off, is in a fair way to cost its promoters a lot of money. Two authorities refuse to issue permits for fights to be held there and the club house can be used to little advantage for any other purpose.

The killing of Harry Tenny in a prize fight by Frankie Neil has resulted in the issuance of an order by the San Francisco authorities putting the ban on prize fighting there. What the authorities should do would be to put a ban on the referee who permitted the fight to continue to its brutal ending. The referee was responsible for Tenny's death as much as the man who delivered the fatal blow.

It seems the bill to prohibit Sunday baseball in Kentucky was introduced by a member who wanted to get even with Tebeau because he cut Charlie Dexter's salary at a time when Dexter was playing a game so inferior it smelled to high heaven. The legislation happened to be a friend of Dexter's and at the time threatened to make it costly for Tebeau. It looks as though his threat will be carried out.

Albuquerque fans sympathize with the Meadow City fans. Albuquerque has had experience with base ball players, the majority of whom seem to be in the same class, when it comes to their fidelity to any manager, team, town or aggregation. Money talks with base ball players as it does with every class of humanity. Last year Las Vegas had the best team in the southwest and the people of the town secured winter hotels for some of the players, so as to have them for this year. Among those who accepted the hospitality of the Meadow City enthusiasts during the winter were Pitcher Nash, the nineteen inning

England's Decline

It is still true that the British drum beat is heard around the world, and that the sun never sets on her dominions. Her flag floats as proudly as ever from the masts of her mighty navy. Her army establishment never was stronger than it is today. But, after all, it is not from such things as these that a nation's real greatness and glory is measured. It is not the countries with the most glorious history and the widest possessions which have the most contented population.

England is a great and wealthy country still, but that does not mean that her people are prosperous. They are not. The millions of unemployed are but surface indication of the vital fact that England has lost mastery of the commercial conditions of this age. England is no longer going forward; and not to go forward is soon to go backward. She has had her day as a world conqueror. Her dream of empire is fading. Her people are confronted with the problem of holding their own industrially, and, being unable to solve it, they see their property slipping from them, and poverty creeping upon them.

The latest figures make it officially plain that the English birth rate during 1905 was smaller than it had ever been since records began to be kept. What does this mean? Churchmen say it means that people are growing more selfish, preferring to be comfortable with small families rather than uncomfortable with large ones. Philosophers say that the English people have become wiser and are realizing facts to which they were blind before, one of which is that a big population on a small island means low wages and wretched living. Another reason suggested is that the nation's vitality is becoming weaker; and yet another, that women are obliged to compete with men and lose the time and taste for domestic life. All these reasons are doubtless true.

Old Age Pensions

The recent action of the French chamber of deputies in passing a measure which provides for an old age pension for workmen who have passed the age of sixty-five years, has caused renewed interest to be taken in the project of old age pensions, says the Duluth News-Tribune. It is a form of paternalism or socialism which has made considerable advance in various sections of the old world. It is one of the items in the program of the labor party, which has half a hundred members in the present English parliament. Germany has had since 1888 a system of old age pensions for septuagenarians, annual payments ranging in amount from about $25 to about $57. Sweden, Iceland, Finland, Belgium, Austria, Roumania, have all recognized this principle, in some cases making it compulsory in the form of state insurance; in others, voluntary. The highest government pensions for old age are probably those of New Zealand—$90 a year.

The people of the United States have never manifested any particular desire for old age pensions, yet in modified forms the system has made considerable headway here. The national government pensions its war veterans and retires its officers on half pay, and the president recommends a pension for the life saving service. Some of the large cities retire their policemen, school teachers and firemen on half pay. Many railroads have provided for old age pensions, notably the Pennsylvania, Illinois Central, Union Pacific, Philadelphia & Reading, and the Metropolitan system in New York. Pensions are also granted by the Consolidated Gas company of New York, the Standard Oil and Carnegie mills at Pittsburgh.

Flagrant Injustice

The righteous indignation—more indignant than righteous—shown by the opponents of statehood in their cry against the injustice of having the question of statehood settled by the whole people of the proposed state, is so evidently a mere pretense as scarcely to deserve comment. If it is injustice that Arizona should have statehood thrust upon her by New Mexico, what is it that New Mexico should have statehood denied to her by Arizona? Yet that is exactly what is proposed for New Mexico by those overly just shrews for the rights of Arizona.

If New Mexico were offered statehood independently of Arizona's action, the case would be different. But to give Arizona the absolute power to say that New Mexico shall not have statehood—to put the result of the whole matter, without appeal or redress, exclusively in the hands of Arizona—is an injustice as deep as hell. If the vote for statehood were to be absolutely unanimous in New Mexico, the Foraker amendment would give to the smallest conceivable majority in Arizona the complete and unquestioned power to veto the New Mexico vote.

In other words, it is giving to one faction in Arizona the power to crush a vote which in the two territories may be fully four times that of the opponents of statehood. What semblance of justice is there or can there be in such a proposal? The only justice, possible, in the case, is to leave the decision of the case to the majority of the people within the boundaries of the new state.

Westward Ho!

Previous records were exceeded in 1905 in both imports and exports. With the bigness of the nation's commerce we are getting pretty familiar; but the significant thing in the figures is the fact that the foreign commerce of this country is rapidly shifting from the east to the west. The year's total exports from Atlantic ports have, since 1904, increased 52 per cent, from Gulf ports 150 per cent and from Pacific ports 264 per cent.

Here is something for us to think about beyond mere bigness. This shift in the tide of commerce is pregnant with serious meaning for every section of the country. It opens our eyes to new possibilities and puts upon us new responsibilities. This stupendous increase in export trade to the westward, which has come with scarcely any of the ordinary aids to commerce, is only an indication of what may be expected in the near future, when the government shall have done for the Pacific coast something of what it has done so liberally for that of the Atlantic.

The Denver Republican is evidently afraid that the verdict of the Idaho courts, in the case of the arrested union mine officials, will not be satisfactory to the paper. This is a legitimate conclusion from the fact that the Republican daily continues the trial of the arrested men, constituting itself judge, jury and witness, while it substitutes vicious attack for argument and bald assertion for testimony. The courts are organized to try those charged with crime, and there is little fear that those guilty of capital offenses will ultimately escape. In such cases a newspaper should confine itself to giving the news.

New Mexican: Irrigation with pump and with hoe has a great future before it. The weather bureau statistics of the late decade show that three-quarters of the area of New Mexico have a sufficient average rainfall to make the Campbell dry soil culture a success, while independent of this fact, several million acres can be reclaimed by pumping the underground flow of water. Great as will be the benefit of the large irrigation systems, the area they will cause to be cultivated in the territory will seem small in comparison with the area that will be reclaimed with pump and hoe.

Girl Died Hiding

Name of Betrayer

The Denver Times.

A young girl from the west died in Chicago two days ago. She bore the shame and suffering alone, refusing, even as the dark shadow of death closed about her, to reveal the name of the man responsible for her fate. "I will never tell his name, and no one shall ever know it," she said, with lips already stiffening. "I don't want him ever to hear of this, and I love him too much to tell you his name." Poor little girl! Seventeen years old, and entering death's portal by the awful path of terror, agony and public shame! Yet somewhere there is a man who is responsible for this misery and this loss. Some man is alive and well today, honored, perhaps, by his friends, undisgraced and unharmed; yet because of him this young girl goes into eternity, after misery unspeakable, leaving disgrace and grief behind her for all who loved her.

How can this man bear to live and to think? Man is strong, but no man's strength bore the burden some man placed on this girl's shoulders. Man is courageous, but it was the timid woman who faced strangers and unknown pain in a strange city. Man thinks he loves, but it was a child-woman, who, in her unspeakable misery, had no thought of reproach, but only sought to shield and to save some man, even from the pain of knowing what a hell he had brought upon the one who trusted him. This girl was from the mountain state west of us. Can it be that among our clean, high hills any man is hidden who could be guilty of the crime which bears some man's soul? How we should like to believe that there is not a man in all the splendid west capable of wronging any woman, much less one young, ignorant and trusting!

Nature is merciless to the woman. Human creatures are equally pitiless. Yet somewhere there is a man who forgot all this and let a sweet young girl walk with hand in his to the edge of a precipice. Then he drew back and she went over alone. One man? Oh, horrors! To think that this woman and this man are not alone! To think that daily, in every community, this instance is duplicated in all essential points! Does the strength and honor of manhood mean nothing? Is it not possible for men to feel so deeply the diabolical wrong of such crimes that all men will be held in the grip of a genuine chivalry making impossible such selfish weakness? So long as nature has ordained that another shall bear the penalty of transgression, the very instincts of manhood should make man's protection of woman as universal as humanity.

Visit Europe but

See America First

From the Four Track News.

The movement which has for its watchword—"See Europe if you must, but see America first," will have the hearty support of millions of Americans.

Many of our people have no idea of the natural beauty and grandeur of the scenery of their own country.

What a comfort it would be if they were able to explain to their European friends the wonderful beauty of a few of our finest American scenes.

Suppose every American traveler abroad could satisfactorily describe the beauties of the Hudson River, the Mohawk Valley, the Adirondack Mountains, Niagara Falls, the Thousand Islands of the St. Lawrence, Chicago, New York, Montreal, Quebec, New Orleans, the Rocky Mountains, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, California, the Yosemite Valley, the Columbia River, Oregon, Washington, the trip to Alaska, and the Yellowstone Park, with what pride he would dwell upon our possessions, our resources and our products.

Owing to the wonderful variety of scenery and climate with which America is blessed, "all seasons are summer," for travel, and in almost all parts of the country the traveler has the comforts of his own home.

This is particularly true of those fortunate enough to enjoy the luxurious trains of the New York Central lines, the Great Central Railway system of America, with eastern terminals at New York, Boston and Montreal, and western terminals at Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Peoria and Chicago.

The New York Central lines have offices in the principal commercial centers of the east and the west, and in England, France, Germany, Italy and Austria, where detailed information can be obtained free of charge regarding resorts, hotels, rates, routes and service.

Germany's Great

Disciplined Army

From the Denver Republican.

The German army of today is the largest and most efficient fighting organization that the world has ever seen, and it has served as a model for the armies of most other countries, says the March World's Work. The Austrian army has been organized on methods copied exactly from the German system. The Japanese army also took its methods in organization as well as in strategy and tactics from Germany and German officers. The Chinese army has now adopted German methods. Nearly all the smaller countries of Europe with aspirations to military efficiency, have borrowed officers from the German army to instruct their troops. The Turkish army was so organized.

In the recent war, the largest forces met which had ever opposed one another in any conflict. The German army, however, could put in the field a perfectly equipped military force eight times larger than the victorious Japanese army which gained the victory of Mukden. It consists of more than 4,000,000 soldiers. But in addition to the 1,000,000 trained soldiers, Germany could enroll 6,000,000 more men, who, although not trained for service in the fighting line, would, nevertheless, form a valuable reserve for the protection of lines of communication and such duties. A very large number of these reserves have had at least some military training, and in case of necessity could also be employed in active service after a brief period of drill and military exercise. Thus the stupendous number of 10,000,000 able-bodied men could be mustered under the imperial banner of the German empire, so that the statement that all Germany is an "armed camp," is absolutely true.

The German emperor, who, in times of peace, shares the authority over the army with his fellow German sovereigns, the kings of Bavaria, Saxony and Württemberg, becomes in time of war supreme, and commander-in-chief or "war lord" of the entire military forces of the empire.

The standing army of Germany consists, approximately, of 600,000 men. Nearly half of this number pass out of the standing army every year and are replaced by an equal number of fresh recruits. Germany thus produces year by year more than a quarter of a million trained soldiers. The first reserve consists approximately, of 1,100,000 men, and the "Landwehr" consists of 1,700,000 men, of whom 900,000 are in the first class and 800,000 are in the second class. The "Landsturm" consists of 600,000 men, making a grand total of 4,000,000.

The organization of the army is as simple as it is efficient. The unit of organization in the infantry is the "section," consisting of 20 men under the command of a corporal. Two sections form a "semi-detachment," or 40 men under the command of a sergeant. Two semi-detachments form a "detachment," of 80 men, under the command of a lieutenant. Three detachments form a company of 240 men, under a captain. Four companies make a battalion of 960 men, under a major. Three battalions form a regiment, under a colonel; and two regiments form a brigade, under the command of a major general. The "Army Corps," which is the largest military unit, consists of two or three divisions.

Dr. Payne will lecture again tonight in the church, the subject for this evening's lecture being, "Canada, and Glimpses of All America."

Mr. and Mrs. William Farr delightedly entertained a jolly crowd of young people, Thursday evening, at their pretty home on South Edith street. A novel feature of the evening was that everyone had to do something for the amusement of the party. When all the guests had played, or sang, or read, according to their various talents, delicious refreshments were served in the dining room, after which the young people indulged in dancing until a late hour. Those present besides the host and hostess were Misses O'Neill, Sower, Reed, Tway, Hammond, Devine, and Messrs. Reed, Bowers, Betts, McCue, Devine, White. Miss Ray Farr and Miss Irene Bolt assisted.

DYKE NEAR CITY IS DANGEROUS

So Say Residents Near It.
"Doc" Bledsoe Speaks For Popular Subscription.

ESTIMATED COST WILL BE $1600

Residents along the Rio Grande between this city and the Corales bridge are looking forward to high water this summer with much apprehension. They feel that the present dyke will prove inadequate to hold back the water, and that immediate steps should be instituted toward strengthening the barrier against the ravages of the river during the period of high water.

"Doc" W. F. Bledsoe, a well known ranchman, living in that vicinity, was approached by a reporter for The Evening Citizen and asked for his opinion on the matter.

Mr. Bledsoe said that last year the water reached to within four inches of the top of the dyke, and things looked serious for awhile. "I think the dyke should be built two feet wider and one foot higher, at once," he said. "The people of Albuquerque should feel as much interested in this dyke as those who reside closer to it, as it would result in a more serious loss to many of them than to those whose property is near the bank of the river, should the water succeed in reaching the top and overflowing. In my opinion subscriptions should be taken among residents of Albuquerque for the purpose of inducing the natives to make the necessary additions. I think $1,600 would be a sufficient sum to carry the work to completion. There are about 800 natives residing in the vicinity of the bridge who would work on the dyke for $1 a day. The task can be completed in two days, at the most. The city council should give the matter their attention, I think."

Saturday morning, March 10, at 10 o'clock, is the date and time Chairman Grunsfeld, of the board of county commissioners, has set for the regular monthly meeting of this organization. At this meeting the question of necessary repairs to dykes on the river north of this city will be considered and action taken regarding the same. As the funds for bridge building and dyke improvement are very low, it will require no little ingenuity on the part of the commissioners to devise ways and means for carrying on the necessary work, but that a way out of the difficulty will be found, there is little question.

RUMORED THAT FIELD WILL COMPROMISE CASE

FAMOUS CALEDONIAN COAL COMPANY CASE MAY BE SETTLED OUT OF COURT—ATTORNEY FIELD NOW IN NEW YORK.

It is rumored that Attorney Neil B. Field, who is now in New York, has gone to that city for the purpose of effecting a settlement, if possible, of the famous Caledonian case, which has attracted so much attention in this territory, and in fact, all over the country.

The point involved is the alleged giving of rebates by the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company to the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, and the American Fuel company, in an alleged conspiracy to crush the Caledonian Coal company, and force it to sell out to the alleged trust, or suspend operations, through their inability to meet the prices of the first mentioned companies, owing to the rebates those companies were alleged to have received from the railway company.

Neil B. Field, representing the Caledonian Coal company, brought suit for $100,000 damages and $50,000 attorney's fees. The matter was laid before the interstate commerce commission, who recommended that the matter be tried in court.

The case was finally called for hearing before the Second judicial district court in this city, but was thrown out of court, owing to a legal technicality. After this had been remedied, the matter was again brought up in this court, at which time the court ordered the defendants to produce contracts and witnesses in open court, and further ordered that the plaintiffs file a bill of particulars. At this point the case now stands.

A prominent attorney of this city, who is in close touch with the plaintiffs in the case, stated to a representative of The Evening Citizen, that he did not think the matter would again come up in court for a hearing.

"I believe that the case will be compromised out of court," said this attorney, "and it is further rumored that Attorney Neil B. Field, representing the plaintiffs, is now in New York to accomplish this settlement and compromise of the case."

RAILROAD CHARITY PATIENT RECOVERING

VICTIM OF BRAKEMAN'S WRATH WILL SURVIVE BLOW FROM A CHUNK OF COAL.

The laborer brought in from Rio Puerco the early part of the week, with an ugly gash in his head, and carried to the city building for the city to care for, has been taken to the St. Joseph's hospital and placed in the charity ward. His ultimate recovery is assured.

In telling the story of how he received the wound in the head, the man said: "My brother and I paid $19.50 to get from El Paso to Rio Puerco, where we worked on the Santa Fe. I was leaving Rio Puerco for the west on a freight train, when a brakeman on the train asked me if I had any money. I told him I had $1. He said that he wanted $2, and then because I didn't have $2, he hit me on the head with a chunk of coal."

The man, who apparently, is a native of Mexico, was brought to the city on the train which brought the injured man from the Toilete wreck. His wound was first dressed by Dr. Custer, chief surgeon at the local Santa Fe hospital, who came to the city on the same train.

PENA BLANCA DITCH ELECTION CONTEST CASE

BEING HEARD BEFORE REFEREE MADDISON IN OFFICE OF W. B. CHILDERS.

Testimony in the Pena Blanca ditch election contest case, entitled Alejandro Montes Vigil, et al. vs. Esquivala Baca, et al., is being taken today before Referee T. K. D. Maddison. The cause of action is the contested election of the Pena Blanca ditch commissioners, who were elected last fall at the October election in Sandoval county.

The defeated candidates claim that votes were illegally counted for the successful candidates, and that legal votes for the defeated candidates were not counted, and that had these votes been counted, they, the plaintiffs, would have been elected. A large number of witnesses have been called in the case, which promises to occupy the attention of the referee for several days to come. B. Ruppe is acting as interpreter in the case.

HOW TO GET COPIES OF THE CITY ORDINANCE

GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE SOLVES THE PROBLEM IN A VERY WISE AND JUDICIOUS MANNER.

A citizen recently asked the city council if the council didn't provide some means by which the public might secure copies of city ordinances as they become law. The matter was referred to the grievance committee of the council, and at the last meeting, Alderman Wilkerson, who is the chairman of that committee, reported on the matter in the following language:

"This matter was referred to me, and I find that the best way to secure ordinances adopted by the council, is to take The Evening Citizen, the official paper—that is, if they are interested in the matter to the extent of five cents—that's what the paper costs. All the ordinances are published in The Evening Citizen."

A HORRID MAN WAS MR. WELCH

So Several "Flim-Flamed" Ladies Think—Looking For Audacious Fellow.

WORKED HIS GAME IN TRINIDAD

The police are looking for a man who bears the name of Welch. The handle to this smooth stranger's name is not known, at present, nor is his whereabouts, but the authorities will welcome any information about either, for a number of the fair sex have been beset by the brass button fraternity with inquiries about Mr. Welch, which naturally received immediate attention from the gallant bluecoats.

The women referred to have not fallen in love with Welch, far from it, in fact. They believe they have been deceived, though, by the wily fellow, and will continue to think so until the Butterick dress cutting system, which they agreed to buy and paid an installment on, shows up.

The game of the stranger was to make a canvass of the residence section of the town, claiming to be selling the Butterick dress cutting system for $5. Upon payment of a small sum of money, say, from $1 to $3, as a token of good faith, the stranger left a chart, agreeing to return in a few days, give instruction as to how a dress could be cut, etc. He failed to return, the ladies who handed over the deposit became alarmed and notified the authorities.

A short time ago Welch was in Trinidad and worked his game with much success there. He is probably reaping a harvest some where else just now. If anyone knows where, "tip the cops off."

SHRINERS ARE PREPARING TO ATTEND IMPERIAL COUNCIL

The local Mystic Shriners are making great preparations to attend the meeting of the Imperial Council, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, which is to be held this year in Los Angeles, May 7 to 14. A special train of Pullmans and diners will leave Albuquerque May 5 for Los Angeles, and it is estimated that there will be over 100 Albuquerque Shriners on board, counting the wives and other members of the Shriners' families. Two representatives from this lodge will be sent to Los Angeles, and estimates of the number of Shriners from New Mexico who will attend the Imperial Council is placed at 200.

BOARD OF PHARMACY MEETS MARCH 12

The territorial board of pharmacy will meet in Santa Fe March 12 and 13, for the purpose of examining candidates for registration. Under the laws of New Mexico, every practicing pharmacist must pass the examination before being qualified to practice pharmacy in the territory, no matter what credentials he may bring from some other state. B. Ruppe, president of the territorial board of pharmacy, will leave Albuquerque Sunday for Santa Fe, to be present at the meeting.

LOW RATE SECURED FOR ELKS' CONVENTION

MEMBERS WILL BE ABLE TO ATTEND GRAND LODGE IN DENVER AT RATE OF $40 FOR ENTIRE EXPENSE.

At last night's meeting of the committee of Elks having in charge the arrangements for the attending of a marching club of local Elks to the grand lodge and convention of Elks, to be held in Denver in July, the transportation committee made its report, and it is now estimated that $40 will cover the expense of one person to Denver and return, including his uniform, complete, Pullman sleeper and five days' accommodation at the hotel La Shell in Denver. Taking into consideration the fact that the one way regular fare is almost $18, and that hotel accommodations for five days would cost at the least $10, to say nothing of the sleeper, uniform, and other expenses, this amount is very reasonable indeed, and the committee is to be congratulated upon securing so reasonable a rate.

There will be at least 125 Albuquerque Elks in the marching club, and many of them will be accompanied by their wives and other members of their families, so that this city will have a good representation at the forthcoming convention, and with their uniforms as planned, and several weeks in which to practice drilling and marching, there is no reason why the Albuquerque delegation should not return with a slice of the prize money that will be offered by the Denver Elks for the best marching clubs, and musical organizations.

Accommodations are being made for the ladies, wives and sisters, or other female friends of the local members of the Elks, so that any one accompanying the marching club will receive the benefit of the same rates that the Elks secure.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Pearl Skinner, for a number of years a typesetter of this city, has been heard from. The other day, while walking along the principal street of Williams, Ark., Pearl tripped and fell through a window of Gee Jim's restaurant. The Chinaman got very angry, and had Albuquerque's ex-printer arrested. Pearl, in retaliation, announced that he would leave Williams, and be promptly complied with his promise, and is now on his way to southern California. The local boys wish him success in the land of flowers and fleas.

John A. Orndorff, son of Albert Orndorff, a prominent republican politician of Illinois, has just returned from El Paso, from which city he visited the mining property of the Illinois Mexican Copper company, at Mina de Tulla, Mexico. Mr. Orndorff's father is president of the company, and the financial headquarters of the company are at Springfield, Ill. Mr. Orndorff expects to return to El Paso in a few days, where he hopes to meet his wife, who has been sojourning in southern California the past year.

Alfred Lovell, superintendent of motive power on the Santa Fe, arrived from the east last night, and is spending the day at the local shops with S. L. Bean, superintendent of machinery on the Santa Fe coal lines, and Master Mechanic Hicks, of the local shops. Mr. Lovell's headquarters are at Topeka. He is here for the purpose of inspecting the general conditions of the local shops, and to discuss the bonus system of pay for mechanics, which is being introduced on the Santa Fe.

Word reached the city by telegraph this morning announcing the death of F. A. Reynolds, which occurred at Canyon City, Colo., last night, as the result of an acute attack of pneumonia. The deceased was a brother of Joshua S. and Jefferson Reynolds, the well known bankers of Albuquerque, and Las Vegas, and an uncle of Attorney Herbert Reynolds of this city, and Secretary J. W. Reynolds of Santa Fe. Like his brothers, the deceased had followed banking during the greater part of his life time, and at his death was president of the Fremont County bank, of Canyon City, Joshua S. Reynolds, who was in Albuquerque yesterday, left for El Paso last night. A message announcing his brother's death was forwarded to him there.

Interment in Santa Barbara cemetery.

FUNERALS

The funeral ceremonies over the remains of Herman Necker, the German, who killed himself by firing a bullet into his brain at his home, 1207 Williams street, Wednesday night, took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the funeral home of the Santa Barbara cemetery. It is now thought that Necker committed the rash act while under the influence of opiates, a large quantity of which he had taken just prior to the time he committed the deed.

CONFIDENCE MAN GRAY STILL BEHIND THE BARS

REPORT THAT HE HAD SECURED BAIL, PROVES TO BE INCORRECT AND UNFOUNDED.

It was erroneously reported day before yesterday that S. L. Gray, the accused confidence man and pal of Morris, had secured a bondsman and had been released from jail. It has since developed that the report was erroneous for Gray still languishes behind the bars as the guest of Sheriff Armijo and is likely to stay there until the grand jury convenes this month and for which both he and Morris have been held. Morris, as stated before, is out on bail.

MERGER ACCOMPLISHED IN RAILWAY INTEREST

New York, March 8.—The stockholders of the Chicago & Alton Railway company will hold a meeting here this afternoon to vote on the proposition to merge the company with the Chicago & Alton Railroad company. Under the plan of consolidation the name Chicago & Alton Railway company will be dropped and the new company will be known as the Chicago & Alton Railroad company. The railway company owns all the stock of the railroad company except 75 shares of the preferred and 4,387 shares of the common. To provide for this outstanding stock it is proposed to create 8,293 shares of cumulative 4 per cent prior lien stock of the consolidated company. Each share of the outstanding preferred stock may be exchanged for three shares of the new stock and each outstanding common share may be exchanged for two shares of the new stock. The capital stock of the new company will aggregate $40,000,000, of which $19,542,800 will be common and $19,557,200 will be 4 per cent non-cumulative preferred. The remainder of $899,200 will be 4 per cent cumulative preferred, to take up the outstanding railroad company stock.

The 4 per cent cumulative participating stock is entitled to receive 4 per cent before any other issue; and if in any half year a dividend amounting to two per cent shall not have been paid, the deficiency shall accumulate, and be payable before any other dividend. This stock is also entitled, in addition to the four per cent dividend, to participate with the common, receiving additional dividends declared on the common. In liquidation this stock is entitled to par, accumulated dividends and interest at four per cent from the date of the last dividend due date, and also to participate equally with the common stock in any assets that may be left to be divided by the common stockholders after the preferred is paid in full.

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION REDUCES INDEBTEDNESS.

Chicago, Ill., March 8.—A special meeting of the stockholders of the Chicago & Alton railway and the Chicago & Alton railroad, was held here today, at which it was voted to consolidate the two companies under the name of the Chicago & Alton Railroad company. The securities of the two companies will be exchanged for those of the new corporation, and it is estimated the outstanding indebtedness of the company will be about $23,000,000 less than that of the two companies which it has supplanted.

NAVY PEOPLE MAD OVER REDUCED PAY.

Washington, D. C., March 9.—The navy department has begun to hear from commanders of navy yards, who have just received the instructions from Washington to reduce all expenses in the way of maintenance and to discharge many of the employees to bring the cost of operation and protection of property within the limited amount required by the refusal of congress to provide the urgent deficiency appropriation for the remainder of the fiscal year.

Rear Admiral Coghlan, commandant of the Brooklyn navy yard, says: "The effect of the reduction of funds seriously cripples the service; the balance is insufficient to carry on maintenance work in an efficient manner."

Similar conditions are reported from other yards and stations everywhere. From Pensacola it is stated that the money at the disposal of the yard will not suffice for the operation of the electric plant alone for six months, to say nothing of doing other work devolving upon those in charge of protecting public property. In addition, it is reported, that the station is left without the means of protection against an outbreak of yellow fever in the spring and summer, and this is a feature which has more than merely local effect. There is no way out of the difficulty. Congress has made no provision for meeting the deficiency, and there is nothing to do but cut down the expenses and make the available funds go as far as they may. Whatever cost may result from this form of economy will have to be borne later.

IMPORTANT CONVENTION OF CHRISTIAN WORKERS.

Va., March 9.—More than 300 delegates from all parts of the state and adjoining states are assembled here to attend the Tri-State convention of the Young Men's Christian association, which will open here this afternoon. In the evening there will be a reception and supper for the delegates and members of the Parkersburg association. Tomorrow evening there will be a song service, followed by a meeting, in which A. M. Lathrop, chairman of the interstate executive committee, Washington, D. C., will give a review of the work of the past year. Bishop John H. Vincent will deliver an address. The convention will close on Sunday evening with a farewell service and a final address by the Rev. A. T. Pierson of Brooklyn.

That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. ATTORNEY GATEWOOD DENIES CHARGES

PREFERRED AGAINST HIS CLIENTS, FOR STEALING CATTLE FROM EL CAPITAN COMPANY.

Following up the dispatch published in The Evening Citizen yesterday afternoon, regarding the alleged wholesale stealing of cattle by Thomas Pridemore, a later dispatch from Roswell, to the Denver News, and dated March 7, gives the following additional information on the subject:

Further developments came today in regard to the indictment of Thomas Pridemore, Lee Bivins and R. A. Morris on the charge of conspiracy to steal 973 head of cattle from the El Capitan Land and Cattle company, of which Pridemore was manager.

Judge W. W. Gatewood, attorney for Bivins and Morris, tonight indignantly denied that his clients had been guilty of any criminal conduct, and repudiated the statement that Bivins was guilty of any criminal conduct in buying the cattle from Bivins. Judge Gatewood says there has never been a breath of suspicion against Morris and Bivins before, and as soon as he learned that indictments had been returned against them two weeks ago, he notified them by wire and they promptly came here and gave bond. Both were indicted on three charges each, and bond in each case was fixed at $2,000, making in all $18,000, which was promptly furnished.

At the last term of the district court, here the El Capitan Land and Cattle company, with New Mexico office at Richardson, Lincoln county, and head office at New York city, brought suit against Lee Bivins for $17,046, and this suit was dismissed. It is alleged by Judge Gatewood, Bivins' attorney, that this suit was brought for cattle that Bivins is now charged with conspiring to steal. Lee Bivins lives at Amarillo, Texas, is a prominent banker and stock broker at that point, and is reputed to be a millionaire. R. A. Morris is president of the Horseshoe Land and Cattle company, with headquarters at Portales, N. M. This company owns 60,000 head of cattle and has ranches in four counties in New Mexico, also ranch property in Texas.

AMERICAN HORSE MARRIES PRETTY WIDOW IN EUROPE

AN INDIAN CHIEF WHO WENT ACROSS WITH A WILD WEST SHOW CAPTURES RICH DUTCH WOMAN AND BRINGS HER BACK TO HIS VILLAGE—A SWIFT COURTSHIP AND WEDDING.

When it comes to hymen we Americans are pretty swift. There's American Horse, the Ironquills Indian chief, who has just returned from the old country with as pretty a little Dutch bride as any man would want. And she was a widow, a cute, bright-eyed, plump little widow from over The Hague way.

American Horse, with all his feathers, moccasins, tomahawks (made in Pittsburgh), and deerskin pants, went across the water last year as part of a show. There was an Indian village with scalp dances, war dances and other scenes popularly believed in England and the continent to be common in Buffalo and other frontier American states.

The show was at The Hague a week. Among the first day visitors was Mrs. Johanna Elizabeth Von Domellen, the pretty widow, whose husband had left her single and with much good coin of the realm of Wincelmina.

The second day, Johanna Elizabeth was introduced to American Horse. The third day American Horse showed her around the camp. The fourth day Johanna Elizabeth took American Horse around The Hague in a carriage. The fifth day American Horse took possession of Johanna Elizabeth's heart and they were engaged.

American Horse is a big buck, good looking for an Indian, and pretty smooth, even if he can't read or write. The widow's relatives were given a look in on the arrangement and there was no objection. American Horse suggested minister right away, but they have a slow Dutch way in Holland of standing you up for a two weeks' notice of coming marriage. So the redskin and Johanna and Jo-

Payson Ripley, trainmaster at San Marcial, was in the city yesterday on business.

Jose G. Chavez, claim agent for the Santa Fe, was in the city from Los Lunas, yesterday.

Train No. 10, about forty minutes late this morning, No. 10 has been late about that length of time every day since the opening of the new El Paso Union depot. A trainman stated this morning that the building was such a beauty and comfortable that No. 10 conductors lost time every night tearing themselves away from it.

There were two sections of train No. 2 this morning, and each arrived about an hour and thirty minutes late. The private car of Walter Anchor, superintendent of the floating department of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, was attached to one of the trains. Mr. Anchor was accompanied by his wife and President Bland, of the United States Fidelity company. They were returning from a sight-seeing trip over the Pacific coast.

J. J. Law and son, of Antonio, Colo., arrived in Santa Fe yesterday, and will be there several days. Mr. Law, who is a Denver & Rio Grande railroad engineer, was in a railroad accident recently on that road, and has been laid up in a hospital in Durango, Colo., for two months as a result. He is at Santa Fe for the purpose of recuperating.

William Essex and F. P. Barnes, master mechanic and general foreman of the Raton shops of the Santa Fe, have left the Santa Fe and gone to Shreveport, La., where they hold similar positions on the Kansas City Southern railroad. Both Barnes and Essex were in authority of the local shops previous to going to Raton, and they have many friends here who will be interested to learn of their leaving the Santa Fe.

TWO MILLION FOR PENSIONS.

This Sum Paid by Pennsylvania Line to Retired Employees.

The statistics of the Pennsylvania railroad pension department, compiled up to December 31, 1905, show that during the six years of its operation there has been authorized to be paid in pension allowances to the retired employees of the company the sum of $2,041,987.52, made up each year as follows: 1903, $390,000; 1904, $390,000; 1905, $359,374.32; 1902, $328,403.10; 1901, $292,290.20; and 1900, $244,019.97.

The foregoing expenditure does not include the expense of operation of the department, which is also borne by the company.

During the six years' application of the pension plan, 2,700 employees have been retired as pensioners from the active service of the company, of which number 800 have died. Of the total number retired, 888 were between the ages of 65 and 69 years, of whom 546 were retired on their own request with the approval of the employing officer.

GROCERIES VS. RENT

A PASSENGER CONDUCTOR SAYS THAT "THOUGH RENTS ARE HIGHER, GROCERIES ARE SOLD CHEAPER HERE THAN AT LAS VEGAS."

A passenger conductor running between this city and Las Vegas, and living in Las Vegas, was asked yesterday why he didn't make his home in the larger town—Albuquerque.

THE FINAL CHAPTER IN PARKER MURDER

SENSATIONAL CLOSE OF CRIME INVOLVING ROBBERY OF PROMINENT CITIZEN.

A correspondent writing to the El Paso Times from Alamogordo, under date of March 6, relative to the Wash Parker murder case, says:

What one might term the final act in the Wash Parker murder case, came to a somewhat sensational close Tuesday afternoon at Cloudercroft, before Justice of the Peace Russell Wallace.

Wash Parker, an old and highly respected citizen, was waylaid and murdered on Sunday, April 23, 1905, in the vicinity of Weed, this county. Lee Green, deputy sheriff, organized a posse and started out in search of the murderer. Taking the trail at the scene of the murder, the posse followed it until they came upon a man named Tom Gentry. Gentry was ordered to give up, but instead of surrendering, pulled his gun and opened fire on the posse. The officers turned the fire and the trail was killed. One of the possemen was named N. C. Tidwell, and a complaint was sworn out against Tidwell charging him with the murder of Gentry, although it was recognized by eye witnesses that Deputy Sheriff Lee Green himself, killed Gentry. Hon. J. R. Wharton was employed to prosecute Tidwell and Judge Byron Sherry was employed to defend Tidwell. The case came up before Justice of the Peace Russell Wallace, at Cloudercroft Monday, and was bitterly fought by both sides, resulting in a sensational trial.

This ended the last act of that bloody affair of waylaying, murdering and robbing Wash Parker, and the settling of this case certainly proves the right of an officer in defending his own life while in the performance of his duty.

TITLE TO HALF-MILLION ACRES TO BE CLEARED.

The Las Vegas grant of 500,000 acres is to have the individual titles settled at once. Judge E. V. Long, secretary of the board, has been appointed referee, and will pass upon all claims to title by the settlers and the district court will then issue deeds on conditions prescribed, says a recent dispatch from Las Vegas. It is the intention of the grant board to give complete title to all who have lived the lands for a period of ten years and to issue deeds to other lands on payment of a stipulated sum. Thousands of people live on the grant. Congress has confirmed the tract to the town of Las Vegas, but no individual titles have ever been given.
