FISH INVOKES INJUNCTION IN FIGHT

ASKS COURT TO PREVENT UNION PACIFIC VOTING

Petition Alleges Harriman Ownership of Illinois Central Stock is Illegal and Prays That It Be Ordered Sold.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Chicago, Oct. 14.—Sturges Fish, through his attorneys H. W. Lennan and Frank H. Culver, of Chicago, and Edgar H. Farrar of New Orleans, today secured a temporary injunction which will, if made permanent, restrain the voting of the Illinois Central Railroad company which would otherwise be voted in the interests of E. H. Harriman. The writ is directed against the Union Pacific Railroad company, the Securities company of New Jersey, and the Mutual Life Insurance company, of New York, which combined hold the above shares of stock.

Mr. Fish, accompanied by his attorneys, entered the court room of Judge Hall of the superior court at 2 o'clock but it was not until two hours after that time they were able to secure the attention of the court and ask for the issuance of the injunction.

The petition was filed by ex-Senator George F. Edmunds of Vermont, John A. Kasson of Iowa, Stuyvesant Fish of New York and William H. Emrich of Chicago.

Stockholders of the Illinois Central, against the corporation, its directors and stockholders, the Union Pacific Railroad company, the Railroad Securities company, the Mutual Life Insurance company and a large number of individuals in whose names it is claimed, the Union Pacific Railroad company has placed all of the stock which it holds in the Illinois Central, have asked the court to prevent the Illinois Central from voting the stock of the Illinois Central. It was also asked that these companies be directed to sell their stock in the Illinois Central within a reasonable time.

The petition charges that an unlawful scheme of the Union Pacific Railroad company to control the commerce of the United States by buying large blocks of stock in the prominent transportation companies. It also sets forth the facts stated in a recent report of the interstate commerce commission in regard to the transactions of the Union Pacific Railroad company and E. H. Harriman.

It sets forth the names of corporations whose stock it is claimed the Union Pacific has bought, among them the Chicago and Alton, Illinois Central, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul and the Chicago and Northwestern. It charges that these four companies own and operate parallel and competing lines both in and outside of the state of Illinois, and that it is unlawful for the Union Pacific company to own and vote such stock.

It is also charged that the acquisition of the stock of the Illinois Central by the Union Pacific, which took place in July, 1906, was concealed from the public and the stockholders of the Illinois Central was brought to light by the investigations of the interstate commerce commission. It is alleged in this connection that up to this day not one share of the Illinois Central stock has been registered in the name of the Union Pacific, but still stands in the names of the clerks and brokers of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

It is further charged that in the effort to get as large a percentage of the stock of the Illinois Central as possible, the Union Pacific violated its charter in buying the stock of the Railroad Securities company, which is only authorized to hold the stock of the Illinois Central. The charge is made that 15,000 shares of Illinois Central stock belonging to the Railroad Securities company was transferred a few days before the Illinois Central board closed, by a sham transaction, to E. H. Harriman and eighteen officials of the Union Pacific and the Illinois Central who are under the control of Mr. Harriman.

The bill declares that Directors Reabody, Auchincloss and Vanderhoof of the Illinois Central are trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York and have combined and conspired with E. H. Harriman and the Union Pacific in getting control of the Illinois Central and to end it is claimed, they intend to vote the 5,500 shares of stock owned by the insurance company in the coming election. It is claimed that the insurance company under the laws of Illinois cannot vote stock in the Illinois Central.

controlled in the interests of the Union Pacific.

It is set forth in the petition that the object and purpose of the Union Pacific is to perfect and perpetuate its control of the directory of the Illinois Central, in which by law all the corporate powers of the Illinois Central are vested, so as to have the Illinois Central operated, to its irreparable injury and damage, as a mere feeder to the Union Pacific, through its connections at Council Bluffs, Ia., and at New Orleans by means of the Southern Pacific company, which, the petition declares, the Union Pacific controls absolutely.

It is claimed that under the laws and public policy of Illinois, neither the Union Pacific nor the Railroad Securities company nor the Mutual Life Insurance company can own and vote stock in the Illinois Central.

The amount of stock of the Illinois Central to which the application of the injunction is directed is made up of 186,231 shares bought by the Union Pacific by E. H. Harriman, H. H. Rogers, James Stillman, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., all of which stock, the petition declares, is owned by the Union Pacific, and 5,500 shares owned by the Mutual Life Insurance company, the whole aggregate of 191,731 shares out of a total of 350,400 outstanding shares in the Illinois Central, or a little over 50 per cent of the stock.

It is believed that the attorneys for Mr. Harriman will tomorrow seek the dissolution of the injunction, and it is not possible to state at the present time whether the arguments will be completed in time to allow Judge Hall to make a decision before the day of the annual meeting.

Mr. Fish said today after the granting of the temporary injunction:

"I have all along been satisfied with the manner in which things were moving. I have never been obliged to seek proxies by claiming a majority, and I shall not do so now. No one can foretell the issue of a contest which is still in the future. The stockholders at home and in Europe are fully alive to the issue, and are sending in their proxies by the hundreds. I have every confidence in the issue of the proceedings relating to the injunction."

FISH HOPELESSLY BEATEN

SAYS HARRIMAN LAWYER

Attorney William Nelson Cromwell, representing the interests of Mr. Harriman in the Illinois Central, said tonight:

"I am not at liberty on the eve of the annual meeting to disclose the condition of the proxy holding, but I make myself personally responsible for the statement that Mr. Fish has been hopelessly beaten. His appeal to the stockholders has resulted in more than a majority declaring that they want no more of him and as a last resort in the hour of his disappointment he seeks to prevent one-fourth of the stock of the Illinois Central, to own stock in the Illinois Central. It was also asked that these companies be directed to sell their stock in the Illinois Central within a reasonable time."

The petition charges that an unlawful scheme of the Union Pacific Railroad company to control the commerce of the United States by buying large blocks of stock in the prominent transportation companies. It also sets forth the facts stated in a recent report of the interstate commerce commission in regard to the transactions of the Union Pacific Railroad company and E. H. Harriman.

The bill declares that Directors Reabody, Auchincloss and Vanderhoof of the Illinois Central are trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York and have combined and conspired with E. H. Harriman and the Union Pacific in getting control of the Illinois Central and to end it is claimed, they intend to vote the 5,500 shares of stock owned by the insurance company in the coming election. ## GERMANY HAS ON DESIGNS NO AUSTRIA

FOREIGN OFFICE ISSUES DECLARATION OF POLICY

Integrity of Francis Joseph's Empire Necessary to the Equilibrium of Europe, Declares Berlin Government.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Berlin, Oct. 14.—Regarding the persistent reports published in the English press that Germany desires to absorb Austria in the event of the death of Francis Joseph, it may be stated that the policy of Germany with reference to the internal affairs of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy has been declared to be one of entire aloofness.

The foreign office some months ago sent a dispatch on this subject to Baron Speck von Sternberg, German ambassador at Washington, for the information of President Roosevelt. The relations between Austria and Prussia were reviewed in this communication, historically, beginning with the controversies in the old German federation which were settled by the war of 1866, and it was further set forth how Prussia since then had maintained the headship of the German states.

The entrance of Austria into the German imperial system, according to the Prussian view, would tend to revive the old antagonisms which had come to an end with the entire exclusion of Austria from German councils. Furthermore, a strong Austrian empire was shown to be of advantage to Germany because it was friendly to the government of Emperor William and gave support to the present equilibrium of Europe.

The German official view is that the Austro-Hungarian monarchy is not in the slightest danger of dissolution.

NEW ORGANIZATION OF TELEGRAPHERS

Postal Company Plans Forming Benefit Association of Men Who Stuck to Jobs During Strike.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] New York, Oct. 14.—Clarence Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph company, announced today to the Postal telegraphers that the company favored the organization of a Postal Telegraph Employees' association.

President Mackay's announcement followed:

"To all telegraphers in the employ of the Postal Telegraph-Cable company—The company, appreciative of the loyalty spirit displayed by the employees who remained faithful and those who came to the aid of the company when so many of its old employees abandoned their duties, believes that this loyal spirit may be strengthened by association into a powerful agency for maintaining the good relations between the company and its employees, and the prevention of such movements as culminated in the occurrences of last August, and it has therefore, in conjunction with its employees, decided to form an association of employees who have faith in the disposition of the company to deal fairly with them who are opposed to strikes, and who recognize the plain truth that their own prosperity is bound up in that of the company."

Such an association will be called the Postal Telegraph Employees' association. Its object will be to secure to the company a loyal force, and to its members employment undisturbed by factions seeking to coerce or embarrass the company or its employees, and its further object will be to render financial aid to its members when sick or disabled and also in case of death. The direction in which such an association may extend its activities for the benefit of its members may easily be seen.

"The company contemplates that this association may be the means of remedying local complaints by affording a ready means by which complaints may be properly considered, and also that it may be turned to the purpose of self-help and the advancement of its members socially, educationally and materially. All of which objects will have the hearty support of the company."

"CLARENCE H. MACKAY, President."

FOUR WIVES TO HELP HAFIS'S PRESTIGE

NEW MOORISH SULTAN TAKES ALL LAW ALLOWS

Last Girl Wedded, Daughter of Powerful Caid, Wins Him Support of Important Desert Tribe; More Rifles Seized.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Tangier, Oct. 14.—The custom house at Matagan was subjected to a second raid by Mulai Hafis's men the night of October 9, when 1,049 rifles were seized. A new administrator for the custom house at Matagan, appointed by Mulai Hafis, arrived there October 11 and took the place of Ben Sliman, who had made his escape. He is a Fezzan, named Ghali Sibby, formerly was a merchant in Morocco City.

Further letters received from Matagan bring news which tends to show that Mulai Hafis, the sultan of the south, is gaining strength. Mulai Hafis has effectually put a stop to the ill treatment of Jews in Morocco City and he gives personal attention to all matters of importance. Since his accession as sultan he has taken four wives in order to strengthen his position, practically inviting all the Beni Hennis under him to follow his example. His last wife is a daughter of Hamma Hacks, an important caid. This girl was intended for Sultan Abdul Aziz, but Hafis heard of her and sent two envoys to bring her to him.

The girl's father, however, demanded that Mulai Hafis come in person, and consequently the new sultan went himself and got the girl, winning at the same time the support of the entire tribe, which is very powerful.

Mulai Hafis, a lieutenant to Mulai Hafis, with eight regiments of soldiers and all the Haouz governors, has departed from Morocco City for Bour-Bou to control or assist Caid Anfloos, depending upon the attitude of the latter. All the powerful caids of the province are in Morocco City in token of submission to Mulai Hafis.

PRESIDENTIAL HUNT STILL FRUITLESS

TRACKS IN PLENTY BUT NO BEAR SEEN

Wolves Relying on Sabbath for Safety Pass in Sight of Roosevelt Camp; Hunters in High Spirits.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Stamboul, Ia., Oct. 14.—No person has reached this point from the president's new camp on Bear Lake today except a party that started from there early this morning and no messenger is expected until tomorrow. The party arriving today consisted of Secretary Latta and Messrs. Parks, Shields and Mangum, the last named a friend from Mississippi, with whom the president became acquainted at Seneca and who invited him yesterday to the camp. They brought only the report that the president and his remaining companions had made an early start and that they were in high spirits and very hopeful of better fortune than has yet attended the hunt. Several members of the party have solved at the lake and bear tracks are reported to be numerous, two timber wolves yesterday passing within plain sight of the camp and so excellent is the outlook that the president has decided definitely to remain at the present location and not go to Tennesse as planned last week. The president spent yesterday in ease around the camp, the only exercise by him being a walk around Bear Lake and a row on the water in company with Mr. Mangum. No member of the party made any attempt at hunting. The president's favorite hunter, a son of his, is so religiously inclined that he would not break the Sabbath to go in search of a hunter's knife he had lost on Saturday, but waited until this morning when he went out before daylight and soon returned with the weapon. The weather remains very perfect for hunting. There was a slight skim of ice on the water this morning. The president will come into Stamboul next Sunday before starting Monday on his return to Washington.

Government Considers Offering Free Passage to Men Needed to Repair Battleships.

Washington, Oct. 14.—In connection with the procurement of the large amount of labor necessary on the Pacific coast to make the repairs on the battleship fleet when it reaches California next year, the government is considering a proposition which will undoubtedly cause a great stir among the labor unions on the coast. This is to induce eastern laborers to go there by giving them and their families free transportation, provided they contract to remain in the government service a certain time. Of course, higher wages must be paid than in the east as a necessary feature of this plan.

DETERMINED TO TRY FOR GREAT YACHTING TROPHY

Patriotic Citizens Offer to Furnish Material to Build Challenger for Nothing and Will Do Work at Cost.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Stockholm, Oct. 14.—William Sisen and Gustaf Kyhlberger, who are at the head of the movement here to build a challenger for the America's cup, say that a large portion of the money required to construct and sail a ninety-footer, estimated at about $189,000, has already been subscribed. Many of the large manufacturers have offered to furnish material gratis, and the captain and three mates of the yacht will sail her without any pay; the designer will accept no compensation for his work, and the builders will charge only the net cost for the construction. Messrs. Sisen and Kyhlberger think they will now be able to guarantee funds even for a ninety-footer if required. The report that the Swedish club intends challenging with either a seventy- or a ninety-five footer in order to compel the New York Yacht club to build a new defender has no foundation.

Twenty-five Miles an Hour on the Auto Line

ESTANCIA SYSTEM RAPIDLY CUTS DOWNTIME

FINE PERFORMANCE ON EXCECRABLE ROADS

Three Machines Arrive, All Loaded to the Mud Guards. Car Leaves This City Daily at 8:30 a. m.

Running a good part of the way over the worst roads in New Mexico, two automobiles of the Estancia-Albuquerque system arrived in this city yesterday, each having made the seventy-five miles, with numerous stops, in four hours and thirty-five minutes. To one who has traveled through Tijeras canyon it is unnecessary to state that this is a most surprising performance. A third machine also came in yesterday in slightly slower time, all three being loaded to the mud guards. The first two arrived at 1:15 o'clock and the third at 5. F. N. McCloskey, of the automobile company, was among the passengers on the first car, which was driven by Mr. Bacon.

A Morning Journal representative had the pleasure of making the round trip to Estancia on one of the cars. The trip is one well worth taking, just to see the country, and for one who has made the journey through the Sandia mountains, on a jolting wagon or on horseback, the experience is a novel one.

Cars Nos. 1 and 2 left Estancia at 8:40 o'clock. They made the twenty-mile trip to Moriarty in just thirty-five minutes. From Moriarty to Tijeras, over a very rough canyon road, the machines covered the distance in two hours. From Tijeras to Moriarty, at the west end of the canyon, and thence to this city, the total time consumed was two hours and five minutes. The road from Tijeras to the mouth of the canyon is a fearful proposition part of the way, and the feat of the machines is the more remarkable on that account. When the force of men now busy has completed its work of leveling and improving the road, it is quite likely the autos will make still further substantial reduction in the running time.

FINE SCENERY ON TRIP

Through Tijeras canyon the passengers on the automobile line have an opportunity to see some very fine scenery. The buzz wagon crosses deep arroyos, winds around sheer precipices, with an ever changing panorama of mountain peaks, pine forests, rocky hills and canyons. Along the valley are many fertile farms, a striking demonstration of what can be accomplished by irrigation, even in the narrow bed of the Tijeras gorge. The crowning vista of all comes when the eastbound car passes by Sedillo and then starts down the long incline to the broad sweep of the vast Estancia plateau, the promised land of the farmer and homemaker. Thence for more than fifteen miles the automobiles whiz along at twenty-five miles an hour, while the prairie dogs squeal and scot for their holes and perchance a wandering coyote sits and looks wonderingly at the devil wagon as it honks past him. Six miles this side of Moriarty the route crosses the roadbed of the Albuquerque Eastern railway.

From Moriarty to Estancia and thence to Willard the route follows the line of the Santa Fe Central railway and several "rolling" cars, between engineer and chauffeur, have already been pulled off en route. For use in the winter months, and in case of accident, comfortable shelter houses are to be erected at intervals along the line. A number of mountain resorts have been planned since the inauguration of automobile service through the canyon, and the beautiful Whitecomb Springs, near Willard, will doubtless increase greatly in popularity when it is brought within an hour's journey of this city.

MACHINES LEAVE CITY

AT 8:30 EVERY DAY The automobiles will leave Springer's transfer office near the corner of First street and Gold avenue, every morning at 8:30 o'clock for Estancia and Willard, and all persons desiring to make the trip are requested to be on hand before 8:30. The foregoing schedule was announced by F. N. McCloskey, one of the managers of the line, yesterday. When the system is in full operation it is expected that the trip to Estancia will be made in five hours and to Willard in "five hours and a half."

Crystal Has Show That Goes. In the surprising show of Martino, novelist, Stanton and Sandberg, rapid fire comedians; Mr. Logan's illustrated song; Behan, Alta & Co.'s force and the moving pictures. It must be said of the Crystal theater this week, that it has a show that pleases.

Despite the fact that people were thought to be surprised with amusement at the fair lately a large crowd attended last night and laughed and applauded as usual at this house. The "few moments" with Messrs. Stanton and Sandberg are only too short, although they were obliged to respond to repeated encores. Their work is of the quick, witty variety that requires a live audience and it certainly went with a hurrah. The little farcette that concluded the performance was also a big laugh-maker. The present bill runs until Thursday, when a change with the exception of the novelty feature act, takes place. The management announces handsome imported Japanese handkerchief boxes, as souvenirs to the ladies this afternoon.

ESTANCIA SOON TO HAVE ANOTHER NEWSPAPER

TORRANCE COUNTY LEADER APPEARS OCTOBER 24

New Train Put on by Santa Fe Central to Take Care of the Rapidly Increasing Business of the Valley.

[Special Correspondence Morning Journal.] Estancia, N. M., Oct. 14.—Estancia is to have another newspaper, the Torrance County Leader, the first issue of which will appear next Thursday, October 24th. The paper will be published weekly by R. N. Maxwell, who will have charge of the business end, while his wife will edit and publish the paper.

The politics of the Torrance County Leader will be republican and already Manager Maxwell has succeeded in getting up a fairly large subscription list. Mrs. Maxwell, the editor, formerly edited and published the Catoosan, a weekly paper of Catoosan, Indian Territory, but since her marriage to Mr. Maxwell, a rancher living near this city, she closed up the "Catoosan" and moved its equipment to Estancia. The Leader will be published from a new building just erected and P. E. Haymes, an efficient printer, will be foreman.

New Train Makes a Hit. The residents of the Estancia valley from Stanley to Willard are jubilant over the fact that the Santa Fe Central railway has inaugurated a new local train from Santa Fe to Torrance, making stops at Kennedy, Stanley, Moriarty, McIntosh, Estancia, Willard and Torrance. The new train was put on Sunday morning and it will be continued indefinitely. According to the business men of this city the railroad management was compelled to put on the new train to take care of the rapidly increasing freight and passenger business from Santa Fe to Torrance.

Eastern's Ties are Rotting. The residents of Moriarty are wondering what, if anything, will ever be done with the 50,000 railroad ties and several thousand steel rails, which have been lying useless just east of Moriarty for over two years. The ties and rails were purchased for the Albuquerque-Eastern railway, but since they were dumped they have not been moved and many are beginning to decay.

New Meat Market. A new meat market is being erected just east of the postoffice by Trinidad Romero, son of M. A. Romero, the postmaster, and it is reported that Mr. Romero will supply the entire Estancia valley with fresh meat. Mr. Romero has just completed a large slaughter house and corral, the latter full of fine looking heaves, ready for the slaughter.

George H. Goebel, a prominent socialist lecturer, will talk at the Baptist church Saturday night on the topic, "Shall the Trusts Own the Nation, or Shall the Nation Own the Trusts?" Samuel Goldsmith, a member of the firm of Goldsmith and Carter, has returned from a trip to his ranch in northern New Mexico to look after his sheep.

Joseph Patterson, the well known real estate man, and Mrs. Patterson have returned from the territorial fair in Albuquerque. Green Lasater, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lasater, who was killed by a bronco last Friday is improving.

ALBUQUERQUE - NEW MEXICO

THE FRUITS OF LAWLESSNESS.

Under the above caption, the law magazine, "Case and Comment," published by the lawyers' co-operative company at Rochester, New York, has in its last issue an article that should be carefully read by every citizen of the United States who has any interest in the general welfare and progress of the American republic. The writer begins with the declaration that the deluge of crime that has overspread this country is the natural result of the long continued relaxation of lawlessness, and says: "Again and again thoughtful men have pointed out the disgrace and the danger of permitting the laws of almost every kind to be disregarded, and in many cases defied. An aroused public opinion has recently started on a determined and successful war against the lawless and criminal practices of corrupt officials and law-breaking corporations. This was the right place to begin in order to demonstrate that the most powerful law-breakers are not above the law; but the whole range of lawlessness among people of every grade needs to be repressed with the same stern and inflexible justice, until it becomes known and fully understood by all men, high and low, that in this country the law is made to be respected and obeyed."

Violations of law in recent years have in a great variety of matters become almost the rule instead of the exception. Why should a nearly arrived immigrant respect the laws when he looks around him and sees that many of them at least are systematically defied with impunity? The first thing he sees in almost any city he enters is that the laws for the regulation of saloons are a farce. He quickly learns that sales of liquor on Sundays and to minors are illegal, but that it is as easy to get served at a saloon on Sunday as on any other day, and that the appearance of obeying the law is only a pretense. He learns, too, that there are laws against lotteries, raffles, and various forms of gambling, but that they are violated persistently and with practical impunity. It may be that when he gets to his church fair, he finds that, in open and direct violation of law, raffling schemes of every kind are going on with great success, and probably some of the officers of the law are on hand and participating in the offense. So, the immigrant who looks about him sees many other laws frequently if not constantly violated by people who are never punished for their offenses. Prejudice in court is often so obvious that every one, from the judge to the spectator, feels certain that the witness is testifying falsely. Yet even an attempt to punish it is so rare that few witnesses who lack scruples on the subject are at all deterred from falsifying their oath when occasion arises. Even the children quickly learn that there are many offenses against person and property that they can indulge in with practical certainty that they will never be punished for them, by either parents or officials. They can steal everything that is portable for an election box and expect no punishment, or even inquiry to follow. They may strip all the fruit trees of their neighbors with equal impunity, even in respectable neighborhoods. In a little rougher locality they may make a pasture of stolen law peddlers or upsetting any old fruit dealer, whether man or woman, and carrying off the fruit, while the policeman is around the corner. Education in all these lines is free, and has the sanction if not of approval, at least of the substantial acquiescence of the authorities. Gangs of young men on what they call a "dark," may damage property and create a public disturbance, including a battle with the officers, yet be practically immune from interference. Many drivers of automobiles, to the peril of their own lives and the lives of others, ride roughshod over the law without the slightest hesitation. In the numerous labor strikes, destruction of property, violent assaults and murders have generally been treated as almost legitimate incidents of the strike, and weak-kneed authorities have hardly dared to do more than merely beg of the strikers to refrain. The violation of the laws against carrying dangerous weapons almost daily results in assaults and murders, but there is yet hardly the beginning of an attempt to enforce them. These are only illustrations of many instances of many kinds in which regularly and almost systematically the laws for the public good are disregarded, defied and despised. What wonder that as the result of such an education we should now have a generation in which lawlessness is like a plague? We are merely reaping what we have sown. Shall our long regime of laxity of law continue to educate the incoming masses of ignorant foreigners to think that American liberty means lawlessness? That is the lesson they have been learning and we are beginning to learn the result. The movement which is yet hardly begun, to bring criminals, great and small, to the bar of justice and under obedience to law, must go on until in every stratum of society men realize that they cannot tiff with law and justice.

DAWN OF A NEW ERA.

Alas! military men do not hesitate to admit that they see in the advent of the aerial "war ship," which is even now a practical reality, the dawn of a new era in warfare, both on land and at sea, for what will the strongest fort on land, or the most formidable fighting ship at sea, amount to as against a little infernal machine that can hover over at a height sufficient to put it completely out of harm's way, and at its own good pleasure drop the most destructive shells where they will work the greatest execution? Against the assaults of such machines the most formidable military or naval works ever constructed would be absolutely useless. But that is what we are coming to, and that is what we shall actually see, not in the next century, or the next generation, but the next time hostilities occur between any two great nations, even though it be within the coming year. And if war was hell, on the land or the water, what will it be when transferred to the atmosphere?

The actual performances of that new war balloon in England are truly marvelous, and military and naval experts are convinced that it could accomplish the destruction of any war vessel that floats, and render the strongest military works on land perfectly helpless. The recent tests of this remarkable aerial machine have proven sensational in that they have not only demonstrated what the inventors claimed for it, but possibilities far beyond their most enthusiastic dreams are suggested by its performance. Primarily designed as an adjunct to military maneuvers, the ship will be able in all probability to make long excursions over the seas, in which case it would have a weird mastery of naval fleets that must be helplessly beguiled, subjected to air warfare bombardment, against which there could be little if any defense. "An expert in the art of war has stated that it would be almost impossible for even the giant rifles of today to reach a war balloon, not only because of the great height which it would maintain, but because of the position in the zenith which would defy trajectory effectiveness of guns. The natural result of the invention and use of this terrible war balloon would be the building of balloon destroyers, in which case the entire science of fighting would have to be revised, as the battlefield would be largely transferred from earth to air. It is by no means a mere flight of the imagination to expect that the day will be soon upon us when men in war balloons battling in the clouds may decide the fate of empires."

In view of these facts—and they are cold, hard facts—would it not be prudent for congress to "go a little slow" in the matter of appropriations for military and naval affairs of the present order, until we can look a little further ahead and see what the future has in store for us. Coming events cast their shadows before, and the event which is casting its shadow ahead, the pathway of nations just now, is an aerial fighting machine which promises to put fortified posts and non-manned ships in the class of back numbers, along with the flintlock musket and the wooden sailing vessel.

The experience of the town during fair week gave us another and very forcible illustration in the way of practical experience of the urgent necessity of more and better hotel accommodations.

The San Francisco Chronicle is persuaded that whenever a congressman makes a great deal of fuss about the infringement of the writers' rights it is ten to one that he is close up to the land grabbers and wishes to keep open the opportunity to rob Uncle Sam.

There is to be a battle royal between the forces of conservatism and radicalism in England at the next election. The conservative party is girding up its loins for a big fight in which it proposes to stem the tide of socialism in Great Britain. It has a big job before it, and the outcome is more than doubtful.

"Our love for New Mexico and our interest in its future cannot be dampened by the inuendoes of our contemporary."—Phoenix Republican. Yes, we were made aware of that about a year ago, when your tender affection for New Mexico, welling up from the profound depths of your "distinctly superior civilization" left us no room to doubt that your love for us was immune to dampness.

While Malcon experts were testing new receiving quines at the top of towers at Marienta station, Nara Scotia, the other day, the operator in the room below picked up a message from the wireless station at Manila, at a distance of 12,900 miles. If a "stray" message can go 12,900 miles, it is only a question of "know how" when one can be sent to points equally distant in obedience to orders.

Michael Cronin, out of the president's Adirondack guides, has been adjudged insane and sent to the state hospital. It was Cronin who drove with Vice President Roosevelt sixteen miles through the lower Adirondacks to the nearest railway station in 1895, when a courier brought him the news of President McKinley's assassination. They made the sixteen miles in one hour and forty-three minutes.

The aerial carnival to take place at St. Louis next Monday is expected to be the most interesting and exciting sporting event that ever occurred in the country—and is also looked forward to with a great deal of interest by many persons who see in it much more than sport. President Roosevelt has detailed a company of United States troops to assist in policing the space in which the many thousands of visitors will be gathered.

Soldiers are being taught to cook, and as the San Francisco Chronicle remarks, there is wisdom in imparting education of this kind to enlisted men, for if the statements they make are well founded one of the principal causes of the dissatisfaction with army life which is the prolific cause of desertions is the bad cooking and lack of variety in the fare provided for Uncle Sam. The government is a liberal provider, and the soldier has no complaint on the score of quantity, but the monotony of the fare is undesirable, and if it can be varied to skilful cooks the army will be a great gain.

What the Editors of the Southwest Are Saying

Yes, Thanks. Albuquerque boasted hard for the Socorro county fair but she will have to concede that Socorro county has returned the compliment with interest.—Socorro Chieflain.

That's the Dope. There never was a better time to boost for Gallup than now; the town is growing and it is growing on something besides hot air.—Gallup Republican.

Sign of Progress. Estancia is to have another paper. It will be known as the Leader and will be published by Mrs. Maxwell. The more, the merrier. Another paper will help advertise the great Estancia valley.—Moriarty Messenger.

The Baseball Bug. The average American as a general rule is a pretty level-headed sort of fellow, but when he goes to a baseball park at 8 o'clock in the morning and waits there for the gate to open for a game that begins at 2:30, as hundreds of them did yesterday in Chicago, his brain just helpfully needs fixing.—Phoenix Gazette.

All Clear Now. When the president started on his trip down the Mississippi we could all understand what he was doing at Oyster Bay. He had a speech for every landing, and double-barrelled load for each of the big towns.—El Paso Times.

The Virtuous Plum Tree. Miss M. Olcott has a plum tree growing in her yard which has turned out twice this year in full bloom. This particular plum tree has certainly got "stuck" on something. It is supposed to dress up prettily so, often in one season. Miss Olcott says she can't understand why it is "flirting" so.—Durango Comic.

Booze and Longevity. Jose Gutierrez, a Mexican, 117 years old, died last Sunday at Socorro. He was said to be the oldest man in the southwest and had lived near the Rio Grande in New Mexico all his life. He died suddenly of old age, while rolling a cigarette in a corn husk, having never used paper. The old man had just closed a deal with a large distillery concern, giving his testimony as to the virtue of their goods in exchange for so many gallons of their best whisky, and had received the whisky, but did not live to drink it. Now what can booze and cigarettes do to prolong life? But maybe if he hadn't used them he would have lived to be 150.—New Mexico—Deming Headlight.

Sounds Fishy. Some thieves broke into a New Mexican printing office the other day and stole $7.57. How the money came to be there is a mystery, but, anyway, the greedy robbers were so staggered at the small amount that they stuck up a sign on one of the printing cases, reading "Cheap Screws." The editor of that paper has a clear suit for libel if he ever finds out who did the rascally trick.—Silver City Enterprise.

Staves Show. The compliment paid to Governor Kibbey and Arizona by President Roosevelt when he invited the governor to join him on his return from his hunting trip in the south will be recognized by every citizen of the territory. But aside from the imperial compliment, he real meaning and importance will not be lost on the people, as it distinctly shows the interest which Mr. Roosevelt feels for Arizona and proves the high regard in which he holds Governor Kibbey.—Phoenix Gazette.

The Greatest of All of Them. The twenty-seventh annual territorial fair, which has been in session all week at Albuquerque and closed with today, has been the best and greatest of them all in every particular. The city of Albuquerque is to be congratulated for its noble support of this territorial institution which is both a leader in the instructive and amusement lines of New Mexico's annual events. Each year the territorial fair has exceeded its predecessor in almost every way, and the fact that this year it is better is because people over the territory have taken a more active interest in displaying the products of their various localities.

The fair-entertainment is composed of good business men who have used their utmost efforts for months toward making the present fair a greater success than any of the others.

In the future it should be made a point with every county to be represented at the territorial fair with a line of exhibits of their various products.

Another important factor in the success of the territorial fair is Albuquerque enterprise.—Springer Stockman.

DEBRIS OF WRECK STILL GIVES UP ITS DEAD

Two More Charred Corpses
Recovered From Scene of Santa Fe Smashup at De-voze on Cajon Pass.

The Devoze freight wreck of three weeks ago on the Cajon Pass has given up two more of its dead, the long-concealed remains of brakeman C. R. Ray and those of an unknown, supposed to be a Mexican.

Under the debris of a car of linoleum a trackman came upon the precious torso of the missing brakeman. Identification was positive through the finding among the ashes of Brakeman Ray's watch key, marked by a number and a badge that he wore.

Since Saturday, September 21, when the awful wreck occurred, the remains of Ray had been persistently sought. Once it was supposed that they had been brought from the scene and the mistake was only discovered when the charred torso was about to be shipped to his former home in the south for interment.

Then the discovery was made that the remains were those of Brakeman E. V. Bryant, and again the search was resumed. The debris soon gave up the bodies of two Mexicans. All hope of ever finding any particle of Brakeman Ray had been abandoned, and the recovery came as a surprise.

Tenderly all that was left of the brave brakeman whose life had been sacrificed to someone's terrible blunder were gathered together and placed in care of Barton and Catlett, of San Bernardino, whose wagon went to Devoze immediately on receiving the railroad's report of the discovery.

Courier Van Wile will certify as to the cause of the unfortunate's death, and in all likelihood the undertakers will prepare the remains for shipment in accordance with instructions of the family at Atlanta, Ga., issued at the time the remains of Brakeman Bryant were mistaken for those of Brakeman Ray.

The other human torso will be given burial by the company, as there seems to be no way of identifying it. When the runaway train went into the ditch that fatal September morning, it became known afterward that aside from members of the crew several Mexicans showing rides on the train, met death in the tangle of steel and timber and the roaring flames which soon enveloped the wreckage. With the finding of the Mexican's remains and the recovery of those of Brakeman Ray, it is believed that the last of those who were killed in the wreck have been recovered, the total of dead being six.

SAN ANTONIO MAN MAKES MELONS PAY WELL

C. B. ALLAIRE PROVES THE POSSIBILITIES OF BUSINESS

Believes Melon Growing Will Become One of the Big Industries of the Rio Grande Valley.

Mr. C. B. Allaire, the well known merchant of San Antonio, N. M., is quietly advocating melon culture as one of the ways to bring about speedy and substantial development of the Rio Grande valley. Mr. Allaire is not moving blindly in the matter, for he has first proven to his own satisfaction just what can be done with melons by intelligent methods and he is now ready to take part in any movement which will tend to spread interest in the industry.

In a recent letter in the Morning Journal, Mr. Allaire says: "I planted about one and one-half acres in various sorts of melons in 1906 as an experiment and to supply the local demand. I got a good crop and the quality was first class, but I kept no account of the cash results. This season I planted a little over two acres but on account of an alfalfa strip on one side of my patch the acreage was reduced to two acres or less. I kept an account of the sales this year which will reach fully $400 from the two acres. I sold only at wholesale prices to dealers here, in San Marcial, Magdalena and Carrizosa, so that the results are on a commercial basis. These results are not a big as claimed in other localities, but they are authentic and big enough to satisfy any farmer. A large part of my crop I was not able to sell and that portion of it was a loss. My whole object in taking an interest in this matter is to encourage an industry that will prove profitable and result in the immigration into the valley of a class of people that we need and increased value for land and all other property. I am getting along too far in years to engage largely in new enterprises but I am just as anxious to see this valley take on new life as if I was 25 years younger, and not only that but to do all I can to bring it about.

"Intelligent farming is required for melon growing. The selection of the seed, the harvesting of the fruit, the handling, packing, shipping and selling require brains and business capacity and integrity. Otherwise the whole project will be a failure. I am speaking now of growing for the export market, the same as Rocky Ford. Our local merchants are far too small to seriously consider. Success depends on proper soil, planting, cultivation; but more important still is to grow the best strains that sell for the best prices in the east. Fruit that will sell on a glutted market and all expenses are paid. It must be handled to avoid all bruising. It must never see a ray of sunshine after picking. It must be packed in crates systematically, so as to avoid bruising in transit, so that when presented to the consumer in Chicago or New York our melons will be the best obtainable. It is only when this is no business for careless men. Up to the present time I had an idea that it was necessary to form an association of growers and thereby secure local refrigerator service, but this seems to be a difficult matter on account of the scattered location of growers and the difficulty of getting sufficient acreage to pledge to warrant the railroad in putting on refrigerator cars. "We have daily express service and I believe arrangements can be made through that medium.

"With this each grower can act independently and sell to the market as he sees fit."

Mr. Allaire is ready to give the benefit of his experience to any one who is interested in the possibilities of melon growing in the valley.

FAIR ASSOCIATION WANTS ALL BILLS

Manager Hubbs last night gave out the following notice which will be of interest to all persons having bills against the association:

"All persons having bills against the fair association are urged to get them into the hands of the manager not later than Thursday, October 17, '10. J. A. HUBBS, "Manager."

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested. For the quickest cold is gotten rid of the less danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hill, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years, and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best remedy on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all druggists.
