SEEK TO PROVE MRS. BRADLEY WAS INSANE

DEFENSE GIVES AN OUTLINE OF ITS PLAN

Aged Mother of Unfortunate Woman to Tell of Prisoner's Girlhood and Her Many Troubles.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Nov. 18.—The foundation was laid today for the plea of the defense in the trial of Mrs. Annie M.
Bradley, charged with the murder of former United States Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah.

The plea, as heretofore made, evidence will be made more accurately, perhaps, mental irresponsibility, of the prisoner at the time of the tragedy. As on the previous days, of the trial, the court was thronged with interested spectators. Outside there was a steady downpour of rain. Within the dramatic scene being enacted was a setting of the trial. The prisoner, frail and weak, almost to the point of collapse, sat behind her counsel, manifesting comparatively little interest in the proceedings. Occasionally she exchanged a few words with her attorneys, but only at rare intervals.
During the afternoon she sat with her face buried in her hands for nearly an hour without moving.

The evidence adduced today tended to throw light upon Mrs. Bradley's condition at the time of the tragedy.
Newspaper men and physicians occupied the stand during most of the two sessions of the court. In each instance, the newspaper men testified that at the time they saw Mrs. Bradley, shortly after the shooting, she was greatly agitated, and two of them declared she was wild and hysterical. Physicians, who knew her before the murder and who subsequently examined and treated her, were put upon the stand to show that her physical condition was such as likely to produce mental aberration, or at least irresponsibility for her action.

A pathetic touch was given the case in the afternoon when Mrs. Bradley's aged mother, Mrs. M. E. Maddison, told of an accident which her daughter sustained when she was a small child. One of her playmates accidentally struck her on the head with a hoe. She was ill for several weeks and Mrs. Maddison testified that she subsequently suffered greatly from severe headaches.

The last of the day Colonel M.
Kahlan, a lawyer of Salt Lake City, testified that Mrs. Bradley visited him at his office in Salt Lake City and told that she must talk to somebody or she would go crazy and that she wanted to talk to him because he was a friend of Arthur Brown.

The objection being made to the line of testimony being adduced, Justice Stafford held a prolonged conference with the attorneys for both sides, at the conclusion of which he directed that the testimony be given until tomorrow. Meantime an understanding was reached that some change would be made by counsel for the defense in presenting their case.

"PIG IRON KING" IS FINALLY ACQUITTED

Henry O. Post Released From Charge Of Impersonating a Special Agent.

San Francisco, Nov. 18.—Henry O.
Post, at one time reported to be a mili-tarian, with offices in Chicago and New York, and known as the "Pig Iron King," was today acquitted of the charge of having impersonated an agent of the United States district court. It was claimed that Post secured various sums of money from former acquaintances by giving them letters, which he gave them as being secret service of the government. The testimony showed that the money was loaned to him with the expectation of making out of the loans, the amount of the checks he gave being larger than the amounts he received. On the stand Post denied that he ever said that he was a secret service agent.

People of Ill-Fated Italian District Terror Stricken by Repeated Shocks — Poor Desert Their Homes.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Reggio, Di Calabria, Italy, Nov. 18.— The province of Reggio, Di Calabria, Italy, was today visited by another severe earthquake. At 20 minutes past 2 o'clock this morning, it was especially severe at Branciano, where thousands of people were sleeping.
The people, who summed up courage to return to their homes after the earthquake of October 27, again became panic stricken and fled a second time to the country. Some of them are camped tonight in the open air.
The activity of the situation is increased by the inclemency of the weather.

A second violent shock was experienced in this town at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The people were thrown into a state of consternation, which was added to by the stories of further damage at Branciano. Assistance has been sent to this place.

Shock in Mexico City.
Mexico City, Nov. 18.—A slight earthquake shock lasting a second and a half occurred here at 12:27 p. m. today. No damage was done.

Bank Examiner Morey Traces
Proceeds of a $90,000 Note
to Accounts of President's Personal Concerns.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Chicago, Nov. 18.—Judge Anderson, in the trial of John R.
Walsh, charged with misappropriation
of the funds of institutions with which he was connected, today ruled
that the books of the Chicago National bank and of the other Walsh institutions constituted competent evidence and that counsel for Walsh had no constitutional right to exclude them. Following up this victory, the prosecution, through the testimony of National Bank Examiner E. P. Morey, proceeded to trace ten instances of alleged irregularities in accounts which
it contended indicated misappropriation
of the funds of the Chicago National
bank by its former president.

From book to book throughout the
afternoon, the bank examiner traced
the transactions and pointed out connecting links through a mass of figures and at the close of the session it
appeared that the task set before him
would keep him occupied for days, since each of the 160 counts in the indictment must be traced through a
half dozen or more books.

Mr. Morey's testimony, given in a straightforward manner, but with frequent interruptions by counsel for the defense, was in substance that on February 1, 1904, the discount register of the Chicago National bank showed a memorandum note for $92,000, secured by certificates for $100,000 in Illinois Southern railway bonds, and
that on the same day the proceeds,
amounting to $90,763, were credited
to Mr. Walsh's personal account. He said that Mr. Walsh's account was charged on the same day with three checks, one of $25,000, another of $35,000 and a third for $25,000 to the Illinois Southern and $25,000 to the Southern Indiana, the amount of
the discount note $91,256, were credited on the same day to Mr. Walsh's personal account. Further, he showed that on the same date $19,000 was paid to the Chicago Chronicle, $25,000 to the Illinois Southern and $25,000 to the Southern Indiana, the amount of the discount note $91,256, were credited on the same day to Mr. Walsh's personal account. Further, he showed

Bank Examiner Morey Traces
Proceeds of a $90,000 Note
to Accounts of President's Personal Concerns.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Chicago, Nov. 18.—Judge Anderson, in the trial of John R.
Walsh, charged with misappropriation
of the funds of institutions with
which he was connected, today ruled
that the books of the Chicago National
bank and of the other Walsh institutions constituted competent evidence and that counsel for Walsh had
no constitutional right to exclude
them. Following up this victory, the prosecution, through the testimony of National Bank Examiner E. P. Morey,
proceeded to trace ten instances of alleged irregularities in accounts which
it contended indicated misappropriation
of the funds of the Chicago National
bank by its former president.

From book to book throughout the
afternoon, the bank examiner traced
the transactions and pointed out connecting links through a mass of figures and at the close of the session it
appeared that the task set before him
would keep him occupied for days,
since each of the 160 counts in the indictment must be traced through a
half dozen or more books.

Mr. Morey's testimony, given in a straightforward manner, but with frequent interruptions by counsel for the
defense, was in substance that on February 1, 1904, the discount register of
the Chicago National bank showed a memorandum note for $92,000, secured by certificates for $100,000 in Illinois Southern railway bonds, and
that on the same day the proceeds,
amounting to $90,763, were credited
to Mr. Walsh's personal account. He said that Mr. Walsh's account was charged on the same day with three
checks, one of $25,000, another of $35,000 and a third for $25,000 to the Illinois Southern and $25,000 to the Southern Indiana, the amount of
the discount note $91,256, were credited on the same day to Mr. Walsh's

THE WHEN PATRIOTISM IS NEEDED

BRYAN SCORES THE MAN WHO HOARDS HIS MONEY

Nebraskan is Willing to Handle the Awful Job if a Worshipping Country Compels Him to Do It.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 18.—William J. Bryan received an enthusiastic welcome when he addressed the members of the Jackson Club, a local democratic organization, at their banquet tonight. Seven hundred people were present, and of these, number 45 were at the table at which the distinguished Nebraskan sat. In addition, probably two hundred were present. Mr. Bryan said that after serving in two campaigns he did not feel like volunteering again, although he would accept the presidential candidacy in 1908 if "drafted." He said he was glad that the unprecedented discovery of gold had taken the money question out of politics.

"But I want you to know," said the speaker, "that our arguments on the money question advanced in 1896 have been vindicated, not by the republican party, but because God Almighty took pity on the poor people of the world and opened up to them vast storehouses of gold."

Mr. Bryan denounced tariff revision as proposed by the republicans and accused the republican party of bad faith in promising revision. The delay of a single year means much to the people of this country and they are being defrauded out of hundreds of millions of dollars in the meantime. The people are ready to let the democrats form the tariff, asserted Mr. Bryan.

The speaker declared that President Roosevelt should not be held responsible for the present financial stringency. Mr. Bryan placed the blame on the Wall Street gamblers.

Mr. Bryan expressed himself as in favor of the postal savings bank and said that he believed it to be a better plan than an asset currency.

"We are in the midst of a financial stringency that is in some respects more acute than that of 1896," he said. "I am not going to blame the president or the republican administration, but I know who I would blame if I were president. If I were president every cross-roads republican would be blaming me. The panic of 1873 came 13 years after the republican took power and 11 years before they surrendered power to the democrats. I am not going to blame the president, because I do not think blame should be laid at his door. I am going to do him the justice to say I don't join in the charge of eastern financiers who want to make him the scapegoat. Those who violated the law should be blamed, not those who have turned on the light recently."

"There is no excuse for the people to be afraid that their banks are not solvent. What is the cause of this panic? The president is not to blame. Who is to blame? The leaders who controlled the country for 45 years. They have so chained us to Wall Street that when a Wall Street gambler falls our business world trembles all over the country."

The common people and not the Wall Street gamblers should handle this situation. The man who will draw out his money and hoard it does not need it. It is in the same class as the man who would refuse to aid his country in time of war. This is a time when great patriotism is needed."

Arnold Sent to Reformatory.
Denver, Colo., Nov. 18.—James Arnold, the young perpetrator of the Northern Colorado company, who made away with $3,000 belonging to the company, claiming he had been robbed in broad daylight, and finally confessing, was sentenced to an indefinite term in the reformatory today. Arnold returned $2,500 of the money, but said that he had given the remainder to a stranger on the street. Arnold still insists that this story is true and the $1,100 has not been recovered.

denial, the reports continue to circulate that an organization of financiers was contemplated to take up a portion of the proposed loans, but no confirmation of the reports could be secured.

CHICAGO AND THE WEST PLEASED WITH THE PLAN
Chicago, Nov. 18.—The news of the national government to loan $150,000,000 in bonds and certificates not with general approval throughout the west. The benefits expected to result from the move were anticipated in the higher grain markets both here and in other grain centers of the west. Bulls were more disposed to buy than for some time, and shorts took to cover hastily as soon as the plan was announced.

In this city some of the leading bankers announced that preparations were under way for the resumption of business on a normal cash basis, and it was believed that the result of ten days at the outside the clearing house checks would be withdrawn from circulation. Leading business men here agreed with the bankers that the issue of the bonds and certificates will have great force in bringing the affairs of the country back to the condition prevailing three months ago. All of them were of the opinion that the loan of $150,000,000 would be subscribed several times over and the report from St. Louis that one man there was anxious to see one-third of the loan of the total issue was cited as proof of the accuracy of this opinion. Railroad men, particularly those connected with lines running to the west and south-west, were greatly pleased with the scheme to loan the bonds and certificates. They asserted that they would supply the ready money which is necessary to move the crops. The opportunity to secure government securities would, they declare, at once activate the money market and enable them to obtain large amounts of currency which at the present time are in the vaults and with the addition to the funds of the banks which would be available from the government.

SITUATION IN SAN FRANCISCO SHOWS MARKED IMPROVEMENT.
San Francisco, Nov. 18.—The San Francisco money market is responding readily to the action taken by the secretary of the treasury to relieve the strain on the finances of the country. Bankers and financiers today expressed great satisfaction at the method resorted to by President Roosevelt and Secretary Cortelyou to put money in circulation.

BERLIN BREATHES EASIER OVER OUR FINANCES.
Berlin, Nov. 18.—The news of the action taken by the treasury department of the United States to relieve the financial situation in America has been received with a sigh of relief here. It is now felt that future developments will be awaited with greater ease.

SMELTER RATE AT GOLDFIELD IS AGAIN PUSHED UP.
Goldfield, Nov. 18.—The smelters have again raised the rate on Goldfield ores, this being the second time within ten days. The Goldfield Consolidated led out all men today who were working on ore in the mine, as they will not pay the new rate.

OKLAHOMA BANK IS FORCED TO CLOSE DOORS.
Lawton, Okla., Nov. 18.—The City National Bank of Frederick, Okla., with a capital of $25,000, was unable to open for business today, because of the failure to realize on its securities sent east. J. A. Lile is president, and O. S. Patton, cashier.

RETRENCHMENT LEAVES MANY HUNDREDS IN IDLENESS.
Sharon, Pa., Nov. 18.—Twenty-five hundred employees of the American Sheet and Tin Plate company, at Sharon, Pa., are idle, owing to trade depression.

Practically all of the iron and steel companies of the valley are following a retrenchment policy, and several hundred men who have been idling monthly salaries have been laid off until conditions improve. Three of the twelve open hearth furnaces of the Carnegie steel company at South Sharon have closed for repairs.

Treasury Buying Silver.
Washington, Nov. 18.—The treasury department today purchased 100,000 ounces of silver at $9.42 per ounce, one-half to be delivered at Denver and the other half at New Orleans.

HENRY CLEWS SAYS THE CERTIFICATES ARE NOT LEGAL.
New York, Nov. 18.—Bankers, capitalists and financiers here generally approve the action of Secretary Cortelyou in issuing Panama bonds and certificates of indebtedness for the relief of the financial stringency. The issue, it was the general opinion, is a sound one. Henry Clews, however, questioned the legality of the certificates of indebtedness, and said there was no valid reason for the issue of the certificates, and that the issue of certificates is liable to drive out the gold we have imported.

THE POWERS TRIAL STILL DRAGS.
Defense Files Motion Challenging Entire Harrison County Verdict and Proceedings Stop for Argument.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Georgetown, Ky., Nov. 18.—The attendance was larger today at the Charles Powers trial than on any previous day. The second session of Harrison county yesterday, consisting of 100 men, summoned to report this morning, arrived on time and the court began the examination touching their qualifications for jury service.

After a consultation with the defense at noon filed the expected motion challenging the entire Harrison county verdict. Accompanying the written motion was a number of exhibits, including Powers' formal challenge against the deputy sheriffs and affidavits of many Harrison county witnesses. The afternoon was taken up with testimony and arguments on the motion. The court announced that counter-avowal of the commonwealth would be admitted and made part of the record.

Taft HAS SOME VERY IMPORTANT BUSINESS

Secretary of War Abandons His European Trip and is Hiking Across Continent Bound for Home.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Viadivostok, Nov. 18.—Secretary Taft came ashore twice today, drove through the city and did some shopping. He was accompanied by an escort of Russian troops. Tonight the secretary dined with General Pluss, the commander of the forces. The health of President Roosevelt and Emperor Nicholas were drunk.

The invitation to be the guest of Emperor William at the Isle of Wight, Mr. Taft had to decline on account of President Roosevelt trying him to hasten his return, but it is believed that inquiries from the French and British governments as to why the secretary could not visit them also influenced him to change his plans.

An audience with Emperor Nicholas at St. Petersburg, where Secretary Taft expects to arrive December 5, has been arranged. It has now been decided that the secretary will leave here tomorrow afternoon on his long journey overland.

The unrest among the soldiers quartered here has not abated, and it is reported that two hundred mutineers were executed by hanging last week.

Important Business at Home.
Paris, France, Nov. 18.—A dispatch received at the American embassy here from Secretary Taft, who is now at Viadivostok, announcing his inability to visit Paris or Berlin on his way home from the far east, says "Important business at home" is the excuse possible for him to visit either of these capitals.

SCHOONER HAS A ROUGH VOYAGE.
Lille-Bonne Battles for Eighteen Days Against Terrible Storm.

San Francisco, Nov. 18.—In the grasp of a storm, encountered half way between this port and Unimak Pass, Alaska, on October 21, during her voyage down the coast from the far north, the three-masted schooner Lille-Bonne, Captain Oscar Johnson, was totally dismantled and almost lost to the bottom. After a desperate fight with the wind, lasting eighteen days, the twelve men on board the Lille-Bonne made this port today, bringing their vessel to a safe anchorage off Meigs wharf.

Wandered Among Baker Street Disgusted in Borrowed Whiskers.
London, Nov. 18.—The venue in the Duke case, involving the claim to the dukedom of Portland's estates, was transferred to the Strand today, and although the latter court is the center of an east end slum district, the same fashionable audience was present. Robert C. Caldwell, of New York, again was in the witness box, but added little to previous information furnished. He testified that Baker street being talking to the residents just before the coffin, supposed to hold the body, left the premises.

The presiding magistrate, Mr. Plowden, closely questioned Caldwell regarding the reasons for the alleged mock funeral, but the witness said he was unable to enlighten him.

Miss Robinson testified that she is the daughter of a southern planter and owner of the diary which figures in the case, which is alleged to have been stolen, under mysterious circumstances, from her home.

Miss Robinson testified that the diary was stolen from her in the street on November 2. Counsel for the prosecution informed the magistrate that the diary was a very valuable one, and had been taken by counsel before the book was lost. Continuing, Miss Robinson said she was introduced to Drake High Church, Castle, where he will spend several weeks recuperating.

Fixes Status of Amateur Athletes.
New York, Nov. 18.—After a long delay, the Amateur Athletic union today decided on the status that college athletes are to hold in amateur athletics.

By the resolution, which was finally passed, it is decreed that college athletes may only register with the union from two places, their colleges, and the homes of their parents or guardians.

Dr. Chadwick Set Free.
Cleveland, Nov. 18.—The indictment returned against Dr. Leroy Chadwick several years ago in which he was charged with aiding and abetting his wife, Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, in forging the name of Andrew Carnegie to a note for $25,000, was today set aside by Judge Beth upon the request of the county prosecutor. Mrs. Chadwick shortly before her death employed a Cleveland attorney to have the indictment nullified if possible.

Double Tragedy on Colorado Ranch.
Denver, Nov. 18.—Pete executed a double tragedy yesterday in the sudden death of mother and son on the D. A. H. ranch in Adams county, about eight miles north of this city. News of the sad affair reached here today when report was made to the coroner George Croker, foreman of the ranch, that a double tragedy had occurred. His mother, Mrs. Sarah A. Double Tragedy on Colorado Ranch.
Denver, Nov. 18.—Pete executed a double tragedy yesterday in the sudden death of mother and son on the D. A. H. ranch in Adams county, about eight miles north of this city. News of the sad affair reached here today when report was made to the coroner George Croker, foreman of the ranch, that a double tragedy had occurred. His mother, Mrs. Sarah A. Croker, aged sixty-five, was shot by her son, William Croker, who was passing a visit to her when informed of the news not but a few minutes before.

Fixes Status of Amateur Athletes.
New York, Nov. 18.—After a long delay, the Amateur Athletic union today decided on the status that college athletes are to hold in amateur athletics.

By the resolution, which was finally passed, it is decreed that college athletes may only register with the union from two places, their colleges, and the homes of their parents or guardians.

Dr. Chadwick Set Free.
Cleveland, Nov. 18.—The indictment returned against Dr. Leroy Chadwick several years ago in which he was charged with aiding and abetting his wife, Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, in forging the name of Andrew Carnegie to a note for $25,000, was today set aside by Judge Beth upon the request of the county prosecutor. Mrs. Chadwick shortly before her death employed a Cleveland attorney to have the indictment nullified if possible.

LIVELY SQUABBLE AT LEAVENWORTH

Director and Quartermaster of Soldiers' Home File Bunches of Charges Against Each Other; Cause Unknown

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 18.—It is reported on good authority here today that Governor Cooke, of the Soldiers' home, and Colonel Hunt, quartermaster of the home, have each filed charges against the other in regard to official acts concerning the management of the institution.

Governor Cooke last night would not deny that charges have been made against Colonel Hunt, but he would not say whether or not they were true.

Colonel Hunt is out of the city until Friday. The exact nature of the charges has not yet become known. They have been sent to Senator Warner, who will forward them to Washington for investigation.

DUKE OF PORTLAND WAS A GAY DOG

Wandered Among Baker Street Disgusted in Borrowed Whiskers.

London, Nov. 18.—The venue in the Duke case, involving the claim to the dukedom of Portland's estates, was transferred to the Strand today, and although the latter court is the center of an east end slum district, the same fashionable audience was present.

Robert C. Caldwell, of New York, again was in the witness box, but added little to previous information furnished. He testified that Baker street being talking to the residents just before the coffin, supposed to hold the body, left the premises.

The presiding magistrate, Mr. Plowden, closely questioned Caldwell regarding the reasons for the alleged mock funeral, but the witness said he was unable to enlighten him.

Miss Robinson testified that she is the daughter of a southern planter and owner of the diary which figures in the case, which is alleged to have been stolen, under mysterious circumstances, from her home.

Miss Robinson testified that the diary was stolen from her in the street on November 2. Counsel for the prosecution informed the magistrate that the diary was a very valuable one, and had been taken by counsel before the book was lost. Continuing, Miss Robinson said she was introduced to Drake High Church, Castle, where he will spend several weeks recuperating.

COUNCIL ON TRAIL SALOON LICENSES OF THE BLOOMING CORPORATIONS TO BE RAISED TO $1500

Committee Reports on Cost of Apparatus to Determine the Amount of Real Gas and Put Brakes on the Meter.

BURKHART SAYS PRESSURE IS SOMETHING FIERCE

Slot Telephones Come in for a Vigorous Assault and Protest Will Be Made to the Company.

Public utility corporations came in for a good round share of enthusiastic attention at the meeting of the city council last night. The first shot out of the box the council listened to the report of the committee on John Beaven, chairman. The committee reported that it had investigated the proposition of gas and meter testing outfit and the necessary apparatus would cost in the neighborhood of $500. This would include a meter tester, the analysis of the candle power, the odoriferousness and other qualities of the gas, including the amount of pure illuminating ozone alleged to be pumped into the pipes by the celebrated booster which boosts while you sleep. The committee was instructed to look further into the matter and confer with Prof. Angell, of the university.

Attorney Summers Burkhardt, who has been the moving spirit in the investigation of Albuquerque gas, was present at the meeting last night and had a few more crisp remarks to make on gas in general.

Mr. Burkhardt had conferred with university gas authorities and other experts, and said he found that a complete gas testing outfit would cost only about $350 or $375. Mr. Burkhardt said that he had found that the gas pressure, instead of being 7-10, the normal pressure had been anywhere from 40 to 50, this unnecessary pressure having the quite useful result of making the meter spin around a good deal faster. It will be at once evident that too high pressure is about as disadvantageous to the consumer as too low pressure. Since I called the attention of the council to the matter two weeks ago," said Mr. Burkhardt, "there has been a noticeable improvement in the gas service at my home. Lights that the gas man declared obsolete and useless have been giving excellent satisfaction and the meter has changed its habits in a remarkable manner."

"Won't it be cheaper to have Mr. Burkhardt kick than to purchase the testing apparatus?" asked one alderman.

"The trouble is," said the attorney, "I kicked hard a year or two ago, and the gas grew better—for a little while. Then it got worse than ever."

Another alderman moved that Mr. Burkhardt be instructed to kick all the time for the benefit of consumers in general. The discussion revealed the fact that nearly every councilman and even the city clerk who is not given to kicking, had a gas grievance of his own. The building light and fuel committee, which has the matter in charge, will report at the next meeting and it is expected that arrangements will be made at once by the council to see that the people of Albuquerque get real gas instead of compressed atmosphere.

SCALE ORDINANCE WILL MAKE APPEARANCE SOON

The matter of establishing a city scales for the protection of consumers was broached in the city council last night by Alderman Harrison, who inquired as to what had become of this popular measure. He was informed that it was still in committee and the committee was requested to get busy with the ordinance and have it ready by the next meeting.

The people will be gratified to see this ordinance produced and passed as soon as possible—especially as the cold weather continues and the coal carons are still charging $3.50 a ton for coal whose tonnage is problematical. The city scales is a vital necessity for the protection of consumers of coal. The city scales is a vital necessity for the protection of consumers of coal and other substances.

NICKLE-IN-THE-SLOT PHONES—ARE THEY LEGAL?

On motion of Alderman Wilkerson it was voted that the Colorado Telephone company be notified that in the opinion of the city attorney it has no right under its franchise to install and operate nickle-in-the-slot telephones. It is alleged that the company violates the provisions of its franchise in that the slot phones take in more revenues a month than is allowed the company for the use of one phone.

Alderman Wilkerson made a vigorous speech on the subject of the slot phones, taking as his text the one maintained in the Alvarado. He said the management of the hotel furnished lead chips to work the phone so that they got the use of it free, other users having to pay a nickel each time in addition to the regular tax they might be paying for a phone elsewhere. Alderman Harrison said he thought the installation of one such phone was the entering wedge which would cause a condition like that in Colorado Springs where practically every merchant has installed a slot phone which he uses free but for which patrons have to produce a nickel.

MARKET PLACE PETITION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

A petition signed by most of the business men of the city was presented to the council last night, asking that arrangements be made with the Santa Fe company for the use of a public market place the north half of the big vacant lot owned by the Santa Fe across from the Alvarado at the corner of the right of way and Tijeras avenue. The petition was referred to the proper committee. The men back of the petition declare that the company is willing to make concessions for this purpose.

Ordinance 239 relating to liquor licenses was passed on its third reading and other routine matters disposed of. The council adjourned at a quarter to 9 o'clock. Present were the mayor, city clerk, marshal, city engineer, fire chief, city attorney, Aldermen Harrison, Hayden, Beaven, Alderwood, Learnard, Neustadt, Hanley and Wilkerson.

TENTATIVE ACTION ON MATTER BY COUNCIL

Slot Machine Licenses Will Be Increased From $25 to $200 Ranging From $250 to $600 by the City.

That the saloon license in Albuquerque be raised from $200 to $1,500 was the proposition sprung at last night's regular meeting of the city council. The matter was not definitely passed upon but the city attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance to this effect and submit it at the next meeting of the council. The city fathers have been casting about for a method by which to fill the big hole that will be caused in municipal revenues when the tiger goes into permanent hibernation the first of the year and gambling—a thing of the dim and picturesque past in Albuquerque. Apparently the proposed action in regard to the saloon will help some. There appears to be unanimity of opinion among the aldermen as to the desirability of imposing the $1,500 license on refreshment parlors.

As another method of assisting to fill the city's coffers and counteract the financial stringency, Alderman Wilkerson moved last night that a substantial increase be made in the amount of the license collected from proprietors of slot machines. Mr. Wilkerson moved that the city attorney be instructed to draw up an ordinance providing for a license of $250 a year for nickel-in-the-slot machines; $300 a year for ten-cent machines; $400 a year for two-bit machines and $600 for all machines whose slots accommodate larger coins than a quarter. The motion was passed. Hereafter the slot machines have paid a territorial license of $50 and a city license of $25; total $75; total increase proposed, anywhere from $175 to $250. These are said to be some thirty machines in the city and there is also no doubt that this increased license will help some.

"If no one can beat the roulette wheel, what chance has a poor guy got with a slot machine," said Alderman Wilkerson, with feeling in making his motion. The penny in the slot machines were exempted on the high ground that no one but a piker will monkey with one of the blame things, anyhow.

The licenses will be payable semi-annually in advance. It is asserted that the proprietors of the slot machines make anywhere from $3.00 to $5.00 a day off the devices. It is believed that the owners can pay the increased license and still make a good profit off the machines.

NAVAJOS HELD FOR SLAUGHTERING DEER

Eleven Bucks Brought Into Socorro Will Have to Face Indictment for Violating Territorial Game Law.

(Special Correspondence Morning Journal.)

Socorro, Nov. 18.—On the charge of slaughtering deer in the Black Range in violation of the game laws the eleven Navajo bucks and one squaw who were brought in here and jailed by Lieutenant R. W. Lewis, of the mounted police, on Saturday, have been held to the grand jury.

The Indians were arrested at old Fort Caliente, sixty miles from Magdalena by Forest Ranger Thomas Kenner, of the North Gila national forest, assisted by D. B. Sorrels, A. D. McDonald and T. B. Cox. Lieutenant Lewis took charge of the Indians at Magdalena, but in the possession of $8 deer skins and a lot of venison packed on sixteen ponies and a bunch of burros and had evidently been on a grand deer hunt.

(Honolulu Evening Bulletin.)
It is a curious but satisfactory fact that chronic Bright's Disease, which, according to medical authorities, is incurable, and fatal, is now actually being cured. We have not attached importance to statements of recoveries we have seen in the papers from the state, but that they are not all rumors is now evident from several recoveries here.

A. H. Otis of the Honolulu Drug Co. tells us of two interesting cases. One was a woman with dropsy due to advanced Bright's Disease, and both the patient and his physician had given up hope. Otis kept urging a trial of the new specific until the patient finally consented. Recovery was complete, the patient leaving a few months later for California, where he now resides.

Another case was that of an officer who was in a hospital and considered hopeless when put on the treatment. He has now been back at his post for some time.

The specific that was employed is called Fulton's Compound for Bright's Disease. It seems to be a genuine discovery. Otis says there are very few failures, but that it requires patience. —Honolulu Bulletin.

PYTHIAN KNIGHTS MAY TAKE OVER SANATORIUM

Alamogordo Institution Official Negotiating With Supreme Officers of Lodge With the Transfer in View.

(Special Correspondence Morning Journal.)
Alamogordo, N. M., Nov. 17.—It is now considered quite probable that as a result of the visit of Col. W. R. Eldson to Chicago the Knights of Pythias will take over the Co-operative Sanatorium here and make a great fraternal institution out of it. Col. Eldson, manager of the concern, has been conferring with the supreme officers of the lodge for some time past and it is believed the negotiations for the transfer have been practically completed. The supreme officers find that by assessing each member only fifteen cents a year an annual income of over $150,000 will be available for the maintenance of the sanatorium. The latter will, of course, have to be enlarged, the site having been selected and preliminary buildings erected with the object of allowing expansion in this manner. The management of the institution has already demonstrated the great possibilities of the sanatorium. It is already well equipped and in splendid running condition and the Knights of Pythias are said to regard the opportunity as a very unusual one. Many improvements are constantly being made and new patients are continually arriving. Dr. O. W. Miller, chief of the medical staff, has just secured the services of Mrs. Lanier, a skillful trained nurse and graduate of the Brooklyn hospital.

BEST OF PROOF.

That Hyomel Will Cure All Forms of Catarrhal Diseases.

Testimonials could be printed by the thousands, many of them from Albuquerque and nearby towns, that Hyomel is an absolute cure for all catarrhal troubles, but the best proof of its unusual curative powers is the guarantee that the J. H. O'Reilly company gives with every outfit that they sell. Money back if Hyomel does not do all that is claimed for it.

Hyomel is not a secret remedy. Its formula is given freely to physicians who want to know what they use when they prescribe Hyomel. It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Law by serial No. 1418.

By breathing Hyomel, the healing medication goes directly to every nook and corner of the air passage where the catarrhal germs may lurk, and disinfects and heals. To be convinced of this you have only to give it a trial, remembering that if it does not cure, the J. H. O'Reilly company will refund your money.

There is no dangerous stomach dragging when Hyomel is used. Its healing medication is breathed through a little pocket inhaler a few times daily, and almost immediately a great improvement is noticed and quick recovery follows.

The complete Hyomel outfit costs but $1.00, and in most cases is sufficient to cure the disease, making it not only a scientific treatment, but one that is highly economical. Get an outfit today from the J. H. O'Reilly company if you have any symptoms of catarrh, and see how quickly the remedy relieves and cures.

ALBUQUERQUE—NEW MEXICO

WILL PREVAIL IN THE END.

"Truth is mighty and will prevail," but it gets there only by a long and desperate struggle sometimes.

You will observe by the dispatches from Washington that our friends at headquarters are beginning to recognize the fact which the Morning Journal has been so long and so earnestly endeavoring to impress upon their minds, that no possible political maneuvering can prevent this territory from going into the democratic column unless the president can be induced to change the policy he has lately pursued of supporting and upholding a gang of unprincipled political pirates, who have ravished the republican party of New Mexico and are now assuming to use it for the promotion of their own personal and corrupt ends, without regard to the public will or the public interest.

Ever since the president removed from the governorship at the behest of this corrupt gang a man who was carrying out an honest and straightforward policy, which was approved by all the decent people of the territory, of all parties, the republican cause has been losing ground in New Mexico. And while such conditions continue no power on earth can prevent the party from continuing to lose ground. As long as the president of the United States continues to recognize a band of corruptionists and plunderers as the high priests of the republican party, it must be expected as a matter of course that the party will have to suffer for it. Republicans, as a rule, are men of principle, and they will not submit tamely to the prostitution of the party to such base uses. When those who hold by force the control of the party organization attempt to use the party for corrupt purposes and to keep corrupt men in power, the best republicans will always be found outside the organization. The Morning Journal, which is and has long been the leading republican paper of the territory, has raised its voice in warning against the continuance of such conditions, time after time, and intends to do so as long as the necessity for such a course exists, because it is not willing to stand idly by and see the republican party of New Mexico driven headlong to ruin by men who have no other object in view than their own personal aggrandizement—and there could be no more convincing evidence of the approval of this course by the republicans of New Mexico than is to be found in the simple fact that the circulation of this paper is growing faster than the circulation of any New Mexican paper ever grew before. It is now taken and read wherever there are people who can read the English language, in every nook and corner of the territory.

And you are not required to take our word for that statement. The records of the United States postoffice, which can not be doubted or called in question, will show you that the Morning Journal now pays more postage than all the other publications in New Mexico combined—which is to say it circulates more copies by mail than all the other papers in New Mexico put together, daily, weekly, semi-weekly or monthly—while that part of its circulation upon which no postage is charged, that is, by carrier or mail within the county, is fully five times greater than that of any other publication in the territory except one. It practically reaches all the people of the territory, and the people believe what it says because they have learned by experience that it invariably tells them the truth, as nearly as the truth can be ascertained, and does not attempt to color the facts to the advantage of friends or the disadvantage of foes.

We regret accordingly to be obliged to criticize the president of the United States in regard to such matters as those to which we have referred elsewhere. But under the circumstances it is impossible to avoid it without neglecting our plain duty to the republican party and the honest people of New Mexico of all parties.
He has used the power which his high office gives him to fasten upon the people of New Mexico certain men who are utterly unworthy of his confidence or his favor, and who can not by any possible means command the respect of the people over whom they are placed. Their continuance in authority is a constant humiliation to the decent people of the territory, and their presence constitutes a burden of discomfort which the republican party is unable to bear. Whether he has done this knowingly, or has been deceived, we can not say, but that the fact, deplorable as it may be, does exist, admits of no question.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

In the course of a brief editorial yesterday morning, reviewing the matters likely to occupy most of the time of the coming congress, we noted the fact that the currency question would undoubtedly come in for a very large share of attention. Upon this point a correspondent sends us the following, which is worthy of attention among the many plans that are being considered.

The currency situation is the most vital subject to be considered by congress, and it is to be hoped that it will be settled in a broad and practical way, in the interest of the public at large, and not to give any clique or locality advantage or preference.

"What we want is an assurance that we can get currency as fast as we put up securities for same. Then there will only be a reasonable amount required, for there will be no incentive for any one to hoard the currency; it will all be in active circulation.

No banks or syndicates can make a hoard. There will be no scares or panics. To this end we want a circulating medium based on security of the most stable value. While our national bank circulation is good, it does not now and can not accommodate the need, because, first, the circulation is limited to the national banks; then it is based on government bonds, which bear a very low interest rate, and are not convenient to get.

"It is historic that our railway bonds are growing more stable in value, and are of known value, backed by the best security in the country, interest and principal payable in gold coin. They bear a larger rate of interest than government bonds.

"Then let the government establish twenty-five banks of issue, not of discount, the United States treasury being the central. The treasury or central bank at Washington to take the same position in this country as the Bank of England does in England, as a bank of issue, where at the central bank or any of the branch banks any person or any bank can go with approved railway bonds or government bonds and where will be issued to them to their account, currency to the value of the bonds. When any of this currency is returned to these banks of issue for redemption of the bonds, then such to be destroyed. That is, that there shall never be issued from these banks of issue the same note twice. These banks to be neither banks of deposit nor discount, except for deposit of government money and for the payment of government drafts.

"Neither shall these institutions be for the purpose of dividends or profit, but to facilitate the country's business, though a fraction of one per cent may be charged to cover the expense of the issue.

"There need be no change in the national or state banks or savings or trust companies. Each has its use, and when all these institutions can get all the currency they need or want, there will be no danger, but every one will have confidence, no possibility of panics, the government vaults will become the principal storehouse for gold coin, which will largely become a commodity, handled as the Bank of England does—weigh it out to the customer."

NOT BUILT THAT WAY.
Those Missouri democrats, and others, who are seeking to play Tom Johnson against Mr. Bryan in the presidential game, are advised by the Washington Star to revise their appraisal of the man, because they will find that he is not at their service.
If he were young and tender, the Star says, such a victory as he has just achieved might render him for the moment a little flighty, and open to the approaches of flatterers.
But he is an old bird—not tough, maybe, but seasoned—and not a bit "not up," as the result of downing Mr. Huron, with the national administration thrown in for good measure.

Mr. Johnson has been a national figure for many years. He attracted national attention while in congress in the early '80s by a bold stand on the tariff question, and he has ever since remained in the public eye. He is a faddist, but also a successful man of affairs, and his large wealth enables him to play the game of politics in a somewhat independent fashion. He owns the man under his hat, and speaks his own thoughts. Still he is a good politician, and, single taxer, free trader and all that, claims to be a democrat. And in this day of forty-seven kinds of democrats, who shall say him nay on that score?

Mr. Johnson is a Bryan man. His relations with the peevish leader have from the first been cordial. The way Mr. Bryan shook things up in 1896 appealed to Mr. Johnson. While the rich men north, south, east and west were uniting against the democratic candidate, this rich man of Cleveland wished him success, and has ever since remained loyal to him. What his opinion may be as to the democracy's best interests next year is not known, but he is not the sort of man to permit himself to be used to Mr.
Bryan's personal injury.

There are Bryan men and Bryan men. Not every man who shouts for Mr. Bryan wishes him well. Some of the fairest-throated of the brethren wish in their hearts that he were a resident of, or could be transported to, the plains state. But they are forced to keep this feeling a secret from the general public. A few friends and the gate-post enjoy their confidence.

Mr. Johnson is not of this company. He believes in Mr. Bryan. They meet every now and then, and go into committee of the whole on the state of the union. Probably the happiest democrat outside of Cleveland over the result of the late election there was the man who in Nebraska had been snored under the same day by the republicans. It may be easily seen, therefore, that Mr. Johnson can not be made a cat's-paw for raking anti-Bryan chestnuts out of the fire.

THEY OUGHT to provide the Major of 100 at his last election.

No Rest for the Wicked.
"Major Llewellyn will return to New Mexico in a few days to resume his duties."—The Evening Instrument.

THE PRESIDENT, it is understood, has promised the Major that the special assistants to the attorney general will still help him with his official duties.

ONE OF THE principal objections to the running of street cars on Sunday is that they disturb the beauty and sleep of the Evening Instrument's force of alert reporters.

THE EVENING Instrument "questioned" President Roosevelt's declaration that he will remain neutral on statehood. The Instrument probably believes that Roosevelt was only josh-ing.

A FARMER who filled his wagon from a pile of coal on the Rock Island right of way at Tucuman was fined $18.50. It would have been awful cheap if they had let him keep the coal.

THERE ARE all sorts of guesses being made as to why Governor Curry went to Washington.—Springer Stockman.

The Major, it is rumored, could make a pretty close guess.

THE BEST WAY the Evening Instrument can work for statehood is to quit training with the bunch of malodorous gentlemen, popularly known as the Plunderbund, who have done more than any one else to prevent the admission of the territory.

Oh, Agnes!

THE CHIEFTAIN ventures to express the opinion that if Mr. Bursum should resign the position of chairman of the republican territorial committee, it would not be at the suggestion of the enemies of that organization.—Socorro Bursum Chieftain.

None but the organization's best friends would ask for it.

IT IS REPORTED from Santa Fe that Governor Curry and United States Attorney Llewellyn are in Washington on an important political mission, which, if successful, will be of great benefit to the territory of New Mexico and the people thereof.

—Rio Grande Republican.

It is really unkind to refer to the Major's expected relief from his onerous official duties in that manner.

"IF NOW it should not be proved that there are at least a score of thieving scoundrels among the republican leaders of the territory, how disappointment would prey upon a certain few self-righteous critics and accusers!"—Socorro Bursum Chief-
tain.

That depends on what you call "leaders." Are you referring, for instance, to a man who cuts down the republican majority for delegate from 19,000 to a minus quantity?

Busy Session Ahead for United States Court Which Convenes on 25th of November.

The United States court will convene in Alamogordo November 25, and a number of federal cases will be taken up and disposed of at this session. Among the more prominent cases will be the charge of conspiracy against A. M. Lee, Joseph Givens, Edward McKinney, Alvin Ed McKinnery, and others, indictments against whom were returned Monday, May 21, 1907.

Other cases are:
Claudia Chavez, indicted December 2, 1905, charged with adultery; Romaldo Yaguelero, charged with having in his possession a false certificate of naturalization papers; Chas. Beach, Dyer and others, charged with entering railroad cars for larceny; and Edward D. Kink with the same charge against him.

Based on the same charges as last above, will be tried Lorenzo Sierra, Edgaro Aguilin, Manuel Biza and Antonio Montano.

Robert Shaw and G. L. Brown will be tried for selling liquor without a license.

Thomas Stogden was indicted March 21, 1907, on a charge of larceny of a horse and will be tried at this term of court.

Donatiano Aguilar will have to stand trial for sending an obscene letter through the mails, the indictment having been found against him May 31, 1907.

Sarah A. Weirvine is charged, in an indictment returned in May, with having violated the postal laws.

CALL BOY LOSES HAND AND FOOT UNDER WHEELS

FRANK HUNTER RUN DOWN BY YARD ENGINE

Young Santa Fe Employee Has Narrow Escape From Death
as Result of Taking Header From Bicycle in Yards.

Frank Hunter, aged seventeen years, a Santa Fe call boy, fell in front of switch engine No. 2007 at noon yesterday at the coal chutes in the local yards, and received injuries which necessitated the amputation of his right hand and foot yesterday afternoon at the Santa Fe hospital.

As far as can be learned there were no eye witnesses to the accident. Hunter was riding along on a bicycle toward the Santa Fe freight depot, between the main track and a siding. A freight train was pulling out for the north, and Hunter was racing with the "drag." Just opposite the coal chute his wheel skidded in the cinders, and he was thrown from the bicycle, directly in front of the "goat," which was headed at a fast clip for the stock yards. The front step of the engine struck Hunter on the head, inflicting a bad cut, but throwing him to one side so that he escaped a horrible death. The wheels of the engine, however, passed over his right hand and foot, crushing the members to a pulp. Assistants to the yardmaster, W. F. Quinn and W. J. Joy, quickly procured a stretcher and bore the boy to the hospital, fearing he would bleed to death if they waited for an ambulance. At 2:30 o'clock, the hand and foot were amputated, and although the boy is suffering severely, he will recover. He displayed a high quality of nerve through the whole episode.

Engineer Hennessey, of the switch engine, says he did not see the boy at all until after the engine had passed over him and until then was unaware that he had struck anything. Apparently no blame attaches to the engine crew.

Hunter lives on North Broadway. He had been at work as call boy only three weeks.

RAILROAD NOTES.

C. W. Alexander, foreman of the extra gang at Gallup, was a railroad visitor here yesterday.

R. J. Walker, the inspector at Thoreau, N. M., transacted official business in the city yesterday.

R. N. Shoemaker, wife chief at the shops, who is at present on a vacation, is expected back soon.

Sky C. Overstreet, division special agent of the Albuquerque division, returned to Winslow last night.

Thomas D. Allen, former night chief clerk here, has returned from St. Louis, Mo., and assumed his old position again.

J. F. Whitford, general roundhouse inspector, left last night on an inspection trip east of here.

Louis Ortiz, invader clerk in the storekeeper's office, who is ill at the Santa Fe hospital, will be out soon.

E. H. Harlow, master mechanic, leaves, Thursday morning for Chicago for a visit with relatives and a business trip.

King Rollins, formerly a mail boy at the local freight office, has returned from Los Angeles and accepted a position at the roundhouse.

Taking effect yesterday the Harvey system extended its Kansas City office jurisdiction on trains Nos. 1 and 5 to Albuquerque, permitting its news agents to run to this city, instead of getting off at Lamy or Las Vegas. The local news department is not affected by the change.

STOREHOUSE WORK AT A STANDSTILL

Santa Fe Officials Order Cessation of Operations on New Albuquerque Building Partially Completed.

The construction work started on the new Santa Fe storehouse here several weeks ago was ordered stopped last Friday, and according to the officials at the shops yesterday it is problematical when the work will be resumed. The foundations are completed and several frame buildings for the storage of material have been finished.

T. Scully, storekeeper, said that the work was ordered stopped, but for what reason he was unable to learn. It is reported that decrease in operating receipts during the past two months caused the officials to stop the work.

A. W. Anson, of this city, has the contract for erecting the new storehouse.

SWITCH INDICATES THAT WRECKERS WERE AT WORK

Undamaged Frogs Show That Track Was Moved While Passenger Train No. 1 Was Crossing in Local Yards.

Further investigation of the cause of the derailment of Santa Fe passenger train No. 1, as it was passing the switch at the Tijeras avenue crossing Sunday night, shows that it in all probability resulted from the nefarious work of train wreckers.

Division Superintendent F. L. Myers, before leaving for San Marcial yesterday morning, said that the condition of the switch at the crossing showed clearly that some one threw the switch while the train was on it. If the train had thrown the switch accidentally, the frogs would have been badly damaged. As it is they are not even scratched. No clue to the identity of the men seen to run from the switch has been found. Their description has been sent abroad and the detectives are working on the case. The damage to the track was not repaired until 7:30 yesterday morning, and the wrecked smoker was taken to the car shops at 8 o'clock.

Bert Brackett, receiving clerk at the storehouse, has returned from Gallup, N. M., where he was acting as district storekeeper during the illness of C. V. Plant.

E. H. Harlow, master mechanic; Harry Asplund, distribution clerk, and H. C. Herby, chief clerk of the local shops, spent yesterday in Santa Fe. Their wives accompanied them.

Duncan McGillivray, general manager and treasurer of the Albuquerque-Estancia Auto company, is expected here today from Estancia to transact business connected with the auto line. Mr. McGillivray has had active charge of the work of making a permanent auto road from Willard, N. M., to Moriarty.

Secretary A. H. Garnett said yesterday that the road when completed will be one of the finest in this section of the country and will shed water like a duck. The grader, steam plow and construction gang expect to start to work on the auto road to Frost and San Pedro soon.

Murderer of McComber Says He Shot Victim When Old Man Accused Him of Theft of a Bell.

BUNCH OF PRISONERS
SENTENCED BY COURT

Nellie Patterson Brings Suit for $25,000 Damages Against Santa Fe for Injuries Received in Wreck.

Zenobio Sanchez, the murderer of William McComber, an old rancher in the Manzano mountains several years ago, and who pleaded guilty to the charge, was yesterday sent to the territorial penitentiary for twenty years by Judge Ira A. Abbott, after Sanchez told his story of the murder and declared that Natividad Gutierrez, indicted with Sanchez, was innocent.

When ordered to stand up before being sentenced, Sanchez admitted the crime and in a cool, matter of fact way, said:

"I killed McComber. I was riding through the Manzano mountains, near McComber's ranch, when I met him returning from a spring. He accused me of stealing a horse bell. I denied it, and during our argument I got angry and struck him with my golf club."

"I had my six-shooter in my other hand and before I knew what had taken place I shot him. After shooting the old man I hid the body behind an old tree trunk. Gutierrez was at the time of the shooting eight miles away. After the shooting I went away."

Sanchez was captured by Mounted Policemen Dudley in the White mountains in southern New Mexico, after Sheriff Perfecto Armijo and Under-sheriff Fred Heyn had learned of his whereabouts and had informed Captain Fred Fornoff of the mounted police.

Other Prisoners Sentenced.
The other prisoners sentenced yesterday by Judge Abbott were: Charles A. Bartlett, alias Clyde A. Brown, two years for drawing and uttering worthless checks; Antonio Aros, alias Pedro Morales, eighteen months for burglary and larceny of a shop; George Edwards, three years for burglary; William Korte, one year for burglary; Jack Rodgers, sixty days for carrying deadly weapons; Edgar Smith and John Williams, two years each for burglary; Ramon Yalaguez, thirty days for assault and battery.

Late yesterday afternoon Clifford Davenport Hastings, the young man indicted on seven counts for drawing and uttering worthless checks and forgery, who pleaded not guilty when convicted, withdrew his plea and pleaded guilty. He will be sentenced at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Motions for new trials were heard in the cases of the territory against Levi R. Thompson for larceny, and John Cornetto for selling liquor to an Indian. The motion for a new trial by Alberto Luna, obtaining money on a bogus check will be heard today. Judge Abbott withheld judgment.

The remaining cases on the civil and criminal docket were called by the court and set for trial as follows: Civil cases, December 2; criminal cases, December 3, 4 and 5. Nine criminal cases remain to be tried.

Two divorces were granted by Judge Abbott in the district court yesterday, both on the grounds of abandonment. John E. Franklin was divorced from Lucinda Franklin and J. B. McFarland, of Belen, was divorced from Minnie McFarland. The plaintiff in the latter case, was granted the custody of three grown children, while the defendant was given the custody of an infant child.

Suit for $25,000 damages on account of alleged injuries received on August 20, this year, when a car alighted from train No. 9, turned over thirty-five miles north of Las Vegas, was filed in the district court yesterday by Nellie F. Patterson against the Santa Fe railway. Klock & Owen are attorneys for the plaintiff.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the best and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

THE ARIZONA FAIR PROVES ENTIRE SUCCESS

Albuquerque Man Sees Dan Patch Attempt to Beat His Record on Phoenix Track Before Big Crowd.

That the Arizona territorial fair at Phoenix last week was a success is attested by Dr. D. E. Wilson, of this city, who returned yesterday from the Arizona capital. Dr. Wilson had the pleasure of being one of a crowd of thousands of spectators who saw Dan Patch, the king of pacers, attempt to lower the world's record, made by himself. While the great horse failed to beat his time of 1:55, he did the mile in 1:57 in a manner that aroused the crowd to a high pitch of enthusiasm. The attendance at the fair was record-breaking and financially it was quite a satisfactory event to the management.

While in Phoenix Dr. Wilson visited the orange groves of M. R. Hall, whose oranges and pears took first honors at the fair. The Albuquerque man says the southern Arizona citrus has the California product badly beaten and believes that there is no reason why oranges, lemons and "pomogranates" could not be raised in this territory.
