HILL SCORES HITCHCOCK IS TROGGS AT IGNORANT VERY POOR TROGGS AT CRITICS BUSINESS CONGRESS

NORTHWEST BUILDER
DEFENDS RAILROADS

Declares That Transportation System of United States is the Greatest Achievement in History of World.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Kansas City, Nov. 19.—James J. Hill, of St. Paul, executive head of the Great Northern Railway, was the principal speaker at the 13th annual banquet of the Commercial club in this city tonight.

Mr. Hill discussed the "commercial development of the Mississippi Valley," and gave a comprehensive history and review of industrial conditions as they exist today.

Mr. Hill said in part:
"The transportation facilities of the whole country are, and have been, unequal to the present demand. They must be made equal to the burdens they bear or the country cannot prosper."

"How far railroad construction has been unable to keep pace with the domestic commerce the country even now does not realize."

"Railroad managements have met the situation by every effort to increase equipment and increase efficiency in operation. In both directions what they have accomplished is little short of wonderful. Everything that available capital, ingenuity, cheap service, high priced labor and skillful management can accomplish has been done. The problem that remains is both physical and financial. To bring construction up to the needs of our immense domestic commerce, and to raise the necessary money to do this, if both or either of these things are possible, it is not the fault of the railway system. And only gross ignorance of the truth or the malice of disturbers, can ignore the plain and true facts. Only by improved methods of operation has the country been saved from such a blockade of traffic as would have destroyed the active life and turned it into a game of confusion and chaos."

"This achievement in connection with a constant reduction of rates that has brought the average per mile for each passenger in the country in the last ten years to about 2 cents and the freight rate to about 1 cent per ton per mile, a saving that amounts to billions of dollars in the aggregate, will be better appreciated after a comparison between the standard of railroads in the United States and the systems of other countries."

"The percentage of net earnings available for distribution on the capitalized cost of the railroad systems of England is 3 1/2 per cent, in France 4, in Germany 6. The average of this is 4 1/2 per cent on a much higher capitalization per mile, amounting in England to over four times as much. The total dividends declared by all the railroads of the United States in 1906 were but 4 per cent of the total capital stock outstanding. On over 23 per cent of outstanding stock no dividends whatever were paid."

"Any other business is judged by its average returns. The railroad system of this country is not a failure, as has been charged by those who are without knowledge of the facts and whose opinion is consequently of no value. On the contrary, it is, when judged by results, by the fact that it has achieved the most conspicuous success achieved in the development of the United States. Costing but from one-fourth to one-half as much as the systems of other countries, and charging rates from one-half to one-third as great, it carries nearly double the business per mile and pays twice the rate of wages. For the same reason, it has been founded and perfected by American genius, probably no other industry in the world has shown a comparative record of success. The system of practical value so distances all comparisons. Under conditions most difficult we have created a transportation system at lowest cost which gives the most efficient service to the public at the lowest charge and pays its employees the highest known scale of wages."

ACTOR REFUSES TO ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS

Called to Appear in Chanler Libel Action Against W. R.
Hearst He Stands on Constitutional Right.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
New York, Nov. 19.—Laymond Hitchcock, the actor, refused to answer questions put to him when he was called today as a witness in the action for criminal libel brought by Mr. Chanler associated with William Hearst against William R. Hearst. Hitchcock based his refusal upon his constitutional rights in that, as he was himself under indictment, he could not be compelled to make answers which might tend to incriminate and degrade him. The witness was sustained by the court, and an adjournment was taken until tomorrow, as the defense was not prepared to call other witnesses today.

Hitchcock is under indictment growing out of charges made by young girls, and the libel alleged by Mr. Chanler in the society of those girls. The defense today asked Hitchcock whether Mr. Chanler was present at the actor's Great Neck, L. I., home on a certain Sunday in the latter part of 1906, when two girls were guests at his house. To this and subsequent questions the witness refused to reply.

PITIFUL TALE OF A WOMAN WHOSE CHILDREN WERE BROUGHT TO THE STATE

MRS. BRADLEY TELLS OF HER LIFE WITH BROWN
Tragic Narrative Brings Tears to Many Eyes in Crowded Washington Courtroom; Defendant Near to Collapse.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Washington, Nov. 19.—"I am so tired," said Mrs. Annie M. Bradley, the defendant in the trial now in progress in the criminal court in this city, a few minutes before 3 o'clock today, after she had spent about four hours on the witness stand relating the details of her acquaintance and intimacy with the late United States Senator Brown, with whose murder she stands accused; and Judge Stafford gave orders for the adjournment of court. She had not reached the events directly connected with the tragedy in which Brown was killed, but had very closely approached them, and they will be the subject of the first testimony to be given tomorrow.

Today's witness dealt with the first acquaintance of Mrs. Bradley with Brown, and told how that acquaintance gradually ripened into friendship and finally into love. It was a long and pathetic narrative of illicit affection; of promises of marriage which could at first be made only on the condition of divorce on both sides, and then of disappointment and grief when both became free and could have been legally united if Brown had been willing. Mrs. Bradley gave the particulars of many pledges made to her; told how Brown had introduced his wife and how he had given his name to one of their children, and also of how he had aided her in no less than three criminal operations. She related many pleasant incidents of their life together. She wore a smile when she spoke of her pride in his intellectual attainments and told of their reading together the principal books. She said that she was the only woman he had ever loved and avowed that by his manner toward her and his superior attainments he had gained a complete mastery over her.

The court room was crowded during the entire day and many of the spectators were women. Tears were frequently shed, not only by the general audience but also by two or three members of the jury. Mrs. Bradley was quite emotional, and her voice was scarcely audible at times. Her attorneys, however, expressed confidence after the witness left the stand that she would be able to proceed to the end without a breakdown.

Mrs. Bradley said her health had failed during her association with Brown, and she told of one occasion when she was tempted to commit suicide.

CHIEF MOTY TIGER WELCOMES WHITE MAN

President Loveland Tells of the Work of the Congress and Points Out Brilliant Career That Lies Ahead.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Muskegon, Okla., Nov. 19.—Over 1,500 delegates were present tonight when David H. Francis, former governor of Missouri, called the 13th annual meeting of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress to order. In a few well chosen words he welcomed Oklahoma into the union and declared the meeting primarily for the benefit of the people of the Five Civilized Tribes, delivered an address of greeting to the congress. Moty Tiger spoke in his native tongue. He said:

"All citizens of this government have been and are encouraged to buy and hold lands, and we are told that the best citizenship is made up of the 140-acre home-owners. In the light of this teaching and truth, why should my people be encouraged to sell their lands?"

"The polished and educated man with Indian blood in his veins who advocates the removal of restrictions from the land of my ignorant people, apart from governmental regulations, is only reaching for gold to ease his itching palms, and our posterity will remember him rather for his avarice and his treachery."

"I, together with many full-blooded Indians, am capable of caring for and protecting my rights. The full-blooded Indian is not a beggar, but a man. He is not a crawling child in the white man's business world. The man in our midst who advocates the removal of restrictions for the lands of the full-blooded Indian, knows in his heart that he is indifferent, insensible to the rights of his best interests. And such contention has no more foundation to rest upon than a declaration from one who, standing in the southward part of the sun and asserts that it gives no light. It is a fight between greed and conscience with this great government as arbiter, and upon the decision rests for generations the fate of these untutored children of nature."

"The matter of the Indians' land rights in this new state is based upon agreements and treaties solemnly made between the government and the Indians, and any abridgement or alteration of these treaties should, in all justice, be left to the Indians and the Indians without any outside interference or influence."

President H. D. Loveland then delivered his annual address, dwelling at some length upon federal improvement of waterways.

The Opening Address.

President Loveland, in his annual address, said in part:
"Agitation based upon racial acquiescence in the will of the majority, and the rejection of the rights of the minority, is the greatest evil to the great number is the keynote upon which rests the arch of human liberty as it finds its best and noblest expression in this and other republics. In other words, 'consent of the governed' does not mean the idealist's dream of unanimity, but rather the recognition of responsibility and conscientious discharge of duty be our motto as they have been in the past."

"It is in this spirit that I feel we have assembled for the eighteenth annual session of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress to represent twenty-two millions of the best people of our land, and with the authority, we have given us to take heed of the present and plan for the future to the end that we and those who come after us may realize and enjoy the fullest and most beneficial results of this wonderful Trans-Mississippi empire which we are proud to call home. We are here to make history. Let prompt recognition of responsibility and conscientious discharge of duty be our motto as they have been in the past."

What Congress Has Done.
"We have much to be proud of in the past. The influence of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress in the great work of irrigation and the reclamation of our arid lands, from the inception of that work, is freely and thankfully acknowledged. Deep waterways for Galveston harbor, the improvement of the harbor at San Pedro, Cal., the department of commerce and labor, the preservation of our forests, the proper safeguarding of sale of public lands, the improvement of the Columbia and other rivers, agitation looking to the establishment of a department of mines, the full recognition upon territories the rights of statehood, the improvement of public highways, the proper regulation of interstate railroad rates, is just development and fostering of foreign commerce by promoting friendly relations with other countries especially Canada and our sister American republics, all of these and other important matters have received the thoughtful and helpful consideration of this congress, yet our work is just begun. Our field of usefulness is continually broadening. Our deliberations and the resulting conclusions as expressed in our resolutions command the respect of our national congress and of our great executive and his cabinet. Why should we not be encouraged to further and greater efforts?"

The Work Ahead.

"Much, indeed, remains to be done. Many of the meritorious propositions which we have advocated in the past

Attacks Interior Department.

United States Senator Robert L. Owen, of Oklahoma, who is of Cherokee blood, addressed the congress this afternoon, making an attack on the department of the interior, desiring that high officials of that department had even sunk so low as to be employing three detectives to spy upon his private life when he comes to Washington. The senator emphatically declared himself in favor of the removal of the restrictions on Indian lands.

should receive continued agitation and endorsement until satisfactory results are obtained. The great work of deepening our rivers and improving our harbors is especially of surpassing importance. The magnificent project of constructing a deep waterway from the Great Lakes to the Gulf diminishes its importance to us of the Trans-Mississippi country. Broad and comprehensive loyalty to and united support of such meritorious and necessary internal improvements must be the Shibboleth which will insure us of success.

"In the broad and comprehensive spirit of President Roosevelt, let us say to the people of the Mississippi valley and to those who are striving to improve and are improving the great Missouri, the Ohio, the Cumberland, the Yazoo, the Big Sandow, the White and the St. Francis and levees of the south, God speed you in your noble efforts."

"The improvement of our rivers and harbors will do more toward regulating rates for freight and passenger traffic than many interstate commerce commissions can ever hope to do, although the work of that commission commands of respect and commendation. Let us support these great projects and with their consummation another monument will have been erected to the helpful influence of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress."

"Each of the great issues presented to us will receive the thoughtful consideration of this congress. In my judgment, there is no more important matter before the American people today than that of developing and improving our rivers and harbors. Ours should be the task of moulding public opinion; and let us find encouragement in the thought, which is not without foundation, that, even a cursory story of this subject will convince the most skeptical that in the whole range of industrial activities there will be found no way of expending public money that will be productive of greater benefit to all of our people than will proceed from the development and improvement of our inland waterways."

PRINCE OF NEW MEXICO.
PRESIDENTS AT NIGHT SESSION
Addresses were made tonight by John Henry Smith, of Salt Lake, a leader of the Mormon church, ex-Governor Alva Adams, of Colorado, and "Back to the Land," leaving this subject to the president of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress, Alva Adams, of Colorado, who presided over the session.

Adams, who presided over the session, declared that the case was the most important litigation of the kind for a third of a century, the boycott was a high order of having been merely local in application. He pointed out that the case is that of two million adult men engaged in mechanical arts, who were engaged to do the work of the country, but who were simply withholding their own patronage, and that of all friends and sympathizers, from a single industrial enterprise, the business of which they desire to crush and destroy unless thirty-five metal polishers out of 250 employees of the Buck Stove and Range company are permitted to decide the number of hours any of them should work.

Mr. Darlington argued that 1,599,963 of the men engaged in this boycott have no personal concern with the hours of labor of the thirty-five metal polishers, but he simply banded together under agreement to attack any employer who refuses to allow his employees to dictate his mode of business.

Mr. Darlington contended that the right to withhold patronage is legal for an individual, Mr. Darlington pointed out that since an individual may refuse to do business with a person with or without money, he may combine with any number of persons for the same purpose. Therefore, he contended, the vast combination now before the court was no more than a single person selected as a victim, that it might refuse to deal with him or any one who does deal with him, or to sell him anything, even the necessities of life, and that the person who might have business intercourse with him.

Mr. Darlington will conclude the argument for the plaintiff tomorrow.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Objections to the court by the defense and a vivid outlining of the machinery of the boycott by the plaintiff, through their counsel, were the features in the argument on the application in the supreme court of the District of Columbia, of the Buck Stove and Range company, of St. Louis, for a temporary injunction against the continuance of a boycott of its products by the American Federation of Labor.

The defense, represented by T. C. Spelling, of New York, followed the line laid down yesterday in contending that the actions complained of were not merely to control law. "The whole theory of the defense is that the right to boycott or strike is legal for individuals, and therefore legal for combinations."

TO SHORTEN TIME OF GREAT INERS

Marvellous Cunard Ships to Run on Regular Five Day Schedule After Present Trip.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) London, Nov. 19.—Arrangements have been made for the Lusitania, if she arrives at Queenstown before 6 o'clock Thursday evening, to land all her mails there. They will then be sent forward to their destination by a special express service. In this way the Irish, Scotch and London letters will be delivered Friday morning, enabling replies to be sent by the Lusitania, which leaves on Saturday. It is reported in shipping circles at Liverpool that the Cunard liner contemplates an alteration in the sailing dates of the Lusitania and the Mauritania, by which these vessels will leave Liverpool earlier in the day on Sunday and call at Cherbourg to pick up continental passengers and thence to Queenstown. From this port they will sail Sunday afternoon, arriving at New York at daylight on Friday.

Storm Delays Mauretania.
(On Board the Steamship Mauretania, Tuesday, Nov. 19, 1907.)—The Mauretania ran into a southwest gale Monday morning, which increased in the afternoon. At 2 o'clock we had to reduce speed for one hour and forty minutes. Full speed was then resumed. The reduced speed resulted in a loss of 17 miles. The passengers generally were not aware of the speed reduction. The seas were so heavy that the spare anchor had to be secured with extra lashings.

The run to noon, yesterday (Monday), was 571 miles.

WILLIAM "RESTS" AT HIGH CLIFFE

German Emperor's Holidays Are Enough to Kill Average Man.

London, Nov. 19.—Emperor William, concerning whose health various rumors have been circulated of late, is pursuing a rather strenuous "rest cure" at High Cliffe castle, on the Isle of Wight. For example, yesterday he was at his desk at 7 o'clock in the morning, and was engaged for two hours with state affairs before breakfast. Then both in the morning and the afternoon he took long drives in a powerful motor car through the surrounding country. In company with members of his suite, the machine ran mostly at a pace not exceeding forty miles an hour, but in some places sixty miles an hour. Beyond these drives his majesty takes little exercise in the open air. If the business of state is not pressing he rests in the castle for a short time in the afternoon.

Special telegraph and telephone instruments and a special mail service have been established with High Cliffe castle, in order to enable his majesty to deal with his heavy state correspondence.

RUSSIA SUGGESTS PACIFIC ALLIANCE

Thinks United States Made Bad Break in Lending Sympathy to Japan.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 19.—The Novoye Vremya publishes an editorial article today in which it declares that Secretary Taft, as well as the American people, are sure of a most cordial welcome throughout Russia. The traditional friendship of Russia for the greatest of modern democracies, the paper continues, does not waver in spite of the attitude taken by the United States during the Russo-Japanese war. By misplacing her sympathies at this time America hurt mainly herself, and created a most regrettable rivalry. The natural impulse of Russia would be to meet America half way in the matter of combinations affecting the Pacific, upon the condition that each country shares equally in the profit.

SWITCHMEN DROP WAGE REQUEST

Decide to Abandon Petition for More Pay for the Present.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—The Switchmen's union today withdrew the demand on the western railroads for an increase of wages amounting to six cents an hour. Representatives of the union for some time have been in conference with a committee of the general managers of the western railroads discussing the demand for higher wages. The general managers having sent to Grand Master Hawley, of the Switchmen's union, a letter declining to grant the advance, the switchmen decided to abandon the matter for the time being and withdrew their request. The meeting terminated with good feeling on both sides.

Lean Takes a Brace.

St. Louis, Nov. 19.—In the twentieth game of the tournament for the national three-day bicycle championship played here today, Horace R. Lean, of St. Louis, defeated Thomas A. Huston, also of St. Louis, 49 to 45. Lean's high run was 4, average 47, safety 11; Huston's high run 4, average 42, safety 10.

In the shortest game thus far in the tournament, Lloyd Jennie, of Chicago, tonight defeated Frank P. Day, of St. Louis, 56 to 41. Jennie's high run 5, average 46, safety 4; Day's high run 3, average 47, safety 2.

No Meeting of Central American Conference.

Washington, Nov. 19.—The committee not being ready to report, there was no formal meeting today of the delegates to the Central American power conference. They are working on the projects presented yesterday.

Costly Fire in Peoria.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 19.—Fire originating from a defective electric light wire in the Luthier building, on South Washington street, early today, caused losses aggregating $300,000. The Luthier building was occupied mainly by wagon and implement companies.

Dr. Wright Dies at Sea.
Boston, Nov. 19.—Rev Theodore F. Wright, dean of the new church theological school in Cambridge, died aboard on November 12, while on his way to Cairo, Egypt.

HURRY CADETS INTO THE SERVICE

First Class at West Point to Be Graduated in January to Supply Officers for Regular Army.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) West Point, N. Y., Nov. 19.—It is reported here, though the report lacks confirmation, that the first class cadets at the military academy will be graduated in January, five months earlier than the original date of graduation. The class this year numbers 149 men and these men are needed, it is understood, because of the many vacancies in the list of commissioned officers of the army.

NEW YORK'S CRACK CORN DOCTOR SUICIDES

Son of Man Who Built Shoes for President Lincoln Commits Suicide By Cutting His Throat.

New York, Nov. 19.—Dr. Charles O. Kohler, who conducted a school of chiropody and treated patients at a Fifth avenue address, committed suicide today by slitting his throat with one of the razor-like instruments he used in his business.

Dr. Kohler was 58 years old and had devoted the greater part of his life to the study of orthopedic surgery. His father was known to thousands of New Yorkers as the proprietor of a shoe shop in upper Broadway, in whose window was displayed a photographic order signed by Abraham Lincoln, "admit this man to the executive mansion." It was displayed under an old fashioned No. 9 boot which the older Kohler had built for President Lincoln just after the battle of Antietam.

The man who killed himself had a fashionable and wealthy clientele. Illness is said to have resulted in despondency.

SUNDAY LAW IS WAITING FOR THE TEST

Judge Craig Holds He is Unable to Commit a Corporation to the Grand Jury and Dismisses the Complaints.

QUESTIONABLE WHETHER FURTHER ACTION IS TAKEN

Sentiment in Albuquerque is Showing Itself Plainly in Favor of Sane Interpretation of Blue Laws.

So far as Albuquerque is concerned the New Mexico Sunday law is still waiting to be tested as to the legality of operating street cars, telephones and newspapers on Sunday. Justice of the Peace George B. Craig, while holding that his court had jurisdiction to try complaints of violation of the Sunday law, yesterday dismissed the three complaints against the Colorado Telephone company, the Traction company and the Morning Journal, on the ground that he had no power to hold, or enforce the holding of a corporation to the grand jury, and that before the complaints could be made effective they must name an individual against whom due process could be had from the justice court.

Thus, so far as the complaints brought by Henry Waterford, L. M. Fee and E. W. Schutt go, the matter is ended, and unless further complaint of some kind is made in different form, or before the district court, the matter will be dropped.

So far as could be learned last night the three business men making the original complaints do not intend to proceed further. Their action was taken in an effort to determine just how rigid the enforcement of the blue law could be made in Albuquerque, and with a view to the possible determining their own rights in the matter, and it would be a serious injustice to connect the names of these gentlemen with the somewhat silly threats which have come from several Albuquerque saloon men to the effect that if the saloons here are closed on Sunday everything else will have to close.

The fact is becoming more and more plain that public sentiment in Albuquerque demands the closing of the saloons on Sunday, and that that same public sentiment does not demand the closing of news stands, ice cream parlors and unobnoxious amusements. It is becoming more and more doubtful whether the question is examined, whether or not the Sunday law can be made to apply to cigar stores, news stands, barber shops and ice cream parlors. That it can be applied to newspapers, street cars, telephones or electric lights is recognized as silly. The law in its final enforcement is likely to take just about the form that public sentiment demands, and this sentiment, while it favors the closing of the saloons on Sunday, for the very plainest of reasons, does not favor any foolish enforcement of the law so as to interfere with those lines of business which minister to the comfort, convenience and happiness of the people. The next action of the law is likely to be a complaint against a public utility corporation, but according to the threats which have been made, is more likely to be an action of a saloon against some other line of business; and in view of the malicious prosecution feature which has recently come up, it is doubtful when the next action will appear.

CONGRESSMAN BELL TO VISIT THE EAGLES

Congressman Theo. A. Bell, of California, one of the best known politicians in the state and recently democratic candidate for governor, will be in Albuquerque on December 4 next to spend a day at the headquarters of the Albuquerque series of the Order of Eagles. Congressman Bell is on his way to Washington to take his seat at the opening of congress. He is the national president of the Eagles, and his visit here will be in the nature of an official call on the local lodge. The Eagles are preparing an elaborate entertainment for the California congressman.

THE CONFESSION OF SANCHEZ IS TRIFLE THIN

The story of the murder of Ranchman William McComber, as told by Zenobia Sanchez, when he was sentenced by Judge Abbott Monday, is a trifle thin according to those who are conversant with the history of the Santa Fe mountain crime.

The statement of Sanchez was given a trifle erroneously in these columns yesterday. Sanchez declared that he was carrying a rifle when he met the ranchman and the latter accused him of stealing a bull off a horse. He alleged that McComber had a whip in his right hand and a six shooter in his left, and that he struck him with the whip and threatened him with the revolver. Sanchez says he then shot McComber with his rifle in self defense, leaving the body where it lay—just as the Santa Fe mountain crime was solved when the killing happened and had nothing to do with it.

It will be remembered that the body of the dead of old man McComber

YET ANOTHER NEW RAILROAD FOR ALBUQUERQUE

That Albuquerque is to have yet another railroad is evident from the fact that there have been filed with the secretary of the state of Oklahoma articles of incorporation of the Jefferson City, Albuquerque and San Diego railroad company. The incorporators named in the papers are J. H. Langston and O. H. Jett, of Guyton, Oklahoma; J. S. Harris, of Carthage, Mo.; W. F. Bort, of Wichita, Kan., and C. R. Wright, of Liberal, Kan. The capital stock of the road is placed at seven millions of dollars. The incorporators are well known railroad men and capitalists. The proposed road, it is understood, is to extend through Kansas City and Oklahoma, from Jefferson City, Mo.; then west through New Mexico and across Arizona and California in a line for San Diego.

NEW OFFICIAL OF PUTNEY FIRM

Mr. Aubin, for several years manager of the Holmes Supply company store at Isleta, N. M., has resigned to become assistant manager of the L. E. Putney company, has resigned. John Seymour Lewinson, who, on December 1, becomes a part owner of the Economist store. Mr. Aubin is well known through southern and western New Mexico, and while at Isleta he made many friends in this section.

Mr. Lewinson has been connected with the Putney company for three years. He will doubtless make a success of his new venture.

John Brown, of this city, who has had charge of the Jones store of the Putney company, has resigned. John Hilliard, for some time connected with John Conroy in the Highland grocery, has succeeded him.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost every body who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the greatest medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

CLOVIS HAS GOOD START TO BE A CITY

Townsite Agent for New Santa Fe Town Makes Fine Showing for the Division Point.

E. J. Carlin, of Roswell, townsite agent for the Clovis townsite, now engaged in selling town lots in this new town, which is to be an important division point on the Santa Fe cut-off, arrived in Albuquerque yesterday and is a guest at the Alvarado for several days. Mr. Carlin is preparing to start a vigorous town lot selling campaign here, and begins his presentation through the Morning Journal today. He has good material to work on for Clovis, in addition to a population of 1,100 people at four months of age, has a $60,000 Harvey hotel, a twenty-one-story round house, a $30,000 depot building and many other important railroad buildings and interests which alone will make a town of it in short order.

WORSE THAN ONIONS.

Bad Breath From Indigestion Cannot Be Overcome With Perfumers.

All of us suffer from bad breath—sometimes our own, but oftener that of our friends.

Nine-tenths of this bad breath comes from some stomach trouble, and cannot be overcome by breath perfumes or any other palliative measures.

If you occasionally have a bad breath; if there is heart-burn, flatulence and acid gurglings of undigested food; if the stomach burns or smart; if there is sleeplessness, nervousness, headaches or any other of the many symptoms of indigestion, use Mi-o-na stomach tablets and get well.

Mi-o-na is not a mere digestive nor a physic, but a tonic remedy that strengthens the muscles of the stomach and bowels so that the flow of gastric juices is increased, and the food is digested naturally and does not stay in the stomach to ferment and poison the breath with nauseous odors.

A little 50-cent box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets lasts for a couple of weeks, and will ward off a dozen mild attacks of indigestion. If you suffer with a chronic case of stomach trouble, the use of Mi-o-na for a reasonable length of time will give you an absolute and complete cure. The J. E. O'Brien Co. have seen so many cures made by Mi-o-na stomach tablets that they give a guarantee with every 50-cent box that the money will be refunded if the remedy fails to give satisfaction. They take the whole risk, and a box of Mi-o-na will not cost you a penny unless it cures you.

HOW FORAKER FEELS.

Washington advices are to the effect that Senator Foraker, who is now at the capital, seems to feel quite satisfied with the way things came out in Ohio at the late election. He says he has no special plans for legislation, and nothing "up his sleeve," that he went on early for the purpose of attending the meeting of the Brown-sville investigation committee, and feels in good working condition. When he arrived he was besieged by newspaper correspondents who wanted him to express himself upon a number of questions which have been broached in dispatches from Ohio in the last few days, but while he was courteous he was uncommunicative. He declined to authorize any of his interrogators to quote him, remarking that he was not prepared to give out an interview.

They questioned him about the truth of the report telegraphed from Ohio that he would make a presidential announcement and he replied that he had nothing to say. He said he had no comment to make on the Ohio election or on the status of Secretary Taft's candidacy. Asked if he intended to have a conference with Senator Dick, he said that undoubtedly he would some time meet the senator, and that when they did meet the chances were they would talk to each other. He did not have "anything to say about anything, anyhow." But when he was asked as to his program for legislation in congress he answered that his idea was to trust in God and observe the constitution.

MAKE THE MONEY WORK.

In a speech delivered in New York before the Merchants' association of that city Secretary Cortelyou took occasion to say:

"It is a time when every citizen should assume his share of the burden. The hoarding of money, the ex-action of unnecessarily harsh requirements in business dealings, but retard our return to normal conditions. The hoarded money should be put back in the banks and the exactions of bankers and merchants should be proportioned only to actual business necessities. To do otherwise is not only unpatriotic but unwise. I believe that if this money of the country, wherever hoarded, were at once put back to fulfill its functions in the channels of trade there would be within twenty-four hours an almost complete resumption of business operations. I doubt whether we can in any way estimate the loss that has fallen upon those who have, either through selfish or misguided motives, thus drawn their money from places of more than reasonable safety to put it where it has been lost through robbery or fire or other misfortune."

ROOM FOR REFORM.

We are glad to see that a general protest is being made, not only in our own country, but in Europe, also, against the late hour at which evening entertainments now begin. The first country to raise a voice against this practice was France, and in an article on the subject the Paris Figaro says:

"No one doubts that theaters close too late, and all Parisians are of opinion that with the aid of the uncommunicable entertainers people are detained every evening at the play at least half an hour too long."

And an American exchange thinks that coming from such a late-closed city as Paris, this comment is significant. Enjoyment of the play by most men in most cities of the United States is at the expense of sleep. The everyday sort of fellow has to get up somewhere between 8 and 9 o'clock in the morning in order to eat breakfast, get down town and show up at the office or other place of work in proper season. The ordinary sort of play as presented in these days, or in these nights, will keep a man so late that by the time he gets home it is midnight, and it must be somewhat later when he turns into bed and falls asleep.

The time for beginning theatrical performances has been getting later as the generations pass. In the early days of the stage the show would begin in the afternoon, but within the memory of middle-aged men it would begin at 7:30 or 8:00. Today men can remember when it was announced that the curtain would go up promptly at 8 o'clock. Now the orchestra is a rule not beginning to play till 8:15.

A humorous writer who flourished many years ago under the pen name of "Major Jack Downing," told his western readers about the peculiarities of the eastern people. Instead of having dinner at noon like white folks, said he, the most of them don't have it till six in the evening, those that are just in the vestibule of society put off the dinner till eight, and those that are pretty well up the social ladder have it at ten, but those at the tip-top, the real "quality," don't eat till next day. And we seem to be growing very rapidly toward the same system in the matter of our theatrical entertainments.

It is argued by some that this plan has been adopted by the theaters in the interest of those who eat dinner at night, but if places of amusement had to depend entirely upon that class they would not find it very profitable.

It is currently reported that the gangsters intend to make a Jonah of the "Bowl." But they need not lay the flattering unction to their souls that they can save that ship by throwing one Jonah overboard. Nothing less than the whole crew will serve to still the tempest this time.

Boston wool authorities believe that prices of that great staple will go down but very little, notwithstanding the great decline in prices generally.

Thinks Saloons Should Be Closed

Editor Morning Journal.

You recently published some letters dealing with the Sunday closing question from several different points of view, among them were several expressing or implying direct or indirect opposition to the idea. Of these, one took the ground of its being a religious or out of date, and generally undesirable. Another endorsed the idea in itself, but indicated that as the wrong day of the week had been selected, readily good people could hardly do more than look askance at the plan. A third would have no objection to Sunday closing if it could only be fitted out with the missing virtue of consistency which, on being interpreted seemed to mean that we should not be so cratic as to think of closing the saloons until everything else has been closed.

The first two views are good for their face value, but in view of recent developments I would like to take insult with the third, in spite of a well developed regard for consistency, which leads me to make considerable sacrifice in her name—at times.

I know nothing of the strength or weakness of the law, nor am I in a position to make an appeal in the name of religion, but I do feel there is no good reason why we should not and every reason why we should, stand together as a community of civilized people to make the best of any law that will make it possible to close saloons on any day of the week —and especially on Sunday; so long as that is the best we can do.

In his heart of heart takes every man knows that these places, from the most gilded palace to the lowest dive, are an unmitigated evil for which no true word has ever been or ever can be said. Slowly, but surely, the world has had the truth burned into its brain that this trade stands for low ideals and vicious tendencies, becoming naturally and inevitably the mod-um-in-which is bred the long list of crimes and heartbreaks which are daily traced to its doors. I am aware that the time has not fully come when this blight can be swept from the land, but it is coming; not only in our own country, but the world over, and notably in France. Peoples and governments are preparing, if not actually carrying out the first or later steps of what will surely prove at last the elimination of this monster trade.

Meaning, these are special reasons why Sunday closing should be welcomed by all. Saloons vie with each other to set out traps for the untidy steps of their victims, and for new recruits, on every street and in every used no hour of day or night in which to get them within their influence.

This is bad enough at any time, but on the weekly rest day, people for whom the saloon has blotted out most, if not all, the possibilities of a clean, healthful, normal use of the day, fall easy victims through idleness on all day debauches against which their work or business protects them in some extent on other days. With saloons closed, some of these and presumably a good many who are as yet in better control of themselves, might stay at home, and take account of what whiskey has done and is doing for them during the six days in which they are more or less under its influence. In any case, we would have done what we could to give them the chance.

We seem to have arrived at the point where we can get a law passed which is intended to close saloons one day a week. People are quite generally ready to approve it and we should neither waste the opportunity nor tolerate the retaliatory effort which the traffic will make to strike forth the hand and turn off the cities water, put out its light, silence its papers, tie up its street cars or interfere in any way with institutions and healthful agencies which put its own traffic to perpetual shame. If at some later date we advance to a point where we could no longer tolerate the Sunday operation of these utilities, laws will no doubt be framed specifically to regulate them; meantime, they are responsible for no murders, wars, no homes, blight, no chagrins, no children run in business and may safely be allowed to operate on Sunday without danger to the tender conscience of the weakened and most highly respectable saloon keepers anywhere in the world, and I trust that citizens of Albuquerque will see that their right to regulate saloons is not confined to any war with the saloon keepers' desire to make the process unpopular of impossible in the honored name of consistency.

An Urgent Plea for the Useful Telephone

Editor Morning Journal.

In this morning's paper I see the statement that a telephone is not as more necessary in life than a glass of beer whiskey. The man who said so, one might think, must have had a drink, or else he would not be in that one moment and see how necessary a telephone is in Albuquerque, or any other place where there are so many health seekers. For in case of emergency, by phoning for a doctor he can be had in a few moments and in that case save a life. While going for a doctor the patient may be and, in many cases, die alone. If looking at things in the right light telephones are far more necessary than a restaurant for any one can live on cold veal trotter for one day in the week and who works harder than a cook? A restaurant depend on a restaurant half as much as a telephone, if a life depends on a doctor's immediate presence it depends on a telephone also, which is one of the most necessary servants of man. By phoning a doctor can be had in a few minutes, while going for one takes much time. A phone is one of the greatest necessities of life and a great blessing. A KICKER.

CLOTHES CLEANER SAYS AGREEMENT WAS BROKEN

PECULIAR SUIT FILED IN THE DISTRICT COURT

Forger Clifford Hastings Sent Up for Two Years; Bunch of Convicts Will Go to Santa Fe Tomorrow.

To compel the defendants to live up to an agreement not to open a similar shop within three miles of the cleaning establishment, which he purchased from the defendants, A. A. Henry yesterday filed suit in the district court against C. F. Brown, Mrs. Anna Brown and W. T. Thornton.

The plaintiff prays for a temporary writ of injunction, which will compel the defendants to live up to the agreement, and also seeks judgment and the costs of the action.

In his petition he avers that on May 8, this year, he purchased of Mr. and Mrs. Brown the cleaning and tailoring establishment in the Savoy hotel, with the understanding that they should not open up a similar shop within three miles. This all the parties agreed to but a short time later the Browns and Thornton opened up a shop at 121 North Third street, about five blocks away.

H. F. Adams is attorney for the plaintiff.

FORGER HASTINGS SENT TO PEN FOR TWO YEARS

Clifford Davenport Hastings, the young man who got into a mess here for drawing forged checks and passing them, was yesterday afternoon sentenced to serve two years in the territorial penitentiary by Judge Ira A.
Abbott, on the charge of forgery.

Davenport was represented in court by T. N. Wilkerson, who asked clemency for his client. Davenport was indicted on seven counts and sentenced on only one.

Davenport, along with Zenobia Sanchez and other prisoners, sentenced Monday by Judge Abbott to serve terms in the territorial penitentiary, will be taken to Santa Fe probably tomorrow morning by Sheriff Perfecto Armijo.

Civil Cases.
In the district court yesterday Judge Abbott heard motions for new trials in the civil cases of Donaciano Gallegos versus M. Mandell et al., and George R. Craig, trustee, versus B. H. fool & Co. In the former case the court denied the motion. In the latter he will announce his decision today.

DECLARE JUSTICE RAW RECRUIT IS PARTICIPATED IN ROUGH HOUSE DETECTED AT CLEVER GAME

AND THEN JAILED HIS VICTIMS FOR DISORDER

Rather Peculiar Double Game Alleged on Part of Zacharias Padilla by Fellow Citizens of San Rafael.

Martin Gabaldon and Geronimo Ortiz, proprietors of a store and saloon at San Rafael, Valencia county, have arrived in the city to pour into the ears of the district attorney a tale of woe that is rather out of the ordinary. Gabaldon and Ortiz allege that they were attacked by justice of the peace Zacharias Padilla, and that the justice thereafter had them pulled for disorderly conduct. The alleged assault occurred Friday night. The men with the grievance allege that Padilla and a bunch of others entered their store and started a rough house of the typical western variety, assaulting and beating up the proprietors with clubs, revolvers, knives, rocks and other implements, badly injuring both their victims. It is charged that after participating in the assault Padilla issued a warrant and had both men taken to jail on the charge of disorderly conduct, thus adding insult to injury and rubbing it in. Gabaldon and Ortiz have filed grave charges to this effect and have retained Elfrago Haca to assist in the prosecution of the men. United States Marshal Forsaker has issued a warrant for the arrest of Padilla on complaint of his wife, Mrs.
Juanita Padilla, who sues for divorce and charges her husband with bigamy.
She alleges that he divides his time impartially between her and his other wife, to whom he was married in due form.

In her suit for divorce she asks for a division of property valued at $25-000. Altogether, it looks to the casual observer as if Zacharias must be a gay old sport.

John Marr Arrested After Enlisting in Every Recruiting Station He Could Find on the Map.

An exceedingly clever way to beat a board bill has been made public by the arrest at Trinidad, Colo., Monday of John Marr, of Phoenix, Ariz., who on November 6, enlisted in the United States army at the Albuquerque recruiting office. After passing an examination, Marr was given a ticket to El Paso and ordered to report at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Instead of going to the El Paso post Marr sold the ticket and went to Las Vegas, where he enlisted again. The recruiting officers there paid his board and room rent for four days, and were preparing to send him to El Paso when Lieutenant F. W. Ball, in charge of the New Mexico recruiting stations, arrived in the Meadow City.

Immediately after Lieutenant Ball's advent in Las Vegas, Marr went to Trinidad, Colo., where he again applied at the recruiting office. Shortly after Marr's disappearance from Las Vegas, Lieutenant Ball learned of his actions and notified the police in Trinidad, which resulted in Marr's arrest.

While the war department can not court martial Marr, because he had not been sworn into the army, it is believed that the Trinidad authorities will try him under the boarding house and innkeepers' act for beating a board bill.

SANTA FE TOWNSITE FOUR POINT DIVISION

21 Stall Concrete Roundhouse $62,000 Harvey House $30,000 Concrete Depot $40,000 Recreation Bldg

Large Concrete Machine and Car Shops
100 Ton Ice Plant for R.R. Co.
$42,000 Concrete Coal Shutes Numerous Other R. R. Bldgs.

Clovis, New Mexico, is the New Santa Fe Division Townsite, Situated Nine Miles West of Texico, New Mexico, on the Belen Cut-Off

The surface of the land on which the townsite is located is level. Clovis is situated in the best portion of the level plains country and is in the center of the best dry farming and stock raising section of Eastern New Mexico. All this land is settled upon by homesteaders who are improving their land. The Santa Fe Land Improvement Company have 213,000 acres of railroad scrip land, commencing five miles north of Clovis, New Mexico, which is considered the finest farming land in Eastern New Mexico. This land will shortly be open to homesteaders and sold in small tracts on terms to suit purchaser. The country around Clovis, New Mexico, will command trade for fifty miles to the north, thirty miles to the east, twenty miles to the south and twenty-eight miles to the west. There is a settler on every 160 acres, which assures its future rapid growth and permanency. Clovis is on the main transcontinental line of the Santa Fe which is called in this territory, the Eastern Railway of New Mexico, or the Belen Cut-off. Clovis will be the division for the main line of the Santa Fe, the Pecos Valley line and the Brownwood Extension, thus making it a Division Point for three distinct lines of the Santa Fe System.

The Pecos Valley tracks will be taken up between Texico, New Mexico, and Cameo, New Mexico, and be moved west eight miles to make Clovis the northern division point of the Pecos Valley line. The Brownwood Extension will be run out of Clovis which will give a through line from California to Galveston, Texas. The Railroad Company has retained 320 acres for railroad purposes and there are extensive machine and car shops being erected at Clovis. Clovis will be the first division point west of Amarillo, Texas, and the Santa Fe have just completed a twenty-one stall concrete roundhouse, graded miles of siding and yards, are erecting a $30,000 concrete two-story depot and a $62,000 two-story Harvey hotel and $40,000 three-story recreation building for railroad employees. The recreation building will have a standard library, pool and billiard halls, swimming pool, auditorium and living rooms for railroad employees. All these buildings are of solid concrete and the latest style of mission architecture. The Company is drilling ten large wells to secure all the water that will be required for railroad purposes, the supply being inexhaustible. The Railroad Company will erect a one-hundred ton ice plant for icing refrigerator and passenger cars.

The concrete coal chutes, costing $42,000, are half completed and are the largest west of the Mississippi river. There are numerous other railroad improvements to be started, but the engineers' reports have not been completed and we cannot give data on the same. As soon as the Belen Cut-off and connecting lines of Clovis are completed, the Company will put all of its extra California fast passenger, freight and perishable fruit traffic on this line, which will be the shortest between Chicago and Southern California and Galveston, Texas, and New Orleans, Louisiana, and Southern California. It will also carry all the Pacific and Oriental mail which is now being largely handled by the Rock Island and Southern Pacific.

Clovis has two national banks with $25,000 and $35,000 capital, respectively. There is a water, electric light and ice company located in Clovis, owned and controlled by rail-road officials, with equipment now in operation. A complete telephone system is in operation connecting with all adjacent towns and the long distance lines. There are thirty-five business houses, six hotels and rooming houses, four lumber yards, three livery stables, cold storage and other buildings already erected. Clovis has nearly eleven hundred popula-tion, is four months old and growing very fast. If you are looking for a business location or a new town for investments, look the situation over at Clovis. The lots being offered for sale are all residence lots and can be purchased at from $70 to $90 per lot, one-half down, the balance in six months at 8 per cent interest. On all sales over $500 10 per cent dis-count is allowed. On all cash sales, 10 per cent discount allowed. Clovis will make a city of ten thousand in a few years. This is the best proposition ever offered in New Mexico for small investors and now is the time to purchase these lots, as the prices will double within six months' time.

A much larger crowd should have greeted E. J. McBride, the pianist, at the Presbyterian church for the piano recital he gave, as usual, very pleasing, and the full chorus choir of the church, Mr. E. B. Schwenker was accompanist for Mrs. Collins.

Mr. McBride was assisted by Mrs. H. C. Collins, the talented soloist, whose singing was, as usual, very pleasing, and the full chorus choir of the church, Mr. E. B. Schwenker was accompanist for Mrs. Collins.

Mr. McBride's rendition of a very elaborate and difficult Wagnerian program shows that he is an artist of no mean ability. His playing of the Tannhauser overture as a finale was magnificent.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES.
 Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Pains of Albuquerque People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking down.

Overwork, strain, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric acid which is the cause of rheumatism, gout, and other ailments.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ills. Albuquerque cures are the proof.

Mrs. Ida Johnson, living at 414 N. Fourth st., Albuquerque, N. M., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills quickly and effectively relieved me of pain in the back which had troubled me at intervals for some time. Any preparation which acts as fully up to the claims made for it as Doan's Kidney Pills, deserves unqualified praise, and as a genuine kidney medicine can have the confidence of every one."
