Annual Report of Bureau of Immigration Shows All Previous Records Broken By Number of Arrivals.

BROUGHT WITH THEM
$25,599,893 IN MONEY
Commissioner Sargent Suggests Changes in Existing Law With View to Exclusion of Criminals and Undesirables.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 15.—Immigration to America during the year ended June 30, 1907, was vastly greater than in any previous year of the history of the United States according to the annual report of Frank P. Sargent, commissioner general of immigration, which was made public today. Of this great flood of immigration Commissioner Sargent says:
"An army of 1,185,549 souls, that have come, drawn hither by the free institutions and the marvelous prosperity of our country and the chances here afforded every honest toiler to gain a livelihood by the sweat of his brow or the exercise of his intelligence, surpassed in numbers the record of all preceding years."
The immigration for 1907 exceeded that of 1906 by 184,674, an increase of 4.37, hence this number of those who have sought admission in 1907, viz 1,298,513, exceeds the number who arrived in 1906, viz 1,113,867 by 184,646.
Commissioner Sargent says that it is of particular significance that many immigrants landed at ports in the south during the past year, and he refers especially to a party of 473 Belgians—excellent types of immigrants—received at Charleston, S. C., having been induced to go there by the state authorities. The increase of immigration to the south, the commissioner says is directly connected with the growing desire of the southern states to draw within their boundaries a number of the better classes of immigrants, it being considered by practically all the leading men of the section that the future development and welfare of the south depends upon its ability to receive and absorb a reliable laboring and farming element. Striking increases are shown at New Orleans, Galveston and Honolulu.
Twenty-seven countries showed increases and eleven decreases. The tide of immigration from some of the countries is indicated by the following figures:
Austria-Hungary 338,452, increase 73,314; Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro 11,555, increase 4,932; France 8,731, increase 2,455; Germany 57,807, increase 243; Greece 36,820, increase 17,091; Italy, including Sicily, 285,921, increase 12,611; Japan 13,391, increase 2,747; the United States 29,747, increase 7,146; Ireland 24,526, increase 145; Scotland 19,749, increase 3,874; China 961, increase 531; Japan 30,224, increase 14,391; Turkey 29,747, increase 18,918; increase 14,391; West Indies 16,488, increase 2,024.
Interest mostly attaches to the proportionately large immigration from Japan. While the leading cause for the immigration from Japan while relatively not so great, has tripled in the past year. This increase is significant in the face of the regulations adopted by the American government with the assent of Japan which it was supposed would curtail the immigration from Japan to this country very materially.
Commissioner Sargent presents excerpts from official reports made to his bureau by inspectors sent to Mexico and Canada to study the situation with special reference to the coming of Japanese to America through those countries. The reports show that thousands of Japanese landed in Mexico during the past year and ultimately gained admission, surreptitiously into this country. Once in the United States it was impossible to locate them, except in the rarest instances. While the immigration concerning Japanese immigration have tended to reduce the number of regularly admitted immigrants hundreds, if not thousands of Japanese are still coming into the country.
Referring to the immigration statistics of the various countries the commissioner says "the table furnishes a striking example of the fact that the law has arrived when, if people are afforded them, their chief interest to the people of the United States consists in the questions that must arise in the mind of any person examining the figures as to whether or not our ability at a race to absorb foreign elements is not on the verge at least of being exhausted."
Of the aliens admitted 873,923 had less than $50 each in their possessions, while 197,587 were able to show amounts in excess of that sum. The total amount of money brought into the country by the arriving aliens was $25,599,893.

Crews Report Rough Passage; Passengers Confined Below Decks By Gale; Pilot Loses Life Off Sandy Hook.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Dec. 15.—Battered by engulfing seas that delayed their passage across the Atlantic, seven transatlantic steamships due here Saturday night into port today with their sides and superstructures showing evidence of the storms which they encountered. The belated steamers were crunched here after a stormy passage during which their machinery broke down and compelled her to lay to for twenty-four hours. Several coastwise steamers, bound south, were forced to anchor in Sandy Hook bay for shelter and sailed away today when the gale blew itself out. LaFollette, of the French line, which led the harbor, had a rough trip and her passengers were permitted on deck only occasionally. The steamers Breslau, Minnetonka, Luccania, St. Paul, Arabia and Pennsylvania, all came in today with stories of heavy seas.
Thomas Shields, a pilot, was drowned at sea last night by the capsizing of a small boat while being transferred from the Tailsman.

WORST GALE IN YEARS
SWEEPS PACIFIC COAST
San Francisco, Dec. 15.—The storm which has prevailed along the coast for the last few days is, according to mariners, one of the most severe experienced in many years. Nearly all coastwise vessels coming into port have suffered more or less damage while coming down from the north.

FORTY LIVES REPORTED LOST IN BRITISH WATERS
London, Dec. 15.—The gale along the British coast on Friday and Saturday which was described as the worst in a century, has resulted in the loss of some forty lives, so far as is at present known. A number of minor wrecks including a vessel sent to founder off Swansea with a loss probably of her crew of seven.
The abatement of the weather enabled the Commander Maurel to make an easy passage to Queenstown at a speed of fully twenty-five knots, and under normal conditions the expected delivery August 1st, which was driven ashore on the rocks and the three-master Padonza went to pieces on the rocks at Biarritz directly in front of the hotels, the catastrophe being witnessed by thousands including Premier Campbell-Bannerman. Four of the crew were drowned. A number of fishing craft were lost in the English channel and a steamer, the shipwrecked on the coast, being virtually stopped the Anglo-French service and the French liner LaBretagne, for New York, postponed her departure until today.

SHIPWRECKED SAILORS PICKED UP BY LINER
Charleston, S. C., Dec. 15.—The Clyde line freighter Michigan, arriving tonight from Boston, brought to Captain Marshall and crew of ten men the wrecked schooner August, which foundered at sea yesterday morning. The vessel, which was a schooner of 1,100 tons, left Carteret, N. J., Dec. 10, for Savannah. Friday night and Saturday morning heavy southeasterly gales were met off Cape Lookout and the schooner sprung a leak. Steam and handpumps became choked and in a. m. Saturday the captain and crew took to the small boats and fled astern until 4 p. m. The schooner's decks were then awash and she was settling. The captain and crew were picked up and the men. The district, which may be still afloat, is directly in the track of coasters.

HURRICANE WRECKS SHIPS ON FRENCH COAST
Paris, Dec. 15.—Gales of hurricane violence which have been raging since the morning of the 12th, seem to have spent their force in the north and are now central over Spain and the Mediterranean. The cruiser lay down in the anchorage on the rocks and the three-master Padonza went to pieces on the rocks at Biarritz directly in front of the hotels, the catastrophe being witnessed by thousands including Premier Campbell-Bannerman. Four of the crew were drowned. A number of fishing craft were lost in the English channel and a steamer, the shipwrecked on the coast, being virtually stopped the Anglo-French service and the French liner LaBretagne, for New York, postponed her departure until today.

GOVERNOR WILL MAKE TRIP TO LAS VEGAS
Executive Will Spend Today in Mendocino City, Coming to Albuquerque On Wednesday Evening.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.)
San Francisco, Dec. 15.—Governor Curry expects to leave tomorrow morning for Las Vegas where he will spend a day on business, looking after executive matters and in connection with the shipping campaign. There is much interest in the appointment of the district attorney in the Las Vegas district to succeed Stephen B. Davis, now assistant to the United States attorney and it is expected that this appointment will be made following the governor's visit. Thus far Charles W. G. Ward is most prominently mentioned for the office and it is understood here that he has been settled on it.
The governor will go to Albuquerque Wednesday to attend a meeting of the board of control of the irrigation districts. He will probably go thence over the Santa Fe cut-off.

Court House Destroyed by Fire.
Greenville, Pa., Dec. 15.—The Mercer county court house at Mercer, erected forty years ago, was destroyed by fire tonight. Loss $150,000. It is thought many of the public documents, kept since 1857, have been ruined.

John Jacob Astor Victim of Grippe.
New York, Dec. 15.—John Jacob Astor is confined to his home on Fifth avenue with a severe attack of grippe, which threatens pneumonia. His condition is not considered serious.

Editor Whose Publications Concerning Intimate Friends of Kaiser Caused Sensation Must Make Good.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Berlin, Dec. 15.—The effort of Count Kuno von Moltke to vindicate himself in the trial which resulted from accusations made by M. Harden, editor of the Berliner Tageblatt, having failed before the minor court, the case will now be taken up by the states-attorney before a criminal bench of five judges.

The second trial of Herr Harden will begin tomorrow and fresh revelations are awaited with tense expectations by the public because it is believed that much new testimony will be brought out concerning the emperor. Prince Philip Zuehlendorff, Count Eib, his divorced wife and her son, Lieut. Von Kruz, are among the witnesses who will be called. It is by no means certain that the judges will take a range wide enough to elicit political secrets of court or anything that may touch directly the person of the emperor.
The cause that have brought about a new trial by the ministry of justice are somewhat obscure, but it has been regarded by the sober part of the community that Count Von Moltke was not well supported in the first trial and that the testimony was not sufficiently limited to the legal issues.

The powerful classes have felt that they were compromised by the proceedings and verdict of the lower court. The officers of the corps represented the broad assertion against the morality and honor of the army and strong royalists felt that the principle of monarchy had been lost prestige. The conservatives generally regarded the country as having been damaged in foreign eyes.
Whatever may have been the considerations of the ministry of justice, simply wiped out the findings of the magistrate and took up the affair as though it had never been tried before and initiated proceedings against Herr Harden for having criminally wronged Count Von Moltke. Efforts have been made at the eleventh hour to compromise the case, but Herr Harden declined to sign the declaration denying his lost prestige. The latter will be represented by Dr. Sello, one of the most distinguished advocates of the German bar, in addition to the highest states attorney of the Berlin courts, Dr. Wengert.

JAPANESE WELCOME KOREAN PRINCE
Saluting Cannon and Cheers Greet Arrival of Representative of Conquered Nation in Mikado's Capital.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Tokyo, Dec. 15.—The arrival of the crown prince of Korea and Marquis Ito this afternoon was made the occasion of a brilliant spectacle, thousands of people assembled at the Shinjuku station, where the party detained. The crown prince of Korea was heartily welcomed by the crown prince of Japan, in official dress, and the Japanese aristocracy. The appearance of the party at the entrance of the depot was the signal for long sustained cheering and the young crown prince of Korea was evidently delighted not to be a captive.
He was driven to the Shiba palace, accompanied by the crown prince of Japan and Marquis Ito along a route lined by imperial guardsmen. Flags were profusely draped all over the city.

The crown prince of Korea will be received in audience by the emperor of Japan December 17th. Plans for the education of the Korean crown prince have not yet been completed, but they will now be arranged under the direction of Marquis Ito.
The arrival of Marquis Ito means the beginning of considerable activity in administrative and political circles. Many matters await final approval. Included among them the decision whether Canadian Minister of Labor Lemieux will be given a written note concerning immigration. There is no reason to believe, however, that the government will change its original decision not to give a written note.
It is authoritatively stated that pressure is being brought to induce Count Ito to return as Japan's representative to Berlin. If he consents the plan for diplomatic changes in Europe will be altered.
Baron Takahira, however, is certain of obtaining the Washington post. The Japanese government is considering the increasing of its forces in Korea in view of the activity of the Korean revolutionaries and brigands. Many murders are being committed in the outlying districts. Twenty Korean members of a pro-Japanese organization were murdered yesterday.

Sawmills Food For Flames.
Manitowish, Mich., Dec. 15.—Three sawmills of the Chicago Lumber company were destroyed by fire here today. Henry Haggard, a night foreman, and Night Watchman, Andrew Norton were burned to death. Property loss, $100,000.

Lord Kelvin Seriously Ill.
London, Dec. 15.—Lord Kelvin, the noted scientist, who has been ill for some time past, has had a serious relapse.

Theaters, Newspapers, Barber Shops and Many Other Interests Risk Fine For Doing Business On Sabbath.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Omaha, Neb., Dec. 15.—Merchants who came under the ban of the Sunday closing order issued some time ago, to take effect December 1st, observed the order in a half-hearted manner today and tonight. Perhaps a thousand persons laid themselves liable to the law by declining to close their places on the first day of the week. These places include theaters, newspaper offices, barber shops, cigar stores, billiard halls, bowling alleys, and minor places which took their chances of being forced to contribute to the exchequer of the city with fines, whose maximum is estimated at $15,000.

Interest centered in the theaters, whose course promised to have much to do with the action of other places of business. All the Omaha theaters were open for matinees and night performances as usual. The names of managers, ticket sellers, doorkeepers and stage foremen of all theaters were taken and warrants for their arrest will be issued tomorrow.
Edward J. Monaghan, manager of the Boyd's, the leading Omaha theater, said that no performance had been arrested and he did not anticipate that they would be.
"We will test the Sunday law in the supreme court if we find it necessary," he declared. "I do not believe that the law is a law that theatrical performers do not come within the meaning of the Nebraska law. Myself and three other employees have been called upon to appear in police court, which we shall do, and if we are convicted the cases will be appealed."

SALOON KEEPER'S FORCE EVERYTHING TO CLOSE
Chicago, Dec. 15.—Chicago Heights, a manufacturing town of 15,000 inhabitants, 20 miles west of Chicago, was a "closed" town by common consent of its saloonkeepers today. Not only were the saloons closed, but saloonkeepers were the drug store, the grocery store and the new stand. The saloonkeepers insisted that these places be closed in retaliation for the activity of the municipal league, which had been shut out of the town by the city council. Following the locking of their doors at midnight, the bartenders, accompanied by their sympathizers, paraded the streets shouting taunts at the league members.

EATING ONLY PASTIME PERMITTED NEW YORKERS
New York, Dec. 15.—Enforcement of the Sunday closing law and the elements combined today to provide a "blue" Sunday as the most strict Sabbathian might wish.
The amusement promoters generally kept their places closed, while an overcast sky, a damp chill in the air and bad walking shut in thousands of New Yorkers. The day was, as before, benighted by the changed conditions.
The theatrical men made no attempt to test the law and will await the coming of the new year. The board of aldermen to pass next Tuesday. A few places of exhibition, dancing and music were kept open. The city which had been fortified by injunctions which forbade police interference, did business as usual and an occasional harvest for Sunday. The police today claim to have kept the saloons closed.

BRUTAL MURDER IN KANSAS CITY
Thugs, Bent On Robbery, Kill Grocery Store Keeper; Wife of Victim Fatally Wounded.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Kansas City, Dec. 15.—Louis R. Sternberg, a grocer at North street and Walker avenue, in Kansas City, Kas., was killed and his wife was fatally injured by unknown robbers who attacked them, and robbed them in their home last night. The victim was found until twelve hours later. An open can of sardines on a counter, and a long iron bolt and a bloody meat cleaver near the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Sternberg supply the evidence of how the crime was committed. It is believed that the robber asked for the sardines and as the grocer placed the open box before them they struck him down with the iron bolt and then beat his head into a pulp. The robbers then entered the living apartments back of the store and attacked Mrs. Sternberg with the meat cleaver. They stole open her head and knocked out one of her eyes besides inflicting several brutal wounds on her body. She cannot live through the night.
The victim was 47 years old, recently took $500 from a bank and it is thought the robbers thought it was in the store. They secured about $75.

Alfred Stead Passes Away.
London, Dec. 15.—Alfred Stead, editor of the Pall Mall Gazette, died today. He was born in 1857 and was associated with his father in the publication of that journal.

Lord Kelvin Seriously Ill.
London, Dec. 15.—Lord Kelvin, the noted scientist, who has been ill for some time past, has had a serious relapse.

Corporation Commission Arrives in Nevada Camp Prepared to Investigate Causes Leading to Controversy.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 15.—Today a delegation from the American Federation of Labor called upon Governor Funston, who is continuing his investigation of conditions here with a view of determining the necessity for the presence of federal troops in Goldfield.
These gentlemen made the most remarkable statement I have yet heard," said General Funston, in an interview with the representative of the Associated Press tonight. "Their statement is that for months they have lived in constant fear. They have considered it necessary for their self-protection to arm themselves and have been compelled to avoid personal contact with members of the Western Federation of Miners in order to prevent serious trouble. The real situation of affairs here has been obtained until the arrival of the United States troops, since when the conditions have been greatly changed."

General Funston stated that he considered that this statement of the conditions came from men who have been in a better position to know the real situation than any others who have talked to him since his arrival. In view of the facts gleaned today, General Funston said that there is little possibility of the troops here leaving within ten days, and on his recommendation at least half the number here now will be detained by the Washington authorities.

General Funston will not leave Goldfield before Tuesday and may stay longer.
Governor Sparks today sent a long communication to Washington stating in detail his position in relation to the troops and making correction of some omissions in the original call for troops. Information in regard to the coming of trains bearing strike breakers cannot be obtained.
Members of the commission sent by President Roosevelt arrived in Goldfield tonight. They are Charles F. Neill, labor commissioner; Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations and Lawrence Murray, assistant secretary of the department of commerce and labor. They are accompanied by F. Patterson as secretary. Mr. Neill said tonight that the commission would at once enter into the investigation of the mine operators and mine workers will be exhaustively investigated and the whole matter embodied in reports to be made to the department and to President Roosevelt.

As to the length of the stay of the commission in Goldfield, Mr. Neill could not say definitely, but this time and the report would be sent to Washington.

General Funston is tonight preparing a report to be sent to Washington based on the revelations made to him today by the delegation from the American Federation of Labor.
LABOR FEDERATIONS WORK IN HARMONY DECLARES LEADER
Denver, Dec. 15.—Acting Secretary Kirwan, of the Western Federation of Miners, was told today in an interview with General Funston at Goldfield, in which he stated that members of the American Federation of Labor had indicated that they were in constant contact with the members of the Western Federation of Miners for months previous to the arrival of the troops at Goldfield. He professed to be amazed.
"I cannot account for the statements attributed to the American Federation of Labor members in this connection," he said. "It is not the sentiment of the high officials of the organization with whom we are in perfect harmony. It must be simply the feeling of individual members of our members in Goldfield and nothing else. I have understood ever since the strike began in Goldfield that the organization that we had the endorsement of practically all the American Federation men in that camp. We have been in constant contact with the members of the branch of the labor union, who are fighting the Bell Telephone company there, and we believed that we were receiving the same support in our fight at Goldfield. I cannot but believe that the feeling attributed to the American Federation against our organization that upon the part of only a few who perhaps have had personal differences with some of our men."

KANSAS CITY THEATERS IGNORE SUNDAY LAW
Only Two Houses Respect Court's Order to Close.

Kansas City, Dec. 15.—Only two theaters, the Willis Wood and the Majestic, respected the Sunday closing order of Judge William H. Wallace today. The managers of the Majestic have notified Judge Wallace that the Majestic will remain closed until the legality of the Sunday closing movement is finally decided, and it is believed, that the Willis Wood will no longer resist the enforcement of the closing order. All other theaters and amusement parlors were open today and deputy marshals again secured the names of all alleged violators of the law. Judge Wallace today delivered an address from the pulpit in which he accused the police commissioner for refusing to instruct the police to co-operate with him in the Sunday closing movement.

New Orleans Show Factory Burns.
New Orleans, Dec. 15.—Fire this morning destroyed the Tulane shoe factory, one of the largest in the south. Loss $100,000.

Governor of West Virginia Makes Appeal For Funds to Meet Needs of Widows and Orphans of Explosion Victims

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Fairmont, W. Va., Dec. 15.—The permanent relief committee, headed by Governor William O. Dawson, to provide for the widows and orphans in distress through the recent explosion at the mines of the Fairmont Coal company at Monongah, today prepared an appeal for funds that is being sent to chambers of commerce and kindred organizations all over the country.

The newspapers are urged to aid the work by receiving contributions, acknowledging them through their columns and sending them to the treasurer.
Contributions of clothing, toys for the orphans at Christmas time and similar donations are to be sent to W. H. Moore, mayor of Monongah, and the chairman of the committee looking after the temporary wants of the sufferers. The committee's appeal says:
"Fully 250 widows and 1,000 orphan children are left without any means of support. As near as can be determined, $50,000 from all sources has been subscribed. Upon the basis of $200 each widow and $100 for each child under sixteen years of age, $175,000 will be required. At least $25,000 will be necessary to provide, on a temporary basis, for the needs of the children. The many now unborn children and the undoubted additions to the married victims' list when complete information has been received."
"The committee feels that a total of $200,000 is required to carry out the relief work."
All checks should be made payable to the Monongah mines relief committee, J. E. Sands, treasurer, Fairmont, W. Va.

SHANTY BOATMEN IN FATAL FIGHT
One Man Killed; One Mortally and Two Other Persons Dangerously Hurt in Duel on Ohio River.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Louisville, Ky., Dec. 15.—One was killed, another fatally wounded, three dangerously wounded, a woman wounded and a little girl received a less serious gun shot wound, in a battle between shanty boatmen on the Ohio river today. The boatmen and a posse from Kentucky, which occurred at Bethlehem, Ind., a village 30 miles above Louisville, today. The victims are:
The dead, Arthur Kelling, shanty boatman.
Fatally wounded: Clarence Scott, Huston's Landing, Kentucky.
Dangerously wounded: Iva Scott, Huston's Landing, Ky. Mrs. Arthur Kelling, shot in the arm.
Agnes Kelling, little girl, shot in hand.
On Sunday night the home of the Scott brothers, at Huston's Landing, was robbed of a small amount of produce. Securing the assistance of three officers and two neighbors they crossed the river to the Indiana side and approached Arthur Kelling's shantyboat. They demanded that Kelling return the property which he claimed to have stolen. They were charged with the charge and refused to allow his boat to be searched. Mrs. Kelling charges that at attempt was made to enter the boat by force and the battle followed. One man, Edward Burdette, who was aboard the boat, was arrested.

LOVE SICK TAILOR KILLS WOMAN THEN HIMSELF

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 15.—Olin Schumiger, a Hungarian tailor, today shot and fatally wounded Mrs. Caylene Webster and seriously wounded Mrs. Myrtle Spencer and then killed himself. The tragedy occurred at the home of Mrs. Webster, a grocer's wife, where Schumiger had a room. The latter had been out of employment for some time and was despondent. It is said Schumiger was infuriated with Miss Spencer and his advances had been repulsed. Mrs. Webster was coming out of Miss Spencer's room when Schumiger fired at her as she stood in the shadows of his room. It is believed he mistook Mrs. Webster for Miss Spencer. As the first shot rang out Miss Spencer rushed into the hallway and Schumiger fired point blank at her, the bullet going through her arm and lodging in her breast. Schumiger then ran back into his own room, where he shot a bullet into his own head and expired instantly. The bullet which hit Mrs. Webster penetrated her head and she is not expected to live.

New Orleans, Dec. 15.—Fire this morning destroyed the Tulane shoe factory, one of the largest in the south. Loss $100,000.

Admiral Evans' Battleships Well Stocked With Powder and Projectiles Ready to Start on Mission of Peace.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Old Point Comfort, Va., Dec. 15.—The Pacific bound Atlantic fleet will leave tomorrow morning on its journey through the straits of Magellan, en route, as the official order reads, for the west coast of the United States. The president is expected to arrive in Hampton Roads on the Mayflower shortly after 8 p. m. His coming will be timed as near that hour as possible, without preceding it, for salutes cannot be fired before 9 o'clock under the navy regulations.

From the time the president's yacht casts anchor in the center of the fleet the events of the departure will move rapidly. Rear Admiral Evans, commander-in-chief of this most notable of American peace expeditions, will receive on board the Mayflower and pay his respects to the president and will be immediately followed by the other flag and commanding officers of the fleet. The reception will be brief and more or less informal. As there will figure very heavily in the plans, the matter of precedence in rank will be waived in favor of the officers whose launches first happened to reach the Mayflower gangway after Admiral Evans has gone on board. The reception and the journeys of the admirals and captains in and from the Mayflower are expected to occupy more than an hour and a half more will be consumed in lifting anchor and getting ships in position for the start, which it is expected will be made about 10 o'clock. Two hours later the first of the long line of fighting vessels should have cleared the straits of Magellan and be en route to the southward. The review of the passing fleet by the president will take place near the Thimble shoal light-house, ten miles down the bay and should be made at 11:30 a. m.

Threatening weather and occasional rain squalls marked the last day of the fleet's stay in port. But tonight a cold wind from the west drove the storm clouds and the sixteen smoking battleships were bathed in moonlight.
The view down the long twin lines of the fleet was most impressive. An occasional searchlight flash or the red and white glow of a night signal from the yardarm of one of the big fighters, broke the monotony of the scene. On shore the hotels are crowded entirely beyond their capacity by wives, sweethearts, officials and friends who have come to say good-bye. Many of these will have to sit up throughout the night or lounge as best they can in the chairs of the hotel lobby. The clear weather was unexpected and gratifying. A sailing sun is predicted for tomorrow.

Shore liberty for the sailors ended at 10 a. m. today, and at that hour the entire fleet was ordered to weigh anchor. The fleet was lined up at quarters to listen to the reading of the articles of war. Thunders first happened to be preceded, as they were also with more personal words which came in orders from Admiral Evans, the commander-in-chief, and from the rear admiral on board the third division flagships. Every man was told what his duty was to his country, to his flag and to his superior officers. They were cautioned to uphold the dignity of their uniforms when going ashore at South American ports, and always conduct themselves in an orderly and soberly manner.

After the articles of war had been read the chaplains of the several ships read from the Bible at divine worship. A few stragglers who overstayed their leave from the fleet, of the auxiliary squadron which preceded the battleship fleet to Trinidad, have recently turned up on the flag-ship. Commander Evans has directed that they be taken along until the fleet falls with the ships to which they belong.

Admiral Evans was ashore most of the day and there were a number of informal receptions in the parlors of the Hotel Chamberlain. Many of the officers made their friends farewell toasts and repaired aboard their ships. At 7 a. m. tomorrow all must be at quarters ready to sail.
Some belated gifts were placed on several of the ships today. A vast quantity of plum pudding going to the crews of the Georgia and Vermont. Fresh meat boats have placed the last supply on board the ships.
"We could not take an another pound of provisions," said one officer today, "unless we followed the very best custom of the Japanese, who were caught by the Japanese with eight-inch gun barrels stored with gunpowder and powder chambers filled with dynamite."
Several scouting parties were ashore today looking for scrubby pines to be used as Christmas trees. Nearly all were successful, and the little pines will be carefully stowed away until Trinidad is reached on Christmas eve. A number of yachts came into the Roads today with pleasure parties on board.

Although bound for an extended tour of duty in the Pacific ocean, the fleet which sails tomorrow will retain its title of the "United States Atlantic fleet," under which designation the last sailing orders have been issued. Captain Joseph B. Murdock, of the

NEWELL PLEASED AT TAFT MAY QUIT ENTHUSIASM FOR ROOSEVELT CONGRESS CABINET

RECLAMATION DIRECTOR IS READY TO CO-OPERATE

Head of Service Congratulates
Hopewell and People on the Start They Have Made and is Ready to Extend Aid.

That the officers of the United States Reclamation Service are ready to give their hearty co-operation to make the next national irrigation congress a success is evidenced by the following letter received by Col. W. S. Hopewell from F. H. Newell, director of the service and a man who has been chiefly instrumental in accomplishing the vast results shown by the service:

Department of the Interior, U. S. Reclamation Service, Office of the Director, Washington, D. C., Dec. 16, 1907.

Col. W. S. Hopewell, Albuquerque, N. M.

Information has just come to me that the people of Albuquerque have organized for the next irrigation congress and that you will lead in the matter. I wish to congratulate you and the people of Albuquerque on the enthusiasm shown. I hope that your plans will result in the success attained at Sacramento and other cities.

In this connection it will give me pleasure to assist in every practical way and I shall be glad to have you call to my attention any details in which I can be of service.

F. H. NEWELL,
Director.

ENTIRE TERRITORY WILL GO IN TO WIN.

The El Paso Times says: While the next session of the National Irrigation congress will be held in the city of Albuquerque, N. M., the men prominent in securing the meeting for that city wish it understood that Albuquerque expects the entire territory to assist and take a prominent part in the session.

Probably no place, or section, in the entire United States, will receive more benefit from irrigation than that territory, and it is to the interest of each and every citizen of the territory to make it his personal affair. The city of Albuquerque, or her citizens, aided by others, went to Sacramento and secured the next congress for Albuquerque. While having the interests of the city at heart, they also were working as a whole and hope the people will take an active interest in the session.

The above paragraph was correctly the statement of the irrigation men from New Mexico, headed by Gov. Curry and W. S. Hopewell, last night. It will be a territorial affair. We want to make it their affair," said W. S. Hopewell, president of the National Irrigation congress, last night.

Governor Curry made practically the same statement.

"Our party called upon the principal business men, the bankers and newspapers today," he said, "and told them we wanted their co-operation in the interest of irrigation. And without exception they assured us of their hearty support. It is gratifying to us to know that the newspapers and citizens of the city of El Paso stand together with us on the irrigation question."

CURRAN DENIES REPORT OF DEATH

Wreck Near Pittsburg Trifling
Affair and No One Seriously Hurt; Money Getting Easier on the Street.

Thomas J. Curran, of the Mogollon Gold and Copper company, who was recently reported killed in a wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad near Pittsburg, returned yesterday on the California limited after a business trip to New York.

"The reports of my death were inaccurate," said Mr. Curran with a smile yesterday. "The wreck was a trifling affair, a stray train hitting the rear Pullman of ours just before the train got in the clear passing from one track to a parallel one. The last two cars bounced along on the ties for about twenty feet but were hardly damaged, while no one was injured beyond a bad shaking up."

According to Mr. Curran money conditions in New York are getting decidedly easier, and while everybody has been "hit" things are steadily working back to the normal again.

BUSY COLONEL BOOSTS DOWN IN HILLSBORO

Hopewell On His Flying Trip Still Has Time to Talk Irrigation
Congress to the Old Times.

(Hillsboro Advocate.)

Col. W. S. Hopewell paid Hillsboro one of his famous flying visits the early part of the week. Just now Mr. Hopewell is as busy as two oxen saloon-shooters. While here he talked irrigation, territorial fair and irrigation congress. He says the irrigation congress will be the greatest convention ever held in New Mexico, that delegates from every civilized country in the world will be in attendance. Also that the territorial fair will be the biggest and best ever held in New Mexico.

RESIGNATION EXPECTED
WITHIN SHORT TIME

Secretary's Friends Seriously
Doubt Sincerity of Administration's Advocacy of Their Candidate For Presidency.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The statement was made several weeks ago by friends of Secretary of War Taft that he would resign from the cabinet soon after the beginning of the year in order to better prosecute his interest in the presidency. There was no indication then that there was any dissatisfaction on his part with the course of the president or his cabinet officers with respect to the campaign for next year's nomination.

Now we are told that his resignation is likely to come soon after he reaches Washington from his trip around the world, and that it will be prompted by dissatisfaction. The story has it that he was persuaded, against his personal inclination, to become a candidate for president, that it was President Roosevelt who persuaded him, and that the means of persuasion consisted of a promise that he should have the support of the president and of the administration. Instead of receiving this support, the narrative runs, Mr. Taft's friends are very much in doubt as to Mr. Roosevelt's intentions, and some of the administration's most potent agencies are being employed against the war secretary.

One of the specific grievances is said to be the allegation that Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou is flitting himself with the nomination and that First Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock, Mr. Cortelyou's first lieutenant in politics, is using his position to humble Taft and advance Cortelyou. It is alleged that taking the national convention to Chicago was an anti-Taft move engineered largely by Hitchcock, with the advice and consent of Cortelyou, and that the Taft managers have found it impossible to make any headway in the south because of the activities of Mr. Hitchcock.

Some of Mr. Taft's managers do not hesitate to charge bad faith, and in private conversation, to blame the president for failure of the Taft boom to make the progress that was expected of it. Whether Mr. Taft shares in this resentment there is no way now to determine. The chances are that as soon as he strikes Washington he will have to the White House a heart-to-heart talk with the president, and it is not at all improbable that when he sees Mr. Roosevelt personally he will be able to learn some things which his managers have tried to learn without success.

The opinion that Mr. Roosevelt is about ready to "throw" Taft has been heard frequently of late, but the prevalence of that opinion is by no means general. So well known an authority as Walter Wellman declares the belief that the president will use his utmost endeavor to bring about Taft's nomination; if he cannot succeed in this, Mr. Wellman believes, Mr. Roosevelt will take the nomination himself.

Mr. Cortelyou, as a candidate for the presidency, is in an unfortunate situation in his home state as is Mr. Taft. It would hardly be possible for him to secure a solid delegation from New York, and whatever delegation he got he would have to fight for and fight hard. The friends of Governor Hughes are earnestly pushing his candidacy and as they were early in the field they have corralled a lot of support that might have gone to Cortelyou had he been an avowed or even a receptive candidate.

Several years ago when western farmers used to keep their sons at home by threatening that Wall Street would get them if they didn't look out, some facetiously suggested that stock tickers ought to be placed in the chamber of the United States senate. The joke had wide circulation, for the senate then wasn't in much better repute than Wall Street.

Today the idea of having tickers for both the senate and house is being considered seriously, though it is not proposed they shall have a Wall Street connection. Tickers have been used for several years in the palace of Westminster for the benefit of the British house of commons. There are 676 members of the house of commons.

and it is impossible for them all to be on the floor at the same time, as there are not seats enough for their accommodation. They lounge in the smoking room, in the library, or drink tea on the terrace, and convenient tickers keep them informed as to what is going on in the house. The instruments are very similar to those seen in brokerage offices, except that instead of stock quotations the tickers tell what question is up, who is speaking, etc.

The erection of the new senate and house office buildings has brought home to congress the necessity of some such device, and estimates are now being secured of the cost of installing tickers in every room of both office buildings and also in the committee rooms of the capitol.

The idea of the tickers was suggested by Sir Courtney Herbert, a clerk of the house of commons, who was in Washington and attended the opening of the house. One of the things that struck Sir Courtney was the indifference with which the president's message was received. He pointed out that the speech of the crown, delivered at the opening of the house of commons, is looked upon as the program of the government for that session. Its leaders work to accomplish the purposes set forth in the speech.

"But, in the house of representatives," said Sir Courtney, "what is your message? It is looked upon as an expression of opinion, and your members go about the business of the session and probably forget what the president has suggested to be done by them."

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of this evil is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a 100-page pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

BRITISHER WOULD SHATTER IDOL OF FRANCE

DECLARES JEAN 'D ARC
NEVER DIED AT STAKE

Englishwoman, Duchess of Worcester, Substituted For Her At Last Moment, According to This Man's Version.

(By Henri Dubois.)

Paris, Dec. 15.—The history-book story of Joan of Arc is impeached by d'Arcis Wrigglesworth, an English artist who declares that he can prove that the Maid of Orleans was never burned at the stake at Rouen, but that the Duchess of Worcester suffered in her stead.

Mr. Wrigglesworth claims to be a descendant of the Sieur d'Arcis, mayor of Rouen during the English occupation early in the fifteenth century—the period of Joan's meteoric career. He further declares that treasures belonging to his family are buried under the ancient "Joan of Arc" tower in Rouen, a fact which he has just discovered in some old family papers. He is now seeking permission from the French government to dig for the treasure.

The remarkable statement that La Pucelle was not executed by the English, as described in history, seems analogous with the other theory that the Dauphin (or Louis XVII) did not die in prison, but escaped and was replaced by a deaf mute, and rather more improbable. The story of Joan's trial and execution is so complete and well authenticated that its disproval will demand a weight of testimony which is very unlikely to be unearthed after nearly five centuries.

The incredible story of the Duchess of Worcester being substituted for the maid is vitiated by the fact that no Duchess of Worcester is known to have existed at that period.

ture—the howling of a cow, the bleating of a sheep, the call of a fox, the piping of a blackbird. "And the dog," asked the poet innocently. Fallout imitated a dog, very naturally.

"Ah!" exclaimed M. Rostand, "I know that dog. I have heard his voice too often." Then slipping a four into the amateur barker's paw, he added, "Don't let him bark any more, please, or next time it will be the gendarmes I shall call in."

A "medium" of remarkable power has made his appearance in Paris, and is the talk of the moment in spiritualistic circles. He calls himself Count Albert de Sarrazin.

He recently gave a seance in a Paris drawing room where so many precautions had been taken that trickery was impossible and under the eyes of about forty persons he caused several grains of corn to germinate in a flower-pot full of earth in less than five minutes.

The grains were placed in the pot by a well known military man, it was held by another, and the miracle-worker at no time went within several feet of it.

"La Belle Millardiere," a new novel by J. M. Guenheime and Le Peure, which has just been produced at the Paris Ambigu, contains as its principal character an impossibly loud and vulgar American woman, who is possessed of great wealth.

She is married to the Duc de Prémontal, and she is called Mary. The due and duchesse hate each other cordially, and Mary, for curious reasons, wants to ruin her husband's reputation. In order to effect this she bribes Freville, a personage half-lover and half-villain.

The scheme succeeds; Freville, stricken with remorse, confesses to the due, and the latter after upbraiding his wife, and embracing somebody who isn't his wife, blows out his brains. There is another villain and another pretty girl in the piece, but they do not seem to have much to do with Mary, and altogether the piece is a rather confused rhapsody which is not likely to have a very remarkable success.

When the conclave of a house in the Avenue Malakoff came out the other morning he was astonished to find a man chained up to the outside of the house. The chain was wound around the railing and round his neck and waist, and fastened with a padlock.

A crowd gathered and a locksmith was sent for who cut the chain and released the prisoner. He turned out to be a Persian named Meryssoof, of whom it appeared he had chained himself to the railing and thrown away the key of the padlock in order to draw attention to his grievances since the office of the Persian legation are in the house to the railing of which he made himself a prisoner.

Meryssoof came to Paris from Constantinople to receive medical treatment for a disease of the chest. He applied to the Persian legation for assistance and was placed in a hospital. For the last three months he has been discharged from one place after another and told he must live in a hot climate in order to be cured.

The Persian legation summoned him with the money to go to Persia, but Meryssoof, although he took the money, would not return to his native land. Having spent all his money he went to the legation and chained himself up. The legation authorities have decided again to let him go to Persia, but this time they will see that he gets there.

One more French poet is being driven out of his favorite haunts—the progress of commercialism. Pierre Loti is deserting the Basque country, where he had his beautiful solitary house, the forest of Bidarray, in the neighborhood, is being cut down to feed a tanning factory.

The cascade of the Pas de Roland, a popular sight, is being imprisoned to feed a factory and the little watering place of Hendaye has been bought up by a society which is going to make it a "de-ahead" resort.

M. Pierre Loti was very fond of the region and of the game of pelote Basque which he played there. But he is driven away and must seek poetical inspiration elsewhere.

COMANCHE ASSETS FAR EXCEED THE LIABILITIES

SMELTING COMPANY WILL SOON RESUME OPERATIONS

Copper Gulf Development Company in Big Grant County
Deal; Statehood Meeting in Silver City.

(Special Correspondence Morning Journal.)

Silver City, N. M., Dec. 14.—Acting upon a petition made some time ago, Judge Frank W. Parker has appointed H. E. Ellard temporary receiver of the Comanche Mining and Smelting company. Mr. Ellard is to act as receiver until the creditors can meet and elect a trustee. It is understood that the assets far exceed the liabilities. The company is a small amount and the action was merely a formal proceeding in bankruptcy. As soon as the affairs of the company are settled it is likely that a reorganization will take place and operations will be resumed. The company's gold mines at Pineau Alton are recognized to be of great value and the wise conservative policy of the receiver will give every indication of developing into great copper mines.

What is understood to be one of the biggest mining deals that has ever been undertaken in the Burro mountains is now being consummated, whereby the Copper Gulf Development company will increase its holdings to about sixty claims, thus acquiring about 1,000 acres in the very heart of the rich copper belt of the district.

A statehood meeting, preliminary to the organization of a permanent Grant County league, was held in the city hall Thursday night. J. W. Porterfield was elected chairman, and M. W. Porterfield secretary. The permanent organization will be completed on Monday night.

The quarterly statements of the condition of the Silver City banks at the close of business on December 2 are high testimonials of the wise and conservative business methods of these institutions and they furnish both a guarantee and a proof of sound business conditions and property.

The deposits aggregate $239,575. According to the law this would require a reserve of $44,794, but a majority of the local banks have $100,000 in cash in their vaults, or two and one-half times the legal requirement.

A new well drilled on the Turknell land, south of Artesia, is flowing eight feet and the eight-inch casing has not yet been put in to the surface. It promises to be the most remarkable well in the Artesian belt.

AS WE GROW OLD.
The kidneys need constant help.—Albuquerque's People Depend on Doan's Kidney Pills.

The constant strain of busy life. Wears out the kidneys, and in later years the kidneys cry for help.

Old backs will ache, day in, day out. Urinary ills will add their weight of woe. Until the kidneys have the help they need.

Restore a perfect filtering of the blood. Cure the kidneys when they're sick. Albuquerque people endorse this great remedy.

T. A. Barnett, retired, living at 914 S. Broadway, Albuquerque, N. Mex., says: "My kidneys have been more or less troubled with kidney complaint, the ailment becoming more pronounced than ever about two years ago. Besides having pains in my back and a general weakness extending from my hips down my condition was so that any little exertion would tire me so that I would have to sit down and rest. There was also a too frequent action of the kidney secretions, disturbing my rest as often as ten times a night. At times I had no control at all over the secretions, this being so during the day as well as at night. About a year ago I had the good fortune to learn of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them at the drug store. I can say that no medicine ever afforded me the benefit derived from them. They have spared me a great deal of annoyance and inconvenience and they not only give strength and tone to the kidneys but invigorate me generally."

Millions of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar have been sold without any person ever having experienced any other than beneficial results from its use for coughs, colds and lung troubles. This is because the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Guard your health by refusing any but the genuine. J. H. O'Reilly, Jr.

A Canine Suicide.
"Shep," a highly educated and valuable dog belonging to Otto Lebesch, committed suicide last Saturday at the saw mill. Mr. Lebesch manipulates the lubricators at the mill and while at work Saturday he particularly dangerous position he met with a slight but painful accident which caused him to make a face that would turn a dog's head into a Bill Hicks. The dog, it is thought, seeing the expression of agony on his master's face, concluded that he did not care to live any longer, and forthwith looked his head into a revolving pulley with fatal results. Mr. Lebesch was heard to remark that he would rather have found fifty dollars than lost the dog. —Williams News.

DANGER IN ASKING ADVICE.
When you have a cough or cold do not ask someone what is good for it, as there is danger in taking some unknown preparation. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs, colds and prevents pneumonia. The genuine is in the yellow package. Refuse substitutes. J. H. O'Reilly, Jr.

AS WE GROW OLD.
The kidneys need constant help.—Albuquerque's People Depend on Doan's Kidney Pills.

The constant strain of busy life. Wears out the kidneys, and in later years the kidneys cry for help.

Old backs will ache, day in, day out. Urinary ills will add their weight of woe. Until the kidneys have the help they need.

Restore a perfect filtering of the blood. Cure the kidneys when they're sick. Albuquerque people endorse this great remedy.

T. A. Barnett, retired, living at 914 S. Broadway, Albuquerque, N. Mex., says: "My kidneys have been more or less troubled with kidney complaint, the ailment becoming more pronounced than ever about two years ago. Besides having pains in my back and a general weakness extending from my hips down my condition was so that any little exertion would tire me so that I would have to sit down and rest. There was also a too frequent action of the kidney secretions, disturbing my rest as often as ten times a night. At times I had no control at all over the secretions, this being so during the day as well as at night. About a year ago I had the good fortune to learn of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them at the drug store. I can say that no medicine ever afforded me the benefit derived from them. They have spared me a great deal of annoyance and inconvenience and they not only give strength and tone to the kidneys but invigorate me generally."

AUCTION!

Closing Out Sale
$3,000.00

Worth of groceries consisting of the best products of American and foreign countries, will positively be sold at auction for cash. This is an opportunity that should appeal to all, because we all should eat or—

Mr. C. N. Brigham, the well known grocer, located at 118 South Second street, opposite the First National bank, having other large business interests to look after has determined to dispose of his stock of groceries, horses, delivery wagons, fixtures, etc., at auction. They will go to the highest bidder for cash. If you have any doubts about the above statement, be present at the time below mentioned and watch me hand out goods at whatever price you may choose to bid. Sale begins Wednesday afternoon December 18, at 2 o'clock, and will continue afternoons and evenings until this mammoth stock is disposed of. This is a rare chance for the merchant and housewife to stock up. Nothing will be sold at private sale after sale opens. Store will be closed Monday and Tuesday in order to arrange goods. SCOTT KNIGHT, Auctioneer.

BIIDS WANTED.
Bids will be received at the office of the clerk of the board of county commissioners of Bernalillo county up to 10 o'clock in the forenoon of Monday, January 6th, 1908, at the court house of said county in Albuquerque, for the excavating of a diversion canal through sandbar in bed of the Rio Grande, running northerly from the Bernalillo bridge, said canal to be 400 feet in length and 20 feet wide, total amount of excavation, 400 cubic yards. Said work to be done in accordance with profile and specifications on file with the clerk of said board of county commissioners and to the satisfaction of the county purveyor.

The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of board of county commissioners: A. E. WALKER, Clerk. Dec. 4th, 1907.

Department of the Interior, United States land office, Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 12, 1907.

Notice is hereby given that the following named claimant has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim under sections 16 and 17 of the act of March 2, 1891, (26 Stat., 844), as amended by the act of February 21, 1895 (33 Stat., 420), and that said proof will be made before United States Court Commissioner Albuquerque, N. M., on January 27, 1908, viz: Platonio Chavez de Sanchez for the tracts 1, 2, 3 and 4, sec. 19, 24, 25 and 26, T. 36 N., R. 2 E., S. 10 N.

He names the following witnesses to prove his actual continuous adverse possession of said tract for twenty years next preceding the survey of the township, viz: Manuel Maas, of Valencia, N. M.; Juan Apodaca, of Valencia, N. M.; Juan Sanchez, of Albuquerque, N. M.; Placido Salazar, of Otero, Albuquerque, N. M.

Any person who desires to protest against the allowance of said proof, or who knows of any substantial reason under the laws and regulations of the interior department why said proof should not be allowed will be given an opportunity at the above-named time and place to cross-examine the witnesses of said claimant, and to offer evidence in rebuttal of that submitted by claimant.

BIG BIGG WILL GO ON FIRST TRAIN TO ROSWELL

MANY BUSINESS MEN WANT TO MAKE FIRST TRIP

Arrangements Complete for New Train Service Which Means Close Connection With the Pecos Valley.

From present indications and the expressions heard from a considerable number of business men, the first train to leave Albuquerque on the new Albuquerque-Roswell service over the cut-off will be a veritable Albuquerque junket. The first train on the new schedule will leave this city Wednesday morning and already more than fifty business men have signed their intention of taking the trip. There is a big business waiting for some one along the line of the cut-off, which is directly tributary to Albuquerque, and the Albuquerque business community is not going to be left out of it. It will not be exactly an Albuquerque trade excursion but it will look very much like it. Much of the business of the Pecos valley now goes to Denver and Kansas City, or to Santa Fe and El Paso. The new cut-off service puts Albuquerque jobbers in direct communication with this business and they are going to see about it. When the cut-off was built there were a few timid souls in Albuquerque who predicted dire results as a result of its construction. It is now beginning to be realized that these people were for the most part chronic croakers. For the first service to be established a cut-off is one which cannot all be of greatest importance in the commercial development of this city. It is in fact almost equivalent to having a new railroad built into Albuquerque and the results will be apparent within a very short time.

The time card, tariffs, and other details of the new service are now in print and are expected in Albuquerque tonight. The exact mileage to Roswell is not known here, but over the new route it is about 170 miles. This on the usual Santa Fe mileage rate in New Mexico will make the fare to Albuquerque to Roswell about $12.00.

Every arrangement is being made for the carrying of the comfort of passengers on the Albuquerque-Roswell run. It is understood that the existing Harvey system, although it was not an aging house established on the cut-off as yet, will make arrangements for the serving of lunch on the train, in the form of a buffet provided over by the new buffet. This will make the trip a fast one since there will be no stops for meals and still at the same time make the passengers perfectly comfortable.

The Albuquerque-Roswell run is a preferred one and the older crews of the Rio Grande division will be assigned thereto. For the present it is understood that J. V. Key, construction engineer, will be acting as superintendent of the new division until the position is filled when the Santa Fe takes formal charge of the "Eastern Railway of New Mexico." At that time it is operating and traffic officials will be appointed.

Big Party to Go On Thursday.

Following the trip of the Albuquerque business men on Wednesday night now expected that another irrigation congress expedition will go out over the new line on the following day. Governor Curry is coming to Albuquerque Wednesday night to meet the members of the board of control of which he is a member and it is now being arranged that he shall accompany President Hopewell and a party of irrigation congress members over the new line and into the Pecos valley on Thursday. This will be one of the most important of the irrigation congress trips and a big delegation from the board of control will be urged to go. Governor Curry has been coming to Albuquerque to occupy the new line and has been anxious to go. This will give him the opportunity and at the same time enable him to visit his home in Roswell and to see a number of things in the Pecos valley which have been postponed owing to his inability to get into that section of the territory because of other engagements.

And so the new service on the cut-off is to be inaugurated with something of a flourish and with Albuquerque playing a prominent part in the first business trip over the line. The service will start with full mail and express service.

AGRICULTURAL EXPERTS OFF FOR SOCORRO COUNTY.

Tinsley and Garcia to Give Course of Lectures to Farmers in Southern Valley.

Professor J. D. Tinsley and Prof. Fabian Garcia of the experiment station at Mesilla Park, who have been lecturing on good roads and agricultural matters in Bernalillo county for the past week, left last night for Socorro, where this afternoon they will address a meeting of farmers. From Socorro they will go to Lordsburg, Magdalena, San Marcelino and San Antonio and back to Mesilla Park.

"Our lectures have been very successful from the attendance standpoint, and I firmly believe that the advice we have given on scientific farming, road making and fruit growing will be heeded and followed out by many of the farmers in this county," said Professor Tinsley last night.

Over 200 farmers of old town, Los Griegos, Los Candelarios, Corrales, Alameda, Pajarito, Los Padillas and Alamos heard lectures by the agricultural experts.

NOKICK

It has never been our policy to stick out a few articles "below cost" as a bait, and then "even up" on other articles.

But it is our policy to give the best goods the market affords at the narrowest margin consistent with economical management.
