UNSANCTIFIED UNIONS
DENOUNCED FOR TYRANNY
OPERATORS TO FILE SUIT AGAINST FEDERATION

Reverend Manager of Methodist Publishing House Has Bitter Complaint Against Men Employed by Him.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Cincinnati, Dec. 23.—"The greatest tyranny on earth is the tyranny of an unsanctified union," declared Rev. Dr. Jennings, head of the Western Book concern of the Methodist Episcopal church.
"In some places," said Dr. Jennings, "there is a belief on the part of the workingmen that the church is prejudiced against him. This is not so. This idea has originated largely from the hoarse mouthings of anarchistic agitators and from those who spend $1,000 a year in salaries and not a cent in church. Hardly anything more than such a conception can be expected from those who hold their meetings on Sunday, in saloons, or back of saloons.
"The wage question has been crowded to the limit," Dr. Jennings declared. "If these things keep on much further the breaking point will certainly be reached.
"Why brethren I could tell you things that have happened right in this book concern within the last few months that would open your eyes. The Saturday afternoon's work is not half so hard on the working men as his Sunday night carousal. I tell you right now that things are being crowded too hard to this country. There has got to be a limit.
"If the workingman does not go to church it is because he has no money. He does not want to go to church. I don't see that he goes to church any more when he gets his Saturday half holiday for recreation than he does when he has to work all day Saturday. It is the whiskey bill that he working man pays that is his ruin."

FOOTBALL PLAYERS PROVE HEROES

Men Imprisoned in Railroad Wreck Saved From Death by Plucky College Students.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Dec. 23.—St. Louis University's football athletes made heroes of themselves here tonight by saving men who were arrested on their way to the coast, twenty minutes after a head-on collision between two freight trains. The engine crews and trainmen were under great stress and strain, and the rescue was accomplished by the plucky football players.

Medical student members of the team set to work to rescue the victims, and materially aided, though working against escaping steam, in saving life and limb. They operated on three of the injured trainmen. Brakeman Orndorff was crushed to death and fireman Charles Van Y and G. McKinnon were so badly injured that they may die.
The wreck was caused by the failure of the operator at Brockton to deliver orders, who afterwards fled.

Californian Killed as Result of Drunken Wager That Friend Couldn't Shot His Hat Off.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Imperial, Cal., Dec. 22.—"I bet you can't shoot my hat off," exclaimed E. O. Sturgis to his companion, Jim Owens at breakfast last night. Owens took the bet and as the latter stood with a heavy caliber pistol in his hand. The two men, who were drinking, Owens took deliberate aim at his friend's hat and fired at a distance of six feet.
With the flash of the pistol Sturgis' brains splattered the wall and he fell dead, the bullet having torn away the whole top of his head. Owens fell upon his friend's body and wept hysterically. He was taken into custody.

FIVE WORKMEN KILLED IN TUNNEL

PECULIAR ACCIDENT IN PARIS SUBWAY

Explosion of Compressed Air Hurls Laborers Against Concrete Wall Causing Instant Death; River floods Workings

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Paris, Dec. 23.—Five persons were killed tonight in an explosion of compressed air in the uncompleted Metropolitan subway tunnel under the river Seine near Notre Dame. The accident was caused by a sudden sinking of a caisson fifty feet below the surface of the water which forced out of position one of the great head shields. The resulting rush of air suddenly released hurled five of the workmen against the concrete wall and killed them outright. The men in other sections of the works became panic stricken and a mad fight for the ladder to the exit ensued in the darkness, but all got out in safety. The river is flooding the workings, causing the earth to fall in many places throughout the night. The explosion wrecked the pumping apparatus and a fire engine was hastily installed, but was unable to check the rising water in the tunnel.

ROOSEVELT ALONE CAN SAVE NATION

According to Tom Lawson Who Comes Out Strong For Third Term For President.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Boston, Dec. 23.—Thomas W. Lawson, tonight asserted that President Roosevelt's election is necessary to save the country from disaster and that any other republican or even William J. Bryan would be so satisfactory to New York financial interests that they would not believe it either or both parties through the campaign to any extent necessary.
Mr. Lawson adds that Mr. Bryan is "clean, honest and unrepentable," but that the money power believes it "desirable" to have him as president, "because he is the only one who is willing to show the world his helplessness in handling and controlling a situation, which has almost stamped President Roosevelt to hand and control."

REUNION OF SEPOY VETERANS

Men Who Saved Indian Empire for Great Britain Gather in London.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
London, Dec. 23.—The remnants of that "desperate host," as Kipling described the veterans of the Indian mutiny, gathered this afternoon in Albert hall to commemorate the golden jubilee of the struggle which ended in the Indian empire being saved to Great Britain.
On the pension roll in the war of 1857 are the names of 1,200 survivors of the mutiny, to each of whom an invitation was sent for the re-union. The old age prevented many from attending. Those who could travel, including officers and men, came from every corner of the United Kingdom, and with brasses covered with medals they made a brave showing as they drew up outside the hall to be reviewed by Lord Roberts.

HEARST APOLOGIZES TO CHANLER

Acknowledgement of Error May Result in Withdrawal of Libel Charge Against New York Newspapers.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Dec. 23.—The publication today in the New York American and Evening Journal in October, in connection with William Astor Chanler with the case of Raymond Hitchcock, may result in the abandonment of the criminal libel proceedings instituted by Mr. Chanler against W. R. Hearst.
Mr. Chanler's attorney said: "The retraction is so thorough and so complete a vindication of my client I don't believe Mr. Chanler will press the libel. The acknowledgment of error expressed by Mr. Hearst in today's retraction leaves little to be gained by urging the matter before the grand jury."
Hugo Voceks, brother of Elsie Voceks, in whose behalf charges were brought against Raymond Hitchcock, could not suit plead guilty to an indictment in extortion today and will be sentenced tomorrow. Voceks is accused of obtaining $1,000 from Hitchcock for keeping quiet concerning the charges against the actor.

WILL ALBUQUERQUE GO OUT AND CAPTURE THE NEW TRADE TERRITORY OF THE CUT-OFF

A Splendid Country Developing With Lightning Like Rapidity Lying At Gates of This City and Merely Waiting For the Invitation to Come Here With Their Business and Their Money.

TIME FOR COMMERCIAL CLUB TO SEND TRADE EXCURSION TO NEW COUNTRY IS RIGHT NOW

Some Expressions From the Citizens and Business Men Who Have Seen the New Territory and Who Realize What Is to Be Accomplished By Prompt and Vigorous Action By the Proper Authorities.

Right at the door of Albuquerque is a virgin trade territory, just now developing so rapidly that it is absolutely impossible to realize the lightning-like rapidity of that development without going to see it. It is a territory which, within a year is going to grow into a prosperous farming country and in five years into one of the greatest and most prosperous farming districts in the world. It will be the equal and very probably the superior of western Kansas. It will support a population literally of hundreds of thousands of people and the population is coming.

Will Albuquerque go out and get this territory? Is the Commercial club going to get busy and send a trade excursion into the new territory?

nts of a trade excursion into the new country.

"You may quote me," said Mr. Luna, "as being strongly in favor of such an excursion. This new territory is developing very rapidly. It is bound to develop, for it has the land, the water and the people. It is rightly belongs to Albuquerque, and if we do not go out and get it, it is our own fault. It will not only mean more business for us from a new country, but it will teach us something of what we can and should be doing here at home in our own valley. The trade excursion should be organized by the Commercial club at once and it should carry the strongest delegation of business men ever sent out of Albuquerque."

"I am for the trade excursion," said J. H. O'Reilly, manager of the Occidental Life Insurance company, "and there should be no delay in arranging it, for immediately after the holiday season. This new country is Albuquerque territory. If Albuquerque claims it, otherwise it will go elsewhere. The time to do the thing is now and we should not hesitate."

"I am pretty busy," said O. J. Mason, "but I want to go with an excursion. It is the right thing to do, the only sensible thing to do, and it will do it. We are dead ones. I will be very glad to be one of the business men to go on such an excursion."

It would be possible to go on such business men for several columns. They all agree that the time to act has come and that the trade excursion is the thing. They also agree that the Commercial club is the organization through which to work, which can arrange for the service, fares and schedule and which can manage the important matter of publicity. It is a matter which seems to have awakened some enthusiasm among the men to whom it has been presented. It remains for the club to put it through.

INJUNCTION AGAINST AMERICAN FEDERATION

Labor Organization Must Remove Name of Store Company From "We Don't Patronize" List.

Washington, Dec. 22.—The temporary injunction granted by Justice Gould, of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, last Wednesday against the American Federation of Labor at the instance of the Buck Store and Range company, of St. Louis, became effective today.

By terms of the undertaking the Buck Store company and a surety company undertake to make good to the defendants all damage by them suffered or sustained by reasons of wrongful and inequitable going out of the injunction.

Until the final hearing the federation is restrained from publishing the name of the Buck company on "The Union Don't Patronize" list, and from enforcing any boycott against the company or against any third person because the latter fails to discontinue purchase of the product of the company.

Notwithstanding the fact that the restraining order is in full force and effect, the January number of the Federationist, the official organ of the American Federation of Labor, issued today prints the name of the company in the "we don't patronize" list. No comment whatever is made in the journal upon the court's ruling.

CRUSHED BETWEEN LOCOMOTIVE AND THE WALL

Harry Mallette Painfully, But Not Seriously Injured in Roundhouse Accident Which Might Have Been Fatal.

Harry Mallette, son of J. W. Mallette, has been working as hostler's helper. He was standing at the door of the roundhouse talking to some one and started to cross the track when one of the big 1600-class de-capped locomotives which he failed to observe backed noisily into the roundhouse. Mallette was pressed against the door by the tender of the engine and dragged along for several feet between the engine and the wall of the roundhouse. He was badly bruised all over his body, face, legs and arms, and it is possible he is internally injured. It is a wonder he was not killed. Mallette was taken to the Santa Fe hospital, where he fainted from pain, but was reported fairly comfortable late last night.

H. C. Herby, for the last seven months chief clerk to Master Mechanic E. H. Harlow here, has resigned to accept a position in the operating department of the Eastern Railway of New Mexico in January. Mr. Herby, before coming here, was chief clerk to Mr. Harlow at Point Richmond, Cal., and also chief clerk at Winslow, Ariz. On account of his health he is compelled to quit the clerical department for the operating. S. E. Vezelich, head timekeeper at Point Richmond, Cal., has been chosen a successor to Mr. Herby.

M. W. Garwood, superintendent of the Pecos Valley lines of the Santa Fe, spent Sunday in the city as the guest of General Agent Purdy. He left yesterday morning on delayed No. 9 for El Paso to spend the holidays.

R. M. Shoemaker, operator at the shops, has returned from an extended trip to California. Miss Sykes, who has been taking care of his position, returns to Chambers, Ariz., her home, for Christmas, after which she will return to Albuquerque.

The California limited arrived here yesterday at 12:50 o'clock, leaving at 1:10 o'clock, thirty minutes late in arriving and ten minutes late in departing.

The Santa Fe railway has announced that the wire chiefs employed at its relay stations will be given an unusual vacation of two weeks with pay, taking effect January 1, 1908. This will effect the three wire chiefs here, Messrs. Douglass, Leach and Ray. The chiefs at Las Vegas, La. and Taos will be benefited by the order.

HUNDRED ANTELOPE IN A BUNCH ON THE CUT-OFF

Remarkable Sight Witnessed by Members of Governor's Party; Hunting Season Has Been a Good One.

Two bands of antelope, numbering fully a hundred were seen about 200 yards from the Santa Fe tracks on the cut-off between Willard and Vaughn on Sunday by several members of the governor's party. In the return trip from the Pecos valley, Capt. Clark M. Carr and the other Albuquerque members of the party all saw the antelope plainly. This is probably the first time in years so many of the deer animals of the plains have been seen in a bunch although twenty-five years ago they were often seen in thousands. The game law as affecting antelope stringent, but it is strange nevertheless that herds as large as this one should have survived the hunters.

Antelopes are numerous down on the San Augustine plains in Socorro county and elsewhere in the less thickly settled portions, but a herd of a hundred is considerable of a rarity anywhere in the territory.

A Good Hunting Season.

The hunting season just closing has been a splendid one. Game has been abundant and scores of Albuquerque hunters have been out with shot gun and rifle during the past two months. Wild turkey in the mountains have been unusually plentiful, deer have abounded and smaller game have been numerous. The fact that deer have been increasing in numbers is evidenced by the fact that he band of Indians recently arrested in Socorro county killed one hundred and twenty deer in a few days in one small section of the San Mateo mountains.

The game warden and officers are taking every precaution to see that a repetition of this outrageous slaughter does not occur.

Sam Picard and Dr. E. J. Alger have returned from a brief hunting trip in the valley near Bernalillo. Roy Corhan returned yesterday from a hunting expedition to Algodones and the Tongue valley where he bagged a number of turkeys and rabbits.

R. E. Putney and W. Y. Walton are back from a hunting trip of several weeks in the Jemez mountains, securing four fat wild turkeys among other trophies of the chase. They report plenty of game in the Jemez country.

Two or three parties have returned to the city in the last few days from Mount Taylor and vicinity where the hunting is evidently good judging by the results brought back.

A boy with a shot gun was seen returning to the city across the Bernalillo bridge recently with an immense raccoon which he shot between here and Pajarito. The coon is scarce in this country and the pelt of this one was one of the handsomest ever seen.

ALBUQUERQUE - - - - - NEW MEXICO

A VERY SERIOUS MATTER.

A very unwelcome sort of Christmas present comes to the people of New Mexico in the form of a report from Washington to the effect that the nomination of Governor Curry has been held up by the senate on account of a protest accompanied by charges more or less serious, filed against him, with the committee, by persons whose names are not given.

At this writing we are ignorant of the character of the charges that are said to have been filed against the governor, and by whom they may have been filed. It is a well known fact that during nearly all the years of his mayoralty he has lived upon the frontier. It has been his fate during the most of that time to be obliged to meet many of the roughest and hardest features of frontier life, and it is not impossible, nor even improbable, that at times circumstances may have forced him into positions which, under a different environment would not have been excusable—and it is easily possible that the same might have been said of the best of us had we been subjected to the same environment. But Mr. Curry has been before the public ever since the close of the Spanish war, and so far as we know has never been found any flaw in his record. It is matter of history that during the years of his service in the Philippines he discharged his duty faithfully, energetically and to the best interest of the government and also of the people among whom he served. And it is a fact known to all the people of New Mexico that during the time that he has been governor he has devoted himself earnestly, honestly and faithfully to the best interests of the people of the territory. It is possible that he may not have accomplished as much as some men with more experience might have accomplished—though we are unable to see how or wherein they one could have done more—and it is no more than simple justice to him to say that he has discharged the duties pertaining to his office faithfully, to the utmost of his ability.

This territory has already suffered sufficiently from trumped up charges against its public officials. One has but to turn to the case of Mr. Hagerman, for instance. There could have been no worse blunder and no greater blow to the cause of good government in this territory than the summary removal of Mr. Hagerman on false charges. But Governor Curry was not responsible for the light on Mr. Hagerman in any way. The removal of the removal of Mr. Hagerman has been an embarrassment and a handicap on his administration under which he has had to labor as best he could. If there is anything in his record since he became governor of New Mexico which may subject Governor Curry to just criticism, well and good. But if this is a matter of raising up ancient history it would be well for the people who are doing the raising, and for the territory if it is dropped forthwith.

THE PLEASURE OF GIVING.

We have it upon indisputable authority that it is more blessed to give than to receive, but a New York exchange, in an interesting essay upon the joys of the Yuletide festival calls our attention to the fact that the pleasure of giving depends very largely upon the exercise of a sound discretion in the matter. Among all the things going on in the world at this time, nothing is quite so interesting and important to the average person as the purchase of Christmas presents. More men and women are thinking of Christmas gifts than of anything else in the wide world. They are not worrying about the gifts they may receive, but about those they will be able to send.

Christmas is always pictured as the most beautiful and cheering festival in the world. It is the day of remembrance. It brings back the old and long ago. It is the once-a-year link with the distant home scenes for the legion of Americans wandering afar. It brings up the memories of the storied past as no other day in all the days.

And that is well! That is beautiful! But, in another way, Christmas is the most painful period of the year for thousands. Its painfulness consists in the weakness of human nature giving away to the really selfish impulse of making a show in the giving of gifts. It is not that the gift is sent in the fullness of heart, but in bitterness of heart because of depleted purse. The Christmas purchases often are actuated by the selfish purpose of exhibiting, in the lavishment of the token, the unimpaired generosity of the donor.

Thousands and thousands go practically into bankruptcies at Christmas. The glow of sending handsome and costly gifts is followed by the inevitable bitter aftermath of reckless expenditure.

At no time in the year are common sense and moral courage more needed than at Yuletide. In the first place, it is naturally a children's holiday. Does your friend have children? Then buy presents for the children, and the gladdening of their hearts will gladden their parents' hearts.

In the next place, it is the thoughtfulness rather than the cost of the gift. Thoughtful selection is more appreciated than a lavishment of cost laying a burden of indebtedness upon the recipient. Costly, useless things are one of the ironies of the day. Thoughtful, minor things are one of its joys.

The first thing to do is to think. And the first thing to think of is how much you can afford to spend. The next thing to think of is what your friends would appreciate within the limits of a thoughtful division of your means.

If you can't think of a pleasing and suitable gift for the person you have in mind, it is evidence that you do not know that person well enough to send anything.

UNCLE SAM AS SANTA CLAUS.

It is a mighty good thing for the young American stocking-hanger says the New York American, that this is a big country, and most prodigiously rich. Otherwise he'd wake up to a lean and lousy Christmas morning, after what the White Star liner Oceanic took away from him across seas a few days ago.

What the Oceanic took was $1,192,442.25 in money orders, all bound to Noah's ark and popcorn balls for little Oafs and Giovanni, Karl, Pats and Algonz in the countries where Santa Claus is spelled "P. S. A."

When somebody stops to consider also that the foreign born friends in our midst have previously sent away $4,174,319.61 this month to help make European holidays, the great American stocking-hanger will likewise begin to wonder if he hadn't better look to the condition of his holiday along about this time.

The number of postal orders that went out in the Oceanic's mail bags was 85,197. Assuming that each order will do Christmas for a family of three or four, the postmaster computes that at least 250,000 separate and distinct Santa Clauses were shipped to foreign parts in that vessel. He figured by the same token that more than a million have been dispatched this month. All of which must make Lapland's claim to the birthplace of Kris Kringle about as feeble as feebleness can be.

No other ship at any other time ever carried so much Christmas out of the United States by several tens of thousands of dollars. Postmaster Morgan says it is the finest proof he ever saw of the boundless prosperity of the United States. He says the golden export doesn't worry the great American stocking-hanger in the least, because if so many of our foreign born can send so many millions abroad there must be millions more in proportion for the American born boys and girls to eat up at home. And the rising generation of Albuquerque will be prepared to testify tomorrow morning that the New York postmaster sized up the situation correctly.

ARE WE A NATION?

The question, is this a nation, or merely a loose aggregation of independent states, was raised at the time the federal government was formed, and some of us, who took part in the consideration of that question, in the court of last resort, nearly half a century ago, have since been laying the flustering question to our souls that we settled it. And so we did, for a time, but it doesn't settle—it persists in turning up again—and though no state has since gone to the extreme of packing its baggage with the purpose of walking out of the union, several of them have taken, or are seriously considering, action almost as radical as secession, and fully as inimical to our national authority and national unity.

Action already taken by some of the states—especially some states in the south—in the way of interfering with interstate commerce, serves to make the question referred to one of immediate and vital importance. If we are a nation we certainly have the power to prevent our national mails from being interfered with by a state or any other subordinate power within the national limits.

Oklahoma, a state not yet out of its swaddling clothes, proposes to go further in the way of legislation leading to national chaos than any of the other states have dared to go, and one of the projects it now has under consideration is a measure to exempt all railroads to run a special train when a regular one is more than seven hours late. Suppose such trains could not be sent out without interfering with interstate commerce?

Another and more ingenious proposal is to circumvent federal authority by requiring all railroads to construct depots at the line for the rechecking of baggage and the purchase of new tickets. This is intended to affect all trains crossing the state line, but would it be held legal? The theory that such a system would retard is obvious; can interstate traffic be thus hampered?

Only a few weeks ago the federal supreme court decided in a South Carolina case, that an order of a state commission to a railroad to stop its fast mail interstate commerce trains at certain stations on flag signals from citizens was invalid as an interference with interstate commerce. This decision is in line with one rendered several years ago—and regarded at the time as very extreme—and shows that the court had no occasion to change its view on the question whether a state law or order requiring interstate trains to stop at certain places is an intended encroachment upon the power of congress to regulate interstate commerce.

No one will be surprised at the court's adherence to the precedent referred to; rather would an effort to modify or qualify it have appeared surprising and out of harmony with the trend of thought and practice in the last several years. It is as certain as anything can be in social and legal affairs that the courts will be forced to extend the doctrine of interstate commerce further and further and hold that many things which the states now do are improper as encroaching regulation and invasion of the field of interstate commerce.

There must inevitably be uniform control a interstate commerce, and the national government is the only power that can exercise such control. The idea of subjecting the vast interstate commerce of this great country to the wild and anarchistic notions of any collection of cranks that might happen to get control of the state legislature, is utterly preposterous. It would lead to commercial chaos throughout the length and breadth of the land, and would work the commercial ruin of the very states responsible for it.

KIND WORDS COST NOTHING.

What is one man's meat is another man's poison. The bustle of Christmas preparation is a pleasurable activity to the most of us, but a few—some burden to thousands of official and unofficial public servants, upon whom falls the task of assisting in the selection and delivery of holiday gifts—Philadelphia Record.

You, and we may lighten this burden very much with no cost to ourselves. A smile and pleasant word will go a long way toward making a happy Christmas for those who serve us. We should remember this when inclined to be overbearing with the saleswoman, the letter carrier, the expressman and all other who toll for us in these pre-Christmas days that we may have a good time on the joyous anniversary—New York Herald.

JAPAN IS FRIENDLY.

What could better illustrate the friendly feelings of Japan toward this country, and the folly of the "yellow" stories about that country seeking war with us, than is given by the following dispatches received by the New York World from two of the most prominent men of the Japanese empire. Prince Ito is the leader of the constitutional, or conservative party in Japan, which is now in power, and Count Okuma is the leader of the progressive party, which is by far the strongest party in opposition. The cablegrams speak for themselves.

The World Newspaper, New York: Japanese nation watches with friendly interest voyage of great American fleet, hoping that it may visit Japan, where cordial reception will prove ability of foolish rumors of Japanese animosity and distrust. PRINCE ITO.

WILL UNCLE SAM RETRENCH?

The president in his message, and members of the cabinet in their reports, all favor appropriations by congress largely in excess of those made by the last congress. But Congressman Tawney, chairman of the house committee on appropriations, announces that the revenues for current year will be less than estimated, and that the revised estimates of receipts and disbursements, on the basis of existing law, for the next fiscal year, for which the present session of congress must provide, show a deficit of about $13,000,000. Chairman Tawney therefore declares that it will not be possible for any new work whatever unless at the same time it increases taxation to provide for it, which he probably assumes that congress will not do. On the contrary, he seems to intimate that there must be curtailment in some present objects of expenditure.

Government ownership enthusiasts will look against the tremendous political pull which the appointment of a few minor postmasters is supposed to exercise.

Railway. The new City of Belen is thirty-one miles south of Albuquerque, N. M.; is at the junction of the main line of the Santa Fe system—leading East and West from Galveston and Chicago to San Francisco and Los Angeles, from the Northern states to El Paso, Texas, and the Republic of Mexico.

Are the owners of the Belen Townsite, consisting of 1000 business and residence lots, size 25x142 feet, fronting upon eighty and ninety-foot streets and avenues, right in the business center of the new city and directly upon the Santa Fe Railway depot grounds. The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company is now grading its extensive depot grounds and yard limits 800 feet wide and a mile long (capacity of seventy miles of side track) to accommodate its immense passenger and freight traffic, Harvey eating house, roundhouse, coal chutes, water tanks, machine shops, etc.

Belen Patent Roller Mills with its 150 barrels a day capacity, winery, etc. It is the largest shipping point for Flour, Wool, Wheat, Wine, Beans, Hay and Fruit in New Mexico. From its location upon the great trunk line leading north, south, east and west, to all points in the United States and Mexico its future growth as a commercial point can not be estimated. All fast limited, mail, express and freight trains will pass through Belen to Chicago, Kansas City, Galveston and the Pacific Coast. The water is good and the climate unsurpassed.

FROM THE PINE WOODS.

Hymel's Aromatic Air is Guaranteed To Cure Catarrh or Cough Nothing.

When using the Hymel treatment the air you breathe is like that on the mountains high above sea level where the pine woods fill the air with aromatic healing that gives health and strength to those suffering from diseases of the respiratory organs.

Breathed through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, the healing balsams of Hymel reach the most remote air cells of the throat, nose and lungs, destroying all catarrhal germs and giving quick relief and cure.

Hymel has performed almost miraculous cures of catarrh, often restoring health in chronic cases that had given up all hope of recovery. Its best action is at the start of the disease, when the breath is becoming offensive and when discharges from the nose, droppings in the throat and frequent sneezing or spasmodic coughing begin to make life a burden.

At the first attack of catarrh, or if you are troubled with catarrh, use Hymel and you will quickly get relief and cure.

The complete outfit costs but $1.00 and is sold by the J. H. O'Reilly Co. under guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

MANY PEOPLE ARE VACCINATED

City Physician Reports Only One More Case of Smallpox to Date But Expects to Hear of a Few More.

More than two hundred people have been vaccinated in the city since the first news of smallpox cases and the anti-toxin needle is almost as popular as the bargain counter. This week, "Razzy" effect is being made to stop the disease," said City Physician Dr. H. H. Carns yesterday, "but it is natural that a few more cases should be reported. We have received many telephone calls to investigate supposed cases, but only one real case was discovered today, that of a brakeman residing in a rooming house on South Third street. The four men now in the detention tents are getting along nicely and they will be discharged next week."

THE STOLEN HORSE.

An Old Proverb With a New Application.

The woods are full of, so-called, remedies for Baldness.

You may call anything in creation a remedy, but to use them is like locking the stable after the horse is stolen.

Baldness and Dandruff are caused by a germ—if you don't kill the germ, the germ will kill the hair.

Scientists have labored with the problem of a preventative for Baldness for many years.

Newbro's Herpicide is the product of a modern idea, and will cure Dandruff and prevent Baldness because germs cannot exist when you apply Herpicide.

Herpicide is a valuable hair dressing and scalp disinfectant as well as a cure for Dandruff.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide company, Detroit, Mich. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. R. H. Briggs and company, special agents.
