BRIEF WIRINGS.

Bribe Scheme O. K.
NEW YORK, April 15.—The organization committee of the Richmond terminal states that the reorganization scheme is now a success.

Killed Over a Kiss.
WHEELING, W. Va., April 15.—Wm. Miller, who killed his young wife eight days ago because she refused to kiss him, has been captured.

McAuliffe Dying.
HOT SPRINGS, Ark., April 15.—Jack McAuliffe, the celebrated light weight pugilist, is dying, both lungs being gone with quick consumption.

National Banks.
WASHINGTON, April 15.—The senate today passed the bill for the better control of and the promotion of the safety of national banks. The bill was passed by the house a few weeks ago, with amendments.

In the Frigid North.
BROWN VALLEY, Minn., April 15.—Norton today is the time appointed by the proclamation of President Harrison for the opening of settlement of the unallotted land of the Sisseton and Wahpeton reservation in North and South Dakota, better known as the Lake Traverse reservation. The lands aggregate 574,257 acres.

A Million a Month.
CHICAGO, April 15.—Another installment of $1,000,000 on the capital stock of the World's Fair is payable today. This is the fourth installment of 20 per cent each that the subscribers have been called upon to pay, and is needed to complete the buildings next October. The money is pouring out of the treasury at the rate of $1,000,000 a month.

Cherokee Strip to be Opened.
GUTHRIE, O. T., April 15.—Secretary Noble has ordered the special agents of the government to ward all citizens, settlers and Indians off the Cherokee strip. The president's orders regarding cattle in the strip will be rigidly enforced, and any cattle found there will be confiscated by the government. This indicates that the government contemplates a speedy opening of the strip to settlement.

Buckskin Joe in Prison.
MENARD, April 15.—Joseph Greener, alias Buckskin Joe, forty years a frontiersman, was sentenced to the state penitentiary yesterday to serve one year for an assault on a woman. Greener was the conventional western sombrero and his gray locks reached below his shoulders. He is 55 years old.

Stolen Ballot Box.
THOR, N. Y., April 15.—The ballot boxes of the 4th ward of Cohoes, which were taken to the police station yesterday, are still there, but Henry A. Strong, Republican, is in custody. The 4th ward being Republican, would increase his majority. The seizure of the boxes arose out of the fact that much money was bet on rival Democratic candidates, and one faction sought to prevent the other which had control of the ballot boxes from tampering with its count.

A Fight To-night.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 15.—Tommy White, the well known featherweight, and Ike Weir, the "Belmont Spider," and one of the late has made his residence in Boston, will come together to-night before the Hennepin club in a ten-round contest for a good sized purse. The Spider, who was at one time considered quite invincible in his class, is yet a first-class man, and is expected to give his opponent a rattling time of it. White, who has been training at Lake Harriet, proposes to make the engagement the effort of his life. Should he win he will be matched against Harry Jones for a big purse of $5,000.

"German Syrup"

The majority of well-read physicians now believe that Consumption is a germ disease. In other words, instead of being in the constitution itself it is caused by innumerable small creatures living in the lungs having no business there and eating them away as caterpillars do the leaves of trees.
A Germ Disease. The phlegm that is coughed up is those parts of the lungs which have been gnawed off and destroyed. These little bacilli, as the germs are called, are too small to be seen with the naked eye, but they are very much alive just the same, and enter the body in our food, in the air we breathe, and through the pores of the skin. Thence they get into the blood and finally arrive at the lungs where they fasten and increase with frightful rapidity. Then German Syrup comes in, loosens them, kills them, expels them, heals the places they leave, and so nourish and soothe that, in a short time consumption becomes germ-proof and well.

NEW MEXICO REPUBLICANS.

Full Proceedings of the Convention to Name Six Delegates to the Presidential Convention.

Mon. T. R. Catron Heads the List.
Resolutions on Silver, Wool and Satchel—The Delegates.

Special to the New Mexican.

SILVER CITY, April 15.—In the Republican territorial convention, held for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent New Mexico at the presidential nominating convention in Minneapolis, the reports of the committees on credentials, permanent organizations and resolutions were submitted at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and adopted. The permanent organization was as follows:

For Permanent Chairman—J. Francisco Chavez, of Valencia county.
Vice Presidents—Thos. Hughes, of Bernalillo; W. P. Prager, of Chavez; T. W. Collier, of Colfax; J. D. Ball, Grant; T. W. Heman, Lincoln; Serapio Romero, Mora; T. D. Burns, Rio Arriba; M. C. De Baca, San Miguel; L. A. Hughes, Santa Fe; F. W. Parker, Sierra; J. A. Whitmore, Socorro; Roman A. Baca, Valencia.

Permanent Secretary—A. B. Laird, of Grant county.
Platform Interpreter—Max Luna, of floor interpreters, W. E. Martin, of Eddy, and M. F. Sosa, of Valencia.

The report of the committee on resolutions was submitted by the chairman of the committee, T. B. Catron. It strongly endorses the administration of President Harrison and commends him for re-nomination. It commends the appointment of S. B. Elkins as secretary of war; endorses the territorial administration, especially commending the official conduct of Secretary B. M. Thomas.

The McKinley act and reciprocity are cordially approved, and the attempt at free wool legislation by the Democrats of the house is condemned, and declared to be a stroke leveled directly at the best interests of New Mexico.

On the subject of silver the resolutions declare:

"We believe in a bimetallic currency, composed of gold and silver, fixed at such a standard as will be just to both metals. We believe in the free coinage of gold and silver with such safeguards placed thereon as will best protect every individual interest and industry of the United States."

The resolutions then condemn the Democratic party for its course on the silver question, and recommend the action of the administration to secure an international money conference. The resolutions insist that New Mexico should be admitted to statehood; denounce the alien law and recommend that the alien lands should be ceded to the states and territories, and also, on motion of W. H. H. Llewellyn, condemn the methods and actions of Major Powell.

The committee on credentials made a supplementary report admitting Jose Julio Vigil as a delegate from Taos county, with seven votes; Alonzo Lacy, as a delegate from Eddy county, one proxy to M. C. de Box, of San Miguel, and one proxy to T. W. Collier, of Colfax.

The alleged abduction of Jose Julio Vigil, of Taos, was then discussed. Mr. Fiske being given the privilege of a personal explanation, and Mr. Catron emphatically denying Vigil's charge.

W. H. H. Llewellyn, of Dona Ana county, then moved the appointment of six delegates and six alternates to represent New Mexico at the Minneapolis convention, and the following were selected:

Delegates—Thos. B. Catron, of Santa Fe county; John D. Ball, of Grant county; Nicholas Galles, of Sierra county; Roman A. Baca, of Valencia county; Tranquillo Luna, of Valencia county; Miguel A. Otero, of San Miguel county.

Alternates—John H. Riley, of Dona Ana county; Thos. D. Burns, of Rio Arriba county; Juan Santistevan, of Taos county; M. W. Mills, of Colfax county; W. A. Hawkins, of Eddy county, and Juan Navarro, of Mora county.

Out of a total vote of 101 Mr. Catron was elected on the first ballot by a vote of 62 to 39, and the remaining delegates were elected by acclamation.

The following was adopted and convention adjourned amid the utmost good humor:

Resolved, That the magnificent reception and entertainment of the members of this convention by the people of Silver City demonstrates that, placing the secret of its success wholly above all partisan considerations, they are imbued with a true spirit of American manhood which excites our admiration and respect; that we tend to his honor, the mayor, and thank him for the good people of Silver City, our most hearty and grateful thanks for their unbiased hospitality.

Army Notes.
2d Lieut. Samuel D. Rockenbach, 10th cavalry, is relieved from further duty at Fort Bayard and will proceed to Fort Apache, and report for duty with troop H, 10th cavalry.

By authority of the major general commanding the army, the commanding officer Fort Wingate will grant to Private Frank C. Olsen, troop H, 2d cavalry, a furlough for four months.

Six Lieut. Frank Green, signal corps, chief signal officer of the department, will proceed to Deming and such other points in the department as may be necessary to carry out recent instructions given him in connection with the construction of military telegraph line from Deming south to international boundary line.

SHOOTING STARS.

A Year With Dolly.

We went for a promenade to-day, My Dolly and I together;

The sun came out and, I'm sorry to say, We were April-froled by the weather;

For while we walked to the end of the lane, The clouds were quietly slipping

Over the sky, and they poured the rain. Until we were cold and dripping.

Mamma was ready to change my clothes And set poor dolly a-drying;

But the drops ran down her cheeks and nose Till it seemed as if she were crying;

And her feet were wet and her hair was down And it nearly ruined her nicest gown

And her delicate was complexion.

—By Eudora S. Dunstead in St. Nicholas.

Sleep on Left Side.

Many persons are unable to sleep on their left side. The cause has long been a puzzle to physicians. Metropolitan Bedders speak with great interest of Dr. Franklin Miles, the eminent Indiana specialist on nervous and heart diseases, who has proven that this habit arises from a diseased heart. He has examined and kept on record thousands of cases. His New Heart Cure, a wonderful remedy, is sold at A. C. Ireland, Jr.'s, Thousands testify to its value as a cure for heart disease. Mrs. Chas. Benoy, Loveland, Colo., says its effects on her were marvelous. Elegant book on heart diseases free.

Fishing Worms.

Now fishermen will soon begin Their cans with worms to fill But then the bait they'll mostly take Are worms about the still.

The Good Time Coming.

Adown the lowering winter air A whisper comes of spring, And in the hush the busy bee Is whetting up his sting.

A Mute Recovers Speech.

Alphonse Hemphing, of Summit township, Butler Co., Pa., made an affidavit that his 12-year-old son, who had had St. Vitus Dance for twelve years, lost his speech, was completely cured after using three bottles of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve, and also recovered his speech. Thousands testify to wonderful cures from using it for nervous diseases, dyspepsia, nervous debility, dullness, confusion of mind, headache, etc. Four doses of this Nervine cured Mrs. W. E. Burns, South Bend, Ind., who had been suffering with a constant headache for three months. Trial bottle and elegant book free at A. C. Ireland, Jr.'s.

Blood Purifier.

Hicks—I may be a pebelean in this world, but, in the next I hope to be a pure blood patrician.

Mrs. Hicks—I don't know why you shouldn't; sulphur is beneficial.

Miles' Nerve & Liver Pills.

Act on a new principle, regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequalled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses, 25 cts. Samples free at A. C. Ireland, Jr.'s.

His Proper Sphere.

Author—Mary, I have made a mistake in my calling; I'm not an author, but a born chemist.

Author's wife—What makes you think that, Horace?

Author—Well every book I write becomes a drug in the market.—Puck.

Not Above Par.

Been pretty well this winter? inquired a West 46th street, young man of a Madison avenue girl at an afternoon tea recently. Oh, dear, yes, she rejoined, never better. I've been so healthy and hungry all winter that it has been perfectly scandalous. I've noticed you're growing a bit stouter, he ventured, taking the precaution to help her hastily to another ice. Do you think so? she asked. I confess I am. I weighed 110's last week. Just think of it. Like all girl-ed academics, he rejoined, gallantly, above par. You are insulting, sir, she said, drawing herself away angrily, pa weighing 300.

—New York Tribune.

Her Claim Established.

Fashionable! Why do you call her fashionable? Because she is. She always talks at the theater while the play is going on, her children are kept in the nursery when she's at home, and she never allows herself to be seen in her husband's company.

The Collapse of a Rotten Tonic.

With enfeebling foundation and shaky, bulging walls, is not more certainly to be looked to than the sudden giving away of a concrete bridge supported by rotting timbers. So, too, the exposure to hardship and malign climatic influences. Against the disastrous effects of each and all of these, Hostetter's St. Macch Bitters is an effective safeguard. It fortifies the system against them by inducing into it a check upon the degenerative action upon the exhausted tissues and impoverished circulation. It is a potent tonic for the stomach, a blood purifier, a means of assuring material health, and a means of born of bad diet and impure water. It is a superior remedy for the treatment of all diseases, rheumatism, kidney trouble, in grippe.

Poet and Drummer.

"Oh, would I were the rose she wears to-night!"

The poet sighed, and paused a verse to write.

"Oh, would I were her husband!" said the drummer.

—And straightway married her—he was a hummer!

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, feverishness, itching skin, chapped hands, chilblains, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. A guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale at C. M. Creamer's.

Worth It.

Ethel—You don't suppose George would marry me for my money, do you?

Maud—It might be worth trying; he's awfully hard up.

That Is What He Raised.

Ethel—when you told papa we were engaged did he raise any objections?

George—He raised perfect—er—well yes; I guess that is what you would call it.

What They Are Good For.

Brandrett's Pills are the best medicine known.

First—They are purely vegetable, in fact a medicated food.

Second—The same dose always produces the same effect—other purgatives require increased doses and finally cease acting.

Third—They purify the blood.

Fourth—They invigorate the digestion and cleanse the stomach and bowels.

Fifth—They stimulate the liver and carry off vitiated bile and other depraved secretions.

The first two or three doses tell the story. The skin becomes clear, the eyes bright, the mind active, digestion is restored, costiveness cured, the animal vigor is recruited and all decay arrested.

Brandrett's Pills are sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar coated.

Natural Enough.

Foggs—The Baltimore sailors got out of a street car, to be stabbed.

Boggs—If they were like our surface cars I don't much blame them.

She Had a Wealthy "Pa."

Tom—Miss Hanson's beauty always intoxicates me.

Dick—Well, the antidote is right in hand, she's got gold enough for a dozen Keeley institutes.—Philadelphia Item.

A medicine endorsed and used by physicians and druggists—Simmons' Liver Regulator.

Not His Political Doctor.

Politician—Yes, I am trying in my quiet way to feel the public pulse as regards a voter (tired of the pump handle exercise)—How can you feel the public's pulse when you are shaking its blamed arm off?

—Indianapolis Journal.

My only family medicine—Simmons' Liver Regulator.—Rev. Jas. M. Rollins, Fairfield, Va.

The Difference.

It makes all the difference in the world whether a man or a maid calls you "my dear fellow."

Morning Noon Night

Good all the time. It removes the languor of morning, sustains the energies of noon, lulls the weariness of night.

Hires' Root Beer

delicious, sparkling, appetizing.

Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—it isn't. No imitation is as good as the genuine Hires'.

Strength and Health.

A MODERN INSTANCE.

An Idiotic Dialogue Illustrating One Side of Human Nature.

He—How much nicer it is to sit on the stairs out here where it's cool than to roost one's self in that blessed ballroom.

She (demurely)—Do you think so?

He (looking at her lovingly)—Indeed I do.

She—How people's tastes differ.

He (freely)—Thanks. I was not aware my company was disagreeable.

She (languidly)—Oh, it isn't—especially. Only Jack said, not half an hour ago, that he thought it slow in the halls and much preferred dancing.

He (sarcastically)—Oh, Jack's a fool.

She (quickly)—I don't think so.

He (settled)—Probably you think I'm one.

She (calmly)—Oh, they're some things we had better keep to ourselves.

He (bristling)—What, for instance?

She (quietly)—Temper.

(Silence for fifteen seconds.)

She (absently)—What's that the orchestra's playing?

He (mopping his face)—"Love's Dreamland." I think. Pretty thing, isn't it?

She—What? Love? No, I don't believe in it. It's made up of sighs, a tissue of lies, and so on. (Slightly animated.) Do you think you ever loved?

He (hesitatingly)—Oh—I—I—er think not, did you?

She (slyly)—About fifty or sixty times.

He—But you said just now that you didn't believe in love.

She—Either I do now.

He—What do you believe in then?

She (representing a yawn)—I believe we'd better go back to the ballroom.

He (rising)—You evidently also believe in making yourself as uncompanionable as possible.

She (demurely)—Fools and children speak the truth.

He (coloring)—And to which class, Miss De Pugh, do you relate me?

She (languidly)—Oh, the children. You're so eminently naive and artless, you know. So charmingly simple and free from guile.

He (angrily)—And do you know what I think of you?

She (frowning a curl back)—I'm not over anxious.

He (bowing)—Then I'll reserve my opinion. (Moving away.) Good night.

She (calling after him)—Mr. Saunders, are you not forgetting your politeness? Please escort me to the ballroom.

He (coming back)—I did not forget my politeness (sarcastically). I left it behind me.

She (petulantly)—If you only leave your unaccountable, freakish, touching little ways behind you, I'd like you much better.

He (looking at her squarely)—It's force of association; this "freakishness" of mine.

She (coldly)—That can easily be remedied. In the future see that it is.

He (bowing)—The age of miracles is not yet passed. I can't at least try.

She (biting her lip)—I can't understand why you want to be disagreeable to me to-night.

He (surprised)—Why, I'm not disagreeable. It's you who say the mean and uncalculated things. (Warmly.) You know that I care for you too much to say anything to hurt you.

She (tossing with her fan)—How am I to know that you care for me?

He (excitedly)—Why, I left the Evans girl in the middle of the floor as soon as I saw you.

She (severely, though secretly pleased)—I don't think that proves you care for me. It only shows how rude you can be.

He (coloring)—All right. (Resignedly.) Let us go home to the ballroom.

She (slowly)—I should want a man that to—that—that cared for me to do something heroic to prove his regard.

He (quickly)—What shall I do to prove it?

She (thinking she had some one else in mind)—I should like to see you do something heroic and not wishing to be caught receiving a proposal.—Please tie my slipper.

He (thoroughly incensed)—You're a flirt and a teasing game of me. I'm not going to stand here and be made fun of.

She (teasingly)—You can't get rid of gold any more than you can make a fool of— (Changing her tone)—Why, I only told you to tie my slipper because I thought I heard some one coming.

He (tauntingly)—And then I'm to tie your slipper every time you imagine you hear some one coming? How gracious you are.

She (concealingly)—Come now and don't be a foolish boy. Tell me what you'd do to prove that you care for me?

He (hastily)—I'd marry you.

She (blushing and pattingly embarrassed)—Why—why you imp—impudent fellow. I—

(A blissful silence intervenes.)

He (recoiling)—And what will you do to prove that you care for me?

She (slowly)—I'll marry you.—Philadelphia Music and Drama.

His View of It.

"Indians must have a good time when they are boys," said Tommy.

"Why?" asked his father.

"Cause their nurses can't tell whether their hands are dirty or not."

—Harper's Young Folks.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Light House.

Mr. and Mrs. Loretta Treacott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew weaker rapidly until she was a mere "bundle of bones."

—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. M. Creamer's Drug store.

In the Lead.

Close competition; enlarged views; closer relations between railroad official and the public; newspaper comment; liberal advertising.

All the above are the direct causes of the luxurious facilities afforded to travelers at the present time.

The Wabash Line has kept itself in the front rank during the march of progress and offers to travelers every luxury and convenience which human ingenuity can devise or the liberal expenditure of money procure. Its passenger trains from Kansas City and Council Bluffs to St. Louis, Chicago, Toledo, Detroit and intermediate points, its through car lines to New York, Boston, and other seaboard and eastern points, its magnificent track and unsurpassed running time, leave nothing to be desired.

Passengers are always safe when asked to specify their route in naming the Wabash.
