The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every Post Office in the Territory and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the southwest.

SATURDAY, APRIL 23.

Gentle spring is still somewhat backward this season; so is Senator Hill's presidential boom.

AND EVEN THE LAS VEGAS OPTIC now thinks that federal officials should not try to control conventions. Dreadful, indeed.

It is reported that the New Mexico board of World's exposition managers is to begin work in earnest; wonders will never cease.

THE DENING ADVANCE comes to the front and approves of the action of the recent Republican convention at Silver City. Better late than never.

EX-GOVERNOR AND SENATOR D. B. HILL seems to be "out of sight." At any rate, his name now excites less attention than that of the average Chicago hoodler.

MR. GUYVER CLEVELAND seems to doubt the propriety of his renomination. He is not alone there; millions of people throughout this broad land are absolutely of the same opinion.

THE REPUBLICANS OF THIS TERRITORY must get together, if they would have statehood. Dissensions in the party will keep the territory out in the cold of a territorial condition.

THE ALLEN LAW, passed by a Democratic congress and approved by a Democratic president, has paralyzed New Mexico long enough; it must be repealed.

THE EDITOR OF THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION says: "I am for Hill because the Democrats down here are hungry." An honest confession is good for the soul, friend.

OR LATE, we have not noticed much about the Santa Fe ring in some of our more or less esteemed contemporaries; what's up? Why this cessation of deadly hostilities? Is the ring dead?

DAYLIGHT trains throughout New Mexico by the great Santa Fe railroad may not pay at first, but they will stimulate travel to such a degree that in a few months they will be found paying investments.

THE RACKET among Texas Republicans will not affect the destinies of either party; Texas is one of those states where they roll up a Democratic majority of from 150,000 to 200,000 without reading the ballots cast.

IT IS CLAIMED THAT THE COUNTY OF SAN MIGUEL will give a Republican majority next November; we hope so, but prefer waiting till after the returns are in and the result declared, before we set up a shout of victory.

AN ENTRANCE FEE is already being charged to the grounds of the World's exposition at Chicago. Those Chicago people live in the windy city for something else besides their health, evidently.

FOR MANY YEARS they have had three kinds of time in this territory, sun time, standard time and slow time; it is therefore high time that all these gave way to fast time. The latter is greatly needed in many localities in the territory.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE INSANE asylum at Las Vegas is provokingly slow. It evidently seems that the asylum was not erected to do the poor wretched insane of this territory any good until the next century; in this because his honor, ex-Chief Justice Long, is a member of the board? Wonder what he is holding back for anyway? Don't all speak at once.

THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE will confer a favor by sending Mr. Cleveland to speak in Oregon. If he makes one speech, Oregon will give 15,000 Republican majority instead of 10,000, and so on ad infinitum. The Republican national committee can therefore afford to make terms with the Democratic committee and pay Mr. Cleveland's expenses.

THE NEW MEXICAN'S TOW LINE is alright; for the good of the Mesquero Apaches, for the good of the people and for the good of the government, this journal urged that a change take place in agents at that reservation; the change has taken place, men and brethren.

THE BEST ELEMENT of New Mexico, namely the women of brains, intelligence, and honor strongly support Mrs. E. L. Bartlett, lady commissioner from New Mexico to the World's fair in her endeavors and work for New Mexico in connection with a creditable display from this territory at the World's fair. The New Mexico board of World's exposition managers should take heed while there is yet time.

IT WILL TAKE 223 votes in the next electoral college to name the president. Giving the Democracy the solid south, with New Jersey, Connecticut, Montana, and Indiana, and throwing in five electoral votes from Michigan as good measure, and then we find that they fall some twenty-five short of the necessary number to elect. The great battle will again be fought in New York, and Republicans believe that that state is reliably Republican this year.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES for delegateships to the Democratic national convention are on the increase, and it may be that the program of the Albuquerque bosses to send only two delegates, and those two his ex-Excellency Antediluvian Ross and Felix Martinez, boss of San Miguel, will go up the spout; so far the candidates from the southern part of New Mexico are: Idus L. Fielder, of Silver City; E. G. Ross, of Deming; G. A. Richardson, of Roswell, and W. S. Hopewell, of Hillsboro.

A NEW YORK professor, alarmed at the spread of domestic infidelity, suggests that any disturber of domestic peace be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and sentenced to one year's imprisonment and $500 fine. This learned professor may know a good deal about free trade theories, but knows deuced little about human nature, if he thinks he has found a good remedy there. Human nature is human nature and will be human nature till mankind and time shall be no more.

THE NATIONAL EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION.

The national editorial association will spend a day in Santa Fe on their trip to the Pacific coast. They will reach here about the middle of May. Arrangements should at once be made for giving them a hospitable and proper reception and entertainment. They are not only worth entertaining for their own sakes, but also because they represent the leading papers of the whole country and are moulders of public opinion in every portion of this great country. They are much more important than the association of press clubs, to whom this city gave a royal reception, but a few months since. They are all owners and editors of newspapers and reach thousands of people, who would be made very well come were they to come to New Mexico.

THEY HAVE IT IN THEIR POWER to give this city either a first-class and superb advertisement or to give it a very black eye.

EVEN FROM A VERY SELFISH STANDPOINT alone a first-class reception should be given them and they should be made to feel good and satisfied with themselves, the world and this city. Preparations toward this very desirable end can not be made any too soon. There will be no cause to regret this; start to work and prepare while there is yet time.

"DAMN SILVER."

THE DEMOCRACY seems to have been razzle-dazzled. The Kansas wing of the party is for Cleveland and opposed to silver. Indiana's Democracy has been swung into line for Cleveland, but sends a solid silver delegation to the Chicago convention, and Democrats at Washington, away up in party councils, are exclaiming "Damn Silver."

THE LATTER EXPRESSION probably tells the whole story as to the sentiment with which the rank and file of the Democratic party view the white metal. They have been secretly damning it for years, and are damning it to-day by their rabid, unreasonable policy of treating the subject. They are trying to kill it with care and attention, methods that are as vicious as they are insincere.

ON THE OTHER HAND, note the growth and development of the Republican party's principles on this subject:

"We believe in a bi-metallic currency composed of gold and silver fixed at such a standard as will be just to both metals. We believe in the free coinage of gold and silver with such safe guaranties placed around the same as will best protect every individual interest and industry of the United States."

THIS IS THE TRUE SENTIMENT, and it is gaining ground daily. Here is a platform that the rich and the poor, the debtor and creditor and the miner can stand upon with equal security. It is the only just solution of the problem, and since this sound doctrine is now daily gaining fresh recruits to the Republican party, its originator and earnest supporter, little wonder is it that influential Democrats at the national capital, where they can effectively note the drift of public opinion should break out in rage with the expression, "Damn Silver."

COL. HUDSON'S APPOINTMENT.

THE PRESIDENT has nominated Col. Richard Hudson to be agent of the Mesquero Indians, vice Hinman Rhodes. The appointment is in every respect a very good one, and will prove beneficial to the Indians.

COL. HUDSON is one of the best and most favorably known men in New Mexico. He came to the territory as a member of the California column in 1862, and served with credit and gallantry throughout the war; he was one of the earliest settlers of Grant county, having located the famous Hudson's hot springs which for many years he held and improved in what was a very insecure and dangerous section of New Mexico on account of hostile Apaches. He served creditably in the New Mexico militia during the Victoria Indian campaigns, and he has filled several offices of trust and honor in Grant county; in whatever position he was placed he has acquitted himself well and satisfactorily to the people.

THE AGENT REMOVED was not fitted for the position named; Inspector Gardner several months ago made an exhaustive investigation of the affairs of that agency and found that the Indians instead of advancing were retreating and that a change was imperatively necessary.

THE CHANGE has been brought about and as good a man as could have been found was nominated for the position. Col. Hudson's past history and reputation are proof positive that he will administer the affairs of that office as they should be administered.

IN ADDITION, the people of New Mexico are thankful to President Harrison and Secretary Noble for having again carried out the principle of home rule in appointing an actual and bona fide citizen of New Mexico and a man who is well acquainted with the character, habits and customs of the Indians and whose appointment will be universally approved by the people of New Mexico.

400 POUNDS OF EASTER TIME.

Easter is the past. A wide chapel, golden light filtering through richly painted windows and falling upon the pure white lilies matted in fragrant beauty at the altar, upon the rich furnishings of the church and upon elegantly gowned women—that is my remembrance of Easter morning. In this chapel the air was heavy with the breath of spring flowers. In this chapel were bursts of rare music proclaiming the resurrection. In this chapel, and if last by no means least, were fair daughters of Eve in Easter gowns. And such gowns! Such a variety of gowns, beautiful ones, was never seen before. Gay gowns, sober gowns, and gowns that were neither gowns that had been manufactured by fashionable modiste, and had come late Easter eve wrapped in tissue paper, gowns that were—ludicrously proclaimed the fact—the handwork of a home dress-maker themselves, who are no dress-makers at all. These last are the gowns that one longs to give a pull, here and there, to request the sleeves to stand up or lie down, as the case may be, and to catch up the skirt—in fact, make the whole dress over. Now, I am proud of being a woman, and I am usually filled with pride at the achievements of my own sex. Usually, I say; but I do not believe that every woman is a born dress-maker, and I move one to tears to think that the majority of them believe they are and attempt it. The minority know that they are, but do not care to try it. One of the majority will see a gown set forth in glowing colors on a fashion plate, she is sure she can do it at a little or no expense. Accordingly she purchases a pattern and sets to work. When she has finished her work to have the resemblance between the cloth gown and the paper gown pointed out, and then you do not see it. The gown is an utter failure. But you can not convince that woman that the mistake is here; no, indeed, it lies with the wretched pattern. Another weakness that my sex is given over to, is getting a dress made up at as little cost as possible. Economy is a grand thing, far be it from me to think otherwise; but, when a woman begins a second rate maker of gowns to come to her house to slash at good material because she will do it cheaply, she is a victim of temporary insanity. An acquaintance of mine, a little woman upon whom the fickle goddess, fortune, has smiled, has a mania for laying her gowns made without any expense and to put it mildly, they look it. Why she does not go to the leading modiste of the city, and get something that will be pretty and stylish so long as there is a scrap of it left, I know not. But I am digressing from the original topic, Easter hats and gowns. When service was over—ah, what a sight was then, as the fair women came down the steps and walked up the aisle. It was like a vision of some lower garden with the wind blowing the blossoms here and there. A truly glorious season is Easter.

THE GIRL BACHELOR.

You have heard of her surely, the girl bachelor. She is making herself seen and felt throughout the land. No longer need a woman, enjoying the blessings of a single life, fear the taunting voice or finger of scorn, for she is not an old maid but a girl bachelor. You see the difference, of course. An old maid is always surrounded by cats, drinks unnumbered cups of tea, work samples, and relates her love affairs. The girl bachelor is of another type. She displays a marked aversion toward the feline tribe, lets tea severely alone, does not know what a sampler is, and scorns love affairs. The last I desire you to believe firmly. The life of the girl bachelor is a happy one, for with a number of congenial spirits she rents, say, four or five rooms in an apartment house and sets up housekeeping, as cozy as you please. As a rule the girl bachelor is employed during the day, but when she returns at night, and prepares dinner with her companions she is as happy and care free as a school girl. These love affairs, the girl bachelor has never come, but firm faith in their ability to get through the world without him. At night they remain in their pleasant rooms and relate the happenings of the day—they are not above gossip, you see, or go off to the play in a body. Ah, happy girls! Happy that the fact that you are no longer the clinging ivy depending upon oak for protection, but a strong young plant basking in the sunlight of your own prosperity. I recently attended a reception given by three of these charmingly independent creatures. It was an enjoyable affair, even if there was not a man present. We talked of all things under the shining orb of day—from gowns to art, but never did we speak of the tiny blind and or the mischief he can do. It was a revelation to many; it was a revelation to me. I have been laboring under the impression that women were slaves to love. I find I have been mistaken. Here is to the girl bachelor!
