On Sept. 14, local media sources reported that two unidentified bodies were discovered in San Pablo municipality, San Marcos department. The eyes and genitals of one of the corpses were missing. In the village of Ecos, San Marcos department, several unidentified armed men burst through the door of a residence and shot to death three adults. Two children in the home were wounded. On the same day, the bodies of four unidentified men were found at kilometer 35 on the Coatepeque-Colombo Costa Cuca roadway, Quetzaltenango department. Next, Genaro Roblero Barrios, 40; Gustavo Roblero de Leon, 35; Lionel Roblero Chavez, 22; and, Juan Ovalle Lopez, 32, were abducted in Tejutla, San Marcos department. In Tonalá, San Pedro Zacatepeque municipality of the same department, Carlos Rodriguez, 40, and Fidel Rodriguez de Leon, 24, were reported kidnapped. During the weekend, the bodies of three cobblers were found on the outskirts of Guatemala City. They had been shot at point-blank range, and their hands amputated.
