NATIONAL REPUBLICANS.

Harrison or Blaine is Yet the Question—To-morrow's Great Contest—New Mexico's Delegates.

The Latest.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 6.—One B. C. Marsh, claiming to be a relative of Senator Shelby M. Cullom, circulated a report last night that the senator had received a letter from President Harrison to withdraw his name from the convention. He was not nominated on the first ballot. Senator Cullom was seen and he flatly denies it. He says he doesn't know Marsh and that the letter is a fabrication.

Honors of all sorts are prevalent. It was said this morning that several of the Indiana delegation were ready to break to Blaine. This was no doubt caused by the slight friction in that delegation yesterday, but the Indiana delegates are still solid for Harrison. Another report obtained quite a circulation that Blaine had withdrawn his name from the convention. This was found to be entirely untrue, the difference between the morning by organizing. There is little doubt but that the Blaine men will be able to control the convention, in which case J. S. Foster, of New York, will be temporary chairman. On the other hand should the Harrison men have control, the chairman will likely be Gen. Horace Porter, of New York, and Depey will probably place Harrison in nomination.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 6.—For the tenth time in the history of the United States the representatives of that great element of the American people that is known as the Republican party are assembling for the purpose of placing in the field their representatives for the presidency and vice-presidency. It was in 1856 in the Quaker City that the first body of Republicans came together for this purpose. Primaries were practically unknown in those days, and consequently the gathering that named as its standard bearer Fremont and Dayton was little more than a mass meeting. Chicago was the scene of the convention of 1860, and which sent out to the country the magic names of Lincoln and Hannibal; then came the Baltimore convention of '64 which named Lincoln and Johnson, that in Chicago which nominated Grant and Colfax, that of Philadelphia in '72 with Grant and Wilson, the Cincinnati gathering of which sent Hayes and Wheeler to the white house, the memorable convention in Chicago when, after a fight of unprecedented bitterness, Garfield and Arthur were made the nominees of the party, once more in Chicago in 1884 when the magnetic man from Maine with that gallant warrior, John A. Logan, were named only to go down in defeat, and finally again in Chicago in '88 when the present incumbent was chosen. To-day the great northwest, represented by one of its leading cities, a city which, although young, is already famed for its wealth, industry, energy and the hospitality of its citizens, welcomes with open arms and joyous hearts the delegates to the tenth convention of the Republican party.

The number of strangers in town can not be estimated, although people are accustomed to sizing up big gatherings put the total at anywhere from 75,000 to 100,000. And yet Minneapolis, with its long avenues and wide roadways and spacious side-walks does not appear to be overcrowded in the strict application of the term. Everything is in readiness for the opening of the convention. The work of decoration has been completed, and the city looks like a bride of spring. Every building and every private residence in the city from the twelve-story skyscrapers to the little wooden shanty stores across the river, from the mansions of the millionaires to the humble one and two-story homes of the working people, all display flags and bunting, in the aggregate to such an enormous extent that it seems as though all the available decorating material had been called into use for the occasion. To-night the great amphitheater of the exposition building will be formally dedicated for the purpose of the convention by an immense meeting at which there will be appropriate musical exercises to be followed by the oration by Gov. McKinley.

No one but the Harrison enthusiasts any longer doubt that Blaine's name will be presented to the convention. The assurance that he is not to be forbidden it, makes that morally certain, and the calmer heads are now applying themselves assiduously to ascertaining the intentions of delegates. Both sides seem to have suddenly realized that it is the delegates, after all, who are to settle the question, and every incoming delegate is promptly seized immediately upon his arrival and his allegiance earnestly besought by the rival leaders.

The plan is to allow the Harrison nominating and seconding speeches to proceed without interruption, and then when the roll call begins, to have Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado and the delegates from the list to cast the majority of their votes for the popular leader. This, it is hoped, will create a stampede of uncommitted delegates to the ex-secretary of state and his nomination on the first ballot.

The Harrison people are working vigorously, however, with the delegates from the states that lead the alphabetical list and appear already to have assurances that they will not get an unanimous vote from either Alabama or Arkansas. Indeed, in both these states the Harrison leaders claim a majority of the delegates for the president, and Alabama has consequently a large number of delegates. Both factions are just now very non-committal as to their presidential preferences.

To-day the skirmish line will be thrown out, and when the various state delegations have taken their places in the field and thrown out their banners, the battle will have begun in earnest. Both sides are anxious for a preliminary test of strength.

NEW MEXICO IS IN IT.

MINNEAPOLIS.—The national committee got together on Saturday and in about an hour and a quarter had completed its business. There was some sparring, but no open fight between the administration and the anti-administration force. The opposing forces did not present united ranks, but split on individual candidates, so as not to make the fight in the national convention. The contested seats were referred to sub-committees. The principal sub-committee of seven, consisting of Quay, New, Fessenden, Scott, Houghton, Hyde and Clayton, was appointed to have charge of all contests from Georgia, Indiana, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, South Carolina and Texas. A special committee, consisting of Brady, of Virginia, Conger, of Ohio, and Filley, of Missouri, was given charge of the Alabama contest. The fight over the Utah seats will be looked into by Messrs. Leland, Hobart and Warren. The fight in the Tennessee delegation was settled quietly, and the threatened rupture prevented for the time being. Committee W. L. Rynerson was in attendance and largely through his efforts it was decided to recommend that New Mexico have six delegates in the convention instead of two. It was also agreed that two representatives of the Indian territory be admitted.

MR. ELKINS INTERVIEWED.

Washington.—Secretary Elkins was asked by a representative of the Associated Press what the prospects of the political situation now that Secretary Blaine had left the cabinet. "So you want my opinion—do you? Well, I think that Harrison will certainly be nominated on the first ballot and without any serious opposition either. That's all I care to say just at present."

BLAINE'S SUPPORTERS.

MINNEAPOLIS.—Speaking of the resignation of Secretary Blaine, Mr. Clarkson said the news was not unexpected. "The resignation is in connection with his candidacy before the convention?" he was asked. Mr. Clarkson nodded. "I know of no other reason," said he, "but I don't care to be quoted on the subject at all at present. His resignation clears the situation. It draws the line and makes it sure that Blaine will be nominated."

Senator Hancock, of New York, refused to talk about the change in the condition. When asked for an opinion Senator Teller at first doubted the report, but when assured of its truth said "well that settles the question that Blaine will accept, but I was just as well satisfied of that before. As to what may have occurred to cause the resignation I have no idea. It strengthens Blaine and leaves no further doubt that he will accept. It takes the support away from Harrison. Blaine has not resigned unless he means to accept."

May Make a Move.

ROCHESTER, June 6.—The Warner Observatory is to be abandoned so far as Rochester is concerned, because of the erection of a new church so near the street as to destroy the western view from the observatory. Prof. Smith said: "I would like to have the observatory placed in Arizona or New Mexico, where I would have the benefit of several degrees more latitude to work on and would also have 365 cloudless nights out of every year."

A Queer Yarn.

NOGALLES, A. T., June 6.—Santa de Cabos, a young Mexican lady, who lives under guard of twenty-five Mexican soldiers to execute sentences of banishment from her native land. The Mexican government alleges that she instigated the late uprising of Mayo Indians in which they attacked Cochon, Sonora, and murdered the mayor and a few others. Hundreds of sympathizers are derived with her, having escorted her to American soil. She will remain in Nogales.

A Fusion Ticket.

KANSAS CITY, June 6.—The terms of agreement looking to a fusion ticket of the Democratic and People's parties in Kansas were reached at a conference of the two parties held here last Wednesday. It provides that the Democrats be given the candidates in two of the seven congressional districts, the congressmen at large, the attorney general and judge of the supreme court. All other nominations on the congressional, state and electoral ticket are conceded to the People's party or some other combination.

Two Famous Notes.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The following correspondence explains itself. DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 4, 1892.—The President: I respectfully beg leave to submit my resignation of the office of secretary of state of the United States to which I was appointed by you on the 5th of March, 1888. The conditions of public business in the department of state justifies me in requesting my resignation may be accepted immediately. I have the honor to be very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

JAMES G. BLAINE. EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 4, 1892.—The Secretary of State: Your letter of this date tendering your resignation of the office of secretary of state of the United States has been received. The terms on which you state you desire leave me no choice except to accede to your wishes at once. Your resignation is therefore accepted.

Very respectfully yours,

BENJAMIN HARRISON. To Hon. James G. Blaine. Both the president and Mr. Blaine decline to say anything in explanation of the resignation correspondence.

An Interesting Spot.

The petrified forest, three miles east of Cerrillos, is worth a visit from those who care to investigate the mysteries of nature. Parts of trees three feet in diameter lie in profusion over the ground and one leg, at the least forty feet in length, makes a unique waterfall during rainy seasons. Dyspepsia

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as he had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased. The palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the first bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

MONDAY, JUNE 6.

"To be or not to be," that is the question at present before James G. Blaine.

The Dave Hill boom is still making itself heard, but very faintly, very faintly.

One act of lawlessness begets another; put a stop to lawlessness by a strict enforcement of the laws.

The 52d congress is not making history very fast, but on the other hand it is doing a whole lot of talking.

The Grover Cleveland band it still making pretty big music, but what it will amount to remains to be seen.

PROGNOSTICATIONS as to the nominations at Minneapolis are out of date; let's wait a day or two and then we can tell you all about it.

A flock of five, composed of Hill, Gorman, Croker, Grant and Flower, is just now in Grover Cleveland's way; the more he kicks that block, the more he hurts himself.

The Blaine men are confident and so are the Harrison men and so are the other fellows; a few more days and the victims of misplaced confidence will be known.

There is no use worrying; if it comes to a vote, the people will decide the question of the location of the capital for Santa Fe by a very large majority; let it come to a vote.

The situation in the Democratic party seems to be that corrupt Tammany hall may yet control the presidential nomination and that Roosevelt Pettibone Flower and his "bar" is Tammany's choice.

BLAINE can carry New York, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and all the other states, including Colorado. In fact, whether he is nominated for the presidency or not, his resignation certainly will do the silver cause no harm.

The law prescribes certain duties for certain employees of the territorial prison; it will be good policy on the part of Supt. DeMier to see that the provisions of the law are carried out; laws are made to be obeyed by public officials and not made to be broken.

THE NEW MEXICAN is worrying the rum and bottle sheets of New Mexico terribly, vultures of the Las Vegas Optic, of the Albuquerque Democrat and similar sheets on the journal and its editor; it must be acknowledged that these sheets have good cause to be worried.

THE NEW MEXICAN is informed that Col. E. W. Eaton, of Socorro, is a candidate for agent of the Navajo Indians, should the present agent be removed; a petition in his favor has been signed by a good many territorial officials, including, so the New Mexican is told, Gov. Prince.

It must be acknowledged, that Delegate Joseph is in a very embarrassing situation concerning the action against the capital rebuilding proposition. He is exactly in the position of the fellow who "would be damned, if he did, and would be damned, if he didn't," but then these things go with high positions and must be taken accordingly.

PUT A STOP TO IT. This carrying of concealed weapons must be put a stop to. The sheriff and deputies and the marshal and city policemen should make special efforts to see that the law prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons is strictly carried out; the grand jury in session now should also fully investigate any alleged violations of the law and find indictments, if the evidence warrants.

A HINT TO THE FARMERS. If experience in any other corner will not do for the farmers of northern New Mexico to tie up with every year. Such a season as the present, for instance, serves to emphasize this fact. The spring has been late and the nights too chilly for corn to thrive. The farmers should put their time and energies into such crops. All the small grains, particularly rye, barley and wheat, also buckwheat, are the cereals that should have more attention and it would be much better if more farmers took to fall seeding. In this way a safe crop can be had even in districts where only the ordinary moisture from the clouds is to be relied on.

MONOPOLY'S REEL. Pacific coast people, regardless of rank or station, are becoming very restless under the grinding heel of monopoly as it is worked by the Southern Pacific Railroad company. J. F. Leeds, who is at the head of the merchants' traffic bureau in San Francisco, says the Southern Pacific practically owns the state of California and most of everything that's in it. He refers to it as a "slave state" in all that the term signifies. It is said the railroad company controls the vote of every one of its 10,000 employees and dictates the utterances of four-fifths of the newspapers published in the state.

A VERY SERIOUS QUESTION. "Delegate Joseph, of New Mexico, expects to call up next Monday his bill providing for the admission of New Mexico. It is to be hoped that the bill will be passed, for New Mexico has been kept out altogether too long, and the people of that territory are entitled to the full enjoyment of the right of self-government."—Denver Republican.

They may be entitled to self-government, but in view of the White Cap lawlessness prevailing in several sections of New Mexico, it is a question, a very grave and serious question at present, what course should be taken by congress upon Mr. Joseph's bill for an enabling act for New Mexico.

TAKE NO STOCK IN THE CITIZEN'S ASSERTION. The Albuquerque Citizen thinks everything can be bought in Santa Fe, and furthermore thinks that everybody in Albuquerque will put up money to do the buying; that may be so; whether the corrupt purchase of corrupt votes will help Albuquerque remains to be seen. As far as this paper is concerned it takes no stock in the following from the columns of the Citizen, but reproduces it for what it is worth, simply remarking that if the assertion is true, the longer New Mexico remains in a territorial condition, the better for the decent people within its borders. Here is what the Citizen remarks:

"To the NEW MEXICAN: When Albuquerque wants the territorial capital it will make no still hunt for it. It will put up a million dollars and will buy the people of Santa Fe bodily, including the NEW MEXICAN."

TERRITORIAL PRESS COMMENTS.

Joseph Has Weakened. That $200,000 capital bond scheme will be easily killed in congress. Mr. Joseph has weakened in his advocacy of the infamous measure. He has heard from the people of New Mexico.—Albuquerque Citizen.

Of Course! The Moon is Made of Green Cheese, Etc.

The people of Albuquerque will be contented whether the capital remains at Santa Fe, or is removed to Las Vegas, Socorro or elsewhere, but they insist upon the American privilege of voting on the question of incurring indebtedness.—Albuquerque Citizen.

The Citizens of Santa Fe are Doing Their Full Duty in the Case.

The business men of Santa Fe have raised about $4,000 as a reward for the capture of the assassins of Frank Chavez. No effort will be left undone to bring the perpetrators of this cowardly and brutal crime to the gallows.—Albuquerque Citizen.

Although Nothing of the kind has been Intimated by the New Mexican, Still the Hint had Best Be Taken.

The New Mexican intimates that unless congress passes Joseph's bill the legislature will have no place to hold a session next winter. Several cities stand ready to offer excellent buildings for the use of the legislature when it convenes, and it behooves Santa Fe to provide quarters at an early day.—Albuquerque Citizen.

The New Mexican Best Worker Santa Fe has Ever Had or Will Have.

Santa Fe should be proud of the New Mexican. It is the truest and most unflinching worker the ancient has ever had, or ever will have. The paper is now championing Joseph's bill for the rebuilding of the capital, and for the only reason that it will be a help to Santa Fe, notwithstanding the fact that such a course will hurt the paper in other parts of the territory.—Silver City Sentinel.

The Chavez and Dominguez Murders.

It is now believed that the two assassinations are the outcome of the murder last year of Faustina Ortiz. At the time that Ortiz' dead body was discovered Frank Chavez was sheriff and Dominguez the jailer. That Ortiz was decoyed into the jail, there he was beaten and several times shot, and afterward carried to the place where his body was found admits of no doubt, but the investigation into the Ortiz murder, lasting several days, failed to place the crime upon any one's shoulders, although strong suspicion pointed to certain parties opposed to him politically. The friends of Ortiz have always entertained the idea that Chavez and Dominguez knew more about the crime, if not the real actors, than they direct to tell, and it is safe to state that at last the murder of Ortiz has been avenged by his friends taking the lives of the ex-sheriff and ex-jailer.

The Citizen regrets these mid-night assassinations, for while they are being committed almost solely at the territorial capital, they nevertheless are injurious to the entire territory. It is hoped that the assassins will be captured, and that swift justice be meted out to them.—Albuquerque Citizen.

Tom Catron.

There are two sides to every question. This, however, a great many will not admit. Especially in this case where political interests dictate that mud shall be spread and rubbed in, regardless of consequences. The above remarks are called out on account of the continued utterances of the enemies of Thomas B. Catron in this part of the county. To begin with, this paper is not paid to endorse Mr. Catron, nor asked to say a word in his defense, but referring to him as a citizen of this county whose returns show him to pay taxes on $100,000 of property and a man who has rarely been known as a matter of fact to fail of refuse to assist either a friend or enemy when appealed to in case of need, isn't it a little mean, a little—no, not a little mean—but damnably contemptible, for people who have never lived to accomplish any good for themselves, to turn every time a dog happens to bark, and to exclaim: "Damn Tom Catron!" Possibly we do not approve of all Mr. Catron's ways or actions, as we may not of other people's, but the fact remains, that of the money he has made in New Mexico he has spent it almost to a dollar in improvements in the territory, in efforts to assist others to develop, and among his friends; and there are people in Santa Fe county to-day who spend their time in ungratefully cursing Catron, who, but for his donated services, would have suffered ignominiously. Again we say this paper has never received a favor from Mr. Catron that it should not have been able to get from a bank. Neither has he ever dictated or even intimated that the paper should even say a word in his behalf; but we believe in "giving the devil his due, and these constant, incessant, groundless, senseless, malicious attacks against a man more than equally interested with others in property and local development, are enough to make one tired. It partakes too much of the vituperative gossip and scandal so prevalent—the outgrowth of vindictive politics, which does not stop at gossip and scandal, but leads up to and ends in murder and assassination. Strong language, you may say, but we defy any one to prove it not true!—Cerrillos Register.
