A considerable mix-up in the names caused some argument and caused postponement until next Friday. The complaint was issued against Jesse Earl Goodwin, the answer was signed as Dermot Goodwin, and the power attorney was Maxine Elliott. At the suggestion of the court it was read by both sides that the complaint should be amended to conform the name in the answer, Jesse Dermot Goodwin, waiting notes being read to, a properly signed power of attorney is to be mailed to her attorney, which should be returned here next Friday.

the next three days.

This little statement proves two very pleasing facts.

First, the speaker is undoubtedly a wide-practice internal everywhere throughout the continent in the irrigation programs and the exposition.

Second, the people in and out of Washington know that they will get the full and complete story of both the congress and the exposition, told in type and in picture, by the Morning Journal.

NATIONAL CAMPAIGN GROWS WARM IN THE EAST

The national campaign is growing decidedly warmer in the east. It is little more than anything else from campaign history. The Hearst-Parker combination has, of course, attracted a vast amount of attention and has caused a flurry of excitement. Mr. Parker's position, however, is weaker than it was when he upon the coast even in Ohio, and there is very little reason to question the certainty of Mr. Taft's election.

The democrats are making the most vigorous campaign they have made in

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

With both the New York and Chicago National league teams playing double-headers yesterday and only one point in percentage separating them in the lead in the pennant race, the results of the games were awaited with deep interest. As both teams won two games each there was no change in their standing. New York maintaining first position. Pittsburgh won from Boston, thus keeping within striking distance. The standing of the teams in the National league pennant race follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
New York	99	52	.654
Chicago	95	54	.637
Pittsburgh	92	57	.616
Philadelphia	77	65	.542
Cincinnati	70	74	.486
Boston	60	85	.414
Brooklyn	48	85	.360
St. Louis	48	96	.333

In the American league Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis are having a close fight for the lead. Cleveland and Chicago won a game each yesterday, while St. Louis dropped a game. Thus Cleveland holds the lead by the narrow margin of two points, with Detroit second and Chicago only four points behind the second team. The standing of the clubs follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Cleveland	84	67	.557
Detroit	82	61	.571
Chicago	82	62	.569
St. Louis	79	64	.553
Boston	70	74	.486
Philadelphia	65	76	.461
Washington	61	78	.439
New York	47	84	.359

NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York Defeats Cincinnati Twice.
New York Sept. 26.—Steadily by Mathewson's strong right arm, the New York team today won a game in part for yesterday's double-header defeat by leading a double-header victory from Cincinnati, the scores being 4 to 2 and 2 to 1. The 22,000 spectators who had followed the players with great enthusiasm left the field at the close convinced that New York can get the pennant for the complete reversal of its unattractive form of yesterday seemed to indicate that Manager McFraw was right when he expressed the opinion this afternoon that the setback resulting from putting in the box the new invoice of pitchers would be easily overcome.

But Chicago's duplication of her double victory with Brooklyn means that New York must put up highest grade baseball in the remaining seven games if she is to play. Chicago has but six games more to play before the end of the season.

Mathewson's pitching was the feature of the first game. There was never any doubt what the result would be. In the second game Tenney lined out a home run.

Chicago Captures Double Header.
Brooklyn, Sept. 26.—Every one of the 12,000 persons who witnessed the games played today between Chicago and Brooklyn was impressed with the clean-cut work of the world's champions. Manager-Captain Chance selected Reulbach to pitch the first game with Kling behind the bat. That he made no mistake in his choice was fully proved by the 5 to 0 shut-out scored by Reulbach, and Chance sent the same batteries back to work out the second game. Reulbach did not seem to be a bit tired. He played his position so effectively that a 3 to 0 shut-out was the result. Superb baseball in every detail was played by the visitors and the only one to make an error was Reulbach in the second contest. He received fine support by all his teammates.

First game.—R. H. E.
Chicago . . . 000 010 121—5 10 4

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Cleveland 5; Washington 4.

Cleveland, Sept. 26.—Cleveland held out first place today by defeating from Washington, 5 to 4, in the most exciting and enthusiastic game of the season. Cleveland's six errors allowed Washington to take a free run scored three runs off Hughes in the fourth. Johnson went in with only one out and stopped the scoring until the seventh, when Cleveland tied the score on hits by Bradley and Labin. The game was won in the eighth on Everett's single. Johnson's error and Perrin's single. Liebhart, who pitched the last five innings, struck out Tannehill, Edmondson and Milan in the ninth. After the game the crowd, with three bands, paraded the field for half an hour.

Detroit 3; Philadelphia 2.
Detroit, Sept. 26.—Only one man passed first base on Donovan until the ninth and seven failures were struck out by him in the first three innings, six of them consecutively. Detroit bunched hits twice for runs and lost two other chances by reckless base running. The visitors got four clean hits in the ninth and had two on bases when the game ended.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Chicago shut out New York here today, 12 to 0. A total of thirteen bases on balls, a couple of wild pitches, the hitting of two Chicago games by pitched balls, coupled with unfortunate hitting and few errors, were accountable for the visitors' defeat. Smith, who pitched most of the game for Chicago, had little difficulty in holding his opponents safe. Ball tossed his ankle in the seventh and retired from the game.

RIDDER SUCCEEDS HASKELL

New York Newspaper Editor
Named as Treasurer of Democratic National Committee.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
New York, Sept. 26.—Herman Ridder, editor of the placid Zeitung and vice-chairman of the publicity bureau of the democratic national committee, was tonight appointed by Chairman Mack as treasurer of the national committee to succeed closer by E. N. Haskell, of Oklahoma, who resigned his position early today in Chicago.

The appointment of Mr. Ridder as treasurer of the committee was made shortly before Chairman Mack's departure for Buffalo. He will be in Chicago Monday morning. The chairman called Mr. Ridder on the telephone and asked him if he would accept the position, and Mr. Ridder agreed to take up the work of securing funds to conduct the democratic national campaign. Mr. Ridder will spend much of his time in the Chicago headquarters.

The appointment of Mr. Ridder came as a surprise to national committee members here, who had been given to understand that a western man should be selected. Mr. Mack said: "I am very much pleased that Mr. Ridder has seen fit to accept the trusteeship. He is the very type of American business man and whose associations and connections will not bring him under charge of the suspicion of having to do with those corporations to which democracy is opposed."

BRYAN PLEASED WITH RIDDER'S APPOINTMENT

Milwaukee, Sept. 26.—"It is an excellent appointment, and I entirely approve it," this was the statement of W. J. Bryan when informed of the appointment of Herman Ridder of New York to succeed Governor Haskell of Oklahoma as treasurer of the democratic national committee who resigned last night.

ELEPHANT BUTTERich Strike Made by San Marcial Men Down the River;
San Marcial News Notes.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal]
San Marcial, N. M., Sept. 26.—A number of San Marcial men, who have been interested in a mine about four miles from the Elephant Butte near Engle, report that a new find has been made in a ravine 200 feet below the place they are now digging. Struck galena in good quantities was found and it is thought a high grade silver will be found also since it is usually found with the struck galena. The vein is about a two and a half foot ore. A contract for a seventy-foot shaft had already been let and they immediately extended the contract for thirty feet more.
The men brought numerous specimens home with them. Among those interested in the mine are Clarence Price, Mike O'Sullivan, John Finney,
Tom Smith and W. J. Hanna.
C. L. Hally returned Friday morning from a several months stay at Santa Rosa.

Mrs. Hugh Williams, of Deming, is a San Marcial visitor this week.
Thomas Forest and Karl Warren came up from Engle Friday, the former to receive treatment from Dr.
McGowan.

W. J. Joyce, G. A. Kaseman and O.
N. Martin, all from Albuquerque,
were in town during the week.

A dance was given by Mr. Pichey and Miss Pichey Friday night, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Walter Todd, of Los Angeles, is visiting at the home of Thad Mossman.

Charles Lewis was a visitor from Socorro Thursday.

"LITTLE JOHNNY JONES" COMINGSplendid Musical Success at Elks' Theater During Irrigation Congress, Oct. 3.

This city will have the opportunity of witnessing last season's most successful musical success, "Little Johnny Jones," this notable attraction being booked for the Elks' theater October 2nd. No musical play presented last season enjoyed such phenomenal prosperity as having played eight different engagements in New York City
during the season, covering a period of six months. It was also seen for two weeks in Boston, four months in Chicago, four weeks in Philadelphia, and all the other principal cities. "Little Johnny Jones" was written by George M. Cohen, who has composed the music and has personally staged the present production. Probably no writer of musical comedy has had so many distinct successes as Mr. Cohen.
"Forty-five Minutes From Broadway,"
"George Washington, Jr.," "Running For Office" and "The Governor's Son," which attained great popularity, being the work of his pen. "Little Johnny Jones" is considered the best work that Mr. Cohen has yet offered the public.
It has a pretty and interesting story concerning the adventures of an American jockey who goes to England to win fame and fortune in the English turf. There is a plot which holds the attention of the audience from first to last, while the action of the play is interrupted by some lively and very tuneful music during the three acts, and each one of the songs attained a very large and complete embracing three mammoth stage settings showing exterior of the Hotel Cecil in London, the stables play at Southampton, and a street scene in the Chicago quarter of San Francisco. The company that will present "Little Johnny Jones" in this city contains seventy-five people and embraces in its cast of principals many stage favorites. The chorus is promised as very large and prominent, numbering over forty people. As "Little Johnny Jones" will doubtless prove one of the big events of our local theatrical sesson a crowded house is assured in advance.

COMMITTEE ON THE SANITARIUM
REPORTSMuch Interest in Matter Displayed at Meeting of Synod
at Silver City; Sessions Will Continue Three Days.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal]
Silver City, N. M., Sept. 25.—The report of the committee on the national tuberculosis sanitarium to be erected by the Presbyterian church on the mesa west of Albuquerque was one of the interesting features of today's session of the meeting of the synod of New Mexico of the Presbyterian church. The synod, which includes five presbyteries in New Mexico and Arizona, convened Thursday evening at the Hotel El Comodoro, under the leadership of Rev. Jonathan W.
Purcell, D. D., pastor of the church at Santa Fe, preached a forcible sermon in the unimpaired absence of Rev. Manuel Madrid, the last presiding officer. The ballot for moderator for the ensuing year resulted in the choice of Rev. Frank C. Reid, of the presbytery of Phoenix. Rev. W. A. McCammon was elected clerk.

The regular business and public services of the synod will continue three days.

The report of the sanitarium committee, of which Rev. Ralph Smith is financial agent, showed that the project is progressing satisfactorily, and was listened to with considerable interest. The temperance report was read today, reciting the victories of this cause during the past year, and the promising outlook. The report of Rev. John R. Goss, D. D., of Albuquerque, synodical missionary, is a special order of business for Saturday afternoon.

Albion Dorn, the famous French master of Brasses, characterized the work of Bruno Diekmann on the vi-passages wonderful in tone and his chord on the G string like the beautiful notes of an organ. Mr. Diekmann spent two years in study under this famous artist. So fond was the master of his pupil that he permitted

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

The university is closed for the irrigation congress and territorial fair. The large exhibit being made in the university building on the grounds requires the presence of most of the faculty.

John B. Terry, of the class of 1899, visited the university last week, after an absence sufficiently long to note some changes about the campus. Mr. Terry is a chemist with the Continental Oil company at Point Richmond, Cal.

Grover C. Emmons, of the college senior class, entertained a room full of young democrats and others at one of the moon parties last week. Mr. Emmons is up to date on political matters. He owns a good phonograph and has secured some twenty or fifteen records of choice extracts from the speeches of William Jennings Bryan, candidate for president of the United States. These addresses were on political and economical questions largely, and were delivered in clear, distinct tones, so that every word could be understood.

The senior class of the normal department has chosen the chrysanthemum for the class flower, and green and yellow for colors. The flower and colors will combine beautifully in decorations.

Miss Janet Bryson on Friday received the sad news of the death of her mother, who lived in Ohio. Miss Bryson would be unable to reach home for the funeral and will remain in Albuquerque until the university resumes work after the fair.

Strangers at the congress are cordially invited to visit the university building at the exposition grounds, and also inspect the buildings on the campus one mile east of the city.

The main work of remodeling the administrative building is nearing completion. The addition of the unique porches on the east and the west, the buttresses at the corners, and the new buildings added combine to make an interesting study in architecture. The covering of the walls with cement will not be done until after the fair.

The football team of the Socorro school of Mines has asked for two games with the varsity team in November, one of them to occur on Thanksgiving day. Manager Lee will doubtless arrange for these games.

WOULD LIKE TO HEAR FROM SOME ASPIRING FIGHTER

Manager of Ring Wonder Anxious to Pull off a Bout in This City During Irrigation Congress.

That Battling Nelson and Joe Gans are not the only fighters with "somewhat" was very evident on the night of September 25, when the Wild Cat Kid of Los Angeles, and Pat Thompson, of Dallas, Texas, met in a fast and furious five-round boxing contest in Cuccaro. While neither man had been sufficiently trained for the bout there was some classy fighting and everyone was satisfied that the fighters were not playing plug-pong. It is the intention of Mr. Wachtel, Thompson's manager, to give the fans of Albuquerque a chance to witness an interesting and something during the Irrigation Congress. Mr. Wachtel will be glad to hear from any aspiring fighter of the middle-weight class and as "Coke," the "Wild Cat Kid," said he would be in Albuquerque during the congress, I would like to hear from him, and hope through this medium a special challenge—and ask that he either accept or hold his peace forever.

DOCTORS ENDORSE HERPICIDE.

Because Its Formula is Submitted to Them.

Alexander McMillan, M. D., a prominent physician of Lansing, Michigan, writes: "On three cases I have tested Herpicide for dandruff and the result has been all that could be desired."

Herpicide is made upon an entirely new principle, that is, that dandruff and falling hair are caused from a microbe that infests the hair bulb, and by destroying the microbe, one's hair is bound to grow luxuriantly. Herpicide is the only hair remedy that claims to, and really does, destroy the dandruff germs.

Delegates and Visitors Thronging Albuquerque in Preparation For Great Irrigation Convention

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS POURING INTO THE CITY

Representatives of Many Nations To Attend the Irrigation Congress Are Arriving on Every Train; Will Be Largest Gathering of Men of World-Wide Note Ever Held in the West.

Two days before the opening of the Sixteenth National Irrigation congress the city is already full of men of international repute from various quarters of the globe. Numerous large delegations arrived last night and more are coming in on every train. Major General J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff of the United States army, accompanied by Brigadier General Thomas, commander of the department of the Colorado, with Governor Curtis are expected to arrive today. M. Rons, Taverne, chief engineer of the department of public works, France, and party, have arrived. Tullio Larrinaga, resident commissioner of Porto Rico, will be here tomorrow. W. A. Board, president of the Fifteenth National Irrigation congress at Sacramento, with Richard Kent, of Sacramento, who gave the foreword to the government, are in the city. Leoncio Mosquera, delegate from Porto Rico, C. J. Blanchard, chief statistician of the United States reclamation service, Major Aaron Gove, the distinguished expert on beet sugar manufacture, C. J. Mott, James J. Hill's right hand man and immigration and industrial agent of the Northern Pacific system, Geo. E. Harlow, vice president of the Sixteenth congress, and dozens of other men almost equally well known are in the city. On Wednesday the San Francisco special will arrive bearing President E. P. Ripley and Paul Morton and other directors of the Santa Fe corporation and many other distinguished visitors will be on the ground when the congress opens. Altogether there is assurance now that this congress will see the largest gathering of men of world-wide note that ever convened in the west.

Chairman Hopwood of the board of control received a telegram last night from Secretary Lock at Washington, stating that the president had instructed him to notify the board that Assistant Secretary Wm. C. Wheeler of the department of commerce and labor will attend the congress instead of Assistant Secretary Francis Phelan of the department of the interior. Mr. Wheeler is expected to arrive Wednesday.

The officials of the board and the members of the executive committee spent a busy day yesterday extending official greetings to the various prominent men who have arrived in the city. They were also assisted by various citizens of Albuquerque and the people generally are showing a spirit of hospitality to the visitors which augurs well for the success of the occasion.

NEARLY A MILLION ACRES NOW UNDER IRRIGATION

UNDER PROJECTS OF THE RECLAMATION SERVICE

C. J. Blanchard, Chief Statistician, Gives Interesting Summary of Work Accomplished After Several Months in the Field.

C. J. Blanchard, chief statistician of the United States reclamation service, arrived in the city yesterday morning from Yuma, Arizona, where he has been for several days inspecting the progress being made on the Yuma project. Mr. Blanchard will deliver an address before the irrigation congress on Thursday evening. It is his intention to illustrate his remarks with moving pictures and illustrated slides. An expert moving picture operator will carry a box of slides with him on his train from Washington to handle the illustrated part of the address. Mr. Blanchard has been in the field for several months past and has inspected nearly every important government irrigation project now in progress.

"I find the work on all projects progressing rapidly," said Mr. Blanchard last evening. "A number of them are nearing completion and we will be able to place them in operation within a very short time. There is a very important project in the Colorado river which is now being completed and which will be of great benefit to the people who are in the vicinity. The circumstances in the irrigated districts in the east and middle west and who desire to migrate to a new country and commence life again, under much more favorable conditions. ## SANTAFE WILL SHOW HOW BEET SUGAR IS MADE

Complete Testing Plant Now Being Erected at the Exposition Grounds; Rio Grande Valley Beets To Be Used.

One of the unique exhibits to be made by the Santa Fe railway company at the Santa Fe building during the irrigation congress, will be an interesting display of sugar beets and the various operations which the beets go through before they are developed into sugar. A complete testing plant has been erected on the grounds and machinery for testing (including also otherwise testing the beets has also been placed in position. The exhibit and demonstrations will be of especial interest to the farmers of the Rio Grande valley and they are especially interested to make the beet sugar plant factory their headquarters while at the exposition grounds. The farmers, who have grown a crop of beets this year, are delighted to bring at least 20 per cent of those beets are covered with a personal reply. This method of doing business of course involves a large amount of labor, but I have found by experience that it is much more efficient than sending all the beets to the mill and then having all right in their way, but which do not make the impression that a personal letter does. As a result many of the letters are forwarded to me in the field and a considerable amount of my time is consumed in replying to them. I expect to be very busy this winter as there are a number of projects which are nearing completion and there will be a large amount of work connected with the opening of the dams on the land. We have at the present time over 300,000 acres of land under ditch. At first this does not seem to be a very large amount of land, but it is an actual fact that if these 300,000 acres were ditched in a strip a mile wide, they would cover from Albuquerque to Chicago. And there would still be a few thousand acres left to good measure.

Speaking of the progress being made on the reclamation projects in New Mexico, Mr. Blanchard said that the Rio Grande project is being pushed up very fast.

There were over 100 men at work on the Elephant Butte project on the Rio Grande river and that the work was being carried on with as much speed as possible. The majority of the working force is at present engaged in prospecting for permanent foundations for the main dam. "When the Elephant Butte is completed," said Mr. Blanchard, "New Mexico will have the largest irrigation project in the United States. There will be over 1,000,000 acres of land reclaimed and put under ditch. When completed the dam will have cost over $20,000,000 and will be 250 feet high at its highest point and will hold back water over forty miles. The dam will contain enough water to irrigate 2,000,000 acres of land, or nearly one-fourth of a foot deep. It is necessary to irrigate an area in addition to this. The Elephant Butte dam will furnish water sufficient to irrigate 50,000 acres of land on Mexican soil. The Mexican government is entitled to this amount of water under the treaty between Mexico and the United States. Mr. Blanchard says that the Rio Grande project is proving a very satisfactory one and that the country under it is being brought up very fast."

least five of them to the display and they will have the satisfaction of seeing their own product go through all the different operations which are actually performed at the factories in the Arkansas valley in Colorado. The exhibit is in charge of Prof. W. H. Cline, of the Fort Collins, Colo., agricultural college, and T. C. Garlington, Gray, commissioner on foreign representation, who is receiving the foreign visitors to the congress and whose linguistic accomplishments have been in great demand of late. best sugar expert for the Santa Fe company. Mr. Garlington has taken an active interest in beet growing in the Rio Grande valley since the industry was inaugurated here nearly last spring. Together with Mr. Cline, Mr. Garlington will make active demonstrations and deliver lectures on the beet sugar proposition and will endeavor to furnish the visitors to the exhibit with information which will be valuable to them in their efforts to successfully carry on the industry.

FRENCH ENGINEER AND PARTY ARE IN CITY

M. Taverne Much Interested in Irrigation Construction in the United States.

M. Taverne, chief engineer of the department of public works of France, detailed by the ministry of agriculture to attend the Sixteenth National Irrigation congress and to inspect the construction of great irrigation projects in the United States, arrived at the Alhambra yesterday accompanied by his son, M. Leon Taverne, and his friend, M. Pierre Villard, the latter a very distinguished French man and president of the Société de l'Éclairage Économique de Lyons. While M. Taverne speaks little English, his son is familiar with the language. The party are being assisted very materially by J. L. Ladrière of the city, who speaks French fluently, and is extending the courtesies of the city to the visitors.

"I am much pleased with the great courtesies and attentions which have been shown me by the people of this part of the country," said M. Taverne yesterday to Rev. E. McQueen. "There were over 100 men at work on the Elephant Butte project on the Rio Grande river and that the work was being carried on with as much speed as possible. The majority of the working force is at present engaged in prospecting for permanent foundations for the main dam. "When the Elephant Butte is completed," said Mr. Blanchard, "New Mexico will have the largest irrigation project in the United States. Mr. Blanchard says that the Rio Grande project is proving a very satisfactory one and that the country under it is being brought up very fast."

Gray, commissioner on foreign representation, who is receiving the foreign visitors to the congress and whose linguistic accomplishments have been in great demand of late. It is altogether pleasantly surprised moreover at finding this pretty hotel of your wonderful array system."

The distinguished engineer will especially look after the success of vine-growing by irrigation in the southwest, a subject in which France is especially interested. Yesterday the party drove out some miles from the city to inspect a vineyard owned by a local Frenchman and today they will go to Santa Fe. After the irrigation congress the gentlemen will go to inspect the work on the Carlsbad project on the Pecos river, the site of the Elephant Butte dam, on the Rio Grande and the Roosevelt dam in the Salt river valley of Arizona. Mr. Taverne will have an important paper to read before the congress.

DR. NACAMILLI REPRESENTS ABSENT AMBASSADOR

Rev. Mr. Gray has received a telegraphic message from Italian Ambassador Baron Mayer des Planches from Manchester, Mass., deeply regretting that he cannot attend the irrigation congress, owing to the fact that his government has expressed a wish that he attend the international tuberculosis congress at Washington. The ambassador delegates Dr. V. Nacamilli, Italian consul representative in this city, to act as his special representative at the congress. Rev. Mr. Gray replied by wire accepting the services of Dr. Nacamilli.

CAPE COLONY DELEGATE NOW EN ROUTE HERE

Rev. Mr. Gray received a wire from Cape Colony yesterday stating that Mr. O. A. They were to be given a reception last night and will at once come to Albuquerque.

SAYS PORTO RICO IS READY FOR STATEHOOD

VAST STRIDES UNDER AMERICAN INFLUENCES

Irrigation Congress Delegate from Rich Island Tells of Great Reclamation Projects There.

"With more and better schools than under 100 years of Spanish rule, with splendid sanitary conditions, unsurpassed highways, vast resources and a thrifty and industrious, intelligent population, Porto Rico, we believe is fully able to take up the responsibilities of statehood in the union," said Leoncio Mosquera, C. E., of Mayaguez, Porto Rico, to the Morning Journal yesterday. Mr. Mosquera is a delegate from Porto Rico to the irrigation congress. He will be here Monday by Senator T. Larrinaga, C. E., resident commissioner from the island to the United States of America. It is expected that Assistant General Cabot of Porto Rico, may also arrive before the congress is over.

Mr. Mosquera, while a young man, is thoroughly conversant with conditions throughout the right little island to the south, and an enthusiast on the subject of developing the resources of Porto Rico.

"Irrigation is a live topic in Porto Rico at present," said the delegate. "Governor Post has been holding meetings, conferring with the farmers and otherwise arousing interest in the matter. At present irrigation is practiced to a small extent in the island, the waters of a few small streams being diverted for the benefit of small crops of crops, but the scheme of irrigation properly speaking is not practiced in Porto Rico at present."

"With five million dollars from the government, Porto Rico, now looks forward in particular to reclaiming by scientific irrigation a large part of the southern half of the island. Porto Rico as physical features are peculiar. A chain of mountains runs clear across the island from west to east. The prevailing winds are from north to south. On the north side of the mountains the rainfall is some fifty inches annually—very slight, comparatively.

"It is proposed that the government build reservoirs to conserve the waters of mountain streams in the east end of the range, a great tunnel through the mountains being part of the scheme. By this means sugar cane, which requires a large amount of water, can be grown all over this section of the island, which is at present comparatively valueless for agricultural purposes. The land itself is superior to the cultivated land of the north half of the island and with plenty of water will produce wonderfully. This project is known as the Padilla project. It is a wonderful scheme, fully feasible in every part and will work marvels for this section of Porto Rico."

"The improvement of the people of Porto Rico under American rule has been phenomenal. Practically all of them know how to read and write; the people have caught the contagion of the American spirit of push and enterprise; their ethics are sanitary and well kept and the system of public roads one of which Porto Rico is proud, especially the great military road running from San Juan to Ponce, eighty kilometers in length and so remarkably beautiful. Improvements in the harbor of San Juan are making it one of the best harbors in the world; railroads are building and progressing and enlightenment are evident everywhere."

"Porto Rico contrasts with Egypt the distinction of being the most densely populated country in the world as there is now a population of one million and twenty-five thousand people in the island being some 2,000 square miles in extent."

Major Larrinaga, on the west coast of the island is in the coffee raising section of Porto Rico.

Messrs. Larrinaga and Mosquera will have something to say to the irrigation congress about conditions and prospects in the island.

Commissioner Larrinaga is now on his way to Albuquerque, after a trip to Berlin, where he was one of eight delegates, appointed by President Roosevelt to the international congress, Delegate Mosquera arrived here direct from New York, where he was to have met Mr. Larrinaga but missed him, owing to the fact that the commissioner was delayed in sailing.

The Porto Rico exhibit at the exposition is to consist chiefly of tobacco, coffee and cane sugar.

SUGAR PYRAMID AT EXPOSITION GROUND
130,000 POUNDS OF THE CRYSTALLIZED BEET

Novel Exhibit Being Installed; Major Gove Talks of the Great Beet Sugar Industry.

one hundred and thirty thousand pounds of beet sugar, manufactured from sugar beets grown by irrigation, will be one of the most interesting displays at the exposition during the next few weeks. This sugar, in sticks, is now being placed in position under the direction of Major Aaron Gove, of Denver, who has few superiors as an authority on the beet sugar industry anywhere. Major Gove will give an address before the irrigation congress next week on this very important subject.

The sacks going to make up this sugar mountain will be labeled each with the name of the state producing the sugar. The sugar is now being produced in the West and Southwest by irrigation and the profits are being shared by the farmers of the West and Southwest.

Major Gove has made an extensive study of the raising of sugar beets, and the manufacture of sugar, all over the world, and not long ago returned from a stay of two years among the sugar plantations of the Philippine Islands. More recently he has been in the East in the interest of the industry. He is enthusiastic over the sugar producing possibilities of the West and Southwest, in which he sees the solving of a great economic problem.

Major Gove is fairly bristling with facts and figures relating to the cultivation of sugar in the United States and the world, and the profits awaiting the farmers of the Southwest when the sugar beet raising becomes, as it is bound to become, one of the greatest industries of this part of the country.

"The United States is now paying a million dollars for every day in the year for sugar; three hundred and fifty millions a year," said Major Gove last night. "Last year one hundred millions were spent by this country for imported sugar. There is absolutely no reason why Americans should not pay this enormous sum to themselves, for labor at a dollar and a half a day, instead of for labor hired in the tropics at ten to fifteen cents a day. Last year we ate seventy-nine pounds of sugar per capita, and the consumption is rapidly increasing and the demand may be expected to become much greater in the next few years. Last year the people of Italy ate only seven pounds of sugar, Germany, sixty pounds per capita, and the United Kingdom, which alone boasts our record, consumed sixty pounds per capita. Much of the sugar used in Great Britain however went into jams, preserves, fruits and other goods for exportation."

There is no reason why the United States should not manufacture every pound of sugar used in this country. The manufacture is rapidly increasing throughout the West and North, and now here comes the important point. The department of agriculture has established, officially, the fact that New Mexico can produce beet sugar in percentage of succharine matter to any other state in the union. All that is needed is an amount of sufficient acreage to give them the material.

"The factories—and the overture factory by the way, costs about a million dollars—will come when the farmers raise the beets and when the capitalists are assured of the security of their investment, which is undisturbed now by the uncertain action of congress as regards protection of the industry. If Pennsylvania, steel and New England manufacturers are protected, it is hardly reasonable to protect the farmer of the West, who, for the first time, has a protective price on every ton of sugar, from his share to his harvest."

This and other phases of the matter will be fully discussed by Major Gove in his paper before the congress, which will be one of the most interesting and most important addresses of the session. Just as the raising of sugar beets promises to become one of the most important industries of the irrigated lands of the Southwest.
