EVE OF BATTLE FINDS RIVAL MANAGERS SANGUINE

Hitchcock's Claim of 325 Electoral Votes for Taft Met by Mack's Estimate of 333 for Colonel Bryan.

FORECAST OF RESULTS IN THE VARIOUS STATES

New York State Claimed for Both Republican and Democrats, Each Professing Confidence in Outcome.

(By Morning Journal Special Landed Wire)

New York, Oct. 31.—The rival managers of the republican and democratic national campaigns issued today final claims of victory. Against the 225 electoral votes claimed by Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock for Mr. Taft, Chairman Norman E. Mack late today set an estimate of 223 votes for Mr. Bryan.

The close of the campaign tonight found the republican officers in the lofty Metropolitan tower and the democratic officers in the Hoffman House, just across the river, humming with activity. Both headquarters are to remain open tomorrow and they will be closed to be attended to on Monday, but Chairman Hitchcock and Mack feel that their hard work is ended.

Chairman Mack's estimate of votes for Mr. Bryan does not differ greatly from his previous statements. He includes Maryland, Delaware and Mississippi in the "solid south," and claims seventeen of the states classified by Mr. Hitchcock as "sure for Taft." These include such states as New York, Ohio, Indiana, Kansas, Nebraska, etc.

Mr. Bryan and Mr. Taft were still on the go tonight in carrying out their respective duties. Mr. Taft, who spent the first four days of the week in this state, spoke tonight at a dinner on route to his home in Indiana. There was a big parade of movie cameras and workers today in New York City in behalf of Mr. Taft. The procession was led by James C. Starnes, republican candidate for vice president by Secretary of State Root, who spoke here tonight, and Chairman Hitchcock.

New York state is claimed by both sides for their respective national and state tickets. The republican managers are apparently confident that Mr. Taft will have substantial pluralities in the past week's campaign, and they claim that the election of Governor Charles E. Hughes, although they admit that his vote will fall far short of that polled for the presidential candidate, will carry the state.

Democratic State Committee Ward went on today as to say that Judge Taft would carry statewide New York.

The democrats have claimed ever since the nomination of Governor Hughes in the face of opposition from certain leaders in his own party that the governor will be defeated. They are willing to admit that he has won, but they feel that he will be defeated in the election.

Chairman Mack does not deny that the national committee is getting money from individuals in the states and companies, which is a violation of the constitution. He says that the republican managers have been doing this since the beginning of the campaign.

Mr. Hitchcock declined to discuss the rumor that the statement of Mr. Rockefeller, who is a member of the national committee, is a violation of the constitution. He says that the statement is a lie.

Mr. Mack said that he had not heard of any one who regarded the statement as a violation of the constitution. He said that he had not heard of any one who regarded the statement as a violation of the constitution.

Country People Turn Out En Masse for Gathering at the Court House While Elks' Theater Is Packed for Evening Meeting: Territorial Campaigners Make Whirlwind Finish in Bernalillo County.

The republican campaign in behalf of W. H. Andrews for delegate to congress was brought to a whirlwind finish in Bernalillo county yesterday with a meeting in the court house in the afternoon, attended by some eight hundred voters, who came from every section of the county, and with a meeting in the Elks' theater last night, which packed the theater to its capacity.

The republican campaign committee has lost Bernalillo county until the closing days of the campaign, but it is not at all discouraged. It is still confident that it will win the county in the election.

Epistle from Sibley Suggests Control of Great Newspapers by Associations in Interest of Predatory Wealth.

(By Morning Journal Special Landed Wire)

New York, Oct. 31.—W. H. Hearst brought the campaign in the independence party to a close in Carnegie hall tonight by reading letters which revealed an attempt of the Standard Oil company to shape public opinion.

The letters and Mr. Hearst's comments thereon were read by a large audience, which cheered the telling points brought out by the speaker. Thomas L. Bligh and John Temple Groves, the league's candidate for president and vice president, and Clarence J. Shaver, the candidate for governor, also delivered addresses.

In his speech Mr. Hearst referred to a recent statement by John D. Archibald that he was sure that until Mr. Hearst read the letters regarding Pennsylvania judges, neither a judge nor a lawyer would be able to tell the truth.

Mr. Hearst said that he had not seen him in years, and it was impossible that the Standard Oil man should take an interest in his welfare.

"In the light of the letter, I am about to read," continued Mr. Hearst, "the explanation seems simple enough. Mr. Archibald apparently took to sleep an interest in the matter of the appointment of judges."

Republican Senate Would Be Powerless to Save Nation from Consequences of Its Own Folly Says Cabinet Chief

New York, Oct. 31.—With Secretary of State Clegg at the chief of the republican speaking campaign for the national ticket in New York City was practically brought to a close tonight in a crowded hall at the Rialto academy.

The secretary received a warm greeting when he entered the hall and a veritable ovation when he rose to speak. He said that he wished to state some reasons which lead him to believe that Mr. Bryan's election to the presidency would be followed by dire consequences to the country.

VOTE FOR BOTH COMMISSIONERS

A misapprehension seems to exist in the minds of a good many voters as to the manner of voting for candidates for the county commission.

While the candidates are nominated to represent certain districts, there being three districts in this county, every voter in the county is entitled to cast his vote for all candidates for the county commission, no matter from what district.

Alfred Grunsfeld and M. R. Springer, the Republican candidates for the county commission in Tuesday's election, have done work for this county which entitles them to the vote of every citizen in the county. These two men have rescued this county from debt and placed it on a sound financial basis. They have brought the county out of a condition of insolvency to a stage where at the end of every quarter every dollar the county owes is paid in cash. They have reduced your taxes; have builded roads and bridges and dikes. They have done their duty and more than their duty in the most difficult and most important of the county offices.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 31.—The day's stock market was affected plainly enough by a movement on the part of speculative holders to get out of their holdings on the eve of the presidential election. It was the suggestion of observers in the neighborhood of the stock exchange that this movement came from the lesser following of the powerful speculative leaders who have controlled the recent market. The action was prompted by uncertainty over the position and intentions of the speculative leaders. They are credited with holding most of the floating market supply of stocks and with being abundantly supplied with credit facilities to hold them. Their ability to put prices to a higher level after election is not doubted. The extent to which a general demand from outside sources for stocks will be attracted is what is doubted. It was this doubt that prompted the clearing up of speculative accounts which was in progress today in continuation of a similar movement yesterday. The circulation of reports of the closing up of some very heavy accounts in United States Steel yesterday was an influence in increasing this tendency. Sales for London account were an effective factor in the market. Nervousness was not much attended to although there was considerable discussion of John D. Rockefeller's announcement of his political attitude and the reception accorded it.

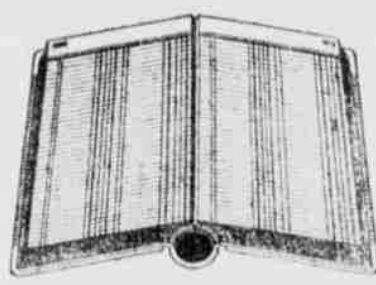

The extraordinary gains in net earnings for September reported yesterday by the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific were supplemented by the reports to the Interstate Commerce Commission of other transcontinental railroads for that period showing increases in gross earnings and heavy cuts in operating cost. It was considered that the strength of these returns would operate against the attempt credited to the railroad to bring about a general advance in freight rates after the elections. The bank statement presented no gross surprises. Closing stocks:

Wait a Day or Two

Now the chairman of the republican territorial campaign committee declares that he has no intention of waiting a day or two before he begins his campaign.

But the wide-spread opinion of the republican and democratic chairmen in regard to the result in the territory does not seem to be entirely correct. It is the fact that the republican chairman is not able to see any other way than to wait a day or two before he begins his campaign.

To the People of the Territory

Mr. Thomas H. Patterson, an eminent lawyer and politician, has been elected to the position of chairman of the republican territorial campaign committee.

On the Last Struggle

Since we talk about the presidential race, it is not perfectly proper to say that the struggle has moved into the last struggle. They have fought out for home, and are doing their best to win.

It Looks Feasible

Mr. Patterson's plan of a partnership in the ship-building works at West Hartford, Conn., has been entered into.

The Washington news, which comes from the highest sources, is that the republican party is not likely to have a majority in the territory.

face. He and Governor Hughes have led all the stumpers on their side of the fence.
On the democratic side things went with a bang, and jump from the first. That this was to be expected, with Mr. Bryan as leader. The vote is contrary and surprising. It is impossible to think of a front-porch victory for him, as soon as he could back his grins after having had a vote on the people's right to drink the vote with pleasure again. He is always ready, and never loses. Campaign are all he gets in the way of sleep, and "snacks" are his only meals. As for his voice, it is a perfect thing, as carrying power and courage. His voice, when he speaks, is the voice of a man who is sure of his ground.

What of the Next House?
The chairman of the republican congressional campaign committee declares that he has no intention of waiting a day or two before he begins his campaign.

FUTURE GREAT MEN MAY BE BRED IN THE CITY

BAREFOOT BOY HAS GONE OUT OF STYLE

Sociologists Say Better Facilities for Mental and Physical Development Are Found in the Big Towns Nowadays.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal]

New York, Oct. 28.—The future great men of the United States will be in the majority of cases of city birth and upbringing, according to the conclusions of scientific investigators.
The traditional advantage which the rural districts have had heretofore as the breeding ground of millionaires and statesmen is already disappearing in favor of urban localities, say these skilled students of sociological conditions. After the lapse of another half century the autobiographies of the country's great men will read "the beginning of my life as a poor boy in a city tenement." Instead of using the popular phrase, "I started life as a farm-boy," the future poet will have to content himself with the self-faced cry boy to the exclusion of the "barefooted boy with cheeks of tan."

For a good many decades now it has been a popular idea, and with good reason, that the country, the rural districts, were the source of supply for our big men. Three quarters of the present day leaders point with proud pride to the fact that they began life on the farm or in a country village. Washington, Jefferson, Jackson, Clay, Calhoun, Sherman, Grant, Lincoln—these are only a few of the great Americans who had a rural background. But here is a significant fact and one worth noting. These heroes of the past were city boys and not country boys. They were born in the great cities, and their parents were city people. They were the sons of city fathers, and their mothers were city mothers. They were the children of the city, and their lives were spent in the city. They were the great men of the city, and their names are still remembered by the people of the city.

modern life for the paler city boy with playgrounds, gymnasiums, recreation centers, and organized athletic sports.

In a larger sense the reason for this change in the source of good American citizenship, due to the alleged dependence of the country boy may be found in the old saw which says that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. It does even more than that, and in the long hours of difficult labor which fall to the lot of the average country boy is found a handicap to his proper physical and mental development. The average city boy on the other hand works during far shorter hours and the means now provided for his physical strengthening in the shape of playgrounds and gymnasiums are far in advance of those to which the country boy has access.
Two decades ago this was not true.
Then there were less than fifty gymnasiums in New York, most of them either private or expensive, and therefore prohibited to poor city boys.
Today in these city there are twenty-five hundred gymnasiums, most of them public and free. Within the last decade too have come the playgrounds, medical inspection, food inspection and the like, all of which have tended to make the opportunity of the city boy better than that of his country cousin.

There would seem to be a good deal of misconception about country and city boys at present. Probably nine persons out of ten would laugh at the assertion that country boys are inferior to city boys. Yet it is made as a result of most careful investigation. Popular fancy is wrong, for the city boy of today is not the pale faced fellow of yesterday, stunted "kid" that he has long been pictured. In such competitions between city and country schools as have been recorded the city boy has almost invariably been victorious. Apparently he can outlast his country rival, both physically and mentally.

Of course this dependence of the country boy must seem to many to be as yet unproven theory. For obvious reasons it is not fully demonstrated for the reason that improved conditions of physical development in the city are of very recent origin, but there is plenty of evidence to point toward the superiority of the city boy. A computation made last winter showed that a majority of the persons listed in "Who's Who in America," were of city birth. This so far as the good of the whole country is concerned is not a fair comparison for it is neither on the great nor the near that the future of the country depends, but on that indefinable character known as the average citizen.
Comparative figures are not wanting in this field, however.

"It is well known," says the Appleton article, "that the city recruits in the Union army during the Civil War made better soldiers than those from the country. They were quicker, stronger, more intelligent, and what is more remarkable, could stand more hardship. A Spanish war officer told me that his New York city recruits were the best and bravest men he had, with the exception of some Bowery toughs, who were worse than useless. The tough is the waste product of the modern city."

Statistics dealing with adults in this connection have been collected and tend to detail in France, where it is found that the most thickly populated district shows forty-three men of genius to every one hundred thousand inhabitants, as against five to every one hundred thousand in rural districts. The figures show conclusively that the largest cities are invariably proportionately far ahead of country districts.

Of course all of these facts are more or less straw, and by no means indicate that the country boy is going to the bows. But they do show that the typical useful citizen is fast becoming a city bred type, due to the fact that there is more done for the city boy than for his rural brother.
Physically the new type differs from the old in several ways. The city boy is not so large as the country boy, but he is far more muscular. He is able to do more sustained effort, and seems to be more adaptable. One thing that has come to be realized is the necessity of providing the country boy with the opportunities and care now bestowed on the city youngster.
Otherwise the barefoot boy with cheek of tan is in a fair way to lose his balance and fall from the exalted pedestal he has so long occupied. At least that's what persons who have studied the matter say.

Varied Occupations.

One day last fall, on the loneliest spot on Cape Cod bay, the writer ran across an old man living all by himself in a little shack built long since down for a chicken coop. He was curiously sitting on a net and smoking a cor-nucopie. One would think, to look at the situation, that a month of such solitude would land a man in a madhouse.

"Don't you get awfully lonesome here, Uncle Ned?" I asked.
"Who, me?" he replied, cheerfully.
"Well, I should say not. No, sir-eeno." "Why, Uncle Ned, what on earth do you do to keep you busy?"

"Who, me? Why, let me see—sometimes I write a little, and sometimes I read a little, and sometimes I think, and sometimes I just sit—" Success.

The State Was Filled.
"Great Scott!" said the doctor to his servant. Has nobody called during my two days absence? I left this note here for callers to write their names on, and it is perfectly clean.

"Oh, yes, sir," responded the servant, cheerfully. "A lot of folks have come. And the state got so full of names that only those who had to run 'em all out to make room for more."—Cleveland Leader.

The skies turn gray.
To stop them we should never try:
It is their way.

With pots of glue.

Of course.
"If the president dies, who gets the job?"
"The vice president."
"No, the ambassador."—Judge.

CHICAGO FORGETS SHE EVER HAD A PANIC

BUSINESS STEADILY
ON UP THE GRADE

Urged That Immediate Steps to Conserve Resources Will Prevent Another and Perhaps Worse Disaster.

[Special Correspondence Morning Journal]

Chicago, Oct. 27.—On the anniversary of the panic days of last year, Chicago seems oblivious of the air made when Helms suspended, when banks closed their doors in New York and clearing house certificates were burned. Warnings of railways and industrial concerns are on the upgrade, domestic here and New York are making new records and every effort is turned to preventing panics in the future. On this score immediate steps to check the enormous waste of the country's natural resources are being urged with a view to preventing any disturbance by exhaustion of the iron supply and the coal, which competent authorities say is probable unless new discoveries of iron ore greatly change the situation. Government estimates show that the Lake Superior iron beds will be exhausted in 1904 if the consumption continues to increase as it has in late years. Concerning this, President Walter L. Fisher, of the Conservation League of America, said: "One remedy for the exhaustion of our most important resources lies in the utilization of other important resources which we have neglected.
The most important of these is our rivers and streams. When our coal supply actually fails we can fall back on these for a large part of our transportation and power. Very little use is now made of them in other than partly because of the capital outlay required for river improvements, which makes it more immediately profitable to use coal, but chiefly because of our improvidence and our failure to keep in view the needs of our future national life. Abroad it is different. The use of water power

EVE OF BATTLE FINDS THE MANAGERS SANGUINE

CHICAGO HEADQUARTERS FINISH REFORMABLE TASK

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Activity of the national headquarters of the Republican and Democratic parties in the city ceased today, the campaign closing and those in charge in each camp expressing confidence in the result of next Tuesday's poll. James E. Lusk, vice chairman of the democratic national committee, estimated that 293 electoral votes will be cast for Mr. Bryan, including New York and Ohio, his list of Bryan states.

William H. Clark, secretary of the republican national committee, was equally sanguine in his opposing estimate, insisting that New York, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana are safely republican.

The work of the day—final campaign under the auspices of Chairman Mack, according to the Chicago press, has been most harmonious and has received unanimous praise from the democratic leaders throughout the country. More than 10,000,000 buttons, pictures and pieces of matter, the democratic committee estimated, have been distributed in the campaign.

The public department of the republican national committee has sent out to every state a copy of the "Republican Record," a collection of circulars and buttons.

SHARP FIGHT IN ILLINOIS ON ROAD TO STATE TICKET

Chicago, Oct. 31.—The campaign in Illinois will not adjourn until the voting is held. While it is generally conceded that the state will go for the republican ticket, a sharp fight is being waged over the question of electing Charles D. Hanna, who will be elected to the democratic leadership. It is believed in the republican camp that their endorsement of Hanna will be a decisive factor in the election.

Although both party leaders make much of the issue, the democratic committee is not so sure. Hanna is a man of high standing in the state, and it is believed that his endorsement will be a decisive factor in the election.

Both sides are confident of their ability to carry Nebraska. Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 31.—Both republican and democratic state committees have tonight issued their campaign literature. The republican committee has issued a circular stating that it is confident of its ability to carry the state.

DEMOCRATS CONCERNED IN IDAHO

Boise, Idaho, Oct. 31.—The electoral vote of Idaho is considered by the democrats to be a plum. The republican party is estimated to have a plurality of 10,000.

Chairman O'Neil of the republican state committee, claims the electoral vote of the Idaho state ticket by the same margin.

The democratic estimate, however, indicates that the party is confident of carrying the election for state officers by a 10,000 plurality.

FAST FLOOD OF ORATORY CLOSING INDIANA CAMPAIGN

Indianapolis, Oct. 31.—The closing days of the campaign in Indiana have witnessed a flood of oratory. A. W. Kern has been the most prominent speaker, and today Mr. Bryan made more than twenty speeches in the state.

The democrats are claiming the state for Bryan, while the republicans expect Taft will be victorious by a small plurality.

REPUBLICANS CONFIDENT OF LANDSLIDE IN SOUTH DAKOTA

SioUX FALLS, S. D., Oct. 31.—Republicans tonight asserted with much confidence that they will carry the state for Taft and elect every man on the republican state ticket. The democrats say they are certain to elect their nominees for governor.

LABOR VOTE AN UNKNOWN QUANTITY IN NEW JERSEY

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 31.—The republicans are claiming that they will carry New Jersey by about 10,000 plurality, while the democrats estimate the labor vote will be given to Bryan by 17,000. The unknown quantity is the labor vote.

IMPARTIAL OBSERVERS GIVE KENTUCKY TO BRYAN

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 31.—The republicans tonight claim the state for Taft by about 10,000 plurality and say that they will elect congressmen in the four best districts. The democrats estimate Bryan's plurality between 15,000 and 20,000, and expect not only to hold the congressional districts they already have, but to carry at least one of the republican seats. Close observers put Bryan's vote at 10,000.

GENERAL APATHY IN COMMAND IN VERMONT

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 31.—Although no effort has been made by the leaders of the two principal parties to influence the voters in the presidential election, the issue is not being contested. The republican committee has issued a circular stating that it is confident of its ability to carry the state.

CONNECTICUT CAMPAIGN MARKED BY BURNING

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 31.—The campaign in Connecticut has been marked by burning. The republican committee has issued a circular stating that it is confident of its ability to carry the state.

ONLY QUESTION OF SIZE IN IOWA

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 31.—Iowa is claimed by Taft by a normal plurality, which means from 5,000 up. At democratic headquarters here, no attention is being paid to the question of size of the plurality. Democrats claim the election of White for governor, but the chances are that the entire republican state ticket will be elected, although by reduced pluralities.

The next general assembly probably will be safely republican. The contest between Governor Cummins and Major John E. Lacey for endorsement for United States senator by the republican primary has been fought quietly and there is little information as to how the republican state ticket will be elected, although by reduced pluralities.

PREDICT LANDSLIDE FOR NEVADA DEMOCRACY

Reno, Nev., Oct. 31.—Judge P. J. Connelley, chairman of the democratic state central committee, said tonight "information which we have carefully compiled enables me to state that the democrats will carry the state by a landslide. We predict the election of the state and congressional ticket and will not lose a single one of the counties."

DEMOCRATS SEE CHANCE OF SUCCESS IN WASHINGTON

Seattle, Oct. 31.—The campaign used tonight in the state of Washington, with both sides confident in their parties holding final rallies. Seattle, Chairman Ellis De Brierley of the republican state committee predicts the election of the entire republican ticket by 10,000 majority, and a republican legislature which he expects to elect a United States senator.

George P. White, of the democratic state committee, forecasts a democratic majority for Bryan of not less than 10,000. The democrats have their belief upon conditions so similar to those in 1896 as to be almost an exact parallel.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM SAFE MAJORITY IN CALIFORNIA

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—The campaign in California, the least enthusiastic in the history of the state, virtually closed tonight. Both sides claim a safe majority for governor or by 1,000 over Governor John B. Hays, democratic chairman. John C. Hays says he expects the state to elect Bryan by 10,000. Hays' vote is about 10,000.

ESCAL REPUBLICAN MAJORITY COUNTED ON IN MINNESOTA

St. Paul, Oct. 31.—Republicans tonight claim the state for Taft by about 10,000 plurality and say that they will elect congressmen in the four best districts. COME TO THE SKATING RINK on the night of election and read the bulletins as they come in hot off the wires. Up-to-the-minute reports will be received showing the results of the vote all over the United States as well as in the several counties of Colorado. Of course, "bull" will be the next president, but no one wishes to wait until the next day to know which "bull" pulled down the plug. The rink will keep as late as any one, and the best of the skating will be given to the public as fast as they come in.

ABOUT HAIR LOSS

WHILE every case of hair loss is sad enough, there is, now and then, one that is actually pathetic. The face of the person may show no sign of approaching age but the thinning hair with its dullness and lifelessness becomes a gloom instead of a crown of glory. Unconscious neglect due to ignorance of—or indifference to—the dandruff germ is at the bottom of most cases of hair loss.

MANY WOMEN

Many women take no particular interest in preserving their hair until it begins to fall. While it is still abundant they regard the deterioration as of no account, but when it has gone far and they find they cannot brush their hair with a comb, they are often too late to do anything to save what remains.

AN INSIDIOUS ENEMY

There is no more insidious enemy to beautiful hair than the dandruff germ. Its insidious growth of microscopic organisms that find lodgment in the sebaceous glands of the scalp. Dr. Salmonson, a great doctor about town—says that this germ usually enters the scalp in the month and that months or even years may elapse before its presence is even suspected.

One new discovery are usually dullness and brittleness of the hair with later dandruff and falling scalp. Failure to use and bathe with frequent the first stages of this disease.

WITH THE NAKED EYE

It is possible to tell with the naked eye whether a hair root is badly decayed or not. Pull a hair from the head of a young person and the root will appear large, whitish and ragged, showing the perfect condition that existed in the bottom of the hair follicle. If the hair root appears smaller, ragged, flattened, appearing bent without the ragged edges, it points unmistakably to disease.

HOW IT OCCURS—The dandruff germ invades the sebaceous glands causing the secretion of too little or too much sebum, resulting in extremely dry or very oily hair, with usually dandruff and itching scalp. The hair roots are weakened by the action of the germ, and the hair falls out. The hair roots are weakened by the action of the germ, and the hair falls out.

WHAT HERPICIDE DOES

The presence of Seborrhea—Herpicide is to destroy the dandruff germ, after which the hair regrows its natural beauty and abundance; unless the disease is neglected for long. Herpicide has done and is still doing more toward saving and beautifying the hair than all other remedies combined. Herpicide is a powerful germicide and is a healthy remedy for the hair.

JANUARY AND JUNE

Successful results from Seborrhea Herpicide in January and June are shown in the hair of the woman in the illustration. At a time when the hair is at its best, the dandruff germ is at its worst. At a time when the hair is at its best, the dandruff germ is at its worst.

For the benefit of those who may not yet be acquainted with the facts, it might be well to state that we are RETIRING FROM BUSINESS and the sale that has been going on for the past two weeks is our

CLOSING OUT SALE

We had hoped for a little more time in which to dispose of our goods, realizing that a sale conducted under forced conditions is usually at the loss of the owner, but the proprietor of the building has LEASED IT OVER OUR HEADS. Our stock is as full and complete as it has ever been in the history of our business, and consists very largely of staples and necessities, such as every family needs all the time. To say that prices are low, conveys no idea of the extent of the sacrifice. Since the opening of our sale on Monday, October 19th, our store has been simply filled with people every day, from morning till night. They are laying in a supply of those staples and necessities that are constantly being needed, and that will be just as good next winter as they are this. THEY ARE SAVING THEMSELVES MONEY. WILL YOU SAVE YOURS? We add hereto a very limited list of the goods we have in stock, and the prices at which they are being sold. We had hoped to give you more prices, but have not been able to find the time. THE LIST
