

1-8-1907

Albuquerque Evening Citizen, 01-08-1907

Hughes & McCreight

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/abq\_citizen\_news

---

Recommended Citation

Hughes & McCreight. "Albuquerque Evening Citizen, 01-08-1907." (1907). https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/abq\_citizen\_news/3487

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the New Mexico Historical Newspapers at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Albuquerque Citizen, 1891-1906 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

Albuquerque Evening Citizen.

VOL. 21. NO. 7.

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO, TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 8, 1907.

The Evening Citizen, in Advance, 50 per year.
Delivered by Carriers, 60 cents per month.

COMMISSION PUTS OFF AN EXAMINATION

Into Management and Trade Relations of the Harri-man Roads.

TAKES UP MATTER OF LIVE STOCK SHIPMENTS

Kendrick of Santa Fe Thinks Cat-tle Charges From Texas Are Unreasonably Low.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Inquiry into the management and trade arrangements of the Harri-man lines was not taken up at the first session of the interstate commerce commission meeting today. It was announced, however, by Chairman Knapp that it would probably be called up later in the day.

Cattle rates and terminal charges at Chicago on shipments of live stock occupied the opening session. Chester M. Dawes, of the Burlington, asserted that it was not possible for him to furnish certain statistics regarding shipments which were required by Attorney Cowan, representing the Cattle Growers' Association of Texas. Cowan declared that other roads had furnished these figures, and that it should be possible for the Burlington to do the same. The matter was dropped after some debate.

It is expected that the inquiry into the management of the Harri-man lines will be in connection with traffic arrangements and that the financial side of the question will not be taken up.

Dawes contended that the advance in cattle rates was justified by the excessive amounts of damage paid to cattle shippers. Cowan asked for the amount of damages paid by the Burlington. Dawes said that he did not have it and that the Burlington road had not kept books in such a manner as to render the figures available.

"You come here and justify advanced rates," said Commissioner Prouty, "by claiming damages, and decline to say what these damages are? That is hardly fair. If you have not kept your books as you should, that does not alter the facts in the case."

"Perhaps not," said Dawes, "but we have not so kept our books."

The matter was finally settled by a statement of Dawes that the damages on the Burlington did not exceed those on the Santa Fe, and that he would accept the authoritative figures given by that line as representing the condition of the Burlington.

J. W. Kendrick, vice president of the Santa Fe, was the next witness. He declared that he considered the present rate on cattle from Texas to be unreasonably low.

WOOL MARKET REMAINS QUITE SATISFACTORY

Boston, Jan. 8.—The new year has opened with a fairly large number of buyers in the wool market and all branches of trade are represented. Several million pounds in the aggregate have been contracted for.

SHAH OF PERSIA IS REPORTED TO BE DYING

Tehran, Jan. 8.—The shah is dying. The minister have been summoned to the palace.

EUGENIO ROMERO ARRESTED AT LAS VEGAS

EXECUTIVE DENIES THAT HE TERRITORIAL OIL INSPECTOR IS CHARGED WITH CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Special to The Evening Citizen.
Las Vegas, N. M., Jan. 8.—Hon. Eugenio Romero, coal oil inspector for the territory, and one of the most prominent politicians of the northern part of the territory, was arrested yesterday by violating an injunction enjoining him from cutting timber on certain land in the Manzano mountains. Deputy Sheriff Montoya of Albuquerque served the warrant. Romero gave bonds in the sum of $500 and will appear before Judge Abbott in answer on January 23.

The land upon which Romero was cutting timber is claimed by William McIntosh and Romero was enjoined from cutting timber from it pending a suit in the second district court brought by McIntosh to establish his title to it. It is alleged that Romero continued to cut timber regardless of the injunction.

COLORADO'S GOVERNOR HAS HIS WAY ABOUT TAKING OFFICE OATH

WAS SWORN IN THE TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH

Believes Legislators Should Keep Every Promise Made Constituents.

GOES ALL ASTRAY ON OUR FREE EDUCATION

Church Building Crowded to the Doors by Nearly 3,000 People.

Denver, Jan. 8.—Henry A. Buchtell, chancellor of the Denver university, was inaugurated as governor of the state of Colorado in the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church at noon today. A military parade followed the inauguration. Governor Buchtell opened his address with a tribute to retiring Governor McDonald. He said that the work of the legislature for the most part will be work which the members had promised to do. Every pledge made to the people must be kept in letter and spirit. He devoted the greater part of his address to the question of railway legislation and to education.

In treating of the former, he said that the weak and impractical parts of the national law, referred to in President Roosevelt's message to congress, must be omitted from Colorado's program. Nothing should be done to drive capital away from Colorado, but instead everything should be done to invite both capital and people to the state. He said: "All our people and railway officials and all other investors of capital and prospective citizens of Colorado must come to understand that the day of political vagaries has passed forever in this state, and men of practical sense, and men of vision, and men of moral integrity, are now in control of the legislative, judicial and executive departments in Colorado."

He said that Colorado leads all other states in her appropriation, her student and her per capita appropriations, and also in the number of her institutions sustained by public taxation. He declared that the only way to increase the revenue for educational institutions is to make a reasonable charge for tuition. He predicted that within five years there will be no student in the number of her institutions sustained by public taxation. He declared that the only way to increase the revenue for educational institutions is to make a reasonable charge for tuition. He predicted that within five years there will be no student in the number of her institutions sustained by public taxation.

The governor characterized the local option law as an application of the principle of a square deal to the question of the open saloon.

The new governor, in his address with a prayer followed by the Lord's Prayer.

LARGE AMOUNT OF GOLD FROM CANADA

New York, Jan. 8.—Over $3,000,000 in gold have been received from Canada during the past ten days and a consignment of $1,000,000 is expected today. Speculation is now rife as to the probability of imports from Europe, Australia and other sources as a pinch in money is expected here this month. International banking houses believe that London will be called upon to forward large sums of money this week to Brazil, Argentina and Egypt, but point out that the absence of New York financial interests from drawing on London for gold at the present time will enable that centre to fortify itself by the gradual return flow of a large amount of money from the English provinces, or as it would be termed in this country from the interior banks through out England and Scotland. It is confidently hoped however that Secretary of the Treasury Shaw will come to the relief of the money market this week by a stringency develop which is not at all unlikely.

THE LABOR SITUATION IN MISSISSIPPI

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 8.—Railroad contractors, lumber manufacturers, and all large employers of labor are still crying for more help and wages are being offered that were not dreamed of a few years ago. Notwithstanding the fact that cotton planters in the swamp are offering exceptional inducements to negro tenants the usual immigration to the Delta has started. A few days ago the laborers of one of the lumber mills on the Ship Island road struck for higher pay, the daily wage of the common laborer being $2.25 and the manager knowing the great scarcity of laborers in the district promptly advanced the wages to $2.50, when work was resumed. Though the Mississippi immigration league is doing all in its power to deal with the situation it is thought there can be no relief for ten months at least.

GOV. H. A. BUCHTELL.

CORPSE MUTILATED IN WRECK

Pathetic Story of Grief Stricken Husband Who Accompanied Body to Old Home.

Pathetic circumstances that weave themselves into a story of genuine human interest, leaked out late yesterday afternoon in connection with the transfer at Albuquerque of a woman's corpse brought here on the wrecked baggage car of Saturday's No. 8, which was smashed up in a derailment five miles west of Bluewater.

The fact that the body of Mrs. P. D. Bush, of Washington, Mo., was received here, transferred and shipped to Washington, Mo., has been recorded by the daily press in a few lines. But it remained for the real story to appear later.

When the body was received here the box which contained the corpse was badly smashed. P. D. Bush, the grief-stricken husband of the woman, who had been refused permission to open the box after the wreck, implored a local undertaker who received the body for just one look at the face of his wife when the casket was transferred to another box at the undertaking parlors.

When the lid of the box was removed the sight which met the eager gaze of the husband almost struck him dumb. He nearly fainted. The face of the corpse had been torn and lacerated by the wrecked casket, which was a metal lined affair, the glass of the casket lid was broken and bits of the broken glass protruded from the wounds on the face.

"My God, it is possible that her face was cut like that?" exclaimed the husband, when he found his voice. "A railroad official told me that the casket was uninjured, immediately after the wreck," he said, "and they would telegraph ahead and have the body met here by the company undertaker, who would place the casket into a new box and transfer it to another train."

The casket was broken and torn, the outside covering was ripped in many places and it had been otherwise mutilated by the impact of the wreck.

The undertaker endeavored to give the man comforting assurances about remedying the unhappy situation, but his grief was hard to assuage.

HER LAST REQUEST

Here is the story the man told at the Santa Fe station, where he waited for the dead wagon to convey the corpse from the station to the undertaking rooms, Sunday afternoon. He arrived at 2 o'clock on the wrecked baggage car, drawn to Albuquerque by a special engine. It was told between great sobs of anguish that shook his strong frame like a leaf.

"My wife, the corpse in that broken box," which he indicated, died on Christmas morning at Monrovia, Cal., where we had been living for some time with her parents. Our little boy is two years old. I left him in Monrovia with his grandparents.

"On Christmas eve my wife was about town with friends purchasing Christmas presents for our child. Her last request to me was on the night before Christmas, when she said: 'Kiss me good night, dear,' and then added, 'Don't take the baby in to see the presents in the morning until you awaken me. For I want to see the expression on his face when he looks at the pretty things.'"

"During the night I got up twice to see if the baby was covered in his crib, but for some reason I could not sleep. I spoke to my wife several times during the night, but she did not reply and I thought she was worn out from the shopping and slept so soundly she did not hear me."

"Early the next morning my brother-in-law appeared in the room and shouted, 'Christmas gift' to her. She did not move. I repeated the exclamation, but she remained motionless. She can't sleep through all this,' said her brother, and he walked out to awaken her. I went with him and we turned down the covers. She lay in the same position in which I had left her the night before, but she was dead. The body was still warm, showing that death had come but a short time before.

"It was an unhappy Christmas for us. She had been a sufferer from tuberculosis for some time but the doctors said that complications of the heart had caused her sudden death. None of us had heard her complain of heart trouble before, and her death was a terrible shock to the family."

Playing With a Baby.
When the wreck occurred I was amusing a baby boy on the train who reminded me of my own motherless child back in California. When the shock came two men near by were thrown through the windows of the coach. My first thought was of my wife, and then I thought of the child and rushed to its assistance.

"When we got off of the train the railroad men said the baggage car was locked. Later it was opened, but they refused to let me see my wife. Repeated requests to a company official who was on the ground to see my wife were refused. He told me that the box was broken, but the casket was intact. I think it is, too," he said, "because she was put in a metallic casket."

Mr. Bush's feelings when he saw the face of his wife half an hour later at the undertaking rooms may be imagined.

The casket was placed in another box here after the wounds in the face of the corpse had been closed. Before it was shipped on to the old home at Washington, Mo., for burial.

EIGHTEEN NEW ENGINES FOR COAST LINES

Albuquerque Is Getting Its Share of Improvements on Santa Fe Coast Lines.

General Manager A. G. Wells, General Superintendent L. L. Hibbard, Chief Engineer E. J. Wells and S. L. Bean, superintendent of machinery, chief officials of the Santa Fe coast lines, arrived in the city this morning from the west and will probably remain till tomorrow evening. Mr. Wells is accompanied by Mrs. Wells, who will continue east on a visit.

"We are just doing our usual stunt at general inspection," said Superintendent Hibbard. "We are looking over the line with a view to spending some money we are going to have pretty soon for improvements."

"The biggest improvement being made on the coast lines at present is a new thirty-five stall roundhouse going up at Bakersfield, Cal. It is being built of reinforced concrete and when completed will be the finest engine house on the coast lines. Outside of Bakersfield, Albuquerque and getting more of our money just now than any other town on the coast lines. We visited the local shops this morning. Work on the extension to the transfer table is progressing nicely. It will greatly facilitate the transfer of engines from the yards to the back shops."

"But the best news I have to give you," continued Mr. Hibbard, "is that eighteen new 1600 balance compound engines, fresh from the Baldwin shops, are now on their way to the Missouri and Seligman divisions. Three have already reached Topeka. All are oil burners."

Superintendent Hibbard, Engineer Phillips and Mr. Bean are guests of Mr. Wells in his private car. No. 5.

SAN ANTONIO EPISODE CAUSES RESIGNATION

OF LIEUT. CIPRIANO BACA, OF THE MOUNTED POLICE, IT IS REPORTED.

Special to The Evening Citizen.
Socorro, N. M., Jan. 8.—It leaked out last night, from Lieut. Cipriano Baca's intimate friends, that the police officer had mailed his resignation to Capt. Fred Fornoff, at Santa Fe, and that the resignation was promptly accepted.

When The Evening Citizen of last Saturday reached this city, exposing Baca's disgraceful doings at San Antonio, where he took his revenge by smashing a telephone, and indulging in red-eye, his friends then, while regretting the occurrence, stated that if he did not resign, his resignation would be asked for by either Governor Hagerman or Captain Fornoff, as The Evening Citizen's correspondent had told nothing but the truth. In fact, had made his report much milder than the actual occurrence, although the Journal had seen fit to doubt the "scoop."

It is not known here who will be appointed to succeed Baca, but there are several applicants from this city and San Marcial. Captain Fornoff will be solicited to name a Socorro county man as the successor.

OBSERVE JACKSON

DAY IN WASHINGTON.
Washington, D. C., Jan. 8.—In Jackson's honor the national flag is flying over the capitol and other public buildings today. Several democratic clubs will banquet tonight. This is the ninety-first anniversary of the battle of New Orleans when Jackson routed the British army.

WOMING HAS AGAIN NAMED F. E. WARREN

By Republican Caucus as Senator From That State.

MAYOR SCHMITZ STILL TRIES JUGGLE WITH LAW

Recreant Wife and Perfidious Cousin Meet Death in Denver Rooming House.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 8.—The republican caucus of the legislature today unanimously voted to support United States Senator F. E. Warren for re-election by the legislature on January 25th. As the republicans are overwhelmingly in the majority, the caucus nomination means an election.

SCHMITZ DOUBLES LIKE WILEY FOX BEFORE HOUNDS

San Francisco, Jan. 8.—Mayor Schmitz, through his attorneys yesterday, petitioned the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus, alleging he was illegally deprived of liberty. To apply for a writ it was necessary to surrender a part of his bond and place himself in custody of the sheriff. A petition for a writ of prohibition was also filed before the higher court to prevent Judge Dunne from continuing the trial of Schmitz. The supreme court granted the habeas corpus, making it returnable next Thursday. The petition for a writ of prohibition has not yet been considered by the court.

DEATH CAME BEFORE THE PROMISED RECONCILIATION

Denver, Jan. 8.—Elmer J. Bean and Lillian M. Bean were found dead today in a rooming house. The man committed suicide by cutting his throat and the woman, the coroner decided, died of heart disease. She was the wife of J. O. Bean, locomotive engineer of Pueblo, and had eloped with her husband's cousin, Elmer J. Bean, last October. Recently she wrote to her husband for forgiveness and last night he telephoned her from Colorado Springs that he was coming. Before he arrived both wife and cousin were dead.

TO PRESERVE GRAVES OF CONFEDERATES

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 8.—All arrangements are completed for the application to the legislature for an appropriation for the preserving of Johnson's Island, Sandusky, Ohio, which is the last resting place of a large number of Alabama confederate soldiers. When it became known by the Robert Patton Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, that a northern manufacturing firm had made an offer to purchase the island the chapter took prompt steps to save the graves of the Alabama soldiers. With the result that the next legislature a bill will be introduced by State Senator Max Hamburger, of Mobile, for this purpose. The chapter has already by great effort raised a sum of money sufficient to forestall the sale.

PRELIMINARY HEARING IN MORRIS CASE

The preliminary hearing in the case of John M. Morris, the Wells-Fargo messenger charged with the killing of Catalino Lobato, at Lamy, last week, was resumed yesterday afternoon at Santa Fe, before Judge John R. McFie. The principal witnesses were the late Valdez and the claimant, the brother of the man who lost his life in the tragedy. Valdez was the first witness called. He testified that he entered the lunch room immediately after Lobato was shot, and when he saw Morris draw his gun and begin firing he sought safety behind the counter. He stated that Lobato did not have a pistol in his hand when he entered the lunch room, but that he was carrying a lantern in his right hand. He admitted, however, that Lobato was armed and that he drew a revolver when Morris began shooting, but claimed that he did not discharge it. Ramon Lobato succeeded Valdez on the witness stand. According to his story he was with his brother and Valdez at the time they entered the lunch room, but he declined to enter, stopping at the window and peering into the interior. He claimed that he saw Morris draw his revolver and fire three shots in rapid succession, after which he started for the door to see where his brother was, when Morris directed a fourth shot at him. The hearing closed with the identification by Sheriff Charles C. Clouson of the pistol with which the shooting was done.

By agreement between counsel all allusion to the original mob and the circumstances leading up to the final defense of Morris at the lunch room was omitted at the hearing. The defense were given till 10 o'clock this morning by Judge McFie to decide whether or not they would introduce witnesses at this hearing.

At the previous session held on Saturday afternoon, several witnesses for the prosecution were called. The defense were given till 10 o'clock this morning by Judge McFie to decide whether or not they would introduce witnesses at this hearing.

SOME ONE HAS LED IN THE B.&O. WRECK

Comes Down to Opposing Testimony Between Operator and Engineer.

ENGINEERS AND DREDGERS ASK FOR HIGHER WAGES

New Scale Submitted to the Goldfield Miners' Union by Committee.

Washington, Jan. 8.—On this, the sixth day of the coroner's inquiry to determine the responsibility for the Baltimore and Ohio wreck at Terra Cotta, D. C., it looks as though the jury must decide between the testimony of Operator Dutrow of Silver Springs, who says he displayed the white signal for the guidance of the crew of the equipment train, and Engineer Hilderbrand of the "dead train," who testified that he was given the double green light at Silver Springs. The Engineer's testimony is substantiated by every member of the crew of the equipment train, while Dutrow is corroborated by only one witness, J. Trundell, the aged helper at the Silver Springs station. The investigation may be concluded tomorrow or Thursday.

PANAMA MEN DEMAND HIGHER WAGES THAN NOW

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Engineers and dredgers on the Panama canal will appeal to President Roosevelt in the interest of higher wages for themselves. This was announced at the convention of the Associated Union of Steam Shovel and Dredgemen, held yesterday. A committee has been appointed to confer with the president on the matter. The resolution adopted also demands a minimum wage rate of $150 a month for engineers and $100 for cranesmen.

TWO COMMITTEES AGREE GOLDFIELD WAGE SCALE

Goldfield, Nev., Jan. 8.—At a joint meeting of committees of operators and the miners' union held last night, the following proposition was agreed upon, to be submitted to the miners' union tonight:

A. Wage scale: $5 per shift for all skilled labor.
B.—$5 per shift for all underground work.
C.—$4.40 per shift for unskilled labor on surface.

Change rooms to be erected and maintained on all operating properties. Any operator may at any time require all employees to use such change rooms in going on and off shift, and to change not more than outer garments. The miners, it is thought, will agree to the terms provided the use of the change room is not made compulsory.

DISCUSSING OHIO'S LAWS AND TAXES.

Dayton, O., Jan. 8.—At the twenty-sixth annual convention of the state association of county commissioners today some matters of great importance to the state were discussed. After the vote of members had been called it was found there was a full attendance and the mayor of the city, Cabin D. Wright, in the course of his address of welcome congratulated them on the great interest they were taking in the work. After an able address by Governor Harris on the existing laws of the state and their defects the entire association with the mayor and governor were escorted to the national cash registry factory for luncheon, after which the factory stereopticon lecture was given and the factory inspected by the association. Tomorrow the attorney general, the Hon. Wade H. Ellis will deliver an address on "Taxation" and the Hon. W. G. Fitzell will speak on "The Salary Law and County Commissioners." The president of the association, Judge J. S. Martin will deliver an address. At the closing session the Hon. Sam Houston, state highway commissioner; G. A. McKay, president of the Ohio association of surveyors and civil engineers, and others will speak and the president, Charles W. Haines, of Dayton, will announce the arrangements to be made for the ensuing year.

SOUTHWESTERN POULTRY SHOW AT DALLAS, TEXAS.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 8.—There are over 2,000 exhibits at the annual show of the Northwestern Poultry association which opened here today. Some of the finest specimens in the country are on view. The prize amount to $2,000 and special prizes of $100 will be awarded both in the White Wyandotte and White Plymouth Rock classes. S. B. Lane, of Speeland, Indiana, and T. J. Marshall of Atlanta, who acted as judges at the World's Fair are the judges. The attendance of fanners from all parts of the country is a record one.

SOCIETY WEDDING IN NEW YORK CITY.

New York, Jan. 8.—In All Angels Episcopal church, West End avenue, today the marriage took place of Miss Beatrice Knobbe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Knobbe to Raymond Demarest Little. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. DeLancey Townsend, rector of the church and the Rev. Ernest M. Stiles, of St. Thomas church. Miss Knobbe and Mr. Little are well known in society and there was a fashionable attendance at the ceremony. They will leave for Europe tomorrow, where the honeymoon will be spent.

CORTELYOU'S NOMINATION POSTPONED

As Secretary of Treasury For One Week on Request of Teller and Daniel.

COMMITTEE HEARS CASE RAILWAY MILEAGE BOOK

President Makes Some More Nominations Subject to the Senate's Approval.

Washington, Jan. 8.—At the request of Senators Teller and Daniel, the senate committee on finance today postponed for one week action on the nomination of Postmaster General Cortelyou to be secretary of the treasury. They did not announce whether they would continue their opposition to his confirmation, now that he has resigned the chairmanship of the republican national committee.

INTERCHANGEABLE MILEAGE BOOKS AT TWO-CENT RATE

Washington, Jan. 8.—The Sherman bill for the universal interchangeable railway mileage books, at the rate of two cents a mile, was the subject of hearing today before the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce. A score of railway men attended. George T. Nicholson, third vice president of the Santa Fe, said that such a law would work great hardship upon many railroads.

PRESIDENT MAKES SOME NOMINATIONS TO SENATE.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The president today sent the following nominations to the senate:

Colonel to be brigadier general, Edward S. Godfrey, Ninth cavalry.
Postmaster at Nogales, Ariz., M. Polak.
Postmaster at Dawson, N. M., Tennessee C. Hill.

PATTERSON APPROVES CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Special to The Evening Citizen.
Washington, D. C., Jan. 8.—Andrews secured an increase to presidential office.

Senator Patterson said he was glad to learn that the constitutional convention would formulate a constitution to be submitted to congress, and upon it a demand will be made for immediate admission. Constant agitation, he said, was always beneficial.

LARGE HERDS OF ANTELOPE IN COLORADO.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Jan. 8.—A movement is on foot among sportsmen in this state to ask the legislature for an annual open season for antelope, so numerous are they becoming. Owing to the law allowing an open season of only ten days antelope have been so well protected that vast herds of them are now roaming all over the state. The great increase is due to the favorable conditions existing in the cactus covered plains in the eastern part of the state where the young are safe from the depredations of prairie wolves and coyotes, who will not penetrate the cactus. Quite recently in the vicinity of Wray, Brush, Akron and Fort Morgan, herds of from thirty to fifty have been seen and it is no uncommon sight to see them racing along the railroad track for miles. They have also increased in the south, middle and north parks, though they frequent the prairies more than the mountains.

WOLVES RAVAGING IN NORTHERN STATES.

Marquette, Mich., Jan. 8.—In a report issued today State Game Warden Charles H. Chapman states that the number of deer in this section is being alarmingly reduced by the ravages of wolves who are overrunning the entire peninsula. He has purchased several pairs of Irish, Russian and Siberian wolf hounds and will organize bands of hunters to exterminate the pests. The increase in the number of wolves during the past three years is beginning to cause considerable alarm both among the settlers and those who have an interest in the game protection and the state game warden will be actively supported in his campaign of extermination.

SAIS WILL HANG SAYS THE GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE DENIES THAT HE HAS BEEN PETITIONED TO INTERFERE WITH EXECUTION OF MURDERER.

Special to The Evening Citizen.
Santa Fe, N. M., Jan. 8.—He forebore for Las Cruces a yesterday Gov. Hagerman stated that he would not interfere with the hanging of Carlos Sais, the Manzano mountain murderer, who is doomed to die on the gallows at Socorro on January 11. The governor denied that any application had been made to play the execution of Sais. Sais killed John Billingsley and William McLaughlin in cold blood on Sept. 29. His father was in crime El Paso Valley, was sentenced to life imprisonment.

THE EVENING CITIZEN

Published Daily and Weekly by
The Citizen Publishing Company

Entered at Postoffice for transmission through the mail as second class matter.

OFFICIAL PAPER FOR CITY OF ALBUQUERQUE

A DEVIL WHO DANCED WELL AT A PARTY

Given by the Walshes But Was Cast Out For Too Ardent Attention.

GOVERNOR BUCHTEL TO BE INAUGURATED TODAY

Colorado Legislature Must Select a State Song During Its Present Session.

Washington: Mephistopheles came also to the Thomas F. Walsh mask ball on New Year's eve, and, as usual, uninvited except by himself. And, also, as usual, he kicked up a row. Mr. and Mrs. Walsh had planned a very jolly but quiet little affair, sending out only 210 cards and taking special care in the list. After the somewhat spectacular handling of Mephistopheles by the hired bouncer, there was a scrutiny of cards deposited at the different dressing room doors, and several were found to bear the names of persons known not to be in Washington that night. Mr. and Mrs. Walsh welcomed their guests in the drawing room. Mephistopheles came early. He was among the happiest of the guests. He danced extremely well, he talked in an uncommonly interesting manner, and he had a proper eye for beauty. There was an element of the unusual in his conversation that gave it piquancy and charm. He was one of the most interesting men there.

He selected a charming young Egyptian dancer as his special attraction. He devoted himself to her. She was rather petite and he tall and straight. They made a fine looking couple. Her costume was chiefly gold embroidered scarfs, anklets and bangles. It was "a case," so evidently "a case," that it got on the nerves of the comparatively new husband of the Egyptian dancer. Champagne was served, both before and after supper, and the devotion and demonstration of Mephistopheles to the dancer became steadily warmer. The young husband appeared to be a little annoyed. He spoke to Mephistopheles. But the devil, having had something stronger than milk since he came, concluded there was a jest in the request of his host. Then he was carried bodily down to the dressing room. In the presence of the angry husband and the affronted host he was unmasked.

Mr. Walsh has learned that on Christmas day a man formerly well known in Washington society had escaped from his attendants in the insane asylum where he had been confined for some time, and a day or two later came to Washington. It is supposed he was the devil at the ball.

GOVERNOR BUCHTEL WANTS OATH TAKEN IN CHURCH.
Denver: Chancellor Henry A. Buchtel, governor-elect of Colorado, who is to be inducted into office with imposing ceremonies today, is likely to have the dearest wish of his heart gratified and to be sworn in as chief executive of the state within the walls of Trinity church, which he helped to build, in which he was made chancellor of the University of Denver, and from which he wants to be buried.

But the governor-elect's dearest wish is not to be gratified until after a lively fight on the question has been precipitated in the legislature. And there is a possibility that after this battle has been fought out the plans will be changed and the new governor, wily-nilly, will be sworn in either at the Tabor Grand opera house or the Broadway theater, as originally planned.

TO SELECT STATE SONG BY COLORADO LEGISLATURE.
Colorado Springs: If the plans of certain Colorado Springs society women do not go amiss, the general assembly will select a state song.

WE GUARANTEE EVERY BOTTLE

of the genuine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to be absolutely pure and compounded strictly in accordance with the pure food and drug act of June 26, 1906. You need, therefore, have no hesitancy in trying it.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

has proven itself to be an ideal medicine for all sickly people, being able to restore the appetite and build up weak or run down systems. It will also cure

Dyspepsia, Flatulency,
Bloating, Heartburn,
Sour Risings, Indigestion, Costiveness, Chills, Colds,
or Female Ills.

Try it, also get a free copy of 1907 Almanac from any druggist.

sembly of the great centennial state will soon be treated to a song session, and all to determine whether "Colorado," the composition of Mrs. Maude McFerran Price, of this city, or
"Where the Silvery Colorado Winds its Way," shall be selected as the state song.

One of the momentous questions confronting the legislators assembled in Denver to inaugurate a new governor, elect a pre-chosen United States senator, and make or defeat the making of a number of measures supposed to be for the advancement of the state as a whole, is that of choosing a state song.

The opposition of "The Silvery Colorado" have a large-sized hammer out for that piece, principally because the "Silvery Colorado" does not "wend its way" within some hundreds of miles of any part of Colorado. And as for the suggestion advanced by Senator Taylor to legally change the name of the Grand river to the Colorado, just to make the words of the song fit, "Pooh, pooh," chuckles the opposition.

"Colorado," words, music and all—an orchestra if need be—will be hugged bodily into the august halls of the legislature, and there will be sung by trained voices, and that the lawmakers will have ample opportunity to judge of its melodious sweetness, of its appropriateness and of several other things that might lead to its adoption as the song of the state.

BIG MERGER IS FORMED IN WESTERN COLORADO.

Grand Junction, Colo.: One of the largest mergers of corporate interests ever made in this city, or in fact this section of western Colorado, will probably be consummated on Monday. It is proposed to put the Grand Junction Electric & Gas company, the only electric light company in this city, the Citizens Gas & Coke company and the Grand Junction Ice & Storage company under one management. Plans for the consolidation have been under way for several weeks. The electric light company was recently granted a twenty-five-year extension of its franchise.

The big deal involves a consideration of several hundred thousand dollars, the stockholders of each company being Grand Junction people.

PLEA FOR THAW WILL BE THAT OF INSANITY

Pittsburg: United States Senator H.
C. Knox, it is said, has convinced Mrs.
William Thaw that her proper plan is to let her son, Harry Thaw, understand he will be tried for the murder of Stanford White with the "unwritten law" plea as the defense. Then, at the last moment, the plan is to have a commission appointed, after which Thaw may be wised away to Mattescan criminal insane asylum and go into retirement until such time as it is considered propitious to ask for his trial after "recovering his reason."

One close to the elder Mrs. Thaw says the plan has been adopted, following the refusal to become connected with the case of such lawyers as David F. Watson, G. Johnson, Alexander Simpson, Abraham Levy, who defended Nan Patterson, as well as several other prominent attorneys of
New York City.

With this plan, the fear of what C.
J. Holman, his wife and stepson, Howard Nesbit, have told will not bother the defense. It would eliminate a great many of the handicaps which Thaw's relatives have been trying to overcome.

MAYOR DUNNE VOTES VIVISECTION ORDINANCE.

Chicago: Prompted by a remarkable appeal by Mrs. Theodore Thomas and other members of the Anti-Cruelty society, Mayor Dunne was expected yesterday to veto the vivisection ordinance providing that dogs taken by the poundmaster's sleuths may be turned over to college scientists for dissections to classify in the effort to locate a sixth sense in animals, the sense of direction leading them to food. The mayor will recommend that the ordinance be amended so that the animals shall endure no suffering during or after the demonstrations. Mrs. Thomas, who is the widow of the famous orchestra leader, champions the cause of Bruno in a letter to the public, which reads in part:

"Do you realize the danger that this ordinance will bring directly home to your own dog—the devoted creature who is the playmate of your children, the guardian of your home and whose love and intelligence have made him almost like a human member of your family? He may be first strapped to the dissecting table and cut open so that a class of gaping students may see how a living heart looks when actually beating. After this—if he does not die—he may be skillfully treated till quite well again, and then turned over to the professors for their scientific experimenting. The men now put out the eyes that were wont to appeal to you in joy, or grief, amputate the tongue that licked your hand, and destroy the nerves of ears and nose that were ever alert to guard your home while you were asleep. When your dog has had time to recover from all this mutillation the great scientific moment of discovery arrives, for he can now be ascertained if he will know in which direction lies food without either sight, hearing, smell or taste to guide him. You will hardly recognize your miserable pet now, as he staggers blind and mutilated toward his food."

RECORD SHIP DISCHARG- ING IN BROOKLYN.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Jan. 8.—The Norwegian steamship Christian Housden has just discharged 7,000 tons of cargo here in six hours. In appearance, she resembles an oil tank, the engine at the bow being located in the stern of the vessel. She has one small pole mast through the forecastle deck, but it merely serves to carry a cross mast for the lookout man and a riding light when the ship is at anchor. The vessel has no twelve decks and has not a single stanchion, but is divided by athwart-ship bulkheads, each compartment having a great hatch. She will work in the coal trade between Cape Breton and Montreal.

NAVIGATION CLOSED ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 8.—Navigation on Lake Superior closed today. A large piece was released from the ice
a few days ago and is coming south.
During the season 127 lives were lost on the lakes, 47 vessels were totally crushed, the cost amounting to nearly $3,000,000. Navigation closed this year earlier than was expected as it is calculated that from now will greatly increase in price before navigation opens in the spring.

Headquarters For Fine Toilet Goods

We try to keep in stock all the well known and reliable Toilet Preparations on the market. If we haven't what you want we will get it for you. We are able to always serve your interests in the best possible way.

The HIGHLAND PHARMACY

Occidental Life Building.
Corner Broadway and East Railroad Avenue
Colo. Phone, Black 30.

SEEK A RELIABLE DENTIST

Full Set of Teeth ..... $8
Gold Filling ..... $1.50 up Gold Crowns ..... $6
Painless Extracting ..... 50c

ALL WORK ABSOLUTELY GUAR-ANTEED.

B. F. COPP,
ROOM 12, N. T. ARMISTO BLDG.

DO YOU WANT TO MAKE MONEY?

If you do, write the Occidental Life Insurance Co. for full particulars of their inducements to energetic men and women to sell its new guaranteed dividend policy. Some of our salesmen are making $200 a week.
Why can't you do it. Perhaps you can if you will try. We want a hustling representative in every town in New Mexico and Arizona. No get rich quick schemes or gift enterprises but a straight out and out guaranteed contract from start to finish. Easy to talk, easy to sell and honest in every particular.

Occidental Life Insurance Co. of
New Mexico and Arizona, home office,
Albuquerque, N. M.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior, Land
Office at Santa Fe, N. M.

Dec. 29, 1906.
Notice is hereby given that Santiago Griego of Cameron, N. M., has filed notice of his intention to make final five-year proof in support of his claim, viz: Homestead entry No.
10,391 made Nov. 20, 1906, for the S½ NE¼ and lots 1 and 2, Section
2, Township 9 N., Range 6 E., and that said proof will be made before
H. W. S. Otero, United States Court
Commissioner, at Albuquerque, N. M., on Feb. 5, 1907.

He names the following witnesses
to prove his continuous residence upon, and cultivation of, the land, viz:
Veneciano Griego, Salomon Griego, Dario Chavez and J. R. Carpenter, all of Carpenter, N. M.

MANUEL R. OTERO,
Register.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior, Land
Office at Santa Fe, N. M.

Dec. 29, 1906.
Notice is hereby given that Lucio
Ortega of Chilli, N. M., has filed notice of his intention to make final five-year proof in support of his claim, viz: Homestead entry No.
6,702 made Dec. 10, 1901, for the W½ NE¼ and the E½ NW¼, Section 12, Township 8 N., Range 6 E., and
that said proof will be made before
H. W. S. Otero, United States Court
Commissioner, at Albuquerque, N. M., on Feb. 5, 1907.

He names the following witnesses
to prove his continuous residence up-
on, and cultivation of, the land, viz:
Francisco Garcia, Estolano Ortega, Lorenzo Sanchez and Edward Carter,
all of Chilli, N. M.

MANUEL R. OTERO,
Register.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior, Land
Office at Santa Fe, N. M.

Dec. 29, 1906.
Notice is hereby given that Jesus
Ortega of Chilli, N. M., has filed notice of his intention to make final
five-year proof in support of his claim, viz: Homestead entry No.
6,702 made Dec. 10, 1901, for the SW¼ SW¼, Section 1, W½ NW¼ and NW¼ SW¼, Section 12, Township 8 N., Range 6 E., and that said proof will be made before H. W. S.
Otero, United States Court Commissioner, at Albuquerque, N. M., on Feb. 5, 1907.

He names the following witnesses
to prove his continuous residence up-
on, and cultivation of, the land, viz:
Francisco Garcia, Estolano Ortega,
Lorenzo Sanchez and Edward Carter,
all of Chilli, N. M.

MANUEL R. OTERO,
Register.

Wise Counsel From the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R.
Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee by all druggists. Price 50c.

A Citizen Want Ad does the work

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

WANTED.
WANTED—Messenger boy. Western Union Telegraph Co.
WANTED—A capable girl for general house work. Inquire 903 Copper avenue.
WANTED—A girl for general housework. Mrs. Robert Putney, 612
West Copper avenue.
WANTED—Two good boiler-makers,
at once; good wages. Colburn's Employment Agency.
WANTED—Girl for general house work, small family. In Los Angeles.
Call at 510 North Third street.
WANTED—Carrier for small paper route; must have horse and buggy.
Good pay to right party. 206 South
Broadway.
WANTED—People to go to P. E.
Daniel for first-class shoe repairing. Corner Railroad avenue and Broadway.
WANTED—Help furnished and employment of all kinds secured promptly. Call on, write or phone Colburn's Employment agency, 109
West Silver avenue. Auto Phone 270.
WANTED—Gentleman's second-hand clothing. No. 515 South First street, south of viaduct. Send address and will call. R. J. Sweeney, proprietor.
WANTED—Situation, by experienced electrician; can furnish best of references regarding qualifications;
sober and industrious. Address
W. H. O'Brien.
WANTED—Bids for the construction of hotel building at Belen, N. M.
Plans can be seen at the office of E. B. Cristy, architect, Albuquerque, N. M. The John Becker Company, Belen, N. M.
WANTED—Teams—The Santa Fe
Gold & Copper Mining Co. wants teams for coal haul from Hagan to the mines near San Pedro, and for other purposes. All good teams making application will be given work. Geo. O. Marrs, Superintendent.

FOR RENT.
FOR RENT—New five-roomed house, modern. 618 North Sixth street.
FOR RENT—Two rooms for light-housekeeping. Inquire at 300 North Broadway.
FOR RENT—Nicely furnished rooms, modern conveniences at 820 South
Third street.

FOR RENT—Front rooms for light housekeeping, rent reasonable.
Apply near 524 West Railroad.

FOR RENT—Furnished cottage flat; very reasonable. Apply at 110 Coal avenue, east end of viaduct.

FOR RENT—A four-room furnished cottage, close to the shops. 211 Atlantic avenue. Apply at 827 South
Third street.

FOR RENT—A six room two-story brick house, corner of Seventh street and Tijeras avenue. Inquire at Lomommi & Matteucci, 624 West Tijeras avenue.

FOR RENT—Pleasant rooms with board on ranch, 3 miles from city.
Rate $28 per month. Address box 84, Albuquerque.

FOR RENT—A 50-acre farm, 5 miles north; with good pastures and free water rights. Address P. O. Box 55
Albuquerque, N. M.

FOR RENT—Nicely furnished rooms. $1.25 to $1.50 per week; 25c to 50c per night. Also rooms for light housekeeping. The Minneapolis House, 624 South Second street, Albuquerque, N. M.

FOR SALE.
FOR SALE—Fine piano, nearly new.
315 S. Third street.
FOR SALE—A $400 piano for $150.
Call 109 West Tijeras avenue.

FOR SALE—New golden oak bedroom suite, set dining chairs, gas stove. 724 E. Railroad avenue.

FOR SALE—A good paying business best location in the city. W. H. Mc-Millan, 211 West Gold avenue.

FOR SALE—Thirty range mares in good condition. Oscar Liffing, Bernalillo, N. M.

FOR SALE—The Claude Girard property on west Mountain road. Inquire on premises or at No. 300
North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Furniture, good as new.
Range, bedstead, etc. Cheap. Inquire at once. Albuquerque Business College, Library building.

FOR SALE—Majority of stock in established and paying retail business, Incorporated. Owner wishes to leave city. Address No. 1126, Daily Citizen.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—Fifteen room house, No. 724 South Second street for property in California.
Write John Krick, 431 East Second street, Long Beach, California.

FOR SALE—Fourteen-room house, furnished or unfurnished, electric light, city water. 315 S. Third St.
Mrs. M. A. Schach.

STRAYED.
STRAYED OR STOLEN—A small brown Chihuahua female dog, answers to "Lulu." Had collar, and lock on left hind leg. Finder return to 116 South Eighth and receive reward.

Cured of Lung Trouble.
"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight of 175 pounds."
Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FREE'S PEERLESS HOME-MADE CANDIES, AT WALTON'S DRUG STORE.

For any disease of the skin there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Salve. It relieves the itching and burning sensation instantly and soon effects a cure. Sold by all druggists.

Give us your ROUGH DRY work,
Monday, and get it back Wednesday.
Imperial Laundry Co.

Everybody's friend—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Cures toothache, earache, sore throat, Heals cuts, bruises, sores. Stops any pain.

Our ROUGH DRY work don't have to be washed over. Imperial Lau-dry Co.

MOTT'S PENNYROYAL PILLS
They overcome Weakness, Irregularity and postpone the time when the "menstrual" pain is felt. They are "Life Savers" for women, and prevent all the evils of the "menstrual" period. They are sold by all druggists, and by mail. Send $1.00 for box of pills, and a copy of the "Pennyroyal" book.

FOR SALE BY J. ANN & SON.

PERSONAL PROPERTY LOANS.

MONEY TO LOAN

On Furniture, Pianos, Organs, Horses, Wagons and other Chattels;
also on SALARIES AND WARE-HOUSE RECEIPTS, as low as $10 and as high as $200. Loans are quickly made and strictly private.
Time: One month to one year given.
Goods remain in your possession.
Our rates are reasonable. Call and see us before borrowing.

THE HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.
Steamship tickets to and from all parts of the world.

Rooms 3 and 4, Grant Bldg.
315 West Railroad Ave.
PRIVATE OFFICES.
Open Evenings.

Nice, New, 6 Room HOUSE

Fine, Furnished, Fireplace, Horse, Buggy, Harness, Hay, Etc.
$3300

PORTERFIELD CO.

110 West Gold Ave.

REAL ESTATE.

WE HAVE PURCHASERS for all kinds of properties in New Mexico.
What have you for sale? General offices, St. Louis, Mo. Branch offices, Kansas City, Mo., Memphis, Tenn., San Antonio, Texas, Oklahoma City, Okla. Local offices everywhere. Address Southwestern Sales Co., 441 Old Fellows' Bldg., St. Louis, Mo.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

LAWYERS.
Ira M. Bond,
ATTORNEY AT LAW, 32 E. S. N. W.,
Washington, D. C. Penalties, land patents, copyrights, caveats, letter patents, trade marks, claims.

R. W. D. Bryan,
ATTORNEY AT LAW, Albuquerque, N. M. Office, First National Bank building.

E. W. Dobson,
ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office,
Cromwell block, Albuquerque, N. M.

DENTISTS.
DR. J. E. KRAIT,
Dental Surgeon.
Rooms 2 and 3, Barnett building, over O'Reilly's drug store. Automatic phone 238. Appointments made by mail.

Edmund J. Alger, D. D. S.,
No. 308 Railroad avenue. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.; 1:30 p. m. to 5 p. m. Both phones. Appointments made by mail.

PHYSICIANS.
DR. J. R. HAYNES,
Physician and Surgeon.
Rooms 11 and 13, N. T. Armijo building.

DR. R. L. HUST,
Office, 6-S, N. T. Armijo Bldg.
Tuberculosis treated with High Frequency Electrical Current and Germicide. Treatments given each day from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. Trained nurse in attendance. Both phones.

UNDERTAKER.
A. BORDERS,
Commercial Club building. Black or White hearse, $5.

ARCHITECTS.
F. W. Spencer, Rooms 46-47 Barnett building, Albuquerque, N. M.
Both phones.

CIVIL ENGINEER.
J. R. Farwell,
Room 23, N. T. Armijo building.

NOTARY PUBLIC.
Thos. K. D. Maddison,
Office with W. B. Childers, 117
West Gold avenue.

THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE HAS CHANGED HANDS.

For 30 Years It Was Leslie's Popular Monthly.

Ida M. Tarbell, who wrote Lincoln and the famous "Story of Rockefeller," William Allen White, the well known Kansas editor; E. P. Dunne, creator of "Mr. Dooley;" Ray Standard Baker and Lincoln Steffens are under the leadership of John S.
Phillips, now editing The American Magazine.

Never before has such a brilliant group been gathered together, and they are not only contributing themselves, but are filling the magazine with the very best novels and short stories, and great timely articles by other famous writers and beautiful pictures by great artists.

A Great Bargain.
The regular price for the twelve numbers of The American Magazine is $1.20—little enough as it is, but for a limited time you can get the November and December, 1906, numbers, with a full year's subscription for 1907 for a dollar, or

14 Numbers for Only $1.00.
Think of it! Think of the quality of reading you get for $1.00. Think of the quantity—at least two great novels, 98 short stories, 10 poems, 70 timely articles, 800 beautiful pictures, and all for $1.00.

How About Your Winter Reading?
Cut this offer out, write your name and address on a slip of paper and mail it, with $1.00. Send it now—before the special 14 months' offer is withdrawn. Send it by check, postal money order or a dollar bill,
at the publisher's risk. To The American Magazine, 141 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

How to Cure Chills.
"To enjoy freedom from Chillains," writes John Kemp, East Otis-field, Me. "I apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Have also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed to cure fever, sore, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases. 25c at all drug stores.

THE Albuquerque Lumber Co.
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL
Lumber, Glass, Cement and Rex Flintkote Roofing
First and Marquette Albuquerque, New Mexico

MONTEZUMA TRUST CO.
ALBUQUERQUE - - - NEW MEXICO
Capital and Surplus, $100,000
INTEREST ALLOWED ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

With Ample Means and Unsurpassed Facilities.
The Bank of Commerce of Albuquerque, New Mexico
Extends to Depositors Every Proper Accommodation, and Solicits
New Accounts—Capital, $150,000.00.
OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS
Solomon Luna, President; W. S. Strickler, V. P. and Cashier; W. J.
Johnson, 1st. Cashier; Wm. McIntosh, J. C. Baldrige, Solomon Luna, A. M. Blackwell, Geo. Arnot, O. E. Croswell.
DEPOSITORY FOR THE ATCHISON, TOPEKA & SANTA FE RY.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO
OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS
JOSHUA S. RAYNOLDS ..... President
M. W. FLOURNOY ..... Vice President
FRANK MCKEE ..... Cashier
R. A. FROST ..... Assistant Cashier
H. F. RAYNOLDS ..... Director
U. S. DEPOSITORY
Authorized Capital

NEW YEAR FESTIVITIES IN CAPITAL

A DRAMATIC CLIMAX IN THE FIERCE WAR FOR 3-CENT FARE

How Washington, Official and Private, Conducts Itself On New Year.

By Catherine Allan.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Washington kept open house on New Year's day, and Connecticut avenue and other fashionable thoroughfares were dotted, nay thronged, with man, mere man, frock-coated and silk-hatted and passing gayly from reception to reception to pay glowing homage to youthful beauty and matronly charms.

This is the one day in the year when the heart of the hostess is gladdened by the sight of real men at her reception, for the unwritten law saith that on the first day of the year Washington hostesses shall be at home to their men friends only, and possibly that is what makes New Year's day one of the gala days of the year, though the writer trusts no man will read this indiscreet admission. Hostesses vie with each other in securing "eligibles," remorselessly robbing the cradle and the grave, and men come, laugh, flirt, indulge in the usual inanities and banality of small talk and consume unspeakable quantities of punch and frappe, and almost forget to be bored. Every one has a royal good time, but the wise hostess, with a caution born of experience, sets early hours in the afternoon for receiving her men callers, and tactful wives ask no questions of belated and bedfellowed spouses.

All day long a stream of carriages dashed up to the white house portico and deposited members of the supreme court, diplomats, who are always accompanied by their wives; cabinet officers, army and navy officers, and, in fact, all the male contingent of official Washington who on that day must pay honor to the chief executive and the first lady. The justices of the supreme court appeared in the robes of office, the highest officers of the army and navy in their full dress uniforms, and the members of the diplomatic corps in gorgeous gold-embroidered coats, covered with the insignia of various orders of knighthood. The Chinese envoy and his staff were arrayed in gayly colored silks and furs, and corals and peacock feathers; the representative of Emperor Francis Joseph, the Baron Hengelmuth von Hengelvar, was splendid in velvet, rich furs, jeweled gold belt and the heron-plumed kalpak, or cap, which constitute the full dress regalia of the Hungarian man of wealth and position. It is a spectacle worth traveling miles to see and many out-of-town people make it a point to be present at the white house reception on New Year's day.

The reception of citizens took place in the afternoon and for hours a long line of people, anxious to shake hands with their president, stood waiting their turn, and Mr. Roosevelt, with unwearied patience, shook hands with each newcomer and smiled and said, "I am most happy to meet you," as if he really meant it, and so the stream passed on.

It was a busy day for the ladies of the cabinet, who first assisted Mrs. Roosevelt at the morning reception, and then hastened to their own homes to greet friends and acquaintances. Mrs. Root, following the usual custom, did not receive in the afternoon, but entertained at breakfast the members of the diplomatic circle, from the dean of the corps to the newly arrived attaché of the smallest legation.

One of the most beautiful affairs of the season was given on Monday night by the Thomas F. Walshes, when 250 guests were entertained at a costume ball at their palatial home on Massachusetts avenue. The guests were received in the Louis Quatorze reception room, which had received floral treatment other than a huge cluster of pale pink roses which blended perfectly with the rural tint and appointments of the exquisite room. The ceiling of the ball room was practically concealed by wreathings of smilax, from which twinkled hundreds of tiny electric globes, and music was furnished by the great pipe organ, a stringed orchestra and a quartet of musicians stationed at the head of the grand staircase.

In the large dining room on the first floor were placed many small tables seating from eight to sixteen persons, and the floor decorations of blossoms with effective arrangement of lights and candelabra lent additional beauty to the scene. The costumes were rarely beautiful, and Mr. and Mrs. Walsh alone in all that company of merry-makers were unmasked, the host and hostess not even dividing the disguise of their own daughter. Mrs. Walsh wore a handsome ball gown of ivory white satin, trimmed effectively with point lace, with which she wore many diamond ornaments, including a necklace of priceless value. Miss Walsh, as Juliette, wore a costume of white liberty, heavily embroidered down the front with seed pearls. In her dark hair she wore a small cap of pearls. Miss Hurd and Miss Jenkins, house guests of Miss Walsh, were both dressed as shepherdesses; Miss Hurd in pale blue, and Miss Jenkins in pale pink. Among those present whose costumes were notable were Miss Theodore Shonts, as "Night," Miss Marguerite Shonts, as "Marie Antoinette," Miss Helen Foulke, costume of the time of Louis XVI; Miss Eleanor Slater, as "Spang," Miss Evelyn Chew, "Dolly Varden," Miss Winifred Mattingly, "Morning," and Mrs. John Timmons, as a "Kate Greenaway Girl."

Notice of Stockholders' Meeting. Notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Albuquerque Traction company will be held at the office of said company, in the old town of Albuquerque, Bernalillo county, New Mexico, on the 8th day of January, 1907, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the election of directors and transaction of such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

A. B. McMillen,
Secy. Albuquerque Traction Co.

LIGHTNING TRACK CONSTRUCTION AT MIDNIGHT AND EQUALLY RAPID INJUNCTION TO STOP IT—SCANTLING TROLLEY POLES PLANTED IN CARTS ALONG ROUTE—RAILS LAID ON PAVEMENT—DIFFICULTY MET BY TOM JOHNSON.

Special Correspondence.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 8.—Mayor Tom Johnson's five-year fight to secure 2-cent street car fare has reached a dramatic stage.

Three-cent fare is a reality, as far as one isolated line is concerned, but there are daily sensations in the efforts to extend this line to the heart of the city where it can become a factor in the actual transportation problem.

Midnight tracklaying met by midnight injunctions are coming so rapidly one after the other that the public's breath is taken away by the paper-like feigning of the warring interests, and excitement is becoming intense.

A climax was reached the day after Christmas in an attempted coup in which the three-cent line was extended into disputed territory by a lightning makeshift track and wire construction that was brilliant as a war-time night attack with the bayonet in the trenches before Mukden.

Cleveland awoke on the morning of the 27th to find the main traffic thoroughfare, Superior avenue, already possessing four street car tracks, littered with a hastily constructed fifth track laid right on top of the granite and flanked by scantling trolley poles set in ballasted barrels and braced by loaded dirt carts.

But that was not all. The ever-ready fount of injunctions—there have been more than thirty of them since the first of the year—was routed out of bed, and the work was chopped off half finished, with only a weird, crooked track and a row of flimsy, gallow-like trolley supports to stand as monuments of the strenuous effort while the slower fight is waged in the courts.

Low fare cars have been running for months on the west side. The goal, however, was the public square on the east side, where the cars could connect with other three-cent fare tracks. The low fare company a week or so ago suddenly scored by making a connection with the viaduct crossing the Cuyahoga river. Viaduct tracks are city property and cars proceeded to run over them to within three blocks of the public square.

Superior avenue, which has always been free territory, was now the connecting link to the square, but a judge astonished everybody by barring three-cent cars from this free territory.

Then the three-centers decided to get to the square without using the existing tracks. Then came the strategic move to lay the track.

The wires extend to the goal, the public square, but the track laying was slower, and the track, laid on cleverly devised bars with adjustable clamps to hold the rails, extends but half the distance. The work begun with a preconcerted rush at midnight, was halted by the night-shirtd judge's injunction.

A permit to lay the rails has been given by the board of public service, which, with the council, is on the side of the mayor in his three-cent fare fight. Mayor Johnson was on the track laying scene in person, directing the work when it was halted.

There is a great object lesson in the difficulty met in getting a new street car line, even if it is popular, over the opposition of an established monopoly, even when its franchises are expiring and supposedly free territory is traversed. In this case, the people in three elections have spoken in favor of it and the entire city administration is fighting for the new line, and still it is compelled to fight for every inch of ground, and bitterly at that.

Many hills come from impure blood. Can't have blood with faulty digestion, lax liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens stomach, bowels and liver, and purifies the blood.

CANADIAN GOVERNMENT TO SELL SILVER CLAIMS.

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 8.—Reports are current here that the government is about closing a deal with an American syndicate for the sale of the Gillies limit, including that section abutting into the Cobalt silver mining area, and commonly alluded to as "the mineralized portion." The district is believed to be rich in silver ore. Though there are 1,400 men at work it has not yet been cleared of timber as the district has an area of seventy square miles. Two silver veins have been discovered in the district, one by a party of prospectors and the other by men at work under the supervision of the government geologist. The purchase money is stated to be $40,000,000.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY PROSECUTIONS.

St. Louis, Jan. 8.—The charge against John D. Rockefeller and his six associates, who control the Standard Oil company for operating the company in restraint of trade was opened in the United States circuit court yesterday. Rockefeller's co-defendants are Henry H. Rogers, H. M. Fiskier, Charles Pratt, Oliver H. Payne, William Rockefeller, and John D. Archbold. In addition to these the federal government is charging W. A. Harris, treasurer of the National Transit company, the Crescent Pipe Line company and other alleged standard corporations with the same offense. The Chesapeake Manufacturing company, and the Swan & Finch company will also be charged. Over two hundred witnesses will be examined for the prosecution. The hearing of the various charges will occupy at least four weeks.

THE NATIONAL BASE BALL COMMISSION.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 8.—The annual meeting of the National Base Ball commission was held last night. Chairman Mermann, President Johnson of the American League; Secretary Bruce and the schedule committee of the National American League after disposing of the annual business eliminated conflicting dates from next season's schedule.

TROLLEY POLES OF SCANTLING SUNK IN ASH BARRELS AND ANCHORED TO DIRT WAGONS, AND RAILS LAID ON TOP OF THE PAVEMENT IN SUPERIOR AVENUE, CLEVELAND, O.

GERMANY TAKES TEXAS MAY GIVE BIG PART AT JAMESTOWN DEMOCRACY A CANDIDATE

Industrially, Nautically and For Presidency Should it be Deemed Advisable to Name Southern Man.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 8.—In the great drama of the Old Dominion if the German has not been a star actor, he has nevertheless been a very worthy member of the cast. To those Germans who have made America their home the forthcoming exposition commemorating the ter-centennial of the nation's birth, appeals with all the potency of native patriotism, and to their relatives over the sea it focuses a just pride in the magnificent accomplishments of their kin on the soil of the newer world. Recognizing this sentiment the German government, when extended an invitation to participate in the celebration of the ter-centennial of America's birth, was not slow in appreciating the sentimental and historical significance of an event, which involved such tremendous consequences to the people of the Fatherland, and in the congress of the nations which will assemble the best of their navies and armies on the waters and shores of Hampton Roads, the coming summer, the land of Emperor William will contest with England herself the palm for splendor and power.

The great work already done by Commissioner-General Kohlhaas, the European exposition representative in Germany, has been greatly augmented by a second visit to German official circles. During his last stay Mr. Kohlhaas was received by the highest authorities, including the ministers of state, Herr von Reinebaben and Herr von Posadowsky, who promised him every assistance in his power, and he came away with renewed assurances and larger acquisitions. German official circles backed by Emperor William are keenly alive to the importance and necessity of their country's fitting representation among the powers of the world at the Jamestown celebration. National pride, friendship for America, and the compliment to the great body of German-Americans involved in the consideration, merited by an response to the concrete expression of which will be the martial and naval display of this great nation at Jamestown. The admiralty is especially interested in recognizing the fitness of Germany's uniting with the other powers in commemorating the landing of the first English settlers in America, and arrangements for the dispatch of the German squadron has been entrusted to Captain Stahmer, who is certain that at least three of Germany's finest cruisers will be sent. The exact size of the German fleet will not be known until after England's action in the matter. By reason of her preeminence Great Britain holds the deanship in Neptunian circles, and sets the pace and defines the etiquette proper on occasions such as this. The assured magnificence of England's representation at Jamestown will doubtless necessitate a greater display by Germany than is at present contemplated.

But it is in matters military that Germany is privileged to set the pace, and the commissioner general has been assured that the German body-guard in Corps (Emperor's body-guard) the finest regiment in the German army, with one of the best military bands will be sent to the exposition. In the department of advance science Germany is also destined to shine. In aeronautic circles the question of sending over a body of aeronauts is being seriously discussed and it is not improbable that the exposition will witness a repetition of the fine displays given by the German aeronautic section at the Milan exposition. Germany's already preeminent industrial display will be further augmented by many new exhibits secured by Mr. Kohlhaas on his last visit.

Washington, Jan. 8.—A new Richmond is in the field to compete with William Jennings Bryan for the democratic presidential nomination. He is Charles A. Culberson, senator from Texas, and twice governor of the Lone Star state. The campaign in his behalf took definite shape during the Christmas holidays. It is a carefully planned and determined movement, and gives every promise of attaining formidable proportions.

Ever since Judge Alton B. Parker made his memorable speech advocating that in 1908 a southern man be selected to head the democratic ticket, southerners in and out of congress have been canvassing the field, sifting the available men in search of the one most available. Senator Culberson alone survives this process of elimination.

It is almost unanimously agreed among southern democrats, and no northern democrat arises to dispute, that if any southern man can be elected next year Senator Culberson can be, and from now on every effort will be made to impress his availability upon the northern democracy. There will be no difficulty, it is believed in uniting the southern states in his behalf, and in the north and west, but more especially in the east, his strength and attractiveness as a candidate will be played against the strength and attractiveness of Mr. Bryan.

Senator Culberson is just past fifty-two years of age, and is a son of the late David B. Culberson, who for twenty-two years consecutively was a member of the house of representatives from Texas. Though a less dashing figure than his brilliant colleague, Senator Joseph W. Bailey, he is looked upon, especially in Texas, as an able and more dependable man as a statesman of greater breadth and grasp. His personality is a compelling one. Of medium height with clean-shaven face and hair just turning gray, in debate or on the hustling his manner is marked by a dignity and poise that suggests tremendous force in reserve. Senator Culberson never rants, as does his colleague now and then, but in a voice that is fairly ringing in its softness he can bare the weaknesses of an adversary and rub salt in the smarting wounds.

Just entering upon his second term in the senate, Senator Culberson's service in that body has been distinguished, but not sensational. He is more given to constructive statesmanship than to forensic display, but when he does participate in debate his arguments are illuminating and go to the heart of things. Senator Culberson was born in Dadeville, in Tallapoosa county, Alabama, on June 19, 1855, but a year later was taken by his parents to their future home in Texas. This gave him a claim upon two southern states was not overlooked when his availability as a presidential candidate was being canvassed. Nor did the canvassers overlook the fact that it was in Virginia that he was educated, graduating from the Virginia Military Institute, the "West Point of the South," which has given so many famous men to Dixie, he later studied law at the University of Virginia, at a time when his father was a professor in the law at the famous institution founded by Thomas Jefferson.

In 1879, after a campaign that is talked of in Texas because of its dash and brilliancy, the younger Culberson was elected attorney general of his state, being but then thirty-five years of age. He was re-elected in 1882, and two years later, was elected governor, securing a reelection to the executive in 1896. From the governor's office he stepped into the United States senate and has served two years of his second term in that body.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a year ago to make a serious effort to secure the nomination of a southern man in 1908 and the sifting of available men were on the list. Senator Bailey had a very considerable and determined following, as did also Senator Daniel of Virginia; Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, and John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi were among others considered. Elimination, resulting from scrutiny of the closest kind, disposed of them one by one until there remained only Senator Culberson and John Sharp Williams. For a long time choice hung between the two, until finally Mr. Williams definitely announced that he did not want the presidential nomination in 1908, being ambitious first for a term of service in the senate.

With the retirement of Mr. Williams from the field, sentiment for Senator Culberson rapidly crystallized, until today it can be accepted that should conditions be such that in the next nomination convention the south should insist upon consideration for a favorite son, its candidate will be the senator from Texas.

When it was determined a

THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN

Published Daily and Weekly.

By The Citizen Publishing Company

W. S. STRICKLER,
President.W. T. McCREIGHT, Business Manager.

SERMON FOR ALBUQUERQUE

Speaking of Minneapolis, an exchange says that good things seem to roll into the lap of that city, and the amazed bystander is apt to wonder how it all happens. His mouth opens in surprise as he reads that Armour & Co. has bought 900 acres of ground adjoining that city for a $10,000,000 packing plant, and the announcements of other large enterprises locating in other parts of the one-time "sawdust city" follow so fast that he does not get time to close it.

But all this has not come to Minneapolis without the asking or seeking. The fact is that there is no man there so rich, so prominent or so impressed with his own dignity that he does not hustle for the common good of his city. Factories, mills, industries of all kinds, go there because they are made to know that they are wanted; that they will be welcomed, and that every facility and help that is reasonable will be afforded them.

They go because Minneapolis and its people, rich and poor, busy and idle, go out and get them. They keep "everlastingly at it" with an enthusiasm that is contagious and a confidence that wins.

Spencer Kellogg, one of Buffalo's multi-millionaire manufacturers, told his home people a little story that will interest those who wonder how Minneapolis does it: "We are about to build a lined oil mill in Minneapolis," said Mr. Kellogg. "No sooner had this announcement appeared in the Minneapolis Journal than three bankers were after our account. A representative of one of the large banks took the first train out of Minneapolis when he heard of it and rode day and night in order to reach us first. Meanwhile another bank telegraphed us not to do anything until we got their letter. St. Paul heard of it and the St. Paul chamber of commerce wrote pointing out the advantages enjoyed by that city. We were deluged with letters offering us sites in both cities. One Minneapolis man of wealth and prominence wired that the president of the Chicago & Northwestern railway would meet us in Chicago and take us to Minneapolis in his private car to look over the property, and when we reached Minneapolis men of wealth and position were at hand to offer us every courtesy and lend their assistance and their experience."

Here is a little lesson which the fair city of Albuquerque and her business people may profitably take to heart and imitate.

CULTIVATION OF BEETS

New Mexico should be the leading beet sugar producer of the United States, and she may become such if only her people can be aroused on the subject. The Citizen, therefore, begs to reproduce the following from a late number of the Globe-Democrat:

Proofs have accumulated that the United States is as well adapted to the cultivation of beet sugar as Germany and France, both of which countries produce more of the article than they can consume. The establishment of so important an industry is one of the best advances recently made. At one time sugar was regarded as a luxury, but it has become a necessity. Its consumption in the United States has reached an average of over sixty pounds for each inhabitant. Most of this supply is still imported, but the growth of the home production of beet sugar is rapid. The beet crop in this country this year will yield $40,000,000 worth of sugar. Seven years ago the item was only $7,000,000.

Irrigation, as it is extensively supplied, will stimulate the beet sugar interests. Colorado now leads with an output this year of 300,000,000 pounds. California is second with 200,000,000 pounds, and Michigan, Utah and Idaho follow in order. Throughout the west and in many northern states the beet sugar industry is gaining ground and promises to be a steadily profitable crop. Nor is it likely that the annexation of Cuba, following the acquisition of Hawaii and the Philippines, would be a damage to American beet sugar. The demand for sugar is great and increases with bounds. Beet sugar and cane sugar have some distinctive qualities of which a larger use is likely to be made. At present the inhabitants of the United States raise only one-sixth of the nearly 6,000,000,000 pounds of sugar they now consume annually. They are glad to know that beet sugar has made good.

Y. M. C. A. STATISTICS

The El Paso Herald presents the following interesting summary concerning the Young Men's Christian Association:

It was founded in 1844, but its growth in the last six years has exceeded its growth in the preceding fifty years. The value of association property has increased in six years from $23,000,000 to $42,000,000. The annual expenses have gone up since 1900 from $2,500,000 to $5,000,000. Membership in the physical department has gone up from $6,000 to 161,000, but the association is also proud of the fact that the weekly attendance at men's meetings has increased from 52,000 to 128,000, and Bible students from 26,000 to 81,000.

In the railroad department, the number of associations has increased from 160 to 230 in six years, and from 74 buildings worth $974,000 in 1900 the property of the railroad association has increased to 262 buildings valued at $2,150,000. In 1900, 455,000 men used the sleeping rooms of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. buildings; last year 1,473,000 men used the rooms. The railroad companies contribute $350,000 a year to the railroad branches.

Nearly $1,000,000 is invested in buildings and equipment for army and navy work, and the national government gives the association every possible aid; the work of the association is especially valued by the government in connection with the service in Alaska, the Philippines and Panama.

In boys' departments, the membership has increased from 23,000 to 65,000, and the number of secretaries in charge from 31 to 175. In the physical department, over 6,000 men are directing the work of association gymnasiums.

Last year over $11,000,000 was given to the Y. M. C. A. for buildings, equipment and maintenance.

HAND POCKET VOLUME

Most valuable to bankers, brokers, investors and speculators is a new feature of the Railroad Quotation Record (175 pages), compiled by C. Mont. Benton, obtainable gratis on application to Stock Exchange brokers. This innovation is in the form of handy and original tables, by reference to which one may instantly ascertain the high or low prices of all railroad stocks within the last two, five and ten years. For instance, every one recalls that a few years ago Northern Pacific was cornered and quadrupled in price over night, but how many who were not caught short in that stock remember the date? A glance at the compact tables of the Benton company show that Northern Pacific reached its high-water mark of $1,000 per share on May 2, 1901. These Railroad Quotation Records are printed monthly by the C. Mont. Benton Co. for brokers, bankers and others, whose cards are published on the title page, and by whom they are distributed gratis to their customers. The conveniently-arranged little booklets, which slip easily into the pockets, contain the latest quotations of railroad stocks and bonds, as well as those of previous months and years. Besides, there is full data of all railroads as to their capital stock, bonded debt, dividend payments, location of general offices, time of annual meeting, gross and net earnings and summary of financial operations affecting income.

The county division question in San Miguel is said to have reached the fighting stage. The two towns of Las Vegas do not seem able to get along together, and yet some there are determined that they shall not be separated. The county division is proposed so that the old town and the new may each be a county seat. The two towns are in fact but two parts of one town. They could and should get along as one, but they won't.

Daily Optic: The publishers of the territory are uniting in an endeavor to secure the removal of the high tariff on linotype machines. Machines equally as good as the linotype are sold in other countries at half the price of what is charged for them here, but so high is the tariff that importation is out of the question. The press is united behind the movement to secure the doing away with or at least a great reduction of the tariff on printing machines. It is scarcely to be doubted that the object will be accomplished. Petitions to congress are being sent in from every city and town and hamlet that publishes a newspaper in the land. Delegate Andrews will present the petitions from the New Mexico publishers.

A Pittsburg woman in her divorce petition uses 42,000 words. Considering that it's a Pittsburg case, it may be that it's boiled down a whole lot at that.

CALIFORNIA FARMERS SCORED FOR FAVORING COOLIE LABOR

The fruit growers convention at Hanford yesterday adopted resolutions favoring the admission of Chinese laborers on the same terms as immigrants of other races. This further confirms the statement often made by the Republican, that the people of California are far from unanimous on the question of Chinese immigration. Very many business men and most of the farmers are in favor of the Chinese. Of course, the business men are afraid to say so publicly—it is not "business" to have opinions on public questions; that is the reason why business men ought to be our ruling class—but this is their private view. And the farmers, not having given away their souls with the trading stamps, quite frankly avow their opinion. The California fruit farmer does not believe in the dignity of labor. He believes in cheap labor and dear fruit. He is opposed to labor unions; eats preferably in non-union restaurants when he comes to town, and distrusts white labor, partly because he has found it drunken and unreliable, but chiefly because he is afraid of a fruit-pickers' union. He does not believe in increasing the population or developing the resources of California. He wants no more orchards or vineyards planted, and no more raw land improved. There will be more profit in his farm if not too many people raise the same products. He wants to own as much land, and have it support as few people as possible. And he wants a large supply of cheap, servile labor to draw on, preferably Chinese. If the California farmers and the merchants they trade with were in control, the Chinese exclusion laws would have been relaxed long ago, and California would already be far on the way toward a Hawaiian civilization. But the profits of many farmers would have been increased, and that is what the farmer wants. This, at least, is the attitude of many fruit growers, frequently and publicly expressed.

It is a short-sighted and suicidal policy. Doubtless there are many large ranches in California that are hard to run at a profit without Chinese labor. So much the better. It is not particularly to the interest of California that these ranches be run at a profit. Their constituent parts can be run at a profit easily, by small holders who do most of their own work. And if Chinese exclusion (with Japanese to follow, as soon as it can be arranged with Japan) will compel these large holdings to be subdivided, so much the better for everybody concerned. The work of California in this generation is to hand down to our successors an American state, with an American civilization. If we can get rich, in the process, so much the better; but if it can only be accomplished by staying poor, it is worth the price. Better an American state, getting rich as fast as we can on American lines, than an Oriental state, even with the white aristocrats richer than they could have been under Americanism. And California industry which can not prosper with white labor had better not prosper. Any California ranch too big to be cultivated without Chinese labor had better be cut up and sold. Any advantage which Chinese labor would bring us had better be foregone, and any disadvantage which Chinese exclusion causes had better be endured. For, in our peculiar position as the last outpost of the white man's world, the duty of guarding the border and keeping it white is paramount to all other considerations. The farmer may not think so, and he is no more to be blamed for favoring the Chinese because they lower wages than the labor unions are for opposing them for the same reasons. Both attitudes are narrow, short-sighted and selfish, but not unnatural. The real issue is far outside either consideration. But on that issue there must be no swerving, even when our position is against our own interests.—Fresno Republican.

HAPPINESS OF ROCKEFELLER OVER NOT BEING RICHEST

Probably no citizen of this portion of the earth had a happier Christmas than John D. Rockefeller, who found in his favorite magazine the information that he is no longer "the richest man in the world," that crown of thorns having been transferred to the head of Frederick Weyerhaeuser.

He must have fairly shouted with joy. Not that he bore any ill will to his unlucky fellow citizen, but after bearing the burden, the stings and arrows of outrageous fortune, that made him responsible for all the ills the poor consumer is heir to, it must have been a tremendous relief to find that another was to be the object of the contumely that he has suffered for so many years.

To be the richest man in the world is a most horrible responsibility. No wonder Mr. Weyerhaeuser has so carefully concealed his identity so that even the magazine sleuths have failed to detect in him the real emperor of the financial world. This silent, rugged man, broad of shoulder and unpretentious in manner has gone on piling millions upon millions until his wealth has passed the billion mark and no one has suspected that he was more than a well-to-do gentleman of merely the James J. Hill or E. H. Harriman class, too numerous in his equals to call for more than passing comment.

He has carefully refrained from founding colleges, endowing hospitals, establishing palatial country homes, giving libraries in bunches, building art galleries, posing as a philanthropist, or giving gold pieces for tips. He has kept his loose change in banks which tell no secrets.

When he wanted a railroad, he had someone else buy it for him. When he wanted a few banks or a town, or a million acres of pine, he acquired them so quietly that it excited no more comment than the swapping of jackknives.

But now that the secret has escaped through the unquestionable authority of a magazine writer who is famous for knowing all there is to be known, and then some, the world feels the electric thrill of a new sensation to which it must adjust itself, and one of unfathomable possibilities.

The very fact that Mr. Weyerhaeuser is a friend of Mr. Hill and a Great Northern director, puts a new face on the railroad situation. Mr. Hill will no longer be entitled to sympathy as fighting all by his lonesome, the richest man in the world, through Mr. Harriman, for is he not himself at the spigot of the still greater fountain of wealth? Iron and oil will cease to be the symbols of oppression which will now be the pine stump. The declining years of Mr. Rockefeller's life can be passed in the joyous retirement of a back seat while Mr. Weyerhaeuser with the footlights turned on, becomes the mark for gallery missiles.—Duluth News-Tribune.

Mrs. Calvin Chilton, Monodramatist, Congregational Church Wednesday, January 9.

People from the east and from the north will have an opportunity to learn what a southern woman can do at the Congregational church Wednesday night. Mrs. Chilton is a real southern lady. Tickets at the door.

MORTUARY

The funeral of the late Mike Gargoura was held this afternoon from the Strong parlors. Mr. Gargoura was a Mason and the Masonic lodge had charge of the obsequies. Burial was at Fairview cemetery. Mr. Gargoura, who had lived in Albuquerque for many years, had many friends here who mourn his death.

The funeral of the late Alfred Gould of Terre Haute, Ind., took place yesterday from the Strong chapel. The body of Mr. Gould, who died more than a week ago, has been held pending advice from his relatives regarding its disposition. In response to their instructions the remains were interred here.

Services were held over the remains of the late George Bunch yesterday afternoon at Strong's chapel. Mr. Bunch died here on Friday night of pneumonia. He had been a resident of this city for the past eight months having come here in search of health. Deceased was the son of Wm. B. Bunch of Gainesville, Mo.

I. M. Stothard, formerly city marshal of Webb City, Mo., who came to Albuquerque two months since for his health, died at his abode in Albuquerque last night of tuberculosis. His wife was at his bedside when the end came. She has been with him constantly during his illness.

Mr. Stothard was 33 years old. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America lodge. The body will be shipped to Webb City for burial. Mrs. Stothard will accompany it.

Charles Becker, aged 20, died last Saturday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Becker, at Belen. Charles Becker, who died of kidney trouble, was known to many in Albuquerque, where he attended the business college for some time. The funeral was held Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Services in German and English were held at the church. Rev. Ernest Moser, the Lutheran minister of Albuquerque, officiated. A large number of friends and relatives attended. The following gentlemen were the pallbearers: Messrs. L. Becker, H. Becker, P. Daffes, H. Goebel, Ch. Reinken and P. Bierl.

IRISHMEN CLAIM RIGHT TO GROW TOBACCO.

London, Jan. 8.—William Redmond, M. P., today presented to the prime minister a huge petition demanding the repeal of the law prohibiting tobacco growing in Ireland. It is signed by every member of parliament in Ireland of every shade of politics and never before has there been such unanimity among the Irish members. The petition summarizes the situation as far as tobacco growing is concerned. It claims that the Irish are merely asking for a privilege which was theirs until deprived by a statute as late as the reign of George III, when the growing of tobacco in the country was a prosperous and progressive industry. Success had been achieved and further development assured when a demand rose in England for its suppression and then the industry was suppressed without the slightest consideration of the injury inflicted on Ireland. The petition winds up with a repeal of the unjust prohibition and points out that the people of Ireland are of one mind on the subject. The prime minister promised to give the matter his attention and it is probable that the matter will be mentioned in the house of commons in a few days.

MONEY TO LOAN.
In sums to suit upon improved city real estate, or other satisfactory security. Apply to the undersigned, No. 601, corner Sixth street and Hunting avenue.

JUAN GARCIA.

TELEGRAPHIC MARKETS

The following quotations were received by P. Graf & Co., brokers, over their own private wires from New York, room 37, Barnett Building:

May cotton	.....	$9.97
American Sugar	.....	134 1/2
Amalgamated Copper	.....	118 1/2
American Smelters	.....	152 1/2
American tin foundry	.....	44
Atchafalpa, common	.....	106
Baltimore and Ohio	.....	121
Anaconda	.....	28 1/2
Brooklyn Rapid Transit	.....	82
Canadian Pacific	.....	193
Colorado Fuel	.....	55 1/2
Chicago Great Western	.....	17 1/2
Erie, common	.....	43
Louisville and Nashville	.....	142 1/2
Missouri Pacific	.....	91 1/2
Mexican Central	.....	26 1/2
National Lead	.....	74 1/2
New York Central	.....	132 1/2
Pennsylvania	.....	135 1/2
Reading common	.....	135 1/2
Rock Island com	.....	29 1/2
Southern Pacific	.....	92 1/2
St. Paul	.....	150 1/2
Southern Railway	.....	31 1/2
Union Pacific	.....	178 1/2
U. S. S. prd	.....	49
U. S. S. prd	.....	106 1/2
Greene Con	.....	31 1/2
Calumet and Arizona	.....	178 1/2
Santa Fe copper	.....	7 1/2
North Butte	.....	118
Butte Coal	.....	37
Shannon	.....	20 1/2

F. H. STRONG

General House Furnishings..

We have started a general campaign for increased business. Our business was one-third more in 1906 than in 1905, and we want it one-half more in 1907. We have the goods. We have the prices. We want the business. We will be pleased to show you through our large stock and convince you that our prices are the lowest.

Furniture, Crockery, Glassware, Rugs, Draperies

WILLIAM McINTOSH, President

SOLOMON LUNA, Vice-President

T. C. NEAD, Treasurer and Manager

For the Best Line of

STOVES

In Albuquerque See Ours

McINTOSH HARDWARE CO.

breaking in needed

The flexible sole Red Cross Shoe is comfortable from the start.

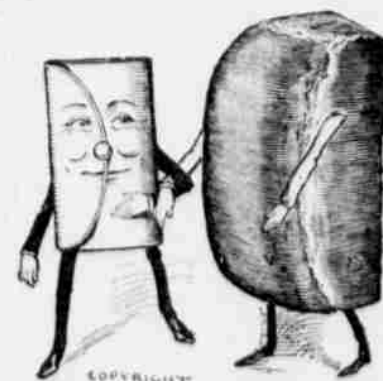

The burning and aching caused by stiff soles and the evils of thin soles are prevented by the Red Cross. It enables a woman to be on her feet for hours at a time with comfort.

A stylish shoe that's absolutely comfortable

Let us fit you.

SEE
WILLIAM CHAPLIN
121 West Railroad Ave.
Albuquerque New Mexico

THEY ALWAYS GO TOGETHER

a happy purse and a good, nourishing loaf of Baking's delicious bread. Our bread doesn't make your purse suffer. It is more economical than baking at home, and you get palatable and wholesome eating without cooking at less cost than when you bake yourself. Try some of our Butter Cream. It is a meal for the Gods.

PIONEER BAKERY,
SOUTH FIRST STREET.

J. D. Eakin, President.
G. Gloml, Vice President.

Chas. Melini, Secretary
O. Bachechl, Treasurer.

Consolidated Liquor Company

Successors to MELINI & EAKIN, and BACHECHI & GIOMI.
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

Wines, Liquors and Cigars

We keep everything in stock to outfit the most fastidious bar complete

Have been appointed exclusive agents in the Southwest for J. B. Schlitz, Wm. Lemp and St. Louis A. B. C. Breweries; Yellowstone Green River, W. H. McBrayer's Cedar Brook, Louis Hunter, T. J. Monarch, and other standard brands of whiskies too numerous to mention.

WE ARE NOT COMPROMISERS.
But sell the straight article as received by us from the best Vineries, Distilleries and Breweries in the United States. Call and inspect our Stock and Prices, or write for Illustrated Catalogue and Price List, issued to dealers only.

Humphrey OVALS

HEAT with the Whole of it.
COOK with Half of it.

Simple, Cheap, Economical.

The Albuquerque Gas, Electric Light and Power Co.

Corner Fourth and Gold Avenue
Phone Red 98

(Eighty-five Years the Standard of Piano Construction)

Conceded today to be the best in the world

Chickering & Sons Pianos

...SOLD ONLY BY THE...
WHITSON MUSIC CO.

(Established 1882.)

Come in and examine our new Holiday Stock. Everything in music from a talking machine to a Grand Piano—Sold on our new easy payment plan, 116 South Second street.

Albuquerque, New Mexico.

J. F. PALMER

Hay, Grain, Groceries and Fresh Meats, PRUSSIAN POULTRY AND STOCK FOODS, FRUITS AND VEGE-TABLES. ORDERS TAKEN AND DELIVERED.
501 North First Street. Both Phones.

The St. Elmo

JOSEPH BARNETT, Prop'r.
120 West Railroad Avenue

Finest Whiskies

Wines, Brandies, Etc.
SAMPLE AND CLUB ROOMS

CITY COUNCIL WRESTLES WITH DOGS

Ambulance Bill Provokes Warm Argument-Wanted: A New Dog Catcher.

Matters of dogs, the playing of games on the streets in which missiles are employed and a warm argument over a bill against hauling small pox patients to the pest house presented by Frank H. Strong, a dangerous and rather dry and otherwise uninteresting session of the city council last night.

North Fifth street will probably be opened up to the mountain road, at least the council voted to refer the proposition of Mr. Girard, who offered to donate the ground for the street provided that the city will have the sewer and water extended the necessary three blocks, to the city engineer and the street committee, who will report favorably upon it.

Alderman Wilkerson urged the council to tear up a dangerous sidewalk on the west side of Fourth street between Silver and Lead avenues while an amendment providing for a cement walk to fill a 25 foot gap on the south side of Iron avenue between Third and Fourth streets, to the ordinance providing for cement sidewalks on the west side of north High street from Railroad avenue to Grand avenue was passed. The ordinance comes up for its third reading at the next meeting of the aldermanic body.

Building Inspector Whitcomb called attention of the council to three infractions of the building ordinances relating to the construction of certain kinds of buildings within certain specified limits. He complained that the ordinance gave him no power to enforce them and upon asking advice of the council as to what course he should take in the matter he was advised to enter complaint before the police magistrate.

At the suggestion of the mayor the special legislation committee, of which Alderman Wilkerson is chairman, will get together and consider their campaign for territorial legislation for the city of Albuquerque, which they hope to get passed during the next session of the legislature.

"There are a number of important things to take up," said the mayor, "and as the next session of the legislature promises to be a warm one we must get in on the ground floor and be there early if we expect to get anything." Among the matters the committee will take up is that of legislation which will entitle the city to all merchants' licenses and the building of sewers.

Aunt the Dogs and "Things." Alderman Wilkerson brought before the council the fact that the city's juvenile citizens are in the habit of playing games in the streets such as "shinny," base ball and other past times, in which missiles are used, endangering life and the pursuit of happiness, if not the other fundamental right.

A case was cited where a lady on Roma avenue was struck by an alleged snow ball, which contained a rock, and other instances were mentioned of where flying "shinny" pucks made it dangerous to drive a horse on some of the Albuquerque thoroughfares. The city attorney was directed to prepare an ordinance prohibiting any kind of a past time on the streets in which a missile of any character is used.

When the Strong bill of $113.50 for conveying small pox patients to the pest house was brought up a warm time was on. Overtones went begging.

There appeared to be a radical difference between Frank Strong, who had presented the bill and who also addressed the council in support of it, and Dr. D. H. Carns, the city physician. Mr. Strong's bill was for the use of an ambulance, pay of an inmate driver, cost of disinfectants and other incidentals. Upon request of Alderman Hanley Mr. Strong itemized the bill to the extent of $75, which, he stated, he would accept in full for the $113.50. At a special meeting of the board of health the bill came under consideration. It had been referred to the board of health by the council and the board of health referred the matter back to the council. Several of the aldermen were clearly of the impression that the bill came within the city's contract with Mr. Strong whereby he agrees to transport all destitute city cases free of charge.

In addressing the council Mr. Strong averred that of the ten cases he conveyed to the pest house he could prove at least seven of them were not destitute, and that he had hauled them at the order of the city physician.

Dr. Carns stated that all of the cases were destitute and denied that he had ordered them hauled, declaring he advised Mr. Strong to use his own discretion in the matter in view of the scope of his contract with the city. Right here came the rub. The matter was finally tabled over Mr. Hanley's motion to pay the $75 and then re-advertise for bids and make a new contract for a city undertaker.

Chief of Police McMillin wants a new dog catcher, so does everybody. Do you want the job? The present incumbent of the enviable position, Ward, declares he will resign if the honorable mayor and city council desire his resignation.

Gen. Ward's record as a municipal officer was given an airing in the council chamber last night and it devolved from the statements of the chief of police and several of the aldermen that the "general's" color is against him. In fact, the "general" admits it himself. According to his own statement, his notices to tag the animals are met with contempt because of his striking brunette appearance, and other ear marks of the Ethiopian.

Ward it seems is always there when a cow or horse is to be impounded but he appears to draw the line on dogs, having impounded a tagged animal on one occasion when he was intoxicated and upon refusing to release the animal when ordered to do so by the assistant chief of police, whom he told "G'wan 'bout yon business, Ah's as much an official as you is," he was put in the city jail. The chief of police thinks the lesson had too wholesome an effect upon "General" Ward, who is admittedly afraid that he will get jugged again if he pinches a stray canine.

But the dog question has a serious aspect, and the council expects to meet the emergency by attaching more emoluments to the office and making it worth a good dog policeman's while to hire himself to the city.

Numberless complaints are heard from all parts of the city regarding the dog nuisance and the city attorney has been ordered to draft an ordinance allowing the dog catcher 20 per cent of the tag license. The chief of police believes this arrangement will attract a competent man for the position.

City Officials Report.
The report of City Clerk Harry F. Lee showed licenses collected for the month of December amounting to $593.75.

The report of City Physician Carns for the month of December showed thirty-nine deaths from all causes, twenty-three of these being Americans, fourteen Mexicans, one Swede, and one Italian. There were twelve cases of infectious diseases, four of which were diphtheria, three typhoid fever, three smallpox, one chicken pox and one measles. Fourteen died of consumption, nine of pneumonia, three of heart disease, one from peritonitis, one from intestinal parasites, one from placenta praevia, one from emphysema, one from railroad injury, one from gunshot wound, one from cancer, one from age, one from Bright's disease, two still births, one accidental burn, and one unknown. Total births, eleven, nine boys and two girls; ten white and one black; seven of American descent, two natives and two Canadians. The city physician reported receipts of $100, disbursements $36.80, net revenue $63.20.

The report of building, plumbing and electrical inspector, Whitcomb, showed nine building permits issued in December, reported valuation, $11,450; plumbing certificates issued, twenty-three; electrical certificates, seventeen; street and alley openings, eight. Notices were served on owners or agents of six houses to connect their property with the sewers abutting on the same.

The report of the city chemist for the month showed nine milk analyses made, each resulting in an O. K. Five dairies were visited by Mr. Weindl, together with Mr. Salazar.

City Marshal McMillin's report showed ninety-two arrests; 257 meals served, and $595 in fines collected. The report of City Treasurer Rogers showed warrants paid during the month, $3,673; balance, January 1, not including tax moneys due city from county treasurer, $9,884.67.

GOVERNOR HOGGERMAN BOUND FOR CRUCES

HOPES TO RETURN TO ALBUQUERQUE FRIDAY FOR EPISCOPAL CHURCH CONCERT.

Governor H. J. Hoggerman was in the city between trains last night for several hours while en route to Las Cruces, where he is called for two reasons. One to attend the good roads convention, which takes place at Las Cruces today, and the other to preside over the laying of the corner stone of the new Y. M. C. A. building, which is to be built at the A. & M. college at Mesilla Park and will take place tomorrow. The governor was accompanied by his counsel, Attorney General W. C. Reid. They expect to return to Santa Fe Thursday morning. The governor will come to Albuquerque on Friday as will several other capital building attaches, to attend the concert given Friday evening at the Elks' opera house by the ladies of St. John's Episcopal church, at which Miss Claude Albright will sing.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

The local order of Knights of Pythias installed newly elected officers last night, as follows:
Chancellor Commander—C. O. Young.
Vice Chancellor Commander—A. G. Cook.

Keeper of Records and Seals—B. K. Adams.
Prelate—W. K. Preston.
Master of Work—J. H. Crum.
Master of Eschequer—D. H. Boatright.
Master of Finance—S. E. Newcomer.

Inner Guard—Ed. Lavelle.
Outer Guard—O. A. Burner.

C. COLOMBO SOCIETY ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The C. Colombo society met on Sunday and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows:
President—O. Bachechi.
Vice President—Chas. Grande.
Treasurer—E. Gradi.
Secretary—E. Franchini.
Inspectors—Pete Dinelli, Pete Zito and L. Azario.

Vice secretary—P. Lomori.
The newly elected officers will be duly installed next Sunday.

Special Meeting.
A special meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association is called to be held in the offices of the association rooms, Nos. 21 and 23, Whiting 9th, Wednesday evening, January 9th, 1907, at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as the annual election of officers will be held and any other business that may be brought up will be attended to. Other important business will be brought before the meeting.

Mr. J. W. Klock will address the meeting on the subject, "The Shipper's Rights Under the Railway Rate Law."

By order of the president,
W. D. CLAYTON,
Secretary.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.
FOR RENT—New 4-room cottage, screened porch, barn, city water, ideal place for healthseekers, 117 Mulberry street; rent $14. John M. Moore Realty Co.

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Doan's Regulents, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulents bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

COMMISSIONERS ADVERTISE FOR BIDS

Chamisal Bridge to Be Re-built and Head Gate Repaired.

County Surveyor Pitt Ross has made some important recommendations to the board of county commissioners with reference to the county bridges and the river and dikes, laying stress upon the condition of the bridge over the Rio Grande and the smaller bridges over the Chamisal ditch and acequia on the Sandoval road.

Mr. Ross' report, which was given to the board yesterday, recommends repairs to the Rio Grande bridge, and the rebuilding of the Chamisal bridge, which will cost the county approximately $700, according to Mr. Ross' figures.

"One bent on the south approach to the river bridge needs new piles and three others need braces; otherwise the bridge is in fair condition," the report recites.

"Mr. Ross considers the Chamisal desagua proposition of the Chamisal matter of all. The report says the bridge over it is in a dangerous condition and that warning signs have been placed on it, forcing people to drive over the Alameda dike to the destruction of that piece of work. The head gates of the ditch are now destroyed and the report says more than half of the water now flows in the desagua. Mr. Ross advises that the channel be dammed at the former head gates so that the channel will be turned into its natural course.

Recommendations are made for the reconstruction of the desagua bridge, and raising it 15 inches also putting in three new bents extending the bridge forty feet to the north and putting in an earth fill at this end.

The county commissioners yesterday decided to advertise for bids for the reconstruction of the Chamisal bridge on the Sandoval road and these will be considered at the next regular meeting, and the county surveyor was ordered to take up the matter of repairing the headgates to the ditch which according to his report, now endangers the Alameda dike.

After considering all the bids submitted, the commissioners purchased a team of heavy mules from R. F. Welsh, which with a heavy road wagon cost $600.

C. O. YOUNG SUCCEEDS TRUSTEE O. L. RICE

SCHOOL BOARD GIVES TEACHERS ATTENDING LAS VEGAS CONVENTION $10 EACH.

In the eyes of the city teachers, the most important business transacted by the city school board last night was the allowing of $10 to each of the city teachers who attended the educational convention held at Las Vegas. The allowance was made for the purpose of partly defraying the expenses of the teachers while attending the convention and to encourage a larger attendance at these conventions.

The resignation of Superintendent Clark was formally accepted, and a contract with Superintendent Sterling, Mr. Clark's successor, was formally signed. Superintendent Sterling is to receive $2,000 a year, and will take up the duties of his office January 15th.

Arrangements were completed for the use of Guild Hall for the second semester overflow of second and third grade pupils. Miss Allen has been employed to teach this room.

No children under 7 years of age will be accepted in the schools after January 14th. Superintendent Clark made a voluminous report, which shows the schools to be in excellent condition. It also shows the attendance to be larger than ever before.

C. O. Young, of the local Santa Fe shops, was selected to succeed Trustee Otto L. Rice, resigned.

Present at the meeting were: President Hopkins; Trustees Washburn, Marron, Craig, Strong and Connolly, and Clerk Chas. White.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE WILL SOON BE FORMED

CELERY AND ASPARAGUS CULTURE TO BE PROMOTED, AND GROWING OF SUGAR BEETS IS ADVOCATED.

Another meeting was held yesterday afternoon at the Commercial club for the purpose of bringing about organization of a farmers' institute or agricultural society, which shall have for its object the encouragement of land cultivators and crop growers in the Rio Grande valley. Two committees previously appointed, one by the Commercial club and the other by the recent meeting of farmers united in the meeting of yesterday afternoon, under the chairmanship of W. H. Gilenwater, of the Montezuma Trust Co., proceeded to the discussion of ways and means for the creation of the institute and the inauguration of an active campaign in agricultural development.

The interest in the all important subject under consideration being great on the part of all, the details of organization were soon arranged and without exception those present agreed to use their individual efforts to secure a sufficient membership among the farmers, upon the accomplishment of which another meeting will be called and the organization completed.

An interesting discussion followed the disposition of the details of organization, and among other suggestions offered was one which met with general approval to the effect that a campaign be begun for the encouragement of celery and asparagus culture in this valley. It was developed both that the supply of these articles was much below the market demand and that the product of this soil in those vegetables was superior to that produced in any other portion of the country.

M. O. Chadbourne, chairman of the Commercial club committee, laid great stress upon the production of sugar beets and predicted for that industry a great future in this district. The beneficent effect of the proposed organization upon the agricultural development of this region cannot be doubted and it is to be hoped that the efforts of those gentlemen having the matter in hand will be seconded by all those interested in the growth and welfare of the territory, particularly in our own vicinity.

SALOONS ARE CLOSED AT KETNER

There are three less saloons in Valencia county. Sheriff Carlos Baca returned this morning from Ketner, where he informed the keepers of three resorts that their licenses would not be renewed for the year just begun. One of the closed saloons was owned by a man by the name of Mayo, who recently bought out Robert Byers, and two were the property of the firm of Crow & McCoy. Considerable trouble has resulted at Ketner the past year from drink and this is given as the reason for closing the saloons. The saloonkeepers, if they so desire, can appear before the commissioners of Valencia county at Los Lunas, on January 19, and show cause why their licenses should not be cancelled.

Itching, torturing skin eruptions, disfigure, annoy, drive one wild. Doan's Ointment brings quick relief and lasting cures. Fifty cents at any drug store.

LESS DIRT, MORE HEAT—$6.00 PER TON, GENUINE GAS COKE. W. H. HAHN & CO.

BENEFIT LODGE INSTALLS OFFICERS

Benefit Lodge No. 2, A. O. U. W., installed their officers last night. The officers are as follows:
Past Master Workman—W. S. Garvin.
Master Workman—Jos. T. Horton.
Foreman—E. F. Weed.
Overseer—A. R. Werning.
Guide—A. E. Wickham.
Inside Watchman—L. Antonio.
Financier—Jas J. Votaw.
Recorder—J. H. Sufnerberger.
Recorder—T. F. Kings.

Opera House Roller Rink

Sessions—10 to 12, 2.30 to 5.30 and 7.30 to 10.30 P. M.
Good Music and no charge for instruction.

HOLD ON! HOLD ON!

If You Want Something Good to Eat, go to the

CHAMPION Grocery and Meat Market
622-624 W. Tijeras

Big Stock of Live and Dressed Poultry

We carry the best Lucci Olive Oil.
Orders taken in all parts of the city.
Prompt Delivery.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF The Bank of Commerce ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.

At the close of business January 7, 1907

RESOURCES
Loans and Discounts	$1,005,430.28
Furniture and Fixtures	5,036.95
Real Estate	13,421.97
Cash	117,469.25
Due from other Banks	367,605.33
	$1,508,963.79
LIABILITIES
Capital Paid Up	$ 150,000.00
Surplus and Profits	59,044.21
Deposits	1,299,919.58
	$1,508,963.79

Territory of New Mexico,
County of Bernalillo—ss:

I, W. S. Strickler, Vice President and Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

W. S. STRICKLER,
V. P. & Cash.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 8th day of January, A. D. 1907.

H. M. MERRITT,
Notary Public.

DIRECTORS.
SOLOMON LUNA. W. J. JOHNSON.

J. C. BALDRIDGE.

Have Your Hand Read by Most Renowned Palmist and Clairvoyant Mme. Le Normand

Has Arrived, Will Remain a Short Time Only

Tells the past present and future. Reunites separated, tells how to gain the love of the one you desire, though miles away; how to succeed in business, speculations, marriage, law suits; locates mineral. FEE MODERATE.
ROOM 34 GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL.

J. C. BALDRIDGE DEALER IN NATIVE AND CHICAGO LUMBER

SHERMAN-WILLIAMS PAINT—Covers more, looks best, wears the longest, most economical; full measure.
BUILDING PAPER—Always in stock. Plaster, Lime, Cement, Paint, Glass, Sash, Doors, Etc.
FIRST STREET AND COAL AVE. ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEX.

Burrowes Feather Weight Folding TABLES
Round or Square

Are of neat design and handsomely finished. Suitable in every way to be used in rooms with the most refined furnishings. Far superior to the usual heavy, ungainly, noisy folding tables that were heretofore the only kind made.

Prices Range From $5.00 Up

ALBERT FABER

308-310 Railroad Avenue Staab Building

STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE Southwestern Savings, Loan and Building Association OF LAS VEGAS, NEW MEXICO,
At the Close of Business, January 1st, 1907

To the Probate Clerk, as required by statutes:
Organized May 1, 1899.
Authorized Capital $2,500,000.00.

ASSETS.	LIABILITIES.
First mortgage and stock loans $215,507.11	Class "A" stock $ 6,694.60
Furniture and fixtures 611.45	Class "B" stock 13,500.00
Cash on hand 911.13	Class "C" stock 2,369.32
Real estate 2,768.18	Class "D" stock 3,379.42
	Class "E" stock 1,839.25
	Class "F" stock 166,644.22
	Bills payable 17,256.49
	Undivided profits 7,714.67
$219,797.87	$219,797.87

I, C. E. Perry, Secretary of the Southwestern Savings, Loan and Building Association of Las Vegas, New Mexico, do swear that the above statement is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
C. E. PERRY, Secretary.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 2nd day of January, 1907.
(Notarial Seal) EDW. J. McWENIE, Notary Public.

Correct Attest:
H. G. COORS, President.
JAMES S. DUNCAN, Vice President.
W. G. HAYDON, Recorder and Auditor.

N. E. STEVENS, General Agent, Room 3, First National Bank Bldg, Albuquerque, N. M.

INVESTIGATE! 10 PER CENT DISCOUNT

All those purchasing a scholarship in any of our day courses between now and January 1, 1907, will receive a 10 per cent discount from the regular price. Enter at once. We can secure you a position when ready for it.

COURSES IN SHORTHAND, BOOKKEEPING, TYPEWRITING ENGLISH AND SPANISH.

DAY AND NIGHT SCHOOL of the Albuquerque Business College Library Building, Albuquerque, New Mexico W. E. MILIKEN, President.

HANDSOME Souvenir Crockery VIEWS OF Alvarado, Cathedral, Commercial Club Household Goods of Every Description

Borradaile & Co.
117 W. Gold Ave.

Convenience - Comfort - Security

The telephone makes the duties lighter, the cares less, and the worries fewer.

The telephone preserves your health, prolongs your life and protects your home.

YOU NEED A TELEPHONE IN YOUR HOME
THE COLORADO TELEPHONE CO.

Doctor McCormick

Temporary offices, 522 West Railroad avenue. Nervous diseases of women a specialty. Treatment for the permanent cure of all drug habits undertaken. The liquor disease absolutely cured or not pay; you to judge and pay after cured. My treatment may be sent to your home on a most liberal guarantee, a stamp brings particulars. All business strictly confidential. Hours 1 to 3 o'clock. W. W. MCCORMICK, M. D. Sixth street and Railroad avenue, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The Matthew Dairy Co.

Start the New Year With a Greeting to All.

Messrs. Jones and McFall, experienced men just from the Bell Vernon Farms Co. Dairy, of Los Angeles, will have the business in charge. This means you will get the best dairy products on the market. One trial and you are our customer.

Yours for 1907,
THE MATTHEW DAIRY CO.
THOMPSON, JONES and McFALL, Proprietors.

GOVERNMENT IS NOT NECESSARY FOR MASSES

CONCLUDING HIS ARTICLE ON THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION, THE COUNT ARGUES IN HIS ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE THAT PUBLIC AFFAIRS WILL MOVE ALL RIGHT WITHOUT A CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.

NOTE.—The following is the conclusion of Count Tolstoy's article on the Russian revolution.—Editor.

(By Count Leo Tolstoy.)

TO THE PEOPLE.—CONCLUDED.

"But if we, Russian folk, begin at once to live like that, not obeying the government, there will be no Russia," say those to whom it seems that the existence of Russia, that is to say the union of many different nations under one government, is something important, great and useful.

In reality, this combination of many different nations, called Russia, is not only not important for you, Russian working men, but just this combination is a chief cause of your miseries.

If they oppress you with taxes and duties, as the oppressed you are, fathers, accumulate vast debts which you have to pay; if they take you as soldiers and send you to different ends of the earth to fight people with whom you have nothing to do, and who have nothing to do with you, all this is only done to maintain Russia, i. e., to maintain a forcible combination of Poland, the Caucasus, Finland, Central Asia, Manchuria, and other lands and peoples, under one rule.

But besides the fact that all your ills come from this union called Russia, this union involves a great sin, in which you involuntarily participate when you obey government. That there should be a Russia such as the existing one, the Poles, Finns, Letts, Georgians, Tartars, Armenians and others have to be held in subjection.

And to hold them in subjection, it is necessary to forbid them to live as they wish to, and if they disobey this order, they have to be punished and killed. Why should you take part in these evil deeds when you yourselves suffer from them?

"But how, without a government, and when all live in separate communities, are all large public affairs to be arranged? How will the ways of communication, railways, telegraphs, steamers, the post, the higher educational establishments, the libraries, and trade be managed without a government?"

People are so accustomed to see the government control all public af-airs that it seems to them that the work itself is done by government, and that without government it is impossible to organize high schools, ways of communication, postoffices, libraries or commercial relations. But this is not true. The largest public affairs, not only national, but international, are arranged by private individuals without governmental assistance. In this way all kinds of international postal, learned, commercial and industrial alliances are arranged. Governments not only do not do these voluntarily organized unions, but when they take part in them they always hinder them.

TASSAYA POLYANA. TOLSTOY'S HOME.

"But if you do not obey the government, and do not pay taxes or supply soldiers, foreign nations will come and conquer you," and those who wish to rule over you. Do not believe it. Only live acknowledging the land to be common property; not going as soldiers, and not voluntarily give for public works) and peacefully settling your disagreements through your village communities; and other nations, seeing your good life, will not come and conquer you, or, if they come, on getting to know your good life will adopt it, and instead of fighting you will unite with you.

For all the nations, like you yourselves, have suffered and now suffer from governments; from the strife (in war, trade and industry) of different governments against one another, and from the strife of classes, and of different parties. Among all Christian nations an inner labor is going on, the chief aim of which is emancipation from governments.

But this emancipation is particularly difficult for nations in which the majority have abandoned agricultural life and live an industrial town life, employing the labor of other races. Among such nations emancipation is being prepared by socialism. But for you, Russian laborers, living mainly an agricultural life, and supplying your own needs, this emancipation is particularly easy. Government for you has long ceased to be a necessity, or even a convenience, and has become a great and uncompensated burden and misfortune.

But government is not some essential condition of human life, life the cultivation of the soil, marriage, the family or human intercourse, which will exist as long as mankind lasts. Government is a human institution, and, like all human institutions, is set up when it is needed and abolished when it becomes unnecessary.

The shell is necessary for the egg until the bird is hatched. But when the bird is ready, the shell is but a hindrance. So it is with governments; most Christian nations feel this. Of course, Russian agricultural people now feel this acutely.

"Government is necessary, we cannot live without a government," men say, and they are specially convinced of this now, when there are disturbances among the people. But who are these men, so concerned for the preservation of the government? They are the very men who live on the labor of the people, and, conscious of this sin, fear its exposure, and hope that the government (being bound to them by unity of interest) will protect their wrongdoing by force. For these men the government is very necessary, but not for you—the peasant. For you the government has always been simply a burden; and now, having by its evil rule provoked riots and brought it to pass that there are two rival governments, it has become an evident misfortune and a great sin, which you for your bodily and spiritual welfare must repudiate.

You, country laborers as well as town workers, may at first have to suffer at the hands of the old as well as of the new governments for your disobedience and also from disagreements arising among yourselves; but all the ills that may come from these causes are as nothing compared to the ills and sufferings you now endure and will yet have to endure from the government, if (obeying one or other government) you are drawn into participation in the murders, executions and civil strife that are to now being committed, and that will yet long continue to be committed.

From the present difficult circumstances you, Russian working people, have but one way to escape, and that is by refusing to obey any force using authority—humbly and meekly enduring violence and refusing to participate in it.

This way to escape is simple and easy, and undoubtedly leads to welfare. But to act in this way you must submit to the government of God and to His law. "He that endureth to the end will be saved," and your salvation is in your own hands.

STORY OF MASSACRE BY YAGUI INDIANS

Engineer Fleming's Graphic Description of Murder of Eight People.

D. G. Fleming, the engineer of the freight train which on the night of December 22 pulled into Lencho station in Sonora and found it a blazing ruin with eight of its people massacred by Yagui Indians is staying in Tucson. Fleming was present by press representative and told with graphic detail of the horrible affair: "I ain't a hero and did no fighting—mark that down first," said Fleming. "We never had a chance to fight because the Yaguies they vanished, but say—if us Americans had been close to the railroad track, and saw what they had done to the women folks at Lencho, there might have been a fight—there sure might have been a little one."

"We saw the band as it was leaving Lencho and before we knew anything about the trouble, there were between a hundred and a hundred and fifty of them. They were the wild kind—came down from the mountains, I guess—and they were mighty drunk and mighty pleased as they went away. Some were on horses and some on mules, and they were close to the railroad track but didn't attempt to harm us."

"The first we knew of the trouble was when a bunch of Mexican soldiers flagged the train and told us there had been a killing down the road. Then we went on to Lencho as fast as old 210 could hurry."

"There wasn't very much to see. The cantina there, where the Mexicans lived and ate was all burned down. The embers lighted up the place a bit and close by them was the woman and the child had been cut from her body. The Yaguies had done her one mercy, they had shot her first. Three other women were killed there and their bodies slashed with knives. One of them was young and quite pretty and they had not hurt her face. It was the 17-year-old sister of the dead woman. The Yagui took away with her. I reckon she wishes she was in her sister's place."

"The Indians had killed four men and wounded four, and the sport was just what they liked. There never was no fight. The people at the station were taken by surprise and I don't think fired a shot. They just ran and hid like rabbits. They never had no chance."

"Thompson, the operator and foreman there, and his wife and kid hid under the floor of their tent house. The Yaguies got all the metal at the cantina and a lot of them sat on the floor under which the Thompsons were and boozed. They were talking of burning down the tent, but didn't."

"Thompson said the Yaguies had hid under a bridge until dark and about 8:30 o'clock he rushed the station. He is a game man, Thompson; but as I said before, he had no chance. He said if he had had a gun he would have saved it for the wife and kid. Thompson, you see, he knows the Yaguies."

"It was 8:45 o'clock when our train pulled into Lencho, but some of the Mexican soldiers were there ahead of us. They didn't follow the Yaguies that night, but maybe news that they were coming hurried the Yaguies off, and that was a lot of help to the Thompsons and some of the other people there."

"Before they went the Indians got mighty good and full on the mesquite they had stolen. They swiped all the provisions and clothes in camp and cleaned things up completely."

"When they were going away the Yaguies set fire to the railroad bridge, but Brakeman Curtis found the blaze while it was young and we put it out. "There was a rumor around on December 24 that the same band was going to attack Esperanza, but General Torres sent some troops there and nothing happened."

"They may now down there that the government is going to transport all the Yaguies it can by its hands on from Sonora to Yucatan. So far, though, they ain't taken any steps in that direction."

Fleming says that he will likely make his home in Tucson. He is no longer in the employ of the Canadian, Yagui River & Pacific railroad.

NO ALIEN BLOOD FLOWS IN THE VEINS OF THESE PANAMA INDIANS

UNSUBDUED TRIBE, WITH ITS OWN RELIGION AND NOTIONS AND NO LIKING FOR OUTSIDERS, LIVES A MILE BEYOND THE CANAL ZONE.

Panama, Jan. 8.—When Uncle Sam took over a ten-mile strip of land from the republic of Panama for a canal zone, he came within one mile of getting also the San Blas Indians, probably the only unsubdued tribe of aborigines on the western hemisphere.

A bamboo hut to live in, plural wives, many children, the right to snare the tortoise, to gather the coconut and to worship unmolested in his own way—that is the San Blas idea of civilization, and with bow and arrow, bolo and machete he is always ready to fight for it.

From time to time the missionary has sought out the San Blas. The mila of the village, through his interpreter, has heard him calmly and respectfully through and then has told the missionary of his own religion, the encircling rock room for improvement and has incidentally mentioned an ancient custom of his people to permit no stranger able to walk to remain within the village over night.

And no stranger ever does stay over night.

The San Blas Indian is a true product of Central American soil. He was here before the Spaniard. Long and bloody were the wars of the two people. But he never was conquered. A century ago he made a final and successful stand at Portobelo, and then at his leisure retreated fifty miles, jungleward to where the Chagres cuts the Andes range in twain. There he built his ten villages and there to this day he has lived in peace.

The San Blas Indians worship the Mighty Spirit, which they believe gave them life and takes them in death. Each village has its priest or mila, who is also the chief counselor. There are an arzoque and a tuete teacher and physician. He acts as interpreter to the mila on the occasion of visits from people not of their race. The cacique of Sasardi rules over all. The San Blas has no belief in the pearly gates of Christianity's hereafter, but he does believe that if he shall do well his part here below, eternal rest shall be his reward hereafter, and that he shall be damned in proportion as he shall have sinned. The black sins are:

1.—Marriage with one not of his own race.

2.—Refusal to give his life for his religion, home or tribe.

3.—Refusal to kill wife or daughter before allowing them to be taken captive.

4.—Insanity.

5.—Desecration of the dead's resting place.

In consequence of the first singular belief the San Blas is absolutely unmixed for death and eternal damnation are the portion of him who marries another than a San Blas. Every man is a warrior, trained in the use of the primitive weapons of the jungle.

The youth upon receiving his first bow and arrows, must take an oath that should he be called to a battle in which the loss of his life is certain, he must before setting forth first kill his wife, daughters and infant sons.

Insanity is construed to be incontrovertible evidence that the life of the victim has been sinful and that he has sold his soul to the evil spirits.

Each family has its own cemetery. The dead are placed in hammocks of bark and hung within a palm inclosure. This place is sacred beyond all else, and must be guarded as jealously as the family.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

Each man, upon taking his first wife, must render to his wife's father the products of his labor till a child shall be born. He may later take additional wives in such number as the mila of his station in the tribe may entitle him to. But none may entitle him to. But none may marry till he has provided a bamboo home for each wife.

HOODOO NECKLACE SOLD AT AUCTION

FAMOUS $125,000 'HOODOO' ROPE OF PEARLS DISPOSED OF AFTER SEVERAL SUCCESSIVE OWNERS HAVE MET WITH HARD LUCK.

Special Correspondence.

New York, Jan. 8.—Deep mystery surrounds the identity of the New York "broker" who is said to have laid a diamond merchant for $65,000. The magnificent rope passed into other hands and finally became the property of a New York broker who had struck it rich in Wall street. The jewels were worn by his wife.

Now, according to the anonymous statements of the auctioneer, the broker is hard pressed. On this account he was forced to realize ready cash upon the pearls.

Only active members of the organization were entitled to vote, active members being those who are members of some evangelical church. Thirty-three votes were cast or over fifty per cent of the active membership. The polls were open from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. There was little interest taken in the election, although there was some scratching of the official ticket.

A meeting of the newly-elected board will be called by the general secretary this week, probably Wednesday night, and an election of officers will be held, as there is a new president, vice president, treasurer and recording secretary to be chosen for the current year.

A Jamaica Lady Speaks Highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mrs. Michael Hart, wife of the superintendent of Cart Service at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies Islands, says that she has for some years used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, croup and whooping cough and has found it very beneficial. She has implicit confidence in it and would not be without a bottle of it in her home. Sold by all druggists.

Iron beds, mattresses, couch covers, porters, 117 Gold avenue, Borradaile & Co.

If you have tried other tailors and are not satisfied why not try us. We know we can please you, once you get a suit of us you are sure to come again, as our work is all strictly first class.

Cleaning, pressing and repairing neatly done on short notice. If you want something right give us a trial.

F. TOMEI & BRO.
119 Railroad Avenue

How to Prevent Bilious Attacks.

One who is subject to bilious attacks will notice that for a day or more before the attack he is not hungry at meal times and feels dull after eating. A dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when these first symptoms appear will ward off the attack. They are for sale by all druggists.

The Cleanest Beer!

Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer is cleanest because it is not fermented in open vats, but in special Pabst hermetically sealed tanks into which no air except pure, filtered air ever enters.

Pabst Blue Ribbon is cleanest because it is not cleaned in rooms where men walk in and out, but in specially constructed sealed coolers where no breath of foul air can taint it. It is stored in hermetically sealed storage tanks until perfect in age, purity and strength, the cleanest beer brewed.

The "HOODOO" NECKLACE.

been forced by financial straight to dispose of the famous $125,000 "hoodoo" pearl necklace that was once the gift of a Russian czar to a faithful ambassador.

The necklace was recently sold at auction in a Fifth avenue art gallery for $85,000. The purchasers were a firm of jewelers.

The "hoodoo" necklace has a remarkable history full details of which are unknown to any except the principals. The Russian ambassador to Austria had greatly pleased old Czar Nicholas III by a clever stroke of diplomacy. As a reward the czar ordered that the finest pearls in his empire be gathered and strung and presented to his faithful agent.

This was done at a cost of $125,000. Later the ambassador fell from grace in Paris and sold the necklace to a diamond merchant for $65,000. The magnificent rope passed into other hands and finally became the property of a New York broker who had struck it rich in Wall street. The jewels were worn by his wife.

Now, according to the anonymous statements of the auctioneer, the broker is hard pressed. On this account he was forced to realize ready cash upon the pearls.

Only active members of the organization were entitled to vote, active members being those who are members of some evangelical church. Thirty-three votes were cast or over fifty per cent of the active membership. The polls were open from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. There was little interest taken in the election, although there was some scratching of the official ticket.

A meeting of the newly-elected board will be called by the general secretary this week, probably Wednesday night, and an election of officers will be held, as there is a new president, vice president, treasurer and recording secretary to be chosen for the current year.

GOV. OTERO WILL ENGAGE IN MINING

Together With Col. Trichard ---Corona Queen Mining Co. Organized.

Articles of incorporation of the Corona Queen Mining company, will be filed in the near future at the office of Territorial Secretary J. H. Reynolds. The total authorized capitalization will be $2,000,000, and the principal place of business of the company will be in Santa Fe.

The organization of the corporation was practically completed at a meeting of the stockholders Saturday in the office of Colonel George W. Pritchard. At this meeting a board of seven directors were elected consisting of the incorporators who are Henry Eade Churchman and Oscar William Selligman of London, H. Harry Meyers of New York, and Miguel A. Otero and Governor W. Pritchard. Santa Fe. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year from April 2, 1907: Miguel A. Otero, president; H. Harry Meyers, vice president and general manager; and Oscar W. Selligman, treasurer. The election of a secretary will be held later. Ex-Governor Otero is designated as the agent upon whom process can be served as required by law, and Colonel Pritchard is named as the solicitor of the company.

The Corona Queen Mining company takes stockholders consisting of eighteen claims located in the Manzano mountains in Lincoln county. The actual amount with which the company will commence business is $2,000. The first stock will be issued to ex-Governor Otero, from whom the deeds of conveyance will be received, and at a later date the president and secretary will issue shares to the other stockholders in proportion to their holdings.

"The vice president and general manager of the company have gone to the mines with a view of having the work to be performed on the property," Colonel Pritchard stated. "The work of development will commence as soon as practicable. The articles of incorporation will be filed and published in due course of time."

The cash consideration for the amount of stock for the mining property has not been made public, but it is understood to be in the five figures.

NOTICE OF PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior, Land Office at Santa Fe, New Mexico.
December 25, 1906.

Notice is hereby given that Pablo Gallegos of Belen, N. M., has filed notice of his intention to make final five year proof in support of his claim, viz: Homestead Entry No. 6621, made October 21, 1901, for the NW 1/4, Section 2, Township 4 N., Range 3 W., and that said proof will be made before Jesus Luna, Probate Clerk at Los Lunas, N. M., on February 7, 1907.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon, and cultivation of, the land, viz: Ruperto Jaramillo, of Belen, N. M.; Simon Serna, of Los Chavez, N. M.; Pablo Hales, of Los Lunas, N. M.; Jesus Jaramillo y Gallego, of Belen, N. M.

MANUEL R. OTERO,
Register.

How to Prevent Bilious Attacks.

One who is subject to bilious attacks will notice that for a day or more before the attack he is not hungry at meal times and feels dull after eating. A dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when these first symptoms appear will ward off the attack. They are for sale by all druggists.

The Cleanest Beer!

Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer is cleanest because it is not fermented in open vats, but in special Pabst hermetically sealed tanks into which no air except pure, filtered air ever enters.

Pabst Blue Ribbon is cleanest because it is not cleaned in rooms where men walk in and out, but in specially constructed sealed coolers where no breath of foul air can taint it. It is stored in hermetically sealed storage tanks until perfect in age, purity and strength, the cleanest beer brewed.

The "HOODOO" NECKLACE.

been forced by financial straight to dispose of the famous $125,000 "hoodoo" pearl necklace that was once the gift of a Russian czar to a faithful ambassador.

The necklace was recently sold at auction in a Fifth avenue art gallery for $85,000. The purchasers were a firm of jewelers.

The "hoodoo" necklace has a remarkable history full details of which are unknown to any except the principals. The Russian ambassador to Austria had greatly pleased old Czar Nicholas III by a clever stroke of diplomacy. As a reward the czar ordered that the finest pearls in his empire be gathered and strung and presented to his faithful agent.

This was done at a cost of $125,000. Later the ambassador fell from grace in Paris and sold the necklace to a diamond merchant for $65,000. The magnificent rope passed into other hands and finally became the property of a New York broker who had struck it rich in Wall street. The jewels were worn by his wife.

Now, according to the anonymous statements of the auctioneer, the broker is hard pressed. On this account he was forced to realize ready cash upon the pearls.

Only active members of the organization were entitled to vote, active members being those who are members of some evangelical church. Thirty-three votes were cast or over fifty per cent of the active membership. The polls were open from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. There was little interest taken in the election, although there was some scratching of the official ticket.

A meeting of the newly-elected board will be called by the general secretary this week, probably Wednesday night, and an election of officers will be held, as there is a new president, vice president, treasurer and recording secretary to be chosen for the current year.

A Jamaica Lady Speaks Highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mrs. Michael Hart, wife of the superintendent of Cart Service at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies Islands, says that she has for some years used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, croup and whooping cough and has found it very beneficial. She has implicit confidence in it and would not be without a bottle of it in her home. Sold by all druggists.

Iron beds, mattresses, couch covers, porters, 117 Gold avenue, Borradaile & Co.

If you have tried other tailors and are not satisfied why not try us. We know we can please you, once you get a suit of us you are sure to come again, as our work is all strictly first class.

Cleaning, pressing and repairing neatly done on short notice. If you want something right give us a trial.

F. TOMEI & BRO.
119 Railroad Avenue

PUT YOUR MONEY INTO A KITCHEN CABINET

Start the New Year Right

Save Your Money for a HOOSIER KITCHEN CABINET

J. D. EMMONS,

Write for Booklet. The Furniture Man, Cor. Coal & Second, East end Viaduct, Cor. Coal and Second, Auto Phone 474, Colo Phone R 177

OPERATOR LYNES WAS INCOMPETENT

Responsible for Rock Island Wreck at Volland, Kansas.

A dispatch from San Antonio, Tex., dated January 7, says:

John Lynes, the telegraph operator who is charged with responsibility for the wreck on the Rock Island railroad near Volland, Kan., in which thirty-three persons were killed and fifty-five injured, is a San Antonio boy. He was raised in this city.

Lynes only recently finished a course of telegraphy in a school in this city and went to El Paso, where he got a position with the Rock Island and was sent to his station at Volland, Kan.

Only the day before the wreck G. C. Redgway, elevator operator at the federal building and who was in school with Lynes, received a post card from the latter stating that he was stationed at Volland and was well pleased with his employment.

Lynes was for a time messenger boy at the Sunset and the Arkansas Pass dispatchers' offices in this city. His father and mother did reside here, but moved to Los Angeles, Cal., several months ago.

Mr. Redgway says that Lynes must have misrepresented his age to the Rock Island, as he knows that he is only 17 years of age, instead of 19 years old, as was reported in the post card. He was well grown for his age and could easily have passed for a man of the age he claimed.

Lynes' last employment in this city was at the Sunset dispatcher's office as messenger boy. This was about six months ago. He is under arrest at Topeka, Kan.

The El Paso Herald, in its comment, says:

Lynes was employed by the Southwestern for a period of ten days this summer. He was sent out from El Paso to Pictoria, a station near Santa Rosa, on the Southern, during the month of June, as telegraph operator. He was discharged ten days afterward for incompetency, according to Southwestern officials, and is said to have gone to the Rock Island, being employed by that road as operator at Volland.

BOY OPERATOR DECEIVED THE RAILROAD COMPANY.

It has developed that John Lynes, the 18-year-old telegraph operator at Volland, Kan., whose failure to deliver a dispatcher's order caused the disastrous wreck between Volland and Alta Vista, deceived the Rock Island officials in his application for employment on file at Topeka. In his application Lynes made the statement that he was born in 1883, which would make him in his twenty-fourth year. The fact that he was only 18 did not become known to the railway officials until he made a sworn statement after his arrest.

Lynes was sent to Volland as assistant to the regular operator. Both received a 15 per cent advance in salary December 1, along with other Rock Island operators in Kansas.

TRAINMASTER WOULD MAKE ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT.

G. H. Wald, who for the past twelve months has been trainmaster for the G. H. & S. A. at El Paso, has been promoted to assistant superintendent of the El Paso division of that road. Mr. Wald's promotion went into effect January 1. Mr. Wald began service with the Atlantic coast branch of the Southern Pacific system on the eastern end of that section of the road, and a year ago was transferred to this division.

The office of trainmaster has been abolished and hereafter all correspondence formerly addressed to that official should be sent to the assistant superintendent.

Engineer Arthur McKensie, whose engine was side-swiped by another at Glorieta the other day, with the result that he had the index finger of the good right hand snapped off at the first joint while he was leaning out of the cab of his iron monster, taking his bearings, has returned to the throttle, slightly disabled, but still in the ring.

J. H. Shirk, who has been depot agent of the Santa Fe at Harper, Kan., for some time, has been appointed to the position of depot agent for the Santa Fe at Wellington. E. S. Dunn, relief agent of the Santa Fe, has been acting as agent at Wellington since the transfer of the former Wellington agent, Joe King, to Dodge City.

Charley Robinson, former baggage master at the Las Vegas depot, who has come down from La Junta, Colo., and gone to switching in the Las Vegas railroad yard, is accompanied to that city by his wife.

Mrs. F. B. January and child, of Las Vegas, are here, visiting her sister, Mrs. W. K. Ritter, wife of the popular division superintendent of the Santa Fe.

The lecture of Mrs. S. S. Frackleton, on "Art and Crafts," at the railroad reading rooms last night, was exceedingly interesting and enjoyed by a large audience.

attend. Bernalillo county, however, is entitled to ten delegates. Copies of the official call, and an urgent invitation to appoint delegates at once, have been sent to the county commissioners, and it is expected that they will act in the matter within the next few days.

In spite of the voting limit, however, it is desired that every farmer and business man in Bernalillo county who is interested in dry farming and can get away from home should attend, regardless of whether or not he is an official delegate from the county. Convention headquarters have been opened at Room 5, Albany hotel, Denver, where all visitors to the city will be made welcome, and full information given.

WHO'S THIS BURKE?

WHY, HE'S THAT SMART YOUNG CONGRESSMAN FROM PITTSBURGH WHO HAD THE NERVE TO ANSWER JOHN SHARPE WILLIAMS.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 8.—"Who is Burke?" is a question that's being asked daily in the national capital. In fact, it's been on the tongue there more or less since the opening day of congress when Congressman James Francis Burke dared reply to John Sharpe Williams and got "sat on" and dubbed one of the "kid" members of congress. And it's still asked, because he's continually doing something.

Like fiction reads the story of the rise of Mr. Burke from errand boy in a big Pittsburgh dry goods store to congressman. He was born thirty-nine years ago in a farm in Venango county, of Irish parents. The family being very poor, young James, at the age of twelve, came to Pittsburgh in 1879 and began as an errand boy. He saved his money, bought books and studied nights. Then he wanted more money, and in legitimate business as an expert stenographer. Good wages at that carried him through college in 1892.

CONGRESSMAN AND MRS. BURKE.

He was a good talker and soon began the study of law, being admitted to the bar several years later. He has handled many famous cases.

Since the opening of congress he has secured an appropriation of $2,000,000 of a new postoffice structure in Pittsburgh, and has interested the national solons in the improvement of the Ohio and Monongahela rivers for navigation.

Much of Mr. Burke's success he attributes to his wife, who has helped him financially, being a member of one of the wealthy Pittsburgh families.

The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves. No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by all druggists.

DAUGHTERS OF RICH CHINESE WHO MARRIED INTO AMERICAN SOCIETY FIGHTING FOR VAST FORTUNE

Honolulu, Jan. 8.—The skeleton of the Afong family, once more

Five of the beautiful daughters of Chun Afong, the millionaire Chinese opium king, have just brought suit against their Hawaiian mother for the distribution of the old Chinaman's vast fortune.

The beauty, wealth and fascination of the Afong girls have kept the world of society agog, ever since the young women came out in society and began to turn the heads of every man who crossed their paths. One of the girls married Admiral Whiting, U. S. A. Another became the wife of Lieut. Dougherty, U. S. A. Then Judge Humphreys came in, a lucky third, and so down the line it went.

Chun, their father, was a remarkable figure in the business life of Honolulu. When he had accumulated all the money that he could, his almost-shaped eyes lit upon the dusky beauty of one of the Kamakapi-kam family of royal Hawaiian blood.

He wanted her as a wife, and his money won out.

The couple lived very happily together, and fifteen children were born to them. Then Chun wanted to be a coolie again, and to be back with the dozen and one Chinese wives whom he had left behind when he had sailed years before for Hawaii. He made a division of his vast fortune, and once more as a plain ordinary Chinaman he went his way, and his Hawaiian wife and her fifteen children went theirs, which lay in the path of the social limelight.

Everywhere the Afongs went they were entertained by the most exclusive in society. There has never been a family of girls that could create such a sensation as the almost-eyed daughters of Shun Afong, and now that his bones are laid to rest, the tremendous wealth which he accumulated during his lifetime will be the cause of much discussion and the tongues of the gossip will have plenty of material to feed upon.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office.

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 19, 1906.

Notice is hereby given that the following-named claimant has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim under section 16 and 17 of the act of March 3, 1891 (26 Stats., 854), as amended by the act of February 21, 1893 (27 Stats., 470), and that said proof will be made before the probate clerk at Los Lunas, N. M., on January 26, 1907, viz: Mariana Chavez de Otero, by Small Holding Claim No. 2547, situated in Sec. 26, T. 7 N., R. 2 E.

He names the following witnesses to prove his actual continuous adverse possession of said tract for twenty years next preceding the survey of the township, viz: Francisco Aragon y Baca, of Los Lunas, N. M.; Aniceto Aragon, Guillermo Orona, Quirino Samore, of Peralta, N. M.

Any person who desires to protest against the allowance of said proof, or who knows of any substantial reason under the laws and regulations of the interior department why such proof should not be allowed will be given an opportunity at the above mentioned time and place to cross examine the witnesses of said claimant, and to offer evidence in rebuttal of that submitted by claimant.

MANUEL R. OTERO, Register.

Small Holding Claim No. 2547.

The Right Name.

Mr. August Sherpe, the popular owner of the poor at Fort Madison, Ia., says: "Dr. King's New Life Pills are rightly named; they act more agreeably, do more good and make one feel better than any other laxative." Guaranteed to cure biliousness and constipation. 25c at all drug stores.

If you want results in advertising, try an Evening Citizen want ad.

Dangers of a Cold and How to Avoid Them.

More fatalities have their origin in or result from a cold than from any other cause. This fact alone should make people more careful as there is no danger whatever from a cold when it is properly treated in the beginning. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been recognized as the most prompt and effective medicine in use for this disease. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by all druggists.

NURSERY PRODUCTS

FRUIT AND SHADE TREES, SHRUBS, VINES AND FLOWERS. BUY OF SOME ONE YOU KNOW. N. W. ALGER, 124 SOUTH WALTER STREET.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY Take LAXATIVE BROMO quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if a fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 25c.

Big C CURE in 4 to 6 days. Guaranteed. THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A.

Every Woman

is interested and should know about the wonderful MARVEL Whirling Spray. The new Vaginal Hygiene. It cleanses thoroughly. It is a V. V. E. L. spray, no odor, but will stamp out all vaginitis, leucorrhea, and all other ailments of the female system. It is a V. V. E. L. spray, no odor, but will stamp out all vaginitis, leucorrhea, and all other ailments of the female system. It is a V. V. E. L. spray, no odor, but will stamp out all vaginitis, leucorrhea, and all other ailments of the female system.

Vehicles
...AND...
Harness
at Reduced Prices.

SOME PEOPLE HAVE A NOTION THAT SPRING IS THE ONLY TIME TO BUY A BUGGY. THAT NOTION IS COSTING THEM MONEY. WE ARE MAKING FALL BUYING POPULAR. LET US TELL YOU HOW. GOOD PICKING IN BOTH DEPARTMENTS.

Albuquerque Carriage Company
Corner First Street and Tijeras Avenue

WE FILL PRESCRIPTIONS RIGHT At Consistent Prices

B. RUPPE
203 WEST RAILROAD AVENUE NEXT TO BANK OF COMMERCE

5A 5A

A Few Words
This gentleman has a few words to tell you. He says when you buy Horse Blankets or Lap Robes, insist on the famous 5A. They are long-of-wear and will give you the best satisfaction.
We Sell Them

Horse Clothing, Lap Robes, Whips, Axle Oils and all kinds of saddlery supplies.
You ought to see what a fine buggy we can give you for $55.00.

J. Korber & Co.
In Our New Store
No. 212 North Second
Albuquerque, N. M.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS AND COLDS. Price 50c & $1.00 Free Trial. Surest and Quickest Cure for all THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES, OR MONEY BACK.

PILES
Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles. It soothes the tumor, allays the itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and itching of the private parts. Every box is warranted. By druggists, by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents and $1.00. WILLIAMS' MANUFACTURING CO., PROP., CLEVELAND, OHIO.

FOR SALE BY S. VANN & SON.

B. A. SLEISTER
—INSURANCE, REAL ESTATE—NOTARY PUBLIC.
Room 5, Cornwell Block, Albuquerque Automatic Telephone, 174.

COMING IN OUT OF THE COLD
we appreciate a perfectly heated house, but it is not every house that is properly warmed. If yours is lacking in any way, or if you are undecided what is the best system to install in a new house and need information that is trustworthy and valuable, let us know of your trouble. We are specialists for hot water, hot air and steam heating.
Standard Plumbing & Heating Co.

A. E. WALKER, FIRE INSURANCE.
Secretary Mutual Building Association. Office at 217 West Railroad Avenue.

W. L. TRIMBLE & CO.
LIVERY, SALE, FEED AND TRANSFER STABLES.
Horses and Mules Bought and Resold.
BEST TURNOUTS IN THE CITY Second Street, between Railroad and Copper Avenue.

Its Location

BELEN IS 31 MILES SOUTH OF ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., AT THE JUNCTION OF THE MAIN LINE OF THE SANTA FE SYSTEM—LEADING EAST AND WEST FROM CHICAGO, KANSAS CITY, GALVESTON AND POINTS EAST TO SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, AND FROM THE EASTERN AND NORTHERN STATES TO EL PASO AND TEXAS.

1,000 BUSINESS AND RESIDENCE LOTS, 25x140 FEET, LAID OUT WITH BROAD 80 AND 70-FOOT STREETS, WITH ALLEYS 20 FEET WIDE, WITH BEAUTIFUL LAKE AND PUBLIC PARK AND GRAND OLD SHADE TREES; PUBLIC SCHOOL HOUSE, COSTING $16,000; CHURCHES; COMMERCIAL CLUB; A POPULATION OF 1,500 PEOPLE; SEVERAL LARGE MERCANTILE ESTABLISHMENTS; THE BELEN PATENT ROLLER MILL, CAPACITY 150 BARRELS DAILY; LARGE WINERY; THREE HOTELS, RESTAURANTS, ETC. BELEN IS THE LARGEST SHIPPING POINT FOR WOOL, FLOUR, WHEAT, BEANS AND HAY IN CENTRAL NEW MEXICO. ITS IMPORTANCE AS A GREAT COMMERCIAL RAILROAD CITY IN THE NEAR FUTURE CAN NOT BE ESTIMATED.

COME TO BELEN, N. M.

Future Railroad Metropolis of New Mexico
Located on Belen Cut-off of Santa Fe Railway

The Belen Town and Improvement Company Are Owners of Belen Townsite

The Belen Town and Improvement Co.

JOHN BECKER, Pres WM. M. BERGER, Sec'y.

A Railway Center

ALL FAST LIMITED EXPRESS, MAIL AND FREIGHT TRAINS OF THE SANTA FE WILL GO OVER THE MAIN LINE THROUGH TO BELEN, EAST AND WEST, NORTH AND SOUTH.

THE LOTS OFFERED ARE IN THE CENTER OF THE CITY, WELL GRADED (MANY OF THEM IMPROVED BY CULTIVATION); NO SAND OR GRAVEL. WE NEED A FIRST-CLASS, MODERN HOTEL AND A GOOD, UP-TO-DATE NEWS-PAPER.

OUR PRICES* OF LOTS ARE LOW AND TERMS ON EASY PAYMENTS; TITLE PERFECT; WARRANTY DEEDS. ONE-THIRD PURCHASE MONEY CASH. TWO-THIRDS MAY REMAIN ON NOTE, WITH MORTGAGE SECURITY FOR ONE YEAR, WITH 8 PER CENT INTEREST THEREON.

APPLY AT ONCE FOR MAPS AND PRICES, IF YOU WISH TO SECURE THE CHOICEST LOTS.

SHOES THAT KEEP THE FEET WARM

We have a splendid line of Shoes suitable for this time of the year. They have Good-year Welt extension soles and cork cushions which make them damp-proof and very comfortable. They look stylish, fit and wear well. The uppers are made of either Box Calf, Vici Kid or Patent Colt.

For Men	- - -	$2.75 to $4.00
For Women	- - -	2.50 to 4.00
For Misses and Boys	- - -	1.50 to 2.50
For Children and Youths	- - -	1.25 to 1.85

Largest Line of Candy in the City

C. N. BRIGHAM
Successor to + F. F. Trotter +

CONFECTIONERY SUGAR

GEO. W. HICKOX

T. Y. MAYNARD

HICKOX-MAYNARD CO. NEW MEXICO'S LEADING JEWELERS

Send in Your Watches for Repairs

THE ARCH FRONT

SOUTH SECOND ST.

ALBUQUERQUE HARDWARE CO. Fourth and Railroad Avenue

A Rarebit

to be properly prepared should be made in a Manning, Bowman Chafing Dish. Always ready, no worrying about fires. Simply a matter of minutes.

Manning, Bowman & Co. Chafing Dish

has produced a dainty morsel to regale your guests. Be sure to see that your chafing dish is supplied with the patented seamless "Ivory" enamel food pan—found only in Manning, Bowman & Co. Chafing Dishes.

FOR SALE BY

ALBUQUERQUE HARDWARE CO. Fourth and Railroad Avenue

EVERITT THE Diamond Palace RAILROAD AVE.

Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Cut Glass, Clocks, Silverware. We invite your trade and guarantee A SQUARE DEAL.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Probate Clerk Walker today issued a marriage license to John A. Logan and Mollie Freeman.

The Woodmen of the World held their regular meeting at Odd Fellows hall this afternoon.

Chas. Chadwick, the sheep commission broker, was a north bound passenger this morning.

The regular meeting of the Woman's relief corps was held this afternoon at Red Men's hall.

Ed B. Quicksell has returned to Albuquerque, after an extended visit with his son in Silver City, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Grunfeld, who visited Chicago and the big eastern cities, have returned to this city.

The Optic announces that "Alvin Swisher and Edward Lunny, after a few days in this city, have gone to Albuquerque."

The 1906 term of the territorial supreme court officials ended today, and the 1907 term will begin tomorrow.

G. T. Creech and L. Durham, both of Roswell, arrived here from that thriving little city yesterday. They are about town today.

Paul Teutsch, representing the White Star Line Steamship company, is handing around some very acceptable calendars.

Deputy United States Marshal Bough is in Santa Fe on business connected with the January term of the supreme court.

Harry G. Wilson, of the Chicago branch of the American Book company, is visiting our schools in the interest of his concern.

W. H. Hayward, representing M. K. Fairbanks, left yesterday on the limited on a business trip to southern Arizona towns.

Mrs. J. G. Gould, of Detroit, Mich., a noted singer of that city, will assist at the concert to be given at Elks' theater next Friday evening.

Mrs. Alfred Grunfeld left Sunday night for Chicago. Mr. Grunfeld will join his wife there in a few days, and both will then proceed on to New York and Boston.

Judge Ira J. Abbott, associate justice of the supreme court, goes to Santa Fe tomorrow, where he will sit as an associate justice on the supreme court bench.

The concert to be given under the auspices of the ladies of St. John's Guild promises to be one of the rarest musical treats ever offered to the people of this city.

Assistant United States Attorney E. L. Medler will leave this evening for Santa Fe, where he has business in the territorial supreme court, which convenes tomorrow.

L. L. Gatewood and family, after a residence of several months at San Antonio, Texas, have returned to Albuquerque and will hereafter make this city their home.

Mrs. Henry Yanow is enjoying a visit from her brother, Ben Mandlin, who is passing through the city en route east. Mr. Mandlin is in the jewelry business at Globe, Arizona.

George Ellis, former proprietor of the Clair hotel at Santa Fe, has purchased the Elite rooming house in this city. Mr. Ellis is a thorough hotel man and is welcomed to the Duke City.

Joseph P. Joquel, a Las Vegas printer, who worked in Albuquerque a few years ago, and Mrs. Marie de Guillon Ehlers will be united in marriage at Las Vegas January 16. Mr. Joquel is now connected with the Las Vegas Optic.

Hon. T. B. Catron, who has been in Albuquerque for several days engaged as counsel in the famous right-of-way suit of the Arizona and Colorado Railroad company, will return to his home at Santa Fe tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Foss Field and children of Magdalena, left yesterday for New York, where they will embark January 12 for Glasgow, Scotland. Mrs. Field secured her tickets from Paul Teutsch, the steamship ticket broker.

The Optic says: R. A. Kessler has resumed his former position on The Optic, under the editorial and business management of M. M. Padgett, and both gentlemen feel perfectly at home between the column rules again.

The Presbyterian Brotherhood will meet this evening promptly at 7:30 at the church for the purpose of completing their organization and inaugurating a program of usefulness for the future. A full attendance is hoped for.

The Silver City Enterprise says: Mr. Chenoweth, foreman for the past three years of the Imperial laundry of Albuquerque, has resigned that position to accept a similar one with the Silver City Sanitary Steam laundry and has arrived in this city.

County Assessor Sigfried Grunfeld has supplied himself with a new paper weight. It's the first piece of new furniture to go into the office.

DR. C. H. CONNOR
OSTEOPATH.

Rooms 3 and 4, N. T. Arnijo building.

since his incumbency. The paper weight is in the shape of a pistol. However, it is only loaded with a pin cushion and pins.

The newly formed Ellis orchestra, composed of professional musicians gathered from all over the country through the efforts of Mr. Ellis, backed by the American Lumber company, will make their first concert appearance at the Elks' theater on Friday evening.

Last evening the first meeting of the week of prayer series inaugurated by the First Methodist and First Presbyterian churches was held in the lecture room of the Lead avenue church. This evening services will be held at the same church and for the balance of the week they will be held at the Presbyterian church.

The Pueblos are receiving a little education just now in the art of glazing and tempering their pottery at the hands of Uncle Sam through the efforts of a young lady. Miss Ford is the young lady. She arrived yesterday from the west, where she has been working among the Lagunas and left this morning for San Domingo.

The Globe store on East Railroad avenue, one of the most centrally located dry goods stores of the city, was sold today by W. H. Gillenwater to a company composed of the Weiler brothers, the Benjamin brothers and Leon Hertzog. The new owners will take charge at once and after closing out the present stock, will put in an exclusive shoe store in its place.

At the concert at the Elks' theater next Friday night the orchestra of the American Lumber company band will make its first appearance before an Albuquerque audience. This band is composed of professional musicians from different parts of the United States. This part of the program will be in keeping with the high order of the music to be heard at this concert.

Arguments were still being heard this afternoon in the case of the Arizona & Colorado Railway company against the Denver & Rio Grande Railway company, wherein the plaintiff seeks to have made permanent an injunction enjoining the defendant from building a railroad over certain lands in San Juan county, New Mexico. A conclusion will probably be reached this evening.

You will need a pair of rubbers before winter is over. When the time comes we want you to remember that we have a full line of men's rubber boots, overshoes and Arctics, women's and children's rubber shoes and Arctics and women's foot holds. C. May's shoe store, 314 West Railroad avenue.

Primary Meetings.

Albuquerque, N. M., Jan. 8, 1907. Primaries of the people's party to nominate justices of the peace and constables in precincts Nos. 12 and 26, of Bernalillo county, are hereby called to meet on Wednesday evening, January 9, at 7:30 o'clock.

In Precinct 12, at the City Hall, to be called to order by B. Ruppe. In precinct No. 26, at 208 1/2 W. Gold avenue, to be called to order by F. J. Pratt.

All voters living in said precincts, respectively, who affiliated with the people's party at the last election, are earnestly requested to attend. By order of the Central Committee.

F. H. MITCHELL,
Chairman Central Committee.

J. P. ELLIOTT,
Secretary.

THE MAZE.

150 page, cloth covered day books 40c
150 page, cloth covered ledgers, 40c 1000 plain white paper napkins, 60c
"Half-hours With Best Authors" in six volumes $2.50
Paper hangers shears, 1.50
White wash brushes, 25c
Kalsomine, per pkg., 40c
Mixed paint, per gal., $1.40
2 bottles of gold paint, 25c
2 gallon water urn, $2.75
Brown duck covered horse blankets, $2.25
Strictly fresh Kansas eggs, 35c
"Diadem" butter, none better, 38c
Oranges, per doz., 20c
City soda crackers, per pkg., 10c

THE MAZE.

Wm. KIEKE, Proprietor.
FREE LUNCH AT THE WHITE ELEPHANT.

BUTTER CUSTOMERS WANTED.
In disposing of the Matthew Jersey Dairy, I reserved a number of richly bred Jersey cows, with the intention of making a gift edge article of table butter, and desire a limited number of customers for same. Butter will be sold at 40 cents per pound, delivery twice weekly. Buttermilk will also be furnished when desired. Phone Red 187 or address J. E. MATTHEW, CITY.

RANCH EGGS.
For fresh eggs, one or two days old phone Black 102. J. T. Harger, 12th street and Mountain road.

We do it right. ROUGH DRY. Imperial Laundry Co.
A working man with $100.00 cash can have interest in paying business. No scheme. Experience unnecessary. Albuquerque Junk Co., 506 South Second street.

For a few days we will pay from $2.00 to $20.00 a ton for iron. As usual, we pay the highest possible prices for any and all kinds of metals, rags, clothing, magazines, etc. Albuquerque Junk Co., 506 South Second street.

NO SHORTAGE OF GAS COKE. CLEAN, SATISFACTORY, ECONOMICAL, EXCELLENT FOR OPEN GRATES. $6. PER TON. W. H. HAHN & CO.

FEE'S HOT CHOCOLATE, WALTON'S DRUG STORE.

HONEY
10 lbs. Nice Extracted Honey for $1.00. Order by Postal.
W. P. Allen, Box 202, Albuquerque.

R.R. TICKETS BOUGHT, SOLD AND EXCHANGED Association Office
Transactions Guaranteed

ROSENFIELD'S, 118 W. R. R. Ave.

SOCIAL DANCE
EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT
AT THE COLOMBO HALL DANCING SCHOOL
Admission 50c Ladies Free

Believe Us

We can save you money

NOW

In the purchase of a Piano

TODAY

We Carry the Largest Stock of New Pianos Ever Shown in This Territory.

SECOND HAND Pianos at your own prices—almost.

SEE US before you buy

Do It Today

Learnard & Lindemann,

Established 1900 206 W. Gold Avenue

COAL

Genuine American block, per ton $6.50
Cerrillos Lump $6.50
Anthracite Nxt $6.50
Anthracite mixed $6.00
Anthracite, stove and furnace sizes $5.50
Clean Gas Coke $6.00

WOOD.

Green Mill Wood, per load $2.25
Dry Mill Wood, per load $2.75
Factory Wood, per load $5.00

W. H. HAHN & CO.

Both Phones.

DR. L. H. CHAMBERLAIN,
DENTIST.
ROOM 2,
CROMWELL BLOCK.
ESTABLISHED SINCE 1889.

Buster beats the drum, and that big

Green Tag Sale

which goes on MONDAY MORNING will beat everything in the line of sales ever had in Albuquerque.

Yours truly,

YOU KNOW WHO

RAABE & MAUGER

115-117 NORTH FIRST STREET

Between Railroad and Copper Ave.

Stoves and Steel Ranges

HARDWARE and RANCH SUPPLIES

Wagon Covers,
Sheep Shears,
Dipping Tanks,

TIN SHOP
In Rear of Store

Harness,
Horse Blankets, Saddles.

WHITNEY COMPANY

Wholesale and Retail

HARDWARE

Iron Pipe, Pumps, Valves, Fittings--Steam and Water Supplies--Hose and Belting.
Stoves, Ranges and Granite Iron Ware.
Bar Iron, Steel, Wagon Wood Stock, Blacksmith Supplies.

Mail Orders Solicited

113, 115, 117, South First Street
401, 403, North First Street

Albuquerque, New Mexico

People Are Rapidly Learning

That water chilled by contact with ice is much more wholesome than water into which ice is put directly.

Sealshipt Oysters

Are the only Oysters shipped without ice or preservatives put directly in the receptacle with them. This is possible only through the use of ## Sealshipt Oyster Carrier.

"Once a Sealshipt customer, always a Sealshipt customer."
Try Sealshipt Oysters once and you will never accept any other kind.
Sealshipt Oysters Fresh Every Morning at the

San Jose Mkt

We are taking account of stock this week—Our special clearance sale will begin Monday, January 14. All broken items at prices which will appeal to you.

E. L. WASHBURN CO.