BOND ISSUE ELECTION FOR THE SEWER SYSTEM TO BE HELD JANUARY 19

Storm Sewer Proposition Will Be Voted on Separately Is Decision of City Council at Last Night's Meeting; Expense Includes Additions to Report of Expert Gray Made by City Engineer Gladding, Making Total of Over Thirty Miles of Sewers; Amount of Bonds, $290,000.

KANSAS CITY FIRM RECEIVES ASSURANCE OF THE CONTRACT

The city council at a special meeting held last night, passed a resolution calling an election for January 19 next, at which time the qualified voters of Albuquerque will ballot on the proposal to issue four and a half per cent bonds in the sum of $290,000, for the construction of a sanitary sewer system for the city of Albuquerque.

After hearing in detail from Representative Bullock the proposal of the American Light and Water company of Kansas City to build the sewer system, the council practically accepted the proposal on condition that the bonds are voted, that the company is found on careful investigation to be satisfactory, and that a suitable contract can be drawn up.

The $290,000 covers the estimate of $198,866 for nineteen odd miles of sewers made by Expert Samuel M. Gray, with the additions made in a supplementary report by City Engineer James Gladding, making a total of some thirty-one miles. The total cost for the thirty-one miles as estimated by Messrs. Gray and Gladding, amounted to $285,000, and the $5,000 on motion of Alderman Wroth, was added to cover extra expenses for inspection by the city engineer and his assistants. The point was taken that it will be absolutely necessary, for the city's protection, to have competent inspectors thoroughly familiar with sewer construction, and $5,000, it is believed, will be none too much to pay men who know how to supervise the work during the six months which it is estimated will be required to complete it.

After a lengthy discussion it was decided by the council to vote on the storm sewer system separately. Mr. Gray's estimate of the storm sewer cost being $55,000. There was some difference of opinion among the aldermen as to the advisability of building a storm sewer at this time, the mayor and others taking the ground that until the streets are completely graded much of a storm sewer system would be practically useless under present conditions. The mayor especially requested the council not to act on the storm sewer matter until it had fully considered the proposition in all its phases.

Mr. Bullock, of the American Light and Power company, of Kansas City, which proposes to build the sewer system, appeared before the council, and at the close of the meeting notified the body of several changes in his proposal, notably that the company will build the system for actual cost plus ten per cent, instead of twelve and a half per cent, as at first proposed.

After the council was called to order and had transacted various matters of routine business, it was voted, on motion of Alderman Hanley, to adopt the report of Expert Gray, outlining a nineteen mile system, to cost $198,866.

On motion of Mr. Hanley again, it was voted to adopt the supplementary report of City Engineer Gladding, and incorporate it with that of Mr. Gray, and to submit the total estimates, with plans, to the qualified voters of Albuquerque, to vote on a bond issue covering the same.

It was moved by Alderman Wroth that the bond issue be made $245,000, to cover both sanitary and storm water systems, with extra expense for inspection. This precipitated a discussion, punctuated with various motions and amendments, which lasted for an interminable period. The outcome was a decision to vote on the storm sewer proposition separately. The resolution providing for the election was then taken up, and after another hour's discussion of various points more or less germane, the resolution, on motion of Alderman Wroth, seconded by Alderman Hanley, was unanimously passed, as was a secondary resolution providing for registration board, election officials and places for voting.

The resolution was as follows:
Resolution.
A resolution of the city council, providing for a special election for the purpose of voting upon the question of the issuance of $290,000 four and one-half (4-1/2) per cent bonds, for the purpose of providing funds for the construction of a sanitary sewer system in the city of Albuquerque.

Whereas, for the purpose of providing funds for the construction of a sanitary sewer system in the city of Albuquerque, Bernalillo county, territory of New Mexico, at an estimated cost of $290,000, pursuant to the plans heretofore adopted by the city council of said city, it is deemed necessary for said city to borrow money and issue its negotiable time as the sanitary system.

Present at the meeting were Mayor Lester, and Aldermen Augé, Beaven, Coen, Neustadt, and Learnard.

AMUSING SIDELIGHT ON HAYTIAN REVOLUTION

Stranded Gunboat Falls Into Hands of Auctioneer.

New York, Dec. 11.—Passengers on the steamer Allegheny which arrived today from West Indian ports threw amusing sidelights on the recent revolution in Hayti resulting in the overthrow of the government. The Allegheny put in at Jérémie, where the Haytian gunboat Croyant was run aground by the revolutionists and found the late warship of the Haytian government in the hands of an auctioneer, who was diligently distributing the furniture and fittings of the Croyant to the natives at nominal prices.

Lightships Delayed at Valparaiso.

TELLURIDE PEOPLE GET THREATENING LETTERS

Police Hunt Insane Woman as Author of Lurid Missives.

Telluride, Colo., Dec. 11.—Letters threatening them with death have been received by a dozen persons in Telluride, including several prominent men in business and social circles. The letters are in the handwriting of a woman and the author is believed to be insane as no demand is made for money or valuables. The police have taken up the matter and a strong effort will be made to locate and arrest the woman. In some instances the same person has received as many as six letters. Among those who have received letters are: City Marshal Rummels and Mayor Heltenhouse. The letters warn the recipients to be on their guard, as they are to be picked off when they least expect it.

BASEBALL COMMITTEE TO PROBE ALLEGED BRIBERY

New York, Dec. 11.—The National League of Baseball clubs today appointed a committee of four of its members to investigate reports by Umpires Klein and Johnstone that an attempt was made "to bribe them at the New York-Chicago game played at the New York Polo grounds on October 8th. The committee consists of John T. Brush, president of the New York club, chairman; Charles H. Ebbetts, August Hermann and President Harry C. Pulliam, of the National league. The names of the men who are alleged to have attempted the bribery were not disclosed.

PRIZE COURT ECHO OF RUSSO-JAPANESE WAR

St. Petersburg, Dec. 11.—The final hearing in the case of the British steamer Olambla, captured by the Russians during the Russo-Japanese war, will be given on December 12 by the supreme prize court.
The Russia, the government organ, justifies the seizure on the ground that the vessel's cargo of kerosene, though never proclaimed contraband, might have been used for war purposes, instancing the fact that kerosene was used to cremate the Japanese dead at Port Arthur.

NO AID FOR INTENDING SETTLERS IN AUSTRALIA

Melbourne, Dec. 11.—As a result of certain inaccurate articles that have appeared in American newspapers since the visit to Australia of the American battleship fleet, setting forth that the Victorian government will advance passage money to agriculturalists and grant them cash and land credits to the extent of $10,000, 600 an arrival, the government has received numerous letters from the United States requesting that this undertaking be carried out. The government desires to correct this misinformation. It is not ready to aid settlers in the manner described.

Williamstadt, Dec. 11.—The government of the Netherlands has no intention of being negligent in the matter of the blockade of the Venezuelan coast inaugurated by three of its warships last week. The battleship Jacob Van Heeckeren and the cruiser Gelderland left here this morning for Venezuelan waters. They have been cleared for action.

CONGRESSMEN TO CONSIDER ALLEGED INSULT

House Committee of Five Appointed to Seek Remedy for Offended Dignity of Members of Congress.

SIMILAR ACTION IN SENATE IS LOOKED FOR

Objectionable Utterance Concerning Secret Service in President's Message May Be Stricken from Records.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—Representative Perkins of New York, today introduced a resolution which had heretofore been agreed upon, providing for the appointment of a special committee of five members to consider proper means of dealing with that portion of the president's message which criticizes the conduct of congress in prohibiting the detail of secret service men to duty outside their own bureaus.

The resolution was preceded by a preamble, reciting some of the expressions in the message. No effort was made to give voice to the feeling of the house.

In presenting the resolution, Perkins made a brief statement, saying he was satisfied that the house would not hesitate to take such action as the dignity of that body required. He said that some of the president's expressions were unfortunate.

The resolution was adopted and Perkins said that the statements of the president could not be lightly disregarded as they might impair the usefulness of congress. A resolution of the house, passed by the house will provide, in the senate, for the appointment of a committee to recom-

WORLD CRUISE MARKS EPOCH IN THE NAVY

METCALF ENTHUSIASTIC OVER WORK OF BIG SHIPS

Annual Report of Retiring Secretary Urges Congress to Provide for Appointment of Two Vice Admirals.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire)

Washington, Dec. 11.—Secretary Metcalf, of the navy department, in his annual report, made public today, discusses, as the most notable naval event of the past year, the voyage of the battleship fleet, which "has proven an epoch-making cruise."

Late in the spring of 1907 it was decided to send the Atlantic fleet on a practice cruise to the Pacific. When the purpose of giving this assemblage of sixteen battleships such a practice cruise, under severe conditions, was announced, he stated, criticism from high technical quarters was heard. The undertaking, it was said, was too monumental, dangers more than multiplied with numbers in such a case, battleships should not be sent around the globe on any ordinary occasion; the skeletons of some of them would doubtless be left in the Straits of Magellan; and, if the ships should round south America, they would, one by one, arrive with machinery hoarse and unseaworthy, and with crews reflecting the condition of the material.

The facts are, Secretary Metcalf says, that the ships maintained schedule time, and have practically taken care of their own repairs on the cruise. The repairs list sent in at the naval station, Cavite, P. I., have just been received, and are significant. They show that after the voyage to the distant borders of the Pacific, the needed repairs are negligible. The performance of the Oregon in 1888 has, it seems, been substantially repeated.

This cruise, as yet hardly half over, he declares has given us an opportunity to get better acquainted with the republics to the south of us, with our own island possessions, with the new and vigorous branch of the British empire in Australia, and particularly with Japan; and has given to those countries a better opportunity to get acquainted with us. It has been everywhere understood and accepted, as it was intended, as the reaching out of a strong hand in friendly greeting on the part of America, and the cordial hospitality extended to our fleet will be long remembered, and have powerfully influenced feeling in this country. Between the United States and every country visited there is a feeling of deeper interest and friendship than existed before the fleet sailed.

Passing to certain recent criticisms of the new and larger battleships now building, the secretary says that at the conference, convened and opened by the president at Newport, the general manner of design of these ships was approved, after forty-five days' consideration, by the assembling of the best authorities available in the navy, consisting of about sixty officers, all but seven of whom were line officers of the seagoing branch of the service. Marksmanship, he says, has improved on the practice cruise. With respect to the assertion that our twelve-inch guns are inferior to those of other powers, the facts are found to be that the actual muzzle energy of these twelve-inch guns, which form the main armament of our eight latest battleships in commission, is somewhat greater than that of any gun afloat in any other navy.

As the officer in command of the American fleet now in the far east holds the rank of rear admiral only, he is in a position of subordination to foreign naval officers. This is true because foreign powers have, on important naval stations, representatives of the rank of vice admiral.

The secretary urges that the navy should, without delay, be provided with two vice admirals.

It is desirable, the secretary states, to lengthen the dry dock authorized by congress to be constructed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, from 850 to 1,140 feet, to render it capable of accommodating two or more vessels at once.

Secretary Metcalf recommends that the navy yards at New York, Philadelphia, Norfolk, Puget Sound and Mare Island be developed to their full capacity for the repair and maintenance of ships, but says it is not further desirable to develop other navy yards, at least until that at Guantanamo shall have been equipped, the last named station being regarded as of the first military importance and as a natural strategic base of the fleet.

It is deemed highly desirable to acquire by purchase or to construct a dock in San Francisco harbor. With the accumulation of such a dock, and the bringing up to high efficiency of the yards at Bremerton and Mare Island, another navy yard on the Pacific coast will not be necessary for some time to come.

The navy department being a large business organization, Mr. Metcalf suggests rearrangements of the duties of any bureau are exceedingly difficult and complex, and necessarily rests with congress; but those who speak of the millions unnecessarily spent annually by the lack of economical administration do not realize that a comparatively small percentage of the annual budget goes for repair and maintenance of the fleet. The fleet, he says, is the most expensive part of the navy. The greater part is expended for the pay and provisioning of the navy and marine corps, ammunition, fuel, and expenditures on account of increase of the navy. So far as concerns the last named item, the contract price of our latest battleships, being hardly more than the actual cost of labor and material and incidental expenses, and very considerably below the cost of the ships as built by congress. The secretary says also that it would be difficult to find in any large manufacturing establishment, or other industrial organization, greater co-ordination than exists among the heads of the great bureaus and offices of the navy department.

The secretary recommends that congress authorize at its approaching session the construction of four battleships, four scout cruisers, ten destroyers, four submarines, three colliers, one ammunition ship, two mine-layers, and two torpedo boats. The secretary also recommends that two ships be converted from cruisers now on the navy list.

AUSTRALIAN GOVERNOR PRAISES AMERICAN FLEET

New York, Dec. 11.—Words of praise for the American battleship fleet and its officers and men were uttered by Lord Northcote, retiring governor-general of Australia, at a luncheon in his honor in the Lawyers' club today.

Lord Northcote said the vessels gave Australians a broader conception of the importance and power of the nation across the Pacific from them than they had before the visit. Of greater consequence, however, he regarded the fact that the appearance and conduct of their officers and men created an impression to their credit that he believed could be everlasting.

BATTLE FLEET TO REACH CEYLON TOMORROW MORNING

Colombo, Ceylon, Dec. 11.—The following wireless dispatch has been received from the American battleship fleet:
"The fleet at 8 p. m., December 10, was in latitude 5° 28 north, longitude 81° 15 east. Will arrive at Colombo at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. Perfect weather. Speed ten knots."

The Georgia left the fleet at 10 p. m., on December 9 for Colombo at a speed of fourteen knots, having on board a case of smallpox which, however, is not serious. The health of the rest of the fleet is excellent.

Stawicki, Freeman, and McDonald, electrician of the battleship New Jersey fell overboard the evening of December 7th owing a defective line. McDonald was rescued but Stawicki was not recovered although a thorough search was made for him. Othman, the trip from Manila has been uneventful. There has been much tactical maneuvering daily."

NEW MEXICANS WANT HIGHER TAX ON WOOL

SOL LUNA AND H. W. KELLY
BEFORE THE COMMITTEE

Increased Cost of Raising Sheep Urged as Reason for Retention of Present Import Duty or Raising It.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire)

Washington, Dec. 11.—Wool growers were heard by the house ways and means committee at the tariff hearing today. R. C. Johnson, of Blackfoot, Idaho, who had been on the stand before, returned to give the committee his figures on the cost of raising sheep. These figures showed that the profit on a flock of sheep in Idaho is ten per cent.

Solomon Luna, a wool grower of New Mexico, asked the committee to retain the present tariff on wool, saying that he would like to have the duty increased if he thought there was any possibility of having it done. H. W. Kelly, representing the New Mexico Wool Growers' association, claimed that the cost of raising sheep had increased and asked to have the tariff on wool retained.

Herbert E. Miles, of the National Association of Manufacturers, who has appeared before the committee several times, resumed the stand today. He said that the tariff plank of the republican platform was variously interpreted by republicans. Mr. Taft, he said, does not define it meaning that enough for a reasonable profit should be added to the duty, in addition to making the tariff sufficiently high to equalize the cost of production in this country and abroad. Mr. Miles offered in evidence several invoices which he claimed proved that American manufacturers offer their goods to foreign buyers at prices that are 25 to 40 per cent lower than the domestic product.

J. A. Deifer, representing the Wyoming sheep growers, gave further testimony regarding the cost of raising sheep.

FREE TRADE WITH COLONIAL POSSESSIONS ASSURED

Washington, Dec. 11.—Free trade with the Philippines was one of the most important matters agreed upon by President-elect Taft and the republican members of the ways and means committee at the conference on tariff revision. While Mr. Taft favors free trade with the insular possessions without any restrictions, it is understood that in order that there shall be no discussion, he has agreed that the amount of sugar and tobacco which should be allowed free entry should be restricted.

With this end in view, it is understood that the sugar interests have agreed to a compromise by which 300,000 tons of sugar will be admitted from the Philippines annually free of duty, and that all sugar over that amount will pay the present rate of duty, which is 25 per cent less than the duty imposed by the Dingley tariff on sugar from other countries.

Large beet sugar manufacturers were in conference with various members of the ways and means committee today.

What amount will be fixed as a maximum limit for the free entry of tobacco has not yet been determined. The democrats are understood to be thoroughly in accord on the question of free trade with the Philippines. It is probable that a number of sugar and tobacco manufacturers and growers will be subpoenaed by the committee in order to obtain any further information on the question.

HEARINGS TO CONTINUE THROUGH SHORT SESSION

Washington, Dec. 11.—The tariff hearings before the ways and means committee will continue throughout the short session of congress, and President-elect Taft will have further conferences with the committee. A compromise has been reached, it is learned further, regarding the tariff on Philippine sugar and tobacco, as a result of the conference yesterday between Mr. Taft and the majority members of the committee. That the house of representatives will pass a bill which will thoroughly revise the present schedule is generally admitted.

At yesterday's conference Mr. Taft did not discuss any particular tariff schedule, but expressed the desire to take up certain schedules at some further conference. He also favored any action on the part of the committee which would bring before it those manufacturers who have expressed their views publicly on the tariff question, as well as any persons who could furnish valuable information in connection with the proposed revision.

Chairman Payne said tonight that Andrew Carnegie is the only witness who has been subpoenaed up to this time, and it therefore undoubtedly will be necessary for the committee to hold further hearings after the Christmas recess.

With President-elect Taft and the house in favor of a tariff law which will meet present conditions and materially revise present duties, mainly downward, the discussion of the situation centers in the possible action of the senate.

While some assert the upper house will not attempt to make any radical changes, the bill underwent no change, and it was passed by viva voce vote.

TAFT VISITOR AT WHITE HOUSE

CONSIDERS MATERIAL FOR CABINET WITH PRESIDENT

George A. Knight of California Urged as Suitable Candidate for Seat in Council of New Administration.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire)

Washington, Dec. 11.—President Roosevelt and President-elect William H. Taft had an extended conference tonight at the White House. Among the matters discussed was the make-up of the Taft cabinet. The conference began after 10 o'clock, after a dinner, at the home of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Winthrop, attended by Mr. and Mrs. Taft. Before the conference, Mr. Taft announced that he should decline to give any details whatever, aside from the advance announcement that he should talk over many important matters with the president.

Mr. Taft tomorrow likely will have a conference with Secretary Root regarding his cabinet.

During an interview today between Mr. Taft and Senator Aldrich, the result of the monetary commission's work was thoroughly gone over. Mr. Taft heretofore has gone over these matters, somewhat in detail, with Representative Burton, of Ohio, a member of the commission, and it is a safe prediction that the next administration will be favorable to the enactment of at least some of the recommendations looking to permanent reform in the currency system of the country.

George A. Knight, of California, was recommended for a cabinet position today by Representative Duncanson B. McKinley, of that state. Cardinal Gibbons and Father Ketchum conferred as special representatives of Catholic Indians in matters pending before the Indian bureau.

Representatives of the Farmers' National congress called on Mr. Taft to receive assurances of his interest in the organization.

Senator Fulton, of Oregon, brought forward the claims of the northwest for preferment in the diplomatic service. Senators Kitchedge and Gamble, of South Dakota, talked over the political situation in their state, with Mr. Taft, but at separate times. Governor Hoggart, of Alaska, had an audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Taft had luncheon with Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Gaff, formerly of Cincinnati. Afterward they were received at the Congressional club and dined with Mr. and Mrs. Beckman Winthrop.

After the Christmas dinner which he will attend tomorrow night, Mr. Taft will go to New York.

On Thursday he will start for Augusta, Ga.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

The House.

Washington, Dec. 11.—A new record in the transaction of the public business was established by the house of representatives today. The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, which usually excites considerable discussion, lasting for several days, was passed with little debate, and practically in the shape it came from the committee. An unusual feature was that no member asked for time to indulge in general talk. The facility with which the bill of 365 pages was put through was the subject of much comment on the floor, and the members of the appropriations committee felicitated themselves on the outcome. The bill carries an appropriation of $11,000,000.

The house immediately after convening unanimously and without debate adopted a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of five to consider the reference to the secret service in the president's message, and to suggest what action, if any, should be taken in the matter.

When the legislative appropriation bill was called up by Mr. Bingham, of Pennsylvania, the extraordinary situation was presented that for the first time in twelve years no general debate was asked for. Even the first reading of the bill was dispensed with by unanimous consent.

Mr. Bingham explained its provisions, the main features of which already have been printed, and its reading for amendment was begun.

When the provision for increasing the salary of the commissioner general of immigration was reached, Mr. Macon (Arkansas) made a point of order against it, and the increase was not allowed.

Mr. Fitzgerald (New York) criticized the appointment of Daniel Keefe to be commissioner general, remarking that he had no sympathy with what he said was a "movement to pay political debts in this manner."

There was a lot of hypocrisy, he said, "about the whole business."

Mr. Mann (Illinois) defended Mr. Keefe and asserted that "whatever may have been the reasons for his appointment, he was well qualified and would perform his duties with fidelity."

Except in three or four instances where increase in salaries were denied, the bill underwent no change, and it was passed by viva voce vote.

FIGHT STARTS FOR REVISION OF RULES

HOUSE INSURGENTS IN HARMONIOUS CAUCUS

Twenty-five Republicans Willing to Join With Democrats in Effort to Deprive Speaker of Despotism Power.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—The fight for a revision of the rules of the house was inaugurated tonight at a meeting of the so-called insurgents attended by twenty-five republican representatives. Representative Hepburn of Iowa, presided and was authorized to name a committee of five with himself as chairman to draft the proposed amendments to the rules and report to the organization.

"The insurgents" considered the various suggestions for more than two hours.

Mr. Hepburn said the various plans proposed for changing the rules would be considered by the committee he would name. He desired to make it known that all of the members invited to the meeting with the exception of Representative Norris of Nebraska, who is out of town, were present.

"Those interested have been proceeding quietly with their plans with the apparent purpose of increasing their numbers sufficiently to be able to control the situation by joining the democrats in a fight on the rules. The 'insurgents' claim that in the present congress they need but twenty-seven republicans to join the democrats in order to bring about a change in the rules while in the sixty-first congress they may need but twenty-four republicans members. Therefore the representatives present tonight—Hepburn, Pollard and Ellis—will not be members of the next congress.

While several of the insurgents are for Cannon for speaker they made it plain that they greatly desire a change in the rules.

"There were no feelings except those of a friendly nature for the speaker," said Mr. Hepburn. "No body said anything against Mr. Cannon."

He said the general feeling was that if, under the rules, the house must have a despot leader, there was no one they would rather have than "Uncle Joe."

Several new suggestions in addition to those already advanced were made at the meeting. To increase the membership of the rules committee of the house, has been the most popular suggestion and it has been proposed to have this committee elected by members of the house instead of being named by the speaker.

The election in the manner of a committee of committees to perform duties similar to a like body in the senate also has been proposed by leaders in the movement. Another plan proposed is to set two Thursday apart each month for the consideration of bills on the house calendar and the remaining Thursdays for the consideration of measures on the union calendar.

None of those present would state whether it was intended to bring the matter to an issue in the present session of congress or to wait for the new congress.

Anticipating that the large parties of men from Admiral Swinhurn's Pacific fleet will be given shore leave at Panama, the state department has requested assurances from the Panama authorities that adequate protection be given them. During a recent visit to Panama of the cruiser Buffalo a member of the crew was so badly injured while ashore in what was held by American authorities to have been an unprovoked assault, that he afterward died. His treatment by the police after he had been stabbed resulted in a vigorous letter being written at President Roosevelt's suggestion to the Panama authorities.

COMMERCE COMMISSION TO PROBE PULLMAN RATES

Chicago, Dec. 11.—The interstate commerce commission, it was announced today, has decided to resume the investigation into the reasonableness of some of the rates charged by the Pullman company. The complaint is an old one, made by George S. Loftis, of St. Paul. Commissioner Lane will begin the hearing here next Monday. As originally drawn the complaint holds that less should be charged for an upper berth than for a lower.

TELEPHONE REPLACES TELEGRAPH ON RAILROAD

Great Northern to Dispatch Trains by New System.

St. Paul, Dec. 11.—It was said at the general offices of the great Northern railroad today that a telephone system for train dispatching purposes was being installed on the Minot division, which extends from Devil's Lake to Williston, a distance of 229 miles, and that the work of installation was nearly completed. When it is finished the telephone system will be extended from Williston to Custer, Mont., over the Montana division, a distance of 427 miles, and also along the Butte division, which covers 267 miles. As the Great Northern is now dispatching the trains on its Williston division, covering 203 miles, by the telephone, this will give a grand total of 1,323 miles of line.

The Northern Pacific, which for some time has been dispatching trains between here and Fargo by telephone, as well as blocking them in the same manner for the 250 mile distance, is about to put in a telephone blocking system also between Trout Creek, Mont., and Spokane, a distance of 125 miles, on its Idaho system. Trains will still be dispatched over this division by telegraph, however.

They were taken to the St. Mark's hospital. The train also carried the body of Pat Ford, who died en route. The wounded are badly mangled.

DIPLOMATS HESITATE TO RECOGNIZE SIMON

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—At a recent meeting of the diplomatic corps at Port Au Prince, Haiti, the decision was reached that it was not expedient at this time to have the government recognize the administration of General Simon for the reason that this action perhaps would give him an advantage over his competitors in the election for president. Meanwhile, General Simon's government, being de facto, the usual diplomatic relations are held with it.

GHASTLY PRACTICAL JOKER SEIZED IN CHICAGO

Youth Sent Human Bones and Coffin Nails in Letters Demanding Money; Conan Doyal Furnished Idea.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Chicago, Dec. 11.—The mystery of the "Knights of the White Death" letters which were recently sent to various clergymen and prominent citizens in this city with the threat that unless they left large sums of money at designated spots they would be put to death, was cleared up tonight when William Pollard, twenty-two years of age, driver of a grocery wagon, was arrested and confessed to having sent the letters. Pollard blamed Conan Doyle stories of crime for his exploit. Fascinated by the novelist's lurid pictures, Pollard declared he had determined to see how they would work out in the hands of the Chicago police. So he organized the "Knights of the White Death" and with a Sherlock Holmes fancy wrote out a bundle of letters, decorated with skulls and cross bones. The demands for money, he said, were simply added to enliven the mystery as he never went to see whether the money was left or not.

He sent coffin nails and trimmings with the letters. Pollard said in his confession: "How did I get the human bones and the coffin trimmings? That was easy. When they dig a new grave in Calvary cemetery, the graves are so crowded together that the side of an old grave often caves in and portions of the interment fall into the new excavation which is then thrown out with the new sand. At night I went into the cemetery and gathered these things."

"After I had sent that coffin handle to Rev. Mr. Waters I was afraid they would trace it to Calvary cemetery because of the cross on it. I decided then to the clergymen I sent letters to Assistant Chief of Police Schuchter, telling the latter to leave $700 in the confessional box of St. Charles church. I was delighted when I read that Dr. Dixon with the detectives stood waiting almost all night for the 'White Knights' to appear for the money."

Head of Rock Island Road Thinks Small Good Will Come of Inadequately Financed Waterways Movement.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

St. Louis, Dec. 11.—R. F. Yoakum, chairman of the executive committee of the Rock Island-Pike river, tonight gave the Association of Administrators of the waterways movement the following statement relative to the inland waterway movement:

"If the newspaper reports from Washington are correct, I am disappointed at the attitude of the commercial bodies of St. Louis and Chicago in their work for government appropriation for the improvement of our inland waterways. I presume they hesitate to ask for large sums on account of the past policy of the government in dealing with this question of national importance. What can we expect to accomplish in our country's growth with the insignificant sum of seven and a half million dollars to be followed by the inadequate sum of fifty million dollars annually, to be stretched out over the next ten years. Any plan that does not contemplate continuous work on a large scale means in the future what we have not had in the past—a substantial improvement."

I regret to observe that some of our leading men in public life are endorsing the policy of the government's improvement of our waterways on the theory that it will be an instrument of regulation of the railroads. Such views are narrow and inconsistent with the facts. It is not a problem of rate regulation but of traffic facilities.

"If the government undertakes the work it will require from ten to fifteen years to gain the benefit which we should have. In the meantime the country will continue to grow and unless the farmers and manufacturers served by the railroads can have their traffic promptly handled at what points the loss must fall upon the farmer, the manufacturer and merchant alike."

"If the government wishes to make a practical success of the deep waterways it must use enough money to produce results."

OVERSEERS PAY TRIBUTE TO PRESIDENT ELIOT

Resignation of Head of Harvard Accepted With Reluctance.

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 11.—In accepting with reluctance the resignation of President Charles W. Eliot, the overseers of Harvard college have placed on record a resolution of admiration and esteem. The resolution in part is as follows:

"Called to the presidency in early manhood, he has administered the affairs of this university for forty years with eminent skill and fidelity. Its vast development during this term of service has been mainly due to his wisdom, his strong convictions, his enterprise and zeal. Prompt to initiate reforms and fearless, yet prudent, in pressing them, he has by his constructive energy transformed Harvard college into a great university. In the same time has exerted an influence on the educational forces of the nation which has largely shaped their policy so that he stands today the leader in his generation and age."

MARINES POLICE PANAMA

Order of President Roosevelt for Protection of American Sailors Arouses Resentment Among Citizens of Republic.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Panama, Dec. 11.—A report received here today that President Roosevelt had ordered the policing of Panama by American marines under United States officers when the American sailors land here during the visit of the Pacific fleet next week caused much surprise.

Last Wednesday prominent citizens of Panama and the canal zone had a meeting at which arrangements were made adequately to celebrate the fleet's visit and which plans for protecting the sailors were made by a special committee. On this committee were appointed Governor Diaz, Mayor Arceena, Chief of Police Pirelli and many other prominent Panamanians who were educated in the United States.

President Obaldia had made it known that it was his desire that Panama should avail itself of this opportunity to demonstrate that its friendship for the United States is sincere, but the alleged orders of President Roosevelt have dampened all the enthusiasm and the chances are that if they are true, instead of warm hospitality, cold courtesy will be tendered the members of the fleet.

It is said here that the exaggerated reports have been published in American newspapers regarding the death of an American sailor who, during the last days of President Amador's administration was wounded in a free fight in a resort and died of his wounds. President Obaldia ordered a complete investigation of the affair and four men are now in prison awaiting trial.

TWO BURNED TO DEATH IN DWELLING HOUSE FIRE

Chicago, Dec. 11.—Two persons were burned to death and several others were injured by jumping out of windows during a fire at 1824 Prairie avenue tonight. The dead are Mrs. Elizabeth Carr and her one-year-old son.

Roy Carr, husband of the woman, was burned while trying to rescue her. Many wealthy residents including Daniel Hayes, Alfred Trumbley and Arthur V. Meeker, general manager of Armour & Co., who live nearby hurried to the fire and assisted in the rescue. While some carried the bodies of the woman and the child from an upper floor, Mr. Meeker secured an automobile and in it sent Peter Peterson, a cripple who had jumped from a window, to a hospital.

GOOD WORK DONE BY CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS

Young Men and Women Active at Agricultural College; Plans for Beautifying the Campus; College Notes.

Special Correspondence to Morning Journal
Agricultural College, Mesilla Park, Dec. 11.—The Young Men's and Young Women's Christian associations are very active this year, and are enrolling many new members. This good work is being carried on by students who are interested in getting the most out of school life and who wish to take advantage of every opportunity for improvement. The boys have been raising money to equip the social room of their new building, and this week the advisory committee of the Y. M. C. A. had a meeting to make plans and lay a foundation for the year's work.

On Friday night occurs the bi-monthly entertainment given at the dormitory. Dancing and the other forms of social amusement will be given.

Miss Mary Louise Nowland has spent a week at the college, visiting Miss Anderson. Miss Nowland has been visiting friends in Hillsboro and is now on her way to her home in Covington, Ky.

Mrs. Thomas, of the stenography department, has been substituting during the past week in the Las Cruces public schools, for Miss Sweet, who has not been able to meet her pupils.

On Saturday the stenographers' association will entertain the football team at the home of Mrs. Deemer, on College row.

The new feed lots are about completed and twenty-five steers will soon be brought in from the C. T. Turner ranch, on which a test will be made. The main object of this experiment will be to determine the most economical production ration in the valley for fattening steers. It is intended to prove to the farmers that corn stover and kaffir corn, which is generally wasted by the farmers, is a good substitute for alfalfa.

The steers for the test will be the average two-year-old stock. They will be divided into lots of five for convenience and accuracy in computation.

It is intended to test the value of kaffir corn versus corn meal and corn stover, and oats versus alfalfa. Those in charge hope to complete the test in about 130 days, and then the steers will be sold to either the local or El Paso market.

At its recent meeting the board of regents made plans for the beautifying the campus. The new water system will provide water for irrigation and grass will be grown and trees planted.

This will add very much to the appearance of the campus and buildings. The music department in the college has been developing very rapidly during this year. The college now has an excellent fifteen-piece orchestra, a twenty-four piece band and lately a chorus was organized to give an oratorio. All of this work is under the direction of Professor Watkins, who is an able musician, and who is building up a strong department among students and faculty.

DECISION MAY RELEASE INSURANCE OFFICIALS
Pending Indictments Rendered Void by New York Supreme Court.

New York, Dec. 11.—John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, was freed by the supreme court today in a decision that, if it stands, will serve to quash all indictments now outstanding against insurance officials. This is, according to a statement by District Attorney Jerome, who, however, expects to take the case to the court of appeals.

Mr. Hegeman was charged with perjury in the verification of a report made by the Metropolitan Life Insurance company to the superintendent of insurance in January, 1905. The matter reached the appellate division of the supreme court through habeas corpus proceedings.

The court in its opinion says that the evidence was insufficient to establish prima facie wilful and deliberate perjury by Mr. Hegeman.

Upon learning of the decision, the district attorney said:

"The case undoubtedly will be taken to the court of appeals. If the decision stands it will quash all the indictments still standing against insurance officials."

There are six indictments for forgery against George W. Perkins, formerly vice president of the New York Life Insurance company and several against Charles S. Fairchild of the same company, based on practically the same allegations in regard to reporting the company's condition.

There is one indictment for forgery against Robert A. Granville, formerly vice president of the Mutual Life Insurance company on the same ground.

Edgewater, N. J., Dec. 11.—Shouting that he was "John the Baptist" come to save the world, an aged insane man held this town in terror for nearly an hour this afternoon. He rushed down the main street waving a revolver and shouting, held up half a dozen citizens, robbed the tills of three establishments and exchanged shots with a hastily formed posse.

After a chase of a mile he was shot twice by his pursuers and captured. His wounds are not regarded as serious.

The man said his name is Arthur S. Pomeroy and that he came from Nebraska. It is believed he escaped recently from a sanitarium at Stamford, Conn.

HARBORS CONGRESS WINDS UP WORK

Gathering Goes on Record as Favoring Half Billion Dollar Bond Issue to Carry Out Its Plans.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—With great enthusiasm the National Rivers and Harbors congress at its concluding session here today placed itself on record in favor of the issuance of government bonds for the improvement of the great waterways projects.

The congress declared for an authorized issue by congress at its present session of $500,000,000 worth of bonds, the proceeds to be used in the payment exclusively for such river and harbor work as may be authorized by congress, provision for the issue to be similar to the Panama canal bonds.

A committee presented to Vice President Fairbanks and Speaker Cannon the bond resolution. Mr. Fairbanks expressed a favorable opinion of the proposition but Mr. Cannon merely assured the committee that the resolution would be referred for consideration.

Vice president were announced, among them being L. Bradford Prince of Santa Fe, N. M.

Twenty-seven indictments for Capital Offenses Returned as Result of Night Rider Outrages.

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire

Union City, Tenn., Dec. 11.—Thirty-three indictments were returned today by the special grand jury investigating the recent night rider raids in the Nashville Lake region. Of this number twenty-one charge murder—the lynching of Captain Quentin Rankin at Walnut Log—six charge participation in the burning of the fish docks of J. C. Burdick at Samburg and six charge violation of the Ku Klux law which makes a malicious assault while in disguise a capital offense. Preparations are being made by both the state and defense for the trial of the alleged leaders of the band which will begin Monday.

ment on course of action relative to the president's statements. The text of Mr. Perkins' resolution was as follows:

"Whereas, there was contained in the sundry civil appropriation bill which passed congress at its last session and became a law, a provision in reference to the employment of the secret service in the treasury department and

"Whereas, in the message of the president of the United States to the two houses of congress, it was stated in reference to that provision: 'I have too much to say this amendment has been of benefit only and could be of benefit only to the criminal classes,' and it was further stated the chief argument in favor of the provision was that the congressmen did not themselves want to be investigated by secret service men. And, it was further stated, 'but if this was not considered desirable a specific exception could be made in the law, prohibiting the use of the secret service force in investigating members of congress. It would be far better to do this than to do what actually was done and strive to prevent or at least to hamper effective action against criminals by the legislative branch of the government. Now, therefore, be it Resolved, that a committee of five members of congress of this house be appointed by the speaker to consider the statements contained in the message of the president and the report to the house what action, if any, should be taken in reference thereto."

In submitting it he said: "I do not believe in over sensitivity to unfavorable criticism, whether upon an individual or upon a public body. But while there may be undue sensitiveness, so also there may be undue obtuseness which might argue a lack of proper self respect."

"It is of importance to the republic that all the coordinate branches of the government should possess in a high degree the confidence and respect of the people. I yield to no one in my respect for the chief executive of the United States and I yield to no one in my respect for the congress of the United States. To the congress I granted great power and upon it I imposed great responsibility. We can not neglect our duties nor shrink our responsibilities. The dignity of that body should not be punctiliously insisted upon, but it should be properly maintained. The statements made by the president can not be lightly disregarded. They may be so construed by the public as to lessen the dignity and thereby impair the usefulness of the congress of the United States. It can be justly said, I think, that these expressions were unfortunate. Whether it is enough to say this, or whether some more formal action should be taken it will be for congress, exercising a wise and discrete judgment to decide.

"We are the representatives of millions of people. We are the legislative body of a great nation. I am sure there is no one who has the honor to be a member of this congress who will hesitate to approve such action as may be required by a proper regard for the dignity of the body to which we belong and of the people whose representatives we are."

The resolution was adopted. While speaking Mr. Perkins was accorded earnest attention by the entire membership. Even the occupants of the galleries were usually kept up an incessant din of congratulatory murmured phrases. At the conclusion of his remarks he was universally applauded.

CONGRESSMAN SPEAKS OF LANDMARK
Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—Attention was called today to the fact that the utterances of the president in regard to the action of congress in limiting the use of the secret service force was not the only action of the executive considered by the members objectionable. It became known that the subcommittee of the committee on appropriations, having charge of the preparation of the executive, legislative and judicial appropriation bill had been investigating the raising of the old Pennsylvania depot, that was located on the Mall until the president had it torn down last summer.

"That the committee failed to exchange its inquiries about this action, from printed hearings, indicate the temper of the committee toward the executive. When Colonel Charles Bromwell, military aide of the president, and the superintendent of public buildings and grounds appeared before the committee, Representative Burdick, of Texas, asked if he had not requested an appropriation last year for a watchman for the old building."

"I thank you," replied Colonel Bromwell. "But I have had no occasion to see it. I have torn down the railroad station."

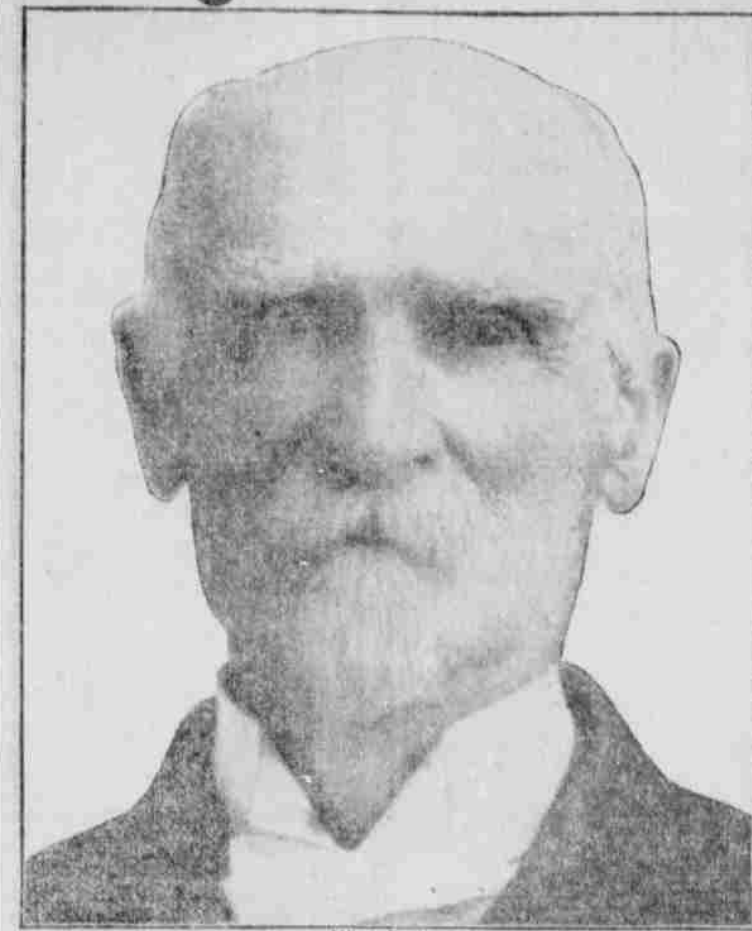

"What time down the railroad station?" exclaimed the Texas representative. "I explained his action on a written order from the president."

Lungs and Throat Cured.

Mr. I. P. Swords, of Washington, D. C., who is 70 years old, praises Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for curing his lung and throat trouble from which he had suffered for two years. Mr. Swords says that it is a fine tonic for building up the system.

In a recent letter he writes: "I am an old soldier of 70 years. My trouble is with my throat, and general debility. Have read a good deal about Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and the good it has done many. While I hesitate to have my name in print, I cannot refrain from giving my testimony regarding the great benefit I have received from the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. During the last two years, my lungs and throat have given me much trouble. Taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey according to the directions on the bottle, I found helped me wonderfully. It is a fine tonic for building up the system."—I. P. Swords, Washington, D. C.

Mr. Swords, like thousands of others who have been cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, is glad to tell of it, so that others who are sick may know of this great medicine.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

The members of the committee referred to the commission as "one without authority of the law."

THIS CITY MAY BE HEADQUARTERS FOR FLORIDA FOREST

Local Forestry Bureau May Have Jurisdiction Over Ocala National Forest First to Be Created East of Mississippi.

That this city is considered as a central point from which federal business may be transacted with promptness is indicated by the fact that the Ocala national forest in Marion county, in eastern Florida, may be placed under the jurisdiction of the third district, the headquarters of which were recently established in Albuquerque. The third district now embraces all national forests in New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma and Utah. In the event that the newly created Florida forest is placed under the administration of the Albuquerque office, it will be quite a compliment to the city, as it will practically be an assurance that the authorities in Washington realize that this is an important central point. Chief Forester A. B. Ringland stated yesterday afternoon that the matter was now being conferred by the authorities in Washington, and definite announcement as to which district the new forest would be placed in would be made within a few days. Mr. Ringland stated that the prospect for the Albuquerque office receiving the jurisdiction of the new forest was extremely bright. The new forest is unique inasmuch as it is the first national forest created east of the Mississippi. President Roosevelt recently signed a proclamation setting aside and naming the forest, which is now officially known as the Ocala national forest. It is situated in Marion county, in eastern Florida. The president at the same time signed another proclamation which created the Dakota national forest in Billings county, North Dakota.

Inasmuch as the last named national forest is the first in North Dakota, the two proclamations add two more states to the list of those wherein land will be put under scientific forest administration. There are now nineteen states and Alaska, having national forests.

Before the creation of the Ocala, in Florida, the two forests in Arkansas, the Ozark and the Arkansas, were the easternmost national forests. Practically all the other national forests are in the Rocky mountain and the Pacific coast states. The Florida forest has an area of 201,480 acres, of which about one-fourth has been taken up under various land laws. It covers a plateau between the St. Johns and the Suwannee rivers, and at an elevation of 150 feet above sea level. The area is by nature better fitted for the production of forest growth than for any other purpose. Nearly all of the area, however, seems particularly well adapted to the growth of sand pine, which is even now replacing the less valuable species, and with protection from fire almost the entire area will in time undoubtedly be covered with a dense stand of this species. The long-leaf pine, a much more valuable commercial tree than the sand pine, appears rather sparsely on this forest, and is confined principally to the lower flat lands along the streams on the borders of the forest.

In addition to the pines and scrub growths, hardy cypress, cypress, poplar, and other trees, gradually changing to cedar oak, ash, elm, magnolia, hickory and maple are found bordering the numerous ponds and lakes which are scattered abundantly throughout the confines of this forest. Fire has played a very important part in bringing about the present poorly forested condition of the Ocala. The year after year large fires have burned uncontested, covering this tract, killing all vegetation and consuming the humus of the soil. Naturally protected portions which have not been subjected to the flames, prove positively, however, that the soil will rapidly respond to a little care taking and that the prevention of fires would eventually mean the reforestation of practically the entire area.

No scientific operations have been conducted on the area included in the Ocala national forest. Turpentine by tapping is carried on over contiguous areas, and through the cedars and antiquated methods used the future pine crop of the adjoining region is greatly jeopardized. The soil is of little value for agricultural purposes, and about the only crop which can be produced here will be a few bushels of sand pine and with proper care and attention there should in time be a valuable forest of this species.

The new Dakota national forest consists of 14,950 acres in the Bad Lands region. It is located in Billings county and lies an equal distance between the Northern Pacific railroad on the north and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul on the south. Its creation is important, for it means that an experimental field for forest planting has been secured in North Dakota, the least forested state in the Union, having only one per cent of tree growth. The forest service expects to establish forest nurseries with the hope that in time to come the area may be reforested by artificial means. This feature is expected to prove a very good object lesson to the settlers, who it is hoped will in turn plant windbreaks around their farms.

The forest is very open and for the most part contains a scattering stand of western yellow pine timber. Along the creek bed is found ash, box elder, cottonwood, elm, and birch. Cedar breaks are also found on precipitous slopes bordering the streams. Western yellow pine is the only merchantable species, however, on the forest and the average stand per acre is not over 2,000 feet. The reproduction of pine is fairly good wherever mature trees occur, but owing to the open condition of the forest and the dense growth of trees it is for the most part unsatisfactory. There is but little timber that will be sold from the forest at the present time when this area is very isolated, being surrounded on all sides by vast plains. Many homesteaders have in the past come to this forest for timber for logs to build their houses. Since the completion of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, Billings county is rapidly being settled and while stock raising is at the present time the most important industry, it is very probable that farming will become the most important industry within the next few years. It is very important, therefore, that the timber which now remains should be conserved exclusively for the use of the home builder.

At the present time there are but seven homesteaders within the boundaries of the forest, but all of the odd sections are allocated land being owned by the Western Land Securities company. This company has been selling portions of their holdings during the past few years. Very little of the government land within the boundaries of the forest is suitable for farming purposes, since it is quite rough and broken and water is very scarce. It is the country outside of the forest which is now being taken up by settlers.

No saw mill operations have ever been conducted on the area. When the Northern Pacific railroad was being built a large number of trees were cut for railroad ties and together with the logs which have been procured for house building by settlers this is the only use which has been made of the timber on the forest. It is understood that the logs used in the construction of President Roosevelt's cabin, which now stands in the state capital grounds at Bismarck, N. D., were obtained from the area now included in the Dakota national forest.

Governor Burke of North Dakota, is very much interested in this forest and thinks it will be of inestimable value to the people who live in the region where the forest is created.

THE PARK MEETING NEXT TUESDAY

Citizens Asked to Attend Gathering in Library Building to Discuss Beautifying of the City.

Through the kindness of Mr. W. E. Strinken, principal of the Albuquerque Business college, the park commission has secured the large assembly room in the Public Library building for a public meeting of the citizens of the city next Tuesday evening to discuss park matters and particularly the proper treatment of the Highland park as enlarged through the general appropriation of the city council. The meeting should be generally attended by the people of the city as the subject to be discussed is a highly important one and one closely related to the development of the city as a desirable place of residence.

Johnny Couldn't Help It.
The teacher of one of the rooms in a school in the suburbs had been training her pupils in anticipation of a visit from the school inspector. At last he came, and the classes were called out to show their attainments. The arithmetic class was the first called, and in order to make a good impression the teacher put the first question in Johnny Smith, the star pupil.
"Johnny, if coal is selling at $5 a ton, and you pay the cost dealer $20, how many tons of coal will he bring you?"
"Three," was the prompt reply from Johnny.
The teacher, much embarrassed, said: "Why, Johnny, that isn't right."
"Oh, I know it ain't, but they do it, miss,"—Titt-Rits.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street.

New York, Dec. 11.—The running up of the gold engagements for shipment to France tomorrow to the sum of $3,900,000 took the edge off the speculation temper today and a considerable unloading of stocks resulted in the latter part of the day. The lesson of the gold shipments was strengthened by the preliminary estimates of the week's currency movement, from which it appeared that practically no gain on balance from the interior had occurred to offset the absorption of $5,933,000 by the sub-treasury operations of the week. None of the gold taken for export has figured yet in the sub-treasury operations, the effect therefore being deferred to next week's bank statement rather than in the showing to be published tomorrow afternoon. The payment of subscriptions to the Panama canal bonds have not yet commenced to figure in the sub-treasury operations leaving another money requirement to make some strain on the temporary accumulation of funds to prepare for the year end disbursements to make some strain on the money market and to involve the calling of loans. In the expanding tendency of the loan item of the banks also continues. With the surplus reserve of the banks last Saturday standing at but little over $20,000,000 there was presented by this rapid running up of requirements a rate of inroad upon that sum which suddenly appeared somewhat startling. The feeling of confidence that the interval to the easy money markets of January could be bridged without special aid in retrenchment of outlay was somewhat disturbed by this development and some hasty retirements from stock commitments followed. The small effect produced on the exchange market by the gold engagements gave an impression of still unutilized requirement which indicated a likelihood of the continuance of the gold outflow. It is supposed that, besides the very heavy inflow from abroad of American securities at the high prices lately prevailing, the conduct of the speculative campaign has involved some large carryings of stocks in foreign markets with money borrowed in those markets. With the approach of the year end requirements foreign lenders are discussed, it is believed, to reduce the accommodations of this kind. Bills are scarce in the exchange market with which to effect remittances and the shipments of gold are found necessary to meet the occasion. The amount of the shipment today was limited only by the supply of bar gold procurable at the assay office and foreign bankers assume from the sustained strength of foreign exchange that gold will be shipped next week to a considerable amount. There was a break of 1/2 cent per ounce in the price of bar silver today as compared to last night's closing price bringing the quotation down to 48 1/2. The decline was attributed to the renewed selling by China and India. The demand continues limited and the accumulation heavy.

POWDERLY WOULD ABOLISH BREAD LINE

Urges State Farms to Care for Chronic Mentals in New York.

New York, Dec. 11.—Strong opposition to the bread line was expressed today by T. V. Powderly, commissioner of immigration, in a letter to Robert W. Hebbard, commissioner of public charities.

"I have made it a practice for years whenever in New York," wrote Mr. Powderly, "to take my place in the bread line and converse with the unfortunate I find there. I managed to get the views of quite a number, and was enlightened very much as to the character of the men I associated with. In the main, he is a bum, slovenly, indolent, shiftless and ambitious. Something in the past life has broken his spirit and of his own volition it will not mend."

"Such men should not be fed by the hand of charity. If he fond wanted, you are only feeding the flame that burns up manhood. I do not condemn them, understand; I pity them and believe that under the most degraded exterior there lies dormant the spark of manliness. Don't feed them; let them feed themselves on a farm provided by the state. Give such man his task and let him know that he must earn his bread."

Choked to Death. Is commonly said of babies who have died of the croup. How unnecessary this is. No child ever had the croup without having a cold or cough at the start. If you will stop the first symptoms of the cough with Ballard's Horehound Syrup there is no danger whatever of croup. Sold by J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

Take your lame horse to the L.X.L. Shoeing Parge to have him shod. 515 Copper ave.

CAUTION AND CONFIDENCE.

Bradstreet's commercial agency—than which there is no better business barometer in the country—while conservative and cautious in its reports of present conditions and future prospects, takes a thoroughly optimistic view of the outlook, and bases its opinion upon the fact that it finds confidence restored in every section of the country—and confidence is the corner stone of prosperity. We are told that "enlargement and expansion are still the dominating influences in trade and industry, and the volume of sales and of orders booked by wholesalers and manufacturers continues to show gains, particularly in the commercial and manufacturing centers of the north, east and west. Commodity prices are steady to strong, and there are indications that high prices for farm produce will rule. Railway gross earnings, though better than in earlier months, still continue to show a decrease from a year ago. Net receipts, however, make a better exhibit owing to economies in operation, and the first gain in net receipts for a year past is reported for September. Idle cars are reported growing fewer in number rapidly. Clearings show a heavy gain over a year ago. Foreign trade reports are better than earlier in the year. Exports, especially for the next three months, promise to make an indifferent showing, because comparisons are with months last year when panic necessities caused record shipments of cotton and breadstuffs.

"While much ground has undoubtedly been gained, and there is no setback as regards the optimistic tone ruling as to the future, there is a growing disposition to depreciate exaggerated boom talk and a desire that the improvement shall be permanent rather than hurried."

SENSATION IN CONGRESS.

Readers of the Morning Journal probably saw an item in our news dispatches from Washington, yesterday, to the effect that a certain paragraph of the president's message, referring to the secret service law, had stirred up an unusual commotion in the house and senate. It seems from the dispatch that there is practical agreement in both houses that a committee should be appointed to investigate the matter and recommend such action as should be taken in the premises, while it is urged by some that the entire paragraph should be stricken from the records. Respect for the office of president, however, will probably restrain congress from adopting the latter course, though there is clearly a very positive disposition on the part of both houses to "strike back" in some manner. The offensive paragraph reads as follows:

"Last year an amendment was incorporated in the measure providing for the secret service, which provided that there should be no detail from the secret service and no transfer therefrom. It is not too much to say that this amendment has been of benefit only, and could be of benefit only, to the criminal classes. If deliberately introduced for the purpose of diminishing the effectiveness of war against crime it could not have been better devised to this end. It forbade the practices that had been followed to a greater or less extent by the executive heads of various departments for twenty years. To these practices we owe the securing of the evidence which enabled us to drive the great lotteries out of business and secure a quarter of a million dollars in fines from their promoters. These practices have enabled us to discover some of the most outrageous frauds in connection with the theft of government land and government timber by great corporations and by individuals. These practices have enabled us to get some of the evidence indispensable in order to secure the conviction of the wealthiest and most formidable criminals with whom the government has had to deal, both those operating in violation of the anti-trust law and others. The amendment in question was of benefit to no one excepting to these criminals, and it seriously hampers the government in the detection of crime and the securing of justice. Moreover, it not only affects departments outside of the treasury, but it tends to hamper the secretary of the treasury himself in the effort to utilize the employees of his department so as best to meet the requirements of the public service. It forbids him from preventing frauds upon the customs service, from investigating irregularities in branch mints and assay offices, and has seriously crippled him. It prevents the promotion of employees in the secret service, and thus further discourages good effort. In its present form the restriction operates only to the advantage of the criminal, of the wrongdoer. The chief argument in favor of the provision was that the congressmen did not themselves wish to be investigated by the secret service men. Very little of such investigation has been done in the past; but it is true that the work of the secret service agents was partly responsible for the indictment and conviction of a senator and a congressman for land frauds in Oregon. I do not believe that it is in the public interest to protect criminals in any branch of the public service, and exactly as we have again and again during the past seven years prosecuted and convicted such criminals who were in the executive branch of the government, so in my belief we should be given ample means to prosecute them if found in the legislative branch. But if this is not considered desirable a special exception could be made in the law prohibiting the use of the secret service. In investigating members of the congress, it would be far better to do this than to do what actually was done, and strive to prevent or at least to hamper effective action against criminals by the executive branch of the government."

It was Admiral Coghlan's popularity and capacity as a good story-teller that involved him in the incident, of which so much was made at the time, when the admiral recited the poem, "Hoch der Kaiser," which somewhat rattled the German authorities. The incident occurred at a dinner which the admiral attended. It was not intended that the fact of the recital should become public. However, it appeared in the newspapers. As it occurred after the return from Manila, where there had been some friction with the German authorities, the affair was treated with more significance than perhaps the circumstances otherwise would have warranted. The navy department called on the admiral for an explanation. The admiral replied that no disrespect was meant by him toward the German emperor, and with this statement the matter was allowed to drop. Here are the verses, in full:

Der Kaiser auf der Vatterland.
Und Gott on high all things command—
Ve two! Ach! Don't you understand?
Myself—and Gott!

He reigns in Heaven, and always shall;
Und mein own empire don't vay small.
Kin Noble fair, I think you call
Myself—and Gott!

Vie some men sing der power divine,
Mine soldiers sing "Die Wacht am Rhein."
Und drink der health in Rheinisch wine
Of me—and Gott!

Dere's France, she swaggers all around,
She's arrogant—don't you find?
To much, methinks, she don't amount;
Myself—and Gott!

She will not dare to fight again,
But if she shouldn't, I'll show her blain
Dor Ehass and (in French) Hattain
Are Mein—and Gott!

Dere's grandma dinks she is nigh small beer,
Midt Boers and such she'd interfere;
She'll learn none owns dis hemisphere
But me—and Gott!

She dinks, good frau, some ships she's got,
Und soldiers midt der scarlet goat.
Ach! We could knock dem—pouf! like dot.

In dimes of peace breche for wars,
I hear der spear and helm of Mars.
Und care not for den thousand craps.
Myself—midt Gott!

In fact, I humor cry whim,
With aspect dark and visage grim;
Gott pulk mit me, und I mit Him,
Myself—and Gott!

It is estimated that if President Roosevelt accepted all his invitations he would be speaking into the twenty-first century. Mr. Taft would be booked solid every night for the next four years. There are not enough presidents and exceptional governors to go around. When the source and grave notables at eliminated there are but few laugh-makers, and the most of these find it more profitable to write out their remarks and sell them as literature or drama.

ROADS ON SANDY LAND.

Harper's Weekly is responsible for a statement of how to make good country roads on sandy land, and if the plan will do what is claimed for it, there are a great many places in the Rio Grande valley where it might be utilized with great advantage to the public. It is said that the state highway engineer of Minnesota has designed a road that is serviceable in spite of a sandy foundation. A section of his new construction is located at Cambridge, in Isanti county. In this district there is nothing but sand for a top soil, and it is impossible to preserve a road without adding some other material. Mr. Cooley finally decided that sawdust was the component necessary, and a four-inch layer of this was raked into a stretch of road which had been carefully graded. Passing teams thoroughly ground together this mixture, and wheels and ruts were worn into the surface by the time the fresh sawdust. The fine particles of wood gradually forming a heavy loam with the sand, and the result is a firm roadbed, suitable to all ordinary traffic.

"HOCH DER KAISER."

The death of Rear Admiral Coghlan, which occurred a few days ago, has called to mind an incident that took place just after the Spanish war, and created a sensation in diplomatic circles on both sides of the Atlantic, as well as causing world-wide criticism.

It was Admiral Coghlan's popularity and capacity as a good story-teller that involved him in the incident, of which so much was made at the time, when the admiral recited the poem, "Hoch der Kaiser," which somewhat rattled the German authorities.

There are not enough presidents and exceptional governors to go around. ## What the Editors of the Southwest Are Saying

By Contrast. — If Anahlas were now alive he might be able to make good the claim that he was really a rather truthful man.—Los Angeles Times.

Such a Fullness. — "The world is full of heroes," says the Galveston Tribune. The trouble is, about half of the heroes seem to be full of prunes.—Tucson Citizen.

Don't Knock. — The new Sylvanite gold camp over in New Mexico has not yet been proven a success or a failure, but so far no real bonanza is in sight in that district, according to reliable reports.—Bisbee Review.

The Winter Wall. — It is suggested that the Light Brigade was not in it with some few dealers in "this neck of the woods" when it comes to charging.—El Paso Times.

Welcome, Cip. — On the other hand, the people of France will favor General Castro's admission to the country if it can be proven that he has any reasonable portion of the alleged $60,000,000 in his clothes.—Clovie Post.

The Real Happy Bill. — The Cincinnati Gazette declares that the happiest William is not William of Germany, nor William of Nebraska, and intimates that it is William of Ohio. Dead wrong again. It is William of the plains, whose diet is corn and meat and who has no cabinet to make up.—El Paso Times.

Serenity. — The big wigs among the doctors have now decided that "serenity" is a disease, and if not attended to at once is apt to lead into great difficulties. The main symptoms are said to be a great egotism, desire to work everybody and everything and an irrepressible desire to butt in to somebody else's business.—Roswell Register Tribune.

Out of Date. — The Kansas City Journal is advertising a "History of the Panama Canal," a literary work now rendered almost obsolete by Sunday contributions from Hot Springs, Va., and the New York Sun office. If the Journal's history is to remain among the "six best sellers" it must be brought up to date. Like the biography of a man, which ought not to be written until he has been long dead, so a history of the Panama canal before it is finished is premature and susceptible of revision.—Phoenix Republic.

Leave It to the People. — In anticipation of a showdown the people of both Arizona and New Mexico are discussing the provisions of their respective proposed constitutions, and the discussions are growing in interest and in warmth. The proposition to include prohibition in each appears to be the new feature most generally and warmly discussed, and threatens to vex the constitution makers mightily and to complicate their work.

The Times has confidence enough in the wisdom of the citizens of the coming states to feel confident that they will frame and adopt constitutions that will be models of organic law, and hopes that neither faction nor fanaticism will be allowed to interfere with either justice or equity in the composition of the instruments that may finally be adopted.—El Paso Times.

EXAMINATIONS FOR TEACHERS

Applicants for County Certificates Will Be Examined at Court House January 15.

County Superintendent of Schools A. B. Stroup announces that county teachers examinations will be held at the court house beginning at 8 o'clock January 15, 1909. The announcement is made pursuant to the following circular to county superintendents issued by Territorial Superintendent James E. Clark:

CIRCULAR LETTER TO COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS

To the County Superintendent, Dear Sir: We would like to hold the next regular county examination on Friday and Saturday, January 15th and 16th, 1909. This examination should open as early as 8 o'clock Friday morning. Examination questions for all grades of certificates will be submitted.

Your teachers are already inquiring concerning this examination and it might be well for you to announce the date through the press. Let it be thoroughly understood that all holders of permits must attend this examination and secure certificates if they wish to continue teaching. Teachers who hold second and third grade certificates may attend this examination and try for higher grades.

Prospective teachers should attend this examination if possible in order that they may become acquainted with the nature of the questions and thus prepare themselves more thoroughly for the examinations to be given at the close of the summer institutes. All who are planning to teach between now and the summer institutes and who are not now holders of teachers licenses should attend this examination.

When the questions are sent you early in January full instructions will be given as to the address to which to mail examination papers.

Yours very respectfully,
(Signed) J. E. CLARK,
Territorial Superintendent Public Instruction.

Department of Education, Santa Fe, New Mexico, December 8, 1908.

College Boys at a Fire in Turkey.

Not long ago a fire broke out in the city of Marsovan, Turkey, the home of Anatolia college, a fine education institution for boys supported by the American board. The difference in discipline and efficiency between the native fire department and the voluntary work of the students made a deep impression upon those who witnessed the conflagration. When the alarm sounded, at 2 o'clock in the morning, the Turkish firemen started with a small hand machine across the city, making a terrible noise with blowing trumpets. Somewhat later the boys from Anatolia college set out with a little old engine and an outfit of tin buckets, used on the mission premises. It was a slow process to reach the scene over pitching streets and Asiatic cobble stones, but the boys were there ahead of the fire brigade, and their jet was doing its work before the city pump had found connections. After an hour's fight the flames were extinguished, a neighboring mosque was saved and a general conflagration avoided. Then the boys gathered up their tackle, gave three lusty cheers for Anatolia, and trotted home to bed in martial order. All that time the city engine lay useless, while the municipal firemen ran around the streets borrowing tin and tubs to carry water to their engine, having neglected to take buckets. A river had been flowing before the building they could have done nothing but dip water with their feet. The next morning people in the market place talked in excited tones about the student brigade. They said, "We thought people had to have engines to put out fires, but we see it is done with tin buckets." They were loud in their praise of the discipline and order maintained by the students, and of the splendid way they met an emergency. There are more serious emergencies than fires in the land of the sultan at present, and our American Christian brothers and sisters are turning out the right sort of young men to meet them. American friendship shown to Turkey at this crisis in her history is likely to bring as rich rewards as it has in Japan. In what better way can we express this friendship than by supporting colleges like Anatolia?

In Five Years From Now. It's the Coming RESIDENCE SECTION

Keep that in mind; I will sell the balance of Silver avenue—and it will be, by a big majority, the finest street in the new state—at the present prices. I have also 13 lots left on Central avenue, and when these two streets are sold out, Gold, Lead, Coal, Iron, and Highland avenues will all be withdrawn from the market, and thousands of dollars expended in grading, setting out trees, and installing a most complete and up-to-date little water plant that will take care of the needs of the entire addition. ## LARUE ON TRIAL FOR SHOOTING GARCIA

Case for Territory Closed Yesterday and Work of Presenting Testimony for Defense Begun; Many Conflicting Stories Told on Stand.

The whole day in the district court yesterday was occupied with the trial of the territory versus John LaRue, indicted by the grand jury on a charge of having shot Manuel Antonio Garcia in the abdomen with a 32-caliber revolver on the night of October 6, a feature of the day's developments was the contradictory stories told by the witnesses, of whom there were quite a number. Garcia was one of the chief witnesses for the territory. He stated on the stand that his wife left home about 7:30 in the evening on October 6, and went down town. He followed her, as he had suspected her of infidelity, and determined to satisfy himself as to her actions. He saw her meet LaRue on the corner of Second street and Central avenue. The couple stood talking for a short time and then separated. Mrs. Garcia going to North First street, where she was again joined by LaRue. According to Garcia, he surprised the couple while they were walking on North First street, and LaRue shot him.

Mrs. Garcia was placed on the stand and told quite a different story from the one told a few moments previous by her husband. She said that she was with her husband near North Second street and Reina avenue, when some man came up and shot him. She said that she was unable to identify the man who did the shooting.

City Policeman W. P. Marquette, who arrested LaRue on suspicion of being the man who did the shooting, took the stand, and testified that he saw LaRue arrested. He said that Mrs. Garcia had identified him as the person who shot her husband.

Jesus Romero, of Old Town, was placed on the stand by the territory and said that on the day following the shooting Mrs. Garcia had told him that it was John LaRue who shot him. Mrs. Garcia, however, when asked whether she made such a statement to Romero, said that she did not remember.

Bertha Duval, a witness for the defense, testified that she was talking to LaRue from 8 o'clock until nearly 8:30 on the night the shooting occurred. Garcia was shot about 8:15. Otto Olsen, J. N. Carney, Desiderio Montoya, George Brown, Harry Smith and Blake McNeal, all witnesses for the defense, were placed on the stand and testified that they had seen LaRue at various places down town from 8 o'clock until 9:30 on the night the shooting took place.

LaRue was placed on the stand in his own behalf and denied doing the shooting. He gave a detailed account of his actions from 8 o'clock on the night Garcia was shot until he was arrested by Policeman Marquette. At 5 o'clock an adjournment was taken until 9:30 this morning, when the trial will be resumed.

Verdict in Favor of Plaintiff.
The sealed verdict brought in Thursday night by the jury in the case of Ferguson and Crews, versus Charles R. Foster, was opened when court convened yesterday morning, and proved to be favorable to the defendant. Ferguson and Crews asked judgment against Foster in the sum of

FOR INSURANCE CONCERNS IN TERRITORY

Interesting Bulletin Issued by Superintendent Jacobo Chavez on Growth of Business in New Mexico.

Territorial Superintendent of Insurance Jacobo Chavez has issued Bulletin No. 3, of his department which contains the following valuable information:

To the Public:
On November 24th, the district court for the county of Chavez, passed sentence on J. E. Gates, imposing a fine of $50 and costs, the costs amounting to $26.95.

This party was soliciting business for the Commercial Underwriters of San Antonio, Texas, without authority. The Western Underwriters of the state of New York, are sending letters to the postmasters throughout the territory asking them to take the agency for them, or to hand it to some one who will offering 25 per cent commission on all business. These letters are signed by O. O. Oldham, manager, and sent from Ogden, Utah.

This concern is not authorized to transact business in this territory. The great Western Life Insurance company of Kansas City, has reorganized and, after having met all requirements of the insurance department of Missouri, has received authority to proceed. This company is now in the hands of an entirely new set of men and the president in a letter says that they are now prepared to run the company in a business-like manner. Under the former management the company was grossly mismanaged and transactions of a most questionable and criminal nature have occurred.

This department has notified the company that it will require satisfactory evidence that the company is in a solvent condition and that its obligations have been properly met, before allowing it to proceed with the writing of new business.

The Identification Company of America, located at Chicago, has agents in this territory selling accident insurance policies of the North American Accident Insurance company of Illinois. Neither of these companies are authorized to transact business in this territory, and aiding in the transaction of business for an unauthorized company is in violation of the insurance laws.

Imperial Fire Insurance company of Colorado. An examination of this company by the insurance department of Colorado and Wisconsin, shows that the company is carefully managed and its growth along sound and conservative lines.

Western Life and Accident company of Denver. As a result of an examination of this company by this department, it was refused admission to transact business in New Mexico. The company has also been refused admission into the state of Montana as a result of the examination.

The following companies have been admitted to transact business in this territory:

Michigan State Life Insurance company of Detroit, Mich.

Aetna Life Insurance company of Hartford, Conn.

Masonic Life association of Buffalo, N. Y.

The superintendent called attention to the Masonic Life association in Bulletin No. 2, in which he refused to admit them as a fraternal society and they have now complied as an association life insurance company.

National Protective Legion. This fraternal beneficiary society has issued certificates on monthly payments of $2, aggregating $120 in five years, at the end of which time the holders were to receive $250 (estimated). Some time ago it was figured out they could have paid $113.58 instead of $250. The New York insurance department has recently completed an examination which shows that to pay $113.58 would call for a present reserve of $5,900,000 and the existing assets are about $2,640,000, leaving a deficit of $3,000,000.

This department has no jurisdiction transacting business in several states. This department has no jurisdiction over fraternal societies as the law only requires the superintendent of insurance to file their financial statements and collect a fee of $5.00.

In this connection it may be well to recall the words of a well known insurance commissioner who said: "If we cannot reach the wrongdoers with the law, we can reach the public with the truth."

Acting on an opinion from the attorney general the superintendent has ruled, that after the expiration of all agents' certificates, which is the last day of February next, that each member of a firm must have a certificate.

The following companies contemplate entering this territory:

Shawnee Fire Insurance company of Topeka, Kan.
Williamsburg City Fire Insurance company of New York.
National Union Fire Insurance company of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The percentage of fire losses in premiums received in this territory during 1907 was 23.1 per cent, being exceeded only by the year 1887, when the ratio was 23.3.

JACOBO CHAVEZ,
Superintendent of Insurance.

HOP FIEND AND PAL JAILED

Business in Vags Looking Up With Fifteen Pinched in Half a Day.

Frank Nichol, chronic hop fiend and his pal, a man named Vardman, were awarded thirty days each by Police Judge Craig yesterday for jointly or severally stealing from the W. L. Trimble company a Winchester rifle, a razor and some articles of clothing. Each modestly declined credit for the theft and insisted the other pulled off the job.

"How much does it take to keep you in dope?" inquired the city marshal of Nichol.

"About fifty cents a day," said Nichol after a rapid mental calculation. From his appearance it is believed the necessary outlay is several times this amount.

FIFTEEN VAGS ROUNDED UP IN ONE AFTERNOON

Business in vags took a jump yesterday when eleven homeless gentry with no visible means of support were rounded up in time to attend the afternoon session of police court. Four more were gathered in last evening by 7 o'clock with the harvest still in progress. The city is receiving daily influx of the great unwashed which threatens to tax the municipal accommodations. The eleven were given the usual sentence yesterday afternoon.

THE BANE OF THE FARMER.

(Nara Visa Register.)

What this country needs right now about as badly as anything we can think of is a law to restrain the gang of hungry half-starved cattle whose owners hope to keep at no expense to themselves on feed belonging to other people. The matter would not be so serious if these cattle would have any respect for an ordinary fence, but they stop at nothing. To bolt through or over a good barbed wire fence is to them a mild form of amusement. They use strategy, too, in their actions. Attempting to ally suspicion they will march boldly away from the scene of their predations, and when night falls, of their victim is absent they quietly return and relieve him of his summer's crop. If the owners were made to pay for the damage that would serve as some consolation, but will they do it? Not they. The ravages of their cattle is to them a source of revenue.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.

Good Digestion Follows Right Food.

Indigestion and the attendant discomforts of mind and body are certain to follow continued use of improper food.

Those who are still young and robust are likely to overlook the fact that, as dropping water will wear a stone away at last, so will the use of heavy, greasy, rich food, finally cause loss of appetite and indigestion.

Fortunately many are thoughtful enough to study themselves and note the principle of Cause and Effect in their daily food. A N. Y. young woman writes her experience thus:

"Sometime ago I had a lot of trouble from indigestion, caused by too rich food. I got so I was unable to digest scarcely anything, and medicines seemed useless."

"A friend advised me to try Grape-Nuts food, praising it highly, and as a last resort, I tried it. I am thankful to say that Grape-Nuts not only relieved me of my trouble, but built me up and strengthened my digestive organs so that I can now eat anything I desire. But I stick to Grape-Nuts."

as follows: Ray Allen Carpenter, first tenor; Howard E. Pratt, second tenor; William G. Wills (plans), baritone; George F. Ewing (soprano), bass. The music rendered by the singers was of an excellent variety, all of them being artists of much ability.

In the event that the Brotherhood lecture course this winter is well attended, the brotherhoods of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches will organize a Chautauque association for next winter. The establishment of the chautauque will mean that Albuquerque will be placed on the circuit of the best lectures in the country. This lecture course this year is an unusually strong one. Chautauque will be the first attraction, appearing at the Presbyterian church next Monday night.

William L. Trimble, the livestockman, made the kill of the season at the lakes of the Albuquerque Gun club, near Piedra, yesterday afternoon, when he brought down an immense white goose, weighing nearly forty pounds and measuring over seven feet from tip to tip. The goose was flying low with a flock of ducks and was the only goose in the bunch. It is believed that the bird traveled all the way from the northland and was en route to a southern clime. The goose was viewed by a large number of sportsmen yesterday evening and last night. Most of them declared it to be an Arctic goose. Mr. Trimble will have the bird mounted.

"Uncle Josh Perkins" is the title of a play that has scored a success this season unprecedented in recent years. It is to be given here in all its entirety by the original company, which first carried it on to prosperity and popularity. It will be produced here at the Elks theater soon, and it is certain to play to a packed house. "Uncle Josh Perkins" is a comedy drama; there is a touch of tragic nature in it that excites to an intense pitch the emotions of the spectators, with all ending happily. The play is lived up by the excellent comedy, and when the spectators are not in tears over the misfortune of the beautiful young heroine, and the absurdities that appear to threaten her future, they are laughing and applauding uproariously at the funny antics of the comedians. Some new and exceedingly clever songs and specialties are introduced at appropriate stages of the play, a vast amount of new and magnificent scenery is used for the impressive stage pictures presented in each of the four acts of the piece.

HIGHLAND RESIDENCE VISITED BY BURGLARS

Daylight Thief Carries Off Valuable Jewels; Purse Containing Ready Cash Overlooked.

A burglar entered the residence of Mrs. N. S. Twelveeers, at 400 South Broadway, late Thursday afternoon, and made his getaway with two valuable gold watches, one a lady's open face watch, and the other a gentleman's hunting case. Two valuable rings were also taken. One of the rings was especially valuable, being a marriage emerald, surrounded with small diamonds. In his haste to get out of the house the burglar overlooked two purses, one containing twenty and the other ten dollars. It is believed that the articles were stolen by some one familiar with the place, as the house was not ransacked and nothing taken but the jewelry.

A snail thief entered the house of R. C. Van Druff, 624 North Sixth street, yesterday afternoon, and stole a new overcoat belonging to Frank Kruske, a roomer.
