PRESIDENT IS TEN KILLED BY TARGET FOR CRITICISM

BROADSIDE HURLED AT EXECUTIVE BY JUDGE

Pennsylvanian Denounces the Roosevelt Attitude Toward Judiciary as Marking Long
Step in Direction of Anarchy

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
New York, Dec. 12.—Indirect but pointed criticism of Roosevelt's attitude toward the judiciary was made by Chief Justice Mitchell, of Pennsylvania, in an address tonight at the banquet of the Pennsylvania Society of New York. The chief justice did not mention the executive by name but left no doubt through his quotations and his allusions to various matters of public knowledge as to the object of his criticism was.

The courts, the bar and the laws of states and nation, were discussed from various viewpoints by the speakers, who, beside Justice Mitchell, were Attorney General Bonaparte, James M. Beck and Hampton L. Carson.

Chief Justice Mitchell expressed regret that an effort was making to weaken the lines of distinction so admirably defined in the federal constitution.

"For the cure of evils temporarily prominent it is impatiently advocated that the combined powers of the government be centralized in the executive," he said. "The only safety for all is obedience to law as it is written, and not to a strained and distorted construction to make it mean what it does not and never was intended to mean, but honestly and fearlessly to carry out the real meaning of its makers."

The only just criticism of a judge's law must come from a court which knows the law and has jurisdiction to declare it. Descent from his view based on individual opinion of what the law ought to be, whether it comes from an executive or hoodlum, leads directly and by short steps to an anarchy—the assertion of individual will against the settled law. The very phrases so prominently put forward by judges who have lagged behind the times and whose hold to a twentieth century economic philosophy betray not only ignorance, but a deplorable incapacity to keep in mind the fundamental principles of the American government. If the law as declared by the constitutional tribunal is not what the people want it to be, then let it be changed, but let it never be lost sight of that the authority to change it is legislative, not judicial, still less executive."

United States Senator Boies, Penrose and P. C. Knox were among the guests at the dinner.

Mr. Beck quoted what he said were speeches of Attorney General Bonaparte, in which Mr. Bonaparte was represented as saying: "The tendency toward combination exists in every civilized country, and exactly in proportion to its civilization."

Mr. Bonaparte interrupted with a protest that he was misquoted.

As Mr. Beck proceeded he again quoted the attorney general as having said emphatically: "No legislation in restraint of combination is desirable."

Mr. Bonaparte then said he had some time ago entertained similar ideas, but he had since been convinced, he said, that it was a choice between such legislation and revolution, and he believed that the American people would choose wisely in legislation to regulate the great combinations of commerce.

Mr. Beck concluded the incident by saying that the attorney general, having voluntarily taken the stand, he would receive the customary "immunity" bath.

BATTLE FLEET DROPS ANCHOR AT COLOMBO

Residents of Ceylon Capital Plan Cordial Welcome for American Sailors.

Colombo, Ceylon, Dec. 12.—The United States Atlantic fleet, under command of Rear Admiral Sperry, was sighted at 7 o'clock this morning. The fleet left Manila December 1st. The sixteen vessels will remain for six days to take on coal and give the men and officers opportunity for shore leave.

This is the first step on the home-ward voyage. According to the original schedule the vessels were to have put into Singapore but this was changed and they steamed past that harbor without stopping on December 6.

The colonial secretary of Ceylon—the island is a crown colony of Great Britain—has received instructions from London to extend such hospitality to the American visitors as King Edward would wish to have shown the United States. The legislative council has voted a fund for entertainment and a committee of thirty has been working hard on the arrangements.

It is planned, among other things, to present five pounds of tea to each officer and one pound to each man in the fleet.

PREMATURE EXPLOSION

FIFTY MEN INJURED IN ACCIDENT AT CULEBRA

Victims Spanish Workmen Employed in Great Panama Canal Cut; Details of Catastrophe Meagre.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Colon, Dec. 12.—A giant blast of dynamite was prematurely exploded in the canal working at Bas Obispo today. Ten men were killed and fifty injured. It may be that others were killed, for the debris is piled up in all directions.

Bas Obispo cut is about thirty miles from Colon and the shock of the explosion was distinctly felt here.

Numerous reports are current as to the cause of the accident but the official version from Culebra, which gives an estimate of ten killed and fifty wounded, states that during the loading of the last hole of the blast, the dynamite in this cut was discharged and the remaining twenty-two tons were exploded by concussion. The holes had not been connected electrically as the discharge of the blast was set for 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The last hole was being loaded under the supervision of one of the most efficient powder men in the employ of the commission.

A passenger train had just passed when the explosion occurred, but it was not in any way damaged. Most of the victims are Spaniards. Relief trains were sent to the scene of the disaster and one which returned here several hours later brought back the report that forty-five of the injured had been sent to Ancon hospital.

The officials on the train stated that eleven dead had been found while many others in the gang of a hundred and twenty who were employed in the cut were missing. It was also reported by the trainmen that the explosion was due to a blasting steam shovel which hooked the wire leading to the immense charge of dynamite. Whether or not this was the cause of the accident, a steam shovel and crew, which happened to be on the scene were practically buried under the mass of rocks and dirt thrown up.

Parties were soon searching for the dead and assisting the wounded. Electric lights were set up and tonight steam shovels are at work removing the tons upon tons of debris. Many of the men have been seriously injured, some of them probably fatally.

Tradition has it that the Panama railroad cost one human life for every mile, and accidents, injuries, reactions and disease and the construction of the canal has not gone along without exacting its toll. There have been a number of accidents in the last two years, chief among which was the premature explosion of dynamite at Pedro Miguel in June, 1907, which resulted in the death of seven men and the injury of a number of others.

Two explosion victims ARE AMERICAN WORKMEN

Washington, Dec. 12.—So far as official advice shows, there were only two Americans killed in the explosion at Bas Obispo today. These were John J. Kelly, a foreman of Indianapolis, and James L. Hammer, steam shovel cranneman, of Duncannon, N. J. Today's accident is only one of several premature explosions of dynamite reported during the recent stages of the canal construction.

FOOD MANUFACTURERS MUST REVISE LABELS

"Guaranteed Under Pure Food Act"

No Longer Legal on Canned Goods.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 12.—Unscrupulous and otherwise misleading phrases in guarantee labels used by manufacturers are barred under the decision promulgated today by the pure food and drug board with the approval of Secretaries Cortelyou, Wilson and Strauss. The decision conforms to the recent refusal of Commissioner of Patents Moore to register trade marks which include the phrase "guaranteed under the food and drug act, June 30, 1906," on the ground that it is misleading.

Effective January 1 next guarantees must be changed so as to show plainly that the guarantee is that of the manufacturer and not of the government, but because of the large sums invested in good faith in labels and plates the old form of labels now in use representing guarantees already filed with the department will be recognized for a term of two years.

MORGAN AIDS CHURCH REBUILDING PROGRAM

Gift of $100,000 to Help Restore Episcopal Edifice Destroyed by San Francisco Fire.

New York, Dec. 12.—Bishop William Ford Nichols, of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of California, is leaving this city for the Pacific coast today, announced that J. Pierpont Morgan had contributed $100,000 for the rebuilding of the Episcopal church of San Francisco destroyed by the earthquake and fire three years ago.

Bishop Nichols, who has been in New York, Cincinnati, Boston and other cities appealing for funds with which to rebuild the ruined churches, has met with generous responses.

Bishop Nichols came to this city two years ago, and soon after his arrival met Mr. Morgan and explained the needs of the Episcopal church in San Francisco. Mr. Morgan agreed then to contribute $100,000 on condition that the church would raise an equal amount from other sources.

"The financial panic and the consequent hard times made this task impossible," said Bishop Nichols today. "I recently had a conference with Mr. Morgan on this subject, and at once he removed the restriction he had placed and agreed to the amount he had originally promised."

Former Admiral of Haytian Navy Says Education is Making Progress on Island.

New York, Dec. 12.—As a former admiral of the Haytian navy, Howard Patterson, who is now president of the New York Nautical society, speaking before the Arctic club, ventured tonight to express the advice that the United States would do well to keep its hands off the black republic.

"I can not help but believe, knowing the situation as I do," he added, "that the island of Hayti, with its two republics, is working toward a brilliant future, for where education prevails, and it is constantly increasing among the people, there will be peace and justice ultimately will have sway."

NOTED MEN AT GRIDIRON DINNER

MINIATURE STEAM ROLLER
SOUVENIR OF OCCASION

President and President-elect Among Guests of Honor at Annual Feast and Frolic in Washington.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Washington, Dec. 12.—The annual fall dinner of the Gridiron club held at the New Willard tonight, was made notable by the presence of a distinguished company of guests. An extended program made the night one long to be remembered. The president, the vice president, the president-elect and vice president-elect, the senators and representatives without number, an English lord, diplomats of this and other countries, newspaper men, captains of finance and industry and men of affairs were guests of the club and seated about the gridiron shaped table.

In an unusual degree the souvenir of the dinner, a miniature steam roller, was unique. It drew particular attention to Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock, of the republican national committee, who was one of the notable guests. The roller was a little bronze affair with the name "Taft" on the obverse and the Gridiron club on the other side.

The banquet hall at the New Willard was gorgeously decorated. President Roosevelt, President-elect Taft, Vice President-elect Sherman, E. H. Harriman, the distinguished financier, Champ Clark, the new minority leader of the house, Vice President Fairbanks and Governor John Johnson, of Minnesota, were among the distinguished guests, but a rule of the club prevents any report of their remarks.

One of the most delightful skits of the evening was furnished by a roll call after the recent national political battle. The memorial lap of a drum was led in by the band, and the band came marching in a battered and dilapidated troop. Their uniforms showed that they had been on the firing line.

President Henry announced in solemn voice that the battle was over and that the slaughter had been terrific. The members of the troops answered to the roll call. Sergeant Jim Watson was reported as "killed while riding to the front on the water wagon." Private Charlie Landis "fell at Watson's side." Private Charles G. Daves "passed in his checks," and Private Frank Lowden was "shot in the pocket." Corporal Norman E. Mack was reported as "burying the dead." Corporal William J. Bryan was "among the missing." Corporal Loeb was "in the hands of his friends." Private Taft was reported present, and Collier Sergeant Hitchcock was announced as "here with the colors." Included among the guests not already mentioned were Thomas Walsh, Colorado; W. H. Crocker, San Francisco; Speaker Cannon, Secretary of the Navy, Newberry, Postmaster General Meyer, Secretary of the Interior, Garfield, Senators Aldrich, Beveridge, Bourne, Gallinger, Guggenheim, Hemenway, Newlands and Warner; Representatives Hughes, Hull, Humphrey, Langley, Lloyd, Lowden, McKinley, Mann, Dabney, Moore, Nye, Stevens, Tawney, Perkins, Russell, Small, Burleson and Sparkman; Governors Magoon of Cuba and Fear of Hawaii, Secretary Loeb, Norman E. Mack, Charles H. Boynton, Victor Morawitz, George W. Perkins and William Roche, all of New York.

WOMAN SCRIBE TALKS WITH CASTRO

DICTATOR DECLARES HIS ILLNESS IMAGINARY

French Press Protests Vigorously Against Allowing Venezuelan President to Remain in Paris Without Apologizing

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Paris, Dec. 12.—Where others had failed, a woman writer of a newspaper succeeded in getting an amusing interview with President Castro by sending up to him a letter in Spanish asking him to deliver a lecture on Venezuela before the Latin-American league.

When the Venezuelan president appeared he was muffled up in a thick great overcoat and almost smothered in a cap. He was very ungracious at first, but finding that she was not a Spanish woman but a Parisienne, cheered him up. He asked her with a glance at the lowering gray sky out of the windows, if it was always cold in Paris. The lady pointed out that it was winter now, and said if he went to Berlin for an operation he would find it much colder there.

"Operation!" exclaimed President Castro. "I am no more sick than you are."

Asked why he did not go to the Riviera, President Castro said that he had heard of it. Here the interviewer seeing an opening to introduce politics, replied:

"Perhaps you will not be permitted to go there."

"I do exactly as I wish," said Castro, emphasizing his words with a thump on the table with his fist. He answered the other questions with clumsy compliments, concluding by smiling, saying that it was the brightest hour of his stay in Paris, from which city he was departing tomorrow.

The Temps protests loudly against the equivocal position in which France has been placed by the presence of President Castro in the country, and insists that the government explain the enigma forthwith. The papers say it is undignified to allow a man who flouted France to remain here without apology.

"When M. Taigny, who as French minister at Caracas, was expelled," the Temps declares, "America was stupefied by our inaction, and today Holland, with less of a case, is giving us a good lesson."

ROCKEFELLER CHATS WITH MOTORMAN

Oil King Wishes He Knew How to Run Car

John D. on Mysterious Visit to Scenes of His Early Adventures in the Oil Trade at Cleveland.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Cleveland, Dec. 12.—John D. Rockefeller arrived in Cleveland today from New York. The oil magnate visited his downtown residence for the first time in years, strolled about the oil works at East Third street and the Nickel Plate tracks, where he first set up business as an oil refiner, rode in a street car to Forest Hill, his East Cleveland estate, tramped about the place for two hours with the caretaker and then returned to his town home to pass the night.

What led to the visit of Mr. Rockefeller at Cleveland at this time is not known; nor could it be learned how long he would remain.

On the street car Mr. Rockefeller paid his three-cent fare and then stepped into the motorman's vestibule and introducing himself to Motorman Miller, said:

"I'd like to be able to run this car as you are doing."

"You can have my job any time you wish it," replied the motorman, cheerfully.

Mr. Rockefeller talked philosophically and when Miller interjected a remark about the qualities of success, the oil king said:

"Success is simply doing something better than any one else has done it."

TAFT TO VISIT PANAMA FEBRUARY

ANXIOUS TO SEE CANAL
BEFORE INAUGURATION

President-elect to Take Final Opportunity of Putting Himself in Direct Touch With Great Work.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Washington, Dec. 12.—President-elect Taft contemplates a visit to Panama before his inauguration. This visit is approved by President Roosevelt and Secretary Root. While it has not been finally determined upon Mr. Taft announced tonight that it was his inclination to go, should that be his final decision, he will depart the last week in January for a trip which will cover approximately twenty days.

There are many reasons in Mr. Taft's view, why his trip to the isthmus would be of decided advantage. President Roosevelt's visit proved a stimulus to the work; the three visits which Mr. Taft has made as secretary of war all were of advantage; there are constantly arising and accumulating many minor tangles of administration which the presence of the president-elect might make possible of elimination with little difficulty.

Mr. Taft feels that this is practically his only opportunity to visit the isthmus during his forthcoming term as president. The visit would put him in direct personal contact with the situation which has been pointed out by careful students of the law and constitution is that pending the official declaration of Mr. Taft as president-elect, by the election of the electoral college, and his inauguration as president, there is no constitution or legal provision for the substitution of any one else in the event of anything happening to him.

The news of this trip follows a conference last night with President Roosevelt and again today with the president, and later with Secretary Root. Further details of today's conference were not made known beyond the statement by Mr. Taft that the selection of his cabinet was thoroughly discussed. Mr. Taft said tonight the interviews he had had yesterday and today with Senators Aldrich and Hale had led him to believe that the attitude of these two senate leaders respecting tariff revision was decidedly favorable to the kind of a tariff he has been advocating. A conference with Senator Crane, of Massachusetts, also confirmed this view.

Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock, who came to Washington today from New York, saw Mr. Taft tonight. The Cuban situation was thoroughly discussed at a conference at which Governor Magoon and Secretary Wright and General Clarence Edwards, of the insular bureau, talked with Mr. Taft about departmental and Philippine matters. Senator Bourne, of Oregon; Bishop O'Gorman, of Sioux Falls, S. D.; Secretary Garfield and Representative Martin, of South Dakota, and Needham, of California, also talked with Mr. Taft.

Mr. Taft planned to leave here at midnight for New York, following the dinner of the Gridiron club. He will be there the guest of his brother, Henry W. Taft, until Thursday, when he will go to Augusta, Ga., for several weeks.

REFORMERS IN HOUSE TO GET BUSY NOW

ANXIOUS TO REVISE THE RULES AT THIS SESSION

Believed Even Losing Fight
Now Will Strengthen the Movement When Next Congress Meets in March.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 12.—One of the first things agreed upon by the members of the Hepburn rules revision committee in the house was a plan to make the fight for amendment at the present session. The work was started at once by conference between members of the committee and Speaker Cannon and Representative Williams, former minority leader as well as between the committee and other individuals among the element favoring revision of the rules.

Word was spread by a majority of the committee which includes Representative Harvey of California, that the amendments would be conservative. A practical disapproval was announced on such changes as the selection of a steering committee of the house to appoint the committee and the proposal to have the committee on rules elected by the house.

The outcome of the individual conference with the speaker is said to have been an understanding that the entire committee will lay before the speaker after next Tuesday night's conference on the rules, the amendments that may be agreed upon.

Republican Floor Leader Payne and Representative Dabney will be consulted by the committee.

The committee of reformers of the rules are practically united on the Hepburn amendment which would require the speaker, as in duty bound, to recognize the first person upon whom his eyes fell, instead of allowing him to arrange at the beginning of the day's program, designating members who shall be given the privilege of the floor.

Other amendments that appeal to the committee are to require the roll of members once a week, so that all bills on the "union" and the house calendars may be reached in due time and to enlarge the committee on rules, though leaving it to the speaker to select the members. The democrats are being interviewed to ascertain if they will consent to the committee being composed exclusively of republicans. As it has been the regular practice to invite in the democratic members of the committee on rules only after the republicans have decided upon a course of action, it being urged that minority representation is a farce.

Among the reasons assigned for making the fight on the rules at this session are that a number of the so-called reformers will not be members of the next congress; that even a losing fight this session will strengthen the "reformers" next session.

The democrats are taking little part in the discussion. The "reformers" claim that the house leaders will be surprised at their strength at next Tuesday's meeting, which will be open to all.

Do you care for fine music? Do you care for fine sitting rooms?
Do you care for electric lights? Do you care for fine cement walks?
Do you care for fine lawn? Do you care for fine looking building?
IF YOU DO, THEN STOP AT THE ARNO.
THIS IS ALL FREE HERE.

BETWEEN THIS WE CHANGE LITTLE

The building is constructed and finished in an artistic way. It has the modern, polished, high quality aluminum plated columns. The lounge of eight rooms is finished in Arizona white oak, inlaid with ornamental inlaying. Everything else. All doors are of diminishing steel panels, and all windows of pink glass stained white pine. The sitting room and music room are equipped in natural blond oak finish. The dining room and kitchen are Mahogany finish. The bath room and other rooms are natural wood finish in hand-craft. The reason for building this house was given to the Superior Times and Bill Simpson two years ago and was built and finished in a first class manner without any cost, and this firm does a contracting business today. No matter as they guarantee their work. The doors and the window doors in this house is worth looking at for any one that intends to build and we want if you will, gladly show you this work. The music room was fitted up with musical instruments costing $1,000.00, consisting of one piano, one Kimball phonograph, one of Edison's large phonographs with 150 records with 45 pieces of records, etc., etc. Music for the Kimball phonograph and the latest 45-inch attachment for the Edison phonograph was placed with the machine, with twenty new gramophone records, the latest style. With the instruments and the music, and all were purchased in Albuquerque of the Whitcomb Music Company about two years ago. All this is today as good as new. So you see all this makes everything pleasant. And as we have said as well as here, we need not say anything more, etc., etc. From people to come around, we buy the best from reputable parties, such as Chase, Connor, the Highland grocer. So you know what you can make for at any time. Rates $6.00 to $8.00 per week, Sunday dinner. The special rates by the month. Twelve newly furnished rooms. A few left but we have eight nice rooms engaged around the neighbourhood at reasonable prices.

FARMERS WANT GOOD ROADS IN COUNTY

Rural Life Meeting in Old Albuquerque Well Attended and Great Interest Shown in the Movement.

At a "rural life" meeting in the court house in Old Albionville yesterday afternoon attended by some fifty farmers of Hertsable county it was voted to petition the county commissioners and the legislature for aid in some sort in bringing about a revolution in the state of the roads of this county. County Superintendent of Schools A. B. Stroup, who presided at the meeting, was appointed a committee of one to draw up this petition which will be signed by the majority of the rural residents of the county.

Nearly every precinct in the county was represented at the meeting and there was evidence of most encouraging enthusiasm and initiative on the part of those present with regard to the betterment of conditions generally in the county. A large number of the farmers had remarks to make on the various topics of interest particularly the district schools and the roads. The meeting marks the inception of a strong organized movement for the improvement of conditions in the rural districts of the county.

ALBUQUERQUE - NEW MEXICO

NOW ALL TOGETHER.

The members of the city council have recommended their differences of opinion on the sewer question, and have proven their regard for the public good by waiting their respective views on the subject in deference to the public demand for a sewer system, to be built in the most judicious and economical way. The matter is now up to the people, and it would be a reflection upon the patriotism and public spirit of the citizens of Albuquerque to assume that they in any of them, will throw a strain in the way of securing in the shortest possible time, a public improvement of such vital importance to every resident of the city, and every one who owns a dollar's worth of property here.

The one reason why Albuquerque has far outstripped every other point in the territory, and makes itself far and away the most important city in New Mexico, is to be found in the fact that her people have always pulled together for every enterprise that was for the benefit of the town as a whole. True, we have recently elected a few "knockers," but their number have always been small. And their influence has not been felt. Pulling together for the good of the whole is the Albuquerque way, and the present sewerage will not prove to be an exception to the rule.

THE SETTING SUN.

Men will not worship the setting sun. Especially is that true of politicians. And no better illustration of that fact could be found than was presented in the chilly morning in which congress received Mr. Roosevelt's last message. The document was in fact, one of the oldest state papers sent to congress by the new outgoing president, and so far as respects his mind "stream roller" style, it was definitely held, but the time for any such crumb of patronage to fall from his table is just about over. His sun is setting, and the face of congress is toward the east. A prominent Washington correspondent, speaking of the paper in which the message was received, says:

"Congress was cold enough in all conscience. It treated the message almost with contemptuousness. The document was read in both houses, but received scant attention. In the senate not more than a dozen of the statesmen were on the floor during the reading, and two of those intended. In the house at least only seven members were in three places, and the highest number present at any time was thirty-five. Senators and representatives make little effort to command the indifference in the words of the president. They assume that little or nothing is to be done forward carrying out in law the economic demands. They look upon it as the wrong of the drug store. Then why should they bother their heads about it? Let us be it to ask senators and representatives what they think of the message. This don't think about it, surely they reply with a snarl, or a smile. "Haven't read it," say they.

"That's a few senators," and representatives read the great message paragraph and intended to get on to speak in their own words, and representatives about it and to an hour the candle was snuffed. President Roosevelt had invited congress to meet in the city of New Mexico. He had invited it with a flourish. He should be invited. If this paragraph had not been in the message (that document would not have created a ripple of interest in the capital had this attention-seeking altered the direction of their very gaze). There is a lack of action, of response, or response. A democratic senator threatening to turn in a question of personal privilege and thus Mr. Roosevelt alive.

FIFTY-EIGHT YEARS ON THE ANTI-SLAVE.

Just at this time, when congress seems to be disposed to open the door and let us come in—the door at which the territory has been knocking for fifty-eight years—the following paragraph from the history of New Mexico will be read with interest.

"A move for state government was made early in 1850, and in June a legislative assembly, a member of congress and state officers were selected. The state officers qualified, and the legislature met on the first day of July and entered upon the performance of the duties indicated. Pending a controversy between the new government thus attempted to be organized, and the existing military government, news arrived of the long-awaited and expected action of congress granting an organic act for the territory of New Mexico. The action of congress was in accord with the people's wishes, as represented in the convention of 1845. The state government was a mere form, and was dropped. William S. Murray, who had been elected a member of congress under the state government, was admitted to a seat in congress as a delegate, thus becoming the first delegate in congress from the territory of New Mexico. Under the organic act enacted by congress September 9, 1850, James S. Calhoun was formally transferred governor of the territory, on the third day of March, 1851."

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

In an editorial issue the leading "The Church in the Public Eye," the New York World says:

Monday night's street procession from St. George's, with its flaming cross, its band and its banners of gospel hymns, constituted a striking novelty in the work of an established New York church. As a part of the time, the demonstration may be considered along with the Battle of Valmy, for the cause he has doubled his congregation by means of displaying advertising in the streets of half prices in the neighborhood.

The spread of the Emmanuel movement, in which the mind is active in the feeling of the body, has been another example of current departure from the routine of church activity. In forming effect Emmanuel church is said to intend the evacuation of its main of conversation, in propagating the faith, and in the case of taking a leaf from the book of Christian Science. Yet the prayer, or congregation going into one or all of these activities can be adjusted to fit other desires than to increase its strength in the field and its usefulness. Its life depends on the maintenance of a popular interest. Are these its best friends who would limit its tradition its appeals to the popular imagination?

Martin Luther could not see why the devil should have all the good times.

FOR THE GOOD OF MANKIND.

Although the program of the recent Federal Council of Christian Churches, a national organization of a particular group of churches of religious denominations, it should be remembered that this was only for purposes of systematization and organization, and that it held between as the ultimate ideal of cooperation with all who will work with it for the good of mankind, for the promotion of temperance, for the correction of the evils of divorce, and for the protection of the country from the social and civic life that now so may hereafter threaten us well being. Such an organization as is therein contemplated is in accord with the spirit of the age, and will appeal to the common sense and to the heart of the people. We are influenced in all their daily actions by the idea of contribution for the elimination of waste and the economy of effort.

MORE PARKURSTISM.

In his sermon last Sunday morning the celebrated or shall we say notorious Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, who roughshod into the "Emmanuel movement," of Boston, and after scoring it for some time in his peculiar style, he concluded with the statement that "the impression that the Christian science and Emmanuel churches are having upon the public mind is that although claiming a viceroy character, they are a great deal more interested in existing in the minds of the laity than they are in setting them into the kingdom of heaven."

Now, if we have not forgotten our Sunday school lessons, the Great Teacher upon whose doctrine the Christian church professes to have been founded, taught us that the great subject was to get the kingdom of heaven into the spheres, and not the spheres into the kingdom of heaven. His words were "The kingdom of heaven is within you." Does the fanatical doctrine of Parkhurst in reverse the New Testament?

NOW IS THE TIME.

The bill now before congress for the admission of New Mexico to statehood provides that the United States government shall donate to the new state, among other things, two million acres of the best public lands within the present territorial limits, to be used by sale or lease for the payment of all the territorial, county, and municipal debts of New Mexico existing at the time of the passage of the act. It is possible, and many well-informed persons regard it as entirely probable, that this bill will pass at the present session of congress. The republican national platform pledges the party to the admission of the two remaining continental territories without delay, the president is earnestly in favor of it, and the president-elect is equally friendly to the proposition, and a stream of having the question disposed of and out of the way before the latter office leaves their seats. It is not to be passed at the present session, and as good without which could seem to be good (without) for such session.

Now, according to the terms of the bill, if it is passed, it will be the construction of a sewer for the city of Albuquerque can be effected before the passage of the bill, but the money to pay the bonds will come from the government, and the construction of the sewer will be the work of the city. The city will have the sewer, and the city will have the sewer, and the city will have the sewer.

the statehood bill becomes a law, so will not stand on its feet, but will be put in the hands of the federal government, so that he can get the money from there, and have the money from there, and have the money from there.

Mr. Cannon, who is to be Mr. Roosevelt's first vice-president, is in the staff of the cabinet, and came to the decision of not going in a steering position. He is not known enough about football, he said recently in a sermon delivered at Yale. To know whether there are more deaths and accidents than there ought to be in the game, he said, I do not know that real courage can be developed without danger, and if real courage is developed in the football field, the sacrifice is worth the peril.

Not in His Line.
"Good morning, sir," said the lady entering the studio of the famous portrait painter. "I wish to engage you to paint my portrait."
"I shall be delighted, madam."
"I want it painted with my new hat on."
"Pardon me, madam, but I am not a landscape artist."—Life.

An Extract From "Life." Issue Dated November 26th

"Those who have lamps will pass them to others" wrote Plato. Therefore, as pioneers of the great movement for shorter hours and more humane working conditions for the store employee, we quote LIFE'S recent article in full. :-: :-: "Life is requested to exhort all friends whom its voice can reach to do their Christmas Shopping Early. That's the virtuous way to do it, and it is its own reward, because you can do it very much better and more comfortable before the shops are too much crowded. By going early you get the pick of the goods and the best attention of the salespeople, and not being elbowed and hurried, can use better judgment about your purchase. :-: :-: :-: :-: :-: Besides that, the more Christmas buying is done betimes and got out of the way the less will be the strain upon the shops and their employees. At the best, the strain will be tremendous. To meet the Christmas trade, shopmen and shopgirls, delivery clerks and drivers, messenger boys—all the apparatus, human, animal and mechanical, and sale and distribution will be driven at high pressure for at least ten days. Young people will be up and at work when they ought to be abed; so will tired people who are not young, and tens of thousands of workers will come to Christmas Day too far gone to do more than be thankful that the rush is over. :-: A great many people will have to do their Christmas shopping late, because they cannot get the money in hand to do it early. But every considerate person who can, should aim to get the Christmas buying done as early as possible. :-:

COLORADO RIVER LANDS

PALO VERDE VALLEY AND BLYTHE RANCH ACREAGE:
$40 AND UP, WITH WATER

The Blythe Ranch, comprising 50,000 acres in the heart of the Palo Verde Valley, in Riverside County, California, is a second edition of the famous Imperial Valley, the soil of which is equal in every respect. It has the advantage of being 265 feet above, instead of below sea level, and it is simultaneously irrigated and fertilized by the Colorado river, through a model system of canals owned and operated by the farmers themselves.

A Splendid Chance For Investors.

The Blythe property offers an exceptional opportunity to the investor and the homeowner. Immense development has just begun, and the initial prices are less than either land or water rights separately are bringing at any point where the soil is fertile and the water unlimited.

If you are seeking a location in which you may secure a comfortable home with assured income, together with a chance to benefit through the certainty of largely increased values, write for literature or interview.

FOR INCORPORATION OF ALAMOGORDO

Business Men's Club Working Hard on Proposition: Gold and Copper Strike in Foothills Near City.

[Special Correspondence Morning Journal.]
Alamogordo, N. M., Dec. 12.—The Alamo Business Men's club is working hard in the matter of incorporation.
The town will in all likelihood be incorporated under a special act of the next legislature using the common plan. A committee will select the desirable features from the Dex Motine and Galveston charters.

County Treasurer Dunn has just made another valuable strike on one of his claims about two and a half miles east of Alamogordo. The ore taken from a twelve foot vein at a depth of twelve feet, runs 12 per cent copper, 48 per cent iron, and 37 in gold. One-third of this strike a great many prospectors have been filing around in the foothills of the Sierrita montes, and other valuable strikes are possible.

Arrangements for Christmas holidays festivities are already started. An announcement is made that the ladies of the local lodge of Fraternal Brotherhood will give a grand leap year ball at the opera house on Christmas night, and on New Year's eve the ladies of the Public Library association will give a big informal dance also at the opera house, and will serve sandwiches and coffee. Hilborn's orchestra has been engaged for both occasions.

Alamogordo, New Mexico and Over
County Sovereign Bank and official Director is the title of a work now in preparation here. The book will be a complete directory of Alamogordo, a business directory of every man in the county, and a town city up of the country and possibilities of other country. The publishers are Thomas
A. Keene and Wallace Smith.

Miss Georgia Condon, who has been visiting for about Mrs. John W.
Thompson, has been called to her home in Maryville, Mo., on account of the serious illness of her father.

How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia.
"In treating pneumonia," says Dr.
W. J. Smith of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. While, of course, I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself, as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other cough remedy to my knowledge." For sale by all druggists.

MEET TO DISCUSS PARK MATTER TUESDAY

Important Gathering of Citizens at Library Building Will Take Up One of City's Problems

No city problem is considered as being its duty as a public body, and unless it provides for its residents people park, recreation. These parks are every year offering more and more attractions and catering to more of the people's wants. They are in the first place, arranged so as to attract the eye by the artistic arrangement of trees, shrubs, flowers and grass.
They provide comfortable seats for the young, they afford shade for the old and family parties, they offer amusements to all in the way of games, houses and reservoirs, where strong plants and animals delight the eyes and afford objects of study. They have playgrounds for the young and places where the older ones can enjoy watching games. In short, these pleasure resorts are being fitted out with devices and artifice and scenic modifications so that all the people may find a place of genuine rest and recreation. Amid the many other engrossments, Albuquerque has allowed the question of making park facilities to remain partly unsolved up to this time. Now, however, the city council has taken steps to remedy this neglect by providing a comfortable park of a few acres, and in the heart of the city, where the foothills have kind that form the heart of the city lands to the east. The site is not large, but sufficient with proper treatment to afford a most desirable place of recreation. The view over the valley from the park is delightful, and it is already without any improvement a favorite resort especially for those pleasure seekers. A large mass meeting of the citizens is being provided for by the park commission of the city that they may have the opportunity of hearing the opinions of those most deeply interested, as to the best plan to make the park attractive and useful. The actual difficulties in the way, especially in view of the small amount available from taxes for improvements and maintenance, will be discussed. The meeting will be held in the library building, and under the auspices of the park commission. The meeting is advertised for next Tuesday evening in the library building, and in view of the importance of the subject, all public-spirited citizens should be present to receive or give valuable ideas on the subject.

Leonard and Lindemann's. Beasley will render a musical selection before the meeting and also play during intermissions of the meeting.

MACFARLAND MORAN TEAM WINS SIX DAY RACE

Californians Capture Bicycle
Trophy and Divide Fifteen Hundred Dollar Cash Prize at Madison Square.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Madison Square Garden, New York, Dec. 12.—Floyd MacFarland, the veteran bicycle racer of California, won the sixteenth International six day race for the team of MacFarland and Moran at Madison Square Garden tonight and set a new distance record, four of the Rut-Stol, German-Holland team, finished second, and De-mara of the Demara-Hill combination, the former of California and the latter of Boston, was third. The final sprint of one mile was between the representatives of these three teams which were on equal terms as to distance covered, the others withdrawing to give them a clear track. The three teams that took part in the final dash, covered 2,747 miles one lap in 142 hours which is three miles seven laps ahead of the record set by Miller and Waller in 1899.

Following is the standing of the eight teams that finished the race in the order named:

	Miles	Laps
MacFarland-Moran	2747	1
Rut-Stol	2742	1
Hill-Demara	2737	1
Wadhwa-Rout	2732	1
Collins-Miller	2726	1
Wadhwa-Wiley	2724	1
Anderson-Vanoni	2723	1
Palmer-Trobach	2722	1

Former record 2723 miles, 1 lap. All the riders except MacFarland, Rut and Demara left the track at 10 o'clock and one minute later these three riders who had led the others by one or more laps for the past three days began the decisive mile. They started at a good clip and sprinted desperately for the last three laps. MacFarland and Moran, who had been securely five feet ahead of Rut, who was the same distance ahead of De-mara.

The money prizes that went to the surviving teams were divided as follows:

First	$1,500
Second	$1,000
Third	$500
Fourth	$500
Fifth	$300
Sixth	$200
Seventh	$200

Early in the evening the amphitheater witnessed the final hours of one of the most keenly contested bicycle races ever held in the ten years' history of six day contests. Probably 17,000 persons watched the athletes around which the riders of the eight remaining teams steadily rode until the bell sounded for the final sprint between the leaders.

As the score stood when the night crowds began to gather, it was almost a certainty that the team represented in the last desperate dash of a mile that would decide the race and determine the 1908 championship would be the Rut-Stol, MacFarland-Moran and Hill-Demara combinations. Attention was largely centered upon these teams who were tied for the lead, as they wound around the course, each watching each other for sign of an attempt to gain a lap. At the same time the three leaders were constantly alert to prevent their nearest rivals, the Wadhwa-Rout team, from gaining the short tenth of a mile that meant the addition of another man to the list of starters in the deciding mile dash. There were many short sprints during the evening, under the inspiration of an enthusiastic crowd and all proved fruitless as there was no change in the relative positions of the teams. During a hard sprint started by Moran, Wadhwa collided with De-mara and both fell, but neither was injured and no one gained or lost in consequence. The pace was fast from the opening start. Throughout the week almost every hour showed new records over those established by Miller and Waller in 1899 and the Rut-Stol team for several of the teams and they were forced to drop out under the pressure. For the past four days, however, the leaders were those of the evening hours. All three teams showed remarkable staying power, Rut and Stol, last season's victors, being picked on from the very first start to close in the lead and win out in the sprint. The veteran MacFarland, on a previous winning team, landing with the steady-going Moran, was another strong favorite. Hill and Demara, hitherto unknown to the six day racing enthusiasts, were popular favorites for their clever and game riding. Wadhwa and Rout lost a lap in midweek and for the last three days they dogged the heels of the leading teams with steady persistence, using every trick of the cycle track to go upon even terms with the foremost riders.

An interesting feature was the sight of the men which was taken at 10 o'clock, 122 hours after the start last Sunday night. With but few exceptions, the riders gained one two to seven pounds during the contest.

Rut gained two pounds. Stol, two; MacFarland, second, Hill, lost three; Demara, no gain; Wadhwa, gained 1; Rout, two; Collins, three; Miller, one; Taylor, gained three; Wiley, 1; Hill, Anderson, gained four; Anderson, gained two; Palmer, lost two; Trobach, gained four; Moran, two.

PINCHOT TELLS OF DISTRICT SYSTEM

Chief Forester Believes Work of Service Will Be Greatly Increased in Effectiveness by Change.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)

Washington, Dec. 9.—The institution of six district offices in the west by the United States Forest Service, a new piece of work which has just been completed, involves a complete change in the machinery of this branch of the government as regards the handling of national forests. As a result of the reorganization, the forest service will be at the headquarters in this city, but the administrative offices and to those who are conducting the investigative work of the service outside of the national forests.

The six districts which have the same boundaries as the old inspection districts will be in charge of six district foresters with headquarters in Denver, Colo.; Ogden, Utah; Albuquerque, N. M.; Missoula, Mont.; San Francisco, Cal.; and Portland, Ore. For nearly a year preparation for the district organization has been going on, but it has not been until this has been an additional burden upon a force already extremely busy, but the work has been accomplished and accomplished on time. The transition has been particularly remarkable because it involved no material delay in the transaction of national forest business while the change was going on.

"The forest service," said Gifford Pinchot, United States forester, "is putting a large part of its work into the field, where it belongs. The organization on December 1 of the national forest into six districts each in charge of a local force under a district forester, is something we have been working towards for a long time. That we have not done it sooner is because we did not have a sufficient number of trained men to man the districts."

"The district organization will mean a much more active of the national forest service by the people, because they will not be the delay inevitable so long as national forest business is handled from Washington. It is also going to mean that there will always be officers with the power to make decisions near the ground, who can look into the facts for themselves, wherever necessary, without having to decide them at long range. I believe every man who sees the national forest will realize that these things inside of six months."

It is probable that there have never been new government officers started with their procedure so fully and definitely outlined as that for the six district offices of the forest service in the west. It has been possible to start all the officers well equipped with men with both the training and experience to take up the work. A large proportion of them are men who have formerly been in charge of national forests and who have been promoted to higher positions as the direct result of their efficiency. All the district officers are familiar with western conditions; many of them were born in the west and lived there before and after they entered the government forest work.

SPLENDID WORK BY INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND

CHRISTMAS CHEER FOR THE SIGHTLESS CHILDREN

Superintendent of Worthy Alamogordo Institution Wants Co-operation of People and Press in Securing New Pupils

(By S. H. Gull, Superintendent)

Alamogordo, N. M., Dec. 9.—The New Mexico Institute for the Blind at Alamogordo, will have a Christmas tree for its pupils some time during the coming holidays, and the children are presenting a musical program for the occasion.

The tree will be surrounded by a ring of the school and already several of the business men of Alamogordo are taking steps toward making the effort a success, and both pupils and teachers are making preparations for the occasion.

All relatives and friends of the children are invited to be present at the tree to send little tokens of love which will warm the tree and the superintendent will see that every parcel will be distributed as requested by the sender.

at me to confer with any other time, then the children of Alamogordo may be present and see the children of the institute under the tree.

When the trustees of this institute met last October they decided that steps should be taken to bring pupils and teachers of blind and partially blind children of New Mexico to the advantage here for their education, and certain correspondence in their behalf, members of our board and county officials purposing to locate and secure all such children for this school, that they may be educated and intelligently placed in the future state of New Mexico as citizens and public workers.

Our trustees are doing more and more the necessity and common sense of these proposals, and at the same time they realize that it is really and truly practical that blind people should by all means have an education, and they have evidence and plenty of proof right here that it can be done and done successfully.

Some of our children who have only been in school a short time are already showing just as results and rapidly as children of the same years in the public schools.

The records of the other schools show that the growth in learning is quite slow, and people have to be urged to place their children in schools for the blind, even in states where they have had a school for the blind for fifty years or more, and some one has to go into their homes and actually beg them to get their blind children into the schools.

However, after children are placed in schools intelligently like this, and they ever feel thankful and grateful to pay for the schooling for them in childhood.

TALK OF CATTLE WAR IS REDICULOUS SAYS FORNOFF

Captain of Mounted Police Says Such Disturbances as Have Occurred in Eastern New Mexico Are Unimportant.

"The talk of a cattle war in southeastern New Mexico is nothing short of ridiculous," said Captain Fred Fornoff, of the New Mexico mounted police, yesterday. Captain Fornoff came to Albuquerque from northern Chaves county, where he went in response to reports of some alleged disturbances between cattle men and homesteaders in that section.

"I found," said Captain Fornoff, "that there have been a number of cases of trouble between homesteaders and cattle men, the homesteaders being in all cases those who have not been able to fence their land, and some cattle have been killed. This circumstance is, of course, unfortunate and it has been carried further might have led to serious trouble. The cattle men, however, are not hot headed, while I have found that a majority of the homesteaders desire nothing so much as peace and the idea that there is anything like a 'cattle war' is wholly without foundation. Homesteaders have come into this section of New Mexico very rapidly of late years. The range is rapidly passing away. The cattle men who have grazed their stock on this range for many years are naturally loath to leave it and will be likely to hold on as long as they can. It is the inevitable and oft repeated story of the passing of the great western range before the coming of the homesteader. The matter of a fence law is being discussed over there and a great many people look upon this section by the legislature as the solution of the difficulty. It will, of course, have to be solved in one way or another. The homesteaders cannot stand to have their crops run down and the cattle men cannot afford to have valuable stock killed in retaliation. Both have occurred in scattering instances. The temper of the people, however, on both sides is to seek a solution and a settlement and not to seek trouble and I have no doubt that the matter will adjust itself there as it has in other sections of the west where the same conditions have arisen.

"One arrest as made for cattle killing. It was a plain case apparently and I believe a majority of the homesteaders frown on lawlessness. This was the impression I gathered at a meeting of farmers at El Paso, which I attended.

"I am going back to this section within a few days but we are sure that such possibilities of serious trouble as existed during the past month or so have passed, for the present at least."

BEAUTIFUL THINGS IN LEATHER

Matson and Company Offering Attractive Christmas Line of Hand Bags and Purses.

O. A. Matson & Co. are offering to Christmas shoppers this season the most attractive line of leather goods ever brought to Albuquerque. The selection of ladies' hand bags is particularly pleasing and is one from which a selection may be made to suit any taste and any purse. The price range from one dollar to twenty-five dollars, the higher priced goods being wonderful creations in leather work, while the less expensive are elegant and certain to prove pleasing.

The leather line includes almost everything for desk and toilet, table and street wear, that comes in leather, desk pads, stationery cases, card cases, bridge sets, collar cases, in fact, a really grand assortment of things always useful and always in good taste as a Christmas offering. Christmas shoppers who have not seen this line should make it a point to look it over this week.

MURDER MYSTERY IN NEW YORK Baffles Police

No Clue to Identity of Young Woman Found Dead in Apartment House.

New York, Dec. 12.—The mystery surrounding the murder of a young woman in an apartment at No. 357 East Eleventh street, still baffles the police. The only development in the case today was the information gathered by the police that two women had made their home in the apartment, such as a young woman, who was found dead, and the other, who is believed to be the twin, Captain Carey, of the detective department, has made a searching investigation of the flat where the woman's body had been found for two weeks. They found blood prints on the picture frames and other photographs, probably of the woman, had been torn. Nothing was discovered to sub-

NO MORE DISTRESS FROM STOMACH OR ANY DYSPEPSIA AFTER TODAY

Journal Readers Who Suffer From Any Form of Stomach Trouble, Should Try This:

When your stomach is weak or lacking in gastric juice, anything that you eat, no difference what it is, will sour on your stomach, cause the bile and acids to cover your food like oil on water, causing indigestion, dyspepsia, stomach nervousness and belching of your position which produces foul odors, flatulence, headache, heartburn, intestinal griping and makes you an object of misery. This is stomach trouble which can not be overcome with ordinary digestive medicines. It is caused by fermentation of your food, which will be remedied at once by Pape's Diapiesin, a preparation pleasant to take and as harmless as candy, though it will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat.

GERMAN PAYS HIGH TRIBUTE TO ROOSEVELT

President Pictured as Strong Person Who Will Live in History.

Berlin, Dec. 12.—President Roosevelt's message, according to the semi-weekly review of foreign affairs, appearing in the Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, "undoubtedly contains a vast program, in the carrying out of which, sooner or later, several congresses will have work.

"The political world," says the paper, "has learned to respect President Roosevelt highly as an eminent and strong person, whose picture will not disappear from memory even when he leaves the White House and returns to private life."

CUBA FEARS COMPETITION WITH PHILIPPINE SUGAR

Havana, Dec. 12.—An action of the ways and means committee of the United States congress looking to the placing of 300,000 tons of Philippine sugar in the market would be regarded with grave apprehension by Cuban planters. The committee has identified with the sugar industry. The Cuban sugar planters are united in their efforts to secure concessions so that they can compete with the planters in the markets of the United States.

FLATHEAD LANDS ARE WITHDRAWN FROM ENTRY

Government Contemplates Increase in Area of Reclamation Project.

Butte, Mont., Dec. 12.—A special to the Miner says:

The land office of Kalispell will be notified today that land in three townships along the watershed of the Little Bitter Root mountains, where government engineers are now making surveys, has been withdrawn from entry in connection with the Flathead reclamation irrigation project. The withdrawal order does not preclude settlement. It is understood the revised plan contemplates the building of a number of storage dams to impound the water for the irrigation of the northern portion of the reservation.

WAR SUPPLY DEPOT TO BE BUILT NEAR MANILA

Washington, D. C., Dec. 12.—A reserve supply depot for the different departments of the army to be established on Corregidor island at the entrance to Manila bay to cost $250,000 and the construction on the Manila military reservation of storehouses for the supply department of the army on an extensive scale at a cost of $1,250,000 are among the important plans which the war department has completed to facilitate the delivery of supplies to the troops in the Philippines and providing a reserve for emergencies.

On the Manila reservation the improvements will include mechanical appliances for the expeditions and economical handling of supplies, including railways and wharf accommodations.

NEVADA RANGERS TO MAKE WAR ON RUSTLERS

Rebo, Nev., Dec. 12.—Captain W. L. Cox, superintendent of the Nevada state police, with a picked squad of men, working in harmony with Sheriff Emerson, of Lassen county, California, left today for Pyramid Lake on an expedition to drive out and arrest, if possible, the cattle rustlers who have been making depredations in that region recently. The criminals have been stealing horses and cattle in northern Nevada and California and is expected will make a fight to resist capture if overtaken. The officers and men are armed for field service.

Alleged Embroider Released.

Rebo, Nev., Dec. 12.—Charles T. Vail, admitting his identity as ex-convict of Salt Lake City, who has been kept in custody here pending advice from Salt Lake, where he is alleged to have embezzled trust funds, was today released by the local authorities when it was learned that no complaint had been preferred against him at Salt Lake. Vail is at liberty and has remained in Rebo.

Monuments for Senator Allison. Council Bluffs, Ia., Dec. 12.—Two monuments in honor of the late Senator William B. Allison are proposed by the Iowa Society of New York, one to be erected in Washington and the other probably in Des Moines, according to a letter received today by General Greenville M. Dodge from James S. Clarkson, president of the society. General Dodge is made chairman of the committee which is to have charge of raising of funds.

Bryan Lost by 1,208,990 Votes.

New York, Dec. 12.—According to figures compiled by the New York Times the vote for Taft in the recent election was 7,659,658, as compared with 7,623,486 for Roosevelt in 1904. The democratic vote is given as 6,450,680, as against 5,671,971 four years ago.

Fatal Automobile Crash.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—Phelps R. Hoyt, secretary and treasurer of the William Hoyt company, wholesale grocers, was probably fatally injured and six other men were today hurt when Mr. Hoyt's automobile crashed into a wall wagon at Rogers Park, a suburb, tonight. Mr. Hoyt was thrown from the machine and fell on his head.

Soldier Seized for Murder.

Have, Mont., Dec. 12.—Sterling A. Jeffers, a soldier in Company M, Second infantry, was arrested here today by Sheriff Thomas of Scott county, Tenn., charged with murder. Jeffers, 40, had killed a companion named Hamilton in Tennessee last September. The sheriff left with his prisoner tonight.

Nevada Pioneer Dead in Fire.

Elko, Nev., Dec. 12.—Scott Roseberry, an old resident and pioneer of Tuscarora, was burned to death Thursday, his wife and sons escaping. When his home was consumed in a midnight fire. The family was awakened by the fire, leaving John and Clarence Roseberry barely time to escape and rescue their mother. They then succeeded in carrying their father out of the house but he died immediately.

Possibly You Know Him.

He's thoroughly learned in Greek. And both Hebrew and Latin he knows. Chinese he can fluently speak. He talks Sanskrit as well. I suppose he can speak every language.

It is wonderful, quite, all the stuff. That his mind with such clearness retains. It is strange that he don't know enough. To come in when it rains.

He knows all the historic events; He has much philosophical lore. Of the works such as Blackstone's and Keats.

Even story's—his mind has a store. After midnight he sits up and reads. 'Till he's getting as blind as a mole. But he hasn't the sense that he needs. To pound sand in a hole.

He knows botany; chemistry, too; And geology's right in his line. He can analyze, parse and construe. He can do what logic does fine. He's a student of Browning, I hear. And they say that he knows what it means. But his housekeeper says that it is clear. That he doesn't know beans.

WANTS MORE LANDS FOR NAVAJOS

Indian Commissioner Leupp, in Annual Report, Defends Withdrawal of Valuable Tracts in Northwest New Mexico.

OBJECTS TO IRRIGATION PROJECT IN TAOS COUNTY

On Ground that Development Means Injury to Pueblos—High Compliment for Special Agent Pollock.

[Special Correspondence Morning Journal.]

Washington, Dec. 9.—The annual report of Mr. Leupp, commissioner of Indian affairs, contains various items of interest to the territory of New Mexico. In part his report says:

"Many Navajo Indians have, for several years, been occupying lands on the public domain in New Mexico and Arizona; but since the advent of the railroad, cattle and sheep men, both white and Mexican, have been appropriating all the available springs and watering places, which the Indians had been using. The resources of the country depend on this not abundant water supply, so it was recommended to the department on November 8, 1907, that certain designated lands be withdrawn temporarily from entry and settlement, and set apart as an addition to the Navajo reservation (all the resident Indians could have the lands they were individually occupying allotted to them under the general law. Accordingly, about 50,000 acres in New Mexico and 30,000 acres in Arizona were withdrawn by the executive order of November 8, 1907, that certain designated lands be withdrawn temporarily from entry and settlement, and set apart as an addition to the Navajo reservation (all the resident Indians could have the lands they were individually occupying allotted to them under the general law.
