HOW GRAFTER WAS PAID

HOMES BURNED BY
LAWLESS MARAUDERS

Neither Age Nor Sex Respected by Brutes Who Created Reign of Terror in the Mountains of Tennessee.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Union City, Tenn., Dec. 22.—When Mrs. Emma Jackson, one of the state's witnesses, this afternoon, in the night riders' trial, was excused from the stand, she turned to Judge Jones and said: "I will not leave the court room without armed protection. I know these men."

Mrs. Jackson told a vivid story of several visits of the night riders, corroborating Fred Peteringer's testimony in many details, as did other witnesses, and identified by name at least twenty-five members of the band. She was followed on the stand by her daughter, Miss Dora Jackson, eighteen years old, who corroborated her mother.

The last witness of the day was Will Russell, an alleged night rider, who has turned state's evidence. Russell came to Union City after the Rankin killing and made a confession. He was trembling with fear and could hardly raise his voice above a whisper.

Russell is under constant guard, but believes he will be killed in spite of these precautions.

In the night rider cases the prisoners were brought into court today handcuffed in pairs, with a detail of two soldiers for each pair. The soldiers, with rifles fixed to the court room door and other soldiers armed with revolvers, met the prisoners at the threshold and escorted them to the bar.

J. G. Shaw was the first witness.
He was the proprietor of a store near Reelfoot lake. The riders forced him to give them oil to pour on the fish docks when they were burned, and later whipped him when he tried to go before the grand jury. Shaw said the night riders wore leather hulbards and black masks and tried to disguise their voices by talking in fal-setto tones. When Shaw was summoned by the grand jury he tried to slip into town at night. The riders caught him and threatened to kill him.
Finally they gave him his choice of a switching or hanging. He told them he was not anxious to end his life, but if he had to make a choice he would prefer the whipping. He got it.
After the riders whipped him they told him to run.

"Did you run?" inquired the court.
"You oughter have seen me," reported the witness.

Martin Leonard, another farmer near Reelfoot lake, was visited by the riders and given five days to move, under penalty of being hanged. He asked if he moved he would be killed.
He observed that he was still alive, but his home was burned.

Witness after witness told of visitations by the riders, but there was no identification, and no effort made to connect the riders with Captain Rankin or his murderers. A Mrs. Leonard was asked how many riders there were in the gang that visited her.

"About 300," he replied. "The woods were full of them," she replied.

The purpose of the state is to show the reign of terror in the Reelfoot district inaugurated by the riders, and to prove that the murder of Captain Rankin was only an instance of a gigantic conspiracy.

Corroboration of Peteringer's confession, detail by detail, was
cleared up the mystery of his name.
It is Harvey. He was taken out and whipped. He did not know what he was whipped with, but it felt powerful like a piece of leather. The day the soldiers arrived, Garrett Johnson, one of the eight defendants, drove with him to Camp Nemo. As they passed a little cottage a woman saw the prisoner, threw up her arms and screamed. "Now, thank God, I can tell what I know."

She was taken under guard to Union City for her own protection. The woman was Mrs. Anna Jackson, and she was called to the stand this afternoon. The riders came to her home, forced her to dress and accompany them to her father's, with her husband and daughter. They ordered her to kill some dogs she owned, and burned her father's house. She identified Garrett Johnson as the leader.
The riders came back two nights later, forced her to go to her father's half blind, and said there had been some talking done. They whipped her father and then her sister. She heard her sister's appeal for help and began to scream, whereupon they threatened to whip her. Again she recognized Garrett Johnson and several others. A third time they called to force her to get rid of her sister's little child, because the latter had quarreled with another neighbor's child. They told Mrs. Jackson that if they had to come again they would whip her. A fourth time they came to whip her father because he testified before the grand jury. On the last visit Garrett Johnson asked Mrs. Jackson if she had talked. She replied:

"No, Mr. Johnson, I have not."
"If you were a man," Johnson reported, "I would blow your brains out."

STARTLING EVIDENCE IN PITTSBURG BRIBERY DEAL

Flashlight Picture Purports to Show City Councilman in Act of Receiving Reward for Betrayal of Trust.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Pittsburg, Dec. 22.—A flashlight photograph of a member of the council in the act of accepting money from a decoy "promoter," it is said, will be one of the strongest features of the evidence to be presented tomorrow when seven members of the council and two former bank officials are to be given a preliminary hearing on charges of bribery, corrupt solicitation and other illegal acts, brought by the Voters' league.

No additional arrests were made today, and it is said that none are likely to be made until after the hearing tomorrow morning.

All whom the detectives think may be possibly wanted later are being kept under surveillance, officers being on guard at all city and suburban stations.

Beside the councilmen the flashlight photograph is said to show an agent of the Hurling Detective agency of Scranton, Pa., which worked up the case.

This man is reported to have posed as a member of a firm anxious to sell wooden paving blocks to the city, and to have become very intimate with the councilman. With other detectives concealed within hearing distance, the councilman is alleged to have been induced to tell of the negotiations to secure the passage of the legislation, to name the other members who were to share in the bribe, and to say that the members were tired of promises and wanted to see some real money. The detective peeled off a number of $100 and $500 bills from a large roll and just as the councilman reached for his allotment the flash was lighted, when the councilman, it is said, broke down and wept, and when he accused his companion of trapping him there was no denial. Then an officer appeared and made the arrest.

It is practically admitted that a number of decoy contractors and promoters were introduced to trap councilmen, and that many temptations have been offered members during the last six months.

In some quarters it is believed that Mayor Guthrie was back of the project, he having been an attorney for the Voters' league some years ago when it made a fight against a street car line.

The mayor opposed the city's depositional legislation from the first, refusing to sign contracts authorized by the council, because the deposits were to be paid by 2 per cent on daily balances, while other banks had offered 2 1/2 per cent.

Friends of some of the accused men charge that the whole prosecution is a part of a scheme to elect an independent candidate for mayor yet to be named.

Attorney John S. Herscher, attorney for the Hebron Street Railway company, whose ordinance is mentioned in the charges against councilmen, tonight denied receiving a letter from a councilman saying:

"Your ordinance is ready to pass.
Come on and bring $5,000 with you."

Such a letter, it is said, is to be offered against the accused men.

Russian Remained
LOYAL TO FRIENDS

Refused to Give Names of Revolutionary Associates.

Chicago, Dec. 22.—A compromise with the prosecution today purged of contempt Martin Juror, the Radowitz extradition case witness who refused to disclose the names of his co-defendants in Russian revolutionary plots, Juror was taken before Judge Boetham in the United States district court and ordered to give the names demanded by Attorney Rigby representing the Russian government on penalty of spending a year in the house of correction.

"I will not tell the names of those who are alive, for they would be hanged or killed," said Juror through an interpreter. "I will name those who are dead."

The former revolutionist was then taken before United States Commissioner Foote and by agreement was asked only the names of persons in their graves. He named his brother John, sixteen years old, who was shot to death by Cossacks; a man named Rahja, who was tortured and then shot; and John Groma and a man named Tolusha, both of whom were shot to death in Russia.

RELATIVES SUE FOR MISSION BEQUEST

Allege Methodist Bishops Used Undue Influence to Obtain Money.

Warsaw, Ind., Dec. 22.—Charges involving Methodist bishops are investigated in suits filed today to set aside the title of valuable lands and other property devised by the late Elijah Hays, of Warsaw, to the missionary board of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Allegations are made against the late Bishop Charles C. McCabe, Right-James Fitzgerald, of St. Louis; Judge Lemuel W. Royce, of Warsaw; Rev. D. H. Guild, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Warshaw, formerly of Warsaw, and William D. Altman.

The complaint declares that on December 14, 1902, the late Bishop Mc-Cabe, by undue and improper advantages, obtained possession of $25,000 belonging to Elijah Hays, and wrongfully persuaded and compelled Hays to sign a deed conveying to McCabe, Fitzgerald, Royce, Altman and Guild that sum of money; that Bishop McCabe and the others well knew the weakened mental condition of Hays and that he was incapable of managing his affairs. It is charged that Bishop McCabe and others persuaded him to deed to the Methodist missionary board property valued at $127,000. The suit is brought by distant relatives of Hays.

To Help Deserving Playwrights.

London, Dec. 22.—The English Play society, organized to assist dramatic authors by examining and producing their plays, inaugurated its season this afternoon with a comedy called "Management," by Curtis Brown, an American journalist, living in London. The production was well received.

TARIFF PROBE CONCLUDED IN COMMITTEE

FURTHER TESTIMONY
MAY BE TAKEN IN SECRET

Sub Committee to Tackle Job of Framing Suitable Revision Law for Introduction at Extra Session.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 22.—The house ways and means committee today completed its hearings on the proposed revision of the tariff and the subcommittee, consisting of the republican members of the full committee, began the work of revising the present law into a tariff. This bill is to be submitted to congress at the special session, which it is understood judge Taft will call together next March.

In order to complete its work in time, the subcommittee will hold daily meetings behind closed doors until the bill has been framed.

There was little done at today's meeting aside from mapping out the plan to be followed in drafting the new bill. It is the estimation of the members of the committee, it is desirable to obtain further testimony regarding the manufacture of some articles, or information is lacking with regard to some paragraph of the tariff, further witnesses whose testimony would be of value will be called before the committee.

Mr. Cunniff's testimony yesterday did not prove sufficient to the committee. One prominent republican member said today that his testimony was practically nil as far as information of use to the committee in its deliberations is concerned.

The character of the testimony given to the ways and means committee yesterday by Andrew Carnegie and the testimony of other steel manufacturers at previous hearings would indicate that the committee will possibly call further witnesses to testify on the steel schedule. It has been suggested that in view of the fact that a letter written by Charles M. Schwab to Henry C. Frick has figured largely in the testimony regarding the cost of production of steel, Mr. Frick may be summoned by the committee. John Pritz, of Bethlehem, Pa., one of the pioneers in steel making, has also been spoken of as an available witness.

There has been some talk of the committee having J. P. Morgan come before it and give any information he may regarding the alleged international agreement of steel manufacturers here and abroad. None of the members of the committee has indicated that any of these men will be called before it but some have suggested the advisability of summoning them.

Japanese Committed Suicide.

Helena, Mont., Dec. 22.—That Tim Yamamoto, a Japanese killed here Sunday morning, committed suicide and was not killed by Patrolman Burke as established in the autopsy under the direction of Coroner Bennett, this afternoon.

The officer and the Japanese engaged in a duel and after Yamamoto had opened fire upon his negro wife, and it was thought that the officer's bullet had killed him, but when extracted the bullet was found to be of 22-caliber, similar to the ones used in the Japanese revolver, while the policeman used a 38-caliber automatic revolver, with steel bullets.

The coroner's verdict states that the Japanese came to his death by his own hand.

Honors for Cardinal Lecot.

Bordeaux, Dec. 22.—The government today authorized the burial in the Cathedral here of Cardinal Lecot, archbishop of Bordeaux, who died at Chambéry yesterday from hemorrhage of the brain.

DOWNFALL OF CASTRO COMPLETE

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE
PRESIDENT GOMEZ FAILS

Castro's Successor by Splendid Exhibition of Nerve Puts Down Plot to Overthrow the New Regime.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Caracas, Monday, Dec. 21.—The end of the rule in Venezuela of Cipriano Castro has come. The dictator who has governed the republic with a rod of iron since he took forcible possession of the yellow house in Caracas in 1899, is now openly charged with conspiracy to compass the assassination of a man he left at the head of the republic when he sailed away on November 23 from La Guaira, nominally to secure skilled medical aid in Berlin for a malady of long standing and is today thoroughly discredited. The Bank of Venezuela has called its correspondents at Berlin and Paris cancelling the unlimited letter of credit given to President Castro when he left Venezuela for Europe and no one in Caracas believes he will ever dare return to the capital. The Castro cabinet has been forced to resign and a new and progressive ministry has been appointed by Juan Vicente Gomez, the acting president.

The attempt on the life of Gomez frustrated by the coolness and courage and the daring act of the president himself. Alone and unsupported he arrested the ringleaders of the conspiracy with his own hands in the presence of their armed adherents and after this action he issued a proclamation saying that not only had he saved his own life but he had maintained the highest traditions of the republic.

Already the new administration shows signs of a desire and intention to settle the disputes between Venezuela and foreign powers that have kept the republic in a light of unenviable notoriety for several years past.

At a conference held yesterday Acting President Gomez and Baron von Seckendorff, the German minister in charge of the interests of Holland, since the departure of the Dutch minister, M. De Bree, last summer, it was agreed to suspend the operation of the decree issued by President Castro prohibiting the transshipment of goods destined for Venezuela.

Pending the signing of the treaty between Holland and a duly empowered Venezuelan commissioner the Dutch warships that have been patrolling the Venezuelan coast for nearly three weeks, will be withdrawn.

The attempt to assassinate Gomez and several of the ministers was decided upon December 18. Gomez heard of the plot and took the personal stand that nipped it in the bud. The men concerned in the conspiracy were President Castro's closest friends and best known adherents. Secret cipher cabinets have been exposed by Gomez Castro in Berlin and his agents here since the popular anti-Castro demonstration of December 12 and 14. A prominent lawyer has filed an accusation in the high court, charging Castro with complicity in the plot to assassinate Gomez and proposing the impeachment of Castro.

Minister of the Interior Linarez Alcala, issued a proclamation today addressed to the governors of the several districts and federal territories, which, after praising the new government, says:

"Now or never, Venezuela can and must prove that a possession, as do all human associations with virile traditions and intrinsic virtue, the ability to govern itself well and indefinitely improve."

To be by order of the first magistrate, all citizens in prison for political offenses are liberated. To complete this act of necessary justice, all Venezuelans at large for the same cause are called back. We have pending the international conflict which the country knows of through the recent government announcement, and this demands from Venezuelans the obligation of uniting in a common cause. Let us show that we are worthy and strong in defense of the honor of our flag."

The proclamation says further that each state will dispose of a share of its income according to the constitution, and the government will study every economic question and give particular attention to Venezuela's credit.
Referring to public contracts, it says that these must be re-established on the basis of consistent and reciprocal good faith. "Venezuela knows," says the proclamation, "to what principally is due the poverty of all the working classes, and the government will make indispensable rectifications. Venezuela wishes a frank and continuous friendship with all civilized nations.
We must therefore try to come to some definite conclusion in regard to questions now at issue, always consulting, however, the dignity of the nation and its inalienable rights."

The minister asks that prudence be exercised by the citizens.

There was a meeting Friday night of the plotters at the residence in Caracas of Garbiera Guzman, secretary general in the last Castro cabinet, and who was placed in charge of Castro's personal business in Venezuela when the president left for Germany.

The conspirators decided upon a coup d'etat. They determined to assassinate Acting President Gomez, Jose E. de Jesus Paul, the foreign minister, General Leopoldo Baptista, and other prominent men, seize the administration of the country, and with the army terrorize and overawe the population.

Torres Cardenas, who was at one time minister of the interior under President Castro, and later his personal secretary, was the active leader of the conspiracy. He had as lieutenants the commanders of three battalions. Intimation of what was on foot reached the ears of Acting President Gomez, and he took immediate steps to frustrate the attempt. Early Saturday he went alone to the barracks in Caracas, where a mutinous regiment under the command of President Castro's brother was quartered. With cool courage he entered the building and placed the brother of the president under arrest. The nerve of Gomez made it possible to carry out this dangerous maneuver successfully. He then went to the executive mansion, where he had a brief interview with

TAFT DESIGNS ON SOLID SOUTH

WILL URGE ADVANTAGES OF PRACTICAL POLITICS

President-elect Plans to Tour Texas Next Summer; Cordial Welcome Promised in Stronghold of Democracy.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Augusta, Ga., Dec. 22.—President-elect William H. Taft today decided to visit the state of Texas at some convenient time after his inauguration, preferably at the end of the special session of congress which he is to call to revise the tariff. While his itinerary for the trip has not been arranged, he will make the city of Dallas one of the principal points of the trip.

Thirty cities and towns of the Lone Star state entered in a request for his presence at any time he should choose to come. The invitation expressed a keen desire on the part of the commercial bodies of the places in question to make the personal acquaintance of Mr. Taft, and promised him a cordial welcome and courteous treatment. It also dwelt upon the advantage which would result both to the state and himself through such a visit.

But three southern cities beside Augusta will see the president-elect during his present stay in the southland.
He will visit Atlanta at some time to be fixed by a delegation which will come here next week. He will embark for Panama from Charleston, S. C., and has decided to land at New Orleans on his return.

Mr. Taft said he had written Frank H. Hitchcock, Indiana Republican senator, to visit him here. Mr.
Hitchcock is expected within a few days. Senator Knox, who is also expected, has not yet indicated when he will be here.

As the result of a casual remark by Mr. Taft at the Country club dinner last night that he had not been able to find here a saddle "that was big enough to stick a postage stamp on," Judge Taft today was presented by Superior Court Judge Henry G. Hammond with a saddle of ample proportions. Mr. Taft said he was adding to his routine of daily exercise. An automobile assigned for his use will be here tomorrow in charge of an expert from the factory.

At a dinner Saturday night to be given Mr. Taft by Henry C. Maxwell, an old-time Cincinnati friend, it had been planned that Judge Taft should meet a number of southern federal office holders, which will furnish Mr.
Taft further opportunity to extend his plan for bringing the south into close touch with his administration, and with a view to impressing upon this section the necessity of becoming more practical in its politics.

NEGRO PORTERS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE IN FIRE

Sleeping Innates of Burning Pullman Car Flee in Night Clothes.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 22.—Six negro Pullman car porters narrowly escaped being burned to death early today in a fire which destroyed a coach in which they were sleeping. The flames spread so rapidly that the porters were obliged to escape in their night clothes. One man, Henry Griffith, whose exit was cut off, jumped through a window striking on his head. He is in a critical condition.

Banker Dies of Heart Disease.

Bloom, Iowa, Dec. 22.—Charles A.
Sherman, former banker and oil magnate of Casper, Wyo., dropped dead here today of heart disease.

TRAGIC DEATH FIRE EMPTIES OF LAS VEGAS RANCHMAN BROADWAY THEATER

LEE NUTTER FOUND DEAD IN CASTENADA HOTEL

Bullet From Colts Revolver Inflicts Mortal Wound; Accident Cleaning Weapon Cause Assigned.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.) Las Vegas, N. M., Dec. 22.—Lee Nutter, one of the most prominent cattlemen in this vicinity, was found dead on the floor of room 23 of the Castenada hotel at 9 o'clock this morning. A bullet from a Colt's revolver had pierced the body, inflicting a wound which apparently caused instant death. The revolver, an automatic of the latest pattern, was found beside the body. When last seen yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, Mr.
Nutter was inquiring of the hotel clerk for rags and oil with which to clean his revolver. Deceased was preparing to leave for the Colfax county ranch of Dr. Richard A. Morey, with whom he had closed a cattle deal during the early afternoon.

Mr. Nutter spent a portion of the day yesterday with Superintendent Kurtz, of the Santa Fe road, and Mr.
Kurtz declares that Nutter appeared to be in the best of spirits. Many other friends of the dead man who had talked with him within the past few days state that he showed no signs of depression and the only theory offered to account for his sad fate is that he accidentally shot himself while cleaning his revolver. The body will be taken to Chandler, Okla., where the suddenly bereaved widow is visiting her father.

NUTTER FORMERLY RESIDENT OF SAPIPLA, OKLAHOMA

Sapulpa, Okla., Dec. 22.—Lee Nutter, a prominent ranchman of Las Vegas, N. M., today shot and killed himself while examining a loaded revolver. Mr. Nutter was formerly a resident of this city.

NEW ROUTE FOR LUMBER
FROM MONTANA TO GULF

Helena, Mont., Dec. 22.—Tomorrow's Independent will say: A well known lumber man stated yesterday that he expected to ship lumber to the gulf over the Hill line direct, and by a route which would be the shortest possible between here and Galveston. He based his statement on a promise from a railroad man who stands well up in the official family of James J. Hill that the Burlington would handle lumber from Montana, Washington and Oregon to Galveston on a direct line. In order to do this two gaps must be closed in Wyoming and Colorado. The first between Orin Junction and Gillett, Wyo., and the other between Fort Collins and Cheyenne. The purchase of the Colorado and Southern gives the Burlington a direct line from the Burlington line to the coast. The lumber man having in view the purchase of a large tract of timber land, wished to come to some understanding with the Hill interests in regard to the route.

The official advised him to purchase the tract and assured him that within the year he would be able to ship the lumber to Galveston over the Burlington without change at a figure which would allow it to be transferred to steamers and delivered in the coast cities at a most reasonable figure. The gaps which must be closed approximate 165 miles.

PREDICTS CHEAPER RATES
ON ATLANTIC CABLES

Canadian Postmaster General Says Desired Production is Near at Hand.

New York, Dec. 22.—That not only cheaper but very very much cheaper rates for cablegrams across the Atlantic are near at hand, was the assertion of Rodolphe Lemieux, the postmaster general in the Canadian cabinet today on the eve of his departure for Canada, after a day spent in this city following his arrival from Europe last night.

"The reform has been accomplished on the Pacific," declared Mr. Lemieux, "and it will soon be on the Atlantic." He said the government had recommended itself to influential interests in the United States also, but he declined to be questioned as to whether or not this government had been or would be approached by Canada or Great Britain in the matter. However, he said, it was regarded as significant when Whitehead Reid, the American ambassador at London, at a dinner given to Mr. Lemieux in that city, declared in a semi-humorous way that the United States would not stand by idly and see Canada enjoy alone what he described would be the great boom of lower cable rates to Europe.

If the cable companies would make the reduction that would satisfy the government, according to Mr. Lemieux there would be no new cable across the Atlantic and he believed that was likely to happen. In any event, he added he had received such assurance in London that he felt at least certain that that 15,000,000 claim aggregating over $1,000,000 will be commenced here December 21.

RELIGIOUS ORDER SUED
ON FIDELITY NOTES

Action for $450,000 Brought Against Benedictine Sisterhood.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 22.—Allen P.
Hall, through his attorneys, brought suit in the United States circuit court tonight against St. Mary's academy of the Benedictine Sisters at Novato, Ill., for $450,000 on notes given by Sister Mary to the Fidelity Funding company of New York. Only the procedure was filed, and that was sent by mail,

JAPAN ACCUSED OF OUTRAGES IN KOREA

Interesting Sidelights on Oriental Difficulty in Trial of Youth Who Slew Durham White Stevens.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) San Francisco, Dec. 22.—Many interesting sidelights on conditions in Korea were brought out today during the examination of P. J. Lee, a friend and associate of In Wang Chang, the Korean youth who shot and killed Durham W. Stevens, adviser to the Japanese government in Korean affairs up to the time of his death in this city last March.

Lee said that Chang had related to him many instances of alleged outrages perpetrated by the Japanese upon the people of his country. He said that women and children had been shot down in the streets; that a Korean general who had taken refuge in a mission had been dragged out and killed; and that Stevens had stolen the seal of the empire to stamp a treaty with Japan without the knowledge of the Korean emperor. He declared to Lee that Stevens exercised more power in Korea than did the emperor.

TELLER EXPLAINS HIS LETTER TO BRITISHER

Senator Denies Any Intention of Reviving Silver Question; Considers It Settled for at Least Generation.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Washington, D. C., Dec. 22.—Referring to the publication of a letter written by him on the financial question to Sir Moreton Frewin, Senator Teller said today that he had no intention of reviving the silver question but that his only purpose had been to call attention to the present conditions of exchange between Europe and America on one side and Asia on the other.

"The question of exchange," he said, "is one of world wide importance and there has come to be such a difference between prices in the gold and silver using countries that the situation is growing somewhat acute. It is so much in evidence that any one who gives the least attention to financial questions must observe it. Hence I make no apology for my reference to it in a personal letter to Mr. Frewin."

"I do not see," he continued, "why any of the members of the monetary commission should be astonished in my utterances, as some of them are represented by the newspapers to have been, as my letter did not purport to be written on behalf of or to express the opinion of the commission. For the past twelve years I have corresponded more or less with Mr. Frewin as to the monetary condition of Europe and the condition of exchange between Europe, the United States and Asia. He is a gentleman well informed on all these questions. When he visits the United States he always calls on me and we have discussed these questions very freely."

"I did say in my letter to him that the commission would hear him at the proper time and I have no doubt it will. I was justified in this because the commission had sent a portion of

TWODAYS MORE OF C. & A. CONTEST

Closing Days of the Contest Show Great Rivalry Among the Young Hustlers.

As the time grows short, interest in the gold prospect of the C. & A. Contest increases. The leaders are putting in their last best legs to retain their positions among the money prize winners, which includes the first five. There is but one change in the first division today. There are going to be other surprises tomorrow and next day, right up to the close of the contest. Thursday evening. The three men have been in the county jail here for fifteen months, following their arrest in September, 1907. Lack of funds and impatience over the delay of carrying on their appeal for release on habeas corpus proceedings are assigned as the reasons for the change in their program.

SUDDEN DEATH OF M'NESSE STILL A MYSTERY

Verdict Rendered by Coroner's Jury—Falls to Throw Much Light on Matter; Exact Cause of Man's Demise May Never Be Known.

After examining and investigating every known detail which might furnish a clue as to the exact cause of the death of Edward McNeese, the young man who died in St. Joseph's hospital at 3 o'clock Monday morning as the result of what he claimed was an injury received on the Coolidge avenue viaduct, the coroner's jury which adjourned Monday afternoon to await the decision of an autopsy of the dead man, met again yesterday morning and after hearing evidence of witnesses rendered a verdict to the effect that the man came to his death of physical injuries, but that the jurors were unable to determine the cause in connection with his demise.

The verdict brought in by the coroner's jury follows:

We, the undersigned, juror of the peace and jury, who sat upon the inquest held on the 21st and 22nd days of December, 1908, on the body of Edward McNeese, a transient resident of the city of Albuquerque, N. M., and whose body was found in precinct No. 12 in the county of Bernalillo, find:

That after hearing all the evidence of witnesses and that of the physician in attendance, we the jury believe it doubtful for the deceased to have so injured himself on the viaduct at the place pointed out to the jury in a manner to have caused his death.

That the falling at that place being two feet and eleven inches high, and the wound on the deceased, from his head to the wound in three feet, six inches high. From the evidence before the jury the deceased complained more from his head than from the injuries on his body.

That there was no evidence from the witnesses that the deceased had fallen at the time he claimed that he was hurt by running against a board of the viaduct.

That we, the jury, find that the deceased came to his death from injuries he received, but as to how and where he received said injuries we are unable to determine and agree to return under our hand and personal signatures at the city of Albuquerque and county of Bernalillo, New Mexico, on this 22nd day of December, 1908.

SAMUEL GOLDSON, Juror.

JOHN RIDDLEBOM, Juror.

Dr. E. J. Daily, a physician who resides on South Water street, and Dr. J. Davis, an employee of the forest bureau, the two men who assisted McNeese from the viaduct to the street after he had been injured Sunday afternoon, appeared before the jury and told all they knew of the affair. Their testimony, however, was of little assistance in arriving at a solution of the mystery, as neither of the men saw McNeese receive the injury, from a protruding board on the inside rail of the viaduct, which the dead man claimed he received. Dr. Daily testified that he saw McNeese stagger and strap the hand rail to prevent himself from falling and that he hastened to his assistance. Davis, the other witness, testified that the first thing he saw of McNeese was when he fell from the viaduct and that he helped him to the street. As to whether the viaduct was owned by the city or the railroad company, the jury did not find it necessary to decide.

The jury also heard from a number of witnesses that McNeese was a transient resident of the city and that he was found in precinct No. 12 in the county of Bernalillo, New Mexico, on this 22nd day of December, 1908.

where an ambulance was called and he was removed to the hospital. The accident occurred at 3 o'clock and McNeese died about 7 o'clock Monday morning, after suffering intense pain. Although a number of theories have been advanced tending to unravel the mystery connected with the man's sudden death, none of them have cleared up all of the obscure points in the case and hence, some unsolved developments were left. It will always remain an unsolved problem. McNeese was an entire stranger to Albuquerque, coming here last Saturday night. The fact that the man was injured in broad daylight and in a place occupied with much traffic, precludes the theory that he was struck. The autopsy held over the man's remains developed nothing unusual. It was found that his intestines were injured to some extent but were not broken or seriously bruised. The remains are still being held at French at Lowber's undertaking parlors and efforts will be made to identify the man's relatives. It is believed, however, that he is a native of Australia and has no near relatives in this country.

RUSH OF SETTLERS TO EASTERN EDDY COUNTY

Three Good Sized Towns Have Grown Up East of the Pecos in Past Few Months.

(Special Correspondence Morning Journal.)
Edwards, N. M., Dec. 22.—The alluvial country between the Pecos river and the Texas line in Eddy county is settling with a rush. Three respectable towns have grown up in a few months. Monticello, Knowles and Lovington. Communication with the outside world is difficult, these points being about seventy miles from the nearest railroad. As a consequence, efforts are being made to build good wagon roads. A telephone line from Monticello and Knowles to Carlsbad is already under construction. In the near future an automobile line will also be established. Colonel C. W. Griffin has moved his newspaper plant from Texas to Monticello, and will be issuing a newspaper in a short time.

The town mayor was appealed to but was unable to stop the depredations. A telephone message at 2 a. m. states an attempt is being made to burn the company's barns. A sheriff's posse has just been dispatched to the place.

MISCELLANEOUS

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street.

New York, Dec. 22.—There was some shrinkage of activity in the stock market today in connection with the recovery but closing was very active and the tone buoyant at the top prices. The feature of the market was the circulation of rumors of proposed absorptions and combinations of railroad systems. E. H. Harriman, whose supposed critical condition of health figured in the imagination of speculators yesterday in connection with their heavy selling of stocks, resumed a very robust condition of activity today and was promoting the railroad map of the country with his projects of combination and transformation. On the one hand it was confidently assumed that he was planning the rehabilitation of the Wabash system and devising its combination with some outlet, preferably the Lackawanna, or the Erie. In another quarter the retirement of President Newman from the New York Central might be opening the way for Mr. Harriman's expected entry into informal activity in that property. An incident was to be the hitching up of the Toledo, St. Louis & Western with the New York Central lines for a new connection into the southwest. There was great activity in all the securities of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, founding the present assumption that the sale of the Colorado & Southern to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy was a fair index of what was to happen to other southwestern railroads with a gift outlet and eligible for combination with northern and northwestern roads. Opinion hatted between Chicago & Alton, and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul as the most probable absorber of this system, but that it would be one or the other, there was no room for doubt allowed. These were the most important and the most plausible of the rumors in circulation and they will serve as examples of the tendency of the day's speculation. The brilliant advance in the market price of the Colorado & Southern mortgage securities with the assurance of such powerful stimulus for the affairs of the company as the Harrington offered, an attractive proof of the advantages to accrue from such arrangements. A considerable short interest has built up in the market in the course of the sharp fall in prices which has occurred since last week and buying to cover was a help to the advance. This was in evidence in the rise in Missouri, Kansas & Texas, for which stock there had been purchased apparently large options in the long market. A lively demand from that point today testified to the effect of the sudden advance in the price and emphasized it. The money outlook and the coming tariff decision still entered into the current discussion but not with much effect as with the incoming reports yesterday of Mr. Carnegie's testimony in the tariff hearing. Nearly three-quarters of a million of gold was engaged to go forward to Paris tomorrow and the subtreasury continues to absorb quantities from the banks with the prospect of this drain increasing with some additional shipments to ward the end of the week of subscriptions to Panama bonds. BIG INCREASE HERE IN POSTOFFICE BUSINESS

MONDAY'S CHRISTMAS
RUSH BREAKS RECORD

Advance of 152 Registered Outgoing Packages Over the Best Day During Christmas Period of a Year Ago.

Five hundred and thirty-seven registered letters and packages, an increase of 152 over the highest day last year were received at the postoffice Monday morning. The postoffice at Albuquerque, N. M., has not had the exact figures of previous years broken down at hand yesterday. It is said that it was during this time that Monday's business broke all previous records for one day. From early morning Monday until the postoffice closed it was one long stream of registered letters, packages and parcels, addressed to nearly every part of the globe. Although the postoffice was closed to its regular business, the registers were all properly addressed and sorted and left for their destinations Monday night. This is rather a remarkable piece of work, considering the various stages through which each register is required to pass before it is finally ready for mailing, and the comparatively small force of clerks at the local office. Three hundred and thirty-seven registered letters were received for Saturday and three hundred and eighty-three yesterday. The highest number received during any one day in the holiday season last year was three hundred and eighty-five.

"I don't believe there are as many individual packages being sent this year as there were last year," said Postmaster Hopkins yesterday. "I think the increase in registered letters is due to the increased population of Albuquerque. As near as I can figure it, a greater number of packages were sent by individuals last Christmas than any one day in the holiday season. I think the increase this year can safely be attributed to the increase in population."

Thousands upon thousands of packages of every conceivable shape and size are being received at the postoffice from outside points. Clerks are working overtime sorting the packages and distributing them to their proper places. Although it has been previously announced yet by Postmaster Hopkins, the postoffice will be open for business on Christmas day between 10 o'clock a. m. and 12 noon.

CRYSTAL THEATER OPENS TODAY

Albuquerque Boy, Who Has Achieved Fame as a Whistler, Will Appear on Program at Opening; Excellent Bill for the First Performance.

A feature of the reopening of the Crystal theater on Gold avenue, which will resume its shows tonight after being closed for remodeling for three weeks, will be the appearance on the program of Charles Howson, a local boy, who is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Howson, of 812 North Eighth street.

Young Mr. Howson has made quite a reputation for himself in the vaudeville world through the exercise of the peculiar gift which enables him to imitate the sweet singing birds to perfection, combining the melody of the feathered songsters into some of the masterpieces of the world's greatest musicians. The young man recently completed an engagement in a San Francisco theater and the theatrical critics on the Frisco papers speak enthusiastically of his work. The whistler has been engaged to appear at the Crystal tonight, Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the matinee and evening performances.

In addition to this feature, there will be several reels of moving pictures, illustrated and spot light songs and made by a three piece orchestra. The price of admission to both matinee and evening shows will be ten cents to any seat in the house. The house will be open at 2:30 this afternoon for inspection by the ladies. Each lady will be presented with a souvenir and no admission will be charged, although there will be a musical and illustrated song program.

Represented in Meet at Elks Theater December 28.

Considerable interest is being manifested in all parts of the territory in the fourth annual oratorical contest of the New Mexico Intercollegiate association, which is to be held in Elks theater in this city on the night of December 28. The contest will be participated in by representatives of three higher institutions, the University of New Mexico, the Agricultural college and the Silver City Normal school, and also by high school orators selected from among the best speakers of the high schools in Albuquerque, Las Vegas, Bakersfield, Santa Fe, Deming, Roswell, Gallup and Farmington. The contest will be divided into two divisions, the speakers from the higher institutions forming one division and those from the high schools the other. A gold medal to the best speaker and a silver medal to the next best will be awarded in each division. Well known school and college men will not act as judges on thought, composition and delivery. There is much interest being taken in the contest locally. In view of the unqualified success which attended the recent contest of the Albuquerque High school, the backers of the coming contest believe that the Duke City people will attend it in force. A small charge of twenty-five cents admission will be made to cover incidental expenses in connection with the affair. Prof. B. F. Asplund, secretary of the association, is attending to the arrangements for the contest at this end. Details are well under way and everything points to a successful contest.

ALBUQUERQUE MAN WILL SHARE IN VAST FORTUNE

John W. Askren of This City Will Be Millionaire if Christopher Springer Estate is Settled.

JOHN W. ASKREN, of 305 South Fourth street, employed at the local Santa Fe shops as a stationary engineer, is one of the principal heirs to the Baron Christopher Springer estate, estimated to be worth nearly one hundred million dollars, and in case the estate is closed up and divided among the heirs he will receive about one million eight hundred thousand dollars as his share. The Springer estate has been in litigation for many years, but from recent advices received from various sources, Mr. Askren is of the opinion that it will be settled some time in the near future and that he will come into his share of the fortune. The major part of the estate is located in the heart of Wilmington, Del., and an account of the complications which have arisen from various injunctions and other legal actions, the property has been kept in litigation for a great length of time. Mr. Askren of this city is a grandson of Baron Springer, who was a sister of Christopher Springer, the German baron who came to America over a century ago and settled in Wilmington, Delaware, where he acquired an immense amount of property and land. These pieces of property were leased by the baron to various persons for terms of years. The baron died leaving no will and the people who held the leases to his property remained in possession and efforts have been made ever since to obtain the property for the heirs, but without success. The baron left a large portion of the property expired last January and the city of Wilmington has taken up the matter of settling the estate. Mr. Askren has had his claim in the hands of an attorney for some time and hopes to receive his share in the estate in the near future. There are a number of legal descendants in America and also in Sweden. Mr. Askren, however, is in direct line and will come in for quite a large slice of the estate. The estate left by Baron Springer was one of the largest private estates ever recorded. It is estimated that outside of the Wilmington property, which is valued at $50,000,000, the nobleman had amassed a fortune of $5,000,000 in Stockholm, Sweden, and $10,000,000 in Pennsylvania.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Albuquerque Women are Finding Relief at Last.
It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity. They must "keep up" must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains, they must stop over, when to stop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for the kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. Ida Johnson, living at 414 N. Fourth street, Albuquerque, N. M., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills quickly and effectively relieved me of pain in the back, which had troubled me at intervals for some time. Any preparation which acts as fast up to the claims made for them as Doan's Kidney Pills, deserves universal praise. As a genuine kidney medicine I heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name — Doan's — and take no other.

MEN WHO ROBBED MICHAEL STORE RETURNED

Pair of Thieves Who Looted South Second Street Establishment Brought Back From California to Stand Trial.

Sheriff Perfecto Armijo and Night Marshal Harry Cooper returned to the city last night from San Bernardino, Cal., bringing with them A. J. Everett and R. C. Reidman, who were arrested in the California city on December 26, charged with robbing Michael Brothers general merchandise store, at 215 South Second street, on December 6. The men were taken to the county jail and will likely be given a hearing this morning. Both prisoners practically confessed to the robbery and that they committed the robbery one of them, in fact, broke down and told all the details in connection with it and showed the officers a bunch of skeleton keys, and pointed out the one which made the Michael robbery an easy task.

According to the confessions made by the men, they arrived in Albuquerque only twelve hours before they pulled off the job. They spotted the Michael store, decided that it was easy money and entered the place by means of a skeleton key shortly after midnight on December 6. The men filled three suit cases with various articles of clothing, jewelry and sundries to the value of $250 and departed westward. They were traced to Gal-

MISS PECK SCALES HIGHEST PEAK IN ANDES

Plucky Yankee Woman Tells of Thrilling Experience Amidst Eternal Snows of Peruvian Mountains.

(By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire)
New York, Dec. 22.—Fresh from a triumphant tour of the Peruvian and Ecuadorian trip, where she scaled the summit of Mount Huascarán, one of the highest peaks in the world, Miss Annie S. Peck, of Providence, R. I., arrived here today on board the steamer Albatross, from Cristobal.

In speaking of her perilous trip on the precipitous slopes of Mount Huascarán, Miss Peck described much of the success to the fact that she was accompanied by her husband, who is a member of the Explorers' club. "I was thankful to the experience of these two men," said Miss Peck, "that I succeeded in reaching the summit of Huascarán. Heretofore the record for height had been held by W. W. Graham, whose ascent of one of the Himalayan peaks is set down as a climb of 23,000 feet. One of my guides, Rudolph Tangwald, lost his gloves on the way up and had both hands frozen. He has since had to have one hand amputated."

We reached the summit on September 2, and that night as we were making our way down, Tangwald, who was leading, slipped and carried me with him over the edge of a fissure. The other guide, Gabriel Zeum Tangwald, fortunately for us, had seen the mistake and had braced himself with his arms, so that when the rope that bound us all together jerked that he retained sufficient purchase in the ice not to be carried over off his feet by our combined weight. He called down to us, instructing us to dig ourselves fast holds, that would lighten the strain both on the rope and himself, and gradually pulled us both back to him. It was the closest call I ever had."

Miss Peck, who is nearing fifty years, and whose physique is anything but Amazon, gave solid lungs and a sound heart as the greatest assets of a mountain climber.

LAST LETTER FROM SANTA CLAUS

Toyland, December 23, 1908.
My Dear Friends:—It is now a few days before I start on my great journey to the homes of all good children. My noble team of reindeer is in perfect trim. Old Prancer and Donner and Vixen, Funder and Blitzen seem to realize that Christmas is here again, and are just chock full of vitality. I know they will give me a jumble to hold them down when I start on my rounds. But I have such an enormous load of things to take out they will soon wear the wire edge off and I'll be glad for a rest long before I get through.

You just ought to see the pile of things taken out of our headquarters. I have sure patronized Strong's Book Store this year. Well, he seems to have everything timely that people want and best of all, the prices are so reasonable on everything. But that wasn't enough. Strong got foolish and reduced prices on all his pillow tops, wall hangers, stand mirrors and toilet sets from 25 to 33 1/2 per cent.

Now he has filled the show cases full of the most attractive bargains in town, seemingly to tempt me when I've just about spent all my money.
Guess I'll have to dig a little deeper, for I'll not wish you again for another whole year.

Now I wish you all a most happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

Your friend, SANTA CLAUS.
