VENEZUELAN SEE DAWN OF FREEDOM

DOWNFALL OF CASTRO POPULAR WITH MASSES

Bloodless Revolution Results in Complete Overthrow of Dictator Who Has Long Ruled Republic With Tyrant Hand.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Caracas, Wednesday, Dec. 26.—Vice President of Spain, Trinidad, Dec. 26.—The presidency of Juan Vicente Gomez has been received by the country at large, officially and unofficially, and Venezuela is through with one of the most popular revolutions in the annals of the republic, a revolution in which not one drop of blood was shed. The authority of President Gomez is accepted as supreme. Even General Coleto, brother of the late President, who was chief of the department of Tacarigua, has turned over to the new military commander, of that district all the arms and ammunition in his possession, amounting to 6,000 rifles and 3,000,000 rounds of ammunition. Celestino Castro, acceptance of the new regime is regarded as final and conclusive. Evidence that his loyalty is no longer a factor. President Gomez is showing in many ways his desire to propitiate all interests, promote business, both local and foreign, and improve foreign relations. Cipriano Castro is being sued in the Caracas courts for money and property alleged to have been obtained wrongfully. Among others, Madame Crespo, widow of former President Juan Crespo, has brought action to recover two years rent of the former forces palace in Caracas. This lawsuit building was erected by her husband when he was president, and it has been used by Cipriano Castro since his triumphant entry into Caracas six years ago. These various actions, which will result in Cipriano being property to the value of $200,000,000 which he left behind in Venezuela when he fled for Cuba about a month ago. The doors of the country have been opened to all Venezuelans residing abroad and all former patriots and revolutionary agitators have been urged to return.

The cattle monopoly maintained for so many years by Cipriano Castro, has been abolished, and the press has been given its freedom. All political prisoners in the land, excepting those men who were connected with the recent plot to assassinate President Gomez, have been freed, and the president has settled the dispute with his neighbors on the west, the United States of Colombia. This difficulty had existed for many years, and arose over a contested boundary line. A decree issued today opened the Zulia river to Colombian navigation and restored the frontier customs house at Villa Mazar.

Jose de Jesus Paul, who was minister of foreign affairs in the Castro cabinet, received two days ago a dispatch from former President Castro at Berlin, reading as follows:

"Declare the Dutch warships pirates. Suspend the payments of the powers under the Washington protocol. I am forwarding you a solution of the difficulty."

This communication has been received here with ridicule.

CASTRO ENJOYS WINTER SPECTACLE IN BERLIN

Berlin, Dec. 26.—Senator Castro went today for the first time since entering Dr. Israel's hospital. He made an excursion for several hours in an automobile, paying a visit to Grinwald, where he witnessed what was to him a unique spectacle, a royal storm and thousands of persons shaking on the small lakes. The former president exhibited the greatest interest in the evolutions of the skaters. He then walked an hour through the forest and returned to the hospital. Senator Castro says that he feels comparatively well, but will remain under observation for some time yet.

CASTRO ORDERS ATTACK ON NETHERLANDS WARSHIP

Caracas, Thursday, Dec. 24, Via Port of Spain, Dec. 26.—The government has in its possession a cablegram from Castro which would seem to indicate that the former president is not aware of his overthrow. His message reads:

"A Dutch warship, upon appearing at La Guaira, made an attack on our side with three or four shells."

Conditions here are apparently satisfactory. A decree has been issued permitting the transshipment of merchandise at Trinidad, opening navigation of the Meta river and abolishing the salt transportation monopoly. President Gomez has now moved into Marafios palace. Students today burned Castro's picture which hung in the Vargas hospital.

F. R. Bartlett, the representative of the New York and Bermudez Asphalt company, has opened offices here. It was this company that the civil courts condemned to pay a fine of $5,000,000 to the Venezuelan government because of alleged complicity in the Matos revolution. This difference later was confirmed by the court of cassation.

W. H. Bartlett Seriously Injured.

Trinidad, Colo., Dec. 26.—W. H. Bartlett, the wealthy Chicago broker, received more severe injuries than at first reported when he was thrown from a horse at his Vermejo park ranch in New Mexico last Wednesday, according to reliable information received here today. Besides a compound fracture of the left arm below the elbow, Mr. Bartlett suffered three broken ribs and many severe bruises about the body. However, Mr. Bartlett was reported resting easy tonight and no alarm is felt for his ultimate recovery.

VENEZUELAN EXILE TO RETURN TO NATIVE LAND

Mexico City, Dec. 26.—General Silva Gandolfi, a Venezuelan exile, will leave for Caracas within a fortnight. General Gandolfi formerly occupied the position of minister of foreign affairs, and also that of minister of education in Castro's cabinet. He was compelled to flee the country, and had been living in retirement in this city for the past decade. He is in favor of the Gomez administration, which will rehabilitate Venezuela, he declares.

FRENCH ANXIOUS FOR SUCCESS OF GOMEZ REGIME

Paris, Dec. 16.—The French government is maintaining a waiting attitude in the matter of political developments in Venezuela. If the government of Gomez endures it will be recognized. France is anxious to settle diplomatic difficulties with Venezuela, and if Senor Paulo, who is known on his way to France, commissioned by the present government to effect a settlement of Venezuela's difficulties with various powers, can show proper credentials he will be received. The government is gratified with the downfall of Castro and is of the opinion that he has been eliminated from Venezuelan affairs. The impression prevails here that Castro will never return to South America.

NEGRO LABOR AGENT WHIPPED BY WHITES

Narrowly Escaped Lynching When He Attempted to Hire Workers in Louisiana.

Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 26.—A startling story of an attempted lynching was told to J. P. Gracie, a wealthy planter of this city today by D. P. Jones, a negro of New Orleans, Ark., labor agent for the Gracie plantation. Jones is in the hospital at Pine Bluff where he is recovering from the effects of a lynch mob. He was an attempt to lynch him near Gylliam, Louisiana. He says a number of white men who were enraged because he was preparing to take out of the district a number of negro laborers placed a rope about his neck and drew him up to a pole, with the intention of hanging him. The rope broke, he declared, and he managed to escape after being badly whipped. Jones is in a critical condition.

MOVING PICTURE MEN APPEAL TO COURTS

New York Supreme Court Judge Issues Injunction Revoking Mayor's Decree Closing Little Theaters.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

New York, Dec. 26.—Practically every moving picture show in Greater New York that was closed by Mayor McChesney's order on Christmas, reopened their doors tonight under an injunction granted by supreme court justice Gaynor to the William Fox Amusement company, suspending in its case the mayor's license revocation decree. It was held by counsel for the police department that Justice Gaynor's order was equivalent to a blanket injunction, and the police were instructed to that effect. Mayor McChesney and Police Commissioner Hingham were given until Monday, under the terms of the order, to show cause why the temporary injunction should not be made permanent. Under the Gaynor injunction, it is said, the hundreds of moving picture places which had been closed by the mayor's order will be able to do business as usual.

SITUATION LOOKS GOOD TO THEODORE BURTON

Ohio Congressman Claims Enough Votes to Secure His Favorite's Seat in Senate.

Toledo, Dec. 26.—"The senatorial outlook is good. My chances are good and I have the votes if I can get them—and I think I can," declared Congressman Theodore Burton, of Cleveland, upon his arrival here today to speak at a banquet of the wholesale merchants and manufacturers here.

In his address at the banquet, Mr. Burton commended the political bosses, his references causing much interest because of the charges of hoodlum being made in the senatorial campaign.

"The loss is a regrettable figure in our political life," he said, "but no loss could hold sway for a year without the indifference of a large body of citizens or without the co-operation of large business or other interests. It is their great wish to deal with single individuals who dictate the action of the different agencies of the agent. In return these supporters of the bosses are willing to give large sums in the way of campaign contributions and bring to the support of the party large numbers of voters."

POOR FAILURE WALL STREET SENSATION

OLD ESTABLISHED FIRM IN FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES

Liabilities Estimated at Five Million Dollars; Entire Loss Falls on Henry W. Poor, Wealthy Society Leader.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

New York, Dec. 26.—Henry W. Poor, a well known banker and broker, of Wall street, and for years the publisher of Poor's Manual of Railroads, failed today. His banking and brokerage firm, known as H. W. Poor and Co., with offices at No. 33 Wall street, made an assignment to Mark L. Cox, of the firm of Robert T. Winthrop and Co., without preference.

No financial statement was forthcoming, but Mr. Poor has been prominent in the street, and has influential connections. It is believed that his liabilities will reach at least $5,000,000. The entire failure is borne by Mr. Poor, his former partners having withdrawn from the firm. The former partners included Mr. Poor's son, William N. Poor, Franklin Hunt, Charles E. Cushman and Fred A. Felt.

The failure is one of the largest in the financial district for some time. Mr. Poor was looked upon not only as a very wealthy man, but his family has long held a high social position. He has two magnificent homes, one the old Evans mansion, and the other a stone chateau at Trocadero, which have been gathering places of the fashionable set for years.

As the stock exchange was closed today the announcement of the failure could not reflect on market conditions.

An effort was made by the lawyers for several of the large creditors to present a bankruptcy petition to a federal judge, but none could be found willing.

Recent incidents in the affairs of Mr. Poor are now given significance, because of the failure. It is recalled that six weeks ago Mr. Poor began the sale of his magnificent library which he had been thirty years in collecting, and which was regarded as one of the best in the country. Five thousand works were included and the purchasers included J. P. Morgan, Mrs. J. C. Rockefeller, Senator Henry C. Lodge, George and Howard Gould.

Another development was the bringing of a suit by Howard Willits of West Chester, against Henry W. Poor and Co. for more than $300,000 on account of a deal in railroad bonds into which Mr. Willits says he went because of the advice he received from Mr. Poor. Suit is still pending.

The transactions of the H. W. Poor are said to be on an extensive scale, including big syndicate operations. Mr. Poor's connection with Poor's Manual of Railroads has been that of president and director. He was also president and director of the Postal Telegraph company of Texas.

REASONS FOR RETURNING FUGITIVE TO RUSSIA

Chicago, Dec. 26.—United States Commissioner Foy, today forwarded to the state department at Washington a review of the evidence which prompted him to recommend the extradition of Christian Rindow, wanted by the Russian government on charges of robbery and murder. The commissioner believes that the question of political offenses does not come into the Rindow case, and holds that sufficient evidence was adduced during the hearing to warrant the belief that the accused man was not a member of a revolutionary band and should stand trial in Russia.

CHICAGO TO HAVE BASEBALL STADIUM

Accommodations for Fifty Thousand People Promised for Next Season.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—The formal transfer of the National League baseball park from John R. Walsh and A. G. Spaulding to Charles W. Murphy as president of the club, took place today. The amount paid was $1,000,000 and the company is named the Chicago National League.

One of the main objects of the company is to make within the next three years, will aggregate $500,000. Mr. Murphy said today that he is arranging for conferences with architects skilled in grand stand construction.

"I have determined on only two general propositions as to the stands," said Mr. Murphy. "They will have no columns or supports to obstruct the view, and will be capable of seating from 50,000 to 60,000 persons."

DEPUTY FIRES FATAL SHOT TO ENFORCE ORDER

Major Taylor Loses Bicycle Race, Thrown Out With Force.

Zanesville, Ohio, Dec. 25.—John W. Chambers, deputy sheriff of Russell county, shot and killed George H. Thompson, fifty years old, today. Thompson and several others were beating a negro when the deputy sheriff came up and ordered them to desist. Thompson, it is said, resisted the sheriff's interference and the latter fired the fatal shot.

Major Taylor Loses Bicycle Race, Thrown Out With Force.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 25.—In the bicycle race at the Park Square coliseum tonight Jackie Clarke of Australia, was awarded the victory in a special match sprint against Major Taylor, the colored rider of Worcester, after Taylor had won two heats of three. In the third heat Clarke alleged Taylor was guilty of rough riding, and the referee awarded the sprint to Clarke after Taylor had refused to ride the heat over again.

FOUR MILLION TREES FOR CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

Forester Pinchot Says One Out of Every Four Families in Nation Had Tree; Not Worried Over Loss of Forests.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Washington, Dec. 26.—The native forests this year supplied four million Christmas trees, the forestry service estimating that one out of every four families observed the tree custom at Yuletide. Gifford Pinchot, United States forester, upholds the Christmas tree custom and believes it should be maintained. "The number of trees cut this year," he said, "is insignificant when compared to the consumption for other purposes for which timber is demanded. This cutting of an area equal to a good sized farm should not be the subject of much worry when it is remembered that for timber alone it is necessary to take timber from an area of more than 100,000 acres every day of the year. If through that forest has been serious damage to forest growth in the cutting of Christmas trees in various sections of the country, particularly in the Adirondacks and parts of New England, the damage in cutting young evergreens for use at Christmas is infinitesimal when compared with the loss of forest resources through fires and careless methods of lumbering."

"In this country the forester's problem is that the Christmas tree business has become a recognized industry, and that as much attention will be given to an open decision to growing of crops of timber for other uses. It is stated that only conservation of timber which remains and a carefully planned system of reforestation will meet the demand for forty billion feet of lumber and the millions of little trees used each year."

The machine was probably wrecked in a serious accident. Subsequently Mr. Wright gave a remarkable exhibition in the presence of a large number of spectators, including M. Barthou, minister of public works.

SPEEDING CAR DITCHED ON CURVE

THRILLING AUTOMOBILE WRECK IN LOS ANGELES

Machine Running at Mile a Minute Clip Turns Three Complete Somersaults; The Driver Only Slightly Hurt.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 26.—One of the most spectacular accidents ever occurring in an American automobile race happened at Wood Park this afternoon, when the driver of the White racer "Whirling Billy" broke on a curve while this year's champion of San Francisco, was driving at more than a mile a minute, the car turning three complete somersaults in the air, a blazing ball of flame, and landing a broken wreck in the center of the track, where it was practically consumed by the flames. Seyfried was thrown out with terrific force, landing clear of his machine, and sustaining only minor cuts and bruises.

The principal racing feature of the day was the winning of the twenty-five mile event by C. Seales, lowering the world's record for such cars in the last time of 25 minutes, 36.2 seconds, standing.

With much discrimination and good taste the burglars selected only the very best of the stock.

The local police and private detectives are investigating the robbery.

CAP CHANCE MAY AGAIN DON CHICAGO UNIFORM

Renowned Settlement of Differences Between Cubs Manager and President Murphy.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—With the announcement that Frank J. Chance, captain-manager of the world's champions, would confer with President Murphy in February, with a view of adjusting their affairs, local enthusiasts became more cheerful. President Pullman, of the National League, after a talk with Los Angeles, expressed himself as confident that the captain-manager would don a Chicago uniform next spring. But local fans are not entirely happy because Shortstop Joe Tucker declares that Johnny Revere is set in his determination to quit the game.

Marriage Will Be Held in Church in Detention to Wives of Bishop of Toronto.

Toronto, Ontario, Dec. 26.—The marriage of Tom Longboat, the Canadian long-distance runner, to Miss Marjorie, a Mohawk maiden, will not occur on the stage at Massey hall, as had been planned. RUMORED RETIREMENT OF AMBASSADOR GRISCOM

American Representative at Rome Declines to Discuss Reports Concerning His Future.

Rome, Dec. 26.—The fact that the American ambassador, Lloyd U. Griscom, has given up the lease of his residence palace, where he has made his residence since coming to Rome, has given rise to various reports of the ambassador's future. Among these rumors is one to the effect that the United States government will purchase the palace for the use of the embassy. Another is that Mr. Griscom will seek new quarters in which to reside. Inquiry in the palace office and among attaches of the court, however, indicates that it is the ambassador's intention to retire from the diplomatic service. Indeed, it is stated on good authority that he has already forwarded his resignation in which he declares to take office ahead after the retirement of President Roosevelt.

It is understood that Mr. Griscom has informed King Victor Emmanuel and the minister of foreign affairs of his decision. Both expressed regret, but they agree with him that it would certainly be to his advantage to return home voluntarily in his old age, so that he might take an active part in the political affairs of his country.

Mr. Griscom is known to be a close personal friend of the president-elect and there is no doubt that the question of his retaining his diplomatic post under the new administration would be of his own choice.

When questioned tonight, with regard to his reported resignation, Mr. Griscom refused to deny the report. He said he had no statement to make on the subject.

RELATIVES HEAR GRISCOM IS COMING HOME IN MARCH

Philadelphia, Dec. 26.—The report from Rome indicating that Ambassador Griscom will retire from the diplomatic service at the end of President Roosevelt's administration could not be confirmed at the home of Mr. Griscom's relatives at Havertown, a suburb of this city. Clement A. Griscom, the ambassador's father, and other members of the family left for Florida early this evening, but inquiry at the residence brought forth the statement that there were rumors that Mr. Griscom was coming home in March.

NO CONFIRMATION OF REPORT IN WASHINGTON

Washington, Dec. 26.—Confirmation of the reported resignation of Ambassador Griscom could not be obtained in official quarters tonight. At the White House it was said nothing had been received there concerning the matter, and state department officials declared no word intimating the ambassador's purpose to resign had reached the department.

News that the president-elect would go over the trip preceded the arrival, and there was lively interest manifested by the residents of the several villages passed. Crowds came out to welcome the president-elect, and the car was escorted by the militia. At Aiken the people were somewhat disappointed not to see more of their distinguished visitor. They expected him to stop in town, but his car went through to the residence, where he took an automobile to cover the mile and a half to the club. It was said noon when he began his golf, and 5 o'clock when the trip home commenced. Meantime the party were driven over the W. C. Whitney estate and lunched at the Wilkes house. Mr. Taft got back just in time for dinner tonight, and met a number of prominent Georgia republicans.

C., Dec. 26.—In an official statement issued from the White House today in regard to presidential interference in the case of Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, who are now under sentence for contempt of court, attention is called to the fact that the case is still before the courts and that to interfere with the president's opinion may be as to the justice of the sentence imposed, he cannot take any action looking to a pardon nor can he express any opinion as to the merits of the case.

PLANS FOR INAUGURATION OF CUBAN PRESIDENT

Washington, Dec. 26.—Plans for the inauguration of Cuba, the ending of the provisional government and other details coincident with President Gomez's inauguration on January 28, arrangements for which were agreed upon three weeks ago at a conference between President Roosevelt, Secretary Wright and Governor Magoun, and which public at the time were officially set forth in a cablegram received at the war department from Governor Magoun.

The plans were today formally approved by General Clarence H. Edwards, of the bureau of insular affairs. The only new feature in the arrangements was disclosed when the war department cabled Governor Magoun authority to call the new Cuban congress for organization at any time prior to January 28. It is stated that the congress probably will be assembled soon after New Year's day. The congress, after receiving the electoral college, the credentials of senators and representatives, clearing up contests and other details of organization provided for in the Cuban constitution, will take a recess until January 28.

San Francisco, Dec. 26.—Police Judge Charles T. Connelley today received in his mail a letter threatening him with death if he imposed a sentence of guilty upon Alvin Karpis, a Hungarian, who was several days ago arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace. Judge Connelley referred Karpis' case to the immigration authorities with a view to having the defendant deported. ### VOTERS LEAGUE TO HUNT GRAFTERS HIGH AND LOW Bribers and Those Who Offered Bribes Down on List for Punishment; Thorough Clean Up of City Promised.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Pittsburgh, Dec. 26.—About forty more arrests in the council bribery scandal are promised by the Voters' league, according to a statement made today by Leo Weil, president of the league. Other officers of the league say they have plenty of evidence against many persons, who, it is said, will be arrested.

The first meeting of council since the disclosures were made is scheduled for Monday night. Attorney Clarence Burleigh, counsel for Joseph Wason, Jacob Soffel and T. O. Arkison, of the seven accused councilmen, stated tonight that he would advise his clients to continue their duty. T. D. Harmon, a member of the executive committee of the Voters' league, said:

"Pittsburgh's councilman corruption, the real root of the bribery evident here, will suffer equally with those who bid before their temptations. The Voters' league is not in this thing for any political reason, for there is not a member of the executive body who would accept a public office if it were given him. We intend to clean up the city and this is the first move. Other sessions will follow, and the men who are attempting to frighten us by threats or counterattacks soon will learn whether or not we are earnest."

It was reported today that a number of new books were being authorized through examination in connection with the report that certain financial institutions paid $176,000 for the privilege of handling the city's funds, but government officials refused to either confirm or deny the story.

EIGHT MILLIONS AS CHRISTMAS GIFTS ABROAD

NEW YORK'S ENORMOUS
DONATION TO EUROPE

Of the 332,875 Postal Orders Tabulated Largest Was for $2,500, and Smallest for 40 Cents Sent to China.

Special Correspondence to Morning Journal

New York, Dec. 25.—While returns are still incomplete, it is apparent from those already in hand, as tabulated by Postmaster Morgan, that this city sent at least $8,000,000 in the form of postal orders to foreign countries for Christmas presents, or an average of two dollars for each man, woman and child. When to this is added the money gifts sent in the form of drafts, bills, checks and express orders, the total will probably exceed $10,000,000, the most striking example of the city's love and of the practice of its foreign population of sending money back to the "old country." The 332,875 postal orders already tabulated, which are estimated as less than two-thirds of the total, representing a money value of $5,649,729.21, show in their classification some interesting facts. The smallest was for forty cents, and went to China, while the largest, amounting to $2,500, went to England. They were amount in about $15, but the most popular sum was $5. To England, as compared to other foreign countries, went the greatest number of orders, 72,041, valued at $888,468.62. The smallest number of orders, 2,504, went to Greece, while the smallest amount to money, $46,102.14, went to France. The list of farthest friends, gives Italy second place, with 22,224 orders, amounting to $382,294.24, or a total value nearly equal to that for England. Other countries rank in the following order: Sweden, 25,341 orders, totaling $340,264.21; Austria, 17,916 orders, totaling $222,923.26; Germany, 25,249 orders, totaling $292,312.42; Hungary, 21,509 orders, totaling $292,952.38; Russia, 12,494 orders, totaling $199,744.22; Norway, 10,146 orders, totaling $142,192.44; Greece, 2,504 orders, totaling $108,116.42; France, 1,829 orders, totaling $46,102.14.

In New York becoming westernized, that is the conclusion of many observers who point to the increasing prominence in business, professional and literary life of men from the western states. For example, this city has seen a veritable western literary invasion this year. An unusual number of books by western authors or dealing with western life are numbers among the best sellers, while the most popular and successful plays produced during the past year have come from the pens of westerners, Eugene Walter and Augustus Thomas, being the most noteworthy examples. Naturally enough the pictures of western scenes and characters drawn by those who have grown up among them are more accurate than the brand of western fiction or drama produced by men who never penetrated west of Pittsburgh, which was the only kind that the east had an opportunity to become familiar with until within the past four or five years. Whether or not it is true as sometimes charged, that New York is impervious to the west, it is certainly the case that the west and everything western enjoys a very great popularity in New York at the present time. A case in point in which a western book by a western author is in greater demand in this part of the country than in the west itself, is David Graham Phillips' "Judith Chase," concerning which the publisher's announcement that the advance orders have been heavier from such places as New York, Washington and Boston. Particular curiosity has been aroused by this book because the character of it is so closely that of one of the most prominent United States senators who was a lifelong friend of the country, Indiana and who is portrayed in an intimate, but not altogether flattering light.

Probably the interest, as it is the most unexpected Christmas present in the city, was the donation of sixty street cars to the poor, and the prohibition which formerly hindered in anger because of the transfer prohibition is now being in force to save the presentation to it of these cars. These vehicles, however, are not gifts in which the money is not paid, but superannuated types of construction which the city has been obliged to break up for five years. New York, so long without an adequate supply of cars, now literally has them to burn. For a while back the city has been amazed by the peculiar spectacle of cars being chopped up by East River to be carted down in the barge of kindling wood. The fact has been where it is to be used, and it has been rapidly exhausted and carried away chiefly as the heads of the barge at the rate of a dozen cars a day. At last as one car was demolished another was hauled forth and turned over to the tender mercies of the city. The only part of the cars which is not given over to the public is the motor. As they could not be burned there is no lamentation on the part of the people. They have gobbled up the cars as if they were candy, and are taking them at a single hour's notice sufficient to make a car disappear almost before the eyes of the public. One was hauled from the East River, but had been a tramp of 11,000. Trucks, stoves, glass, interior metals and fittings have all disappeared almost in the twinkling of an eye. Outside of their value for fuel on account of their wooden construction the greater part of each car has gone to the junk dealer, by whom the metal is turned in to foundries, and the stoves, seats and flooring sold to East River tenements. Altogether the gift of sixty

MINE FIRE THROWS HUNDREDS OUT OF EMPLOYMENT

Dangerous Blaze in Hastings Colliery of Victor Fuel Company Near Trinidad; Workers Fear to Enter.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Trinidad, Colo., Dec. 26.—Through the illness of the men employed there, it became known today that fire has been burning in the mine at Hastings, owned by the Victor Fuel company, since Wednesday. On that day the explosion of a pocket of gas occurred, seriously injuring Superior foreman Frank McInerney and two others, and setting fire to the mine. The spread of gas made it necessary to order all of the men between 400 and 200 in number, out of the mine and since that time it has been impossible to replace any of them, so to enter for the purpose of fighting the flames. However, company officials only feared that they have arranged to combat the flames, and that they expect to have the fire under control within three or four days. The Hastings mine is one of the richest and most productive mines owned by the Victor Fuel company and produces about 25 per cent of its entire output.

SMASHING THE IDOLS.

The iconoclasts are busy now-a-days, and it would be difficult to find a better sample of the work they are doing than is to be found in Signor Ferrero's important and interesting treatise on the "Greatness and Decline of Rome." Public attention has been attracted particularly by his reconstruction of the accepted tradition of Antony and Cleopatra. The view which he presents of these two famous figures is not more different from that to which we have been accustomed than is the whole aspect of the society and politics of that period different from the opinions we have hitherto entertained. The history of Rome is a subject of eternal interest, which each generation has studied and judged by its own methods, its own knowledge, and its own standards. To the fathers or grandfathers of the present generation, Gibbon was an original discoverer, and they took it for granted that he had told the story once for all, yet Ferrero has retold it, and we learn from him how much there was that Gibbon may have misapprehended or misrepresented.

In a comprehensive review of Fer-rero's interesting story of Antony and Cleopatra, the Philadelphia Ledger notes as the most striking feature, the fact that the portraits of them which we have long accepted, are not derived from the historians of any period, but from the poets. For Pin-turo himself was a romantic and imaginative biographer, who cared more to create a character than to verify his quotations, and Shakespeare took his history straight from Pinturo. It was not the slightest intention to him whether it was precisely accurate, it was enough that it was poetic and human. Shakespeare cared little for the politics of Rome; for the human passions and motives that are alike in all ages he cared everything.
Antony's adventures at Rome had put a mean construction on his distance in Egypt, whether just or not, it was a human construction that appealed to the imagination of the poet, and Shakespeare evolved from it a drama that will live through all the historians should continue to declare it false.

Yet Ferrero's thesis is sufficiently conclusive. Antiquity, far from making the interests of Rome in any balance, was seeking to maintain the Roman power in the east, and his alliance with the Egyptian queen had the end in view. Politics, not love, was the motive of this famous remance, and Antony lost neither his head nor his heart to the serpent of old Nile, who could not have been as beginning as she is painted. This theory, which fits in with all the ac-certained history of the time, is much more plausible than the other. In a quite similar way we shall find that very much which we have read in Gibbon and elsewhere about the social decadence of Rome is explained by the modern historian as only the usual accompaniment of a social exolution, which contemporary comen-taries "viewed with alarm," as good people have been doing ever since, and which no doubt was much misrepresented in the "yellow journals" of the day.

TO HAVE A NEW DEAL.

That mild and conservative old republican ensign, the Springfield Mass. Republican, thus Mr. Taft's selection of Mr. Knox to be secretary of state, means, in plain words, that the new president has already begun to break away from the Roosevelt domination and will shape his administration so that such influence as Mr. Knox represents will prevail over those which are identified in the popular mind with the word "Rooseveltism." When one comes to those quarters with this theory of Mr. Taft's cabinet-making, continues the Republican, he certainly finds considerable support for it. It can be argued that Mr. Taft could not have offered Mr.
Knox the post of first minister, and then have publicly announced that Mr. Knox from this time forward would be his chief and most potent adviser in the preliminary work of organizing the new administration, without taking account of the Pennsylvania senator's political record.
Granting this assumption, one immediately confronts the fact that Mr.
Knox was one of the presidential candidates of the "allies," whom Mr.
Roosevelt regarded as "reactionaries," and that he was a conservative rather than a radical force in the senate during the contest over the railroad rate legislation.

Such a plan would prevent provisionally limiting the work in any manner.
If such a recommendation had been made by the president, in his annual message, instead of the paragraph in which he cast the offensive and injudicious reflections upon the integrity of congressmen, he might have acquired what he sought, without any difficulty, and without stirring up any of the personal animosity or public scandal which his inconsiderate words have caused. But such a course would have constituted a notable exception to what has seemed to be Mr. Roosevelt's established rule of doing things first, and thinking about them afterwards.

THE CASE OF GOMPERS, ET AL.

A Washington correspondent, in speaking of the spirit in which the decision in the case of the labor leaders was received at the national capital, says:
"Both public men and lawyers recognize that today's decision and sentence raises in crucial form the fact that what is known as the boycott by sundries has not been legally or judicially defined in this country and that the apparent conflict of the rights of property and the rights of man thus involved is a complex problem which must soon be worked out, together with the involved problem of how far the courts are to be permitted to go in injunction procedure and punishment for contempt in case of violation."

There are not many who believe that Gompers, Mitchell and Morison will actually have to go to jail, but the questions raised are of vast importance to the country and are likely to have the attention of congress in the near future.

THE WAY TO SETTLE IT.

In the matter of the trouble between the president and congress, as we gather from our Washington reports, the president will probably ask congress to abolish the secret service entirely and not that institution in a bureau of criminal investigation to be placed under the department of justice. It is known that the president is considering such a recommendation, and this may be part of his reply to the house's inquiry as to the basis for his utterances on the secret service in his message to congress, which stirred up all the fuss.

The plan of the president is to consolidate the various detective bureaus of the government under a single head. This would include the secret service, postoffice inspectors, whose duty it is to investigate crimes appealing to the postal service, special agents of the internal revenue bureau, who handle violations of the internal revenue laws; customs special agents engaged in detecting customs violations; pension examiners and hand of other agents. It is proposed that one chief have supervision over all, and with districts throughout the country, over which there would be subdistricts.

The president's information is that the centralization of this work would save the government thousands of dollars a year and make criminal investigation far more effective than at present. Chief Wilkie himself pointed out the plan to congress some years ago. The experience of the government has been that the detectives of the different bureaus frequently fall over one another in large cities, when they were under one head, the number could be reduced. A secret service man who is sent out on a special mission that it does not relate to counterfeiting, whereupon he drops it and reports to his chief, who in turn notifies the proper bureau, much valuable time being lost in getting after the criminals. Under the new plan the man sent out on the case would be continued on it, no matter what it related to.

The plan of the president would,
however, enable the proposed new bureau to investigate anybody and any subject, even including congressmen.

A Guesseous Prediction.

Ex-President Castro gives one more evidence of being a shrewd political manipulator. He submits wisely and philosophically to the action of the people in Venezuela. He wants time to get his health back and go to his country as a common citizen, and suddenly, appear smashing the doors of the castle with an army behind him demanding possession of the presidency again by the acclamation of the "free people of Venezuela."—El Paso

Quite Human.

The Emperor of Germany is now reported as perched on the water wagon. It has occasionally been reported that his majesty would occasionally carry a load, and when he had the load was liable to do things that the average loaded man would do all of which goes to show that royalty itself is often very human.
—Lordsburg Liberal.

Where Culture Is.

The current number of one of the leading magazines contains an article in which the statement is made that a certain New England town of 1,800 population has but seven magazine subscribers, and cites the town as being typical of Eastern country towns.
In the West practically every family is a subscriber to newspapers and magazines, and to find anything like a counterpart of the condition mentioned would be an utter impossibility.
—Deming Headlight.

Quite Probable.

Whether the territory of New Mexico will be a democratic or a republican state is a question. It is quite certain that the first senators will be republicans, inasmuch as the present arrangements of legislative districts will make it impossible for the democrats to carry the legislature, unless by a landslide. And we regret to say that we see no indications of a landslide, though we have hoped that the congressmen and state officials may be democrats.—Arizonan Advocate.

His Persistent Efforts.

Owing to the strong and persistent efforts of Delegate W. H. Andrews to the house of representatives, senate resolution No. 78, fixing the boundaries between the states of Colorado and Oklahoma, and the territory of New Mexico on the northern and eastern boundaries of the territory, have been passed after strong opposition by the Colorado representatives in the house. It has already passed the senate. It gives New Mexico quite a bit of land on the north and on the east, including the town of Edith, which was heretofore claimed by Colorado.
—Deming Headlight.

Development.

When the auto line is established to Knowles and a good road built across the sand, and the balance of the road will be worked, it will only be a question of loading a wagon and allowing it to run into Carlsbad, for it is all down grade for seventy or eighty miles. Had this work been done five years ago as it should have been, over half a million dollars worth of trade would have come to Carlsbad that has been diverted to Midland and other points. There is no doubt that Carlsbad can underwrite in many lines, such as fruits, grain, wind mills and wind mill supplies and it is only a question of a good road to the plains country that is necessary to bring the trade to this town.—Carlsbad Current.

DOES THE EXPERIENCE OF OTHERS APPEAL TO YOU?

ington, Underwood, Oliver and Denperience I am convinced that the skinned a mile.

I can see no reason for anyone paying $100.00 for a typewriter when a really better machine can be purchas-will not cover half the real merits

Veteran Ex-Delegate Objects to Any Change of Name
Editor of Morning Journal:
The agitation about the name of New Mexico, in case she is admitted as a sovereign state into the union, must necessarily create a feeling among the natives and original settlers. They want us to yield our old name, with all its traditions, for the name of Lincoln.
I don't believe a man could be found who appreciates Mr. Lincoln more than myself, having been so closely connected during my stay at Washington, as a delegate from this territory, in congress.
New Mexico has the name of giving the president lots of trouble. Our federal officials are always in trouble. They were during my time just the same.
I was compelled to go to the White House almost daily. I saw him until the night he was assassinated, and loved and admired him as the greatest man of the republic.
I was a member of the legislative assembly of New Mexico in 1866 and I proposed his name for the county of Lincoln. Thus, you see, his name is perpetuated in the territory.
To strike now the name of New Mexico from the map is a gross insult, just to satisfy a few sentimentalists and cannot be tolerated, and, for one, will enter, right here, a solemn protest. We survived the eternal incursions of the murderous Apaches on the south and on the east, the Navajos on the west, the Comanches and the Utes on the north. We fought away the Confederates in 1862. The whole country was up in arms to defend the cause of the union. I was in command of four companies, myself, right here in Albuquerque.
They may hunt us and traduce us, and they might just as well leave the name of New Mexico alone. She has overlived our coffers with gold. She was composed of Colorado, Arizona, etc., in 1848, when she was added to our territory.
Yours, FRANCISCO PEREA,
Albuquerque, Dec. 26, 1908.

Thinks Change Wise.
Editor Morning Journal:
Sir.—Being somewhat interested in the discussion as to changing the name of this territory, I take the liberty of sending you this clipping, which I came across in the Philadelphia North American, recently.
Personally I am in favor of the change. Many people have a sort of mixed idea that New Mexico must be exactly like Old Mexico, and it makes no difference how we may feel about it, a large number of people will always associate the two together.
If there was no Mexico or "Old Mexico," and that adjoining the "New," there would be no objection to the name, and there would be no associating the two together, but Old Mexico will not change its name, therefore let New Mexico do so, then people in the East and North and abroad will realize that this territory is a part of the United States of America.
Yours very truly,
A. W. Agricultural College, N. M., Dec. 23, 1908.

The clipping referred to follows:
"The admission of Arizona and New Mexico will clean up the territorial system in the continental part of our republic, bringing the number of states here up to forty-eight, where it will, in all probability remain for the centuries. This number permits the division of the senate into equal thirds, a sentimental consideration, not without value. It leaves a certain geographical symmetry in the southwest corner of the country, the only point in the union where four states will come together. Two small changes should be made now or never. The name of New Mexico ought to be changed to Montezuma or some other single word which does not perpetuate the traditions of a foreign power. That part of Arizona to the northwest of the Grand Canyon should be annexed to Utah, with which it can have some association. In the event of its ever becoming peoples, the gash through the earth, a mile deep and fourteen miles wide, would make a rather effective barrier to transportation. People in the part of Arizona beyond the canyon would find it harder to get to Tucson than to the capital of almost any of the other neighboring states. With these changes the territories might as well come in, and a long and wearisome perplexity be terminated."—Boston Transcript.

What Does Your Mirror Say?

Does it cheerfully report an abundance of beautiful well kept hair, or does it regretfully tell the story of hair neglect?

Your mirror may be anxious to please, but if you permit your friends to see dull, brittle and lusterless hair with possibly dandruff and falling hair, your mirror will have to reflect the same condition. All of these unfortunate effects can be overcome by destroying their cause with

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

The Original Remedy that "Kills the Dandruff Germ"

Dandruff, with its consequent hair injury and hair loss, is now known to be a highly contagious germ disease. It is caused by an invisible growth of vegetable character that finds lodgment in the sebaceous glands of the scalp. This growth disturbs the functions of the sebaceous glands, causing excessive oiliness or extreme dryness of the hair. It also sets up an inflammatory process that extends down the follicle to the papilla, where the adhesions are loosened and the hair falls out. The value of Newbro's Herpicide in such cases is quite extraordinary. Its intelligent use will correct every condition short of chronic baldness and true point the hair to resume its natural luster and abundance.

MISS EDNA IRVINE

A noted Theatrical Star whose photograph is here reproduced.
WRITES AS FOLLOWS: "I can most heartily endorse Newbro's Herpicide. It is delightful for the hair and I could not do without it."
Hotel Westminster
Irvine Place, New York.
(Signed) EDNA IRVINE.

More men and women have gotten positive results from the use of NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE than from all other hair remedies combined.

Send 10c in stamps to THE HERPICIDE COMPANY, Dept. L, Detroit, Michigan, for sample and booklet.
Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00. At Drug Stores. When you call for Herpicide, do not accept a substitute. Applications at prominent Barber Shops.
