THE BULL MOOSE CONVENTION A BIG SURPRISE! IT HAS G. O. P. MEN BADLY FRIGHTENED

MARCUS C. DE BACA WILL DEFEAT ANY STAND PATER OLD GUARD MAY NOMINATE

NEW PARTY IS FULL OF ENTHUSIASM AND HAS EXCELLENT CHANCE OF SWEEPING THE STATE---CHEERS FOR ROOSEVELT AND MARCH AROUND THE HALL WHILE BAND PLAYS "DIXIE" A BIG FEATURE

STUDLEY PRAISES NEW MEXICAN FOR WORK IT IS DOING FOR NEW STATE

Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 11.—Wild cheering for Theodore Roosevelt while the band played "Dixie", and one of the most remarkable outbursts of enthusiasm seen in a political gathering in this state in many years marked the big Bull Moose convention here last night. Led by the Santa Fe delegation, the Bull Moosers waved their bandanas and yelling themselves hoarse they paraded about the big hall and on the platform interrupting the work of the convention; they created pandemonium.

Many of the spectators joined in the demonstration. It is now admitted that the progressive convention was equally as large as the democratic convention on Monday and that in cheerfulness and enthusiasm it far surpassed the untried meeting. It was a real wide open, free for all, honest people's convention where everyone had his say, where the delegates themselves bossed the job and where the majority rule was not dictated by a boss. The convention did not adjourn until almost midnight and when it did adjourn it was with a determination to win a victory in November if there was any possible show. It generally was the opinion that the outlook was excellent for Roosevelt to sweep New Mexico. Two features marked the close of the convention; one was a dramatic speech by George W. Armijo, chairman of the convention and another by Elmer E. Studley, the well known Raton attorney. Mr. Armijo swept the delegates off their feet in his tribute to Theodore Roosevelt and he challenged both the leaders of the democratic and of the republican party to meet Mr. Roosevelt here on September 18 and say to his face the accusations being made behind his back with the people as judge and jury.

NO LONGER AN "ALMANAC"
Mr. Studley paid a high tribute to the Santa Fe New Mexican and to its young owner, Bronson M. Cutting, asserting that the paper had been changed from an almanac to a real live newspaper and that it was doing the finest work for the upbuilding of the state, and the installation of honest government of any newspaper in the southwest. He was enthusiastically cheered.

There was another big demonstration when Marcus C. de Baca, well known Spanish-American attorney of Sandoval county and a member of the legislature, was nominated for congress. As the band started to play, W. F. Brogan, permanent secretary of the convention seized a life size photo of Col. Roosevelt and raised it above his head.

The delegates broke into a storm of cheers, standing upon their chairs, parading about the hall and waving bandanas. The Santa Fe delegation had bull moose megaphones and the big hall sounded like a boiler factory when they got the bull moose calls into active service.

Leaders of both the old parties here today admit that they did not expect such a large and enthusiastic convention. When it is remembered that the delegates came from all parts of the state, paid their own railroad fares and hotel bills, the contrast with the custom in both old parties is enough to frighten the old guard.

The permanent convention organized late yesterday afternoon when the committee on permanent organization recommended that George Armijo be made permanent chairman, W. F. Brogan, permanent secretary, E. C. Burke, assistant secretary, B. Ruppe, interpreter. They were elected by acclamation. In his opening address, Mr. Armijo declared that the new party was not for job seekers, not a one man party, but a party of principle and nothing more. He paid a high tribute to his friends in the republican party, but he said that the people demanded a change from both old parties and that he believed it was the duty of every public officer to heed the call of the people.

He said Mr. Taft and Mr. Wilson were undoubtedly good men but that they were too far from the common people. They not only did not know what the people wanted but they were so far from the people that they could not find out. He paid a high tribute to Theodore Roosevelt and declared that he was the closest to the people of any man in public life today. He pointed out how both old parties had centered their fight on Mr. Roosevelt and how they were trying by every method to get something on him in order to discredit him. "Can they do it?" he shouted, and a chorus of "No, you bet they can't for he is all right," came back from the delegates.

In his speech yesterday, Governor Otero declared that he proposed to work to the limit of his ability towards the election of the greatest leader in the world today, Theodore Roosevelt. He said no new party in the history of the world had ever received such endorsement from the masses, as the progressive party. He was enthusiastically cheered through his speech. He said the progressive party was one of principle and the only party where principle was higher than office.

Mr. Burg addressed the convention speaking for almost an hour. The following were the committees appointed by the chair:

Platforms and Resolutions—M. L. Fox, Ashley Bond, E. E. Studley, J. H. Hall, W. H. Parker, N. W. Long, George Curry, Herculano Martinez, W. L. Lindsey, Bonifacio Montoya, G. W. F. Richard, M. Cooney, D. Quintana, R. E. Hedding, T. S. Elder, F. H. Donohue.

Credentials—M. C. Ortiz, George Friedlenbloom, F. A. Hall, Dr. Milford, Charles G. Given, J. J. Clancy, Frank E. Leammie, A. A. Snedding, George Curry, A. E. Perea, Tony Valdez, A. S. Baca, Cliff Ballard, Manuel Sanchez y Sanchez, Juan Vigil, W. M. Berger, F. H. Durham, J. C. Manning.

Permanent Organization—N. G. McCroden, C. C. Gray, C. A. Whited, L. R. Taylor, E. B. Lovelace, T. E. Reese, J. C. Manning, George Curry, Herculano Martinez, W. E. Lindsey, George Hernandez, James Baca, F. H. Donohue, L. G. Pino, A. R. Manby, Lorenzo Zamora, Juan Vigil, F. W. Campbell.

The committee on permanent organization recommended the following as permanent officers and the report was unanimously adopted. Permanent chairman, G. W. Armijo; permanent secretary, W. F. (Bill) Brogan; interpreter, B. Ruppe.

Mr. Armijo, who recently resigned as chief clerk of the state corporation commission to affiliate himself with the progressive party, made a stirring speech, which the delegates frequently interrupted with applause.

The committee on resolutions then reported the following resolutions, which were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS.
The progressive party of New Mexico, in convention assembled in the city of Albuquerque, on this, the 10th day of September, 1912, most cordially endorse and ratify the principles set forth in the platform of the progressive party adopted at its first national convention in the city of Chicago, August 7, 1912.

The wise action of that convention in nominating Theodore Roosevelt and Hiram W. Johnson, as candidates for president and vice president of the United States meets with our hearty approval. In Mr. Roosevelt the people have a candidate in whose courage they can trust; one who more than any other man in public life is better equipped to carry out the principles of the progressive party as president of the United States.

The record of Mr. Johnson, as the champion of progressivism in California, both before and after he became governor of that state makes him a logical companion for Mr. Roosevelt, as a candidate for vice president on the progressive ticket.

The progressive party of this state committed to the principles of a government of, by and for the people, pledges itself to secure such legislation in the state as will insure direct primaries for the nomination of state and national officers, for preferential primaries for candidates for the presidency, United States senators, and for the initiative, referendum and recall, to meet the demands of the people.

MR. KNOX VIEWS BODY OF LATE EMPEROR

Tokio, Sept. 11.—Phyllander C. Knox, the infant Alfonso of Spain and Prince Henry of Russia, respectively the special ambassadors of the U. S. and Germany, to the funeral of the late Japanese ruler Mutsuhito, were received in audience today by Emperor Yoshihito.

His majesty accompanied the foreign representatives to view the lying in state of the body of the late emperor. Each placed a wreath on the coffin.

The special ambassadors afterward took luncheon with Emperor Yoshihito and Prince Arthur of Connaught, the representative of King George, who arrived this afternoon.

The emperor decorated Prince Henry with the chain of the "Order of Chrysanthemum" and bestowed upon infant Alfonso the grand cordon of the same order.

Secretary Knox delivered to the emperor an address of condolence to which the emperor responded.

Mrs. Knox was presented to the empress dowager.

WOMEN QUIT REPUBLICAN PARTY IN IDAHO.

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 11.—Declaring that they were sick and tired of the continual wrangling and fighting among the men of the republican party in Idaho, the women members of the party have announced their complete severance from the men and declared they would place a ticket of their own in the field.

A call will be issued today for a state convention, to be held in Boise the latter part of this week, and a complete state ticket will be named, from governor down, and only women will be nominated.

SENATOR FALL ON WAY TO EL PASO.

Long Beach, Cal., Sept. 11.—Senator A. B. Fall of New Mexico, who has been here for a week, left today for El Paso, where he will join Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan, in his investigation of the troubles in Mexico.

LODGE WILL OPEN G. O. P. BATTLE IN STATE OF OHIO

New York, Sept. 11.—Chairman Hill of the republican national committee announced today that he had selected United States Senator Lodge of Massachusetts to open the national republican campaign in Ohio on September 12, at Columbus.

Secretary Nagle of the department of commerce and labor will be the first member of President Taft's cabinet to take the stump in behalf of the president's reelection. He is expected in New York in a few days.

THEY HAD NUGGETS.
Hachita, N. M., Sept. 11.—Three Mexicans, dressed as laborers, were brought here today, having been arrested by United States soldiers at the boundary twenty-five miles to the south.

Concealed in their clothing was found $5,000 in Mexican pesos and in currency and a quantity of gold nuggets.

The men were acting as messengers for some rebel leaders and were bringing the spoils to some bank in El Paso, Texas.

WAS MRS. SZABO MURDERED?

New York, Sept. 11.—A warrant for the arrest of Burton W. Gibson, the lawyer, who was with Mrs. Rosa Szabo when she met her death while rowing on Greenwood Lake, July 16, will be asked today by the authorities of Orange county, New York.

The autopsy performed on the exhumed body of Mrs. Szabo showed the wind pipe badly wrenched and forced up into the woman's throat. The superficial appearance of the internal organs caused surgeons to retain them for both microscopic examination and chemical analysis.

Lawyer Gibson said he would return here from his country home today to await any arrest.

Private detectives today asserted they had made important discoveries in the location of two Mrs. Menschicks who said they were approached about the time of Mrs. Szabo's death by a man representing himself as a lawyer and telling them that he could put them in the way of obtaining a $10,000 estate that was left to them.

PROGRESSIVES DOWN OLD GUARD

RETURNS FROM COLORADO PRIMARIES HELD YESTERDAY INDICATE SPLENDID SUCCESS OF THE NEW PARTY---CLOSE RACE FOR U. S. SENATORSHIP

DEMOCRATS WIN IN ARIZONA

Denver, Colo., Sept. 11.—Returns received up to 11:30 today from 177 out of 180 precincts in Denver, and scattering returns from the state, indicated the probable nomination of candidates in yesterday's primaries as follows:

Democrats—United States senator: (long term) John F. Shafroth and Alva Adams, running close; senator (short term) Charles S. Thomas, unopposed. Congressman at large, E. T. Taylor and Edward Keating (two to be nominated.) Governor, Elias M. Ammons and T. J. Tynan, close. Ammons leading in Denver, and Tynan outside of the city.

Republicans—Senator: (Long term) Merle D. Vincent; senator (short term) J. H. Brown. Congressman at large, I. P. Dodge and L. J. Stark, (two to be nominated.) Governor: P. B. Stewart.

The republican vote indicated the success of the progressive republican candidates and the defeat of the old organization.

Additional returns up to 11:30 indicated that C. C. Dawson and Merle D. Vincent, progressives, were running a close race for the republican nomination for the long term senatorship.

The position of other candidates was unchanged.

AHEAD OF TICKET IN ARIZONA.

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 11.—Progressives in Arizona cast a much greater vote than did the republicans at yesterday's primary, according to returns so far received here. In nearly every precinct the progressives ran far ahead of the regular ticket.

OJINAGA TAKEN BY MEXICAN REBELS

NOW THEY ARE MARCHING IN THREE COLUMNS ON AGUA PRIETA AND BLOODY BATTLE IS EXPECTED---FEDERAL GARRISON OF 200 SOLDIERS AND 400 YAQUIS TO DEFEND THE CITY---AMERICAN ESCAPES

Marfa, Texas, Sept. 11.—The federal garrison at Ojinaga, Mexico, surrendered late yesterday to the rebels.

News of the surrender was received here in a message from Ojinaga, 50 miles from Marfa. General Sanchez, in command of the federals, was in Presidio at the time of the surrender, trying to get more ammunition for his men. Five men are reported killed in the Ojinaga fighting, but on which side has not been specified in dispatches received here.

Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 11.—The rebel leader, Colonel Antonio Rojas, formally demanded the surrender today of Agua Prieta, the little Mexican town just across the border line where one of the bloodiest battles of the Madero revolution was fought a year and a half ago.

If the town were not surrendered within 24 hours, Rojas declared he would attack with 1000 men. The federal garrison numbers 500.

Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 11.—The demand for the surrender of Agua Prieta was brought into the city by John Scott, an American, who was first taken prisoner by Rojas and liberated on condition that he bring the rebel commander's challenge to the federal chief.

Scott said that Rojas had 900 well armed and well equipped men at Cululona, 12 miles south of Agua Prieta. Lieutenant Colonel Begue, commanding the federal garrison of Agua Prieta, began preparing for the town's defense.

The investing force of rebels is said to comprise the combined armies of Rojas, Mascarenas and Escobosa. Mascarenas and Escobosa effected a junction with Rojas yesterday, according to reports brought by Scott, who also stated that the rebel chief expected to combine with Salazar, the raider who has been giving the American border patrol so much trouble.

Agua Prieta, Mex., Sept. 11.—Walter Douglas, manager of the Phelps-Dodge interests in the southwest, who was missing for two days, escaped through the rebel lines south of Cululona today and arrived here safely.

VETERANS HAVE A MONSTER PARADE

WITH HEADS BOWED AND FALTERING IN STEP, 7,000 HEROES AROUSE CHEERS OF VAST THRONG IN LOS ANGELES---AMBULANCES ARE STATIONED EN ROUTE, BUT FEW CALLS ARE MADE---OLD FLAG IS UNFURLED

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 11.—Marching with faltering steps but with heads erect and tattered battle flags flying, 7,000 veterans of the conflict between the states, gathered in annual encampment, paraded through the streets of Los Angeles today. The day was perfect.

Here and there along the route, darting in and out of the line, hundreds of girls, arms laden with cut flowers, scattered blossoms at the feet of the marching hosts, or quenched the thirst of the marchers with lemonade.

Ambulances were stationed at intervals and rest stations established in each block; but hardly any of the old soldiers faltered, and at the end of the one and four-fifths mile journey, they passed the reviewing stand with a hearty cheer for their commander in chief, and his party.

DETECTIVE GETS HIS MAN AND HIS GUN

New York, Sept. 11.—A letter from the Chicago police ylate yesterday afternoon at New York police headquarters, brought this information:

"Frederick Schultz, wanted here for grand larceny, left Sunday for New York, with a loaded .32 caliber revolver to 'get' Detective Paul Martin of your 18th precinct, who arrested him last April."

"That's pie for me," exclaimed Martin, when he read the report. A few hours later, Martin found his man on Sixth avenue, used a strong arm hold, and took from him a weapon like that described in the Chicago report.

Scutlz is held for the Chicago authorities, but meanwhile he will have to answer a charge here of carrying concealed weapons.

GEN. GORDON IS NO MORE

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 11.—General W. W. Gordon, of this city, brigadier general of the second brigade, first division of the fourth army corps, United States volunteers during the Spanish American war, and a Confederate veteran, died today at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., according to a message received here today. The body will be brought here for burial.

TAFT TO EAT APPLE PIE

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 11.—The appetizing apple pie and the rich brown doughnuts that Miss Della Torrey used to make for nephew "William" Taft linger in the memory of the president, so on Saturday he will make a trip to Millbury, Mass., where Miss Torrey lives.

Many of President Taft's relatives are expected to shake his hand in Millbury and Miss Torrey's house will be headquarters for a small Taft reunion.

ROOSEVELT CALLS STAND PATTERS PIRATES

Portland, Oregon, Sept. 11.—"The bosses who are in charge of the republican party," said Col. Roosevelt, "got the title to the party just as the pirate gets the title to the ship they capture. They may keep the name of the ship, but they are not the heirs to the man whose throat they cut."

In the primary campaign last spring he said, the progressives had beaten the bosses.

IMPORTANT.

"We did not oppose the bosses because they were in the way. If any of the bosses had turned in to help us in the fight for popular government, we should have said."

"All right, brother, come ahead. You'll get fair treatment as long as you don't try to be a boss. But they did not come aboard. They were right from their point of view, because they knew that if we won their occupation would be ended."

Meeting of the department of finance of the New-Old Santa Fe exhibition at 8 p. m. tonight at the Chamber of Commerce. Important business.

NOVELIST WITH ROCKEFELLER INCOME MAKES BIG MONEY

George Ade once remarked that many smart people came from Indiana, and the smarter they were the faster they came. Among the scions of the Hoosier state none has gone further nor faster than George Barr McCutcheon, whose "Beverly" and "Graustark" will be on view at the Elks' theatre next week. McCutcheon hails from Lafayette, where he graduated from Purdue. After leaving college he became a reporter, and soon rose to be managing editor of the Lafayette Journal. One balmy spring day about ten years ago, as George was toying with the paste-pot and shears in his sanctum, it suddenly occurred to him that a great many smart people came from Indiana, and forthwith he seized his trusty typewriter and perpetrated "Graustark". The gay matinee girl went for a "Graustark" like a boll weevil after a cotton plant, and ate it up so fast that the publishers had to sprinkle the presses with ice water to keep the bearings from overheating. On observing the commotion his novel had created McCutcheon promptly hurried his paste pot through the Journal's front window, and went away from there with exceeding rapidity. Since "Graustark" he has turned out at least one "best seller" a year; among them are "Jane Cable," "Brewster's Millions," "Beverly" and "Truxton King." Between writing two novels a year and clipping coupons, McCutcheon manages to keep himself fairly busy. He is undoubtedly the most highly remunerated writer that ever lived, and his income is far over $100,000 a year. He receives huge sums for his stories, in addition to the royalties on his books, and last year the royalty from his plays was nearly $50,000. His "Brewster's Millions" was dramatized several years ago, and was very successful both in New York and the provinces. Two seasons ago "Graustark" was the dramatic sensation of the year, and last spring "Beverly" was produced at the Studebaker theatre, Chicago, and has simply coined money ever since. At the present time seven productions pay royalty to McCutcheon, and several new ones are in preparation. He is a member of a number of clubs, but for some reason will not allow himself to be photographed. His friends claim it is modesty, but the envious ones say he has very little that on the top of his dome, and is afraid that his feminine clientele wouldn't care for romances written by a bald-headed man—but this is probably a base slander. Anyhow, George has the coin, which is the main thing after all.

NEW YORK LETTER

New York, Sept. 11.—Consular representatives of two foreign nations interested themselves today in the case of Burton W. Gibson, a New York lawyer, against whom the Austrian consulate has started proceedings to have him removed as executor of the will of Mrs. Rosa Szabo, a widow. She was drowned not long ago in Greenwood Lake, Orange County, while rowing with Gibson. She left an estate of about $10,000.

According to John J. Broderick, the acting consul general for Great Britain, Mr. Gibson was counsel and adviser for John Rive O'Neill, a British subject, who disappeared more than a year ago, after winning a $10,000 damage suit from a railroad company for the loss of a leg. The British consulate made efforts several months ago to trace O'Neill but without avail. In 1906 Gibson was counsel for Mrs. Alice Kinnam, who was killed in her home in the Bronx. The murder never was solved. On the recommendation of the coroner's jury Gibson was held in $25,000 bail pending investigation of the case, but he was released on a habeas corpus writ and the matter was dropped. Mr. Gibson appeared at his law office today but said he had no statement to make. "I may have something to say later," he added.

Preparations are being made in Bernardsville, N. J., for the reception of Mrs. Madeline Force Astor and her infant son, John Jacob Astor VI. They will spend a month here, beginning about September 20, at the summer home of Mrs. Astor's parents. Daily reports from New York indicate that the boy and his mother are both doing finely. One hundred and thirty-eight persons were killed by motor cars in Greater New York from January 1 to September 1, as against seventy-nine killed in the corresponding period last year, according to the report of the

TOWN TOPICS IN TUCUMCARI

Tucumcari, N. M., Sept. 11.—Henry Shulch, who came to Tucumcari a few weeks ago from Cuervo, N. M., met with an accident last Monday, which resulted in his death, a few hours later. Mr. Shulch fell from a loft of Wayne's livery barn, a distance of about twelve feet, striking his head and fracturing his skull. As nothing was known of his relatives, he was buried Tuesday in the city cemetery. He was about forty-five years of age.

The county convention of the national progressive party met here last Saturday. A. D. Goldenberg, of this city, was elected chairman of the county central committee. The following were elected delegates to the state convention, to be held at Albuquerque, September 10th: Claude Shelton, D. S. Donaldson, J. G. Dolard, T. W. Smith, A. Vorenberg, Frank Donahue, A. S. Potter, P. H. Sisney, M. B. Keator and D. W. Bowen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Humphreys left last week for Vaughn, where Mr. Humphreys has accepted the position as cashier of the Vaughn Trust and Savings bank. T. S. Williams, of Trent, Texas, has accepted the position of manager of the Tucumcari Lumber company, left vacant by Mr. Humphreys.

Mrs. J. A. Woodard, of Jordan, N. M., was last week adjudged insane, and on Monday was taken to the State Asylum at Las Vegas.

A few days ago the drillers at the oil well in the bad lands east of Tucumcari, struck a vein of salt 108 feet thick. After passing through the salt they struck a shaly rock that experts declared is a fine indication of oil. The well is now down to a depth of 1450 feet.

Last week arrangements were made for the purchase of a 320 acre tract of land for the permanent location for the government and state experiment station at Tucumcari. Prof. Chilcott, chief of the office of dry land agriculture, was here when the arrangements were completed and the change meets with his approval. County Superintendent of Schools E. Pack has returned from a visit to his mother's in Tennessee.

At a meeting of the Wilson and Marshall club last Saturday, the following officers were elected: President, Lee G. Pearson; secretary, C. C. Chapman; treasurer, I. J. Briscoe; committee on membership, finance, entertainment and by-laws were appointed.

On Friday last, a smooth guy giving his name as John Flynn, entered the residence of Mrs. Kate Edgett and told her he was hunting for some lady to work at the Tucumcari hospital. As he left the house he appropriated her gold watch which was lying on the dresser. The watch was missed in a short while, city officials were notified and Mr. Flynn was soon overtaken, relieved of the watch and given a jail sentence.

At a meeting of the Quay county republican central committee, held at Tucumcari Saturday, September 7th, the following delegates to the state convention to be held at Albuquerque were elected: I. C. Barnes, Jacob Wortheim, Francisco Gutierrez, of Tucumcari; J. G. Ellis, San Jon; Silviana Baca, Endee; E. A. Manzy, Collinsville; Doroteo Garcia and Tomas Romero, Logan. The meeting was presided over by County Chairman Hon. Chas. H. Kohn, of Montoya; Sidney M. Wharton, of Tucumcari, as secretary. A rousing stand pat address was made by Dr. H. D. Nichols.

KILLED HIS WIFE THROUGH JEALOUSY

Estancia, N. M., Sept. 11.—A terrible tragedy occurred Sunday afternoon about five miles northwest of the town of Moriarty in the Estancia valley.

Augustine Mueller shot and killed his wife and then turned his gun on himself with fatal results. Mr. Mueller has been a highly respected resident of this section for many years; he had several children, some of them grown. He was engaged in the cattle and sheep business and was prosperous and well to do. The only cause for the killing and suicide was an insane jealousy of his wife which was entirely without cause as she was a good and highly thought of woman.

On last Sunday Mr. Mueller had been visiting at the ranch of a neighbor and on returning home he accused his wife of having been visited by another neighbor which she denied and truthfully so, but he became insanely enraged, having been brooding for a long time over his fancied wrongs, and reaching down his Winchester rifle and in spite of the terrified cries of his three-year-old child, who was sitting in his mother's lap, he fired twice at her one shot taking effect in her breast and the other in her head. He then went outside the door and shot himself through the head with the same rifle. An eleven-year-old daughter of the family was in the room and she tried to calm her father and prevent the tragedy, but to no purpose and it was from her baby lips that the awful story was gathered by the neighbors who came back to the desolated home with her.

NOW THEY'RE PUNISHING THOSE STRIKING CONVICTS AT JACKSON: FRATERNAL SOCIETIES BARREL BEATINGS AND WRIST HANGINGS THE FAVORITE METHODS OF MAKING DOCILE MEN OF THEM.

Jackson, Mich., Sept. 11.—It doesn't pay to be a striker in the state prison here. Scores of strikers have learned that lesson now. The strike itself was short-lived, of course. Unarmed men, surrounded by thick stone walls can't strike much with hundreds of state troops, city policemen and deputy wardens pointing guns at them.

Now they are punishing the strikers. To do this the prison board of control rescinded its order, made only a few months ago, abolishing corporal punishment. The board gives Warden Nathan Simpson a free hand and he is using it to restore discipline.

The two methods considered most effective are barrel whippings and wrist hanging. The punishment is meted out when there is no visitors or newspaper men about to be disturbed by the outcries of the culprits.

A man to be whipped is stripped and stretched face down over a barrel. A sheet, saturated in salt water, is then spread over him and an attendant beats him with a strap, also well soaked in water. By this method the skin is not broken and no raw flesh or bad-looking discolorations give the convict material evidence to show a few days later. Just a pink, "healthy glow" is left.

Of course the convict remembers it for some time. During the flogging the combination of strap and salt makes him think he is being stung by a horde of wasps, and that feeling remains several days.

Wrist hanging is the other leading method used here to punish unruly convicts. The man is strapped up by disciplinary results from barrel beatings and wrist hangings.

If these plans fail the Marquette, Mich., prison "paddles plan" may be instituted. The paddle is a two-pound piece of sole leather shaped like a tennis racket. The convict is stretched out so that every blow yields its maximum effect. Few convicts, it is said, remain conscious past the tenth blow.

Jackson prison has been lately running on the economy plan. Warden Simpson has cut the annual deficit down to less than a half what the former warden's endeavors produced. But he doesn't believe apparently, in the Colorado plan nor the California plan, nor the Iowa plan.

In Colorado Warden Tynan allows his prisoners to go great distances away from the penitentiary to build roads for counties and towns. The convicts are pledged on their honor to return and are paid a small wage out of what they earn. Less than one per cent have tried to escape. There has been no "strike," no "mutiny," no "riot" in that prison.

Oregon treats its convicts like men. They, too, build roads. They could escape, but they don't.

It was from the Oregon prison, before this plan was instituted, that Harry Tracy, outlaw, made his bloody dash for liberty to escape prison tortures.

That even a confirmed criminal will respond to humane treatment and become a man is the belief upon which Warden J. C. Sanders works with success at the Fort Madison, Iowa, prison.

But convicts don't get outdoor work here much. They work all day in a contract labor shop and make a little overtime for themselves, or in the state's binding twine factory and get 10 cents for overtime work, or in other ways, and get nothing at all.

Discrimination and alleged poor food were the causes of the strike, now subdued.

IT'S QUEER ABOUT ALTIZER—HE BURNS UP MINOR LEAGUES, BUT CAN NEVER MAKE GOOD IN THE MAJORS

DAVE ALTIZER.

"Dare Devil Dave" Altizer is burning up the American association again.

Altizer is an association star. He is a baseball freak. Each fall some major league manager pays Joe Cantillon, of Minneapolis, regular money for Dave, hoping he has finally "arrived," and will shine in the fastest company.

And each spring, Altizer is sent back to Minneapolis for much less than he cost. He is as much of a baseball mystery as the "why" of the spit-ball. The big top is one step too high for Dizzy Dave to negotiate.

The Altizer of Minneapolis isn't the Altizer of the major leagues. You see him in the A. A., and you're sure he will star with Bush and Barry as a fielder, with Ty Cobb as a base runner, and Sherwood Magee as a batter—but he always fails.

"Decoration day morning, 1910, Altizer saved Minneapolis, in 16 innings of a 17-inning game, by some marvelous play. He looked like Bill Dahlen used to look. And the very next day after such an exhibition, he is apt to toss away a game.

Altizer is hard to handle, and here, perhaps, is why he doesn't make good in the majors. That Joe Cantillon can keep him at top speed, without missing a step, is a bit of baseball humor, for Joe isn't noted for drawing room deportment or conversation. His methods have been called "rough-neck" by some. But he does handle Altizer—the most sensitive plant in the game.

The ex-Philippine sharp-shooter would die for Joseph. One day he made four errors, and that night he rushed up to Cantillon and demanded that he be killed. The best he wanted was a job as office boy or gate man. He raved like a madman, but Cantillon soothed him.

"Never mind, boy, I'm for you. You're all right," Joe assured him, and the next day Altizer was a whirlwind. Cantillon never reprimands him, and never permits the players to get gay, when he has a bad day.

The erratic one is fortunate to have Cantillon as manager and the Millers as team-mates. The team wins with his hitting, and when Dave makes three or four errors, there is enough power to pull the game out of the fire. With a weak batting team, he would lose many games.

Altizer is gingersy and fast. He likes the limelight. He runs about the field, taking balls belonging to Ferris, Williams or the left fielder. This goes with Cantillon and Dave is not "called down." If the players went after him for "butting in," he'd be done, as a player, for weeks.

Because of his temperament, Altizer is awful, when going badly. On such days, Cantillon guards him from himself, the players and the fans.

Umpires say Altizer is a crab. He goes to bat muttering like a squirrel with a nut. This is part of his intense determination to win at any cost. At his best, he is a Trojan—mighty at Cantillon in any company, but he lacks the complete nerve that makes the greatest players.

TRACERY WINS GREAT RACE

Don Caster, England, Sept. 11.—The St. Ledger stakes of 6,500 sovereigns for colts and fillies foaled in 1909 was won here today by August Belmont's Tracery, Maiden Erlegh finished section D, and Hector was third. The race was run over the St. Ledger course about one mile and six furlongs and 132 yards, and 14 horses started. The winner was ridden by Bellhouse. The success of Tracery, which led throughout the race, and won by five lengths, came as a great surprise. Lomond, an even money favorite being considered a certain winner.

Tracery was quoted at eight to one in the betting.

WOLVERTON STAYS.

Within a short time Harry Wolverton, manager of the New York Americans, and former manager of the Oakland team, will sign a new contract to manage the New York Club for another season.

This is despite the fact that the club has been a consistent tail-end all season. It is said that Frank Farrell, owner of the New York team, realizes the fact that numerous accidents have kept the club at the foot of the league and friends of Farrell declare the owner has a high regard for the ability of Wolverton. Harry without doubt, has had more to contend with this year in the matter of hard luck than any other manager in the league.

W. C. T. U DENOUNCES FALSE HAIR AND HEELS

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 11.—A committee on women's dress which made its report at the annual convention of the Kansas City district committee of the W. C. T. U. here scathingly denounces the following "styles" seen in the up-to-date society in cities, towns and villages of this country:

1. Masses of false hair—"that you can tell at a glance was picked from a counter."
  2. Decollete gowns and tight, short skirts—"both suggestive and vulgar."
  3. High heeled shoes—"that maim their wearers for life."
  4. Rouge smeared on the cheeks, making their owners look like a cheeky imitation of a circus clown.
- The committee declared itself for meditation in dress as in all things. The following resolution was adopted by the convention:
- "In view of the fact that present day fashions are unsightly, unhealthy and immoral, individual and societies should direct their best efforts towards creating a sentiment against tight skirts and dresses abbreviated at both ends."

ALLEGED SWINDLER MEETS A HORRIBLE DEATH.

New York, Sept. 11.—Screams coming from a park in Brooklyn late last night brought a crowd of passersby hurrying to a secluded bench where they found a man with hands pressed to his eyes moaning that a woman had thrown acid in his face. The police arrested a girl who gave her name as Esther Kaplan and led her to the park bench but the man was so badly burned about the eyes that he could not see her. Soon he became unconscious and died before an ambulance arrived.

Under pressure from the police, the girl said that she knew the man as Samuel Kaplan and that he had taken all her money under false promises of marriage. She declared that he was one of a group of swindlers wanted in Chicago. Although she insisted that he had taken the acid himself, after trying to force her to drink it, she was locked up on a charge of homicide.

DOUGLAS, ARIZ., MAY GET TASTE OF WAR.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 11.—Cars were ordered to Juarez today by Mexican authorities for transportation of troops through United States territory to Douglas, Arizona. The people of Douglas fear an attack will be made on the federal when they attempt to cross the line into Mexico.

This idea of "pulling the chestnuts out of the fire" for the federalists may not appeal to the residents of Douglas, but there seems no help for it now.

AUSTRALIAN SYSTEM OF TAXATION FOR ARIZONA.

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 11.—If a movement begun here today proves successful, Arizona will have the Australian system of taxation. Under this plan each property owner turns in his account and the state has the right to purchase any property at an increase of 10 per cent over the valuation. The Arizona tax league, formed today, will work for the adoption of a constitutional amendment to this end.

REYNOLDS TO TALK TO BANKERS ON MONEY TRUST

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 11.—Members of the American Bankers association today looked forward to two days of recreation while the delegates to various conventions affiliated with the association transacted their annual business. The bankers, after being the guests of Detroit business men for the next forty-eight hours, hope to complete their official work at two sessions Friday.

The Trust company, Savings bank, clearing house and state secretaries sections opened their conventions today. Formal reports of officers were expected to consume much of the time of the opening sessions, but the programs also provided for several addresses.

George M. Reynolds, of Chicago, was to discuss the money trust at the Trust company convention, while Theodore L. Weed, director of the Postal savings system, of the United States, was to close the opening meeting of the savings bank session with an address entitled "The Postal Savings Bank and the Banks."

Detroit, Sept. 11.—Speaking on the subject "The Money-trust Inquiry," George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National bank of Chicago, today declared, "If a banker can be forced to disclose a confidential relationship between his bank and its customer, it would require but a short step further to capitalize for the gratification of prejudice the confidences between an attorney and his client, as well as the secrets of the confessional."

Mr. Reynolds spoke before the Trust company section of the American Bankers association at its annual convention and disavowed any antagonism to the congressional investigation by the house committee.

"Believing as I do," said the speaker, "that open-minded, honest agitation of any question in which the public is interested, prompted by a laudable purpose and kept free from animus and prejudice, will tend to secure a proper solution of that question, I desire to disavow any antagonism for or opposition to the impending investigation of the so-called 'Money Trust' by the house banking and currency committee; on the contrary, I shall be glad to do what I can to co-operate with the members of that committee so long as their activities are exerted along the lines of an honest endeavor calculated to promote better methods and higher ideals in business."

Banking conditions were discussed by the speaker, who said in part: "The fact that 95 per cent of the business of this country is done upon credit, and that the use of actual money in transactions has been reduced to the minimum, makes it very easy for people who do not properly discriminate between credit and money itself to become confused in the application of the terms; and especially is this likely to be the case with those who have given so little study to the subject that they look upon a bank as being an institution dealing in money, whereas, in reality a bank deals in credit and the money it carries in its vaults is only an incident to its business, being carried only in an amount sufficient under the law of averages to make it possible for the bank to pay its obligations upon demand under normal conditions."

"This confusing of credit with money, as it is related to business, has caused much misapprehension on this subject, and resulted in more or less honest criticism by those who do not realize that the 'money power' as it is usually applied relates to the power or control of the credit which may be extended against either money or other tangible liquid assets easily or quickly convertible into money; and in view of the temper of the people toward large aggregations of capital, it is not surprising that there has also arisen much confusion and misconception through the use of the words 'money power' and 'money trust.' Oftentimes, where quotations of alleged statements are made, the word 'trust' is, either through confusion or arbitrarily, substituted for the word 'power,' making it appear as 'money trust,' thereby changing the meaning of the statement as it was originally made.

"I disclaim any knowledge, to say nothing of any connection with any 'money trust' of any character, and I feel I would be derelict in my duty if I were not to say to you that I do not believe any such trust exists.

"If a little more of the spirit of fairness were to be injected into a consideration and discussion of this subject, the masses of the people would be less inclined to hold prejudices against or criticize banks, for, after all the banks are only the 'warehouses' of the credits of the community and the credits they control are subject to the ebb and flow incident to the fluctuations in business.

"I have heard more or less criticism of banks in this country upon the theory that the 'money power' is in the hands of too few people.

"Inasmuch as whatever control individuals may now have of our banking power comes to them under and by virtue of the national banking law, as the result of a concentration of reserves in the central-reserve cities and through legitimate practices in the ordinary trend of business, and not, mark you, through any violation or evasion of the law on their part. Would it not be far more becoming to criticize the law which forces this condition rather than to criticize the men who under the law have the condition forced upon them?

"As one who has been accused of admitting that the 'money power' under existing conditions, or the power to extend credit in times of crises, rests in the hands of a few bankers in this country whose institutions carry the surplus banking reserves, I have for three years past been making a plea to the people of this country to assist in securing legislation providing for a system of banking and currency, which it is believed, will very materially decentralize the money power by placing it within the control of several thousand banks, rather than to have it literally controlled by the bankers in the central reserve cities, as at present.

"I cannot believe a condition exists which can begin to justify such drastic treatment; no more do I believe congress will take any action which would strike so directly at the personal rights and liberties of the people."

last election; we rejoice over the fact that the people of the state, by a majority of over 12,000 adopted the amendment known as the Blue Ballot, thus making the constitution more easily amended by the people when they desire to so amend it, except as it affects the articles on elective franchise and education.

We strenuously oppose all combinations, conspiracies, trusts or agreements in restraint of trade, and all monopolies or attempted monopolies to control the trade or commerce of this state, and we believe in and insist upon a vigorous prosecution of all persons and corporations who violate the statute upon this subject, and we are in favor of an early amendment of the act of congress of July 2, 1890, known as the anti-trust act, so as to prevent any further judicial legislation with reference thereto.

The Spanish Insular possessions of the United States, and the diplomatic and commercial relations with many Spanish speaking countries, make the Spanish language an indispensable medium of communication between the United States and the people of those countries, we therefore favor a sufficient appropriation by congress to establish and endow a Spanish-American college in this state, for the purpose of teaching, training and equipping young men to a higher standard of efficiency, for commercial, consular and diplomatic service in the countries named.

We pledge our faithful support to the nominees of this convention at the coming election.

The resolutions were amended on motion of Mr. Cutting to include an endorsement of an amendment to the constitution eliminating the language clause, so that any person an American citizen could hold office in this state.

After discussing all day the question of a congressional nominee, the delegates decided to throw down the bars and fight it out. M. A. Otero nominated Marcus C. de Baca, Bronson M. Cutting seconding the nomination. Elmer E. Studley nominated John Leary and B. Ruppe nominated John Baron Burg. The convention was almost stampeded when State Senator W. M. McCoy of Torrance county, nominated M. A. Otero. At the mention of Mr. Otero's name a big demonstration took place. Governor Otero, however, asked Mr. McCoy to withdraw his name, stating that he could not do his duty to the party and run for an office. His name was then withdrawn. Another demonstration was caused when Mr. Armijo tried to nominate Hon. George Curry. Mr. Curry thanked him but said that he plans to return to private life.

Mr. Burg then stated that he could not run because his wife was an invalid and he could not leave Albuquerque. This left the fight between the de Baca delegates and the Leahy delegates. Mr. de Baca was nominated receiving 138 votes and Mr. Leahy 66. For presidential electors, George W. Armijo, Elmer E. Studley and D. E. Thomas of Chaves county were selected, other nominees being C. M. Foraker of Bernalillo, and A. W. Terry of Socorro. The following resolution offered by Chairman Armijo was adopted by a rising vote:

DEPLORE MR. LUNA'S DEATH.

"Resolved, That we deplore the untimely death of Hon. Solomon Luna. He was an important factor in the industrial, intellectual and moral upbuilding of our new state. New Mexico has lost a useful citizen and our whole people a good man. We hereby extend to his afflicted family our sincere expressions of sympathy and condolence."

Before the convention adjourned, Marcus C. de Baca spoke at length on the issues of the campaign and promised to use every honest effort to carry the state for the new party.

IS HEARDThe famous foreclosure suit, of the Independent Steel and Wire company and the Pittsburg Trust company vs.
The New Mexico Central Railroad company and others, which has been in the public gaze for several years, is now being heard before Lorin C.
Collins, special master and referee.The foreclosure proceedings have finally been consolidated into three cases and all of them referred to Judge Collins to report conclusions as to facts and the law. The hearing will be concluded here tomorrow. Then it will be resumed in Pittsburg and later in New York, whither Judge Collins will travel to hear testimony.The array of counsel in this case looked this morning as though the
New Mexico bar was in session.
Among those engaged as counsel are
N. B. Field, and Messrs. Klock and Owen of Albuquerque; U. S. Senator
Thomas B. Catron, former Judge E.
R. Wright, A. B. Renahan, former Judge N. B. Laughlin, Attorney General Frank W. Clancy, Attorneys Easley and Easley, Col. George W. Prichard, former attorney general of New Mexico. From abroad came Judge J. Erb, styled by some of his friends as "the whirlwind orator from Chicago"; F. D.
Pearce, the tall attorney from St.
Louis and John S. Wendt, of Pittsburg. Looking placidly on with the same calm which has characterized him for years was C. C. Murray, receiver of the New Mexico Central railroad about whom the storm has raged again and again but Mr. Murray continues in his chair as receiver.The proceedings this morning were smooth and lacked the thundering features which made the hearing so interesting last year. Even Judge Erb talked "soo voice." There was no wrangling and when the referee made a remark, it could be heard.In the appointment of Judge Collins as referee, Judge E. C. Abbott of the district court picked out a man of tried judicial and legal experience.
Judge Collins came to Santa Fe a year ago after serving six years as associate justice of the supreme court in the canal zone. He has had a long public career, serving six years as a member of the Illinois legislature, part of that time as speaker of the house; nine years as circuit judge of Cook county, Illinois, over six years of which he occupied the post of chancellor.Judge Collins is a native of Connecti-

TO THE GLOOMS.

Doubtless things are bad. Let that be conceded. Ohio has gone Hell bent For A-mendment For I and R true And Home Rule, too!

Other states are following. The movement can't be headed. The nation is a total loss.

And yet, let us address a few words of comfort to the mossy-backed tenants of the Cave of Gloom.

If there is anything shocking and daunting and disturbing in these whirlwind victories of the masses over the classes—and we are free to admit that there is—let us not therefore despair. It is change, and change spells disturbance and displacement.

Consider the human body. Whether from a rearward view ornamented with moss or not, the body is a wonderful thing. And yet it has had to endure many changes. We are assured that once we walked on all fours. All our bodily organs are constructed for a horizontal posture. But the human soul was full of pride, much of it, he confessed, sinful pride. We got stuck on ourselves. We must fain stand erect and tower above our fellow brutes. So we reared on our hind legs, even as you are wont to do when the election returns come in showing the waters of red revolution rising, rising, as they seem to be from where you squat, and ever since we have walked more or less upright.

You would not go back to the horizontal dwellers in the Cave of Gloom; but we all suffer from the fact that our organs are made for that position. We have displacements of the interior organs, many of them common. They make a great many men and women uncomfortable. Maybe in some far day in the future we shall evolve to the point of being really natural in the uprightness to which we tend.

So with these victories of the masses. They are painful to some, but the pains are growing pains. We have made up our minds to stand erect, and walk upright as a people. In getting to our national feet we may have to displace some of our institutional and industrial organs which were developed for a less noble habit of the body politic. But it will be better for everybody if we straighten. Your children will be proud of the events which you now deplore. They will refuse to believe that you ever retired to the Cave of Gloom.

EXAMINED BY AUTHORITY.

An expression on any subject from one who is an authority is sought by those who want to know. It is true in every field of life. If we want to know what is the matter with us, we seek the doctor; if we want to know our rights we call on the lawyer; if we are puzzled on theology we go to the clergyman.

There has been a good deal of discussion concerning the actual facts touching the work of the steam roller at Chicago last June, and as to the actual method of Taft's nomination. After the consummation of this operation United States Senator Cummins of Iowa, one of the original progressives, declared that he was not satisfied with the situation but that he still believed the republican party was basically progressive and basically honest. The Taft supporters at once declared that Cummins would support Taft, but Cummins remained silent, only declaring that he would investigate the validity of Taft's nomination before stating his position in the campaign. Senator Cummins is one of the ablest lawyers in the United States. He has no superior in the senate. His opinion is therefore valuable as to the judicial phase of the Taft nomination. After an exhaustive examination of the record of the proceedings, this is Senator Cummins' verdict:

"The complainant committee, and following them, the convention, deliberately seated Taft delegates from Washington, California, Arizona and Texas who had no shadow of title to seats in the convention. I speak of these states because I have examined the record as to them and have reached a conclusion after the most careful study and reflection. And thus the will of a tremendous majority was defeated by the machinations of a committee."

It must be remembered that if Mr. Cummins had any predilections in this matter they were favorable to Mr. Taft. The senator is naturally and preferably a republican, but he is also a great lawyer and an upright citizen. He wanted to be right.

Senator Cummins has declared for Roosevelt. The Progressive movement has passed beyond the single question of the honesty of Mr. Taft's nomination. The third party was founded on the doctrine, "Thou shalt not steal;" but the broad principles of human welfare for which it stands since overshadowed the crime at Chicago. Nevertheless, it is well to recall, as Senator Cummins does, the method by which Mr. Taft got his nomination.

The matter is again brought to mind, "lest we forget."

PRISON DISCIPLINE.

Just how to handle prisoners in a states prison to the best advantage, —best for themselves; best for the public; best for their colleagues, is a question that is still unanswered after all the years during which prisons have existed and convicts been confined.

Michigan has just been in the limelight. As a result the question of how to handle men confined in prison is again before the people. The prisoners revolted. They were overpowered by the militia.

Here is the way they were punished:

"A barrel was placed upon a ladder which lay flat upon the floor. Each victim was made to strip his back and lie with his face down across the barrel. About his wrists were placed handcuffs and his arms were stretched out in front and fastened to a round in the ladder. Leg irons were placed on his ankles and his feet were stretched as far out behind as possible so as to make the skin of the back taut.

"A gag was placed in the mouth of every one so that the victim could get none of the relief he might experience in groans and shrieks.

"Over those who had thin, white skins a sheet was placed, while those with the thick, yellow hides had to take it bare. With these preliminaries over, a bulky guard started in to whale the victim.

"Two fellows fainting and another fellow was limp when he was taken off the barrel. When those fellows swooned away the whipping stopped until they regained control of themselves."

That sounds inhuman, barbarous. It seems like a leaf from some old history when physical punishment was the only kind known.

And yet, shall there be no discipline? Shall men who act like maniacs, even threatening the lives of their fellow prisoners, be treated like those who are amenable to the rules of the prison where they are incarcerated for the violation of law?

One naturally wants to see kindness used, but if that fails utterly, what then? The claim is made concerning the Jackson prison that the fare was poor. Did the prisoners appeal to the governor or the board of control, before they resorted to violence?

There must be two sides.

Just how best to help a man who has committed crime is one of the age's problems. It must depend something on the man himself whether kindness or severity is the most effective.

Another text in our creed:

We pledge our party to legislation that will compel strict limitation of all campaign contributions and expenditures, and detailed publicity of both before as well as after primaries and elections.

We pledge our party to legislation compelling the registration of lobbyists; publicity of committee hearings except on foreign affairs, and recording of all votes in committee; and forbidding federal appointees from holding office in state or national political organizations, or taking part as officers or delegates in political conventions for the nomination of elective state or national officials.

AS THE BYSTANDER SEES IT

BUMS.

Just why so much consideration has always been given to drunks, it is difficult to understand.

Just why the comfort, convenience and rest of people who behave like human beings and try to be useful and decent, can be disturbed without any interference from officers or anybody else, is one of the queer things in our civic conduct of affairs. Just why Sunday night, of all other nights, is the one chosen for the noisy hilarity, and why it seems to be considered permissible I have not heard explained.

The residents on Palace avenue seem to be the ones who have been especially selected by the bums as the audience before whom are given their weekly concerts.

The bums' concerts have developed into what seem to be continuous performances and the attendance at the entertainments is not a matter of choice but of force.

When one set of singers and roysterers has put on a stunt, another one follows and all night long the annoyance and disgrace goes on unhindered by the authorities. The thing has become a nuisance and should be treated like any other nuisance—that is, abated, abolished, exterminated. It is not fair nor just nor decent. The protest of the residents of Palace avenue is growing long, loud and deep and is based on a square deal.

If drunken men must sing and yell and carouse all night let them do it where the decent and law-abiding people of the city are not disturbed by it; let them have a place by themselves for their disgusting and offensive concerts. Let them be taken to surroundings that befit them—out to the dumping ground or down to the jail. Just why men who make beasts of themselves are given consideration to the discomfort and continued annoyance of people who try to be decorous and who consider the laws of decency and good citizenship, is one of the things yet to be explained.

THOSE WHO DO THINGS.

We always like to hear of the success of a friend or a friend's friend. Things accomplished are always interesting. This is especially true when some deed involving hardship or difficulty is accomplished by a woman. In the August number of Outdoor World and Recreation is an illustrated article by Emma Leonidas Kelly, who is a sister of W. G. Kelly, so well known in Santa Fe, and for the past few months a resident here with his family. Miss Kelly is an extensive traveler. She has not made her world-wide trips in the usual way, in Pullman cars and surrounded with luxuries, but she has gone out into world's by ways, enduring the hardships incident to such excursions.

In the article above referred to, Miss Kelly tells most interestingly of her experience in Alaska, where she endured all those difficulties and dangers which have become matters of history.

When one thinks of a five hundred mile trip in Alaska, "made in twenty-five actual days of travel with eight days of delay in camp on account of storms and intense cold," it makes one shiver even in Santa Fe, during these bright September days. The experiences recorded by Miss Kelly bristle with thrilling incidents and severe hardships which are generally considered as only the work for men, and hardy, stalwart men, at that.

In reading of the trials endured by this intrepid young woman, one is awed by the endurance of human nature when put to the test. The hardships seem almost beyond what humanity could endure, but the recital of the trip, written in vivid style of the young explorer is full of interest and tells a story which seems almost beyond belief.

It is of interest to New Mexico residents to know that Miss Kelly is intending to visit our state in the near future, and will publish her impressions of the Sunshine State.

GOOD WORK.

Just now a movement of great interest is on foot in Santa Fe. The real instigator is Sylvanus G. Morley, and he is to have back of him the cordial co-operation of the city planning board and a body of citizens.

Much credit is due also to Mayor Celso Lopez who has joined hands with those who are promoting this advanced movement which promises to be of great value to Santa Fe.

The details of the work and what is to be done will be given in the columns of this paper, but those things that look to the advancement and progress of Santa Fe are always of intense interest to the Bystander.

A bigger, better, broader, livelier Santa Fe is what we all want. We want a city of 25,000 people. We want to be known in metropolitan cities as a member of the metropolitan family. We want to be up there with the best of them, and the beauty of it all is we have the credentials to put us there.

We have the foundation laid for a splendid civic structure and do not have to begin at the very bottom, but can build on what we have. We need only to set our goal and then work toward it.

In a pamphlet on city planning, handed me by H. H. Dorman, who is one of the active workers in this advanced movement, are some excellent suggestions that pave the way. They are all toward beautifying the city by shade trees, parks and cleanliness. Of course, the good condition of the streets is one of the big considerations, and here is a field for operation that has been neglected. The co-operation of the planning board and railroad company is another necessity. We can all recall, in traveling, how we have been attracted to a town where the surroundings at the railroad station were made beautiful with flowers and shrubs and where the approach was made attractive.

For Santa Fe it only means forethought and planning and enthusiastic interest to put us in the front ranks of American cities.

STORY OF A WILD ANIMAL BOUNTY FUND

MINING IN OUR STATE

County Clerk E. B. Venable, Robert Houston and Lee Hawkins, owners of the Woodlawn group of claims in the Juniper mining district, fourteen miles north of Silver City, proved the good north of their camp from time to time by breaking into a body of ore that bids fair to make Juniper one of the great gold and silver producers. The strike was made over a week ago and outside of quickly withdrawing an offer to sell the mine for $20,000 cash, the owners have said very little about it. Asked about the richness of the strike, Mr. Venable refused to give particulars, but the smile that overspread his face was one that bespoke entire satisfaction. The reporter hazarded a guess at $300 per ton, but saw at once that he was away under the mark. "It's rich," said Mr. Venable, "it's rich." And that was as far as he would go.

The present owners have been working on the property, which includes the old Peerless mine, for about four years. The chief values were in silver, and the development has been confined to doing the assessment work on the nine claims which constitute the group. Recently, when silver advanced in price, development was commenced on the Woodlawn No. 2. The vein, which at the surface was quite narrow, showed values of $159 in silver and gold. After following it down about 60 feet it was decided to drift, as the vein showed signs of widening. The change of direction proved a wise move, for the vein opened nicely and the value increased. When the drift had reached 20 feet, the assays which caused the hasty removal of the property from the market, were made. The work of development has been continued since, but no shipment of ore has been made.

The Juniper district has been attracting a good deal of attention of late, and a number of claims have been located there. Among the local people who are largely interested there is John Casey, manager for M. F. Downes & Co.

Silver City—The Phelps-Dodge Co. is to install a big electric plant at its copper mines at Piorro. Work at the mines is being pushed preparatory to working them on a large scale. Development work at the mine has uncovered a large body of rich ore. It is reported that the American Meer-schaum company will soon resume work at its mine near Piorro and Hanover on a large scale.

Carrizozo—Good progress is reported in the Gallinas district, the Deadwood, Red Cloud and other properties are working, and some of them are shipping to the El Paso smelter. Chas. Spence of White Oaks, who owns a number of properties in the Gallinas district, is preparing to do considerable assessment work in that district. It is reported that the recent sale under execution of the Corona Queen properties will lead up to the re-opening of the properties. Some rich copper, gold and silver ore has been taken out of the property.

Mogollon—The Pacific mine is to be operated under the management of the Oaks company, the lease being out on September 24. The company allowed the lessees two days to clean up the ore in the mine. They will continue work for the company. A new tunnel has been started about half way between the lower tunnel and the south shaft. It is reported that the company will sink the south shaft as soon as it gets the other work started. Preparations are being made to work placer gravel that has been found in the gulches around the Buffalo group. Ore has been struck in the new tunnel at the Independent mine. Assays of from $25 to $67 in gold and silver have been obtained from different parts of the vein.

THE WEATHER FOR AUGUST

The month of August, 1912, in New Mexico, averaged slightly below the normal in temperature, a little above the normal in rainfall, and practically normal in sunshine and wind movement. The deficiency in temperature was general over the state, except for a small area extending from eastern Socorro county and the Capitan mountains northeast to southern Union and Quay counties, where a slight excess occurred, greatest in the vicinity of Socorro and over northern Quay county. On the other hand, quite a marked deficiency occurred in central and western Grant county, southern Dona Ana, western Mora and San Miguel, and from western Valencia county northward along the western border. Rather warm weather prevailed at the beginning of the month and continued, with little interruption, until the 13th, when heavy thunderstorms relieved the heat. A second period of fairly high temperature occurred from the 22d or 23d to the 29th or 30th, and the month closed with cooler weather overspreading the state. The only marked cool period, however, occurred from the 14th to the 21st, although low night temperatures (and in many instances the lowest of the month) occurred from the 2d or 3d to the 9th. The highest temperature of the month occurred variously on the 2d, 3d, 7th to 12th, and 25th to 29th, while the coolest day was generally the 15th or 16th.

The precipitation of the month was very local in character, coming largely as local thunder showers. Some of these were heavy, resulting in considerable delay to traffic and loss to farming industry as well as damaging roads and highways. One of the remarkable features of the month was the large amount of rain in the lower Rio Grande valley and extreme southwest, extending thence eastward over the Sacramento valley and Capitan mountains to central Lincoln county and, in a narrow strip, through Chaves to Curry county. Many localities in southern Dona Ana county received as much rainfall during the month as usually falls in a year. Districts in Roosevelt, Quay, Union, Colfax, Mora, San Miguel, Sierra and Socorro counties, as well as the Manzano and Sandia mountains, also received heavy rainfall. And generally the dry farming regions were fortunate, receiving abundant rainfall, although south-east Chaves and most of Eddy county were dry and in western New Mexico, McKinley, San Juan, western Valencia and northwest Socorro counties were dry.

The sunshine of the month was practically normal; there were 12 clear days, 15 partly cloudy and 4 cloudy, while 0.01 inch or more precipitation occurred on 9 days. There was 77 per cent of the total possible sunshine at Santa Fe and 67 per cent at Roswell. The humidity was low, winds were light and prevailing southwesterly, and the month was a pleasant, favorable one.

TEMPERATURE.

The mean temperature for the month, determined from the records of 87 stations, having a mean altitude of about 5,000 feet, was 70.2 degrees, or 0.6 degree below the normal, and 0.5 degree below August, 1911. The highest local monthly mean was 79.8 degrees at Artesia and Carlsbad, and the lowest 56.4 degrees at Elizabethtown. The highest recorded temperature was 104 degrees at Artesia on the 10th, and the lowest 29 degrees at Elizabethtown on the 7th. The greatest local monthly range in temperature was 60 degrees at Taylor, and the least 31 degrees at Clondcroft, while the greatest local daily range was 58 degrees at Bluewater on the 7th. The district averages were as follows: No. 7, 10.8 degrees; No. 8, 69.9 degrees; No. 9, 69.0 degrees.

PRECIPITATION.

The average precipitation, as determined from the records of 153 stations, was 2.86 inches, or 0.34 inch above the normal, and 1.05 inches greater than August, 1911. The greatest monthly amount was 7.05 at Berino, and the least 0.10 near Los Lunas, at the Richard Pohl ranch. The greatest amount in any 24 hours was 4.95 inches at Clovis on the 14th from 7:45 to 11 p. m. The district averages were as follows: No. 7, 2.89 inches; No. 8, 2.85 inches; No. 9, 2.82 inches.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 11.—Charges that Robert G. Valentine who resigned yesterday as commissioner of Indian affairs, took liquor with him on an official visit to an Indian reservation in Oklahoma, will be investigated by the department of justice, it was learned here today.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 11.—The allegation that the commissioner had violated the law was made several months ago at a congressional hearing before a committee investigating the Indian affairs.

A person, whose name is not disclosed, recently called the charges to the attention of the department of justice and was informed by the acting attorney general that the subject would be taken up.

MALARIA—BLOOD POVERTY

Malaria is a species of blood poverty known as Anemia; the circulation becomes so weak and impure that it is unable to supply the system with sufficient nourishment and strength to preserve ordinary health. In the first stages of Malaria the complexion grows pale and sallow, the appetite is affected, the system grows bilious, and there is a general feeling of weakness. As the circulation becomes more thoroughly saturated with the malarial infection, the digestion is deranged, chills and fever come and go, skin diseases, boils, sores and ulcers break out, and the entire health becomes impaired. Malaria can only be cured by removing the germs from the blood. S. S. S. destroys every particle of malarial infection and builds up the blood to a strong nourishing condition. Then the system receives its proper amount of nutriment, sallow complexions grow ruddy and healthy, the liver and digestion are righted and every symptom of Malaria passes away. S. S. S. cures in every case because it purifies the blood. S. S. S. is a safe and pleasant remedy as well as an efficient one. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

and Rafael Campa from the west. The combined force is reported to number about 1,000 rebels, all well armed and equipped.

NO INTERVENTION YET.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 11.—Intervention in Mexico seemed a step farther off today. Rebel raiding along the border is expected to be ended by the Mexican federals who are to be permitted to cross Texas and New Mexico to attack the insurgents along the frontiers of Chihuahua and Sonora.

While one force of federals moves down from the northern boundary, another force is being worked up by the Southern Pacific line in Mexico. The plan is to catch the rebels between the two forces. Representatives of the republic here assert this move will only transfer the seat of war from the border to the mountains.

Madero's movement of troops to the north is in response to the demand of this government that Americans be protected. The movement now under way is expected to quiet the situation, for the present at least.

United States troops ordered to the border, will move forward just the same, and others at posts throughout the west are ready.

There is a possibility that Mexican federals may not be entrained at El Paso at all. Officials here are reluctant to give the rebels the advantage of knowing in advance where the federals will enter the United States, the time of their entrainment, or at which point they are likely to re-cross into Mexico. It had been planned to take them from El Paso to Douglas, but there is an intimation this plan may not be carried out. The supply of rifles and ammunition the United States is attempting to place in the hands of American colonists in northern Mexico for their own protection, was reported today detained at Warren, north of Naco. Rebel activity along the boundary, west of El Paso, was reported today to the war department.

Brigadier General Schuyler, from Huachuca, Ariz., reported many rebels just across the border. His last night's dispatch says a force of 700 men, under Rojas and Tampa, disabled a train south of Naco and took possession of San Pedro, covering the Del Rio railway which they disabled. They threatened to dynamite the bridges on the line if any efforts were made to repair the railroad.

FACE DESPERATE CONDITION.

Agua Prieta, Mex., Sept. 11.—Douglas sought to rescue eight American women from the beleaguered mining camp of El Tigre, but was compelled when confronted by rebel bands of marauders, to send them back to Ys. Americans across the line will attempt to rescue the women in automobiles.

Douglas said that Nacozari railroad was completely out of commission, the rebels having burned twenty-seven bridges within a distance of ten miles, and destroyed everything along the right of way. He added that the rebels had also destroyed a ranch house near Fronteras and carried the American owner away as a prisoner. The women and children at Fronteras have little to eat and their condition is desperate.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 11.—Reports from the south of Mexico indicate serious conditions there. Renewed rebel activity is reported from Guanajuato, Michoacan and Jalisco, where there are daily engagements between the federal and rebel bands. The rebels are said to show increasing boldness.

DELAY IN SENDING MEN.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 11.—A number of passenger coaches and baggage cars were sent to Juarez this morning by the El Paso & Southwestern railroad, at the request of the Mexican federal garrison, but this afternoon at 2 o'clock the railroad officials said they had not been asked to come after the loaded cars and did not know when the troops would be moved to

Agua Prieta.

There are several hundred federal soldiers in Juarez, but there seems to be no haste to land any of them to go to Sonora. For several days rebels have been reported in the immediate vicinity of Juarez, but there has been no activity in the Juarez garrison so far as noted.

TELEPHONE LINE DOWN.

Marfa, Texas, Sept. 11.—The telephone line between here and Presidio, Texas, was out of order this afternoon delaying details of the battle. There is no apparent explanation for the difference between the reports reaching here and those Brigadier General Steever obtained at El Paso. Dispatches to General Steever would pass through Marfa and would come from Presidio, the same as did local reports of the rebel victory.

RICH MEN FACE INDICTMENTS

Denver, Colo., Sept. 11.—More than a score of present and former city officials and prominent business men of Denver appeared today in the criminal division of the district court and gave bond to appear to answer charges contained in grand jury indictments. In each case the bond was fixed at $10,000, except in the case of the present city officials who were released on their own recognizance. The cases were set for hearing October 5.

The charges against present and former city officials accuse them of failure to enforce laws against opium. Among those appearing in these cases were:

Mayor Henry J. Arnold, Chief of Police O'Neill, A. A. Bihely, George Creel and Thomas J. McGraw, members of the fire and police board, former Mayor R. W. Speer; former Chief of Police Hamilton Armstrong; W. T. Davoren, Earl Hewett and D. A. Borton, members of the fire and police board, under the Speer administration.

The present city officers were represented by counsel from the city attorney's office and the former city officials by Attorney H. Lindsey. All these are in the city except former Mayor R. W. Speer and Attorney Lindsey informed the court that he would return to Denver by October 1.

Among those who appeared to answer charges of renting property for immoral purposes:

The International Trust company and its officers; Bennett R. Myers, real estate firm; and about thirty individuals.

Mountains States' Telephone and Telegraph company and President E. B. Field and Vice-President E. B. Field, Jr., indicted on a charge of obstructing public streets were represented by counsel and furnished bond. The city attorney's office asked the court for a copy of the indictment against the telephone company based on the contention that it is an interesting party in litigation involving that corporation.

The members of the school board, charged with failure to observe the city's fire ordinance in equipping school buildings, who appeared in person or through counsel were Stephen R. Knight, Mrs. M. W. Jones, D. E. Phillips, John W. Gillespie and P. V. Carlin.

JUDGE BISCHOFF GRANTS STAY IN BECKER TRIAL.

New York, N. Y., Sept. 11.—Supreme Court Justice Bischoff today granted a stay in the Becker trial, delaying the case until October 1. This was granted, on application of John F. McIntyre, Becker's counsel, for the appointment of a commission to take the testimony of persons in Hot Springs, Ark., who talked with Sam Schrepps, and his captors. The aldermanic investigating committee decided to resume its work Friday when Police Commissioner Waldo will testify.

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

Do not sap the springs of life by neglect of the human mechanism, by allowing the accumulation of poisons in the system. An imitation of Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and nervous strength is to take an alternative glyceric extract (without alcohol) of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the proper elements from food, help the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough. No one ever takes cold unless constipated, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. The "Discovery" is an all-round tonic which restores tone to the blood, nerves and heart by imitating Nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart and lungs on rich red blood.

"I suffered from pain under my right shoulder blade also a very severe cough," writes Mrs. W. Doss, of New Brooklyn, S. C., to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "I had four different doctors and none did me any good. Some said I had consumption, others said I would have to take an alternative glyceric extract (without alcohol) of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the proper elements from food, help the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough. ## INTERVENTION MUST COME SOON

U. S. SENATOR CATRON, JUST BACK FROM WASHINGTON, SAYS UNCLE SAM CAN SCARCELY AVOID INTERVENTION IN OLD MEXICO AND AT AN EARLY DATE—MUST UPHOLD MONROE DOCTRINE

That the United States will have to intervene in Old Mexico and intervene nightly soon, was the expressed opinion of United States Senator Thomas B. Catron of New Mexico, in discussing the situation on the border.

"I dare say there is no man in the United States more adverse to war than President Taft," continued the senator, "but the president has to uphold the Monroe doctrine. If he does not step into Mexico and protect the lives of thousands of foreigners in that country—lives now menaced greatly—what is there left for foreign countries to do but to go into Mexico?"

"There is another phase to be considered and that is the presence of hundreds of thousands of Americans in Old Mexico and property running into millions of dollars in value. Doubtless it will be a very disagreeable task for this government to throw an army into a neighboring republic, torn by dissensions as is Mexico at this time; doubtless it would cost this country both life and money but the sacrifice will be worth while. We can not let matters run along as they are now without taking a determined stand to protect lives dear to this country and to foreign governments."

Mr. Catron had several talks with the president on the gravity of the situation and the senator seemed to think that intervention is no longer a matter of months, but of weeks.

New Mexico may be asked to furnish two regiments to go to the border and in view of the fact that the people of this state are accustomed to the hardships of a country not greatly different from Old Mexico, the men the Sunshine state would send could prove of great help.

Besides discussing the war in Mexico, Mr. Catron showed much interest in the "civil political war" and asked news from the Duke City where the progressives today are holding forth.

BIG RAILWAYS FOR CHINA

Pekin, Sept. 11.—The project for a great scheme of Chinese railways, which holds the foremost place in Dr. Sun Yat Sen's program for the modernization of China, has commanded the support of the Pekin government, and may involve a great extension of the privileges of foreigners in the country with possibilities of an immense increase in China's foreign trade.

The government has authorized Dr. Sun Yat Sen to establish a corporation to carry out a system of national railways covering territory 70,000 miles in extent.

Chinese and foreign companies will be granted concessions throughout China proper for periods of about 40 years, after which time the lines are to revert to China.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen's proposals, which, however, are thus far without government sanction, included the opening of the whole of China proper to foreign resident enterprises, foreigners to be amenable to Chinese laws, through special courts.

CLEANED OCCASIONALLY

A WATCH will run without oil or cleaning longer than any other piece of machinery—but it needs both occasionally.

If you will consider that the rim of the balance wheel travels over fifteen miles a day, you will not grudge your watch a speck of oil and a cleaning twice a year. It will increase the life and accuracy of your watch. Leave your watch with us to-day.
