ROOSEVELT SWEEPING COUNTRY; SURELY CARRY CALIFORNIA

SO DECLARED COL. D. C. COLLIER, PRESIDENT OF SAN DIEGO $12,000,000 EXPOSITION, WHO HAS TRAVELLED FOR PAST THREE YEARS AROUND THE UNITED STATES TALKING WITH BUSINESS MEN

TAFT IS NO LONGER IN THE GREAT "PRESIDENTIAL RACE"

COLLIER'S TRIBUTE

TO ROOSEVELT.

"Col. Theodore Roosevelt is the one man in the world who has awakened in these United States what is known as a 'National Conscience'."

"Col. Theodore Roosevelt, in the six or seven years he was president of the United States, has done more than any man or set of men to keep the big fellow from gobbling up the little fellow; to enable the poor man to obtain a foothold and get ahead despite the malign influences of predatory wealth."

"Col. Theodore Roosevelt would not have been elected two weeks ago if the polls had been open, but he is gaining so rapidly every day that his friends and supporters can look with hope to Tuesday, November 5, 1912. I have gridironed this country traveling about for the San Diego exposition and I know the sentiment of the United States is turning to Roosevelt as the man to lead the country for four years of progress."

"Col. Theodore Roosevelt will carry California. I can speak dispassionately on this subject for I am not in the thick of the fight, but I am listening dispassionately to the rumbling of the wave which is to sweep the greatest man of this age back into the White House."

"Mr. Taft is already eliminated as a presidential possibility."

"Colonel David Charles Collier, president of San Diego's exposition, and real estate magnate from San Diego, spent the forenoon here today going over the details of the organization of a local real estate firm to be known as 'Collier & Owen' (incorporated) with an authorized capital of $50,000."

With Colonel Collier are George D. Easton, secretary and manager of the Western Investment company, of San Diego, a million dollar concern, and C. A. Richardson, vice-president and manager of the D. C. Collier & Co., real estate firm of San Diego. Colonel Collier leaves tonight for New York City to meet a delegation of celebrities from Brazil, sent to this country to look over the plans and grounds of the San Diego exposition with a view of participation in 1915.

The Brazilians are Dr. Eugenio Dahne, commissioner to the United States from the department of agriculture, industry and commerce; Dr. Argollo, special delegate from the state of Bahia; Count Candido Mendes de Almeida, director of the national commercial museum and secretary permanent of the national exposition commission; Rear Admiral Jose Carlos Carvalho, retired, and others.

The visit of these prominent Brazilians to the United States follows the tour of South America made recently by Colonel Collier, resulting in his making "profound impression on South American republics," according to the leading journal of Buenos Aires.

Wearing his soft shirt, for which he is famed, and his smile which has ever shone on his features for the past one and forty years, Colonel Collier today discussed real estate, city building, politics and expositions.

CAPITALIZE CLIMATE.

"You have a superb climate here," he said, "and all you must do is capitalize it. I am delighted to hear you are to rename so many streets and give them old Spanish names which will be grateful to the eyes and ears of the tourist visiting this Ancient City. Get the word around the country what Santa Fe has to offer and make provision for the tourists needs—that's the way to build up Santa Fe."

"I am already interested here and over near the Pecos forest and I am glad to come into New Mexico. When I spoke to the representative of the New Mexican eight months ago about my yearning to invest in Santa Fe, little did I realize that I would be interested financially so soon. But I am glad of it for I really believe that New Mexico will forge ahead with greater celerity during the next ten years than any other state in the union."

ROOSEVELT A WINNER.

"Politics? Is it proper for me, associated with so many men on our big exposition, to discuss politics? It is? Well, here goes. You may say for me that California is going to be carried by Roosevelt and not Wilson—of course, we are not discussing Mr. Taft's chances for I think it is pretty well conceded that he is eliminated from the presidential race."

"Roosevelt will carry California, despite the strong opposition from some big influential men."

"I travel around the United States 'somewhat.' I have had to go around this country several times in the past three years, speaking in scores of cities and talking with hundreds and thousands of men—voters, all of 'em."

"I really believe that even up to two weeks if an election had been held for president, Woodrow Wilson would have won. But steadily is the sentiment turning to Roosevelt, as far as I can judge and so strongly that on November 5 his friends and supporters will, I think, find him sent back to the White House."

"Of course, political prophets take a tremendous task on their hands and there is no telling how the great mass of the people—the millions who decide the contest, may suddenly make up their minds about casting that ballot."

Giving further reasons for his belief in Mr. Roosevelt, Colonel Collier paid the tributes to him which appear above.

HIS METEORIC CAREER.

Colonel Collier has had a meteoric career from a Colorado mountaineer born in a log cabin to a figure of national and international prominence, head of a $12,000,000 exposition and big real estate firms, traveling around the country in private cars with the great and learned of foreign lands.

The colonel was born in Central City, Colorado, 1871; educated in the public schools and was admitted to the bar in 1891; practiced as a lawyer, with special attention to real estate cases, until 1905; in 1904 organized the Ralston Realty company, later succeeded by D. C. Collier company of which he is president and which is one of the leading firms in San Diego in real estate offices. Collier was lieutenant colonel on the staff of Governor J. N. Gillett, governor of California 1907-11. He has been a delegate to republican state, county and city conventions and member of the central committee. He was mentioned as a candidate for congress from southern California, but declined to enter the race because of the attention he had to devote to San Diego's exposition.

He is a member of the American Academy of Political and Social Science; of the American Forestry society; of the National Geographical society, and of the California Historical society. He belongs to as many if not more clubs and organizations as any man in the United States. Some of them are: New York Athletic, Rocky Mountain (N. Y.), Colorado Traffic (Denver), Toltec (El Paso), Pacific Union, Union League, Bohemian, Army and Navy (San Francisco), Jonathan (Los Angeles), Aero, of which he is president, Cuyamaca, Cabrillo, Country, Yacht and Rowing (San Diego).

The 1912-1913 "Who's Who" states that Colonel D. C. Collier's "home" is at Ocean Beach, near San Diego, but in the 1914 "Who's Who" it will be stated that his summer home is over near the Pecos forest, close to Santa Fe.

A CHILDHOOD ROMANCE IS CONSUMMATED

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 8.—A romance involving a youthful marriage, a divorce and another marriage and extending from Pueblo, Colorado, to Los Angeles, came to light today when it was learned that Emory Cobb and Harriett Fairall Cobb, of the Colorado city, had obtained a marriage license here.

They divulged the fact that they had been boy and girl sweethearts and had been married when Emory was 20 and his bride 17 years old. For two years they lived together, but to please their parents the wife obtained a divorce. They had arranged, however, to be re-married as soon as the wife should reach the age of 21, and the couple will soon be man and wife again.

COMING—SOME SPORTING ECLIPSES.

WILSON IS IN KANSAS

People from many counties of western Kansas gathered here today to hear Governor Woodrow Wilson's first set speech of his cross state journey. His two principal speeches in Kansas were to be made here and in Topeka. Plans called for two addresses in Kansas City tonight, one at a democratic banquet and one in convention hall.

Norton, Kas., Oct. 8.—That "very men who have been most successful in building up the trusts are also the very men who have been most successful in preventing the organization of labor," was the contention of Governor Woodrow Wilson in an address here today devoted largely to what he characterized as "the pervasive power of the great interests which now dominate our development."

"Don't you know," he asked, "that one of the objects of their combination is to control the labor market? And do you imagine that they have ever set deliberate plans for giving the workman anything comparable in the way of wages to the proportion of the profits which they themselves pocket? They do not have to give the laboring man any more than he can get in the competition of the market. And they do not give him any more. As a matter of fact, some of the most highly productive industries in this country pay very much lower wages than the unprotected industries. And some of the most highly protected industries pay wages that are below the living scale, at the same time that the prices they are making are so great that they can build new factories out of their surplus every second year. It is one of the grandest pieces of bluff and humbug that has ever been known in the history of political deception."

"I want to widen the market for American labor. I want to see conditions exist in which men will compete for American labor. I want again to see a time come when we shall realize that the highest priced labor in the world is the cheapest labor in the world, that what is produced by brains and intelligence and skillful touch is a great deal cheaper than what is produced by stupidity and dullness and the whip of the master."

"I tell you this, that American labor up to date, is the cheapest in the world. I can prove it. American manufacturers compete in foreign markets in the scale of goods manufactured in those markets, near those markets, by labor that receive only one-third the remuneration of American labor. Now, what does that mean? It means they can afford to pay American workmen three times as much and still undersell their competitors in the foreign markets, and yet the American workman is told that the amount of his wages depends upon the protective tariff. It doesn't. It depends upon him. It depends upon what is inside of his thinking box. And when you once get to a system of regulated monopoly, then you get to a system of controlled labor, don't forget that. Narrow the lines of competition and you stiffen the lines of labor control. You have not now a free market for your labor any more than you have a free market for your commodities; for under this system of monopoly, regulated or unregulated, the monopolist can determine the amount of goods to be produced, and therefore determine the amount of laborers to be employed and the prices that the goods are to bring."

"As I travel from one part of the

MONTENEGRO OPENS WAR AGAINST TURKEY AND FIGHTING BEGINS

LONG EXPECTED BREAK IN THE BALKANS COMES SUDDENLY JUST AS POWERS WERE ABOUT TO INTERVENE TO PREVENT IT—LITTLE STATES WILL FIGHT AGAINST ANCIENT ENEMY

PASSPORTS HANDED AMBASSADORS BY OPPOSING GOVERNMENTS TO-DAY

CETTINJE, OCT. 8.—MONTENEGRO FORMALLY DECLARED WAR ON TURKEY THIS MORNING. THE DECLARATION WAS DELIVERED EARLY TODAY TO THE PORTE BY THE MONTENEGRO CHARGE D'AFFAIRES. HEAVY FIGHTING IS IN PROGRESS ALONG THE FRONTIER.

A news agency dispatch from Cetinje this morning says that war has been declared by Montenegro on Turkey.

The declaration of war, the dispatch continues, was delivered to the Ottoman government by the Montenegrin Charge D'Affaires at Constantinople.

Heavy fighting is said to be already in progress between the Montenegrins and the Turkish troops along the frontier. A brigade of nine battalions of Turkish infantry proceeding from Scutari to Tusi on the Montenegrin frontier was attacked last evening by a large force of Malisori tribesmen just before reaching Tusi. The battle, according to the dispatch, still was proceeding this morning.

A further dispatch from the same source says that the Montenegrin government instructed its representatives at Constantinople to break off all diplomatic relations with Turkey today and to leave Constantinople immediately. The Montenegrin government at the same time is said to have handed his passports to the Ottoman Charge D'Affaires at Cetinje.

Constantinople, Oct. 8.—The Montenegrin Charge D'Affaires asked for his passports from the Turkish government today. He will leave here later today.

Paris, Oct. 8.—The French government regards the report that Montenegro has declared war on Turkey as correct, according to an announcement made at the foreign office this afternoon.

Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 8.—Reports reached here today that Montenegrin troops had crossed the Turkish frontier.

The Serbian parliament today voted an extra credit of $8,500,000 for military purposes and merchants are making large donations to the funds being raised for the assistance of poor families. Three hundred beds with seven doctors and forty-five nurses sent by the Russian Red Cross society, arrived today.

London, Oct. 8.—The declaration of war on Turkey reported from Cetinje, said to have been made today by the little kingdom of Montenegro, forestalled the action of the European powers in favor of peace by only a few hours.

The ambassadors at Constantinople and the ministers at the capitals of Bulgaria, Serbia, Greece and Montenegro have been instructed to make representations in behalf of their governments today and a despatch from Belgrade affirms that their program has been carried out there. It was officially announced in Constantinople that diplomatic relations with Montenegro have been broken off.

It is thought likely that the other Balkan states may decide to follow the lead of Montenegro and throw their armies into Turkey.

The situation of the Christians in Albania and Macedonia and the demand of the Balkan states that those provinces should be granted autonomous government are the main causes of the crisis.

Dispatches from Constantinople received during the night say military patrols were going round the city requisitioning all the horses. The military authorities, too, had placed troops on a large number of Greek steamers which they had seized in Turkish waters and it is said these are to be used for the transport of troops.

The Greek legation has ordered the masters of the vessels to land the crews.

Pueblo, Colo., Oct. 8.—Dispatches today announcing the declaration of war on Turkey by Montenegro has been followed by a hurried call for a meeting here of all the Greeks in this vicinity. Greeks in Pueblo say that within a short time more than 1,000 of their countrymen will be here, ready to start for their native land as soon as orders are received from the Greek minister in Washington.

About 150 Greeks arrived here this morning from Grand Junction to join their countrymen.

A meeting of Greeks was held last night, at which funds were raised to aid in paying the expenses of transporting their families back home.

ANOTHER STORY OF HARRIMAN'S CONTRIBUTIONS

Washington, D. C., Oct. 8.—Another chapter was added to the disputed story of the so-called Harriman $240,000 contribution to the republican campaign of 1904 when Wayne MacVeagh, of Philadelphia today told the Clapp committee of a telephone conversation H. McK. Twombly had with the late E. H. Harriman, in 1904.

Mr. MacVeagh said that while in Mr. Twombly's office in 1904, the latter had a telephone talk and told him that it was with Mr. Harriman; that Mr. Harriman had said he had been to the White House; that President Roosevelt had expressed anxiety that $240,000 be raised, and that Mr. Harriman had agreed to it.

Charles A. Peabody, president of the Mutual Life Insurance company, Mr. MacVeagh said, was in Mr. Harriman's office when Mr. Harriman was talking with Mr. Twombly. Mr. MacVeagh testified that he had been given to understand that in making contributions in 1904, Mr. Twombly represented the Vanderbilt railroad interests; Henry C. Frick, the coal and steel interests, and John D. Archbold and the late H. H. Rogers, Standard Oil interests.

Representative William B. McKinley, pre-convention manager for President Taft presented to the Clapp committee today accounts showing he had spent about $290,000 for the president's candidacy. He said $150,000 was subscribed by Henry W. Taft, and Charles P. Taft, the president's brothers and that John Hayes Hammond, E. T. Statesbury and Andrew Carnegie gave $25,000 each.

Ormsby McHarg, contest manager for the Roosevelt forces, at the Chicago republican convention, told the committee that he spent between $25,000 and $30,000 in pre-convention work for Colonel Roosevelt's candidacy through the southern states.

Mr. MacVeagh had objected to relating the incidents because the men concerned were dead and unable to testify but the committee insisted. Mr. Twombly represented, he understood, the Vanderbilt interests; Mr. Frick represented commercial and steel interests; Mr. Archbold and Mr. Rogers Standard Oil interests and George J. Gould, leading railroad interests.

MINERS FAMILIES ARE EVICTED BY DEPUTY SHERIFF

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 8.—Distressing scenes were witnessed along Cabine creek today when deputy sheriffs evicted the families of striking miners from homes they had occupied since the mines were opened. The evictions are being closely watched by the military to prevent mistreatment. The strikers were notified two months ago that they must return to work or move. An investigation of the charge that the men of Company E, First West Virginia Infantry, had been drinking, was begun by Adjutant General Elliott today.

BURNING MAN JUMPS TO DEATH.

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 8.—Thomas Reyes, a cement worker, who, cloaked in flames, leaped from the second story of a blazing building last night and fell unconscious on the ground, was so badly burned that his life was despaired of today. Reyes' leap was witnessed by hundreds of people. He said he had lain down to sleep early in the evening and did not wake until his bed and his clothing were aflame.

NOT SALTS AND PILLS. "CASCARETS"

If Constipated; Bilious, Head-
achy, Stomach Sour,
Take a Cascaret.

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache,
coated tongue, foul taste and foul
breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious,
nervous and upset, bothered
with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach,
or have back-ache and feel worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with
salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?
This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep;
cleanse and regulate the stomach,
remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated
waste matter and poison in the intestines
and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten
you out by morning—a 10-cent box
from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets
because they taste good—do
good—never gripe or sicken.

BIGGEST FAIR EVER HELD IS AT ALBUQUERQUE

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 8.—With Lincoln Beachey doing death-defying
"stunts" in midair, with Silver City
and Albuquerque playing the opening game of the baseball tournament for cash prizes aggregating $2500, and
with extensive agriculture, horticulture
and livestock exhibits, together
with poultry, farming machinery,
automobiles and pumps on display,
New Mexico's thirty-second annual state fair was formally opened at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Traction park under the most auspicious circumstances in the history of a state exposition.

Though the weather was cloudy, it was not uncomfortably cool and there was no rain to dampen the enthusiasm
of the several thousand in attendance.
While the crowd was not a record-breaker, it was the largest for an opening day of any previous fair and the arrivals during the afternoon and
last night justify the belief that the attendance this year is to be the greatest Albuquerque has ever enjoyed
at its annual state-wide exposition.

Without doubt the biggest features
of the afternoon's varied program
were the two flights made by Lincoln Beachey in a Curtiss biplane. Beachey lived up to his reputation as the world's greatest birdman by his death-defying stunts in each flight. He started the first flight promptly at 3:30 as scheduled and, after getting up, began to execute the most startling evolutions any aviator ever has been known to attempt in this altitude.
He flew in a machine without
extension planes, such as the lamented Charles F. Walsh flew with here a year ago, in the belief that a man could not rise in this light air unless
his machine was equipped with them,
and also without front planes, such as Walsh also used on his machine. The arrangement of his 26-foot biplane enables the spectators to see Beachey
plainly and he flew yesterday in each of his flights close enough to the grand stand and to the ground for one to touch his machine or speak to him. In fact, Beachey electrified the crowd assembled by his seemingly fool-hardy and dare-devil capers. He calls it "playing around," and doesn't seem to appreciate the actual hair-
raising feats he performs in his great man-built bird.

TRAGEDY IN THE LOSS OF HER JOB CAUSED SHOOTING

The arrival here Sunday in the custody of deputy sheriffs of Mrs.
Carley, night telegraph operator for the Santa Fe Railway company at Ricardo, a station on the Belen cutoff between Vaughn and Fort Sumner brought the details of a double tragedy
at Ricardo, Saturday afternoon, in which George Bresnahan, a business man, was shot and killed by Mrs.
Carley, and Miss Okey Zimmerman, postmistress at Ricardo, probably fatally wounded. Mrs. Carley is now
a prisoner in the county jail here,
and without a bail.

According to the stories of residents
of Ricardo, and the story told by
Mrs. Carley, and the Sun editor Monday there had been ill feeling for some weeks between the two victims
and herself dating back to a quarrel
over a cow owned by the Carleys,
which got loose and trespassed on Zimmerman's property. At the time Miss Zimmerman and Bresnahan were alleged to have threatened to shoot
the cow but were dissuaded from doing so by Mrs. Carley, who arrived
upon the scene with a small target
rifle, and told them if they shot the cow she would shoot them.

This quarrel resulted in some one,
presumably Bresnahan and Miss Zimmerman, reporting Mrs. Carley to the division superintendent at Clovis,
with the result that that official is
said to have written her a letter, severely reprimanding her. This letter incensed Mrs. Carley greatly and aroused in her a bitter hatred for those whom she believed reported her.

A few weeks ago the father of Miss Zimmerman was said to have brought
a couple of watermelons to the station placing them on the platform. He went away, and Carley, in a spirit of fun, is said to have painted them with stripes. When Zimmerman returned for the melons he was greatly angered
by the supposed joke and threw the melons on the ground, destroying them.

Saturday afternoon, while Carley,
who is the day agent for the Santa Fe at Ricardo, was working on the wire, he got a message from the superintendent, so the story goes, notifying Mrs. Carley that a relief operator was on the way to Ricardo and that she was no longer in the company's employ. Her husband immediately handed the message to her,
she being in the office at the time.

Mrs. Carley, who was very proud of her position and took great pride
in it, felt the disgrace of losing it
keenly, and if her story told in jail
Monday, is to be believed, it suddenly unbalanced her mind. She says that she opened the drawer of her desk in which she kept a revolver, and taking the weapon out, examined it. She says she made up her mind to kill Bresnahan and Miss Zimmerman,
whom she blamed for the loss of her position, but on further thought decided this would not be right and
placed the pistol in the drawer again.
From that point until she was aboard
the train bound for Santa Rosa in charge of the officers who arrested her,
she claims her mind was a blank
and that until then she did not realize what she had done, the details of the tragedy coming back to her as in a dream. It is presumed that Mrs. Carley, on seeing Bresnahan walking toward
the postoffice across the street,
just at the time she had been notified of her discharge, was seized with a mania for revenge, for she went directly across the street to the postoffice. Entering it, she fired three shots at Miss Zimmerman, who was attending to her work as postmistress.
One bullet struck her forehead, but was deflected. The other pierced her right lung. Bresnahan then rushed into the office and Mrs. Carley it is said, turned upon him, shooting him
through the arm and the abdomen, inflicting mortal wounds from which he died afterwards.

Her husband declares she was insane at the time of the shooting and the Sun man who talked with her at the jail here shares the belief that she is still insane. People at Ricardo say the woman has shown signs
of insanity for some time past.

The grand jury, which was to have been discharged Saturday was held in session until Monday when it investigated the tragedy, and returned an indictment against Mrs. Carley.
Numerous witnesses have been summoned from Ricardo, including Carley, husband of the slayer. Mrs. Carley
will probably be formally arraigned
in a few days on a charge of murder.

Mrs. Carley was brought before the court and an examination into her mental condition resulted in finding that she was insane. She will be sent to the asylum in Las Vegas in a few days; at present she is occupying the woman's ward in jail. Her husband J. E. Carley was here during the examination and left for Ricardo Thursday night. Mrs. Carley has three children and is about to become a mother again.—Santa Rosa Sun.

THE SAVANTS IN ARIZONA

Grand Canyon, Ariz.—The forty

SUFFERED TORMENT WITH ECZEMA

For Many Years. On Thigh. Also
on Scalp. Awful Itching Skin.
Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Soap
and Ointment Completely Cured.

Lebanon, O.—"My eczema started on my thigh with a small pimple. It also came on my scalp. It began to itch and I began to scratch. For eighteen or twenty years I could not tell what I passed through with that awful itching.
I would scratch until the blood would soak through my underwear, and I couldn't talk to my friends on the street but I would be digging and punching that itching with my fingers. The itching was so intense I could not sleep after once in bed and warm. I certainly suffered torment with that eczema for many years.
I tried almost everything I ever heard of;
all to no avail. I saw the advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a sample. Imagine my delight when I applied the first dose to that awful itching
fire on my leg and scalp, in less than a minute the itching on both places ceased.
I got some more Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After the second day I never had another itching spell, and Cuticura Soap and Ointment completely cured me. I was troubled with awful dandruff all over my scalp. The Cuticura Soap has cured that too. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Ad-

11,500 feet above the sea, from which they climbed to a neighboring peak
on the continental divide at an elevation of more than 12,000 feet. As the party included men who had climbed
and studied mountains in all quarters
of the globe the days spent in the high country of Colorado were full of interest and there were many comparisons made between these mountains and the elevated regions in other parts of the world.

Prof. Emil Clark of the University of Geneva, who formerly was president of the Swiss Alpine club and is one of the strongest pedestrians in the party, found the climbing easy as compared with many of the ascents
he had made in his native land. He said that the Colorado mountains he had seen have gentle slopes and rounded forms compared with the Swiss Alps. The Colorado highlands have large plateaus whereas the level places in the Swiss mountains
are small and are often used as pastures for cattle and goats.

In Colorado Professor Chaix was struck by the elevated tree line. The trees grew almost as high as they climbed whereas in Switzerland they reached hardly half that elevation. He believed that the Swiss Alps tree line
had been artificially lowered for the herders on the elevated pastures of the Alps had cut the trees as they needed fuel.

Another aspect of the Colorado
mountains appeared to Joseph Patsch
professor of geography in the University of Leipzig. He was astonished at the enterprise and engineering
skill of the men who had built the railroads in, through and over the Rocky mountains. The heights these railroads reached were amazing to a foreigner and far surpassed anything
attained by the standard steam railroads of Europe. Comparing them with roads in about the same latitude
abroad, Patsch said that in the Pyrenees, between France and Spain,
the only railroads were built close to the seacoast on the east and west
where the elevations were very low,
and that there were no railroads at all in the higher Pyrenees. Even in the Alps the great railways pierced
the mountains by tunnels at elevations only a few thousand feet, while in Colorado several of the main lines
reached heights of from 10,000 to 12,
000 feet and the Rockies were crossed and re-crossed many times by the steel rails.

COLLEGE LEAGUES TO AID NEW PARTY ALSO

New York City, Oct. 8.—A federation of college progressive leagues was formed today at the National Progressive headquarters with Philip J. Roosevelt of Harvard as president, F. F. Blachley of Columbia University as secretary, and Roger W. Straus of Princeton as treasurer.

There are 280,000 college students so far enrolled at the colleges and universities in the United States, and out of this number it appears probable, from telegrams today received throughout the country, that more than one-third of these are progressives. These telegrams were sent to different students and it appears that of their own accord, the students now entering are beginning to form progressive leagues. One of the reasons given in explanation of the fact of these organizations formed so early and so promptly is that college students are attempting to remove the stigma implied in "Stover of Yale", is that they know nothing of modern affairs and of modern government.

As a matter of fact, it appears that the majority of these college students who are so warmly engaged in keeping abreast of modern government, are real progressives. Another fact which leads to the same conclusion is that practically all of the law and economics professors of all universities and colleges, are men of progressive principles and in many cases, avowed members of the "Bull Moose" party. At Columbia University there are nearly 600 members of the league, which has organized with P. P. Ferguson, student editor of the Law Review, as president. Of the Columbia University professors, Dean Kirchway of the law school, is an ardent progressive. Professor Samuel McCune Lindsay, professor of social legislation, and Professor E. R. A. Seligman, who occupies the chair of economics, are also progressive. Professor Joel Spingarn, the professor of Columbia who retired last winter after an altercation with President Butler, is also in the progressive ranks, and is now at progressive state headquarters working in that capacity.

B. B. Cohen wired today from Chicago that there were already 500 student members of the progressive league of the University of Chicago.

Of these 500 there are at least one-fifth women students.

News comes from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., that Roderick Facloed has organized a progressive league among the students there.

Walter B. Jones wired from the University of Oregon that nearly one-half of the students of that institution had promised to work actively for the progressives.

I. K. Starkweather wired from the Brown University at Providence, that many students there were enthusiastic "Bull Mooseers."

E. Bacon has organized at Harvard a progressive league, with the majority of the law school students enrolled as members, not to speak of the great body of Harvard students who are working for the progressives.

Annan Raymond of the University of Nebraska, has enrolled several hundred students at Lincoln to work as progressives.

Professor Alfred Hayes of Cornell University is at present occupied in organizing a progressive league, of which he states that probably one-third of the students have promised to become members.

At Yale, F. B. Serri has been elected president of a progressive league just organized and states that he expects an enrollment of at least 1500 students as workers in the progressive cause.

At the same time that these students are organizing progressive leagues, they are sending in handsome campaign contributions to the national headquarters.

It is expected that within a week there will be 150 students organized as progressives in every college and university in the United States. The southern colleges are strong for the progressives as are those of the west and east.

One of the most enthusiastic friends of the progressives is Professor Hiram Thorstenderg of Roanoke College, Virginia.

One of the most important of these college clubs will be at Princeton itself. This league has just been organized by Roger W. Straus, a Princeton student, who is a son of Oscar S. Straus, the progressive candidate for governor of New York.

TROUPE OF TRAINED SEALS IN SANTA FE OCTOBER 15

There are few people in the United States who have not at some time, or another, attended some big circus, watching act after act, until the big groups of seals come out, then everybody "sits up and takes notice." These animals from the northern seas, are very intelligent, and learn very quickly, any and all tricks they are called on to perform. How many patrons of the circus ever get close enough to this denizen of the deep and to know its real being? Very few.

Al. G. Barnes has secured a troupe of these animals for exhibition purposes, and so has arranged the place of exhibition that one can put their hands on their heads. Capt. S. McFadden, of Cape Nome Alaska, (for years overseer on the United States government reindeer farm at that point), gives a very interesting lecture, explaining the habits and traits of seals.

It must be remembered that a seal cannot live in fresh water, and sea water must be had in great quantities or they will live but a few weeks. They must also have fish that are natives of the northern waters, or none at all, and consequently one can realize as they look upon these animals that they are seeing something out of the ordinary.

This is only one of the special features presented in the Al. G. Barnes show, that will exhibit in Santa Fe on Tuesday, October 15.

H. M. Beatty, Little Rock, Ark., says: "For the past two years I suffered with kidney trouble, had severe pains across my back and over my hips that almost meant death to me at times. I used several well known kidney remedies, but got no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These I can truthfully say made me a sound and well man." For sale by all druggists.

Housework Drudgery!

Housework is drudgery for the weak woman. She brushes, dusts and scrubs, or is on her feet all day attending to the many details of the household, her back aching, her temples throbbing, nerves quivering under the stress of pain, possibly dizzy feelings. Sometimes rest in bed is not refreshing, because the poor tired nerves do not permit of refreshing sleep. The real need of weak, nervous women is satisfied by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and as Mrs. Briggs and others testify:

It Makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.
This "Prescription" removes the cause of women's weaknesses, heals inflammation and ulceration. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces restful sleep.

Dr. Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know what his "Favorite Prescription" contains, a complete list of ingredients on the bottle-wrapper. Do not let any druggist persuade you that his unknown composition is "just as good" in order that he may make a bigger profit.

Mrs. BRADLEY BRIGGS, of 529 N. Washington St., Delphos, Ohio, writes: "Having taken your 'Favorite Prescription' for a bad case of intestinal disease and constipation with 'Purifying Lotion Tablets,' I am now enjoying the best of health, and thank Dr. Pierce for his wonderful medicines which have done me a world of good."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate liver and bowels.

Effective Home Remedy for Tuberculosis

It is a serious matter when the lungs are affected. A trip away or to a sanatorium is not only expensive, but it involves separation from home and friends. Some are benefited, but few can safely return. Eckman's Alternative is effective for home treatment. For example: "231 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J. 'Gentlemen: In the fall of 1905 I contracted a very severe cold, which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise sputum, and my physician then told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alternative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1906, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now five years since my recovery has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alternative too highly. I have recommended it with excellent results.'"

(Signed) M. J. MATEM.
Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in all conditions of the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists at Zook's Pharmacy, Santa Fe.

Celso Lopez, Treasurer and Ex-Officio Collector of the County of Santa Fe, State of New Mexico, Defendants.

No. 6972.

TO THE ABOVE-NAMED DEFENDANTS:

You, and each of you, are hereby notified that there is now pending in the above court the suit of J. C. Britt against said above-named defendants, the general objects of said suit being:

(1) To foreclose certain mortgages given by the said Keystone Mining and Milling Company to the said J. C. Britt on the 12th day of May, 1910, and the 12th day of May, 1911, respectively, and which said mortgages were given to secure an indebtedness from said Keystone Mining and Milling Company to J. C. Britt, which said indebtedness now aggregates the sum of Four Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-three and 15/100 Dollars ($4783.15), with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent (7%) from August 27, 1912, and which said mortgages cover upon and convey to said J. C. Britt, as security for said indebtedness, in general, the following described property: Three unpatented mining claims publicly known as "Hondo," "Number Four Lode," "Fairview," located in the Los Cerrillos mining district in Santa Fe County, New Mexico, together with any building or buildings and improvements now standing or at any time hereafter placed on said lands, including all boilers, engines, hoists, shafting, pulleys, hangers, belting and all appliances for the transmission of power or steam and any and all fixtures in or which may be placed in any building or buildings upon said real estate or mining claims; and to sell said above-mentioned mortgaged property to satisfy said indebtedness, according to the practice of the court and to recover a judgment for any deficiency that may be found to exist on the indebtedness due the J. C. Britt from said Keystone Mining & Milling Company after applying the proceeds of the sale of said property thereon.

(2) A further object of said suit is to enjoin and estop the said defendant, The Bankers Bond Company, (a corporation organized and existing, as J. C. Britt is informed and believes, under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Oklahoma, with its principal place of business in the City of Pittsburgh in the State of Pennsylvania) from having or claiming any interest or title in and to the said property covered by the mortgages, given by the said Keystone Mining and Milling Company to said J. C. Britt (which property is hereinbefore more fully described); and that that certain deed of trust or mortgage which was on the 15th day of August, 1909, pretendedly given by the said Keystone Mining & Milling Company to the said Bankers Bond Company to secure an alleged bond issue of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000), and which said deed of trust or mortgage pretendedly covers and attempts to create a lien on the same property described in the said mortgages of the said J. C. Britt (and which have been hereinbefore more fully described), be cancelled and discharged of record; and that any and all persons claiming under said Bankers Bond Company, either as purchasers, incumbrances or otherwise may be barred and foreclosed of all right, claim, or equity of redemption in the said premises described in the said mortgages of said J. C. Britt.

MRS. GIBSON DISCOVERS WHY PITCHER JOE WOOD PAYS NO ATTENTION TO MASH NOTES: THE REASON LIVES IN KANSAS CITY—WOMAN WRITER INTERVIEWS RED SOX STAR.

(By Ida McGlone Gibson.)
"Ask Joe Wood about the girls sending him 'mash notes,'" said Jake Stahl, with a laugh. I had caught Stahl unawares and made him own up that foolish girls were the bane of the ball player's life, but he disclaimed getting them and referred me to the Red Sox star pitcher.

Just then, a youth with shoulders of a heavyweight boxer, the mouth and smooth skin of a boy, and steely blue eyes which look you straight in the face, strolled up. He wore a rah-rah suit of clothes and a dinky little hat, both hands in his trouser pockets and a most engaging smile.

"Let me present Joe Wood, our star pitcher," said Stahl.

"No wonder the girls send you mash notes," thought I, but I asked "What do you say to the girls who write you?"

Wood turned reproachful eyes upon Stahl, as he stammered: "I pay no attention to them."

"Where does the reason for your paying no attention to them live?" was my next question.

"That's right," chuckled Stahl. "Grill him good."

The boy—for the 22-year-old pitcher who has made such a phenomenal record this year is very boyish, turned at bay and "fessed up."

"Well, if you mean the real girl," he said, "she lives in Kansas City."

It must have been a boy and girl affair, for young Wood lived and was graduated from the high school in Kansas City. He started to take a law course at college, but as he says, "baseball became rather interesting about that time."

This is Wood's second year in the big league and he certainly is making good.

Continuing on the subject of "mash notes" he said: "I can't see why any girl should write to a man she has only seen on the diamond, for I think that we in uniforms are only surpassed in ugliness by the fellows in football tops."

"It's a funny thing, though, that a fellow gets these letters just after he has made a good play. I have doped it out that little Miss Homebody is anxious to get into the limelight. I'll bet she is the same girl that writes to the man who murders his wife or gets in jail for having too many of them." From which it will be seen that the girl letter writers do not get much satisfaction out of Joe.

Wood has an ambition to become the greatest pitcher of all time. He did not say this while I was talking to him, but I could see it nicely embedded in the back of his closely-cropped head, just the same.

"I never touch liquor of any kind and do not drink coffee or tea while I am playing ball," he said. "I attend strictly to the game, for I have seen many a promising player sent back to the tall grass because he could not resist eating and drinking with the friends who called him a good fellow. This restaurant good fellow business never gets you anywhere."

You can see from this that Wood is nursing an ambition which it looks as if he would accomplish. Holding the American league record for pitching, at 22, after only two years' experience in fast company, he is likely to surprise the oldest baseball statistician before he is 25. At present he is very level headed, very enthusiastic and very much determined to play the

NEW YORK.....3 8 1

Polo Grounds, N. Y., Oct. 8.—The Boston won the first game of the world's series this afternoon. Forty thousand persons saw a pitchers' battle in which Joe Wood of Boston turned back the Giants from the plate time and again with clever box work. The Giants were the first to take the lead on sharp hitting by Doyle and Murray, whose bats figured in scoring two runs for the Giants in the third inning. Tesreau, the Giants' pitcher, held the Boston hitters until the sixth when Speaker's triple and an infield out scored the Red Sox's first run. A succession of safe hits by Boston netted three runs in the seventh inning. The Giants rallied gamely in the ninth, but were only able to score one run on three hits.

Some forty thousand people surged into the vast arena of the Brush stadium today to witness the first struggle of the New York Giants, pennant winners of the National League, and the Boston Red Sox, champions of the American League, for the world's championship.

Major Gaylor of New York and Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston, joined in the cheering for their respective teams. The mayors sat together in an upper tier box.

A day of sunshine and Indian summer warmth was the pleasant portion of players and spectators. Not a cloud flecked the sky and the ball players agreed that it was a rare day for the sport.

Excited and anxious "fans" gathered before nightfall to secure the first choice of seats in the lower grandstand and back-field bleachers.

But there was no need for the all night line for when the gates were opened and the first rush of enthusiasts had been taken care of, there were still 25,000 seats to be had. All morning there was a constant pouring of spectators through the turnstiles. The lower grandstand was filled at noon. The upper stands, being reserved, were the last to fill and the teams had about finished their practice when the last spectator passed through the turnstile.

Back of the Red Sox were crowded the fans from Boston. They were there to cheer and yell and they did it with a lustiness that vied with the cries of the New York crowd. A brass band perched in a stand near the field bleachers was drowned out by the constantly cheering crowd.

The national commission held a meeting this morning and gave its instructions to the umpires.

Neither of the rival managers was prepared to announce his batting order early today for everything depend upon the selection for box work just before the game.

Uncertainty over the pitching selections indicated some jockeying of batting orders just before the umpire-in-chief cried "play ball" at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The early comers began to gather at the Brush stadium early last night. By midnight this line had grown to 500 people. It grew cold toward morning and the crowd snuggled close to the high board fence along Eighth avenue to escape a biting wind.

A woman appeared in the line just after midnight and was cheered. She was not long without feminine company. By sunrise a score of women had appeared. Club officials estimated that there were four thousand people at the gates at 6 a. m.

Boston was the favorite at $10 to $8 and $10 to $9.

Betting this morning found plenty of Boston money in sight. Bets at $5 to $5 that Boston would win if Joe Wood pitched today were popular with the visitors.

The New York team came on the field at 12:44 o'clock led by Manager John McGraw, who waved his hand as the crowd cheered. The Giants wore their home uniforms of white with thin black stripes. Larry Doyle, the Giants' second baseman and captain, was presented with an automobile. The Giants then began their batting practice.

The Red Sox came on the field five minutes later and were given a hearty cheer. The Boston players warmed up along the side lines while an army of photographers flocked over the field snapping the players.

The crowd gave vent to its enthusiasm by cheering the team members. The lower grandstand was black with people and as soon as the back aisles began to choke with the throng, the gates were closed. There were only a few bare spots in the field bleachers.

The Boston delegation, waving red flags, with the aid of a brass band, helped to keep on edge the feverish excitement of the crowd.

The umpires were: Klem, behind the bat; Evans took the bases; Rigler went to right field while O'Loughlin went to left field.

It was announced that Tesreau and Meyers would be the batteries for New York and Wood and Cady for Boston.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Rain forced a postponement of the opening game today between the Chicago clubs and the American National League to decide the baseball championship of Chicago.

FIRST INNING.
First half: Mayor Gaylor threw the ball out to Meyers. Hooper walked, Tesreau being somewhat unsteady. Yerkes was out Doyle to Merkle, Hooper taking second on the play.

With Speaker up the crowd gave a cheer. Speaker was out. Doyle to Merkle. Lewis flied out to Snodgrass. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING.
First half: Gardner was safe on Fletcher's error. It was a ground ball and Fletcher fumbled it badly. Gardner was forced at second when Tesreau took Stahl's grounded and threw to Fletcher. Stahl was out stealing. Meyers to Doyle. Wagner took his base on balls. Cady was out on a long fly to Murray.

No runs, no hits, one error.

Second half: Herzog popped out to Stahl. Meyers fanned. Fletcher was out on three strikes.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING.
First half: Wood walked to first on four balls. Hooper sacrificed, Tesreau to Merkle. Yerkes was out Doyle to Merkle. Wood took third. Speaker was purposely passed to first. Lewis was out on a high fly to Fletcher.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second half: Tesreau struck out. Wood has struck out the last three men who faced him. Devore was given a base on balls. Doyle got a double to left. Devore taking third. It was a high ball and fell near the left field foul line too far in for Lewis to reach it. Snodgrass struck out. Devore and Doyle scored on Murray's single to center. Murray went out trying to stretch his hit. Speaker, Cady to Wagner.

Two runs, two hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING.
First half: Gardner went out on a high foul to Herzog. The stands were now cheering every play that was made. Stahl struck out and the crowd yelled. Tesreau's spit ball was breaking sharply over the corners of the plate. Wagner fouled to Merkle.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second half: Murray was given a great ovation as he came in from the field. Last year he failed to make a hit in the world's series.

Merkle struck out. Wood burned the ball across the plate with blinding speed. Herzog singled to center, the ball bounding over Wagner's head. Meyers went out, Wood to Stahl. Herzog took second. Fletcher was another strike out victim, leaving Herzog stranded at second.

No runs, one hit, no errors.

FIFTH INNING.
First half: Cady went out, Doyle to Merkle. Tesreau was now in his best pitching stride. Not a Boston player has made a hit so far. The Giant pitcher employed a fast-breaking spitter and a wicked inshoot. Wood went out on a grounder to Merkle, unassisted. Hooper could not see Tesreau's fast ones and fanned. The Giant pitcher was given a round of applause as he came to the bench.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second half: Tesreau struck out.

He took three mighty swings at the ball, but failed to connect. Devore popped to Lewis. It was a pitcher's battle, Tesreau having the better of it. Doyle got a single which Gardner managed to knock down and the runner tried to stretch and was thrown out, Gardner to Yerkes. It was a wonderful stop by Gardner and an equally fine throw to second.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

SIXTH INNING.
First half: Yerkes flied to Snodgrass. With Speaker up, the Boston fans cried for a hit. Speaker hit for three bases and scored on Lewis' grounder to Doyle, who threw the runner out at first. Gardner struck out.

One run, one hit, no errors.

Second half: Snodgrass safe when Wagner fumbled his grounder. It was a hard hit ball and bounced out of Wagner's hand. Murray attempted to sacrifice but popped a fly into Stahl's hand before Snodgrass could return. Merkle flied to Wagner.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING.
First half: Doyle to Merkle. Wagner singled to center, and the Boston crowd howled. Cady also singled to center, Wagner taking second. The stands were in an uproar as Wood went to the bat. Cady was forced at second then Doyle took Wood's grounder and tossed it to Fletcher. Wagner went to third on the play. Wagner scored on Hooper's double to right. Wood took third on the play. The score was now tied, and the Boston crowd was again in an uproar.

Wood scored on Yerkes' single to left. Yerkes took second on the throw in. Hooper also scored on Yerkes' single. Speaker struck out. Three runs, four hits, no errors.

Second half: Herzog was the first strike out victim of the inning. Wood used great speed and shot them across the corners of the plate. Meyers was hit by a pitched ball. Fletcher's grounder which Yerkes threw to Wagner. McCormick went to bat in place of Tesreau.

McCormick flied to Lewis.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING.
First half: Crandall went in the box for New York. Lewis went out on a sharp grounder to shortstop who made a perfect throw to Merkle. Crandall's service consisted largely of a slow wide outcurve and an equally slow drop ball. The change of pace from the speedy Tesreau to the slow ball of Crandall seemed to worry the Red Sox. Gardner struck out. Stahl was another strikeout victim.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second half: Devore out Wagner to Stahl. It was a fast play on Wagner's part. Doyle was another victim of the Wagner-Stahl route. Snodgrass popped to Gardner.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

NINTH INNING.
First half: Wood was given a cheer as he walked to the Boston bench. As the shadow of the grandstand broke over the grounds the Giants had difficulty in locating the ball.

Wagner doubled to left. Cady sacrificed, Herzog to Merkle. Wagner took third. Wood out, Crandall to Merkle. Wagner was held at third. Hooper lined to Doyle.

No runs, no hits, one error.

Second half: It was the Giants last half and two runs were needed to tie and three to win. Murray flied to Hooper. Merkle singled to center, and the New York fans took courage. Herzog got a single to right, Merkle taking second. The stands were in an uproar and cheered continuously. Spectators threw cushions on the field. Merkle scored on Meyers' double, Herzog taking third. Becker ran for Meyers. Fletcher struck out. Crandall struck out.

One run, three hits, no errors.

The batting order of the teams at the start, follows:

Boston—Hooper, rf.; Yerkes, 2b; Speaker, cf.; Lewis, lf.; Gardner, 3b; Stahl, lb; Wagner, ss.; Cady, c; Wood, p.

New York—Devore, lf.; Doyle, 2b; Snodgrass, cf.; Murray, rf.; Merkle, lb; Herzog, 3b; Meyers, c; Fletcher, ss.; Tesreau, p.

NOT ALL ROSES FOR RECRUIT.

It is not all a bed of roses for the recruit in the "big show," as a number of the university players can testify. "Toot" Schultz, although still in fast company, is one of those who have had their bumps. The former University of Pennsylvania boxman entered organized base ball last year, and made a poor start, but Doclin believed Schultz had the making of a good twirler, and tided him over. One good thing about him, as well as all the other college players, is the fact that he is strong on the stickwork. For a pitcher he is "batting" out a good average of 250.

Still another of the intercollegiate stars who was assayed to make as good a record in the league, but failed is "Steve" White. For three years he was Princeton's mainstay in the box, and last year pitched it to victory over Yale. The Giants gave him a tryout through the latter part of the season of 1911 and this spring Clark Griffith carried him for a month. Griff evidently believed the Orange and Black boy might develop into a twirler of major league caliber, for he had a string attached allowing the Washington club to recall him.

NEW PARTY IS GAINING

The following telegram was received at Santa Fe, October 7, 1912:

"Western Union Telegraph Company. New York City, October 6, via Chicago, Ill., October 6, 1912.

"Honorable Miguel A. Otero, Chairman State Progressive Committee, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

"The second poll of the New York Herald, the bitterest opponent of Roosevelt, printed this morning as follows:

"New York—New York Stock Exchange shows Roosevelt leading Wilson in New York state with Roosevelt vote double that of Taft. This morning's Herald poll shows Taft had third in every state except five where he runs second by narrow margin.

From telegram received today from our state chairman shows the following:

"Wyoming—Wyoming strongly progressive. Every poll and straw vote taken gives Roosevelt big lead over all.

"Montana—Montana confident that progressive ticket will have safe plurality. Progressive cause growing in strength daily.

"Colorado—Colorado shows, if increase keeps on proportionately until election, progressive party will have landslide in state. Straw votes indicate Roosevelt in some localities as high as ten to one.

"Alabama—Our progressive maximum vote will be 50,000. Enthusiasm wonderful. Expect to elect county officers in one third counties in state.

"Oregon—Roosevelt will carry Oregon by 12,000 plurality.

"Massachusetts—Progressive ticket in Massachusetts very strong. Fight entirely between democrats and progressives. Republicans will run bad third. Expect to carry state for Roosevelt.

"Nebraska—We regard Nebraska safe for Roosevelt by substantial majority.

"Georgia—Roosevelt made tremendous gains by recent Georgia speeches. Democrats concede progressive one-third total vote.

"Maine—All indications point to general uprising. We believe state good for Roosevelt electors.

"Pennsylvania—Roosevelt's strength growing daily. Equivocal position of Wilson on tariff and large business insures Pennsylvania for Roosevelt. Taft out of the running.

"Louisiana—Roosevelt will poll large vote. Three congressional districts southern portion state, doubtful. Progressive cause spreading like wild fire.

"Arkansas—Progressive ticket will poll large per cent confederate soldier vote.

"Michigan—Roosevelt will carry Michigan 75,000 plurality. Fifty polls show him leading safely, Wilson second, Taft poor third.

"Tennessee—Would not be surprised if from 25,000 to 75,000 regular democrats vote for Roosevelt.

"Mississippi—We estimate 25,000 votes for Roosevelt.

"New Jersey—Forecasts indicate growing strength of Roosevelt ticket.

"Missouri—Resignation of electoral and county tickets indicate unmistakable panic in republican party. Continued accession from democratic party meetings held more largely attended than ever before in history of Missouri politics.

"Kentucky—Result of registration clearly indicates Roosevelt will receive twice as many votes in Kentucky as Taft.

"Kansas—If election was held today Roosevelt would carry Kansas overwhelmingly.

California—Roosevelt and Johnson

will carry California by at least 100,000 plurality.

Indiana—We believe we will carry Indiana with republican ticket running poor third. Sentiment growing wonderfully.

Illinois—Roosevelt plurality in this state will be between 100,000 and 150,000. State ticket running with national ticket will undoubtedly be elected by overwhelming majority.

(Signed)

Chairman National Committee."

M'MANIGAL SAVED
THE LIFE OF A
WATCHMANIndianapolis, Ind., Oct. 8.—Explosions at South Chicago and Springfield, Ill., were described by District Attorney Miller at the trial of the accused "dynamite conspirators" today.
Miller said Orrie McManigal, at his home in Chicago, on February, 1911,
put some dynamite on a radiator to thaw. When he returned from looking over the Iroquois Steel plant at South Chicago, he saw his little girl on the floor playing with the dynamite.When the South Chicago plant was blown up on February 24, 1911, Mr.
Miller said, McManigal wanted to kill a night watchman because he was in the way, but McManigal stopped him.
Eugene A. Clancy, San Francisco, aYOUNG MOTHERSNo young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care
she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature,
and by gradually expanding all the
eyes, muscles and tendons, involved,
and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value
in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores.

country to the other," continued the governor, "I see no essential difference among the people in the different parts of it. The same thing is written in their eyes and it is not a gleam of fierceness. It is a light of self-confidence. They know what they want and they know they are going to get it. Anybody who supposes that economic questions and political questions are two different things is very much mistaken because these things have been so closely married with one another in our recent political practice that it is impossible to discriminate between them."And this gives me an opportunity to allude to something that I read
very recently in an influential newspaper. It was an editorial in which I must say that the editor did me personally more than justice. But he saw in me an unintentional Nacchiavelli. It said in effect, 'This is an honest man; he honestly believes that
a protective tariff is unconstitutional,
and if he gets a chance, begging an honest man, he will upset that unconstitutional arrangement.' That is good reasoning but it was entirely inconsistent with another part of the editorial which very kindly ascribed brains to me. One of the things that every well informed man knows is that about half the people in the United States are democrats. As a well informed man, I know that they are engaged in every kind of industry,
and that they could not unite to accomplish economic murder and destruction without also deliberately accomplishing economic suicide. So far as I am myself concerned, I would
with the greatest respect call the editor's attention to a little utterance
which I ventured to make upon accepting the nomination for the presidency, in which I explicitly laid down
the program which I thought we ought to pursue with regard to the protective duties. I said that they ought not to be changed except in such a way and at such a rate as would not in any way interfere with the course of sound business in the United States. I also said, and that is what makes this parenthesis applicable to my discourse, that we were going to begin with those particular items in which we found special privilege entrenched. We know what those items are. The gentlemen who enjoy the special privileges
have been kind enough to point them
out themselves; and what we are interested in first of all with regard to the tariff is getting the grip of special interests off the throat of congress. We do not propose that special interests shall any longer camp in
the committee rooms of the committee of ways and means of the house
and the finance committee of the senate."Those of us who handle the machinery of politics know that the great difficulty in breaking up the control of the political boss is that he is backed by the money and the influence of those very people who are entrenched in these very schedules. I could write you out a list, if you were interested in it of the gentlemen, not exceeding half a dozen, who used to own the legislature of New Jersey.
All that I had to do was to stand them
up in front, metaphorically, of audiences all over the state of New Jersey and call the roll and their power
was broken by the mere exposure.
"How are you going to get a free government? That is the point. The absolutely necessary first step is to disentangle it from the things with which it has been entangled. What we want is free markets for our commodities and free markets for our labor; and we haven't got them.
What we want is free enterprise for one thing; but we haven't got it. What we want is free competing water
routes that will enable us to handle
the heavier kinds of our goods in transportation without depending too much upon the railway routes; and we haven't got them, and can't get them as things stand now. What we want is genuine conservation of our natural resources and we can't get it as things stand now."Have you noticed that the trouble
about conservation is that the government of the United States hasn't any policy at present? It is simply making time, it is simply standing still. Reservation is not conservation."We know perfectly well that there can't be a workable program until there is a free government. And what I want to point out to you is this: The center of all our economic difficulties is that there is not freedom of enterprise in the United States."I am not interested in disturbing
the great course of business in this country, but I am interested in enriching it. I am interested in varying it. And I know that the only way to do it is by the method I have suggested by regulated competition
instead of legitimized monopoly.
After you have made the partnership between monopoly and your government permanent, then I invite all the philanthropists in the United States
to come out and sit on the stage and
go through the motions of finding out
how they are going to get philanthropy out of the masters. I for one do not desire assistance from the government if it be given in condemnation and pity. I want only that consideration which is given in justice and righteousness and good faith. We are not children to be taken care of. We live in a free government and can't breathe anythingLADIES!*You Will Find the

FOR THE MOTHER.*Seasonable Advice on the Health of Children in Hot Weather.Mothers should be careful not to overfeed children during the hot months. No one requires as much food
in summer as they do in cold weather.
Serve only the lighter and more easily
digested foods, and see that the milk is kept cool and the fruit ripe.It is quite natural to expect some disturbance, such as constipation, indigestion, or summer diarrhoea, often accompanied by a cold. A mild laxative at bed time will, in most cases,
carry off the congested waste from the
stomach next morning and by cleaning
the bowels restore normal conditions.Cathartic remedies and purgatives should never be used for children.
They are harsh and violent in their action and tend to upset the entire system. The combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and sold by druggists for fifty cents a bottle, is now very generally used to correct
stomach and bowel trouble. It is mild and pleasant to the taste and contains no drastic drug, or narcotic, but acts
naturally and easily, yet most effectively. A larger bottle, containing more than twice the quantity, is sold for one dollar. If you have never used Syrup Pepsin and would like a free
trial bottle, postpaid, write to Dr. W.
B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.but free air, and we want to take care of ourselves. This business of setting up individuals or parties as special providences is one of the things that is played out. So far as my pride is concerned, I would just as leave have a malevolent boss as a beneficent boss. I don't want any boss at all."This is a year of critical choice.
After the year 1912 it may be too late to turn back. Don't deceive yourself for a moment as to the pervasive power of the great interests which
now dominate our development.
They are so great that it is almost an open question whether the government of the United States can dominate them or not. Go one step further, make their organized power
permanent and it may be too late to turn back."LIVED ON

THE ROOSEVELT TESTIMONY

"I asked no man to contribute to the campaign fund when I was elected president of the United States. Mr. Bliss and Mr. Cortelyou both assured me that no promise had been made as a return for any contribution."

Thus testified Theodore Roosevelt before the investigating committee at Washington. Then he added with characteristic force: "Gentlemen, could I speak more sweepingly than that?"

No witness ever appeared on the witness stand and came from the ordeal with a cleaner record than did Theodore Roosevelt. It was just what his friends expected. He left the committee room exonerated from every taint of evil. The calumnies of his enemies were shattered; the shafts of accusation broken.

There is something tremendously significant in this investigation. It seems to be leveled entirely at Roosevelt. What the supporters of Taft and Wilson expended seems to be of minor importance. They are after Theodore Roosevelt.

The query constantly comes back. If the Roosevelt strength is "waning," why not let it alone, and let it quietly wane?

Why are the batteries of Taft and Wilson turned wholly against the candidate of the progressive party?

The answer is clear. They are afraid Roosevelt will win.

No political movement like it has ever been known in American history.

A three months' old party has made headway like a fire in the forest. The people in America have become aroused to their own interests. They are weary of dictations. They are tired of being bossed. They are going to take an inventory of their own business, and hereafter they are going to run it.

Let them lie about Roosevelt. Let them investigate him. The more they do it the stronger he grows with the people.

HADLEY'S CONVERSION

At last the status of Hadley of Missouri is established. You remember Hadley, Herbert S., who came so near being nominated at Chicago, as a compromise between Taft and Teddy? Well, at heart he was almost for Teddy and, being that he is a republican tower of strength in democratic Missouri, there's been much anxiety as to where Herbert was really at. He's now for Taft.

He lately "expressed a hope" that Mr. Taft was for presidential primaries. Bill heard of the hope and got busy. "Assurances" were forwarded to Gov. Hadley to the effect that that great Missourian need no longer tremble on the rugged edge of conversion since Taft had in a Boston speech declared for presidential primaries, last March, months before the Chicago convention. So, Herbert, with anxious soul relieved as to Bill's fitness, declares his conversion. It suits me, Col. Roosevelt will say, and it will remind him of a story he heard in Africa that time he shot the charging rhinoceros through the left auricle with his 45-90 at a distance of 30 paces nine inches.

ARE YOU DOING IT?

Are you striking every blow for the progressive party?
Are you trying to convince every man and woman that the progressive party is battling for humanity?

Do you tell them that child labor, night work for women, the unbridled flotation of wildcat securities and the use of money to debauch elections are only a few of the many intolerable conditions the progressive party pledges itself to stop?

Do you tell them that the progressive party is battling to destroy the invisible government and the unholy alliance between corrupt business and corrupt politics, republican and democratic alike?

If you are not doing this, you are not doing your share in this great war for humanity.

Start now and do it every day and hour until the polls close on election night.

The opponents of Roosevelt are afraid that he will do things contrary to the constitution if elected president, or at least go "beyond the constitution." Well, if he had not acted "beyond the constitution" when he was president there would be no Panama canal dug. There is no danger to be feared in Theodore Roosevelt's going beyond the constitution, except to greed and selfishness. There is danger to them. As a working man said the other day: "Roosevelt does things. Roosevelt for me." It is the spirit of the day. Give us a president who does things, not one who keeps them from being done.

Men and women now are insisting on full weight packages at the grocery store and the butcher shop, and they want full weight performances in the state legislatures and the city halls and the national congress of the country. They are tired of saying: "Well, I don't know who to vote for this year; I guess I'll have to vote the socialist ticket." The thinking men and women don't want to vote the socialist ticket. They want to vote for a ticket that is more American, more sane, less revolutionary. And the progressive party has given them that kind of a ticket.

Well, anyway, if the scientists have found a method to produce frogs without any father, but just by mixing chemicals together, frogs' legs ought to become cheaper. The only fear is that when the big interests find out what chemicals are rubbed together to produce frogs, they'll get a corner on the chemicals. Then the frogs' legs will kick themselves up into meat realms.

If "six drinks" can make as many votes for a presidential candidate as did those the "man" saw Roosevelt take at Albuquerque, Taft's friends should at once send him out on a drinking tour, but he should confine himself to "from three to six" at a place, as that seems to be the vote getting number, in New Mexico, at least.

Roosevelt had to go to his tailors' immediately on his arrival home as his clothes were almost torn from him by the crowds of admirers that constantly besieged him; or was it on account of the three-inch patch that a "man" saw on his coat while at Albuquerque?

Turn from those nice names of the Mexican war to points in the Balkans, such as Djumbola, Uamboli, Eski Saghra and Baschkivranla, and it won't be long before they'll have to make an addition to the homes for feeble minded to accommodate the telegraph editors.

The effort to "get" Roosevelt has proven a pitiful failure. The attempt to "show him up," has miscarried signally. All the other candidates have been ignored in this endeavor to dishonor the one man, and he has routed his enemies completely.

New York physicians are puzzled over the case of a woman who has been talking continuously for thirty-six hours. Is that a case for physicians?

"Three air men killed in one day," says a newspaper head. It begins to look as if "air men" were a misnomer.

If all the charges of traveling with dynamite are proven at Indianapolis, it's walking for us hereafter.

AS THE BYSTANDER SEES IT

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING.
The Bystander has heard the following comments on the street and in the lobbies. They go to show the drift of opinion, and are interesting reading:

"I have read newspapers for many years and I always spend some time on the editorials. I like the editorials in other papers a great deal better than those in the New Mexican. Why, your editorials are rotten—that's all they are. In politics, I am a democrat, but I feel quite sure I know a well written editorial when I see it."

"I wish to compliment the New Mexican on the splendid issues it is printing. It is a paper that would do credit to any city however large and up to date. Your editorials I especially like; they are succinct and always to the point; they are fearlessly forcible. I have read papers for twenty years and I regard the New Mexican as a first class production—a fine paper in every way."

"I like the New Mexican because it prints the sporting news and has such good pictures. I, and a lot of other fellows, always buy your paper and turn at once to the sporting page."

"I like your story of the Jaffa meeting at the Elks theater. I want to

THE QUESTION.

(Edgar Guest in Detroit Free Press.)
I reckon when this life is done, And we have journeyed over there, The battles big that we have won, The honors that we thought so fair, Will not stand out, as now they do, Nor seem to be so splendid there. The Lord may just ask me and you: "How did you serve your fellow men?"

He may not ask us to recount The splendid victories we gained, Nor care to learn what great amount Of gold and silver we attained. He may not ask: "Stood you above All those who toiled with brush and pen?"

But "Did you fill the world with love?" And "How served you your fellow men?"

I sometimes think He'll turn aside From all the many splendid deeds That daily fill our breasts with pride. As He our earthly record reads And never care that we were great. But He will simply ask us when We stand before the pearly gate: "How did you serve your fellow men?"

That poem of Eddie Guest's so appealed to me that I want others to see it, too. It is so truly the essence of life. It is a part of the world's creed, and came down to us from the Mount. When it is all made up, this record of life, the question of service, is about all that will count in it, and it is not the big and showy service, either. It's that of every day, our relationships with each other, and dealings with our fellowmen; whether we are giving a square deal.

This question of fair dealing has become a feature of social, political and business life. We're all going to be called upon to answer the question some day.

A CHANCE FOR CITY DADS.

An opportunity for a neat city improvement is offered in the opening of a street from San Francisco to Johnson street. This would be simply a continuation of Sandoval street and it the chance is seized at once it can be done with but little expense to the city.

Leo Hersch has generously offered to donate about 260 feet between San Francisco and Johnson streets which is practically all the ground that intervenes and it seems to the Bystander that this offer ought to be accepted. The connections between San Francisco and the streets to the north and running parallel to it are at present very poor. From Lincoln avenue far down there is really no street intersecting, only an alley, clear to the railroad tracks, and this plan as suggested, will open a way, both available and at practically no expense to the city as the ground is given freely for the purpose.

Now, while we are looking toward city improvement, it seems to me that we should avail ourselves of every opportunity that is offered to push the good cause along.

The further plan, as outlined in this suggestion, was to extend lower Palace avenue to Jefferson street, by means of a street twenty feet wide, which will add further to the effectiveness of street service and be a positive benefit.

The public spirited and generous offer of Mr. Leo Hersch should be accepted and this street put through. It is a city improvement of a truly progressive nature. It is one of the things that adds to the convenience of our people and to the appearance of the city.

The matter is one that will have to be taken up at once if at all, and it is up to the city dads to take it or pass it at once.

EL BURRO.

(Bill F. Brogan.)

He's only a burro loaded with wood as he patiently stalks along, his gait is the same, he is homely and tame, as the woodchopper urges him on.

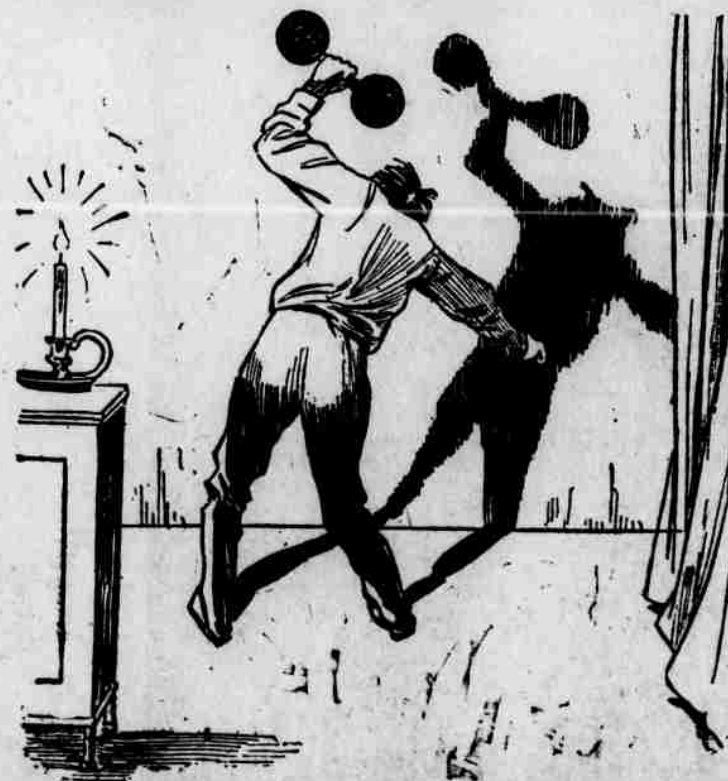

He is patient but slow for his lot is cast low as he jogs slowly on down the trail. He has even no name, no cast and no fame, he is simply the beast with the load. He is only a burro, loaded with wood that he brings from the mountains of pine, the pinon and pitch and the diamond hitch, are all that he knows in life.

But serenely he goes 'till his pack has been sold and the pack saddle off for the night, then he wanders around to search on the ground for a nibble of grass or of sage. He may live for years, filled with sorrow and tears, for the human with soul and with brain but he's only a burro loaded with wood—a part of the wood chopper's train.

A little want ad costs but a few cents and brings wonderful results when published in the New Mexican.

CLEANS THE HAIR AND MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL--25 CENTS "DANDERINE"

In a Few Moments Your Hair Looks Soft, Fluff, Lustrous and Abundant--No Falling Hair or Dandruff

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil--in a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluff and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

NEW YORK LETTER

New York, Oct. 8.—General Daniel E. Sickles must answer another $8000 suit. Disguised as messenger boys, process servers Thursday were admitted to the veteran at 23 Fifth avenue and served him a summons and complaint in the suit of August Heckscher to recover $8000 on a promissory note. According to Arthur McKinstry, attorney for Mr. Heckscher, the suit has nothing whatever to do with any of General Sickles' family troubles. Mr. Heckscher lent him the money in the regular course of business and is enforcing collection only. The process servers said they had been trying to serve the papers for ten days, but could not get inside the house. When they did enter the general denounced them bitterly, they say.

In the windows of the hosiery shops are displayed articles which may supplant the suffrage plank in the third term platform—yes, stockings, and silk ones, too; but they are different from any others. They are called suffragists' stockings, and on the ankle of each, just high enough not to be covered by the shoe and low enough so that they can be seen in dry weather is embroidered a small moose head with eyes and antlers.

It became known along Broadway Thursday that James M. Hill, who years ago was widely known in the atriums, had died of a stomach ailment Wednesday. Mr. Hill was 64 years old. Forty years ago Mr. Hill came to New York from Chicago and leased the Union Square theatre. There he installed a stock company from which were graduated some of the stars of the stage. It was at the Union Square that Mr. Hill put on his famed production of "Romero and Juliet," with Frederick Paulding and Margaret Mather in the title roles. He started Denman Thompson out in "Joshua Whitcomb," his earliest pronounced success. Mr. Hill was the first theatrical manager to adopt extensive advertising ideas. It has been said that it was he who first bought a half page theatrical advertisement in a newspaper.

"I hereby particularly warn you against prostrate judges and attorneys at law, and sincerely trust you will not have occasion to consult or employ the latter in regard to this instrument," was the advice given by Ezra C. Bartlett, whose will was filed in the surrogate's office yesterday, to his heirs, who will divide an estate valued at almost $100,000. "My personal experience," Mr. Bartlett added, "in dealing with lawyers and otherwise, has convinced me that they are all only dangerous crooks, only disguised and expressly educated and trained to obtain one's confidence in order that they may defraud and rob with impunity."

Tales of a dog that wandered eighty miles from Norfolk, Conn., to the home of his former master, were being told Friday in the Berkshire Hills. E. H. Fallows of this city bought the dog two weeks ago from George Hair of Bridgeport, Conn. Don, an English setter, remained with Mr. Fallows one day. Then the gate happened to be open. The dog made one streak. Since then Norfolk has known him no more. Two days later Don arrived at Mr. Hair's home.

Hobble coat for policemen are the latest freak in men's fashions. The new winter uniforms are now in preparation and instead of the old belt coat of former years there will be a long, unbelted cab driver's free-for-all effect with dozens of buttons on it. The new coats, with the winter trousers to match, will cost about $52.50, which the policemen must pay.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. This semi-tailored suit is an excellent afternoon apparel because of its clever little dress-up touches.

The material, suited for fall wear, is fine, dark blue broadcloth, but it may be made up in a less expensive material with equally good effect.

The tunic is slashed to show an undershirt of blue and white striped broadcloth. And this material is also used as a part of the collar.

Variety of style is given the coat in loose fronts held by a soft silk sash. The back is fitted in long, slender lines. The scheme of blue and white is prettily carried out on the coat and skirt with the small white porcelain buttons looped with white cord.

The coat is heavily stitched by machine, this stitching forming—as in many Paris garments this season—an effective pattern on the material.

The foreword of the new fitted style of wrap is given in this pretty dress. The wrap is built of double faced ratine. A very smart touch is added to it by the use of contrasting colors. The outside is a creamy buff. The inside, which shows in the deep shawl collar and turned back cuffs, is a charming shade of blue. A double line of pearl buttons on the front of the wrap emphasizes the close-to-the-figure style.

The big collar is really a trimming, as it extends downward in long revers to the waist line. The coat fastens toward the left, with three large buttons, almost at the waistline.

The promise of the fashion fanciers to increase the length of the walking skirt is demonstrated in this model.

NEWS OF THE STATE

A GREAT YIELD.

W. L. Paddock tops the market this year for profits in peach raising. On one-fifth of an acre he took off and sold 8900 pounds of Elberta peaches which he sold at 75 cents per hundred loose to John Ritzman. This is net, save the cost of picking and hauling which he did himself, $333.75 per acre. This shows that even at the low prices that prevailed this year there is good money in peaches. — Farmington Times-Herald.

BOYS RELEASED.

A NEW INDUSTRY.

The Portales Storage company has their potato storage plant almost ready for business. This will be one of our best assets, as this rarified climate affects potatoes very quickly and they can be kept by the process used by the storage people through the winter without any perceptible losses. The management so we are informed, propose to make a charge of one cent per pound for storage. This is cheaper than storing in your own cellar and

LEGISLATORS BECOME EDITORS.

Judge Toombs, one of the most active members of the last legislature, and one who was never afraid to tell where he stood, in language that left no doubt, has become the editor and proprietor of the Clayton Citizen. This means the continuance of this paper in the republican ranks, it is to be presumed, but the terse way of putting things, which is characteristic of Judge Toombs.

As a further evidence that the members of the legislature are having a liking for the journalistic field, it is noted that J. W. Mullens, another prominent and influential member of the last house, is now editor of the Portales Herald. It will be interesting to note how the new editors will feel in the next legislature in having their own papers comment on them as legislators, but with the diplomatic qualities possessed by the editor-legislators, it is to be presumed that they will handle their cards well.

AN ACQUITTAL.

E. G. McNabb, who shot and killed Herbert Hargis in Vaughn, N. M., October 13, 1910, was found not guilty Thursday afternoon by the jury trying his case. At a previous trial McNabb was found guilty and sentenced by Judge Wright to hang. His attorneys, McGinniss & Larrazolo, appealed the case to the supreme court and a new trial was granted. At the present trial non-expert opinionated testimony was admitted as to McNabb's insanity and his wife and a number of friends swore he was insane at the time of the killing. The verdict was to the effect that McNabb was insane at the time he shot Hargis and not guilty. On the first vote the jury stood seven for acquittal and five for conviction, but after three hours deliberation returned the above verdict. The most damaging testimony against McNabb was that of his own confession that he killed Hargis from ambush.—Santa Rosa Sun.

TRAIN DITCHED.

The southbound passenger train slid into the ditch about seven miles north of Artesia on Tuesday afternoon of this week, and by some miracle no one was killed and only one man was seriously injured. The place was in the old soft spot of the Peñon tracks where a few months ago a passenger train went into the ditch. Immediately after the former wreck the railroad company spent thousands of dollars in ballasting that short stretch of track, but the big rain of last week and this was too much for it, and when the heavy train hit it the rails spread.

The train was running on schedule time when it struck the mud, and the tender was torn from the engine and thrown into the ditch. The engine, baggage and express car, and the smoker went into the ditch, but the chair car and Pullman stayed on the

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

How Mrs. Reed of Peoria, Ill., Escaped The Surgeon's Knife.

Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For twenty years I suffered. The doctor said I had a tumor and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a well and healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation, and your Sanative Wash relieved me. I am glad to tell anyone what your medicines have done for me. You can use my testimonial in any way you wish, and I will be glad to answer letters."—Mrs. CHRISTINA REED, 105 Mound St., Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Lynch Also Avoided Operation.

Jessup, Pa.—"After the birth of my fourth child, I had severe organic inflammation. I would have such terrible pains that it did not seem as though I could stand it. This kept up for three long months, until two doctors decided that an operation was needed.

"Then one of my friends recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after taking it for two months I was a well woman."—Mrs. JOSEPH A. LYNCH, Jessup, Pa.

Women who suffer from female ill should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one of the most successful remedies the world has ever known, before submitting to a surgical operation.

There was no excitement among the passengers, and all went to work at once to get aid for the injured. The baggage man was crippled with a badly mashed leg, and the peanut butcher was bruised, but with these exceptions there were no serious injuries. Mail Clerk Terry swung to the rods, and while dazed, escaped serious injury.

A stub was run up from Carlisle and brought the mail down Tuesday night, and by this morning the track has been repaired. One of the cars is still in the ditch.

Herbert Mendenhall, sub mail clerk, was the only person from Artesia who was on the wrecked train. At Hagerman he left the mail car and went back to the chair car, which was left on the tracks.—Artesia News.

SAVANTS MISSED VOLCANO.

Last Sunday forty members of the American Geographical Society were to arrive in their special train and inspect the extinct volcano, Capulin. The train was to stop at Dedman and there they were to be met by the heryman and conveyed to the Magestic volcano. The party consisted of members of many American and foreign universities. They are making a tour of the world in the interest of the study of geography. They were also equipped with large cameras of the most perfect type and are taking photographic views of important scenes. By a delay of the Rocky mountain train, their train did not reach Dedman until late in the night, and as their time was limited the trip was not made. The disappointment is greatly to be regretted as we could have furnished an important event in the visit in the west.—Des Moines Swastika.

WANT MORE TOMATOES.

The cannery is running every day when there is enough tomatoes to justify, and turns out at the rate of a carload of the canned product per day. The cool weather has kept the tomatoes from ripening, and hence they are not coming in fast enough to keep the cannery running all the time. The cannery is one of the best enterprises the people of Lakewood have ever invested in and we are all justly proud of it. Come to Lakewood.—Lakewood Progress.

WORDS FROM HOME.

Statements That May Be Investigated Testimony of Santa Fe Citizens.

When a Santa Fe citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Santa Fe resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

Manuel Delgado, 140 Canon St., Santa Fe, N. Mex., says: "The public statement I gave in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills in 1902 still holds good. For four or five years I was subject to attacks of backache, often so severe that I was unable to work. I tried various remedies said to be cures for such troubles, but nothing benefited me until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They promptly proved their worth and effected a cure which has been permanent up to the present time. My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills has been so gratifying that I gladly recommend them."

Here is Boston's prettiest working girl. She is (or rather she was) Miss Eileen De Roche. She was for several years behind a counter for the William Filene's Sons company. She bloomed unknown to the outside world until a Boston newspaper held a beauty contest. Miss De Roche won with ease. Then along came Francis F. Boyland, a wealthy broker, and won her after a whirlwind courtship. A few weeks ago Miss De Roche became Mrs. Boyland and moved from the department store counter to a splendid home.

Mr. Collins Says: "We are proud of the 'Pin-Ton' candies. Another big shipment in today. Come to Zook's and see 'em."

Elegantly Furnished Rooms for rent. The finest rooms in the city, having all modern conveniences, including electric light, steam heat and bath. The European Hotel, centrally located. State Progressive Headquarters in the hotel.

Curtain at 8:30 tomorrow night at the Elks'. Coney Island Comedy company.

Yes, a Swimming Pool—That's what the members of the board of education said last night when they heard Dr. J. A. Rolls outline the plans for giving this pleasure and health affording arrangement to the school children and also adults of Santa Fe. Plans are being worked out.

That $75 Round Oak Base Burner in Gerdes' store was bought at Goebel's.

Exhibit Arrived—Word has been received here that the exhibit sent by Santa Fe to the Albuquerque fair has arrived in fine shape, no damage having been done in transit. The old palace in model will doubtless arouse much interest in this city. The county is standing the expense of the exhibit.

School is on and now more than ever you will realize what shoe values mean. It is just on the same principle that John Pflueger sells shoes as you buy them. He wants to assure you full values and he knows that when he does that you will surely come again. You will miss it if you pass this hint by. See page three.

Wheeler Gets It—At its meeting last night the board of education awarded to Contractor E. L. Wheeler the contract for remodeling and fitting up of the old hospital building near the high school for a manual training school. Smith and Carruthers were given the plumbing contract. The board discussed the tapping of sewers and decided to insist on W. G. Sargent paying $200 for the privilege.

Do you wish to stop smoking? Then try a rich, mellow chocolate after each meal just as the cigarette yearning seized your mouth. Get "Pin-Tons" at Zook's for the test.

Spanish Names—An impetus to learn the mellifluous Spanish language will be given Santa Feans and a real treat to the romance-loving tourist will be afforded by the renaming of many of Santa Fe's streets. For instance, instead of Manhattan avenue one will hear "Calle Anasco;" instead of River Drive it will be "Paseo del Rio," etc. For this purpose Arthur Seligman, Dr. E. L. Hewett and Samuel Cartwright met last night as a committee on nomenclature and discussed plans. It is said that a system is being worked out details of which will be announced soon.

DON'T SCOLD CROSS.

IRRITABLE CHILDREN.
If Tongue is Coated, Stomach Sour, Breath Bad, Feverish, Bowels Clogged, Give "Syrup of Figs."

Mother! look at the tongue! see if it is coated. If your child is listless, drooping, isn't sleeping well, is restless, doesn't eat heartily or is cross, irritable, out of sorts with everybody, stomach sour, feverish, breath bad; has stomachache, diarrhoea, sore throat, or is full of cold, it means the little one's stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are filled with poisons and clogged up with waste and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

Give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few minutes the foul, decaying, constipated matter, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of the little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well and smiling child shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given each day will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

with the Hot Blast Down-Draft will produce twice as much heat as any other. It is because the Down-Draft consumes all the fuel and the gases which arise from it, whereas in other heaters the gases, which constitute one-half the burnable part of the fuel, escape unburned up the chimney. You can start a fire in ten minutes and hold it for 36 hours.

Remember, it is fuel cost which counts.

The Wilson saves one-half your fuel bill.
