NET CLOSES IN ON NEW YORK GUN MEN IN BECKER TRIAL

FOUR MYSTERIOUS WITNESSES SPREAD TERROR AMONG THUGS—STANICH TELLS COURT THAT "WHITEY" LEWIS WAS ONE OF MEN IN MURDER CAR WHO SHOT AND KILLED ROSENTHAL

CHAUFFER RYAN IS SHAKEN WITH FEAR AND DOES NOT KNOW GUN MEN

New York, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Jacob and Morris Luban, the "mysterious" witnesses found by District Attorney Whitman in jail at Newark, were at the criminal courts building today, waiting to be called to the stand at the trial of Police Lieutenant Becker, charged with the murder of Herman Rosenthal. They were held in Newark on charges of forgery, but on their statement that their arrest was a "frame up" and that one of them was an eye witness to the murder, they were paroled and brought to New York.

Giovanni Standish, another witness to the tragedy and Mrs. Lillian Rosenthal, widow of the murdered gambler, were other witnesses whom it was expected, the state would call early. The informers, Rose, Vallon, Webber and Scheppe, were held in readiness as usual and it was thought possible that enough progress might be made to reach Rose's testimony.

Thomas Ryan, a chauffeur and an eye witness of the murder, was the first witness called today. His appearance was a surprise to the defense for his name had not previously figured in the case.

The four gun men were brought into court and Ryan was asked to pick out the man who fired the shot that killed Rosenthal.

"Whom did you refer to of these four men?" asked Assistant District Attorney Moss.

Ryan appeared frightened.

"I didn't refer to anybody," he declared, shifting his eyes quickly over the four men.

"Didn't you tell the assistant district attorney in the prison yesterday that you were afraid to put your hand on him?" pursued Mr. Moss.

"I was afraid because I might put my hand on the wrong man," answered Ryan in a weak voice.

"Can you swear," interrupted Justice Goff, "that any one of these four men fired the shot? Look at the prisoners."

Ryan gave a fleeting look at the four. Everyone of the gun men was eyeing him.

"I cannot," he replied in a trembling voice. Ryan was then allowed to go.

He was followed on the stand by Giovanni Standish, an eye witness who saw three men with revolvers, but was not sure whether more than one fired at Rosenthal. Again the four men were brought into court.

Standish left the witness stand, and with hesitation picked out "Whitey" Lewis as one of the three he had seen. He was unable to identify the others. But swore that "Whitey" fired one of the shots.

ROOSEVELT ALWAYS FIRST TAFT JUST AHEAD OF DEBS

(By Gilson Gardner.)

Denver, Colo., Oct. 11.—Colorado is a doubtful state. In the words of Sam Blythe: "I don't know which way it will go."

On the basis of "political form" there are perfectly good reasons for predicting that the state will be Woodrow Wilson's by 20,000.

On the basis of equally good polls there is a Bull Moose sentiment equally sure to give Roosevelt the state by that same 20,000 majority.

As usual, the one thing certain is that Taft is running somewhere a little ahead of Debs. In the mines and rolling mill sections he will not poll so many votes as Debs.

This is how Wilson's friends convince themselves that he has the state:

Two years ago, in the state election Colorado's vote was divided practically evenly between republicans and democrats, 100,000 each. The result was a democratic governor and a republican attorney general.

This year the democrats are united and the republicans divided. So it is easy to predict that the 100,000 democratic votes will be polled for Wilson and the 100,000 republican votes divided. These predictors would give Roosevelt 70,000 and Taft 30,000.

Stevens, ex-district attorney of Denver.

So discouraged have the Taft republicans become that they have recently been trying to sell out the Taft electors for a chance at the jobs. They proposed to form a combination with the progressives, offering to withdraw their candidate for governor, and one of their candidates for United States senator, and to cease working for Taft electors. The Taft list, however, would remain on the ballot.

In urging the progressives to accept this proposition the Taft republicans explained that the control of the senate for tariff purposes is at present the important thing; that Taft is a dead cock in the pit, and it is waste of effort to work for him; that the democrats are very close to a majority in the senate, and that such majority would mean taking the duty off beet sugar and other industries; so they need not get together, elect the Bull Moose candidate for governor and save the republican control of the state legislature.

"Nothing doing," replied Costigan.

ROOSEVELT IN LA FOLLETTE'S STATE TOMORROW

The error in the above calculation—if error there is—lies in the assumption that Roosevelt is less popular in Colorado than Wilson. But people have a habit of forgetting in which party they belong and just being for "Teddy." This may knock the "political form" calculations galley west.

In the Denver city campaign last spring the progressive independent movement, led by Lindsey and Costigan, knocked the everlasting daylight out of both the old parties in Denver, polling 40,000 votes to a paltry 14,000 republican and 12,000 democratic. Which shows that party ties are sitting lightly these days.

This same Ed P. Costigan is now Bull Moose candidate for governor. A veteran fighter in the progressive cause, and eloquent, he brings strength to the state ticket.

The democratic candidate for governor, Elias Yahco Ammons, is weak. He is openly opposed to conservation, is wrong on water power regulation, and has a record in the state legislature which might lead one to think him entirely too friendly with "Angel Archie" Stephenson, who helped "put Taft over."

"Honest John" Shafroth, at present governor, is democratic candidate for the long term in the United States senate. Charles S. Thomas wants the short term.

It is unnecessary to name the corporation lawyers who have been nominated by the Taft organization for these offices; they do not figure as possibilities.

The Bull Moose candidates for the long and short terms in the United States senate are: Frank D. Catlin, an attorney of Montrose, and I. N.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 11.—Colonel Roosevelt arrived here from Duluth at 6:20 this morning and remained until 8:30 when he left for an invasion of Wisconsin. He was scheduled to make his principal address at Oshkosh tonight. St. Paul progressives made no arrangements for the colonel's brief stay here and he did not leave his car.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 11.—W. J. Bryan, invaded Minnesota today. He left Grand Forks this morning and made several rear platform speeches on his way to the Twin Cities, being due here tonight. Mr. Bryan will leave about midnight for Cedar Rapids and Des Moines, Iowa.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 11.—Governor Marshall conferred with Senator Hoke Smith of the democratic national headquarters here today regarding a possible far western tour of several weeks. Governor Marshall has not yet decided to accept the commission.

Albany, Oct. 11.—A check for $3,150,000 was received today by the state comptroller in payment of the advance inheritance tax on the estate of the late John Jacob Astor.

HUNT DECLARES DEATH PENALTY IS BARBARISM

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 11.—Declaring that capital punishment had no more place in the recent day order than the burning of witches, Governor Hunt granted reprieves to William Campbell, Eduardo Perez, N. B. Chavez and Miguel Peralta all of whom were to have been hung today. The reprieves deferred the date of execution to April 17.

Governor Hunt expressed the hope that the legislature would pass at its next session, a bill abolishing capital punishment and added that if the lawmakers failed to act, the people would be certain to initiate such a law.

KNOX IS HOME.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 11.—The cruiser Maryland, bringing Secretary of State Knox from Japan, and Secretary of the Interior Fisher from Honolulu, arrived today. Mr. Fisher desires to start for San Francisco at once and Mr. Knox is anxious to return to Washington, but the republican national and state committees have arranged political meetings in Seattle and Portland at which Mr. Knox will speak.

TURKISH CITY IS ATTACKED BY ENEMY

SCUTARI MAY FALL AT ANY TIME AND LONDON HEARS THAT FORCES OF MONTENEGRO ARE MEETING WITH SUCCESS

London, Oct. 11.—The fall of the Turkish city of Scutari is imminent. Unless Turkish reinforcements arrive soon, the town, with its manufactures of firearms, will be taken by the advancing Montenegrin army. The Ottoman government took lightly Montenegrin threats, and the Turkish military authorities were not prepared on that frontier as on the Serbian and Bulgarian borders.

Hence the reported continued success of the King Nicholas forces.

The Montenegrins followed up their success by capturing yesterday the fort guard in Tushi, thus improving the road for an advance on Scutari and an official telegram received by the consul general of Montenegro in London says the advance has begun. It is pointed out here that the way cannot be traveled without serious fighting as the Albanians in the vicinity have been aroused by Turkish emissaries and are expected to join the Ottoman troops. News from other parts of the Montenegrin frontier is more conflicting. If, as is generally believed, Montenegro precipitated her declaration of war was a part of the strategy of the Balkan allies, the unpreparedness of Turkey on her frontier must have influenced her decision.

Constantinople, Oct. 11.—(From steamer in the Dardanelles Kestendeje, Roumania.)—No fewer than 40,000 Turkish troops from Asia Minor will, it is estimated, be in European Turkey. This will bring the effective force of the Turkish army there to four hundred thousand men.

Turkish officials say that the day of trial has found the military depots full of stores and army equipment complete and of good quality. The Ottoman authorities for months have been strengthening defenses and concentrating troops in the import zone, comprising Adrianople and Kirk Killiseh, just south of the Bulgarian frontier. Since the general mobilization was ordered a great stream of men has been pouring into the district at the rate latterly of 20,000 daily. Turkish officers recognize splendid qualities of the men in the ranks of the Bulgarian army.

The reliability of the Christians serving in the ranks of the Turkish army is one of the great problems of the moment for the Ottoman commanders. The Armenians are expected to behave loyally, but it is said that it would show ignorance of human nature to expect Greeks to fight against Greeks or Bulgarians against Bulgarians and there are many of these nationalities in Turkey.

The feeling among the native Christians may be gauged to a certain extent by their efforts to escape from service by the payment of a tax or by fleeing abroad.

Constantinople, Oct. 11.—Fighting between the Turkish and Montenegrin troops was still in progress this morning in the region of Tushi to the north of Scutari. No details have reached here.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 11.—A despatch from Podgoritz, Montenegro, says the Montenegrin southern army under the command of General Martinovich, has crossed the river Boyana, and captured several Turkish block houses at Tarakosch, near the town of Scutari. The Russian minister of marine has postponed his proposed visit to Paris in view of the possible complications in the Black Sea.

Athens, Greece, Oct. 11.—Princess Alice, wife of Prince Andrew of Greece, has decided to leave at once for the frontier with a number of nurses.

MORGAN MAN IS ON STAND

Washington, D. C., Oct. 11.—Edward T. Stotesbury, of Philadelphia, banker and associate of J. P. Morgan, was the first witness examined today by the Clapp committee investigating campaign expenses.

Other witnesses scheduled included William S. Edward, Roosevelt leader in West Virginia; Fred W. Upham, of Chicago, and S. Aranowitz, of New York.

Stotesbury testified he had collected $165,795.50 in Pennsylvania in 1904 for the republican national campaign, the money going to the national committee.

Principal contributors to the 1904 fund were:

Former Ambassador Charlemagne Tower, $7500; Drexel & Company, $5000; Bethlehem Steel company, $5000; Cambria Steel company, $5000; United States Steel corporation, $127,775; Thomas Dolan, $10,000; G. W. Elkins, $25,000; Midvale Steel company, $5000; Pennsylvania Steel company, $5000; Philadelphia Electric company, $2500.

In 1908 Stotesbury said he collected $101,057.67 in Pennsylvania for the republican national campaign. The more important contributors were: Joseph H. Bromley, Philadelphia, $5000; John and James Dobson, $2000; John Bromley & Sons, Philadelphia, $5000; E. T. Stotesbury, $5000; Drexel & Company, $5000. Mr. Stotesbury said he gave $25,000 this year to President Taft's campaign for re-nomination.

Samuel Aranowitz, of New York, said Samuel S. Koenig, the Taft leader, actually had named most of the Roosevelt watchers.

"I was supposed to be the Roosevelt leader in that district," said the witness, "and Mr. Koenig suggested several men as watchers. The election was controlled by Mr. Koenig's men."

Fred W. Upham, assistant treasurer of the republican national committee in 1908, was the next witness.

Upham said he knew nothing of the 1904 campaign funds. In 1908 he was in charge of the western campaign, with headquarters at Chicago and collected $548,320.59. In addition to that he received $50,000 from Charles P. Taft, but returned it at the end of the campaign. The committee recessed until Monday.

San Jose, Calif., Oct. 11.—A telephone message from the coast near Watsonville states that a submarine ran ashore there today and that two men were drowned.

JUDGES DO NOT BELONG IN POLITICS.

"The use of my name by the Albuquerque Morning Journal in connection with the present campaign was entirely unauthorized by me," said R. H. Hanna, member of the state supreme bench today. "I consider that, as a member of the bench, I can not, with propriety, engage in any form of political activity."

"I am not taking any part in the present political campaign and will confine my participation to casting my vote as may seem to me to be for the best interest of the state and nation."

BANDITS WERE DEFEATED BY ONE MAN

EXPRESS MESSENGER ON KANSAS CITY SOUTHERN TRAIN GAVE THEM A DOSE OF LEAD AND SAVED HIS PACKAGES—BADLY BEATEN UP

Ft. Smith, Ark., Oct. 11.—Four bandits bungled the hold up of a north-bound Kansas City Southern passenger train between Hatfield and Mena, Arkansas, early today. One was wounded and captured and the others escaped after a battle with Express Messenger Merrill Burgett of Kansas City, in which Burgett exhausted his ammunition and was badly beaten.

Burgett shot the robber who was discovered an hour after his companion had deserted him. The robber is being conveyed to Mena. Fifty or more men in armed posse are pursuing the bandits. Burgett is in a hospital at Mena. He will recover.

The train, known as No. 2, left Hatfield, Ark., about 2 o'clock. While Burgett was working in his car he saw the bandits clambering up to the side door. They smashed the glass with their revolver butts.

Burgett sprang to his most valuable packages and hid them, despite the hail of bullets which the bandits poured into the car.

The packages hidden. Burgett turned his attention to the invaders. As Burgett fired at them the robbers reached through the smashed window and loosened the catch which held the door from the inside. They sprang into the car, firing at Burgett as they advanced. The messenger leaped behind some baggage and met the robbers' fire. The train had attained a speed of about 30 miles an hour, and apparently none of the train or locomotive crew knew that hold up was being attempted. A last shot fired by Burgett before the robbers gained the inside of the car, wounded one of them.

The fight continued hot until Burgett's cartridges were gone. The robbers closed in and overpowered him,

SAMUEL GOMPERS IS BROUGHT INTO CASE OF DYNAMITING TOO

BUT THE GOVERNMENT IS SEEKING TO SHOW IT WAS TWEITMOE OF
THE PACIFIC COAST WHO FINANCED THE CREWS BLOWING UP TIMES AND IRON WORKS IN CALIFORNIA

JUDGE ANDERSON HOLDS THAT BIG LABOR LEADER IS NOT INVOLVED

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 11.—Whether Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was present at a certain labor union meeting held in St. Louis, Mo., in November, 1910, was asked by government attorneys in the dynamite conspiracy trial.

Frank Schilding, clerk of a hotel in St. Louis, testified that the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers was holding its annual convention in St. Louis at the time. He named Frank M. Ryan, Chicago; Michael J. Young, Boston; F. J. McNulty, Newark, N. J.; M. B. Madden, Chicago, and Olaf A. Tveitmo, San Francisco, as registered at the hotel. The convention was held the month after the Los Angeles Times disaster, and it was at that time, the government charges, that Tveitmo told Ryan, president of the Iron Workers, that the "Pacific coast expected a Christmas present" in the shape of more explosions. Tveitmo also was described as "the big pay master" who financed the dynamiters. At the St. Louis meeting he was charged with promoting the Llewellyn Iron Works explosion.

"Was Mr. Gompers registered at the hotel at the time?" asked Attorney J. W. Noel.

"He wasn't registered, but he was around the hotel a good deal," answered the witness.

United States Senator Kern, for the defense, objected. "Mr. Gompers is not a defendant. He has nothing to do with the case."

"Nothing other than it will be shown that he had something to do with the defense of the conspirators in the state of California," replied Mr. Noel.

Judge Anderson ruled he at present saw no relevancy in the mention of Mr. Gompers' name and if none appeared in further testimony, he would so instruct the jury.

Pieces of exploded cans, old tin cans in which nitro glycerine had been carried, cartridges, fuses and magazine guns were put in readiness by the government today to be used in the dynamite conspiracy trial.

Gathered from many sections of the country in the wake of Ortie E. McManigal and the McNamara, they have been classified by Clarence W. Nichols, assistant district attorney, and are to be used as physical evidence in the government's charges of illegal interstate shipment of explosives.

Six hundred and twenty exhibits have been listed. They are to be presented to the jury one by one and include: Two magazine guns, a rifle, fuses and alarm clock attachments for bombs, taken from the values of McManigal and James B. McNamara, when they were arrested in the lobby of a hotel in Detroit on April 12, 1911. A fibroid suit case, made in Cincinnati, for carrying nitro-glycerine which Henry W. Leggett, now of Denver, is alleged to have brought from Pittsburg to the Iron Workers' headquarters in Indianapolis. Nitro-glycerine cans found near a portion of a bridge over the Missouri river at Kansas City, Mo., which McManigal blew up August, 1910. Suit case in which McManigal carried dynamite and which bears the stains of having been placed on a radiator. A shawl strap in which George (Hipper) Anderson, Cleveland, a defendant, is charged with having carried a dynamite box to a suburb of Cleveland. Parts of an infernal machine found near the home of F. J. Zeehander.

although he gave battle to three, wounding the butt of his short shot gun effectively. The bandits clubbed the messenger repeatedly, asking: "Where's that package of money?"

Bleeding, Burgett crouched in the corner of the car while the robbers brutally beat and kicked him, but did not reveal the hiding place.

The bandits searched the car carefully, found nothing, then applied the air brakes.

By this time the train conductor had begun an investigation. As the conductor came forward with his lantern, the robbers fled.

In answer to the conductor's repeated knockings on the door of the express car, Burgett struggled to his feet, unlocked the door, then fainted. He was revived long enough to give a brief sketch of the attempted hold-up and the train was rushed into Mena.

A posse was organized to pursue the robbers into the hills near Hatfield and Potter, Ark. Near Potter the wounded robber was found.

The wounded robber, who is unidentified, received a charge of shot in the breast, near the heart. Probably he will die.

COAL TARIFFS IN NEW MEXICO ARE SUSPENDED

Washington, D. C., Oct. 11.—Freight tariffs making advances on soft coal from Colorado and New Mexico mines to destinations in the middle west were suspended today by the interstate commerce commission until April 28. An investigation is in progress.

CATCHING A TARTAR.

(From the Washington Post.)

Whatever may have been President Roosevelt's relations with E. H. Harriman prior to and after 1904, the letters produced at the hearing before the Clapp committee show no trace of illegality, and when the Colonel appears to testify the committee will probably find that it has caught a tartar too strong for any of the cross examination of the senate.

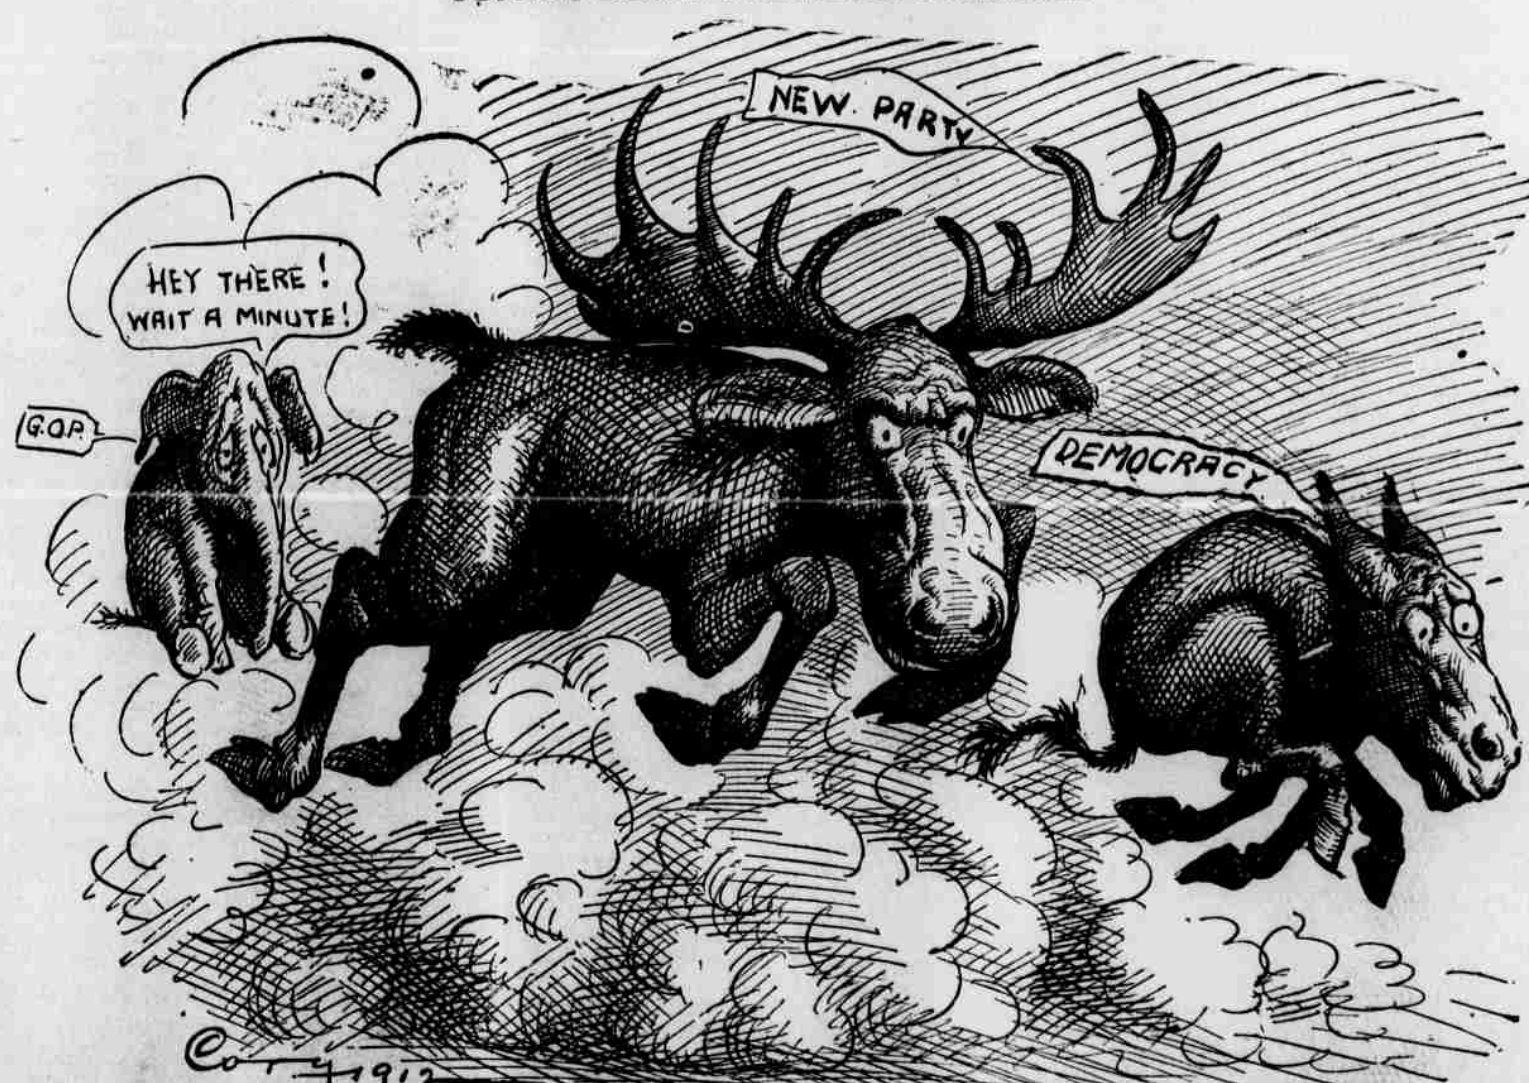

It is made quite plain by the letters that the Colonel was anxious to have Mr. Harriman visit him at the White House to "talk matters over." Before the election of 1904, Mr. Roosevelt undoubtedly depended very largely on Mr. Harriman's advice as to political conditions in New York. It is also made plain that Mr. Harriman did contribute $50,000 to the national committee, and the presumption, therefore, is that the money was to be used for Mr. Roosevelt's benefit.

But what has all this to do with the present campaign? There may be those who will take the view that the colonel's veracity has been impeached. Or that, having dealt with Mr. Harriman before the election, he was ungrateful in turning cold after the election, but the admirers of the Colonel will shout joyfully: "Teddy put one over that time." The personality of Mr. Roosevelt is such that his friends cannot be won from him by any such disclosures, while his enemies need no such impetus to make them anxious to defeat him. The people formed their judgment of the Colonel long ago, and the decision on November 5 will hardly be affected by the testimony before the Clapp committee.

What the people must decide is, not whether Colonel Roosevelt was a close friend to Mr. Harriman in 1904, but whether his program as head of the third party would be disastrous or beneficial; and whether, accepting it as beneficial, it would be possible for him, without a majority of his own party in congress, to carry out the sweeping reforms which he promises.

Mr. Roosevelt's relations with Mr. Harriman have nothing to do with the issues of the campaign, and are worth only that degree of attention that is given to historical novels.

STOMACH MISERY
JUST VANISHES

No indigestion, Gas or Sour
ness After Taking "Pape's Diapepsin."

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach, headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapepsin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. Diapepsin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.

CATTLE SHIPPED
AT CARLSBAD

Carlsbad, N. M.—About 1500 cattle were loaded at the Carlsbad pens last week. The stuff came from the Guadalupe mountains and delivered to Bronson & Wilson, of Kansas. The steers were sold in the spring at $23 for ones, $30 for twos and $35 for older steers. The total money consideration was about $40,000. For several days Carlsbad had the appearance of the old time cow town.

Last week a general three day rain fell over the valley. The total fall was about 2.50 inches. It rained again last night and indications are good for further precipitation. The moisture that has fallen will help the range very much. The farmers that are planting alfalfa welcomed the rain as well. It will insure a good stand on the thousands of acres that are being planted to alfalfa this fall.

The Carlsbad Orchard and Plantation company is doing much work on their big farm six miles below town. A large force of men have been at work for many weeks clearing land, breaking and leveling. Several hundred acres are now in perfect condition for planting. A corps of engineers have been at work on the canals and proposed extensions of the main canal.
The engineers will complete their work in the near future when construction will begin. Alfalfa is being planted and in the winter many fruit trees will be set out.

NOTICE.
To all Automobile Chauffeurs, Greeting:

Be it known by copy of ordinance attached that every one guiding an automobile is required to blow a horn, siren or whistle turning or crossing corners of the streets or passing vehicles from the rear. Failure to comply with this rule will subject the offender to arrest by the city marshal or his police. A great many complaints have been received that this ordinance is not being enforced. Any one may stop at the marshal's office and get a copy of the ordinance which reads as follows:

"Sub-Sec. 11. That every automobile, motor cycle, and every motor vehicle shall be equipped with horn, siren or whistle, which shall be sounded when rounding corners or crossing any street or when passing any vehicle from the rear; every automobile or other motor vehicle, except motor cycles shall be equipped with three lights, two in front and one in rear—rear light red. Motor cycles shall be equipped with one front light, all other vehicles shall be equipped with a front light. All lights shall be lighted within forty-five minutes after sunset and until daylight."

was still on, that it started for the great "wild west," traveling in a freighter, dragged by 30 mules. Over the Santa Fe trail was "some" journey in those days and the 7,000 pounds weight of the safe must have made the mules believe a passenger of much importance was being transported.

On, on, the safe traveled, and it is said "safely"—its thick sides of steel braved heat or cold, wind or rain with perfect equanimity. Perhaps it spent a few days in Santa Fe away back in '64 but this city was not to be its residence then. For it traveled farther—stopping finally at Tucson, Arizona, where it entered the employ of the federal government. For nearly 19 years the safe was a faithful servant, never betraying a secret or giving up an important document.

In 1883 the government ordered the safe sent to Santa Fe and for the past 29 years it has reposed in the internal revenue office, enjoying a singularly placid existence as far as escaping fire, dynamite and the wiles of nitro-glycerine are concerned. Perhaps the formidable proportions of the treasure keeper have deterred any hand from attempting to pry open those steel doors.

It was with a smile of pride that Chief Deputy James J. Goutchey or Deputy F. D. Blandy, or other officials would point to "old iron sides," as they called the relic of bellicose days.
And now after all these years of fidelity to a sacred trust; after nearly half a century of acquaintance with the external affairs of the internal revenue service, the safe has been transferred to the office of the U. S.
Marshal to be gazed upon by men of high and low degree—some of them perhaps prisoners who have been "sent for" and whose six shooter will be removed from his hip pocket and placed in one of the secret recesses of "old iron sides."

But the safe did not submit to this change of venue without a protest—judging from the expression on the faces of the men with the block and tackle and the groans of the pine boards which protected the stairs.

Nor did the change go unmarked by officials in the federal building. There was one whose face showed veritable signs of alarm. "What's the matter with Surveyor General March?" was asked as that official made a careful survey of the ceiling.

"Old iron sides, 7,000 pounds in weight, now is resting o'er the surveyor general's head," was the reply punctuated with chuckles.

GREEK MINERS IN A STRIKE.

Bingham, Utah, Oct. 11.—Several hundred Greek strikers had the first serious encounter in the Bingham miners' strike today. One Greek miner was shot through the leg, another was knocked down with a rifle butt.
Both were taken to the hospital. A number were arrested. The trouble occurred when the strikers gathered at a hillside settlement opposite the Utah Copper company's pit where a steam shovel was put in operation.

Donald was arrested.

SUMMER FOOD OFTEN

CAUSES DYSPEPSIA.

Their Effect on the Digestive Organs Responsible for Many of the Season's Ills.

Summer should be the season of perfect health, but impure water and milk, unripe fruit, and the tendency to indulge in acid foods and iced drinks, produces a contrary condition in many people.

The effect of the average summer diet is to constipate even normally regular bowels, and this results in disarranging the entire digestive system. When the bowels are choked with the stomach's refuse, indigestion is almost sure to follow and the waste matter that should pass out through the bowels, not finding passage, ferments in the stomach and the poisons are forced into the blood, causing much distress and often serious illness.

To keep the bowels free there is no more effective remedy than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a pleasant-tasting bowel stimulant and laxative tonic that is very gentle in its action bringing relief in an easy, natural manner, and without discomfort. A spoonful of Syrup Pepsin will quickly check summer diarrhoea by cleansing the bowels and removing the foreign matter that irritates and inflames the tissue. It is sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle; a large family size, considerably more than twice the quantity, costs a dollar. If you have never used Syrup Pepsin and would like a free trial bottle, postpaid, write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

MORE FUN LAST NIGHT

The Musical Comedy company had another full house last night, and another two hours of laughter greeted them. The skit was full of humor; the dancing was graceful and pretty; the Dutchman and his pal were a source of continuous amusement and were funny every minute, while all the other members of the company did their share in making the evening enjoyable.

The part of the ex-constable and would-be lawyer, seemed to be the great success of the evening and the recalls the artist had in one of his songs was certainly proof of the appreciation of his audience. His make-up, extravagant though it was, touched the ticklebone side of the house and everybody laughed at the actions and remarks of the comedians. The Dutchman lost none of the popularity which he won the evening before, and the bell hop was a capital character.

The "broilers" had some very pretty costumes last evening and their dances were gracefully and lightly done. The ladies, the wife and the heiress, lacked in no way in adding their share to the evening's pleasure and the audience flocked out at the close of the entertainment with broad smiles on their faces, nobody finding fault, but all saying it was good fun. The company certainly lost no prestige by the visit they have made to Santa Fe, and left a pleasing impression here.

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

Do not sap the springs of life by neglect of the human mechanism, by allowing the accumulation of poisons in the system. An imitation of Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous strength is to take an alternative glyceric extract (without alcohol) of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the proper elements from food, help the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough.

No one ever takes cold unless constipated, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. The "Discovery" is an all-round tonic which restores tone to the blood, nerves and heart by imitating Nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart and lungs on rich red blood.

"I suffered from pain under my right shoulder blade also a very severe cough," writes Mrs. W. D. Don, of New Brookland, S. C., to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "Had four different doctors and none did me any good. Some said I had consumption, others said I would have to have an operation. I was bedridden, unable to sit up for six months and was nothing but a live skeleton. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. When I had taken one bottle of the 'Discovery' I could sit up for an hour at a time, and when I had taken three bottles I could do my cooking and tend to the children. I took fourteen bottles in all and was then in good health. My weight is now 127 pounds."

Believes This Will "Cure Lung Troubles"

Consumption is a baffling disease—that is one of its chief dangers. Those who have it are rarely willing to acknowledge the fact, if the trouble is present, it is no time for trial. If a cough is present that keeps you anxious, or any of the symptoms are present, such as fever or night sweats, weakness and loss of appetite, and perhaps some raising of mucus—do the sensible thing:—take Eckman's Alternative—as Mr. Bettersworth did.

Honoring Green, "S. R. No. 4," "Gentlemen: I wish to say for your Alternative that I believe it to be a medicine of unequalled value for all Bronchial and Lung Trouble. The Spring of 1908, I had a severe cough for six months. I tried all the medicine that my doctors recommended to me, but no results came for the better. I had night sweats, and would cough and spit until I got so weak I could hardly do anything. But, at last, James Deering, of Glasgow Junction, insisted that I try your medicine. In one week's time there was quite an improvement in my condition, and after I had taken several bottles, I felt as well as ever in my life.

I desire the world to know that I firmly believe that your Eckman's Alternative will cure any case of lung trouble if taken before the last stage. I will gladly write personally to any party wanting information in regard to your wonderful medicine." (Sworn Affidavit.)

A. C. BETTERS WORTH.

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in unobedient the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa. for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists at Zook's Pharmacy, Santa Fe.

BARNES' SHOW ON TUESDAY

Agents for the Al. G. Barnes big three ring wild animal circus have been in Santa Fe several days commencing arrangements for the coming of that big show which will give two performances here on Tuesday, October 15. During the stay of the show here the 350 animals and a similar number of employees will consume enough food products to exhaust half a dozen commissaries.

In order that there will be no delay in securing these necessities for man and beast the contracting is generally done a fortnight preceding the arrival of the big show. For one day it requires three tons of fresh meat, five tons of hay, six hundred pounds of fresh vegetables, sixty gallons of milk, 350 pounds of fresh salt water fish, 25 pounds of coffee, 400 loaves of bread in addition to thousands of pounds of corn and oats.

Only the very best and freshest of meat can be given to animals. The least taint or disease would cause trouble in some form or other, and in many cases serious sickness and death would follow. The best food for lions or tigers is fresh beef or mutton, and occasionally sheep's head. About twelve or fifteen pounds of beef or mutton are given to each of the lions with the Al. G. Barnes circus twice a day. Pork is never given under any consideration, or much fat.

On Sunday no food, but plenty of water, is given to the carnivora. This fast day once a week is absolutely necessary; it helps their digestion, prevents them from growing too fat and lazy, and is beneficial to their health in many ways. When a lion or tiger needs an aperient, a piece of liver is given.

Wild animals sometimes become sick, they being susceptible, to a large extent, from the same complaints as human beings, they can be treated in much the same way. In ordinary cases the animals are given a complete fast with plenty of water. When this fails to have the proper effect then medicine is given after it has been mixed in water or milk. It is only in extreme cases that it is a good thing to give medicine. The best way is to let nature have her way.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION OF SANTA FE PRODUCTS COMPANY.

State of New Mexico.

Office of the State Corporation Commission.

It is Hereby Certified, that the annexed is a full, true and complete transcript of the Certificate of Incorporation of Santa Fe Products Company, (No. 7329); with the endorsements thereon, as same appears on file and of record in the office of the State Corporation Commission.

In Testimony Whereof, the Chairman and Clerk of said Commission have hereunto set their hands and affixed the seal of said Commission, at the City of Santa Fe, on this 3rd day of October, A. D. 1912.

(Seal) HUGH H. WILLIAMS, Chairman.

Attest: EDWIN F. COARD, Clerk.

Certificate of Incorporation of Santa Fe Products Company.

We, the undersigned, in order to form a corporation for the purpose hereinafter stated, under and pursuant to the provisions of an Act of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico, entitled: "An Act to Regulate the Formation and Government of Corporations for Mining, Manufacturing, Industrial and Other Pursuits," approved March 15, 1905, do hereby certify as follows:

FIRST: The name of the corporation is: Santa Fe Products Company.

SECOND: The registered office of the corporation is located in Rooms 10-15, Laughlin Building, in the city of Santa Fe, New Mexico; Mr. Edward H. Oakley is designated as the statutory agent therein, in charge thereof, and upon whom process against the corporation may be served.

THIRD: The objects for which the corporation is established are:

To breed, raise, buy, sell, export, import, and deal in cattle, sheep, horses, and livestock of all classes and descriptions. To build, construct, buy, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, and maintain slaughter-houses. To carry on the business of butchers and packers; also to manufacture, buy, sell, and generally deal in all articles made from the carcasses of animals.

To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire farms and lands suitable for stock raising and agricultural business.

To engage in the business of selling, goods, wares and merchandise as commission agents, and as general selling agents; particularly to act as agents or brokers for the selling upon commission or otherwise of all kinds of farm products, including fruits of every character.

To produce, purchase, sell and generally deal in milk, vegetables and all kinds of farm and garden products; to manufacture, buy, sell and generally deal in butter, buttermilk, oleomargarine and butterine, and all kinds of dairy products, also to sterilize, condense, preserve and certify milk.

To produce, manufacture, buy, sell, import, export, and generally deal in food and cereal products of all classes and descriptions. Also to can, export, import, and sell meats, fish, vegetables, and fruits of all kinds and descriptions.

To buy, sell, import, export and generally deal in fruits and fruit products. To buy, sell, lease, or otherwise acquire, mortgage, sell, or otherwise dispose of real estate to any amount not limited by law. To engage in the cultivation, planting, and production of fruits and agricultural products. To prepare and manufacture fruit and vegetable products of kindred goods of every class and description.

To raise, produce, buy, sell, exchange and deal in trees, plants, shrubs and seeds of every character, and to do a general nursery business.

To engage in the business of raising, selling and preparing for market all poultry and eggs. To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire land, buildings, and necessary equipment for the carrying on of the aforesaid business. To buy, and sell chicken food and incubators. To buy, sell, import, export, and generally deal in poultry and poultry products of every kind, class, and description. To hatch, breed, and raise, either by natural means or incubators, poultry of every kind, class, and description. To buy, and sell chickens, ducks, geese, and guinea-fowls. To print, publish, and distribute magazines and literature of every class and description.

IN FURTHERANCE AND NOT IN LIMITATION of the general powers conferred by the laws of the State of New Mexico, and the objects and purposes herein set forth, it is expressly provided that this corporation shall also have the following powers, viz:

To take, own, hold, deal in, mortgage or otherwise lien, and to lease, sell, exchange, transfer, or in any manner whatever dispose of real property, within or without the State of New Mexico, wherever situated.

To guarantee, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of, the shares of the capital stock of, or any bonds, securities of evidences of indebtedness issued or created by any other corporation or corporations of this State or any other State, country, nation or government, and while owner of said stock may exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, to the same extent as natural persons might or could do.

To enter into, make and perform contracts of every kind with any person, firm, association or corporation, municipality, body politic, county, territory, state, government or colony or dependency thereof; and without limit as to the amount to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, warrants, bonds, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments and evidence of indebtedness, whether secured as well as to secure the same by mortgage or otherwise, so far as may be permitted by the laws of the State of New Mexico.

To have offices, conduct its business and promote its objects within and without the State of New Mexico, in other States, the District of Columbia, the territories and colonies of the United States, and in foreign countries, without restriction as to place or amount.

To purchase, hold, cancel and re-issue the shares of its capital stock.

To do any or all of the things hereinafter set forth to the same extent as natural persons might or could do, and in any part of the world, as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and either alone or in company with others.

In General to carry on any other business in connection therewith, whether manufacturing or otherwise, not contrary to the laws of the State of New Mexico, and with all the powers conferred upon corporations by the laws of the State of New Mexico.

FOURTH: The corporation is authorized to issue capital stock to the extent of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), divided into Ten Thousand (10,000) shares, of Ten Dollars ($10.00) each.

FIFTH: The names and post office addresses of the incorporators, and the number of shares of capital stock subscribed for by each, the aggregate of which shall be the amount with which the corporation will commence business are as follows:

Name. Residence. Shares. Value.

Nathan B. Stern, New York City, New York 200 $2,000

Edward H. Oakley, Santa Fe, New Mexico 10 100

Charles Patek, Santa Fe, New Mexico 1 10

SIXTH: The time for which this corporation shall exist shall be fifty (50) years.

SEVENTH: The names of the members of the Board of Directors for the first three months shall be as follows:

Nathan B. Stern, Edward H. Oakley and Charles Patek.

EIGHTH: The Directors shall have power to authorize and cause to be executed mortgages and liens upon the property and franchises of this corporation, subject to the provisions of the By-Laws.

It is the intention that the objects, purposes and powers specified in the third paragraph hereof shall, except where otherwise specified in said paragraph be nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any clause or paragraph in this Certificate of Incorporation, but that the objects, purposes and powers specified in the third paragraph and in each of the clauses or paragraphs of this charter shall be regarded as independent objects, purposes and powers.

RED SOX WIN 3 TO 1 EXCITING GAME PULLED OFF IN NEW YORK.

SCORE:
BOSTON.....3 8 1
NEW YORK.....1 9 1

Polo Grounds, N. Y., Oct. 11.—The Boston Americans defeated the New York Nationals by a score of 3 to 1 today in the fourth game of the world's series before a crowd numbering about 40,000 persons. Joe Wood, Boston's star pitcher, was invincible when his team runs and the New York batters could do nothing with him.

Wood did not give a base on balls. Wagner played a strong game at short for Boston, taking several hit balls that were heading for center field while on the dead run and pinching the batters at first by fast throws.

Official attendance figures will not be ready for some time.

The national commissioner's figures for attendance and receipts at today's game were:

Paid attendance, 36,502; Total receipts, $76,644; national commissioner's share, $7,664.50; Players' share, $41,327.76. Each club's share, $15,795.92.

Sudden clouds that made a constant threat of rain failed to dampen the ardor of thousands of New York baseball enthusiasts who flocked out to the polo grounds today to see the fourth game of the world's series between the New York Nationals and the Boston Americans.

The national commission did not decide to play the game until a few minutes before noon, when Umpire O'Loughlin reported that while the playing field was very soggy, a game could be played if no more rain fell.

Ten thousand fans waited for hours in a long line that reached for many blocks from the Brush stadium until the gates were opened.

A heavy rain fell during the night. The commission decided that the game had better be played today as indications were for rain tomorrow.

There was a wild yell of joy from the crowd when the gates were opened and the lower grand stand and backfield bleachers began to fill rapidly.

batting practice followed. An hour and a half before the game found the sky screened with dull grey clouds and there was a suspicion of mist in the air. The infield was in fairly good condition for playing, but the outer gardens were soaked and were very slippery.

The batting order:
Boston: Hooper, lf.; Yerkes, 2b.; Speaker, cf.; Lewis, rf.; Gardner, 3b.; Stahl, 1b.; Wagner, ss.; Cady, c.; Wood, p.

New York: Devore, lf.; Doyle, 2b.; Snodgrass, cf.; Murray, rf.; Merkle, 1b.; Herzog, 3b.; Meyers, c.; Fletcher, ss.; Tesreau, p.

The total sum allotted to the players is already more than $106,000 for the three games played, as against $127,000 odd for the entire share last year. The players' share for the first game here was $40,568.

Tesreau and Meyers were announced as batters for New York; Wood and Cady for Boston.

Umpire Rigley went behind the field. Umpire Evans went to left field, Umpire Klem to right field, and Umpire right after having two strikes called on him. Merkle stole second. Cady's throw was wide and high. Herzog went out, Yerkes to Stahl. Merkle took third on the play. Meyers fled to Lewis who judged the ball badly and only caught it by leaping into the air.

No runs, one hit, no errors.

THIRD INNING.

First half: The New York crowd gave Joe Wood a great hand as he went to the plate. Wood singled to right. Hooper walked to first on four wide balls. LOVE PIRATE, ELKS' THEATRE MONDAY, OCTOBER 14.

THREE ACT COMEDY 'THE LOVE PIRATE' OPENS MONDAY.

CLARENCE AUSKINGS PRESENTS
GOOD STOCK COMPANY, FEATURING
JOHN E. FRANK AND NELLIE WATTERS.

In the "Love Pirate," opening at the Elks' theater Monday under the management of Clarence Auskings, Santa Feans have an excellent opportunity to see and appreciate the best of stock productions at moderate prices. The John E. Frank players and their opening vehicle, the "Love Pirate," have received only the most complimentary of press notices in every town played. A sidesplitting comedy from start to finish, and intensely interesting, the piece sends every one home happy. It is just the sort to make sad people glad and glad people more glad.

Both the Frank Players and the "Love Pirate" have an enviable reputation in the stage world and in securing this good stock company the Elks management is taking a long step forward in the matter of firmly establishing stock productions in this city. The prices are to be 25, 35 and 50 cents, and the Frank company are just the company to prove that good stock productions can be profitably staged in this city at such low prices.

SUMMARY OF WEATHER IN SEPTEMBER

The month of September, 1912, averaged much below the normal, both in temperature and in precipitation. It was the coldest September within the records of New Mexico; no previous month having an average temperature of less than 62.3 degrees (1902), while the month just closed averaged 60.6 degrees. The deficiency was general, although greatest in the north and the northeast counties, where many stations showed a deficiency for the month averaging more than 6 degrees a day. The lower Rio Grande valley and the mountain districts had the least deficiency, averaging, in a few instances, practically normal, or but slightly below, while border counties generally were far below the normal temperature.

No previous September experienced so low minimum temperatures; a minimum of only 8 degrees was recorded at Elizabethtown, while Dulce recorded 11 degrees and Bluewater only 12 degrees. It has been many years, also since so general and damaging a frost occurred so early. Higher northern and western stations had

OUR ANSWER.

The Albuquerque Morning Journal, the paper which prides itself on being without a policy, has at various times furnished assistance to the progressive cause in New Mexico. The idea of the paper seems to be "progress where progress pays." During the last three months it has performed the most remarkable series of caricatures which we remember to have seen in any self-respecting sheet. It attacked Wilson in the most bitter terms. It gave mild commendation to Taft. It gave what, from the Journal, might be called praise to Roosevelt, and pronounced his platform the only one which attempts to deal with the issues of the day. It jumped on Taft. It belabored Roosevelt. It now considers Wilson the least of three evils. Why? When the people of New Mexico demand the reasons for these myriad changes of front the Journal mumbles something about George Armijo, Governor Curry, or the necessity of defeating Frank Hubbell.

Such puerilities can deceive no one. It is a well known fact that the Morning Journal is for sale. That is the one and only explanation for the vacillating policy of this "Independent Newspaper."

Under these circumstances it seems hardly worth while to waste ammunition on anything the Morning Journal may say about us. But a late editorial entitled, "The Fight Still On" contains so many misstatements that we feel obliged to set our readers right. In the first place, the Journal has for some time been talking about a "slander," an "insinuation," an "attack" made by this paper on former Governor Herbert J. Hagerman. It now has the temerity to assert that a private apology was made to Governor Hagerman by a representative of the New Mexican. This statement is a fabrication out of whole cloth. No apology was ever made or ever will be made to Governor Hagerman for insinuations made against him by the New Mexican, for the simple reason that no insinuations were ever made. This paper has never reflected on Governor Hagerman, and no one except a few unscrupulous persons could ever have distorted anything printed by us so as to make it bear such a construction. We have yet to find an unprejudiced reader of the paper who so understood our remarks. They were not so understood by Governor Hagerman.

The next misstatement made by the Journal is at first blush of a slightly more serious character. We quote from the same editorial: "When the so-called progressive movement of this state fell into the hands of the worst part of the gangsters against which he fought, he" (Governor Hagerman). "Associate Justice R. H. Hanna, Captain W. H. Gillenwater and Levi Hughes quit the movement in disgust. They were the brains and chief financial backers of the independent movement a year ago that resulted in the election of McDonald as governor and Ferguson as congressman. Mr. Cutting worked with them, but not so with the men who are surrounding him now."

Well, let us see. Who are the men working with Mr. Cutting now? There is former Governor M. A. Otero, for instance. Was he not in the "independent movement" last year? We should be interested to hear whether the Journal includes in its list of "gangsters" the man who put an end to Hubbellism in Bernalillo county. Then, there is Marcos C. de Baca of Sandoval. We seem to have heard of him in last fall's election. There are men in every county, like Elmer E. Studley and Jeremiah Leahy of Colfax, who fought the progressive battles last year and are fighting them still harder now. In the Journal's own city we have probably the strongest single influence which went to win the fight last fall, a man of unsullied character and splendid record, who is standing with us like a stone wall for Theodore Roosevelt. We earnestly call upon the Morning Journal to tell us its candid opinion of the Hon. Jesus Romero. These men and thousands like them were with us last year and are with us now. Mr. Cutting feels no cause to be ashamed of association with such men.

As for Captain Gillenwater, he has accepted a place on the progressive executive committee. If under these circumstances he is not with us, it is up to him to say so. We have no reason whatever to suppose that Judge Hanna has deserted the progressive cause. A high sense of his dignified position on the bench has kept Judge Hanna from taking any part in political affairs. We do not, however, believe that he has authorized the Morning Journal to announce what cause he is supporting or what cause he has deserted.

We have taken space to analyze this editorial because it is typical of many that have preceded it and probably of many that will follow it. It will be seen that it contains not a single shred of truth in any of its leading statements. By exposing such twaddle once for all, we hope we shall avoid wasting our time with this sort of thing again. One of the greatest movements—perhaps the greatest movement—in American history is now being launched into the sea of crooked politics and archaic issues. Are you with us or are you against us? If you are with us on principle—don't let us waste our energies discussing the character of individuals. If you are against us, let us know it, and we are ready to argue any real issue of this campaign on its merits. But don't distort the facts and thereby force us to set them straight again. Because whatever may be the case with the Journal, the New Mexican has a policy of its own. And it does not propose to desert the vital issues of this campaign in order to argue over the personality of a presidential elector or the composition of a central committee. We apologize to our readers for taking up their time in discussing the maunderings of a paper that is blatantly for sale, and we trust that we shall not be forced to do so again. This is indeed no time for personalities.

But while we are on personalities, we should greatly appreciate it if the Morning Journal could find out for us the name of the man who told Mr. Harold Pierce how many drinks Col. Roosevelt took in Albuquerque. Even a paper without a policy might do him in tracking a news item. This particular news item would be of interest to a great many people in New Mexico and elsewhere.

IT ONLY HELPS.

The testimony of ex-President Roosevelt was direct and simple and straightforward, and his word will be accepted. What the country is now curious about is the origin of Professor Wilson's anti-campaign funds and the heavier and more craftily hidden resources of Mr. Taft. The lack of curiosity and lack of enterprise of the senatorial committee in regard to these two funds is now comprehended by the public and is having its effect.

The partisan press is now doing good work wherever it continues its unreasonable attacks upon and personal abuse of Colonel Roosevelt. This course has led to a reaction. The people simply won't believe. They know Roosevelt and know that he made a good president and accomplished great things for the good of the American people. They reason that if he made a good president once, he will, with his experience, make even a better one again. They cannot be moved.

It has been a marked and excellent development of the past week that a better spirit is evidenced in the attitude of the old line republicans throughout the country. Though recognizing the apparent hopelessness of the Taft cause they no longer, in their bitterness against the progressive party, threaten to ally themselves with the democrats. They realize that the choice now lies between Roosevelt and Wilson and the first gust of passion over, they are changing their minds as to what they will do. This is made evident by the attitude of a great number of the republican newspapers, the country weeklies especially.

Ollie James, who keynoted at Baltimore and who is about to assume the Blue Grass toga, has begun to make suggestions for Wilson's cabinet, his first essay as a suggester being Bryan for attorney general. It is a little early to be forecasting cabinets, but it is a harmless amusement and if Ollie enjoys it, it's all right. It occurs to us, however, that Bryan's equipment would make him more eligible for secretary of state than legal adviser, but perhaps Ollie thinks that office would about fit a man by the name of James.

AS THE BYSTANDER SEES IT

A RARE CHANCE.

Up at San Juan they are tearing down the old church that has stood for hundreds of years, to be replaced by a $40,000 brick structure.

Of course this old building had in it all those old hand hewn brackets and vigas that have now become to be considered so valuable and which are gradually becoming more and more scarce. As time goes on these old buildings, with their air of history and romance are being replaced with structures more modern and of greater size to meet the conditions of increased patronage and growth of population.

The old church at San Juan, now being razed, that this new structure may take its place, has been the scene of the stirring events of long ago, and had its part in the history of the Spanish invasion and eventual conquest.

It was here the Spaniards stopped before coming on to Santa Fe. They found the Indians friendly and the village was called Yunque.

The Spaniards stopped for a time, and there was erected the old building which has served its purpose so long and is now giving way to the onward march of what we delight to call, civilization.

Here was then established the town known in all the succeeding years as San Juan, being first christened, Pueblo de San Juan de los Caballeros.

So, in the ancient building have been, all these years, the vigas and brackets originally placed there and now to be procured at reasonable prices, as a part of the perpetuation of the ancient things that have become to be so highly prized.

I wondered if these old bits of ancient architecture could not be procured by the archaeological society and used in the restoration of the Palace of the Governors now being planned. It seems to me the vigas and brackets would come into play in just such work. Anyway it seems too bad to have ancient bits of so great value lost, or permitted to go into decay. Of course, the time to procure them is now.

THEY EAT BY THE YARD.

We have all read a good many times of pie eating contests and the like, but here is a new one. Down on Long Island a dozen or so substantial men have formed a club. They are all lovers of sea foods and their dinners are famous. One of their specialties is eel eating. A fisherman is delegated to catch a lot of eels of about the same size. Then the members sit down to eat fried eels to capacity limit.

They eat and eat and eat, each man laying the dismantled bones which he has stripped by his own plate. As each one drops out the bones by his plate are stretched out on the table, the sections placed end to end and measured. The chap having the shortest measure of bones pays the whole shot.

The man who cannot eat his own length in eel is not considered much, but a member who stood 5 feet 10 inches, and ate 6 feet 10 inches of eels was considered a good sport.

It would seem to an outsider and one who could not eat eels anyway, that the fellows who eat at the Long Island club ought to make good gymnasts. They ought to do great stunts as India rubber men, as we used to call them at the circus—the chaps who tied themselves into a knot you know and backed through a little hoop that didn't look half big enough, and went through all the gymnastics that seemed wholly impossible. One would think that, the eel eaters ought to make good politicians. They could squirm out of most anything, one would think, and as I understand it the ability to squirm is one of the necessary qualifications of a real politician. If he could gain the knowledge of how to do it by eating eels it would not be as expensive as some other methods men have adopted to become politicians, but of course, eating by the yard does not appeal to all of us, even though the results achieved by it might be most gratifying.

One would think that six feet and ten inches of eel would go quite a ways though, in giving the eater the quality of sleepiness. I don't think I care for any. Not for much! How does two yards, ten inches of eel at one eating appeal to you.

THE GREAT GAME.

We American people are enthusiasts in our feelings and our expressions. It is astonishing to see the intense interest in what we call our national game. Each day, during the great world's series in base ball, our telephone bell rings a dozen times during the afternoon with the anxious query, "What's the score?" "Smoke Wood," "Matty, the Big Six," "Rube Marquard," "Jeff Tesreau," "Buck O'Brien," who does not know them and admire them, and who does not watch their every play with a greater interest than the movements of the candidates for the presidency are watched? It is the best, the cleanest sport in the world, this base ball. To sit in the stand on a summers day and look out on the green diamond, where the experts in their natty uniforms are playing the great game, is the acme of delight to the real fan. There is nothing like it.

The day has gone by when base ball was looked upon as a sport in which only the graduates from the sand lots could play. Today graduates from colleges and high schools play the most prominent part, and to be a member of one of the big teams a fellow must be a gentleman. To the boys who come into the upper ten clubs, from the amateur field, and who have had no chance for an education in the schools, the life of the professional player is an education in itself. The association is not degrading, but, rather, helpful and the rules are strict against boozing and against anything that is ungentlemanly. It is no slur on any man to be a member of a big league club.

The thing that appeals, too, is that the great game is absolutely on the square. There is no jockeying in it. It has been kept clean. So it is no wonder that it has a great army of admirers who watch the work of the leading players with admiration and interest. It is no wonder that it has come to be known as the "great American game." It is no wonder that so many of our people want to know, "what's the score?"

MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL.

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 8, 1912. The city council met in regular session at 7 p. m., with Mayor Lopez in the chair.

Roll call showed the following members present: Akers, Alarid, Baca, R. L. Baca, Nick, Butt and Shoemaker. Councilmen Romulo Lopez and George Armijo being absent. There being a quorum present, the council proceeded to business.

The reports of officers were read and referred to the Finance committee. Bills for the quarter ending September 30, were referred to the Finance committee, with instructions to examine, approve and pay all just bills. Councilman R. L. Baca called attention to the necessity of having the city engineer make a proper plat after due survey made, of all lands outside of the city limits, belonging to the city of Santa Fe, and which lands are within the limits of the Santa Fe grant.

On motion of Councilman Akers, the matter referred to above was referred to the Committee on Lands.

A list of causes were presented and referred to the Police committee. Hon. Ismael Sparks presented a plat of the Salmon addition, which plat was approved. Changes New York avenue to Santa Fe avenue.

The matter of Sena avenue was referred to the Street and Bridge committee with power to act. This matter is for that portion of Sena avenue, which passes through the property of Ismael Sparks in ward 2.

Complaint was made of a dangerous place on Galisteo street south of the bridge. The matter was referred to Councilman Butt.

On motion made by Councilman Shoemaker, and which motion was seconded by Councilman R. L. Baca, the City Marshal was given 10 per cent of each dollar he collected of road tax.

The ordinance on liquor licenses, which was introduced, read first and second time by title, and which ordinance has been duly published, was called up for consideration. The same was read in full a third time on motion of Councilman R. L. Baca, and the same was unanimously passed. Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Santa Fe:

That section 92 of chapter 9 of the ordinances of the City of Santa Fe, New Mexico, according to revision thereof known as "Revised Ordinances of the City of Santa Fe, 1911," be amended or modified by adding to said section, after the word "advance" in the last line thereof, the following: "and the total number of licenses to be issued shall not exceed one such license for each one thousand in population of said City of Santa Fe, New Mexico, as shown by the latest official report of the United States Census Bureau; but nothing herein shall preclude the present owners of any such license from renewing the same at the expiration thereof under the same terms and conditions, provided said licenses so desired or intended to be renewed are intended to be used in the same location or building in or for which the now existing license is used."

The mayor appointed the following committees, doing away with the personnel of the old committee heretofore appointed by him, these committees being instructed to make reports monthly:

Finance committee: J. W. Akers, chairman; Nicanor Baca, Canuto Alarid, R. L. Baca, Romulo Lopez.

Police committee: Canuto Alarid, chairman; John Shoemaker, Nicanor Baca, George W. Armijo, R. L. Baca.

Street and Bridge committee: Canuto Alarid, chairman; Frank Butt, R. L. Baca, John Shoemaker, Romulo Lopez.

Fire Department committee: John Shoemaker, chairman; R. L. Baca, Nicanor Baca.

Health committee: Frank Butt, chairman; Romulo Lopez, John Shoemaker.

Ordinances and License committee: R. L. Baca, chairman; George W. Armijo, Nicanor Baca.

Survey and Light committee: Canuto Alarid, chairman; R. L. Baca, John Shoemaker, Nicanor Baca, J. W. Akers.

Sewer, Ditches and Irrigation committee: Nicanor Baca, chairman; John Shoemaker, Geo. W. Armijo.

Park Committee: Canuto Alarid, chairman; J. W. Akers, Romulo Lopez.

Public Works committee: John Shoemaker, chairman; Frank Butt, Romulo Lopez.

Santa Fe Grant Land committee: R. L. Baca, chairman; Canuto Alarid, J. W. Akers.

The following resolution was introduced: Be it Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of the City of Santa Fe, that:

The Santa Fe Water and Light company be requested to place as soon as possible the following:

A fire hydrant on the corner of Agua Fria and Water streets, and that the necessary water main for such purpose be laid by said company.

Also that the water main be extended on Montezuma avenue across the track to the front of the Lumber Yard office of Chas. W. Dudrow, and a fire hydrant placed there.

Also that the water main be extended on Griffin street to the west of Catron's land and at that point to place a fire hydrant.

On motion of Councilman R. L. Baca the resolution was adopted, and the clerk was instructed to so notify the Water company.

There being no further business the council adjourned.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF SANTA FE

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO.

The Oldest Bank in the State. Organized in 1870.

Time is the test of a bank's endurance and strength. Growth determines its adaptability to changing conditions. This bank has successfully withstood all the country's financial and commercial disasters for over forty years. Its management has regarded safety as of the first importance in banking, a tradition that still rules its policy, but the bank is not living on its history but depends for its prosperity upon adaptability to present-day needs.

Commercial Bills discounted. Credit and Deposit Accounts opened. Letters of Credit and Drafts issued on all Countries. Coupons collected and cashed. Stock Exchange Sales and Purchases effected. Telegraphic transfers of money made.

It is important for every business house to establish banking relations with a strong, service-giving bank where credit can be had when required.

THEY SURE WANT GOOD ROADS SAYS NANN O'NEIL

BY NANN O'NEIL.
Albuquerque, Oct. 10.—(By Mail.)—Wednesday was known as Good Roads day at the state fair and was a boost for good roads from start to finish. More people arriving today from all over the state, delegations coming from San Juan and Dona Ana counties especially. The Dona Ana delegation had their special car, explaining who and what they are by an immense white banner extending from end to end of the car. Upon it in red letters appeared the following rhyme:
Fill the chucks holes,
Stop the dust—
No more sand
Good roads or bust.
—Dona Ana Delegation.

The car arrived in Albuquerque about half past four this morning and the story goes that the boosters had a lively game of foot ball up and down the aisle of the Pullman during the night.

The grand stands at the state fair grounds were packed and crowded at two-thirty this afternoon, the representative people of the entire state being seen on the bleachers and in the boxes. The crowd stood three deep along the side lines whooping with the races in the Indian pony relay, watching intently the motorcycle races and now and then applauding a home run in the baseball game.

At three the decorated automobile procession began its progress around the track. The entire parade was beautiful and unusual and added greatly to the interest of the afternoon. There were twenty-five automobiles in the parade and each vied with the other in beauty and originality. One of the most attractive features of the parade was the fact that almost all the cars were driven by women. They drove around the track four or five times, finally forming a circle before the judges stand.

The first prize was awarded to Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Flournoy for the most beautifully decorated car. The body of the car was entirely covered with paper chrysanthemums, shading from the deep orange to the palest lemon color. Mr. Flournoy drove the car and Mrs. Flournoy sat beside him. The top was raised and made a canopy of feet in the back which was carried out in yellow cheesecloth.

The prize for the most unique car was given Bob Dietz who drove the "Chili Car." Every time it came within sight of the judges stand it was applauded and hailed as the real New Mexico type. An adobe house, with the characteristic blue painted door and window sills, lace curtains, a stove pipe from the roof and strings of bright red chili hanging on the walls was put on the body of an automobile and was the real moving house. A small Mexican girl and boy sat in either doorway and added to the reality of the scene. The float was typically New Mexican and the judges did well in rewarding such an original and artistic idea. Other cars that attracted much attention as being unique were the Elks float, consisting of an Elk just stepping out of a thick grove of cotton woods. A car from Mesilla valley, driven by L. F. Ruhle, of Las Cruces, won third prize. The car showed two hayseeds with corn tassels helmets and a wire coop in the back containing three small pigs. Next came the good roads float, a large frame covered car with white cheesecloth upon which was printed: "Boost for Good Roads," and festooned with red, white and blue bunting, followed by "Young America," an automobile decorated in the national colors and filled with young patriots wearing Liberty caps.

Social mention was given several of festively decorated cars, filled with pretty girls. One of the most striking was that driven by Dolly McClellan, being decorated entirely with yellow chrysanthemums. Another showed a white may pole with the streamer in pink and white. The Hope girls drove a car decorated in red poppies and the girls were stunning in huge red paper hats and waved red muffs at their friends in the grand stand as they went by.

The cars were illuminated for the parade at night and many cars that were not decorated joined in the procession and swelled the number to one hundred. Small electric lights were used very effectively in the decorations and were wound in and out about the spokes of the wheels. The pageant was even more gay and festive at night than it had been in the afternoon and hundreds of people stood on the streets to watch their more fortunate friends roll by. It was a gala night, the merry making and carnival spirit filling the air and making every one have a good time. The street carnival kept up the fun with confetti, much music and free performances such as the high dive, negro minstrels and a number of other attractions.

Following the automobile parade in the afternoon, an exciting motorcycle race took place. There were nine local entries, the first man to come in from the three mile course, being Metzinger; second, Beaudette, and third, Napoleon. The time was four minutes and thirty-nine and a half seconds.

In the horse race Hesitate came in first, Alivia second and Colorado King third. The race was twice around the track, which is seven-eighths of a mile, the time being one minute and thirty-four seconds.

Lassoing and roping running ponies, was the next feature of the afternoon and was followed by a quadrille on horse back by four cowgirls and cow punchers. One of the most exciting races was the Indian relay of two and a half miles. There were five laps, the Indians having to unsaddle and saddle another horse between each lap. The Indians were Navajos who had come in from the reservation, near Gallup.

On account of the accident that occurred yesterday Beachey was not able to fly today. The Curtis company have promised another biplane sent down from Denver and Beachey will probably continue his thrilling journeys in the air Friday and Saturday afternoons.

Certificate of Incorporation of The Hester Live Stock Company.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That we the undersigned L. E. KENWORTHY, TYSON DINES, JR., and TYSON S. DINES, being all citizens of the United States of America and of the State of Colorado, desiring to associate ourselves together under and in pursuance of the provisions of the laws of the State of Colorado relating to the formation of corporations, and to form a company thereunder for the purpose set forth in the following certificate, do make, sign and acknowledge this certificate of incorporation, and do state and declare as follows, to-wit:

FIRST: The name of said corporation is THE HESTER LIVE STOCK COMPANY.

SECOND: The objects for which said corporation is created are:

1. To acquire, hold, own, raise, breed, feed, maintain and care for cattle, horses and other live stock, and to sell or otherwise dispose of said cattle or other live stock in whole or in part, and to acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise any and all lands, leasehold estates, buildings, water mills, water courses, water rights, reservoirs and other property that may be or become useful or necessary to the care, maintenance, increase or welfare of said cattle and other live stock, or to the feeding, fattening, marketing or disposition thereof or of any part thereof.

2. To acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise, any and all lands or interest in lands, pastures, grazing privileges, water rights, reservoirs, windmills and other machinery that may be useful or necessary in the carrying on of a general cattle and live stock business, and to hold, use, own, cultivate, raise, harvest, any and all crops, agricultural products, hay, grain and other food material that may be or become useful or necessary to the care and maintenance of said cattle or live stock; to acquire by purchase or otherwise any and all reservoirs, sites, pipe lines, canals, ditches, water rights that may be useful or necessary to the care and maintenance of said cattle and live stock and the increase thereof, or to the cultivation, maturing, harvest and storing of any food or food products that may be or become useful or necessary to the care and maintenance of said cattle or other live stock, and to sell or otherwise dispose of any or all of said property.

3. To borrow money from time to time as its necessities may require and to negotiate as evidence thereof its bonds, notes or other obligations, and to secure said bonds, notes or other obligations by mortgage or trust deed upon any and all of its property, real or personal, or by pledge of any stock, bonds or other collateral that may be owned by it or hereafter acquired by it.

4. To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake and assume all or any part of the business, assets, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations or duties of any individual, partnership, corporation or association whose business or property may be useful, necessary or convenient to any of the objects or purposes above named; to apply for and obtain in the State of Colorado or any state or territory of the United States or foreign countries, in its own name or in the name of its agents, trustees or representatives, and to use, hold, sell or otherwise dispose of governmental concessions, grants, leases, grazing privileges in or over lands that may be useful, convenient, necessary or profitable to it in the carrying out of the objects hereinbefore named.

5. To do all other things not contrary to law that may from time to time enable it to more successfully accomplish the purposes and objects herein stated.

THIRD: The amount of capital stock of said company shall be fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars.

FOURTH: The term of existence of said corporation shall be twenty (20) years from date of filing this certificate in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Colorado.

FIFTH: The number of shares of stock shall be five hundred (500) of the par value of one hundred ($100.00) dollars each.

SIXTH: The number of directors of said corporation shall be five (5).

SEVENTH: The names of the directors who shall manage the affairs of the company for the first year and until their successors shall be elected and shall have qualified, are: Oran Thomas Hester, L. E. Kenworthy, George L. Allen, Jr., Tyson S. Dines and Tyson Dines, Jr.

EIGHTH: The principal office of the company shall be in the City and County of Denver, State of Colorado, and the company shall also maintain offices on the tract of land known as the Lamy and Canada de las Alamos land grants comprising twenty-seven thousand, three hundred thirty-four (27,334) acres of land more or less in the County of Santa Fe and State of New Mexico, and at such other place or places as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine and designate.

NINTH: The principal business of the company shall be carried on in the City and County of Denver, State of Colorado, and in the County of Santa Fe, State of New Mexico; and the company shall also carry on its business in such other counties of the States of Colorado and New Mexico and in such other states, territories and foreign countries as may be from time to time determined and designated by the Board of Directors.

TENTH: The Board of Directors shall have power to make such prudent by-laws as they deem proper for the management of the affairs of the company, and for the purpose of carrying on all kinds of business within the objects and purposes herein designated.

ELEVENTH: Meetings of the Directors of said corporation may be held at the office of the company in the City and County of Denver, State of Colorado, in the County of Santa Fe, State of New Mexico, and at such other places within or without the State of Colorado as may be provided in the by-laws and determined and designated by the Board of Directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 29th day of May, A. D. 1912.

WHAT SAVED HER LIFE

Mrs. Martin Tells About a Painful Experience that Might Have Ended Seriously.

Riversville, W. Va.—Mrs. Dora Martin, in a letter from Riversville, writes: "For three years, I suffered with womanly troubles, and had pains in my back and side. I was nervous and could not sleep at night.

The doctor could not help me. He said I would have to be operated on before I could get better. I thought I would try using Cardui.

Now, I am entirely well. I am sure Cardui saved my life. I will never be without Cardui in my home. I recommend it to my friends."

For fifty years, Cardui has been relieving pain and distress caused by womanly trouble. It will surely help you. It goes to the spot—reaches the trouble—relieves the symptoms, and drives away the cause.

If you suffer from any symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. Your druggist sells and recommends it. Get a bottle from him today.

Let Him Know It—if you are out of a position, you must let the employer know it. A want advertisement in the news and professional man in the city and county and a great many in the state. If you have any special talent, do not hide it under a bushel.

You cannot get up to date printing unless you have up to date material and facilities. The New Mexican Printing company has both, and at the same time expert mechanics. Your orders are always assured personal attention.

It will not pay you to waste your time writing out your legal forms when you can get them already printed at the New Mexican Printing Company.
