THE SILENT PIANO

We have lived like civilized people.
O ruins, traditions!

And we have seen the barbarians,
breakers of sculpture and glass.

And now we talk of "the inner life,"
and I ask myself, where is it?

Not here, in these streets and houses,
so I think it must be found

in indolence, pure indolence,
an ocean of darkness.

in silence, an arm of the moon,
a hand that enters slowly.

I am reminded of a story
Camus tells, of a man in prison camp.

He had carried a piano keyboard
with a nail on a piece of wood.

And sat there playing the piano.
This music was made entirely of silence.
