CONSUMMATION

It is somewhere else you go when your eyes slip past my face, sweep back inside and turn behind me into a corner I cannot reach with any mirror.

I know it is the secret place of paradise, cut from the world by the arched wall of the spine, its only language a heavy air pushed through the throat, its silences rapped out by ten convulsive fingers.

None of us allows the other entrance and you can never tell me how you live there or what your knowledge is of the god who warms himself inside us all or why he calls you by a different name.

AFTER GILLES' REQUIEM

Pacing the length of an alley, one finger writing in the air, suffering quietly, when a screech owl crashed like a dead limb in front of me, ear tufts taut back like a cat's, crying, wailing, swirling in a maniac dance of pain, died.

The paradigm was mine,
the labyrinthine architecture of collapse, the fall, the scream some lover's broken patience, knit and ended simply as a boy with a .22, aiming, firing,
prophesying with his eye and one more curling finger willed death.
