STATE DEPARTMENT WILL ANSWER MEXICO IN FIRMER TONES

A NOTE WILL BE SENT, IN ANSWER TO DEFIANT MESSAGE, IN WHICH MADERO AND HIS CROWD WILL BE TOLD TO GET BUSY, ESTABLISH A GOVERNMENT OR EXPLAIN THE SITUATION MORE FULLY.

HATRED OF AMERICANS IS IN EVIDENCE ON ALL SIDES NOW

Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—The presentation of the state department's rejoinder to the Mexican reply to Secretary Knox's note of last September demanding protection for American interests in Mexico, may not take place until after the holiday. Secretary Knox is leaving Washington for his home at Valley Forge to be absent until early in January and the intervening time before he returns probably will be utilized in the careful preparation of the American note, which in a way is likely to be of historic importance as marking a distinct crisis in the realizations between the two countries. Officials claim that the note will not be an "ultimatum" attaching to word its technical meaning of a demand which must be completely met by a specified date. But that the forthcoming note, while moderate in terms and dignified in character, will deal with the issues between America and Mexico in the firmest and most uncompromising spirit is fully expected.

At the same time, Mr. Knox still has the subject under immediate consideration and final determination as to when the note shall be dispatched will not be known before his actual departure.

WILSON DID NOT OFFER BRYAN ANY JOB

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 21.—President-elect Wilson announced after a three and one-half hour conference with W. J. Bryan today that the name of the Nebraskan had not been mentioned in their discussion of cabinet places. "We had a very delightful conference, but did not come to any conclusion," said the president-elect as he came out of his office at 1 o'clock to talk to the newspaper men.

"We talked things over generally. We talked about the policies of the party, the carrying out of the platform pledges and talked about various cabinet places, discussing names in a general way."

"Did Mr. Bryan suggest some names?" he was asked.

"I don't remember whether he or I suggested the names."

The governor was then asked if Mr. Bryan's name had been discussed.

"It was not discussed," he answered emphatically. "You must take me at my word that I am not making decisions now and honor me by not asking questions that call that into question."

The governor said he did not know whether he would have any further conferences soon with Mr. Bryan.

Mr. Wilson closed the interview by saying that he would call Mr. Bryan, who had remained behind.

The Nebraskan was absolutely non-committal as to his conference.

"It is customary," he said, "for the president to make announcement of his conferences, and not his callers."

When Mr. Bryan was told that Colonel Watterston had suggested him (Mr. Bryan) for the ambassadorship to Great Britain, the Nebraskan smiled and said:

"Colonel Watterston and I have not conferred about that matter."

As Mr. Bryan was talking to the newspaper men, Governor Wilson came out of his office and Mr. Bryan turned to him laughingly, saying:

"I am throwing on you the responsibility of doing the saying."

"That's right sir; I'll attend to them," said the governor with a twinkle in his eye.

The two democratic leaders lunched together.

Mr. Bryan expects to leave for New York before night.

PLANS TO PENSION EMPLOYEES OF CITY.

Philadelphia, Dec. 21.—"We are now working on a pension problem for city employees. We feel sure that it will come soon," said Director of Public Works Morris L. Cooke in the course of an address on "What the Department of Public Works Means to the City of Philadelphia," before the City Historical society.

DENVER'S MAYOR MAY SPEND HIS XMAS IN JAIL

Denver, Dec. 21.—Mayor Henry J. Arnold was cited for contempt of court this morning by District Judge Greeley W. Whitford, because the Mayor ignored the court's order and paid the members of the fire and police forces their salaries when the payroll was not approved by the civil service commission. The approach of Christmas was given by Arnold as reason for his action.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 21.—At the meeting of the civil service commission yesterday Mayor Arnold demanded that the board approve the payroll submitted to it by the fire and police board.

The commission then signed the payroll, under protest, and warrants were immediately drawn by the city auditor. Today the commission appealed to Judge Whitford with the result that the mayor was cited for contempt.

Mayor Arnold will appear in court Christmas eve to show cause why he should not be sentenced for contempt. In speaking of the citation today, the mayor said: "I do not care anything about this citation. I may go to jail, and I expect to go to jail. But I have the satisfaction of knowing that every man under me in the employ of the city will have his pay check to take home to his family today."

"The civil service commission has acted stubbornly and done nothing but play small politics. I tell you I will be far happier in jail Christmas day knowing that I have made others happy, than to be out enjoying the day with my family and friends and have to suffer the thought that through me many families have been cheated of their rights and Christmas cheer."

REAL RAMANCE IN LIFE OF PRINCESS

Carlsruhe, Germany, Dec. 21.—The death of Princess Agnes Salm-Salm today, brought to an end, a most romantic career.

She was the daughter of an American colonel named LeClerc and was born at Baltimore, Md., 72 years ago. In her youth, she gained some renown as an actress and then she married Prince Felix Salm-Salm, in 1862. The prince was a soldier of fortune. He served first in the German and then in the Austrian army. He joined the Union army during the civil war, rising to the rank of brigadier general. Later on in Mexico, he was aide de camp to Emperor Maximilian. He joined the Prussian army on the outbreak of the Franco-Prussian war in 1870 and was killed at the battle of Gravelotte.

The princess accompanied him through all his campaigns and in the Franco-Prussian served as a hospital nurse and was decorated with the Iron cross for bravery.

BILLION DOLLARS MAY BE INVOLVED

Los Angeles, Calif., Dec. 21.—One billion dollars' worth of California oil bearing lands, it was said today, probably would be involved eventually in the government's recovery litigation, which was begun here yesterday with the filing of the $250,000,000 action in equity against the Southern Pacific railroad and its subsidiary corporations.

The Standard Oil company, through its subsidiaries, is expected by federal officers finally to be involved, as well as the McKenzie-Mann interests, the British Columbia Oil syndicate which is said to be also interested extensively in California.

JOHNSON BEGINS A GLAVIS PROBE

Sacramento, Calif., Dec. 21.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson, began today an investigation of the charge against Louis R. Glavis, secretary of the state conservation commission, preferred by Surveyor General Kingsbury that he has used his official position in the interest of certain big lumber concerns to get their lands listed ahead of all others by the United States land department.

The proceedings were in executive session. Kingsbury's charge was made some months ago, but was not sustained by the commissioners. The governor however, determined upon the probe he began today.

FRENCH MINISTER'S SON VICTIM OF ACCIDENT.

Paris, Dec. 21.—An aeroplane collision in midair today imperilled the life of the son of Theophile Delcasse, French minister of marine, and two aviators at Villa Coublay, near Paris.

Young Delcasse was making a flight as a passenger on board the monoplane piloted by George Collardeseu, when another machine ascended and the two aeroplanes started maneuvering. The false movement of a lever caused them to come violently into collision and the wrecked machines interlocked and crashed to earth.

One of Delcasse's legs was fractured and Collardeseu was badly bruised while the pilot of the other aeroplane was injured but not fatally. The collision occurred at a low altitude.

PEACE ENVOYS WOULD LIKE TO HAVE THEM EXPLAIN ARMAMENTS AS WELL AS THEIR DESIRES... FURTHER ADJOURNMENT OF CONFERENCE

London, Dec. 21.—When the peace envoys of the Balkan states and of Turkey met again in conference at St. James palace this afternoon, Servia, on the suggestion of Great Britain, France and Russia, declared her readiness to accept the principle of Albanian autonomy and neutralization.

This move has the object of making Austria-Hungary explain the reason for her armaments and what her ultimate desires really are.

The fear is entertained in many quarters that Austria-Hungary is planning a scheme, which if it proves successful, will make Servia a kind of vassal state. It is rumored that among other conditions of a financial commercial and economic character, Austria-Hungary intends to impose a limitation on the strength of the Servian army which neither the Balkan league nor Russia would ever admit.

This situation, it is said, explains why Austria-Hungary is keeping 12 of her army corps on a war footing, four of them ready to cross the Servian frontier, four of them in Galicia near the Russian frontier, two of them in Bosnia and Herzegovina, and two along the Italian frontier.

It is noticeable, according to military experts, that notwithstanding the triple alliance during the last decade, Austria-Hungary has constantly augmented the strength of her troops along the Venetian and Tyrolise lines.

The anxiously awaited Austrian courier has arrived from Constantinople bearing instructions to the Turkish peace plenipotentiaries.

In view of the forecast of these instructions, telegraphed from Constantinople, it is feared their contents are likely to precipitate trouble.

There is little doubt, however, that the necessary arrangements to intervene with the hope of preventing an irretrievable rupture of the peace conference, until they have tried to bridge the gulf separating the allied Balkan nations from the Turks on the question of the future of Adrianople.

The peace conference adjourned at six this evening after a session lasting two hours.

IN LONG CONFERENCE.

London, Dec. 21.—Today's session, the fourth since the peace conference was begun, was the longest yet held. The delegates had before them Turkey's fresh instructions empowering the Turkish delegation to treat with the Grecian representatives on condition that Turkey be allowed to re-occupy the fortress of Adrianople.

The discussion of this question occupied the entire session and an agreement had not yet been reached when the conference adjourned to meet again Monday afternoon. It is understood that the contention of the Balkan allies delegation is that the question of reoccupying the fortress was settled by the terms of the armistice and that they have no power to interfere with those terms. Dr. Dancheff, head of the Bulgarian delegation, said after the adjournment that it was uncertain whether the delegates would be able to reach a definite decision ever on Monday.

An official communication of the progress of the peace conference was issued later in the day. It says: "The further adjournment of the conference is due to the fact that the Turkish envoys demanded the reoccupying of the fortress of Adrianople as a primary step. The delegates of the allied Balkan nations replied that that was not a condition of the armistice drawn at Tchatalja. The Turks thereupon stated that in view of the contention set up by the allies, they must apply to their government for instructions on that point."

YAGUI INDIANS CARRY OF GIRLS TO THE MOUNTAINS

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 21.—A newspaper dispatch from Douglas, Ariz., says Yagui Indians, after an attack lasting two days, captured the Sonora town of San Marcial, slaughtered many of the inhabitants and carried off several girls to the mountains.

The Yaguis are reported to be well armed and well organized.

The inhabitants of the town, the special says, fought until their ammunition gave out, when the Indians, who attacked in force of several hundred, gained entrance.

Scenes of terrific slaughter followed only a few escaping to carry the tale to the outside world. The Indians retreated to the mountains carrying the young women with them.

HIGH MILITARY HONORS PAID TO WHITELAW REID

London, Dec. 21.—The body of the American ambassador, Whitelaw Reid, was started on its journey to the United States today and the highest military honors were paid to it as it left London.

The coffin was placed on a gun carriage drawn by six horses and driven by men of the royal horse artillery. The stars and stripes were spread over the casket. Eight non-commissioned officers acting as bearers walked at each side.

A battery of horse artillery stationed on the parade ground in St. James park, fired a salute of 19 guns. The route of the procession was kept clear by lines of mounted police.

A guard of honor drawn up inside Victoria station, presented arms as the coffin was brought in.

The staffs of the American embassy and consulate general traveled on the same train to Portsmouth, where the coffin was placed on board the British armored cruiser Natal.

OPTIMISTIC ON SITUATION

Paris, Dec. 21.—Premier Poincare was very optimistic about the European situation in a speech he delivered today in the chamber of deputies. He declared that Servia would accept the suggestion made by the ambassadors of the great powers that she obtain a commercial outlet on the Adriatic Sea. He also gave voice to the hope that peace in the Balkans would soon be signed. He added that if the negotiations between the delegates to the peace conference should be broken off, the European powers would quickly resort to mediation.

HUMAN SKELETONS ARE FOUND WITH GEMS AND SAFE BLOWERS' OUTFIT

INVESTIGATION OF MURDER OF J. H. LOGUE, NEW YORK DIAMOND MERCHANT, MAY LEAD TO BREAKING UP OF DANGEROUS GANG OF AUTO. MOBILE BANDITS—FOUR MEN AND FOUR WOMEN ARE ARRESTED

BURGLARY IS SUSPECTED AS MOTIVE FOR THE CRIME

WHAT WAS FOUND.
Chicago, Ill., Dec. 21.—Inventory of the clothes found in the North Side flat where Logue murder suspects were arrested:
Two human skeletons.
Eighty-five pounds of dynamite.
Two quarts of nitro-glycerine.
Three dozen safe-blowers.
Three bunches of skeleton keys.
Six automatic pistols.
Three thousand dollars worth of parcel post stamps.
Five uncut diamonds.
Three thousand dollars worth of silverware.
One thousand dollars worth of jewelry.

'T WAS A DARING GAME.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 21.—Eight persons, four men and four women, are under arrest in connection with the murder of J. H. Logue, diamond merchant, in McVickers theater building and the police are strongly inclined to believe that they have succeeded in breaking up a dangerous gang of automobile bandits. At least, some of the prisoners are suspected of either participating or knowing something about nearly all of the daring safe blowings and other criminal depredations that have taken place in Chicago in the last fortnight. Early today search of the North Side flat where the suspects were arrested, was made and a quantity of dynamite and nitro-glycerine caps used in discharging explosives were found. In addition a number of false keys and instruments for picking locks were found.

Much importance is attached by Captain John J. Halpin to the arrests last night of Clyde Stratton, the convict and fugitive from the Columbus penitentiary; Edward Hampden, arrested with Stratton and two women, one claiming to be the wife of Hampden and the other the wife of "Toronto Jim" Johnson, a safe blower now serving a 20 year term in the Waupun, Wis., pen.

F. A. Cranal, former district attorney of Hill county, Montana, saw two men rushing out of the building where the crime was committed about the hour when the diamond broker was slain. His description of the two men led to the arrest of Stratton and Hampden in a North Side flat about twelve hours later.

Both women under arrest are blondes and a blonde woman had been seen on many occasions in Logue's office.

The motive for the crime puzzled the police for a time but early today Captain Halpin gave it as his opinion that robbery had actuated the crime. Jewels and jewelry to the value of $3,000 were said to be missing. Police early today arrested Frank Williams, said to have escaped from the Wisconsin state pen at Waupun, Wis. He lived in the flat occupied by Stratton, Hampden and the two women.

Six suit cases found in the apartment contained five uncut diamonds, a number of gold rings with the sets removed, a quantity of silverware and jewelry. Later the police arrested a chauffeur employed at a North Side garage who is said to have driven Stratton and Hampden on a number of trips about the city.

The discovery of two human skeletons in the north side flat which served as rendezvous for a gang of robbers capped the climax today in a series of sensations which attended the police investigation of the murder of Joseph H. Logue, diamond merchant. The skeletons were found in a closet of the flat, where the officers also discovered a small arsenal, many gems of various value and the paraphernalia of professional burglars.

Erect in a corner of the closet, the skeletons were surrounded by richly brocaded gowns and elegant clothes of many sorts.

Arrests of eight persons in connection with the murder was followed by the discovery of evidence showing several of them to be criminals. The police declare that they not only expect to connect the prisoners with the death of Logue, but also with many other recent crimes.

A wagonload of loot was taken from the flat during the day. Logue who yesterday was shot, stabbed, and beaten to death in his office in the McVicker theater building, it was learned, figured in police affairs ten years ago when a New York jewelry salesman suddenly disappeared with a satchel full of valuable gems. Subsequently the gems were found in Logue's possession, according to the police.

The police are working on a theory that the persons who killed Logue came to his store with the intention of disposing of some stolen jewelry but became involved in a quarrel with the jeweler and killed him. The persons held are:

Clyde Stratton, said to be an escaped convict from the penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio.
H. P. Hampden, declared by the police to be a safe blower with many aliases.

Mrs. H. B. Hampden.
Margaret Johnson, said to be the wife of a safe blower known as "Toronto Jimmy" serving a 20 year term in the penitentiary at Waupun, Wis.

Frank Williams, said by the police to have a prison record.
William Duffy, a chauffeur.
A woman said to be known as Edna Collier.

An unidentified woman said to be a relative of Mrs. Johnson.

NATAL SAILS WITH REID'S BODY ABOARD

Portsmouth, Eng., Dec. 21.—The British armored cruiser Natal sailed out of Portsmouth harbor with the body of Ambassador Reid on board at half past three this afternoon amid a salute of 19 guns.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—Rear Admiral Andrews, acting secretary of the navy, today designated the battleships Florida and North Dakota, with four destroyers, now in New York harbor, as a special escort to the British battleship Natal, which left Portsmouth, England, today, bringing the body of the late Ambassador Reid.

New York, Dec. 21.—The stock market closed steady. As a result of yesterday's notable exhibition of strength outside orders were received in greater volume today than for a long time back and their execution imparted strength to the city market. The upward movement was impeded later by an unexpected break in Southern Pacific to the lowest price of the year. The stock went off a point at a time to 103 1-2 and there was a sympathetic break all through the list to a level well below last night's final figures. Reading manifested acute weakness and losses of a point or so were recorded in Smelting, Lehigh Valley and Union Pacific. Short coverings pulled the market up smartly again before the close. Bonds were unchanged.

HICKEY FOUND GUILTY.
Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 21.—J. Frank Hickey was found guilty today of murder in the second degree in having strangled to death Joseph Josephs, a seven year old boy of Lackawanna, October 12, 1911. The jury was out 26 hours.

Arrests of eight persons in connection with the murder was followed by the discovery of evidence showing several of them to be criminals. The police declare that they not only expect to connect the prisoners with the death of Logue, but also with many other recent crimes.

GYR KEPT HIS WORD—WASN'T TAKEN ALIVE

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 21.—Barred in his home near Mount Washington, Dominic Gyr, who was accused of shooting his wife and another woman, was fatally wounded by a posse of officers today. Gyr took refuge in his home after he had shot the women and when an officer came he declared he would not be taken alive. In the battle that followed, Gyr was hit by several bullets.

CHARLES DEAN MAY REGAIN HIS FREEDOM.

New Westminster, B. C., Dec. 21.—Charles Dean, the only Bank of Montreal robbery suspect now held in the city, may regain his freedom. An order has been granted by Chief Justice Hunter in Vancouver, it was learned today, calling upon the attorney general to show cause why the prisoner should not be discharged. The hearing will take place in Victoria before the chief justice of the province.

Dean was brought here from Los Angeles and was to have been tried at the recent assizes. His case, however, went over to the spring term of court.

TAFT TO ACCEPT YALE CHAIR

IT IS EXPECTED BY HIS FRIENDS THAT THE PRESIDENT WILL GO TO YALE WHERE HE SPENT COLLEGE DAYS. PREFERS IT TO PRIVATE PRACTICE.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—President Taft has made up his mind to accept the proffer of the Kent professorship of law at Yale, and probably will take up his duties at New Haven early in the spring. The president, it is said, has determined upon accepting the Yale professorship for several reasons. He will not be restricted merely to lectures to Yale students, but will be permitted to lecture if he desires in other law schools, or upon the platform, or to engage in any other occupation which he sees fit.

If the president had returned to Cincinnati to resume law practice he felt he would have little opportunity for practice. He felt that he could not appear in cases before the United States supreme court, because he has appointed a majority of its membership. He remembered when he framed the law that he had named many federal judges in Ohio before whom he might have to argue cases and he believed that about the only sort of practice which he could take up would be international, and that he regarded as uncertain.

At Yale the president will be in surroundings dear to him and in a position to engage in almost any sort of business fitting for an ex-president. The analogy between the Yale professorship and Grover Cleveland's relations with Princeton appealed to Mr. Taft strongly, and when many of his close friends and advisers wrote to him, approving his acceptance of the chair at Yale he decided to take it. The president expects to spend several weeks after March 4 in Augusta, Ga., where he has passed two winter vacations.

PROF WAGNER IS HONORED

A very pleasant gathering was that at the high school rooms yesterday afternoon when the teachers of Santa Fe assembled and sent for Professor Wagner.

Upon answering the summons the professor was cordially greeted by his associates and Professor Lougee arose to make a few remarks. They consisted of very complimentary expressions regarding the superintendent of the Santa Fe schools. Prof. Lougee said that he was speaking in behalf of all the teachers of the public schools of the city, who wished to extend to Professor Wagner their appreciation of his work during the term just closed, as well as their acknowledgment of his unflinching kindness, courtesy and helpfulness which he had always extended to them during their association together.

Prof. Lougee was happy, as usual, in his remarks, and at their close, in token of the esteem in which he is held by his associates, he presented Prof. Wagner with an elegant cut glass olive dish. The response of the recipient was full of feeling and appreciation and he expressed the pleasure he had experienced in the association of the past school term.

The work of the teachers in the Santa Fe schools and the success attending it has been recognized by the school officers and citizens, and all congratulate Prof. Wagner on the spirit of good fellowship that exists among those associated together and in the work they have done.

DISCOURAGED—WOULD DIE.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 21.—Realization that in her poverty-stricken condition Santa Claus would hardly visit her home, in which she kept four hungry little children, Mrs. Anna Johnson, 37 years old, severed veins in her left wrist today in an attempt to commit suicide.

Mrs. Johnson had just received a note from a prominent society woman and charity worker in Denver, which read: "Mrs. Johnson, I have some toys I am going to give away, and thought maybe you would like them. Please let me know, for if you don't want them I will give them to someone else."

Mrs. Johnson was taken to the county hospital where it is believed she will recover.

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die. At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well. I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health. As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years. Your druggist sells it. Please try it.

BUILD GOOD ROADS SAYS BURRELL

WASHINGTON EXPERT DELIVERS ILLUSTRATED LECTURE TO SHOW THAT NEW MEXICO IS LOSING MONEY BY HIGHWAY NEGLECT.

"Switzerland has been blessed by nature with wonderful scenery and the people of Switzerland have capitalized that scenery by building such good roads as Switzerland, but the roads have not been built. That expenditure $3,000,000 annually sight-seeing in Switzerland."

The above was the declaration of B. H. Burrell, civil engineer and authority of roads, who delivered an illustrated lecture last night at the hall of representatives at the capital, his subject being "Good Roads and How to Build Them." Mr. Burrell represents the bureau of good roads, in Washington.

His lecture was profusely illustrated by colored slides, Jesse Nusbaum handling the stereopticon.

It was not a large audience which greeted Mr. Burrell, but it was composed of civil engineers, road builders, officials, and a few ladies.

The train bringing Mr. Burrell was late and a frantic effort was made to bring out some orators to entertain the audience until the illustrated lecture would prove a feast for the eyes. But bad luck attended their effort. The last speaker invited is said to have been C. H. Rowles, the artist, but he could not come either, it seems.

Judge John R. McFie presided and introduced Mr. Burrell when he arrived. Mr. Burrell proved a pleasing speaker and his views of this and foreign lands added interest to his address.

He carried the audience over Switzerland, and there were little gasps of admiration not only for the wonderful mountain scenery but also for the roads which extended a pleasant journey to those on foot, or in vehicle. Then America, from coast to coast, loomed up and the contrast in some of the pictures was striking. One saw the well built road in New Hampshire with the low stone wall on either side—showing a use for the loose stone found everywhere in that state. Then Pittsburgh's streets loomed up, and also the figure of a man who had won a prize for having the best kept mile of boulevard.

The speaker raised a laugh by saying: "That man takes as much pride in winning that prize as you do for your stock in the fat cattle show."

An earth road in Washington, D. C., was discussed and then a trip was made to the south. The roads in North Carolina, showing the solution of the clay and sand problem—for clay in winter and sand in summer is a problem down there—afforded an opportunity for drawing a moral. The road drag made from a tree was discussed and pictures of its good work were shown.

Concluding his address Mr. Burrell said:

GREAT ASSET NEGLECTED.

"We, in Washington, think that you people out in Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico are neglecting one of your greatest assets—the scenic beauties of these states. You have some of the finest scenery that can be found anywhere in the world. Now what are you losing in good dollars by this neglect? I will tell you. At the Santa Fe office in the east I was informed that just ten automobiles are shipped each day in freight trains through to California. Why? Because the motorists do not believe they can drive them through. An auto party composed as a rule of several people, including ladies, will spend on an average of one hundred dollars in passing through a state. Ten such parties spent $1000 and in a month that amounts to $30,000 and in a year to $360,000. Over a third of a million dollars is your loss, therefore each year by not having good roads! I tell you that these auto parties will come through if you give them the roads to travel on." The speaker then discussed the interest the forestry department is taking in good roads and the appropriations that have been made for certain roads leading into forests in New Mexico. "This interest manifested by the forestry department is easily traced to pressure brought by automobile parties anxious to camp in your forests."

The final note of appeal sounded rang out as follows:

"Capitalize your scenery and get some of these $20,000,000 expended annually by tourists in Europe, $3,000,000 of which goes to Switzerland. They haven't a 'dog-gone bit' better scenery than you have. Just put that down. There's a reason—it's roads."

JUDGE MCFIE TALKS.

Judge McFie followed with apologies for the small audience saying that the Christmas shopping season was on. The judge introduced Mayor D. K. B. Sellers, of Albuquerque.

MAYOR OF DUKE CITY.

Mr. Sellers said:

"It does me good to hear Mr. Burrell talk. Down in Albuquerque we are keenly alive to the interest in good roads. We have a good roads local organization and one day we raised $125 just by tagging people with our colors. This money raised is to go toward road-building—not

TERRIBLE SUFFERER FROM ECZEMA

Several Years. Legs and Arms Worst. Parts Burnt Like Fire. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Completely. Skin Smooth.

175 East St., San Francisco, Cal.—"I used the Cuticura Remedies while in business in San Francisco before the earthquake and fire. I was a terrible sufferer from eczema for several years. I had it all over my body except my hands, neck and face, my legs and arms being the worst. I had to put stockings on my hands at night to keep from scratching, and whenever I did scratch the parts burnt like fire. My limbs got so bad that from my ankles to my knees there wasn't a particle of skin on them, and the flesh itself turned perfectly blue and raw, continually throwing off a moisture, and I had to keep them wrapped in oiled silk cloth to keep my underclothes from sticking fast to my limbs."

"I tried all kinds of ointments, and a thousand others, but with no relief. Then I bathed my body with Cuticura Soap and kept it anointed with Cuticura Ointment and my skin is now as smooth as a baby's. They cured me completely." (Signed) Harry A. Jones, Feb. 10, 1912. A single cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient when all else has failed. Cuticura Soap (25c) and Ointment (50c) are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

for road building." Mr. Sellers told of the good roads from Socorro to Springerville and said that if the comfort of a journey through that section were widely understood there would be no trouble to route the transcontinental highway along the Santa Fe trail and down through Springerville.

"I must say I do not believe any of you fully appreciate the value of having this great transcontinental highway. I was just talking with Mayor Adams of Deadwood, South Dakota, and he said that if the ease of travel in winter time on fairly good roads in New Mexico were understood half of Deadwood, South Dakota, would come through here on their way to the coast to escape the snow drifts and icy blasts of Dakota."

Mr. Sellers paid a high tribute to the state highway commission for work accomplished.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS.

Santiago de Cuba, Dec. 21.—Violent earthquake shocks were felt here at 10:40 last night and again at 6:30 this morning. Great alarm prevailed among the inhabitants of the city.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. THOSE WHO WENT DOWN IN THE POLITICAL FLOOD ARE BEING TAKEN UP BY TAFT AND GIVEN POSITIONS--WILLIS MOORE TELLS WHAT HE IS IN POLITICS.

(By Cilson Gardner.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—Any one wishing to lend a hand at abolishing the great evil of contract labor in our prisons can render practical help by writing a letter to any member of the senate committee on the judiciary urging that the committee report favorably H. R. 5001, entitled, "An act to limit the effect of the regulation of interstate commerce between the states in goods, wares and merchandise wholly or in part manufactured by convict labor in any prison or reformatory."

"The passage of this bill," says Julian Leavitt, the well known authority on convict labor, "would affect intimately and immediately the welfare of an army of working girls in hundreds of garment factories through the country, of some hundred thousand innocent wives and children of convicts who are today being punished by society for no fault of their own; would open the way to reformation of a host of prisoners who are now nothing more than private slaves of private prison contractors; and finally, it would end once and for all time the hundred years' war that has been raging between free labor and convict labor in this country."

This bill has passed the house of representatives. Following are the members of the senate judiciary committee, who are at present responsible for non-action: Clarence D. Clark, of Wyoming; Knute Nelson, of Minnesota; William P. Dillingham, of Vermont; George Sutherland, of Utah; Frank B. Brandegee, of Connecticut; William E. Borah, of Idaho; Norris Brown, of Nebraska; Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa; Elihu Root, of New York, republicans; and Augustus O. Bacon, of Georgia; Charles A. Culberson, of Texas; Lee S. Overman, of North Carolina; Thomas H. Paynter, of Kentucky; William E. Chilton, of West Virginia; and James A. O'Gorman, of New York, democrats.

NEW PROCEDURE PRESENTED

IT IS SUGGESTED THAT IN THE FUTURE IMPEACHMENT TRIALS BE LESS PUBLIC AND BE TAKEN UP IN COMMITTEE OPPOSITION TO IT.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Impeachment trials, except those involving the president, vice president, members of the cabinet or judges of the United States supreme court, will hereafter be conducted before the senate judiciary committee, if the senate adopts the procedure suggested in the upper house by Senator Sutherland of Utah, one of its prominent lawyers.

The suggestion is the outgrowth of discussion heard around the senate during the two weeks that the Archbold impeachment trial has been going on, that the senate's time should not be thus taken from important legislation, and that the small attendance during the impeachment proceedings indicates that the testimony might as well be taken before a committee.

The senate took no action on the suggestion, except to order it referred to the judiciary committee for report. But it was very evident from the discussion of the proposal that such a change will not be made without a big fight.

Senator Bailey, of Texas, regarded as one of the big constitutional lawyers in the upper house, expressed "the hope that it would never be adopted." It would lower the dignity of impeachment trials to that of contested election cases, he argued.

"I think it is generally hoped that impeachment trials will not become frequent enough to cause embarrassment."

ment to the senate. The senate is the place where the witnesses should be heard. To send them to testify before a committee would be less impressive than it ought to be."

Senator Root of Missouri made the suggestion that the plan for the taking of impeachment testimony before a committee should be so framed that the committee hearing scheme would be adopted only by specific vote of the senate in each case.

The proposed change is known to have many supporters in the Senate. Senator Sutherland read a portion of the federal constitution relating to impeachment trials to show that it did not provide for the taking of the testimony before the entire senate. Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, has given out an interview in favor of such a change and Senator-elect Norris, of Nebraska, has declared for it.

ADDS TO FIRE HAZARD.

New York, December 21.—Many of the familiar Christmas decorations which have been used for generations will disappear this year, as the result of a decision by the New York board of fire underwriters. A letter is to be sent this week to every holder of a fire insurance policy in the city, which reads:

"Your attention is called to the fact that the introduction about premises of Christmas greens and other inflammable materials, such as cotton to represent snow, constitutes an additional fire hazard, and will not be permitted."

SCENES FROM THE LIFE OF CHRIST.

16.—PSALM SUNDAY—JESUS ON MOUNT OF OLIVES.
(Reverently portrayed on the exact spot where it took place nineteen hundred years ago—a part of the elaborate and costly moving picture production of the Kalem company, to be first shown at Christmas time.)

Much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took branches of palm trees and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.—John xii:12-15.

secretary of agriculture under the Wilson administration. History affords many examples of moral courage, physical heroism and lofty aspiration. It has its men and women who have shown nerve under grilling circumstances. There were the Spartans, the Stoics, the Greek philosophers and the Christians who were burned and tortured for their faith. And now comes Willis Moore.

George Tawney, who has been re-appointed for another term as postmaster at Winona, is, as might be suspected, a relative of former Congressman James A. Tawney, who achieved fame as the host of President Taft when the latter made his Winona speech declaring that the Aldrich tariff bill was the best ever. Of course, Tawney "got his" two years later when the people got a chance at him, but Taft took care of him by an appointment on the commission whose supposed duties are to adjust some supposed boundary differences which might be supposed to exist between Canada and the United States, the compensation for said supposed duties being $10,000 a year, and the work really required being such work as Tawney performed at the Chicago convention where he held a proxy on the republican national committee and helped to "put over" Taft's nomination.

Yes, George is a relative of his, and the purpose of the administration is to cover him into the civil service and secure his job through the Wilson administration. As a champion of the "merit system" our esteemed and more or less revered president is the man who put the "H" in civil, and the "vice" in service!

In his capacity as United Steward, President Taft has called in Harry Sherman Boutell, formerly of Chicago, lately ambassador to Switzerland, and has told him to sit down quickly and write out an order on a life job as member of the court of claims, sitting in the District of Columbia. A vacancy for Boutell was created on the court of claims by promoting one of its members to another federal job. Boutell's name goes to the senate along with other nominations and the only hope for the people is that some senators may decide to oppose his confirmation. Boutell was in the confidential councils of Taft's administration during those early days when it was decided to substitute revision upward for the promised revision downward. He voted for and defended the Aldrich-Payne bill and in consequence his constituents refused to give him another nomination. But Boutell did not like to go back to Chicago and practice law. He had grown fond of social life; so Taft appointed him ambassador to Portugal with subsequent promotion to Switzerland, and now is making an effort to settle him for life in a job with little work and good salary, with a pleasant residence in the nation's capital.

MEDICOS DOUBT FRIEDMAN'S 'T.B.' CURE

"CRITICAL NEUTRALITY AND JUDICIOUS SKEPTICISM" IS ATTITUDE IT DESERVES JUST NOW," SAYS FAMOUS MEDICAL JOURNAL

Since the publication all over this country concerning Friedman's treatment of tuberculosis as described in a cable from Berlin, many inquiries have been received by the New Mexican as regards further details of this alleged new and sure "cure." In its issue of December 14 the Journal of the American Medical Association discusses the cure and incidentally deplores the tendency of thousands of tuberculosis patients hoping for a sure and speedy cure as a result of the Friedman reports. This medical journal is recognized as an eminent authority on matters medical.

"This method of treatment (Friedman) does not appear to be based on any new principle," says the Journal. "It represents simply an other effort to utilize for curative and preventive purposes the antigenic substances in the tubercle bacillus, without the simultaneous introduction of any toxic or harmful substances. In order to secure this effect, living bacilli, devoid of virulence and invasive power, so it is asserted, are injected intramuscularly. These bacilli are said to be derived from the tubercle, but the method by which they are deprived of virulence is withheld. This secrecy is not in accord with the ethical standard of scientific medicine."

"The report as to the results of the practical use of this carefully guarded secret shows, first, that in the experiments on guinea pigs, complete protection has NOT been obtained. Indeed it is doubtful whether the protection obtained is any greater than that obtained by the injection of killed bacilli."

"Furthermore, there are no indications that it has been possible to cure tuberculosis guinea pigs by means of the bacilli rendered avirulent by a secret method. The treatment consequently lacks an unassailable experimental basis—a really and promptly effective cure for tuberculosis in guinea pigs and other animals."

AS REGARDS CHILDREN.
"The injections so far made by Friedman in children seem to indicate that the bacilli are harmless in children, and from the nature of the case it will be exceedingly difficult to determine what the effect of such injections really is."

"In the second place, the alleged curative effects do not seem to be any more pronounced and definite than those obtained with the various forms of tuberculin when properly used. The remarks made in the discussion following the reading of Friedman's paper before the Berlin Medical Society clearly substantiate this statement."

POSSIBLE DANGERS.
Pointing out that the alleged "cure" has possible dangers, the famous medical journal continues: "Finally we come to the possible dangers of the treatment, to which Clinton refers, namely, reversion to virulence on the part of the bacilli. This possibility must be reckoned with and constitutes a serious detriment to the method, no matter what its real virtue may be, if any. Its apparent harmlessness in children so far is counterbalanced by this possible danger."

"In view of these considerations there is not sufficient warrant for any other attitude toward Friedman's treatment of tuberculosis than one of CRITICAL NEUTRALITY and judicious skepticism, for it concerns an essentially secret procedure without adequate experimental basis and without any better results to its credit than produced by tuberculin properly used."

Local physicians here have shown much interest in this analysis which has just appeared in the Medical Journal. "We must not expect too much from this new cure," said one physician, "patients should be warned not to entertain false hopes until we know more about it."

Cupid Was Forgetful—A prominent young Santa Fean who has an office over at the capitol called, "silently and alone" at the office of the county clerk in the court house this morning. "I wish a marriage license," he whispered to the clerk. "For your self?" "Yes." "And where is the bride?" She must come too, in order to get the license. Looking crestfallen, the young man left the office. "Of course, I couldn't issue the license without both being present, as you know," said the clerk discussing the incident. Cupid at once went out to read up on the laws of New Mexico; for once the bow god had been caught napping.

The Legislature convenes here next month, so if you have had your rooms made clean and attractive for your boy's vacation at home, you will have an opportunity afterward to rent them to some of our distinguished lawmakers. The Dance is On—Those of terpsichorean turn will be delighted to hear of the announcement given out today by the entertainment committee of the Santa Fe Lodge of Elks that the second of the winter series of dances will be given at the Elks' Home Christmas night. It was not the intention of the committee to hold more than one dance in each month but many of the members have importuned them with the request for a Christmas night dance and as no other dance is scheduled for that evening the committee could not resist and the dance is on. It is unnecessary to say that those who are lucky enough to be present will have the time of their lives for every one knows the hospitality of the Elks.

FURS IN COUNTLESS VARIETY FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN, AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Matachines Dance—The Matachines will be given tonight at Fireman's hall at 8 o'clock sharp. The new manager has made complete arrangements to give the performance for nine days in order to allow everybody a chance to see the oldest dance in America, a dance originated by the Aztecs and the Spaniards during the apparition of Our Lady of Guadalupe to the Indian, Juan Diego. The music and the different parts played in the performance are very interesting for it recalls the customs and the ceremonies with which the Indians and the Spaniards celebrated centuries ago the feast of the apparition. If anyone desires to see this realistic dance, how it was celebrated in those days, come to the Fireman's hall and see the real production of the Matachines Dance. The admission is only 25 cents for everybody. No reserved seats.

INTERESTED IN THE LEGISLATURE.

A great deal of interest is being manifested in the approaching meeting of the New Mexico legislature.

There is a vast amount of important legislation to come before it, part of which will be new and part of which comes as a legacy from last winter's session due to the careless rushing through of bills in the closing days of the session in incomplete and imperfect form, and to the systematic chloroforming of other measures at the order of the bosses.

Things have happened in the meantime and it is evident that the voters of this state are hereafter going to have something to say as opportunity presents itself, on matters in which they are interested, as well as something to say directly to those members of the legislature who disregard those things directly affecting the state's interests.

In other words, collectively and individually, the work of the members at the coming session will be closely and interestingly watched.

There is a change in conditions and there is a change in sentiment.

Personal supervision of the legislature will not be meekly regarded by the voters, and the general superintendents who have heretofore been so active, are no longer needed. The members of the legislature are directly responsible to the people who elected them and to no one else, and they will be so regarded.

Personal and private interests must give way to public interests which have been regarded as subservient in the past.

This is simply a statement of facts as they appear at the present time as the result of new conditions.

Not only in New Mexico, but all over the country; not only at our own capital, but at the capital of the nation, this new influence is being felt.

There is a demand for a new deal and those who do not or cannot realize it will go into the discard.

The election last month demonstrated how it is done.

HER BADGE OF SERVICE.

Miss Emily Ewing, a beautiful New York girl, who was terribly disfigured for life in rescuing some children from a fire, says she will not mind the disfigurement, that it is her badge of service done to humanity, her medal, and something to think about besides merely being must note this power of escape from the calamities of lesser spirits.

in Hale, but his spirit eluded them; on the scaffold in a high emotion, patriotism and he was happier around him as he exclaimed: "My only regret is that I am for my country."

achery, bereavement, slander and death, like wolves, idle to the grave. We cannot only rise above them, but turn them into blessings.

Emily Ewing, losing her beauty, earned the joy of usefulness. Nathan Hale, dying, became immortal.

Out of mud, say the orientals, springs the lotus flower; out of clay come gold and diamonds; out of diseased oysters, pearls; brightest silks are spun from a worm; from a dry stick is born flame; and from the jungle comes honey.

And the sweetest, rarest, most precious joys of life come only to the souls that have been crushed.

HOW ABOUT POOR CHILDREN?

The peril which lurks in the kindergarten or the children's party affords a theme for an essay of warning to parents contributed by Dr. Thomas S. Southworth of New York writing in the Journal of the American Medical Association. After warning against taking children to shops to see Santa Claus and the Christmas displays, the doctor concludes that "children's parties and dancing schools for the young come under the ban. It is an open question whether the greatly increased opportunity for major and minor infections in kindergartens does not more than offset the real advantages they offer."

Weighted against the peril of the kindergarten, we wonder what Dr. Southworth thinks of the employment of babies in canneries; the working of little girls in the southern cotton mills from 6 at night until 6 in the morning; the sweatshop labor in the tenements of New York; the child workers in the mills at Lawrence and other New England towns; the loathsome alleyway tenements in the nation's capital—in short, the reckless disregard by the nation of its children and women who have been drawn into the economic maw of this manufacturing age and are being consumed as fuel to make dividends for the few.

THE TAX ON LAND.

When the question of taxation comes to be considered by the people of New Mexico, through their legislature, it will be difficult to get away from the question of equitable land taxation, whether it be called by the name of single tax or any other name.

In our own state vast tracts of land are held in company or corporate control—land grants, as they are denominated,—and they go, many of them, untaxed entirely, worthless to anyone but those who hold them, of no value to the upbuilding of the state, a bar to immigration, a block to progress.

These lands are held to bring future wealth to their owners. They cost nothing to hold, but when, by the rise in value in lands about them, these grants can increase also, they will be parceled out to the best advantage to those who have controlled them for this purpose. The point is, that these lands, held for future personal advantage, should not go untaxed while those that have been brought to a productive basis by toil, privation, sacrifice and hard labor on the part of those who have entered upon them to cultivate them, bear the whole burden.

There is no valid reason why this sharp distinction should be drawn and those who are aiding in the state development be punished, while those who are looking solely to their own selfish interests, get scott free.

Credit is due Capt. Fred Porroff of the mounted police, Sheriff McGrath and his deputies for the plans laid and carried out to catch the intended help out men who had laid out a scheme to collect a nice roll of money being taken out to pay the miners at Moreton.

The plan as carried out, shows that the officers were on the alert, and the fact that these events are still occurring in the west, proves the value of some additional police protection than that afforded by local officers only.

The New Mexico mounted police is not an organization of past value. It should not only be retained but should be made even more effective by reasonable appropriation.

Chicago has a girls' club, the members of which pledge themselves not to marry a man whose income is less than $5,000 per annum. Another bit of evidence touching the high cost of living. However, a man smart enough to earn $5,000 a year will be seeking for a wife who has some sense. The club is not likely to be disturbed by the entrance of any proposals.

Wives of Everett, Washington, railroad men have determined to learn to run locomotives. This seems but natural. Wives who have that kind of determination, probably run the men who run the locomotives.

Has anyone heard of any petition from Wall Street asking that William J. Bryan be appointed secretary of the treasury, or did the suggestion come from some other source?

AS THE BYSTANDER SEES IT

MORE INVESTIGATION.

Over in Washington the other day the congress of these United States appropriated the sum of $15,000 to be used by the bureau of standards to investigate methods of preventing death by lightning—natural, not political, you know—and other forms of electricity.

Congress is a funny institution. It investigates so many things and does not find out anything.

Just the casual observer would naturally think that an investigation into a method to prevent starvation which has become altogether too common in these United States, would be of more real value, or an investigation into the cause of so many deaths by the pistol route. Lightning is not in the same class with the pistol as a death producer and there must be some cause for the common agent it has come to be for the stopping of some individual's breath.

An investigation into the matter of the cause that induces the unrestrained use of the pistol, and the growing tendency toward paranoia, brain storms, and the like, seems to me as of great value as an investigation of methods to prevent lightning, but congress has a great and wonderful collection, perhaps the most remarkable in captivity and it will become a common gink to criticize.

The only trouble is that there is no likelihood, judging from the past that the congressional investigation will discover anything.

BUT THEY'RE GOOD NOTIONS.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, apropos of pure Christmas foods, said the other day in Chicago:

"I know a woman, fresh from the country, who complained to her cook during the holidays:

"Our cider is watery, the turkey has no flavor. I can't find any meat in the mince meat, and back home they'd hardly give to the pigs such a mass of adulteration as that mince meat."

"You'll get over them rural notions after a while," the cook said.

There are two things wrong with that kind of a cook's ideas. First, she has grown indolent and swelled-headed from overconsideration on the part of those who hired her, or their timidity of her, and second, when she blows off concerning "rural notions," she doesn't know what she is talking about.

No one in the city gets what he does out on the farm or in the small towns with farms adjacent.

Think of it, this Christmas dinner, for instance, between city and country—a nice fat, home fed turkey; real home-made pumpkin pie made from those pumpkins grown in the garden. There "ain't no such" pumpkin pie anywhere else. Then there's mince pie, not made of "bone such" mince meat, though there's none such as you get in the country. The vegetables taste fresh. They've been kept

CAN'T KEEP UP.

It is as difficult to keep up with scientific discoveries now, as it is with the styles. They move so fast, you know. Every few minutes some new discovery is sprung and you find out that things they've been doing for years and years, things our grandfathers and great grandfathers did, were all wrong and dangerous and pernicious and everything that ought not to be.

Mr. Albert F. Shore, whoever he is, has discovered that plants and flowers and fruits have intelligence.

If Mr. Shore is right, then there will have to be a revolution in our manner of living and doing things, and it is going to raise Ned with the vegetarians who have been eating vegetables all these years from a humanitarian standpoint.

Come to find out about it a plant or flower is hurt when picked or used in any way.

When prepared for use a vegetable has to be killed first. You've got to bat a cabbage over the head just like you do a beef critter, and shoot a turnip like you do a rabbit, or bleed a beet like experts do chickens.

If it hurts so, how can any of us hereafter, bite an apple right square in the face, or pare a pear, or ruthlessly force our teeth into that blushing cheek of the peach, over which our poets rave so freely, or how can we select that bright red tomato when it would shout with pain if it only could.

Sometimes I wish the scientists would quit discovering. They make things so uncomfortable and disagreeable, and the things they find out fairly stun you when you are told about them.

It's mighty unpleasant when you bite into fruit hereafter, to know you are causing pain. And all this time we went right on thinking that nature intended us to eat fruit.

Well, we can only wait now for the next scientific illumination.

GATHERED 35 AND PUT UP COOL 2000

(From Raton Range.)

Two would-be desperados, named Wm. Weston and Derrell Rexford, were captured Sunday evening at Vanhouten by Deputy Sheriff Gardner after Sheriff Hixenbaugh and deputies had been scouring the country for two days in an effort to round them up. The men are wanted for the holding up near the Red river bridge south of Raton of Sam and Dick Nauta, from whom they secured $25 in money.

While driving from Maxwell to Raton, the Nauta boys met the two men several miles south of the Red river bridge and were asked for a "lift."

Wealth
By Benton Bralley.

I'd like to be rich—there is pleasure in money.
It's good stuff to have and its good stuff to spend.
It helps you to pay for your milk and your honey
And gives you a chance to be nice to a friend.
I'd like to be rich, but I'd never be willing
To pay such a price as some men do for gold;
The cost is too high and the pace is too killing.
And too many things must be bartered and sold.

I'd like to be rich—and I wonder who wouldn't.
And yet if it cost me what some people pay.
I'd try to be rich and I'd find that I couldn't.
There's too much worth while that is lost by the way
To sacrifice friends and ideals to render
My heart and my conscience, my soul and my mind,
And sell all my dreams for a dollar-marked splendor,
Would leave me too poor for the riches I'd find.

I'd like to have wealth if I made it by toiling
Or keenness and cleverness canny—but fair,
But never by cheating and spilling;
I'd like to be rich—but I'd rather be square!

The party had driven several miles when, in the neighborhood of the bridge, the drivers were confronted with the command, "Hands up," with the prospect of two vicious looking "44's" confronting them. They were ordered to dismount, unhitch the team and to hand over what valuables they had. Thirty-six dollars was secured.

After the hold-up men had disappeared down a neighboring arroyo, the Nautas made haste for Raton, aroused the sheriff who, together with his deputies, proceeded on a round-up. The men wanted spent the first night camping out in Cottonwood canon and the next night put in their appearance at the camp of Vanhouten where one of the sheriff's deputies nabbed them in bed.

All the stolen property was recovered.

Before the justice court yesterday, the men were bound over under a bond of $2,000 each for a hearing before the grand jury.

GOT 1200 BONES.

New York, Dec. 21.—Four auto bandits attacked paymasters of the Silk Finishing company of America on the lower west side today, beat them into unconsciousness and robbed them of $1200 for the weekly payroll.

IT'S A MISTAKE.

Many people in a misguided effort to get rid of kidney backache, rely on plasters, liniments and other makeshifts. The right treatment is kidney treatment and a remarkably recommended kidney medicine is Doan's Kidney Pills. Santa Fe is no exception.

The proof is at your very door. The following is an experience typical of the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Santa Fe.

Thomas M. Baca, Cerillos St., Santa Fe, New Mex., says: "My faith in Doan's Kidney Pills is just as strong today as when I publicly recommended them in 1902. I was caused much suffering by backaches for three years and though I was never laid off from work, my back was so painful that it was all I could do to get around. Doan's Kidney Pills entirely relieved me and I had no return attack of the trouble for six months. At that time my work brought on a recurrence of my trouble. I at once took Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me relief. A medicine that lives up to the claims for it like Doan's Kidney Pills do, deserves the strongest endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM Baking Powder

Purity in food, lower cost of living—these are the demands of the day.

Pure food is health, and health is economy itself. We cannot have health without healthful food.

The most healthful foods are the quickly raised flour foods—biscuit, cake, muffins, crusts and other pastry when perfectly made from wholesome ingredients.

Dr. PRICE'S baking powder makes these foods in specially attractive, appetizing and wholesome form, and for both economic and hygienic reasons, such foods should be more largely substituted for meat in the daily diet.

But bear in mind that alum, or unwholesome baking powder, can never make pure, wholesome food.

NEWS OF THE STATE

GIVING 'EM AWAY.

William Blake and W. H. Harris of La Plata were in Aztec Friday to meet and help move Charles McNamee who arrived with a car of household goods and implements on that date from that time he gave away more vegetables from his garden than he was able to raise in seventeen years in eastern Colorado.—Aztec Democrat.

INTO WIRE FENCE.

J. W. Pratt's team ran away tearing the wagon up, breaking the harness and cutting themselves where they ran into a wire fence. Mr. Pratt, who lives near Canoe, had sent his two little boys to town after supplies and the boys left the team standing near the depot while they went in to inquire about express. While the boys were in the depot the team became frightened and ran away with the above results.—Logan Leader.

THE BEST EVER.

W. O. Dunlap's description of the feed crop that was raised by the dry farmers of Roosevelt county this year was well calculated to make the denizens of "Alkali Princess" sit up and take notice—in fact, our crop this year is such that most any old place would do well to put us on their visiting list. They might get a bunch that would make a noise like prosperity for themselves and acquire a few hundred acres of the best ever.—Portales Times.

BIG CATTLE SALES.

This week there have been some big cattle sales consummated here. A short time ago E. R. Chambers went down into Arizona and purchased 800 head of cattle and drove them up here. He was backed financially by Hatcher & Catchpole, of Pagosa Springs. Mr. Catchpole came down a few days ago, and Tuesday Chambers & Catchpole sold 20 head to J. H. Brimhall and 200 head to the Youngs. The sales amount to $12,000.

The rest of the herd will be held here until spring.—Farmington Times-Herald.

FIRST SANTA CLAUS FIRE.

While enjoying their annual Christmas party last evening at the home Miss Mary Turner, Santa Claus mask and beard, worn by Miss Lora Kelly, who took the part of St. Nick, caught fire from one of the Christmas candles, causing her face to be slightly burned before the mask could be torn away by other hands. No very serious burns were sustained but the nervous shock from the experience will probably keep Miss Kelly from performing her duties at the Raton Supply company for several days.—Raton Range.

JUST A RAILROAD.

It is very noticeable that when visitors from other parts of the state or from the outside come to San Juan county for the first time, they are eloquent in their praise of our immense resources. They fairly rave about the azure skies, the pure air, the bright sunshine, the grand scenery, the wondrous yields of fruit and other products, the unlimited supply of water, the vastness in extent of the land, the rich coal beds—in short, our unlimited and unsurpassed opportunities—but they usually round out their words of approbation with "One thing is lacking—a railroad." So it is any wonder, looking at the matter in that light, that we of the San Juan are eternally talking and working for the advent of a railroad into this, the land of promise?—Farmington Enterprise.

CERTAINLY SOME SNOW.

E. Vorus, the owner of the only patented land near the Palomas Hot Springs, came up from his home to Hillsboro last Thursday in a two horse hack. About twelve miles from town the snow storm overtook him and he had to stop. Night had come on and it was impossible to see anything of the road or of the country around for that matter. The thickly falling snow hid everything from view. Mr. Vorus had a tarp and some bedding and he made his bed on the ground, unhitched the horses and tied them to the hack in as sheltered a place as he could find. In the morning his bed was covered with two feet of snow. He found it impossible to proceed with the wagon as the horses were nearly frozen stiff and there was no sign of a road, so he rode one horse into town leading the other and leaving the hack behind him on the prairie.—Hillsboro Free Press.

NEW AUTO LINE.

The replacement of an automobile line between this city and Carrizozo in place of the one to Vaughn is causing no little comment on the streets these days and business men are expressing themselves for and against the change.

Perhaps the fact that the local merchants will have a chance to reap a generous reward from points between this city and Carrizozo with the establishment of the parcels post system the first of the year, furnishes the most optimistic viewpoint for local people to take of the situation, especially since nothing that could now be done would substitute the Vaughn line back.

A number of prominent merchants expressed themselves as highly pleased over the prospect of the establishment of the new line, seeing immediately the benefits that will accrue to Roswell on account of the new territory to be served being much more densely populated than the one to be abandoned.—Roswell Record.

ELEPHANTS HAD COLD FEET.

M. L. Clark & Son's overland circus arrived in Socorro Wednesday evening after a five days' trip in the cold and snow from some point over in Arizona. According to all reports the trip was a pretty severe test of the endurance of both men and animals. Out somewhere in the region of the Datils the elephants became so frantic with the cold that they set up an unearthly trumpeting and started for tall timber. Neither coaxing nor driving could bring them back, but a big fire of blazing logs did the business. They snuggled up to the fire with every sign of appreciation of the favor. One baboon was just about congealed when he reached Magdalena. A pint of whisky applied internally and several jugs and hot water bath in circulation and he then inaugurated a rough-and-tumble performance that very quickly let him monarch of all he surveyed. Similar experiences with some of the other animals are related.—Socorro Chief-Tain.

HENS AND HEN FRUIT.

The next move for the benefit of the farmers—especially those who are raising hen fruit—is the establishment of a central market for marketing eggs.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Pecos Valley Poultry association the matter was discussed. The members of the committee are Dr. A. D. Crile, Lindsey Shelby and George Hinson.

It is the purpose to establish the central point; having all the regular members bringing their eggs there each day, with the name and date of laying and the association will then guarantee every egg sold that it is not over twenty-four hours old, and at any time there is a bad one the person who brought the egg to market will be fined 50c for each egg, and the consumer will get a new egg.

Another matter discussed was the getting together of the poultry men of the valley for the common good so they can act as a unit in creating a market for the over the valley production.

W. P. Turner, president of the Pecos Valley Poultry association, says that this industry has doubled in less than two years, and is one that has to be recognized in the creation of markets for the valley products.

"Take today, for instance, the turkey market. Thanksgiving turkeys on foot were selling in Roswell on the streets at 8 to 10 cents per pound, while in Kansas City they were bringing 22 cents. If the right railroad rates can be secured, this would give the valley men an ideal market and a handsome profit. Turkeys can be raised here for 6 cents."—Roswell News.

Dr. William Sadler, author of "The Cause and Cure of Colds," says that common colds should be taken seriously, especially when they "hang on." Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is a reliable household medicine for colds and coughs, equally effective for children and for grown persons. Take it when you feel a cold coming on. It will avert danger of serious results and cure quickly. No harmful drugs. For sale by all druggists.

BRYAN'S AMBITIONS DISTURBING

THE DEMOCRATS OF THE METROPOLIS DO NOT QUITE KNOW WHAT IS GOING TO HAPPEN. CONFERENCE AT TONIGHT'S DINNER.

New York, Dec. 21.—Some interesting developments may result from the visit of Colonel William J. Bryan to this city tonight.

Colonel Bryan is coming to town to attend the dinner to be given by many notable democrats to Governor-elect William Sulzer. Either before the dinner or immediately after it, Wilson and Bryan are to discuss politics and patronage.

Colonel Bryan's intimates in this city said today that the Nebraska much prefers to be either attorney general or secretary of the treasury in Wilson's cabinet, and has little liking for the state department. New York democrats could not recall that Colonel Bryan had sufficient experience in the law to warrant the aspiration to become attorney general of the United States. They could remember only one case in 14 years in which Colonel Bryan practiced his profession—the widow Bennett case.

According to the record, Colonel Bryan drew the will for a Connecticut admirer, named Bennett, in which Bennett bequeathed $50,000 to Bryan and left a sealed letter to his widow requesting that the bequest to Bryan be carried out. Instead, the widow took the case into the Connecticut courts and Bryan was defeated.

In fact democrats went on to say, Colonel Bryan has not practiced his profession for a long time. As a congressman in 1894, he had no opportunity and since his first nomination for the presidency, in 1896, he has made politics his profession. Therefore Colonel Bryan's democratic critics argued that he was not adequately equipped for the post of the highest law officer of the government.

There was objection to Colonel Bryan for the secretaryship of the treasury on the same grounds. He has had no practical experience, it was pointed out, either in business or finance, which would permit him to handle that department.

No particular objections were raised to Bryan for secretary of state. Not that Bryan was equipped for that place either, but they say if he is to go into the cabinet, it will be better that he should be appointed secretary of state rather than assigned to the attorney generalship.

In fact, national democrats expressed the opinion that it would be good politics for President Wilson to appoint Colonel Bryan secretary of state, if only because as a member of the Wilson administration Bryan could not find it easy to attack the tariff legislation which will be known as the first great work of the Wilson administration.

The idea apparently prevails among democrats who have watched Colonel Bryan's career for 16 years, that any cabinet of which Bryan is a member cannot hold together more than six months.

COUGHING AT NIGHT

One bad cough can keep the whole family awake at night. Phil. Diorneau, Schaffer, Mich., says: "I could not sleep on account of a bad cough, and I was very weak. I used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and soon the cough left and I slept soundly all night." For sale by all druggists.

SPANKING STARTED A FIRE.
Columbus, O., Dec. 21.—Two vigorous applications of a paddle to the west side of a boy's trousers caused grave results in the public school at East Columbus. The teacher of his class had called him to the platform to apply the paddle because of his unruliness. The teacher, however, did not reckon with the "department store style" of the youngster's pockets. Carefully stacked away in one of the hip pockets of the trousers of the boy were some matches, and the rapid application of the paddle caused the matches to ignite. Neither the boy nor the teacher knew a fire had started until the youngster smelled smoke. The boy was burned slightly.

OFFICIAL NEWS.

Mayor D. K. B. Sellers, of Albuquerque, was a caller this morning on Governor McDonald. "I did not call on any political or official matters," said the mayor smiling as he came out of the office. I was just discussing with the governor the death of our good friend Felix Lester, whose funeral will likely take place at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in Albuquerque. The city council, the police and fire departments will show respect to the former mayor and at the time of his death, the city attorney of Albuquerque. I was just telling the governor how keenly I feel the loss of Mr. Lester; he was so bright, so willing and so energetic; whether his advice was followed or not, made no difference in his genial and enthusiastic willingness always to be of service in aiding the city.

OFFICIALS LEAVE.

State Engineer French, Land Commissioner Ervin, of this city, left today for Albuquerque, accompanying Mayor Sellers, of Albuquerque; E. C. Butler, also of Albuquerque, and D. H. Burrell, of Washington, D. C. Colonel Twitchell may join the party or parties, for two autos are being used to make the trip. "I wish Mr. Burrell to see that La Bajada hill road," said Mr. Sellers. "I want his eyes to pop out with amazement at that splendid engineering feat."

MUST HAVE LICENSES.

The state game department wishes the New Mexican to call attention to the law requiring all sportsmen to take out licenses for the new year of 1913 if they wish to go hunting or shooting. The licenses expire December 31, 1912, as the old year passes out.

XMAS AT THE PEN.

Warden McManus is preparing to send out invitations to the Christmas festivities at the state penitentiary. He is going to give the convicts a great spread on Christmas day. Local merchants will aid him. Leo Hersch will send cigars, so that the residents of the pen may top off that big dinner with a good smoke. Cartwright Brothers will send more cigars, so that second smoke may be enjoyed during the day. And Kaune & Company will send buckets of cream candy which will be distributed at dinner, appealing to the sweet-tooth of the diners. Other merchants may also remember the convicts and an entire list of duties and things received will be announced with the menu of Fe, looking as jolly and happy as ever. Edna's many friends will be glad to see her again.

The Rev. A. M. Mandolani, one of the most brilliant Jesuits of the southwest, is here from Albuquerque. Father Mandolani is conducting a retreat at the state penitentiary. He has had marked success there in past years giving retreats for he is an eloquent and earnest preacher with all the persuasive and personal charm of the gifted Italian orator and scholar.

KING FERDINAND THANKS HIS TROOPS

Sofia, Bulgaria, Dec. 21.—King Ferdinand of Bulgaria today addressed an order to the army expressing his appreciation of the work of the troops during the campaign in Turkey. The order commences:

"By the conclusion of the hostilities between the Turkish and the allied troops, the first period of the war with Turkey has been concluded."

After a lengthy eulogy of the exploits achieved, it concludes: "You should profit by the present moment to rest in order to prepare yourselves for fresh efforts, in which case I have no doubt you will cover your banners with new and imperishable glory."

Special significance is attached to some quarters to the two sentences quoted which are read as a warning to Turkey that Bulgaria is still prepared to enforce her own peace terms.

GREEKS SCENT WAR DESPITE PEACE TALK.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 21.—Despite the peace conference at London, nearly 1500 Greeks within the last six days have left Salt Lake City to report for duty at Athens.

EPIDEMIC AMONG TROOPS.

Hannau, Germany, Dec. 21.—An epidemic of typhoid fever has broken out among the troops of the garrison here. Two hundred and eleven soldiers are lying in hospitals, suffering from the disease.

STARTS HIS FLIGHT.

Trapani, Sicily, Dec. 21.—Roland Garros, the French aviator, started on his flight from here to Rome today. He intends to make stops at Milazzo, Pizzo and Naples.
