ONE TAX IS SIX-YEAR TERM ENOUGH ON MOTORS

JUDGE ABBOTT KNOCKS OUT CITY'S CONTENTION THAT AUTOISTS
MUST GET CITY AS WELL AS STATE LICENSE

MANY ATTORNEYS ATTEND HEARING

One tax is enough on motor cars for private use.

Such is the sweeping decision handed down late yesterday afternoon by District Judge Edmund C. Abbott who spent hours listening to arguments of attorneys for the "choo-choo car" owners.

Today joy-riding is a real joy indeed, and there is an axiomatic tone to the notes of motor horns.

"In my opinion," said Judge Abbott, "the city is without any authority to enact an ordinance requiring automobiles to be taxed and licensed—that is, autos run for private pleasure and convenience. Of course, machines run for business reasons must pay an occupation tax. But the other cars need not be taxed twice. There is already a state tax and I fail to find any law allowing a city to impose additional taxes."

Judge Abbott delivered a verbal opinion. He will hand down a written opinion Monday.

The "test" case which elicited the decision was the City of Santa Fe, plaintiff, vs. Dr. James A. Rolls, defendant, a criminal appeal taken from the justice court of Manuel B. Salazar, in Precinct No. 18.

Attorneys Wilson, Bowman and Linsley appear for Dr. Rolls. There were many other attorneys, some of them motorists, in the room, however, as the case came up for it is well known several other autoists besides Dr. Rolls, have been arrested in the past few days "for having no city license."

E. P. Davies, city attorney, appeared on behalf of the city of Santa Fe. The arguments were long and numerous.

In the statement marked "agreed statement of facts" the fourth article is as follows:

4. That on the 28th day of January, A. D. 1913, the said defendant was arrested for the violation of Section 279, of Chapter 21, of the Revised Ordinances of 1911, of the city of Santa Fe, requiring that the owner of an automobile shall pay annually a road license, for such vehicle, the sum of $8, and the further sum of $2 as a renewal fee for his license to operate the said automobile and it is further stipulated and agreed that the defendant has not paid said sum of $8, as a road license, nor the said sum of $2, as an operating license, and that said amounts and the costs hereinafter mentioned are due the said city of Santa Fe, or so much thereof as is applicable to this prosecution, is valid and can be upheld under the constitution, statutes and laws of the state of New Mexico.

The fifth article tells of the arrest of Dr. Rolls as follows:

5. Further, that the said defendant appeared before Juan B. Salazar, justice of the peace of said city of Santa Fe, and plead "not guilty," on the 28th day of January, 1913. That he was found guilty by the said justice of the peace and fined the sum of $10.00 and costs amounting to $8.50. That he, the said defendant, took an appeal to the district court, in and for the county of Santa Fe, state of New Mexico.

SALAZAR REBELS ARE AGAIN ON THE BORDER

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 1.—After moving fifty miles along the Mexican Northwestern railway southwest of Juarez, General Salazar and his rebel army is returning to the border and is expected to appear soon opposite Columbus, New Mexico.

On their way, the rebels burned every inflammable thing along the British owned railway, trestles and stationary equipment. The Mexican Central railway remaining open to Chihuahua city.

Cavalry arriving in Juarez at the time of the expected rebel attack has made no move to pursue the enemy.

WORK'S RESOLUTION IS ADOPTED BY A VOTE OF 47 TO 23, OR NINE MORE THAN THE TWO-THIRDS NECESSARY TO CARRY IT

THE SENATE TODAY PASSED THE WORK'S RESOLUTION FOR A SINGLE 6 YEAR PRESIDENTIAL TERM BY A VOTE OF 47 TO 23. THIS WAS NINE VOTES MORE THAN THE NECESSARY TWO-THIRDS.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 1.—Senator Cummins opened the debate today on the Works' proposed constitutional amendment to limit a president to a single six year term, by proposing to permit voters to amend the constitution directly without previous action of congress when "a substantial majority" demanded such a change. He declared that with the exception of George Washington, those presidents who had served two terms would have been better had they served but one.

Senator Cummins declared a president's work was often "neglected" and badly performed, because of attention to efforts for re-nomination and re-election. "I believe a president would do his duty more efficiently if no influences can affect him," he said.

"I think the Sherman anti-trust law will be more thoroughly administered and more energetically applied to all persons alike, if the president of the United States is made free from all the influences which these great interests may exert."

Senator Cummins insisted the president should be taken out of "the maelstrom of politics."

"He ought not to travel from one end of the country to the other," he said, "appealing to the people in the same way as a candidate for any other office. The duties of the president's office are sufficient to consume all his time and strength and are important enough to merit all of his attention and devotion."

Mormonism in Utah in the past campaign was injected into the senate debate by Senator Peckshewer, who declared President Taft had carried Utah only because the head of the church had issued a proclamation commanding members of the church to vote for Taft.

"Is that not true?" he demanded of Senator Smoot.

"No, it is not," returned Mr. Smoot. "President Smith made speeches and himself favored Mr. Taft's re-election but he issued no official communications whatever on the subject."

HOARDING OF GOLD BEGINNING AGAIN

BECAUSE OF APPREHENSION OF WAR,
FRENCH BANKERS WILL NOT
HANDLE EVEN A FEW SMALL
COINS FOR PATRONS

Paris, Feb. 1.—Owing to apprehensions of a possible war, gold, which is now at 20 cents premium on 100 dollars, has almost entirely disappeared from circulation in France. The only places in Paris where gold coin can now be obtained are the Paris branches of American banks. The French banks refuse to handle even one 20-franc piece to their customers. The hoarding of gold has been in progress 3 months. For two or three days recently, when peace in the Balkans seemed likely, a few gold pieces began to reappear in circulation but these have once more vanished.

NEVADA ORDERS THREE-CENT FARE

RAILROAD COMMISSION THERE TAKES SOUTHERN PACIFIC IN HAND AND MAKES A SWEEPING CUT IN ALL CHARGES

Reno, Nev., Feb. 1.—The railroad commission in Nevada, in an opinion on an order written by Commissioner Shaughnessy, has ordered that, on or before February 25, the Southern Pacific company within Nevada shall reduce the present local one way passenger fares between all points on its standard gauge main and branch lines now from 4 to 5 cents a mile, to 3 cents a mile.

Chairman Bartine dissents from the majority opinion on the ground that while entirely favorable to a reduction to three cents a mile on the main line, he is opposed to any reduction on the branch line for the reason that if treated separately and not included as a part of the entire system, as contemplated in the majority opinion, the business of the branch line is not sufficient to warrant a reduction in the fares thereon.

HUMOROUS LEGISLATOR THE "JOKE" IS STILL UNAPPRECIATED

(Editor's Note: Act I of this brilliant comedy appeared in the New Mexican Wednesday, January 28.)

ACT II.
Dramatis personae (who appear in this act):

1. High Official of telegraph company; with an atrophied sense of humor, middle-aged, stylishly dressed, with tight fitting, gray silk gloves. Nervous manner.

2. A reporter.

High Official (sotto): "To think that this is the very spot where that sacrilege was committed! (Gazes in awe at the waste basket which recently was the recipient of the telling carbon slips.)"

(Enter reporter.)

Reporter: (Eagerly confronting High Official: "Are you HE... Have you brought it?")

High official: "I am HE. But I have not brought IT. I assume that you refer to that telegram written by a military legislator to HIMSELF within these very walls—on that very typewriter—ha! think of the desecration!"

Reporter: "It was a pretty good joke, wasn't it?"

High Official: (Foaming at the mouth but not "sputtering") "JOKE? What do you mean sir? Do you consider it a JOKE that our telegraphic integrity has been attacked? Do you not know that from henceforth every

INCOME TAX RATIFIED SENATE PASSES RESOLUTION TO-DAY

The resolution offered by the judiciary committee as a substitute for senate joint resolution No. 3, ratifying the income tax amendment to the federal constitution, passed the legislative senate this afternoon on motion of Mr. Holt by a vote of 19 ayes, 1 nay, State Senator Page of McKinley county, voting in opposition, with two senators paired and two absent.

This resolution was reported favorably from the committee and its passage today was generally expected. The resolution will undoubtedly be passed in the house.

There were a number of new bills presented in the senate.

S. B. No. 78, by Mr. Sulzer, a lengthy bill which prescribes the qualifications for voters in bond elections, was introduced today. This measure is of more than ordinary interest and was ordered printed and translated.

S. B. No. 79, by Mr. Sulzer—An act relative to the collection and use of road taxes was also sent to the clerk's desk.

These other bills were introduced, ordered printed and referred to committees.

S. B. No. 80, by Mr. Clark—An act amending the present law and providing for six months' contract for supplies at the state insane asylum.

S. B. No. 81, by Walton—Relative to the formation of certain corporations.

S. B. No. 82, by Walton—Relative to the incorporation of towns.

S. B. No. 83, by Walton—An act for the taxation of gifts, legacies, etc.

S. B. No. 84, by Hild—An act relative to insane persons.

S. B. No. 85, by Holt—An act prohibiting the planting of Johnson grass in certain districts.

S. B. No. 87, by Mr. Holt—An act relative to the unlawful appropriation of gas, electric current, etc.

The committee on judiciary recommended that Mr. Carter's House Bill No. 15—An act prohibiting lobbying, be not passed. It likewise favored the prompt slaughter of Senate Bill No. 14, by Mr. Mabry—An act abolishing the death penalty.

S. B. No. 48—An act fixing the hours of employment for women and children was recommended unfavorably as was Senate Bill No. 7, which provides for free traveling libraries for the state.

A number of other measures were reported for passage and will take their places on the calendar for Monday. Among them are:

S. B. No. 46—Giving justices of the peace authority in cases involving more than $200; S. B. No. 60—Reported by the finance committee, and which provides for the salary and expenses of a state mine examiner.

Several other measures of a minor nature were reported from committee for action Monday. The senate recessed until Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

New Orleans, Feb. 1.—Injection of a socialistic propaganda and discussion of politics and religion in the National Hobo Convention, very barred by the delegates today. James Eads How, known as "the millionaire hobo," was hounded down when he attempted to criticize the ruling of President Jeff Davis.

"This ain't no political hot air bang," shouted a delegate, "and we ain't going to let you fellows spoil our convention."

President Davis said the convention had been called for the sole purpose of considering the welfare of the "boys who are up against it" and he did not believe they should be forced to listen to a lot of rot about socialism from those who have axes to grind.

WALL STREET.

New York, Feb. 1.—The stock market closed irregular.

Weakness in several influential stocks and admissions by trade authorities that there was a more perceptible slowing up in general business, caused an early decline in the stock market.

Resumption of pool operations in minor specialties and short covering of the coalers and western railroad stocks ultimately turned the course of prices upward.

The general list, however, did little more than make up its lost ground, showing some irregularity. Bonds were irregular.

EDITOR NELSON IN CONTEMPT OF COURT

BALKAN ALLIES STAND READY TO BATTLE

CRITICISM BY KANSAS CITY STAR OF
COURT ACTION RESULTS IN VER-DICT OF GUILTY FOR BARON OF KAW VALLEY

W. R. Nelson, owner of the Kansas City Star, pronounced guilty of contempt by Judge Joseph A. Guthrie, in the county circuit court this afternoon, was sentenced to one day in the county jail. His attorney immediately applied for a writ of habeas corpus.

Judge Guthrie immediately ordered that Mr. Nelson be turned over to the sheriff and be taken to jail. Attorney Walsh for Mr. Nelson, urged the court to grant five minutes in which to secure the writ of habeas corpus.

The court demurred but finally the time was allowed after an argument.

Within the allotted time, Mr. Walsh announced that the writ had been granted by the court of appeals. The writ was made returnable immediately and all concerned adjourned to the court of appeals where an argument upon it was begun. The writ acted as a supersedeas and in the meantime Mr. Nelson was given his liberty.

Judge J. M. Johnson, of the court of appeals promptly granted the writ and released Mr. Nelson upon his personal recognizance in bail of $100 until next Wednesday, when the case will be gone into thoroughly.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 1.—William R. Nelson, editor and owner of the Kansas City Star, this afternoon was pronounced guilty of contempt of court by Judge Joseph A. Guthrie, of division one of the Jackson county circuit court.

The citation for contempt followed the publication in the Star of an article stating that the payment of attorney fees was given precedence over the payment of alimony in a divorce suit recently tried in the circuit court.

Judge Guthrie's decision elicited from Attorney Walsh, for the defense, the statement that he believed it had been prepared in advance of the hearing. The court admitted this, saying that it was as "easily prepared then as any time since the court had the facts in its breast."

Upon Mr. Walsh's insistence, the fact that the decision was prepared in advance, was put into the record.

The decision followed argument by Attorney Walsh that a finding against Mr. Nelson would not only be a reflection upon the dignity of the court, but an act based upon theories of Blackstone's time, "when any person could be cited at any time upon any charge of contempt of the king's ministers and thrown into prison."

Only three witnesses testified, repeated objections by Attorney Yates, friend of the court, sustained by the court, resulted in these being dismissed shortly after being called. Most of the hearing was given over to impassioned arguments for the freedom of the press by Mr. Walsh and strong denunciation of the men of the press in this city, by Attorney Yates.

Attorney Yates, arguing that the usual $50 fine would be no punishment for Mr. Nelson, insisted that the editor be sent to jail.

"The plain, unambiguous meaning of the article," said the court, "is that this court consented to decide the matter of attorney's fees in a divorce suit as the lawyer dictated—that this court would pay the lawyer and let the woman starve. This was untrue. I must demand respect for this court and if I cannot command respect, I shall step out."

Mr. Walsh argued that the Star had published the proceedings in the divorce case as a mere matter of news and told nothing but the truth. "I believe it to be of the greatest importance," he declared, "that courts permit the fullest and most elaborate discussion of all divorce cases. No question in modern progressive times has been the subject of more research or brought forth wider interest."

"Is this not a matter that affects the family? Should we leave it to be squabbled over by attorneys? Shouldn't people know that a woman cannot dismiss a divorce suit and go back to her husband without first paying $50 or $600 for attorney fees in a case never tried?"

"Shouldn't I be allowed to go out into the court house yard and tell a thousand people that the court rules that this cannot be done, and shouldn't a newspaper be allowed to tell its subscribers the same thing?" Attorney Yates, in his argument,

LAST EFFORTS FOR PEACE ARE MADE

London, Feb. 1.—A last attempt to prevent the resumption of war in the Balkans is being made by the representatives of the powers at Constantinople and Sofia, according to information received by the European ambassador in London.

A detailed report on the subject is expected this evening. In the meanwhile, everything has been ready for a renewal of hostilities.

The members of the Bulgarian peace delegation have received communications from the front in which General Savaoff asserts that the army surrounding Adrianople is one of the most efficient ever gathered. He declares that every detail for the storming and capture of the city has been carefully prepared. The general commends the spirit of loyal rivalry between the Serbian and Bulgarian troops, which is almost equal in numbers, to invest the fortress. Bets are frequently offered among the besiegers, he says, as to which nationality will be the first to enter Adrianople and plant on its walls the victorious flag of the allies.

It is asserted here that the Montenegrins and the Greeks have received assurances that Russia and France will support their retention of Scutari and Janina if they succeed in capturing them while the Bulgarians are taking Adrianople. King Nicholas of Montenegro, on the one side, and Crown Prince Constantine of Greece, on the other, declare that they will take the fortress by storm or lose their lives in the attempt.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 1.—Austria-Hungary continues the enrollment of supplementary reserves in the frontier districts bordering on Russia and Serbia, according to a dispatch from Prague.

A force of 250,000 Austro-Hungarian troops is now concentrated in Posen.

London, Feb. 1.—A tendency toward ultra-republican ideas, developing in the military party, in Constantinople, according to a dispatch from the Turkish capital. The Ottoman government is said to show an inclination to make concessions to this faction.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 1.—Turkish deserters who reached the Bulgarian headquarters at Demica told of the recurrence of the sanguinary conflicts between rival factions of Turkish troops in the Tebatalla lines.

"The deserters declared that they fled from the Turkish camps because the Young Turks were persecuting partisans of the late Commander-in-Chief Nazim Pasha, who was killed during the outbreak at Constantinople."

WILSON POSED FOR CHILD.
Princeton, N. J., Feb. 1.—President-elect Wilson arrived here from New York today. Enroute, while he was standing on the platform at Newark, a little girl was observed as she stopped to photograph him, but conditions were not just as she wanted them.

"Wait a minute and I'll get in the sun," said the president-elect. Then the camera was snapped and the 12 year old miss thanked him and went away happy.

DR. THOMPSON CHANGES PENSION OFFICE SYSTEMS.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 1.—When Dr. A. H. Thompson, a long time employee of the pension bureau, took the oath of office today as disbursing officer, the pension agencies that existed for years, passed out. Hereafter all pensions sent to veterans will be forwarded from Washington by check. Eighteen agencies are abolished under the consolidation reform and their clerical forces have been established here. The reform was provided for in the last pension appropriation bill.

charged that the Star had printed a lie and had reiterated it in its return upon the citation.

INTO THE RIVER FOR THE MOVING PICTURES

Seabright, N. J., Feb. 1.—A young man with his face dramatically set and a woman with her hair flying wildly, sped through the streets on a motor cycle here yesterday, heedless of the warnings that the drawbridge of the Shrewsbury river just ahead of them, was open. Neither seemed to hear and in an instant, the motorcycle was turning a somersault in the air and the man and girl went into the water. Hundreds of persons ran up, excited and the news that a crazy man had driven a girl and himself into the river, only to find that a motor boat had picked them up safely. Some women, who witnessed the affair, were almost fainting when the boys in the crowd shouted, "Get wise, it was all done for the 'movies'!" So the man with the camera explained.

SKIRT OF HEAVY, MANNISH WORSTED WITH WAIST OF DARK RED CHIFFON

This is the kind of a dress that the girl who used to wear shirt waists is now wearing, and very natty it is.

The skirt is of heavy, mannish worsted—a kind of grey mixture. It is cut peculiarly in a way that draws around the figure at the feet. At one side there is a pleat or tuck running down the entire length of the skirt from hip to foot. From the front around to the other side there is a gored panel put on with large buttons. The waist is of dark red chiffon; cloth over heavy white lace. Across the back there is a dark blue velvet collar fastened at the shoulders with tiny buttons to match those on the skirt, and there is a little piping of the same velvet each side of the lace under the sleeves that show beneath the chiffon. One original thing about this costume is that the fronts of the kimono waist are cut long enough to tie in a little bow at the top of the high waisted skirt in front, at one side at which is placed one of those little bunches of English field flowers that are omnipresent just now.

The hat worn with this costume is of dark blue velvet with long gray French feathers.

Pennypacker, president of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs of the United States, and Mrs. Emmens Crocker. Her presence here ought to cheer the Santa Fe Woman's Club to the greatest efforts for the upbuilding of its very youthful work.

Mrs. Crocker of California and Massachusetts, is the chairman of the conservation committee of the General Federation. She will be sure to have helpful information for all that are so fortunate as to hear her. Mrs. J. C. Worth will sing during the evening. A reception will follow the meeting.

Mrs. Pennypacker and Mrs. Crocker on their arrival in the city today were escorted to the Sanitarium, where Mrs. Pennypacker will be the guest of Mrs. Lorin C. Collins and Mrs. Crocker the guest of Mrs. A. B. Renshan.

The Child's Welfare department of the Woman's Club held its monthly meeting on Tuesday, January 28th, in the Palace of the Governors. Mrs. Charles Stauffer presided. The essay for the day was read by Mrs. L. G. Rawson, on "The Child From Infancy to the Kindergarten Age." Mrs. Rawson's experience gave weight to this able paper. All who heard the paper agreed that the subject was most completely covered and many new lights were thrown on this subject. One of Mrs. Rawson's points emphasized the evils that follow the permitting of a child to display an ungovernable temper. It is said that this is the cause of many of the nervous diseases developed in after life.

Miss March then read an extract from O. J. Lovejoy, of New York, secretary of the Child Labor committee. Quoting from him, she said: "I have an idea that if we had taken care of the little children long ago we now could not have our asylums, our reform schools and our penitentiaries. If we put a stumbling block in the way of the child, he will hurt it back at us. He does not mean to do so, but it is the law of justice, of retribution."

Mrs. E. C. Abbott then read a selection on "Mothercraft." She emphasized the idea of teaching children to keep their hands occupied.

Next Wednesday, February 5th, is Santa Fe day at the Woman's Club. The meeting will be held at 3 p. m. in the assembly room of the Palace of the Governors, at which time Mr. L. Baca will speak on "What the City Council is Preparing to do for Santa Fe." Mr. Baca will speak with the authority of the mayor and the council back of him. Mr. H. H. Dorman will speak on "Improvement and the Publicity Bureau Idea." Dr. Rolfs has been asked to take the subject of "Sanitation." Mr. A. B. Renshan will take the subject "The Chamber of Commerce." This should be a very profitable and interesting afternoon.

The regular meeting of the Art, Music and Literary department of the Santa Fe Woman's Club will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the club rooms.

There Are More Foolish Buyers Than Foolish Sellers. Why?

If you had something for sale you would know first what the article cost you and second just what you wanted for it. You would not sell it to the first person trying to buy it unless you could get your price.

But are you as careful as a buyer? Most people are not, and from this lack of care arises much complaint. That which is done hastily is usually not well done; what at first glance seemed to be wool turns out to be shoddy; a shapely garment loses its fit after the first laundering and so on. Bad ware is never cheap. Do your shopping with thought and care.

Read the advertisements of the reputable merchants advertising in THE NEW MEXICAN today; read them closely and persistently every day; shop with these merchants, and you will have no causes for complaint.

BRITISH COIN ORDER RESULTS IN RIOTING.
Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 1.—British troops and marines were patrolling the streets and ferry stations of Hong Kong when the liner Empress of India arrived here yesterday. Her officers said a boycott against street cars and ferries was in progress at Hong Kong, because of a recent ruling by the governor that only British coin should be accepted for fares. The order was inspired by the fact that coinage had become so mutilated as to be unrecognizable. The native population became indignant and organized a general boycott which was accompanied by disorder.

A return to normal conditions was expected to result from a new decree by the governor ordering the confiscation of convicted boycotters' property.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Friday evening the Santa Fe High school gave a very pretty social affair in the high school building. It was planned as a strictly school function but the fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters of the high school students were invited, and many were there to participate in the pleasures of the evening. While a social affair and designed primarily to foster the good spirit that prevails in the school, yet there was a financial side to the evening's entertainment which had for its end to fill up the somewhat depleted treasury of the Athletic association.

So, on this happy occasion there were devices about the nooks and corners of the building to relieve the friends of their nicks and dimes. But it was all done good naturedly in the fish pond in the laboratory, the candy kitchen in the domestic science department and the art gallery in the kindergarten room. When the funds were all gathered together in the hands of the treasurer, there were about twenty dollars—very good, indeed.

Next Saturday evening the high school has arranged to play the girls' and boys' basketball teams from the Las Vegas high school. Both teams will arrive from the Meadow City Saturday afternoon and the games will be played in the armory that evening. Both teams in the local high school are hard at work every evening of the school day and the games will be hotly contested. Let every one be a booster for our boys and girls in this contest.

Some time ago, Miss Barton, teacher of the eighth grade, tendered her resignation, to take effect Friday, January, the 31st. Miss Barton was considered among the best teachers in the corps, but decided to abandon teaching to pursue her studies in Chicago. Her place will be taken by Prof. J. A. Wood.

The drinking fountain recently installed on the school grounds as a gift from Mr. Davis is highly appreciated by all the pupils of the school. It is thoroughly sanitary, always ready, a thing of beauty and a joy forever to the thirsty.

The new heating system recently placed in the high school building has been treated to a coat of aluminum the past week at the hands of the custodian of the building and grounds, Pablo Mayo. It adds greatly to the appearance of the apparatus.

The past week Miss Sawyer entered the high school as a student in the freshman class. Miss Sawyer has been enrolled at the academy at Albuquerque, but expects to make her future home here.

TARIFF HEARINGS CLOSE.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The tariff hearings before the house ways and means committee were closed today.

Mrs. S. S. Van Buren St. Kingston, N. Y. (full name furnished on application) had such decided benefit from using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound that she shares her good fortune with others. She writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought my voice back to me during a severe case of bronchitis and laryngitis. Oh how many people I have recommended it to." For sale by all druggists.

IMPORTANT MEETINGS DURING LEGISLATURE

Two meetings of more than ordinary importance are scheduled to take place while the present session of the legislature is at work.

The first meeting is that of the heads of all state institutions which will assemble on February 4. This meeting was called by the superintendent of public instruction, Alvan N. White on the suggestion of the gathering will bring out more information about the needs of the state institutions, than anything in recent years and it may result in the recommendation by the executive of some additional legislation.

The other meeting is that of the board of equalization, scheduled to meet here on Friday, February 14.

As has been stated in the public press for the past year, the most important matter confronting New Mexico is taxation and it is believed that a number of difficult questions of taxation will come before the board at that time and that they will be given airing which may serve to enlighten the members of the legislature on some of the crying needs of the hour in the new state.

Both of these meetings are looked forward to, with more than usual interest by the state officials and some of the people of the state who will have business before them.

ART AND STUDY NOTED AT THE OLD PALACE

BY CHARLES S. RAWLES

Some ten new canvases have been hung in the reception room of the Old Palace, the recent work of Carlos Vierra. They are paintings of several pueblos, and fitting additions to the already interesting collection of scenes and places that belong to the historical and archaeological atmosphere that surrounds the Old Palace and the old capital.

Carlos Vierra has done himself proud in his new work. It shows something of "the dream of the most soul betrayed," wrought under the best circumstances, when the artist gets right out in the open and has a chance to faithfully portray and to touch with a deftness, that which nature alone can inspire.

Everyone interested in art should see these new pieces. They are all good and one hardly knows which to praise the most. Individually, the nearby study of Laguna appeals to one strongly as being the best of them all. It is typical of the certain quality of sunshine and shadow of atmosphere and of perspective that has so often attracted the artist to the south-western landscape. This picture of Laguna grows in worth as it is analyzed. Adobe buildings in archaic riot of beauty, with that peculiar ashion warmth, which seems almost paradoxical, are portrayed in this picture. The dry, intensely brilliant air, the stretch of open sun-baked plaza, and the excellent quality of distance with the mysterious tones given by a great stretch to the mountain tops in this country, makes this study full of value.

If space would allow the other paintings would deserve as full an account. The one of Jomez, with a suggestion of phantom stillness, is another favorite.

The picture of Cochiti picturing the threshing time is another canvas that attracts.

Mr. Vierra has two of Taos, one a twilight that is admired, and the other an upright panel.

In his picture of Isleta, the pueblo folk are pictured busy harvesting the grain.

Zia is shown in the distance with a well contrasted foreground stretching away to the abruptly rising volcanic formation.

Santa Clara is familiar in brilliant sunshine and a threatening thunder storm coming down from the hidden canyon and mesa beyond.

The picture of Acoma is a faithful yet difficult portrayal of the great cliffs upon which, like some ancient fortification, stands the pueblo.

Indeed the Pueblos of Acoma and Taos. They are the only two structures of these communal people that escaped destruction when Coronado marched in triumph through this southwest land, and legend has it that he was kept away from them by warnings that they were peopled by great warriors.

Mr. Vierra is to be congratulated in having so faithfully caught and so idealistically portrayed these famous communities, for the use of the School of American Archaeology.

CHAPMAN'S CLAS IN DESIGN.
Mr. Kenneth M. Chapman has just opened an art class in the evolution of design at the School of American Archaeology, and will instruct students in Indian art, especially as it relates to the designs that from time unknown have adorned the pottery, the blankets and baskets of the aborigine. It is not generally known that all designs used by the Indians have

ITCHING SCALP AND DANDRUFF

Pimples Festered Then Formed Scales. Hair Came Out in Bunches. Scab in White Crusts. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Scalp Cured. Hair Grew.

Stratford, Cal.—"My daughter's scalp trouble began as pimples and festered, then formed scales. Her scalp itched and she had dandruff. Her hair came out in bunches, falling entirely in spots as large as a silver dollar. A kind of scab would form in little white crusts on the spots. These spots would be sore. Knowing the Cuticura Soap and Ointment were good for the skin and scalp, we washed her scalp each morning with Cuticura Soap and then applied the Cuticura Ointment, rubbing it in well with the hand. It helped from the start. I used one box of Cuticura Ointment and one cake of Cuticura Soap, then her scalp was cured and her hair grew again. It has been more than a year since her scalp is clear and healthy." (Signed) Hiram Crabtree, Jan. 25, 1912.

Cuticura Soap is best for skin and hair because of its extreme purity, delicate yet effective medication, and refreshing fragrance. It costs but little more than ordinary soaps, wears to a wafer and gives comfort and satisfaction every moment of its use, for toilet, bath and nursery. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

a distinct meaning, and are woven out of the lore of their ancient religious beliefs, their industries, and in fact, their very existence. Mr. Chapman is preeminently qualified to teach along these lines, being not only a conscientious and thorough student himself, but an artist of more than ordinary ability, not only of designs and symbols, but a keen lover of, and a talented portrayal of scenes and events pertaining to the history of the southwest, both prehistoric and more or less modern.

MR. HARRINGTON'S CLASSES.
This class, like the one that John P. Harrington has been teaching, or lecturing before, is free to those who are interested enough to take hold and willing to work. The lectures, it might be said in passing, that are now closing, given by Mr. Harrington on anthropology and phonetics have been well worth the hearing. No one in this part of the world being letter posted on the subjects in hand or ranking higher as a linguist than that gentleman. They have been well attended and keenly enjoyed by those who have had the good fortune to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing them.

THE NEW FOLDER.
Secretary John Harris of the Chamber of Commerce, who is also secretary of the School of American Archaeology, in conference with K. M. Chapman, is re-arranging and adding to the excellent folder on Santa Fe which the Chamber has used for advertising purposes. It is a matter of congratulation that Mr. Harris is so well equipped for his position from his former newspaper experience, and the new or revised folder will appropriately contain some excellent matter relating to both the archaeological and historical departments of the ancient palace, subjects which go to make up so much in fascinating interest to the tourist and traveler.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Facts in Nature

FOR centuries it has been known that Nature's most valuable health giving agents for the cure of disease are found in our American forests. Over forty years ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalid Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y., used the powdered extracts as well as the liquid extracts of native medicinal plants, such as Bloodroot and Queen's root, Golden Seal and Stone root, Cherry bark and Mandrake, for the cure of blood diseases. This prescription as put up in liquid form was called

You can now obtain the powdered extract in sugar-coated tablet form of your medicine dealer, or send 50c in one-cent postage stamps for trial box to Dr. Pierce's Invalid Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and tablets will be mailed, postage prepaid.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, red blood, invigorates the stomach, liver and bowels and through them the whole system. Skin affections, blotches, boils, pimples and eruptions—result of bad blood—are eradicated by this alternative extract—as thousands have testified.

"UNCLE DUD" TAKES A SLANT AT BASEBALL'S FUTURE.

Sketches and All by J. Campbell Cory.

Have you ever paused on your way to the ball park, or on your uncomfortable journey back, to conjecture as to the future of the "national game"? Probably not. Has it occurred to you that a very appreciable fraction of $1,000,000 changes hands every day in this country during the summer months on account of this baseball foolishness? Presumably not.

Are you particularly anxious to see your son and heir acclaimed a very great lawyer or a distinguished physician, or a legislator of unusual renown? Of course you are. You expect to see him at least a senator and probably a president. But, if you'll take a tip from me you'll educate him to play ball.

Look backward over the history of

"HE MAY HAVE LARD FOR BRAINS, BUT—"

"YOU'LL SEE HIM 'SASS' A PRESIDENT, SOME DAY."

HE'LL BE RING WONDER BEFORE LONG, IS JEFFRIES' OPINION

FIGHTING POSE AND PORTRAIT OF BUD ANDERSON, WHO JIM JEFFRIES SAYS WILL BE A RING WONDER SOME DAY.

Bud Anderson's Work Against Sammy Trott Causes Jeff to Tout Him as Coming World's Lightweight Champion.

Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 1.—Three months ago Bud Anderson, light weight fighter, whose crouch when in action is almost the same as that of Battling Nelson, was known only in Pendleton, Ore. He was noted as a pretty husky youth who could hammer home punches with precision and power. Today he is being touted as a coming world's champion by Jas. J. Jeffries, ex-king of the heavyweight brigade, who says that Anderson is a ring marvel.

Jeff witnessed Anderson's work when he ran against Sammy Trott at Los Angeles, Calif., recently, stopping Trott in a trifle less than 15 minutes of actual fighting.

The defeat of Trott didn't mean much so far as the victory itself went, but it did one thing—demonstrated that Anderson is a hard, fast and clean puncher who stands up to his work and looks for nothing but a chance to run home straight shots. But the best part of his performance was his demonstration that he can top over an opponent with either hand. In other words, he has the "kick in either mitt," something few boxers have, even the top-notchers.

"Good boy, this Anderson," was big Jeff's verdict after the battle.

"He doesn't know enough yet to hold his own against the contenders, either Rivers or Mandot would take all the fight out of him inside of 10 rounds. It would be the most foolish thing in the world to hand him over to either of these experienced and seasoned fighters at present. Careful management is all that is required to make a champion out of him. If he is handled properly I haven't the least doubt that he will shortly be a great lightweight and a marvelous fighter."

For the job are numerous according to tips sent by Tiger agents on the Pacific coast.

If there is anything in environment, Liggett ought to be a star on first, for he comes from the same college, St. Mary's of Los Angeles that developed Hal Chase. The Tigers will be reasonable in their demands on the youthful aspirant for major league honors and will be well content if he is half as good as the peerless Hal.

St. Mary's College has made a great reputation as a nursery of ballplayers. In addition to Chase, whose fame the game. You may remember as I do, when it was a matter of second importance; when the diplomatic relations between nations engrossed the public attention and our first citizens found time to talk of the tariff and international boundaries and reciprocity and such trivial matters.

If you can hark back to those prosaic times you can get an even start with me and perhaps offer a suggestion as to the possibilities of the future of baseball.

To me it seems quite probable that such affairs as political conventions, whereat presidential candidates are nominated—international peace conferences and functions of that sort must eventually take a back seat when dates clash with scheduled games of the major leagues. It is not difficult for me to see on the horizon line of prophesy, an adjournment of congress, or a recess of the supreme court, in order that our lawmakers and administrators may have an opportunity to witness something of real national importance, such as a game between the indefatigable "Cubs" and those disgustingly turbulent "Phillies."

I can close my eyes and hark forward to the not distant day when such games may not be considered of alone would reflect much glory on his alma mater, there are Harry Krause and Fred Snodgrass, who claim allegiance to the Los Angeles institution of the higher branches of learning. It must be understood that the college faculty is not going to get out any advertising literature announcing Snodgrass as one of the college's leading products. On the contrary, Frederick has become sort of a family skeleton, the mere mention of whose name rouses St. Mary's alumni and undergraduates to a state bordering on frenzy.

According to Harry Tutill, Tiger trainer, the reason the athletes of this particular college are so proficient is that the campus is located near the league ball park, which enables the young men from the halls of learning to mingle freely with the regular tossers and thus pick up a lot of handy tricks.

Liggett is just the reverse of Chase in his batting and throwing habits, as he pegs with the right and swats from the off side. Chase, of course, is a right hand hitter and a southpaw in his heaving. The newest Tiger is described as tall and rangy, fast, confident and possessed of an excellent knowledge of "inside ball." So far as can be learned he has had no professional experience, but has done good work for the college team and various semi-professional organizations.

Liggett will report at Guilford with the first squad. He makes the fourth man who has been named as in the fight for the first base position with the Tigers, the others being Gainer, Crawford and Shanley. There is a possibility that Rondeau also will be one of the contenders, as he has had some experience on the infield though signed as catcher, while Moriarty will be in there giving them a battle.

Before completing the deal for Liggett, Mr. Navin went to great pains to get some inside tip on this young player. In every case the information furnished was of a nature to make the Tigers covet the collegian and the president feels that he is very fortunate in being able to secure such a prize.

Several other big league clubs were after Liggett, which adds weight to the impression that he is worth a trial in fast company.

Edgar Willett, who has been classed among the hold-outs by some of the impressionistic school of baseball writers, has sent in his signed contract. The big Kansas boy accompanies the autographed document with a letter in which he expresses himself as well as satisfied with his financial arrangements with the club and hopes for a large year.

Willett is one of the enigmas of baseball. With every natural talent for being a great pitcher, he still seems to lack some mental equipment that would enable him to make the most of his physical skill. He probably has as much "stuff" as any pitcher in the world. In fact, one of his troubles has been too great a variety of wares, which has prevented his sticking to one style of pitching until he matured it thoroughly.

When he has his underhand ball working properly and will stick to it, he is almost unbeatable, but poor control frequently causes him to desert this effective style of delivery for an overhand brand that is literally made to order for batsmen.

Bad control and too little confidence are his biggest handicaps. Once he begins to get wild, and he seems to official unless inspired by the president of the United States—heaven help him—and the working hours of our national court of last appeal shall be consumed in the arbitration of mooted decisions of the diamond.

Well, the point is this—if you have a son who seems to care not for algebra or physics or Greek or such foolishness, and who evinces a natural hunch for "inshoots," "Texas leaguers" and "bunts," don't be discouraged, don't be crestfallen—cheer up! Be joyful! The great, wide world may yet applaud you as the papa of a wizard of worldwide fame. Nations may clamor about this son of yours. He may have a dome of solid ivory and a brain of hard, but if he qualifies in the "back-lot league" so that the other kids on the block seem proud to flock with him, take heart and cultivate that seemingly insurgent off-spring. The time may come when you will see him "sass" the president for a "rank" decision or call a chief justice by his first name. From the slant of an ordinary citizen it seems to me that our national future is mostly concerned with the "national game."

And that reminds me of a pasty faced kid I knew away back in the '80s and how he fooled the bunch with the first curve pitching we had ever seen. I'll tell you about it in my next. S'long.

UNCLE DUD.

lose all power to pull himself together and find the range of the plate again. He is very easily discouraged and has gone to pieces many times because of one unlucky "break" in the game.

If this bill follow from the Sunflower state ever comes into his own, and acquires a little more confidence and determination, he will be a wonder. Each season Manager Jennings has expected him to "find" himself, but he never quite has done so. It may be that 1913 will be the season when Edgar rounds into the full strength. And if he does, there will be some very pleasing figures opposite his name in next fall's averages.

Willett is a dangerous man with the stick. Last summer he startled the fans at Navin field by hitting two home runs over the left-field fence in succeeding innings of a game with the White Sox. The first drive cleared the scoreboard by a good margin, while the other soared over the barrier down near the foul line. Joe Lake, also a Tiger pitcher, is the only other man who has driven the ball over this wall.

Another pitcher, this one a stranger to Detroit fans, has sent Mr. Navin a signed contract. Al ("Dutch") Klatter is the recruit who scorns the publicity and other perquisites of a hold-out and meekly enters the fold.

"Dutch," who resides with several others of his race in the city of Milwaukee, is the pitcher whom Detroit drafted from Portland club, of the Pacific Coast league last season.

He started his baseball career on the corner lots of Milwaukee and then went into professional ranks as a member of the Vicksburg club of the Cotton States league. This was in 1908, in which season he won 15 games and lost 10. From Vicksburg he went to Shreveport, of the Texas league where he won 18 games and lost 11.

In the latter part of 1909, the New York Giants bought Klatter and he won five games for McGraw. Early in 1910, he was farmed to the Memphis club, of the Southern league. This was a poor year, as he won only 10 games and lost 15. The Giants recalled him and sold him to New Orleans, where he won 22 and lost 12 in the season of 1911. Cleveland secured him from New Orleans, and sent him to the Portland outfit. In 1912 he won 23 games and lost 14, his club finishing in the second division.

The big German was ill part of last season, but is in good shape now. He has been working out in a gymnasium all winter and is taking excellent care of himself.

HARVARD WILL PRINT RAREST OF BOOKS

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 1.—The President and Fellows of Harvard College, voted on January 27, to establish the Harvard University Press, for the publication of works of a high scholarly character. For some years the University Publication office, besides printing the catalogues, department pamphlets, and other official documents, has found it possible to issue from time to time a few special works, until it now publishes seven periodicals and more than eighty books, ranging from treatises on logic philosophy to practical directions for American lumbermen. To organize and extend this activity, so as to make the University properly effective as a publishing centre for scholarly books, is the object of the new foundation.

The establishment of the Harvard University Press recalls the fact that the first printing press in America was a gift to Harvard College in 1839, and was set up in the house of President Dunster. Among other important books which were printed on it were the Bay Psalm Book, and John Eliot's Indian Bible.

JACK JOHNSON SUED AGAIN.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—Jock Johnson was made defendant in another suit today when he was sued in the municipal court for $200, for collection of a judgment obtained against him in London, England, in 1911. The $200, is said to be a balance due to lawyers employed in England by the pugilist.

JIM THORPE SIGNS UP

New York, Feb. 1.—"Jim" Thorpe the Indian athletic marvel, signed a contract this afternoon, calling for his services with the New York National league baseball club during the season 1913.

In so doing he stepped forever from the ranks of amateur athletics, a sequence to his recent confession that he had played professional ball several years ago and was not entitled to the amateur honors accorded him at the Olympic games.

Thorpe said today that he prefers to pitch with the Giants, but it is thought that McGraw will work him in the outfield.

Having become a professional Thorpe has resolved not to reveal the names of the college men, who he said, played professional baseball with him some years back. He had promised to give these names to Secretary Sullivan of the Amateur Athletic union, but since turning professional, he explained today, he had no desire to meddle in future amateur affairs.

VIKING SHIP GOES BACK TO STOCKHOLM AGAIN

New York, Feb. 1.—A miniature viking ship and a bust of the King of Sweden—trophies of James Thorpe's prowess on the Olympic field—went back to Stockholm today on the American liner New York.

They were consigned to Christian Helstrom, secretary of the Olympic committee at Stockholm, by James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic union.

MINE WORKERS SPENT BIG SUM FOR STRIKES

Indianapolis, Feb. 1.—Almost $750,000 was spent for strike relief work by the United Mine Workers of America during the year ended December 31, 1912, according to the report of the International Auditing committee which was completed today. Most of this went into West Virginia.

The total expenses incurred during the year amounted to $1,108,991.49, of which $269,036.35 was for salaries. The balance on hand on December 1, was $22,262.05.

GRAUSTARK IS ROMANTIC PLAY

On Friday, February, 7 at the Elks' theater, the United Play company will present the dramatization of George Barr McCutcheon's great fiction "Graustark," which was so successfully and delightfully presented the past three seasons.

The story of "Graustark" is of an American, Gronfall Lorry, who falls madly in love with a princess in America, who is traveling incognito. He follows her to her home in Edelweiss, Graustark, where he and his companion save her from abduction by the ruling prince of a neighboring principality, not knowing she is the princess. He is of vast and important service to her in several instances, and in the end, finally wins out. It's just a story of American bravado with enough serious moments to make it appreciable, and excitement enough to keep the attention tense most of the time.

The characters and the country of Graustark are mythical, but the story contains so much human interest and so many of the things a man will really do for the woman he loves, it is absorbingly interesting. Every character of the novel is full of dramatic intensity, and George Hayward, who dramatized the same, has faithfully transplanted every possible incident from the book to the stage.

There is romanticism about plays of royalty which, when properly presented with stage settings and correct costuming, and interpreted by actors who render their parts in a capable manner, make it entertaining and fascinating to the fullest extent.

This committee had reported the bill for indefinite postponement.

VOTED AGAINST HER OWN BILL AND IS SORRY

Denver, Colo., Feb. 1.—The house this morning took up consideration of the Las Animas county contest cases, involving the seats of Representatives W. W. Boyle and John Mayer. After a lengthy discussion the house adjourned until Monday without reaching a decision as to whether to proceed with the hearing. Senator Helen R. Robinson attempted to secure a reconsideration of her bill allowing women to serve on juries. This bill was killed yesterday in the senate and today Senator Robinson changed her vote to move a reconsideration. The motion to reconsider was lost and the senator spent the remainder of the morning trying to get the record, which shows that she voted against her bill, changed.

UNITED STATES WAS PARTY TO RATE

PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP OFFICIAL ASSERTS THAT THE GOVERNMENT THREATENED INDEPENDENT CONCERN WITH RETALIATION

PRICE ON COFFEE WAS SIX DOLLARS

Washington, D. C., Feb. 1.—R. P. Schwerin, vice-president of the Pacific Mail Steamship company, denied before the house committee "shipping trust" committee today that there existed a rate agreement between his company and the Kosmos Steamship company as to rates on coffee from Central America.

"The state department is informed," said Chairman Alexander, "that a conference exists between your line and the Kosmos line."

"Then the state department's information is wrong," said Mr. Schwerin. "We have no agreement with the Kosmos line, either as to a physical division of traffic or as to rates. Some years ago the Kosmos line began a rate war. The coffee rate went down to $2.00 a ton. Two years ago I decided to carry no more coffee at a loss and we fixed the price at $6."

The United States government itself is a party to European steamship conferences which fix rates between Central American and European ports and New York City, according to Schwerin, who told the committee that the government, representing the Panama railroad and the Panama canal and the Panama Steamship line, sent a representative to the annual conference meetings in London when coffee rates were fixed.

He added that the government had endeavored to force a rate agreement between his line and the Hawaiian-American line but that his line had declined to enter the agreement on the ground that it was in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

"Then the government," said Mr. Schwerin, "to force the Hawaiian line to maintain its rates, threatened if it cut down, to put on a competing line with the government behind it. At present the Hawaiian line is operating under tariffs fixed by the government through the Panama Steamship company."

Mr. Schwerin said that when the Panama canal was opened his line as a railroad owned line would be forced out of the trade. From talks with the railroad, he believed they were indifferent as to the provisions carrying railroad-owned ships from the canal.

"The railroads don't care a snap about it," he said. "Water rates throughout the canal, he added, will be but nominally lower than the trans-continental railway rates, no matter what efforts were made to regulate them."

Mr. Schwerin said: "If you wanted to rip the railroads up the back, the canal should have been left free to all vessels, foreign or American."

"Turn all the ships into the canal," and in a short time the railroads would go into the hands of receivers. But under the present system the difference in the rate will not benefit the consumer, for it will be absorbed by the jobber."

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 1.—Roger S. Sullivan, erstwhile Democratic national committeeman from Illinois, referring to gossip using his name as a candidate for U. S. senator today denied any intention in that line.

Mother's Friend in Every Home

Comfort and Safety Assured Before the Arrival of the Stork.

The old saying—what is home without a mother—should add "Mother's Friend." In thousands of American homes there is a bottle of this splendid and famous remedy that has added many a woman suffering the trying ordeal, saved her from suffering and pain, kept her in health of mind and body in advance of baby's coming and had a most wonderful influence in developing a healthy, lovely disposition in the child.

There is no other remedy so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding and soothes the inflammation of breast glands.

Mother's Friend is an external remedy, acts quickly and not only banishes all distress in advance, but assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother. Thus she becomes a healthy woman with all her strength preserved to thoroughly enjoy the rearing of her child. General Castro issued a statement declaring that his difficulty in setting foot on United States soil due to the position of "certain interests who desired to obtain possession of Venezuelan concession."

He continued, "and for that reason I will go back to Europe as soon as I possibly can, because I do not want to expose myself to new persecution."

"I could have answered all the questions the board at Ellis Island asked me," the statesman said, "but such a precedent would have been equivalent to recognizing the immigration authorities of the United States as an international tribunal or court to deal with the civil, political and criminal questions of all nations. I refused to answer as a matter of principle."

FOR THIS SUICIDE

JIM SMITH LEAVES TWO DOLLARS FOR HIS LANDLADY, TWENTY-FIVE FOR THE SOCIALIST PARTY AND TURNS ON THE GAS

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 1.—Declaring in a letter addressed to his boarding house proprietress that he had been suffering from an acute attack of "shovel-stiff-labor-hobotism," James Smith, 35 years old, yesterday willed his body to "the first medical institution that applied for it" and then committed suicide by turning on both gas jets in his room. Deputy Coroner John Mohring found the following letter lying near the man's body:

To the Landlady:

"The pulmonary is useless as both burners have been on since 11 o'clock last night. I hereby will my body to the first medical college that wants it; also two dollars to you, providing you turn over the other $25 to the local Philadelphia Socialist party. I am sorry to have troubled you this way. I did this to cure an acute attack of 'shovel-stiff-labor-hobotism.'"

(Signed) "JIM SMITH."

Smith's body was taken to the morgue.

Comfort and Safety Assured Before the Arrival of the Stork.

The old saying—what is home without a mother—should add "Mother's Friend." In thousands of American homes there is a bottle of this splendid and famous remedy that has added many a woman suffering the trying ordeal, saved her from suffering and pain, kept her in health of mind and body in advance of baby's coming and had a most wonderful influence in developing a healthy, lovely disposition in the child.

There is no other remedy so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding and soothes the inflammation of breast glands.

Mother's Friend is an external remedy, acts quickly and not only banishes all distress in advance, but assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother. Thus she becomes a healthy woman with all her strength preserved to thoroughly enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend can be had at any drug store at $1.00 a bottle, and is really one of the greatest blessings ever discovered for expectant mothers. General Castro issued a statement declaring that his difficulty in setting foot on United States soil due to the position of "certain interests who desired to obtain possession of Venezuelan concession."

He continued, "and for that reason I will go back to Europe as soon as I possibly can, because I do not want to expose myself to new persecution."

"I could have answered all the questions the board at Ellis Island asked me," the statesman said, "but such a precedent would have been equivalent to recognizing the immigration authorities of the United States as an international tribunal or court to deal with the civil, political and criminal questions of all nations. I refused to answer as a matter of principle."

UGHT TO PASS.

Representative Carter has introduced in the house a bill that is full of merit.

Last session it failed, but this session it should pass. The title of the bill reads as follows:

"An Act to Define Lobbying and Providing Punishment Therefor."

Perhaps New Mexico has been more burdened, both as a state and a territory, with this feature of legislative proceedings, than any other commonwealth. It has been carried to a length that has been a disgrace.

During the last session of the legislature, one of the most persistent and offensive lobbyists that any legislature has even been burdened with, was on hand day after day, and brazenly moved about with all the freedom of a member making himself one of the most conspicuous figures on the floor.

He even requested one of the representatives to send to him, at his rooms, a copy of each bill introduced, that he might keep in close touch with what was going on.

What objection can be urged to a bill that prohibits the presence on the floor of a legislative chamber, those men whose business is not the state's business, but particularly personal or private, is not easily understood.

If the people of this state have not elected men as their representatives who possess the brains to think for themselves without supervision or dictation, then it is time they did so.

They have a chance to rectify their mistake, partially at least, at the next election. They have the power in their hands to send men who can think for themselves and act for themselves.

Otherwise they might as well ship up the requisite number of manikins by parcels post, and let them be operated with a string by the political and corporation lobbyists, and thus save the payroll. If there is any excuse for the defeat of an anti-lobby bill, then the people have the right to know what the excuse is, and the bill should at least, be reported out and debated.

It is a record made, that the people of the state may know who among their representatives do their own thinking and who among them do it by proxy. The present extent to which lobbying is being carried on in New Mexico, is a disgrace to this state.

Let this bill be reported out, and let the people know who want to be the creatures of the lobbyist and who want to use their own brains and act on their own judgment.

BEHIND THE TIMES.

Speaker Clark, while on the subject of the Philippine Islands, gave expression to the following revolutionary principle:

"I believe that when a man gets office on a platform, he should live it religiously to the planks that are in that platform."

Clearly the Honorable Gentleman has not learned so much as the A. B. C. of "practical" politics. We have many a legislator in this state who could point out to him the shallowness of his views. Anyone who has even dabbled in statecraft could cite the following axioms:

1. Principles are higher than Platform.
2. It is futile to butt one's head against a stone wall.
3. A sensible man must support the winning side.
4. A man of courage must bow to the will of his constituents.
5. A man of honor must ignore the will of his constituents.
6. A bird in the hand is worth more than either platform or party.
7. A noble man keeps an open mind and attends the caucuses of all parties. By promising to support the candidate of each one, he retains full liberty to vote for the winner.
8. When a statesman is in doubt about the winner, he should pass his vote and explain later.

Poor Speaker Clark! How much he has yet to learn about the art of "practical" politics, or—to use the more apt phrase of our distinguished contemporary, The Albuquerque Herald—of "fair compromise on all reasonable matters."

WE WANT PROGRESS.

From present indications it looks as if the progress of business at the capital will be pretty slow, but that can be well endured by the people of the state if the business that is done is of the nature of upbuilding and is for state growth.

It is a time when quality rather than quantity is desired, and if, from among the flood of bills that will be presented, some measures are passed that will bring us to the attention of the world outside and bring progress, increased population, substantial improvement and that speedy advancement to which we are entitled, nothing more can be asked and nothing more will be desired.

If the boosters' spirit could only be instilled in the hearts of the legislators as well as those who are merely citizens,—the booster spirit, not for political advantage, but for the broader purpose of the state's good—we would soon find New Mexico in the front ranks of the great American states.

TRIED AND TRUE.

Do you happen to have noticed how, as the stock of standpat judges on the bench is going down, the stock of judges as raw material for United States senators is looking up?

In Aldrich's pocket borough, Rhode Island, Judge Colt has just been decorated with the toga. In Tennessee, Chief Justice Shields. One is a "regular Republican." The other a "regular Democrat." If we ever wavered we'd like to bet a luscious pippin against a kippered herring that, in spite of these differences in labels, the two judges-senators, when it comes to a bed-rock issue between property and human rights, will be as "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one."

It is getting to be ticklish business these days to send to the senate to defend the "substantial interests of this nation," men who are not acid proof and fire tested.

Better hurry the ratification of that direct election amendment.

A Full Crew bill, modified somewhat from that introduced, and which failed to become a law last session, has been brought into the house again, this time by Representative Chaves. It has the earnest support of the railroad men of the state and is a move in the direction of safety of both travelers and employees. The bill as drawn, imposes no hardship and is along those lines which provide for better conditions, industrially.

A minister in the east has his sermon printed and sent to each sick member of the flock. Of course, it would depend somewhat on the kind of sermon, but we would think it possible that it might make sick patients more sick still.

The house of representatives, worn out with its four days' of arduous labor, has adjourned over till Monday. Perhaps next week, with the excitement and tension of the past two weeks lifted, the legislators can endure a stretch of five days' labor without overtaxing their nervous systems.

John Paul Jones now holds the world's amateur record for running a mile. We have a sort of recollection of reading about another John Paul Jones who was in the athletic game, but he made the other fellows run.

What a quiet place Washington will be when President Wilson gets in according to his plans. Wonder if they will ring the curfew bell.

REMARKS FROM THE SIDE LINE

One of our most pernicious activities, it seems, is the habit by constituents of sending telegrams.

And furthermore, John, New Mexico has just entered upon statehood and there will be other legislatures.

Mr. Chrisman, of San Juan county, is entitled to the bridges; he has earned them; they came high but by all means, gents, let him have 'em.

A platform, John, cuts no ice. It merely is for the purpose of getting elected. After that it is purely a question of principles.

If Carter's bill to prevent lobbying should become a law, what would half the population of portions of New Mexico do while the legislature was in session?

The baron is receiving more advertising than he ever got before. The baron might have used that as his motive for standing so uncompromisingly upon his platform pledge.

The way is now open for a little legislation that is sorely needed by the new state; the man who stands opposed to that legislation will be so recorded—at the next election.

The senate had a lively debate over the one year term. The staid old senate is in line for a number of hot debates before it has succeeded in letting go of the bear's tail this time.

There seems to be no adequate solution for the love expressed by some of the Old Guard for some of the measures that were turned down so coldly at the last session of the legislature.

The suffragettes in London have adopted the slung shot as their official weapon. So long as they refrain from using dynamite, the statesmen of the tight little isle really have no complaint, bah vove!

The present legislative assembly should not adjourn under any circumstances, without making adequate provisions for the proper care of them two old cannon that Uncle Tom got for us.

If the Springer-Spess combination can stick it out until February 14th, they may be given an opportunity to tell the state board of equalization what they know about taxation, pro and con.

The way to elect a senator to the United States senate is quite likely to be changed before many years and when it is changed, there will be a new deal. It is coming fast, back in the states of the east, even today.

County salaries, to be correct, ought to have as a basis, the proportionate number of standpat votes cast at the last election. On that basis, some of the "kickers" would receive just what they deserve.

If the Common Gink could figure out a job that would pay him $4000 a year, he would be willing to work 365 days a year to hold it down. How many days does a county official work for a salary of $4000 a year? Its worth considering.

When the time finally does arrive, when the people of this state elect a legislature that will investigate the tax system, the land grant game, the railroad situation and the fine art of lobbying, then watch the fur fly. And time is fleeting, gents.

AS THE BYSTANDER SEES IT

ONE MAN CAN DO IT.
Speaking of conditions in Santa Fe and things that are undone that should be done and things done that should be undone, the thought comes to one that one man cannot and should not be expected to do it all, or undo it all. This is true of Mayor Lopez, who seems to be getting more than is coming to him, when there are others entitled to some consideration, pro and con, as we say.

There is a city council clothed with authority, the members of which are given opportunity to vote and make motions and offer resolutions. There is some responsibility resting on them too, and whether of credit or disfavor may accrue from an administration.

It looks fine just before election when the ambition looks like the title of president looked to Woodrow Wilson last summer. Then comes the reaction, or the light or the realization, or whatever it may be. It isn't so much to be an alderman after all, and there is a heap of "cussin" attached to it. No matter how badly a man wants to be a good alderman, he finds it a tough proposition to do all that is asked of him and divide the favors in city improvements around town. There is, however, a sort of division of responsibility in a body composed of several men, but the mayor is just one.

If anybody missed the garbage man one day, he goes to the mayor to see about it; if a bridge gives way, it's the mayor's fault; if the streets are not sprinkled when the robins nest, it is the mayor's fault; if the water don't run in the gutter, it's the mayor's fault; if people throw papers all over the street, and litter it up, it's the mayor's fault.

But it really isn't, you know. Every member of the council is as responsible as the mayor. His duty is as great, and when things go wrong the blame is as great.

However anxious the mayor may be to do everything just right, he cannot do it all.

IT SEEMED INCREDIBLE.

Every once in a while, the past comes back to one, as in a vision, and the scenes then enacted among which our dearest friends moved, and those closer than friends, are once more before us as a picture; and then the tender, minor chords of the heart strings are touched, and we respond to the music and are truly back once more with those who have gone on into the realm which is hidden from us until the summons comes, whispering that we may enter.

One of the most interesting and effective films that has been seen for a long time was that at the Elks' last night, giving a vision of one of the great events in American history, and indeed of the world's history. It was a sweet, tender patriotic picture—beautiful in conception, and most excellent in its presentation.

The picture, of itself is worthy of especial comment, but what led to the taking up of the subject just now, by the Bystander, was the marring of the evening's entertainment by the action of a certain few who were among those in the audience. When Fort Sumter was presented as a part of the vision, there was derisive laughter from a certain section of the theatre; when, as the vision unfolded and from the battlefield were brought the wounded and the dying, the derision approached jeers, and when, at last "Old Glory" was thrown out on the screen, the derisive laughter was repeated. This was almost incredible in itself, but when one realizes that this sneering laughter came from certain members of the legislature of New Mexico; it is almost past belief.

Only a short time ago these same men stood in the legislative chamber in the capitol and with hand upraised swore devotion to this nation, of which "Old Glory" is the emblem. They swore to support the constitution of the nation and the state. Proud they should have been to do it, especially proud, in that just within a few months our star, for the first time has its place among those that over one hundred years have been a part of the beautiful, blessed constellation.

Members of the New Mexico legislature sneering at the flag! What promise does it give for the future of the state?

Sectionalism should be dead. Sectionalism is dead. Those who do not realize it should never be given authority or position in our magnificent state.

Loyal citizens present last night felt humiliated and disgraced. New Mexico, with its wonderful history of patriotic action and devotion, represented in its legislature by men who would sneer at the flag seems a thing incredible!

BEING LATE.

I would like to suggest a new rule for Santa Fe. It is for everyone to be on time. I do not know what virtue there is in being late, but somehow, there are a lot of people who seem to think 'tis the thing.

Someway I have a sort of dim recollection way back in kidhood days that it was considered the proper thing to go late to places.

If one was invited out to dine, go late.

If a reception was held, go late. If you were going to an entertainment, go late.

But I always noticed that there was one place we kids had to hump ourselves to reach on time, and that was church; and I recall another where it was not healthy to be late, and that was at school.

But like so many other things that were considered good and sufficient and proper back in the last century, being late is no longer the fashion.

I do not know of anything more trying than to have guests who have been invited to dinner come straggling in late. The hour was set, wasn't it? The things were all cooked and ready at the time specified and no one had come.

Fifteen minutes later the flavor of the good things you had prepared had evaporated and the guests had lost a little of their welcome. The same conditions exist in other things. A meeting is called at a certain hour for the convenience of people. Some go as they should and others come straggling, dawdling along, without any particular reason and having no particular excuse. They're just late, that's all; but they have inconvenienced those who went on time, and it is not just or fair.

The same is true in public entertainments. Folks go, to these to see and enjoy. They paid to, and have a right to, and it is not pleasant, just when those who are on time are enjoying what they come for, to have others blow in and take off their wraps, barring your view and causing unpleasant sensations and marring enjoyment. There is not any time or any season when being late is the correct thing.

Let's all adopt the rule: "Be on time."

THE HOOSIER LIST PROMISES TO BE AN EXTENSIVE ONE

H. C. Yontz is fathering, so to speak, the commendable movement of gathering the former residents of Indiana at Santa Fe to meet Vice-President Marshall, in the event of his possible and hoped-for visit to the state capital.

While in Santa Fe recently Judge E. V. Long, of Las Vegas, who met and rode a considerable distance with the incoming vice-president, also met and conferred with several former Indiana residents here, regarding the matter. Mr. Yontz, like Judge Long is not only a Hoosier but a former personal acquaintance of Mr. Marshall, and on the spur of the moment a sort of impromptu club has been formed in the opening of a register which is now at Mr. Yontz's store on San Francisco street.

Prof. J. H. Wagner, superintendent of the Santa Fe schools, is also on the Hoosier list and was a former townsman and friend of the coming vice-president, also, so with the coterie of Hoosiers in this city, the governor will be quite at home, when he enters the "City With the Open Gate."

"The Hoosier Book" is the way it reads and a mighty good book it will be. At least it will register some leading citizens of New Mexico who came from the sturdy stock of Indiana lineage, some of whom lived in the vicinity and knew Mr. Marshall years ago. Many of these Hoosiers have been prominent in Indiana and some are prominent in their new homes and residences in the Sunshine State.

The following persons have already been registered in "The Hoosier Book" and details of the reunion that will be forthcoming if Mr. Marshall can stop here will be given later:

Judge Long, Warsaw, Indiana, now of Las Vegas; Howard Wagner, Columbia City; Pearl B. Wagner, North Manchester; Fred and Robert Wagner, Auburn, all now of Santa Fe; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blickenstaff and Joe Blickenstaff, North Manchester; Robert J. Taupert, Columbia City, now Las Vegas; Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hurt, of Plymouth and Cicero, now of Mountainair. Also other residents of the latter place are Miss E. M. Burt and Mrs. B. S. Saunders, Cicero. J. A. Cauger, Indianapolis, who now lives in Santa Fe; Mrs. E. E. Friday, Bluffton, now of Santa Fe; Mrs. Isaac Berth and Prof. C. E. Hodgkin, Richmond, Mrs. C. E. Hodgkin, Columbus, all now of Albuquerque; Mrs. Prudence Richey, Madison, now of the Alhambra school this city; R. E. Yontz, Columbia City, Gallup; H. C. Yontz, of same place, one of Santa Fe's prominent merchants; E. O. Sparks, one of Santa Fe's best known citizens, formerly of Carlisle; Senator W. McCoy, now a resident of Mountainair; Mrs. McCoy, formerly of Cicero; Senator E. C. Crampton, now of Raton; Mrs. Mary B. Lenfesty Safford, formerly of Marion, Indiana, now of Santa Fe.

OFFICIAL NEWS.

Attorney General Frank W. Clancy handed down an opinion of state-wide interest concerning bond issues by boards of education in the state. Mr. Clancy has received several requests for information on this subject and his letter is therefore timely. It is as follows:

January 23, 1913.
Mr. R. H. Sims, Las Cruces, N. M.
Dear Sir:—I have today received your letter of the 21st instant together with another from Mr. Percival Brooks Coffin which I return herewith as you may need it to refer to. Mr. Coffin states that he based his unfavorable opinion as to your bond issue upon article IX of the constitution and also upon an opinion given by me, addressed to Mr. H. M. Dow, city attorney, Roswell, New Mexico, and that is that opinion I assumed the ground that boards of education could not hold an election of officers until the legislature acts and fixes a time for holding such election separately from any other election, and his conclusion is that the legislature has left the boards of education "hung up" so that they can neither act legally under the laws nor under provisions of the constitution which have not yet been made operative.

Mr. Coffin is not exactly correct in his statement of the effect of my opinion to Mr. Dow which I gave him under date of February 13, 1913. I did not say that a board of education could not elect any officers until the legislature should fix the time of such election on a day different from that of the general elections. I did say that the election of members of such a board of education must be considered as a school election within the meaning of article VII of the constitution, and that to hold such an election at the same time as the general city election would be inconsistent with the constitution, and that until the legislature fixes the time for holding such election separately from any other election, the present members of the board will continue in office until their successors are qualified, as provided in section 2 of article XX of the constitution, which section declares that "every officer unless removed shall hold his office until his successor has duly qualified." You will see from this that the members of such boards who are holding over must be considered as having all the power and authority that any board would have.

Another objection urged by Mr. Coffin is that the transcript of record sent to him does not seem to show any women's votes although the constitution provides that women must be given an opportunity to vote at school elections. The constitution provides that women shall be qualified electors at school elections, but it does not follow that they have not been given an opportunity to vote because they did not actually vote. It must be presumed that every qualified voter who desired to vote had the opportunity of voting, and that if any qualified voter did not vote it was because he or she did not so desire to do. In the same opinion which I gave to Mr. Dow I called attention to this very question as he had asked whether women should be registered as voters with a right to vote at a school bond election, and also at the election of members of the board of education. I said that if there could be a valid election of members of the board it was plain that the constitution gave women the right to vote at such election, but as to the school bond election that the question was not so plain and clear, as there might be room to argue that the intention of the constitution was to specify only elections of school directors or school officers. I said, however, I thought that would be an unwarrantable, narrow and unreasonable construction, and that by school elections the constitution intended to cover all local elections as to the management, control and administration of public schools including the question of the issuance of school bonds.

Mr. Coffin also says that it is a great question in his mind "whether the board of education of the town of Las Cruces is in fact a school district of a municipality," and that this point would cause a great deal of work to get the bonds approved and take months of time as well as attorney's fees. I am not sure that I understand what Mr. Coffin means by this, but I do not know under what statute you are issuing the bonds, and possibly information on that point would enable me to understand what he means. If the bonds are issued under the provisions of section 1584 of the compiled laws of 1897, then it is certainly impossible for me to understand Mr. Coffin's objection. That section distinctly authorizes the board of education in any city or incorporated town under certain circumstances to order an election for the issuing of bonds of the school district in the city or town. The boards of education are also authorized to issue bonds to raise funds for the purchase of school sites or the erection of suitable buildings or to fund any indebtedness for school purposes of the city or town.

What appears to me the most serious objection in the estimation of Mr. Coffin is that on account of the rate of interest he does not see profit enough in the bonds to justify his taking them up.

Yours truly,
FRANK W. CLANCY,
Attorney General.

MYRON STRATTON HOME CONTRACT IN DENVER LET

Colorado Springs, Colo., Feb. 1.—The general contract for the construction of the first thirteen buildings of the Myron Stratton Home was secured today by J. J. Cooke, of Denver, whose bid was $147,895, or $6,133 lower than the next lowest bid, that of Frederick Kirchhoff Lumber company of Denver.

There were twelve bidders in all, eight from Denver and four from Colorado Springs.

Sub-contracts will be let for the plumbing and heating, plastering, painting and wiring, and these will be arranged between the general and sub-contractors subject to the approval of the trustees of the home. The work will start immediately.

The buildings to be constructed are a dormitory for twenty boys and one for girls of the same capacity, a superintendent's residence, and ten cottages of four or five rooms each for adults. A general administration building will be designed and built this year.

QUEENSLAND HAS A RAILROAD WRECK

Cairns, Queensland, Feb. 1.—Six people were killed and five probably fatally injured today when the South Bound Brisbane express ran into the wreckage of a cattle train. Passengers were pinned beneath the debris and last reports said hundreds of people were working to free them.

Many were scalded by escaping steam. The cattle train had been derailed and 500 head of cattle killed. Workmen were clearing the track when the fast mail train crashed into the heap. Apparently no warning had been given the crew of the express, according to railway officials.

There had been no fatalities from wrecks on Queensland railways for years.

SUFFRAGETS IN LONDON CLOSE ROYAL PALACES

London, Feb. 1.—Owing to threats of the militant suffragettes to wreck public property until their demands are granted, the royal palaces of Kensington, Hampton Court, Kew and Holyrood, were closed today to the public until further notice.

All four palaces are favorite resorts of the people, whose wrath, it is thought, will be visited on the suffragettes whenever an opportunity offers. It is reported that all the public museums and similar institutions are also to be closed.

A suffragette entered the Tower of London this afternoon and smashed a glass case in the jewel house with a piece of iron hidden in the sleeve of her coat. She was arrested.

FURNITURE FOR COAL ENABLES STEAMER TO WIN

Melbourne, Australia, Feb. 1.—Many weeks overdue and with the distress signal flying, the Steam Ixela, lumber laden from Astoria, Oregon, to Melbourne, limped into port today with her cabin fixtures blazing under the boilers and the crew all but starved. The oil-burning apparatus failed early in the voyage and the steamer fought her way across the Pacific on her small coal supply and her fixtures to make steam. She averaged less than half speed and her stores gave out entirely before she made port. Only a few of her crew were strong enough for duty when she arrived.

EXPLORER RETURNS TO GERMANY.

Berlin, Feb. 1.—Lieutenant Wilhelm Feilchner, the Antarctic explorer, arrived here today from Buenos Ayres. He intends to resume his exploration in the Antarctic soon. It is stated here that serious disagreement occurred among the officers of the expedition on board the whaler Deutschland. The trouble followed the sudden death of Captain Bahsel, of heart disease during the voyage.

RATS AND MICE TO FRIGHTEN BIG SUFFRAGIST PARADE

Washington, Feb. 1.—Scampering rats and mice are counted on by college students to stampede the suffrage parade March 3.

The unusual demand for rodents was explained today when the plot that has spread through virtually every institution of learning in the capital was learned. The collegians intend, it has developed, to post their forces along the length of Pennsylvania avenue, at a pre-arranged sign, cash into the marching line with handbags or parcels containing the mice, shaking them out into the street. They expect the greatest display of hosiery and lingerie ever seen.

When the plot was uncovered, the suffragist leaders were dismayed. "It's just perfectly horrid," said a Monde suffragist at national headquarters today, shuddering at the prospect.

"Of course, I'm not frightened, but there are so many timid women, and besides, a mouse is a mouse."

PHILADELPHIANS ARE GUILTY OF GRAFT CHARGES

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 1.—Henry Clay, former director of the public safety under Mayor Reyburn, and John R. Wiggins, and Willard H. Walls, contractors were found guilty by a jury this afternoon on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the city.

Carl B. Zilenziger, a city architect, on trial on the same charge, was acquitted. It was charged that there was a conspiracy among the accused to have contracts for erecting buildings awarded to Wiggins and Walls, and that the contracts were not carried out according to original specifications. The convicted men immediately asked for a new trial.
