Category/Department: General

Published: Friday, March 9, 1990

On March 9, Venezuelan President Carlos Andres Perez, US Vice President Dan Quayle and Spanish Prime Minister Felipe Gonzalez were scheduled to meet on La Orchila island, Venezuela. Gonzalez arrived in Caracas March 8, and is also to meet with Costa Rican President Oscar Arias, Honduran President Rafael Callejas and Ecuadoran President Rodrigo Borja after Quayle leaves. The transition from Sandinista rule in Nicaragua to that of the National Opposition Union (UNO), and the Central American peace process will be the main discussion. (Basic data from AFP, 03/08/90)
