PRESIDENT IS FOLLOWED BY IMPOSING RETINUE

Great Flotilla of Paddlewheel Steamboats, Convoyed by Torpedo Boats, on 1200-Mile Voyage to New Orleans.

STOPS AT EIGHT CITIES ON WAY TO THE GULF

Taft and Cannon Endorse Waterways Program, But Urge Caution in Inaugurating Vast Expenditure of Money.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) St. Louis, Oct. 25.—When President Taft left here at 5 o'clock this afternoon, after a strenuous day of speech-making, dining and riding, he embarked upon a river trip of nearly 1,200 miles. Following the government steamer Oleander, on whose upper deck the president stood, accompanied by the first lady, were the members of the cabinet, the speaker of the house, the chief justice, and a number of United States senators, nearly 200 members of congress and officials of every state on both sides of the river, besides hundreds of delegates from commercial bodies bound for the convention of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterways association at New Orleans.

The flotilla was preceded down the river yesterday by the second division of the Atlantic torpedo boat flotilla of the United States navy. This squadron, consisting of the destroyer Macdonough and the torpedo boats Wilkes, Thornton and Tingey, is charged with the duty of preparing for the proper reception of the president at each of the eight cities where stops will be made before New Orleans is reached next Saturday morning. The squad is under the command of Lieut. Willis G. Mitchell, and has been in St. Louis since the celebration of this city's centennial early in October.

The naval vessels will await the flotilla at Memphis and aim to keep well ahead of the presidential fleet so that the smoke from their funnels will not obstruct the view of the deep waterway delegates and the government officials whom they seek to convert to the project of deepening the river. For similar reasons, a considerable distance was kept between the boats of the presidential flotilla. Strenuous efforts were made to keep the boats and commanders of the craft before their departure, and every effort has been made to prevent either the grounding of any of the boats or the more dreaded possibility of a collision.

The details of the journey have been worked out under the supervision of Commander E. H. Tillman of the United States navy, admiral of the fleet on board the Oleander. In the upper reaches of the river, a speed of less than twelve miles an hour is to be made. After the mouth of the Ohio has been passed, however, the vessels will be asked to show a better pace, and in places will travel fifteen miles an hour.

The flotilla was organized to "boost" the cause of deep waterways. This is the frank declaration of the officers of the association, the president, W. K. Kavanaugh, saying:

"This personally conducted journey of President Taft down the Mississippi river is being made to call the personal attention of the president of the United States, members of congress, army engineers and levee engineers of the various interested states, to the commercial necessity and possibilities of deepening the river. Federal cooperation is wanted by the states, and we hope to see a river and harbor bill passed at the next session of congress carrying an appropriation sufficient to put the deep waterway on a continuing basis, like the Panama canal."

The flotilla and its roster follows: Steamer Oleander, carrying the president and his personal party. Steamer Erastus, Wells, carrying Frank H. Hitchcock, postmaster general; Charles Nagel, secretary of commerce and labor; and Mayor F. H. Kreisman, St. Louis.

Secretary of War J. M. Dickinson will join the party at Memphis. Steamer Mississippi, carrying the members of the Mississippi river commission, and United States army and state engineers.

Steamer St. Paul, carrying governors of states, newspaper men and special guests of the association.

Steamer Lily, carrying foreign diplomats.

Steamer Quincy, carrying Speaker John Cannon, John Barrett, director International Bureau of American Republics, and members of congress.

Steamer Saltito, carrying officials of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway association.

Steamer Alton, carrying members of the St. Louis Business Men's League.

Steamer Cape Girardeau, carrying Missouri, East St. Louis, Belleville and Alton deep waterway delegations and ladies.

Steamer G. W. Hill, carrying members of the Illinois Manufacturers' association and the Chicago Deep Waterway convention.

Other steamers in the flotilla joining at various points are:

Steamer Illinois, property of the state of Illinois, and carrying state officials.

Steamer Grand, carrying Little Rock deep waterway delegates.

Steamer Rapids, carrying Little Rock and Arkansas delegates.

Steamer Florence II, carrying editorial staff Chicago Tribune.

Steamer Hells of Muskogee, carrying Muskogee Commercial club and Oklahoma delegates.

Steamer A. M. Scott, carrying West Virginia delegates.

Steamer Sarah E. Denborn, carrying Louisiana deep waterway delegates.

The order of the procession of boats is to be changed from day to day to meet the exigencies of the program mapped out by committees at the cities to be visited by the president between here and New Orleans. Then, too, there are to be various functions aboard the boats, which the president is expected to attend.

The first of these was scheduled for tonight, when he took dinner on the steamer St. Paul with the governors and newspaper men. The affair was arranged by the Business Men's League of St. Louis.

Another dinner, with the president as chief guest, will occur aboard the steamer Quincy on the night of October 27, after the flotilla has left Helena, Ark. The congressmen and president are to be the guests of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway association on that occasion.

Provision has also been made for dispatch boats and launches at facilities visiting between the vessels of the fleet.

TAFT AND CANNON ASK CAUTION ON WATERWAYS

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 25.—President Taft and Speaker Cannon apparently think the same regarding waterway improvement as a part of a national policy of conserving the streams.

The speaker endorsed the President's attitude today in the matter of a bond issue to pay for the improvements.

While Mr. Taft's utterances on the subject were not so far reaching regarding the creation of the fourteen foot channel as those of President Roosevelt on a similar occasion, and therefore not entirely cheering to advocates of an immediate commencement of the work, in addition to Speaker Cannon's endorsement they gave those same advocates encouragement.

The general good was the text which the President prescribed for the undertaking of the ambitious works. "Let us take up each project on its merits," he said, "and determine by all means at our command whether the country in which this project is to be carried out is so far developed as to justify the expenditure of a large sum of money and whether the project will be useful when done."

"When you have determined that on the general principle of good to the entire country, then I am in favor of doing that work as rapidly as it can be done, and I am in favor of issuing bonds to do it."

Referring to this sentiment, which was uttered in a meeting at the St. Louis coliseum at noon, Speaker Cannon said:

CZAR NICHOLAS SAYS GOODBYE TO EMMANUEL

Racoon, Oct. 25.—After two days as the guest of King Victor Emmanuel, Emperor Nicholas left at 3:15 o'clock today. He took an affectionate farewell of the king and queen, the former accompanying him to the railroad station. All along the route troops were drawn up in double file and the same precautions were taken to guard the railroad line to the Italian frontier.

The emperor promised soon to return to Italy with the empress, who, he said, "wishes to see her old friend, the Princess of Montenegro, and the great country where she became queen."

The Italian frontier was reached in safety and before proceeding the emperor telegraphed the king, again thanking him for his reception.

SHOT WOMAN AS SHE PLEADED FOR MERCY

Bleached Skeleton Reveals Ghastly Crime

Frederick Gebhardt, Run Down by Police Confesses to Brutal Murder of Friendless German Girl.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) New York, Oct. 25.—A year and a half ago a friendless girl was murdered near Islip, L. I. A week ago her skeleton was found with nothing to indicate its identity but her jewelry and a bill of sale from a German shop; three days later, through the police of Hamburg, Germany, her identity was established as Anna Luther; tonight her husband, Frederick Gebhardt, confessed over his signature that he is the murderer.

"About December, 1907," Gebhardt told the police, "I first met Anna Luther. We married in February, 1908, and went to Europe to live. We returned April 6, 1908. She went to Henry Vertup's in Newark, N. J., for a day or two. On the pretense that I was going to rent an apartment I returned to my home and wife in Astoria, L. I."

"I met Anna again on April 8, in Newark and we went to an address in 34th street, New York, and then to Jamaica, L. I. We stayed in Jamaica until next day."

"April 9, we went to Bay Shore and I showed her some property. I got into an argument with her about some money matters and I turned away and wanted to go back. She followed me up screaming and I shot her in the head. I did not look at her and do not remember whether I shot her more than once."

"Immediately after I went to the Islip depot and took a train for home. It was nearly dark. I threw the revolver out of the car window."

"I did not kill Anna Luther for her money as the newspapers have stated. My original reason for marrying Anna was that I did not care to live with my first wife any longer but as she—my first wife—had given me a child my desire to see my child caused me to want to get rid of Anna Luther and return to my first wife and child. This is why I shot Anna and I told her in Bay Shore that I was married and had a wife and child and must leave her."

"She screamed and ran and kissed me and wanted me back and I shot her."

"From the time of her arrest until he broke down under the questions of the detectives, Gebhardt, although he admitted committing bigamy when he married Anna Luther, denied all knowledge of her death."

"How about this letter?" asked Commander Savage, and he began to read a note mailed last night to the German Consul and signed Otto Mueller. The letter trapped him into confessing.

"I am the husband," it ran, "without doubt, of the woman, Anna Mueller. After we arrived in New York from Germany, in April, of last year, we stayed in New York ten days. Then we went to Florida for the health of my wife and settled there for the time being."

"In Jamaica where I formerly lived with my wife, she had received a visitor whom she represented to me to be a Mr. Brady of Denver. From Florida we went to Denver and from Mr. Brady called again. In September, 1908, my wife disappeared, after I reproached her for seeing Brady when I happened to be away for two days."

Bradley is about six feet high, with light hair, smooth face and claims to be a real estate dealer. I. Mueller, said at once to go to Germany to see my parents-in-law and will then be at your service."

The same inexplicable impulse which had prompted Gebhardt to write this fatal letter had led him to give to Bradley, who doesn't exist outside his own imagination, his own personal description. As soon as he saw the letter he grew white and began to shiver and, before the reading was completed, exclaimed:

"Oh, what's the use anyway? You have me and I might as well own I killed her."

Given verbally the confession was even more shockingly brutal, the police say, than it appears in the formal language of the police officers, whose version Gebhardt signed.

"I had to get rid of her," he said, "but I did not mean to kill her. I thought first I could get her to give me some money for land I did not own. So I took her down to let her see the land. She would not come to terms and I told her then that I was already married and had a child. I loved that I was tired of her and wanted to go back to my wife. She began to cry and plead and screamed and ran about. She told me she loved me and kissed me. As she put up her face, I kissed her again. I shot her in the head."

Gebhardt told the police he never thought it "worth while" to go back to bury her. Instead, he wrote letters to her friends in Newark and Germany telling them that Anna was in poor health and had to go to Florida. Then he quit "bothering about her."

Gebhardt when he was in Germany, bought two German police dogs and it was by training the dogs that the detectives found his home in Astoria. While a newspaper photographer used a flash light at the dogs, the glare revealed the pale face of Gebhardt, peering from a barn. He was run down and arrested.

Search of the house revealed a quantity of household effects and woman's finery marked "A. L." Gebhardt had told his wife that he bought them at a sale of unclaimed trunks in Germany. He had married under the name of Otto Mueller.

LINERS RACE TO BEAT THE TARIFF

Important Concession to French Importers

Customs Office Will Remain Open All Day Saturday to Allow Delayed Boats to Enter Harbor.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Washington, Oct. 25.—What is regarded as a distinct concession to importing interests and to France was made by the treasury department today in directing collectors of customs at United States ports to keep customs houses open until 4:30 o'clock next Saturday when the commercial agreements with France, Switzerland and Bulgaria will expire. The purpose is to give every facility to importers to enter goods at the reduced rates of the expiring treaties and applies particularly to New York and a few other cities where customs houses close ordinarily at 1 o'clock on Saturday.

The decision fixed October 30 as the date of the expiration of the agreements instead of the 31st, because of the latter date falling on Sunday.

Acts of congress do not recognize Saturday afternoon as a half holiday and the executive departments of the government at Washington therefore remain open until 4:30 every Saturday, the same as other week days, except during the summer.

A French Transatlantic liner in making a race against time to get a cargo of goods in under the lower rates provided by the commercial agreement, the steamer is scheduled to arrive early Saturday afternoon.

PRINCE ITO IS MURDERED AT HARBIN

Great Japanese Leader Victim of Assassin

News Causes Deep Grief in Tokyo; Something of Career of One of Chief Builders of the New Japan.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Tokyo, Oct. 25.—News has been received here that Prince Ito, the famous Japanese statesman, has been assassinated by a Korean at Harbin.

Grief in Tokyo.

Tokyo, Oct. 25.—3:45 p. m.—The news was received at Tokyo at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The dispatch contained only the brief announcement that Prince Ito had been assassinated. It has caused great grief and consternation.

His Great Career.

Prince Hirobumi Ito was perhaps the greatest statesman of new Japan. The achievement with which his name has been chiefly associated in the minds of Occidentals was the framing of the imperial constitution by virtue of which Japan took her place for the first time in the rank of modern civilized states.

As the emperor's trusted adviser and the medium through which the state was placed on a constitutional basis, he must be regarded as one of the positive factors which have helped to win for Japan her present standing among the nations.

Prince Ito was 68 years old. It was in 1863 that he made his celebrated pilgrimage to England at a time when it was against the law of his country to go abroad and the penalty for infringement was death. Nevertheless, inspired by a patriotic feeling and a desire to learn the secret of occidental supremacy, he undertook the trip, which proved so beneficial to his country later on.

Prince Ito, who was president of the privy council of Japan, left Tokyo October 16 for a tour of Manchuria. He was to have arrived at Harbin today (Tuesday), where he was to have met M. Kokovoff, Russian minister of finance. The conference, it was said, was at the behest of Japan and Russian and foreign diplomats had attached great importance to it, although the exact motives impelling Japan to propose the conference were not known. The subjects to be discussed were not stated in the Japanese overtures and M. Kokovoff, it was said, had barred political questions. He said that he was competent to discuss only financial and technical subjects.

In some quarters it was believed the tour of Prince Ito was to have been political and that it had as a basis an attempt to forestall protests of the powers against Russia's domination of the Manchurian railroad zone under her agreement with China by effecting a complete understanding between Japan and China. It has been stated that China had sent several high officials to Harbin to confer with Prince Ito.

Prince Ito passed Saturday and Sunday at Mukden, where he had conferred with Hsi Lung, the viceroy. He visited the United States in 1920 as a commissioner to investigate financial and banking systems. On his return to Japan he was appointed vice minister of public works. In 1880 he negotiated with Li Hung Chang on the Korean question and concluded the treaty which formed the basis of Japan's justification for her war with China in 1894. Later he negotiated a treaty of peace with China and at the close of the war was made a marquis. After the Russo-Japanese war he was resident general in Korea, in which capacity he incurred the hatred of Koreans.

RASMUSSEN STANDS PAT FOR DR. COOK

Copenhagen, Oct. 25.—Knud Rasmussen, Danish explorer, whose name has been closely associated with the North pole controversy, arrived today on the government steamer Hans Egede from Greenland.

Questioned as to his views on Dr. Cook's expedition, he repeated the statement made by him in a letter to his wife that he confidently believed Dr. Cook reached the pole. He said he had seen Dr. Cook's diary and could not believe it false.

Rasmussen will return to Greenland next spring and will proceed to Etah, where he hopes to meet the two Eskimos who were Dr. Cook's sole companions on the latter part of his journey.

WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC FROM COAST TO COAST

Omaha, Oct. 25.—The traffic in girls has become an evil more widespread than the public imagines," said Dr. O. O. Edward Janney of Baltimore before the National W. C. T. U. convention today. "The main line of its operation," he continued, "is from Montreal, Boston and New York westward through Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Omaha and Denver to San Francisco and Seattle. It even reaches across the ocean for victims."

The federal government, he said, is doing all it can to suppress the traffic, but it is hampered by a supreme court decision that this is a matter for the police power of the states to deal with. He urged members of the W. C. T. U. to influence their state legislatures to pass more drastic laws. Dr. Janney is chairman of the National Vigilance Committee for the Suppression of "White Slave" Traffic.

INSANITY DODGE NO LONGER EFFECTIVE

Seattle, Oct. 25.—Arthur George, a machinist, who shot and killed his divorced wife last May, expressed today a willingness to plead guilty to murder in the second degree and accept a sentence of life imprisonment.

George had previously pleaded insanity. A new law passed by the legislature gives the trial judge authority to refuse to hear evidence on the mental condition of a prisoner. Prosecuting Attorney Vandever, in announcing that he would accept George's proposal, said: "I believe the insanity dodge has reached the end of its rope in this state."

Gladstone First African Governor.

London, Oct. 25.—Herbert J. Gladstone, according to the Daily Telegraph, will be the first governor-general of the United South Africa. There is some doubt, however, whether such an appointment, if made, would prove acceptable to South Africans. In view of the fact that the name of his father was associated with Majuba Hill.

INSURES HIS LIFE AGAINST THE ASSASSIN

Mayor of Missouri Village Puts Remarkable Clause in Will and Insurance Companies Cancel Policies.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) St. Louis, Oct. 25.—Mayor Woods of Webster, St. Louis county, today received notice from an insurance company that it had cancelled his $5,000 policy. No explanation was given.

Mayor Woods believes the action was caused by two recent political feud shootings in Webster. The life of Mayor Woods is insured for $10,000 and his will provides that, in event he dies at the hands of an assassin, Joseph W. Folk, former governor, shall receive $1,000 and five other lawyers $500 each to prosecute his slayer, and that the officer arresting his slayers shall receive $2,500.

MINERS HOLD CHECKS; BANK SAYS NO FUNDS

Seattle, Oct. 25.—One hundred and fifty gold miners who worked all summer on a big gold mining mine, forty miles from Hayden, Alaska, are stranded here, according to a statement by one of them. The company, which has headquarters in Kansas City, paid the men their wages, $150 to $200 to each man, in checks on a Seattle bank, but the company's balance is only eight cents and the bank will not permit an overdraft.

MAYBELLE MILLMAN WAS DOCTOR'S VICTIM

Chauffeur Tells Story That Seems to Clinch Guilt of Dr. George A. Fritch of Ann Arbor.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Detroit, Oct. 25.—Dr. George A. Fritch today was held for trial on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Maybelle Millman of Ann Arbor.

Miss Millman's body was found in three sections in sacks in Ecorse creek and the lower Detroit river in September. The police decided the body showed evidences of an operation.

The sensation of the hearing was a declaration by Joseph W. Leach, a chauffeur, that on August 27, he drove Dr. Fritch to Ecorse creek where he threw three mysterious sacks into the water.

"Have you been killing someone?" the chauffeur testified he asked Dr. Fritch when the latter asked him to call with his automobile and told him he was in trouble.

"You are not supposed to know anything," was the response Leach received.

"When I called for the doctor, about 9 o'clock," Leach testified, "he brought out a newspaper package, perhaps 18 inches long and said for me to drive to his house. We drove into the alley behind the doctor's house and under the doctor's direction I took half a dozen bricks from a pile in the alley and put them in the automobile. While I was doing this, the doctor went into the yard. He returned without coat and told me to turn around. His office. The doctor brought out a sack that was heavy enough to require him to carry it with both hands. Then he returned and brought out two more sacks, one in each hand. He put a revolver in his pocket.

"We drove with the packages a little distance beyond the bridge and the doctor got out and told me to turn around. Then he stood on the side step of the machine while we rode back to the bridge. On the bridge he opened the door and threw the sacks into the creek. Then he rode back to the city on the front seat with me.

"He said it anyone asked me where I had been I was to say that I had taken a party to a road house. He gave me $25 and told me not to worry about a bill I owed him. When he told me I had another package to dispose of I said I could not get away to attend to it."

CHARGES BOWLDS LOOTED BANK

Bank of Grand County at Sulphur Springs Closed by State Examiner and President is Arrested.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Denver, Oct. 25.—The bank of Grand county, at Sulphur Springs, Colo., is closed under the order of State Bank Commissioner E. W. Pfeiffer, and its president and chief officer, C. H. Bowlbs, is under arrest charged with looting the bank's funds of $10,000 and ten thousand dollars. Introduced by J. W. Norment, president of the Capital City bank of Santa Fe, N. M., Bowlbs came to Denver in August and opened negotiations for the purchase of the Sulphur Springs bank with F. N. Briggs, then the bank's chief officer. He presented excellent references from Pueblo, Birmingham, Ala., Mississippi and Kentucky and purchased the controlling interest in the bank for $10,000, taking possession August 28.

Bowlbs denies any criminal action in his conduct of the bank.

and today's extension of the hours probably will permit the entrance of the goods under the expiring agreement.

With the return to Washington of Ambassador Jusserand, negotiations between France and America regarding application of the new tariff act to French imports have crossed the Atlantic and here in Washington will be brought out the terms of the agreement, which, it is assumed, will regulate the trade relations of the two countries.

There is little danger of a tariff war. Neither country, it is pointed out, can afford to embark on such a suicidal policy as wholesale retaliation nor is there any necessity for it. It is true France must submit to higher duties upon exports to the United States but, so long as it does not discriminate against her, she can have no serious objection.

While M. Jusserand is diplomatically silent as to the course he is under instructions to follow, there is reason to believe that his purpose is to make the best of the situation and secure the minimum tariff rate for French products entering the United States in return for the smallest possible amount of concessions of similar reduced value of American imports into France.

The ambassador has this consideration in mind: France has made her concession, while the United States must grant the minimum rate on all or some of the French products.

If Senator Aldrich in his address in France correctly reported the administration, it would not be necessary for France to accept the minimum rate on United States imports to obtain the reduction of the maximum rate on all of her imports into the United States.

JOHNSON SAYS JEFFRIESBig Fellow Declares Thirty Days After Signing Suits Him if Dusky Opponent Means What He Says; Johnson Hurrying to New York to Close the Articles.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
New York, Oct. 25.—That both Jim Jeffries and Jack Johnson, mean business and will sign articles of agreement without much haggling over details is the conviction of New York sporting men who have seen and talked with both fighters in the last few weeks.

The articles will be signed this week, if all goes well and then the business of accepting an offer will be in order. Tentative bids for the bout began to come in today.

Johnson, who was in Chicago today, should reach New York by the end of the week and the two fighters will meet and talk over conditions of the bout.

Jeffries showed much enthusiasm regarding the match today. "I only hope," he said, "that Johnson means what he says, in this Chicago interview which the papers are printing. He is quoted as ready to sign papers at once and willing to fight within 30 days. Of course, it would be impossible to pull off the fight within thirty days and Johnson is exaggerating a little when he mentions so early a date. But if he wants to sign up in a hurry he will find me ready to meet him half way. The truth is I am eager to get a crack at Johnson."

Jeffries took things easy after his five miles or so of road work yesterday with Sam Berger, his manager. He passed most of the day in chats with visitors and friends. Tomorrow he plans to pay a visit to Coney's gymnasium for a thorough workout. Jim Jeffries, the San Francisco right promoter, reached today. Later in the week he hopes to show Jeffries and Johnson that Colma is the only place in the world for the fight to be held. He will not present his formal bid until after articles of agreement have been signed, he said tonight.

JOHNSON WILL LISTEN TO JEFFRIES' OFFER
Chicago, Oct. 25.—In discussing the terms of the fight Jack Johnson said tonight that no terms would be put up from his side.

"We will listen to what Jeffries has to offer," said Johnson, "and if his ideas are reasonable it will not take ten minutes to fix up the arrangements. We want nothing unreasonable, just a fair fight for both sides. There is one thing I am against and that is any bids for the fight in Australia. I will never fight over there again after the treatment I received. The fight must take place either in this country or in England, and I am sure the bidding here will be stronger than anything England could offer."

As for the time of the battle, Jeffries can have his own way. I see he is reported to have said he would be ready in March or April. That suits me and I will be ready for him then or sooner, but there will be no sense in putting the fight off much longer than that."

NELSON PUTS OFF THE VOLGAST FIGHT
Los Angeles, Oct. 25.—Announcement was made today that the fight planned to take place here Thanksgiving Day between Battling Nelson and Ad Volgaist has been declared off. Nelson has refused to enter the ring with Volgaist before next January.

FRISCO PROMOTER OFFERS $75,000 FOR THE FIGHT
San Francisco, Oct. 25.—John G. Gleason, a prize fight promoter announced tonight that he would leave Thursday for New York City in an endeavor to bring the heavyweight championship battle to Alameda, a suburb of San Francisco, where the Bay Shore Athletic club, he said, would put up a sum, Gleason said to be $75,000 to be divided by the fighters.

Gleason named as his backers, Al White and J. J. Londrigan, the latter an Alameda capitalist.

Sporting men here greatly think it a foregone conclusion that James Coff-roth will be the favored one among the many striving for this fight. Coffroth, through his evident friendship for Johnson, it is said, enabled the negro to pocket about $20,000 as his share of the recent clash with Ketchel.

Jeffries also owes much of his purses to Coffroth. In 1902 his fight with Gus Ruliff drew $30,000; that with Bob Fitzsimmons in 1903, $30,000; with Jim Corbett, in 1903, $66,000 while in 1904 the Jack Monroe fight drew $20,000.

Coffroth's plan when he started east was outlined by those close to the promoter was to offer the fighters 50 per cent of a house guaranteed to be $100,000 and a third interest each to Jeffries and Johnson in the moving pictures. The pictures, it is said, would be worth at least $500,000 of which Coffroth would retain a third.

101 RANCH OFFERS $60,000 FOR BATTLE
New York, Oct. 25.—Bids for the proposed battle are beginning to loom up in large numbers. An offer of a $60,000 cash purse was made today by a representative of the 101 ranch at Bliss, Okla. Besides the $75,000 for of "Silo" Hester, manager of the Mission Athletic club, of San Francisco, received last night, bids from Jack Gleason and other Pacific coast promoters have been received.

Varsity Bunch Off for El Paso

Will Meet El Paso Military School in First Game of the University's Season This Afternoon.

Couch McBlaney and his squad of fifteen husky youngsters from the University of New Mexico left last night for El Paso where they will meet the El Paso Military school this afternoon in the first game of the University's football season. The coach does not expect an easy time for his team which had not had as much work as he would like before going into the opening game but he has confidence in them and believes that they will be able to bring away a victory from the El Paso team, which is said to number several strong men in the line up. Price is out of the game, his ankle being still too badly out of fix to allow or play and Otto whose presence means much to the team has a hand which will keep him out of today's game. It is a considerable handicap but the University boys are full of glimmer and believe they are plenty strong to take away the game from the El Paso school.

In the party last night were: Coach McBlaney, Captain Allen, Acting Manager Lembo, Price, Selva, Otto, Cornish Bryan, Salisbury, Hamilton, McConnell, Hall and McElle, Emmons and Mudgett.

COLLEGE ASKS FOR GAME WITH THE MENAUL SCHOOL

The Agricultural college yesterday wired to the Menaul school for a game here in the near future. The Menaul school is not strong enough to go against the college bunch however and is not likely to accept the challenge.

RETURN GAME HERE NEXT SATURDAY

The El Paso Military boys will journey to Albuquerque next Saturday and play a return game with the Varsity eleven on Traction park gridiron. The game will be the first big game Albuquerqueans have had the opportunity of witnessing since the New Mexico-Arizona game played here last Thanksgiving. Judging from the fact that the El Paso eleven worsted the Aztecs from Cruces two weeks ago, the cadets evidently have a strong team. The game here Saturday should be a great exhibition and it is hoped that a very large crowd of lovers of the game will be on hand to witness it.

ANDERSON SIGNS UP WITH CINCINNATI

El Paso White Sox Pitcher to Play With the Reds Next Season; Had Offers From Giants and Phillies.

"Wingo" Anderson, a member of the pitching staff of the El Paso White Sox, has been signed up for next season by Garry Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati Reds. Wingo's style of pitching has attracted attention all over the country and he received offers from the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Americans in addition to the proposition made to him by Cincinnati. Anderson is a phenomenal pitcher and will no doubt be a second "Babe" Adams after he gets a good start. Joining the White Sox late in the season last year, he pitched in seven games for them. In the six full games Wingo struck out a total of 84, or an average of 12 to the game.

ICE TRUST SWEEP FIELD CLEAN

New York Octopus Overlooked Nothing in Controlling the Ice Trade of New York.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
New York, Oct. 25.—The thoroughness with which the American Ice company, on trial for attempted restraint of trade, is alleged to have absorbed independent competitors, was shown today by Deputy State Attorney Nathan Jaffe, who read a list of the businesses purchased by I. O. Blake, at one time a branch manager for the company. The independents were gathered in, of varying sizes, the assets of some consisting of nothing more than a single horse and wagon. Most of the agreements signed with these independent dealers provided cash penalties if the dealers engaged in the ice business in New York within ten years. The penalties varied from $200 to $75,000.

The name of Charles W. Morse, the convicted financier, was frequently mentioned in the proceedings and the name of Augustus C. Sprague, the mysterious person who received $150,000 from the company for "value received," also figured in the testimony.

non, addressing the gathering at the dedication of the new federal building in East St. Louis, later in the day, said:

"It is a safe and sound outlining of a proper policy for us to pursue in this great middle west. We have improved the Mississippi in the past and we shall be improving it a hundred years from now, when we shall need all our better courses. We in this generation will do our part wisely. We will not throw money into rivers to be washed into the sea. We shall do that first which needs doing most."

The speaker endorsed the levee system, congratulating East St. Louis and its neighboring towns on the completion of the river barriers, the dedication of which formed part of the day's celebration. He predicted the Mississippi would be permanently confined to its banks throughout its lengthy course and urged that the states adjoining the stream share the cost with the national government.

Hundred Thousand Heavy Speakers.
Both meetings were notable events. Vice President Sherman, cabinet members, United States senators and representatives, and ministers from foreign governments listened to the speeches, at one or both of the meetings. Added to these were state and municipal officials of all degrees and almost 100,000 citizens.

Tonight the President, speaker, the congress, legislators, and several hundred representatives of commercial organizations of numerous states are speeding down the Mississippi aboard a flotilla of paddlewheel steamers bound for New Orleans. There they will assemble with hundreds of others in the annual convention of the Lake-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway association, the pet project of which is the creation of a permanent deep-water channel from the mouth of the Illinois river to the Gulf of Mexico.

WYOMING CATTLEMEN ESCAPE INDICTMENT

Basin, Wyo., Oct. 25.—Judge Parmelee today in the trial of the seven cattlemen accused of persecuting sheepmen ordered the indictments quashed on a ground that the jury which returned the indictments was illegally drawn. The court held that while he did not think there was any criminal intent or willful violation of the law, the work of the jury commission was faulty. He ordered the prosecuting attorney to file new indictments.

DIES FROM BLOW INFLICTED BY POLICEMAN

Coroner's Jury Holds Roswell Officers Responsible for the Death of Robert L. Banks.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)
Roswell, N. M., Oct. 25.—That Robert L. Banks who died yesterday at his home in Roswell, N. M., a small town north of here, was a victim of a blow or several blows over the head delivered by policemen of Roswell two weeks ago, is the finding of the coroner's jury which today held an inquest over the remains. Banks was arrested in Roswell two weeks ago last Saturday night on a drunk and disorderly charge. He put up a fight drawing a knife and cutting policeman Roy Woolter on the hand. Woolter and another policeman, Tate Stewart, struck Banks several times over the head with billys and the butt of a gun. At the time he was not thought to be hurt, saying his fine in police court next morning and leaving as if nothing was amiss. When he went home along poisoning set in which complicated with pneumonia and jaundice caused his death.

MRS. VAN RIPER PUTS DARDEN INCIDENT BEHIND HER

HAS HAD ENOUGH OF THE LIMELIGHT FOR LIFETIME

Most Recent Mrs. Darden Turns Her Face to the East While Her Attorney Pays Parting Compliment to Albuquerque Man.

Mrs. Fannie Van Ripper, until recently Mrs. Fannie Van Ripper Darden, who was granted a divorce from James G. Darden of Albuquerque at Las Cruces last week and at the same time was awarded all of the property held in Darden's name in Albuquerque and elsewhere, and of which it was charged the Albuquerque man attempted to deprive her by the simple process of the marriage ceremony, arrived in Albuquerque yesterday morning, accompanied by her brother, W. F. Van Vleet, whose father was at one time a member of the Phelps Dodge company and is one of the wealthy men of New York; her chief attorney, Mr. P. J. Britt, of New York, and a number of attendants. The party came to Albuquerque in a private car which Mrs. Van Ripper has used during her stay in New Mexico, and passed from the car directly to rooms in the Alvarado hotel, where they remained during the greater part of the day. The party left last night on the California limited for New York. Mrs. Van Ripper has turned her face to the east. She has put New Mexico and Mr. Darden behind her and the incident is closed. This is all that Mrs. Van Ripper cared to have said for her during her stay here. She refused to say anything at all for publication and firmly declined to be interviewed. Mr. Britt acted as her spokesman during the stay here but gave no information of the story here but gave no information of the story here but gave no information of the story here.

During the afternoon the party, in two automobiles, made the rounds of the city and enjoyed an inspection of the real estate which Mr. Darden purchased and which Mrs. Van Ripper has recently reacquired. "After working for the past two years I have a complete record of Darden's life for the past twenty-five years," said Mr. Britt last night. "I have followed his trail over a dozen states of the Union and into foreign countries, and I was prepared to tell the story of his life by affidavits and other evidence before the court at Las Cruces." Mr. Britt sketched this career briefly but added little to what has already been made public in the course of the divorce proceeding, although he talked without restraint of the Albuquerque man and his marital career.

BIBLICAL WORLD BADLY MISREPRESENTED SAYS LOCAL BAPTIST PASTOR

Editor Morning Journal: I have noticed and with regret two editorials, one of them in a late issue of the Albuquerque Morning Journal, relating to statements purported to have been made in the "Biblical World," the official organ of the divinity school of the University of Chicago.

These statements reflect on the ethical value of biblical standards. I have known that the Journal's editorials were misleading, being based on misrepresentations gathered from sources not altogether reliable, as the Biblical World offers no occasion for these editorials. I have personally known the editor-in-chief of the Biblical World, Dr. Ernest D. Burton, for years, having been a student under him in "Interpretation of the Greek New Testament Scriptures." He is a scholar almost without a peer in his department, also an earnest, humble Christian, and his statements on which your editorials were based would be directly contradictory to the man's faith, character and work. He would not stand for such statements. Moreover, in these statements the Biblical World is misrepresented.

Also I call your attention to the following item which I have taken from the standard, the leading organ of the Baptist denomination, published in its last week's issue:

Still More "Yellow" Reporting.

May I call attention of the readers of the Standard to the gross misrepresentation of the editorial in the current Biblical World which have appeared in several of the daily papers of Chicago and other cities? The quotations furnished in the body of the report are sufficient to show that the headlines utterly belie the article. The purpose of our editorial was to historically in order to enable one to use it most effectively in dealing with modern ethical problems, and to point out that there is a real danger in the employment of the Bible for ethical teaching unguided by the historical spirit. The headlines and comments ascribe to the editors opinions absurdly remote from this position and from any which they hold. The fact is we believe that the highest moral ideals in all the world are to be found in the Bible, and that the right study of it furnishes one of the most effective methods of dealing with the ethical questions of the present hour. It is in large part because we believe this that we are editing and publishing the Biblical World.

We regret the necessity of occupying space with this correction, but there seems to be no other way of relief from the persistent sensational misrepresentation of our position by the secular press.

ERNEST D. BURTON, Editor-in-Chief of the Biblical World, University of Chicago.

I am yours respectfully,

JOHN A. STAW, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Albuquerque, N. M.

THEATER PACKED TO HEAR CORINNE IN "MILLE MISCHIEF"

Tuneful Operetta Pleases One of Biggest Audiences Ever Gathered in Albuquerque; Costuming and Scenery Perfect.

With perfect costumes, and plenty of them, pretty chorus people and beautiful scenery to back her, Corinne immensely pleased one of the greatest audiences ever gathered in Elks theater last night in "Mille Mischief." The tuneful operetta was presented with all the dash and spirit which made it one of the successes of the past two seasons in the east and was a pleasant treat from beginning to end. Ever since the house was occupied when the curtain went up and standing room only was left for the late arrivals. This latest of the Shubert attractions to come here is added assurance that the management of the theater has done very well in securing the backing of the big New York managers and gives plenty of promise to both the management and the public of such a season in Albuquerque as not had before.

LAST CALL FOR THE CONCERT SERIES

The last call is out for the concert series which the L. E. Behmer bureau of Los Angeles is offering to Albuquerque. In concluding that making of the highest class will appeal to Albuquerque people. Manager Matson and Mr. Behmer have arranged to make the three great concerts offered as one financially as possible. The seats which are selling for $2 for the three concerts will sell at from $2 to $3 each for the individual attractions and it will pay every one who expects to hear Beethoven, Brahms, Schumann, Wagner and Kreisler to get in line for the season tickets. The subscription is still open and it is hoped that it will be well filled when the choice of seats is made. The choice of seats for subscribers will take place on November 4th and it is believed at that time the full subscription will have been completed.

JUVENILES HIKING TOWARDS SUNNY SOUTHLAND

Boy With One Leg, Walking With a Crutch, and Another Lad, of Unknown Identity, Start Out to See the World.

A telephone message received by Under Sheriff Fred Hest last night from Lagunitas, a small village five miles south of town, gave the information that two small boys were wearing a crutch, having only one leg, had reached that place before dusk yesterday evening, evidently on their way to El Estero. A lady in Lagunitas gave them something to eat and told them to return to their home in Albuquerque. The lady agreed to do so, and started north. The lady watched them, however, and after traveling towards Albuquerque for some distance, turned around and skirted Lagunitas, proceeding on their way south. The boys refused to give their names. It is supposed they ran away from their homes in this city and were on their way to see the country. No missing youngsters had been reported to the police last night.

Some months ago the Schuster place was broken into, entrance being obtained by smashing in a panel of the rear door. Nothing of value was reported missing, however, when an inventory of the household effects was taken.

The youthful Simon, arrested last night, is pretty much of a degenerate. He has pulled off probably a dozen robberies in Albuquerque within the past two years. All of them have been cleverly planned and boldly executed. But for the fact that the lad is somewhat careless and generally leaves a telltale clew behind him, many burglaries in the business district would have remained profound mysteries. Simon, however, has a faculty of taking other young lads into his confidence and generally takes one of more boys of his own age with him when he pulls off his jobs. The first robbery which brought Simon into the limelight was committed a year and a half ago when he was scarcely nine years old. Entering the Tull grocery store on North Third street, the child made a small purchase and then boldly walked over to the safe and extracted a roll of bills amounting to eighty dollars in cash. Part of the money was recovered by the police after Simon had been connected with the affair. Robbing the till of the Otto Berger feed store, climbing a telephone pole in the alley in the rear of A. J. Maloy's grocery store, then descending into the Maloy place through a skylight and sniping a lot of groceries, and many other affairs of a similar nature, were all traced to him by the police.

The lad was arrested repeatedly, confined in jail, threatened with every form of punishment from being sent to the reform school to the penitentiary, but without success. He still continued to commit various thefts. Finally he was taken before Judge Abbott in the district court and sentenced to the reformatory, where he remained during good behavior.

Simon's parents sent him to a ranch near Las Vegas, where he remained until two weeks ago, when he returned to Albuquerque. It is presumed that his escapade of last evening was merely to inform the police that he had returned from his vacation and was still in the same old business.

What to do with Simon has always been a problem with the police. Now it is more of a problem than ever.

SIMON MONDRAGON AGAIN IN THE LIMELIGHT

RESUMES OPERATIONS AFTER BRIEF VACATION

Juvenile Offender Who Has Caused Police Department Much Worry Breaks Out Once More.

That Simon Mondragon, the 16 year old lad who has given the police many sleepless nights, and days filled with worry, has not reformed to any great extent at least as far as appearances go, was indicated last night when Simon, together with Freddie Morris, 11 years old, of 711 North 11th street, and Ambrose Slazak, 12 years old, of 5th street and Alvarado road, were arrested by Police men Knap and O'Grady, charged with entering the residence of Mrs. Max Schuster, 5th and Copper, with intent to commit robbery. It is very possible that the charge will be changed to larceny today, as it is said the police have witnesses who will testify that they saw Simon and his companions coming out of the Schuster home carrying silver knives and forks and other household articles. Confident that the lads had stolen the goods, these persons, who live adjacent to the Schuster residence, took the articles away from them, replaced them in the house and then notified the police of the affair.

When arrested last night, Simon was as dejected as ever and denied all knowledge of the robbery. "So help me God, I don't know a thing about it," said Simon when Police man O'Grady informed him that he was under arrest, suspected of having robbed the Schuster place. When the little lad, who is not much larger than a good sized loaf of bread, learned that he was to be locked up for the night, he broke down and cried bitter tears. On former occasions, however, Simon did the very same thing and last night he was no exception. He was locked up in the same cell as the other boys and when the big door had changed behind him, Simon turned and braced up in good shape, offering much encouragement to Morris and Slazak, who are so well acquainted with the uncomfortable details of the lag as is Mondragon.

Morris and Slazak both cried when being placed in jail and both strongly denied that they had anything to do with entering the Schuster place. Both had plausible excuses for being associated with Simon.

The boys are alleged to have entered the Schuster home at 6 o'clock gaining entrance through a window. But to the fact that it was dark in the house and the lads could not see what they were doing it is likely they would have made a good haul and escaped without detection. As it was, however, one of them went to the trouble of striking a match and lighting a coal oil lamp. The Schusters have been in Philadelphia for several months and the presence of a light in the house attracted the attention of the neighbors. An investigation was made with the result that the lads were discovered as they were making their exit from the place, carrying away a quantity of junk including silver knives and forks, a silver watch, and other articles, which has been wrapped in table cloths.

Wagner Hardware Co.

Ten carloads of vitrified pipe for the new sanitary sewer system are expected here in a few days; the delayed work on the plant is expected here today or tomorrow, having been last reported at La Junta; hundreds of feet of massive cement pipe are hardening down at Barre and preparations for the beginning of actual work on the sewer system are going on apace. With the arrival of the delayed shipment ordered through the McIntosh Hardware company, the busy hour of industry will soon be humming south of the city.

It looks like business down around the outlet end of the system. The big trenching machine, a block and a half long, is in position on the Barre bridge road between Third and Second streets, and the big section of the cement pipe are laid out in rows covering what appears to be several acres. A lot of piling for the pumping plant has been unloaded, the pile driver is ready to drive, and the big mixer is on the ground. Work will begin at the outlet at the very bottom and there would be a great going at the plant now if the well casing were on hand.

NEW YORK SURGEON DECLARES HE NEVER MET MAN WHO CHARGES HIM WITH GRAFTING

(By Morning Journal Special Lined Wire) New York, Oct. 25.—Letters were produced in court today at the trial of Philip Musca and his father, Antonio, charged with defrauding the government of customs duties by false weights of cheese which the firm imports from Italy, to prove that James F. Vall, deputy surveyor of the court, countenanced the swindle and shared in its profits. Philip Musca testified he was introduced to Vall by one Hyland, a government weigher, "as a client of ours." He received from Vall, he testified, the assurance: "I will see that you are taken care of."

To the witness' fearful objections, when the swindle was first proposed, Hyland replied, according to the testimony: "The surveyor's office must go before you get into trouble, there are many, too many, in it."

Tonight Mr. Vall said: "The statements made today about me are infamous. I never met that man (Hyland). I was one of those who caused the arrest of two weighers and had a third dismissed."

ECHO OF BROYLES FAILURE HEARD IN COURT

COMPLICATED CASE BEFORE JUDGE ABBOTT

R. E. Putney Sues Franz Schmidt and C. H. Storey to Recover $16,500 on Broyles' Notes.

That they were induced to sign a promissory note under misrepresentation and on a misunderstanding of the real facts, and that this releases them from liability, was the defense outlined yesterday by Attorney P. E. Wood, who made the opening argument for the defense in the case of R. E. Putney versus Franz Schmidt and C. H. Storey, which was called for trial before Judge Ira A. Abbott in the district court shortly after noon. The case is very complicated and it is possible that four days will be required to complete it.

The case is one in which Jasper N. Broyles, formerly a prominent banker and business man of San Marcial, although not a party to the suit, is one of the central figures. It is around his actions previous to the time he was forced into bankruptcy by his creditors early in 1908 that the present case revolves. A brilliant array of legal talent has been lined up by both the plaintiff and the defendants and it is expected that the case will be hard fought. Being a case in which equity is largely involved, certain issues as they develop will be presented to the jury, while questions of law and other rulings will be decided by the court. It is alleged on the part of the plaintiff that Schmidt and Storey, together with two other San Marcial men, went to Broyles and signed his names and notes to a mortgage for Broyles, the amount of the notes being $16,500. Part of the money was owing to R. E. Putney, and all the notes were made out in his name. The defendants allege that they signed the notes only a few days before Broyles went into bankruptcy but did so because of the fact that Broyles and others represented to them that he was worth $50,000 over and above all his outstanding indebtedness.

The entire afternoon yesterday was taken up with arguments by counsel and opening statements to the jury. An adjournment was taken at 5 o'clock until 9 this morning, when the trial will be resumed.

Mr. Putney is being represented in the action by Attorney T. E. Carron of Santa Fe, while Marron and Wood of Albuquerque, Holt and Sutherland of Las Cruces, and J. F. Bonham, also of Las Cruces, are attorneys for the defense.

JUDGMENT AGAINST JACOB FEIN IN ROGERS CASE
The jury in the case of Jacob Fein versus the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, returned a verdict yesterday morning in favor of the plaintiff, fixing the amount of damages to be recovered at $2,125. The plaintiff asks for $2,500 alleging that two valuable jackals were killed on account of the negligence of the railroad company. The animals, which were valued by Rogers at $200 each, had their necks broken while being shipped from Omaha, Kan., to San Marcial, N. M. Marron and Wood were attorneys for the plaintiff, the railroad being defended by R. E. Twitcheil.

BOGUS EAGLE BADLY STATE NATIONAL IS WANTED IN ILLINOIS THE SUCCESSFUL BOND BIDDER

HANDS DEAD MAN'S CARD TO ALBUQUERQUE MEMBER

Foul Play Suspected in Death of James Welch, of Monmouth, Illinois, Whose Fraternal Card Turns Up Here.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal) Monmouth, Ill., Oct. 25.—James Welch of this city, who is familiarly known here as "Babe" Welch, was killed under a railroad train at Excelsior Springs, Missouri, on Wednesday last. At the time of his death it was believed that Welch fell under the cars accidentally. Saturday, however, a man representing himself to be Welch and carrying Welch's card in the Fraternal order of Eagles, presented himself at Albuquerque, N. M., to the secretary of the Eagles order there and asked for a loan of $5. The Albuquerque officer telegraphed here for confirmation of the man's membership and an immediate investigation was started into the death of Welch. It is now believed here that there was foul play and the theory is that Welch was murdered in a freight car and dumped out under the wheels, and that the man who did the work then went direct to Albuquerque on the Santa Fe.

Albuquerque officers and the Eagles of that city have been asked to aid in locating the man holding Welch's card.

SECRETARY OF EAGLES

LOOKOUT FOR IMPOSTOR Secretary Cora F. Roberts of the Albuquerque Aeris of the Order of Eagles is keeping a sharp lookout for the man who presented a card to him on Saturday last representing himself to be James Welch of Monmouth, Ill. Mr. Roberts has sent out notices to all Eagles in the southwest requesting them to aid in locating the man, and "Chief" of Police McMahon has also taken a hand in the search.

"Saturday," said Mr. Roberts last night, "a man representing himself to be James Welch of Monmouth, Ill., came to me and presented a card showing dues paid up and the owner of the card in good standing in the Monmouth Aeris of the order. He asked for a loan of $5, representing himself to be a railroad man in hard luck. I showed him the Monmouth Aeris to the advance and received a reply stating:

"Welch was killed; take up receipt; it was stolen."

"The man did not return and seems to have left town, as we have been unable to get any trace of him. We are making every effort to locate him, as the officers in Monmouth now seem to suspect foul play in the death of the genuine Welch, who was killed at Excelsior Springs, Mo., on Wednesday."

"The man who held Welch's receipt here is now or has been an Eagle. He has certain knowledge of the order which will enable him to make use of the receipt if he is not caught. He is a young man, probably not more than 25 years old, has round, smooth shaven face, light hair and blue eyes and will weigh about 150 pounds. When he came to me he had on a black, high-crowned fedora hat, brown corduroy pants, blue tannel shirt and new shoes. He told me he had been a railroad man and has the appearance of a railroad man. After presenting the receipt and when I took up the matter with Monmouth he evidently took fright and left town. We are making every effort to aid the officers in locating him."

LOCAL BANK AWARDED $100,000 BRIDGE ISSUE

Meeting of Commissioners Closes Up Important Matter; To Advertise for Plans for Bridges Without Delay.

The State National bank of Albuquerque was awarded the $100,000 issue of Bernalillo county bridge bonds at a meeting of the county commissioners held in the court house yesterday afternoon, that institution being the most successful bidder. The proposition made by the State National and accepted by the commissioners, was that the issue for the hundred thousand dollars be of the denomination of one thousand dollars each, to be dated not later than January 2, 1910, maturing in thirty years, optional after ten years from date, bearing interest at the rate of four and one-quarter per cent per annum payable semi-annually at a bank either in Chicago or New York, the bank agreeing to pay par and accrued interest to date of delivery in cash and in addition to furnish blank bonds without expense to the county. The commissioners decided that the bonds be dated January 2, 1910 and to be delivered Feb. 1, 1910, the State National bank to pay accrued interest to date of delivery.

There were a large number of bids for the bonds all of which were given careful consideration by the commissioners. Among the bidders were the following banks, trust companies and bond buying houses:

Feld, Longstroth and company, interest five per cent, premium $3,592; Field, Longstroth and company, interest four and half per cent, premium $242; Providence Savings Bank and Trust company, four and half per cent, premium $6,35 per bond; E. H. Rollins and Sons, interest five per cent, premium $4,855; Otis and Hough of Cleveland, five per cent, premium $2,000; the Bank of Commerce of Albuquerque, interest four and half per cent and premium $2,179, and a number of other bids, with interest offerings ranging from 4 to 5 per cent and premiums from $50 to $2,000.

CONSTRUCTION TO COST CLOSE TO $95,000

The sale of the $100,000 bond issue yesterday is one of the final steps toward the construction of steel bridges over the Rio Grande at Barlow, a half mile south of Albuquerque, and at Alameda, nine miles north. It was decided by the commissioners yesterday to advertise immediately for bids and specifications for the construction of the bridges, the bids to be opened November 16. A report made yesterday by county surveyor Ogle placed the approximate cost of the two bridges at $92,310 which will leave a surplus of over $6,000 from the issue of $100,000. The bridges will be constructed entirely of steel, span 100 to 110 feet across the entire channel of the river, with steel approaches, and with foundations of forty-two inch steel cylinders to be imbedded in piling driven forty feet below the low water line. Mr. Ogle will personally supervise the construction of the new bridges and as such superintendent will receive a salary of $2,250 after having successfully completed his work.

Although the commissioners were in session practically all day yesterday, their time was taken up almost entirely by the consideration of bond and bridge matters, other business being sidetracked in order to consider at length those important questions. The board, however, found time to consider a communication from Rev. J. H. Heald and others, who live south of the city, deploring the condition of the public road from the Santa Fe plant, south to the Patterson ranch. An appropriation of $200 from the road fund was made to place the highway in shape.

Present at yesterday's meeting were: Alfred Grunsfeld, chairman, M. R. Springer, Policarpio Armijo, A. E. Walker, clerk, Jesus Romero, sheriff and M. C. Ortiz, interpreter.

Mr. Lukens said last night that Mrs. Ella Phillips of Chicago has been appointed matron of the receiving home of the New Mexico society. She is one of the most experienced women in the work in this country, having been engaged in it since its first inception twenty years ago.

VETERAN MERCHANT TO RETIRE FROM BUSINESS

L. Kempenich by Reason of Ill Health Will Dispose of Large Stock; Unusual Bargain Opportunity.

Mr. L. Kempenich, one of the best known and leading merchants of this city, announced today that he will retire from business in a very short time.

Mr. Kempenich has been in business in this city for many years and has always been regarded as one of the most successful business men in Albuquerque. His retirement from business means a loss to Albuquerque in more ways than one.

In speaking of the matter Mr. Kempenich stated that for the last few months he has been declining in health and for that reason he has decided to unburden himself from the cares of business.

When asked if he was going to dispose of his business to other parties he said that he was not, but that he was now marking all of his stock down to the actual cost price and would in a few days place it upon sale to the general public at the actual wholesale cost price. Not a few of the articles are to be reduced, said he, but every article in the store. There will not be a single thing reserved.

Mr. Kempenich has a very large stock of up-to-date dry goods, notions, shoes, hats, furs, ladies' ready-to-wear garments, men's fine and medium clothing and in fact one of the most complete assortments of merchandise in the city, and everything is to go at just what it cost him. This will be one of the biggest opportunities for the people in this city and surrounding country that has ever been offered to them. Think of new, stylish clothing, ready-to-wear, ladies' suits, new dress goods, furs, home-made hats etc., that are now just beginning to become useful, being sold at the actual cost of them. Then think of the large assortment of dry goods, staples, such as ginghams, lawns, sheetings, hosiery and other things, being placed on sale in a complete assortment at the cost prices. This is not a special sale to clean up a few odds and ends that are shop worn and out of season, but a complete up-to-date stock in endless variety to select from.

Mr. Kempenich says that the closing out sale will not be a long-drawn-out affair, but will start Saturday, October 26, and he expects to close out the entire stock by Saturday, November 20, and to those who attend the sale early comes the good fortune to get the best selections.

In the ladies' ready-to-wear department are some of the very handsomest dresses and suits made, and also in the men's clothing department, and cannot be excelled in this city, as are also the dress goods, hats and furs.

It will pay every person who can attend this sale to get the best of the bargain.

MUCH WATER TURNED INTO STREET

One Hundred and Sixty Thousand Gallons of Agua Pura Breaks Loose When Plug in Railroad Water Tank Bursts.

South First street between Iron and Atlantic avenues was converted into a large lake yesterday afternoon as the result of the bursting of one of the big plugs in the bottom of one of the large steel water tanks in the upper Santa Fe yards. Before the plug could be replaced one hundred and sixty thousand gallons of water had been turned loose. For a time things looked pretty much as if the Rio Grande had gone on a rampage and changed its course a couple of miles. After the leak had been stopped, the pumping station at the Santa Fe shops doubled the capacity of the pumping engines and before night the gauge which registered the number of feet of water in the tank indicated that it contained the normal amount of water.
