Governor Curry Announces Decision to Relinquish Office

RESIGNATION TO TAKE EFFECT EARLY NEXT SPRING

Meanwhile Governor Will Devote Efforts to Carrying Out Important Improvement Projects Already Under Way.

ENJOYS HIGH ESTEEM OF NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

Pressure of Private Affairs and Desire to Embark in Business Reasons for Retirement of Popular Executive.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal] Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 26.—That he will retire from the office of governor of New Mexico some time in the early spring in order to devote his time to private business pursuits is the statement given to the Morning Journal by Governor George Curry this afternoon. The governor's determination to retire from the office is final and all of the representations of his friends have not served to change his plans. It has been well known for some time among the governor's more intimate friends that he urgently desired to leave the office as soon as he could properly do so in order to take advantage of some important business opportunities which have been presented to him during the past few months and to the work he has announced today will not come as a surprise.

Following the recent visit of Secretary Ballinger to Santa Fe and the cordial understanding resulting from that meeting as to all more important matters of administration in the territory, it had been hoped that the governor could be induced to remain in the office. He has, however, taken up the matter of his retirement with President Taft and the secretary of the interior and now expects that it will be made possible for him to leave the office some time in the early spring, probably during March.

The announcement will be received with very sincere regret throughout New Mexico. Governor Curry from the beginning of his administration has been very popular with the people; his administration has received general approval among men of all classes and political faiths, and during his comparatively brief tenure of the office he has inaugurated a number of important reforms and advances in the administration of territorial affairs which will prove of lasting benefit to the territory and the new state.

That the relations of the governor with the administration at Washington have been entirely satisfactory to both was amply shown during the recent visit of President Taft and the subsequent visit of Secretary Ballinger, when the latter's cordial expressions to the governor removed the last possible basis for the rumors put in circulation by political busybodies to the effect that there had been a lack of accord between the governor and the department.

Both President Taft and Secretary Ballinger have publicly expressed confidence in the governor and regret at his desire to retire from the office and their confidence is shown by the fact that during the two years of his administration he has never been called upon to explain any of his official acts or to respond to charges of any kind. But for the insistency of those who have sought to make it unpleasant for him it is not improbable that the governor would have asked to be relieved of the governorship some time ago.

The governor will devote the months between now and the spring in carrying out the work he has begun. He is deeply interested in the policy of territorial road construction which he inaugurated and desires to see that work fully launched before he retires. During his administration a number of important improvements in the capital and other public buildings will have been carried out and there are several other more important reforms and changes which he desires to perfect before leaving the office. When these are done Governor Curry will enter private business, probably making his home at Talara, in Otero county, although he has made no statement positively to this effect.

Who Governor Curry's successor will be is a matter which probably will not be taken up by the authorities at Washington for some time to come, and those most familiar with the situation expect that the governor will be consulted when the matter of his successor is taken up for disposal. "In some ways I shall leave the governor's office with a great deal of regret," said the governor today. "The work of the office is congenial to me, my relations with the members of my administration and with the people of the territory as a whole have been most pleasant, and I have felt that I have been able to accomplish some work for the territory and that I might have been able to accomplish more in the future. But my personal business affairs make it imperative that I give them my entire attention and my determination to leave the office is final. I hope that my friends will make no further effort to change this determination which has been made after careful consideration and which is made imperative by my business affairs."

"I am going to make my home in New Mexico. My business affairs will be so shaped as to keep me here and I will be found working as heartily for the territory as a private citizen as I have while governor. The matter of my retirement will soon be under consideration in Washington. Until it is taken up there I am unable to fix any definite date for leaving the office, but I expect that it will be in the early spring."

"I have seen a number of articles in newspapers in and out of New Mexico referring to my resignation and seeking to leave the impression that it is forced; that my resignation has been asked for; in fact, the usual line of statements likely to be made by sensational newspapers who are anxious to achieve some fancied political advantage by seeking to embarrass public officials. I presume there will be more of these articles and although I regret them I of course have no way to put an end to them. I want to say, however, in this connection, that my relations with the administration at Washington have been most pleasant. I have been treated with the greatest consideration at all times by the administration whose cordial support I have had. During the recent visit of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger here this matter of my retirement from office was taken up and discussed, and the secretary is very fully informed as to my personal affairs and the causes prompting me to retire. Rumors of unpleasantness between the secretary and myself are unqualifiedly false. He has treated me at all times with the greatest consideration and I have a very high regard for him."

"It has been stated in some of the newspaper articles referred to that charges have been filed against me in Washington. I am glad to say that during my administration none of my official acts have been questioned by the government at Washington and no charges of any kind have ever been brought to my attention in an official way. I am informed, however, that charges have been made against me by certain persons in New Mexico. I shall take steps to ascertain the exact nature of those charges, the persons making them and see that an investigation is made even though the charges may not reach me in an official way."

"During the time I shall remain in office it will be my effort to perfect several of the plans which have been undertaken by my administration. I am particularly anxious to see the

GENERAL O. O. HOWARD EXPIRES SUDDENLY

Last of Civil War Commanders, His Achievements in Peace and War Were Exceeded by Few Americans.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Burlington, Vt., Oct. 26.—General Oliver O. Howard, last of the union commanders of the Civil war, died at his home here tonight of heart disease. He was 79 years old.

Last week General Howard was in Ontario delivering his lecture on "Abraham Lincoln." His last public appearance was at London on Sunday night. On Monday he returned to his home here and was apparently in his usual good health. Tonight he was attacked by heart trouble and was dead before a physician could reach the house.

Including General Howard's services in the Indian wars, he probably was in more engagements than any other officer in the United States army. He was born in Leeds, Me., November 1, 1830.

SCORE MISSING TWENTY DEAD IN MARINE HORROR

Blunder of Man at the Wheel Lands Donaldson Liner Broken Wreck on Rocky Coast of Maine.

DISASTER ATTENDS ALL EFFORT TO LAUNCH BOATS

Two of Frail Craft Overturned in Boiling Surf; Third Drifts to Sea Carrying Survivors to Unknown Fate.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Eastport, Maine, Oct. 25.—Twenty lives and probably more were lost today in the destruction of a small off Seal Cove of the Donaldson line steamer Hestia bound from Glasgow for St. John and Baltimore. Four of the victims, young Scotch boys were passengers, and the others were members of the crew. Captain Newman and 20 or more of the crew were last seen in a ship's boat which was being tossed on the stormy sea.

Of the 49 persons who were aboard the steamer when she piled up on the shore early today, only six are positively known to be saved. They were forced to cling to the wreck, shifting their positions as the steamer was tossed by the seas. It was not until 3 p. m. that life savers were able to man their boats and reach the stranded vessel.

Those known to be saved are: Third mate Stewart, second engineer Morgan and seamen Keene, McKenzie, Smith and McViekar.

A heavy northeasterly gale is believed to have been responsible for the Hestia's fate although it is supposed that a mistake of the man at the wheel in believing he had picked up Channel rock light while really discerning the gleams of the lighthouse on Machias Seal island, several miles southwest, carried the ship many miles off her course.

The sailors of the middle watch had been out of their bunks an hour and all others connected with the navigation were stowed in bunks or hammocks when the crash came an hour after midnight.

In the belief that leaving Grand Manan in the port track and following the usual course to St. John, the navigating officer sought the distinguishing marks of that route. But they were not to be seen. Instead the steamer was heading for Seal Cove and Machias Seal island, over seas which barely covered a treacherous bottom of shoals. It was on one of these that the vessel became impaled.

Captain Newman at once ordered his men to prepare to put the lifeboats overboard. Three were swung from the deck but while the tackle of one was being unfastened the craft dropped into the sea and was lost.

The preparations were made to prevent a second similar mishap. Into another boat were placed the four boys and more than a dozen of the crew. They had barely taken their places when the tackle gave away and they were dropped into the turbulent waters. The craft capsized but soon righted and one of the boys was seen clinging to the bottom. Again the boat was capsized and he disappeared.

Meanwhile those aboard the vessel launched the third boat. It was their remaining hope. Captain Newman and all the remaining seamen, except six entered the boat. These six were rescued by the life savers.

Captain Newman and his men succeeded in hauling two of those struggling in the water into the overcrowded craft but they were unable to rescue others whose cries could be heard above the gale. Third Mate Stewart now in charge of the steamer and the remaining members of the crew built a raft and placed it in readiness for launching with a supply of water and food.

Through the hours of darkness and dawn the vessel gradually settled by the stern. At daylight Mate Stewart hoisted the union jack reversed as a signal of distress but it was late in the afternoon before the vessel's plight was discerned.

Many fishing craft went out to aid the steamer. One by one, however, they were forced to turn back. Finally, however, life savers were able to reach the Hestia and make the six rescues. The vessel is a total wreck. Captain Newman and his boat which carried about 20 men was missing last night. The Hestia was a steel screw steamer, built at Sunderland in 1890. She registered 2,434 tons net.

RESULTS OF MEETING OF CZAR AND ITALY'S KING

Paris, Oct. 26.—The precise results of the meeting of Emperor Nicholas and King Victor Emmanuel at Biarritz are revealed, according to the paper Liberte, which announces that while no written convention was made, two specific engagements were made. The first was a mutual assurance of the importance of the eventual economic development of Montenegro. The second was support of the English-French policy regarding Crete, that is Crete for the Cretans, not for the Greeks.

SAYS PAY FOR WATERWAYS FROM CASH ON HAND

Speaker Believes Work Should Go on Only So Fast as Current Funds Are Available for Purpose.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Hickman, Ky., Oct. 26.—Speaker Cannon, it was made known today, is not in complete accord with President Taft's deep waterway plan after all.

In a speech at Cairo Mr. Cannon balked at the president's proposition to issue bonds immediately for the improvement. He declared the work should be carried on only as rapidly as it can be paid for out of current funds in the treasury.

The speaker's address followed one by the president, in which Mr. Taft reiterated his position in favor of deep waterways where it can be demonstrated that the plans for improvement are feasible, are necessary and can be carried to completion without a too great expenditure of money.

After twenty-four hours on the river the Taft party arrived at Hickman this morning. President Taft spoke from a stand erected on the levee.

The president tonight was the guest of the governors who are making the trip down the river on the steamer St. Paul, which immediately follows the Oleander. He had been invited to dinner last night but was so fatigued and worn out from the effort of speaking several times in St. Louis

GHASTLY TALE OF MURDER IN GOLD BLOOD

James McMahon in Confessing Crime Declares He Carefully Planned All Its Details for Three Months.

REMARKABLE STATEMENT BY TRIPLE MURDERER

Hate and Desire for Revenge, He Says, Robbed Him of Reason and Drove Him to Slaughter Sisters.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire]

Kansas City, Oct. 26.—James McMahon confessed today that he murdered his sisters, Miss Rose McMahon and Mrs. Alonzo Van Royen and the latter's husband, Alonzo Van Royen, on a farm near Kansas City, Kan., last Tuesday. A long standing family quarrel caused the tragedy. McMahon killed Van Royen in a wood and later went to the Van Royen home and shot his sisters.

Fearing mob violence the authorities rushed the murderer and his brother, Patrick McMahon, and Patrick Lamb, a farm hand, who are held as witnesses in the case, to the Kansas state penitentiary at Lansing tonight in automobiles.

McMahon took sole responsibility for the crime. He especially excoriated his brother. County Attorney Taggart said tonight a charge might be placed against Patrick McMahon also. McMahon told a friend today where he had hidden the revolver with which he did the killing and several articles he took out of the Van Royen home. The sheriff went to the designated place and found the articles.

Sheriff Becker then decided to arrest James McMahon. As he was preparing to go after the man, McMahon walked into his office and announced he was ready to help work on the case, as he has been doing each day since the tragedy.

Becker immediately arrested him, and without telling of the evidence he had told McMahon to his home, where he also arrested Patrick McMahon and Lamb.

Prosecutor Taggart and Sheriff Becker sweated James McMahon for two hours. Then McMahon collapsed and confessed all.

The Murderer's Confession.

"Yes, I killed my two sisters and brother-in-law and I was crazy when I did it," he shouted, rising out of his chair and pacing the room. "It took me three months to plan and execute the crime. Day by day the picture of their dead bodies lying before me grew and at last two weeks ago I saw it all. My plan was perfect. My hatred would be avenged."

"I bought a revolver in Kansas City. Mr. Going home I carefully waited until I knew my intended victims would be in the right positions for me to kill them and get away. Tuesday Rose went to visit at Van Royen's and Lon went to the woods."

"To make sure he was not at home I went to the house and learned where he was. I found him and shot him in the head. He fell and I fired six shots into his back. I always hated him. I dragged his body across the creek and then prepared to finish the deed."

"For an hour I wandered about planning. Then I walked into the house and found my sisters."

"My first shot probably killed Mrs. Van Royen as she sat on a chair. She screamed and fell. Rose started up to speak to me and I shot her down."

"With the two women virtually dead, I was free to take my time. I fired two more shots into the body of Mrs. Van Royen and five more into Rose's body. I did not hurry away. I was not unduly excited. It was the culmination of my thought for months."

"I searched the house and found some rings and other valuables. I took all of them and my revolver and hid them in a corn shock."

"Later it dawned on me that I had committed a crime. I tried to keep it a secret. But hour by hour something told me that I must tell all. Tonight I will sleep in peace."

McMahon said his brother Patrick and he had not been on good terms for several years and this alone would prove his brother innocent of any complicity.

MIGHTY FLOOD DEVASTATES MEXICAN TOWNS

State of Tabasco Scene of Latest Disaster; Cloudburst Wipes Countryside Out of Existence.

THOUSANDS RENDERED HOMELESS BY DELUGE

Property Loss Estimated at Five Million Pesos; Feared Many Lives Were Lost; State Aid for Stricken People.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire]

Mexico City, Oct. 26.—At least two lives lost and damage of 5,000,000 pesos to crops, grain and fine hardwoods resulted from yesterday's cloudburst in the state of Tabasco, according to information received tonight. Thousands are homeless and it is feared the death toll will be high. Several towns are inundated.

From north to south across the state, from the Mescala and the Grijalva rivers, the entire country is a waste. Only the high mountain villages, and plateau farms escaped the rushing waters.

Five hundred families are homeless in Atasta alone. Other cities and towns inundated are Huinagulla, Tonposque, Jalapa, Tlacotalpan, Tlahua, Santa Rosa and a number of smaller villages along the Mescala.

The towns of Balcan, Carmen, Palizada and Santa Rita, in the valley of the Usumacinta river, are badly damaged. A total of 32½ inches of water has fallen in the state in three weeks.

A large part of the lower section of San Juan Bautista is under water. The barrio of Santa Cruz has been totally destroyed and water is three to four feet deep in many houses. Temporary lodging houses have been fitted up by authorities of San Juan Bautista and more than a thousand people are being fed and lodged at the city's expense. In Santa Rosa streets, parks and gardens are under three feet of water. The people were driven to the roofs.

Jalapa suffered heavy losses; on account of the flood and many Indians' huts have been destroyed. Similar conditions prevail at Tlacotalpan and Tlapa.

The state government is assisting the stricken cities and it is likely that the governor will send out an appeal to the government for aid.

HOT FIGHT ON AT BILLINGS OVER THIS PROPOSITION

Opening Session Well Attended; Governor Norris Welcomes Delegates; James J. Hill Sounds Usual Warning.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Billings, Mont., Oct. 26.—That a big fight is to be made to change the name of the Dry Farming congress became apparent at the very first session of the fourteenth annual meeting which convened here today. Some want it to be "scientific," while others favor the term, "practical."

The opening sessions were largely attended and were of great interest to the delegates. The first session was taken up with the address of welcome, chief of which was that of Governor Norris.

Preston H. Moss, chairman of the Montana board of control, also welcomed the delegates.

James J. Hill, chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern railroad, central figure of the morning session, made a friendly talk calculated to aid the dry farming movement, and incidentally he sounded a few words of warning. He said in part:

"If we increase our population as it has increased, or even at a lower ratio

ALL NATIONS JOIN JAPAN IN GRIEF AT ITO'S DEATH

Universally Acclaimed as the Founder of the New Japan and Greatest Statesman Nation Has Produced.

KOREA'S BOY PRINCE IS DEEPLY SHOCKED BY CRIME

Prince Was His Tutor and Friend and Staunch Advocate of Rights of the Korean People.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire]

Tokio, Oct. 26.—Hirobumi Ito, a prince of Japan, but the greatest commander in the empire, who was assassinated by a Korean today, had stood for two years between Korea and the degradation of immediate annexation, hoping to build up that country anew.

He was shot down as he alighted from a special train at Harbin, Manchuria, to which he went from Tokio in his capacity as president of the privy council, on a mission of peace.

Prior to his departure Prince Ito said to the Associated Press:

"I am going on my own initiative, with the approval of my empire, with the hope of securing a better understanding with China and of assuring the world that Japan's intentions in Manchuria are amicable to China and friendly to the commerce of all nations. When I return I hope to give positive evidence of this."

Undoubtedly Prince Ito intended to inaugurate and enforce a distinct policy in Manchuria, but the exact nature of this was not disclosed. Marquis Kato, premier and minister of finance, said concerning the assassination:

"The death of Prince Ito will not change the policies of Japan. The pacific motives of Prince Ito ever will be maintained and traditions left by him will be followed."

The entire nation is mourning. Flags on the foreign embassies have been placed at half mast, while all public and many private functions have been abandoned. Japanese and foreign newspapers appear with black borders. Only the death of the emperor could arouse similar demonstrations of sympathy. Perhaps Prince Ito's death causes more universal grief because he was idolized by the masses as the great councillor of the elder statesman, creator of the cabinet and friend of the emperor himself.

The boy crown prince of Korea is reported to have been inconsolable when news of the assassination of his aged grand tutor was broken to him.

For the last two years the crown prince has been a resident of Japan and frequent companion of Prince Ito, and formed an affection for him which was warmly reciprocated. The fact that he was assassinated by Koreans was especially shocking to the youth who was well informed as to Prince Ito's plans regarding Korea.

The posthumous honors have not yet been announced, but it is certain that they will be the highest in the gift of the emperor and that the funeral will equal that of a prince of the blood. A warship will bear the body to Yokohama from Dairen, probably arriving a week hence. The grand chamberlain will accompany the body with a naval and military guard of honor. No details of the funeral have yet been arranged.

Newspapers without exception editorially express horror at the act, pointing out that Prince Ito was the Korean's best friend always, even in the face of opposition at home. He looked for the regeneration of Korea and endeavored to alleviate the evils of its conditions.

Intimate friends of the murdered statesman are too stunned to discuss the situation, but they believe the death will have no immediate effect upon the policy toward Korea, but that Prince Ito's wishes and hopes probably will influence the policies of Japan for many years to come.

ITO THE FOUNDER OF MODERN JAPAN

Paris, Oct. 26.—In France Prince Ito was regarded as Japan's most able statesman. M. Pichon, minister of foreign affairs, who knew him at Peking in 1895, describes the prince's remarkable mental capacity and wonderful foresight. He says "Ito was truly the founder of modern Japan."

Newspapers take a similar view, believing that in the brain of this Japanese statesman was conceived the policy of extending Japanese influence in the mainland, which was inaugurated with the Japanese-Chinese war and has been pursued steadily since.

The newspapers, however, are not inclined to think that the removal of Ito will in any way modify the adopted policy of Japan.

WILL NOT AFFECT INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

circles, since it is considered self-evident that the tragedy was the outcome of conditions existing between Japan and Korea. The Russo-Japanese relations are on an excellent footing despite the occasionally revived reports that Japan is preparing for another war with Russia.

The visit of Prince Ito to Russia just before the Russo-Japanese war, when he tried to arrange an agreement between the two countries, is recalled and it is also pointed out that his policy since the signing of the peace treaty of Portsmouth, has always been consistent with the spirit shown during his visit to Russia.

GERMANY GIVES OFFICIAL EXPRESSION OF REGRET

Berlin, Oct. 26.—The government, through the Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, expressed its "deepest regret" at the violent death of Prince Ito and alluding to the prince as the most important contemporary Japanese statesman, added: "His exceptional personality and his political achievements have excited among us much admiration. In Japanese history his place will be as one who has done a great service, as one who guided Japan toward modern institutions and who constructed the road for further progress. We express to the government at Tokyo and to the Japanese people, our cordial sympathy for the loss of this great patriot and statesman."

PRINCE ITO FAST FRIEND OF AMERICAN PRESIDENT

Washington, Oct. 26.—The state department today received a telegram from Mr. Padellaro, American vice consul in charge at Harbin, Manchuria, announcing the assassination of Prince Ito, president of the privy council of Japan.

This is the first authoritative statement at first hand of the death of the prince received by this government. The department will likely send messages on behalf of the president and secretary of state expressing deep regret.

General Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the bureau of insular affairs, of the war department, said of Prince Ito: "I well recall Prince Ito on both recent visits to Japan of President Taft. When the congressional party accompanied President Taft to the Philippines in 1907 we all saw much of Prince Ito. He took the greatest fancy to the president and was with him every day at the continuous functions during the week's stay at Sheba palace."

"On the occasion of Count Teruchi's luncheon to Mr. Taft at the arsenal grounds, Prince Ito, when called upon to make an address of welcome, arose, walked back and forth along the side of the table and sang a song of four or five stanzas, the words of which were from a poem that he himself had composed the day before in honor of President Taft and his visitors."

"This unending of dignity created the greatest surprise among Japanese hosts. When we left the Tokyo station and our party accompanied by three Japanese the large crowd of distinguished Japanese statesmen that came to bid us good-bye, Prince Ito led the returning cheering in three hurrahs and a tiger, in English, Prince Ito and Mr. Taft held many conferences and became fast friends."

"On the last visit of President Taft to Japan, Prince Ito was absent in Korea, but he sent the late Durham Stevens, assassinated in San Francisco by a Korean last year, and his aide de camp on a special visit to President Taft in Tokyo to express his welcome and great regret that he could not be present at that time."

GAYNOR PROMISES TROUBLE FOR HEARST

If Elected Tammany Candidate Pledges Himself to Invoke Libel Laws Against Saffron Newspapers.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) New York, Oct. 26.—William J. Gaynor, democratic nominee for mayor, and Otto T. Bannard, republican candidate, both spoke in Manhattan tonight, but William H. Hearst, who is running independently, made it a night of rest.

Neither candidate brought out anything new. During the afternoon, Bannard addressed the Woman's Republican club at the Waldorf. He declared that if elected he would appoint women to the board of education. Judge Gaynor issued a statement with reference to his suit for libel against the Press Publishing company, publishers of the New York World, which was instituted because the Evening World, although supporting Gaynor, opened its columns to Arthur Brisbane, editorial writer of the Hearst papers, who wrote the article containing the alleged libels.

Gaynor said: "It is time that the libelers be taught a lasting lesson in this great and enlightened city through the criminal law, and I now pledge myself to the people of this city that when elected and Mr. Brisbane comes in as district attorney, I shall teach them a lesson. It is time New York were freed of them. Since the coming to this city of a certain individual, assassination by libel, slander and self-laudation have been turned into a system and a trade here. Honor to the newspapers who honorably oppose me."

Hearst followers were jubilant over the supreme court decision eliminating the names of democratic candidates from the independence league emblem, but Mr. Hearst made no personal comment on the decision.

that he begged to be excused until this evening. The St. Paul was brought up in midstream, alongside the president's boat this evening and lashed there while he and his party were conducted on board.

The same proceeding was gone through today shortly after the fleet left Cairo and the president was presented with a "possum" already cooked and surrounded by delicious sweet potatoes ready to be served at his luncheon table.

Although the impression has gained ground since the Atlanta dinner of last winter that the president was fond of "possum" meat this was only the third time he has eaten it.

Although enjoying the novelty of the dish, Mr. Taft has admitted to his most intimate friends that he does not altogether "hanker" after it as a steady article of diet.

Leaving Cairo today, Postmaster General Hitchcock and Secretary Nagle of the department of commerce and labor, who had made the trip from St. Louis to this point on the steamer Erastus Wells, joined the president on the Olander. They also were guests of the governors at dinner tonight. Secretary of War Dickinson will join the president's party at Memphis tomorrow. The president arose before daylight to keep his appointment at Cape Girardeau.

Great crowds of people on the river banks watched the president's flotilla steam by.

DENIED THAT PRESIDENT FEEL OFF WATER WAGON

St. Louis, Oct. 26.—Officials of the St. Louis club, where President Taft breakfasted yesterday morning as the guest of the Commercial club, were indignant today over a story printed locally and attributed to the authority of the club's head waiter, that President Taft had drunk a big cocktail at the club, thus "falling off the water wagon," that he had added six big cups of black coffee to the cocktail and had partaken of the remainder of the breakfast in accordance with portions. As a matter of fact, the club officials say they knew full well that the president is dieting, that he has recently abstained from drinking any alcoholic beverages merely as a part of the dietary plan and for reasons of health and the service to him was governed accordingly.

NEWS COMES AS SEVERE SHOCK TO PRESIDENT TAFT

Rickman, Ky., Oct. 26.—President Taft, while here today, received through newspaper sources the bare announcement of the assassination of Prince Ito at Harbin. In the absence of any definite information he made no comment other than to express deep sorrow and concern over the loss of a friend. He had known Prince Ito well.

In 1910 we will have over two hundred millions of people.

With us in this country the average consumption per capita is six and a half bushels of wheat, but since the high prices of most we find throughout the bread eating nations the quantity necessary for bread and seed per capita per annum has increased.

In 1912 we had nearly 100,000,000 people and we raised 50,000,000 bushels of wheat and exported over two hundred millions bushels and at a very low price for it. In 1907 we raised 41,000,000 bushels of wheat.

During that twenty-five years our population increased 64 per cent and our wheat yield 25 per cent. Converting lines meet in the angle of convergence and these lines meet periodically.

Each year the country requires 15,000,000 bushels of wheat more than the preceding year. In five years that is seventy-five million bushels. I know I was not talking at random when I said that within ten years we would become a non-exporting country unless we changed our methods.

The sessions of the congress are presided over by Governor Norria, who assumed charge of the deliberations immediately after Frank C. Bowman of Idaho Falls had called it to order.

At the afternoon session the report of the executive committee was offered, but consideration of it was postponed until tomorrow morning, for which time it was made a special order.

J. H. Shepherd, dean and vice director of the Agricultural college of North Dakota, told of the progress of the dry farming movement in his state.

is the original—has been the standard for thirty-five years. There are thousands of so-called "just as good" Emulsions, but they are not—they are simply imitations which are never as good as the original. They are like thin milk—SCOTT'S is thick like a heavy cream.

If you want it thin, do it yourself—with water—but don't buy it thin.

DENIED THAT PRESIDENT FEEL OFF WATER WAGON

St. Louis, Oct. 26.—Officials of the St. Louis club, where President Taft breakfasted yesterday morning as the guest of the Commercial club, were indignant today over a story printed locally and attributed to the authority of the club's head waiter, that President Taft had drunk a big cocktail at the club, thus "falling off the water wagon," that he had added six big cups of black coffee to the cocktail and had partaken of the remainder of the breakfast in accordance with portions. As a matter of fact, the club officials say they knew full well that the president is dieting, that he has recently abstained from drinking any alcoholic beverages merely as a part of the dietary plan and for reasons of health and the service to him was governed accordingly.

"Protection necessarily means a system that will keep foreign goods outside and prevent domestic goods from going outside and it is folly to attempt to increase our exports of manufactured products until we diminish the cost of production by reduction of excessive tariff."

"As to the trade routes to South America, Australia and the Orient, to which you refer, it has been estimated that about 23 steamship lines, costing about a million dollars, each would serve the purpose of opening up trade relations. If anything is to be done in this direction, I would favor the immediate construction of such ships as a part of an auxiliary system of the American navy, letting them out in times of peace to private corporations and establishing on them a naval reserve so that both the ships and men could be made use of in case of war, in preference to any system of subsidizing private ship companies."

We have gone far enough in granting special privileges and in subsidizing special interests, and we should retreat from the position already assumed rather than advance further in this direction."

Mr. Newlands made public tonight his answer to James McNab, president of the San Francisco chamber of commerce, who had written asking the senator's view regarding the passage of a ship subsidy law. Mr. Newlands said that he opposed the subsidy and advocated rather that the United States build an auxiliary fleet to be leased to private persons in time of peace. The senator said that under the protective tariff, the United States could not hope to compete with other nations in the carrying trade.

Senator Newlands refers to portions of Mr. McNab's letters in various government officials in which that gentleman declares it impossible for "American vessels manned with American crews to compete in the international transportation with foreign ships because of the higher cost, both of construction and operation of American ships."

"You are, continues Mr. Newlands, in view of these facts that 90 per cent extra, offered by the navy department to American ships for the transportation of coal over what foreign ships charge, is not sufficient and that this should be increased to 35 per cent."

The same reasoning would require the encouragement of the American merchant marine by subsidy. The latter, however, which would thus be imposed upon taxpayers can hardly be maintained.

"You will pardon me if I say that I do not believe our foreign carrying can be increased so long as the present high protective policy continues. The very conditions which make it difficult for American ships to compete with foreign ships, coming to the high cost of construction makes it difficult for American manufacturers to compete in foreign markets. The purpose of our protective tariff is to raise the average cost of production of protected

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

Importance of Athletics in the University of New Mexico Beginning to be Realized

OUT DOOR SPORT IS BIG FEATURE OF THE SUCCESSFUL INSTITUTIONS

BEST ADVERTISEMENT ANY SCHOOL CAN HAVE

Determined Campaign to Be Started to Place 'Varsity on Footing With Western Colleges in Athletics.

That athletics are indispensable to the success of any educational institution and almost absolutely necessary to the life and existence of American colleges and universities and that it is high time the University of New Mexico should begin an aggressive campaign for the enlargement of its athletic department, was the statement made yesterday by a well-known attorney, a graduate of a prominent eastern university and a man who took a great interest in baseball, football and other outdoor sports during his years of college and university work.

The recent awakening of the University men to the fact that athletics as practiced in New Mexico are to say the least a little backward, has already resulted in much good and the Varsity this year, for perhaps the first time in its history, has a football team that will be able to compete with and which will be recognized by western institutions of much more prominence than the local institution.

It has been recognized by the faculties of colleges and universities that students prefer to a very great extent to attend an institution that encourages, stimulates and fosters athletics, than to attend one which, while permitting outdoor sports, fails to take an active interest in them and assist the students in building an athletic department of any consequence.

It is a well known fact that a young man, when selecting a college or university in which to finish his education, does not look so thoroughly into the educational qualifications of the college as he does into its records on the athletic field. If a college or university has the reputation of maintaining a crackjack football and baseball team, has a first class track team, and where possible, a winning eight, it is a lot to one shot that the young man is going to attend that very institution. There may be numerous institutions nearer home which have better teaching facilities, better scientific equipment and a first class record for imparting useful knowledge, but that school holds no fascination for the youth who is interested in athletics—and a boy who doesn't take an active interest in some kind of outdoor sports had better hide his head away to the tail and under the night as well have been born prior to the time Marc Antony preached the panegyric over the body of Julius Caesar.

Statistics go to show that in institutions where athletics are encouraged, the students take more interest in their studies than do those in other institutions. If a student does not keep up with his studies, the faculty retains the power to prevent him from participating in athletics of any kind. In the case of students who have no intense desire to study, this refusal of permission to take part in outdoor sports can be held as a club over their heads and it is the experience of the majority of teachers that it is indeed a very good club.

The time for increasing the scope of the athletic department of the University of New Mexico has arrived and it is here. Now is the time for the students, the faculty, the citizens of Albuquerque and territory in general to get together and play ball—football, basketball, pushball or anything else and make more of a hit in athletics during 1909-1910 than has been made in the past ten years. Things in athletics have been started right this term. The term is young yet and there is no reason why U. N. M. should not close for the summer next year with the proud record of having started something that will be a lasting benefit to the institution.

'VARSITY LOSES TO EL PASO CADETS 11 TO 0

SOLDIERS PLAY RINGS AROUND U. N. M. TEAM

Lack of Aggressiveness and Concerted Team Work Is Largely Responsible for Defeat of Albuquerque Bunch.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 26.—The University of New Mexico from Albuquerque went down in defeat before the El Paso Military Institute eleven on the Washington park gridiron this afternoon, the cadets winning out by a score of 11 to 0. Although they realized early in the game that they were outclassed the visitors played hard and fought every foot of the way. The Varsity eleven lacked aggressiveness, which was chiefly responsible for their defeat. Individual playing on the part of the U. N. M. was a feature of the game. Cornish made several good punts and played an all round good game. Allen at half played a heady game. Seiva, the center, broke through the lines on every scrimmage. McConell and Arens also worked hard. Van Surdun, who coached the cadets, played with them and was the star player of the game. Whalen, half back for El Paso also played a brilliant game.

At the end of the first half the score stood five to nothing in favor of El Paso. A council of war was held in the Varsity camp during the intermission and it was decided to break down the barrier and even up the score in the next half if such a thing were possible. The military men, however, maintained their end of the game with much energy and succeeding in forcing the Varsity down the field for a touchdown again. The cadets kicked the goal, making the score 11 to 0. El Paso had the forward pass almost to perfection and made three substantial gains on it, failing only twice during the entire game to complete the pass. The U. N. M. team demonstrated that it is a real football eleven, notwithstanding their defeat. The cadets expected pretty much of a walk away and were considerably surprised at the strength the Varsity men displayed during the pinches. The military boys will go to Albuquerque next Saturday to play a return game with the Varsity.

MANAGER LEE SATISFIED WITH RESULT OF GAME

"I am entirely satisfied with the result of the game," said Manager Lawrence Lee, last evening when discussing the contest between the Varsity and the Cadets. "When it is considered that the El Paso team has been playing for several weeks" continued Mr. Lee "and our team has only been practicing together for a very short time and has not had the advantage of even one practice game, I think the U. N. M. boys made a wonderful showing. The Military Institute eleven has the reputation of being one of the strongest in the west. Every man on the team is a football player and some of them are stars in their respective places. We have a week in which to practice before we play the return game with the cadets here Saturday and by that time I expect all our men to be in fine condition. By holding the El Paso on down to a score of eleven yesterday our boys did better than I really expected. I confidently predict that there will be a different story to tell after the game next Saturday."

MONTE ATTELL WINS DECISION

Former Bantam Weight Champion Too Speedy for Clever Jimmy Carroll in Ten Round Thirg at Oakland.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Oakland, Oct. 26.—Monte Attell, former bantamweight champion, was given the decision over Jimmy Carroll in a ten round fight here tonight. Attell beat all the way and in the fifth the bell saved Carroll, who had been knocked down, from a knockout. Percy Cove, easily defeated Al Emmich in a six round preliminary. Carroll's work against Attell gained the cheers of the crowd. He was sent to the mat with a well directed right to the jaw, but came back eagerly in the sixth and managed through clever footwork to evade Attell's rushes, cleverly blocking his leads through the remainder of the bout.

ARMY MEN BECOME EXPERIENCED AVIATORS

Pupils of Wilbur Wright Turned Adrift in Air Reflect Credit on Distinguished Instructor.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

College Park, Md., Oct. 26.—Wilbur Wright's two army officer students in the art of aerial navigation had made such progress during their two weeks instruction that today he threw each one of them "overboard" in the air with the aeroplane. The two beginners flew about the government's aviation field with the skill of experienced pilots of the air.

Lieutenant Humphreys stayed on 24 minutes and Lieutenant Lahn 25 minutes. Lieutenant Lahn on his every flight of the evening circled the field again and again in darkness.

THE TROUBLE IN ENGLAND.

In order to get a fair idea of the cause and intensity of the present political trouble in Great Britain, it is necessary to remember how revolution-
ism in that country is the proposition which the budget of "cannibals"
has put into the hands of the landholders upon its actual value, or the land, and even more revolutionary proposition, to tax unimproved land, at all. For so many years that the mind of the average uneducated man recoils not
at the taxation of land in England has fallen upon the occupier, not
the owner, and has been assessed not on the value of the land, as in this country, but upon its annual value—
that is, upon the amount which it brings the owner in rentals. If the land happens to be unoccupied, it is not assessed and pays nothing, hence
it is no burden to a landowner to hold on to unimproved real estate. These facts, coupled with the further circumstances that few Englishmen own their home or factory sites, but hold
them on long leases, and that land
has become so sacred on a horizon
that it is rarely or never sold outright,
show how wide a departure from tradition in the proposal that land shall be valued and taxed on the basis of its value.

It has no "market value." In any sense that would be understood in other countries, and the attempt to fix
it, and thus to reach the "assured element," is instantly rebuffed as an attack of the "improvement" to impose a new and onerous burden on the "taxes." On the other hand, the argument that the great landowners—the peers and other rich men—have hitherto secured a just share in the burden of taxation is being freely used. Hence the bitterness of the struggle over this vital part of an extremely complicated controversy.

ONE TOUCH OF POLITICS.

New York papers of the last few days leave us no room to doubt the fact that when it comes to the red hot
section of a city campaign, the ponderous and disfigured journals of the effete east can get down to the real thing all the same as the wild and woolly. A good illustration of the soundness of Mr. Taff's idea about the oneness of the American people.
Those of the east are just like those of the west, except that there are a few more of them.

NATURE'S WISDOMS SMILE.

The man who, under these genial
skies, and in this life-giving atmosphere, does not exhale with every breath, and feel in every heart-beat the sentiment of peace on earth and good will to men, has something the matter with his liver, and should see
a doctor—not one of your faith healers, or scientific quacks, but one of the good old ones, who doesn't believe in taking a tack hammer to drive a spike, but charges upon the organic body with the true building "Hitting N. G." and mends
business.

ABOUT ENFORCING THE LAW.

In the Morning Journal, "Public Forum" letter we published another letter from Mr. Morley. But there is nothing in the communication that calls for comment from us except the question of his criticism of the sheriff,
in which, as we have pointed out, is unfair. It is the sheriff's duty to enforce the law when he has personal knowledge that the law is being violated, or when notice of such violation is brought to his attention in a proper manner, but it is no part of his business to arrest a man for violating the law when he is innocent.

REALISM ON THE STAGE.

This is not a proper agent yarn. Coming from Broadway, one looks upon it with suspicion, but despite the car-marks of the publicity promoter, the scheme would prove free, expensive
were it only an effort to advertise the production. The required result could be attained more cheaply. An exchange thus explains it.

THE PRICE OF A DRINK.

There is an innocent-looking little paragraph in the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, which went through without attracting any attention, but which is now causing consternation in certain quarters. The New York Herald tells the story, as follows:

"Broadway and the tributaries
abutting on the peroxide path were thrown into a panic yesterday by the rumor that the retail price of liquid
refreshment would advance all along the line about the first of November
as a result of the new tariff on imported wine goods. None of the hotel or cafe proprietors would give any hint of the new scale of prices, but all intimated that they would be enough to make a man stagger without the assistance of any further attainment."

Residents of the incandescent district refused to become interested in the tariff discussion which agitated
the country for three or four months,
but now that one of its provisions
threatens to make them involuntary passengers on the water wagon they are preparing to include Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, the author of one of the season's best sellers in their Thanksgiving proclamations. In every place where tipplers gathered the proposed increase was discussed with bated breaths—baited with various brands of lubricating oil.

ALCOHOL FROM SAWDUST.

The current number of the Technical World Magazine tells of a practical process which has recently been discovered for extracting alcohol from sawdust.

The new process is the invention of two Chicago men, and some of its details are still their secret, but the statement that by it the highest grade
of wine spirits can be made for six cents a gallon lifts the discovery to a level of commanding interest.

"It sounds like a fairy tale," says
this writer, and that is certainly true
when considered in all its economic relations. The annual waste in the lumber industry, including sawdust,
edges and trimmings, is put at about eight million tons after all that the market will take for various purposes
has been disposed of. By the new process twenty-two and a half gallons
of high-proof alcohol can be produced from a ton of dry sawdust.

This new alcohol may be worth fifty cents. A ton of corn will produce ninety gallons of alcohol, but the raw material at present prices would cost over twenty dollars. Molasses is a trifle cheaper, but the comparative
cost of producing a gallon of alcohol
from these three sources is: Corn,
twenty-eight cents; molasses, twenty-six cents; and sawdust, six cents. The latter figure would give a handsome profit if retained at fifteen cents a gallon. It can, says the writer, "outshine kerosene, outlast anthracite,
and sell below both."

NEW MEXICO COIN.

We were shown, a few days ago,
two ears of corn, taken from an average field, about four miles from Albuquerque, one of which measured twenty inches in length, and the other
thirteen inches, and each nine inches
in circumference at the butt, entirely filled with perfect rows of grain,
large, plump and thoroughly ripe.

New Mexico does not profess to be a corn-country, because land which has to be farmed by irrigation can be made to return so much more money
from other crops, but these samples prove conclusively that if the New Mexico farmer ever desires to give his attention to corn he will be able to compete with the farmers of the best corn states of the Union.

The Public Forum

Editor of Morning Journal:

Thank you for publishing my communication on the Temperance question and also your criticisms.

You do a great service to Mr. Morley and some of the public when you correct his errors. Allow him now to state the authority for his errors.

1. He never made any pretense of being an official censor, but being part of the public he certainly has a right
to express an opinion on the press
which he reads and pays for.

2. When he stated that the Pueblo Indians are citizens he derived his information from Indian agents who had made an extensive official inquiry into the matter, from the District Attorney a few years ago when Mr. Morley and others tried to have saloon-
keepers prosecuted for selling liquor
to them.

3. Mr. Morley's authority for thinking that the sheriff should prosecute
open violators of the law is the opinion of several prominent lawyers of Albuquerque, which opinion was founded on Section 734 of the Compiled laws of New Mexico, which reads:

"The sheriff shall be Conservator of peace within his county; shall suppress assaults and batteries and apprehend and commit to jail all felons
and traitors, and cause all offenders to keep the peace and appear at the next term of court and answer such charges
as may be preferred against them."

4. Mr. Morley did not assume that all persons should be branded as snakes and toads except himself.
Please correct Morley correctly when you are correcting him.

Mr. Morley did not assume that temperance can be forwarded by interperate methods.

He thinks that it is quite temperate to appeal to the law and expect men to do their sworn duty. He does not believe that there is anything im-temperate in a political party which has nominated a candidate and secured
his election requiring him to do the work for which he is paid and which he has bound himself by public promises
and an oath of office to perform.

JOHN MORLEY.

Nature As She Is Faked

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 24.—While gathering pecan nuts along the Medina river, Albert Trautwiler of this city captured a seven foot snake that seems to have been totally unknown
in Texas heretofore. The body of the snake is rather slender, measuring
only a little over six inches in circumference at the center of its length. The circumference that has so far not permitted the identification of the snake
is that its skin is a velvety black and its head a light gray and of a rather flat shape. Mr. Trautwiler had written that it was unknown. Those who have seen it agree with him that it is a new snake, an extremely rare one and has for this reason not been classified as yet. So far it has not been established whether or not the snake is venomous.

It is said that it may be a fact that the fauna of Texas, and especially of the southwestern part of the state, has yet not been fully explored. There are a great many kinds of birds that are claimed to be unidentified so far,
and the same is true of a large number of insects. Even uncatalogued mammals are found now and then.
Only a few weeks ago a small rodent
was caught in a rat trap at the Southwestern Institute which has so far resisted identification although scrutinized by thousands at the San Pedro park where it has been installed.

THE WORLD MOVES.

The charges of heresy against the presidency of New York city, in connection with the ordinance of Rev.
Archibald Black, and which were carried up to the state senate, have been dropped on the ground that no action is necessary. Thus the presidency is sustained, and Mr. Black is permitted to preach, notwithstanding the fact that he still refuses to say that he believes in the immaculate conception
or the resurrection, but simply "doesn't know." In the words of the Rev. John Jasper, "It do move!"

A WONDERFUL WAR SHIP.

It is said that Britain's new thirty-
three ton battleship will render obsolete
such vessels as the Good Hope and Devonshire, which could be overtaken
and blown to pieces before they could get in range themselves. And thereupon the New York Post suggests that

PRESIDENT TAFT THE FRIEND OF NEW MEXICO

(Belen Tribune.)

The president has come to New Mexico and gone. His reception by the people of the territory was spontaneous and enthusiastic, and must have left a deep impression on the people to assume and maintain the responsibilities of statehood. He is now much better informed of the character of the people and the vast resources of the territory than he ever was before. He has met us face to face, "seen the best of us," and has a close observer of men and things, he has no doubt noticed the "worst of us." We do not profess to be any better, nor are we any worse than some of the people of many (in fact any of the states of the union. What we want and ought to have at the hands
of the congress is an opportunity to prove the "best of us" in the management of our internal affairs.

The president's address at Alberque-que was a plain, simple talk. It contained much of good advice upon the question of statehood and of its responsibilities as well as privileges. We believe he was sincere in what he said.
If his words mean anything, he is our friend for statehood. Let us trust our cause with him! We believe it will be better to let President Taft be our champion, and outside of sending a respectful petition to congress in the shape of the introduction of an enabling act, which will be introduced by our delegate to congress, let us keep away from Washington and trust to the president to carry out his promise to help us to statehood.

An Unlucky Man.

Thomas Patton of Lacey, Russell
county, Kan., is the owner of the real prize hard-luck story of Kansas. Here are some of the things that have happened to him in the last five or six months.

His wife died; house burned to ground,
including furniture; three ribs and
nose broken in fight with neighbor;
thrown into jail for fighting; compelled to pay his own and other fellow's
fines; thrown into jail for letting dogs
run at large after paying neighbor for taking up and leaving neighbor's house into jail for not sending children three and one-half miles to school when his own district school had been discontinued. While in jail the Probate court took five of his children away
and scattered them over the state—

He Talked Well, Anyhow!

Any effort to make it appear that President Taft is only qualified in favor of statehood for New Mexico is the sheerest tambo. The presi-

and strong a declaration as could be made that he would secure statehood
for the territory if in his power to do so.—Socorro Chieftain.

Colonel Frost.

Of all the many tributes paid to the memory of Col. Max Frost in the last few days, none is more notable than that of Burke of the Albuquerque Journal. At the time of the death of Colonel Frost, he had Mr. Burke had long been rivals in the fields of journalism and politics and on many an occasion of great pitch and moment their opposing words had flashed fire. Some of their encounters had been remarkable for their ferocity, and it was only
of a rival whom he had learned profoundly to respect, therefore, that Mr.
Burke could have penned the words—

WAR ON DANCE HALLS STIRRING BISBEE

Bisbee, Oct. 24.—By the action of the city council a dett has been handed to District Attorney J. S. Williams.
Williams today declared he would commence early war upon the lawless
houses and dance halls of the city, as he believed they were illegal under the United States statutes. At a special session of the council ordinances
becoming women and segregating
houses were revoked, leaving the matter up to Williams. The council must run them at their own risk.

The district attorney was called by telephone and stated the matter did not concern him until the laws of the territory were broken. He declared it is a detestable regulation upon his office. "If the people of Bisbee are willing to stand for the action of the officers they elected it is none of my affair," said he. When the laws of the territory are broken I shall act,
not before."

Eighty Millions of French Subjects.

Throughout the world, we learn from a French contemporary, there are 80,000,000 of French subjects, embracing ninety-seven different peoples.
This is exclusive of the population of France. In France there are 1,800,000
French subjects, including Jews, Europeans and Mussulmans. In north and west Africa there is a chaotic population, the races including the Ma-
nars, the Mandingues, the Oulouks,
the Bambaras, the Toucouleurs, and
the south. In Guinea are Soussous, the Ivory coast 50,000 Panthas. At Gabon
the races are Gabonais and Pa-houls, the last being cannibals. In the Congo are the Louloues, who,
among other strange customs, expose
their marriageable daughters in little bowers, their skins stained with powder, outside their parents' dwellings.

There are also in this region Lingouals, Souabouars and Bakouas. Of a total of 15,000,000 those who eat one another are few. In Madagascar are Hovas and Sakalaves to the number of 2,500,000. There are some Indians in India, Creoles in the Antilles and Gabians in Guinea. The Papuans, we are told, are strongly called Cannibals in the New Hebrides.

News and Gossip For Southwestern Stockmen

LIVELY FIGHT FOR QUIET TIME COMES THE RANGE ON IN THE EASTERN ARIZONA WOOL MARKET

SHEEPMEN WANT THE AGUA FRIA WATERSHED BUYING OF DOMESTIC CLIP CLOSED EARLY

Farmers in Buckeye District Start Scrap for the Water; Winslow Becomes Market for Highgraders.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal] Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 24.—That the big sheep owners of northern Arizona have been working quietly but earnestly for several months to have the Agua Fria watershed thrown open for unlimited grazing, is a startling bit of information that has attracted the attention of the Buckeye section. Phenicians who last summer fled on land beyond the Agua Fria and the cattlemen whose ranges are on the watershed. The farmers of the Salt River valley are also indirectly interested.

Prominent sheepmen have gone to Governor Sloan to enlist his aid in their cause, but it is understood that the governor has declined to commit himself, stating that he would not be in favor of opening the watershed unless that would benefit more people than it would injure. The sheep interests have also been at work with the officials of the forestry service and have obtained a promise that they will be given an opportunity to present their side of the question.

If the sheep men carry their point the lower part of the Prescott National forest will be thrown back into the public domain. A number of fine cattle ranges will be ruined. The range of Y. W. Cook and Jim Gibson on New river and many others will be affected. The cattlemen say that if the sheepmen are permitted to graze their flocks on the cattle ranges it means the death of the cattle raising industry in that section.

At present a few small bands of sheep are permitted on the watershed. The owners of these small bands are with the cattlemen in their fight against the large sheep owners. The reclamation service has been appealed to by a number of farmers to do something to assist in the fight against the sheep interests, but as the government has no irrigation projects under way or contemplated in that district, the reclamationists can take no action. The farmers, cattlemen and small sheep owners, however, are understood to have the moral support of the reclamation service.

The Buckeye farmers are most directly affected of any land owners. The head of their canal is right at the mouth of the Agua Fria, in a precarious location at best. They fear that if the watershed of the Agua Fria is grazed off the floods in that river will be much greater than they are at present.

Do You Realize?

That despondency in women is a mental condition often traceable to some distinctly female ill!

Women who are well do not have the blues, neither are they irritable and restless. Derangement of the female organism breeds all kinds of miserable feelings such as backache, headache, and bearing-down feelings. Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. There is no doubt that it has made many remarkable cures of female ills after all other means had failed. There is hardly a day that some woman does not write us that this simple old medicine, made only of roots and herbs, has cured her of a severe illness after several doctors had done their best and failed.

Here are two such letters—read them—they are genuine and reliable.

Baltimore, Md.—“For four years my life was a misery to me. I had suffered with female troubles so long that I was discouraged. I had given up all hope of ever being well when I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It restored my health and I felt as though new life had been given me, and I am recommending it to all my friends.”—Mrs. W. S. Ford, 1038 Lansdowne St., Baltimore, Md.

Rockland, Me.—“I was troubled for a long time with pains in my back and side and was miserable in every way. I had doctored until I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. I read a testimonial about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and thought I would try it.

“After taking three bottles I never was so well in my life. I am recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all my friends.”—Mrs. Will Young, 6 Columbia Avenue, Rockland, Me.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

there is no doubt that there is a growing demand for high grade wools.

Foreign Market Unsatisfied.
The foreign market situation is not fully adjusted. Sales in Australia of early wools do not show the same strength as in London at the recent auctions, but the Sydney sales, for instance, were not a fair basis for figuring on, and if consumers are holding back for lower prices on the strength of the Sydney sales, they are quite likely to be disappointed, as the wools sold there were not even an average of the stocks that will be offered later, and, in comparison, the better wools coming in for future sales have a 10 to 15 per cent more value in them and will probably sell considerably higher than those disposed of at the initial sales.

The Melbourne sales on the 27th, or thereabouts, will show some fine wools, and there is likely to be competitive buying, as English and German buyers are expected to take a pronounced part in these sales as well as American buyers. The crossbred wools are remarkably firm whenever offered, and with rare good fortune, some of our American buyers, who weeks ago adopted western tactics of contracting for the wool on the sheep's back, have fine selections and handsome profits.

South American Clip Off.
The South American clip promises to be less than a year ago, and as a result prices are likely to be firm to higher for the most desirable grades. The local market is well cleaned up, but some lots are offered, and in view of conditions in South America, the asking price here looks attractive. There is renewed interest in the few remaining lots, and it will be surprising if they are not transferred to mills before the month closes.

Last year, when half or more of the domestic clip was contracted for on the sheep, in February and March, it was a gambling proposition and the dealers won. It was an unusual proceeding, and a conservative wool man had no part in such methods of doing business. But last year's contracting had been handsomely outdone this year, as already several million pounds of wool had been contracted for, and in one instance, in Utah, 22 1/2 cts. has been paid, against 18 1/2 cts. for the same clip a few years ago. The wool men are not so much in a hurry to sell, but the growers will hold back for higher prices and there will be a slump such as has always followed the reckless buying in the west. The price of wool is 20 per cent over last year, spins trouble sure enough.

Pulled Wools.
The manufacturers requiring pulled wools are exactly in the position we expected they would be in. The market is practically bare. The forthcoming supplies are already in demand, and would the dealer sell ahead, the wool would be sold at a profit. With the woolen mills doing a larger business each week, the demand for all low grades of pulled wools is increasing, and there is little if anything that is not available at 20 per cent over last year, spins trouble sure enough.

Prices on Firm Basis.
The price situation is somewhat complex. Not a few transactions at value rather than at quotations, and as often as otherwise, the actual prices paid are slightly in advance of quotations. This applies to wools of exceptional grade, of course, while some trades at less than quoted prices are on wools of only fair or inferior grades in the different standards. This sort of trading is good merchandising and the firms selling wools according to value are strengthening their position among consumers much more than those who hold for a uniform grade, price regardless of the merits of the different lots of wool in the same grade.

While there has been no time during the present year when there was the slightest question as to the excessive demand for worsted wools and worsted fabrics, there have been times when the woolen manufacturers rather lost courage and during these brief periods woolen wools were not active. But during the past few weeks the California have been well cleaned up and so have the Texas wools, and as the goods season progresses and the clothing salesman make reports to their home offices.

Scoured Wools.
There has not been an active trade in scoured wools during the week, as the usual grades of medium grades stocked up well during the week, and are now out of the market for a brief time. Demand has run largely to fine scoured wools and 12 1/2 cts. asked, and the supply is not set up to the demand.

Fleeces.
The price question is disturbing consumers of fleece wools much more than dealers. In Ohio fleeces the asking price for quarter bloods is 25c, and bids of 24 1/2 cts. have been turned down. The supply is confined to a few hands, and this applies to wools in the west as well as in the eastern markets. In Ohio there is not over a million pounds of fleece wools on hand, according to good authority, and these are largely in traders' hands held for prohibitive prices. The outlook for the present time is not encouraging for any higher prices than are now quoted, although the asking prices are fully justified when all circumstances are considered.

The St. Louis market is well cleaned up and the offerings of Michigan and Ohio wools, with some Wisconsin and New York state, are limited as Boston is credited with less than six million pounds of all kinds of fleeces, and probably an eighth of this weight is in fine fleeces. Half and three-eighths bloods are scarce, indeed. Among sales we note 50,000 pounds low Ohio quarter at 21c, 75,000 Ohio quarter at 22c, 250,000 Michigan at 23 1/2 cts. and 150,000 Indiana at 24c. A lot of semi-bright quarter and three-eighths bloods, 100,000 pounds, brought 31c and 29 1/2 cts. for the same quality. A lot of fine unmerchantable sold at 21c. Fine unwashed Ohio is 22c and a lot of 40,000 pounds sold at that figure. Washed Delaware has sold in small lots up to 41c and unwashed has sold at 35c.

Territory Wools.
The business transacted in territory wools has been rather light. Montana in original bales have sold in a small way up to 28c, with 27 1/2 cts. the lowest price offered. Later Montana has sold at 22c for original bales with a sale of 100,000 pounds, and one of 40,000 pounds at this price; 50,000 soda springs half blood sold at 22 1/2 cts. and 75,000 fine medium Wyoming brought 23 1/2 cts. A lot of 200,000 Oregon staple brought 25c and there were small sales of about everything in stock, at full prices. There may be 25,000,000 pounds of strictly territory wool in Boston, which is about one-half the usual carry-over supply on January 1, and there are ten weeks yet before the close of the year.

LIVELY FIGHT FOR THE RANGE IN ARIZONA

are at present and the head of their canal will be washed away. The Salt River valley farmers are so much against the move of the sheepmen. Though they are not directly affected they fear that if the sheepmen carry their point this time they will next ask for the Cave Creek watershed. If they should get that watershed it would cost the farmers a great deal to repair breaks in the Arizona canal caused by floods in Cave Creek and the farms about Glendale would be in constant danger. Later the sheep growers might encroach further and secure the Tonto watershed.

Grazing of sheep on the Agua Fria watershed would materially affect the supply of water for the lands beyond that stream, first on the Salt River and then on the Colorado. It is also feared that it would mean the abandonment of the project of the Marinette Land and Irrigation company, which is taking a canal out of the Agua Fria with the intention of irrigating several thousand acres of land between the mouth of the Salt River and the Southwest. Sugar and Land company is behind the project. W. H. Beardsley of Hamilton, Ohio, the man who has for years been endeavoring to have a dam for irrigation purposes constructed at Frog Tanks, is now in the city. It is understood that Mr. Beardsley fears the sheepmen may secure the watershed, which would put an effective check to his plans.

The farmers and cattlemen have as yet formulated no plan for combatting the sheep interests, but it is probable that the Arizona Cattle Growers' association will take the matter up. Dwight B. Hearl, who is prominent in the councils of that organization, stated today that the recent activities of the sheepmen had been brought to his attention. While he is not familiar with the exact boundaries of the country asked for, he intended to make an investigation and see what could be done. He is also compiling a list of the sheepmen and is getting together and compiling reasons why the watershed should not be thrown back into the public domain. Some action is probably to be taken by the Buckeye farmers at an early date.

NORTHERN ARIZONA MARKET FOR HIGH GRADES.
Winslow, Ariz., Oct. 24.—Northern Arizona is coming to be known as one of the greatest sheep-raising countries in America. Cattle are being shipped every day and the sheepmen are finding out that their choice sheep are in such demand that it is impossible to supply the market.

Meers, Spillmire & Lyons, two progressive shippers of this country, who make a specialty of the famous Rambouillet Veroima, have been scheduled to exhibit some of the choicest of the lot at the New Mexico fair, recently held at Albuquerque, but in order to supply the increasing demand for their sheep were unable to put them on exhibition. They will send a choice bunch to Phoenix, however, to be exhibited at the Arizona Territorial fair, which will be held off in November.

N. S. Bly has just sold about 10,000 sheep to J. L. Munds of Prescott, who will transport them to that city in a few days.

BIG SHEEP DEAL CLOSED AT CARRIZOZO.
Carrizozo, Oct. 24.—A big deal was consummated here last week through Spence & Co., a local firm, whereby O. K. Ingram and Robert L. Owen, owners of the Joe Spence ranch, located on the Mesa del Gallo below Corona, and about 10,000 head of sheep. The transaction involved $22,000. Joseph Spence, the grantor, lives in El Paso, and has been in the sheep business in this country for many years. The purchasers are well known and prosperous sheepmen of Northern Lincoln, and have one of the best sheep ranges outdoors.

CHILDREN PERISH IN FLAMING ORPHANAGE

Helpless Inmates of Nursery Burned to Death While Brave Women Struggle Helplessly to Save Them.

(By Morning Journal Special Lined Wire) Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 24.—Five children lost their lives early today in a fire which destroyed the girls' dormitory of the Presbyterian orphanage here.

The victims were all inmates of the nursery. It was impossible to rescue the children who perished. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Priest, the cook, when the entire basement and first floor were enveloped. Mrs. Priest rushed to the third story and brought fifteen children down to the second floor, leading them to the veranda top, where they were taken down a ladder or dropped into the arms of boys of students of the institution.

When these children were all safe Mrs. Priest had to jump for her life and in doing so, sustained a dislocated shoulder, a scalp wound and an injury to her back. She will recover. Only one of the rescued girls suffered a sprained ankle in jumping.

BODIES OF LITTLE VICTIMS RECOVERED.
Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 26.—Bodies of the five children burned in the fire which destroyed the Shelton cottage at the Presbyterian orphanage here, were recovered today. They were buried this afternoon. The coroner's verdict fully exonerated the home authorities from blame.

Fountain of Youth.

"I feel like a boy again!" exclaimed Uncle Charlie Perry, of Lockport, N. Y., who is 92 years old, after a three weeks' course of DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKY. And he looked it, too. The ruddy flush of health was in his cheeks, the youthful fire and brightness had returned to his eyes, and in his walk there was all the light-hearted buoyancy and vigor of his early manhood. A miracle, no; but it is just what DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKY is doing every day for the feeble and ailing who use it as a tonic and stimulant. It cures like magic.

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky, regularly, according to direction. TRUST BUSTING SUITS RENEWED IN TEXAS.
Oil Companies Heavily Fined for Violation of State Corporation Laws.
Austin, Tex., Oct. 26.—The standard Oil company of Indiana was today fined $40,000 in the district court here for violation of the Texas anti-trust law.

The Security oil company and the Navarro Territory company (both subsidiaries of the first named) are also being sued in violation of the Texas anti-trust laws and judgments amounting to about $175,000 were entered against the companies by Judge Callahan. Forfeitures of charter permits and orders from the state will be at once prepared by the court.

The suits against the standard oil company of New Jersey and the Navarro Territory company were dismissed without prejudice.

MONDRAGON MAY BE SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL

YOUNG MORRIS MAY ALSO ACCOMPANY HIM

District Attorney Klock Takes Up Matter of Juvenile Criminals and May Solve Perplexing Problem.

Simon Mondragon and Freddie Morris, who were arrested Monday night charged with attempting to rob the Max Schuster residence, corner 5th street and Center avenue, may be sent to the reformatory for the correction of juveniles if the district attorney, G. S. Klock, who yesterday took up the matter of solving the perplexing question as to the disposition of the last which has been bothering the police department for nearly two years past.

A conference was held yesterday afternoon between Mr. Klock, Roy Mondragon, father of Simon, and Mrs. Morris, mother of Freddie Morris. The parents of both boys declared that they were absolutely incorrigible. The Mondragons and Morris family are not financially able to send their children to a reform institution. It is possible, however, that some arrangements may be made whereby the parents will contribute a part of the expense and that they will be sent to some institution in the hope that they will be taught to lead better lives.

When tied up before chief of police McMillin in police court yesterday morning charged with entering the Schuster place, Mondragon, Morris and Ambrose Salazar all blamed the job on each other. Simon was sure that Morris and Salazar were the ones who opened the window and got into the house. However, Simon always blames it on "the other fellow," when confronted with a charge of wrongdoing and his action in denying any connection with the Schuster affair was not surprising to the police.

It developed yesterday that Mondragon and Morris were caught in the Schuster house, re-handled, in the act of opening trunks and closets and going through every thing that could be gotten into. Several persons saw the light in the Schuster house and investigated with the result that the boys were surrounded and captured while robbing the place.

It is possible that the Salazar boy may be given another opportunity to display his good behavior. With the exception of stealing a few brown socks and beer bottles on various occasions, Salazar is said to have behaved himself pretty well. It is realized, however, that the other two lads are incorrigible and that the longer they are permitted to roam around town without restraint, they will continue their petty depredations and will also teach other boys of their own age evil ways.

BIG BUSINESS ON THE WEST END REPORTED

Freight Traffic Breaking Few Records on Los Angeles Division of the Coast Lines.

The Santa Fe coast lines are doing a record-breaking freight business on the west end for this time of the year, according to reports from California points.

The general commercial business has increased many times during the past six months, and although the fruit shipments no longer constitute the greater portion of the traffic, the facilities are now taxed as though it was the height of the orange season. With the dropping off of the fruit business other traffic increased correspondingly and there has been no abatement this year. Instead of taking off a dozen or more cars and putting the extra loaded, there has been but little change, even in face of the taking off of the bulk fruit crops, which immediately went into freight service.

In former years extra trackmen were dropped by the dozen at the end of the fruit season, but there has been no such cut this year, there having been not a man dropped on account of light business.

The officials, although working as never before at this time of the year, their duties keeping pace with the amount of traffic, are jubilant and their promises to be a new record set in the amount of business handled over the Los Angeles division. In speaking about the enormous amount of traffic Superintendent Hittcock, in a recent interview, expressed his gratification and made the assertion that although the new fruit season is now close at hand with the average rush of oranges, the division will be able to handle the combined business with little congestion. A large part of the fruit is now moving east, it will be possible to handle the business in fine shape, the power and equipment taking the oranges, returning with the westbound loads.

It is stated that a total of 1,000 loaded cars are now being handled on the division daily with between 200 and 400 empties. With the movement of between 100 and 150 cars of fruit daily many of which are necessarily handled three and four times by various trains, the total will be enormous and tax the facilities to the limit.

Local Railroad Notes.
J. A. Peterson, chief clerk at the local storehouse, is laid off for a few days on account of illness.

C. H. Hutchinson of Winslow, Kan., is en route, arrived in the city yesterday morning on official business.

Local Storekeeper Tom Scully for the coast lines is expecting the arrival in a few days of N. M. Rice, general storekeeper for the Santa Fe system.

J. E. George, father of W. A. George, superintendent of shops, who has been in the hospital for some time past, is improving rapidly and will soon be out again.

D. A. Shope, who was for a number of years general foreman of the bridge and building department at Winslow, and for the past three years in a similar capacity for the valley division at Fresno, Cal., has resigned. It is understood Mr. Shope will return to make his home in Winslow and that he will be succeeded at Fresno by V. C. Proctor.

At the regular meeting of the Albuquerque branch of the American Railroad Employees and Investors' association, held in the Santa Fe reading room, the members were entertained by the Wright mandolin and guitar club, composed of the following members: Charles Wright, guitar; Grover Devine and Byron Elch, first mandolins; Wm. McCallan, second mandolin; and C. A. Buchi, flute; and by the Santa Fe quartet: J. G. Gould, first tenor; D. B. McDonald, second tenor; Paul Scott, first bass; J. B. McCoy, second bass, and Mrs. D. D. McDonald, accompanist. The program included instrumental selections by the guitar and mandolin club, vocal solo by J. G. Gould, vocal selection by Santa Fe quartet, instrumental selections by guitar and mandolin club, solo by McDonald and Scott and duet by McDonald. Each selection was heartily applauded, bringing the usual reward, and the entertainment was unanimously voted a success. Business of the association concluded the evening and adjournment was taken to the second Monday in November.

FINE PICTURE OF THE SOUTHWEST INDIAN

Taos Pueblo Subject of Interesting Contribution by Karl E. Moon to Burr McIntosh Monthly.

The November number of the Burr McIntosh monthly contains the finest collection of pictures of the southwestern Indian ever published. The pictures being by Karl E. Moon, formerly of this city and now at the Grand Canyon. Mr. Moon has contributed a number of his artistic Indian studies to magazines but these are by far his best. "Taos Pueblo" is the subject of the article accompanying the beautiful pictures, views of ancient Taos and its picturesque people predominating. Among the pictures is Mr. Moon's "Home From the Hunt," one of the finest things he has done and a picture which has been greatly admired in this city. The frontispiece of the magazine is "Tomahawk," a beautiful thing in color, a picture of a typical Pueblo maiden which is rather unique. There is a moonlight picture of an Indian, a shadowy glimpse of two of old Taos and a great many others all done with a rare ability to tone and atmosphere and surrounding landscape.

MUSICA GUILTY OF SWINDLING THE GOVERNMENT

Charged With Making False Entry to Avoid Paying Import Duty, New Yorker Owns to Crime.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
New York, Oct. 26.—Philip Musica, on trial with his aged father, Antonio, on charges of defrauding the government in the importation of cheese, withdrew his plea of not guilty today and substituted a plea of guilty on the fifth count. This count, which concerns the making of a false entry on one shipment of cheese, is one of six embodied in the indictment and the penalty under each is two years in prison or a $2,000 fine, or both.

The government attorneys accepted the plea and the young man was allowed to remain at large on his original bail of $3,000, with leave to withdraw the plea on the advice of counsel.

Antonio Musica, the father, testified as to his general good character. His attorney moved to have the aged man liberated on the ground that there is no evidence to connect him with the frauds. Decision was reserved.

DISSENSION RIPE IN ASTOR FAMILY

Report That Mrs. John Jacob Is Seeking Legal Separation from Husband Comes as Shock to New York Society.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
New York, Oct. 26.—Reports that Mrs. John Jacob Astor has brought suit for a legal separation from her husband, Colonel John Jacob Astor, were neither denied nor affirmed today by C. H. Young, who is said to have been appointed a referee in the case.

Colonel Astor is at present on board his yacht Nourmahal, cruising in Cuban waters. He left New York three days before Mrs. Astor returned from Europe, October 15 last.

The reported suit came as a great surprise to society. Mrs. Astor was Miss Eva Willing, daughter of Edward S. Willing of Philadelphia. She was married to Colonel Astor in 1881. The couple have two children, William Vincent Astor, 17 years old, and Ava Alice Mariel Astor, aged 7 years.

DECISION MAY SAVE SUGAR TRUST

Federal Judge Holds Statute of Limitations Bars Prosecution Under Indictments for Trade Conspiracy.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
New York, Oct. 26.—A judicial opinion which appears likely to overthrow the government's entire criminal case under the anti-trust law against the American Sugar Refining company, and its directors was handed down by Justice Holt of the United States circuit court here today.

Justice Holt in dismissing the indictments against Gustave Kissel and Thomas Harned, accused with the sugar company of conspiracy in restraint of trade, declares that the operation of the statute of limitations invalidates any action against them inasmuch as the offense was committed more than three years ago.

It was pointed out that this same argument would apply with equal force to indictments against other defendants and that similar action probably could be taken shortly in their behalf. The indictment was of the blanket variety and this would indicate that any action which applied to the cases of Kissel and Harned would be equally applicable to the others.

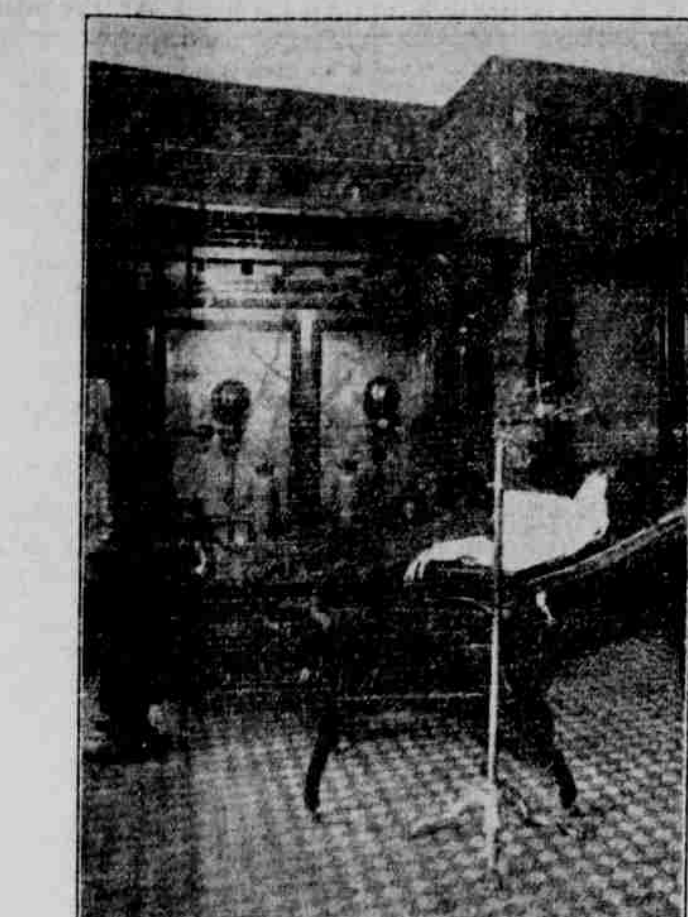

Others included in the indictment follow: The American Sugar Co., Washington D. C., president, Arthur Donner, treasurer and John E. Parsons, George H. Frazer, John Mayer and Charles H. Seiff, directors.

Some of the company's officers would make any statement tonight regarding the decision or its probable effect against them. Justice Holt's opinion says:

Statutes of limitation are beneficial to the community and justice to persons charged with crime require that offenses be promptly prosecuted. Statutes of limitation should be given a plain and sensible construction. The government has waited before bringing this prosecution for five years and a half after the alleged offense was complete and in my opinion, the statute of limitation is a bar to this indictment.

Justice Holt remanded public prosecutors for seeking indictments for "conspiracy to commit a crime" rather than for the crime itself.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 26.—The speculation in stocks showed clear evidence today coming to a halting place, following the rather feverish fortifications of the late markets. This was a consequence of the persisting uncertainty over the money outlook, in spite of relief afforded by yesterday's developments over the immediate prospects.

Relaxation in the tension of the money market yesterday was believed to be due to a slowing up of speculative demands on the money market and to depend on a continuance of a policy of moderation in that respect. The approach of the United States Steel quarterly meeting, also was calculated to have repressive effect on the speculation owing to the question which has arisen as to the response the market is likely to make to the month's favorable influences which might emanate from that meeting. The increasing weakness was due to this cause. The dividend action announced after the market closed and the not earnings accorded with expectations of the unfilled orders on hand were below these estimates.

There was a small accretion to the gold holdings of the Bank of England, enough to create the opinion that the present 6 per cent bank rate would prove sufficient to accomplish the protective purposes designed by the series of advances in rate. Importance was attached to the authoritative statement of the Bank of France authorities made to The Associated Press, of their opinion of the international money situation.

The special weakness of the Hill stocks had a disturbing effect on sentiment and a possible evidence of influential liquidation of an investment sort. The show of strength at scattered points was an insufficient offset.

LINCOLN COUNTY HAS IRRIGATION PROJECT

Over $100,000 to Be Expended on Scheme to Reclaim 5,000 Acres in Water Canyon.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal]
 Alamogordo, N. M., Oct. 25.—An irrigation project in Lincoln county to reclaim over 5,000 acres of land and to cost $110,000 has been inaugurated by A. M. Patten of Denver, whose application for water rights in Bull Gap and tributary streams of Water Canyon has been approved by the territorial engineer. The dam will be built in Bull Gap, a natural reservoir site, two miles northwest of Oscuro. The land below the site is sandy loam, well adapted to fruit raising. It is expected the Portland Cement company of Denver will build the dam, although the contract has not yet been awarded.

THE CAUSE OF COLDS

Good Advice Regarding the Prevention of Coughs and Colds

If people would only fortify and strengthen the system, the majority of cases of coughs, colds and influenza might be avoided. These troubles are frequently due to weakness, which produces a catarrhal condition of the mucous membrane, which is an internal skin of the body. When this skin is weakened it becomes easily infected with germs which cause many of the diseases to which flesh is heir. Healthy mucous membranes are essential safeguards of the body's general health.

An excellent aid in the prevention of coughs, colds, pneumonia, and such like infectious diseases, is a remedy that will prevent or cure catarrh. We have a remedy which we honestly believe to be unsurpassed in excellence for the prevention of coughs, colds and all catarrhal conditions. It is the prescription of a famous physician, who has an enviable reputation of thirty years of cures gained through the use of this formula. We promise to make no charge for the medicine should it fail to do as we claim. We urge everybody who has need of such a medicine to try Rexall Mucua-Tone.

It stands to reason that we could not afford to make such statements and give our own personal guarantee to this remedy if we were not prepared to prove the reasonableness of our claim in every particular, and we see no reason why any one should hesitate to accept our offer and try it. We have two sizes of Rexall Mucua-Tone, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Sometimes a 50-cent bottle is sufficient to give marked relief. As a general thing the most chronic case is relieved with an average of three large bottles. You can obtain Rexall Remedies in Albuquerque at our store—The Rexall Store, J. H. O'Reilly Co.

THE LID GOES ON TIGHT IN BERNALILLO COUNTY SUNDAY

Sheriff Romero Determines That Sunday Law Must Be Enforced as Regards Saloons and Serves Formal Notice on All Owners to Close Places Sunday from Sunrise to Midnight; Order Has Been Under Consideration for Some Time and Plans Are Complete to Enforce It Throughout the County.

NOTICE.
You are hereby notified that all saloons in the county of Bernalillo must be closed on Sunday between the hours of sunrise and midnight of the same day. JESUS ROMERO, Sheriff of Bernalillo County.

This is the pleasing little bluet-doux which will be deposited in the hands of the owner and the manager of every saloon in Bernalillo county today and tomorrow by deputies of the sheriff's office. It means that the Sunday closing law is to be observed in Bernalillo county, that the lid is going on tight and that it is to be screwed down to remain permanently. Back doors will be no good. Side entrances will be looked after. The man who wants a drink on Sunday between the hours of sunrise and midnight, will have to arrange to take it home with him before sunrise on Sunday. That is all there is to it for, according to Sheriff Romero, the Sunday closing law will be enforced in every saloon in the county, beginning next Sunday.

"We have been considering this matter for some time," said Sheriff Romero to the Morning Journal yesterday in discussing the notice to the saloon owners. "It is a difficult matter to enforce this law. The saloons of Albuquerque particularly, and of the county in general are orderly and there is seldom any disturbance of any kind; yet we have been aware of course that back doors have been open and that liquor has been sold on Sunday in practically every saloon in the county for some time past. It is a question in the minds of attorneys whom I have consulted whether or not it is the duty of the sheriff to look after the enforcement of this law; but the law is on the statute books and we have concluded that it must be enforced from two to three years. With the exception of Roscoe Ribakobak, sentenced to serve from thirty to ninety-nine years for murder, the prisoners for the penitentiary are all short term men."

"Broadmoor" is the name of the new sub-division of exclusive American five-acre country homes, ready for irrigation, only 1 1/2 miles north of the city. See D. K. B. Sellers for prices and terms.

PUTNEY CASE STILL BEFORE COURT

Entire Day Taken Up With Suit in Which Two Men Claim They Signed Note Through Misrepresentation of Facts.

The entire day in the district court yesterday from 9 o'clock in the morning until 5 at night, was taken up with the trial of the case of R. E. Putney versus Franz Schmidt and C. H. Story, in which the plaintiff seeks to secure judgment against the defendants for $15,000 alleged to be due on a promissory note. Schmidt and Story, together with two other San Marcial men, Messrs. Lewis and Newman, signed the notes at the instance of Jasper N. Broyles, formerly the most prominent business man in San Marcial. The note was made payable to R. E. Putney, it is alleged some $5,000 for groceries. It is claimed on the part of the defendants that they signed the note under a misapprehension of the facts in connection with Broyles' real financial condition. Broyles representing to them that he was financially sound to the extent of some $50,000 and only needed some $10,000 to tide him over the hard times. The note was signed in the spring of 1908. It is expected that many complicated questions of law and equity will develop during the trial of the case, which will likely require several days for completion.

Gonzales, together with several other employees of the light company, was working on the top of a thirty five foot pole, on Teras road, in the alley between Second and Third street. Gonzales was making ties and dragging wire along, when in some manner he accidentally touched a 2,500 volt wire with his left hand. The shock which resulted, threw his head against another 2,500 volt wire, forming a complete circuit. Before his fellow employees could go to his assistance, Gonzales had dropped like a log, lying on the ground below, head first. From the condition of the body, the electric shock passed from the hand to the shoulder and thence through the body to the right side, where an immense scar near the thigh, tells where the current left the body. The left side of the face and head is badly burned through contact with the second wire. Gonzales' body was removed to Strong Brothers' undertaking establishment and relatives were notified of the affair by telephone.

Gonzales had been employed by the company for several months and was known as a faithful and industrious workman. His parents reside in Las Vegas, where he was born and raised. The young man is a member in good standing of the Order of Red Men and also of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, having in his working clothes at the time of his death, paid up cards in both organizations.

Coroner's Jury Returns Verdict.
After viewing the remains and hearing the testimony of witnesses, the coroner's jury impelled to consider the causes of the death of Gonzales last night rendered the following verdict:

"We, the undersigned, justice of the peace and jurors, who sat upon the inquest held this 25th day of October, 1909, on the body of Antonio J. Gonzales, a resident of Albuquerque, N. M., do hereby certify that the cause of death was as follows:

MASONIC TEMPLE IS SOLD TO H. HUNING
Two Story Brick Edifice and Four Lots on Third and Copper Disposed of by Masons.

One of the first steps looking toward the beginning of actual construction work on the new $18,000 Masonic Temple on Central avenue, between Sixth and Seventh streets, was taken yesterday afternoon when Otto Diekmann, as agent for Henry Huning, purchased from Temple lodge No. 8, A. F. and A. M., the two story brick building on North Third street known as the Masonic Temple, together with four lots adjoining. The purchase price was not made public, but it is understood to have been between $26,000 and $28,000.

The building committee of Temple lodge is now considering a set of plans prepared by Denver architects which will probably be adopted for the building of the new temple. With the sale of the old temple yesterday, the matter of financing construction work on the new temple has been satisfactorily arranged and it is expected that actual building operations will be started within the near future. The new temple will be a handsome edifice and will compare favorably with Masonic temples in much larger cities than Albuquerque.
