PELLAGRA NEW PERIL TO LIFE IN AMERICA

KNOX INVITES JAPANESE TO PEACE PACT

SCOURGE ANALOGOUS TO BERI BERI OF ORIENT

Insanity Expert Believes Nation is Threatened With Malady in Epidemic Form; Money Needed to Fight It.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Columbia, S. C., Nov. 3.—While we regard Mr. Rockefeller's princely gift for the eradication of the hook worm at its true value, we say $1,000,000 for the battle against the disease of pellagra would be far more valuable.

Thus declared Colonel E. J. Watson, South Carolina's commissioner of agriculture, in an address before the first national conference on pellagra, which opened here today. Colonel Watson said that not only the federal government but the corn consuming states as well must put into force a rigorous inspection of corn and corn products.

Dr. Goss Zeller, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, of Georgia, Ill., believed the country is threatened with a national scourge.

The discovery of pellagra in the Georgia hospital was made August 7, last, since which time 120 cases have been diagnosed as pellagra, forty-five of the patients having died.

Dr. Zeller suggested that many thousands of the federal prisoners who died in the Confederate stockade at Andersonville, Ga., during the civil war, were victims of the hook worm Pellagra as a national public health problem was the subject of an address delivered by Assistant Surgeon General Kerr, of the United States public health and marine hospital service. "The problem of pellagra in Europe and in the new world is in some respects analogous to beri beri in the Orient," said Dr. Kerr. "Both diseases are held to be associated with the consumption of inferior articles of diet; both are capable of becoming variable scourges among the people of the countries where they become epidemic and in neither disease has the etiology been definitely determined. In neither disease is there evidence that communicability plays a part in their continued prevalence and in neither has it been deemed necessary by the national government to institute quarantine precautions."

CORPORATION CONTROL LAW HELD INVALID

California Court Decides Against Statute Requiring Foreign Concerns to Register.

Los Angeles, Nov. 3.—Judge Bortwell in the superior court today held to be unconstitutional the California statute providing that a corporation organized outside of the state and having no articles of incorporation on file with the secretary of state of California could not maintain or defend actions in court. The decision declares that the provision invades the natural fundamental and constitutional rights of persons. It operates, says the court, to deprive corporations not complying with the provisions of the statute of property without compensation.

ARCHITECT HELD FOR DEATH OF WORKMEN

Building Commissioner in Chicago Likewise Must Answer for Criminal Carelessness.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Mablock Campbell, building commissioner of Chicago, and Edward Hugan, an architect, were held to the grand jury tonight by a coroner's jury, which investigated the collapse of a building in which three men were killed and many injured last September.

Special architects reported to Coroner Hoffman that the building had been overloaded.

Hero Medals for Twentieth

Pittsburg, Nov. 3.—With the regular fall meeting of the Carnegie hero fund commission today came the rewarding of fifty persons for acts of bravery and illustrious conduct called to the attention of the commission in the last three months. With the exception of an award to a citizen of Canada, the persons honored are residents of the United States. Approximately $324,000, twenty-three silver and twenty-seven bronze medals were awarded. Of the fifty heroic acts approved, fourteen of the persons responsible for them met their death. In these cases, next of kin received the award.

BEEF TRUST MUST MEET AUSTRALIAN RIVALRY

London, Nov. 3.—The arrival in the Thames of a cargo of chilled beef from Australia, said to be in tip-top condition, is heralded today as foreshadowing the relief of the British meat market from the "danger of being throttled by the American beef trust."

ARBITRATION OF ALL DISPUTES SUGGESTED

Significant Utterances of Secretary of State at Banquet Tendered Commercial Commissioners From Orient.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Washington, Nov. 3.—Secretary Knox tonight invited Japan to enter into a compact making practically compulsory peaceful settlement of all difficulties with the United States. The secretary's invitation was not in the form of a state document. It was a suggestive utterance in the Japanese commercial commissioners in an address by Mr. Knox tonight at a banquet given in honor of the visitors from the mikado's land.

After proposing a toast to the emperor of Japan, Mr. Knox said: "Baron Shibusawa and Honorable Commissioners:

"It is my privilege and a great pleasure to welcome you to Washington on behalf of this government and to express the sincere hope that your journeying and observations and entertainments in this country have been and will continue to be comfortable and profitable and agreeable to you.

"This is an opportunity of which I gladly avail to speak of the ties which have contributed to unite our two nations in amity and essential harmony ever since the days when American representatives first of all opened your doors for the reciprocal exchange of good will and civilization.

"We sometimes share a common grief and mourning. This country mourns with you the untimely, cruel death of the great Prince Ito, to which those among us, like the president, who knew him as a personal friend, was a deep personal loss.

"He hoped, perhaps, to get the good of other lands without their evil; to enable Japan to profit by the knowledge of the law and still keep her inviolate with her own arts and virtues.

"Is it too much to say that such hopes of the great minds of Japan are in the way of realization? Japan has set herself in that path and every friendly and generous heart believes she will keep the faith and hopes she will attain her goal.

"But you already have and will expect keen, yet friendly rivalries which are only the stimulating competition of the struggle toward excellence going on everywhere at all times. Commerce, exchange, markets, trade, extensions—these are the field in which the friendly commercial rivalry now proceeding between the American and Japanese peoples find expression.

"But the great modern systems of accord and good understanding between nations are, after all, the lofty achievements and the crown of all international relations. The controlling principle of these modern movements is peaceful and beneficial international intercourse and the peaceful settlement by arbitration of differences and controversies—extending that principle, by friendly diplomacy, as rapidly as possible to embrace an increasing number and variety of disputes and ultimately by voluntary international compact making peaceful settlements of all differences compulsory or practically so.

"I am confident you will agree it is altogether in accordance with the honorable and enlightened attitude of both Japan and the United States and that it should be the aim of true statesmanship to continue to keep abreast of these beneficent movements in which they have borne so distinguished a part.

"Thus the long and unbroken friendship of Japan and the United States, of which your visit and this occasion are such happy symbols, and the laudable common purpose of Japan and the United States to respect each other's rights and with frankness, patience and good temper to adjust difficulties as inevitably rise between nations of sympathetic and common purposes will be exemplified which will bear fruit and aid in the gradual realization of the noblest ideals for the unity, concord and prosperity of the world."

The banquet was given by the staff of the Japanese embassy. Stirring addresses were made on the ties which unite the Japanese and American nations, the wonderful progress of the former and the importance of bringing about a perfect commercial understanding between the two.

Especially appreciative of the treatment accorded his countrymen was Baron Shibusawa. Life to them had been perceptibly broadened by their visit to the United States.

"Japan," he said, "wants to do the best she can within her power to pay the heavy debt she owes America and one of the most effective ways to do this I believe, is in promoting the trade relations between the two countries. That trade already is extensive. Japan's intention is to take part in America's trade to the utmost of her ability and her opportunity. Her idea is not necessarily to benefit herself to the detriment of America and other nations. Japan wants to develop the trade so as to benefit both participants."

The Japanese ambassador, Baron Shibusawa declared, was to conduct commercial competition in such a manner and good temper as to avoid calling into use arbitration for settling difficulties between the two nations.

Today being the anniversary of the birth of the emperor, the visitors assembled at the Japanese embassy, where they celebrated the occasion after the fashion of their country.

REVENUE CUTTER SEALS GUNS OF SEAL HUNTERS

Officers Defend Action Taken Against Canadian Vessels.

Seattle, Nov. 3.—Relative to the protest made or about to be made to the state department of the United States against the sealing of the arms of Canadian sea otter schooners in Behring sea last summer by the revenue cutter Bear, officers of the Bear, which has just arrived from the north, say that the action taken was strictly according to law.

There is an international agreement between the United States and Canada by which, for three months of the year, or while the fur seals are breeding, there shall be no hunting in Behring sea north of the thirty-fifth parallel and east of the 180th meridian.

The Bear in her patrol of the seal islands discovered the schooners Pescewa of Liverpool, Thomas S. Bayard of Victoria and Jessie of Victoria within the prescribed territory with equipment for killing seals and sea otters. The gun locks on all three vessels were sealed by the American officers just as they would have been had a Canadian cruiser detected the schooners within the lines.

The certificates accompanying the action says that the seals on the gunlocks could be broken after August 1, or outside the limit stated.

MAURETANIA'S CAPTAIN RESIGNS HIS COMMAND

Veteran of Fifty-Three Years at Sea Says Younger Men Should Have Chance.

New York, Nov. 3.—Captain John Pritchard, commodore of the Cunard line, who began his fifty-three years' service at sea in a 150-ton schooner, and who ends it in command of the 39,000-ton steamship Mauretania, announced today upon sailing for Liverpool that he had resigned.

He said he did not expect to bring the ship back on her next voyage. There are plenty of young captains waiting and they ought to be given a chance, said Commodore Pritchard.

As the big liner was backed out of her berth in the Hudson this afternoon the longshoremen waved their caps and cheered the veteran captain. He is sixty-three years of age and has served thirty years in the Cunard service.

Robber Gets Off With $1000.

Greenbay, Wis., Nov. 3.—Holding up the teller at the Farmers' Exchange bank today at the point of a revolver, a masked robber grabbed about $1000 in cash and escaped.

There was no one in the bank at the time except the teller.

PEARY CLAIMS RECOGNIZED OFFICIALLY

GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY VOTES HIM GOLD MEDAL

Committee of Scientists Examine His Records and Reach Unanimous Verdict That North Pole Stunt is Genuine.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Washington, Nov. 3.—Commander Robert E. Peary was today voted a gold medal by the National Geographic society for his great achievement in reaching the much-sought north pole.

The board of managers of the geographic society at a meeting today unanimously accepted the report of the subcommittee of scientists, who have investigated the explorer's records and found them corroborative of his claim of having reached the pole.

The report of the subcommittee follows:

"The subcommittee, to which was referred the task of examining the records of Commander Peary in evidence of his having reached the north pole, beg to report that they have completed their task.

"Commander Peary has submitted to this subcommittee his original journal and records of observations, together with his instruments and apparatus and certain of the most important of the scientific results of his expedition. These have been carefully examined by your subcommittee and they are unanimously of the opinion that Commander Peary reached the north pole on April 6, 1909.

"They also feel warranted in stating that the organization, planning and management of the expedition, its complete success and its scientific results reflect the greater credit on the ability of Commander Robert E.

TAMMANY HIT IN VITAL SPOT FACES FOUR LEAN YEARS

Loss of Control of Municipal Finances Bitter Blow to New York Machine; Gloom Permeates Wigwag.

ELECTION OF GAYNOR PROVES BARREN VICTORY

Rumblings of Discontent Among Faithful Bring From Leader Murphry Denial That He Intends to Retire.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] New York, Nov. 3.—Battle-scarred Tammany, which yesterday elected a mayor but lost a city, took up today the gloomy work of setting its house in order for four years of avowed anti-Tammany government in greater New York.

An analysis shows that the election which resulted in the defeat by the fusion forces of every important Tammany democratic candidate below the mayor was more of a victory for the anti-Tammany democrats, who had lined up with the republicans under the fusion banner, than for the straight-out republicans.

Anti-Tammany democrats elected on the republican-fusion ticket for four years will be in absolute control of the city's purse strings. They will have a clear majority in the board of estimates and apportionments and therefore the right to spend more than a billion dollars of the city's money.

The board of estimates includes, besides Mayor Gaynor—who in the past has been a strong anti-machine man—five anti-Tammany democrats and two republicans. The sixteen votes allotted the various members of the board are so distributed that, besides Justice Gaynor's three ballots, the anti-Tammany democrats will have nine and the republicans four.

In this board, according to the anti-Tammany democrats, is to be found a nucleus of what they believe will make for a complete reorganization of the democratic party. It was rumored today that an attempt to create a new order of things for the New York city democracy already was under way. Charles E. Murphy, who succeeded Richard Croker as Tammany leader, came out with a formal disavowal of these rumors, at the same time denying a report that he was to be deposed.

"I have no intention of resigning," said Murphy. "I have not heard of any opposition to me within the party and I have heard nothing about these reported rumblings of discontent."

Richard Croker's presence was a matter of speculation to those who were studying the situation, and the announcement that he had extended his visit five days longer was regarded as significant. Mr. Croker's visitors today included former Mayor Hugh Grant, Lewis Nixon, William P. Sheehan and Mayor McClellan. The retired leader said these calls were without political significance.

"I am out of politics for good and all," he declared, "and not for a million dollars would I reconsider my determination to keep in the background. Yes, they asked me to come back—they always do that. But I'm too old and couldn't stand the racket."

Complete returns on the balloting in the aldermanic districts show that Tammany lost ground also in that body and that the democratic majority will be cut down from thirty-one to a majority by a single vote.

Otto T. Bannard, the defeated republican candidate for mayor, loomed today as a possibility for the New York state gubernatorial nomination next year.

Herbert Parsons, republican county chairman, said:

"Mr. Bannard's clean and business-like campaign against tremendous odds had its effect and I think we shall hear from him, and the party has need of many such men."

GAYNOR GENEROUS TO DEFEATED OPPONENTS

New York, Nov. 3.—William J. Gaynor, mayor-elect, lenient in his victory, sifted his papers today and sent to his late opponents, Bannard and Hearst, two fat envelopes of printed invective, charges and suggestions—matter that was sent to Gaynor for use in the campaign. To William M. Ivins, the republican who attacked him so bitterly, he sent a similar batch of material.

WOMEN APPOINTED ON NEW YORK SCHOOL BOARD

New York, Nov. 3.—As one of the few important official acts which will fall to Mayor George B. McClellan before his administration closes, December 31, he appointed today three women to the board of education and thereby conceded one of the principal demands of woman suffrage organizations.

It is the first time in more than a quarter of a century that women have gained representation on the board, and the news heralded through women's suffrage ranks tonight was welcomed as a victory.

The three women appointed today, each of whom represents a different religious faith, are: Mrs. Herbert D. Robbins and Miss Olivia Leventritt, daughter of Supreme Court Justice Leventritt, both of New York, and Mrs. Alfred S. Post of Flushing, L. I.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the World's Woman Suffrage league, said tonight the victory undoubtedly was due to the insistent pressure brought to bear upon every recent administration by women's club and suffragette organizations.

REPUBLICANS ELECT TWO SUPREME JUDGES IN NEBRASKA

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3.—The republicans elected two justices of the supreme court at yesterday's election and the fusionists are, according to the estimates made tonight from the latest available figures.

Justices Barnes and Faunt appeared to be elected by the republicans, and Sullivan by the democrats. The result is so close on Sullivan, however, that his opponent may be elected after all. Sullivan's vote to date is 12,458 and that of Sedgwick, his republican opponent, 12,365.

SPOKANE JAIL FILLED WITH SOCIALISTS

STIFF SENTENCES FOR FREE SPEECH AGITATORS

Judge Announces Determination to Punish Those who Violate Ordinances Regulating Conduct of Citizens on Street.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Spokane, Wn., Nov. 3.—In police court today Justice Mann sentenced to thirty day terms in jail thirty-three of a group of forty-eight "free speech" agitators, members of the Industrial Workers of the World. The rest of the 193 who were arrested Tuesday were not tried today.

Acting on the advice of Justice Mann, the police abandoned the charge of street speaking on which I. W. W. men had been arrested during the first day of their demonstrations and substituted one of disorderly conduct, upon which they say they believe they can convict all of the free speakers who offer themselves for arrest.

Each of the forty-eight tried this afternoon was given a separate hearing, although judgment was not passed until all had been tried.

In his argument at the close of the trial, Attorney Moore, for the defendants, referred to the justice's own decision of the day before, when, in declaring the latest street speaking ordinance invalid he expressed the opinion that free speech was an inherent right. Justice Mann, replying, said:

"There is no doubt but that the right to speak is as I said yesterday, God-given, but there are laws of this land whose purpose it is to determine how far that right will extend. The present condition has been brought about by the willful violation of a city ordinance by a great number of men who have also violated other laws, such as those defining disorderly conduct and blocking the streets. Men who do these things are men who need some punishment. Methods like this, if kept up, will result in rioting with danger to property and life."

"So long as I sit here and a law has been violated I shall enforce that law and enforce it severely. There is nothing so far beneath the dignity of an American citizen as the deliberate violation of laws and you men have done things that a law-abiding citizen should be ashamed of."

Attorney Moore announced after sentence had been passed that the cases would be appealed to the superior court.

"It is impossible to see how many cases will be disposed of each day," said Justice Mann, after today's trials. "We will hold the usual sessions and get rid of as many as we can, giving each a square hearing."

No attempt was made by the I. W. W. people to demand a jury trial for each member.

WOULD BE ORATORS

ARRESTED IN BUNCHES

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 3.—Under close police surveillance and with their leaders in jail, the rank and file of the Industrial Workers of the World were comparatively inactive today. Whenever one more daring than the rest attempted to harangue a street crowd he was promptly arrested.

The police broke up an out-door meeting about 9 o'clock at the corner of Howard street and May avenue. A large crowd had gathered, a red-bellied orator could be seen mounted in the center, speaking at the top of his voice.

An officer broke through the crowd and took him down from his lofty perch.

No sooner had the policeman arrested one than another took the stand. It was necessary for him to take nine into custody before the crowd quieted down. The prisoners were led to the city jail without resistance.

"We will show you yet," is the statement usually made when a prisoner was questioned at the police station.

According to a report sent broadcast by those placed under arrest, they will "have the police in their power" before tomorrow.

A bulletin posted at the headquarters of the workers was as follows:

"Fellow workers: Tomorrow this fight will be carried on with greater demonstration than ever. We have just begun to fight. Two hundred men will go to jail tomorrow."

Immediately below was posted another which read:

"Every man who is appointed captain is to select five or more men and proceed to hold meetings. Every captain and squad go to places designated and speak until all are arrested."

Remember, the authorities claim to have broken the backbone of the organization. Show them that they are just as ignorant as 'bulls' usually are. Every member of the organization knows what is expected of him."

"Disorderly conduct" is the charge placed against every man arrested for violating the street-speaking ordinance.

Chief of Police Sullivan said today:

"We can convict them under the street-speaking ordinance, but we have placed a more solid charge against them. We will convict every one of them of disorderly conduct."

TAFT NEUTRAL ON LIQUOR QUESTION

DECLINES TO EXPRESS VIEWS ON PROHIBITION

Triumphal Progress Through Alabama Augurs Well for Success of "Winning the South" Stunt of President.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 3.—President Taft in an address here today expressed again his good will toward the south. While doing so an elderly-headed man in the crowd called out:

"Good bless you, we all love you."

The president smiled and replied:

"That reminds me of the old question: 'It may be all right to dissemble you love, but why did you kick me down stairs?'"

"But I have no fault to find on that score. The fact that you had so little to do with putting me where I am makes me appreciate the warmth and sincerity of your reception all the more."

The president asked for support in carrying out the Roosevelt policies to bring about better conditions of honesty and integrity in business and public affairs without regard to party lines.

A man in the audience insisted on learning the president's views on the prohibition question which is now the all absorbing topic in Alabama. In response to the direct question of how he stood, the president replied, amid laughter:

"I am not an Alabamian, and I am in somewhat the position of Brother Fox, who, when he was called upon to decide a case between a lion and some other ferocious beast, protested that he had a bad cold and had entirely lost his sense of smell."

The president left here at 4:10 this afternoon for Macon, Ga. He planned to make short stops tonight at Opelika, Ala., and Columbus, Ga.

As the president was about to enter his automobile to go to his train he passed between two lines of veterans—Confederates on one side and Grand Army of the Republic men on the other. He stopped to shake hands alternately with each one.

A Confederate soldier said:

"Mr. President, you have captured the secessionists, the Ku Kl

Two Unsuccessful Efforts Made Before Machine Ascends With Commander Sweet, Heaviest Passenger Ever Taken Up.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] College Park, Md., Nov. 2.—Flying records were broken in more ways than one on the government aviation field today. In the morning Lieutenant Humphreys and Foulis, of the signal corps, remained in the air sixty-one and three-fourths minutes and in doing so exceeded all endurance records made by any of the pupils of the Wright brothers in this country.

As a two-man flight it was but ten and one-fourth minutes short of the longest previous record, made by Wilbur Wright. It exceeded by three minutes the endurance flight made by Lieutenant Lahn alone last Monday. The second flight was with Lieutenant Commander Sweet of the navy as a passenger. Mr. Sweet's weight was seventeen pounds in excess of that of any other passenger who has been taken up here. Two unsuccessful efforts were made by Mr. Wright to carry Mr. Sweet as a passenger. Lieutenant Lahn accomplished the feat after one false start. He remained in the air eight and three-fourths minutes with Mr. Sweet. Following this flight Lieutenants Humphreys and Foulis flew for about twenty-five minutes and until the approaching darkness made it necessary for them to descend.

Resolved that we hereby earnestly protest against the arrest and detention of L. G. de Lara at Los Angeles, and his proposed trial before the commission of immigration, believing such proceedings are in violation of that personal liberty which is guaranteed to all citizens by the constitution of the United States, and that this arrest and persecution are due to the desire of a foreign government to maintain its autocratic despotic rule, and that no liberty loving citizen of our country should aid or abet the violation and destruction of individual liberty which is evidenced by Comrade de Lara's arrest and detention.

POPULAR RECIPE

This Home-Made Cough Syrup Stops Coughs Quickly.

Make a plain syrup by taking one pint of Granulated Sugar, add one-half pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put two and one-half ounces of pure Pinex in a pint bottle and fill it up with the Granulated Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Keep well corked and it will never spoil.

The effectiveness of this simple home-made article is surprising. It usually stops a deep-seated cough in twenty-four hours. It is also excellent for colds, whooping coughs, pains in the chest, bronchial troubles and similar ailments.

Use the real Pinex in making it. It is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway White Pine Extract, and it is far superior to the numerous pine oil and pine tar preparations. If your druggist does not have it, he can get it for you without trouble.

The proportion above suggested makes a full pint of the best cold and cough remedy. The taste is so pleasant that children take it willingly. The total cost is about 24 cents.

Strained honey can be used instead of the syrup, and makes a very fine honey and pine tar cough syrup.

EXILE NOBLEMAN DEAD IN DENVER

Mysterious John Salvador, Believed to Be Slayer of Austrian Crown Prince Rudolf, Passes Away.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Denver, Nov. 2.—The Post today says Count Louis von Vetra of Austria, known more familiarly as John Salvador, died in Denver last Saturday. This became known today when the Austrian consul, George von Gröckle, called on Mayor Speer and asked his assistance in finding the body of the supposed nobleman.

Under what name he lived here and died is as much a mystery as the death of Crown Prince Rudolf of Austria and Countess Mary Vetra was until, in the course of years, it became known that Louis von Vetra, brother of the countess, was the man who killed Rudolf and Marie.

Although Louis von Vetra had been absent from Austria since a few years after the death of the crown prince and the Countess Vetra, it is evident that the Austrian government had kept track of him.

A cable from the state department at Vienna, a telegram from the Austrian ambassador at Washington, and notifications from the Austro-Hungarian consul at San Francisco conveyed the intelligence of the count's death to the local Austrian consulate and gave instructions that the body be forwarded to Austria after it had been properly identified.

Gridiron Heroes of New Mexico University Who Expect to Win Laurels at Boulder on Saturday.

'VARSITY ELEVEN IS DETERMINED TO FIGHT HARD

U. N. M. Men Predict That They Will Score Against Boulder Tigers in Saturday's Contest.

The University of New Mexico football eleven, headed by Coach McElrath, leaves tomorrow morning for Boulder, Colo., where they meet the University of Colorado on the gridiron Saturday afternoon. The Varsity has never before gone up against a team as strong as the Tigers and just what the result of the game will be it is difficult to predict. Advice from Boulder and Denver indicate that the Colorado eleven expect to walk away with the Albuquerqueans. The sentiment among the U. N. M. boys, however, is decidedly optimistic. Every man on the team is confident that the Varsity will score on Boulder and are likewise equally confident that the Tigers will be forced to play some football if they desire to do very much scoring for their side. Boulder has a very strong eleven this year and practice has been the daily routine since early in December. The New Mexico team has only been playing together a comparatively short time, but has developed wonderfully under the coaching of Mr. McElrath.

Couch McElrath has all the confidence in the world in his men and is certain that they will show Colorado a few stunts during the two twenty-five minute halves.

The line-up of the team which leaves tonight will be as follows, subject to change: Solva, center, Sanbury, right guard; Arens, right tackle; Hamilton, left guard; McConnell, left tackle; Galles, left end; Maple, right end; Allen, right half; Otero, full back; Price, left half; Cornish, quarterback; snailbaiter, Lemke and Bryan.

Stanford Defeats Vancouver. Stanford University, Cal., Nov. 3.—The Stanford varsity rugby fifteen defeated the All-Vancouver team today, 5 to 0. It was a game that lacked interest because of the lopsided score.

COLORADO BOYS EXPECT EASY PICKING

Predict Score of 18 to 0 Against University of New Mexico Team; Game With Denver to be Booked.

(Special Dispatch in the Morning Journal) Denver, Colo., Nov. 4.—The members of the University of Colorado football eleven are expecting an easy winning from the University of New Mexico team Saturday. Much interest is taken in the game and a good crowd is expected in spite of the fact that on this day the big game is to be played between the Colorado School of Mines and Denver university. The Boulder team averages 165 pounds in weight stripped. They are confidently predicting a victory over

New Mexico by as large a score as 18 to 0.

The manager of the Denver University is in conference here with Manager Lawrence Lee of the Albuquerque team, to arrange a game with the New Mexicans for next season. In case New Mexico holds Boulder down to a close score the game will undoubtedly be arranged.

The Albuquerque team will stop at the St. James hotel while in Denver.

Extra seating accommodation has been provided for 5000 people at the Denver University School of Mines game.

LIPTON DEMANDS SQUARE DEAL

Obsolete Rules Governing America's Cup Make it Impossible That Foreigner Should Win It Declares Sir Thomas.

(By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire) Chicago, Nov. 3.—Rules that are good enough for the Star Spangled Banner are good enough for Lipton. If they will let me race under the rules which govern every other regatta in the United States, I will race for the ambition of my life in 1917. Sir Thomas Lipton thus expressed himself upon his arrival in Chicago today in discussing the question of lifting the cup.

The American's cup," continued Sir Thomas, "is as safe as though it were sealed in a vault. If present rules continue, which require that Great Britain must build a boat that will stand an ocean voyage to America to compete in this challenge race, the cup might as well be put in a museum. Give me an American chance with your excellent American sportsmen and I will build a Shamrock IV and entertain you."

BIG ATTENDANCE AT YALE-HARVARD GAME

New Haven, Nov. 3.—When the time for applications for tickets for the Yale-Harvard football game at Cambridge ended today, nearly 15,000 tickets representing more than half of the seating capacity of the Harvard stadium had been spoken for.

For the Princeton game, to be played here, 25,000 applications have been received from Yale men while Princeton has taken $500, which leaves the ticket department 1,500 short, as only 32,000 can be accommodated.

EMPIRE CITY TRACK CALLS OFF MEETING

New York, Nov. 3.—To the hardships inflicted upon the successful conduct of horse racing by the enforcement of the anti-betting laws is ascribed the action taken today by the managers of the Empire City Jockey club in calling off the second day fall meeting which was to have begun at the Yonkers track next week.

Matt Winn, manager of the Empire City track, gave no reason for the cancellation, but sporting men attribute his action to the fact that most of the tracks have had a hard struggle this year and which increased as the season grew on.

The Aqueduct meeting is due to end November 5, but it is possible that the management there will accept the Empire City dates and thus prolong the sport in the metropolitan district until November 15.

SENATE COMMITTEE ON IRRIGATION IN SALT LAKE

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 3.—The senate committee on irrigation and Chief Newell of the reclamation service arrived in Salt Lake today after visiting the Strawberry valley irrigation project and meeting with the water users' association at Spanish Fork. The visitors were entertained at an informal dinner at the Alta club in Senator George Sutherland this evening.

Speaking for the committee, Senator Carter said that all were concerned about securing funds to hasten the completion of projects now under way in order that the fund might be reimbursed by payments from farmers. Interest warrants issued against the fund together with the income of the sale of public lands have been considered as a means of raising ready money.

Fulton, Nov. 3, will be the next point visited.

To Epistle.

Dear Kate: The wedding cake you sent I got, and put the bit beneath my pillow last night. That I might dream on it.

But not a single dream was mine—No; wasn't this too bad? And so last night I ate the cake—Oh, the dreams I had!

Down and Out.

She pulled herself a silly goose; He did not venture to reply; She moved a little closer then And called herself a goose again, Tossing in a soulful sigh.

She called herself a foolish girl; And on his hand let her hand fall; But still he had no word to say, And was not when he went away, Requested to repeat his call.

ALBUQUERQUE - NEW MEXICO

VERY COLD COMFORT.

As a rule, the off-year elections generally show democratic gains enough to keep the democratic party feeling good, or, at least, a little better, up to the time of the next regular four-year canvass, but a careful review of the results of last Tuesday's contests will show but very little democratic comfort that isn't decidedly cold—not even warmed over.

As a rule, fans of every kind figure in the off-year campaign, and republicans who would not think of deserting the party ranks when republican principles are at stake, wander off into the camp of the enemy because, they say, "there is really no party question at issue," but they always get back home before the lines are formed for the big fight.

New York gives a fair illustration of this year's result. The city is overwhelmingly democratic, and yet Tammany, which in reality is the party, was knocked down and out. Judge Gaynor was brought out by a fusion of republicans and independents, as an anti-Tammany candidate, but Tammany, being clever enough to see that it could not defeat him, rallied to his support, and hurried for him louder than did the men who nominated him, giving the impression among those who had not given close attention to the campaign that he was the Tammany candidate, whereas on the contrary he announced publicly in his speeches that unless the Tammany candidates for the board of estimates were defeated, he would not serve as mayor if elected. The candidates for the board of estimates constituted the only Tammany ticket, and were the men who would hold the purse, thus representing the only principle Tammany knows, and yet they were overwhelmingly defeated, while Gaynor was elected, thus making a double defeat for the democratic party in its greatest stronghold.

The southern states that voted went democratic, of course, but that signifies nothing. They vote on prejudice and not on principle, and will swallow anything that has the democratic brand on it, regardless of what it may signify.

The republican majority was reduced somewhat in Massachusetts, but the state still went republican, while it is no unusual thing for it to go democratic in an off year. The republican majority was also reduced in some other places, due to the off-year indifference, but to offset this the democrats lost a number of places which they have been carrying regularly for some years past, so that taking the situation as a whole, the result does not give any indication of the approach of that great democratic tidal wave which we had been told to give evidence of its approach at the polls last Tuesday. On the contrary, the result as a whole indicates much less restlessness in the republican ranks all over the country, than is usually perceptible in the returns of the off-year elections.

The new tariff law is getting in its work, the business situation is improving all over the country, the ranks of the "unemployed" have been thinned out to such an extent that the demand for intelligent labor is in excess of the supply, the idle freight cars no longer cumber the yards, there is plenty of work at good prices for all the men who want to work, and the good hard sense of the American people prompts them to let well enough alone.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

R. F. Younk, chairman of the executive committee of the Rock Island and Prince railroads, told the public in an address at St. Louis, the other day, that politics and politicians constitute the curse of the South and Southwest, and said they had done more to retard the progress of the country than all other causes combined. He said that for the good of the richest producing districts in the world, these disturbing influences ought to be regulated in some manner to prevent, or at least to minimize, the great injury they are doing to the best interests of the country. Mr. Younk practically charges that the democratic members of congress from the South and Southwestern states are plunders of the commonwealths.

"There is only one thing that may delay a movement of rapid agricultural and industrial development in the South and Southwest," said Mr. Younk. "That one thing is politics. Too many of the public men of the South give so much of their time to politics that they have no time for helping the development of their districts."

THREE VITAL PRINCIPLES.

"What Must We Do to Be Fed?" is the title of the first article of a series by James J. Hill, "the Builder of the Northwest," which appears in the November number of The World's Work. Mr. Hill points out strikingly that a rise in the price of bread and a food shortage have begun already in this land of plenty. Mr. Hill's thoughtful words would be alarming did he not point out the way to feed the 200,000,000 people who, he confidently predicts, will inhabit this country at the end of fifty years. He begins:

"Land without population is a wilderness, and population without land is a mob. A prosperous agricultural interest is to a nation what good digestion is to a man. The soil is the only resource that renews itself continually after having produced value. I do not wish to belittle the importance of manufacture or its relative value in general growth. But for many years this country has made the mistake of unduly assisting manufacture, commerce and other activities that center in cities at the expense of the farm. The result is a neglected system of agriculture and the decline of the farming interest."

Further on Mr. Hill says:

"It is made clear by every process of logic and by the proof of historic fact that the wealth of a nation, the character of its people, the quality and permanence of its institutions are all dependent upon a sound and sufficient agricultural foundation."

"If I could have my way I should build a couple of warships a year less. Perhaps one would do. I would take that $5,000,000 or $6,000,000 a year and start at least one thousand agricultural schools in the United States at $5,000 a year each, in the shape of model farms. This model farm would be simply a tract of land conforming in size, soil treatment, crop selection and rotation and methods of cultivation to modern agricultural methods. Its purpose would be to furnish to all its neighborhood a working model for common instruction."

"Let us set these simple principles of the new method (of agriculture) out in order," says Mr. Hill, toward the end of his illuminating article:

"First—The farmer must cultivate no more land than he can till thoroughly. With less labor he will get more results. Official statistics show that the net profit from one crop of twenty bushels of wheat to the acre is as great as that from two of sixteen, after original cost of production has been paid."

"Second—There must be rotation of crops. Ten years of single cropping will pretty nearly wear out any but the richest soil. A proper three or five year rotation of crops actually enriches the land."

"Third—There must be soil reclamation by fertilizing; and the best fertilizer is that provided by nature herself."

GREAT AVIATION MEETING.

Reports from Paris say numerous leading French and Egyptian notables are financing the great aviation meeting which will take place on the pyramid studded plains of Egypt, under the very nose of the Sphinx, so to speak.

The meeting is advertised for two weeks in January and will be the occasion of competition between the most noted aviators of the world. More than $25,000 in cash prizes has been offered and large guarantees are offered to the crack drivers.

There is a sentimental and historical aspect to this meeting that tickles the French immensely. Many people who have never wintered in Egypt are eagerly packing up to get there so as to be in time to see the aerial contests. It is anticipated that in its way the meet will be more novel than the aviation week at Rheims.

HIS FAREWELL MESSAGE.

Count Tostoi has just issued what he entitles his "Farewell Message to the World." It is written in Russian, but has been translated into English. It is in the great reformer's characteristic style. The document is too long for our columns, but the following extracts will give the reader a comprehensive idea of the whole:

My farewell message to the world—at my age every greeting is also a farewell—is my view as to how life may be henceforth, not as heretofore had and said, but as God wishes and as we wish ourselves; that is, that it may be full of happiness and contentment.

The attainment of this aim depends upon the conception we have of our lives. If my conception of life is that my body (the body of John, Peter or of Mary) is given me in order that I may find in it as much pleasure, joy and fortune as possible, in that case my life must always, under all circumstances, be miserable or bad. The reason is that what I desire every one else desires. As every one wants the greatest amount of pleasure, and as the sum total of pleasure remains the same, there is not enough to go around. Therefore every man who lives for himself must take something from others, he must combat others, hate others and make others unhappy. Even those who attain their purposes are never happy; they are tortured by their wealth, and envy others who have accumulated more than they.

All holy and wise men of the world, and Christ himself, taught that our life is miserable through ourselves; that the Power which sent us into life, which Power we call God, did not send us in order that we might torture ourselves, but rather that we should attain the happiness which we all desire. They taught also that we fail to attain the desired happiness only when we misunderstand life, and do as we ought not to do.

We complain of life; we complain that it is ill ordered. We fail to understand that it is not our life which is ill ordered, but that the mistake is ours in doing what we ought not to do.

Life is given to us that it should be happy. It is our own business to make it happy. The way to make it a certain chain of unbroken happiness is to live in love and not in hatred.

We must spend our lives in multiplying the love within us, let the world go as it will. By so acting we gain the greatest happiness for self, and do to others all the good that we can.

No man can say whether an undertaking is good or bad if he has not tried it. If we tell a peasant how to sow rye or a beekeeper how to make hives, if he is an intelligent man he will make the experiment and be guided by the result. So it is in life. To find how far the law of love is applicable to life you must test it.

Make the attempt. Promise for a while to follow all the commandments of love. Live so that in your relations with others, even with thieves and drunkards, with superiors or subordinates, you will think of what is best for them, not for yourself. And after you have made the attempt, ask yourself: "Was it so difficult? Have I spoiled or bettered my life?" Then decide whether love brings happiness or not. Try it. Instead of returning evil with evil try to return evil with good; to say nothing ill of men; to act kindly even with the ox and the dog. Live thus one day, two days, or more, and compare the state of your mind with its state in former days. Make the attempt, and you will see how the dark, evil modes have passed away, and how the soul's happiness has increased. Make the attempt and you will see that the gospel of love brings not merely profitable words, but the greatest and most desired of all things.

Insurance policies for aviators are now issued by a Scottish company. In the early days of life insurance it was necessary for a policyholder to secure the company's permission to make a trip across the ocean. The formality is now waived, but the New York World thinks it will doubtless be a long time before a similar privilege is extended to those who go up in the air in ships.

HIGHEST GUN IN THE WORLD.

A good illustration of how the United States government is preparing to preserve the peace of the world by making war too terrible to be contemplated, is furnished by the fact that the most formidable naval weapon ever constructed in the world has just been built at the Midvale Steel works, and sent to the Washington gun factory to be finished. What is called "finishing" includes rifling, and the installation of the breech mechanism. When completed the gun will be tested at the Indian Head proving grounds. It will weigh sixty-three tons, or ten tons more than the largest guns now in use.

Its total length will be 53½ feet. The capacity of the chamber of the new gun will be 15,848 cubic inches, that being the compartment in which will be placed the charge of 365 pounds of smokeless powder required to discharge the powerful projectile, weighing 1,400 pounds, which the gun will fire.

This gun will have an extreme range of more than twenty-five miles, although the range at which it would be fired in actual battle would be about five miles. The 1,400-pound shell will leave the muzzle of the weapon at the rate of 2,000 feet a second, and its muzzle energy will be 65,000 foot tons. This is about 12,000 more foot tons of muzzle energy than that designed for the latest 12-inch guns, and about 22,000 foot tons more than that of the .45-caliber-long, 12-inch gun now in service. So great is the penetrative power of this new gun that, when fired with a full charge of 365 pounds of powder, the projectile would penetrate 22½ inches of the latest Krupp steel armor at the muzzle.

This does not measure the full power of the gun for naval purposes, the muzzle penetration being merely a proving ground factor, for after the shot hurled from the gun has traveled a distance of 5,000 yards, or nearly two miles, it will still have a remaining velocity of 2,254 feet a second, which would enable it to pierce at that distance a thickness of 16.7 inches of Krupp steel armor, and what that means may be judged from the fact that the thickness of the armor on the British battleship Dreadnought and her successors in the British navy, as well as of the main armor belt of the latest United States battleships under construction, is eleven inches at the thickest part, and it may thus be seen that this shot would go through the armor of the biggest battleships now afloat, if fired from a distance of five miles.

Countess Szechenyi, formerly a Vanderbilt, must curtsy when she meets the Duchess of Vizor, who ceased recently, at great expense, to be Anita Stewart, and must not sit down in the presence of the Duchess without being motioned to do so. It is to be hoped the Duchess will not withhold the necessary motion, for the situation is certain to make the Countess very tired.

W. J. Bryan will doubtless witness with interest the proceedings of the republican leaders with a view to reading people out of the party. It is a line of experiment, says the Washington Star, to which Mr. Bryan has devoted much personal attention.

One of the most striking facts about flying is the ease and quickness with which the art seems to be mastered under proper conditions. For example, Lieut. Lahm has been a pupil only three weeks, yet he has just made a flight of forty-five minutes, which only a little while ago would have been a record.

Collector Loeb is called on to explain immunities granted in order to secure testimony against customs cheats. Fortunately for him Mr. Loeb is one of the most experienced explainers in political life.

We understand that possum will not be reckoned among the breakfast foods at the White House this winter.

Nature As She Is Faked

The Sunnyside Republican has the following interesting and somewhat startling information on the ferocious man eating jackrabbit of that section:

It is said that even the worm will turn. Owing to the dry season and short crops with the dry farmers, they have hunted jackrabbits this season more than usual, and from several sections the printer hears tales of growing aggressiveness and meanness of these hitherto considered timid animals. Several good dogs have already been killed by them, and two children of a homesteader living twelve miles northwest of town were attacked by about a dozen even last week and would have undoubtedly lost their lives had not their cries brought their parents to their rescue. As it was they were badly bitten and scratched. A local small game pot-hunter tells a blood-curdling story of being chased by one a quarter of a mile, after missing a shot at it, and finally took refuge in a cedar tree, where he was compelled to perch all night. He said that before morning there were at least fifty of the ferocious little animals around the tree, jumping up and trying to get a bite at his legs.

The Festive Feet-hall.

Since the baseball season has ended the football players are now given a chance to kick the face and the anatomy of each other. But then, it's great sport.

Brace Up, Old Sport.

The leaves have about all left the trees and their beauty gone for a few months. Same with all life, for we must soon leave this earth, life is but a season, same as the leaves on the trees.—Springer Stockman.

Mike-High Fruit.

Farmington fruit is a mile high product. It is raised at an altitude of a mile high. Compared with fruits elsewhere it is a mile high in flavor, in color and in keeping qualities.—Farmington Times-Hustler.

And Hard on the Stomach.

In his desire to win the hearts of Dixie, Mr. Taft took several doses of possum before he found out that a love of possum was not an open sesame to southern favor, nor essential to the conquest of southern hearts.—El Paso Times.

Interesting Sporting Event.

Among the sporting events on the sporting page today's Tribune-Citizen recounts the reception of the new minister of Albuquerque's First Methodist church, Rev. Frank Otto. This will no doubt be properly appreciated as unexpected prominence by the Methodist folk and will doubtless add a "human interest" touch to an otherwise commonplace event.—Raton Range.

WORLD'S FAIR WILL CELEBRATE CANAL

Promoters of San Francisco Show Seek Aid of Congress and State Legislature.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Washington, Nov. 3.—To further the project for a world's fair in San Francisco in 1915, State Senator Edward J. Wolfe, of California, today conferred with Representative Kahn of that state.

Mr. Kahn will introduce a bill at the next congress to appropriate money for the exposition. Mr. Wolfe recently introduced and the California legislature passed a bill to appropriate $500,000 a year for five years for the exposition, which would have made $2,500,000 available from the state. The governor, however, refused to sign the bill, saying it was too early, but promised to sign a similar bill if introduced later on. Mr. Wolfe will do this at the next session of the legislature.

BIG CHOPPING BEE BY ALBUQUERQUE CAMP OF THE MODERN WOODMEN

The following notice, which explains itself, has been received by members of the Modern Woodmen in this city.

Neighbors, Take Notice!

You are called upon to respond to the call of your fellow Woodmen with your Bee, Ax and Wedge, that we may make this forest ring with the sound of the merry choppers of Albuquerque Camp No. 13,203, who have arranged to give a "chopping bee," November 18th, at 8 p. m., in the M. W. A. rooms for the benefit of the general fund and entertainment for the neighbors, their friends and families.

Their decision is to have a box social and make this a success. We ask that each neighbor prepare or get a friend to prepare and donate as many boxes as possible and co-operate with our committee in making this a grand success, which can only be done through co-operation.

We are all enjoying the benefit of the largest co-operative society in the world, which furnishes protection to our loved ones at the smallest expense to us of any society on earth; therefore, we ask each neighbor to attend our next meeting Thursday evening, at 7:30 p. m., November 4, and report to the committee what they can do to make this call a success. Bring your friends, that we may demonstrate to them what Woodmen are.

Very fraternally yours,
H. D. SCHUYLER,
CLAUDE HUTTO,
E. W. MYER,
Committee.

HUNTERS CLIMB HIGH MOUNTAINS OF AFRICA

Nairobi, British East Africa, Nov. 3.—J. Alden Loring, the naturalist, and Major Edgar A. Means, both of the government hunting party, returned here today from their expedition to Mount Kenya.

The climbers ascended the mountain to an estimated height of 16,500 feet, reaching the highest point which it was possible to attain without the aid of alpenstocks. This was within 700 feet of the summit.

The collection of more than 2000 birds and mammals and many photographs was attained.

Funeral of Prince Ito.
Tokyo, Nov. 3.—The funeral of Prince Ito took place today. It was a great state ceremony, magnificent in point of display. The popular demonstration of sympathy was the most widespread ever seen in Japan. The funeral ceremony at Hibiya Park ended at noon and interment will be made at Omori.

An Era of Extravagance.

If the people of this country realized the enormous increase in public expenditures in late years there would be such an outcry against this extravagance that it would shake political centers.

The Wall Street Journal recently showed that the municipal debt in the twelve largest cities in the United States had increased from $44,967,167 in 1899 to $1,000,173,019 in 1909. The largest increases were in Boston and New York. The debt of the latter has grown in the past decade three times faster, proportionately, than that of any other city. We have recently referred to the fact that before the Spanish-American war, in 1896-97, the expenses of the United States government amounted to only $365,000,000, while during the past year they were almost double that figure.

What justification is there for this enormous increase in public expenditures? Are we so prosperous that we do not regard this increasing burden of taxation? It would seem so, for in many of our cities the experiment of conducting public utilities at great expense is still being considered. States are expending money in every direction, and the federal government is putting its army and navy almost on a par footing and formulating prodigious plans for public improvements, some of them of doubtful utility. The next great political issue is bound to be based on a demand for retrenchment and economy in public expenditures.—Leslie's Weekly.

MOB THIRSTS FOR LIVES OF NEGRO FIENDS

West Virginia Farmer and His Wife Victims of Brutal Outrage; Armed Men Prevent Lynching.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Sutton, W. Va., Nov. 3.—After an exciting chase in which a negro was killed, two negroes were captured in a swamp near Cassaway tonight and locked in jail on charges of attacking Mrs. Mary Lockhold, wife of a wealthy farmer.

A large number of deputies armed with rifles were placed on guard to protect the negroes from a mob. The farmers have declared they will be lynched. It was feared the angry white farmers would have their way and hang the prisoners before morning.

Charles Lewis, a negro, with the two now in jail, went to Lockhold's house and they tied him to a tree and whipped him. Then, in sight of the defenseless husband, the three attacked Mrs. Lockhold.

People passing heard the woman's screams and routed the negroes and horses were hastily formed. During the pursuit Lewis was shot and killed by a deputy. The others succeeded in escaping for a time and it was not until midnight that they were apprehended.

HUSBAND SCOLDED HER IN SIGN LANGUAGE

Deaf Mute Granted Divorce From Partner Who Used Butcher Knife to Emphasize Remarks.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] St. Louis, Nov. 3.—A divorce was granted by Judge Withrow, of the circuit court, today, to Mrs. Nannie Burns, a deaf mute, from Joseph Burns of Granite City, Ill., also a deaf mute, on the testimony of deaf mute witnesses. A woman who could talk and hear interpreted the testimony.

Mrs. Burns told by the hand of an attack made on her last Christmas ray by her husband, when she told him he ought to go to work. She said Burns attacked her with a butcher knife. Edward Schlager and Mrs. Mart Poyer, deaf mutes, testified they witnessed the episode.

Mrs. Burns said her husband called her names on his fingers, but she did not specify the names. She also charged desertion. They have three children who can hear and talk. When the court announced that a decree was granted Mrs. Burns, the interpreter informed him that she signalled, "thank you."

APPLE SHOW NOT A WEDDING BUREAU

Not Running a Matrimonial Agency Declares Secretary of Northwest Organization.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal] Spokane, Wash., Nov. 3.—Several hundred young and old bachelors and scores of middle-aged widowers in various parts of the United States and Canada seem to be under the impression that the National Apple Show, Inc., is a matrimonial bureau. Ron H. Rice, secretary and manager of that organization, when he finished reading a stack of letters from cities in southern, eastern and western states and provinces. The majority were from men requesting the names of the young women packing fruit in eastern Oregon, who recently advised the management of the show that they are placing their address cards in every box of fruit entered in the various contests at the apple exposition in Spokane the week of November 15. This is the result of a little item published two weeks ago that several young women at Engle Point, Ore., had adopted this means of securing correspondents. At first the letters came in twos and threes, but now Mr. Rice is receiving bundles of them by every mail; so many, in fact, that additional help has been engaged to read the letters and separate those by wife-seekers from inquiries by prospective exhibitors and others.

Fifth Dry Farming Congress. With the return of the eastern Washington delegation from Billings, Mont., preliminary arrangements were begun for the fifth sessions of the International Dry Farming Congress, which will meet in Spokane next fall. Frederick E. Goodall, president of the Spokane chamber of commerce, will appoint a committee of representative business and professional men in a few days to select a local board of control, which will devote its efforts to making the 1910 meeting strictly an agricultural and development congress.

Experimental authorities and farmers will be invited to discuss subjects of vital interest to every part of this continent and the world, the chief purpose being to encourage the adoption and use of methods by which the actual production of crops can be increased, also to study and compare methods to utilize the arid lands of this country.

There will be a grand cornerstone laying at the new Mount Olive Baptist church, 512 West Lead avenue, Sunday, November 7, at 3 p. m., by the Eureka Lodge No. 19 of Masons, the Eastern Star Lodge of Ladies and the K. P. Lodge. All citizens are invited to be present. Services will begin promptly at 3 p. m. A good program will be rendered. Good music, singing and addresses by some of our white citizens. The work on the walls of our new church is about completed and the members of the church are hoping for a success on that day that will enable them to get the roof on so as to protect the walls.

When to Begin a Child's Training

In particular he is convinced that the process of education does not begin soon enough. All believe much as did the old philosopher who, on being requested to take charge of the education of a child of three, replied, "It is too late." In Dr. Sids' opinion the moment to begin education is the moment when the child first displays any recognition of his power to think. "Then is the time," he once said to me, "when we should start to train him in the use of his faculties. He is bound to use them anyway, and we ought to see that he learns how to use them right. The longer we delay the harder it will be, for with each succeeding year his brain becomes increasingly 'ossified' and less receptive to new impressions. Everybody knows how hard it is to learn a new language late in life. It is the same with all of our acquisitions. The earlier they are acquired the more truly they become part of us. Teach the child, even as an infant, to observe accurately, to analyze and synthesize and to make sound deductions. In a word, teach him how to think correctly."

"At the same time, keep alive within him the quickening power of curiosity. Do not repress him. Answer his questions; give him the information he craves, seeing to it always that his interests narrow, stimulate him to enter new fields of thought. You need not be afraid of overstimulating his mind. On the contrary you will be developing it as it should be developed—will be habituating the child to avail himself of the great fund of latent energy which most of us, to our detriment, so seldom use. Get him thinking correctly, imbue him with a wide range of interests and you will soon find him manifesting undreamed-of capabilities."—Addington Bruce in Stetson.

Soldier Held for Murder.

The Jury System in England.
The workings of the British jury system exhibits a marked contrast with that of our own. It is possible that my experience in British courts was exceptional, but in not a single instance did I see a juror challenged or rejected. In all of the courts requiring juries the necessary number of men were present and they were sworn in without question. In the sheriff's deputy court in Scotland the presiding judge gave notice to the jurors that he expected to adjourn the court at 2 o'clock, and stated that if they could all remain quiet until that hour he would at once dismiss them.

HONDURAS COMES TO RESCUE OF ZELAYA

Persistent Rumors That Neighboring Republic is Interfering in Civil Strife Reach Washington.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Washington, Nov. 3.—Persistent rumors are reaching the state department that the government of Honduras is giving active support to President Zelaya in his contest against the insurrectionary army of General Estrada. The seizure by Honduras officials of the American launch, the property of the Lagunas de Perlas Fruit company, concerning which complaint has been made to the United States legation in Honduras, will be made the subject of a protest by this government.

Beyond this it is not the present purpose of the state department to take any action with respect to the attitude of Honduras toward the Zelaya government.

UNITED STATES AND MEXICO WATCH CONTEST CLOSELY.
Port Cortez, Spanish Honduras, Oct. 28.—(Via New Orleans, Nov. 3.) It is reported here that President Davila of Honduras has received several cable messages at Tegucigalpa from the state department at Washington informing him that the United States and Mexico are watching very closely the course of the Honduran government in connection with the revolution in Nicaragua.

The plot of these cables is said to be that the United States and Mexico expect Honduras to keep hands off. The cables are said to have been received shortly after the recent meeting between Presidents Taft and Diaz at El Paso, Tex.

The Honduras government officials say that the attitude of Honduras was clearly stated in the Associated Press dispatches from Port Cortez under date of October 21, when it was officially announced that the tug Puerto Perlas had been detained at Port Cortez in order to conform with the peace agreement made at Washington.

They claim there was no demand from the Zelaya government for the seizure of this tug, but it was known the mission of the tug was to bring a supply of arms and ammunition from Guatemala to General Estrada, the leader of the revolutionists. They say this version will form the basis of a charge that Zelaya will make against Guatemala in the international peace court at The Hague.

How the Honduras officials, observing such a strict attitude of neutrality, are so well informed as to Zelaya's plans is a matter which arouses curiosity. It is said further that Zelaya will not await the outcome of hostilities before placing this charge before the court.

This among Americans in this section is taken as evidence that Zelaya is losing courage in spite of his announcements of successful engagements against the revolutionists.

A Keen Lad.
"I had always heard that New Englanders were smart," a young physician who has graduated from a village practice remarked the other day. "But I hardly thought it developed at such an early age."

He smiled reminiscently, then continued: "Just after I settled in Dobbs Corners a twelve-year-old boy called on me one evening.

"Say Doc, I guess I got measles," he remarked, "but nobody knows it but the folks here, and they ain't the kind that takes if there's any good reason to keep quiet."

"I was puzzled, and I suppose I looked it.

"Aw, get wise, Doc," my small visitor suggested. "What will you give me to go to school and spread it among all the kids in the village?" —Lippincott's.

CONDUCTOR PLACED ON TRIAL FOR SMUGGLING

INTERESTING CASES IN ALAMOGORDO COURT

E. P. Crow Will Have Second Trial on Charge of Murdering Louis Lanzendorf; Otero County Display at El Paso.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)

Alamogordo, N. M., Nov. 2.—The session of court which will be convened in Alamogordo on November 22, will see the biggest docket and perhaps the most interesting trials ever held in the county. In compliance with the wishes of the many attorneys interested, Judge Conley postponed the September term of the district court until November, when it will be conducted at the same time with the federal court. Two grand juries and two petit juries will be empaneled and work simultaneously. It is thought that this plan will greatly expedite the work, since the delay in one court can be used to advantage by the other, with both working together.

In the federal court the case of unusual interest will be the trial of Oliver Carr, of El Paso, an El Paso & Southern Railway passenger conductor, on the charge of smuggling alien Chinese into the United States. Last April the federal grand jury returned two true bills against Mr. Carr, one for smuggling Chinese, the other for a conspiracy to smuggle, entered into with Sam Lee, a Chinaman who conducts a restaurant in Tucuman, and Moss Harper, a negro Pullman porter, resident of Chicago. The conspiracy case was tried at the April term, and after a long, hard fight, all three of the defendants were acquitted. The trial of the case attracted widespread attention. A great many witnesses were used by the government, some of them brought from as far east as Massachusetts.

On account of having tried a case at Las Cruces, which was in some way related to this one, Judge Conley feels that he ought not to try the Carr case of smuggling. Judge Frank W. Parker, of Las Cruces, will therefore try the case.

In the territorial court a murder trial will hold the center of the stage. This is the case of E. P. Crow, charged with the killing of Louis Lanzendorf, at Red Horse Springs, this county, in the spring of 1908. The case was put on trial in September, 1908, but after a hard fight, the jury failed to agree. Self defense was the plea of the attorney for the defense. In the trial a great many prominent people from Mr. Crow's home county in Texas, were introduced as character witnesses. The defense was conducted by Judge Byron Sherry, of Alamogordo, and Earl A. Mayo, of Tucuman, Judge J. E. Wharton was employed to assist the district attorney in the prosecution. Mr. Crow was allowed bail, and is at liberty.

A big box of beautiful flowers from Alameda park has been sent to J. C. Dunn, the strengthening and beautifying the Otero county exhibit which is now on display at the big El Paso fair. Since this exhibit was awarded second prize at the territorial fair at Albuquerque, the people of this county feel very proud of it and are hoping for a blue ribbon from El Paso. Mr. Wolfinger, president of the Alamo Business Men's club, says that that organization feels very much interested in the exhibit.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pain in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in my back. I was advised an operation, but I refused. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. Emma Lusk, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

Alamogordo baseball fans of the 33rd degree are displaying more interest in the baseball tournament at El Paso since they have learned that Nelson, former catcher for the disbanded Alamos, is working as one of the backstops for the Socorro team. There will be many fervent prayers offered in behalf of the Socorro team.

William H. Gleason, a prominent business man and capitalist, is confined to his home on New York avenue, suffering with a mastoid abscess of the middle ear. Mr. Gleason was in Salt Lake when the attack was first felt, and was just preparing to leave for Alamogordo, on account of the Cloudcroft fire, in which some of his property was burned. Mrs. Gleason was visiting at Fairwood Springs at the time and hastened home. Mr. Gleason is now out of danger, but is still suffering considerably, and will be confined to his home for some time. During the last race meeting in El Paso Mr. Gleason was business manager of the racing association, and was the financial backer of the sixty day meet held at Salt Lake last spring.

W. E. Dudley, sergeant of the New Mexico mounted police, and second lieutenant of company 1, of the New Mexico national guard, is at home in Alamogordo, seriously ill.

CLOVIS SCHOOLS ARE CROWDED TO THE LIMIT

Total Enrollment Now 700 Pupils and Still Increasing; New Building Already Badly Needed.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Clovis, N. M., Nov. 2.—The total enrollment in the city schools has now reached nearly to the 700 mark, and there are a large number of children in the city who are yet out of school because of the crowded condition. Every available church and hall in the city has been converted into a temporary school room, and more room is yet needed. "We can not hope for the best results," said Superintendent Taylor, "until our new building is completed and we are established in it. I am expected to take care of six or seven daily recitations, on account of the shortage of teachers, and with the different grades so scattered about the city it is impossible for me to do justice to all. We could use a teacher to relieve Miss Adair, one of the other teachers and myself, but the question is, where will we put them?" Superintendent Taylor has for his own office a little corner in the vestibule of the old main building, and it is here that he conducts classes, in a room no larger than six by eight feet.

DR. TIGHT LEAVES TO ASSUME NEW POSITION

Well Known Educator Concludes Long and Useful Residence Here; Enters Insurance Field.

Dr. William G. Tight, for eight years president of the University of New Mexico, president of the Territorial Fair association and for nearly a decade a prominent and useful citizen of Albuquerque, leaves tonight for Mexico, New Mexico, where he will at once assume his new duties as assistant manager for New Mexico for the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company. Dr. Tight has held full supervision of all business and agents of the company in the populous Pecos valley, and that the business will grow under his management it is needless to state, as he has abundantly proven his executive ability during his residence in Albuquerque. Dr. Tight has always been a consistent advocate of the best interests not only of Albuquerque but of New Mexico, and will be an invaluable acquisition to the citizenship of the Pecos valley. His standing as an educator is of the highest and his record in building up the present big territorial university from its small beginning is one that has probably never been equaled among the educational institutions of the southwest.

Dr. Tight has spent eight years of hard work in the interests of Albuquerque and Albuquerque institutions, and has done more perhaps than any other one man to bring New Mexico's educational progress before the country at large. His departure from Albuquerque is a loss that will be widely felt and the insurance company and the Pecos valley are both to be equally congratulated on his latest move.

Dr. Tight has disposed of his property here, including his residence on the University hill.

THOUSAND GALLONS PER MINUTE AT PORTALES

INEXHAUSTIBLE SUPPLY OF WATER DISCOVERED

Flow from Lindsey Well Flooding the Town; 6000 Acres Signed Up for Irrigation Near City.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Portales, N. M., Nov. 2.—Water from the well of Lindsey, which is about one and one-half miles from the town, is now flowing down the streets of Portales. The final test of this well has been made and there is no longer any question about the practicability of shallow well irrigation in this section. Six thousand acres around Portales have already been signed for, and another six thousand are wanted and will probably be added before the plant is in full operation. The six-inch stream from the well on the Lindsey farm throws one thousand gallons of water per minute, and the other two test wells are doing as well. A prominent realty holder said today: "There is nothing that could have happened that could mean so much to Portales and the surrounding country as this. When the irrigation system is in full and complete operation, we will have everything easy. We have raised bumper crops in this section for a half dozen years now, by depending strictly upon the rain fall, and with the certainty that we will have a season just when we want it there can be no question about a great agricultural future for this district."

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL CLOSED

Sixteen Thousand Lots for Residence Purposes Disposed of to Capitalist from Mexico City at Las Cruces.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal) Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 4.—One of the largest real estate transactions for years in the Mesilla valley was closed today when Isidoro Armijo disposed of 16,000 lots to J. D. Walker of Mexico City. This tract includes 2000 acres, originally a part of the Dona Ana Bend grant, and includes what are known as the Navajo, Senator, Sylvan and Westmont Heights additions to Las Cruces. Nearly all the 125,000 acres of the grant have been sold since 1905. The land is between Las Cruces and Dona Ana.

Mr. Walker says he will at once clear the land, grade streets and alleys and put it on the market for residence purposes. The consideration is not stated.

Present: Hon. Alfred Grunfeld, chairman; M. R. Springer and Policarpo Armijo, commissioners; A. E. Walker, clerk; J. Romero, sheriff, and Geo. S. Klock, district attorney.

In relation to the proposed settlement of delinquent taxes due the county from the First National Bank, the Bank of Commerce and the State National Bank, it is the sense of the commissioners that the board has no authority to instruct the district attorney to compromise the suits begun against said banks.

The district attorney is instructed to take an appeal to the supreme court in the case of S. Grunfeld vs. Board of County Commissioners.

Present: Hon. Alfred Grunfeld, chairman; M. R. Springer and Policarpo Armijo, commissioners; A. E. Walker, clerk; J. Romero, sheriff, and Geo. S. Klock, district attorney.

A resolution, requesting the district attorney to compromise the tax cases now pending against the First National Bank, the Bank of Commerce, and the State National Bank, is adopted by the board.

It is ordered by the board that a warrant be drawn in favor of S. Grunfeld, former assessor, in the sum of $7,500.00, to apply on the amount due said Grunfeld on the basis of 2 per cent commission on amount collected on his assessments.

A. B. Stroup, county superintendent of schools, states to the board that he believes that saloons in some of the precincts of the county are not paying as high a license as they should, and recommends that the board cause a census to be taken in said precincts. The matter is taken under advisement.

Hon. E. A. Miera, of Sandoval county, addresses the board in relation to the interest due Bernalillo county from Sandoval county, and the amount due Sandoval county from Bernalillo county on account of delinquent taxes that have been collected by the collector of Bernalillo county.

The board requests Mr. Miera to state to the board of county commissioners of Sandoval county that they should employ some competent person to ascertain the amount due from Bernalillo county to Sandoval county and report to this board.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street.

New York, Nov. 3.—The quiet condition in the speculation which has been prevailing for several weeks past was in evidence today. It was supposed to be due, in part, to the delay in the return from election day holiday visits on the part of the brokerage fraternity. There was sufficient uncertainty acknowledged in the money outlook to account for the holding tendency in the market's activity. The figures of the clearing house exchanges for last Monday gave a hint of the special demand on the banks. The settlements effected between the clearing house banks for that day amounted to the prodigious total of $356,461,549. The nearest approach ever made to these figures was on January 3, 1906, when exchanges at the clearing house were reported at $486,884,890. Call money in that week went to 60 per cent at the stock exchange, and the daily sales of stocks advanced nearly a million and a half shares.

In the present instance, stock market operations were quiet and the banks do not report any extraordinary transaction.

Abroad there was an easing of the private discount rate in London today which had some effect on foreign exchange here, but in Paris the private discount rate stiffened and the exchange rate on London ran off.

There was some diversion of speculative interest to minor industrial stocks in the market today. This was fostered to some extent by the slight response hitherto made by the steel industry to the disproportionate advance in United States Steel. The large orders for new equipment now being placed by the railroads helped the stocks of companies in those industries. The copper stocks were helped by the reports of large sales of copper recently made. Pennsylvania showed further unfavorable effect from the decision to issue a new stock to stockholders at as low a figure as possible. The subscription rights for the new stock were quoted in the outside market at a figure which offered a profit in buying the rights against sales of the stock on the stock exchange. The strength in spots was emphasized with the progress of the day, but did not permeate the whole list at any time. Closing stocks:

Commanding Officer at Fort Wingate Expresses Appreciation of Commercial Club Courtesies.

The following brief but eloquent communication has been received by the president of the Commercial club from Captain F. R. McCoy, Third U. S. Cavalry, commanding officer at Fort Wingate, and who was in command of the splendid body of troops here during the fair:

Wingate, N. M., Oct. 29, 1909.
Mr. Bertold Stutz, President of the Commercial Club, Albuquerque, N. M.
Sir: On behalf of the officers of the Wingate command I have the honor of thanking you for the many courtesies extended to us while in Albuquerque. We enjoyed the privileges of the Commercial club and hope also that you will give our appreciation to the members of the reception committee with whom it was a pleasure to co-operate and foregather, officially and personally.

Very respectfully,
F. R. McCoy,
Captain Third Cavalry, Commanding.

CAUSES DEBILITY.
Here are Facts Backed Up by a Strong Guarantee.

Catharrs causes debility. In our opinion, most people suffering from general debility have catharrs. Such cases of debility cannot be completely cured by medicine not designed to eradicate catharrs. In every case where our remedy fails to give entire satisfaction we will not charge a cent for the medicine employed during the trial. Now, surely no one should hesitate to believe us or put our claim to a practical test under such conditions. We take all the risks; no one else can lose anything by the transaction.

We make these statements and this offer because we know and have time and again proved that Rexall Mucosa-Tone rarely fails to do as we claim. It is not a cure-all prescribed to cure every disease that flesh is heir to. It is intended for one purpose, i. e., to cure catharrs by assailing the diseased condition in a reasonable scientific way, which is to employ agents that have been found to have the tonic and alternative power to correct faulty metabolism (tissue change) and to stimulate and help nature overcome the cause or causes of catharrs. This being done, appetite increases, nutrition improves, weight is gained, comfort of body is attained and life's work taken up with the zest natural to the perfectly healthy individual.

We want you to try Rexall Mucosa-Tone. Follow directions and take it regularly and consistently for a reasonable length of time. Then, if you are not satisfied, come back and tell us and the money you paid for the treatment will be returned without any argument whatever.

Rexall Mucosa-Tone comes in two sizes, 50c and $1.00 a bottle. Sold only at our stores—The Rexall Store, The J. H. O'Reilly Co.

SANDOVAL COUNTY PROPERTY OWNERS
SUED FOR TAXES

Five Prominent Residents of Upper County Made Defendants in Suits for Recovery of Back Taxes.

Five suits, aggregating approximately $4000 were filed in the district court yesterday against five well-known residents and property owners in Sandoval county, making the judgment for the amounts mentioned in the respective suits be granted in favor of the territory on account of the failure of the plaintiffs to pay taxes for several years past. The suits were filed in the name of the territory of New Mexico by District Attorney George S. Klock, and contain substantially the same allegations as the suits filed several days ago against Sandoval county land companies, in which judgment was asked for some thirty thousand dollars alleged to be due as back taxes from 1905 to 1908. Those made defendants yesterday were Esquibel Baca, against whom judgment is asked in the sum of $1283.58; Jesus Maria Sandoval, $896.58; E. A. Miera, $2847.84; Manuel Armijo, $270.22;
V. S. Miera, $239.25. It is understood that numerous other suits will be filed in the near future against various Sandoval county property owners who have neglected to pay their taxes. The financial condition of Sandoval county is not at all encouraging and it is understood that a determined effort will be made to realize on the tax assessments and fill the strong box to such an extent that the county will be able to pay its bills, reopen the schools and conduct business generally on a different basis than for some time past.

To Recover on Note.

T. N. Wilkinson, attorney for E. L.
Medler, filed a suit in the district court yesterday asking judgment against Carrie M. Childers, executrix of the estate of William B. Childers, deceased, for $2690.49, alleged to be due on a promissory note dated October 25, 1908.

Pitney Case Still Before Court.

The case of R. E. Pitney versus C.
H. Schmidt and Charles Story, in which the plaintiff seeks to recover $16,500 on a promissory note, which was begun in the district court some ten days ago, was the only business before the court yesterday. The case will probably be before the court for two or more days before being completed.

Deputy Sheriff Coulter returned with intent to kill upon the person of Nestor Sena and his father, Manuel Sena, both of whom are badly cut and bruised as a result of an encounter with Perea at Alameda late Tuesday night. The causes leading up to the quarrel are not known, but Perea, who is considered a dangerous man, carried the fighting into the Sena camp and apparently was well on the way toward cleaning up the whole family. He began the attack with a beer bottle, with which he cut and bruised Manuel Sena very severely.

He then turned on Nestor Sena on whom he cut a knife, cutting the man about the head and face. Nestor Sena is confined to his home with the wounds. Manuel Sena came to Albuquerque yesterday and swore to a complaint charging assault to kill, before Judge George R. Craig. Perea is in the county jail. He will be given a preliminary hearing this morning at 10 o'clock.

Bispham Recital Sale Proper Opens Tuesday Morning Next at Matson's; Concert Will Be Social Event.

There seems to be a misunderstanding regarding the sale of seats for the subscribers to the Elks' theater music course, which opens tomorrow morning at Matson's. Between that time and Tuesday next subscribers to the course and all those desirous of obtaining the reduced prices for the three events only, will have the opportunity of making their selection of seats, taking, if they choose, the same location for the three concerts. Not until Tuesday morning will the seats for the Bi-spham recital go on sale. Inasmuch as the choice of seats for the three events, if bought singly, will amount to probably nine dollars, the saving by buying season tickets for five dollars is obvious.

The Bispham recital will take place Thursday night, November 11, and that the affair will be in the nature of a social outpouring as well as a rare musical treat is assured. Notwithstanding his mastery of several foreign tongues, Bispham's program embraces only songs in English, as he is an ardent apostle of the native tongue for English-speaking people.

"And why not," he says, "English well lends itself to singing, and it makes the music mean so much more to the average English-speaking audience. I have given even numbers on my program to American composers, partly because the songs are extremely worthy of consideration, and partly because of my office as president of the American Music society, the main purpose of which is to encourage American composers and exploit their compositions. One of the most noteworthy examples of work on my program is Mr. Bergh's music to "The Haven." The composer is from Minnesota, although he is, I suppose, of German extraction, and he is playing with a prominent New York orchestra."

It takes a temperament with the operative experience of Mr. Bispham, with the poise and control of his years of concert training, to make the super success he does of this weird poem, which he humanizes where the ordinary reader makes it uncanny. It is certain that Mr. Bispham's entire program will be one of artistic delight, since he is an artist in his finger tips.

ECONOMIC ESSAY FOR CASH PRIZES

Two Thousand Dollars Offered Successful Contestants in University Competition.

The opportunity to write economic essays for cash prizes has been brought to the attention of students of all New Mexico colleges by Professor J. Laurence Laughlin, of the University of Chicago, who is chairman of the committee in charge of the contest. The prizes amount to $2,000, and are given by Hart, Schaffner & Marx.

The subjects for the essays cover such important questions as the effect of labor unions on international trade, the best means of raising the wages of the unskilled, protectionism in the United States, a scheme for an ideal monetary system, the relation of the central government to trusts, a central bank as a factor in a financial crisis, and other vital economic problems.

These contests have been held for the last six years and some of the essays produced by American students have been so well regarded that they have been published in book form.
Some of these essays have attracted widespread attention and contributed materially to the economic literature of the day.

The papers for the prizes are to be submitted before June 1, 1910. Contestants are divided into three classes,
as follows:

Class A—First prize, $500; second prize, $400.
Class B—First prize, $300; second
prize, $200.

Class C—One prize of $500.
Classes A and B refer particularly to college men; class C is open to anyone, whether with or without an academic training.

The members of the committee,
aside from Professor Laughlin, are:
Professor J. H. Clark, Columbia university; Professor Henry C. Adams, University of Michigan; Horace White, Esq., New York city; and Edwin F. Gay, Harvard university.

and tomorrow, beginning with this afternoon's matinee. War scenes and stories have often been depicted in moving pictures, but it has remained for the Selig company to manufacture what is declared by experts to be the greatest war picture ever produced.

The picture was given a trial run after the last performance at the Pastime last night and it was evident that the manufacturers had made no false statement regarding its excellence, stirring, thrilling and magnificent throughout, the picture grasps the interest of the audience and holds it from scene to scene until the final climax, which is almost indescribable.

The story is founded upon a page out of the history of the Boer war, the opening scene being laid in the vicinity of Kimberley. A beautiful and impressive love story, which has a difficult pathway, but a happy and clever ending, is woven throughout the picture. Perfect in action, photography and general excellence, the film must be seen to be appreciated.

Many school children suffer from constipation, which is often the cause of seeming stupidity at lessons. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are an ideal medicine to give a child, for they are mild and gentle in their effect, and will cure even chronic constipation. Sold by all druggists.

SOLEMN CEREMONY IN SANTA BARBARA
CEMETERY

Requiem High Mass to be Celebrated in Chapel at Roman Catholic Burying Grounds at 9:30 This Morning.

A requiem high mass for the repose of the departed souls of the Immaculate Conception parish will be celebrated in Santa Barbara chapel in the Santa Barbara cemetery beginning at 9:30 o'clock this morning. Rev.
Father Capilupi, S. J., will be the celebrant, and Rev. A. M. Mandall, S. J., assistant. Music for the mass will be sung by the Immaculate Conception choir, in which the mass will be erected several years ago and is located in the center of the cemetery.

Numerous improvements have been made at Santa Barbara recently. A large plot of ground has been laid off, surrounded by a cement wall, wherein the bodies of deceased members of the Society of Jesus will be interred. Those members of the society who are now buried in other parts of the cemetery will be interred in the new plot.

Several new plots have been arranged on the north side of the main avenue, containing numerous desirable lots for burying places. Those persons who have relatives or friends interred in the cemetery and who wish to arrange for their removal to the new plots may do so by applying to Mr. F. H. Strong, superintendent.
