PATHETIC TALE OF STRUGGLE AGAINST DEATH

Scribbled Pages of Simple
Diary Tell of Doomed Men's Effort to Prolong Life in Gas
Choked Hole.

ALL HOPE OF SAVING MEN AT CHERRY ABANDONED

Fresh Fall of Rock Blocks
Path of Rescue Party;
Bodies of Many May Never Recovered.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 23.—Hope that there might still be alive some of the 139 men known to be entombed in the St. Paul mine was practically abandoned today. An exploration into what is known as the second vein, where it was thought probable many miners had barricaded themselves and had managed to exist on oats and corn provided for the mines, showed that great portions of the tunnels had collapsed.

It is believed that many men were buried under the debris and if the obstruction is not soon cleared at least 100 bodies may never be dug up. Fire was still raging in these tunnels, and the back portions where imprisoned miners could have found a retreat were said to be full of the fatal black damp.

What little hope we had was given up when we penetrated to what is known as the overcast," said W. W. Taylor, general manager of the mine. "In that place there are would have been found anywhere, and the miners likely would have retired there. When we got into that place we found it empty both of bodies and of live men. We listened in vain to detect a signal or any other sign of life."

Cherry continues to be a village of mourning. The death today of one of the survivors brought to the surface late Saturday reduced the total number of those saved out of the 316 lost in the disaster to nineteen. Almost all the forty-two bodies taken out yesterday were identified. Rescuers met with great obstacles. In one instance fire broke out in a tunnel temporarily cutting off the escape of twenty-five men who had ventured 400 feet from the hoisting shaft.

The smell of smoke gave the warning above and the rescuers were reached and brought to safety by another rescue party.

Following a telegram sent to Governor Deneen by the executive board of the miners' organization, asking that someone be designated by the state to take charge of the mine, Mine Inspector Hector McAllister was placed in charge.

Despite the fire and the falling in of the tunnels the rescue work will be pushed night and day.

Grim Story of Death Struggle.
A diary was found today in the clothing of one of the bodies taken from the mine yesterday. It was begun on the day of the disaster, and was written by Samuel D. Howard, 21 years old. It describes the slow death of the men by the encroaching black damp and refers to Samuel's efforts to save his brother Alfred, 16 years old, who died by his side. The diary follows:

"Alive at 10:30 o'clock yet. By Sam D. Howard. Brother Alfred is with me yet. A good many dead mules and men. I tried to save some but came almost losing myself. If I am dead give my diamond ring to Mamie Robinson. The ring is coming at the postoffice. Henry can have the ring I have in my good clothes. The only thing I regret is that my brother could not help my mother out after I am dead and gone."

"I tried my best to get out, but could not. I saw Jim Jamieson and Steve Timke lying along the road and could not stand it any longer. It is minutes past 11 o'clock and the air is fine, but sometimes it is so bad it almost puts a fellow's light out. It is something fierce to see men and mules lying down all over like that. To keep me from thinking I thought I would write these few lines. There is rock falling all over. We have our buckets full of water, sump water, and we drink it and bathe our heads with it."

"Ten to 12 o'clock, 7 after 1 o'clock, 2 o'clock, 3 o'clock and poor air and black damp. 4:15 o'clock change of place. One man tried to get out and could not get back. 7:50 o'clock tired, hungry and sleepy. I could stand quite a bit of this if I could get out of this hole. 8:50 in the morning. This is Sunday. There is no air. We fanned ourselves with the lids of our buckets. 25 after 9 o'clock and black damp coming both ways. 25 after 10 o'clock we gave up all hopes. We have done all we could. The fan had better start pretty soon from above. 25 after 10 Sunday. We are still alive. The only hope is the fan."

"I think I won't have strength to write pretty soon. 15 after 12 p. m. Sunday. If they can't give us air we will make fans ourselves. We take our turn at the fan. We have three of them going. 27 to 3 p. m. and the black damp is coming in on us. Only for the fans we would be dead. 13 to 4 p. m. Dying for the want of air. We have six fans moving. One fan after another 15 feet apart. 25 after 10 p. m. Sunday evening. We all had to come back. We can't move front or backwards. We can stand it with our fans until Monday morning. 15 after 2 a. m. Monday morning. Am still alive. We are cold, hungry, weak, sick and everything else. Alfred Howard is still alive. 5:15 Sunday morning. Still breathing. Something better. Turn up or we will be gone. 11:15 a. m. still alive at this time. 12 to 2 p. m. Monday. The lives are going out. I think this is our last, we are getting weak. Alfred Howard as well as all of us."

The diary was scribbled in lead pencil on loose leaves torn from an account book.

MINE RESCUE APPARATUS ENTERS FREE OF DUTY

Washington, Nov. 23.—Timely because of the fearful mine disaster at Cherry, Ill., a liberal interpretation has been given by the treasury department to paragraph 628 of the new tariff law, which provides for the free entry for "miners' rescue appliances." These appliances in the language of the law are "designed for emergency use in mines where artificial breathing is necessary in the presence of poisonous gases to aid in the saving of human life."

The department today gave instructions to admit free all miners' rescue appliances and parts thereof.

Aged Policeman Dead.

Turner, Mo., Nov. 23.—Solon Chase, a celebrated figure in the days of the Greenback agitation, thirty years ago, died of heart disease today. He was 87 years old. At the height of the Greenback campaign, Chase stamped the country as far as the middle-west, driving a pair of steers hitched to a hay rack, from the rear end of which he delivered his speeches. He was publisher of Chase's Chronicle, a Greenback organ.

PRESIDENT URGED TO GO SLOW WITH RAILROADS

Committee Representing Big Supply Concern Calls at White House to Discuss Regulation Legislation.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Washington, Nov. 23.—President Taft today received a call from a committee representing the Railway Business association, a national organization with headquarters in New York, who came to discuss railway regulation legislation at the approaching session of congress.

The committee consisted of Otis H. Cutler of New York, president of the American Brake Shoe & Foundry company; W. H. Marshall of New York, president of the American Locomotive company; and A. J. Mulliken of Chicago, president of Pettibone, Mulliken & Co., manufacturers of frogs and switches, and all vice presidents of the association.

The company told the president they were interested in railway legislation because of its possible effect upon their own business. Representing as they did five hundred millions of capital and a million and a half employees, they were concerned over any action that would injuriously affect credit of the railroads.

RAILROADS LOSE MONEY ON MAIL CONTRACTS

Washington, Nov. 23.—Practically every small railroad in the country carries the United States mails at a dead loss, according to Ralph Peters, president of the Long Island Railroad company, who called upon President Taft today. Appropriations made by congress for carrying the mails, Mr. Peters declared, are utterly inadequate. He said he would take the subject with that body this winter.

Mr. Peters says his road receives $44,000 a year for carrying the mails and the expense is $135,000.

SPECULATION OVER CLARKSON'S SUCCESSOR

Washington, Nov. 23.—Collector Loeb of New York, left for home today after concluding his conference with President Taft and Secretary MacVane regarding customs conditions at New York. The names of Richard Parr, chief of the collectors of the New York customs, and of George W. Aldridge of Rochester, N. Y., have been mentioned in connection with the surveyorship of the port of New York, which will be vacated by General J. S. Clarkson on January 1, but it can be stated authoritatively that it is planned to appoint neither of them.

Central to Sell New Stock.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 23.—The public service commission has authorized the New York Central and Hudson River railroad to issue $46,580 shares of its capital stock of a total par value of $44,658,000.

Of the proceeds $21,966,613 is to be used for the discharge of three-year, 5 per cent gold notes, maturing February 16, 1910, and $24,613,387 for the acquisition of property and for extension and improvement.

DESPOILER OF HOME SLAYS WRONGED HUSBAND

Donaciano Aguilar Confesses
He Poisoned Ignacio Gallegos
With Strychnine in Whisky and Killed Him.

SENTENCED TO LIFE TERM AT HARD LABOR

News Received at Shiprock
Indian Agency of Murder of American on Navajo Reservation.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)

Astec, N. M., Nov. 23.—A sensation was caused on Thursday night by the arrival in Astec of Donaciano Aguilar in custody, charged with the murder of Ignacio Gallegos at Alcatraz. It was claimed that Aguilar came over from his home near Rosa, Rio Arriba county, and went to the house of Gallegos, apparently for a friendly visit. He carried a bottle of whisky, in which he had placed strychnine, and offered it to his victim, who took a drink and in less than half an hour died. Judge McFie promptly impaneled a special grand jury, before whom the facts were laid, and which indicted Aguilar. The prisoner was arraigned and at once pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree. His sentence was placed at ninety-nine years at hard labor in the penitentiary. The facts leading to the murder are said to be that the victim had discovered illicit relations between his wife and Aguilar and had threatened to kill Aguilar. The latter then got the whisky and killed the wronged husband.

O. S. Thurston, accused of burglary in company with John Bane, was found guilty and will be sentenced the last of the term. Bane turned state's evidence and the indictment against him was quashed. While drunk the two men broke into the Astec drug store and stole whisky. Two other burglaries were committed the same night, money and jewelry being taken from the stores of H. D. Abrams and W. H. Williams & Son. For these crimes Thurston Bane and Dole Hildebrand have been indicted. These last cases have not yet been reached on the docket.

Habeas corpus proceedings were brought by John Allen to compel his mother-in-law to deliver his wife, Klara Young Allen, to her husband. The hearing is now in progress. The young wife testifies that she has left Allen of her own accord. Both parties are Mormons. It being claimed that the bride is but fifteen years old, and they were married by a justice of the peace unknown to the mother of the girl, objection to this marriage is said to be based on the age of the girl.

Murder Reported on Navajo Reser-

vation.
Word has just been received here of the murder of Charles Fritz, which is said to have occurred on the Navajo reservation south of Shiprock. Indians brought the information to Superintendent Shelton and he is now investigating the affair. The Indians gave no details.

LETTER FROM ASTOR ENDS ANXIETY

Yacht Nourmahal in San Juan
Harbor One Week Ago; Mail
Advices Report Vessel Undamaged.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

New York, Nov. 23.—The Astor yacht puzzle is solved. Mail from Colonel John Jacob Astor and his party reached New York today on the Insular line steamer, Harry Luckenbach, which sailed from San Juan, P. R., November 17.

On that date an officer from the yacht Nourmahal came aboard the Luckenbach with mail just before the latter ship sailed for New York. This officer told Captain James Dalton, of the Luckenbach, that the Nourmahal was to sail next for some Cuban port. At the time, according to Captain Dalton, the Nourmahal was safely at anchor and showed no signs of damage.

The positive assurance that the Nourmahal was safe at San Juan on November 17, just a week ago, practically ends a 19 days' search.

William A. Dobbins, secretary of the Astor estate, received tonight one of the letters from Colonel Astor, brought in by the steamer Harry Luckenbach.

"It was a short letter dated the 14th, and concerned only business matters," said Mr. Dobbins. "It made no mention whatever of the Nourmahal, having had any trouble in the storm and it is apparent that at the time Colonel Astor wrote he had no idea of the anxiety felt here on his account. He said he would cable me when communication was re-established."

"The letter completely relieves us of the fears we had felt for Colonel Astor's safety."

WIRELESS LINES OVER TROPIC SEAS CRIPPLED

Tampa, Fla., Nov. 23.—San Juan, P. R., is as completely cut off by a heavy bank of impenetrable atmosphere as if it were walled in, all efforts to establish communication with the wireless station there having failed. Atmospheric conditions on the gulf and Caribbean sea are unprecedented in wireless communication.

With the discovery of the safety of Colonel Astor's yacht another mystery developed—that of the identity of the submarine vessel sighted by the German steamer Wotan a week ago, just off the northern coast of Cuba.

SALE OF LOTS AT PARKER POSTPONED

Washington, Nov. 23.—Announcement was made today that the public sale of town lots in the Parker, Arizona, townsite, tentatively fixed for December 23, had been indefinitely postponed. Land officials at Phoenix will notify those claiming a preference right to make entries of lots at the appraised price that they will be given until December 30, within which to submit their proofs. The adjournment of these preference right applications will be made special in the general land office.

STANDARD OIL UNMOVED BY REBUKE

WILL NOT CHANGE ITS METHODS OF BUSINESS

Immediate Appeal to Supreme Court of St. Paul Decision
Decided on by Rockefeller Corporation.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

New York, Nov. 23.—The Standard Oil company announced authoritatively today that it had no intention of seeking an amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law, but will proceed with the appeal to the United States supreme court from the decree of the United States circuit court at St. Paul. Until the supreme court has rendered a decision the company will consider no other particular plans of doing business than those now in use.

Mortimer Elliott, solicitor of the company, is authority for the foregoing. He discussed the case with a representative of the Associated Press after a conference with William Rockefeller and John D. Archibald. "There is to be no effort on the part of the company to procure an amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law," said Mr. Elliott. "We shall await the verdict of the supreme court before we take any steps looking toward reorganization or a new statement of our case to the public. The court has first rights."

"It seems highly improbable to me that there will ever be a foreign holding company organized, as you tell me has been suggested. The complexity of control exercised by the several state acts too many difficulties in the way."

"Such comment on the case as I have seen misses the fact that the Standard Oil company is not a holding company, pure and simple, as was the Northern Securities company. For instance, it owns outright at Bayonne, N. J., the largest refinery in the world. There is nothing in the decree to prevent the company from continuing to do business, although I admit that it makes doing business more cumbersome."

"Although the decree enjoins the Standard Oil company from voting its shareholdings in subsidiary companies or receiving dividends from them, there is no reason why the individual holders among whom such shares would be divided should not elect their own officers in the subsidiary companies and receive their own dividends from those companies."

"In brief, there is no cause for the market to fear a forced liquidation of the securities of the Standard Oil company now holds. I disagree with the gentlemen who think a redistribution is necessary, other than of the sort I outlined in my first statement."

An executive officer of the company said today that an alarm was sounded over the possibility of a criminal prosecution under section two of the Sherman anti-trust act, should the present decree in equity be upheld in the supreme court.

CONGRESSMAN DEARMOND GIVES LIFE FOR BOY

Vain Effort to Save Little Grandson From Flaming Dwelling Brings Death to Noted Missourian.

CHARRED BODIES FOUND LOCKED IN LAST EMBRACE

Pathetic Tragedy Brings Nation Wide Sympathy for Stricken Family of Famous
Leader of Democracy.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Kansas City, Nov. 23.—In a vain effort to save the life of his little grandson, Congressman David A. De Armond, of the Sixth Missouri district, perished in a fire that destroyed his home in Butler, Mo., early today.

The heroism of the congressman was made known late this afternoon, when, with his arms locked around the burned body of the little boy, the dead man's body was found. He had caught up the six-year-old lad, David A. De Armond, Jr., and rushed with him through the flames that filled his room. He fell with his unconscious burden and both sank through the floor to quick death. What makes the tragedy unusually pathetic is the fact that the grandson was the grandfather's idol. The two were inseparable and often slept together. Last night the boy went to his grandfather's house as usual, and after a happy evening the two retired. The next the family heard of them was early today, when, from behind the smoke and flames that enveloped the house the boy screamed:

"Oh, grandpa, get me out of here quick. I'm burning to death."

"Yes, son; don't be afraid. Grandpa will take you out," was the calm reply. Then both went down to their death.

The rest of the family sleeping in the house at the time, Mrs. De Armond, her daughter, Mrs. Clark, and Miss Nettie Boles—were greatly shaken by their experiences. Mrs. De Armond fainted and would have met death in the flames had not her daughter dragged her out into the yard.

Messages of condolence from all parts of the country were read by the De Armonds this afternoon. James A. De Armond, editor of the Bates County Democrat, son of the congressman and father of the boy who was burned, tried to rush into the burning house to save his father and son, but was prevented by others who knew his sacrifice would be in vain.

David Although De Armond was born in Blair county, Pa., March 18, 1844; was brought up on a farm; educated in the common schools and at Williamsport Dickinson Seminary. He was first elected to the house of representatives from the sixth congressional district of Missouri in 1891 and served continuously. He was one of the best known members of the lower house and had occupied other positions of prominence in his state.

He was a democrat. In addition to his political prominence he was a well-known lawyer.

In his young manhood he practiced law in Butler, Mo., and in 1884 was named a presidential elector. He had successfully filled the positions of state senator, circuit judge and Missouri supreme court commissioner.

Inclined to be pugnacious, he often pleaded subjects as an aggressor rather than as a defendant. This quality of mind was the means of getting him a personal altercation two years ago with John Sharp Williams, democratic leader of the house. The difference between them arose over Mr. Williams' designation of a Missouri colleague of Mr. De Armond's for a place in the organization of the sixtieth congress. They came to blows, but both being lightweights, neither was badly hurt.

Mr. De Armond was an aspirant for the leadership of the house, but the designation of Mr. Clark effectively cut him out of that position.

TAFT SENDS CONDOLENCES TO THE STRICKEN FAMILY

Butler, Mo., Nov. 23.—Congressman D. A. De Armond and his little grandson will not be separated in death. Tonight it was decided to hold a double funeral for them Friday afternoon. Interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery. Word was received from Washington tonight that a congressional committee had been appointed to attend the funeral. Among the messages of condolence received was one from Speaker Cannon.

From Washington, President Taft sent the following message to Mrs. De Armond:

"Mrs. Taft and I are shocked to hear the dreadful news. We sympathize most deeply with you in your sorrow. Your husband and I were very intimate. I valued his friendship most highly. He was an honest, able ser-

JUDGE ABBOTT AS GOVERNOR PLEASING TO PEOPLE

Announcement of Probable Appointment of Local Man
Makes Favorable Impression
in Territory.

IS ENDORSED BY LOCAL PARTY ORGANIZATION

Dona Ana County May Play
Lawshe as Favorite Son, But Strong Abbott Sentiment Has Developed.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

The announcement made by the Morning Journal of the probable appointment of Judge Ira A. Abbott of this city as the governor of New Mexico to succeed George Curry next spring has occasioned wide interest throughout the territory and from all counties come reports that a candor in this quarter would be strongly supported throughout New Mexico. The news has come as a general surprise but it received none the less favorably on that account. The necessity of such a man as Judge Abbott to take the helm of state at this time when a business administration is needed instead of a political one is generally recognized, and his appointment would be entirely satisfactory to the great majority of citizens, to whom purely partisan activity at this time is secondary in importance to having an executive who will help New Mexico to move forward.

Judge Abbott is moreover the kind of a man for governor who pleases the rank and file of the republican party in New Mexico. He is a man whose sterling republicanism has never been questioned, a republican in the broadest sense of the term, who would not allow partisan bias to blind him to the best interests of the people as a whole.

The Dona Ana county republican organization has already wired to Washington its unqualified indorsement of Judge Abbott for the position, and other counties are following suit. It is understood the people of Colfax county would be very well pleased to see him get the job and as various other counties are heard from it becomes evident that Judge Abbott can undoubtedly rally the best element in the republican party to his support. The wires have been kept busy since Sunday bearing indorsements of Judge Abbott to the president and the secretary of the interior.

DONA ANA COUNTY MAY INDORSE LAWSHE

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)

Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 23.—The news of the probability of the appointment of Judge Ira Abbott of Albuquerque as the next governor of New Mexico has created a most favorable impression in Dona Ana county as well as elsewhere in southern New Mexico. It is understood, however, that the county republican organization will probably indorse A. L. Lawshe, third assistant postmaster general, who is now fitted to play the role of a "favorite son," as he has taken up his permanent residence in Las Cruces. Mr. Lawshe maintains a non-committal attitude in the matter.

H. B. Bowman of this place went to Albuquerque Saturday night to consult with the republican leaders about the forthcoming appointment. He had authority to act for the Dona Ana county republican organization, but finding that the party was not a unit in the matter he thought best to submit the proposition to the people themselves.

Mr. Bowman therefore took no action. A private caucus was held last night at Bowman's bank, where, it is understood, the name of Nathan Lawshe was brought up unsuccessfully for indorsement. It is believed that after all is said and done the people here will probably compromise on Mr. Lawshe as the best way out of the situation.

JUDGE MILLS OPENS TO PETITION IN MATTER

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)

Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 23.—A well defined street rumor here today has it that Chief Justice William J. Mills of this city is to be appointed governor of New Mexico to succeed George Curry resigned. When asked regarding this report Judge Mills had nothing to say aside from the statement that it he was appointed it would be entirely unsolicited on his part but that he would accept.

Yeggen Dynamic Safe.

Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 23.—Yeggen dynamited the safe of Yeggen's mercantile store Sunday night and secured $15,000. The store was taken home with him Saturday night for safekeeping. The theft was reported today.

GOVERNMENT GETS ALONG WITHOUT MR. GLAVIS

Former Chief of Land Office at Seattle Present at Alaskan
Coal Land Hearing, But Not Invited to Testify.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 23.—The government virtually concluded the examination of its witnesses in the Alaska coal land investigation today and it is probable that the Seattle sitting will be concluded tomorrow, when the special commissioner will adjourn the hearing to Spokane. It now seems certain that L. R. Glavis, former chief of the field division of the general land office here, will not be called as a witness by the government. Although he has been a constant attendant at the hearing Mr. Glavis was called on by the government only to identify a letter written by him to J. M. Sheridan, the government attorney.

Today's session was taken up with the examination of William A. Langille of the forestry service, who made a close inspection of the Cunningham group of Alaska coal claims to ascertain the amount of timber on them. Langille's evidence was virtually the same as that of Andrew Kennedy, government coal expert.

A letter from George P. Cecil, acting district forester at Portland, Ore., to E. E. Ames, a forestry bureau agent in Alaska. It follows in part: "Dear Ames—There is considerable evidence that the claimants in the above cases (Cunningham claims) are not only trying to get valuable coal lands fraudulently, but are attempting to secure, in addition to the coal claims, the timber lands for purpose of supplying timber to work their mines. Careful inspection of the reports of the stockholders admits that four of the claims are more valuable for timber than for coal, so the department has secured a continuance of the cases in order to investigate thoroughly."

NOTED AVIATORS TO FLY AT LOS ANGELES

Paris, Nov. 23.—Negotiations have practically been concluded whereby M. Paulhan, French aviator, will go to America to participate in the exhibition flights, aviation week at Los Angeles. Later he will give exhibitions at the Mardi Gras at New Orleans and at other places in the south. M. Paulhan will receive $20,000 a month.

Edward Clerly, who made the arrangements with Paulhan is also negotiating with other French aviators. He made a contract with Dorothy Levett, an English woman, who yesterday at Chalons, made a flight at an altitude of 200 feet in Hubert Latham's machine.

Hawaii May Grow Cotton.

Honolulu, Nov. 23.—The establishment of a cotton plantation in Hawaii is among the possibilities of the near future. Negotiations for the purchase of Lanai island for that purpose, involving the expenditure of $250,000, are now in progress between J. T. McCrosson and Frank Thompson and the owner of the property, W. G. Irwin.

THREE MILLIONS OF ABDUL'S MONEY IN GERMANY

Imperial Bank Declines to Turn It Over to Turkish Government in Absence of Special Seal.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Berlin, Nov. 23.—The Imperial Bank of Germany holds some $3,000,000 deposited by Abdul Hamid before he was deposed from the sultanate of Turkey, and which, according to the Frankfurter Zeitung, the present Ottoman ruler proposes to recover through a legal action.

It is learned here that the Imperial bank is willing to surrender the money if the order for the same bears the signature of the former sultan, authenticated by the special seal adopted by him, when the deposit was made. At that time Abdul Hamid entered into a strict compact with the officers of the bank under which no withdrawal from this account was to be permitted except upon the authority of the special seal. Apparently the Turkish government was not aware of this deposit until recently, when a letter sent by the bank to Abdul and referring to the account fell into the hands of Mahmud Schefket Pasha, inspector general of the First, Second and Third army corps. The inspector general forwarded the letter to Abdul along with the information that its contents had been noted.

Subsequently the royal prisoner signed an order on the bank for the money, but his signature was not accompanied with the seal, which he averred had been lost.

COPPER SECURITIES SUFFER SLUMP

Proposed Merger Delayed by Adverse Court Decision; Amalgamated Drops Five Points on Market.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] New York, Nov. 23.—The proposed $800,000,000 copper combine has been held up, temporarily at least, according to Wall street reports today, until lawyers for the interests concerned can figure out the effect that the Standard Oil decision of last Saturday will have upon the merger.

Prominent corporation lawyers were quoted today as advising that it would be unwise to proceed with merger plans in the face of a decision so drastic and apparently prohibitive as that of last week.

As a result of these reports all prominent stocks took heavy slumps today. Amalgamated fell off seven points, selling down from 92 to 85 1/2, while the copper traded on the curb lost from one to six points.

NOTED GOLF EXPERT RECOGNIZED BY TAFT

James E. Curtis, Once Intercollegiate Champion, Made Assistant Secretary of Treasury.

Washington, Nov. 22.—James Freeman Curtis, of Boston, Mass., now United States district attorney, and once intercollegiate golf champion of the United States, has been chosen assistant secretary of the treasury. Announcement of this effect was made by Secretary MacVane today. Mr. Curtis succeeds James B. Reynolds, who resigned to become a member of the tariff board. He will have special charge of customs matters.

Mr. Curtis is a graduate of Harvard, class of 1889. His appointment is in some respects akin to that of Lee McClung, United States treasurer. Mr. McClung gained fame in college as a halfback on the Yale gridiron. Mr. Curtis won praise as a champion on the intercollegiate golf links. He has practiced law since getting his degree from Harvard. He was assistant attorney general of Massachusetts under Attorney General Mahone, and resigned to become assistant under United States District Attorney Hill.

Mr. Curtis' appointment was decided upon some time ago, but announcement was deferred because of his engagement with what are known as the steel combination cases in Boston, to which Mr. Curtis had devoted the past few weeks. These cases involve charges of combination of

Fountain of Youth.

"I feel like a boy again!" exclaimed Uncle Charlie Perry, of Lockport, N. Y., who is 92 years old, after a three weeks' course of DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY. And he looked it, too. bidders for municipal contracts.

Mr. Curtis is unmarried, and is about 33 years old, which, as Secretary MacVane expressed it, "is a little older than Alexander Hamilton was when he became secretary of the treasury."

He will begin his new duties next week.

STOLE LOCOMOTIVE FOR JOY RIDE

President's Special on Lackawanna Road Has Narrow Escape from Collision With Engine in Charge of Drunk.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 23.—A special train carrying President W. H. Taft and the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western and other officials, had a narrow escape from being wrecked last night by a mine locomotive which had been stolen and run onto the main track.

Thomas Teal of Kingston, accused of having taken the locomotive, was held on several charges.

Teal, according to his story, was drinking last night, and, calling at the Avondale colliery, where the engine was stationed, represented himself as the master mechanic and directed that the engine be prepared for a special run.

About midnight he took the engine out on the main track and had a joy ride. The whistle of the Taft special, however, warned him of danger and by a quick dash he reached a switch just in time to avoid a collision.

CANNON WAS ENEMY OF ZELAYA

American Executed in Nicaragua Got in Bad by Participation in Little War Five Years Ago; Was Wealthy Man.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 23.—That Leroy Cannon gained the lasting enmity of President Zelaya of Nicaragua by his participation in the war between Nicaragua, Honduras and Salvador in 1904, was the substance of a statement made today by J. I. Mather of this city.

Mr. Mather met Cannon in 1904, after he had fled to Mexico, having been exiled by Nicaragua and Honduras and later spent some time with him in Puerto Cortez, Honduras, after Cannon had returned there in an effort to recover his estates which had been confiscated.

"Cannon was one of the best known men in Central America," said Mr. Mather. "He owned large estates in Nicaragua and Honduras, but was exiled from both countries after the war with Salvador in 1904. He was charged with having aided Salvador. He was in command of a large military district in the war and in that was gained the lasting enmity of President Zelaya."

ENDEAVORING TO FIX STATUS OF SLAIN MEN

Washington, Nov. 23.—The delay on the part of the United States in taking action with respect to the killing by order of President Zelaya of two Americans, Grace and O'Connell, if developed today, is occasioned by the inability of the government to fix the exact status in Nicaragua of the slain men.

It was explained that every effort was being made to determine whether these men were, in fact, members of the revolutionary army or whether they were acting on their own responsibility when they were captured. If it can be proven, as seems doubtful, that they were really responsible for placing mines to blow up troops of the Nicaraguan government and were acting in this matter on their own responsibility, their status would be different from what it would be if they were acting as a part of the revolutionary forces. It is at this point that the state department is trying to clear up before it takes any aggressive action against Zelaya.

The American vice consul at Managua has been instructed to obtain all possible information.

Until this is received, it is doubtful if the United States will take any steps looking to the chastisement of Zelaya beyond putting itself in a position to act promptly should occasion require.

It is believed that plans for the concentration of warships and marines on the Nicaraguan coast will continue and possibly this show of force will stimulate energies of the revolutionists and result in large accessions to their army from disaffected portions of the country now held by Zelaya.

CAPITAL AND LABOR RUB ELBOWS AT BANQUET

New York, Nov. 23.—Insurance should be subject to the regulation of congress, rather than caprices of state legislatures, according to Darwin P. Kingsley, president of the New York Life Insurance company. He expressed this view tonight at the tenth annual dinner of the National Civic Federation.

Capital and labor rubbed elbows at the dinner tonight. Seth Low, former mayor of this city, former president of Columbia university and now president of the federation, presided. Near him sat Senator Elihu Root, Isaac N. Seligman, James Spayer, Samuel Gompers, William R. Wiley, Archbishop Ireland, John Mitchell and Mr. Kingsley.

The federation unanimously re-elected all its officers this afternoon. Among them were the following:

President—Seth Low.
Vice presidents—Samuel Gompers and Benjamin I. Wheeler, president of the University of California.
Treasurer—Isaac N. Seligman.
Chairman executive council—Ralph M. Keady.

Samuel Gompers, in an address tonight, referred briefly to the contempt case now hanging over him. He said:

"In the clash of interests in our comparatively new country, there must be some standard bearers who will go ahead and find what are the people's rights under the constitutions. If the courts disagree, these standard bearers have no choice but to state their case spiritedly and to carry it on to the courts of last resort. Those who thus contribute to make the law definite, or who may through their action obtain needed changes in law, perform a great public service. If they suffer it is in a good cause."

Senator Root took issue with Mr. Kingsley in his demand for federal regulation of insurance.

"We must be always watchful," he said, "not to break down the power of local governments just for the sake of an efficiency which comes from centralization. Let us remember that in the local governments lie the heart and center of our liberties which have built us up into a great and strong nation of individuals."

LORDS TO BE SHORN OF POWER

This Is Warning Uttered in Debate on British Budget; Liberals Tire of Aristocratic Opposition.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] London, Nov. 23.—That the liberal government is done forever with the present state of things, and that the constitution and character of the house of lords must be modified, was the warning to the peers by Lord Pentland, secretary for Scotland, in the debate on the budget in the upper chamber tonight.

The debate generally followed party lines. Lord Pentland gave another indication of the government's policy. His warning that the house of commons could not be expected to find a way out of the difficulty should the budget be rejected, created the greatest interest in lobbies of the house of commons, where it had been supposed the government might give way to the lords in the matter of adopting temporary measures to meet the situation arising out of the rejection of the bill.

Many liberal members of parliament had, in fact, expressed their determination to oppose any bill authorizing the continuance of existing taxation until after the dissolution of parliament.

Pentland also reminded the lords that a long constitutional struggle might handicap the country in case of war, and asked the peers to consider whether the penalty might not be disproportionate to the offense.

The debate did not reach any great oratorical heights and was principally remarkable as showing the likelihood of a number of peers in the free trade interest following Lord Cromer and declining to support Lord Lansdowne's motion to reject the budget, although opposing the budget on general lines. These peers will abstain from voting. Among them is Lord Tatton, who announces his intention of taking this course because there was no proof that the country opposed the budget.

NEW GOVERNOR FOR PHILIPPINES TAKES OATH

Cameron Forbes Dedicates His Administration to Improvement of Material Conditions in Islands.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Manila, Nov. 23.—At the marble hall of the Ayuntamiento, once used for conference by the Spanish authorities and now the chamber of the popular assembly, W. Cameron Forbes of Massachusetts this morning took the oath of office as governor general of the Philippines, and delivered his inaugural address.

Governor Forbes is the fifth and youngest governor-general since the United States instituted civil government.

The hall was packed and the surrounding streets were thronged with people. The governor general was enthusiastically received. Escorted by a troop of the Twelfth cavalry, Governor Forbes motored from his residence to the Ayuntamiento.

Sergio Osmeña, speaker of the assembly, introduced the governor general in a laudatory speech, and the veteran chief justice, Señor Arzobispo, administered the oath of office.

Improvement in material conditions of the islands and the people was the keynote of Governor Forbes' address. He dedicated his administration to the advancement of the people and the country and declared that the country's greatest need was capital. He counseled Americans and Filipinos jointly to strive for the advancement of the islands, quoting figures to show that the per capita production in the Philippines was far behind that of Porto Rico and Hawaii.

The governor outlined an extensive line of public improvements, including roads, irrigation, rivers and harbors. He read the original McKinley instructions and declared that they had been fully carried out, the United States retaining a necessary strong central control.

"No capitalist need feel alarmed as to security or his investment, provided it has been made in such a way as to fulfill conditions imposed by law," he said. "The United States stands pledged to the establishment and maintenance of stable government in the Philippine islands, not for the sake of capital which may be invested here, but for the sake of the welfare of the Filipino people and the faith of the United States before the world. The security of foreign capital is merely an incident in the general security of property rights to the Filipino, but both are now permanently assured."

"There is not on the horizon discernible now a cloud which indicates the possibility of any kind of disturbance in the present status of these islands, either from within or without, by war or insurrection."

Following the address Governor Forbes held a reception. The inaugural ball will take place tonight.

VARSITY ELEVEN OFF THANKSGIVING DAY IN A BUNCH FOR TUCSON

EXPECT TO RETURN WITH SILVER TROPHY

U. N. M. Squad Leaves for Old Arizona Pueblo Confident of Victory Providing They Have an Even Break on Luck.

The University of New Mexico football squad, fifteen men strong, accompanied by Manager L. E. Lee, Coach McElroy and Professor Conwell, left at midnight last night for Tucson, where they will meet the University of Arizona in what promises to be one of the hardest fought gridiron battles in the history of the game in the southwest.

Interest in the game at Tucson is at fever heat. Studies at the Arizona institution have been almost abandoned for more than a week past and the drum parades by the students have been nightly occurrences. The moving picture shows in Tucson are running pictures of the Arizona gridiron team after the game by Col. William Jennings Bryan, who will witness the contest, together with his son, William J., Jr., who is a student at the Arizona institution.

Before leaving last night Manager Lee and Coach McElroy expressed much confidence in the outcome of the battle.

"The men are all in good shape physically," said Manager Lee, "and with an even break we will come back to Albuquerque with the big end of the game."

FRENCHMAN AND CUTLER WIN BILLIARD CONTEST

New York, Nov. 23.—Firmly assigned, French billiard champion, and Harry Cline of Philadelphia won the two games played in the 15.2 bulk tournament for the championship of the world. Cline defeated Albert Cutler of Boston 500 to 312, and Cline defeated George E. Slosson, New York veteran, 500 to 392.

In the Cline-Cutler game to-night the Boston player in his ninth inning made the highest run of the tournament thus far, 123 points. Then he failed to get either object ball out of ball space. The Frenchman was deliberate and delicate in his cue work, getting on even terms with his opponent with a run of 91 in the fourth inning.

George E. Slosson, a favorite in the tournament, was defeated by Harry Cline of Philadelphia this afternoon by a score of 500 to 392.

The Philadelphia player gave a splendid exhibition of open table and nursing plays in his twenty-first inning, which netted him forty-five caroms, ten resulting from three cushion shots. With a carefully played run of 120 in his thirty-first inning, which was run of brilliant open table work, Cline overtook Slosson, and, with an unbroken run of thirty-four, ran out the game in the thirty-fifth inning.

Tomorrow Cutler will meet the Frenchman and Cline will meet George E. Slosson, also of Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—William Cline, right halfback of Pasadena, Cal., today elected captain of the 1910 football team of the University of Chicago.

Exposure to Wet

By making a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Painkiller in half a glass of warm water or milk, the whole system will be heated and the danger of cold avoided. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Painkiller. Perry Davis' Price 25c, 50c and 75c.

Varsity Scrubs and High School Boys Promise Exciting Gridiron Battle for Tomorrow

Lovers of football will have the opportunity of their life time to see a real genuine gridiron battle between two junior aggregations at Traction park tomorrow afternoon, when the Varsity second team and the Albuquerque High school team will clash for the glory there is in it, the championship of the city and a division of the gate receipts on a fifty and fifty per cent basis. The game will begin promptly at 3 o'clock and an admission fee of fifty cents will be charged, proceeds to go towards defraying the season's expenses of the two teams.

Both aggregations indulged in tacking and scrimmage work at their various camps last night and both showed good form. The Varsity will go into the game somewhat crippled because of two of their men being out on account of injuries and two or three others going with the first team to Tucson. The U. N. M. lads expect to play the game of their life, however, and are confident that they can hold up their end of the contest. There is quite a little confidence in the High school camp, amounting at times to almost positive conviction, that the A. H. S. will carry the big end of the score off the field.

In any event one team has not got anything much on the other, and the game should be hard fought and interesting from first to last. It is expected that the usual Thanksgiving day crowd of football fans will be present at the game, together with a large number of Varsity and High school rooters. Keen rivalry exists between the two institutions and the air will probably be filled with hideous rib-ris throughout the game.

EDDIE GRANEY AFTER BIG FIGHT FOR FRISCO

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—Eddie Granevy, prize fight referee, left for New York today with a check for $5,000, which he intends to place as a forfeit for a bid he will make for the Jefferson-Johnson bout. Granevy would not say what the amount of his bid would be, but intimated that it would be at least $100,000.

Granevy plans to obtain a permit to hold the fight within the city limits here and claims that, if he is successful, he can afford to bid more than James Coffroth, whose arena is in an adjoining county.

In a vote taken by mail, opposition to the 3 in 2 races was 265 to 58. The proposal made last year for the establishment of a national stake for the trotting championship of the United States was renewed.

United States Senator Bailey of Texas, president of the association, said that the national championship race had the approval of the association, and that the plan would be to make a vote taken by mail, opposition to the 3 in 2 races was 265 to 58. The proposal made last year for the establishment of a national stake for the trotting championship of the United States was renewed.

Results at Latonia.
Cincinnati, Nov. 23.—Prince Gal won the feature event at Latonia this afternoon from a good field, defeating Center Shot in a driving finish. Tom Hayward was third, while the second choice, T. M. Green, was hopelessly last. Three favorites won.

The surprise of the day occurred in the last race, when, of the four horses that faced the barrier, San Francisco, a 15 to 1 rank outsider, beat Lady Vile by a neck.

BANTAMWEIGHT TITLE REMAINS IN ABEYANCE

Monte Attell and Webster Go Ten Rounds to Draw in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Nov. 23.—The ten-round contest tonight at McCarey's pavilion between Monte Attell of San Francisco, and Danny Webster of Los Angeles, still leaves the bantamweight championship in abeyance, the fight having been declared a draw by two of the newspapers, while one gave the decision to Webster.

The contest tonight was much faster than that between the boys six weeks ago, both showing more speed throughout. The early rounds were very even.

The fighters will probably be matched to fight a third battle in the near future at the same weight—115 pounds.

FIRE STATION IS HEADQUARTERS FOR CHARITY

BRING YOUR DONATIONS TO FEED THE NEEDY

Benevolent Society's Wagon Will Call This Morning at School Buildings for Scholars Gifts.

Fire headquarters in the Korber building on North Second street will also be headquarters for charity today. The ladies of the Non-Sectarian Benevolent society will be there all day to receive contributions of food and clothing wherewith to make Thanksgiving day a day of gratitude to those who at present might have much more to be thankful for. All who have gifts to this splendid cause are requested to send them down to the fire station this morning, where they will be taken in charge and prepared for distribution by the ladies. In this connection also the latter are likely to need some expert aid in tying up the packages, for they expect there will be a great many of them. Providing good things for the needy is not the simple proposition it was years ago when the Benevolent society started this beautiful annual practice, and the number of those who need help has increased with the growth of the city until it is surprising.

A wagon will call at the various school buildings this morning to receive the contributions which will be taken to school by the pupils in the afternoon.

Every person in the city who is preparing for the delights of a comfortable, old-fashioned Thanksgiving day at home is urged to remember those less fortunate and help the ladies liberally in their unselfish efforts.

The big charity ball which was to have been given the evening of Thanksgiving will be postponed until December 1, when it will occur in the armory. This is expected to be a brilliant occasion this year, as the preparations are being made on an elaborate scale.

New York, Nov. 23.—Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the republican state committee, speaking today of a movement among certain republican leaders, himself included, to have ex-President Roosevelt nominated for governor of New York upon his return from Africa, said:

"While I have no knowledge and have not even received any intimation as to whether Theodore Roosevelt would run for governor, I will say this: If Roosevelt would consent to run it is my opinion that he would be nominated and elected, and that would be a matter of great advantage to the republican party in the state of New York."

Though I have not taken Doan's Kidney Pills during the interval of time, I have advised other persons to try them and I know from reports that the remedy has effected cures. In a testimonial I gave in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills in January, 1907, I said that the symptoms of these kidneys had caused me to be a long time. Now, after a lapse of years, I am as fit as I ever was and I have no recurrence of my old trouble. I believe that no man should neglect his kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are the best. ## THE DEAD RESTORED TO LIFE

Dr. Louis G. Robinson, a few days ago demonstrated before the directors of the Edison Electric Company, in New York, that an animal "killed" by electricity, and officially and professionally dead, can be restored to life and health in a few minutes by electric treatment. The animals selected for the experiments were a rabbit and a dog, and they were shocked by electricity until they were pronounced dead by competent physicians, who were present for the purpose of witnessing the operation. She also demonstrated on animals the value of mild intermittent electrical current as an anesthetic without the after effects which characterize ether and chloroform. The process of "killing" and reviving is thus declared by the Herald:

The rabbit was killed by passing a current through its body for one minute, the points of contact being the head and a spot over the heart. At the end of that time physicians pronounced the animal dead. Breathing was suspended and the heart action was at a complete standstill. After a brief interval the points of contact were changed to spots on the back of the chest and at the lower end of the spine.

By means of a small mercury interrupter the current of fourteen volts was passed through the rabbit's body for periods of one second at intervals of two seconds. At the end of three minutes a very slight respiratory action was noticeable and the current was decreased and applied with the greatest care. As soon as heart action was detected the current was stopped and the apparatus removed. For two or three minutes the little animal lay breathing softly, its side heaving from the strained action of the heart. It lifted its head and in less than half an hour was frisking around a cage as if nothing had happened, except that its movements seemed to be unusually erratic. No unnatural action of the heart or lungs could be detected by the physicians.

The Edison company is particularly interested in the method because the directors hope to find an effective way of reviving employees shocked to death in the discharge of their duties.

WILL LACK A LEADER

Speaking of Col. Watterston's predicted breach in the republican party, the New York World says: "Talk is very cheap between elections. It is about the only thing left in the country that is cheap, and everybody that does not get his mind promptly, or is overcharged by a railroad, or has trouble in borrowing money at the bank for the next two years will be condemning the Taft administration. This will be the case especially in the Middle West. But when the time comes for decisive action there will be few politicians who care to quarrel with the national administration and nobody of influence to lead the Roosevelt third-term movement, unless Mr. Roosevelt leads it himself."

RICHARD WATSON GILDER

Richard Watson Gilder, editor in chief of the Century magazine since its foundation in 1881, and widely known as an author and poet, died unexpectedly of heart disease, last Wednesday night. Though not a college educated man Mr. Gilder, because of his culture and his distinguished services to American literature in his editorial capacity, has been highly honored by many institutions of learning and by degrees from Dickinson College, Harvard, Princeton, Yale and Wesleyan. In 1874 Mr. Gilder was married to Miss Helena de Kay, daughter of Commodore George de Kay.

OF INTEREST TO ALL

The Philadelphia Public Ledger calls attention to the fact that the active participation of the Pennsylvania railroad in the good-roads educational campaign illustrates the extent to which the interests of all the elements of society, political and economic, are interdependent. Good roads mean to the farmer, and the dweller in the country greater ease of transportation, and greater ease of transportation means greater business for the railroad. The two sorts of highway are not in competition with one another, and anything which contributes to, or facilitates the prosperity of the farmer, for instance, just as directly makes traffic for the steel rails. For the country roads are feeders to the railways far more important than any branch lines or sidings; the latter are measured in feet, almost, while the former total many thousands of miles and cover territory that will never be touched by the railroads, however dense may be the population of the future.

THE GREAT SUGAR FRAUDS

Nothing less is possible now, says the Cleveland Leader, than a thorough probing, public exposure and punishment so far as it can be brought about. None of the presidents of the past twenty years is suspected of having had an inkling of what was going on, but it is believed that men who stood high in both democratic and republican administrations will be held up for public scorn before the investigation has ended. And that congress will order a thorough investigation cannot be doubted. "The public demands the facts and is entitled to them."

FAILED OF RECOGNITION

The brutality of the Nicaraguan government in ordering the execution of the two Americans, who happened to be found in the insurgent army, without trial of any sort, is a disgrace to President Taft so that he refused to receive the new Nicaraguan minister.

The new minister, Isidoro Hernandez, was received at the state department, and the arrangement had been that he should be presented to President Taft the next day. In view of the news from Nicaragua Mr. Taft refused to see the minister, who was informed through Senator Cruz, Charge d'Affaires, that his reception was definitely postponed. While the language addressed to Mr. Cruz was courteous enough, its significance was plain that the present disturbances in Nicaragua made a formal recognition of the tutelage Zelaya regime scarcely worth while.

SOMEWHAT SIGNIFICANT

The Wall Street Financial Review, in an article treating of the work of the present national administration, gives utterance to the following significant paragraph:

"Mr. Taft has been hampered by a conception of duty to the Roosevelt policies. It would have been far better to have instituted an honest Taft policy of good sense and good judgment, which are inherent in the president himself. As it is, he has not pleased the Roosevelt visionaries and he has not come up to the mark of his own abilities. It is time to stop endeavoring to fill the shoes of Mr. Roosevelt, which are far better fitted for tramping through African jungles and to give the American people four years of sane and individual Taft administration."

All the signs of the times indicate that the foregoing sentiment expresses the feelings of a very large portion of the American people. There is a very wide spread opinion to the effect that it would be better to let the Roosevelt administration go into history, and let Mr. Taft give us a safe and sane Taft administration. No one questions the wisdom of many of Mr. Roosevelt's policies, but at the same time it is better for every administration, like every family, to regulate its own affairs in its own way.

NO THANKSGIVING PIE

The New York plemen are on strike and the four millions of the middle-class are in against the gloomy prospect of a pieless Thanksgiving. This cheerless state of affairs is thus commented by the World, which doubts the ability of New York to be properly thankful without pie.

The striking pie-bakers of New York are building a noble pie as fast as they can, and worthy of that high name for a six-foot president. Mr. Taft, to reward at his Thanksgiving dinner.

The striking pie-bakers are planning for May or next June a pie seven feet in diameter. Not to be outdone, the Taft pie may be increased to seven feet, to eight—who knows? This is all very well, good his plan for such a pie, and the generous emotion of attack. But how about the rest of the people? They also want pie. They want it every day. And now it is said that there will be no pie even for Thanksgiving. It is unthinkable. It interrupts ancient amenities. A pie strike must be unconstitutional.

Not only our daily pie became problematical and as fully realize how high is the baker's art, how it links legend, literature, mythology, bacteriology and other seemingly unrelated things in one continuous comment upon human life.

Prometheus is the god of bakes. He brought fire from heaven and for his impiety was chained to a column and nightly tortured by an eagle. But man kept the fire. He might without it have become extinct. Fire is the purifier, heat is the destroyer of germs. The oven is a sanitary safeguard; no wonder that in practically all religions the sacrificial bread figures, from the Hindu caste-cakes to British hot cross buns.

Horace and even rich Maecenas knew little about, but honey in a measure took its place. The bakeries of Pompeii are its most interesting remains.

Germany, land of chemists, puts sugar liberally into the "iron ration" of its troops. We eat a trifle of $28,000,000 worth a year, according to the Mr. Payne for whom the tariff is named. Strauss has written an opera for "The Chocolate Soldier" in whose person G. B. Shaw delighted to show that with baker's bread and the candy man's chocolate an army will go far. Pie is sugar, fruit, flour, "shortening"—all fortifiers of the system. Yankee soldiers fight best on pie.

Man's need of his daily bread and pie calls to the whole world for satisfaction. Above all, let strikers and lockouts cease to invade the baker's shop.

A GREAT FORCE FOR GOOD

In a magazine article printed not long ago, Ex-Governor Pennypacker of Pennsylvania, took occasion to condemn the entire press of the country because of the sins of a few yellow sheets, and to this unjust assault the North American Review defends as follows:

Governor Pennypacker's chief mistake in his article is in drawing sweeping conclusions from isolated examples. A vast majority of American newspapers are independent, and they are growing more independent all the time. Papers operated merely by "organs" are comparatively few in number. Given the thick-and-thin political organ is becoming a thing of the past. The papers which most systematically "assailed" Governor Pennypacker during his administration were those of the independent class, and subsequent events proved that they were generally truthful. It was the publication of facts which drove the governor to obscurity.

One of the greatest forces for good in the United States is the press. We should hesitate to say that even the church is more influential for practical good. And there is no business, no profession, in which the members thereof work more unselfishly and more untiringly for the public welfare than do the men of the newspaper profession. In no other business can men be found with higher ideals, and in no other business is there a higher average of integrity."

VERY LATEST IN GOWNS

Miss Theresa Burnett, the London suffragette who undertook to cowhide Winston Churchill, the president of the board of trade, one day last week, was sent to prison for her performance, and while there is posing in a gown a little more décolleté than anything that has come from Paris. It is called the "garden gown" because it is a reproduction of the style that Eve wore in the garden before she ate the wrong apple. When the young person went to jail, the matron, of course, took charge of her, and the first duty was to array her in the prison garb. She offered no forcible resistance to the removal of her every day garments, but when it came to donning the prison uniform, she put her foot down right there—not a stitch of it would she permit to go upon her body, from inward to outward, and there she sits, like Patience on a monument, clothed from head to foot in virgin modesty—merely that and nothing more. As she sits, she sings, or tries to, and the jailer avers that she has even less voice than clothes. But she attracts more attention than anybody else about the establishment, thus proving that beauty unadorned is adorned the most.

The Pennsylvania "Grangers," at their annual meeting last week, declared in favor of full political rights for women.

Fall Fashions in Suffrage

Jack London not long ago observed that socialism, once looked down upon, was now in danger of becoming respectable. By the same token the cry of "Votes for Women" once regarded as the slogan of the "Shrieking Sisterhood," now bids fair to prove fashionable. Mrs. Clarence Mackay started it on that road and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, mother of the Duchess of Marlborough, is speeding it upon its way.

Mrs. Belmont is a taxpayer of the millionaire class, and feels that she has a right to a voice in the forming of the government that levies the taxes. Born Miss Alva Smith, of Mobile, Mississippi, her first husband was William K. Vanderbilt, and she is now the widow of Mr. Belmont. "The Marble House" at Newport, where, last summer, she held a Suffrage convention, is a "cottage" valued at $3,000,000, and the 785 acres of Brookholt, her estate at Hempstead, New York, are rated as worth $1,000 each. Neither of these properties, you may be sure, escapes the ready eye of the assessor, and besides the taxes thus incurred, as the sole beneficiary under her second husband's will, she had, upon his death in 1908, to pay an inheritance tax of $10,849.55.

Mrs. Belmont began her career as a suffragette in Mrs. Mackay's Equal Franchise League, and is now "politically" prominent as president of the Political Equality association. No sooner did she assume that post than she began to work in earnest. First she held a suffrage convention at her Newport home, then offices in connection with the national and state leagues were opened at 693 Fifth Avenue, New York, and there the president may now be found daily at her desk—a desk adorned with photographs of Mrs. Pankhurst, the British "Suffrage Martyr," and Annie Kenny, the English factory girl.

"Suffrage Joan of Arc." The first step of the Political Equality association was the issuance of a pamphlet requesting money, "anything from ten cents to hundreds of dollars," with this strategic clause to lure recruits incorporated: "The names of members who for reasons of their own may not wish it known that they are actively identified or connected with the movement, 'votes for women,' will not be divulged under any circumstances. The association to this extent is a secret one."

Mrs. Belmont is zealously preparing for the hot fight the suffragettes are to wage in the New York legislature, and from her private purse employs a lobbyist who has toured the state for some months with gratifying results. It is conceded that if New York goes for women's suffrage the other states will be influenced by its example.—Hampton's Magazine for December.

Grand Minstrel Show Parade of Elks to be Held This Noon

TROUPE TO MAKE BOW TO PUBLIC THIS EVENING

FAST AND FURIOUS FUNNY BUSINESS

Mrs. Joe Bren to Be One of Brightest Stars in Stellar Aggregation at Elks' Theater Tonight.

The good people of Albuquerque will have fair warning of the biggest minstrel performance ever pulled off on any stage when the members of Albuquerque lodge No. 463, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, featuring Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bren and the Elks' minstrel show troupe, headed by the Leonard and Lindemann Boys' band will move at noon who cares about the price when the Elks are on the stage?

Mr. Bren at the piano will offer an imitation of Cathedral chiming, imitation of a one-armed Chinaman—no, a one-armed pianist; a story in music of Annie Laurie; a pianologue, "The Night Before"; the Holy City in ragtime; and "The B. P. O. E." Mr. Bren is really an artist of rare gift on the piano and this portion of the program will be a genuine delight.

The big funny stunt is as follows:

THE BLACKVILLE POLICE COURT

A Burlesque by Joe Bren

CAST:

Judge Sankum ..... J. Staab
Lawyer Henry Clay ..... Porter Jones
City Attorney ..... Harry Becker
Reporter ..... Louis Gumbiner
Officer McMillan ..... H. E. Elser

SEATS RESERVED AT MATSON'S THIS MORNING

Seats for the big show tonight can be reserved this morning as early as 7 o'clock at Matson's and there will likely be a line of patrons extending to Old Albuquerque, for it is a very conservative bet that no one is going to miss this. It will be the scream of the season.

Mrs. Joe Bren Starring in the Great Elks' Minstrel Show Tonight.

from the Elks' building and parade all over the business section. This parade, it is promised, will be some spectacular itself, but only a faint foretaste of what is coming off tonight at the theater.

Seriously, Albuquerque people are promised one of the most entertaining evenings in their history at the opera house tonight. Director Joe Bren has worked wonders with his stars and his big chorus and the performance is going to be replete with clever acting, delightfully funny business, splendid singing chorus work and solo, comic songs and specialties, and so many things by far to tell of them all.

The scene of the "First Part" of the production is supposed to take place in Palm Beach, Florida, at the world renowned and beautiful summer villa of Dr. George Seiffert McAndrews. Having ascertained that many of his Albuquerque friends are wintering in Palm Beach the Doc decides to give a stag party and the opening curtain shows the genial host and his retinue preparing for the arrival of the guests. First comes the opening chorus "Evening Time" by the entire company, followed by "When the Bell in the Light House Rings" by that well-known light house keeper T. Y. Maynard. Forest Cartwright will then sing "In My Old Home." Comes then the ensemble "The Merry Minstrel," introducing the following far famed and side splitting comedians:

Ernest Landolfi, Joe Scotti, Harry Becker, Porter Jones, Little Julius Staab, Lou Gumbiner and E. W. Roberts. Further comment here is unnecessary. Then comes the grand grand medley, including "Alabama," "Take Me Down in Dixie," "See-See," "Evening Time," "Leader of the Ball," "Kinky," "Tonight," "Baby Lamb," "Come Before Breakfast," etc., etc., Harry Becker "Handle Me With Care," J. Staab "Every Body Knows It's There."

Intermission—Five Minutes Only.

The guests at Palm Beach are the following well-known gentlemen: J. W. Anderson, C. A. Anspaugh, D. J. Amis, Bud Burke, E. W. Bryant, A. B. Deitz, S. Brown, E. E. Conroy, John W. Colbert, John Lee Clarke, F. H. Cho, F. W. Deacon, J. G. Durham, W. A. Fank, F. M. Kruke, W. E. Zeiler, Parnes Cartwright, Albert Faber, J. G. Gould, Karl J. Holmrich, Frank Hunter, R. E. Kohls, A. Konrad, W. R. Linn, H. S. Lithgow, H. W. Merrill, L. E. Llewellyn, Raymond E. Maynard, Paul Scott, Dan Padilla, Ben Wilson, Arthur Walsh, O. A. Matson, T. Y. Maynard.

One of the very hottest that ever came honking down the Great White Way is "A Bunch of Nonsense Entitled 'The Minstrel Man, the Porter and the Maid'" by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bren, assisted by the World Renowned Comedian Mr. Joseph Harris Scotti and the cast is thusly:

An Actor, broke ..... Joe Bren
A Porter, broke ..... Joe Scotti
A Maid, broke ..... Mrs. Joe Bren
During this act Mrs. Bren will impersonate Irene Franklin, Tride Paganza and Lela Glaser. Her impersonations are said to be a little bit the choicest things out and she alone will be worth the price of admission, but

EXCITED POLICEMAN ALMOST CAUSES PANIC

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Fire in a hotel adjacent to the Grand opera house tonight caused the audience to leave the theater. A panic in the theater was averted when a policeman who ran into the foyer shouting:

"Fire, fire, there's a fire in the building!" House employees prevented him from getting into the auditorium. When the facts were learned an announcement was made from the stage that the hotel adjoining the theater was on fire and that the audience would be temporarily dismissed. The theater was emptied quietly, and when the fire was discovered to be inconsequential the performance was resumed. All except thirty persons returned to their seats.

DIAMOND CONTRACT PROMOTERS CONVICTED

Buffalo, Nov. 23.—Joseph P. Miller and his son, Horace J. Miller, today were today convicted of using the mails to defraud. Sentences will be imposed on Monday. The Millers conducted an investment scheme under the name of the American Diamond company, somewhat similar to the famous Franklin syndicate, investors being promised enormous dividends. Evidence showed they had taken in nearly $750,000 and paid out about one-third that amount in scattered dividends.

OREGON RIVERS ALL OUT OF BANKS

Reports of Heavy Damage From Floods; Bridges Carried Away and Trains Marooned by Washouts.

[By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire]
Portland, Ore., Nov. 23.—Practically every river, stream and creek in Oregon is out of its banks, and from all parts of the state comes reports of damage.

In eastern Oregon the rain was accompanied by a wind of almost hurricane violence. In eastern Washington, conditions are much the same, though the rainfall is not so heavy. The greatest damage apparently has been done along the Willamette river. Springfield is under two feet of water.

Near Brownsville, a Southern Pacific trestle has been carried out. At Albany the docks are under water and the Willamette is steadily rising.

At Oregon City the water has reached grinders in the pulp mills and the mills have shut down. In this city the water has covered the lower wharves, several log rafts having been torn from their moorings causing a loss of many thousands of dollars.

Along both banks of the Columbia river between here and The Dalles, landslides have tied up traffic.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street.

New York, Nov. 23.—The decision against the Standard Oil company in its present form continued the disturbing influence in the stock market today. It was most acutely manifest in the group of copper industrials.

The reason for this was not that those companies are particularly vulnerable to the effect of the decision, but that an animated speculation and sharp advances in prices of those stocks have taken place, based on the assumption of a coming consolidation of the copper producers on much the same lines as are prohibited by the court's decision in the Standard Oil case.

Assurances were given yesterday, with color of authority, that the plans for harmonizing the copper interests would be in no wise affected by the new developments.

Today, however, assertions were current that the abandonment of the whole project was being considered, pending the final clearing up of the questions involved by the appeal of the Standard Oil case to the highest court. Eminent corporation lawyers and influential financial leaders seem united in formulating the view that the consequences of the Standard Oil decision would be so dangerous and so harmful that steps will be taken by the lawmaking body to obviate them, upon its assembling in December. While the authority of this opinion as to the harmfulness to the corporations of the law is recognized in the stock market, there is less readiness to accept it on the probable action of congress.

There is recognized the political difficulty that would arise from that would be, in effect, a bill for the relief of the best part of all the great corporations in the popular estimation. This consideration, however, doubtless of the readiness with which relief will be obtained from the evils complained of by the corporations and the sweeping application of the terms of the law to all trade combinations. The discussion of the subject develops the difficulty of shaping a legal requirement which will, at the same time, permit the advantages of co-operation and economic division and secure the benefits sought from competition.

A rise in New York exchange at Chicago to 25 cents premium showed the relaxation of pressure from the interior upon New York for funds. Foreign exchange rates rose quite strongly. The short interest built up in course of the decline furnished a sufficient requirement to work an effective rally in prices. Southern Pacific showed some positive strength on the ground of the strong annual report.

This Offer Should Be a Warning to Every Man and Woman.

The newspapers and medical journals have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable. His misfortune should serve as a warning to others. Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices. There is one element missing—Pepsin. The absence of this destroys the function of the gastric fluids. They lose their power to digest food.

We are now able to supply the pepsin in a form almost identical to that naturally created by the system when in normal health, so that it restores to the gastric juices their digestive power, and thus makes the stomach strong and well.

We want every one troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia to come to our store and obtain a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. They contain Bismuth-Subnitrate and Pepsin prepared by a process which develops their greatest power to overcome digestive disturbance.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are very pleasant to take. They soothe the irritable, weak stomach, strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, relieve nausea and indigestion, promote nutrition and bring about a feeling of comfort.

If you give Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets a reasonable trial we will return your money if you are not satisfied with the result. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Albuquerque only at our store. The Rexall store. The J. H. O'Reilly Co.

COUNTY BRIDGES TO BE SUBSTANTIAL AND LASTING

ALL STEEL MATERIAL EXCEPT THE FLOORING

Structures to Be Built Across Rio Grande Will Care for Traffic for Many Years to Come.

The Bernalillo county commissioners held a brief session in the court house yesterday, all members of the board being in attendance, at which the final details connected with the letting of the contract to the Missouri Valley Bridge and Iron company of Leavenworth, for the construction of two steel bridges over the Rio Grande, were gone over. W. H. Jenkins, representing the Leavenworth concern, attended the meeting.

A contract covering the work to be done on the two structures was given to Mr. Jenkins to be forwarded to his company for signature. It is expected that the contract will be returned properly signed by next Monday, at which time the commissioners will hold another meeting. The contract calls for beginning of construction work within thirty days after the acceptance of the contract. It is expected that workmen will be on the job at both bridge sites not later than January 1. It is hoped to have both bridges completed before the high water begins to come down in the spring.

The plans and specifications for the structures call for modern, up-to-date bridges, to be built in a permanent and lasting manner, entirely of steel, with the exception of the floors, which will be wooden.

The bridge at Bernalillo, just outside the limits of the city of Albuquerque, will be quite an imposing structure. Seventeen steel spans, measuring one hundred and ten feet each, will be used. The roadway will be eighteen feet and the approaches will be twenty feet on each side. Particular attention will be paid to the foundations, which will be unusually substantial, owing to the freakish nature of the Rio Grande flood. Forty-eight inch steel cylinders, filled with concrete, will rest on piles driven forty feet below the water.

Everything about the bridges will be of steel with the single exception of the flooring, which will be wooden. The bridge this side of Alameda, some seven and a half miles north of Albuquerque, will be constructed on exactly the same plan as the one at Bernalillo, but will be much smaller, being only 700 feet in length, while the Bernalillo bridge will be 1,935 feet long.

The construction work will be under the supervision of County Surveyor A. D. Ogil, assisted by Consulting Engineer C. F. Fairwell. The amount to be expended in building the two structures will be $31,873, that being the bid of the Leavenworth company which was awarded the contract Monday.

BRADY GETS SIXTY DAYS IN JAIL

Man Charged With Acting as Lookout for Pal Who Robbed Grocery Store Sentenced for Vagrancy.

James Brady, arrested by Officer Quier Monday night, suspected of being an accomplice of a thief who was surprised while rifling Abbott's grocery store, Central and Broadway, was arraigned before Judge Craig in police court yesterday morning and sentenced to serve sixty days in the county jail for vagrancy. Evidence was lacking to connect Brady with the man who robbed the Abbott store, although he was strongly suspected of acting as a "look-out," while a pal was pulling off the job. No trace was found yesterday of the man who broke into the store. Brady refused to come through with anything that would throw any light on the identity of the thief.

ASSAULT CASE ON IN DISTRICT COURT

Pedro Zamora on Trial Charged With Making Attack on Sario Armijo With a Knife.

The case of the territory versus Pedro Zamora, indicted by the grand jury on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon on the person of Sario Armijo on September 5 last, was taken up before Judge Ira A. Abbott in the district court yesterday. According to witnesses, Zamora and Armijo engaged in a scrap at Robinson park on Sunday, September 5, which resulted in Zamora stabbing Armijo and Armijo administering a severe beating with a quilt to Zamora. Both belligerents were pretty badly injured. Both men were indicted by the grand jury and both pleaded not guilty yesterday. Zamora's case was taken up first, with Armijo as the chief witness for the prosecution. Armijo will probably be tried at the conclusion of the Zamora case, which will go to the jury some time today. District Attorney Klock is prosecuting the case for the territory. Attorney Modesto Ortiz is representing Zamora.

The case of the Territory versus Leopoldo Torres, charged with murder, will be taken up at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning. Torres killed a colored man in the city jail last April, both men being prisoners in the same room. It is believed that insanity will be the defense made for Torres. Twenty-three commitments were issued by the court yesterday, committing as many prisoners to the territorial penitentiary at Santa Fe and the reform school at Springer. The prisoners will be removed to these institutions within the next ten days.

SMITH BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY

Postoffice Clerk Charged With Tampering With United States Mails Is Given Preliminary Hearing.

Arthur Smith, colored, arrested Friday morning last, charged with tampering with the United States mails, was given a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner H. H. Whiting in the court house yesterday afternoon. The evidence against the prisoner was strong enough to warrant the commissioner binding him over to await the action of the federal grand jury in the sum of $500, in default of which sum Smith was remanded to the county jail.

Smith was for seven or eight months distributing clerk in the local postoffice. It is said that he opened various letters which passed through his hands and extracted money therefrom, the sum realized by this operation amounting, it is claimed to at least a couple of hundred dollars.
